Rosemont Stud's Shamus Award (Snitzel) moved to the top of the Group 1-winning sire charts for the 2020/21 season after siring his third Group 1 winner this term courtesy of yesterday's Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) winner Duais (3 f Shamus Award - Meerlust by Johannesburg).

The son of Snitzel (Redoute's Choice), who has just four crops of racing age, drew level with Written Tycoon (Iglesia), leader of the general classification sire standings this season, on three Group 1 winners for the campaign, ahead of a host of leading sires on two, including Snitzel, Fastnet Rock (Danehill), Exceed And Excel (Danehill), Frankel (Galileo), All Too Hard (Casino Prince) and Savabeel (Zabeel).

Duais became Shamus Award's second individual Oaks winner for the season, following on from Media Award's win in the Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) last month, a feat only achieved by Redoute's Choice (Danehill) (2013) in the last 20 years, when the champion stallion won the Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) with Royal Descent and the Tasmanian Oaks (Listed, 2100m) with Global Balance. Continued on page 2>>

Mr Quickie, a first-crop flagbearer for the Cox Plate- (Gr 1, 2040m) winning stallion, claimed the Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) in October last year, adding to his Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) win of 2019.

The win was also a momentous occasion for a great family of Australian racing, as Edward Cummings, grandson of Bart, son of Anthony and brother of James, won his first Group 1 since leaving a partnership with his father and going it alone at the start of 2019.

Duais, a homebred for Matthew Irwin and his family, won the Adrian Knox Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Randwick on April 10, before backing up with a second in the Australian Oaks a week later, and was freshened up ahead of this Group 1 assignment in Brisbane, in an adept training performance from the latest Cummings to add his name to the Australian Group 1-winning trainer list.

Sent off the $2.80 favourite, Hugh Bowman took Duais straight to the back pair of the 13-runner field, a position she assumed until turning for home as the pace ebbed and flowed up front, with Ruru (So You Think) making a mid-race move to keep the tempo honest.

Bowman swung off heels, picking a gap between horses down the centre of the track in the straight, and finished much the dominant force to win by a going-away two and a half lengths ahead of New Zealand-bred duo Charms Star (Per Incanto) and Signora Nera (Sweynesse), to cue a clench of the fist from the jockey as he crossed the line and euphoria from Cummings and his team.

Out of Meerlust, Duais became the first Group 1 winner in the southern hemisphere by a Johannesburg (Hennessy) mare, despite the stallion boasting winners of a Preakness Stakes (Gr 1, 9f), Irish Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f), Irish 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) and the Middle Park Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) at Newmarket in a broodmare sire capacity. Percy Sykes Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Jamaea (Headwater) became the first Group 2 winner in Australia out of a Johannesburg mare in April this year.

Meerlust was purchased by Matthew Irwin for just $22,000 as a yearling from the Scone May sale in 2009 and, despite claiming just the one win at Grafton in a five-race career, has been a prolific producer in the breeding barn.

Her second foal is Sunshine Coast Guineas (Gr 3, 1600m) winner Baccarat Baby (Casino Prince), while Duais, her fourth named foal, becomes her second stakes winner. Baccarat Baby was sold for $650,000 to Spendthrift Australia as the curtain came down on her 27-start career which yielded eight wins, including two at stakes level.

The mare has a two-year-old sister to Duais named Amity Gal who is trained by David Van Dyke, while she was served by All Too Hard last year.

Shamus Award

Nature's Light, delivered using smart Stable Lights and mobile Light Masks.

“We've been using Equilume Light Masks on our dry mares for early cycling since 2013 and find them a very useful operational tool.

There are financial benefits in that there is no stable bedding and a reduction in stable staff by not needing to transport the horses in and out of paddocks on a daily basis.

There is no doubt that our mares are happier outside grazing in paddocks than being inside stables. To that effect, I think Equilume has been a big benefit to Arrowfield.”

Edward adds name to Cummings roll of honour board

The first was Jim. The greatest was Bart. Anthony took the baton, while the contemporary is James. And the latest; Edward.

The Cummings family name is synonymous with some of the most iconic moments of Australian racing history. And yesterday it was Edward Cummings who carved his name into the Cummings' Group 1-winning tradition.

Duais became Edward Cummings' first stakes winner when winning the Adrian Knox Stakes in April, and secured a first Group 1 win for the blue-blooded trainer yesterday, with this a training performance his ancestors and decorated family members would have been proud of.

In a preparation that began with her maiden win at Newcastle on December 20, Cummings campaigned the filly via a freshen up to wins at Warwick Farm on March 31 and the Adrian Knox just ten days later, while running second in the Australian Oaks behind Hungry Heart (Frankel) just a week after that.

Coming off an absence of seven weeks yesterday, the trainer rejuvenated his stable star to deliver a scintillating performance at Eagle Farm, with a visibly emotional Cummings overawed in the aftermath of the result.

"It's definitely been an interesting experience," he said. "I suppose I thought she could win that way and I'm glad she did.

"We've done it before already in the prep (freshen the horse up). She was about seven weeks between runs from Hawkesbury to Warwick Farm. We took her to the trials about three weeks out from Warwick Farm and we put Hugh (Bowman) at the trials and Hugh on at Warwick Farm and she ran a PB and we've just done the same thing.

"She's that sort of a filly (a straightforward one)," Cummings continued. "She is a very kind, very willing filly and when you asked her she is very strong. She has an amazing system.

"A win like that obviously makes you think of bigger prospects in the spring."

Bowman, who has a long association of high profile winners with the Cummings family, delivered the filly to success, with Cummings quick to praise the ride from the 'best in Australia'.

"He (Bowman) had the horse underneath him and I think he knew

Edward Cummings and Hugh Bowman

that. We discussed it beforehand and he had a very clear idea of what he should be doing at about the half-mile and that's how it panned out. He's the best in Australia in my mind and I think he's proven that again today.

"This is all very surreal," said Cummings. "I suppose I will come to terms with it in the next few hours, the next few days and maybe the next few months. There is something about this game that makes you want to get up the next day and work harder and prove it again and again.

"While I'm very thankful for the opportunity, I'm thrilled with today's result. No one really knows what the future holds and all you can do is the best. We've worked our butts off. We started from zero, had no horses in the stables and we built that up, day by day, week by week, month by month, and kept believing in ourselves, and here we are.

"I'd like to think that the same ethic will carry us a long way into the future.

Bowman praised the filly, while he was also proud to deliver a first Group 1 winner for Cummings.

"I knew if I leave her alone and don't get involved in tactics early, I know she'll produce late," the winning rider said.

"I had the support of everyone behind me, and that gives the jockey confidence and I was confident in her and she delivered in spades.

