'It's a hugely exciting time to get back into the game with a horse of Farnan's calibre'

Kia Ora to return to standing stallions with acquisition of Golden Slipper winner

Farnan

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

One of Australia's foundation thoroughbred farms, the Hunter Valley's Kia Ora Stud, will return to standing stallions after a long absence with a big-ticket item, the reigning Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Farnan (Not A Single Doubt).

Recently appointed Kia Ora bloodstock and breeding manager Shane Wright said yesterday that "the farm is very excited to be joining Aquis and Phoenix in the ownership" of three-year-old Farnan while also confirming that standing rights was part of the agreement.

"Kia Ora has a long, long tradition of standing some of the best stallions in Australia. It was a foundation stud along with Widden and Segenhoe, so standing stallions is something that (the farm) has always done," Wright said yesterday.

"It is something that we are continuing to do ... but we only want to stand the best of the best. We're not looking to get into the market of having a huge roster of stallions; we prefer a small, select group of elite calibre basically." Continued on page 2 >>

Kia Ora owner Ananda Krishnan also has shares in Vinery Stud stallions Headwater (Exceed And Excel), All Too Hard (Casino Prince) and Press Statement (Hinchinbrook) as well as Newgate Farm resident Deep Field (Northern Meteor).

ANZ Bloodstock News last week broke the story that Kia Ora had purchased a significant share in the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Farnan from Aquis Farm and Phoenix Thoroughbreds, which also bred the valuable colt.

The deal for Farnan, whose only blemish in a six-start two-year-old season came in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m), was finalised and the paperwork signed on Wednesday that will eventually see the colt stand at the property which previously stood champion stallions such as Midstream (Blandford) and Delville Wood (Bois Roussel).

"Mr Krishnan has a huge passion for the thoroughbred industry, particularly in Australia, so it is something that he has always been wanting to do but, as I said, he's been waiting for the right horse at the right time," Wright said.

"At this stage, when you are in the stallion business, you are always looking for the right horse, so as I mentioned earlier, we're not going to stand ten stallions, we have no interest in that, but we could stand one or two more, that could be a possibility. We want to stand the right horse and not stand something for the sake of it.

"It's a hugely exciting time and to get back into the game with a horse of Farnan's calibre is a magnificent way to start and underlines what we are trying to do."

Aquis Farm relinquishing standing rights in Farnan, who also won the Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) and the Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) last season, may seem unusual for a three-state stallion operation but there is a recent precedent with prominent American operation WinStar Farm selling unbeaten US Triple Crown winner Justify (Scat Daddy) to Coolmore.

Aquis Farm managing director Shane McGrath, who selected $670,000 Magic Millions Yearling Sale graduate Farnan as a young horse, said yesterday that the proposal put forward by Kia Ora was compelling.

"We are still heavily involved in the horse but from a business point of view, and Tony Fung's a businessman, when we presented the business case to sell or not to sell, the head led the heart," McGrath said,

"The exciting part from the industry's perspective is that there was no bigger way for Kia Ora to announce themselves on the stallion stage than through the acquisition of Farnan.

"I would say for every colt investor going forward, it shows that there's another serious player in the game."

Out of Group 3 winner Tallow (Street Cry) and a three-quarter brother to Listed-winning sprinter Sandbar (Snitzel), Farnan is due to trial for the first time this campaign in heat one over 850 metres at Randwick tomorrow against Group class horses including Kolding (Ocean Park), Probabeel (Savabeel) and Rathlin (Fastnet Rock).

"A big positive for us buying into him was the way he was looked after as a two-year-old. Instead of continuing on (to the Sires and Champagne) after the Slipper when he was in good form with a three-year-old campaign in mind, they gave him a very good spell," Wright said.

"There's a lot of rain coming through Sydney at the minute and that is something we have to keep an eye on but he couldn't be in better form. They did a very good job with him as a two-year-old and his race record reflects that and we're hoping for a very good three-year-old campaign."

