Sottsass lands Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe with Enable only sixth

Jean-Claude Rouget-trained son of Siyouni adds Longchamp feature to top-level Prix du Jockey Club and Prix Ganay victories

Sottsass (green silks) on his way to Arc glory

RACING POST/EDWARD WHITAKER

BY PETER SCARGILL

Sottsass (Siyouni) captured the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) in front of a nearly deserted Longchamp yesterday as Enable (Nathaniel) failed in her bid for an historic third victory, finishing sixth under Frankie Dettori.

In what was a messy running of Europe's most prestigious race under conditions made all the more peculiar by Covid-19 restrictions, Persian King (Kingman) set only a modest pace on the lead as he tried to make his stamina stretch while runners bumped and rolled into each other on the sapping ground in the home straight, with Enable interfered with among others.

The stewards called an inquiry into the result after the runners passed the post, but the finishing positions remained unchanged.

However, Sottsass (4 c ex Starlet's Sister by Galileo), who finished third behind Waldgeist (Galileo) and Enable in last year's Arc, was superb as he picked up and surged to the lead in the final furlong and a half to take the prize by a neck from the fast-finishing In Swoop (Adlerflug).

Trainer Jean-Claude Rouget was winning the Arc for the first time and said: "We've worked all year for this. Our entire aim for 2020 was this and it's not been easy with the changes to the calendar.

"We've never been able to do quite what we wanted with the horse. But these last few days I've really felt he was in top form."

Enable, so brilliant in her three previous Arc runs, was blunted by the underfoot conditions as well as the interference and was never in a position to make a telling challenge.

Teddy Grimthorpe, racing manager for Enable's owner Khalid Abdullah said: "She just wasn't able to go on the ground, really and truly. She's had a good position, Frankie's been happy with her but she just couldn't pick up like we'd normally expect her to.

"We'll see how she is when she gets back and talk to John (Gosden, trainer) and Prince Khalid and make a plan. There will be no decisions (on retirement) at this stage."

With Aidan O'Brien forced to withdraw his Arc runners over concerns about contaminated feed, the pacemaking duties were up for grabs and it was Pierre-Charles Boudot who took the bull by the horns on Prix du Moulin (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Persian King, who was stepping up considerably in trip.

Enable sat poised in about fifth place with Sottsass positioned a place in front of her and towards the inside, where jockey Cristian

Demuro could make use of the strip of fresh ground opened up for Sunday.

As the false rail disappeared, Sottsass made his move to chase down Persian King with Enable and Stradivarius (Sea The Stars) prominent on the outside. As the frontrunner drifted to his right, Sottsass moved left causing interference together with Gold Trip (Outstrip), who was edging right from the far outside of the field.

Despite the coming together, those impacted were simply outclassed by Sottsass as he surged clear in the colours of Peter Brant's White Birch Farm.

A €340,000 purchase at Arqana in August 2017, Sottsass was winning for the sixth time in a 12-race career which has also yielded victories in last season's Prix du Jockey Club (Gr 1, 2100m) and the Prix Ganay (Gr 1, 2100m) earlier this year.

Sottsass is the third foal out of the Galileo (Sadler's Wells) mare Starlet's Sister. His half-sister Sistercharlie (Myboycharlie) is a Grade 1 winner in the US, while Starlet's Sister herself is a sister to French Group 3 winner Leo's Starlet.

Rouget was uncertain what the future may hold for Sottsass, with a 50 per cent share in the Siyouni colt reportedly sold to the Coolmore partners in January.

"I don't know what is next," he said. "The owners will discuss between them. I would like to see him make a good stallion as he's such a good-looking horse."

'The cost is incredible' says a dismayed O'Brien after missing out on Arc

BY DAVID CARR

Aidan O'Brien has hinted at the huge financial and emotional cost of being forced to scratch all his runners from yesterday's Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe card at Longchamp due to contaminated feed.

But the trainer revealed that he hoped to be free to have runners again as early as this Wednesday in Ireland.

O'Brien and his sons Joseph and Donnacha withdrew their runners from all meetings they were entered to run at yesterday after urine samples sent to a French lab returned positive for the prohibited substance Zilpaterol.

It followed news that Gain Equine Nutrition had advised its customers to stop using their feed products after batches had become contaminated with Zilpaterol, which is unlicensed in Europe but is used in the US and elsewhere to promote weight gain, mainly in cattle.

Aidan O'Brien had been due to have four runners in the Arc alone, including the Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Serpentine (Galileo) who was supplemented for €72,000 (approx. AUD$117,500), and he expressed his sympathy for the Coolmore axis that bankrolls the Ballydoyle operation.

"I feel sorry for the lads," he said on Luck On Sunday. "They put so much in and the cost is incredible.

"Everyone's working so hard to try to breed the horses, to sell the horses, to train them, to race them, They put in so much to get the horses to this stage, they try and make it happen, I feel so sorry for them. I hope we're all able to work it out.

"This morning it is very quiet here."

Gain Equine Nutrition tweeted their sympathy for those affected and said: "The team at Gain Equine Nutrition are hugely disappointed to learn that some of our customers have withdrawn their horses from important equine events this weekend, including the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in Paris.

"We are continuing to work closely with all appropriate agencies, including the Irish Department of Agriculture, to fully investigate the source, nature and extent of this contamination.

"We are also in close contact with horse racing regulatory bodies. We will provide a more detailed update once further information is available."

Looking ahead, O'Brien has entries in Ireland this week and many top two-year-olds entered in the Fillies' Mile (Gr 1, 1m) at Newmarket on Friday and Dewhurst Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) there on Saturday.

"I suppose the best case scenario is we would have to have a two or three-day withdrawal stage and that maybe we could be back racing on Wednesday or Thursday," he said.

"We may have runners on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in Ireland and hopefully runners over the weekend. We would have to do blood and urine samples from the horse probably starting tomorrow and do them every day all the way up to the weekend.

Aidan O'Brien

RACING POST/PATRICK MCCANN

"But everyone in Ireland and England has to see are they going to do the tests, and if they do, how low the bar is going to be? There's an awful lot of questions that have to be answered. We're going to start testing on Monday and we'll do it every day, probably using the French labs until there are some labs in England or Ireland that we can use."

