Oakfield's Mackenzie gets his pricey daughter of Zoustar after days of attending to her

Startling $450,000 finish to record-breaking Inglis Classic Yearling Sale at Riverside

Lot 591: Zoustar ex Empress Zakynthos filly

INGLIS

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Bruce Mackenzie's determination to take home the highest-priced filly ever sold at an Inglis Classic Yearling Sale led him to deliver a deliberate "knockout punch" for a daughter of Zoustar (Northern Meteor) who also helped create a new benchmark for her breeder as well as for the auction house.

The three-day Classic sale concluded at Riverside Stables in Sydney yesterday with a new record aggregate and average set for Inglis' opening auction of the year and it was Port Stephens-based owner Mackenzie who created theatre with his $450,000 purchase. Continued on page 2>>

One of 15 yearlings to make $300,000 or more at the record Classic sale, the Zoustar filly caught Mackenzie's eye from the moment he saw her on the complex last week.

"Everyone wanted her, she was a magnificent filly. She's well-built and her temperament is amazing. I would go down every night and look at her," Mackenzie said in the aftermath of the intense bidding spectacle.

"Her gate was open and I would pat her for ten minutes and scratch her head. I'd tell her in horse language that I was going to take her home to Port Stephens."

Mackenzie had missed out on a Hellbent (I Am Invincible) filly earlier in the day, but he was not going to let Star Thoroughbreds' Denise Martin and Randwick Bloodstock's Brett Howard beat him twice. So, when the bidding hit the $400,000 mark, Mackenzie made a big winning move, going straight to $450,000.

“HER GATE WAS OPEN AND I WOULD PAT HER FOR TEN MINUTES AND SCRATCH HER HEAD. I'D TELL HER IN HORSE LANGUAGE THAT I WAS GOING TO TAKE HER HOME TO PORT STEPHENS

"S t a r Thoroughbreds and all the other bidders, they can all jump. I was going to take her home, full stop," he said of his reasoning for making such a large one-bid increase in price.

"I used to follow boxing and a quick punch knocks them out and they are down. So they went down, Brett and Denise, didn't they?"

The former Port Stephens mayor, who has his own property called Salt Ash, races his horses with the Oakfield moniker and, despite the filly's expensive price, he will handle her education patiently before entrusting her with his chosen trainer, either Damien Lane or Kristen Buchanan.

"I have won 170 races and I have never, ever started a two-year-old in my life and I never will, so she will be a three-year-old. No two-year-olds come out of my stable," he revealed.

"She will be broken in and she will be working on a walking machine, she will swim and she will be on a treadmill, but she won't have anyone on her back galloping until she is three."

By Widden Stud's Zoustar, whose progeny have sold for up to $1 million this year, the Lot 591-catalogued filly was consigned by Clarke and Croft Bloodstock. She is the third foal out of five-time winner Empress Zakynthos (Holy Roman Emperor) who is a sister to Hong Kong Listed winner Divine Ten.

Breeder and vendor Samantha Croft led the filly around the ring and is in no doubt the yearling has a star quality.

"I really thought she deserved a fair bit of money, but that is fantastic," Croft said.

"Our previous best result was $150,000, so this is by far the best horse I have ever sold.

"I was concentrating on making sure she behaved herself, I heard the $400,000, and I thought that is what she deserved."

"We have been selling here for somewhere between 16 and 18 years and we like to come here so we can stand out. We feel that small vendors are given a bit better chance here."

Star's Martin takes shine to progeny of Hellbent

Denise Martin of Star Thoroughbreds may have missed out on the Zoustar filly, but she certainly made an impression earlier in the day with the purchase of two yearlings by first season sire Hellbent in quick succession.

The most expensive of those was a filly, catalogued as Lot 555 from the Middlebrook Valley Lodge draft, who made $300,000. She is the fifth foal out of Crystal Rock (Fastnet Rock), a 900-metre winner who is a half-sister to Australia's champion two-year-old of 2006-07 Zizou (Fusaichi Pegasus), who was runner-up in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) that season.

The prominent syndicator is a big fan of the filly's Yarraman Park Stud-based sire Hellbent and labelled his first-crop daughter, who is a half-sister to the Mark Newnham-trained stakes-placed sprinter Big Parade (Deep Field), a last-start Rosehill winner on January 30, as "special".

"We loved her from the moment we saw her and buying from a great farm like Verna's (Metcalf) is always an endorsement of a quality yearling, so I thought I was going to have to take deep breaths several times over and we thought that would be about the mark," Martin said of the six-figure yearling.

"I would say she will be a late two-year-old and she will suit Chris's (Waller) stable ideally, allowing her time to mature."

The competition on the filly was a highlight for Metcalfe and her husband Dave who bred the $300,000 filly, which capped a cleansweep of Book 1 for Middlebrook Valley Lodge, selling all 13 yearlings at an average of $100,769.

"I own her, I bred her with my husband, of course, and she is an absolute queen. I couldn't be more rapt to have Denise Martin buy her as she will go to a good trainer and be well looked after," Metcalfe said.

"Big Parade was an absolute star as well, but this filly is a touch more sensible than Big Parade could be. She is a lovely, athletic filly and Hellbent is going to make a great sire."

Soon after Martin bought the Hellbent filly, she went to $260,000 for the half-brother to Goldolphin's Group 3-winning sprinter Deprive

Sam Croft and Justin Clarke with Lot 591

JO MCKINNON

(Denman). The Yarraman Park Stud-offered colt, catalogued as Lot 563, is the seventh foal out of Defrock (Canny Lad), a sister to the Group 3 winner Blackball.

