Star $350,000 I Am Invincible filly joins Waller stable after Martin takes home 'the one'

Strong finish to Inglis Classic Yearling Sale session as wild weather hits Riverside

Lot 256 I Am Invincible - Limbo Down filly

INGLIS

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Star Thoroughbreds' Denise Martin left her mark on day one of the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, an auction that has proven fruitful for the syndicator in the past, with four high-profile purchases, including the session-topping $350,000 I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) filly.

The top-priced youngster, who was one of 35 lots to make $150,000 or more, was the highlight "on a challenging day" in which torrential rain and the impact of coronavirus were said to limit the depth of the buying bench.

The momentum of the sale picked up noticeably late in the session and while Inglis managing director Mark Webster expects that to continue today, he admitted that some buyers from China, Hong Kong and Singapore had cancelled their attendance due to the viral emergency.

"I think some people were in shock when they arrived and saw the horizontal rain and some buyers couldn't get out to see the horses," Webster said.

"We had more than 150 millimetres of rain, which made it a challenging day. Putting it all into context, to average nearly $92,000 is quite respectable. A lot of the passed in horses will get sold.

"We traded $17.7 million and that's the highest amount of turnover on a single day for the Classic Sale, so that's a positive.

"Obviously, the market is very selective and won't compromise on type, but I think we'll have more horses make $100,000 or more than in the past. We should have another strong day (today) with the forecast showing five to ten millimetres of rain."

Meanwhile, Martin and her agent Brett Howard of Randwick Bloodstock, who struck early for a $220,000 Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) filly and went to $180,000 for a Written Tycoon (Iglesia) colt, were the leading buyers with a spend of $960,000.

They added a Pierro (Lonhro) colt for $210,000 before buying the I Am Invincible filly from vendor Fairhill Farm, and Martin admitted she may have been prepared to go higher for the prized youngster had underbidder Brae Sokolski continued to offer resistance.

"We have raced I Am Invincible fillies including Invincibella and Fiesta, who I bought at the Inglis Classic Sale, so we were keen to buy another one this year. And this is the one, the full-sister to Joviality, which I bought last year. It seemed like a good fit," Martin said.

"I paid $330,000 for the sister and I know the average for I Am Invincible fillies is up this year, so I thought the $330,000 of last year wasn't going to fit. I hoped that I wouldn't have to go to $400,000."

The Star Thoroughbreds filly, who was catalogued as Lot 256, is the sixth foal out of the winning Fastnet Rock (Danehill) mare Limbo Down. Her two foals to race are both winners and they include the talented, but injury-plagued, Limbo Soul (I Am Invincible).

Fairhill Farm's Mike O'Donnell was confident the filly would sell well when she had 11 x-ray hits in the lead-up to the sale.

"We were delighted with the result. She is a beautiful filly and she's gone to Denise Martin, which is great because she has the two-year-old," O'Donnell said.

"She was very busy all week and right the way through. It's a fantastic result for the farm."

Martin also made a strong move early in the session and was pleased to secure a filly by another sire-son of Invincible Spirit (Green Desert) in first season Arrowfield Stud shuttler Shalaa.

She is the eighth living foal out of the stakes-placed mare Boom Time Savings (Secret Savings), who is a half-sister to the stakes-placed sprinter Boomwaa (Mutawaaajid).

Martin braved the heavy rain and traffic conditions to ensure she was at the Warwick Farm complex in time to buy the filly.

"We thought she was a very precocious filly and one of the yearlings that I particularly wanted to go home with," Martin said of Lot 20.

"I was one of the few people who (braved the wet) and maybe a few people were late arriving.

"She has speed in the family and she has a relative (Boomwaa) who was very precocious. She was a yearling that I was really happy to have run under the Star banner.

"I thought she'd be expensive because I knew she was somewhat of a standout, so I figured she would be about ($220,000)."

Later, Martin and Howard also landed the Canning Downs Stud-offered Written Tycoon colt, who is the second foal out of the unraced Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) mare Cannolina, herself a half-sister to the European stakes winner Al Malhouf (Dutch Art). He was catalogued as Lot 38.

The pair's final purchase on day one, the Pierro colt from Tyreel Stud, is the second foal out of the city-winning I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) mare Lanikai. He was catalogued as Lot 246.

The quartet will be trained by Chris Waller.

Powerful syndicate secures Deep Field colt for $320,000

Earlier in the session, the potent China Horse Club-Newgate Bloodstock colts syndicate added to their enviable arsenal of young horses with the purchase of a $320,000 Deep Field (Northern Meteor) colt before acquiring a son of Hinchinbrook (Fastnet Rock).

It was left to China Horse Club's Michael Wallace to sign for the colts and he momentarily had the honour of purchasing the highest-priced lot of the day to go with his $240,000 Hinchinbrook youngster.

