Peters' Queen makes $2.5 million at Chairman's Sale as Coolmore backs Wootton Bassett

In Her Time also makes $2.2 million in stunning three hours of high-end mare trade

Lot 11 Celebrity Queen

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Coolmore has continued its extraordinary spending spree with a view of mirroring a strategy employed to support unbeaten US Triple Crown champion Justify (Scat Daddy) on another high-profile shuttler, European star sire Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj).

Tom Magnier, the principal of Coolmore's Australian arm, signed for three of the seven million-dollar mares sold at yesterday's Inglis Chairman's Sale, billed as a night of nights, with Group 1 winners Celebrity Queen (Redoute's Choice) ($2.5 million), El Dorado Dreaming (Ilovethiscity) ($1.35 million) and Savanna Amour (Love Conquers All) ($1.25 million), who is in foal to Fastnet Rock (Danahill), all destined for the stallion in the new season.

In Her Time (Time Thief), one of the other star attractions at the select Chairman's sale, sold to Yulong for $2.2 million and another high-class sprinter, Pippie (Written Tycoon), was bought by Cressfield Stud for $1.8 million.

Widden Stud went to $1.2 million for Meuse (Snitzel), who is in foal to Dundee (High Chaparral), while Ridgmont Farm, Boutique Thoroughbreds and agent Jim Clarke secured Group 3 winner Shoko (Sebring), who is in foal to I Am Invincible (Invincible) for $1 million during what was an extraordinary three hours of trade at Riverside Stables.

Magnier last night reiterated Coolmore's belief that the Australian thoroughbred industry will arguably remain the envy of world racing.

"Where we see the Australian market, we feel it is extraordinary at the moment, you see what is happening at the yearling sales and we are trying to bring the best stallions in the world down here, with Justify, American Pharoah, etc," Magnier said.

"We've gone along and acquired Wootton Bassett, and we think he is a stallion that is really going to suit Australia.

"We are taking the same approach we did to Justify. We're going to go out and buy the best mares for him."

A winner of the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) in February, Celebrity Queen was offered as a breeding prospect only by owner Bob Peters through the Holbrook Thoroughbreds draft.

Celebrity Queen was also a Group 3 winner and a Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) placegetter in a 14-race career that yielded seven wins and over $825,000 in prize-money.

The rising five-year-old mare is a daughter of Peters' Listed winner Celebrity Miss (More Than Ready), herself a sister to stakes-placed Rafferty, a three-quarter sister to stakes winner Dreamaway and a half-sister to Karrakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Confront (Bluebird).

Further back in the family, cultivated by leading Western Australian breeder Peters over many years, is Group 1 winner Miss Margaret (Marsday) and this season's Listed winner Stagman (Written Tycoon). Her first four dams were all successful at stakes level.

Celebrity Queen's price tag exceeded Peters' expectations, who valued his mare at $2 million and he believes it is money well spent.

"You could just about say that if you were writing the history of breeding in Australia, you could use her as a prime example - you look at her page and there's her sire Redoute's Choice, which also gives you Danehill, there's Sir Tristram, Marsday, More Than Ready, etc, all of them champions, just as she was," Peters said from Perth.

"There's a Group 1 winner on every level of the pedigree. It's just outstanding and it's a great result.

"Inglis has done a great job with the promotion of her which I'm grateful for and, while I'm not at the sale, I'm aware it's a great night there tonight."

Bidding on the most expensive of Coolmore's haul, the sale-topping Celebrity Queen, opened at $800,000 before pushing through the million-dollar mark and, in typical Magnier fashion, did not make his move before required.

Celebrity Queen was soon in Coolmore's possession with the $2.5 million price tag, the highest-priced mare sold through the Inglis Chairman's Sale.

"She was a quality mare who is a lovely physical. Obviously, Redoute's Choice is a very good broodmare sire," said Magnier. Cont.on page 4>>

"We are looking for mares for Wootton Bassett now and she's a standout. We thought she was a queen. We are just very lucky to have her.

"Bob Peters is an unbelievable breeder, and anything that he is associated with is always of a very high calibre and we were just delighted to get her."

El Dorado Dreaming was sold by Torryburn Stud for her owner Yvonne Pearce, who raced the ATC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner ,while B2B Thoroughbreds' Ricky Surace parted with Savanna Amour for the seven-figure sum.

In recent years, Coolmore has acquired the likes of Sunlight (Zoustar) ($4.2 million), Global Glamour (Star Witness) ($1.55 million), Maastricht (Mastercraftsman) ($2.25 million) and Srikanth (Dubawi) ($2 million), all elite mares, to back their young sire Justify, whose first southern hemisphere-bred weanlings hit the market at Riverside Stables on Thursday, selling to $300,000.

Maastricht was the previous highest-priced mare sold at a Chairman's Sale.

Wootton Bassett, who was purchased by Coolmore in a sensational play last year, will stand his first southern hemisphere season at $71,500 after transferring from France to Ireland in time for the 2021 northern hemisphere breeding season where he stands for €100,000.

Coolmore has already reported that the "house full" sign has been placed on the stallion's southern hemisphere book.

Lot 27 In Her Time

INGLIS

Yulong Stud's Yuesheng Zhang recently orchestrated the stunning deal to stand Written Tycoon (Iglesia) at his operation and the Victorian farm added to the Chinese businessman's extensive elite broodmare band by buying In Her Time for the $2.2 million figure, 12 months after narrowly missing out on the mare.

She was bought with the intention of sending her to Written Tycoon

"Mr Zhang, obviously having Written Tycoon, wants to continue the process of buying these really nice mares to add to our broodmare band and he's always loved In Her Time," Yulong's chief operating officer Sam Fairgray said.

"I think he tried to buy her last year and this year he had his mind set on buying her, being in foal to I Am Invincible.

"She's a high-class sprinting mare. The industry is so strong at the moment and mares of this quality are certainly worth their value. "

Starting with a $1.5 million opening bid, which immediately put the Newgate Consignment-offered In Her Time on the market, the competition stepped up from there.

Offered on behalf of owner Orbis Bloodstock, which paid $2 million at last year's Chairman's Sale to buy out partner Peter Brown, she was sold at this year's auction in foal to I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) with a September cover.

Catalogued as Lot 27, In Her Time is one of six winners for Hell It's Hot (Zeditave), a half-sister to The Shorts (Gr 2, 1100m) winner Hot As Hell (County), Listed winners Flaming Hot (County), Craig's Dragon (Catbird) and Sin Sin Sin (Fantastic Light), who is the dam of Coolmore's Everest- (1200m) winning stallion Yes Yes Yes (Rubick).

Trained at Newcastle by Ben Smith and, later, Kris Lees, In Her Time won nine of her 31 starts and she was victorious in the 2018 The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) and the 2019 Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m).