When Farnan does retire to Kia Ora Stud, Wright believes the collective broodmare power at the partnership's disposal will give the first season stallion an incredible start at stud.

"I Am Invincible arrived in my second year at Yarraman, so I have seen his rise from the very beginning from when he was a $10,000 stallion up to what he is now: in my eyes the most magnificent stallion and an absolute breedshaper," he said.

"At Yarraman, we never dodged the fact that in Vinnie's first couple of books, the mares were of an OK to average quality, but he did it himself and proved how elite he is just by doing it himself.

"But with Farnan starting off, being a Slipper winner and being by Not A Single Doubt with a nice pedigree and such a good-looking horse, he will get a very good calibre of mare. With the broodmare band of our own, Aquis and Phoenix, he will get the best chance of any stallion who has retired in Australia in years."

Shane Wright

BREEDNET IMAGES

Wright was recently on the Gold Coast at the Magic Millions National Sale attempting to add to the depth of Kia Ora's broodmare band, but came away empty handed.

"Mr Krishnan has one of the best broodmare bands in Australia. His love for the game is just so high and now bringing stallions back to Kia Ora is so exciting," he said.

"We were up at the Magic Millions and it was very tough buying at that top level. There were a lot of people there supporting the market, but we will definitely have our eyes open and ensure, at our end, that Farnan gets good-class mares in his first season."

Bobbie Lewis next for Home Of The Brave

Home Of The Brave

RACING PHOTOS

Following his win in the Aurie's Star Handicap (Gr 3, 1200m), James Cummings will make the most of Home Of The Brave's (Starspangledbanner) talent down the straight with the Godolphin head trainer setting the nine-year-old for the Bobbie Lewis Quality (Gr 2, 1200m) at Flemington on September 12. "I thought he performed very strongly," Cummings said on RSN 927 on Sunday. "He's got a lot of straight track experience from his racing overseas and it continues to show whenever we run the horse up the straight he always performs so well. It was great to see him win again by three quarters of a length to the horse who beat him two starts ago, Great Again, he's got that bit of winning form about him now and I'd like to think he can keep it up. We haven't locked anything in right now but to me the Bobbie Lewis would be a nice race to keep him on the fresh side and give him another look up the straight."

Alligator Blood wins trial

Group 1 winner Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) ramped up his spring campaign with a strong jump out victory at the Sunshine Coast yesterday. The David Vandyke-trained four-year-old, who took out the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) in February, took on three rivals in the 1000-metre hit-out. He ran home strongly to win by about half a length with Micheal Hellyer on board. Vandyke has suggested that Alligator Blood will have another course proper trial at the Sunshine Coast on August 25 before resuming on September 12 at Doomben in a Quality Handicap (1110m) with 61 kilograms. A Sydney campaign after the Doomben race is most likely for the gelding.

Big names to step out at Flemington

A number of high-profile horses including leading Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) contender Russian Camelot (Montjeu), Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winning stablemate Vow And Declare (Declaration Of War), sprinter Tofane (Ocean Park) and three-year-old Hanseatic (Street Boss), are all set to have jump outs at Flemington this morning. Also scheduled to jump out in the course proper heats are fellow Flemington-trained horses Lyre (Lonhro), Buffalo River (Noble Mission) and last-start Bletchingly Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Viridine (Poet's Voice).

Fifty Stars to make belated spring return

This year's Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Fifty Stars (Sea The Stars) will not feature in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) after suffering a slight knee injury. The Moonga Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) on October 17 has been earmarked as a first-up target for the European-bred six-year-old who has won ten of his 23 starts for the Lindsay Park stable and owner Gerry Ryan. Fifty Stars has not raced since his Australian Cup victory on March 7.

Global Gift opens Australian account

Global Gift (Invincible Spirit), a 110,000gns purchase at last year's Tattersalls Autumn Horses In Training Sale, landed his first win in Australia at Bendigo yesterday, leading from point to post in a BM78 handicap. Trained by Ciaran Maher and David Eustace and owned by Highclere Australia, the five-year-old gelding never looked in doubt winning by two and three-quarter lengths on the bridle and could now be set for bigger and better things leading into the spring.