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Tagaloa the forgotten Guineas runner

Natalie Young is delighted with last season's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) as the three-year-old prepares to step up in trip in the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) on Saturday. Tagaloa has suffered four consecutive defeats since his sole Group 1 success in February, but Young is still keen on his chances. "I'm really happy, he did a nice piece of work on Saturday and Craig (Williams, jockey) is coming on Tuesday to have a sit on him, have a gallop and hopefully put the final touches on him," Young, who trains in partnership with Trent Busuttin, told Racing.com. "I'm rapt with the way he's come through that last run." Tagaloa was last seen finishing sixth in the Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and finished only one and three quarter lengths behind winner Behemoth (All Too Hard). "I keep watching the replay," Young said of Tagaloa's Rupert Clarke start. "He wasn't far off them and through the line he was pretty good. Don't forget about him yet."

The Bopper set for city debut

The Bopper (Nicconi) will make his city debut today when he lines up in a Benchmark 72 Handicap (1100m) at Canterbury. The gelding is a well-fancied favourite for the race after winning both his raceday appearances last season, although his trainer Kris Lees is hesitant to heap praise on the three-year-old. "He's won well in his two races but they were questionable form races to be honest," Lees told Racing NSW. "He's a nice horse, you can't do much more than what he's done, but it's certainly a good test for him taking on older horses at city level. Canterbury probably suits now that he has drawn soft, I think it is a nice option. He will probably only have a light spring, we will see the best of him in the autumn."

Zahra lauds Elleegant ahead of Cups

Mark Zahra has heaped praise on star mare Verry Elleegant (Zed) after she landed another Group 1 victory in the Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on Saturday and Zahra is excited about the prospect of riding her in the Caulfield (Gr 1, 2400m) and Melbourne Cups (Gr 1, 3200m). "What she did yesterday just proves that you wouldn't want to be on any other horses going into these types of races at this time of the year," Zahra told Racing.com. "I had something underneath me the whole way, I was just creeping the whole way and I thought I was getting on top of the other runners." Verry Elleegant, who will carry only 55 kilograms for the Caulfield Cup, has been installed as the $7 favourite and Zahra will follow a strict diet in the coming days. "No cheat days for me now. Normally on a Saturday night or Sunday I can have a bit of a blow out, but this time of year I just keep a very strict diet. Another couple weeks of a strict diet and I'll be fine."

Pike booked for Port Guillaume

William Pike has been booked to ride French Group 2 winner Port Guillaume (Le Havre) in the Caulfield Cup on October 17. The northern hemisphere-bred colt will carry 52.5 kilograms for the race, with the light weight assisting the 34-year-old to gain his first ride in the $5 million showpiece. Port Guillaume will make his Australian debut for new trainers Tom Dabernig and Ben Hayes after a career spent in France, with the standout success being a three-length victory in the Prix Hocquart (Gr 2, 2500m) earlier this year. Port Guillaume is a $15 chance with Sportsbet to win the Caulfield Cup.

Williams takes Master Of Wine mount

Chris Williams has picked up the ride on Master Of Wine (Maxios) in the Caulfield Cup. The six-year-old gelding will carry 53.5 kilograms on October 17 and sits 18th in the order. Master Of Wine, who took out the Sky High Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) last season, finished fifth in the Turnbull Stakes on Saturday, only three quarters of a length behind the winner Verry Elleegant. Meanwhile Aktau (Teofilo), who finished last of 15 in the Turnbull, could be subject to a gear change in the Caulfield Cup after pulling hard on Saturday.

Pike takes blame for Schabau defeat

William Pike left Flemington disappointed on Saturday and wishes he went for home earlier on Schabau (Pastorius), having felt his mount had plenty left to give when finishing fourth in the Bart Cummings (Gr 3, 2500m). Persan (Pierro) took the race, but more importantly the golden ticket to next month's Melbourne Cup, with Schabau one and half lengths back. "We were moving into the race nicely and I was still confident in the run that we were a chance," Pike told Racing.com. "With the way he kept coming late and how he felt through the line, maybe if I had wound him up a little earlier we could have been right in the finish. It's frustrating that he hasn't been able to win one of these races because he's feels really good."

Scope provides excuse for Nature Strip

Nature Strip

SPORTPIX

Nature Strip's (Nicconi) disappointing Premiere Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) run on Saturday has been explained after a post-race vet check conducted at Chris Waller's Rosehill stables revealed a degree of mucus in his trachea, which could have adversely affected his performance. Nature Strip was beaten four lengths by Libertini (I Am Invincible) and subsequently lost his place at the head of The Everest (1200m) betting. The six-year-old will now be placed on a course of antibiotics and Racing NSW stewards will need to be satisfied by his condition prior to him racing in the world's richest turf race on October 17.

Golden Eagle ideal for Riodini

Riodini's (Proisir) co-owner and breeder Alan Galbraith is confident that the four-year-old can measure up to the $7.5 million Golden Eagle (1500m) after his gallant third in the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) on Saturday. Riodini, a Group 3 winner and Group 1 placegetter in New Zealand, has improved at every run this preparation and will head to the Rosehill feature on October 31. "We got a big thrill out of the (Epsom) as it has been a real adventure sending a horse over there to compete against the best on offer," Galbraith said. "The racing there is just so strong and yesterday was a big step up from what he faced here, so we got a massive buzz out of how he went. Winona Costin (jockey) said the pacemakers went a bit quick in front so he didn't really get a chance to have a breather during the running. It would have been nice for him to just get a little more cover but all in all it was a bloody good run. His next start will be in the Golden Eagle which gives him a chance to have a freshen up. His rating is high enough now that he will make the field without any problems so we just have to wait four weeks now, which is the hard part. If he can get a chance to relax in that race, I think he will be right in it as the 1500 metres suits him best. We've always had huge affection for him and it is a little like your children in that you are hoping they will do well just for their sake."

