Deep Field (Northern Meteor), fresh on the back of Group 2 winner Xilong and the emergence of star juvenile Isotope, has earned a fee increase to become Newgate Farm's roster leader while counterpart Aquis Farm's high-profile recruit Pierata (Pierro) will head the array of first season stallions this year.

The confirmed service fees of both prominent studs came as Victoria's Yulong also announced the service fee for its Group 1-winning newcomer Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice) who was officially retired last week.

New Zealand's Westbury Stud is this morning also making public its 2020 service fees for its six-strong roster including Reliable Man (Dalakhani), the sire of this season's VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) Miami Bound and the extremely promising three-year-old Kinane, the last-start Frank Packer Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) winner.

Pierro's Pierata takes prime position at Aquis Farm

By Tim Rowe

Pierata (Pierro) is likely to have the honour as Australia's highest-priced first season sire this year, but Aquis Farm's Tony Williams believes the Group 1-winning sprinter deserves the accolade as the three-state operation's best-credentialled stallion in the stud's short history.

One of 15 stallions set to be spread across Aquis Farm's Murrurundi, Canungra and Seymour properties, the Greg Hickman-trained All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) -winning Pierata has had his fee set at $44,000 (all fees inclusive of GST).

Aquis Farm will also stand ATC Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) and BRC Champagne Classic (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Dubious (Not A Single Doubt) at its Queensland stud at Canungra this year at a fee of $13,750.

In assessing Pierata's stud credentials, chief executive Tony "Tubba" Williams was effusive in his praise of the rising six-year-old and is confident that he is the sire who will help "Aquis Farm elevate itself in the stallion world and in the industry".

"He is the highlight of what the farm has stood at stud so far and he has captured the imagination of the racing public and all breeders," Williams told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday.

"He displays all the qualities that breeders out there need and what we need at the farm. He is going to complement our broodmare band so well and we will be supporting him big-time because we see him as our premium stallion, our premium product.

Williams suggested that Pierro (Lonhro) was a champion sire in waiting and the fact that Pierata was a juvenile-winning sprinting son made his commercial appeal significant.

"Physically, he is as good as there is from that sire line and he is probably the true sprinter which carries that Pierro/Lonhro/Zabeel sireline," he said.

"In this day and age, most stallions are retired at three or four and very few get to race at five and he is retiring as sound as the first time he went to the races which is another important factor that breeders need.

“He defeated 39 individual Group 1 winners, which is an amazing feat in itself, and for me in my first year at the farm I couldn't be more excited to have a horse like this”

- Tony Williams

Darley's shuttling duo of Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) and Blue Point (Shamardal) will also stand for the same figure as Pierata at $44,000 in their first southern hemisphere seasons later this year.

Pierata heads the Hunter Valley roster, which has first crop two-year-olds by Divine Prophet (Choiris) set to race next season, while Williams is upbeat about the prospects of fellow unproven sires on the Aquis Farm NSW roster, such as Invader (Snitzel) and Santos (I Am Invincible).

Aquis Farm's Queensland operation was dealt a blow when promising young stallion Spill The Beans (Snitzel), now the sire of eight first crop winners, died last November, but Williams hopes Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) runner-up Dubious can go some way to filling the gap left by his premature death.

"Dubious is what I'd call the old-style Aussie two-year-old. He was a tough, fast Breeders' Plate-winning two-year-old. He was a winner in Queensland as a two-year-old and the Breeders' Plate is becoming a real stallions' race and he's got all the qualities that really complement the Queensland broodmare band.

"He's got strength, he's got good bone and he's got real speed. He's got a great temperament and Queensland predominantly have always had those fast stallions at stud and he will certainly do well in Queensland."

Joining Dubious on the Queensland roster is the relocated Duporth (Red Ransom), the sire of three-time Group 1 winner Hey Doc, after standing for the past three years at Koorlingal Stud in NSW.

The effects of Covid-19 on global economies has been enormous in recent months and, like all studs, Aquis Farm was also factoring in the financial impact of the pandemic when setting service fees for its stallion roster.

Williams said: "Make no mistake, we've been strategic in managing our fees. We've reflected what the market is telling us Continued on page 6>>

<< Continued from page 4 they need. I feel that we have got it pretty right across the board and Queensland breeders had a harder year (than most) with the March sale being the first sale probably being really affected (by Covid-19).

"Out there, there's a lot of people that probably haven't had the results they were hoping for this year due to the economic climate and Covid-19. We hope we can work with them and tailor to them to keep everyone viable including Aquis."

Meanwhile, Lean Mean Machine (Zoustar) remains Aquis Farm's sole stallion on its Victorian roster after Siege Of Quebec (Fastnet Rock) was withdrawn from service early last season.

