Super Saturday delivers in spades as stars sparkle

Enthaar made favourite for Golden Slipper, first season sires to the fore, Melody Belle strikes 11 and Mirage Dancer first for Frankel

BY ANDREW HAWKINS | @ANZ_NEWS

It has long been billed Super Saturday for a reason and the stories that flowed out of yesterday's racing on both sides of the Tasman demonstrated it was well and truly deserving of that moniker.

The unveiling of a Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) favourite, a breakout day for a host of first season sires, an 11th Group 1 win for a champion mare, the revival of an old rivalry at the highest level, a first Australian Group 1 winner for the legendary Frankel (Galileo), the emergence of any number of contenders for the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m), Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) and The Everest (1200m): any one of these stories would often stand out as a clear headline of its own nearly every day throughout the year.

Such is the nature of a 'Super Saturday' - the sport at its finest was on display yesterday.

Woodside Park's Tycoon shines as Slipper favourite emerges

No Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) winner has ever gone on to take out the Golden Slipper, but Enthaar (2 f Written Tycoon - Final Agreement by Not A Single Doubt) appears to have all the tools to be able to write history in March after her effortless debut win yesterday.

On a day when his most prolific son Capitalist had his first starters, Woodside Park Stud's Written Tycoon (Iglesia) took the spotlight with Enthaar producing one of the most electric juvenile wins seen in Sydney in recent memory.

Sent out a heavy favourite after a promising trial on the Kensington track late last month, the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Enthaar was trapped wide and on the speed in what was a fast-tempo affair, particularly for two-year-olds having their first start.

What could have been trouble for most youngsters was hardly a concern for Emirates Park homebred Enthaar. She raced up under little urging from James McDonald and, when the rider asked for an effort, she extended away in the twinkling of an eye, quickly putting up three lengths on her rivals.

Mallory (Not A Single Doubt) and Total Babe (I Am Invincible) chased resolutely but they were in a separate race as Enthaar stopped the clock at 57.06 seconds - only 2018 winner Catch Me (I Am Invincible) has managed to go faster, breaking the 57-second barrier by the narrowest of margins.

“There are so many words that we could use to describe that filly's win today, but you find words like special and incredible and phenomenal and sometimes you feel that even they aren't even satisfactory to describe her performance,” Woodside Park Stud chief James Price told ANZ Bloodstock News.

“Watching the replay, James McDonald gives her one slap down the back and she puts two lengths on them within literally two strides, it was pretty special to watch. It was the second fastest Gimcrack of all time and she was only nudged along, not pushed out, so there are very special things to come from her.”

Enthaar was installed the $8 favourite for the Golden Slipper by TAB, a quite remarkable price given that most of her rivals for the 1200-metre scamper are unlikely to have been seen publicly.

It is the same price that Capitalist was installed at after his runaway Breeders' Plate (Listed, 1000m) triumph in 2015, with the colt going on to win the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) before taking the Golden Slipper. However, after a shock defeat in the Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), Capitalist ended up starting $8 on the day anyway.

Nevertheless, it is going to take a special performance to overhaul Enthaar from the top of the two-year-old rankings, with the filly and her sire earning plaudits from far and wide. And her spring may not be over yet, with the $1 million Golden Gift (1100m) at Rosehill on November 7 potentially on her radar.

For Price, seeing a daughter of Written Tycoon perform to that level has reaffirmed his confidence that the stallion's prime is ahead of him, particularly with his current two-year-old crop representing his first book of mares at a higher fee of $88,000 (inc GST), up from $13,750 (inc GST) just three seasons before.

"With Written Tycoon, we've been saying for a long time that the best is yet to come with this horse," he said. "Today really is the first official day of the new season with the Breeders' Plate, the Gimcrack, the Maribyrnong Trial, and this crop is off the $80,000 service fee, so that is the quality of mares that we've seen come to him in the last couple of years."

"On the first day of the new season, he most certainly has delivered with the new favourite for the Golden Slipper. Coming hot after Ole Kirk and Pippie last weekend, it's been a very special ten days and long may it continue."

The other notable aspect of yesterday's two-year-old features at Randwick was the performance of Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) as a broodmare sire, with both Enthaar and Breeders' Plate winner Shaquero (Shalaa) out of Not A Single Doubt mares.

First season sires shine

While a proven commodity in Written Tycoon produced the performer of the day, at least as far as the juveniles go, three first season sires registered their first Australian winner yesterday, including one with his first ever runner.

Arrowfield's French-based shuttler Shalaa (Invincible Spirit), who has already produced 13 winners in Europe, registered a first global stakes winner with his first Australian runner when Shaquero took out the Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m).

The Chris Waller-trained Shaquero (2 c Shalaa - Fimatino by Not A Single Doubt) was the only Breeders' Plate runner to enter off an interstate trial, having had his public hit-out at the Gold Coast on September 21. He won the 900-metre colts' trial by a length in a slightly slower time than the fillies recorded minutes later.

However, he was the subject of late betting support, firming into $5.50 third favourite behind Peter and Paul Snowden-prepared pair Kalashnikov (Capitalist) and Construct (I Am Invincible).

Jumping out towards the lead, he was well-rated by James McDonald before stretching out to win by a length and a quarter. Construct finished second, with another Snowden runner, Astrologer (Star Turn), filling third.

"He's just got class written all over him," Waller said. "If you asked me which Group 1 race he's going to win I'd say it would be a Doncaster rather than a Golden Slipper but who knows, he might win that on the way through."

Bred by Bob Hannon and sold by Fernrigg Farm at this year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Shaquero was purchased by Guy Mulcaster Bloodstock for $160,000.

He is the fourth foal and the second winner for Fimatino (Not A Single Doubt), herself a half-sister to top Singapore sprinter-miler Ghozi (Catbird) and Sunset Express (Success Express), the dam of Cox Plate winner and Group 1-producing stallion Shamus Award (Snitzel).

The James Cummings-trained Ingratiating produced a tough effort to run down the already-raced General Beau (Brazen Beau), winner of the Darley Spring Preview (900m) last week, with the green-as-grass Cloudy (Frosted) in third, four and a half lengths behind the runner-up.

RACING PHOTOS

A Darley homebred, Ingratiating is the fourth foal out of the Lonhro (Octagonal) mare Obsequious, who won the Light Fingers Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and the San Domenico Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) in the 2010-11 season.

Damien Oliver, who partnered Ingratiating to victory, was full of praise for the colt and for his sire, too.

"I've only ridden two of these Frosted's - a filly that ran third here at the last meeting and this bloke, and geez, they're really forward and precocious types and I think this bloke has got a good future in front of him," he said.

"He's a little ripper. He pleased me in his trials. He didn't quite get it all together but I knew he had something there. He jumped well today which he hadn't done in his trials and he was a very professional horse.

"It's always good when they clear out from the rest and you think they're two nice colts and this horse has got a good future."

Frosted stands at Darley's Northwood Park in Victoria for $22,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

The third of the first season sires to emerge yesterday was Newgate's Flying Artie (Artie Schiller), who registered his first winner with his first ever runner when Princess Bojack (2 f Flying Artie - Catseye Surprise by Testa Rossa) took out the Two-Year-Old Plate (1000m) at Eagle Farm.

Princess Bojack defeated another first season sire representative in Stellar Magic (Star Turn) by three-quarters of a length, with Headlander (Better Than Ready) two and a half lengths away in third.

Queens Belle and 'beel salute for Richards

Kiwi trainer Jamie Richards continued his meteoric rise through the training ranks by preparing Group 1 winners on both sides of the Tasman yesterday in Melody Belle and Probabeel.

Melody Belle (6 m Commands - Meleka Belle by Iffraaj) returned to form in conjunction with a return to New Zealand, leading home a Richards one-two in the Windsor Park Plate (Gr 1, 1600m) at Hastings.

Entering off two below-par runs in Sydney to begin her preparation, Melody Belle was a late entry for the Windsor Park Plate, a race she won last year. With a number of her Fortuna Syndications owners trackside, led by manager John Galvin, the champion mare showed all of her tenacity and her brilliance that had taken her to ten Group 1 wins before yesterday.

Stablemate and favourite Advantage (Fastnet Rock) loomed large on the outside, while Tazino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m) victor Callsign Mav (Atlante) fought hard to the inside. The trio went toe to toe to the line down the Hastings straight, with Melody Belle sticking her head out in the middle to take the middle leg of the Hawke's Bay Triple Crown.

"She's a wonderful mare and it's a credit to everyone who has looked after her all the way through, right from the time that Dave (Ellis) bought her and the team that has looked after her here and in Sydney," Richards said.

"I honestly don't believe that she was going that bad in Sydney but she was running into proper horses without a lot of luck. Now she's back in New Zealand and she's loving it."

Galvin added: "It was just a fantastic race to watch and I'm pretty sure, from what I've seen from the replay, that Advantage did head us for a stride or two. But Melody Belle, being the fighter that she is, she just fought back and got the bob in."

With her 11th Group 1 win yesterday - ten in New Zealand and one in Australia - Melody Belle matched one of the greats of the New Zealand turf in Rough Habit (Roughcast), with Galvin hoping that she might be able to equal New Zealand's most prolific top-level winner, 13-time Group 1 heroine Sunline (Desert Sun).

"We're closing in, we are second equal with Rough Habit and starting to close in on Sunline," he said. "It's a fantastic record and we are just so proud of her."

Melody Belle is likely to face Avantage again in the final leg of the Hawke's Bay Triple Crown, the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m) on October 17, a race she also won last year.

Another 2040-metre race, the Cox Plate, may be on the radar for Probabeel (4 m Savabeel - Far Fetched by Pins) after she scored a second career Group 1 win in the time-honoured Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick yesterday.

Sent out as the $6.50 third favourite, Probabeel was sent forward from gate 15 by Kerrin McEvoy and ended up trapped deep with only partial cover ahead of midfield.

Under her light weight of 52.5 kilograms, McEvoy was cool and calm on the turn, sending Probabeel towards the leaders topping the rise.

In a revival of her primary rivalry from her three-year-old days, Funstar (Adelaide) joined in with Probabeel at the 250 metres. However, Probabeel always looked to be travelling better than Funstar and so it proved as she raced a length clear of her old sparring partner; another former Kiwi Riodini (Proisir) finished a further head away in third.

It was the fifth time in just over a year that the pair had filled the quinella in stakes races, with Funstar leading home Probabeel in the Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m), the Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and the Phar Lap Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) and Probabeel having the upper hand in the Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and the Epsom.

Owned by Cambridge Stud principals Brendan and Jo Lindsay, Probabeel took her record to eight wins from 18 starts and earnings of AUD$2,366,506.

"She's a champion, this horse," Brendan Lindsay said. "When you look at the statistics and you see that only three mares in the last 40 years have won and you see her drawn in the car park and you think it's all against her and then she does that. She's a true champion."