In total, Martin and Randwick Bloodstock's Brett Howard bought six yearlings at the Classic sale, the most expensive a $320,000 I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) daughter of the stakes-performed mare Pioneering (Sebring), the first horse Star Thoroughbreds raced with Waller.

Hellbent, meanwhile, averaged $104,167 at the Classic sale with 24 lots changing hands, ending the sale as the leading first season sire by aggregate.

Zhongli's patience rewarded with Almanzor coup

Quinton Cassidy of the Chinese-owned NSW Southern Highlands operation Zhongli Thoroughbreds waited patiently at Riverside Stables for almost three days before launching for an impressive colt by sire-of-the-moment Almanzor (Wootton Bassett).

Zhongli Thoroughbreds went to $360,000 for the half-brother to recent Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Bonham (Per Incanto).

Offered by Sledmere Stud for New Zealand farm Little Avondale as Lot 617, he is the fourth foal out of Fortune's Choice (Redoute's Choice), who in turn is a half-sister to the stakes-winning two-year-old Eagle Island (Fastnet Rock). His second dam is also the stakes-winning, Group 1-placed mare Banc De Fortune (Galileo).

Sledmere's Royston Murphy was ecstatic to be able to oversee a big Classic result for Little Avondale's Sam and Catriona Williams.

"He was the star colt for them and, as everybody says, these horses have been so busy this week. To go and get that result with our last horse is great.

STALLION WATCH: YOUR ESSENTIAL WEEKLY STALLION BRIEFING

"It's great for everybody involved."

Cambridge Stud's European shuttler Almanzor, who has sold up to $800,000 this sales season, had six yearlings sell this week to a top of $400,000. He was the leading first season sire by average at this week's sale, a title he also claimed at the recent Magic Millions and New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Yearling sales.

"I think Almanzor is a great coup for New Zealand. Every one I have seen are such lovely, athletic horses. They are free-moving horses with a lot of scope and presence about them," Murphy said.

"It's good to see a new horse like that come into the fray. A lot of the time we are concentrating on these short and sharp horses, but I think he's going to be a big horse for the future.

"It's nice to see people that have invested in him and get the just rewards. We all try to pick the right stallions and those people have done well out of him. I'm sure we will see him hit the track over the next few years and succeed for the guys over there."

Zhongli Thoroughbreds raced this season's Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) runner-up Hit The Shot (Dundeel) before selling the Matt Cumani-trained colt to Hong Kong late last year.

"We waited two days for this colt. We spotted him early," Cassidy said.

"The sale has been really good to Zhongli. We purchased Hit The Shot here, so we were trying to go down that avenue in finding a nice, athletic horse who will be a nice miler-stayer."

A trainer for the colt will be decided at a later date.

At the end of the Book 1 sale, the leading vendor by aggregate for the first time was Newgate Farm, the home of current leading first season sire Capitalist (Written Tycoon) as well as Deep Field (Northern Meteor), which sold 29 yearlings for a combined $4,140,000. Arrowfield Stud finished runner-up, selling 30 yearlings for $3,565,000.

Newgate Farm managing director Henry Field took a holistic view of the Classic sale, believing it underlined the health of the Australian racing and breeding industry.

"In the past three years we've intentionally targeted the Classic sale as one of the major sales in the calendar year for Newgate and while it's great to be leading vendor and have a big sale, more importantly for us is to be providing the marketplace with horses like Shadow Hero and Profiteer in our Classic drafts as we have the past couple of years," Field said.

"I also love the fact this sale has provided so many massive results for industry people who work so damn hard like Verna Metcalfe, Richard Mc Clellan, the Fernrigg staff pinhook, those results are what it's all about and again, the Inglis team showcased those stories so passionately the past three days."

Lot 802: Maurice ex Flashing Speed filly

Strong finish to booming Classic

The Highway Session wrapped up with a colt by Arrowfield's Japanese shuttler Maurice (Screen Hero), the second-last lot of the sale, selling to Anthony Cummings for $220,000. The filly, offered by Toolooganvale Farm as Lot 802, is the third foal out of the stakes-placed Flashing Speed (War Pass), in turn a half-sister to the former Cummings-trained Group 2 winner Thunder Fantasy (Lucky Owners).

A Mikki Isle (Deep Impact) colt (Lot 752) made $170,000 to Melbourne trainer Grahame Begg and eight lots later another colt by Darley's former shuttler Dawn Approach (New Approach) fetched the same price to the bid of agent Paul Moroney and Queensland's Haoh Company.

The unprecedented demand for yearlings, which continued to the conclusion of the sale, allowed Classic vendors to capitalise on the competition, which drove the figures to record levels.

Inglis managing director Mark Webster believes the Classic sale has earned the respect of buyers at all levels of the market through its continued graduate success. Only on Saturday, the 2020 Classic sale produced the Inglis Millennium (RL, 1200m) trifecta led in by brilliant colt Profiteer (Capitalist).

"Talking to the major buyers, and using James Harron as an example, who is a colt buyer with his stallion fund, they have done their own work with their stats in terms of the performance of the graduates and realised that it is a sale they can't afford to overlook and they should be investing in," Webster said.

"This sale is producing stallions and it is not as if it is happening overnight. I Am Invincible is a great example. He came through this sale and made $60,000, and is now having sons like Brazen Beau and Hellbent, who came out of this little sale here and have now got progeny going through themselves.