Williams said Victoria was a significant part of Aquis Farm's long-term future but was adamant that the organisation had to find the right stallions for that market.

"I could name a dozen colts we have in the racing team at the moment who will eventually go to stud and I am confident we can certainly add to Victoria," he said,

"Lean Mean Machine did very well there in his first season. Obviously, it would be nice to have a second or a third stallion there but we're not just going to send something there for the sake of it.

"With Written Tycoon leaving and going to Arrowfield, Victoria is crying out for the right stallions and we hope long-term that we can have a stallion roster in Victoria that is worthy of Victorian broodmares."

Deep Field on the rise after stellar season

By Tim Rowe

Deep Field (Northern Meteor) has assumed top billing at Newgate Farm and will stand for an increased service fee this year, as the Hunter Valley stud attempts to manage the exciting stallion's "book" with a view to his long-term future.

The decision to set Deep Field's fee at $55,000 (all fees inclusive of GST), up from $44,000 last year and more than double his opening $22,000 figure, coincides with yesterday's announcement that his Group 2-winning son Cosmic Force would be one of three newcomers on Newgate Farm's roster of 13 stallions this year.

Five other stallions, including Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Capitalist (Written Tycoon) and Group 1-winning sprinter Russian Revolution (Snitzel), have had their fees cut slightly in consideration of the global Covid-19 pandemic.

Newgate Farm managing director Henry Field admitted there was some internal debate about raising Deep Field's fee given the economic fallout from the coronavirus but said the merit of the stallion's two crops to hit the track demanded that he continue his rise.

"He is the leading second-crop sire of winners and stakes horses and, if the way his yearlings were received this year is any indication, his stocks are only going to rise in the future," Field said.

"We feel strongly that he's the best second crop stallion in the country. He has worked his way up from a fee of $22,000 to $55,000. He's slowly building and by many of the metrics that we judge a young stallion, he is only going from strength to strength.

"Given that we've been inundated with bookings for the horse over the past few months, we felt that it was the right thing to do by the horse to try to curb his numbers.

"He's going to be on the farm for the long-term so we want to look after him".

Deep Field's three-year-old daughter Xilong won the Euclase Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Morphettville on Saturday while the John Thompson-trained Fituese made it four wins from six starts with an emphatic first-up performance in Sydney on the same day. His yearlings sold to a top of $800,000 this year.

Deep Field

"We know that many of his best colts have been snapped up by Hong Kong and we've already had a highly commercial young sire go to stud in Cosmic Force, so it is lovely to see his fillies step up to the plate as well," Field continued.

"Fituese looks like a genuine Group horse in the making and Isotope is current favourite for the Group 1 J J Atkins. He's a very versatile stallion - colts, fillies and he gets beautiful looking stock."

The service fees for Newgate's first season sires Brutal (O'Reilly) ($27,500) and Tassort (Brazen Beau) ($11,000) have already been announced by ANZ Bloodstock News in recent weeks while Cosmic Force was announced at $16,500 yesterday.

Launching three stallions at once is not a foreign task for Field, with the first two-year-olds by Newgate's 2017 quartet of Capitalist ($44,000), Flying Artie (Artie Schiller) ($16,500), Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) ($22,000) and Winning Rupert (Written Tycoon) ($16,500) set to hit the track next season.

Russian Revolution, whose first crop are weanlings, will stand for $44,000.

"Russian Revolution's foals are quite spectacular and most people that have got foals by him will attest to that fact. He'll be very popular again this year," Field said.

"Capitalist's yearlings sold incredibly well and went to all the good trainers. We've brought those horses' fees down because we want those breeders who have supported them previously to get some value and those that have supported them previously will get the first opportunity to book to them at the tightened-up fee.

Dissident (Sebring) and Wandjina (Snitzel) have also had their service fees cut to $11,000 and Field says the pair represent great value, with the latter siring the recent Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Mamaragan.

Field said Newgate Farm’s partners would again breed heavily to their stallions this year, particularly their young stallions including Brutal whose early breeder interest “had been off the richter scale”.

“We support our roster with our mares. We look to develop our stallions, not just stand them,” he said.

“It’s lovely to be developing a proven stallion like Deep Field so early in our stallion operation’s life cycle.”

Sizzling will not be returning to Newgate Farm this year but Field is confident the son of Snitzel (Redoute’s Choice) will find a new home before the start of the new season.

"We're excited to stand two very talented Group 1 winners at Yulong in 2020," Yulong chief operating officer Sam Fairgray said.

"I worked closely with the great Redoute's Choice for years (at Arrowfield Stud) and now couldn't be prouder to stand his son Alabama Express at Yulong, who is a physical replica of his sire."

