Northern hemisphere gamble pays off with Russian Camelot

O'Brien's European-bred colt takes out South Australian Derby in brilliant fashion

LATEST NEWS FROM THE WEEKEND'S RACING

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

The genesis of the startling South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) win by Russian Camelot (Camelot) yesterday came more than two years ago when connections of the northern hemisphere-bred three-year-old were trumped by another syndicate who were also attempting to buy promising German horse Schabau (Pastorius).

The disappointment of being beaten to the punch by the fellow Australian partnership for Schabau, who incidentally is undefeated after three starts at Flemington last year, led to Victorian trainer Danny O'Brien and UK agent Jeremy Brummitt embarking on an ambitious plan to source European yearlings to race Down Under.

With the backing of principal owner John Wheeler, O'Brien's and Brummitt's raid on European yearlings has paid off almost immediately with Russian Camelot, a lightly-raced colt, now one of the most promising middle-distance horses in the country.

Born on March 29, 2017, and giving away about six months in age to his Derby rivals, Russian Camelot also became the first northern hemisphere-bred three-year-old to win a Classic in Australia.

"What he has done is extraordinary and it's a bit naive to think that you're going to buy an extraordinary horse every year. The age gap is significant and it is naive to think that you could overcome it with every yearling you send down there," Brummitt told ANZ Bloodstock News last night.

"I think it's an unusual circumstance and it's been very cleverly handled in that Danny didn't really test that maturity until close to the end of his three-year-old season.

"He's going to kick over as a four-year-old in a couple of months and he's left it as late as possible to try and get him up in distance.

"It's not that punishing to go for a mile and half if you're in second gear for a mile and a quarter."

Brummitt bought Russian Camelot from Ireland's Camas Park Stud for 120,000gns (approximately AUD$240,000) from Book 1 of the 2018 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale on behalf of O'Brien's clients who harboured the desire to bring him to Australia unraced.

The agent takes up the Russian Camelot tale from there.

"Danny had asked me to go and find him a (tried) horse and for a year I was looking and finally I found Schabau, but then we were outbid on him. When we were outbid on Schabau, I convinced Danny to buy some 'undamaged goods' and so we bought two that year and we bought three last year. I now hope that we might be at the sales this year, too."

The down-to-earth Brummitt was not laying claim to being a genius by any means when asked about how he identified Russian Camelot, who was Lot 441 at the October sale.

"I try very hard to avoid the things that agents normally trot out about a good horse, but I thought he was very athletic, very balanced and he clearly had a lot of scope to improve and he came off a farm (run by) one of the best horsemen in Ireland," he said.

Apart from the initial selection process, one key element Brummitt believes has been crucial in the success of Russian Camelot is the fact that he was broken-in in Australia.

"I think that is an interesting point. I thought it might make more sense to break them in here (in the UK) and use their residual fitness from the sales, but Danny was keen to get them down there as soon as possible and do the whole process there and it's obviously worked," he said.

"He's got three two-year-olds (from Europe) and they are all where you would want them to be at this stage.

"They could be as slow as a tugboat or another Russian Camelot, but the process has worked very well in terms of acclimatisation and maturation of those horses, so I don't think we'll be changing the formula."

The current two-year-olds in Victoria under O'Brien's care are by Australia (Galileo), Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) and another Camelot (Montjeu).

Brummitt said: "I am very lucky to work with such a supportive sponsor as Danny O'Brien and John Wheeler. I appreciate working with two people who let me get on with the job."

The agent also predicted that the best may be ahead for Russian Camelot and did not rule out the colt becoming an elite contender over shorter distances.

"I have no doubt that when he matures that he will be quick enough at a mile against the opposition in Australia," he said.

"Horses don't get quicker with age; they get stronger and more mature. Mentally, he's too immature for them to chase him into the bridle and ask him to run as fast as he can, but once he's got more time under his belt and he's a more seasoned racer, I think Danny will be able to pull him back to shorter distances and have him travel a bit closer in the run.

"I am not suggesting there's anything inherently more valuable about that, but a lot of people think they can only step up in distance as they get older. You have to train the mind as well as the body and if you've got the mind right they can often step back."

'Derby win very satisfying'

Russian Camelot ($2.90 favourite) defeated Dalasan (Dalakhani) ($3.80) by one and three-quarter lengths with Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Warning (Declaration Of War) another length away in third.