"The sale has produced stallions for some time but I think it is now at a point where they are just doing it more regularly and that's helping with the growth."

Inglis experimented with a bigger Classic catalogue in 2019, totaling 1013 horses, a move which backfired and the company reverted back to its initial offering of around 800 and, while Webster did not rule out increasing the size of the sale again in the future, it was a decision unlikely to be acted upon any time soon.

"I will never say never to growing it further, but at the moment I would say our model of 800, which is basically our stabling capacity, works rather than having to shuffle in a whole bunch of new horses at the last minute who don't have the opportunity to be fully inspected," he said.

"I think we have seen that at other sales (Magic Millions) where it didn't work that well. It is worth trying, but ... I think our 600 (Book 1) and 200 (Highway Session yearlings) has shown it is the right model as things stand."

In January, rival Magic Millions increased its Book 2 catalogue from 177 lots in 2020 to 311, which as expected led to a fall in average and median, although many observers deemed it a success.

'Momentum should continue'

Given the strong start to the 2021 sales series - a record Magic Millions, above-expectation NZB Karaka Yearling Sale and a successful Classic - Webster predicts the momentum to flow through to the upcoming Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale and the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale in April.

"I think the momentum should continue now into Melbourne, into Easter. We know talking to clients here that they still haven't been able to buy everything that they wanted, so that is a positive, and even if they had, a lot of them will reload ordinarily inbetween sales," he said.

"Going into Melbourne and Easter, I do not have any reservations about that. We will still do our work recruiting all the right buyers. As we move to Melbourne and Easter, we will do more work with internationals who can't be here and we have normally relied upon their participation and that work is already underway.

"You are looking at Easter as an example, there's a lot of work going on talking to clients in Hong Kong, North America, in Europe and places like that wouldn't be relevant to this sale that we've just been through."

The next Australasian live sale is the delayed Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale from February 18 to 19, followed by the Tasmanian Yearling Sale on February 22.

HISTORY IS BEING WRITTEN

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Fabergino team stick to Flemington formula

Tiarnna Robertson is hoping her winning formula for Fabergino (Maschino) works again when the mare lines up in Saturday's Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m). Robertson has followed the same lead up to Fabergino's past two wins by giving the sprinter a month between runs, then taking her to a 1000-metre race at Flemington and letting her use her brilliant speed. "She's thriving and she's going to have everything in her favour. I can't fault her. She's ticked all the boxes," Robertson said. "It's been working well, what we've been doing with her, giving her some down time after racing and then building her up. All the time keeping her in work so she's kept her residual fitness." Regarding Fabergino's chances on the weekend, Robertson said: "I'm very excited about her prospects. This time she has things in her favour." Fabergino has led from the outset in her past two wins at Flemington, most recently in the Kensington Stakes (Listed, 1000m), but that may not be the case on Saturday and, with Pippie (Written Tycoon) and Nature Strip (Nicconi) in the race, Robertson intends to let jockey Jordan Childs decide on tactics. "I'll leave that to Jordan to work out," the trainer added. "We're going into the race confident she's ready to run to her best."

Bivouac camp still eyeing Royal Ascot

Lightning Stakes favourite Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) will leave Godolphin's Osborne Park base northwest of Sydney and head to Melbourne today with connections still planning on heading further afield with the three-time Group 1 winner later in the year. A trip to Royal Ascot for a tilt at the King's Stand Stakes (Gr 1, 5f) and Golden Jubilee Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) remains in the mix, despite the obvious complications caused by the coronavirus pandemic. "It's still the plan but it all depends on Covid protocols and quarantine issues," Godolphin Australia managing director Vin Cox told Racing.com. "It can be done at the moment, but things can change tomorrow." Last year's Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) and VRC Sprint Classic (Gr 1, 1200m) winner down the Flemington straight was due to do his final piece of work before the Lightning yesterday and Cox said the James Cummings-trained four-year-old had returned as he had hoped. "My word, he has," he said. "The horse is very, very well."

Draw key in Tagaloa decision

The barrier draw will determine whether Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) takes his chance in the CS Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington on Saturday or heads to Sydney to continue his autumn campaign. The Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington on February 27 is in the sights of training partners Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young, while the Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) a week later is also possible. Young said if Tagaloa draws wide at Flemington on Saturday, he could instead head to Sydney to run in the Hobartville Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Rosehill on Saturday week. "If he draws a gate, we'll go there (Flemington), but if he happens to draw off the track, we may think about the Hobartville and then into the Randwick Guineas," Young said. "The Australian Guineas is the preferred target, but he gallops super that Sydney way around and his work on Saturday morning, that way, was probably one of the best gallops he has put in. So, if he draws off the track, at least we've got that option, so we'll just weigh it up."

Big Hayes run no Shock for Stanley

Here To Shock (Shocking) is set to line-up in the CS Hayes Stakes off the back of a dominant display at Geelong and the three-year-old's trainer Brent Stanley believes a repeat of the four-length romp under Glen Boss is not impossible. "Bossy was over the moon with him," Stanley told Racing.com. "He said he gave him that good three-year-old colt feel and he has ridden plenty of them. He (Here To Shock) has done really well since Geelong and we will just wait and see the barrier and that will depend how we ride him. It won't surprise me if he wins on Saturday, he definitely can because he is a good horse but there is a bit to come."