Fairgray said breeders who send mares to Grunt this year can have confidence coming off a strong first season book to help their cause come the 2023 yearling sales.

"Grunt kicked off his stud career with incredible support and a fantastic fertility rate of around 90 per cent, so breeders can be confident they will have a high chance of getting their mare in foal," he said.

"He is a gorgeous individual and a pleasure to deal with. We are looking forward to seeing his first foals arrive in August."

Moroney, whose agent brother Paul selected Alabama Express as a yearling, yesterday reiterated his belief in the credentials the rising four-year-old takes to stud.

"His father [Redoute's Choice] won the CF Orr Stakes and he's more like dad than any other horse I've seen," Moroney said.

"If you can replicate even half of what his dad has done, he's going to be a successful sire."

Earlier this year, Yulong also bought into the Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) with a view to standing him at stud in the future.

The rising three-year-old will race on for at least another season before joining Alabama Express and Grunt in the stallion barn.

Reliable Man unchanged at the top of Westbury Stud roster

By Georgie Dennis

Reliable Man

WESTBURY STUD

Westbury Stud's Russell Warwick has implored breeders to continue to support the industry as the New Zealand farm announced an unchanged fee of NZ$15,000 (all fees plus GST) for their headline sire Reliable Man (Dalakhani), despite a successful season on the track.

Dual Group 1 winner Tarzino (Tavistock), whose first yearlings went through the sales ring this year, El Roca (Fastnet Rock), Redwood (High Chaparral) and Swiss Ace (Secret Savings) will all stand for decreased fees in 2020.

"It is imperative for breeders to mate their mares this year, as the long-term future of the New Zealand Industry is dependent on mares being bred and as many foals as possible being born in 2021," Warwick said.

"Under the difficulties breeders are faced with, we have taken a proactive approach this year to ensure that the service fees of our stallions provide our clients with value and the ability to breed a good horse at a realistic cost, while they must have an opportunity

The dual Group 1 winner's progeny averaged $155,000 at the Gold Coast Magic Millions Yearling Sale with a top lot of $230,000, a colt out of Eau de Parfum (Redoute's Choice) purchased by DGR Thoroughbred Services Pty Ltd in partnership with Mick Price Racing.

There were also 16 of Tarzino's yearlings purchased at Book 1 of the Karaka Yearling Sale this year, at an aggregate of NZ $1,377,500 and average of NZ$86,094, with progeny secured by Henry Dwyer, Joe Pride, Shaune Ritchie, Matthew Ellerton and Simon Zahra, Mick Price, Troy Corstens, Mitchell Freedman and Steve Richards.

Despite siring his maiden Group 1 winner courtesy of Travelling Light's Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) in January, El Roca's fee has been reduced from from NZ$9,000 to NZ$8,000.

Redwood, whose progeny is headed by last year's Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) runner-up Night's Watch, will also stand for a fee of NZ$8,000, down from NZ$10,000, while Swiss Ace's fee has also been reduced from NZ$10,000 to NZ$8,000.

Rounding up the Westbury Stud roster is Telperion (Street Cry), the half brother to Group 1 winner Kementari (Lonhro), who will stand at an unchanged fee of NZ$5,000.

Grandview Stud announce fees

Grandview Stud have announced their stud fees for 2020, with Whittington (Tale Of The Cat) standing at a fee of $5,500 (inc GST) and Under The Louvre (Excellent Art) standing for $4,400 (inc GST). Both had their fees dropped by $1,100, with Grandview Stud owner Michael Grieve saying this was to provide breeders with greater value in the current economic conditions. "There has been a tremendous run of winners by Whittington this year, reinforcing his second position in the Queensland second season sire table and third position in the Queensland three-year-old sire table," said Grieve. "Under The Louvre enters his fourth season at stud with his first crop producing good results in the sales ring and glowing endorsements from respected bloodstock agents like John Foote. His first crop will be given some great opportunities to succeed at leading stables including Ciaron Maher, Chris Waller and Bryan and Daniel Guy, so his service fee of $4,400 could turn out to be an absolute bargain."

Kinane to skip SA Derby

Chris Waller has confirmed that dominant Frank Packer Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) winner Kinane (Reliable Man) will not run in the South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) with the gelding instead slated for a trip to Brisbane. "Kinane is fit and well however we believe the 2500 metres this early in his career is going to come up a bit quick and there is no rush with him," Waller said. "He will therefore not go to South Australia and most likely trial at Rosehill on Friday with the plan being to give him one or two runs during the Brisbane winter carnival before spelling him and focusing on the spring." After his Frank Packer win, Kinane's owners knocked back some big offers from Hong Kong.