Newgate Farm's Henry Field said: "It's a great result for Orbis Bloodstock, who decided about six weeks ago that they would change their strategy, away from those high-end mares.

"There were three or four on her and it was great to see Yulong get her at what was a fair price. It was a good result all around."

INGLIS

Boutique Scone farm Cressfield, who bought Pippie to add to its collection of Group-winning or producing mares, is likely to send the daughter of Written Tycoon to champion Darley stallion Exceed And Excel (Danehill), a proven source of speed and precocity.

"She's obviously one of the mares of the sales. She was well performed on the track and will certainly compliment the band of broodmares we have at Cressfield and are continuing to build. She really is perfect for us," Cressfield's Wayne Bedgood said.

"We know the market is strong, quality horses make big money and she's a quality horse. We knew we were going to have to be strong to get her.

"She was one of our top three mares of the sale and we missed out on a couple of others so it was nice to take her home."

Pippie went on to win six races, including her first start as a two-year-old, and used her blistering speed to take out the 2020 Oakleigh Plate and the A J Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Moonee Valley in September. She was offered by Sledmere Stud as Lot 47.

Bought by trainers John and Chris Meagher for $60,000 at the 2017 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale for owner Glenn Heran, she is out of six-time winner Coupe Express (Ne Coupez Pas), a half-sister to three-time Listed-placed juvenile Timely Truce (Brief Truce).

Interestingly, the Meaghers also trained Savanna Amour, a Group 2-winning, Group 1-performed mare, who already has a Fastnet Rock weanling filly on the ground and was sold in foal to the Coolmore stallion.

Sledmere's Treen Murphy was "over the moon" about the price received for Pippie.

"She's a dual Group 1 winner with an unflappable temperament. You can do anything with her, so she's got the ability to go anywhere in the breeding barn, that's for sure," Murphy said.

"She's one of the most high-quality physicals I've ever come across and she's been extremely popular.

"Any time she came out of the box, everybody fell in love with her.

There wasn't one person who was disappointed with her - you could stare at her for hours."

Murphy said the Pippie story typified what racing participants were trying to achieve.

"It's been an incredible journey for (the Herans)," she said.

"To buy her through the ring as a yearling and then to have two Group 1s and now to have her make $1.8 million, that's what everybody strives to do when they enter the racing and breeding game."

Thompson stumps up for Meuse

Widden Stud's Antony Thompson, who has become accustomed to buying million-dollar mares in recent years, with a good deal of success with their progeny, acquired a mare from the potent Shantha's Choice (Canny Lad) family for $1.2 million.

Trained by Anthony Freedman, Meuse won four of her nine starts, including twice at two and an all-important Listed win at three. She was sold in foal to Dundee (High Chaparral).

"She's an obvious mare for Zoustar. She's just a rare jewel. There's champion sire after champion sire when you look down the page, from Snitzel to Encosta to Danehill," Thompson said.

"For mine, she is blue chip all the way and it's hard to get into those families. She's a beautiful mare.

Widden Stud sold a Snitzel (Redoute’s Choice) colt for $1.9 million after buying Bonny O’Reilly (O’Reilly) for $1.2 million in 2019 and Veزالay (Shamardal) for $1 million the same year. The resulting I Am Invincible filly made $1.25 million at the recent Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale.

“We have had a bit of luck buying these really nice fillies. She’s got the runs on the board on the track and she’s got a super pedigree,” Thompson said.

“It’s a long-term investment to have a position in that family, but we have got some really good clients who back us in these nice mares and we have had some luck, so we will keep going.”

Owner Nick Wakim of Hilldene Farm paid $500,000 for the stakes-winning Meuse, twice successful as a juvenile, at the 2018 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale.

Carrying a double cross of Danehill (Danzig), Meuse is a daughter of Group 3 winner Precious Lorraine (Encosta De Lago), a sister to Black Opal Stakes (Listed, 1200m) winner Lucky Raquie, and a three-quarter sister to Manhattan Rain (Encosta De Lago) and Rubick.

Newgate offered Meuse on Wakim’s behalf.

“She has been a great mare for us and we think she is a very high quality broodmare, and I’m very, very pleased with the result,” Wakim said.

“She’s developed into a lovely mare. She had a great pedigree. She’s a stakes winner, Group placed.

“We really think she’s an excellent package. I’m very happy she has gone to Widden and hopefully they can enjoy her and do very well with her.”

Wakim admitted that it was a difficult decision to sell Meuse but he still retains ownership of a number of valuable mares.

“I’m an owner-breeder, but sometimes you have to move the mares you have. We invest in high quality mares, like Aloisia, Dream In Colour and Sweet Sister,” he said.

“We made a decision to test the market with a young mare, and we can take that and reinvest back into the market.

“With a pedigree like that, the kind of buyer that wants her, they are not just limited to Australia. You can go to a Kingman, or horses like that.

“Sure, she is a little bit limited because of that Shantha’s Choice factor, but there are so many options for a stallion outside of Australia for a mare like that.

“She’s a high-quality mare and I wish them all the best with her.”

Courchevel has date with Dundee

Arrowfield Stud also took advantage of the rare opportunity to buy the first sibling to champion mare Winx (Street Cry) to be offered to the market in seven years.

The John Camilleri-bred and owned Courchevel (Snitzel), an unraced younger half-sister to the 25-time Group 1 winner, was sold for $900,000.

Consigned by Segenhoe Stud, Courchevel is in foal leading first season sire Capitalist (Written Tycoon).

“Very few have been sold out of this family and she’s by our champion stallion and is a half-sister to one of the best horses we’ve seen in decades. It’s a great opportunity and the rest is up to us,” Arrowfield Stud’s John Messara said.

“We have to mate her correctly and she’s carrying a very commercial mating to Capitalist, so I can see that we could recoup part of our outlay from the first foal, all being equal, and the rest is up to us.”

Messara is confident that Dundee, already the sire of Group 1-winning colts Castelvechio and Super Seth, is the right mating for the blueblood mare.

“She is a big mare and she’s not overly athletic, but Dundee is an incredibly athletic animal with a fine head and I think he’ll be a good counter for her,” he said.

‘It was everything we hoped it would be and more’

Last night’s Chairman’s Sale left Inglis staff elated with what was achieved after 53 lots were traded at a remarkable average of $532,736 while turnover was $28,235,000.

The fact that there was strong demand did not come as a surprise given what has occurred at the yearling sales in the preceding four months, but even so, Inglis general manager of bloodstock sales and marketing Sebastian Hutch could scarcely believe what had transpired.

“It was everything we hoped it would be and probably more,” Hutch said.

“We were excited by the opportunities we had to sell the calibre of mares we had in the catalogue, but by the same token, conscious of the responsibility of their quality. When you get mares that good, you have to make it work.