Firm tracks key to Elizabeel

John Sargent has indicated it is all systems go for promising filly Elizabeel (Power), who is set to resume in the Light Fingers Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick on Saturday. Sargent said he was happy with the progress Elizabeel had made since the spring when her performances included a luckless third in the Reginald Allen Quality (Listed, 1400m) and a fourth-placed finish in the $1 million Bondi Stakes (1600m) in unsuitable conditions. "It was too wet for her a couple of times in the spring but she did a good job and she's fit and well and ready to go after a couple of solid trials," Sargent said. "She's a different horse on top of the ground." Elizabeel finished fourth in a Randwick trial on January 7, then had a good blowout in winning a Gosford heat on January 19. "She's a nice filly and a lot stronger this time," Sargent continued. "She'll go into the race nice and fresh and I expect her to run well."

Blue Diamond goal for Artorius

Artorius (Flying Artie) was yesterday given the go ahead to take his chance in next Saturday's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Caulfield. The Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained colt, who overcame an awkward start to win by four and a half lengths at Sandown last month, is set to be put through his paces in a jump-out at Balnarring today. Luke Currie has been booked for the ride.

Begg pleased with Dosh

Fellow Blue Diamond hope Dosh (Rich Enuff) continued her preparations for the $1.5 million contest when pleasing connections on her home track yesterday. The unbeaten filly by-passed last week's Blue Diamond Prelude (Gr 2, 1100m) and also the option of a trial at Cranbourne on Monday with her trainer Grahame Begg instead opting to jump her out yesterday over 800 metres where she is stabled at Caulfield. "We're very happy with her - she was very good to the eye," Begg told Racing.com. "She seemed to do it well and she ran quite sharply. I had the option of the trial yesterday and we decided to keep her close to home and take that route. We're happy where we are at. We think she's in good shape and she'll do a bit on Saturday and we'll have another gallop next week on the course proper next Tuesday to have her ready."

Pike heading to Melbourne to ride 'fantastic' duo

William Pike has sounded an ominous warning to east coast rivals, labelling the trials of Arcadia Queen (Pierro) and Regal Power (Pierro) at Lark Hill yesterday morning as "fantastic". Pike, who will head to Melbourne later this week, said both horses impressed ahead of their likely first Melbourne starts Saturday week. "It feels nice to get on some top-quality horses like that again," he told The Races WA. "You can feel the energy they have and the feel they give you wakes you up a bit. I thought they did it very well and did everything they had to do." Arcadia Queen hit the line well in her trial and showed she was on track for the All-Star Mile (1600m) at Moonee Valley on March 13. "I sat back off them as far as I could, there was only a few horses in the trial," Pike said. "One came up on my outside which I thought was good as well because it kept her switched on to the line." Arcadia Queen is set to tackle the Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield first-up, three weeks prior to the All-Star Mile. Regal Power could also line up at Caulfield in the Peter Young Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) on the same day. Pike said the defending All-Star Mile champion was on track after a spring carnival full of setbacks. "What I was aiming to do with him was to keep him on the bridle as long as I could and rush past them late," he said. "I probably got there a lot earlier than I would've liked. We got there early and he did it really easy."

Russian Camelot on course for All-Star Mile

Russian Camelot (Camelot) demonstrated he is on track for the All-Star Mile with an encouraging trial at Werribee yesterday which left both his trainer Danny O'Brien and jockey Damien Oliver pleased. The dual Group 1 winner was making his first public appearance since he finished eighth in the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), running second to Cherry Tortoni (Night Of Thunder) in his 1100-metre heat. "He was out here to stretch his legs. Damien was pretty easy on him to the line," O'Brien told Racing.com. "He has blown out the cobwebs and Damien was happy with him, so that's all we wanted to see. We probably have penciled in the two runs for him in the autumn - The All-Star Mile and then the Queen Elizabeth up there in Sydney. We still have a potential option of maybe running him in the Futurity, rather than trialing him again. But at this stage we are probably leaning towards giving him another jump-out at Flemington on February 19 and then three weeks to the All-Star Mile."

Melody Belle withdrawn from mile

One big name who won't be taking her chance in the All-Star Mile is Melody Belle (Commands), leaving Saturday's Geoffrey Bellmaine (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Probabeel (Savabeel) as the only Kiwi in the rich Moonee Valley contest. "Queen of the Turf Melody Belle takes a different path so will be withdrawn from the @allstarmile today," Te Akau tweeted yesterday morning. Arcadia Queen regained her position at the top of the public vote yesterday, usurping Behemoth (All Too Hard), with Probabeel sat in fifth position. To view the latest voting click here.

Franklin throws support behind Shout The Bar

The drinks will be on Lance Franklin if the aptly named Shout The Bar (Not A Single Doubt) lands this year's All-Star Mile. The AFL champion threw his support behind the four-year-old, urging those in New South Wales to get behind the mare. "Shout The Bar, fingers crossed it gets voted in. An amazing horse, a Sydney horse trained by Gai Waterhouse, and how special it would be if it gets into the race?" Franklin told Racing.com. "There are so many horses from all around Australia and New Zealand in this race. Let's all get behind Shout The Bar and no doubt, if it does get in and win, I will be shouting the bar somewhere."