Lindsay favours a tilt at the Cox Plate instead of staying in Sydney for the $7.5 million Golden Eagle (1500m) and will discuss her options with Richards, who was forced to watch the race on his phone as he trekked home from Hastings.

"We'll give her a couple of days to see how she comes through, we don't have to make any decisions today," Richards said. "There are a couple of options, either the Cox Plate or the Golden Eagle, and we'll get a bit of feedback from Kerrin as to what he thinks is her best distance. We'll make an informed decision next week when we have all the information."

Richards took his Group 1 haul to 33 at the age of 31, with Brendan Lindsay offering up plenty of plaudits for the young master.

"Hasn't he had a good day?" Lindsay mused. "I don't know how this guy does it. He has his team in Australia, he's training this horse (Probabeel) on Zoom, he's a pretty bloody good trainer, that's for sure."

Probabeel

Richards, though, deflected the praise to his team, particularly with Covid-19 preventing the trainer from being able to cross the Tasman.

"The team has done such a wonderful job to present this mare so well," he said. "It's a true credit to them, they are the true champions that have done such a wonderful job. It's such a thrill for all of us, she's a real New Zealand product - bred by Waikato Stud, bought by David Ellis, owned by Cambridge Stud - so it's really been a wonderful day."

Waller dominates Turnbull

Verry Elleegant (red and blue cap)

RACING POTOS

For a Sydney-based trainer - even with a satellite operation in Melbourne - Chris Waller has done an extraordinary job of making the Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) his own in recent years, a trait he continued when he prepared the trifecta in the Flemington feature yesterday.

Superstar mare Verry Elleegant (5 m Zed - Opulence by Danroad) took out her fifth Group 1, and her first in Melbourne, as $5 favourite in yesterday's Turnbull Stakes. She prevailed in a blanket finish over stablemates Toffee Tongue (Tavistock), a 70-1 outsider, and Finche (Frankel) to give Waller his fifth Turnbull, all coming since 2015.

Verry Elleegant joined Preferment (Zabeel), Winx (Street Cry) twice and Kings Will Dream (Casamento) as a Waller-trained Turnbull winner, adding the feature to her wins in the Vinery Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), ATC Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m), Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) and Winx Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m).

"It was a very good result for the stable," Waller said from Randwick.

"Verry Ellegant is as tough as they come. Things didn't go her way in the run yet she fought it out to the last metre. Toffee Tongue was brilliant. That was her first run in that sort of company and she was as brave as anything.

"Finche was great as he had to do a lot of work in the run."

The Waller trio will progress to the Caulfield Cup, with Verry Elleegant guaranteed a berth, Finche likely to gain a run after withdrawals and Toffee Tongue needing some luck to make the final field of 18.

However, Toffee Tongue will meet Verry Elleegant two kilograms better at the weights should she make the field, while she will meet Finche two and a half kilograms better.

Dalasan (Dalakhani) was game in fourth, finishing only a neck behind the winner, and remains in the entries for both the Caulfield Cup and the Cox Plate, while Master Of Wine (Maxios) and Warning (Declaration Of War) also produced good Cups trials.

Libertini races into Everest contention

While Waller dominated in Melbourne, he saw his favourite for the $15 million The Everest (1200m), Nature Strip (Nicconi), lose his billing as the race's headline act after a shock defeat in the Premiere Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) yesterday.

However, it was not all doom and gloom for the trainer, with the stable holding one of two remaining slots for The Everest and appearing a possibility to pick up impressive Premiere Stakes winner Libertini (4 m I Am Invincible - Aloha by Encosta De Lago) for its spot.

Libertini, returning for the first time since a disappointing effort in the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) in March, sat midfield as Nature Strip mustered to lead after an even jump.

Eventually getting to his favoured front-running role, a couple of strong sectionals mid-race from Nature Strip proved telling at the finish as last season's Australian Horse of the Year-in-waiting weakened to cross the line fourth, four lengths from the winner.

Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt), already guaranteed an Everest spot, finished second, two lengths behind Libertini, with Deprive (Denman) just edging out Nature Strip for third.

The Libertini that turned up at Randwick yesterday was the horse that most had long expected her to be, ever since she swept the first two legs of the Princess Series last year and then finished third in the Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) and the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). Intriguingly, the two fillies that beat her home in the Tea Rose Stakes finished first and second in the Epsom Handicap 40 minutes after her Premiere romp.

Trainer Anthony Cummings was waiting for the phone to ring yesterday, hoping that either Waller or James Harron - in possession of a vacant slot apiece - or perhaps even another slot-holder, considering their options at this late stage, would want to snap up the Gerry Harvey-owned Libertini.

"She was pretty exciting today and with a little bit of luck the phone might ring some time soon," Cummings said. "Gerry will be impressed enough and the filly has done all the impressing for us.

"She is now a more mature article all together. Last preparation wasn't that flash, and a few issues came out of that, but we gave her the time, and time nearly beat us again. Really pleased to see her back to that good form, that right form that shows us the horse that she is. Now we are looking forward to two weeks certainly but maybe the next two years."

Slot-holders must declare their runner for the October 17 feature by 10am next Tuesday, October 13. For now, the speculation continues.

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

First for Frosted

Frosted

DARLEY

American shuttler Frosted (Tapit) recorded his first stakes winner, his first individual Australian winner and his seventh winner overall as Ingratiating (2 c ex Obsequious by Lonhro) took out the Maribyrnong Trial Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington. Frosted stands for $22,000 (inc GST) at Darley's Northwood Park in 2020.

First for Shalaa

Shaquero (2 c ex Fimatino by Not A Single Doubt) became the first stakes winner, the first individual Australian winner and the 14th winner globally for Arrowfield shuttler Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) yesterday when the Chris Waller trainee captured the Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) at Randwick. Shalaa is standing his fourth season at Arrowfield Stud for $33,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

First for Flying Artie

Princess Bojack (2 f ex Catseye Surprise by Testa Rossa) took the first two-year-old race of the season in Queensland yesterday, becoming the first winner for Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Flying Artie (Artie Schiller) with his first runner. Sent out the $4.20 second favourite, the Michael Nolan-trained Princess Bojack led all the way under Michael Cahill to score by three-quarters of a length over the closing Stellar Magic (Star Turn) with two and a half lengths to Headlander (Better Than Ready) in third. Purchased for $50,000 from the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale this year out of the Murrulla Stud draft, Princess Bojack is the first foal to race from the Testa Rossa (Perugino) mare Catseye Surprise, a five-time winner. Flying Artie stands for $16,500 (inc GST) at Newgate Farm in 2020.

First for Kermadec

Montefilia (3 f ex Bana Wu by Shirocco) took a giant leap forward when striking at the highest level in the Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick yesterday, becoming the first stakes winner for Kermadec (Teofilo). The David Payne-trained Montefilia, who finished fourth in the Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) last month, had only won twice in five starts before this success and was seen as something of a wet-tracker but swooped round the outside to pip odds-on favourite Hungry Heart (Frankel) by a head at the line under Hugh Bowman, with Vangelic (Vancouver) a further two lengths behind in third. Bought by Payne Racing for $130,000 at the 2019 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling sale, Montefilia took her earnings to $425,925 after yesterday's victory. Dual Group 1 winner Kermadec stands at Darley Kelvinside for $13,750 (inc GST).

Montefilia set to tackle Spring Champion

Next weekend's Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) is set to feature yesterday's Flight Stakes winner Montefilia on the quick back-up after she produced a tremendous last-to-first burst to take the final leg of the Princess Series. David Payne had originally been aiming Montefilia at the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m), but had cooled on that idea as the logistics of travelling horses interstate due to Covid-19 became more difficult. While some of those restrictions have been lifted, Payne is still favouring taking on the boys next weekend. "Depending on how she pulls up we will back her up next week. Then she will go to the paddock," Payne said. "She's a laid-back filly, she eats well, so she won't have to do too much this week. We'll just see how she is in the next few days. The Oaks is still on the cards if she doesn't do well in the week." Montefilia was installed as the $4.50 second favourite by TAB, with Gloaming Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) victor Love Tap (Tapit) holding down favouritism.

11 for Frankel

The legendary Frankel (Galileo) recorded his 11th Group 1 winner and his first in Australia when Mirage Dancer (7 h ex Heat Haze by Green Desert) took out The Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m) at Randwick yesterday. The Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained Mirage Dancer was given a top ride by Nash Rawiller, settling midfield after a slightly slow beginning before making ground towards the inside. Bursting through between runners, he chased down favourite Mugatoo (Henrythenavigator) to win by a head with a further head back to Angel Of Truth (Animal Kingdom) in third. It capped a significant day for Frankel down under, with Hungry Heart second in the Flight Stakes and Finche third in the Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m). Frankel stands at Banstead Manor Stud in Newmarket, having stood for £175,000 (approx. AUD$316,000) in 2020.

Mirage Dancer set for repeat bout in Cups

English import Mirage Dancer, who finished third in last year's Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) before holding his ground when 14th in the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), is set to contest both races again this year after scoring a breakthrough Group 1 win in The Metropolitan yesterday. Co-trainer Natalie Young said the decision was made to chase The Metropolitan rather than the Turnbull Stakes with the aim of trying to get another top-level feature on his resume ahead of a future career at stud. "Nash (Rawiller) just gave him a peach of a ride and he had a nice draw for a change. It's amazing," Young said from Flemington. "We thought the Turnbull would have been a bit stronger and we just thought that we wanted to chase that Group 1. He's a Frankel stallion and he's now a Group 1 winner in Australia. We were just mindful of that, trying to get a Group 1 on the way through to the Caulfield Cup." Railings (Zabeel) and Tawqeet (Kingmambo) completed The Metropolitan-Caulfield Cup double in 2005 and 2006 respectively, but no Metropolitan winner has gone on to take the Melbourne Cup in the same year since Macdougall (Marco Polo II) in 1959.

37 for Written Tycoon

Woodside Park Stud's Written Tycoon (Iglesia) brought up stakes winner number 37 yesterday when Enthaar (2 f ex Final Agreement by Not A Single Doubt) recorded a remarkable victory in the Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Randwick. Written Tycoon is standing his first season at Arrowfield Stud for $77,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

48 for Darci Brahma

Sierra Sue (4 m ex Centree by Centaine) provided Darci Brahma (Danehill) with his 48th individual stakes winner when taking out the Rose Of Kingston Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Flemington yesterday. The Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained four-year-old was sent off a $17 chance but beat two fellow outsiders into second and third, with She Shao Fly (Epaulette) ($31) finishing ahead of Missile Mantra (Smart Missile) ($41). The two well-fancied runners, Madam Rouge (Zoustar) and Perfect Jewel (Redoute's Choice), were only good enough for fourth and sixth respectively. Darci Brahma, the sire of multiple Group 1 winners, stands at The Oaks Stud for $15,000 (plus GST).