"It means a lot to me (to ride Edward Cummings' first Group 1 winner). I rode Group 1 winners for Bart Cummings, Anthony Cummings, James Cummings and now Edward. And it's no surprise to me that the filly has done this and I think the best is still ahead of her."

Three for Shamus Award

Rosemont Stud stallion Shamus Award (Snitzel) continued his excellent form since the turn of the year, and landed a third individual Group 1 winner and second Oaks winner this season, when Duais (3 f ex Meerlust by Johannesburg) claimed the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) at Eagle Farm yesterday. Trained by Edward Cummings, who was winning his first Group 1 since going out on his own as a trainer, Duais followed Media Award's success in the South Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) as Oaks winners for Shamus Award, who has also sired Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Mr Quickie. Shamus Award will stand at Rosemont Stud this season for an increased fee of $33,000.

Eight for Astern

Astern (Medaglia D'Oro) landed individual winners seven and eight yesterday as Somewatt Fabulous' (2 f ex Megawatt by Shocking) success in the opening BenchMark 64 Handicap (1250m) at Morphettville preceded Danger Strykes' (2 f ex She Is Stryking by Stryker) Castletown Stakes (Listed, 1200m) win in New Zealand, who in the process became the second stakes winner for Astern. The Richard and Chantelle Jolly-trained Somewatt Fabulous put up an eye-catching display on debut, defeating Strike Award (Shamus Award) by a length and a quarter with Eyes Never Lie (Mint Lane) a further two lengths in arrears. Having passed in as a weanling, Somewatt Fabulous was sold for $45,000 to her trainers out of last year's Inglis Classic Sale. She is the first foal out of the stakes placed Megawatt (Shocking), a NZ$10,000 yearling who was purchased by Kingstar Farm in foal to Astern for $75,000 from the 2018 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale. She has a Bull Point (Fastnet Rock) weanling and was served by Winning Rupert (Written Tycoon) last year. Astern will stand the 2021 season at Darley's Kelvinside property for $16,500.

17 for Capitalist

Newgate Farm's Capitalist (Written Tycoon) stretched further clear in the leading first season sire by winners charts, as his regally-bred daughter Satin Ribbons (2 f ex Satin Shoes by Flying Spur), the half-sister to Gimcrack Stakes (Listed, 1000m) winner Satin Slipper (Pierro) out of Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) winner Satin Shoes (Flying Spur), became winner number 17 for the season as she won the 900-metre maiden at Newcastle yesterday. Second on debut behind fellow Capitalist two-year-old Colour De Roy, Satin Ribbons went one better on her second start, narrowly defeating Godolphin filly Ultra (Not A Single Doubt), the sister to Newgate's Golden Slipper Stakes- (Gr 1, 1200m) winning sire Extreme Choice making her debut, while I Love Lucy (Maurice) finished a short-head behind the winner in a blanket finish. Capitalist has seen his fee rise to $99,000 for 2021.

20 for Hinchinbrook

The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained juvenile Volcanic Rock (2 g ex Heat Of The Fire by Strategic) showed promise in winning the Phoenix Stakes (Listed, 1500m) at Eagle Farm yesterday. The Newgate Farm and China Horse Club-owned gelding, a $240,000 purchase out of the Bell River Thoroughbreds draft from last year's Inglis Classic Sale, was a November winner at Canberra and made his fourth start here, defeating Verbek (Turn Me Loose) by three-quarters of a length, with the Tony Pike-trained Tutukaka (Tavistock), a half-sister to Melody Belle (Commands), in third, three and a quarter lengths behind the winner. He became the 20th individual stakes winner for his sire Hinchinbrook (Fastnet Rock), with Volcanic Rock from his final crop, having died in 2018. Volcanic Rock is the eighth named foal out of the Strategic (Zeditave) mare Heat Of The Fire, who was purchased for $160,000 by McKeever/Ferguson Bloodstock and Bell River from the Godolphin draft at the 2017 Magic Millions Broodmare Sale. She was served by Churchill (Galileo) last year.

Volcanic Rock the subject of Hong Kong offers

Yesterday's two-year-old stakes winner Volcanic Rock has been the subject of intense interest from Hong Kong, with Newgate Farm managing director Henry Field confirming to Sky Thoroughbred Central that bids had been tabled for the son of Hinchinbrook to move to the jurisdiction. Should the sale be completed, Volcanic Rock will not contest next weekend's JJ Atkins Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Eagle Farm. Winning jockey Craig Williams said the gelding required plenty of encouragement to get the job done. "He took a lot of motivation. Gai and Adrian and their staff have done a really good job with this now-gelding," said Williams. "He's a lovely horse but you've got to be really forceful. I've got four children at home and he's definitely like one of them, without naming names. Most importantly, he was really genuine late when he got competition. He made my job be a bit more work but he's an out-and-out trier and he loves to keep his head in front, which is what I like to ride."

22 for Foxwedge

Foxwedge

WOODSIDE PARK

Foxwedge (Fastnet Rock) has yet another high-class, stakes-winning filly on his hands, as Charleise (4 m ex Adio by Lonhro) flew home over the top to defeat a tiring Groundswell (Fastnet Rock) and Luvoir (Deep Field) in the Spear Chief Handicap (Listed, 1500m) at Eagle Farm yesterday, the margins a neck and short-head. Charleise is the 22nd individual stakes winner for Woodside Park's Foxwedge, with 16 of them fillies. The second foal out of Adio (Lonhro), who was undefeated in two starts on the track, Charleise took her record to five wins from 18 starts, with this a third win in her last four starts for the Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained four-year-old. Adio has a Divine Prophet (Choirs) weanling and was served by Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) last year. Foxwedge will stand in Victoria for $11,000 in 2021.

175 for Fastnet Rock

Setanta (3 c ex Legally Bay by Snippets), a brother to dual Group 1 winner Merchant Navy and a $2.3 million yearling, came of age at Eagle Farm yesterday when winning the Queensland Day Stakes (Listed, 1200m). The three-year-old was transferred to Tony Gollan earlier this year, and took his record to two wins from three starts for the trainer with yesterday's first success at stakes level, becoming the 175th individual stakes winner for his sire Fastnet Rock (Danehill). He arrived late to defeat Mass Destruction (Spirit Of Boom) by a short-head in a thrilling five-way finish to the final race on the card. He is the tenth and final foal out of Group 3 winner and Group 1 placed Legally Bay (Snippets), who died in 2019. Fastnet Rock, the sire of 18 stakes winners in Australia and New Zealand this season, stands for a fee of $165,000 at Coolmore Australia.