"The depth in competition all the way through, to have so many people involved, in what was almost frenzied bidding at various stages. I just think there were so many mares that sold tonight that far exceeded what anybody reasonably expected them to make. It was great.

"That felt really strong and we are very grateful for the support we got and it's something we will look to build on heading into next year and future years."

While Coolmore spent $5.1 million on three mares, Rosemont Stud was also a strong member of the buying bench, taking home three mares for $1.38 million to support new stallion Hanseatic (Street Boss).

Fernrigg Farm also bought three mares for $1.025 million including New Zealand Group 1 winner Danzdanzdance (Mastercraftsman) for $475,000. Springmount also purchased three mares.

The Newgate Consignment was the leading vendor, selling eight mares for a total of $6.055 million while Segenhoe Stud sold six for $3.06 million.

Inglis has previously tried to expand the Chairman's Sale, notably in 2018 which was an error admitted at the time, but Hutch believes there is room to grow the boutique sale while maintaining the focus on high-end breeding stock.

"We are very good at keeping an open mind on these things. If the last 18 months have taught us anything, you have to allow yourself to be fluid in your thinking in terms of how you plan for anything," he said.

"There's a capacity to grow the sale a little bit, but we are sensitive to the fact that it is a boutique Sale and it works well that way, but I certainly think we had the capacity to sell more mares tonight."

The Inglis Australian Broodmare Sale will be held at Riverside Stables tomorrow, bringing to an end the eight-day Inglis May Sale series.

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Sooboog fee remains unchanged

Sooboog (Snitzel) is flying high in third place in the first season sires list by winners but the Kitchwin Hills stallion will still be available at an unchanged fee of $13,200 next season. The Group 3-winning sprinter has seven winners from just 19 runners, a strike rate of 36.8 per cent, and that return has also pushed him into the top ten sires of two-year-olds by winners. Sooboog's best performed runner to date is the Peter Moody-trained Birdsville, a winner on debut and then runner-up behind Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) place-getter Ingratiating (Frosted) in the Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Flemington. Sooboog was a $1.5 million yearling purchase and raced in the colours of Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa Al Maktoum.

Price and Kent Jr hoping to strike in Derby

The presence of an Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner and a Victoria Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) heroine in the South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) at Morphettville today is not fazing Mick Price, who along with co-trainer Michael Kent Jr sends out Deepstrike (Tavistock). And Price will give jockey Damian Lane instructions to find galloping room in the final 800 metres. "He's a momentum type of horse that is in good order and will run right up to his best," Price said. "I'm hoping his best is good enough. You have an Australian Derby winner, Explosive Jack (Jakalberry), which doesn't usually happen, then you have Personal (Fastnet Rock), a Victoria Oaks winner. They're the two best horses in the race, so hopefully we can beat them." Deepstrike's last-start eighth in the Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 2040m) at Morphettville on April 24 is the furthest he has been. "He was strong at Sandown over 1800 metres, then he was on heels for most of it in the Chairman's last time," Price continued. "I think he's well suited, it's just whether he's good enough on the day. He's had a good prep that is still on the way up. He's a lightly-framed horse that is going to get better as he gets older. I think if he has a good run in the race, he's going to be in the money somewhere."

Homesman's Hollindale Stakes bid

Homesman (War Front) is one of seven Group 1 winners in the line-up for the Hollindale Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) at the Gold Coast today. The 2018 Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) hero added to his top-flight tally last time in the Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) for co-trainers Sam and Anthony Freedman. Among the seven-year-old's rivals this time is the 14-time New Zealand Group 1 winner Melody Belle (Commands). "A couple of weeks ago we were working out what was going to run and we said, 'It's basically a Group 1'," Sam Freedman told Racing.com. "He's an amazing horse. He's basically been the benchmark for Group 1s at a mile to 2000 metres for a long time, so any time he's in the race you know it's a very competitive Group 1." Homesman is drawn wide but heads in fresh since his March 6 cup win. "We think he is best spacing his runs and he's generally very good first and second-up and then he can regress, so we thought the gap between runs will suit and then he will go into the Doomben Cup cherry ripe," Freedman added.

Strong hand for Gollan in Goldmarket

Tony Gollan has what he believes are three good hopes in his bid to win the Gold Coast Goldmarket (Listed, 1200m) for a fifth time this weekend. But the handler wants the track in the Soft range for Capital Connection (Denman), Macewen (Rothsay) and Baller (High Chaparral). Stable newcomer Baller pleased Gollan in a recent jumpout. "I was sweating on drawing a gate, we've done that (barrier seven). He doesn't want it heavy by the look of his form. I think soft will be quite OK," Gollan said on his weekly Final Gallop preview. "He's improved, improved, improved. He can find a spot just behind this speed and he's a really good chance." Capital Connection handed up the lead to Racecourse Road (Show A Heart) when third to that rival last time. "I won't be handing up this time," Gollan continued. "When he springs I'm happy to let him roll along at 1200 metres. He's in good order, very fit and I can see him racing well." Macewen notched two wins at the Gold Coast back in the winter of 2018-2019. "He's got a good record at the Gold Coast," the trainer added. "He was very good at the jumpouts. We've freshened him up with this race in mind. He will be buried back midfield and I can see him tracking up to the corner and letting go. If he can get soft ground he can run way better than his odds."

Tony Gollan

Schweida trio in good shape

Trainer Kelly Schweida had a stakes win among an Eagle Farm double last week and is hoping to repeat the dose at the Gold Coast today. Miss Hipstar (Star Turn) took the Dalrello Stakes (Listed, 1000m) last week, and this time he has Racecourse Road (Show A Heart) in the Goldmarket shooting for a hat-trick and a maiden stakes success. "He's been flying. His last win was really good," Schweida said. "They ran 34.6 the first 600 metres on soft ground and they ran 1:9.8, so he's been going good. It took a little bit out of him, it was pretty hard, so he's had a month between runs and he likes that sort of racing pattern. He's going good, it's a winnable race for him." Racecourse Road is already proven on wet ground at the Gold Coast, while Schweida also has the accomplished wet tracker Fleet Dove (Not A Single Doubt) resuming in the Gold Coast Guineas (Gr 3, 1200m). "I thought all of her runs have been pretty good. She raced in good quality races. I think she's taken that next step," Schweida noted. "We've been riding her quiet in her trials and letting her finish off, which is good." The handler has hopes too for Spurcraft (Jet Spur) in the Bat Out Of Hell (900m). "He likes the Gold Coast. He trialled only average but he can do that," he added.