24 for Pierro

Persan (4 h ex Ofcourseican by Mossman) brought up the 24th individual stakes winner for Pierro (Lonhro) when landing The Bart Cummings (Gr 3, 2510m) at Flemington yesterday. The Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained four-year-old, who had won on three of his four previous visits to Flemington, defeated Sound (Lando) by a length under Jye McNeil, with Steel Prince (Nathaniel) back in third. Persan is the first stakes winner for Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) winner Ofcourseican (Mossman), who has had four foals to race. Pierro, a champion first, second and third season sire in Australia, stands at Coolmore for $137,500 (inc GST).

Persan races into Melbourne Cup

With that victory, Persan has secured himself a place in this year's Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), although he will need a new rider as Jye McNeil is already committed to Twilight Payment (Teofilo) for the race on November 3. Starting at $10 yesterday, Persan found the line strongly and earned himself quotes of $21 with Sportsbet for the Melbourne Cup, down from $101 prior to yesterday. "He's been fantastic to me and the owners. Dave and Ciaron, they've done a terrific job keeping him up and going for so long. I guess everyone overlooked him today and I was a little bit concerned about the dry track, but he went fantastic," McNeil told Racing.com. "He's just been a horse that has improved all the time. With those types of horses it's hard to know where the limit is. He keeps raising the bar and he's earned himself a nice little spot in this year's Cup. I'm aboard Twilight Payment (in the Melbourne Cup) and that'd be right, the year that I can get a ride in the Melbourne Cup, I've got two."

Seven for Turffontein

Khoekhoe (3 c ex Walvis Bay by Cape Cross) took out the Super Impose Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Flemington yesterday, becoming Turffontein's (Johannesburg) seventh individual stakes winner. The Matt Cumani-trained colt built on a sixth-placed finish in last month's Exford Plate (Listed, 1400m) to defeat Young Werther (Tavistock) by a head, with Albarado (Savabeel) a further length behind in third. Turffontein, who won the William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) during his race career, stands at Blue Gum Farm for a $6,600 (inc GST) fee.

Cox Plate next for Kolding

Kolding

SPORTPIX

Kolding (5 g Ocean Park - Magic Star by Danzero) will head straight to the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) on October 24 following his impressive victory in the Hill Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Randwick yesterday. Chris Waller scratched the last-start George Main Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner from the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) specifically to trial him for a start in the weight-for-age championship. Kolding's only other run over the Cox Plate distance was an unplaced effort in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) in the autumn, which Waller said was inconclusive. "In the Queen Elizabeth he was at the end of his prep and it was a wet track so now was the time to try him after he had just won a Group 1 race," Waller said. "He will go to the Cox Plate. He deserves to. He doesn't like Caulfield but let's hope he likes Moonee Valley. Moonee Valley has a great camber and I've never taken a horse there that hasn't handled it."

Morgan's day to remember

Few owners can claim to have had a day at the races like Neville Morgan yesterday. Morgan's white and blue colours were carried successfully by Shaquero in the Breeders' Plate and Kolding in the Hill Stakes, while Kemalpaspa (Magnus) also came close to giving the owner a dual-state hat-trick when third in the Gilgai Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). However, it was a first Group 1 winner for his former banner horse Kermadec in Flight Stakes heroine Montefilia that was the icing on the cake, ensuring the first Saturday of October is one that will not easily be forgotten by Morgan.

Cantala a possibility for Zoutori

RACING PHOTOS

Gilgai Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Zoutori (5 g Zoustar - Atotori by Haradasun) could be aimed at the Cantala Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) later this month, with co-trainer Mat Ellerton suggesting they would bypass a slot in The Everest (1200m) if one became available despite conquering two star sprinters, Tofane (Ocean Park) and Santa Ana Lane (Lope De Vega), who are heading to the race. Ellerton said Zoutori did not handle the right-handed way of going earlier in his career when he raced in Brisbane, so he was not keen to try him again in that direction. "I think we're being realistic and we'll plot a course at home," Ellerton said. Zoutori, who defeated Dollar For Dollar (High Chaparral) by a short head, was ridden by Jamie Kah who was impressed by his fight. "There were some nice horses around and they made it difficult for him. He was very strong and determined late," Kah said.

Thermosphere takes Edward Manifold

The Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) remains a possibility for Thermosphere (3 f Exosphere - Glows by Canny Lad) should she come through her win in yesterday's Edward Manifold Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) in fine fettle. The James Cummings-prepared Thermosphere rallied boldly at her first attempt at the mile and at her first run in Melbourne, defeating Starelle (More Than Ready) by a head with a nose back to Chica Fuerte (Hinchinbrook) in third. "She came into the race well conditioned from her races in Sydney and the riders up there told up that she'd be good at a mile and James was confident she would get it," Godolphin's Melbourne representative Sean Keogh said. "It did look a bit tricky at the 600 metres when she did get flushed out. I think Damian just wanted to keep her on the bridle. She managed to get in the race nicely and let down when he got stuck into her late, she found. Coming into today, well conditioned and winning a race like this is outstanding. We'll see how she pulls up and James will see she goes from there. She's a classy filly and hopefully she goes a long way."

September Run prevails in October

The Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) is a potential target for September Run (3 f Exceed And Excel - Pittsburgh Flyer by Street Cry) after she again showed a liking for the straight track at Flemington with a dominant win in the Poseidon Stakes (Listed, 1100m) yesterday. Not missed by the market this time and sent out the $2.50 favourite, the dominance of her win is arguably greater than the length and a quarter margin suggests, given how soft Craig Williams was on Chris Waller's filly at the end. Maha (Pride Of Dubai) finished second, with a nose to Minhaaj (Exceed And Excel) in third. When asked about the Coolmore, Waller's Melbourne representative Jo Taylor said: "It has certainly been done before. The girls haven't been disgraced in a race like that. Again, we'll take it one race at a time and see if she keeps stepping up to the mark. We never know how far she could go."

Riddle Me That takes Paris Lane

Bendigo Guineas (Listed, 1400m) winner Riddle Me That (4 g Deep Field - Justine Coup by Entrepreneur) added a second stakes win yesterday by taking out the Paris Lane Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Flemington. Entering off a disappointing last-start effort at Caulfield, the Matt Laurie-trained Riddle Me That was sent out as a $15 chance. However, he came with a strong run under Daniel Stackhouse to defeat Iconoclasm (Toorak Toff) by a long head with a head to Best Of Days (Azamour) in third, leaving Laurie with a pleasant dilemma. "We were thinking (of heading to) a Benchmark 78 in the bush, one of those qualifiers for the big handicaps, but now that he's won today that's off the cards. I'll have to take a look," Laurie said. "It's a big thrill, for sure, but we were very happy with the horse going into his last run and he just went terrible. He pulled up poorly and we couldn't find anything wrong with him so we pressed on and rode him a little bit quieter today. It was great to see him finish off so strong."

Missile explodes in Kalgoorlie Cup

Missile Launch (7 g Smart Missile - Takeiteasyedye by Opening Verse) added his second Listed win in a year when taking yesterday's Kalgoorlie Cup (Listed, 2200m). The Perth Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) runner-up, sent out at $12, swept home over the top of favourite Divine Shadow (Blackfriars) to win by a half-length, with Boulder Cup (Listed, 2105m) victor Friar Fox (Blackfriars) three-quarters of a length away in third. Behind the placegetters, Group 1 winner Ihtsahymn (Ihtiram) brought his illustrious career to a close, finishing fourth to retire with 12 wins and 14 placings from 64 starts having earned $1,611,445. Also further back was Come Play With Me (Blackfriars) who was last across the line, 12 months on from his biggest career success in The Metropolitan at Randwick.

Melham to miss Caulfield Guineas

Racing Victoria stewards have suspended Ben Melham for eight meetings on a careless riding charge after he was deemed to cause interference on Chica Fuerte in the Edward Manifold Stakes at Flemington yesterday. The punishment means Melham will miss next Saturday's Caulfield Guineas meeting and the jockey's day was made worse when stewards fined him $1100 for excessive whip use on third-placed Finche in the Turnbull Stakes.

Treatment inquiry for Munce

Queensland Racing stewards ordered the scratching of the well-fancied Lady Brahmos (Smart Missile) at Eagle Farm on Saturday as they opened an inquiry into trainer Chris Munce. Lady Brahmos was withdrawn from the Gallopers Sports Club Handicap (1200m) following a without-notice stable inspection at Munce's Eagle Farm base on Friday. The inspectors allegedly discovered that Lady Brahmos had been recently administered an injection, which is against the rules a day out from a race. A swab has been taken from the mare for analysis and Munce's sole runner at the Gold Coast on Saturday, Lucky Time (Bradbury's Luck), has also been tested as a precaution.

NEW ZEALAND

Second for Sacred Falls

Aegon (3 g ex Toss Up by Zabeel) provided the late Sacred Falls (O'Reilly) with his second individual stakes winner when taking out the Hawke's Bay Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m) at Hastings yesterday on his second start. Aegon, ridden by Leith Innes, defeated Bourbonaire (Darci Brahma) by a nose in a blanket finish, with $37 chance Moana (Ocean Park) grabbing third. The well-fancied Need I Say More (No Nay Never), who was sent off at $1.50, finished just half a length behind the winner in fourth. Four-time Group 1 winner Sacred Falls stood at Waikato Stud but tragically died last year aged ten.

Aegon follows sire's lead in Guineas

Aegon produced a stunning performance yesterday to take out the Hawke's Bay Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m), invoking memories of his late sire Sacred Falls (O'Reilly), who also won this race. In particular, Aegon's victory brought back special memories for rider Leith Innes, who won the race on Sacred Falls back in 2012 before going on to capture the New Zealand 2000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) on his sixth start. "He's not very big and halfway down the straight I was thinking I wish I had had a better draw to work with but he's wound up late," Innes said. "Good horses normally win this race so good luck to Andrew and the team." Co-trainer and part owner Andrew Forsman was a little stunned after witnessing the performance. "I just didn't think he would be able to do that here with the way the track has been playing," he said. "To make up the ground in the last 200 metres, by a horse that is still maturing, speaks volumes for the ability he has. He's got a ton of ability and to see him do that is a bit of a buzz. I think he's pretty smart." Forsman was unsure of the next moves for the horse but indicated he was on target to compete in the New Zealand 2000 Guineas at Riccarton on November 7. "We'll give him a few easy days now and then maybe go to the Sarten Memorial and then on to the Guineas," he said.

34 for Makfi

Matchmaker (3 f ex Love Somebody by Fastnet Rock) took out the Canterbury Belle (Listed, 1200m) at Riccarton Park with ease yesterday, becoming Makfi's (Dubawi) 34th individual stakes winner. The three-year-old filly defeated Laced With Gold (Showcasing) by one and a quarter lengths, with Stella Creek (Per Incanto) a further length behind in third. The well-fancied $1.90 favourite Cornflower Blue (Savabeel) was only good enough for fourth, finishing over three lengths behind the winner. Makfi, who once stood at Westbury Stud, now stands in Japan.