14 nominated for BRC Sprint

The BRC Sprint (Gr 3, 1200m) often plays an important part in the winter carnival but this year it has turned into the unofficial sprint championship for Queensland-trained horses. The race has usually been run three weeks before the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) and on Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) day. The distance of the race has been dropped to 1200 metres from 1350 metres. Racing Queensland has programmed just two Group 1 races, the Stradbroke and the J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1600m), in their reduced program due to Covid-19. There are 14 nominations for the BRC Sprint with Godolphin's Kementari (Lonhro) and Port Macquarie gelding Victorem (I Am Invincible) the only interstate entries. Nearly all runners in the BRC Sprint are expected to move on to the Victory Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Eagle Farm on May 23, as the final stepping-stone to the Stradbroke.

House Of Cartier out to add Gosford Cup

Fresh from her win in the Wagga Wagga Gold Cup (Listed, 2000m), House Of Cartier (Alamosa) will now attempt to win the $200,000 Gosford Gold Cup (Listed, 2000m), which will be held at Randwick this year. John Sargent's filly was placed at Group 1 level a year ago in the Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) in Adelaide and gained her first stakes win at Wagga. Sargent has confirmed his intention to run her off an eight-day gap. "She has come through her win in great order so it's all systems go," Sargent said. "She did it very nicely at Wagga. She likes the sting out of the track which she got. When she got to the front she was a bit lost with the blinkers on. She should run a good race again." House Of Cartier will need a new rider on Saturday, as Jess Taylor who rode her to success at Wagga, is divided into a different NSW region as a result of Covid-19.

Moir target for Bella Vella

Bella Vella

SPORTPIX

TAB Classic (registered as Robert Sangster Stakes) winner Bella Vella (Commands) will head for a spell and will miss South Australia's biggest sprint race, The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m). "Although the temptation is high to push on to the Group 1 Goodwood in a fortnight's time, I believe this bonny mare has given her all this preparation," trainer Will Clarken said in a statement. "She will be sent for a four to six-week spell before returning in to work and being prepared for the Moir Stakes in late September at Moonee Valley, where she has proven to be very effective. Training a Group 1 winner has been a life-long goal of mine and cannot thank enough my dedicated staff, farriers, chiropractors, vets, agistment operators and everyone else associated in helping me achieve this."

Purcell hoping for home track upset

Warrnambool trainer Aaron Purcell has already won a Grand Annual Steeplechase (5500m) and a Galleywood Hurdle (3200m) at his local track. He would also love to add one of the feature flat races but knows the 2020 Warrnambool carnival, to be held this week, will be different to other years. Along with no crowds, the annual three-day May carnival, which mixes both codes, has been reduced to two days. The track will have a jumps program on Tuesday and a flat meeting on Wednesday. Purcell has Guizot (Tertullian) in the Wangoom (Listed, 1200m) and Instigator (Nayef) in the Warrnambool Cup (Listed, 2350m). "This year is a completely different thing," Purcell said. "Usually you have hundreds of owners make a week of it. They all want to have their horses running and running well and there's a lot of social activities that are involved, so this year it's a completely different thing."

Julius chasing Super win in Warrnambool Cup

On Wednesday, Josh Julius will chase the biggest win of his training career when his progressive staying mare Super Girl (So You Think) lines up in the Warrnambool Cup. "I think back to all the years I didn't go to school on the Thursday just to throw the shirt and tie on as a little tacker and be a part of it, running around with my uncles up in the members," Julius told Racing.com. "It's always something you look forward to in May, no matter where I'm living or what I'm doing, I'll always be watching it. We nearly got a winner there a few years ago, we had a crack with one in a restricted race called Clang And Dazzle, he was an absolute mudlark and we set him for it and he missed out by a pimple. To be taking one down for the Cup, it's certainly a big thrill."

Newcomer out to build trainer's profile

New Zealander Joseph Waldron has experienced how tough it is in the training ranks since setting up as a trainer at Mornington. As a foreman for Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman, Waldron travelled to Australia looking after horses such as Group

1 winners Mongolian Khan (Holy Roman Emperor) and Turn Me Loose (Iffraaj). To build his profile, Waldron bought Wagner (Bernardini) at a sale on the Gold Coast in March. The gelding will have his first start for Waldron at Caulfield on Saturday in a handicap over 1100 metres. "The track shouldn't be too bad going by the forecast," Waldron said. "It went up a (soft) seven and hopefully it will be back to a five later in the week, so that should be all right." Wagner won five of 21 starts for James Cummings and was offered for sale after finishing eighth over 1000 metres at Canberra on March 8.