Mystic Journey fine after shock defeat

Mystic Journey (Needs Further) has pulled up fine following her surprise defeat in Sunday's Thomas Lyons Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Hobart and is set to continue with her campaign to Melbourne. Sent out the well-backed $1.20 favourite, Mystic Journey but was beaten by three and three-quarter lengths by Newhart (Fighting Sun), her second defeat at short odds this campaign. "She has pulled up fine and was bright and bouncy this morning," the five-year-old's trainer Adam Trinder said. "She ran good times first-up and we just felt she raced a bit flat second-up off the back of those strong sectionals on Sunday. The track played a bit funny on Sunday, it threw up some funny results and horses were beaten long margins. But she was beaten fair and square." Mystic Journey, the winner of the inaugural All-Star Mile, is set to continue her campaign in Melbourne in the Blamey Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Flemington on February 27.

Injured Surprise Baby out of autumn

Paul Preusker's stable star Surprise Baby (Shocking) will miss his intended autumn campaign after suffering a setback. The six-year-old, who was last seen when finishing 13th when sent out the $6 favourite for the Melbourne Cup, is expected to undergo further tests in the coming days to establish the severity of a hock injury. Writing on Facebook yesterday, Preusker said: "He is comfortable, safe and in good hands at the vet clinic. We thank everyone for their well wishes in advance."

The Irishman joins Newnham

Promising three-year-old The Irishman (Tavistock) has been sold to Hong Kong interests and transferred to Mark Newnham. The Irishman had three starts in New Zealand for Tony Pike, winning on debut at Avondale in September before finishing runner-up in the Uncle Remus Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day on his most recent outing. "He got here last night," Newnham said yesterday. "He's a promising horse. He probably hasn't been out to his optimum distance yet, but he looks a nice horse and he has arrived in good shape. He was ready to run in the Karaka Million, so he is fairly well up to the mark and I will probably trial him here in a couple of weeks' time."

Country trainers back restricted whip race

A total of 55 horses have been nominated for the first of six Victorian races which will trial the limited use of whips. Racing Victoria altered the conditions of the Country Mile Race Series, which gets underway at Colac on Sunday, introducing amended rules which mean jockeys who ride in the contests cannot use the whip more than five times in a race. Current Australian rules limit whip use to five times prior to the 100-metre mark, with usage then at the rider's discretion in the final 100 metres. The five heats of the series carry prize-money of $75,000, with the $250,000 final to be held at Moonee Valley on March 13.

RV launch Bute probe

Racing Victoria yesterday announced they have launched an investigation after the Matt Laurie-trained Jenni Express (Shamexpress) tested positive for the raceday-banned substance Clenbuterol after winning a maiden at Yarra

Valley on December 18. RV issued a report which stated: "The urine sample was shown to contain Clenbuterol (a bronchodilator), which is a prohibited substance when detected in a sample taken on race day in accordance with the Australian rules of racing. The Australian Racing Forensic Laboratory (ARFL) also reported that it had detected Clenbuterol within the reserve portion of the urine sample. RV stewards initially informed Mr Laurie of the irregularity on 25 January 2021 and (he) was today advised of the confirmatory findings and that the stewards are continuing their investigation."

Laing hearing delayed

Robbie Laing will face a delay in his attempt to reclaim his trainers' license with the matter set to resume with an administrative mention at the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal in April. VCAT was told at a directions hearing yesterday that Racing Victoria is awaiting further applicant material after an earlier proposal put forward by Laing to RV for him to regain his license was rejected. Laing, a four-time Group 1-winning trainer who was first licensed in 1980, had his licence withdrawn by RV in November 2019 after he was deemed bankrupt.

Dunn set for Sandown return

Dwayne Dunn is hoping to make a return to race riding at Sandown on February 17, five months since a barrier accident at Moonee Valley that saw him suffer a career-threatening C6 fracture to his neck. The 47-year-old rider, who returned to trackwork in January, will visit a specialist today, after which he expects to be free to ride.

Flemington to welcome bigger crowds

Flemington will welcome up to 15,000 spectators across two zones for each day of its upcoming Flemington Racing Spectacular, beginning with the Black Caviar, the Great Horse Race Day on Saturday. The green light from the Victorian Government will also allow for greater flexibility of movement on course within two separate zones, ensuring the safety of racegoers whilst providing a more familiar race-day experience.

Vale John Page

Gold Coast trainer John Page passed away peacefully on Monday at the age of 89. The former Sydney-based trainer moved to the Gold Coast in 1997, where he has lived up until his death. Page's greatest triumph on the racetrack came when he trained the Queensland Derby winner Royal Sovereign (Chatsworth) in 1964. He is survived by his wife Helen, who is also a trainer at Aquis Park on the Gold Coast.

NEW ZEALAND

Richardson happy to be underdog

Tiptronic (O'Reilly) has taken the underdog tag into the last two editions of the Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), and he will once again carry that label in the feature race at Te Rapa on Saturday. The Graham Richardson and Rogan Norvall-trained gelding defied his odds when runner-up in the 2019 edition of the race, and again when coming out last year and going one better. "He is always the underdog for some weird reason, but he is a very genuine horse and he has had a second and a first in the race," Richardson said. The seven-year-old has pleased his connections leading into Saturday and Richardson was particularly happy with his last start win in the Karaka Cup (2200m) on Karaka Million night. "It gives them confidence when they win, or go well, and it has certainly done that for him," he said. Although pleased with the gelding, Richardson said he will have his work cut out this weekend when taking on reigning New Zealand Horse of the Year Melody Belle (Commands). "He has beaten some very good horses over the years, but he has got Melody Belle to compete against and she will be very hard to beat, as she usually is," Richardson said.