Guineas, then Waller, for Matchmaker

The Nick Wigley and Kayla Milnes-trained Matchmaker will target next month's New Zealand 1000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Riccarton, before being transferred to Chris Waller in Sydney. Matchmaker downed several of her likely 1000 Guineas rivals with an eye-catching performance yesterday, with Wigley delighted by her performance after being unsure about the ground pre-race. "She won her first race on a slow track so I was a wee bit concerned about how firm it was today," Wigley said. "She looked a little scratchy early on but once she got into her rhythm she seemed to be just fine. She settled beautifully and when Tina angled her into the clear she burst to them pretty quickly. It has been a dream of both Gus and I to win this race and now we've done it the feeling is just indescribable. We're going to give her one more run which could be either at Ashburton over 1400m or one here and then she will go to the Guineas after that."

Contributer colt takes first South Island juvenile race

The Kent Rae-trained Follow Your Dreams (Contributer) comfortably landed the Nobby Bussell Memorial (800m) on his first race day appearance under Lee Callaway yesterday. The two-year-old proved too speedy for odds-on favourite Avonallo (Belardo) who finished two lengths back in second, with another Belardo colt Roussanne finishing third. Rae, who prepares his team with daughter Krystal Williams-Tehoro, had been nervous before the race however his charge lived up to his opinion of him. "I had hoped I was right as he has a lot of ability and a great temperament," said Rae.

Contributer

MAPPERLEY STUD

"I had gone to the sales to buy a horse for Lisa [wife] and I to race. We ended up getting a few friends in with us and I kept thirty percent. He's very good and right from the moment we broke him in we knew he had ability. I was that taken with him after we had bought him, I paid up for the Karaka Million just a few weeks later." Rae will continue a southern campaign with the horse and has the Welcome Stakes (Listed, 1000m) on November 14 as his main target.

ASIA

Cafe Pharoah adds Sirius Stakes

It may not have been the Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f), but Cafe Pharoah (3 c American Pharoah - Mary's Follies by More Than Ready) returned to form yesterday to take out the Sirius Stakes (Gr 3, 1900m) on the Chukyo dirt. The Noriyuki Hori-trained Cafe Pharoah won the Hyacinth Stakes (Listed, 1600m) and the Unicorn Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m), both at the JRA's Tokyo track, to top Japan's Road to the Kentucky Derby, earning an automatic berth in the starting gate at Churchill Downs. However, at his last run before his scheduled trip, he finished midfield in the Japan Dirt Derby (Listed, 2000m) at the NAR track of Oi (or Tokyo City Keiba). Returning for the first time since that seventh-placed effort behind Danon Pharaoh, odds-on favourite Cafe Pharoah produced a workmanlike effort under Christophe Lemaire to defeat Sakura Allure (Gold Allure) by three-quarters of a length with a further half-length back to Acorn (Furioso) in third. The Champions Cup (Gr 1, 1800m) is likely to be Cafe Pharoah's main target this campaign.

INTERNATIONAL

First for Laoban

American first season sire Laoban (Uncle Mo) joined Nyquist (Uncle Mo) and Not This Time (Giant's Causeway) as a freshman stallion to produce a Grade 1 winner this season when Simply Ravishing (2 f ex Four Wishes by More Than Ready) led home a quinella for trainer Kenny McPeck in the Alcibiades Stakes (Gr 1, 8.5f) at Keeneland on Friday. Leading all the way under Luis Saez, Simply Ravishing scored by six and a quarter lengths over her stablemate Crazy Beautiful (Liam's Map) with Travel Column (Frosted) a further length and a quarter away in third. Simply Ravishing joined Restless Rider (Distorted Humor), Dream Empress (Bernstein), Take Charge Lady (Dehere) and She's A Devil Due (Devil His Due) as a McPeck-trained winner of the Alcibiades; all four of his other winners went on to the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies (Gr 1, 8.5f), with three of them finishing in the placings. That is a likely target for Simply Ravishing, with the race to be held at the same track and trip as the Alcibiades this year. Laoban stood for USD$5,000 (approx. AUD$7,000) at Sequel Stallions in New York in 2020.

Five for Le Havre

Le Havre (Noverre) brought up his fifth Group 1 winner last night when Wonderful Tonight (3 f ex Salvation by Montjeu) provided some consolation to trainer David Menuisier after a tough week, taking out the Prix de Royallieu (Gr 1, 2800m) at Longchamp. Menuisier's stable star Thundering Blue (Exchange Rate) died after breaking down at Goodwood last week, but his eyes are only on the future after Wonderful Tonight gave him a second Group 1 victory. Menuisier had been considering supplementing Wonderful Tonight for the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m), but instead decided to test her stamina. On the testing surface, Wonderful Tonight defeated Pista (American Pharoah) by a length and a quarter with five lengths back to Ebaiyra (Distorted Humor) in third. Le Havre stood for €50,000 (approx. AUD$81,750) at Montfort et Preaux in Normandy in 2020.

Five for Adlerflug

German stallion Adlerflug (In The Wings) registered Group 1 winner number five last night when Torquator Tasso (3 c ex Tijuana by Toysome) took out the Grosser Preis von Berlin (Gr 1, 2000m) at Hoppegarten. Having placed in the Deutsches Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) and the Grosser Preis von Baden (Gr 1, 2400m) on his last two starts, finishing behind Arc contender In Swoop (Adlerflug) and the well-travelled Barney Roy (Excelebration), the Marcel Weiss-trained Torquator Tasso looked well-suited on paper. However, he had to fend off a determined surge from Dicaprio (Adlerflug) to win by a short head, with a length and a quarter to Kaspar (Pivotal) in third. Adlerflug stands at the historic Gestut Schlenderhan in western Germany, having stood for a fee of €10,000 (approx. AUD$16,350) in 2020.

Six for Pride Of Dubai

Coolmore's Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) registered his sixth stakes winner, his fourth in Europe, on Friday night when Zaffy's Pride (2 f ex Zaafran by Singspiel) took out the Star Appeal Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Dundalk. Sent out at 7-1 having won a maiden on Dundalk's synthetic surface last month, the Jessica Harrington-prepared Zaffy's Pride hit the lead at the furlong under Tom Madden and found the line powerfully to score by a length and a quarter over favourite Magnanimous (Mehmas); Admiral Nelson (Kingman) was a further half-length away in third. Purchased for just €13,000 (approx. AUD$21,250) at last year's Goffs Autumn Yearling and Mixed Sale, Zaffy's Pride has already earned €48,220 (approx. AUD$78,850). The filly brought up a stakes double for Pride Of Dubai, mere hours after Telepathic Glances (2 f ex Caveran by Hurricane Run) won the Premio Coolmore (Listed, 1500m) in Milan, a win that was reported in ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday. Pride Of Dubai stands at Coolmore Australia for $38,500 (inc GST) in 2020.

45 for Showcasing

Sweet Gardenia (2 f ex Penny Royale by Monsieur Bond) upset odds-on favourite Ontario (Galileo) in the Churchill Stakes (Listed, 7.5f) at Tipperary yesterday to provide Showcasing with his 45th individual stakes winner. The mount of Robbie Colgan was sent off as a 25-1 shot and kept on well to defeat the 5-6 favourite Ontario by a length, with the Joseph O'Brien-trained Vafortino (New Bay) close behind in third. Showcasing stood at Whitsbury Manor Stud for £55,000 in 2020.

SAF: Vancouver's Mount Pleasant remains unbeaten

The three-year-old crop in South Africa looks stronger by the day after the juvenile form held up against the older horses at Turffontein yesterday in the Joburg Spring Challenge (Gr 2, 1400m) and the Joburg Spring F&M Challenge (Gr 2, 1400m). Australian-bred Mount Pleasant (3 g Vancouver - Life In A Metro), purchased for AUD$90,000 at last year's Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, remained undefeated in scoring a second Group 2 win yesterday in the Joburg Spring Challenge, defeating top older sprinters Cirillo (Pomodoro) and Chimichuri Run (Trippi). The Mike De Kock-trained Mount Pleasant won the South African Nursery (Gr 2, 1160m) at two and is touted as a potential top miler of the future. His sire Vancouver (Medaglia d'Oro) stands at Coolmore Australia for $30,250 (inc GST) in 2020. The fillies' equivalent was also taken out by a three-year-old with Group 1 winner Anything Goes (3 f Var - Dance Domain by Parade Leader) also remaining undefeated.

US: Diamond Oops has Breeders' Cup options

After his win in Friday's Phoenix Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) on the Keeneland dirt, Diamond Oops (5 g Lookin At Lucky - Patriotic Viva by Whywhywhy) left his connections with the best kind of tough decision to make ahead of next month's Breeders' Cup meeting at the same track. Diamond Oops entered Friday's race off a win in the Twin Spires Turf Sprint (Gr 2, 5.5f) at Churchill Downs last month, switching surfaces to notch his first Grade 2 on the dirt for trainer Patrick Biancone. With a victory at that level on each surface this season, Diamond Oops could compete in either the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (Gr 1, 5.5f) or the Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1, 6f) on dirt next month. "Knowing Patrick, he'll probably wake up a week out and make a decision based on whatever he's feeling," said Andie Biancone, the trainer's daughter and assistant. "Maybe he'll flip a coin. We'll see." Ridden by Florent Geroux, Diamond Oops defeated Empire Of Gold (Goldencents) by three-quarters of a length with two lengths to Echo Town (Speightstown) in third.

FR: Sea The Stars filly lands Prix Chaudenay

Valia (Sea The Stars) landed the Prix Chaudenay (Gr 2, 3000m) at Longchamp to kick off a stellar weekend of stakes action in France. The three-year-old filly won comfortably under Christophe Soumillon, defeating the Andre Fabre-trained Nemean Lion (Golden Horn) by two lengths, with Step By Step (Sidestep) a close third. Rain has fallen in Paris throughout the week, causing the ground to be heavy all over, and Soumillon remarked after riding in the opening race that he had never encountered ground so testing at the course.

FR: Skalleti wins Prix Dollar

Skalleti (Kendargent) justified favouritism in the Prix Dollar (Gr 2, 1950m) at Longchamp by defeating the Joseph O'Brien-trained Patrick Sarsfield (Australia). 6-5 favourite Skalleti, who won seven races on the bounce last season, defeated the Frankie Dettori-ridden Patrick Sarsfield by one and a quarter lengths, with Dariyama (City Zip) a further two and a half lengths back in third.

IRE: Current Option battles to Concorde Stakes victory

Ado McGuinness

PATRICK MCCANN

The Ado McGuinness-trained Current Option (Camelot) pipped Laughifuwant (Roderic O'Connor) by a short head in an entertaining Concorde Stakes (Gr 3, 7.5f) at Tipperary, after a two-way battle commenced between the pair. Laughifuwant lead throughout the majority of the trip and looked likely to hold on to victory but was just collared by Gavin Ryan's mount Current Option, who was sent off at 7-2. Soul Search (Zoffany) finished third with Could Be King (Bated Breath) back in fourth.