Young Rascal out of spring

Archie Alexander will aim Young Rascal (Intello) at autumn races in Sydney after the gelding disappointed in his three races since returning in August. The six-year-old finished last of 15 in the Bart Cummings on Saturday and Alexander believes firm tracks are preventing Young Rascal from producing his best form. The European import's biggest win last season came in the NE Manion Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) on soft ground.

Cumani gaining confidence in San Huberto

Matt Cumani is excited to see his new recruit San Huberto (Speightstown) in action after the colt arrived from France at the weekend. Cumani managed to visit Group 2 winner San Huberto at the Werribee Quarantine Centre on Saturday morning. OTI Racing bought into the northern hemisphere four-year-old earlier this year and will be targeting him at next month's Melbourne Cup. San Huberto is currently 32nd in line for a Melbourne Cup start and 36th in the Caulfield order of entry. San Huberto's last victory came in the Prix Vicomtesse Vigier (Gr 2, 3000m) on good to soft ground in June.

Payne's faith in Kah as female inspiration

Michelle Payne, the first female rider to win the Melbourne Cup, is delighted with Jamie Kah's Melbourne Cup opportunity, where she will ride the Charlie Fellowes-trained British raider Prince Of Arran (Shirroco). Payne feels Kah, who has already won two Group 1s, is walking in her footsteps and will inspire the next generation of female riders to take up the sport. Payne famously rode Prince Of Penzance (Pentire) to victory in 2015 at $101, while Kah's charge Prince Of Arran, a two-time

Melbourne Cup placegetter, is priced at $26 for the November showpiece.

NEW ZEALAND

Jennifer Eccles out of Livamol Classic

Last season's New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Jennifer Eccles (Rip Van Winkle) will not take her place in the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m) after she dropped out in the home straight to finish near the tail end of the field in the Windsor Park Plate (Gr 1, 1600m) on Saturday. Co-trainer Shaune Ritchie was scratching his head a little after the race and will now head back to the drawing board with four-year-old mare. "We are going to get the vet to her but I don't know if there is anything wrong with her based on her post-race recovery," Ritchie said. "Her recovery was normal but she raced very flat and anywhere between six to eight lengths below her best. It's hard to find an excuse as she got a lovely trip and she travelled up OK and was willing enough, but there was just no punch. I've found the best thing to do in this situation is to gracefully retreat and start again. If we went to the races again and she went the same I would be left feeling pretty bloody foolish."

Hello It's Me retired

Group 2 winner Hello It's Me (Darci Brahma) has been retired after missing a run at Te Rapa on Friday following a float accident. The six-year-old won five of her 19 career starts but had been finding it hard to recapture the form of her three-year-old season where she took out the Royal Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Ellerslie. Co-trainer Michelle Bradley would have liked to have given one of her favourites one last chance to turn her form around but it wasn't to be. "She just had a little bit of an incident in the float on the way to the races and suffered a few grazes on one side," Bradley said. "It wasn't anything major but Friday was going to be her last chance to get back into form after disappointing us in her first two runs in this campaign. She was an absolute favourite around the stable and I will miss her, but she can now go on to her next career as a broodmare." Hello It's Me will be offered as a broodmare prospect on the gavelhouse.com website in the coming days.

ASIA

First Group 1-winning sprinter for Deep Impact

The late Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) has already conquered so much through the feats of his progeny, but he ticked off a new milestone when Gran Alegria (4 f Deep Impact - Tapitsfly by Tapit) produced a remarkable win in the Sprinters Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Nakayama yesterday. Sent out as favourite, Gran Alegria appeared to be in a hopeless position turning for home, second-last and 15 lengths off a brisk tempo. However, she unleashed an incredible turn of foot to sweep past her rivals and score by two lengths over Danon Smash (Lord Kanaloa) with another half-length to longshot A Will A Way (Just A Way) in third. Gran Alegria, who upset champion mare Almond Eye (Lord Kanaloa) when winning the Yasuda Kinen (Gr 1, 1600m) in June, became the first Group 1 winner for Deep Impact at a distance below 1500 metres, giving the champion stallion top-level victors from 1200 metres to 3200 metres. Deep Impact died last year.

INTERNATIONAL

First for Galiway

Haras de Colleville resident Galiway (Galeo) sired his maiden elite level winner when his son Sealiway (2 c ex Kensea by Kendargent) sprinted clear of his four rivals to post an impressive winning performance in the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere (Gr 1, 1400m) at Longchamp yesterday. The Frederic Rossi-trained juvenile was always travelling best of the small field on the testing ground before quickening well under Mickael Barzalona to register an eight-length win. Odds-on favourite Nando Parrado (Kodiac) kept on at one pace for second, with Laws Of Indices (Power) another three-quarters of a length behind in third. Sealiway was winning for the fourth time in six starts, having scored in Listed company at Vichy prior to his second in the Prix la Rochette (Gr 3, 1400m) over this course and distance on his previous outing. A €62,000 purchase at Arqana last year, Sealiway is the third foal out of the Listed winning Kendargent (Kendor) mare Kensea. Galiway stood for a fee of €10,000 in 2020.

Three for Clodovil

Tiger Tanaka

EDWARD WHITAKER

The incredible progression of Tiger Tanaka (2 f ex Miss Phillyjinks by Zoffany) notched up an extra gear yesterday when she landed the prestigious Prix Marcel Boussac (Gr 1, 1600m) on Longchamp's Arc card and in the process provided her sire Clodovil (Daneshill) with his third individual elite level winner. Having started the season in lowly claiming company, the €6,500 purchase took her career tally to six wins in seven starts when keeping clear of the scrimmaging in a rough race to score by three-quarters of a length under Jessica Marcialis, the partner of winning trainer Cha Rossi. Tasmania (Zoffany) emerged out of the pack to take second, with Rougir (Territories) doing her best work late on to finish third, a further length and a half away. Tiger Tanaka won her first four starts before finishing third of four when upped in company to contest the Prix Robert Papin (Gr 2, 1200m) at Chantilly back in July. She got back to winning ways when contesting a Group 3 on testing ground at Deauville last month. The first foal out of the winning mare Miss Phillyjinks (Zoffany), Tiger Tanaka is related to numerous winners, however none of them have come close to matching her achievements. French Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Clodovil stood at Rathasker Stud for a fee of €8,000 (approx AUD$13,000) in 2020.