The Coast encore for Nimalee

Trainer Matt Smith admits to being a little surprised by the handicapper's assessment of The Coast (1600m) but he is keeping faith that Nimalee's (So You Think) class can carry her through in what will be the final run of her campaign. The Emancipation Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) winner has top-weight of 59 kilograms in today's inaugural edition of the Gosford feature, half a kilogram more than 2020 Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) placegetter Brandenburg (Burgundy) and seven kilograms more than Nudge (Fastnet Rock), who is expected to be one of her toughest opponents. "I thought we might get in below Brandenburg but that's the way it's gone," Smith said. "It's always a concern when you're giving decent horses six and seven kilos. Everything has to go right for you to win with those weights. But it would be a nice race to round out the prep if

SATURDAY SPOTLIGHT

LIQUEURO (AUS)
3 G FIORENTE - LITTLE DARRING
BY GALILEO

TRAINER:
 CINDY ALDERSON

RACE:
 SOUTH AUSTRALIAN DERBY (GR 1, 2500M), MORPHETTVILLE

You can't buy a Galileo (Sadler's Wells) yearling for $16,000 or less. Well, you can. You can buy one and one only.

Little Darring, a once-raced at Murray Bridge filly by the world champion sire, changed hands for exactly that paltry sum at Adelaide's Magic Millions yearling sale in 2006 when sold to Pejozo Investments.

Her on-track performance suggests she was barely worth that, finishing 13 of 13 in her only race, and, from her first three unsold foals who have only placed, you'd question the return as a broodmare, but now, 15 years on from her yearling sale, and her fourth foal by Fiorenite (Monsun) lines up in a bid to become a Group 1 winner in the South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) today.

Liqueuro, who, aptly perhaps, won the Galilee Series Final (Listed, 2400m) to somewhat live up to his mare's lofty pedigree, himself was passed in for $30,000 at the Adelaide yearling sale of 2019, finding his way to trainer Cindy Alderson, who herself is chasing a maiden Group 1 success.

South Australian Dalibrov Drazetic, who bred Liqueuro, retains a share in him and owns the mare, will be hoping her Free Eagle (High Chaparral) two-year-old colt can follow in his half-brothers exploits, which currently stand at four wins from five starts, and plenty of untapped potential.

The Australian-bred Little Darring is out of the twice-winning Arias (Salieri), in turn a daughter of Caitie's Kingdom (Planet Kingdom), the dam of Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) winner Prince Salieri (Salieri).

Dalibrov Drazetic, who bred Liqueuro, retains a share in him and owns the mare, will be hoping her Free Eagle (High Chaparral) can follow in his half-brothers exploits, which currently stand at four wins from five starts, and plenty of untapped potential.

we could knock it off." Smith has had the race on the radar since the mare's fruitful Sydney autumn carnival which yielded consecutive wins, highlighted by the Emancipation Stakes. She subsequently raced too keenly when a tiring ninth to Nettoyer (Sebring) in the Queen Of The Turf Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) but Smith said she had recovered well and he expected her to bounce back to her best in The Coast.

Wet track ideal for Enchanted Heart

Enchanted Heart

SPORTPIX

A rain-affected track at Gosford today is expected to play into the hands of smart mare Enchanted Heart (Shamus Award) as she bids for her first black-type win in the Takeover Target Stakes (Listed, 1200m). The four-year-old is the only horse to have beaten up-and-coming sprint star Lost And Running (Per Incanto), overpowering him to score a first-up win on a soft track at Canterbury last month. However, she was no match for him when they clashed again at Randwick, a flop trainer Kris Lees put down to several factors, notably the dry track. "She was caught wide, and the firm track, that was probably the bigger factor," Lees said. "But I'm really pleased with her and now she gets soft ground, I think that's the key to her, finding the right tracks. It's a good option for stakes company for her." With Gosford rated a heavy 8 on Friday, Enchanted Heart was on the third line of betting at $3.90, with favourite Signore Fox (Exceed And Excel) a doubtful starter if track conditions don't improve. Enchanted Heart could aim at the Kingsford-Smith Cup (Gr 1, 1300m) and Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) at the Brisbane winter carnival. "We've always thought she could make winter stakes grade and she looks like she's found the right race to give her that opportunity," Lees added.

Cup springboard for Carif

Peter Snowden is confident Sandown Cup (Listed, 3200m) winner Carif (So You Think) is building towards another standout performance but admits it is unlikely to come in today's Gosford Cup (Listed, 2100m). The handler believes the race is the ideal springboard for the recently-gelded five-year-old ahead of the Premier's Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Eagle Farm on May 29. "You won't see him do anything until he gets to 2400 plus. He just doesn't react over anything under that," he said. "He will run a nice race (on Saturday). He probably couldn't win over 2100 metres at Gosford but he gets to a mile-and-a-half a couple of weeks later and maybe a Brisbane Cup after that. It's two miles this year so that will suit him perfectly if we get there. He's in great order. He is going particularly well, he just needs more ground." The Gosford Cup field will change shape by race day with four early scratchings and several acceptors set to contest alternative events. Snowden, who co-trains with son Paul, will attempt consecutive wins in the Gold Coast Guineas after Hightail in 2020, with Marboosha (Dream Ahead) who has drawn gate 15. "It's not always a bad thing drawing wide at the Gold Coast, they normally go pretty quick so she may be able to slot in somewhere," he added.

I Am Power in unlikely return

Former Hong Kong galloper I Am Power (Power) will attempt to resurrect his racing career in Australia today when he has his first start in more than two years in the Tooheys Benchmark 78 Handicap (1200m) at Gosford. Owner Derek Tam bought I Am Power out of Ireland and moved him to Hong Kong where he won two of six starts for trainer Peter Ho before injury ended his innings. The six-year-old has since recovered in New Zealand and Tam has sent him to Mark Newnham, with whom he has had stakes success with Lanciato (Per Incanto). "He'd been running around over there in a paddock and was moving well and looked well so the owner asked me whether I'd be interested in giving him a go here," Newnham said. "He did a fair bit of pre-training over there just to see how he was and whether it was worth bringing him over and I've had him here nearly three months. He's fit and well and ready to head to the races. He looks to have some ability. He is only lightly raced so it's not as though he has a lot of miles on the clock. He is working well and he's sound, so we'll kick him off and see what he's got." I Am Power has prepared for his comeback with two recent barrier trials but is untested on wet tracks. Gosford was rated in the heavy range yesterday.

I Am Power

Legionnaire chasing second win

Legionnaire (Stratum) achieved his only career win in the Exford Plate (Listed, 1400m) back in September 2019 but trainer John Moloney is hopeful the four-year-old can end a frustrating sequence of ten losses in the JRA Handicap (1600m) at Caulfield today. The gelding was a close fifth last time out in a Benchmark 84 at the course and distance. "I think it was about a long neck he was beaten and ran fifth, so he really pleased us with his run," Moloney told Racing.com. "It's a bit disappointing that we haven't pulled off another win, we did try him in the spring and he was a bit unlucky here at Caulfield and ran a couple of good runs first-up. He is definitely due to find a bit of luck and get close to winning again." Teo Nugent was in the plate last start and will partner Legionnaire for the fourth time, from barrier three in the field of seven. "We've got Steve Richards' horse, who does like to lead, in the race (Holbien), so we don't have to be the leader this time, we can get a trail," Moloney added. "He's had a couple of runs, he was unlucky in the run prior and then at Sandown he was ok and his first run was good, so a little mixture but he certainly has come up well.