UK: Nazeef lands second Group 1

Nazeef (Invincible Spirit) won her second Group 1 in the Sun Chariot Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Newmarket yesterday, adding to her Falmouth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) victory in July. The John Gosden-trained filly broke away steadily closest to the stand-side rail and kept her line down the Rowley Mile straight under Jim Crowley. She battled hard inside the final furlong to see off Half Light (Sharmadal) by one and a half lengths in testing conditions, with 28-1 shot Cloak Of Spirits (Invincible Spirit) throwing down an impressive challenge, just losing out on second by a neck. Bookmakers subsequently trimmed Nazeef from 16-1 into 10-1 for the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) on October 17.

UK: Ostilio on his way back

Ostilio (New Approach) continued his resurgence to form with a comfortable victory in the Guisborough Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Redcar yesterday. The Siimon and Ed Crisford-trained five-year-old won the Prix Daniel Wildenstein (Gr 2, 1600m) two years ago but has disappointed since. A conditions stakes (7f) victory at Haydock got him back on track last time and confirmed that form by finishing two and a half lengths ahead of Qaysar (Choiris), with Brunch (Harbour Watch) back in third.

GER: Tabera defeats English raider

Tabera (Gleneagles) followed up her Listed success at Hannover last month with a Group victory in yesterday's Preis der Deutschen Einheit (Gr 3, 2000m) for Miltcho Mintchev. The three-year-old beat the colts and older horses to take her tally to four wins, three stakes, from seven starts, while she was also Group-placed as a juvenile. Tabera beat the British raider Sky Defender (Farhh), who was second for Mark Johnston, by one and a quarter lengths, while 4-5 favourite Wonderful Moon (Sea The Moon) returned third, two lengths behind the winner.

FR: Back-to-back Daniel Wildenstein's for the Revenant

The Revenant (Dubawi) proved a worthy favourite of the Daniel Wildenstein (Gr 2, 1600m) in Longchamp, with the 4-7 shot comfortably winning under Pierre-Charles Boudot to win the race for the second year running. The Francis-Henri Graffard-trained five-year-old was last seen finishing second in the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes 12 months ago and has been made a 6-1 chance by bookmakers for this year's edition. The Revenant pulled away from runner-up Ziegfeld (New Approach) impressively in the final stages to win by one and a quarter lengths, with Motamorris (Le Havre) another one and a quarter lengths behind in third.

Three for Belarado

Belarado

DARLEY

Lullaby Moon (2 f ex Bold Bidder by Indesatchel) recorded a third individual stakes success for Belarado (Lope De Vega) when winning the Two Year Old Trophy (Listed, 6f) at Redcar yesterday. The Ralph Beckett-trained Lullaby Moon, who was bought for just 16,000gns at last year's Tattersalls October Yearling Sales, defeated the Simon and Ed Crisford-trained Zamaani (Night Of Thunder) by half a length, with Mamba Wamba (Mehmas) a further two and three quarter lengths back in third. Belarado stood for €10,000 at Kildangan Stud, Ireland in 2020.

IRE: Fairytale continues for Princess Zoe

Irish raider Princess Zoe (Jukebox Jury) needed almost every yard to rein in Alkuin (Maxios) in the Prix Du Cadran (Gr 1, 4000m) at Longchamp, which finished in dramatic fashion. Alkuin led for all but the final 25 yards of the Group 1 but 18-year-old Joey Sheridan produced Princess Zoe at the perfect time to pip Alkuin in the final strides and earn her first elite-level success by half a length, with 13-10 favourite Call The Wind (Frankel) 15 lengths back in third. Princess Zoe has been cut from 8-1 to 5-1 with bookmakers for the 2021 Mares' Novice Hurdle (Gr 2, 2m1f) at the Cheltenham Festival, despite not tackling an obstacle in public so far in her career.

PRIX DE L'ARC DE TRIOMPHE PREVIEW

NO SHOWDOWN BUT AN ARC TO SAVOUR AS ENABLE SEEKS HISTORIC THIRD WIN IN GRUELLING CONDITIONS AT LONGCHAMP

BY CHRIS HUMPLEBY

The setting would not have been more fitting. Paris, the home of the world's most fabled all-aged contest – today's Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) – and the beating heart of European romance, as the perfect backdrop to the clash between Love (Galileo) and the universally loved. The former, Aidan O'Brien's dual Classic winner and this season's outstanding three-year-old filly. The latter, Enable (Nathaniel), already a two-time Arc heroine among a top-tier tally that numbers 11 and perhaps, despite a host of legitimate contenders, John Gosden's magnum opus.

And yet it was not to be. Love, favourite for the Arc for much of the summer, was scratched from the race on Thursday afternoon on account of heavy ground. Quite legitimately, of course – O'Brien has always insisted a sound surface suits her best and she boasts a viable alternative in next month's Breeders' Cup Turf (Gr 1, 12f).

Some lustre has certainly been lost, while the absence of fellow top-notch performers Ghaiyyath (Dubawi), Mishriff (Make Believe) and Magical (Galileo) is a blow to the overall spectacle, but the test for the chosen 15 remains formidable. Longchamp has been besieged by Storm Adam this week and today's ground will be particularly trying. Even more so than 12 months ago, when a clawing surface thwarted Enable's bid to become the first triple winner of the race, a punishing move at the top of the straight leaving her susceptible to the sustained late thrust of Waldgeist (Galileo).

Kept in training at six, an age whereby many of her ilk would have already foaled down

Enable beating Sea Of Class in 2018

twice, Enable has been tasked with one of the great sporting opportunities by her remarkable owner, Prince Khalid Abdullah, and his breed-shaping operation of over 30 years, Juddmonte Farms. She is favourite to complete the feat following a three-race campaign built around a third success in the King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m4f) at Ascot in July. But can she be beaten?

In relentless conditions? Of course. But on the balance of evidence? No. Sottsass (Siyoumi) and Japan (Galileo) finished third and fourth respectively in 2019 when receiving weight as three-year-olds. They are now a year older and race without an allowance, but the figures suggest they are no better, for all the former returns to a mile and a half for the first time since and has been primed solely with this target in mind.

The latter, whom the Coolmore triumvirate own in partnership with emerging powerhouse Masaaki Matsushima, will be ridden by Japanese folk hero Yutaka Take. Given the long and frustrating association between the Japanese and the Arc, including Orfevre's (Stay Gold) agonising defeat by Solemia (Poliglote) in similarly gruelling conditions in 2008, a win for the aptly named Japan would certainly be celebrated as vigorously as victory for Enable.

The Mitsuru Hashida-trained Deirdre (Harbinger) will also carry the expectations of the Far East, although this former Nassau Stakes (Gr 1, 1m2f) winner will have to sprout wings if she is to trouble the principles.

Japan joins Sovereign (Galileo), Mogul (Galileo) and Serpentine (Galileo) as O'Brien's remaining challengers and the quartet are intriguing, if not formidable, contenders. Sovereign was five and a half lengths adrift of Enable in the King George, while Mogul – with his limitations seemingly exposed in various guises throughout the summer – was comfortably ahead of Derby (Gr 1, 1m4f) winner Serpentine in last month's Grand Prix de Paris (Gr 1, 2400m).

However, the latter was having his first outing since June and ought to improve considerably on the bare form. The merits of his Epsom success continue to be eroded by the subsequent exploits of the beaten horses, but time and sectional analysis of his five and a half-length victory suggest those in behind should not be used as a stick with which to beat the winner. That said, he must improve again to trouble Enable and underfoot conditions are a significant unknown.

More pertinently, the participation of O'Brien's quartet was placed in jeopardy on Friday evening after O'Brien's feed supplier – Gain – issued a warning surrounding the potential contamination of their products with Zilpaterol, which is unlicensed in Europe but is used in America and elsewhere to promote weight gain, mainly in cattle. At the time of going to press, the outcome of this potential bombshell is unknown, and the complexion of the race remains in flux.

Flux is a reasonable reflection of the COVID-induced landscape we now occupy and there is a certain thankfulness to have any form of Arc to savour this year. On that note, British-based jockeys are able to cross the Channel to Paris this weekend without completing a mandatory quarantine period on their return, provided they adhere to a strict set of guidelines outlined earlier in the week. However, these changes did not emerge in sufficient time to allow Andrea Atzeni to partner Stradivarius (Sea The Stars), Enable's diminutive but gutsy stable companion who will lose his regular jockey, Frankie Dettori, to the great mare.

Stradivarius

Atzeni rode Stradivarius to Goodwood Cup (Gr 1, 2m) success as a three-year-old, but today's steering duties fall to Olivier Peslier, a four-time Arc winner and a doyen of the Longchamp weighing room.

Stradivarius' feats are to be applauded, winning the first and only two renewals of the Stayers' Million in 2018 and 2019 amid an unbeaten sequence of ten in stamina-sapping contests. In turn, he posted a Racing Post Rating of 125 when capturing the Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2m4f) for the third time at Royal Ascot in June – the highest figure achieved by any of today's line-up in the current campaign. But for all a steady early tempo proved his undoing in the Prix Foy (Gr 2, 2400m) at this course last month, and he will continue to reach for the line when others have cried enough, he ought to find one or two with too much speed at this trip.

German Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner In Swoop (Alderflug), runner-up to Mogul on his last outing, has been the subject of sustained market support this week in light of the deteriorating weather conditions, but he must progress significantly again to play a leading role. So, too, must Prix Vermeille (Gr 1, 2400m) runner-up Raabihah (Sea The Stars), the sole three-year-old filly in the line-up and the representative of a generation, led by the magnificent Treve (Motivator), who have farmed this race with their allowances in recent times.

And not to discount André Fabre, the mastermind behind Waldgeist and the most successful trainer in the history of the race, who will attempt to collect the prize for the ninth time when he saddles Persian King (Kingman). A fine last-start winner of the Prix du Moulin (Gr 1, 1600m), but comfortably held by Sottsass in last year's Prix du Jockey Club (Gr 1, 2000m), Persian King is a highly doubtful stayer at this trip. But doubting Fabre can prove a perilous exercise.

Doubt, uncertainty, unknown – the buzzwords of our times. The grandstands at Longchamp will unfortunately be empty today, the ground will be more rain-softened than desirable, the field might yet be significantly depleted and Enable will have to go where no thoroughbred has been before if she is to etch her name into the history books. But there will be no doubting the magnitude of her achievement if she passes the post in front.

Ascend proves to be the Ablest

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

Often referred to as the unkindest cut, a gelding operation turned out to be the key to Ablest Ascend (Charm Spirit) showcasing his true ability on Saturday.

Underwhelming at his first two runs as a colt at Kranji, when his cantankerous ways proved costly at the start, the son of Charm Spirit (Invincible Spirit) put in a much more professional turn in the HK$75,000 Restricted Maiden (1200m) this time around.

Jumping on terms, Ablest Ascend ($19) was sent straight to the head of affairs by jockey Louis-Philippe Beuzelin, who then threw out the anchors to give his mount a nice breather midrace.