23 for Nicconi

Graceful Girl (3 f ex Avenida Madero by Metal Storm) justified favouritism in the Raconteur Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Belmont yesterday to provide Nicconi (Bianconi) with his 23rd individual stakes winner. Having finished inside the first three on all six previous starts, the Grant and Alana Williams-trained filly was sent off a $1.90 chance and comfortably defeated Billy Ain't Silly (I'm All the Talk) by one and a half lengths. She's God To You (Playing God) was another two lengths back in third. A sister to Group 3 winner State Solicitor and a half-sister to WA Derby (Gr 2, 2400m) winner Respondent (Haradasun), Graceful Girl is one of nine winners from as many to race out 2005 Lee Steere Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) winner Avenida Madero (Metal Storm). She was retired from broodmare duties last year and her final foal is another yearling by Nicconi, who stands at Widden Stud in Victoria for $27,500 (inc. GST).

Owners criticise Eagle Farm surface

Connections of injured filly Media Award, a scratching from yesterday's Queensland Oaks, have criticised the Eagle Farm course proper and grass training track. One of the Group 1 winning filly's part-owners, Andrew Vinecombe, told Racing.com that it was understood Media Award injured herself while working at Eagle Farm either on the course proper last Friday morning or on Tuesday morning when galloping on the A-grass. "We went up there without a race so we can only put it down to the surface. It was way too hard for that track gallop on Tuesday and it's a bit disappointing that we've got Group 1 racing but they haven't produced a Group 1 track for trackwork. I am just lining up with some other people this week that have probably had a bit to say about the track. It's not ideal they are not producing Group 1 tracks for Group 1 racing and trackwork," said Vinecombe. It was planned for Media Award to go straight into the race without a gallop on the Eagle

Farm track, but the Covid-19 outbreak in Melbourne meant the filly had to go up a week early. "We spent $30,000 on getting her up there but we'll just head out to the paddock now," Vinecombe added.

Waller aims for three-pronged attack in J J Atkins

Chris Waller already has Giannis (Flying Artie) and Ranch Hand (Fastnet Rock) confirmed to run in next week's $1 million J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1600m) at Eagle Farm with Cape Breton (Vancouver) likely to be added to the arsenal after winning a two-year-old handicap at Rosehill yesterday. Stable representative Charlie Duckworth confirmed that the two-year-old colt could follow a similar path to previous J J Atkins winner Press Statement (Hinchinbrook). "The J J (Atkins) is only seven days away but Press Statement pretty much did the exact same thing. He's a Guineas-style of horse, 1400 metres was what was required today and I imagine when he gets up over a mile he'll actually have a better turn of foot. The further they went the further he went away from them. He looked like he was going to win by a head at the 50-metre mark, but he won with a bit in hand." Having just his second start yesterday, Cape Breton raced like an experienced horse beyond his years. "Even in the yard today he was just walking around like he's been going around all his life. He's just unfazed. He's flawless," said Duckworth.

Jamie Kah moves closer to 100-win mark

Jamie Kah inched closer towards a history making 100 winners for the season with an early double at Flemington yesterday. Kah notched up winner number 91 aboard Grand Promenade (Champs Elysees) in the VRC Member Emma Sargeant Plate (2500m) and followed it up with victory on Snickerdoodledandy (Snitzel) in the VRC Ben Edney Trophy (1400m). Brett Prebble came closest to the magical 100 mark during the 1999-2000 season when he rode 99-½ winners before Racing Victoria moved to record a dead-heat victory as a win in the premiership in 2011.

Argentia upstages Invincible Caviar at Flemington

Yesterday's VRC Member Philip Jacobsen Sprint (1100m) saw two regally bred fillies make their much anticipated debuts. Argentia (Frankel), a daughter of Princess Coup (Encosta De Lago), lined up against the fifth foal of Black Caviar (Bel Esprit), Invincible Caviar (I Am Invincible), in the dash with Argentia prevailing and stamping herself as a star of the future. Invincible Caviar finished a credible third after leading. Steve Adams, the stable representative for trainers Anthony and Sam Freedman, said Argentia may now be set aside for a spring campaign. "She's always shown ability and it is nice to see them win like that. You don't expect it, but it's good to see it," said Adams. Invincible Caviar's trainer Peter Moody, who also prepared Black Caviar throughout her unbeaten 25-start career, said his filly was far from disgraced. "She looked a lot like mum when she was rolling along, didn't she. I know the Freedman camp had a big rap on Argentia, so there's no disgrace. This is one of the best two-year-old races we've had here since the Blue Diamond and I think it's going to be a good race, so it's no disgrace to run third to a very, very good filly," said Moody.

Baller remains unbeaten for Gollan

Tony Gollan appears to have unlocked the key to talented sprinter Baller (5 g High Chaparral - Fuwa by Encosta De Lago), who remains undefeated in two starts for the stable after racing away with the Moreton Cup (Gr 2, 1200m) at Eagle Farm yesterday. The five-year-old, who landed the Goldmarket Handicap (Listed, 1200m) on his previous start, speared through the back of the field under Glen Boss to defeat Zaniah (Zoustar) by two and a quarter lengths, with Wisdom Of Water (Headwater) another head back in third. While next weekend's Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) is not on his radar, he is likely to have another winter carnival run in the Healy Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Eagle Farm on June 26. "He's a best horse kept fresh at this sort of distance, 1200, so I will just space his runs," Gollan said. "The way he's gone at Eagle Farm here today I'd suggest the Healy Stakes here on Tatt's Day would be perfect."

Nudge wins lucrative Magic Millions National Classic

Having arrived in Queensland with just two wins from 18 starts, Nudge (4 m Fastnet Rock - Julinsky Princess by Stravinsky) has thrived in the warmer climate to put back-to-back victories together and earn a shot at the Tattersall's Tiara (Gr 1, 1400m) on June 26. A last-start winner of the Pam O'Neill Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m), Nudge backed that performance up with a half-length defeat of Yamazaki (Real Saga) in the $500,000 Magic Millions National Classic (1600m). "They seem to thrive when they find that confidence," winning trainer Chris Waller said. "Her runs in Sydney were good and since she has been here in the Queensland stable, she has basically gone to a whole new level. We've basically taken luck out of the equation at her last two, she has gone back near-last from wide draws and Kerrin (McEvoy) hasn't panicked and she's got the job done both times. Coming back to 1400 metres, today was a mile, we'll keep her nice and fresh, keep her in this Queensland sun and hope she draws a gate (in the Tattersall's Tiara) where she can be that touch closer."