Deerfield added to Herbie Dyke field

Group 1 performer Deerfield (Falkirk) was among the late nominations for Saturday's Herbie Dyke Stakes with his trainer Chrissy Bambry confident the hardy gelding will give a good account in the $400,000 weight-for-age feature. The seven-year-old steps up to 2000 metres for the first time in his career, but Bambry took great heart from Deerfield's closing third in the Thorndon Mile (Gr 1, 1600m). Michael McNab will again ride the seven-year-old, who was slow to begin last start and came from an unfamiliar position to finish off strongly. "I was a bit worried when he missed the kick and there were a few expletives, but Michael McNab is very good at coming up with Plan B straight away and he did that," Bambry said. "Michael didn't panic and the horse showed he had a really good sprint at the end which was probably a result of being slow away. We probably did a lot of the hard work and were still closing on the line. He was strong to the finish and Michael thinks on that run he can get the 2000 metres. While he is well I think we have to have a crack."

Smart juveniles line-up for Richards

Jamie Richards has been the dominant force with his juveniles this season and has another pair of smart youngsters stepping out in the Stable Books 2YO (1100m) at Matamata today. Sword Of State (Snitzel) resumes after finishing third to stablemate Imperatriz (I Am Invincible) in the Eclipse Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) on New Year's Day with Opie Bosson to ride, while Danielle Johnson will partner Craving (Tivaci), who finished fourth on debut at New Plymouth in late December. "Sword Of State came through the Eclipse Stakes in good shape. We gave him a freshen-up and he's had an exhibition gallop since. He's done some nice work and goes into the race in good shape," Richards said. "Craving has gone the right way after her fourth on debut at New Plymouth, and we've given her a bit of time since to continue strengthening." Both Sword Of State and Craving are on trial for assignments at Matamata in a few weeks, with the former to target the Waikato Stud Slipper (Gr 3, 1200m) on February 27 and the latter being aimed at the Matamata Breeders' Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) the same day.

JPN: Cox Plate winner has Maurice colt

The 2019 Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) heroine Lys Gracieux (Heart's Cry) foaled a colt by former Arrowfield Stud shuttler Maurice (Screen Hero) at Northern Farm on Sunday. It is the first foal for Lys Gracieux who ended her 22-race career with a flourish with her Cox Plate victory sandwiched between two Grade 1 victories at home, including a five-length romp in Arima Kinen (Gr 1, 2500m) which earned her Horse of the Year honours in 2019.

HK: Golden Sixty on course for second leg of Triple Crown

A leisurely barrier trial has filled jockey Vincent Ho with confidence that Golden Sixty (Medaglia D'Oro) remains on target to extend his winning sequence to 13 with a triumph in the Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) at Sha Tin on February 21. Placed under no pressure, Golden Sixty finished seventh in an eight-runner trial over 1200 metres on the dirt at Sha Tin, crossing the line eight lengths behind Ka Ying Star (Cityscape), who clocked 1m 09.58s for the trip. "He felt really good, I'm happy with him," Ho said. "I just let him stretch out with the faster pace, just kept him happy." Ho, who has been aboard Golden Sixty in all of his 15 wins (from 16 starts), said the star gelding, who is bearing down on Silent Witness' (El Moxie) record of 17 successive Hong Kong victories, has been more relaxed this preparation. "Pretty similar (preparation), but he has been more relaxed work-wise, which has been good," Ho said. "He feels really well, looks really well and, as usual, he can be a bit grumpy in the box but out here, he's really curious and looks around."

SGP: Former Kiwi impresses in trial

Leslie Khoo was a keen watcher at yesterday's Singapore Turf Club barrier trials, especially in the second heat where he had a new filly on show for the first time, Super Generous (Showcasing). Ridden by Zyrul Nor Azman, the three-year-old displayed early toe to settle among the first three on a wide path, before striding on nicely for second place. Khoo owns the filly, who was formerly known as Amor Fati when she was then trained in New Zealand by Clint Isdale to finish a sixth in the 2020 running of the Karaka Million (RL, 1200m). "Super Generous raced in New Zealand and ran sixth in the Karaka Million. Today was her first trial, and she showed plenty of gate speed," said Khoo. "I'll find a race for her after the Chinese New Year. I own her for now, and I hope she lives up to her New Zealand form."

Fierce Impact to stand at Leneva Park Seymour

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Three-time Group 1-winning miler Fierce Impact (Deep Impact) will stand at stud in Victoria next season, with the acquisition of the Sydney-trained import confirming Leneva Park's expansion into the stallion business in 2021.

A Sydney autumn finale has been mapped out for the Matthew Smith-trained rising eight-year-old entire culminating in a tilt at the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick on April 10.

Late last year, Leneva Park announced it would take over the Seymour property previously leased by Aquis Farm and stand incumbent stallions Lean Mean Machine (Zoustar) and Royal Meeting (Invincible Spirit), complementing the spelling and pre-training operation at Longwood in North East Victoria.

At the time, in an interview with ANZ Bloodstock News, Leneva Park bloodstock adviser Mick Sharkie flagged the likely recruitment of the Japanese-bred Fierce Impact to help boost the farm's stallion stocks ahead of its launch later this year.

"We are thrilled that the ownership group, trainer Matt Smith and Mark Pilkington have put their faith in Leneva Park to carry Fierce Impact forward as a stallion and we are so excited to join them this autumn as we chase more Group 1 success together," Sharkie said.

By Japan's late champion sire Deep Impact (Sunday Silence), Fierce Impact is a brother to Grade 1 winner Keiai Nautique and is a son of dual Grade 3-winning mare Keiai Gerbera (Smarty Jones).