River Brilliance (Real Saga), who had been on Ablest Ascend's hammer from the start, issued a strong challenge in the straight, but Beuzelin still had a lapful after the soft lead they enjoyed.

Responding to the Frenchman's strong urgings, Ablest Ascend found a second wind to go and finish in advance of the fast-finishing Lim's Dreamwalker (Dream Ahead) by half-a-length. Though green as grass, Steven Burridge's Lim's Dreamwalker flashed home down the middle of the track to just pip River Brilliance for second place by a nose.

The winning time was 1min 10.83secs for the 1200m on the Long Course on turf.

"He took a lot of improvement from the gelding operation," said Clements.

"The trainer (Trevor Sutherland) rated him highly in Australia. He raced twice there and didn't show as much.

"He didn't run very well at his two starts here either. We decided to geld him and he has really furnished out since.

"He ran two lovely trials where he showed a lot of speed, and he showed that again today in his race.

"Louis rated him very well. Turning for home, the horse had a lot of petrol in the tank after they had a soft lead, he was sitting up at the top of the straight."

Clements was not too disappointed with his second runner, the better-fancied Tigarous (Dragon Pulse) who momentarily looked like he would finish the best when he came with a storming run from midfield, but the Irish-bred peaked on his run to run fifth, three and a half lengths off his stablemate.

Suffering from dehydration after the race, Tigarous' rider Vlad Duric was subsequently stood down from the remainder of the meeting. Following that withdrawal, the current leading jockey will be sweating on his 11-win lead on Ruan Maia not getting whittled down during the course of the day.

"It was too short for Tigarous. He's looking for further," said Clements.

"He did it the hard way out wide. He ran on but he was one-paced in the end."

The Clements-Beuzelin pair went on to saddle a race-to-race double when Iron Ruler (Dissident) took out the HK$50,000 Class 4 Division 1 race over the Polytrack mile with consummate ease.

With that 41st winner, Clements pulls on the yellow jersey as he wrests the lead from three-time Singapore champion trainer Mark Walker (40 winners).

Absolute thriller from Absolvido

Steven Burridge was not exactly looking forward to the long road home, until his last runner Absolvido (Rip Van Winkle) came to his rescue in the penultimate race on Saturday.

The Australian trainer had no joy with his previous seven runners, with Lim's Dreamwalker's second in the second race his best result.

But Absolvido ($65), a horse he probably did not consider as his best chance of the day, but who he always knew was not without ability and just needed luck in the running, turned his drab day on its head thanks to a withering finishing burst in the HK$50,000 Class 4 race over 1200m.

At the 300m mark, favourite Water Rocket (Orpen) was getting plenty of cheers from his backers when he shook off his biggest threat Boomba (Showcasing) while Miracle (Stratum) seemed one-paced.

Absolvido was also in hot pursuit after he snuck up right behind the fighting trio but his acceleration did not have that lethal element to it.

On the other hand, War Frontier (Declaration Of War) and Rambo (Heliostatic) were finishing like mail trains, but just when we thought one of them would steal the race, Absolvido suddenly sprouted wings inside the last 50m on the nearside of War Frontier to stick his neck in front right on the line.

Despite his late flourish, Rambo got there a fraction too late, having to settle for second place with Water Rocket hanging on for third place another short head away.

As for War Frontier, he had every chance but could not quite finish it off to run fourth another half-a-length away. Absolvido clocked 1min 10.02secs for the 1200m on the Long Course on turf.

"I had a bad day all day, one horse (Lim's Dreamwalker) ran second and some were caught four wide," said Burridge.

"I'll be honest. This horse (Absolvido) always runs good but he always gets back to last and makes things tougher for himself, he needs a good pace.

"Today, I told Simon to ride the fence and ride him for luck. That's how he runs and even won last time (February 9) with JP (John Powell).

"Unfortunately you can't ride him different. When the run is right, he will be around the mark.

"He's an honest horse, but he has not been an easy horse to ride or train. This is a horse Wade (son) bought and it's good to see him win again."

Racing under Burridge's name, the seven-year-old has rounded up a record of five wins and nine placings from 30 starts for close to HK$185,000 in prizemoney.

Hugo a winning chance ride for Kellady

Trainer Stephen Gray was in high spirits after stable pet Hugo (Smart Missile) rang up a double for the yard on Saturday.

Earlier on, newcomer Sure Will Do (Per Incanto) struck at his first start for one of Gray's favourite owners, Mr Chen Chin Sang and wife Elaine. Two and a half hours later, it's the family's favourite who scores in the HK$70,000 Class 3 speed scamper over 1000m.

Gray was in impish mood as he headed home early (no runners in the last two of the 11-race card) with a second win in the bag.

Hugo

"Missus won't be grumpy at home. I'll pour myself a nice gin, have a lovely home-cooked dinner, and I might even get the bonus!" he said.

"Hugo stuck on well at his last run in Class 2, he had a light weight on his back then. He won a nice race today, he has been a great moneyspinner to us.

"We trained his grandmother (Go Getter) and his mother (Princess Katie) and Hugo was the first foal. He has always put his hand up when things were not so good for us, he's been a great contributor - helps pay the school fees for sure."

Another person who may well down a few celebratory drinks following the unfancied HK$74 shot's pulsating win is Matthew Kellady, the lucky replacement jockey after champion jockey Vlad Duric was stood down after one race for dehydration.

The Malaysian turned in an inspired ride that is likely to get the stamp of approval from Duric as well.

After allowing the five-year-old to tack onto the blistering speed set by the Cliff Brown duo of Ararat Lady (Battle Paint) and Lonhro Gold (Denman) around five lengths off in fifth place, Kellady stoked him up for his run upon straightening.

Ararat Lady looked home and hosed at the 200m, but under Kellady's persuader, Hugo wore down the game mare with every stride to get up by half-a-length.

The third Brown galloper Bluestone (Hallowed Crown) steamed home from the ruck to run third another length away. The winning time was 58.39 seconds for the Polytrack 1000m.

"I had no rider for him at first and thought of putting my apprentice Winston (Cheah Wei Wen) on," said Gray.

"Vlad then rang up for the ride, but he got sick. I put Matt on because he has been helping me out for a long time.

"He rode Hugo beautifully."

With that fifth win in 19 starts, Hugo has now taken his total prizemoney past the quarter of a million mark for the Grays.

Gray tags Sure Will Do as 'next good horse'

Trainer Stephen Gray was effusive of impressive debut winner Sure Will Do (Per Incanto) even if the NZ$210,000 purchase put a relatively modest field to the sword in the HK$20,000 Open Maiden race over 1200m on Saturday.

Gray bought the four-year-old as a yearling in New Zealand, keen as mustard to get him for his wonderful owners, the Chens, who happened to have also spotted him from the catalogue.

The scintillating work on the training tracks, including three barrier trial wins leading all of the way, left Gray with absolutely no regret parting with the hefty amount of money at the sale, but unfortunately, a few setbacks held his Kranji debut up.

Sure Will Do was finally primed for his baptism of fire on Saturday, duly obliging with a dominant win under champion apprentice jockey Simon Kok Wei Hoong, but if Gray were to have any gripe, it was the paltry stakes his new prized charge had to run for.

"He was supposed to have his first race in a Restricted Maiden race over 1200m worth HK$75,000 one month ago, but he had a viral infection, he was quite crook and unfortunately, we couldn't run him," said the Kiwi handler.

"There was this Open Maiden race today, but the prizemoney of HK$20,000 is not substantial for such a high-priced horse, but the Chens were good about it and said let's get racing."

Going straight as a die to the front, the Chens' (staunch supporters of the Gray yard with other horses like Wecando, Darc Bounty among others) new pride and joy travelled well within himself on the fence.

He had some horses hanging around in the first two-thirds of the race, but once the handbrakes were off, he kissed them goodbye in the style of an even-money favourite.

Skipping clear effortlessly, Sure Will Do went on to gap his rivals, relegating Miei (Deep Field) by two and three quarter lengths with the latter's stablemate Almugir (Union Rags) in third place, another three-quarter length away. The winning time was 1min 10.89secs for the 1200m on the Long Course on turf.

Sure Will Do

"I bought him as a yearling. Mr and Mrs Chen picked him, and I also liked him so much I kept bidding," said Gray.

"He is out of a mare (Eloa) who was the dam of a good horse for Paul Hickman some time back, Kallisan. He won three races, but unfortunately, he had wind issues and we sold him.

"Eloa comes from a good foundation family at the Little Avondale Stud. We gave Sure Will Do time, and Ilone Kelly in New Zealand also did a great job with his pre-training.

"He came to us as a big horse and was always meant to be a nice three-year-old, but then COVID-19 struck and delayed his debut.

"I actually think COVID-19 has been good to him, as he gave him more time to strengthen up. He could be my next good horse."

Gray's second runner Ksatria (Reliable Man) can also be credited of a good run after he ran on for fourth place four lengths off Sure Will Do.

ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Inglis
Est 1867

Analysis: The David Payne-trained filly Montefilia, a good fourth in the Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at this track a fortnight ago, appreciated the step up to 1600m to record her first stakes victory in six starts. She settled in last place in the seven-runner field, tracking a quick pace (first 1000m 57.77) before improving (deep) on turning for home. She then responded to riding and kept running on resolutely to claim victory nearing the post. The favourite Hungry Heart had a good trip in fifth place, one off the

ANOTHER NZ BRED WINNER

Analysis: Verry Elleegant was tough in scoring her fifth Group 1 despite being wide from the 1000m. She dropped back to fourth last (one out) past the 1600m then started her run from the 1000m but had to race three wide. Pushed even wider from the 600m she gained quickly on the leaders and at the top of the straight was now six wide. Within a length at the 300m she formed a line of six abreast at the 200m, went stride for stride to the 100m then thrust her nose in front and was not to be denied just short of the line. Toffee Tongue was a handy fifth (rails) inside the 1000m, hugged the fence rounding into the straight, got a gap along the rail to be one of six abreast at the 200m then kept going doggedly to snatch second a stride from the line. Finche made a quick forward move from the 800m and was four wide in fourth turning in. He too was one of six abreast at the 200m and one of three at the 100m but was outgunned late. Dalasan was third at the top of the straight, right with them at the 200m and kept on gamely to be a close fourth.[LJ]

ANOTHER NZ BRED WINNER

Analysis: New Zealand-trained mare Probabeel showed her liking for Randwick when recording her second Group 1 success, her eighth win in 18 starts. She was smartly away from her wide barrier (15) and settled in fifth place (three wide) behind a quick tempo. She improved well at the turn, got to the front at the 100m and then went on to win well. Her arch-rival Funstar crossed from barrier 16 to settle in third place (without cover). She moved up on turning for home, briefly hit the front at the 200m and then fought on well for (length) second after working most of the way. Riodini showed good early pace before racing in second place, chasing the free-running leader (Niccanova). He took a narrow lead at the 300m and then did well in fighting back to gain third in a photo from Yulong Prince who was sixth at the turn and then battled on well for (1.3 lengths) fourth. Looks Like Elvis fought gamely for (1.6 lengths) fifth after being ninth at the turn while the ATC Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Colette caught the eye in making ground for (2 lengths) sixth. Analysis: The Victorian-trained/British-bred stayer Mirage Dancer, who demonstrated his talent with a third in the 2019 Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) broke through for his first Group 1 victory here, his fifth win (11 placings) in 26 starts in scoring here. Having his third run this preparation, he settled in seventh place on the rails from his good barrier (3). He improved along the inner nearing the turn, found a gap at the 200m and then finished best to claim a narrow but good win. The favourite Mugatoo travelled well in ninth place, one off the rails, improved nicely coming to the turn and looked the winner when he loomed at the 200m. He then fought well for (long head) second which was his first defeat in four starts this preparation.