Half-sister to Montefilia on Inglis Digital

RACING PHOTOS

Wu Darl (Dundeel) a half-sister to dual Group 1-winning filly Montefilia (Kermadec) is among 311 lots catalogued in the Inglis Digital May (Early) Online Auction, which opened for bidding yesterday. The four-year-old is offered unreserved by Three Bridges Thoroughbreds as a racing and breeding prospect. The mare is also a half-sister to Group placed two-year-old Nice For What (Shalaa) and a three-parts sister to Chaparral Belle (High Chaparral) who sold for $150,000 at the Chairman's Sale at Inglis Riverside yesterday. A winner at 1600 metres, Wu Darl is free of Danehill (Danzig) blood, being out of Bana Wu (Shirocco), who has a yearling colt by Ribchester (Ifraaj) and is back in foal to Montefilia's sire Kermadec (Teofilo). The May (Early) Online catalogue consists of 136 racehorses (66 race fillies), 100 broodmares (44 in foal), 26 yearlings, 25 weanlings, 22 shares and two stallions, including Defcon (Choisir). The auction has multiple entries from Aquis Farm, Arrowfield Stud, Gai Waterhouse & Adrian Bott Racing, Gooree Park Stud, Heinrich Bloodstock, Longwood Thoroughbred Farm, Mitch Beer Racing, River Junction, Spendthrift Australia and Woodside Park Stud. The final countdown of bidding begins from 3pm Wednesday, May 12.

Buckley-owned horses banned in Victoria

Racing Victoria has banned horses owned by Sean Buckley and his Ultra Thoroughbreds arm from racing in the state. An investigation, which began in February, is ongoing into Buckley's breeding operation after it was alleged that embryos were transferred from talented race mares into surrogate mares. A Racing Victoria statement said: "This order was made as the stewards are, and remain, concerned that Ultra Racing and/or its managing owner, Mr Buckley, have not fully complied with a direction of the stewards to provide all relevant material to them during the course of an investigation. That investigation into thoroughbred breeding remains ongoing." Buckley has denied wrongdoing and Fairfax media has reported his legal representative Damian Sheales as confirming that the owner-breeder will launch a legal challenge to the ban.

Cahill lands Wagga Cup on Victorian raider

Matthew Cahill, 53, won the Wagga Wagga Cup (Listed, 2000m) at Wagga yesterday on Victorian raider Inverloch (Fastnet Rock), 24 years after his first success in the contest aboard Here's The Prince (Opera Prince). The rider jumped his mount to the front and set the tempo on the Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained galloper. The seven-year-old relished the make-all tactics and held the dead-heat runners-up Spirit Ridge (Nathaniel) and Yonkers (Medaglia D'Oro) by half a length. Cahill took his career stats to approaching 2,700 career wins and 20 stakes successes, the biggest being a Group 2 score aboard Speed Week (Rory's Jester) back in 1998. Inverloch was a two-time winner in France for trainer Nicolas Clement before transferring to the Busuttin and Young operation at the end of his three-year-old season. The gelding won the Mornington Cup Prelude (Listed, 2000m) and Easter Cup (Gr 3, 2000m) last autumn. His dam, Ideal (Galileo), is a half-sister to the Classic-winning champion European colt and sire Camelot (Montjeu).

Race for Tabcorp heating up

Apollo Global Management has proposed a $4 billion takeover of Tabcorp's wagering and media business to rival UK-based Entain's recent bid of $3.5 billion. The private equity group lost out to Caesar's Entertainment in its attempt to buy William Hill last year. Entain, meanwhile, already owns Ladbrokes and Neds in Australia. Another who could be involved in any bidding contest is Matt Tripp, who holds a $25 million stake in the wagering data and technology company Betmakers. Tabcorp announced in late March that it would undertake a strategic review of its structural and ownership options. "The Tabcorp board has not yet formed a view on the merits of the revised proposal and it will assess it in the context of the previously announced strategic review," Tabcorp responded to Racing.com in light of the Apollo Global Management proposal.

NEW ZEALAND

NZB prepares for live weanling sale

Karaka sale ring

NZB

Vendors are welcoming the return of New Zealand Bloodstock's National Weanling Sale to a physical format at Karaka next week. A select catalogue of 120 weanlings will go under the hammer, after the 2020 version was replaced by an online sale. Haunui Farm have been major players at New Zealand Bloodstock weanling sales for a number of years, selling more than 200 weanlings throughout the last decade. This year their 19-strong draft makes up almost a sixth of the catalogue. Curraghmore have been leading vendors at this sale on more than a dozen occasions, topping the sale last year with a $107,500 colt by Proisir (Choisir), and the operation is strongly represented again, with 15 weanlings, including the progeny of first season sires Ace High (High Chaparral), U S Navy Flag (War Front) and Written By (Written Tycoon). The 2021 National Weanling Sale also features ten weanlings from Cambridge Stud, who have offered a total of only five weanlings at this sale over the last six years. "We've got a couple of very nice horses from the last crop of Tavistock, and there are some lovely foals by Almanzor and Embellish as well," said Cambridge Stud chief executive Henry Plumptre.

Musigny Lass aiming for back-to-back wins

The Simon and Katrina Alexander-trained filly Musigny Lass (Iffraaj) contests the Waikato Equine Veterinary Centre 2YO Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Te Rapa today off the back of a $55 upset at the track last time. Musigny Lass has drawn barrier two with Craig Grylls taking the reins from three-kilogram claiming apprentice Eilish McCall. "She's trained-on very well, she's very bright and has done some nice work," Katrina Alexander said. "She's got a great draw and Craig Grylls is booked to ride and he galloped her on Tuesday and was really happy with her so there's a lot of positives going into it. It'll just be interesting to see how she measures up now that most of those two-year-olds have had a start and race day experience. Hopefully she will put her hand up again." Alexander expects Musigny Lass will again be ridden positively from her inside draw. "It would be silly to waste the draw. Last start we were drawn wide and really only had one option that if you were going to be in it, then ride positively from the barrier," she continued. "I didn't expect her to lead up the way she did but she went forward and relaxed really well. We're quite confident that if we have to ask her to do that again she should come back to Craig quite easily and then settle into her rhythm."