"Obviously we're really excited. He's a horse that we've had a huge opinion of," O'Brien said.

"We've had him since he was a yearling and this was a race that we've been aiming him at for the better part of 12 months. He's turned up and delivered.

"It's very satisfying. It's never been done before - a northern hemisphere horse has never won a Derby in Australia. I don't think one has ever run?

"We were very confident going into today that there were no excuses. He'd had everything we needed to do to get him right today."

Russian Camelot firmed dramatically in betting for this year's Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) after the eye-catching performance, but O'Brien was reluctant to commit to the inexperienced colt following the same path as his older stablemate Vow And Declare (Declaration Of War) who was victorious on the first Tuesday in November last year.

“He's obviously been a very exciting horse, not just for us but the public as well from the time he had his first start - Danny O'Brien”

"He's obviously been a very exciting horse, not just for us but the public as well from the time he had his first start," he said.

"We'll see about the Cup. He's still a young horse. We'll enjoy today. The owners are a great group of people who have resisted some big offers for the horse and I'm sure they're all thrilled as we are that he's won a Derby.

"And we'll savour that and certainly we'd be looking forward to the spring."

Russian Camelot was scratched at the barriers in a Melbourne city race, forcing O'Brien to take the colt to Pakenham where he scored a comprehensive seven-length win before he again missed a key lead-up race due to a minor throat infection and poor blood count.

Jockey John Allen undertook two weeks of isolation in Adelaide to ensure he could ride Russian Camelot after regular jockey Damien Oliver declined the offer due to the coronavirus restrictions.

"When I got offered this ride it became a bigger carrot to head to Adelaide," Allen said.

"Danny filled me with confidence. He said ride this horse like the best horse. He was confident if he was close enough on the corner that he would have a better turn of foot.

"It proved that way. He was just the superior horse. Obviously he's an exceptional horse. A lot has been made about his preparation but I think the bigger factor is he's still six months younger than all these horses.

"If he can beat them now and he's only just turned three, imagine what he can do in six months or a year's time."

Dalasan's jockey, Jason Holder, said the winner was just too good for the Leon Macdonald and Andrew Gluyas-trained colt.

"We had a nice run in transit and presented to win, but the other horse was too good," Holder told Racing.com.

Damien Thornton, who was attempting to ride his second Group 1 winner in as many weeks after Toffee Tongue (Tavistock) landed the Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m), said third-placed Warning was "honest".

"I would have liked to get rolling earlier, but the best horse won," the Victorian jockey said.

Russian Camelot (3 c Camelot - Lady Babooshka by Cape Cross) has raced five times for three wins and won $324,225 in prize-money.

By Camelot, who shuttled to Coolmore Australia in 2014 for one season, he is one of two winners, the other being No Trouble (No Nay Never), for the unraced mare Lady Babooshka. In turn, she is a three-quarter sister to four-time stakes winner Alkaadhem (Green Desert) and a half-sister to the stakes-placed Raising Sand (Oasis Dream).

Also featured in the pedigree is Royal Ascot Group 2 winner and US Grade 2 winner Stagecraft (Sadler's Wells) and European stakes winners Mullins Bay (Machiavellian) and Hyabella (Shirley Heights).

Lady Babooshka also has an unraced two-year-old sister to Russian Camelot, who is in training at Lambourn in the UK with Sylvester Kirk, a filly foal by Zoffany (Dansili) and she is back in foal to Camelot.

Gear change switches on Ringbolt in Sires

A crucial gear change and a step up in distance for Ringbolt (Dream Ahead) has provided senior trainer Tony McEvoy with his fourth SA Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) in the past eight years after the lightly-raced gelding caused an upset.

McEvoy, who is now in partnership with son Calvin, trained the first two over the line in the $120,000 Group 3 race but it was Ringbolt ($26) who was able to run down his stablemate and leader, Violinist (Fastnet Rock).

Ringbolt, who ran fourth in a 1050-metre two-year-old maiden at Balaklava on April 29 behind Riched (Rich Enuff), had blinkers fitted for the Sires and he also appreciated the extra 350 metres. Continued on page 6>>

Ridden by John Allen, Ringbolt defeated Violinist ($11) by one and a quarter lengths with Crown Mint (Hallowed Crown) ($6.50) another half a length away third. The $2.35 favourite Ecumenical (Zebedee) finished fifth.