Angel Of Truth went to the front as expected, set a good tempo and then held on well for third. Hush Writer enjoyed a good trip in third place on the rails, looked dangerous when he challenged at the 300m before battling on well for (1.9 lengths) fourth with Paths Of Glory making last ground from near the tail of the field for (4 lengths) fifth. Analysis: A big welcome home for Melody Belle who never flinched over the last 50m to keep her nose in front, maintain her winning ways and take out her eleventh Group 1 including her third successive Windsor Park Plate. She was away well but drifted to fifth (one out) while The Mitigator streaked away in front. Leaving the back straight she stood up the tearway ten lengths but at the 600m (and the leader coming back to them) she was in a good spot rounding into the straight. Into the straight she balanced then went after the new leader, formed a line of three inside the 100m then refused to give in to the line, keeping her nose in front where it counted. Stablemate Avantage tracked the winner in seventh leaving the back straight, followed her into the straight, went wider and chased hard. She charged into second near the 100m, was one of three across the track soon after then went stride for stride with the winner but lost by a nose. Callsign Mav was left to chase the tearaway, sat six lengths back at the 800m but at the top of the straight gathered him in. He went a length clear at the 200m but was collared at the 100m yet fought really well to be just a long neck back at the line. The first three had the finish to themselves with Two Illicit finishing well through the middle for fourth. [LJ]

Analysis: Edging into the lead short of the post Zoutori added his third Group 2 Flemington victory and seventh overall on his 23rd start. He was fifth early, a length off the lead, and stayed in touch over the crossing and past the 400m. At the 300m he was scrubbed up, drove up to form a line of three at the 200m, got his nose in front inside the 100m and kept going strongly, edging to the half-head victory. Dollar For Dollar had a narrow lead at the crossing, co-led at the 300m and never gave in all the way to the post. Second at the crossing, Kemalpassa went up to share the lead at the 300m, was still there at the 200m then kept fighting for a close third from Kementari who mounted a run from the 300m, was within a half length at the 100m and fought hard for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: The 2019 Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Kolding, who returned to form by taking out the George Main Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) here on September 19, advanced in distance to decisively record his first victory over 2000m here. He travelled nicely in fourth for James McDonald before moving up strongly on turning for home. He went to the front at the 200m and then safely held his rivals to win well. Avilius raced in sixth place, following the eventual winner, tracked him into the straight, went to second at the 200m and then battled on well to hold that position without seriously threatening the winner. The favourite Fierce Impact settled in second last place in the eight-runner field, commenced his move from the 300m and made ground in the sprint home for third after being disadvantaged by the steady early pace. Dadoozdart had a nice run in third place on the rails, forced a split to challenge on turning for home and then battled on quite well for (5.9 lengths) fourth. Analysis: Thermosphere grabbed the lead at the 100m then held on determinedly by a short neck for her third career win and second Group victory at start nine. She settled midfield but was caught wide, improving to sixth yet still three wide at the 1000m. From the 600m she edged closer but turned for home five wide. Three lengths away at the 300m she kept coming at them, got within a length inside the 200m and shared the lead short of the 100m. She took over soon after then held on gallantly at the post. Starelle was well back at the 800m, pulled out wide starting the run home then steamed down the middle of the track but couldn't get past the winner. Chica Fuerte had a nice run in fourth, was in behind the leaders at the 400m, went up to third at the 200m then fought hard to hold third, the first three clear of the rest. Succeed Indeed got clear late to flash into a distant fourth.[LJ]

Then followed: Nature Strip (AUS), Standout (AUS), Fasika (AUS), Signore Fox (AUS) & Lord Von Costa (AUS), last.

Analysis: The talented mare Libertini has now recorded three wins at Group 2 level in ten starts after an impressive first-up performance here. She began well, settled in fourth place (between runners) tacking a quick pace before easing into clear running at the 300m. She then sprinted well, hit the front at the 200m and then drew away to score by two lengths in a quick time (1:07.60). Classique Legend settled in fifth place, three wide from an awkward barrier, moved up well (deep) at the 600m, got to the front at the 200m and then battled on well for second after working most of the way. Deprive settled in last place in the eight-runner field, fanned deep at the 300m and then ran on nicely for third in a good effort, resuming here. The favourite Nature Strip began quite well, was second early on before moving on the rails to lead. He then travelled keenly at a quick tempo (first 600m 33.65), fading after those efforts from the 200m to finish (4.1 lengths) fourth. Standout was smartly away, almost crossed to the front from his outside barrier (8) before settling outside the leader (Nature Strip) at a quick tempo before battling on quite well after his early work for (7.1 lengths) fifth. Then followed: Need I Say More (AUS), Suffused (AUS), Autobahn (NZ), Kobe Rocks (NZ), Screamin Eagle (NZ), Grand Gesture (NZ), Lapel (NZ), Vishakha (NZ), Gentleman Jack (NZ) & Run For Cover (NZ), last.

Analysis: Aegon flew the last 200m to get up by a nose to remain unbeaten in two starts, making a big impression here. He was one of the last away and sat last early and third last (rails) when they settled. He moved out from the 600m but into the straight he was blocked, went wider near the 200m, balanced then flew. Ranging alongside the leaders inside the 50m his momentum carried him to the line by a nose. Bourbonaire was fourth last at the 800m, went up three wide to be handier inside the 600m then went very wide from the top of the straight. He came home very strongly but was collared by the winner on the line. Moana sat a handy third (rails) at the 600m, kept to the fence into the straight but had to wait, finally finding space one out near the 100m then finished well for a close and unlucky third. Favourite Need I Say More was handy but wide inside the 600m, went forward to challenge inside the 200m, led at the 100m but was swamped in the shadows of the post. [LJ]

Analysis: Sierra Sue put in a withering run down along the rail for her biggest win to date. Although she began quite well she quickly drifted and with 1400m to run sat last. Still last at the 800m, she ran up to tack onto the pack but had nowhere to go. With three behind her at the 400m she went for the rails run, threaded through into sixth at the 200m only to run into more traffic, got a split one off the fence near the 100m then burst into the lead at the 50m and was a long neck in front at the line. She Shao Fly sat a handy third (rails) at the 800m, still third when they straightened, drove through and led narrowly at the 100m but was no match for the diving winner. Missile Mantra sat midfield but wide at the 600m, was making no impression at the 300m then accelerated quickly from the 200m to grab a good third from Madam Rouge who was fourth at the 400m, challenged but swamped over the last 100m.[LJ]

Then followed: Authentic Jewel (AUS), Mistaken Identity (AUS), Lovemetender (AUS), Miss Hoff (AUS), Avaricious (AUS), Tinge (AUS), Euphrates Dream (AUS), Vaccine (AUS), I Love Lucy (AUS) & Emmy Vein (NZ), last.

Analysis: Enthaar backed up her impressive barrier trial win over 850m at the Kensington track on September 21 with an outstanding victory here at her race day debut. After beginning smartly, she settled nicely for James McDonald in third place, but trapped three wide, before moving up to take the lead at the 200m. She then drew away to score easily by three lengths, looking very much a classy filly. Mallory settled just beyond midfield, improved between runners from the 300m and then kept running on well to take second in a nice effort on debut. Total Babe showed early pace to race outside the leader (Avaricious) at a good tempo, briefly got to the front at the 300m and then held on well for third. Authentic Jewel raced in about eighth place (wide with cover), got into clear running and moved up at the 300m before battling on well for fourth, finishing just in front of Mistaken Identity who finished well from near the tail of the field for fifth. Then followed: Athelric (AUS), Kalashnikov (AUS), Retiro (AUS), Maurice's Medad (AUS), Unwritten (AUS), Lease (AUS), Stariks (AUS), Khumbu (AUS), Cruel Summer (AUS) & Almahero (AUS), last.

Analysis: After early education in Queensland, which included a Gold Coast barrier trial win on September 21, the Chris Waller-trained colt Shaquero staged a really smart performance in winning here on debut. He was quick away and travelled well in the centre of a trio of leaders approaching the turn before forging to a clear advantage at the 200m and was not threatened from that point to win impressively. The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained colt Construct settled well in sixth place on the rails from his good barrier (2), was briefly blocked on straightening, took a split at the 200m and then ran on well for second in a good debut. His stablemate, Astrologer missed the start and was last early on before settling just beyond midfield on the rails. He improved along the inner to sixth halfway down the straight and then finished well to third in a really promising debut. The Godolphin-raced colt Athelric settled in third place, but was caught three wide in the leading group. He moved up well at the turn and then held on well for (2.8 lengths) fourth after a difficult trip with the favourite Kalashnikov (3 lengths) fifth after being caught deep most of the way after starting from a wide barrier. Analysis: Given a lovely rails run, Persan also got a great split near the 300m and drove on for a good win as well as a start in the Melbourne Cup. He raced in fifth or sixth (rails) down the back straight and crept closer to the lead inside the 1200m. The field compacted approaching the 800m but from the 600m he needed a run yet at the top of the straight was right in behind the leading group. A lovely split appeared at the 300m and he drove through, formed a line of three near the 200m then kicked into the lead at the 100m, holding them at bay by a length at the post. Sound sat third past the 800m, challenged three wide from the top of the straight, took a narrow lead at the 300m then kept on very gamely for second. Steel Prince moved up to fifth, three wide inside the 800m, five wide at the 400m, looked a chance at the 300m then stuck on for third. Schabau finished well from midfield, flashing into fourth late.[LJ]

Margins: 1 len, 4.5 lens. Time: 57.27(last 600m 32.58).

Betting: $12.00, $1.50, $13.00.

Then followed: I Am War (AUS), Umgawa (AUS), Excelsa Bella (AUS), Enuff Already (AUS), Vinlago (AUS) & Gummy Bear (AUS), last.