Lot 155 Deep Field - Fragrant Storm colt

Wallace said the Deep Field yearling, who will be trained by Peter and Paul Snowden, fitted the syndicate's well-known criteria as a potential early-running juvenile.

"Everyone knows what we are after - we are after those fast, sprinting two and three-year-old colts and he fitted that," Wallace said.

"There's a few people waiting and, as we've seen all year, these quality two-year-old-looking colts make their money, especially by stallions as good as Deep Field.

“He has got a lot of power, a lot of quality, so you can see that coming through, and he’s got that Exceed And Excel balance in him as well, so he is a horse that will fit the mould.”

The highest-priced colt in the session was consigned by Fairview Park Stud as Lot 155 and he is the fifth living foal out of the unraced Fragrant Storm (Exceed And Excel), herself a half-sister to Perth Listed winner Texan (Stratum).

He will be raced by the same partnership who experienced success with the now Newgate Farm-based, Group 1-winning stallion Russian Revolution (Snitzel) and this season’s Inglis Nursery (RL, 1000m) winner Wild Ruler (Snitzel).

They also have three-year-old Cosmic Force (Deep Field), who won the Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at two and the Roman Consul Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) during the spring.

“This colt is a good mover like Cosmic Force, but he is a bit more physically square and stronger,” Wallace said.

The agent also confirmed yesterday that another syndicate-owned two-year-old colt Rulership (I Am Invincible), who was runner-up in Saturday’s Blue Diamond Prelude (Gr 3, 1100m) to Hanseatic (Street Boss), will run in the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Caulfield on February 22.

“He lost no admirers. He wasn’t beaten far and the winner is very, very good, but two weeks’ time is a different story,” Wallace said.

“We will stick him in there again (Blue Diamond). We have got a very good group (of two-year-olds) and I know Peter Snowden is happy with them. Henry (Field, Newgate managing director) is happy with them, so it looks like an exciting period to play out in the next few months.”

Wallace also signed for the Hinchinbrook half-brother to Group 3-winning juvenile Furnaces (Exceed And Excel), who was sold by Bell River Thoroughbreds in the Ferguson family’s return to selling yearlings. The colt was catalogued as Lot 178.

Waterhouse and Bott keep backing Sebring

Adrian Bott believes elite yearlings stand out at the Classic Sale and he was not surprised about the competition surrounding a son of Sebring (More Than Ready), who is heading to the trainer’s stable after making $240,000 yesterday morning.

The Yarraman Park-consigned colt is the second foal out of the Canny Lad (Bletchingly) mare Canny Time, who in turn is a half-sister to Group 2-winning sprinter Charlie Boy (Myboycharlie) and the stakes-placed Cousteau (Exceed And Excel). The colt was catalogued as Lot 39.

“He was a nice, imposing individual and I would think he would get up nice and early for us,” said Bott, whose co-trainer Gai Waterhouse prepared Sebring to win the 2008 Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and ATC Sires’ Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m).

"He was just the sort of type we tried to target out of the sale and he was sold by a vendor who has great results producing horses.

"He is by a stallion we love and we've had a lot of success with the progeny."

Bott and Waterhouse combined with Chris Rutten Bloodstock and Vantage Thoroughbreds to buy the colt.

Much like the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m), the $2 million Inglis Millennium (RL, 1100m) is quickly becoming a target race and selling point for trainers.

"We want to get a horse who can get us back for the Millennium next year and he looks like an ideal candidate," Bott said.

"I think it's the type of sale where those types of horses stand out and I think you have to be prepared to pay that sort of price, particularly given that he is by a proven stallion."

Baker to train $210,000 Not A Single Doubt filly

Jim Clarke's bid to build his profile also gathered pace yesterday, with the young agent securing a daughter of Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice), who will be trained by Bjorn Baker on behalf of new clients focused on buying fillies.

Clarke, who bought a Savabeel (Zabeel) filly for NZ$220,000 at the recent New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Yearling Sale in partnership with Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young for the same group, landed the Arrowfield Stud-consigned offering for $210,000.

"She is a lovely filly and with her pedigree she is going to be worth plenty of money, regardless of what she does on a racecourse," Clarke said.

"She had a lot of quality about her, a typical Not A Single Doubt who is a very forward-running type.

"She will go to Bjorn, who obviously knows the family well having raced the mother, and he also had a fair bit to do with the sire (Dundeel) during his career. I am very excited, she is the one I wanted to buy and I'm very glad I bought her."

The filly is the first foal out of the winning mare Forreel (Nom Du Jeu), a half-sister to multiple Group 1 winner and high-class young stallion Dundeel (High Chaparral). She was catalogued as Lot 153.

According to Clarke, the fillies syndicate hope to cash in on a buoyant off-course market, rather than retaining their stock to breed with.

JIM CLARKE

"This is a group of clients I put together at the backend of last year, just through my network, and we are looking to get fillies by proven stallions who have got good strong commercial pedigrees and hopefully with good racecourse performances we can upgrade their value," he said.