Qld metro premierships to restart

Racing Queensland is expected to make a decision on when the metropolitan trainers' and jockeys' premiership count will restart this week. Racing in Queensland has been divided into regions with metropolitan racing in the south zone (centred on the Gold Coast) and north zone (Brisbane). Jockeys had to select a zone and there were restrictions on trainers' travel. It meant all jockeys and trainers were not able to compete against each other. RQ decided in fairness to suspend the official premiership count until racing returned to an overall competitive basis. There has since been a modification to the regional rules which will allow movement between the south and north zones under strict biosecurity from this week. When the premierships were suspended on March 31, Baylee Nothdurft led Robbie Fradd by 52-1/2 to 47-1/2 and Tony Gollan had a 20-win lead in the trainers' premiership over Toby and Trent Edmonds.

Pateman cleared for 'Bool

Dual licence holder Steven Pateman is free to continue racing after the Racing Appeals and Disciplinary Board reserved its decision penalty on a cobalt charge. A leading jumps jockey, Pateman also holds a trainers' licence and, along with partner Jessica Barton, was in March found guilty of a race-day administration charge relating to a high cobalt reading from Sir Walter Scott (Galileo) in a pre-race urine sample at Coleraine in September 2017. In a telephone hook-up on Monday, the RAD Board held a hearing over the penalty, reserved its decision. Pateman has rides in all eight races on the opening day of a condensed Warrnambool carnival today and chases consecutive wins in the feature, the Grand Annual Steeplechase aboard Zed Em (Zed).

NEW ZEALAND

Autridge pleased to be back

Valachi Downs' trainer Stephen Autridge welcomed back 30 horses to his Matamata barn last week and he is excited about the future with his young team. Autridge has posted 15 wins this term and was looking to add to that tally, however, the Covid-19 restrictions put a stop to those ambitions. "I was working on getting 20, and thought we may have gone close, but we will never know," he said. While Autridge admitted to being a little bit frustrated during the Alert Level 4 lockdown period, he said he was grateful to have his rural property to help keep him busy. "We struggled a bit, but we are lucky that we have a 20-acre property to look after with six spellers, a couple of broodmares, and 20 head of cattle, so that has kept us on the move," he said. "It was great getting back to the stables last week, I was really looking forward to it. We worked 30 this morning and we are probably going to work about 40."

Holy Mongolempor sold to HK

Exciting three-year-old Holy Mongolempor (More Than Ready) has been sold and will do his future racing in Hong Kong. The Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained colt has been placed in three of his seven starts and was last seen finishing fifth in the Auckland Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) won by Dragon Leap (Pierro), running the fastest closing sectionals. Well-supported in futures markets for the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m), Holy Mongolempor spiked a temperature on the eve of the Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m), which scuppered his Derby campaign. A $240,000 purchase at the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run Sale, Holy Mongolempor looks a Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m) prospect for next season.

Te Akau staff make most of lockdown

During the Level 4 Covid-19 lockdown in New Zealand, Te Akau Racing principal David Ellis called on three members of the operation's racing division at Matamata to help at the stud. Mette Mosebo, Sam Bergerson, and Reece Trumper are united in their love of the thoroughbred, want to make a career in the industry, and have all impressed Te Akau principal David Ellis. "These are three outstanding young people and it's been a pleasure to have them working up here on the farm," Ellis said. "Mette is a foreman at the colt barn in Matamata, and a young lady that has made tremendous progress since she joined us. The two young lads, Reece and Sam, are fine examples and each come from families with strong backgrounds working with horses. Reece's grandfather, John Trumper, is a trainer and with his wife Sue they own Cheveley Stud, at Te Aroha, and Sam's father is trainer Roydon Bergerson."

ASIA

Aethero to remain in Hong Kong

HKJC

Despite John Moore's upcoming move back to Australia, connections of leading sprinter Aethero (Sebring) have opted to continue the gelding's racing career in Hong Kong. The Australian-bred three-year-old was eased down at his last start in the Chairman's Sprint Prize (Gr 1, 1200m) after bleeding from both nostrils. "He'll stay in Hong Kong for now but I impressed upon the owner that Australia is the place for him," Moore told the South China Morning Post. "I had lunch with the owner and he did sympathise with me with respect to where the best place would be for him – back (in Australia) in the better atmosphere out in a nice paddock. The owner said 'let's give him a few months in Hong Kong and if he does have a minor bleed then I will give you a call and he may come back'."

INTERNATIONAL

French racing to resume on May 11

Racing in France is set to return without crowds on Monday, May 11. France Galop President Edouard de Rothschild said in a tweet that Paris police have given permission for racing to resume. The country has banned all other major sports until September because of the Covid-19 pandemic. Restrictions on runners from outside France are set to be imposed until the end of May, at the earliest.