Analysis: Not seen at the trials, Ingratiating got the better of the more experienced warm favourite over the final 100m to score a nice win here. From barrier one he was midfield until they reached the course proper then accelerated to be closer and at the 400m shared the lead. Narrowly headed approaching the 200m he lifted then levelled up. He had a good tussle to the 100m then dug in, grabbed the lead and was doing better by a length at the post. Favourite General Beau was always handy, took over narrowly near the 200m and gave the winner a good fight to the 100m but had to settle for second, the first two well clear. Cloudy was widest but close enough at the 400m, moved into third at the 200m and kept on best of the rest for a distant third.[LJ]

Margins: 1.3 lens, 0.1 lens. Time: 1:02.24(last 600m 32.78).
 Betting: $2.50, $26.00, $4.50.

Then followed: Portland Sky (AUS), Valaquentia (AUS), Mildred (AUS), Island Joy (NZ), Wisdom Of Water (AUS) & Forever Free (AUS), last.

Analysis: September Run gave her opponents a start and a beating, putting in her customary big finish for stakes win three and her fourth win overall in seven starts. She shared last early and was last on her own approaching the crossing. She went wide from the 400m, gathered steam approaching the 200m then unleashed to take over at the 100m. Full of running she went clear to win easily by a length and a quarter. Maha held a narrow lead at the crossing, still led at the 300m and at the 200m but was not able to withstand the winner's burst yet fought well for second. Minhaaj drove through into third at the 200m then kept going gamely to hold third.[LJ]

Then followed: Romancer (NZ), Legionnaire (AUS), Munitions (USA), Galaxy Raider (AUS), Fascino (NZ), Gaulois (AUS), Begood Toya Mother (AUS) & Hang Man (IRE), last.

Analysis: Riddle Me That got out of a tight spot near the 300m then did best in a tight finish for his fifth win, adding to his Listed Bendigo Guineas strike back in March. He drifted to fourth last (rails) past the 1200m with no improvement past the 800m. Rounding into the straight he moved out, almost ran into a pocket at the 300m but found space further out then went after the leaders. With a solid run he was a half length back at the 100m but wore down the leader short of the line by a long head. Iconoclasm was third (rails) past the 800m, was trapped starting the run home, got a split at the 200m, led inside the 100m but was worn down late. Best Of Days was second last (fence) at the 600m, looked to have no chance at the 400m then weaved through from the 200m, flashing into third short of the line.[LJ]

Analysis: An impressive effort from Matchmaker who was locked away at the crossing but quickened very well when clear to record her maiden stakes win at start three. She settled well back (rails) and had just two behind her at the crossing. Improving nearing the straight she was well pocketed but from the 400m found room and moved out, went wider still to find clear air at the 300m then quickened well. She drew alongside the leaders inside the 200m then went clear, giving her opponents few excuses to be a length in front at the post. Laced With Gold sat a handy fourth (rails) at the crossing, still fourth at the top of the straight, got through a gap to challenge at the 200m but was not able to lift when the winner breezed by for a fighting second. Stella Creek sat fifth, three wide into the straight, went up to challenge at the 200m but could not find any more the last 100m for third.[LJ]

Analysis: Missile Launch, second in the Perth Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) at Ascot in January, returned to form at this fifth run back to record his second stakes win in 31 starts in scoring here. He settled near last, improved (wide with cover) from the 800m, moved up (deep) nearing the turn and then finished too well in the straight to score a good win. Divine Shadow raced in sixth place on the rails, took a split at the turn and then battled on for (half-length) second with the favourite Friar Fox doing well in holding on for third after being trapped wide all the way. Analysis: Khoekhoe held on tenaciously after grabbing the lead at the 100m for his maiden stakes success and career win three at start seven. He drifted soon after the start to settle midfield yet three wide where he remained past the 1000m. The field compacted from the 600m and he turned in six deep. In the straight he took some time to balance, accelerated into third at the 200m, led narrowly at the 100m then clung on by a long head at the post. Young Werther was midfield (rails) at the 1000m, moved one out from the 800m but was in heavy traffic turning in. Weaving in and out he finally saw daylight at the 150m then flew hard at the leader but had to settle for a hard luck second. Albarado tracked the winner from the 800m, was widest starting the run home and kept up a strong run for a close third.[LJ]

BETTING FORECAST: 13-8 St Mark's Basilica, 15-8 Nando Parrado, 6 Sealiway, 10 Laws Of Indices, 11 Libertine, 12 Cairn Gorm.

VERDICT This is often not quite as competitive as some of the other European colts this year. In a substantial line-up, that looks to be even more the case this year. Prix Morry second Nando Parrado promises to be suited by the step up to 7f and is clearly a major player but preference is for ST MARK'S BASILICA, whose third in a competitive renewal of the National Stakes last time looks slightly stronger form. He is a half-brother to 2,000 Guineas winner Magna Graecia and two other half-brothers acted in testing ground, while the selection himself won a maiden on soft. [Mel Cullinan]

BETTING FORECAST: 5-4 Enable, 6 Stradivarius, 8 Sottass, 10 In Swoop, 12 Mogul, 14 Japan, Raabihah, Serpentine, 20 Persian King, 40 Deirdre, 50 Gold Trip, Sovereign, Way To Paris, 66 Chachnak, 100 Royal Julius.

VERDICT Despite the fact that there are 11 Group 1 winners in opposition, this looks a slightly below-par Arc with star names such as Ghaiyyath, Love, Magical and Mishrif all missing. That makes the task for the 2017 and 2018 Arc winner ENABLE significantly easier and, having looked as good as ever as a 6yo in her latest two wins, she is readily preferred in this bid for a historic third win in the race. Sottass is the clear next best ahead of the selection's redoubtable stablemate, top stayer Stradivarius. The ground will put a welcome emphasis on stamina for him. In Swoop is open to improvement and the most appealing of the 3yos, so he is best of the rest. [Mel Cullinan]

2019 (12 ran) ALPINE STAR (IRE) ⁴⁹ Shane Foley ¹³²

BETTING FORECAST: 11-4 Fancy Blue, 100-30 Alpine Star, 9-2 Tawkeel, 11-2 Tarnawa, 11 Audarya, 14 Ambition, 16 Tickle Me Green, 20 Laburnum, 25 All Rumours, Durance, 33 Grand Glory, Spirit Of Nelson, 50 Inter Royal Lady, Zariyanna.

VERDICT An excellent renewal with a clutch of top-class Group 1-winning fillies in opposition. The one to appeal most is ALPINE STAR, who sets the standard on her excellent, clear second to a top-notch colt in the 1m Prix Jacques le Marois on heavy ground last time, when shaping as though a return to around 1m2f might well suit. She can turn the tables on her narrow Prix de Diane conqueror Fancy Blue, although that rival is a much respected main danger. Laburnum is a possible surprise packet returned to 1m2f and may claim third ahead of top-flight winners Tarnawa and the unbeaten Tawkeel. 2019 (16 ran) Glass Slippers (3) Kevin Ryan 3-9-7 128/10 Tom Eaves RPR117

BETTING FORECAST: 2 Glass Slippers, 9-2 Make A Challenge, 8 Keep Busy, Liberty Beach, 10 Air De Valse, Wooded, 12 Lady In France, Livachope, 16 Batwan, 20 Archer's Dream, 33 Sestilo Jet.

VERDICT Last year's winner GLASS SLIPPERS has very strong claims, especially as she's again peaking at the right time, having bagged another Group 1 success in the Flying Five three weeks ago. Second choice is Air De Valse who, like the selection, is a generally progressive 4yo filly. Wooded ties in closely with Air De Valse on C&D form last month, while tough 3yo Keep Busy and Irish raider Make A Challenge are also likely to go well. VERDICT Joao Moreira's mount Great Smart was a C&D winner in June and made a solid start to his new campaign last month but preference is for JOY MASTER, who has already hit the target this season and has useful 10lb claimer Jerry Chau enlisted today. Green Generation and Art Of Raw also make the shortlist.

VERDICT Another chance is readily given to MY SUGAR, who was a beaten favourite over C&D on his debut in July but still displayed considerable promise. Jade Phoenix became expensive to follow last season but is not yet fully exposed and ought to get his head in front soon. Diamond Pegasus ran well here last month and is next on the list.

VERDICT Several of these warrant consideration but top of the list is GOLDEN MISSION, who has twice held his own over 6f in Class 4 events this season, will be suited by today's return to 7f and is dropped in grade. The veteran Lucky Guy also benefits from a drop in class today and is second choice. Laos Enlightenment and Master Galaxy are just some of the others to think about.

BETTING FORECAST: 3 Enfolding, 5 Elite Patch, Ever Laugh, 13-2 The Hulk, 8 Clear Choice, 10 Mr Aldan, 12 High Rev, 14 Best Alliance, 16 Urban Dancer, 20 Superb Daddy, 25 Volpino, 50 Superbella, 66 Wealthy Employee.

VERDICT Dropping back to Class 3 should make High Rev a popular choice but he remains 5lb above his last winning mark so a chance is taken that CLEAR CHOICE will be fully revved up for his seasonal return after posting some solid efforts over C&D last season. Enfolding knows how to win around here and he should have a role to play.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Crown Avenue, 3 Skyeey Supreme, 9-2 Party Everyday, 10 King's Race, 12 Cheerful Star, 14 Unite Spirit, 16 Double Take, London Luckystar, 20 War Lord, 25 Chung Wah Spirit, Well Dragon, 33 Sonic Fighter, 50 Natural Winner, 100 Fun Legend.

VERDICT Plenty of respect for Skyeey Supreme who put his rivals to the sword over C&D on seasonal return but the 10lb rise from the handicapper and the wide draw means more will be needed. The vote goes to CROWN AVENUE who has a perfect track to stalk the pace and, after a playing return to action last month, can take advantage of a favourable handicap mark. Party Everyday continues to run well and has a role to play.

VERDICT The latest 6lb rise for Leap Of Faith is unlikely to put the brakes on him going close in a bid for a hat-trick of victories. However, TEMPLE OF HEAVEN has shown enough in just two starts to suggest he's a player stepping up to 7f. Great Treasure has run two sound races in defeat and should again be on the premises.

VERDICT If fully tuned up for his seasonal return Good View Clarico would be a danger to all having won his final three races last season. With fitness guaranteed, though, CRUISING gets the vote to take advantage of an eye-catching handicap mark having put in a good shift over 6f on his return last month. Fabulous Eight is going the right way and should be competitive.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Excellent Proposal, 11-2 Helene Leadingstar, Reliable Team, 8 Tianchi Monster, 10 Enjoying, 12 Savvy Nine, 16 Butterfield, 20 Enrichment, Ho Ho Khan, 25 Amazing Beats, Glorious Artist, Righteous Doctrine, 33 Arrogant, Golden Spectrum, 50 Northern Superstar.

VERDICT Plenty of these will fancy their chances but the standout looks to be EXCELLENT PROPOSAL who should still have improvement to come after just three starts. He looks to be progressing with each step up in trip and should make light work of the latest 8lb rise. Helene Leadingstar held his form well last season and he rates the danger, while Golden Spectrum can be expected to be in the mix.