"It is highly likely that anything that performs to stakes level will be going back through the broodmare sales in a few years' time."

Meanwhile, Clarke believed the market was "pretty strong" on day one.

"There have been plenty of nice horses around and the nice horses have been making good money," he said.

"I think we've done pretty well, but it has certainly been competitive on the better horses."

Foote happy with day one proceedings

Respected agent John Foote, who bought nine yearlings on day one with various parties - including a Pierro (Lonhro) filly from the same family as the stallion's VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Pinot - thought the opening day market was sensible.

"It's been pretty good. We've bought a couple so far and my clients have also bought, so it mustn't have been too bad," Foote said.

"I don't think it's a buyers' market, but it's not stupid."

The Pierro filly was purchased by Foote on behalf of an existing Melbourne-based client for $210,000 from the Tyreel Stud draft and Victoria is the most likely destination for the yearling when her racing career begins.

Given the trajectory of the Coolmore-based Pierro, Foote believes the filly's price tag was more than justified.

"I don't know what Pierro's service fee will be this year, but it will probably be over $100,000," he said.

Catalogued as Lot 103, the filly is the second foal out of Dizzy Diva (Starspangledbanner), who is a daughter of the Listed winner Dizlago (Encosta De Lago), the half-sister to Pinot and the stakes-placed Lucky Lago (Encosta De Lago) and Rock Giselle (Fastnet Rock).

Tyreel Stud's Linda Monds placed a "decent reserve on her and I think she's an absolute athlete in the making".

"She's absolutely beautiful and from a very good family. We bred her to Pierro for a reason and the product we just sold was exactly what we wanted for her," Monds said.

"I am very proud that John Foote saw exactly what I saw in her. She's going to a Melbourne owner and is staying in Australia, which makes me happy.

Three for Headwater

Vinery Stud stallion Headwater (Exceed And Excel) sired his third individual winner yesterday when Aquagirl (2 f ex Galapagos Girl by Dehere) landed the Firstly Sprint 2YO (1000m) at Flemington's Rapid Racing meeting. The Phillip Stokes-trained juvenile quickened up nicely under Dean Holland to post a half-length success and in doing so ensured Headwater lies second behind Spill The Beans (Snitzel) (four winners) in the race for the leading first season sire title by the metric of individual winners. Aquagirl was purchased by Dalziel Racing, Peter Moody and Stokes for $50,000 out of the Cressfield consignment at the 2019 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale and she is out of the dual Group 3 winner and Group 1-placed Galapagos Girl (Dehere).

Redzel on track for Lightning

Co-trainer Peter Snowden has issued a positive bulletin on veteran sprinter Redzel (Snitzel) as he prepares for a first-up outing in Saturday's Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Flemington. The seven-year-old was spelled after finishing eighth in his attempt to land a third Everest (1200m) at Randwick in October, but he won a 900-metre barrier trial under regular rider Kerrin McEvoy at that track last Thursday, pulling a length and a half clear with the blinkers applied. "He has had two trials which have been two typical trials for him," Snowden said. "He had a good solid trial the other day and ran a very fast time and won comfortably. He's a seven-year-old now and I'm fully aware of that. Any sign I see that he's not quite up to where he used to be, that will be the sign we start thinking what we do about the future. But the first thing Kerrin said when he got off him the other day was his zest is still there, he feels fantastic, he'll run the race of his life next week. So that's all I needed to hear."

Exceedance plans remain fluid

In other Lightning news, the Team Hawkes-trained Exceedance (Exceed And Excel), who won the Coolmore Stud Stakes (registered as Ascot Vale Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington in November, will not line-up at the weekend. "He hasn't even barrier trialled," co-trainer Wayne Hawkes told Racing.com. "He won't be running (in the Lightning). We never said we were running in that race." Looking ahead with the three-year-old, Hawkes added: "Everyone wants to know where he's running, but the truth is a decision hasn't been made yet. We won the best three-year-old race in the country so we've got bragging rights and we can just sit back and ping one off. There's no grand final in the autumn. There was in the spring and that was the Coolmore. There's not a lot for him in the autumn as far as three-year-olds like him goes."

Shadow Hero progressing well

Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Shadow Hero (Pierro) is on track for a clash with his VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) conqueror Warning (Declaration Of War) after trainer Mark Newnham yesterday mapped out a four-start campaign for the three-year-old. Shadow Hero, who ran a ten-length fifth in the VRC Derby on a rain-softened track, will run first-up in the Hobartville Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Rosehill on Saturday week before pressing onto the Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), Rosehill Guineas (Gr

1, 2000m) and Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m). "From day one I've always had plenty of faith in him," Newnham said. "I have no hesitation in thinking that he can certainly win at least one of those. He has come back a bit bigger and stronger. Josh Parr (jockey) was really happy with his trial the other day at Rosehill and he will trial again this week either on Monday or Thursday. Physically, he has improved."