British racing hopeful of May 15 resumption

Racing in Britain is working towards a resumption on May 15 following positive meetings with government officials over the last seven days. The BHA and other key racing organisations have been eager not to pre-empt any announcement from government by setting a public target for the sport's return, and plans remain fluid as to when and how to kickstart the industry depending on what is laid out by ministers on Thursday when lockdown measures are reviewed. Those planning for the resumption of the sport are confident that action can take place within a week of any clearance being given, with May 15 emerging as a likely starting point if this week's government update provides the go-ahead for a behind-closed-doors return to action.

Marquand to make mark in UK

After a ground-breaking stint in Australia, Tom Marquand is determined to make his mark at home in Britain when the Flat season gets under way. With racing sidelined amid the coronavirus crisis, the 22-year-old took full advantage of the opportunities that came his way during his time on the other side of the world, highlighted by Group 1 victories aboard the William Haggas-trained Addeybb (Pivotal). In addition to his Group 1 exploits, Marquand also picked up six Group 3 wins. "They seemed to take me in and I was very fortunate with the opportunities I got. It worked out for the best, I was very lucky," Marquand said. "I enjoy it there. It's a great opportunity to go over every winter, but I see my future and where I want to achieve things being back home."

South African tracks facing bankruptcy

The group which operates the majority of racecourses in South Africa warned yesterday it was facing bankruptcy as it emerged the sport's shutdown could extend for a further four weeks, despite earlier plans for a resumption from last Friday. Phumelela gaming, which operates tracks including Turffontein and Vaal and provides pool betting services, released interim results that referenced a "dire situation" for horse racing in the country and outlined its need for financial relief. That situation has been compounded by the ongoing shutdown of South African racing, which missed an intended return on Friday and now faces an extended wait before resuming action. South Africa went into the fourth stage of lockdown last week – at which point it was believed racing would be permitted to continue – but the National Horseracing Authority (NHA) now expects the government's green light will only come in the next stage of the country's coronavirus response.

Newcomers Give Danny Wong a Double

BY HARRY TROY | @RACINGMACAU

Trainer Danny Wong has his hands on two nice newcomers in Number Zero (Showcasing) and Beautiful Eighteen (Epaulette) who both scored impressive wins on Saturday's turf racecard.

Number Zero was the first of Wong's winners when he hit the line strongly under five pound claimer Eric Cheung to race away with the Class 4 over 1500 metres, paying a whopping $1773.50 for the win.

It was only the second start for the four year old son of Showcasing (Oasis Dream), whose only run prior was over 1200 metres on a very soft track where he endured a very wide run and was beaten by ten lengths.

Friendless in the betting on Saturday and on a good track, Number Zero was put into a beautiful spot fifth the rail by Eric Cheung where he traveled well in the run. Approaching the home corner Cheung popped Number Zero off the back of the tiring Qipao Queen (Love Conquers All) into space, and once in the straight he finished hard between Star Of Phoenix (Commands) and Sky Dragon (Glass Harmonium) to race clear for a comfortable win.

"The horse was not that strong when he first arrived last October. After his first start in March I gave him a break and that helped a lot as he is now a lot stronger. The good draw and the good ride helped him a lot too," Wong said.

"He was passed in at the Karaka May Sale and after trailed ok in New Zealand with a second place at Avondale, I bought him for not a lot of money and looking at the time he ran on Saturday 1.27.7 which was faster than my Class 2 winner, he might end up a bargain buy."

Beautiful Eighteen was the second of Wong's winners when he shrugged off his wide gate of barrier 12 to knock off a pretty handy Class 2 field over 1500 metres.

Ridden by underrated rider C F (Charlie) Chan, Beautiful Eighteen was fired out of the gates

Number Zero, inset Star of Yiu Cheung

by Chan to be on the speed three deep before easing to be third the rail in the run. Once heads were turned for home, Chan peeled off the back of the leaders and set Beautiful Eighteen alight with the four year old son of Epaulette (Commands) bursting away for a strong win.

Danny Wong will now set Beautiful Eighteen for the Macau Derby Trial (Listed, 1500m) on May 15 with his long range plan the Macau Derby (Listed, 1800m) on July 19.

Beautiful Eighteen was originally a A$60,000 purchase at the 2017 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sales by B2B Bloodstock.

The gelding won a 3YO Maiden at Sandown over 1300 metres when raced in a syndicate headed by the B2B Thoroughbreds Group and was prepared by Chris Waller.

Wayne Smith was another trainer that also led in a winning double with two highly promising first season gallopers in Star of Yiu Cheung (Casino Prince) and Chi Chai Sing Sang (Per Incanto).