Three for Wootton Bassett

The Francis-Henri Graffard-trained Wooded (3 c ex Frida La Blonde by Elusive City) took out the Prix de l'Abbaye (Gr 1, 1000m) at Longchamp yesterday to provide Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj) with his third individual elite-level winner. Ridden by Pierre-Charles Boudot, Wooded never had to leave the rail in pursuit of his first Group 1 success and defeated the 17-10 favourite Glass Slippers (Dream Ahead) by a neck, with Frankie Dettori's mount Liberty Beach (Cable Bay) close behind in third. Coolmore's new recruit Wootton Bassett also sired Group 1 winners Almanzor and Audarya.

FR: Irish dominate Prix de l'Opera

Christophe Soumillon unleashed Irish raider Tarnawa (4 f Shamardal - Tarana by Cape Cross) at the perfect time to lead home an Irish-trained one-two in Longchamp's Prix de l'Opera (Gr 1, 2000m), with the Jessica Harrington-trained Alpine Star (Sea The Moon) battling hard to finish second. Tarnawa, trained by Dermot Weld, swooped around the outside and appeared to need every bit of the 2000-metre trip to get her head in front of 8-5 favourite Alpine Star and defeat her by a short neck, with Audarya (Wootton Bassett) a further three quarters of a length back in third. Victory brought up a fourth Prix de l'Opera win for Soumillon, who is the most successful rider in the history of the race. Bookmakers reacted by cutting Tarnawa to 5-2 favouritism for the British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f) on October 17.

FR: Master rules in Foret again

It may not have been the one everybody was expecting, but a mare made history by winning a race on the Arc card for the third time at Longchamp yesterday when One Master (6 m Fastnet Rock - Enticing by Pivotal) came out on top in a tight finish to the Prix de la Foret (Gr 1, 1400m). The William Haggas-trained six-year-old, who had been triumphant in this race in each of the last two years, completed her hat-trick under a jubilant Pierre-Charles Boudot when seeing off the leading home fancy Earthlight (Shamardal) by a neck, with Safe Voyage (Fast Company) just a further neck away in third. One Master has now won seven of her 22 starts to date, a tally which includes six stakes victories.

121 for Oasis Dream

Cloud Surfing (4 f ex Hasten by Montjeu) was making her second start in stakes company yesterday when romping to a four and three quarter length victory in the Schloss Roland-Stutenpreis (Listed, 1400m) at Dusseldorf to become the 121st individual stakes winner for her sire Oasis Dream (Green Desert). The Francois Rohaut-trained four-year-old was recording her fourth win, with four placings, from 11 starts. The favourite Light Blush (Kodiac) came home second for Godolphin, while Belle Anglaise (Cable Bay) was a further length back in third. Oasis Dream stands at Juddmonte's Banstead Manor Stud in Newmarket where his 2020 fee was £25,000 (approx. AUD$45,150).

Wonnemond back to winning ways at Dusseldorf

Seven-year-old Wonnemond (Areion) added a third Group victory to his CV yesterday when he was a surprise 20-1 winner of the Grosser Preis der Landeshauptstadt (Gr 3, 1700m) at Dusseldorf. The Sascha Smrczek-trained gelding was placed on his last two starts but was recording his first win since August last year, taking his tally to ten wins and 13 placings from 39 starts. He asserted close home to take the honours by a length from Schwesterherz (Areion), while Song Of Life (Poet's Voice) was a further length and a quarter back in third.

Sunny Queen doubles up at Hannover

Sunny Queen (Camelot) landed a second stakes success at Hannover in yesterday's Gorilla Millions Cup (Listed, 2400m) on just her fourth start. The Henk Grewe-trained three-year-old won by three quarters of a length from Episodia (Palace Episode) and Arktis (Jukebox Jury), who were split by a nose.

Four in a row for Kick On

Kick On (Charm Spirit) landed his fourth stakes race on the bounce and is now four from five since joining Niels Petersen from John Gosden earlier this year as he took out the Arnfinn Lunds Minnelop (Listed, 1600m) at Orevoll in Norway yesterday. The four-year-old landed a Group 3 and Listed race in Sweden before winning the Marit Sveaas Minnelop (Gr 3, 1800m) at this track in August, while he also won the Sovereign Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) and Feilden Stakes (Listed, 1m1f) in England last year for Gosden. Sent off as favourite, he charged late between horses to get the better of Valence (Oasis Dream) while Swedish Dream (Helmet) was third.

Six for Declaration Of War

Former Coolmore stallion Declaration Of War (War Front) produced his sixth individual Group or Grade 1 winner on Saturday when Gufo (3 c ex Floy by Petionville) took out the Belmont Derby Invitational Stakes (Gr 1, 10f). The Christophe Clement-trained Gufo took his record to five wins from seven starts with his first top-level triumph, defeating Todd Pletcher-trained stablemates No Word (Silent Name) and Mo Ready (Uncle Mo) to score by a length. "He won well. I thought he had a great trip from Junior (Alvarado, jockey), and when he asked him to quicken, he really quickened well in the stretch. He's a good horse," Clement said. "If you look at all his races this year, he's been running well all year round. I know he got beat last time in the Saratoga Derby, but he actually ran a winning race when you look back at it." The win gives Gufo an automatic berth into the Breeders' Cup Turf (Gr 1, 12f), but Clement said the Hollywood Derby (Gr 1, 9f) at Del Mar was also under consideration. Declaration Of War now stands at JBBA Shizunai in Japan.

26 for Tapit

Darley homebred Essential Quality (2 c ex Delightful Quality by Elusive Quality) became Tapit's (Pulpit) 26th individual Group or Grade 1 winner on Saturday when the colt remained unbeaten with a dominant victory in the Claiborne Breeders' Futurity (Gr 1, 8.5f) at Keeneland. Stepping out for just the second time, having won a six-furlong maiden on the Kentucky Derby undercard, the Brad Cox-prepared Essential Quality scored by three and a quarter lengths over Keepmeinmind (Laoban), with Super Stock (Dialed In) a further length and a half away in third. "We've had some very nice two-year-old fillies, but this is probably the best colt I've had as far as talent goes. He's our first Grade 1 winner as a two-year-old colt," Cox said. "He means a lot to us. He showed us from day one that he's special; very talented." Essential Quality will return to the track and trip next month for the Breeders' Cup Juvenile (Gr 1, 8.5f).