Calvin McEvoy said Ringbolt had made significant improvement since his first start.

"He was a bit of a drunken sailor at Balaklava and we elected to go with the blinkers," he said.

"We only really gave him one bit of work in them and he just pinged out of the gates today and was always on the bridle for Johnny. He was very strong.

"He's got a lot of upside. He's just going to get better and better when he gets a little bit older and probably out to a mile."

“He looked like a horse that was really going to improve from the run and so it proved - John Allen”

Allen, who made the call to base himself in Adelaide for the carnival, was taken by the manner of Ringbolt's win.

"He looked like a horse that was really going to improve from the run and so it proved," Allen said.

"He was a different horse today. Blinkers on. He was a lot sharper and knew his job a bit better."

Bred by Seymour Bloodstock's Darren Thomas and passed in with a reserve of $40,000 at the 2019 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Ringbolt (2 g Dream Ahead - Maxi Dress by Shamardal) has earned $77,565 prize-money from his two runs to date.

He is one of three winners for European mare Maxi Dress, who was bought by agent Johnny McKeever at the 2013 Tattersalls July Sale for 80,000gns, and is from the same family as fellow imported horse Foreteller (Dansili), who won three times at Group 1 level in Australia for Chris Waller earlier this decade.

Maxi Dress, who was purchased by Fig Tree Pastoral for just $5,000 in the March (Late) Inglis Digital Sale, has a weanling brother to Ringbolt. She did not get in foal to Lean Mean Machine (Zoustar) last year.

MICHAEL MCINALLY

Tambo's Mate (Mossman) was put to the test in the BRC Sprint (Gr 3, 1200m) at Doomben yesterday, with trainer Stuart Kendrick seeking to ascertain whether the gelding was worthy of a shot at next month's Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m).

Kendrick had been tossing up whether to start Tambo's Mate yesterday or wait for the Chief De Beers Handicap (Listed, 1000m) at the Sunshine Coast next Friday, but the Caloundra-based trainer elected to run over 1200 metres, with the decision duly vindicated.

"We figured if he couldn't run well on Saturday he wouldn't be any chance in the Stradbroke," Kendrick said.

"But he is in the Stradbroke field now and we know he can handle Eagle Farm.

"The Stradbroke will be tougher but Tambo's Mate is tough so we can have some fun."

Tambo's Mate ($12), who was ridden by Matthew McGillivray, defeated Deep Image (Testa Rossa) ($14) by a short head.

The Tony Gollan-trained pair Outback Barbie (Spirit Of Boom) ($3.80 equal favourite) and Vega One (Lope De Vega) ($6) ran third and fourth respectively in a bunched finish.

The well-backed equal favourite Kementari (Lonhro) ($3.80) was fifth, beaten a length a quarter, after being slowly away.

Kendrick said he would now decide on a Stradbroke lead-up race for Tambo's Mate but the Victory Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Eagle Farm on May 23 was the most likely target for the in-form sprinter, whose first stakes win came last November when he again beat home Vega One and Deep Image in the Tattersalls' Recognition Stakes (Listed, 1350m) at Doomben.

A homebred for Townsville-based bookmaker Dalan Tambllyn, Tambo's Mate (4 g Mossman - Passagemaker by Canny Lad) has defied early setbacks. He was to be offered for auction at the 2017 Magic Millions Gold Coast March Yearling Sale, but he had to be withdrawn after the discovery that he had a fractured sesamoid. From 16 starts, he has won eight races with four placings for earnings of $455,950 in prize-money.

Matthew McGillivray MICHAEL MCINALLY

A half-brother to two other winners, Tambo's Mate is one of five named foals for the twice-winning Passagemaker, herself a daughter of Georgia Belle (Clear Choice) who was successful at Listed level in Sydney.

Tambo's Mate has an unraced two-year-old half-brother named Gunnerside (Choisir) who Tambllyn sold to the Newgate Bloodstock-China Horse Club partnership for $125,000 at last year's Inglis Classic Yearling Sale.

Passagemaker also has a weanling filly by Churchill (Galileo) and is in foal to Epaulette (Commands).

Doomben Guineas winner Vanna Girl continues to bloom

Toby and Trent Edmonds will look to extend the campaign of yesterday's Doomben Guineas (Listed, 1615m) winner Vanna Girl (Husson) and chase further "black-type" success despite the three-year-old effectively still being in her first racing campaign.