Star of Yiu Cheung made it three wins and two seconds from only five starts when he set a new class record of 1.08.1 in the Class 3 over 1200 metres under regular rider Horace Lam.

Star of Yiu Cheung enjoyed the run of the race in third before going home right over the top of the Danny Wong-prepared Gem Glory (I Am Invincible)) denying Danny Wong a treble for the afternoon.

In the very next race, Chi Chai Sin Sang equaled the Class record under Luis Corrales in the Class 5 & 6 over 1200 metres to give Smith his double for the day and Corrales the second leg of a winning treble.

Chi Chai Sin Sang clocked 1.09.3 in winning and the easy manner in which he scored will see him go on to better things.

Crown Of Gold (Duporth) is another nice four-year-old going places following his win in the last race of the day, the second Division of the Class 4 over 1500 metres.

Prepared by Joe Lau and ridden by Luis Corrales, Crown Of Gold made two wins on end both at the 1500-metre distance and is another that will be eying the Derby Trial on May 15.

Crown Of Gold was originally purchased by Victoria Peak Bloodstock at the 2017 Karaka Ready To Run Sales. Placed in the care of Aquis Farm and registered as The Romanian, the gelding won a Gold Coast barrier trial in good fashion back in December 2018 prior to being exported to Macau.

The victory by Crown of Gold gave Luis Corrales three for the day and took him to equal first spot in the Jockeys Premiership with Roger Yu on 28 wins.

THE LATEST NEWS FROM THE STALLION WORLD INCLUDING NEW STAKES WINNERS AND LEADING SIRE TABLES

New winners

Double for Night Of Thunder - Former Darley shuttler Night Of Thunder (Dubawi) on Tuesday sired his fifth individual Australian-bred first crop winner when Irish Thunder (2 g ex Tiger's Girl by Tiger Hill) won the Kennards Hire Taree Maiden handicap (1000m) at Taree on debut. He then recorded his sixth individual winner when Coup De Tonnerre (2 c ex Sea Terrace by Authorized) broke through at his fifth start yesterday. Night Of Thunder shuttled to Darley's Northwood Park in Victoria for just one season, covering 86 mares in 2016. From that crop, Group 3 winner A Beautiful Night and Listed winner River Night have emerged among his six winners. Darley will this year have another son of Dubawi (Dubai Millennium), champion European two-year-old Too Darn Hot, shuttling to Australia at an introductory fee of $44,000 (inc GST).

Office Bearer - Listed winner Office Bearer (Officer) celebrated his first winner on Friday when the appropriately-named One To Remember (2 g ex Belle Laude by Summa Cum Laude) took the Magic Millions 2YO Maiden Handicap (900m) at Muswellbrook. Standing at Murrulla Stud for $2,200 in 2019, Office Bearer covered only two mares last year.

Rich Enuff - Woodside Park's first season sire Rich Enuff (Written Tycoon) chalked up his fourth individual winner on Wednesday

Contributer - Mapperley Stud resident Contributer (High Chaparral) landed his first winner on Thursday when Lion's Roar (2 g ex Minnaleo by Black Minnaloushe) took out the two-year-old handicap (1200m) at Wagga. Lion's Roar was purchased for $65,000 by Champion Thoroughbreds out of the Wellfield Lodge draft at last year's New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Yearling Sale and is the second winner from three to race out of four-time winner Minnaleo. His second dam is Avondale Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2200m) winner The Mighty Lions (Grosvenor), who also produced Group 3 winner Vaquera (High Chaparral). Contributer won the Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) in 2015 and was crowned Champion Miler in Australia in 2014-15. He stood at Mapperley Stud in New Zealand for NZ$12,500 (plus GST) in 2019.

Contributer

when debutant Riched (2 g ex Edikeni by Johannesburg) took a 1050-metre maiden at Balaklava. Purchased for $60,000 from the 2019 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, Riched's dam Edikeni (Johannesburg) is a half-sister to Group 2 winner Churchill Downs (Danehill). Rich Enuff stood for $12,100 (inc GST) at Woodside Park last year.

MAPPERLEY STUD

Super One - Former Singapore sensation Super One (I Am Invincible) scored his fourth individual winner yesterday when Bedazzle (2 f ex Crystal Diamonds by Commands) won an 1100-metre two-year-old handicap at Dubbo. Super One stands at Newgate Farm, where last year he commanded a fee of $11,000 (inc GST).