The Face off to the paddock

Promising three-year-old The Face (Rubick), who won impressively at Gosford when having his first start, will be spelled after his third behind runaway winner Anders (Not A Single Doubt) in the Rosebud (Listed, 1100m) at Rosehill on Saturday. Trained by Gerald Ryan, homebred The Face finished six and a half lengths behind the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-prepared Anders. Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) was second in the $140,000 three-year-old race.

Vain option for Rulership

Rulership (I Am Invincible), who was scratched from the Rosebud, will be nominated for the Vain Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Caulfield this weekend by Peter and Paul Snowden. The three-year-old, owned by the Newgate Farm-China Horse Club colts syndicate, showed promise last season, winning his first start at Randwick in January before finishing runner-up to Hanseatic (Street Cry) in the Blue Diamond Prelude (C&G) (Gr 3, 1100m) in February. He was spelled after his fourth to Doubtland (Not A Single Doubt) in the Kindergarten (Gr 3, 1100m) in April. Connections will make a decision on Wednesday as to whether Rulership is sent to Melbourne.

Kiwi Heptinstall celebrates successful period

Expatriate Kiwi breeder, owner and racing enthusiast Tommy Heptinstall is reaping the rewards of his decision to move a number of his current racing team across the Tasman, with two winners in the space of four days getting the venture underway on a high note. Wertheimer (Tavistock) started the ball rolling when he broke his maiden status over 1300 metres at Cranbourne on Wednesday for trainers Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young, while Aqueduct (Dundeel) picked up his second career victory when successful over 1400 metres at Murray Bridge on Saturday for trainer Michael Hickmott. A retired real estate agent and living in Melbourne for the past four years, Heptinstall is delighted with how events have panned out in the past week. "It has been a fantastic few days, as any time you win a race anywhere is good," he said. "We had this plan to bring some of our horses over here to Australia and so far, so good. We brought eight over with six going to Michael in Adelaide and the other two to Trent and Natalie at Cranbourne."

Covid scare for Warren stable

Jason Warren was forced to scratch all of his runners this weekend after a member of his staff came into close contact with someone who tested positive for Covid-19. In a statement, Racing Victoria said yesterday it "was advised by the Jason Warren stable on Friday evening that a staff member had been identified as a close contact of a person who has tested positive to Covid-19" and that "this staff member works at Mr Warren's private training facility, does not interact with all staff members at the stable, and has not attended a race meeting for several months". "Acting with an abundance of caution and in the best interests of the industry, Mr Warren withdrew his horses from yesterday's race meetings at Flemington and Moe so that no staff members would be in attendance," the statement said. "In addition, Mr Warren determined that he would keep all horses at his private training facility on the Mornington Peninsula whilst the matter is further investigated."

Riordan suspended

Liam Riordan's stellar day at Flemington on Saturday has been soured after the apprentice jockey was handed a fine and suspension for breaching whip rules. Riordan has been fined $1,000 and suspended for eight meetings for his winning ride on Jittery Jack (Desert King) in the $75,000 Rubaroc Handicap (1410m). The 23-year-old used the whip ten times prior to the 100-metre mark, five more than permitted. His suspension will start after Wednesday's meeting at Sandown and conclude in time for the Bendigo meeting on Friday, August 21.

QRIC investigating Barcaldine placings

The Queensland Racing and Integrity Commission has launched an investigation into the incorrect placing of Bound To Me (Ferocity) in Saturday's Pat Ogden Family Handicap (1000m) at Barcaldine on Saturday. The Ross Meek-trained seven-year-old was placed fourth with weights declared in the race, when replays clearly show Pointstohappiness (Warhead) finishing ahead in what was a blanket finish to the final race of the day. QRIC's chief steward has demanded a report into the incident.