The Gold Coast father-and-son training partners have earmarked The Roses (Gr 2, 1800m) next month for Vanna Girl ($2.70 equal favourite), who ran down Supergiant (Red Giant) ($21) to score by a neck in a thrilling battle over the final 200 metres. Ballistic Boy (Smart Missile) was a length away in third.

"She can head to the The Roses on June 13 which should be perfect for her. We will have to find another lead-up which we can decide on shortly," Toby Edmonds said.

Vanna Girl

"Then we might talk about the spring. Don't forget she has been doing this on a preparation where we have been forced to give her a week off and bring her back and give her another week off, etc.

"She only cost $40,000 and that takes her to about $200,000 in earnings."

Jockey Matthew McGillivray, who rode Vanna Girl to victory at the Gold Coast on April 17, elected to undertake two weeks of quarantine and move zones so he could maintain his association with the Listed winner.

"She's such a versatile filly, with gate one today we were able to ride her right up on speed Matty gave her the trip we wanted, but under different circumstances you could ride her back and run on as well," Edmonds said.

"She's still going great at home and as we saw today racing as good as ever. At this stage we'll keep her in until she tells us she needs a break."

Purchased at the 2018 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale by Edmonds, Vanna Girl (3 f Husson - Logan's Choice by Redoute's Choice) recorded her fifth victory in the Doomben Guineas, her first at stakes level, from just eight starts. She has now earned $203,100 prize-money.

A half-sister to her stakes-placed former stablemate Plucky Girl (Pluck), Vanna Girl is one of five winners from as many foals to race for three-time winner Logan's Choice, who in turn is out of a half-sister to star horse Naturalism (Palace Music) in De Souba (Dehere).

Logan's Choice, who was a $250,000 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale purchase in 2007, has a yearling filly and a weanling colt by Vinery Stud sire Star Turn (Star Witness).

Widden buys Sword Of Light for $900,000

Sword Of Light

SPORTPIX

Widden Stud yesterday bought Group 2 winner Sword Of Light (New Approach) for $900,000 after the mare was passed in for $1 million at Friday's Inglis Chairman's Sale. Sword Of Light, who comes from one of owner-breeder David Moodie's prized families, was offered by his Heskett Bloodstock on Friday in foal to Fastnet Rock (Danehill). Also sold yesterday after being passed in was Think Bleue (So You Think) for $340,000 to Newgate Bloodstock and All Of Me (Pierro) for $260,000 to Yu Long Investments. The post-sales action saw Brett and Rachael Howard's Glenesk Thoroughbreds move into pole position as the leading vendor of the Chairman's Sale; all 11 of their lots were sold with an aggregate of $3.2 million.

Australian Broodmare Sale countdown today

The Inglis Digital platform will face its biggest test today when the Australian Broodmare Sale is conducted online. Bidding began on Friday for the sale, with 343 lots on offer today. Mares in foal to the likes of top-class proven sires such as Pierro, Zoustar, Dundee, So You Think, Brazen Beau, More Than Ready, Written Tycoon, Lonhro, Street Boss, Rubick and Deep Field headline a strong catalogue. The final countdown will begin at 10am, with each lot to sell sequentially in order.

Four for Camelot

Camelot (Montjeu) scored his fourth individual Group 1 winner overall and his first in Australia after Russian Camelot (3 c ex Lady Babooshka by Cape Cross) took the South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) at Morphettville yesterday. Russian Camelot joined Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Latrobe, Belmont Oaks (Gr 1, 10f) victor Athena and Criterium de Saint-Cloud (Gr 1, 2000m) conqueror Wonderment as a scorer at the highest level for Camelot, winner of the 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m), English Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) and Irish Derby in 2012. Camelot stood one season in Australia in 2014, but has not shuttled since. He stands at Coolmore Stud in Ireland at a fee of €40,000 (AUD$67,000).

101 for Snitzel

Only a couple of weeks after Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) brought up his 100th individual stakes winner, he made it 101 yesterday when Snitz (5 g ex Tickle My by Perugino) won the Takeover Target Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Randwick yesterday. Snitz continued a strong run of form, defeating Greyworm (Master Of Design) by a half-length with Redouble (Redoute's Choice) a nose away in third. Sent to the 2016 Inglis Vobis Gold Yearling Sale by Basinghall Farm, Snitz was purchased for $75,000. His dam, Group 2 winner Tickle My (Perugino), was retired by breeder Ken Breese in November after producing a colt by Alpine Eagle (High Chaparral). Snitzel will stand for $165,000 (inc GST) at Arrowfield Stud in 2020.