Mongolian Falcon to stand in Hawke's Bay

Well-known equestrian exponent Vicki Wilson is leading the resurgence of thoroughbred breeding in Hawke's Bay with the addition of Mongolian Falcon (Fastnet Rock) to the region's stallion ranks. Fittingly, perhaps, the former galloper's biggest victory came in Hawke's Bay Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m), one of three wins from nine starts before he sustained a career-ending knee injury in the New Zealand 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). Mongolian Falcon retired to Mike and Barbara Cooney's Waimate stud farm, Willow Glen, where he has served 141 mares over three seasons, but now moves north to Wilson's Hauora Farms, where he will stand for an unchanged service fee of $3,000+GST. Wilson already stands a number of showjumping stallions, but this will be her first foray into standing a thoroughbred stallion, and she is excited about the challenge. "We have been looking for a while for a thoroughbred stallion to stand at stud, really for our own mares and also for any outside mares," she said. "I quite like the Fastnet Rock blood. All of the people we have spoken with in Australia and New Zealand that we trust, and are helping us learn this game, have said positive things about him. The weanlings and yearlings that I have seen so far by him have been very strong and correct, with a fantastic walk."

High five for Tylers

Father and daughter trainers Kelvin and Aimee Tyler reinforced their dominance of Southland racing with a five-timer at their home meeting at Riverton on Thursday, courtesy of King Of The Castle (Castledale), So Much Mour (Azamour), Pinhead (Pins), Zambezi Zipper (Highly Recommended), and Flying Sardine (Flying Spur). "That was great yesterday," Kelvin Tyler said. "The track was to their liking. It was a relief to see them all perform well. It might not have been the strongest race card, but all you can do is win, and all of them won quite well." Tyler said the wins by Flying Sardine and King Of The Castle were particularly sentimental. "Flying Sardine is a wee sweetheart," the Riverton handler continued. "Weight is going to be the big problem for her now. I thought about the Wairio Cup next week possibly with her. We will just see how she goes, we might give her a wee freshen-up after next week because racing pretty much finishes down south from next Sunday." King Of The Castle is part-owned by Tyler's parents. "King Of The Castle is a really exciting horse," he said. "I race him with my Mum and Dad, so that was quite exciting for them. It was a big thrill. He is going to have a freshen now to mature a bit, he is a light-framed horse. We will get him back in the early spring."

JPN: Colts clash in NHK Mile Cup

Japan's spring Group 1 programme continues tomorrow with the NHK Mile Cup (Gr 1, 1600m) at Tokyo, in which 18 three-year-old colts are set to compete. Among them is the Mitsumasa Nakauchida-trained Grenadier Guards (Frankel), who ranked as Japan's second-top juvenile last year after his victory in the Asahi Hai Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Hanshin. He had to settle for second on his return to action when runner-up to the re-opposing Rooks Nest (Maurice) in a Grade 3 contest over 1400 metres at Nakayama in late March. The field also includes the Yoshito Yahagi-trained Ho O Amazon (King Kamehameha), ninth in Asahi Hai Futurity but successful in the Arlington Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) at Hanshin last time, his only start since. The German-bred Schnell Meister (Kingman), a son of German Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Serienholder (Soldier Hollow), won both outings at two for trainer Takahisa Tezuka and drops back to a mile after a runner-up finish behind Titleholder (Duramente) on his first outing this term in the Hoshi Hai Yayoi Sho Deep Impact Kinen (Gr 2, 2000m) on March 7. Grade 3 winner Pixie Knight (Maurice) heads in off a fourth in the Arlington Cup, while Bathrat Leon (Kizuna) is on a hat-trick after landing the New Zealand Trophy (Gr 2, 1600m) at Nakayama on April 10.

JPN: Classic credentials on the line

A field of eight colts will vie to enhance their Japanese Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) credentials in the Kyoto Shimbun Hai (Gr 2, 2200m) at Chukyo today. Past winners include the top-class Kizuna (Deep Impact), who took the race en route to Derby success, and Heart's Cry (Sunday Silence) who was then second in the premier Classic behind (King Kamehameha). The Teiichi Konno-trained Machaon D'Or (Gold Ship) landed a stakes win over 2200 metres at Chukyo last start, complementing a Grade 3 placed effort and a fair eighth of 18 behind Danon The Kid (Just A Way) in last season's top-ranked juvenile race, the Hopeful Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m). Lightly-raced Lupercalia, trained by Yasuo Tomomichi, won second-up and followed that with a progressive fourth last time in the Mainichi Hai (Gr 3, 1800m) at Hanshin. The handler also has Red Genesis (Deep Impact), who stretched out to 2400 metres to nail a first stakes success at his latest start.

HK: Size aims to stay on top

John Size is holding sway at the top of a congested Hong Kong trainers' premiership with 59 wins over Caspar Fownes' 58, with Frankie Lor (53), Danny Shum (53) and Francis Lui (52) all threatening as they head into the 70th of the current season's 88 meetings today. Size has 11 titles already in the bag but is taking nothing for granted as he tries to regain his crown. "I've never been confident about winning a championship. There are five trainers that are in striking distance and I think anyone can win at this point," Size said. He hopes the promising Gallant Express (I Am Invincible) can rebound in the Class 3 Celosia Handicap (1400m) after a last-start defeat at odds of 1.3. "It was on that day of racing where you had to be in a good position to win a race. Horses that were travelling three-deep or had to do a bit of work at any stage, they didn't win," Size said. "I think he's got a small excuse there and hopefully if he takes a better position from gate four on Saturday he might run better. He's certainly got some quality and I think he'll improve next season, as all the three-year-olds will I suppose."

Second for Ribchester

Haunui Farm shuttler Ribchester (Iffraaj) sires his second northern hemisphere first-crop winner, and first in the UK, after Flaming Rib (2 c ex Suddenly by Excelebration) won the five furlong Novice Stakes at Nottingham yesterday. Sent off a 16-1 chance for trainer Tom Dascombe, Flaming Rib beat

Ribchester

DARLEY

Amazonian Dream (Bungle Inthejungle) by three and three-quarter lengths. Purchased for 35,000gns out of the Tattersalls October Book 2 Yearling Sale last year, Flaming Rib is the first foal out of the unraced Suddenly (Excelebration), who is a half-sister to Group 2 winner Savoir Vivre (Adlerflug). Ribchester, who will stand for NZ$15,000 plus GST in New Zealand this year, is also represented by impressive US winner Ruthin.

US: Tiz The Law to shuttle to Chile

Coolmore stallion Tiz The Law (Constitution) will follow in his sire's footsteps and shuttle to Chile for the upcoming southern hemisphere breeding season. The four-year-old will stand at Haras Paso Nevado, which has previously received Powerscourt (Sadler's Wells), Scat Daddy (Johannesburg), Verrazano (More Than Ready) and Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike). Tiz The Law, whose four top-flight wins came in last year's Belmont Stakes (Gr 1, 9f), Travers Stakes (Gr 1, 10f) and Florida Derby (9f), as well as a four-length demolition in the Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 8f) at two, retired to Ashford Stud late last year after scans revealed bone bruising in a lower front leg. Tiz The Law was purchased for $180,000 out of the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga New York-bred Sale in 2018 and raced for Sackatoga Stable under the care of trainer Barclay Tagg. His sire, Constitution (Tapit), has enjoyed elite success in Chile with triple Group 1 winner Breakpoint and Alaskan Queen.