NEW ZEALAND

James' big names to trial at Taupo

The two open class trials to be held before the Taupo meeting on Wednesday will see a host of New Zealand's best horses step out for their first serious hit out, including a high-class trio from the Roger James and Robert Wellwood stable. The Cambridge trainers will line up dual Group 3 winner Concert Hall (Savabeel) and lightly raced six-year-old Sherrif (High Chaparral) in the first heat, while Two Illicit (Jimmy Choux), one of the top three-year-old fillies of last season, will contest the second of the 1100-metre heats. "We traditionally don't have many runners over the winter months and we've kept to that again this year," James said. "I'm delighted with the condition of the three horses we are taking to the two trials at Taupo although I'm not expecting too much from them. It is an ideal opportunity to get a line on them and to then plan for where we head next although we are hampered at present with limited programming information available from New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing to allow trainers to make those decisions."

Australia ruled out for Two Illicit

Meanwhile, Roger James has ruled out campaigning the Trelawney Stud-owned Two Illicit in Australia during the spring because of the current Covid-19 situation. "We will see where we go with her (Two Illicit) after the trial but Australia has been discounted under the current circumstances," he said. "It's often not the worst thing for a four-year-old mare to have a quieter spring as it can be a hard time for them going from age group company to competing against the older horses. We will concentrate domestically with her and if all goes well, we could look at Sydney or Melbourne in the autumn. I've been pretty careful with her on the wet tracks at home so she is going to Taupo for a gallop to bring her on." Stablemate Concert Hall could target the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m) while the Windsor Park Plate (Gr 1, 1600m) is a potential option for Sherrif.

Schofer celebrates six-win haul

Hazel Schofer was yesterday attempting to come to terms with her achievements at Hawera on Saturday when the three-kilogram apprentice rode six winners on the 12-race card. The winning haul took her to the top of the jockeys' premiership a week into the new season and pencilled her name into the record books alongside James McDonald for most wins in a day by an apprentice in New Zealand, albeit noting the advantage of a 12-race card. Since 1995, only six senior riders have matched the feat in New Zealand, with luminaries including Lance O'Sullivan (twice), David Walsh (twice), Cathy Treymane, Michael Coleman and Chris Johnson. "I went into the day knowing I had some good rides and if I rode them well enough, I might be able to get two or three wins, but I definitely didn't expect the day I had," she said. "I just went out there to try my best and they just kept winning. I don't really have an explanation for it but I did manage to get into a nice place in most races on horses that were travelling well and we managed to get some momentum built up which carried us home."

Treble for Maurice

It was a breakout weekend for former Arrowfield shuttler Maurice (Screen Hero), who sired three new first-crop winners in Japan. On Saturday, Stutti (2 f ex Lilavati by Zenno Rob Roy) was the first of winners as she broke her maiden over 1600 metres on debut at Niigata, followed by T O Mary (2 f ex Reagle Mary by Afternoon Deelites) scoring over 1200 metres at Sapporo. Then yesterday, Infinite (2 f ex Morganite by Agnes Digital) ran out a comfortable winner over 1600 metres at Niigata. Maurice shuttled to Arrowfield for three seasons beginning in 2017 and covered a total of 278 mares. Given current travel restrictions, the multiple Group 1 winner has not returned to Australia this year but his first two-year-olds are set to hit the track down under this season. Stutti, T O Mary and Infinite join Kaiser Nova as first-crop winners for Maurice, bringing his tally to four.

11 for Lope De Vega

Yulong landed a milestone winner at the Curragh yesterday with a first Group 1 winner in Europe when the Jessica Harrington-trained Lucky Vega (2 c ex Queen Of Carthage by Cape Cross) stepped forward on his third start to land elite level honours in the Phoenix Stakes (Gr 1, 6f). He became the 72nd stakes winner and the eleventh Group 1 winner for his sire Lope De Vega (Shamardal), who stands at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland where his 2020 fee was €100,000. Purchased by Yulong for €175,000 out of the Goffs Orby Sale, Lucky Vega showed an impressive turn of foot in the final furlong and swept to the front to beat Group 2 scorer Alaho Star (Starspangledbanner) by three and a half lengths while the Norfolk Stakes (Gr 2, 5f) winner The Lir Jet (Prince Of Lir) was a neck further back in third. The Aidan O'Brien-

He is a half-brother to Lowther Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) fourth Lady Clair (Canford Cliffs), and out of the unraced Queen Of Carthage (Cape Cross) while his second dam is the Prix de l'Opera (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Satwa Queen (Muhtathir).