First for He's Had Enough

Former Florida-based stallion He's Had Enough (Tapit) registered his first stakes winner on Saturday when Miss Marissa (3 f ex Ardara by Arch) took out the Black-Eyed Susan Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) at Pimlico. Sent out at 10-1, the Jim Ryerson-trained Miss Marissa - a last-start allowance winner at Saratoga - kicked for home at the top of the stretch, holding off the late surge of the favoured Bonny South (Munnings) to score by a neck. Hopeful Growth (Tapiture) was a further length and a half away in third. He's Had Enough served five seasons at Woodford Thoroughbreds in Florida before being exported to the Philippines, where he currently stands.

US: Swiss Skydiver wins Preakness

Swiss Skydiver (3 f Daredevil - Expo Gold by Johannesburg) became just the sixth filly to win the Preakness Stakes (Gr 1, 9.5f) at Pimlico with a brilliant performance on Saturday, turning back Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) winner Authentic (Into Mischief) by a neck in a thrilling stretch run that will be talked about for years to come. In this strangest of years, the Preakness Stakes - usually the middle leg of the Triple Crown - was the last leg this year, with no Triple Crown on the line. The Kenny McPeck-trained Swiss Skydiver, already a Grade 1 winner in the Alabama Stakes (Gr 1, 10f), was entering off a runner-up finish behind Shedaresthedevil (Daredevil) in the Kentucky Oaks (Gr 1, 9f). Tracking the pace early, she moved up boldly under Robby Albarado to challenge Authentic, with the pair going stride for stride down the stretch. Authentic dug deep with every bound, but Swiss Skydiver would not give in and surged under the wire with just enough to land her historic win; the duo came well clear of third-placed Jesus' Team (Tapiture), putting almost ten lengths on the remainder of the field. The final time was a swift 1:53.28; only Secretariat (Bold Ruler) went faster. The win was the first by a filly since Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro) in 2009. Purchased for $35,000 by McPeck at the 2018 Keeneland September Yearling Sale, Swiss Skydiver has now earned $1,792,980.

US: Breeders' Cup Mile heroine bounces back

Uni

EDWARD WHITAKER

Back in the same race and at the site of her course record-setting performance a year ago at Keeneland, Breeders' Cup Mile (Gr 1, 1m) winner Uni (6 m More Than Ready - Unaided by Dansili) found herself back in the winners' circle, capturing the First Lady Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) on Saturday. Winless in 2020, the Chad Brown-trained Uni - winner of the First Lady in a track record time last year - pulled clear for a length victory over Beau Recall (Sir Prancealot), who just nabbed the winner's stablemate Newspaperofrecord (Lope De Vega) for the runner-up position. "I was so stressed out," said co-owner Sol Kumin of the Head of Plains partnership. "You know, if she doesn't run well here, you couldn't run her back in the Breeders' Cup after the year she had. Now you run her back, same track in five weeks and you feel like she might be back. Chad said her last two breezes, he felt like she was circling back to the form she had last year, so we were hopeful. But until you see it, you just don't know. Just an incredible filly."

US: South America's Ivar takes Shadwell Turf Mile

Ivar (4 c Agnes Gold - May Be Now by Smart Strike), a dual Group 1 winner in his native Argentina last year, now has a top-tier victory in the United States to join his list of accomplishments. The Paulo Lobo-trained four-year-old captured the Shadwell Turf Mile Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) by a length at Keeneland on Saturday, defeating Grade 1 winners and Chad Brown-prepared stablemates Raging Bull (Dark Angel) and Without Parole (Frankel) and earning an automatic berth in the Breeders' Cup Mile in the process. Bred in Brazil, Ivar has won five of his seven starts.

US: Second Joe Hirsch for Channel Maker

The classy Channel Maker (6 g English Channel - In Return by Horse Chestnut), making his fourth appearance in the Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Stakes (Gr 1, 12f) at Belmont Park, won the race for a second time on Saturday with a frontrunning victory under Manny Franco. The Bill Mott-trained Channel Maker won the Joe Hirsch Turf Classic in 2018, having finished sixth in 2017, while he finished second last year to Arklow (Arch). Rated well in front by Franco, Channel Maker defeated German raider Laccario (Scalo) by two and a quarter lengths with Sadler's Joy (Kitten's Joy) in third and is now likely to target the Breeders' Cup Turf, a race in which he has been well beaten the last two years.

US: Complexity once again bests Code

Saturday's Kelso Handicap (Gr 2, 1m) was not the first time Complexity (4 c Maclean's Music - Goldfield by Yes It's True) got the better of Code of Honor (Noble Mission) in stakes action at Belmont Park. Over the same course and distance in October, 2018, Complexity turned back the same rival in the Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1m). Though Code of Honor stumbled at the start of the Champagne, he did not find the same excuse in the Kelso, which marked the first graded stakes win for Complexity in two years. The Kelso victory was a larger accomplishment considering that Code of Honor has won five graded stakes since the Champagne, including last season's Travers Stakes (Gr 1, 10f) and Jockey Club Gold Cup (Gr 1, 10f). Complexity scored by two and a quarter lengths over Code Of Honor, with Stan The Man (Broken Vow) a further seven and a quarter lengths away in third.

US: City Of Hope to Mo Forza

It took Mo Forza (4 c Uncle Mo - Inflamed by Unusual Heart) six tries to reach the winners' circle for his maiden victory a year ago, but now that the Peter Miller trainee has become acquainted with success, he keeps coming back for more. Mo Forza stormed home a convincing winner of the City of Hope Mile Stakes (Gr 2, 1m) at Santa Anita on Saturday, defeating Sharp Samurai (First Samurai) by a length and three quarters with another length and a quarter back to Bob And Jackie (Twirling Candy) in third. It was the colt's sixth win from his last seven starts, with the Breeders' Cup Mile his next port of call. "I think he's getting more and more professional which is great," winning rider Flavien Prat said. "Today he showed up again. We can probably go further, but as of right now he's running pretty well, so I wouldn't change anything."