UK: Armory returns with Huxley win

Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) second Armory (Galileo) brushed aside four rivals to win the Huxley Stakes (Gr 2, 1m 2.5f) at Chester yesterday, his first start since chasing home Sir Dragonet (Camelot) at Moonee Valley last October. Ryan Moore settled the Aidan O'Brien-trained four-year-old at the tail of the quartet, waited until the turn for home to switch out and then quickened smartly to a comfortable three-length success over Sangarius (Kingman), with the front-running Palavecino (Cacique) a further length behind in third. "He's got a lethal turn-of-foot," Moore said. "He relaxed fine, I just wanted to have him ready to go when it was turned on and he accelerated really well. He ran a mighty race in the Cox Plate." The colt now has two Group 2 wins and a pair of Group 3s to his name, as well as five Group 1 placings. The Coolmore homebred is out of the multiple Group 3-placed mare After (Danehill Dancer), who is herself out of Noah's Ark (Charnwood Forest), third in the Garden City Breeders' Cup Handicap (Gr 1, 9f).

Royal Mile could finally deliver Danerich and his trainer Group 1 glory

Royal Mile Winning the Port Adelaide Guineas

BY JO MCKINNON | @ANZ_NEWS

The outcome of last weekend's Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) at Morphettville was one for the battlers, with popular country Victorian trainer Chris Calthorpe winning the feature with a game $5,000 filly called Media Award (Shamus Award).

And tomorrow the winning trend of the lesser lights could continue in the South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m).

"I TURNED TO MY WIFE WHEN CHRIS (CALTHORPE) WON THE RACE AND SAID TO HER SEE YOU DON'T NEED TO BE CIARON MAHER OR HAYES OR WALLER TO WIN A GROUP 1. YOU TAKE CONFIDENCE FROM THOSE THINGS AND YOU HAVE TO BACK YOURSELF AND THE HORSE THAT YOU HAVE."

- LEE CREEK

Mt Gambier trainer Lee Creek has Royal Mile (Danerich) engaged in the race, who, like Media Award, was a cheap purchase costing just $26,000 from the Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale in 2019.

Speaking to ANZ Bloodstock News as he floated the horse to Adelaide yesterday, Creek said he drew plenty of inspiration from the success of Media Award and Chris Calthorpe last Saturday.

"I turned to my wife when Chris (Calthorpe) won the race and said to her see you don't need to be Ciaran Maher or Hayes or Waller to win a Group 1," he said.

"You take confidence from those things and you have to back yourself and the horse that you have."

Creek has every confidence about Royal Mile tomorrow, and why wouldn't he given the horse has won five of his eight starts including his last four on the trot.

Last start he won the Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 2040m) and prior to that he won another of the key SA Derby lead-ups, the Port Adelaide Guineas (Listed, 1800m).

"I'm very bullish about him, he's highly talented and from that barrier (2) he will get a good run and he can lead or sit off a hot or slow speed. So I'm very confident he will run well," the trainer said.

Creek is a huge fan of the progeny of Danerich (Danehill) and says Royal Mile's breeding was essentially what drew him to the horse at the sales.

"I have had a couple of Danerich horses and I was always keen to get another one but they are hard to come by at the sales.

"He's a cracking type and I had to have him. He had great X-rays and everything about him and what you look for in a yearling, he had it. He's a really nice horse."

Royal Mile is 100 per cent owned by Rob Dycer, who is aged in his seventies and has been an owner with Creek since he started training 11 years ago.

"This is the first horse he's owned outright. He doesn't like the limelight and likes to stay in the background. It's all a bit much for him some days."

Since Royal Mile started winning races, Creek said he's been inundated with offers from Hong Kong to buy him, but Dycer has resisted.

"He's very happy at the moment," said Creek. "There's been a lot of offers to buy the horse. Hong Kong has been chasing him which is very stressful because they throw the money at you, but he's fortunate he doesn't need the money and says he's in it for the ride."

Royal Mile was bred and sold by Wellington Park, a stud farm based near Violet Town in Victoria, that is owned and run by former Olympic show jumping rider and racehorse trainer David Brideoake.

He's out of their unraced Street Sense (Street Cry) mare Street Blaze.

"I have to thank David and Tom who bred the horse. If they hadn't sent that mare to Danerich I wouldn't have looked at him. If he wasn't by Danerich I may have overlooked him," added Creek.

"When the owner was looking to buy I said 'these Danerich horses, there are not many that don't win races.'"

Danerich, a half-brother to two-time The Everest (1200m) winner Redzel (Snitzel), has stood at Rangal Park Stud since the beginning of his breeding career in 2007 but, sadly, he had to be moved this week to Rockwell Stud.

Rangal Park's stud master Eric Butler was recently diagnosed with terminal cancer and has to shut up shop.

"Due to my ill health that's the way it has to be I'm afraid," said Butler.

"You can't live on forever. I'm 81 years of age and there are a lot of people that have gone before me," said a philosophical Butler.

Despite being a stalwart of the Australian stallion ranks, Danerich is yet to win a Group 1 with his progeny on the racetrack. He's been close though with several Group 2 winners, including Richie's Vibe and Rich Charm, while his line lives on through Kingstar Farm stallion Lord Of The Sky, who has had his first yearlings sell this year.

"I would have loved to have seen him get the first book of mares that stallions in the Hunter get, then it would have been a different story.

"He's a very fertile stallion and underrated stallion. He's done very well considering the standard of mares that have been presented to him," he said.

“HE'S VERY HAPPY AT THE MOMENT, THERE'S BEEN A LOT OF OFFERS TO BUY THE HORSE. HONG KONG HAS BEEN CHASING HIM WHICH IS VERY STRESSFUL BECAUSE THEY THROW THE MONEY AT YOU, BUT HE'S FORTUNATE HE DOESN'T NEED THE MONEY AND SAYS HE'S IN IT FOR THE RIDE

Today might finally be the day for Danerich to reach that elusive Group 1 milestone with Royal Mile.

And what a good tonic that would be for so many people involved in his son's journey to the post in today's South Australian Derby.

3. Spirit Ridge (GB) 5 b G 60kg

Nathaniel (IRE) - Bates Creek (USA), by Rahy (USA)

B: Juddmonte Farms Ltd T: Mark Newnham J: N Rawiller

Margins: 0 lens, 0.4 lens. Time: 2:00.43 (last 600m 32.65) Betting: $31.00, $4.00, $4.50

Then followed: Paths of Glory (GB), Maid of Ore (AUS), Mr Marathon Man (GB), Upper House (AUS), Knights Order (IRE), Huntly Castle (AUS), The Lord Mayor (NZ), He Runs Away (ARG), The Doctor's Son (AUS), Blazing Zone (AUS), Roland Garros (AUS), last.