DARLEY

A devastating turn of foot from Space Blues (4 c ex Miss Lucifer by Noverre) saw the Godolphin colt burst through off the inside rail and claim a maiden Group 1 success in the Prix Maurice de Gheest (Gr 1, 1300m) at Deauville yesterday. Victory also provided his sire Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) with a 43rd top level winner. Hello Youmzain (Kodiak) recorded further Group 1 black type for owners Cambridge Stud in finishing three-quarter lengths behind in second, with Lope Y Fernandez (Lope De Vega) third. Space Blues is quickly asserting himself as one of the most progressive horses in Europe this season, having already won the Lennox Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) at Glorious Goodwood last month for trainer Charlie Appleby. Out of Group 2 winner Miss Lucifer, he is a half-brother to leading UAE miler Shuruq (Elusive Quality) in turn the dam of American Oaks (Gr 1, 9f) placegetter Antoinette (Hard Spun). Dubawi stood at Darley's Dalham Hall Stud for a fee of £250,000 in 2020.

Group 3 winner for Arrowfield

The silks of Arrowfield Stud were in Group 3 winning form at Deauville yesterday as Skyward (Camelot) returned to the winners' enclosure to claim a hard-fought victory in the Prix de Reux (Gr 3, 2500m). A winner of all three starts last year as a three-year-old, including the Prix Turrenne (Listed, 2400m), Skyward had been beaten on his two starts this term before yesterday's victory for trainer Fabrice Chappet. Skyward is a half-brother to Group 3 winner and Prix Jean Romanet (Gr 1, 2,000m) runner-up Siyoushake (Siyouni), with his dam Shakeyourbody (Giant's Causeway) a sister to Grade 1 winner Frost Giant.

Three for Vadamos

Rich Hill Stud shuttler Vadamos (Monsun) sired his third first-crop winner on Saturday when Tarhun (2 c ex Miss Purity Pinker by One Cool Cat) broke his maiden over 1500 metres at Naples in Italy. Purchased at the Goffs Ireland Autumn Yearling and Mixed Sale for €4,500, Tarhun is the only foal out of Miss Purity Pinker (One Cool Cat), who herself is a half-sister to multiple stakes winner Azzecagarbugli (Kodiak). Group 1 winner Vadamos stands at Rich Hill in New Zealand for a fee of NZ $15,000 (plus GST) in 2020.

Gleneagles

COOLMORE

Third in the Prix du Lys (Gr 3, 2400m) last time, Measure Of Time (3 c ex Inch Perfect by Theatrical) claimed his first stakes success yesterday at Deauville when landing the Prix Michel Houyvet (Listed, 2800m) for Andre Fabre. The Coolmore runner was making it three wins from five starts, having won on his only start last year and following up at Clairefontaine on his return in May, and became the sixth stakes winner for his sire Gleneagles (Galileo). He got the better of the favourite Zeyrek (Sea The Stars) by a head in a close finish, while the German raider Manoucheer (Adlerflug) was three-quarters of a length away in third. Dual 2000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) winner Gleneagles stands at Coolmore in Fethard and his 2020 fee was €35,000.

Seven for Mayson

A surprise victory for 20-1 shot Maystar (3 g ex Oakley Star by Multiplex) in the Prix Moonlight Cloud (Listed, 1200m) saw Mayson (Invincible Spirit) claim a seventh career stakes winner. Ridden by Hollie Doyle for trainer Archie Watson, the three-year-old defeated Botch (Fuisse) by half a length with Galadriel (Dutch Art) a further length back in third. Mayson stood at Cheveley Park Stud for £5,000 in 2020.