US: Factor This continues strong season

Maryland's oldest stakes race, the Dinner Party Stakes (Gr 2, 8.5f), was taken out by consistent performer Factor This (5 g The Factor - Capricious Miss by Singspiel) at Pimlico on Saturday. Reverting to its original name in 2020 after having been named the Dixie Stakes for many years, the Dinner Party Stakes has been won by some of the greats of the American turf. The Brad Cox-trained Factor This may not belong in that category, but after five wins from seven starts in 2020, he is continuing to perform this season. Factor This defeated the Michael Maker-trained Somelikeithotbrown (Big Brown) by two and three quarter lengths, with the runner-up's stablemate Hembree (Proud Citizen) almost seven lengths away in third.

US: Turf Sprint next for Leinster

Unlike four other stakes races at Keeneland on Saturday, the Woodford Stakes (G2, 5.5f) was not a Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" prep, but Leinster (5 h Majestic Warrior - Vassar by Royal Academy) is pointed to the season-ending meeting regardless. By winning the turf dash over the same course and distance as next month's Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (G1, 5.5f), Leinster left his connections little doubt that he belongs in the race. After pressing the pace, he inched away for a half-length score over Extravagant Kid (Kiss The Kid), the only horse to beat Leinster in three starts this year. Leinster finished seventh to Belvoir Bay (Equiano) in last year's Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Santa Anita, but his trainer Rusty Arnold believes it is a different scenario this season. "He was probably over-raced a little bit last year," Arnold said. "At the end of the year, I think that the last two weren't as good. He's a fresh horse now."

US: Frank's Rockette dominant in Gallant Bloom

The Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint (Gr 1, 7f) is now on the agenda for Frank's Rockette (3 f Into Mischief - Rocket Twentyone by Indian Charlie) after she made it four in a row in the Gallant Bloom Handicap (Gr 2, 6.5f) at Belmont on Saturday. Ridden by Junior Alvarado, the Bill Mott-trained Frank's Rockette scored by seven and a quarter lengths over Honor Way (Caleb's Posse), who overcame a slow start, with Royal Charlotte (Cairo Prince) in third. "The difference has been from this spring to now," Mott said. "She put on weight over the winter. We were in Florida and it seemed like she was light and not really carrying the weight I'd like to see, but we brought her up north. She was here in New York for a while and over June, July and August, she really filled out and put on some weight and looks great, and it's paying off right now."

US: Patience pays off for Inthemidstofbiz

A patient approach paid off for the connections of Inthemidstofbiz (4 f Fed Biz - Midst by Closing Argument) when the filly scored an upset victory in the Thoroughbred Club of America Stakes (G2, 6f) on Saturday at Keeneland. Making her graded stakes debut in her 13th start having broken her stakes maiden at Presque Isle Downs at her previous outing, Inthemidstofbiz opened a clear advantage in the stretch and wasn't seriously challenged late in posting a three-length victory in the six-furlong test for fillies and mares. Finishing second was Sneaking Out (Indian Evening), who entered off back-to-back graded stakes wins in southern California, and taking third was Palace Avenger (Palace), making her stakes debut off a pair of allowance-level wins at Saratoga. "We got lucky today. She's getting better and better," winning trainer and co-owner Cipriano Contreras said of the horse he claimed for $20,000 - she has now won $297,121.

US: Fire At Will adds Pilgrim on turf

The Michael Maker-trained Fire At Will (2 c Declaration Of War - Flirt by Kitten's Joy) added a turf stakes win to his maiden stakes victory on dirt last time out, taking the Pilgrim Stakes (Gr 2, 8.5f) at Belmont on Saturday. Fire At Will utilised a frontrunning approach under Kendrick Carmouche to take the Pilgrim after he won the With Anticipation Stakes (Listed, 7f) - which was taken off the turf due to rain - at Saratoga last month. Odds-on favourite Public Sector (Kingman) finished second, two lengths away, with Step Dancer (War Dancer) the same margin away in third. "My horse ran a monster race on the dirt last time," said Carmouche. "I just figured, let me run away from there. He was in hand the whole way. I was just waiting to push the button. Mike Maker gets these horses ready the right way. He's one of the best trainers in the country with grass horses."

US: Miss Preakness to Wicked Whisper

Last year's Frizette Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) winner Wicked Whisper (3 f Liam's Map - Zayanna by Bernardini) scored a first win of 2020 in taking out the Miss Preakness Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at Pimlico on Saturday. Wicked Whisper fought on between rivals to defeat Ain't No Elmers (Goldencents) by a length, with Sound Machine (Into Mischief) back in third. "Her season was definitely interrupted by this year's racing calendar," winning trainer Steve Asmussen said. "She was getting ready a little late for things and with the cancellations we got off track. It's beautiful to see her show the quality she's always had. There are big things in her future."

US: Juliet Foxtrot takes out Gallorette

Favourite Juliet Foxtrot (5 m Dansili - Kilo Alpha by King's Best) took out the Gallorette Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Pimlico on Saturday. The Brad Cox-trained Juliet Foxtrot, who began her career in the UK with Charlie Hills, won the Modesty Handicap (Gr 3, 9.5f) at Arlington last year and was then three-times Grade 1-placed late last year and this year. However, Saturday represented her first win since the Modesty, holding the fast-finishing Varenka (Ghostzapper) to score by a length. "We're not sure how far she wants to go. I think she is a true miler," winning rider Florent Geroux said. "I think she prefers firm turf, so today the ground was a bit of a concern, but she was able to show her class. She won by her class today."