Analysis: Inverloch is racing in good form this preparation, now winning two of his four runs since resuming and he staged a smart effort in recording his third stakes success here, his ninth win in 35 starts. He went to the front from his good barrier (2) and travelled comfortably before lifting the pace at the 700m. He claimed a break at the turn and then held on gamely for a very good win at the surprisingly good odds of $31 after drifting in the betting. Spirit Ridge was handy early on before settling nicely in eighth place and improved approaching the turn. He took a while to wind up under his top weight (60kg) before finishing resolutely to dead-heat for second with the favourite Yonkers who was wide early on before improving to be sixth at the 1000m and then battled strongly in the straight. Paths Of Glory settled well, just beyond midfield on the rails before finishing well along the inner for a close-up fourth with Maid Of Ore holding on nicely for fifth after being handy all the way. [KB]

BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 Eligere, 4 Sunday Betting, 5 Chiu Chow Brother, Lucky Ruby, 10 Fantastic Fabio, 12 Little Player, 18 Marado, Zacian, 25 Gladsome Ryder, Go Go Sixteen, 33 The Elites, 50 Multipower.

VERDICT The recent form figures that Lucky Ruby has put together stand out in this field, yet his improvement has coincided with a switch to the AW and his previous turf efforts do not inspire. Sunday Betting is sure to attract some interest with Moreira taking over, though his overall profile remains patchy at best, and Eligere has had trouble getting the job done in the past. So they are all taken on with the once-raced CHIU CHOW BROTHER, who started slowly and endured a troubled passage on debut but nonetheless caught the eye late on and will appreciate this extra furlong.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Alloy Star, 11-2 One Step Ahead, Universal Crown, 8 Regency Poet, 10 Golden Mission, 12 Anonyma, Fox Cheunger, Wonder Brahma, 14 One Happy Star, 16 Viva Mama, 18 Shanghai Power, 22 Kwai Chung Elite.

VERDICT It may have taken ALLOY STAR quite some time to shed his maiden tag but he looked to get the job done a shade cosily when narrowly beating Universal Crown and Golden Mission over this C&D three weeks ago and probably has more to offer. He is tipped to quickly add another win to his tally, with his old rivals and One Step Ahead heading the cast of dangers.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Shenron, 4 Amazement, 9-2 Seasons Bliss, 7 Pegasus Glory, 10 Winning Brew, 12 Telecom Puma, 14 First Responder, 16 Divine Regulus, Good Luck Money, 20 Cordyceps King, Gallant Cavalier, 25 Cordyceps One.

VERDICT Riding arrangements for both Amazement and Shenron suggest big runs are expected. However, a chance is taken on another recent newcomer SEASONS BLISS, who stayed on well when making his debut in March and, with natural progression, looks a major player in what appears to be a modest event for the grade.

BETTING FORECAST: 11-4 Kung Fu Tea, 4 Spicy Grill, 9-2 Moon Peaks, 10 Alloy King, Big Bang Bong, 12 Joy Master, 16 Go Ballistic, Happy Hour, Moneymore, 20 Lucky Turbo, 25 Amazing Luck, Speedy Dragon, 33 Happy Ruby, Many Gains.
VERDICT Not many of these arrive in form. Spicy Grill has been showing signs of a breakthrough success and should prove a danger along with Moon Peaks. However, the vote goes to recent grade-dropper KUNG FU TEA, who looks open to further improvement after finishing second on his debut run at this level last month.

VERDICT Although DAILY CHARM is not entirely reliable, four of his last five starts have been sound and he was some way in front of three of these rivals last time when his jockey was charged with making insufficient effort. He can gain compensation at the main expense of El Jefe and Nunchuks.

VERDICT Low-mileage C&D winner Zone D ran well in defeat from a wide stall here last month and, with Joao Moreira now enlisted, is not opposed lightly but slight preference is for Zac Purton's mount MY ECSTATIC, who opened his account with an emphatic C&D win on his latest appearance and has a much better draw this time. Thunderstrike made a promising debut over 6f and is next on the list.

VERDICT It's hard to see beyond KILLER BEE, who impressed over 5f on his debut in March and ran very well in defeat over C&D last month. If he settles better in the early stages today, he has considerable scope for progress. Speedy Mouse made a very inauspicious Hong Kong debut in February but has improved since and is second choice. Dublin Star and Namjong Sings are considered each-way.

VERDICT So We Joy was assessed down in the closing stages when gaining a clear C&D win three weeks ago and will be hard to beat if in similar form again but TURIN REDSTAR performed well on both turf starts last month and is sure to be suited by today's return to dirt. Dennis Yip's 7yo is on a workable mark even before Alfred Chan's useful 7lb claim is taken into account. Gameplayer Times didn't enjoy the run of the race when third behind So We Joy last time and can also feature.

VERDICT A few of these warrant consideration but top of the list is four-time C&D winner NOBLE STEED, who has slipped to a good mark and moves back up to his optimum trip after two perfectly respectable 6f runs. Yo Beauty will also be suited by today's move back up in trip and is second choice. Gallant Express suffered a short-odds reverse on his second start but his debut win was very promising.

VERDICT Habitual front-runner HONGKONG GREAT was one of a few of these to finish behind Glorious Artist when third over C&D in March but he couldn't get to the front from stall 11 that day and ended up racing wide around the first two turns. He's drawn closer to the rail this time and can collect his third C&D win of the year. Elusive State is feared most.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Double Or Bubble, 3 Bounce The Blues, 4 Isabella Giles, 6 Axana, 7 Parent's Prayer, 14 Jouska, Meu Amor, 20 Huboor.

VERDICT The progressive DOUBLE OR BUBBLE (nap) remains unbeaten over 7f, looks the type to make her mark at Group level and represents a trainer who has won this contest three times (including with this filly's sister Mix And Mingle). Therefore she has very persuasive credentials. Bounce The Blues and Isabella Giles are feared most, in that order of preference. Market confidence behind German raider Axana should be noted. [Steve Boow]

BETTING FORECAST: 2 Silence Please, 4 Willow, 5 High Heels, 6 Sacred Rhyme, 8 Emaniya, Insinuendo, 14 Dearg Jazz, 16 Thunder Kiss.

VERDICT Hard to get away from SILENCE PLEASE who should be hard to beat if running anywhere near her best. Insinuendo is lightly-raced for her age and her Tipperary effort proved she belongs in this company. Of the three-year-olds, there is a bit of forgiveness needed for fans of Willow and Emaniya, but both fillies are likely much better than what they showed on their respective last starts.