Import Knights Order lands Winter Cup

The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Knights Order (6 g So You Think - Lamanka Lass by Woodman) brought up his second Australian stakes win with a dominant victory in the Winter Cup (Listed, 2400m) at Rosehill yesterday. A winner of the City Tattersalls Club Cup (Listed, 2400m) in the spring, the British import defeated Parry Sound (Pierro) by one and three-quarter lengths, with Stockman (Tavistock) a further head away in third. The Brisbane Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) beckons at Eagle Farm next Saturday and Waterhouse sees no reason why he cannot compete at a higher level. "The horse will stay all day so there's no problem with him going straight to the 3200 metres," she said. "We will look at the Brisbane Cup next week. I will talk with Adrian (Bott) and we will make a decision over the next couple of days. He is a joy to behold. He has really hit his hoppers."

Another stakes success for Usmanov

Usmanov (5 g Choisir - Mining Tycoon by Redoute's Choice) scored his second win at Listed level when taking out the Lightning Handicap (Listed, 1000m) at Eagle Farm yesterday. The gelding, who landed the Bribie Handicap (Listed, 1000m) in December, defeated favourite Boomtown Lass (Spirit Of Boom) by three-quarters of a length, with Doctor Zous (Zoustar) another length behind in third. Usmanov is one of two winners from as many runners out of Mining Tycoon (Redoute's Choice), who is a half-sister to three-time Group 1 winner Bentley Biscuit (Peintre Celebre).

Highclere's Great House a Cups contender

The Chris Waller-trained Great House (Galileo) announced himself as a potential Cups contender with a Benchmark 78 win over 1500 metres at Rosehill yesterday. The four-year-old Irish import defeated Wairere Falls (Savabeel) by a short-head in a blanket finish, with Zing (Zoustar) a head behind the winner in third. Raced by Highclere, Great House has recorded two wins and two placings from five outings in Australia and stable representative Charlie Duckworth believes there is more in store for the gelding. "He's got that age and maturity on his side despite being lightly-raced, which I think is obviously a massive advantage," Duckworth said. "It's a fantastic start to the preparation as we build up over a little bit further where we're obviously going to see him improve." On his potential targets, Duckworth added: "I'd imagine at 2400 metres you'd hope he's going to be competing at the top level. Whether he's a Melbourne Cup horse or not I'm not quite sure. Certainly a Metropolitan or a Caulfield Cup if he was to continue to rise as quickly as he is now."

Moore off the mark

Champion Hong Kong trainer John Moore trained his first winner from his new Gold Coast base when So Clever (Choisir) saluted on debut in the Dindas Maiden Handicap (1100m) yesterday. Ridden by apprentice Jaden Lloyd, the four-year-old eased to a three and three-quarter length win over $1.80 favourite Pivotal Motion (Kuroshio). So Clever was a $260,000 buy from the Attunga Stud draft at the 2018 Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

NEW ZEALAND

Second for Astern

Danger Strykes (2 f ex She Is Stryking by Stryker) broke her maiden in stakes company yesterday to earn first season sire Astern (Medaglia D'Oro) his second individual stakes winner. A runner-up in maiden company on debut in February, the Tony Pike-trained filly improved from that performance to land the Castletown Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Wanganui. Handled confidently by Ryan Elliot, Danger Strykes settled nicely on the outer behind a hot speed set up by race favourite Taoiseach (Highly Recommended). Angled into the clear at the 300 metres, Danger Strykes dashed to the lead before holding out a late run from Ima Roca Bee (El Roca) to win by a neck, with Bellacontte (Burgundy) making up good ground to finish third. Danger Strykes is the first foal out of stakes-placed mare She Is Stryking (Stryker), whose yearling by Almanzor (Wootton Bassett) sold for $360,000 at the Inglis Classic Sale earlier this year. Astern will stand at Darley's Kelvinside property for $16,500 in 2021.

Supreme towers over rivals

Supreme Heights (5 m Jimmy Choux - Summer Heights by Stark South) scored another stakes success when landing yesterday's feature event at Wanganui, the AGC Training Stakes (Listed, 1600m). The Mark Brosnan-trained five-year-old was sent off the $2.70 favourite off the back of a gritty second-placed effort first up in the Rotorua Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) and she never gave her supporters a moment of concern as she settled beautifully in behind pacemaker Hartley (Azamour) under Lynsey Satherley. Satherley took over shortly after the 500 metres, quickly putting a break on the rest of the field that she carried comfortably to the line to defeat Crowning Star (Hallowed Crown), with Hartley plugging on gamely for third. "I thought she probably looked the best horse in the field on paper but that's not where they run the race," Brosnan said. "She was very good in the run home and probably held them at bay reasonably comfortably. She really has developed over the past season and is at her peak now. Her owners are keen to keep her going so we'll have a crack at the Tauranga Classic later this month and then put her aside again."

29 for No Nay Never

No Nay Never

COOLMORE

Unicorn Lion (5 h ex Muravka by High Chaparral) blitzed his rivals in the Naruo Kinen (Gr 3, 2000m) at Chukyo yesterday to earn No Nay Never (Scat Daddy) his 29th individual stakes winner, and first Graded winner in Japan. Ridden by Ryusei Sakai, Unicorn Lion kicked clear of his 12 rivals rounding the home turn and eased to a three and a half-length win over Shonan Bardi (King's Best). Blast Onepiece (Harbinger) was another three-quarters of a length back in third. A half-brother to Group 1 winner The Wow Signal (Starspangledbanner), who has also sired an elite-level scorer, Unicorn Lion is one of four winners from five to race out of the unraced Muravka (High Chaparral). The mare's progeny also includes Listed winner Miss Infinity (Rock Of Gibraltar). Former Australian shuttle sire No Nay Never, the sire of three elite level winners, stands at Coolmore in Ireland for €125,000 (approx. AUD$196,550).

UK: Parent's Prayer eases to Princess Elizabeth win

The Archie Watson-trained Parent's Prayer (4 f Kingman - Pure Excellence by Exceed And Excel) left her rivals for dead in the Princess Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 3, 1m ½f) at Epsom yesterday under a smart front-running ride from champion jockey Oisin Murphy. The four-year-old, who ran second in the Express Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) earlier this campaign, scooted clear of the chasing pack early on in the straight and stayed on well to score by two and a quarter lengths. Nazuna (Kodiak) finished second, three and a half lengths ahead of favourite Statement (Lawman) in third. It was a second stakes success for Parent's Prayer, who landed the Garnet Stakes (Listed, 1m) at Naas last year.

UK: Veteran Oh This Is Us lands Diomed

Oh This Is Us (8 h Acclamation - Shamwari Lodge by Hawk Wing) narrowly got the better of Century Dream (Cape Cross) in a thrilling edition of the Diomed Stakes (Gr 3, 1m½f) at Epsom yesterday. Ridden by Tom Marquand, the eight-year-old, who finished second to subsequent Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Zaaki (Leroidesanimaux) in this race in 2019, came with a late burst to defeat Century Dream by a nose, with Bell Rock (Kingman) a length and a quarter back in third. It was a 16th career win from 72 starts for the Richard Hannon trainee, who is the only winner from four to race out of Group 3 winner Shamwari Lodge (Hawk Wing).