Jewel next for Master Jamie

The Graeme Green-trained Master Jamie (Poet's Voice) will be set for The Jewel (1200m) on March 14 following his one-length success in the QTIS Three-Year-Old Handicap (1200m) at Eagle Farm on Saturday. Master Jamie was winning for the 11th time in 14 starts when defying the welter burden of 61 kilograms at the weekend, and Green is hopeful the set-weights conditions of The Jewel will further enhance his gelding's claims. "He's a gutsy horse that's all I can say, and pure guts wins him races under big weights," Green said. "If he's allowed to dictate, he's just a bulldog. He hates horses going past him. Next start when he comes back to set-weights, we might see a serious horse. He's one of the cleanest winded horses I've had anything to do with, plus he's one of the most laid back chilled out horses you'll ever meet."

Gelded Excess Funds back on track

Stakes-placed Excess Funds (Rubick) started his first campaign since being gelded with a confidence-boosting victory at Flemington yesterday. Trained by Levi Kavanagh, Excess Funds was placed in the Lightning Stakes (Listed, 1050m) in Adelaide as a late-season two-year-old and he resumed as the $2.90 favourite in the Tick Homes Plate (1000m) on the Rapid Racing programme, registering a long-neck win. Kavanagh believes Excess Funds will return to stakes level but he will first be aimed at the $500,000 Inglis Dash (1100m) at Caulfield in mid-March. "He's more mature from his three-year-old spring campaign and better behaved as well," Kavanagh said. "He was doing enough to show me that he was up to running in those races in the spring. He just wasn't really putting in and doing on raceday what he was showing us at home (as a colt). So we had to come to a decision and geld him. And now he can keep his mind on the job and he's not doing silly things wrong in the running."

Super Seth programme still pending

The Anthony Freedman-trained Super Seth (Dundeel) could bypass the CS Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Caulfield on Saturday and instead chase more top-tier success in the Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) a week later. That decision would quash a rematch with star Queenslander Alligator Blood (All Too Hard), whom Super Seth narrowly denied in the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) last October, as well as first clash with New Zealand's leading three-year-old Catalyst (Darci Brahma). "We're still undecided whether he goes to the CS Hayes or goes to the Futurity," assistant trainer Sam Freedman said. "He'll be nominated for the CS Hayes and we'll probably work him on Tuesday morning and then make a decision. But Alabama Express winning the CF Orr Stakes probably gives you more confidence if we do decide to go the weight-for-age route." Super Seth resumed with a stylish first-up success in the Manfred Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) and Freedman added: "He has come through his run really well so wherever he goes he should be running well."

Fierce Impact on All-Star Mile mission

Fierce Impact (yellow cap)

SPORTPIX

Fierce Impact (Deep Impact), who finished runner-up to Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice) in the CF Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) on Saturday, could try to secure a place in next month's All-Star Mile (1600m) with a start in either the Futurity or the Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick on February 29. The winner of the Futurity is assured a place in the $5m All-Star Mile line-up at Caulfield on March 14, but trainer Matthew Smith has hinted towards a Chipping Norton outing in the hope Fierce Impact receives one of five wildcard spots in the field. Reflecting on his Orr performance, Smith told Racing.com: "He just needs that quick tempo through the whole race, he was great through the line. That run will bring him on and he'll be ready for his next start."

Cellsabeel doubt for rescheduled Millennium

The Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained Cellsabeel (Hinchinbrook), who was red-hot favourite for Saturday's postponed Inglis Millennium (RL, 1200m) at Warwick Farm, is not guaranteed to line-up in the rearranged contest on Wednesday. The talented juvenile is seeking a place in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and had been set to line-up in the Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) at Rosehill next Saturday. However, with prize-money accrued in the Inglis Millennium not counting towards a start in the Golden Slipper, connections face a dilemma as to which contest Cellsabeel should run in, or if she should line-up in both and face a quick return to the track. "We were quite keen to go to the Silver Slipper," Annabelle Neasham, Maher and Eustace's Sydney foreperson, told The Daily Telegraph. "If we decided that is the race to go for to get into the Golden Slipper then we will have to consider (whether to start) Wednesday. It will be difficult to run in both the Inglis Millennium and the Silver Slipper now. It is only four days later but it makes a big difference to her preparation."

Metro jockeys win at Rapid Racing meeting

A victory by Melbourne's premier jockey Craig Williams in the final race gave the metropolitan jockeys' team a last-gasp win at the first Rapid Racing meeting at Flemington yesterday. The Victoria Racing Club trialled the format at Sunday's fixture, which was held in a twilight time slot with 30 minute gaps between the seven races up the Flemington straight. An integral part of the day was a jockeys' challenge featuring a metro team against a country team, with the sides selected on premiership standings in Victoria at the start of January. The country team got off to a flying start and led the point-score - based on the top four placings in each race - until the final contest when Williams steered the Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained Delusions (So You Think) to victory. Double points were on offer in the closing contest and the metro team overhauled the country team to win 43 to 37. Williams won the individual point-score on a countback from Jye McNeil, who represented the country, while Mick Price and Michael Kent jnr won the day's top trainer.