US: Dilodovico comes out from behind cameras

Television producer Damon Dilodovico was certain Preakness Stakes day would be a hectic afternoon for him as is, helping with the production of a simulcast show featuring 12 stakes races at Pimlico, but little did he know he would also have to find time to be the star of one of those races. When Laki (7 g Cuba - Truthful Dutch by Swear By Dixie) won the Frank J. De Francis Memorial Dash Stakes (Gr 3, 6f), it moved Dilodovico from behind the cameras to in front of them as the trainer of the first-time graded stakes winner. "It was unbelievably exciting. Everybody was hollering," Dilodovico said. "It was like a May Preakness." For Dilodovico, who has been training since 1991, it was his first graded stakes win in a training career that has spanned roughly 3,949 starts and 732 wins. "This means the world to me," he said.

IRE: Simon Kerins appointed new CEO of Tattersalls Ireland

Simon Kerins

TATTERSALLS

Simon Kerins has been appointed chief executive of Tattersalls Ireland from January next year, it was announced on Saturday. Kerins, who joined Tattersalls Ireland in 2000 and has been a member of the Tattersalls Ireland Board since 2004, will replace Matt Mitchell, who stands down at the end of the year. Kerins has also been a senior member of the auctioneering and inspection teams for Tattersalls Ireland and Tattersalls in Newmarket.

German Oaks third Virginia Joy lights up Arc sale

German-trained Virginia Joy (Soldier Hollow), Lot 24, became the top price of the Arqana Arc Sale on Saturday night when Michel Zerolo, Nicolas de Watrigant (Mandore International Agency) and Anne-Sophie Yoh-Benet (YOHEA) went head-to-head to secure the three-year-old filly.

It was Zerolo of Oceanic Bloodstock that had the final say with a bid of €975,000 (approx. AUD$1.6 million) for the daughter of Soldier Hollow (In The Wings). Sold with an entry in the EP Taylor Stakes (Gr 1, 10f) at Woodbine, the Marcel Weiss-trained filly, offered by Panorama Bloodstock for Gestüt Auenquelle, most recently finished second in the T. von Zastrow Stutenpreis (Gr 2, 2400m) following her victory in the Mehl-Mülhens-Trophy (Gr 3, 2200m) and third in the Preis der Diana (Gr 1, 2200m) this season.

Boussac runner Coeursamba makes €400,000

ARQANA

Coeursamba (The Wow Signal), Lot 13, who finished unplaced in yesterday's Prix Marcel Boussac (Gr 1, 1600m) having been third in both the Prix d'Aumale (Gr 3, 1600m) and Prix Six Perfections (Gr 3, 1400m), was also subject to a lot of interest around the ring. It was Paul Basquin of Haras du Saubouas that had the final say on behalf of Mohamed Fahad Al Attiyah, signing the docket at €400,000 (approx. AUD$654,250) for the daughter of The Wow Signal (Starspangledbanner). "I've bought her for Mohamed Fahad Al Attiyah," commented Basquin. "She was the one we wanted in the sale.

Step By Step for Narvick International

An excellent third in the Prix Chaudenay (Gr 2, 3000m) at Longchamp just a few hours before the sale following on from his win in the Derby du Languedoc (Listed, 2400m) and second in the Prix de Lutèce (Gr 3, 3000m) earlier this season, Step By Step (Sidestep), Lot 25, made €320,000 (approx. AUD$523,000) to Emmanuel de Seroux (Narvick International). The colt was offered from Yann Barberot's stable. A little earlier in the evening, the agent had struck for Dick Whittington (War Command), Lot 12, also trained by the Deauville handler. Third in the Prix Turenne (Listed, 2400m) on his last start having finished fourth in the Prix Hocquart (Gr 2, 2500m) at Deauville this summer, the three-year-old gelding was knocked down for €270,000 (approx. AUD$441,500).

Kalifornia Queen heading stateside

One of the best German fillies of her generation this year, Kalifornia Queen (Lope De Vega), Lot 11, was knocked down for €260,000

(approx. AUD$425,000) to Hubert Guy. The winner of the Gestüt Röttgen Diana-Trial (Gr 2, 2000m) this season, the daughter of Lope De Vega (Shamardal) finished sixth in the Prix de Royallieu (Gr 1, 2800m) earlier in the afternoon before going through the ring. Acting on behalf of American owner Sol Kumin (Madaket Stables), Guy said afterwards, "She's a real racehorse that has won a Group 2 already. She ran very well today over a shorter distance and on ground that wasn't to her liking. I've bought her for Sol Kumin and she'll go to Chad Brown in New York."

Following the sale, Freddy Powell, the executive director of Arqana said, "In spite of the unfavourable economic climate, we have still seen positive signals. The demand for quality profiles remains strong, with European and particularly French black-type being valued worldwide. There have been some fine transactions that will, among other things, enable young French trainers and owners to reinvest. These are positive signs in the run-up to the October Yearling Sale."

A total of 19 horses went under the hammer at the Arc Sale held at Saint-Cloud, with 11 lots changing hands for an average of €277,273 (approx. AUD$453,500). With an overall turnover of €3,050,000 (approx. AUD$4.99 million), the median for the auction was €260,000 (approx. AUD$425,000).

Derby aspirant Excellent Proposal scores rousing victory at Sha Tin

BY DECLAN SCHUSTER | HKJC_RACING

Rising star Excellent Proposal (Exceed And Excel) made a big statement with an impressive win in the Class 2 Chek Lap Kok Handicap (1800m) at Sha Tin yesterday afternoon.

The exciting John Size-trained gelding beat a classy field of experienced gallopers to cement his status as a leading contender for this season's three-race Four-Year-Old Classic Series which begins with the HK$12 million Hong Kong Classic Mile on January 24.

"He didn't sort of blow them away today but he certainly did the job," Size said, "he's got himself to a rating that's comfortable to be an aspirant of the Four-Year-Old Classic Series – so I'm happy with that.

"His temperament is good – he's sound, he does well and now that he's got that rating he can have a break."

Excellent Proposal took his impressive record to three wins from four starts with his half-length score, and he has now ticked off both the Classic Mile (1600m) and Classic Cup (1800m) trips. While the Derby distance of 2000 metres remains an unknown, it is of no concern to winning jockey Joao Moreira: "I don't see any problem with that," he said.