50 for Soldier Hollow

Sahib's Joy (4 c ex So Squally by Monsun) landed the Leipzig Classics (Listed, 1850m) yesterday to take his sire Soldier Hollow (In The Wings) to a half-century of individual stakes winners. The Peter Schiergen-trained four-year-old defeated Stex (Lord Of England) by one and a quarter lengths, with Blue Dream (Adlerflug) another two and a quarter lengths back in third. Soldier Hollow, the sire of five elite-level winners, stands at Gestüt Auenquelle in Germany.

Ten for Pride Of Dubai

Exciting filly Just Beautiful (3 f ex Astrelle by Makfi) remained unbeaten when landing the Maggie Dickson Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Musselburgh yesterday, earning Coolmore Australia stallion Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) his tenth individual stakes winner. The Ivan Furtado-trained three-year-old was making her first start on turf having won three times on the all-weather and battled well up the straight to see off Jouska (Cable Bay) by a length and a half, with Huboor (More Than Ready) another three lengths back in third. The second foal out of Group 3-placed mare Astrelle (Makfi), Just Beautiful is a half-sister to German Group 2 winner Fearless King (Kingman). Pride Of Dubai is standing for a fee of $22,000 (inc. GST) in 2021.

24 for Maclean's Music

Estilo Talentoso (4 f ex Bazinga Baby by Afleet Alex) took out the Bed o' Roses Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Belmont on Friday to provide Maclean's Music (Distorted Humor) with his 24th individual stakes winner. The Juan Arriagada-trained four-year-old is on the up after a slow start to her career, having remained a maiden until start six, and followed up successive Grade 1 placings with a neck victory over Lake Avenue (Tapit) to get off the mark in stakes company on a rain-soaked Belmont track. Purchased for just US$15,000 as a two-year-old, Estilo Talentoso was bred by Mile High Bloodstock and is the first stakes winner produced from Bazinga Baby (Afleet Alex). Maclean's Music, a son of Grade 2-winning mare Forest Music (Unbridled's Song), was retired to stud after one impressive start due to injury and stands at Hill 'n' Dale Farms for US$25,000 (approx. AUD$32,310).

US: Mary reigns in New York Stakes

Mean Mary (5 m Scat Daddy - Karlovy Vary by Dynaformer) held off the fast-finishing Thundering Nights (Night Of Thunder) to land the New York Stakes (Gr 2, 10f) at Belmont on Friday. Leading all the way under Luis Saez after a fast start, the Graham Motion-trained mare scored by a nose, with My Sister Not (Acclamation) two lengths away in third. "She came out of the gate like a rabbit. I'd never seen her break like that," said Motion. "She really does love it. She's such a cool filly." Mean Mary is out of the late Karlovy Vary (Dynaformer), winner of the Ashland Stakes

(Gr 1, 8.5f) who died in 2017. Her third and final foal Bye Bye Melvin (Uncle Mo) landed last year's Saranac Stakes (Gr 3, 8f).

US: Seven in a row for Baron

The Joseph O'Brien-trained Baron Samedi (4 g Harbour Watch - Dame Shirley by Haafhd) continued his remarkable run of form since being gelded when taking out Friday's Belmont Gold Cup Stakes (Gr 2, 16f). Having lost his first five starts in Ireland, Baron Samedi was gelded last August and has won his subsequent seven outings, rising from a rating of 65 to 112. He justified favouritism to comfortably defeat Fantasio (Strategic Prince) by two and three-quarter lengths, with Ajourneytofreedom (Hard Spun) finishing a length further back in third. "He always needed time to grow into his frame because he was tall, so we had to be patient with him. As time passed, he filled out and got stronger and stronger," said co-owner Lawrence Eke.

US: Fire burns bright in True North

Firenze Fire (6 h Poseidon's Warrior - My Every Wish by Langfuhr) landed the True North Stakes (Gr 2, 6.5f) at Belmont on Friday under Jose Ortiz, who took over the ride from his injured brother Irad Ortiz Jr. He made no mistake on the six-year-old favourite, who comfortably defeated Flagstaff (Speightstown) by one and a half lengths, with American Power (Power Broker) another two and three-quarter lengths back in third. "I'm just happy I didn't mess it up," the winning rider said. Trained by Kelly Breen, multiple stakes winner Firenze Fire was registering his 13th success in 32 starts.

Ten for Mehmas

Mehmas

TALLY-HO STUD

Mehmento (3 c ex Invincible Me by Invincible Spirit) landed the Surrey Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Epsom on Friday to take Mehmas (Acclamation) into double figures for individual stakes winners. The Archie Watson-trained colt, who finished runner-up in the Greenham Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) in April before finishing down the field in the French 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), was sent off favourite against three rivals and comfortably defeated Legal Attack (Shalaa) by two and three-quarter lengths. Meu Amor (Siyouni) was one and a half lengths further back in third. Mehmento is the third winner from four to race out of Invincible Me (Invincible Spirit). Mehmas, whose first crop produced Middle Park Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) winner Supremacy, stands at Tally Ho Stud in Ireland for a €25,000 fee (approx. AUD$39,310).

Adayar causes an upset as Godolphin colt bags Epsom Derby

BY PAUL EACOTT | @ANZ_NEWS

Fate and fortune fell firmly in the favour of Adam Kirby yesterday as he partnered his first ever winner in the Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) when Godolphin's Adayar (Frankel) made light work of dismissing his better fancied rivals.

Kirby had been set to ride leading hope John Leeper (Frankel) until the unexpected decision from Aidan O'Brien and the Coolmore camp to saddle just one runner in the race freed Frankie Dettori up for that mount.

Seemingly set to watch on from the sidelines, Kirby was in turn booked to replace Britain's champion jockey Oisin Murphy on the Charlie Appleby-trained colt, and he made the most of his big-race chance as Adayar (3 c ex Anna Salai by Dubawi) won by four and a half lengths.

Following defeats in trials at Sandown and Lingfield, latterly when sent off the warm favourite, Adayar was the supposed third string for Appleby behind Hurricane Lane (Frankel) and One Ruler (Dubawi), however a late market move, which saw his odds shorten dramatically into 16-1, proved to be a precursor of what was to come.

Dropped in behind long-time leader Gear Up (Teofilo), Kirby, who was having just his second ride in the Derby, kept his mount glued to the far rail as many of his weighing room counterparts chose to fan out wide racing out of Tattenham Corner and into the Epsom straight.

That brave decision reaped bountiful reward as the colt cruised into the lead two furlongs from home and once in the clear never looked like getting caught. The maiden Mojo Star (Sea The Stars) kept on for a never-nearer second, with Hurricane Lane, who raced upsides his stablemate for a long way, unable to quicken late on before finishing another three and a quarter lengths away in third.