Second for Toorak Toff

The Michael Trinder-trained Toorak Affair (6 m ex Smooth Return by Redoute's Choice) took out yesterday's Hobart Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) to provide Tasmania-based sire Toorak Toff (Show A Heart) with his second stakes winner. Shady Hustle (Hussonet) ran second, beaten a length and a half, with Glass Warrior (Glass Harmonium) a further short-head away in third. Toorak Affair was yesterday registering her 12th win in 35th starts, albeit an overdue success at stakes level, and she joins Iconoclasm as stakes winners for her Kingsley Park-based sire. Toorak Toff covered nine mares at a fee of $3,850 last year, while an Alpine Eagle (High Chaparral) half-brother to the winner is set to be offered at the Magic Millions Tasmanian Yearling Sale. He is catalogued as Lot 82.

145 for Shamardal

Former shuttler and Darley heavyweight Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) sired his 145th stakes winner yesterday when Zargos (4 m ex Sister Rocks by Rock Hard Ten) landed the Bow Mistress Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) earlier on the Hobart card. Deroche (Needs Further) was beaten half a length into second, with a further neck back to Twitchy Frank (Choir) in third. Tried in the Schweppes Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) as a three-year-old, Zargos has now won four of her 13 starts. Meanwhile, Kildangan Stud resident Shamardal will stand for a private fee in the northern hemisphere this year, and his progeny includes the Charlie Appleby-trained Pinatubo, who was crowned Europe's champion two-year-old of 2019 with a lofty official rating of 128.

Stakes hat-trick for Still A Star

Still A Star (3 f Toronado - Lita by Casino Prince) completed a hat-trick of stakes successes when she prevailed in a photo finish to land yesterday's Strutt Stakes (Listed, 2100m) at Hobart. The Bill Ryan-trained three-year-old supplemented her earlier wins in the Tasmanian Guineas (Listed, 1600m) and the Launceston Guineas (Listed, 2100m) with a hard-fought victory over Mystical Pursuit (Needs Further). The Lindsay Park-trained Sacred Valley (Fastnet Rock) finished a further two and three-quarter lengths away in third. A Manhattan Rain (Encosta de Lago) half-sister to Still A Star is set to go through the ring at the Magic Millions Tasmanian Yearling Sale. She is catalogued as Lot 23.

Mandela Effect takes out Thomas Lyons

Yesterday's Thomas Lyons Stakes (Listed, 1400m) went the way of Mandela Effect (5 g Turffontein - Morell by West Quest), who backed-up last month's win in the Tasmanian

Stakes (Listed, 1600m) with a one-length victory over Hellova Street (Helike). I'm Wesley (I Am Invincible) finished a further half a length away in third. The Scott Brunton-trained Mandela Effect has enjoyed a fruitful preparation, winning three of his six starts, while his overall record now stands at 11 wins from 22 outings for prize-money of $487,939. Lot 36 at the upcoming Magic Millions Tasmanian Yearling Sale is a sister to Mandela Effect who is being offered on account of Motree Thoroughbreds.

Horse welfare report set to be released

A report after an inquiry into equine welfare in Queensland could be released as early as this week. Former District Court Judge Terry Martin chaired the inquiry which was instigated by the state government after a story by the ABC's 7.30 Report in October. The story highlighted the issue of managing the retirement of racehorses and pinpointed animal slaughter at the Meramist Abattoir at Caboolture in Queensland. The inquiry was chartered to review the regulatory and oversight arrangements of abattoirs in Queensland. It further looked at the management of retired racehorses in Queensland, including horses moved from interstate. Judge Martin SC was supported by equine veterinary surgeon Dr Peter Reid. It is understood the report is ready for release within days.

NEW ZEALAND

Colgan sweet on Illicit Derby bid

Six-time New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m)-winning jockey Vinnie Colgan has heaped effusive praise on Saturday's Waikato Guineas (Gr 2, 2000m) winner Two Illicit (Jimmy Choux), whom he rode to a seven and a half-length success for Roger James and Robert Wellwood. "She is a very talented filly who I don't think we have even scratched the surface of yet," Colgan said. "The feel she gives you when you ride her is very special and I can say with certainty that there have been several of my Derby winners that haven't provided me with anywhere near the feel that this filly does. I know she isn't nominated for the Derby and is still in the Oaks at Trentham. However, I think the Derby would be a much better fit for her.

She has a good record and plenty of experience at Ellerslie and the three weeks between her run on Saturday and the Derby will be perfect for her."