Fierce Impact

Bought by Tweenhills Stud principal David Redvers for ¥66,000,000 at the JRHA JRA Select Yearling and Foal Sale, he was a two-year-old winner in the UK before being resold for $120,000gns at the Tattersalls Autumn Horses-in-Training Sale to Smith.

Leneva Park has bought a significant share in Fierce Impact and they will retain the support of Seymour Bloodstock as well as co-owners Frank and Christine Cook.

Limited shares are being offered to breeders by the ownership group.

"Given his pedigree, there's no reason why Fierce Impact won't produce high class two-year-old winners as well as horses capable of winning a Caulfield Guineas, Doncaster or a Cox Plate," Sharkie said.

"We've already had calls from breeders keen to invest in his future, the added bonus of racing the horse in major Group 1 races this autumn is really appealing."

Smith is expected to start Fierce Impact first-up in the George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) at Rosehill on March 20.

"He is such a tough, hardy horse. He's a very special individual and has been perfectly sound right through his career, he just keeps getting better," Smith said.

"He is a Group 1-class horse from 1400 to 2000 metres with a great turn of foot and I think he's a horse that breeders will really get behind."

"We've taken our time with him after the Cox Plate but he's going super, he's going as well as ever. It's been an amazing journey so far and I'm sure he's got more to give before he retires to Leneva Park."

FRIDAY

MAIDEN OF THE WEEK: SHINING A LIGHT ON RACING'S FUTURE STARS

Kavanagh targets tried and tested in Classic spending spree

BY JO MCKINNON | ANZ_NEWS

It's been a harrowing six years since Victorian trainer Mark Kavanagh was caught up in the cobalt saga that rocked Victorian racing. After long and costly legal proceedings, Kavanagh was eventually cleared of any wrongdoing. Since then, he's been quietly resurrecting his Flemington stable that was left deserted by owners and clients at the height of the controversy.

"I've got a lot of my old clients that have come back and that's been good. They have had a taste of being elsewhere and they are much more comfortable with me," said Kavanagh. He prefers to remain silent about that dark chapter of his personal and professional life, but at this week's Inglis Classic Yearling Sale his actions did plenty of talking.

The Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) and Cox Plate- (Gr 1, 2040m) winning trainer spent $1.43 Million at Inglis' Riverside sales complex and walked away with 13 horses, the largest haul of any buyer at the sale.

It was a clear signal of intent that he's determined to get back into the major race winners' circle.

"It's a good value sale and I have always had luck from here with the likes of Whobegotyou and Shocking.

"Let's face it, the Melbourne Cup winner Vow And Declare came out of here so they are here, you just have to scratch around. You have to look at them as three-year-olds instead of yearlings in the sale ring.

"I target this sale because I can buy horses that take a bit of time and that are bred to stay and get a bit of distance. I take them home to my farm and leave them alone for a while and they come good. The farm is a big part of it. It's an old established farm," said Kavanagh.

His property, 'City View', at Gisborne South, is the combination of two famous breeding and racing operations, Trevor and Monica Gluck's Tremon Stud and former VRC Committeeman Doug Reid's St Johns Lane property.

Kavanagh is passionate about the set up, which enables him to take his time bringing on young stock from the yearling sales.

"It's not the horse you get, it's actually what you do with it when you get it home. So, if you can buy some sort of staying horses here that people overlook because they are going to take so much time, they are always good value buying."

Kavanagh has downsized his operation from 140 horses in work during the heady days of winning a Melbourne Cup with Shocking and Maldivian's (Zabeel) Cox Plate, to 40 based at Flemington. Although operating on a smaller scale, he says his training style remains the same.

"I don't need to change. I have won all the big races and with all these sorts of horses. It's a proven formula that we have bought later maturing horses and left them alone," he said.

Bargain buy Zakynthos the gift that keeps on giving

BY JO MCKINNON | ANZ_NEWS

One of the most inspiring stories of the 2021 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale came on the final day when respected New England horse woman Sam Croft topped the session with a Zoustar (Northern Meteor) filly she bred from a mare she originally picked up online as a December yearling for just $500.

"They wanted $10,000 for her but when we rang around about her a few people told us she had an accident as a foal and had a kinked neck and she couldn't see properly because her eyes were sticking out.

"She was a complete right off, so we offered $500. We got her home and got her teeth done and a chiropractor to fix her up," said Croft.

The following May, Croft and her husband Justin Carke sent the filly to the Scone Inglis Select Yearling Sale and made a very tidy profit selling her for $48,000.

After a less than illustrious race career as Empress Zakynthos (Holy Roman Emperor), she was back on the market again, this time as a mare in foal to Zebedee (Invincible Spirit). They decided to buy her back, this time paying $26,000.

The resultant foal, in which Croft has a share, is now racing on the provincial NSW circuit as Navagio Beach and so far been the winner of one race at Casino.

Fast forward to yesterday and Empress Zakynthos delivered her biggest gift yet, a $450,000 filly and huge financial windfall for Clarke and Croft Bloodstock.

"We have started from nothing and slowly developed the farm and you save for the service fees and do it from there. Today it finally happened and we got a very good result," she said.

Sam Croft and Justin Clarke with their Zoustar filly

Croft still vividly remembers when they first started their Uralla-based racing and breeding operation on what was then just a rundown old sheep property.