Reflecting on his rollercoaster 48 hours, Kirby said: "It's ups and downs, it's racing, it's swings and roundabouts, but when it comes to Charlie Appleby, he's a top man and I can't thank him enough. A true gentleman and a great trainer and thanks very much for putting me on this lad."

Adayar

RACING POST/EDWARD WHITAKER

Appleby, who won the race with Masar (New Approach) in 2018, was equally keen to share the glory, although he did give special mention to the winning rider's bold move.

"From the team's point of view it's fantastic," Appleby said. "Everyone works so hard at this game as we know, but I'm delighted for Adam. It was a fantastic ride, it's something that every jockey wants to achieve, and he was hungry for it. I'm delighted he's got the result."

A winner of just a Nottingham maiden on his second start at two prior to yesterday's heroics, Adayar became the 70th individual stakes winner for Frankel (Galileo), who was responsible for four of the 11 runners in the field. He also became the 14th individual Group 1 winner for the Juddmonte sire, and his third European Classic winner following the victories of Anapurna in the 2019 Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) and Logician in the same year's St Leger (Gr 1, 1m 6 ½f).

A Godolphin homebred, Adayar is the third foal out of Anna Salai (Dubawi), herself a Group 3 winner and second in the Irish 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) of 2010. She is a sister to Group 3-placed Seniority and a half-sister to stakes winners Advice (Seeking The Gold) and Iguazu Falls (Pivotal), as well as to the unraced Angel Falls (Kingmambo), who is the dam of Group 1 winner and Widden Stud sire National Defense (Invincible Spirit).

Whether a tilt at the Leger, for which the northern hemisphere bookmakers rate Adayar a 3-1 chance, is now on the agenda remains to be seen.

"We'll let the dust settle but as a team that's (the Leger) what we thought would be his target," Appleby said post-race.

"He's a horse, as you saw, a great big scopey horse, son of Frankel, and time is only going to benefit him still. He's a lovely horse to have around."

Bolshoi Ballet (Galileo), sent off the 11-8 favourite to provide O'Brien with a record ninth win in the race, was prominent until three furlongs out, before weakening late on to finish seventh, beaten a total of 17 lengths.

Stewards' Cup in Mr Malek's sights after resounding win

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

Top sprinter-miler Mr Malek (Swiss Ace) stamped his class with an authoritative win in yesterday's Class 2 race over 1400 metres to set up a potential tilt at the Stewards' Cup (Listed, 1800m).

A flashing third in a Kranji Stakes A race over 1200 metres at his first-up race from a four-month spell, the four-year-old did give his backers who took him at $10 a fright when pocketed on the rails at the 400 metres.

But jockey A'Isisuhairi Kasim found the space Mr Malek needed for his signature turn of foot to be ignited to its maximum power and once in the clear he went on to an easy two and a half length win from Passport To Rome (Snitzel) in a talent-packed field.

Mr Malek ran the 1400 metres on the Short Course in 1min 22.92secs and has now racked up a smart record of seven wins and four placings from 12 starts.

"I'd like to thank the owner (Phua Chian Kin) for giving me the opportunity to train this horse," said Steven Burrridge, after Mr Malek had made a successful stable debut.

"You're always worried when a horse hasn't run for four months and he then backs up after two weeks for his second-up run.

"But I was happy with the horse going into today's race. I thought he needed a bit of luck at the weights, but he got a nice posie in the race.

"He got a bit tight for a run, but he's quite a relaxed horse, and he did a good job to find his way out. The 1200 metres was too sharp for him at his last start, and today, 1400 metres was better.

"The 1600 metres will be even better, and all going well, he should get the 1800 metres of the Derby. Things are going the right way for him."

Burrridge has pencilled in the Stewards' Cup (Listed, 1600m) on July 3 and the Singapore Derby (Listed, 1800m) on July 25 as future targets.

Boomba wins his ticket to 3YO Sprint

Boomba (Showcasing) graduated to his first win in open company with a dashing display under an inspired ride from champion jockey Vlad Duric.

Bolstered by the manner of the win, Tim Fitzsimmons can already fill out the nomination form for the Singapore Three-Year-Old Sprint (Listed, 1200m) on June 27.

Fitzsimmons and Duric were capturing their first double at Kranji after favourite Don De La Vega (Lope De Vega) had earlier landed the opener.

"I'm really happy I trained my first winner for (Barree Stable principal) Glenn (Whittenbury) with Don De La Vega, and then the double," said Fitzsimmons.

"We've been waiting for that race for Don De La Vega as there are not a lot of Class 5 races over the mile. We had pigeonholed that race and it was a good plan that came off."

Regarding Boomba's performance, Fitzsimmons said: "Vlad gave him a boom ride. I was very happy with his last run as the wide barrier and the E course made it difficult. He has come on since.

"I was slightly worried as he went for home a bit early, but he was strong to the line, it was an excellent effort. He doesn't have a lot of gate speed, but he finished off nicely."

Leggenda gets right breaks towards maiden win

It's taken a while for Leggenda (New Year's Day) to hit his straps and, more to the point, get the lucky breaks he badly needed, but the US-bred finally had all the stars aligned as he took out a maiden over 1200 metres.

Racing for the 11th time at Kranji, the four-year-old for once raced without the litany of setbacks that had plagued him at most of his previous ten starts.

The $80 shot certainly had Lady Luck smiling down on him at first run from a 56-day let-up after Saifudin Ismail punched him out of his barrier two to nestle into a dream run

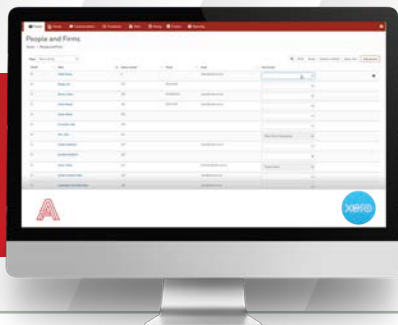

Winning trainer David Kok said the handy draw went a long way towards unlocking Leggenda's winning flair, especially over a trip which he didn't think was his forte.

"The good barrier is a big advantage," said Kok.

"He is more of a 1600-metre horse but as he had a freshen-up and never ran for two months, I thought I'd drop him back to 1200 metres first-up.

"After that, I may continue to run him over 1200 metres."