Snitz continues strong recent form

Trainer Matt Dunn is weighing up whether to push towards the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) with Snitz after he continued his strong recent run with a win in yesterday's Takeover Target Stakes. Entries for the Stradbroke were taken during the week with Snitz not among the first nominations. "I didn't put him in the Stradbroke because I didn't think he was good enough for it and didn't want it as an option to tempt me," Dunn said. "I was actually thinking he is more a Ramornie horse. That is still an option depending on if they smash him (in the handicaps) for that win. I never thought he could go to this level, so he is making it tough for me. He has won a bit of money now, so paying the late entry for the Stradbroke is an option for the owners, but you would want to see Brisbane open up a bit if we were to go up there."

Nine for Ocean Park

Another Dollar (5 m ex Make A Wish by Pins) became Ocean Park's (Thorn Park) ninth individual stakes winner yesterday when she took the Gosford Gold Cup (Listed, 2000m) at Randwick. Another Dollar sprinted strongly to defeat long-time leader, German import Ilwendo (Lando), by a head with a length and three quarters back to Best Of Days (Azamour) in third. Purchased by trainer Chris Waller from the 2016 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale out of Waikato Stud's draft for $190,000, Another Dollar had been Group 1-placed but she had not broken through in stakes company before yesterday. Waikato Stud's Ocean Park will stand for NZ$20,000 (plus GST) in 2020.

Another Dollar bound for Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale

After being withdrawn from last year's Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale, Another Dollar will head through the sales ring this year with her value increased by her first black-type win in yesterday's Gosford Gold Cup. "She is in the mares' sale coming up at the Magic Millions soon so she might be someone else's after that but her price tag might be a bit better for the owners," Waller said. "She has been a pretty handy horse. She ran second in a Queensland Oaks, then she just struggled on wet tracks but she's finding some form. With the sale being a bit later this year she will probably have another run or two providing the tracks stay good."

16 for Husson

Husson (Hussonet) yesterday registered his 16th individual stakes winner when Vanna Girl (3 f ex Logan's Choice by Redoute's Choice) took the Doomben Guineas (Listed, 1615m). Husson will stand at Aquis' Queensland farm at Canungra this season at a fee of $5,500 (inc GST)

28 for Dream Ahead

Dream Ahead

AQUIS

Dream Ahead (Diktat) produced his 28th individual stakes winner, his seventh in Australia, when Ringbolt (2 g ex Maxi Dress by Shamardal) caused an upset in the SA Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m). Dream Ahead served seven seasons in Australia at Emirates Park Stud and Aquis Farm, but did not return from Haras de Grandcamp in France last year. He stood at €12,000 ($20,000) this season.

157 for Fastnet Rock

Fastnet Rock (Daneshill) recorded an incredible 157th individual stakes winner yesterday when Game Keeper (3 g ex My Tusker by Volksraad)

Game Keeper

took the Adelaide Guineas (Listed, 1600m) at Morphettville yesterday. Game Keeper came from second last to win comfortably, defeating Hypercane (Toronado) by three lengths with Quantum Mechanic (Deep Field) a long neck away in third. Purchased by McEvoy Mitchell Racing from the 2018 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale for $175,000, Game Keeper has started to live up to his potential this preparation with three wins on the trot. Fastnet Rock will stand for $165,000 (inc GST) at Coolmore Stud this year.

Adelaide Guineas goes to Game Keeper

Jockey John Allen has now won the last three Adelaide Guineas after his success on Game Keeper yesterday, adding to his victories aboard Peaceful State (Animal Kingdom) and So We Are (So You Think) the last two years. "It definitely has been good to me and I got on the right horse again this year," Allen said. "It was a good win. He's obviously turned the corner. His last couple of runs have been good wins and just watching the replays in his last win he was really strong through the line. He travelled well in the run but when I pulled him out he really did pick up for me and accelerate." Co-trainer Tony McEvoy indicated that the three-year-old could tackle the older horses in Saturday's R A Lee Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m).