"He's been coping with everything that we have put to him. Fortunately today we didn't get caught four-deep like last time but he prevailed showing that he's the best horse in the field and the way that he won he proved that," Moreira said.

The Australian-bred four-year-old finished second on debut last term and this season is unbeaten in three starts, firstly over 1400m, then 1600m and 1800m yesterday.

"He's a very kind and relaxed horse, I couldn't be more delighted than what I am with this guy – he's got a bright future," Moreira said.

Excellent Proposal, carrying 123lb, defeated last start winner Tianchi Monster (Shocking), 111lb, by a half-length and had quality gallopers including Ho Ho Khan (Makfi), 133lb, a Group 3 winner, Butterfield (Setembro Chove), 129lb, Savvy Nine (Anodin), 129lb, Reliable Team (Reliable Man), 127lb, and Enrichment (Teofilo), 119lb, well in his wake.

"He knows what racing is about and for me as a jockey I just have to try and not complicate it, to try and avoid him getting a bump or check, to get him a smooth race which once again was the case. This type of horse always makes a jockey's life easier," Moreira said.

Caspar Fownes notches 900

Caspar Fownes recorded his 900th Hong Kong win at the meeting as Enfolding (Fastnet Rock) charged home with the Class 3 Ngong Ping Handicap (1650m).

"It's been great," Fownes said. "I haven't been training for that long really but 900 wins is a good milestone and I'm looking forward to the 1000 – that's the next target and hopefully we'll get that in the next two seasons."

Fownes was first licenced for the 2003/04 racing season after assisting his late father Lawrie Fownes, a pioneer of Hong Kong racing.

"There's been so many moments – I have so much passion for this game because we know what goes on behind the scenes with horses, they can break your heart with the problems they have and when you come out there and get the results it's so rewarding.

"Most of the public and everyone are just watching the results, they don't know what goes on behind the scenes – we work really hard, all of the trainers in Hong Kong and we try to do our best to get these horses out there week in and week out to perform," Fownes said.

Fownes' many credits include the 2006 Hong Kong Mile with The Duke, 2011 Hong Kong Sprit with Lucky Nine and the 2010 Hong Kong Derby with Super Satin plus international success in Singapore with Green Birdie, Lucky Nine and in more recent years with Southern Legend, who won back-to-back Kranji Miles.

Today's milestone came in Class 3 and while not the dizzying heights that Fownes has scaled previously, it was still a special win nonetheless.

"It's great to get it with a horse like that, who has had his share of issues – I thought I had him really well prepared for this race – his trials were good," Fownes said.

Whyte and Purton combine

Douglas Whyte and Zac Purton combined for their first win together this afternoon at Sha Tin with Temple Of Heaven (Iffraaj) who captured the Class 3 Mui Wo Handicap (1400m).

The pair were fierce competitors in the jockeys' room, with Purton ending Whyte's 13 consecutive champion jockey titles, but yesterday the pair were on the same side, linking for their first win as trainer and jockey.

"I'm in a different role now and he's taken over where I left off, he deserves to be winning races and his performances are showing that as he's riding very well," Whyte said.

The Northern Hemisphere three-year-old scored at his third start thanks to a strong finishing ride from the Australian ace to win by a short-head.

He's been a little bit green and he's taken a long time to learn things, even in the mornings, he was a bit too keen and he wanted to do things upside down but his last run indicated that he was coming to hand," Whyte said.

The gelding was a three-time winner pre-import in Great Britain when under the care of Richard Hannon; his latest win prior to his arrival, a five-length romp on the Tapeta track at Newcastle.

"He didn't have much luck previously and I think he's always wanted to step up to 1400 metres, it was just a matter of him needing those runs underneath his belt before I stepped him up, otherwise he would have been a bit too keen but it was a good ride by Zac (Purton)," Whyte said.

Purton did not waste time in his return to the winner's arch, taking the following race, the Class 3 Fan Lau Handicap (1000m) aboard Cruising (Danerich) for trainer Benno Yung.

The galloper scored his first win since mid-2018, putting a frustrating run of outs and injury concerns behind him to grab his second win at his 11th start.

Shinn's off the mark

Blake Shinn secured his first win for the new season as the David Hall-trained Plikclone (Burgundy) outlasted his rivals in the Class 5 Tung Chung Handicap (1400m).

"I was very happy to get that one out of the way," Shinn said, "it's been a little while coming to get that breakthrough win, as we know, Hong Kong is all about winning and once you win you get better opportunities - it's been tough to get good opportunities."

Blake Shinn

The Melbourne Cup-winning jockey broke through at his 34th ride in the 78th race of the season, highlighting the toughness and competitive nature of riding in Hong Kong.

"I feel people wanting me to do well in Hong Kong but it's about winning and it's a tough business here, there are some world-class jockeys so I'm just pleased to get that one out of the way and keep moving forward now.

"I'm hoping I can hang in there, get some more opportunities to keep extending my contract and keep trying to improve up the ranks as a leading rider in Hong Kong," Shinn said.

Matthew Chadwick and Tony Cruz successfully combined for the second time in as many race meetings as Diamond Pegasus (Snitzel) registered a tough victory in the Class 4 Tong Fuk Handicap (1200m).

The gelding was headed in the straight by Jade Phoenix (Per Incanto) but rallied under Chadwick to get his nose in front when it mattered the most.

Chadwick then bagged a double by taking the second of two dirt contests, the Class 4 Tai O Handicap (1650m) aboard Chung Wah Spirit (Dash For Cash).

The Me Tsui-trained Sparkling Dolphin (Exceed And Excel) surprised at 74/1 in the Class 4 Sha Lo Wan Handicap (1000m), securing Dylan Mo's second seasonal win.

Frankie Lor and Karis Teetan combined in the Class 4 Siu Ho Wan Handicap (1400m) as All For St Paul's (Magnus) grabbed his first Hong Kong win.

The Benno Yung-trained You Have My Word (Mastercraftsman) was wayward in the straight but kept kicking to grab the opener, the Class 5 Yi Oi Handicap (1800m) for Chad Schofield.

Hong Kong racing continues at Happy Valley this Wednesday (October 7).