Analysis: The Edward Cummings-trained filly Duais, having her first run since second in the ATC Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) at Randwick on April 17, took out this Group 1 feature in impressive fashion, her fourth win (four seconds) from ten starts to date. She was ridden patiently by Hugh Bowman, settled in second-last place, improved nicely between runners at the turn before switching deeper and into clear running at the 300m. She then finished powerfully and drew away over the closing stages to record a very good win. It was also a very good ride by Bowman. Charms Star raced in eighth place, one off the rails, improved behind runners nearing the turn and moved up well from the 300m. She then finished well to take second, just in front of Signora Nera who settled in tenth place before improving (wide) to be fourth at the turn. She then battled really well to take the minor placing. Splendiferous raced just beyond midfield on the rails before taking an inside gap to be handily placed on straightening.

She then held on well for (3.4 lengths) fourth. Bargain had quite a good trip in fifth place to the home turn, was in traffic at the 300m, and then battled on quite well to finish (3.7 lengths) fifth. [KB]

Then followed: The Astrologist (AUS), Stampe (AUS), Scallopini (AUS), Varda (AUS), Splintex (AUS), Special Reward (AUS), last.

Analysis: Baller is now unbeaten in two starts since joining the Tony Gollan stable. Returning to the winners' list for the first time since September 2019, he scored first-up in The Goldmarket (Listed, 1200m) at the Gold Coast on May 8 and followed that with an impressive win here, advancing to Group 2. He settled back in seventh place on the rails, behind a good tempo. Glen Boss steered him along the inner on straightening to challenge at the 200m and then drew clear in the latter stages for a very good win. Zaniah raced in second-last place in the nine-runner field to the turn. She switched out to make her bid at the 200m and ran on well to claim second, just in front of Wisdom Of Water who ran a bold race, coming from sixth to challenge at the 200m and then fought well for third. The Astrologist was wide early on, improved to third (still out deep) at the 600m and held on for (4.7 lengths) fourth after a difficult trip. The favourite Splintex showed his customary pace and led the field into the home straight but faded, racing well below his best form, in finishing second-last. [KB]

Analysis: Favourite Volcanic Rock saw out the 1500 metres quite well here, claiming his maiden stakes win and second career success at start four. He led early but dropped into second approaching the 1200m where he remained to the 600m. Rounding into the straight he went up to share the lead then took over starting the run home. From the 400m he was always in control and the length margin at the line looked comfortable. Verbek sat fourth, one out past the 1200m, third at the 800m and shared fourth rounding into the straight. In the run home he chased the winner gamely but could not bridge the gap, yet finished a healthy second. Tutukaka was last at the 800m, shared last rounding into the straight then, out widest, ran on well to edge into third just short of the line. Bayerische was midfield at the top of the straight and kept on (green) quite well to hold fourth late. Fermanagh (NZ), Iffshecan (NZ), Taoiseach (NZ), Durban Way (NZ), Express Yourself (NZ), last.

Analysis: Having her second start, Danger Strykes showed big improvement on her February debut effort (third) for a solid victory here. She led them out, was second for a few strides. then dropped in to sit one out and one back inside the 1000m, a spot she would hold past the 600m. Rounding into the straight she went a lane wider and at the top of the straight was poised to challenge. A length from the leader at the 300m, she accelerated to share the lead at the 200m, and then took over at the 100m. To the line she had the race under control, although the margin shrunk to a neck. A solid effort from Ima Roca Bee who shared third-last inside the 800m, improved rounding into the straight, but swung wide. Once balanced she kept on strongly, taking ground off the winner but too late yet a good second. Bellacontte was second-last inside the 600m, went wide and finished strongly, especially late, for a promising third. Miss Epene-ma was second at the 300m, led briefly at the 200m and then held on, only losing third on the line. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Inglis

Analysis: Talented sprinter Usmanov staged a really smart front-running effort in recording his second victory at stakes level here, his ninth win in 24 starts. After a quick beginning, he went to the front and then travelled strongly in front. He went a bit deeper on the track on straightening, but safely held off challengers under his top weight (59kg) to score quite impressively. The favourite Boomtown Lass showed good pace from her outside barrier and worked in the early stages before settling outside the leader and eventual winner and kept fighting well for second, finding the winner, who conceded her 4.5kg, too good. Doctor Zous had a nice trip in fifth place, between runners, got into clear running at the 200m and then battled on quite well for third. Hail Manhattan settled in seventh place, between runners, switched to the rails at the 200m and ran on quite well for fourth. Then followed: Flash Aah (AUS), East Asia (NZ), Itz Lily (AUS), Immortal Love (AUS), Le Castile (NZ), Fort Wayne (AUS), Goldifox (AUS), Love You Lucy (AUS), Sokudo (AUS), last.

Analysis: Consistent mare Charleise has not finished further back than second, now winning three times, in her last five starts and she recorded a deserved stakes victory in scoring here. She settled midfield, trapped three deep, after starting from the outside barrier (12). She commenced her move on straightening, where she was conceding the leader some six lengths but she rallied well, coming with a late bid to claim victory on the post. Groundswell went to the front, set quite a good tempo, grabbed a clear break at the 400m and looked the likely winner, until overtaken in the final strides for second. The well-supported favorite Luvor raced in third place on the rails, went to second at the 300m, and kept battling on well for a close-up third after appearing to have had every chance. Flash Aah raced in fourth spot to the home turn and held his ground well in the straight, fighting well to finish (1.5 lengths) fourth. Then followed: House of Cartier (AUS), Hunta Pence (NZ), William Wallace (NZ), Rosewood (NZ), Torre del Greco (NZ), Midnite Invasion (NZ), last.

Analysis: Honest and consistent, favourite Supreme Heights was too good in claiming her third stakes and eighth career win at start 21. She was away well to share the early lead, then eased to sit second down the back straight and on to the 800m. From the 600m she crept forward and pressured the pacemaker, sharing the lead before they straightened, and then took over at the top of the straight. She led by a length at the 300m then kept on strongly and never looked like being headed, up by three quarters of a length at the line. Crowning Star sat fourth past the 800m, crept closer along the inner inside the 600m and was third turning in. She tried hard all the way to finish but had to settle for second. Hartley led to the 600m, was caught by the winner turning in, then kept on gamely for third. House Of Cartier was midfield and wide at the top of the straight then finished on to nab fourth late. Then followed: Wu Gok (AUS), Sweet Thomas (GER), Kaapfever (NZ), He Runs Away (ARG), The Good Fight (NZ), Attention Run (GER), Amica (AUS), Costello (AUS), Inverloch (IRE), last.