ASIA

31 for Symboli Kris S

Cortesia (3c ex Ciel Et Mer by Jungle Pocket) provided his sire Symboli Kris S (Kris S) with a 31st individual stakes winner when posting a surprise victory in the Kisaragi Sho (Gr 3, 1800m) on the Kyoto turf yesterday. Sent off a 29-1 chance, he beat Stone Ridge (Deep Impact) by a neck with the red-hot favourite Al Jannah (Deep Impact) a further half a length away in third. The Takashi Suzuki-trained three-year-old has now won two of his six starts.

Primo Scene breaks losing spell

A drop back in grade saw Primo Scene (Deep Impact) return to winning ways when the five-year-old registered her first win since August 2018 when taking out yesterday's Tokyo Shimbun Hai (Gr 3, 1600m). Ridden by Mirco Demuro for the first time, the Grade 1-placed mare got the better of Shadow Diva (Heart's Cry) by half a length with Kurino Gaudi (Screen Hero) just a nose further back in third. Primo Scene has now won four of her 14 races, with three stakes-race victories among that tally.

INTERNATIONAL

61 for Footstepsinthesand

Mariafoot (3 f ex Maria Gabriella by Rock of Gibraltar) became the 61st individual stakes winner for Castle Hyde Stud resident Footstepsinthesand (Giant's Causeway) when she claimed the Prix de la Californie (Listed, 1600m) at Cagnes-Sur-Mer yesterday. A blanket finish resulted in the first five home being separated by just three-quarters of a length and Mariafoot eventually claimed the verdict by a short-head over Jedha Man (Dandy Man), with a further short-neck back to Lindy Lou (Sidestep) in third. Footstepsinthesand will stand for a fee of €15,000 in 2020 and his progeny includes last year's high-class European juvenile Mum's Tipple.

Harmless to the fore at Cagnes

Harmless (4 g Anodin - Snowbright by Pivotal) secured his second win at stakes level when taking out the Prix de la Riviera Cote D'Azur - Jacques Bouchara (Listed, 2000m) at Cagnes-Sur-Mer yesterday. The four-year-old, who was a stakes-winning juvenile at Longchamp in 2018, defied hot-favourite Aubevoye (Le Havre) by three-quarters of a length, with a further length back to Pump Pump Palace (King's Best) in third. Anodor is one of two black-type winners, alongside Harmless, for Anodin (Anabaa), who will stand at Haras du Quesnay for €12,000 this year.

EP Taylor winner lands Grade 3

Starship Jubilee (7 m Indy Wind - Perfectly Wild by Forest Wildcat) proved to be a cut above her rivals when last season's EP Taylor Stakes (Gr 1, 10f) heroine ran out a clear-cut, four and a half-length winner of the Suwannee River Stakes (Gr 3, 9f) at Gulfstream Park on Saturday night. Magic Star (Scat Daddy) did best of the rest, edging out Tapit Today (Tapit) by a neck in the battle for second. Blue Haven Farm's daughter of Indy Wind (A P Indy) has now won 16 of her 34 starts, with nine stakes race wins among that haul.

Thunder Road to River Boyne

River Boyne (5 h Dandy Man - Clytha by Mark of Esteem) finally broke his losing snap courtesy of an overdue victory in the Thunder Road Stakes (Gr 3, 8f) on the Santa Anita turf on Saturday. Winless in nine starts, including when red-hot favourite for this race last year, the Jeff Mullins-trained five-year-old beat Camino del Paraíso (Suances) by two and a half lengths with True Valour (Kodiac) just a nose further back in third. River Boyne has now won eight of his 23 starts, including six victories in stakes company.

27 for Munnings

Venetian Harbor (3 f ex Sounds of the City by Street Cry) marked herself out as a possible Kentucky Oaks (Gr 1, 9f) contender when she romped to a nine and a quarter-length victory in the Las Virgenes Stakes (Gr 2, 8f) on the main track at Santa Anita on Saturday. A $110,000 purchase at the 2018 Keeneland September Yearling Sale from the Ashview Farm consignment, Venetian Harbor has now won two of her three starts. Saturday's wide-margin win over Gingham (Quality Road), who in turn was two and a half lengths clear of the third, Stellar Sound (Tapit), meant Venetian Harbor became the 37th individual stakes winner for Munnings (Speightstown).

Volante makes Graded breakthrough

Sole Volante (3 g Karakontie - Light Blow by Kingmambo) took his record to three wins in four starts and made the breakthrough in Graded company when he took out the Sam F. Davis Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Tampa Bay Downs on Saturday. The last-start Listed winner beat warm-favourite Independence Hall (Constitution) by two and a half lengths, with a massive gap of a further 11 lengths back to the third home, Ajaaweed (Curlin). Bred in Kentucky by Flaxman Holdings Limited, Sole Volante is the fifth foal out of the Kingmambo mare Light Blow, who has also produced stakes-placed Light Of Joy (Kitten's Joy) and Explode (Trappe Shot), who took the 2019 Canadian Derby (Gr 3, 10f).