EDWARD WHITAKER/RP

Cheveley Park Stud homebred Regal Reality (Intello) returned to the winners' enclosure for the first time since winning the Brigadier Gerard Stakes (Gr 3, 1m2f) over a year ago when scoring in the Sovereign Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) at Salisbury yesterday. The victory took the Sir Michael Stoute-trained five-year-old's tally to three wins at Group 3 level and four wins from 15 starts with five placings. Hitting the front in the final furlong he strode clear to win by three and a half lengths. Beat Le Bon (Wootton Bassett) held on for second by a head from Positive (Dutch Art) and there was a further four lengths back to Bless Him (Sea The Stars) in fourth.

Glen Shiel strikes in Phoenix Sprint

Snatching victory in the final strides, six-year-old Glen Shiel (Pivotal) added a second stakes success to his CV yesterday in the Phoenix Sprint Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at the Curragh. The Archie Watson-trained gelding had ran second in the Prix de Ris-Orangis (Gr 3, 1200m) last month and took out a Class 3 conditions race at Newcastle last week but was sent off as an unfancied 16-1. He got the better of Sweet Mimosa (Listed, 6f) winner Sonaiyla (Dark Angel) in a blanket finish which saw Group 1-placed Forever In Dreams (Dream Ahead) a head away in third and multiple Group winner Speak In Colours (Excelebration) a further short head back in fourth.

Be My Sheriff makes winning return

Having his first run back since taking out the Carl Jaspers Preis (Gr 2, 2400m) at Cologne in May, Be My Sheriff (Lawman) claimed a second Group success of his career and fourth stakes victory in the Furstenberg-Rennen at Berlin-Hoppegarten (Gr 3, 2400m) yesterday. The Henk Grewe-trained six-year-old was sent off as the evens favourite and he duly obliged, getting the better of Moonlight Man (Reliable Man) by a length with Notre Ruler (Ruler Of The World) a close third of the seven runners. The entire has now won six of his 21 starts with 13 placings.

Tarnawa goes back to back in Give Thanks

At her first start for the year, the Dermot Weld-trained Tarnawa (4 f Shamardal - Tarana by Cape Cross) made it back-to-back wins in the Give Thanks Stakes (Gr 3, 1m4f) at Cork on Saturday. The four-year-old mare, who was last seen finishing ninth in the British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes (1m3.5f), defeated Irish Oaks (Gr 1, 1m4f) runner-up Cayenne Pepper (Australia) by a length and three-quarters with Passion (Galileo) a further three and three-quarter lengths away in third. Tarnawa is one of 148 stakes winners for her late sire Shamardal (Giant's Causeway).

Another Grade 1 for Tiz The Law

Tiz The Law (3 c Constitution - Tizfiz by Tiznow) added a fourth Grade 1 win to his CV on Saturday when winning the Runhappy Travers Stakes (Gr 1, 10f) at Saratoga. The three-year-old colt was dominant in his victory, scoring by five and a half lengths ahead of Caracaro (Uncle Mo) with Max Player (Honor Code) coming home a further two lengths away in third. Tiz The Law, a winner of six of his seven starts, is the only top flight winner for his sire Constitution (Tapit).

Gamine scores Longines Test

The Bob Baffert-trained Gamine (3 f Into Mischief - Peggy Jane by Kafwain) made it two elite level wins in a row when scoring impressively in the Longines Test Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) at Saratoga on Saturday. The three-year-old filly, who took out the Acorn Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at her last start, won by a comfortable margin of seven lengths ahead of Venetian Harbor (Munnings) with Up in Smoke (The Big Beast) a further six and a half lengths away in third.

Serengeti Empress scores Ballerina

Serengeti Empress (4 f Alternation - Havisham by Bernardini) landed her second career Grade 1 with an all-the-way win in the Ballerina Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) at Saratoga on Saturday. The four-year-old defeated Bellafina (Quality Road) by a length with Victim of Love (Speightstown) a length and a half away in third.