Analysis: Winner of the Listed City Tattersall's Cup over the same distance last October, lightly raced six-year-old Knights Order was too strong in his sixth career win at start 16. He was away well to sit second with a lap to run and held that spot past the 1600m, down the back, and onto the 800m. Inside the 600m he went up to pressure the pacemaker then took over from the top of the straight. Once in front he kept going strongly all the way to the line and was never in danger for a good win. Parry Sound was sixth at the 1200m, was shuffled back a couple of spots from the 800m and was in traffic at the top of the straight. Seeing daylight, he ran on quite well without looking like catching the winner. Stockman sat second- last at the 800m, hugged the fence rounding into the straight, looked a chance at the 200m, then battled on for third. Wu Gok was fourth (rails) at the 600m, moved out at the 300m, then also battled on for fourth. Then followed: Benji's (AUS), Kallaroo (AUS), Solaia (AUS), Allmoney (AUS), Written Matter (AUS), No Surrender (AUS), last.

Analysis: Start seven, fourth win (against a good field) and an impressive stakes victory at her first attempt for the favourite Graceful Girl. Willie Pike dropped her back to sit sixth (rails) past the 1200m, improving a spot at the 600m. Rounding into the straight she moved off the fence, was blocked, so switched back towards the fence at the top of the straight. She found room along the inner and then chased the leader. From the 200m she challenged the leader, went up alongside at the 100m and then cruised clear for an easy win. Billy Ain't Silly led by a length past the 800m as well as the 600m before skipping further in front starting the run home. He had a clear lead to the 200m, but the winner sidled up soon after, and he had no answer. She's God To You sat third (rails) from the 600m, second at the top of the straight, was the first to chase the leader and kept on gamely to the line for a good third. Benji's was second-last turning in and ran on quite well next to the rail for a fair fourth. Analysis: In an exciting finish where the first six horses finished within a half-length, the Tony Gollan-trained colt Setanta scored at odds of $31. A winner of a Class 1 (1200m) at an Eagle Farm mid-week meeting three runs back, settled seventh place on the rails. He switched wide and into clear running on turning for home but took a while to pick-up before responding late to claim a narrow victory in the last few strides. Mass Destruction raced in sixth place before improving (deep) at the turn. He also then came with a late move, failing by only a half-head at the post for second. Tramonto settled in third place on the rails, got an inside run in the straight and battled well for a close third. Rocketing By was last in the 11-runner field to the turn and came with a late run, between runners, to finish (0.4 lengths) fourth, with Kisukano holding on after racing outside the leader to dead-heat for (0.5 lengths) fifth with Fleet Dove, who held on well after being handy all the way. Analysis: Nudge followed her late-closing win in the Pam O'Neill Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Doomben a fortnight ago with another very good win in this rich non-stakes event. She again settled well back and was last, about 12 lengths from the leader, approaching the turn. She went deep at the 300m and then came with a strong late bid to claim victory on the post. Yamazaki settled beyond midfield, improved rounding the turn and ran on solidly for second. Rocha Clock was also well back coming to the home turn and she too came with a strong late bid for a close-up third. The favourite Nettoya was slow to move but soon recovered to settle in fourth place. She moved up from the 600m, momentarily appeared the winner when she hit the front at the 200m, only to be overtaken in the closing stages for a close-up fourth. [KB]

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Noble Man, Universal Crown, 5 Super Kin, 7 Fox Cheunger, 8 For Fun's Sake, Tigerlad, 12 Moon Peaks, 16 Focus, The Elites, 33 bar.

VERDICT Although a hold-up performer who is likely to need a little luck in running from a low draw, the claims of UNIVERSAL CROWN are most persuasive. He turned in a career-best when second here two runs ago and deserves plenty of credit for staying-on into a close-up sixth from a poor draw last time out. This looks a good opportunity for him to earn a first success, with Noble Man, Super Kin and Fox Cheunger heading the cast of dangers.

VERDICT The newcomer Evee needs a close market check and the in-form Corrienthes is entitled to a good deal of respect. However, preference is for the multiple former C&D winner BALTIC WHISPER. He is operating from an extremely attractive-looking handicap mark and has run better than the results indicate since dropping into Class 4 company recently. Sparkling Dolphin is also worthy of consideration.

VERDICT The return to Sha Tin looks a major positive for BRILLIANT FORTUNE and he is fancied to gain a breakthrough success in Hong Kong. The dangers are led by Metro Warrior, a reliable C&D winner operating from a good mark, and Joyful Fortune, who remains unexposed and should have more to offer.

VERDICT A chance is taken on the long-standing maiden SHINEALOT, who holds a credible record on this surface and displayed enough in his latest start to suggest he can finally make his breakthrough today. Dragon Commander arrives in good heart and should go well along with last-time-out winner Regency Gem.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-4 Drops Of God, 7-4 Winner Method, 7 Tornado Twist, 8 Fantasy, 12 Diamond Brilliant, 20 Big Fortune, 33 Trust Me, 50 Rock Ya Heart, Telecom Jac, 66 Ima Single Man, 100 Beauty Amigo, Soulmate.

VERDICT With the top two jockeys, Moreira and Purton, on board the up-and-coming pair Drops Of God and Winner Method, the betting market is likely to be skewed. Either of that duo could oblige but those wanting something to support each-way could do worse than the fairly-treated TORNADO TWIST who will relish the likely fast gallop and will be doing his best work at the finish.

VERDICT A tentative vote goes to C&D winner LEAP OF FAITH , who put up a much improved effort last time and has only been out of the frame once under Joao Moreira. The Hulk should go close in his hat-trick bid, whilst any market support for Hong Kong debutant Splendid Living would be worth noting.

VERDICT Top weight TOURBILLON DIAMOND ran well in all three legs of the 4yo Classic Series and, having lost out narrowly to Savaquin on his return to handicapping in April can take his revenge on 5lb better terms. Looking Great has been living up to his name recently and should again go well, though this trip may prove on the sharp side for him with a strong pace far from guaranteed. The application of a tongue-tie gives Flagship Glory each-way appeal.

BETTING FORECAST: 3 St Mark's Basilica, 6 Makaloun, Megallan, 7 Van Gogh, 10 Cheshire Academy, Derab, 12 El Drama, 16 Policy Of Truth, Pretty Tiger, Saiyadabad, 20 Adhamo, Millebosc, Normandy Bridge, 25 Baby Rider, Fort Payne, Sealiway, 33 Smile Makers, 40 Ninth Titan, 100 Royal Word.

VERDICT Plenty to consider in a race that looks more open than the betting implies, with Poulains winner St Mark's Basilica opposable over this longer trip despite that taking reappearance win. The draw could have been kinder to several of the fancied runners, including John & Thady Gosden's pair Derab and MEGALLAN, but they make plenty of appeal nonetheless, with the latter's Dante second potentially a strong piece of form. Derab could improve no end now upped in trip and is worth investing in also for last year's winning stable. Normandy Bridge makes plenty of appeal at a price, with the longer trip to suit, while it would be no surprise were Van Gogh to prove the pick of the Ballydoyle duo. El Drama and Makaloun look best of the rest.