Admiralty edges it in Tampa Bay thriller

Admiralty Pier (5 g English Channel - Full Steam Ahead by Kitten's Joy) doubled his tally of wins in stakes races when coming out on top in close finish to Saturday's Tampa Bay Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f). The five-year-old got the verdict in a photo, getting the better of runner-up Devamani (Dubawi) by a nose, with the third home, March To The Arch (Arch), just another head back in third. This was the fifth time Admiralty Pier had won in 18 starts, but connections had to wait on the outcome of a stewards inquiry before celebrating. Bred by Calumet Farm, the lone foal out of the Kitten's Joy (El Prado) mare Full Steam Ahead was bought by Bruce Lunsford for $100,000 from the Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services consignment at The Saratoga Sale in 2016.

Back-to-back stakes for Jehozacat

Jehozacat (5 m Tapit - Precious Kitten by Catienus) made all the running to continue on her upward curve as she posted back-to-back stakes victories with a surprise win in the Lambholm South Endeavour Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) on the Tampa Bay turf. The five-year-old daughter of Tapit (Pulpit) improved her record to five wins and four seconds from 17 starts when she beat Altea (Siyouni) by a neck, with Andina del Sur (Giant's Causeway) another three-quarters of a length away in third. Bred in Kentucky, Jehozacat is out of the Catienus (Storm Cat) mare Precious Kitten, and is a sister to the Grade 1-placed Divining Rod.

My Dreamliner takes off for another win

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

The frayed nerves are still visible, but My Dreamliner (Dream Ahead) was able to set them aside for a brilliant win in yesterday's $70,000 Class 3 Clarksons Platou Cup 2020 (1000m).

The Young Keah Yong-trained four-year-old is known to possess stacks of ability, but his hard-going style can work against him at times.

Lee Freedman's apprentice jockey Iskandar Rosman may not be the most experienced rider around, but having won on My Dreamliner once (three starts back in a Class 4 race over 1100 metres), he was able to put in another accomplished display.

Not many would have backed his chances halfway through the race, though. It's no secret My Dreamliner is more effective when up there with the pace, but some might have thought Rosman had overdone it with his obstinateness in leading despite a wide path from the awkward alley.

The equally quick Red Rover (O'Reilly) and Lonhro Gold (Denman) would not yield an inch on the inside, but neither would Rosman, who kept pressing forward three wide punching the breeze.

Most horses are softened up by such tactics, but it soon became clear they have not been counterproductive to My Dreamliner's chances this time around. If anything, Rosman had actually done the right thing by refraining from breaking his mount's stride.

As the bold bay was taken hard up against the rails inside the last 400 metres, he suddenly opened up a gap of two lengths on the chasing pack, showing no signs of letting up the closer he got to the winning post.

The dreaded lactic acid did eventually kick in, but luckily for his $26 backers, the bird had already flown. The fast-finishing Fulife King (Written Tycoon) cut the margin down to a length and a half in the end, with Red Rover another three-quarters of a length away in third.

My Dreamliner

STC

The winning time was 58.93 for the 1000 metres on the Polytrack. My Dreamliner has now amassed close to S$190,000 in prize-money for his owner Tang Weng Fei from that fifth win from eight starts.

Yong had the countenance of a trainer who was no doubt delighted that the best horse in his stable had brought the bacon home again, but also wished he was a bit more bombproof.

"He ran good at his last start but went down to a very good horse (Excelling)," Yong said.

"I was worried about the draw, especially as there were speedy horses on the inside, but he was equal to the task.

"I'll probably look for a better race over 1200 metres for him. We still can't settle him, though, and I will see how he improves in his trackwork, hopefully he settles better."

Rosman was a happy young man at the winner's circle. Sidelined through a fractured ankle after a race fall in August, the Malaysian rider only returned to race-riding this year.

By coincidence, his last winner was also for Young, Super Smart (Big Brown) on August 2, which was to freeze his hitherto excellent win-counter prematurely at ten for 2019.

After 12 rides, mostly for Freedman this year, the 25-year-old was finally rediscovering the sweet taste of success – his 14th win overall, with the grin widening further when he was ushered to the presentation dais for the trophy ceremony.

"This horse won four times before. So, I knew he was good and last time he was beaten by Excelling, who is a very good horse," said Rosman, who is better known in racing circles as Syafiq.

"He was drawn wide, and I tried to lead, but my horse couldn't go forward. He was caught three wide but I tried to save some energy and do my best.

"I was a bit worried, but when I asked him to go at the top of the straight, he still had a lot left in the tank.

"A big thank you to Benny Woodworth and CC (Chin Chuen) Wong who know this horse, they taught me how to ride him.

"I also get a lot of help from Matt Pumpa (Singapore Turf Club riding master), Michael Rodd and Vlad Duric, they tell me what mistakes I make and correct me."