"We had low barbed wire fences and we slowly built it up. When the bloodstock agents like Jonathan D'Arcy and Tony Williams first came out they wouldn't have known what to think."

Funnily enough, Tony "Tubba" Williams was one of the first to venture over and congratulate Croft back at the barn after the hammer fell on her top selling filly yesterday.

Whilst it was the outcome she has worked so hard for during the past 18 years, Croft will now take a step back from selling yearlings and focus on pre-training her own racing stock.

She says it's too difficult to compete against the major studs.

"You do this for the love of it. It was never about the money but it's getting harder to get to the good stallions. I think the whole industry is pushing to mega stables and studs.

"I have to make sure it's financially viable at a hobby level."

Croft plans to take her second holiday in ten years at some stage this year and maybe, just maybe, she might return to the fold and keep flying the flag for small-scale breeders.

"I think if we don't have the little people, what are the inspiring stories that bring in the next generation?" she said.

Meantime, the story of Empress Zakynthos will continue. Now a 12-year-old mare, she's currently in foal to Pierata (Pierro).

When 3 of the staff @FernriggFarm paid $8k for a Nicconi weanling on #InglisDigital last year to pinhook as a yearling, not in their wildest dreams did they expect a $200k payday. But that's exactly what they received today at #InglisClassic! Video coming out soon. Huge congrats! Pictured Below >>

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Travel Datuk, 7-2 U W Brother, 5 Joyful Win, Lotus Favorites, 12 Flaming Passion, 14 Tom's Style, 16 Lucky One, Nextmodel, 25 bar.

VERDICT Travel Datuk would not be winning out of turn but he keeps on finding something too good, while U W Brother has a similar profile and could again run well without coming home in front. Joyful Win would be interesting if bouncing back, but despite a wide draw this could go to newcomer LOTUS FAVORITES, whose most recent trial was encouraging. Zac Purton is an interesting booking.

VERDICT Not an easy race to call but with a confidence-boosting win last time, BABY STORM may be capable of finding enough to defy a 5lb rise. Indigenous Star becomes more interesting again now dropped in grade and with the inside draw. He is feared, while President Star and Virtus Star are others to consider.

BETTING FORECAST: 13-8 Owners' Star, 3 Mister Monte, 9-2 Smart Cousin, 12 Perfect To Play, 14 Cheerful Star, Fearless Fire, 16 Light My Day, 25 Full Power, Hang's Decision, Legion Of Merit, 33 Dionysus Collin, Divine Unicorn.

VERDICT Smart Cousin couldn't back up his win in this grade last time but is not one to write off, while Mister Monte looks a solid each-way option from a handy draw. However, for the win we suggest OWNERS' STAR, who has the inside draw, C&D winning form and is also on a very competitive mark.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Parterre, Royal Bomb, 4 Sunny Star, 11-2 Wealthy Delight, 9 Harmony Spirit, 16 Heavenly Thought, Murray's Partners, 25 Blazing Beat.

VERDICT This looks competitive. Parterre has a lengthy layoff to overcome but his recent trial run was good, he stays at least this far and it would be no surprise to see him continue his good South African form on his Hong Kong debut. However, preference is for ROYAL BOMB, who is improving and looks capable of winning over this trip. Neither Sunny Star nor Wealthy Delight is ruled out.

VERDICT Zac Purton and Jolly Good Heart were not overhauled until late when trying to make all last time and should go close once more. However the better-drawn SPRINT FORWARD, who posted a career-best last time, may have been found the right opportunity to win again. Happily Friends should be thereabouts, while Daily Beauty can again be competitive.

VERDICT Recent evidence strongly suggests Glorious Lover will pose a potent threat but CALIFORNIA LEGEND won very stylishly in lower-grade company over C&D two weeks ago, and we don't need to delve too deeply into the archives to find form that suggests he can cope with today's 8lb higher mark. Villa Fionn and Gallant Crown should also feature.

BETTING FORECAST: 2 Stock Legend, 4 Whiskey Neat, 6 Romantic Trove, 7 Silver Warrior, 8 Inno Legend, Telecom Rocket, 16 California Levee, 20 Spontaneous, 25 Apex Top, Cheeky Prawn, 50 Athena, 66 Universal Crown.

VERDICT This can go to ROMANTIC TROVE, who deserves significant credit for finishing fourth from the outside stall over C&D a fortnight ago and remains lightly raced. Hat-trick seeker Stock Legend gained an emphatic C&D win last month and is respected, but he has a 9lb higher mark and a much tougher draw to contend with today. Silver Warrior has plenty of scope to build upon his promising debut and is next on the list.

VERDICT Flying Genius is in good form and ought to give it a good shot from the inside stall but clear preference is for KURPANY, who won comfortably over C&D last month and did remarkably well to finish fourth here two weeks ago, having lost significant ground at the start. Saul's Special is also likely to be on the premises.

BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 Equalette Blitz, 4 Ka Ying Master, 6 Tornado Twist, 8 Wind N Grass, 10 Beauty Kobe, Harmony N Home, Loving A Boom, Sparkling Dragon, 20 Green Reign, 33 Excellent Chariot, Water Diviner, 100 Circuit Seven.

VERDICT The most interesting runner is Joao Moreira's mount EQUALETTA BLITZ, who is lightly raced in Hong Kong and was a creditable fourth over C&D last month, having raced prominently from the outside stall. Tornado Twist chased home a very good prospect at Sha Tin a month ago and is next on the list, ahead of Ka Ying Master.