New Group / Grade 1 winners

Blame - Trainer Bob Baffert, the only handler to prepare a Triple Crown winner in the modern era, swept both divisions of the Arkansas Derby when Nadal (3 c ex Ascending Angel by Pulpit) took the second division of the three-year-old feature, giving his sire Blame (Arch) a fifth Grade 1 winner. Blame, best known for inflicting the first defeat of champion mare Zenyatta (Street Cry) at her final start in the 2010 Breeders' Cup Classic (Gr 1, 10f), stands at Claiborne Farm for US$35,000 ($54,500).

Commands - The late Commands (Danehill) landed his 13th Group 1 winner on Saturday when Bella Vella (5 m ex Forget the Weather by Stormy Atlantic) landed the TAB Classic (registered as Robert Sangster Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m). Bella Vella joins the likes of Melody Belle and Commanding Jewel as elite level-winning mares for the former Darley sire who died in 2014 at the age of 17.

Speightstown - Consistent stallion Speightstown (Gone West) produced his 18th Grade 1 winner and his 112th individual stakes winner yesterday when impressive three-year-old Charlatan (3 c ex Authenticity by Quiet American) took out the first division of the Arkansas Derby (Gr 1, 9f) at Oaklawn Park. Speightstown stands at WinStar Farm at a fee of US$70,000 (AUD$109,000) this season.

Tavistock - Tavistock (Montjeu) registered his fifth individual Group 1 winner on Saturday when Toffee Tongue (3 f ex Bagalollies by Zabeel) took out the Schweppes Oaks (registered as the Australasian Oaks) (Gr 1, 2000m). Toffee Tongue was bought at the Karaka Yearling Sales by Dean Hawthorne for NZ$500,000. She is a sister to Hong Kong Champion Werther, Group 3 winner Gobstopper and Group 1-placed Milseain. Toffee Tongue joins Volkstok'n'barrell, Werther, Tavago and young stallion Tarzino as Tavistock's top-level winners. Tavistock sadly passed away in December, 2019; his son Tarzino stands at Westbury Stud.

New stakes winners

Alamosa - Wellfield Lodge's Alamosa (O'Reilly) recorded his 18th stakes winner on Friday when House Of Cartier (4 m ex Shez Sinsational by Ekraar) took out the Wagga Wagga Gold Cup (Listed, 2000m). House Of Cartier, who races in the same colours as her sire, was Group 1-placed last year when third to Princess Jenni (High Chaparral) in the Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m). Alamosa served 16 mares last year at a fee of NZ$5,000 (plus GST).

Deep Impact - The late Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) continues to leave his mark on Japanese racing and he looks to have another promising filly in the form of blueblood Des Ailes (3 f ex Avenir Certain by Le Havre), his 157th individual stakes winner yesterday. Des Ailes, who is out of the dual French Classic winner Avenir Certain (Le Havre), remained unbeaten with her win in the Sweetpea Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Tokyo, showing a sparkling turn of foot after a top ride from Damian Lane.

Exceed And Excel - Darley's Exceed And Excel (Danehill) added two more individual stakes winners at Morphettville on Saturday to take his overall figure to 169. The Mathew Ellerton and Simon Zahra-trained Forever Free (2 f ex Soaressa by Twining) made it three from three when she took the Queen Adelaide Stakes (Listed, 1050m), her first stakes victory. A David Moodie homebred, under his Heskett Bloodstock banner, Forever Free is a sister to five-time stakes winner Thermal Current. Exceed And Excel will stand for $132,000 (inc GST) at Darley's Kelvin side property this year.

Exceed And Excel

Orfevre - Orfevre (Stay Gold) registered his seventh individual stakes winner when Authority (3 c ex Rosalind by Symboli Kris S) landed the Aoba Sho (Gr 2, 2400m), the Japanese Derby Trial. Authority is the second foal of Rosalind, a sibling to Group 1 winners Epiphaneia (Symboli Kris S), Leontes (King Kamehameha) and Saturnalia (Lord Kanaloa), out of top race mare and Japanese blue hen Cesario (Special Week). He is the second winner from Rosalind, who also has an unnamed yearling by Screen Hero (Grass Wonder). The Aoba Sho is recognised as one of the leading trials for the Tokyo Yushun (Gr 1, 2400m), scheduled for May 31 at Tokyo.

Silvano - Champion South African-based stallion Silvano (Lomitas) registered a 96th individual stakes winner yesterday when Chefano (5 g ex Valdovino by Al Mufti) took the Queen Mother Memorial Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Sha Tin. Silvano, who was one of the first true globetrotters when representing Germany and trainer Andreas Wohler on the world stage, including in the 2001 Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m), stands at Andreas Jacobs' Maine Chance Farms, east of Cape Town. The 24-year-old secured his fourth General Sires Title last year and stood for ZAR250,000 (AUD$20,700) in 2019.