V: Eliza Park

Margins: 0.5 lens, 0.2 lens. Time: 1:11.37(last 600m 35.17).

Betting: $12.00, $2.90, $3.50.

Then followed: Platinum Angel (AUS), Beauty (AUS), Gee Gee Double Dee (AUS), Street Icon (AUS), Secrets She Has (AUS), Our Long Sali (AUS), I Remember You (AUS), Scrutineer (AUS) & Gee Gee Lanett (AUS), last.

Analysis: Lindsay Park-trained mare Zargos broke through for her first stakes success in winning here, her fourth win from 13 starts to date. She settled nicely in seventh place on the rails, angled for a clear run on straightening, got a split at the 100m, hit the front shortly afterwards and held on to win well. It was also a good ride by Blaike McDougall. Favourite Deroche raced in fifth place between runners, but was blocked on turning for home. Craig Newitt then eased her deeper looking for room, finally got a split and then finished well for a late-closing second, looking unlucky.

Twitchy Frank raced in sixth place (wide with cover), moved up on straightening and kept battling on well for third. Platinum

Angel settled in second-last place in the 12-runner field, improved between runners nearing the home turn, went deeper and into clear running shortly afterwards and kept running on well for (1.4

lengths) fourth. [KB]

3. Glass Warrior (AUS) 4 gr/b m, 54 kg

Glass Harmonium (IRE) - Hissy Miss (AUS), by Golden Snake (USA)

B: Mrs M Gunn T: J K Blacker J: Sigrid Carr

Margins: 1.5 lens, 0.1 lens. Time: 2:30.29(last 600m 36.74).

Betting: $3.50, $13.00, $15.00.

Then followed: Taikomochi (AUS), Exoteric (GB), Home By Midnight (NZ), Morton's Fork (AUS), Appmat (AUS), Dogmatic (AUS), He Eksceles (NZ), Gee Gee Fiorente (AUS) & Kanji (AUS), last.

Analysis: In-form mare Toorak Affair followed recent wins in the Brighton Cup (2100m) and the Summer Cup (2200m) with another solid staying effort in taking out this Group 3 feature, her 12th win, with eight placings, from 35 starts. She enjoyed a good trip in fourth place (one out and one back) before moving up strongly at the 600m (to challenge the leader Taikomochi). She got the upper hand at the 200m and then went on to win well. Shady Hustle raced in eighth place, improved well nearing the home turn and she continued that run in the centre of the track for second. Glass Warrior settled midfield, improved (wide) from the 600m and she kept battling on solidly in the straight to take the minor placing. Taikomochi began well and then raced outside of the leader until going to the front on passing the 600m. He then fought back well when challenged (by the eventual winner) until fading over the latter stages for (1.8 lengths) fourth after his early efforts told. [KB]

Margins: 0.1 lens, 2.8 lens. Time: 2:15.51(last 600m 35.58).

Betting: $1.60, $3.30, $13.00.

Then followed: Durability (AUS), Numero Quatre (AUS), Sardegna Deel (AUS), Cambalache (AUS), Stepside Rousey (AUS), Zoulah (AUS), Get The Trip (AUS), Vela Blue (AUS) & Madilogo (AUS), last.

Analysis: After taking out the Tasmanian Guineas (Listed, 1600m) and the Launceston Guineas (Listed, 2100m), talented filly Still A Star recorded her third successive stakes victory in winning here, albeit narrowly on this occasion. She began well and then tracked the leader (Sacred Valley). She moved to the leader's girth at the 800m, put pressure on that runner nearing the home turn, got to the front at the 200m and then fought back to score in a photo. Mystical Pursuit settled in seventh place between runners, improved from the 600m, went to third at the home turn while still conceding the leaders several lengths, and then just failed with a strong late bid to finish a close second. The Lindsay Park-trained filly Sacred Valley went to the front and ran along at a nice tempo early before slackening the pace mid-race. She was pressured coming to the home turn and kept battling on to hold the minor placing. [KB]

Margins: 1 len, 0.5 lens. Time: 1:24.58(last 600m 35.50).

Betting: $1.80, $2.80, $13.00.

Then followed: Sava Finale (AUS), Blaze Forth (AUS), The Master Speed (AUS), Zatacla (AUS) & Amaword (AUS), last.

Analysis: Mandela Effect took his highly-consistent record to 11 wins and six placings from 22 starts in winning here, his second victory at stakes level. He had a nice trip in fourth place but was held up between runners as he approached the home turn. Craig Newitt steered him through a gap to be third on straightening, he got to the front at the 100m and went on to win well. Hellova Street led early on but eased to race in second spot when pressured mid-race (by The Master Speed). He was under riding nearing the home turn but he kept battling on and rallied over the closing stages to take second. I'm Wesley began well and settled in third place, racing deep. He moved up deep on turning for home and then kept battling on to gain a keenly-contested third placing in a photo. [KB]