Three straight for Masked Crusader

Masked Crusader (Toronado) may back up in next week's Inglis Guineas (RL, 1400m) at Rosehill after stamping himself as one of Australia's most promising three-year-olds with an effortless win yesterday. Ridden by Tommy Berry, Masked Crusader strode out on the speed, increasing his margin to three lengths at the line. "He's a lovely horse. Tommy really probably doesn't know how good he is," co-trainer Michael Hawkes said. "I don't know where the top or the bottom is with this bloke yet and I think Tommy is probably going to have the same opinion. But you can only win and he's won well. He is probably a lot better than winter grade. We will see how he pulls up and he might back up in the Guineas yet."

'Sliding doors moment' for Crusader

Prolific breeder Rick Jamieson, who bred Masked Crusader (Toronado) under his Gilgai Farm banner and who retains a share in the three-year-old, revealed on Twitter yesterday just how close the promising gelding came to being involved in a fatal accident last night. Masked Crusader won at Bendigo last month, but Jamieson said that he was also entered at Canterbury and - if he was to run in Sydney - he would have been transported north on the Monday night before. That horse truck crashed near Euroa, killing Atotori (Haradasun), dam of Group 2 winner Zoutori (Zoustar), as well as Shadwell fillies Aladaala (Redoute's Choice), Hafaawa (Redoute's Choice) and Maktabba (Per Incanto).

'Peltzer a spring horse'

Trainer Gerald Ryan believes that, unlike his sire, Peltzer (So You Think) is set to find his best as a sprinter-miler after his win over 1200 metres at Randwick yesterday. Purchased by Ryan and prolific commentator turned bloodstock agent David Raphael for $260,000 from the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, the handler feels he is built to sprint, not stay. "As a type, I always thought he was a 1400-metre horse," Ryan said. "He is not a So You Think 2000-metre horse, he is a fast So You Think." While Peltzer is entered for the J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m), Ryan is preferring to spell him with a Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) campaign on the agenda. "I'm not sure about Brisbane," Ryan said. "I do think he is worth setting for a race like the Golden Rose and if you do go to Brisbane then you have to get them back into work by mid-June."

Consolation for Bottega at Randwick

A proactive move from Nash Rawiller resulted in a winning mount yesterday after he scored aboard Bottega (Snitzel) yesterday. The Gerald Ryan-trained Bottega had finished second in both the Carbine Club Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) and the Frank Packer Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) before his win back in Benchmark 78 grade over 1800 metres yesterday. However, the three-year-old had no rider booked, so Rawiller instructed his manager Liam Prior to chase the ride. "I noticed before eight o'clock he still didn't have a rider and told Liam to get straight on it, thankfully they gave me the opportunity," Rawiller said. "He is a lovely horse and probably the sort of horse now who, with a win under his belt, can take it to the next level and really come back a nice horse in the spring." Ryan said that Bottega will either head to the Lord Mayor's Cup (Listed, 2000m) or will spell ahead of the spring.

Rough race results in Soldier Of Love win

A dramatic stretch run in which favourite Subpoenaed (Rip Van Winkle) was held up and the Bjorn Baker-trained Miss Einstein (Dundeel) was squeezed out saw Baker's Soldier Of Love (Mawingo) capitalise for his first Saturday-class win yesterday. "I didn't know whether to laugh or cry," Baker said. "I was trying to watch it all and I still haven't quite taken it in, but it worked out really well." Baker took Soldier Of Love to Bathurst for his debut in August, 2018, and after his midfield finish, he was prepared to sack him from his yard. "I took him to Bathurst for his first run and I think he ran a battling seventh. I said, 'I don't think I can continue with him' but they were keen to give him another prep and he's just continued to improve," Baker said. "He has never stopped improving and until they do, you never quite know where you're going to get to."

Tejori justifies favouritism

Canberra trainer Nick Olive admitted that he was filled with nerves ahead of yesterday's Highway Handicap (1200m) at Randwick, but Tejori (Hinchinbrook) lived up to his expectations by producing a strong win. "We've got an opinion of her. I was bloody nervous coming here today, you're stepping up in class and you want to see them do it," Olive said. "Kerrin (McEvoy) gave her a beautiful ride, she had all the favours. But look, she was there to be beat, a few of them loomed and she held them all off which was fantastic. I know it's only a Highway, but you're stepping up in grade, you don't want them to disappoint you. If the bubble bursts now you're back to square one. She is a lovely filly. I think she has got a nice future."

Blazing Miss fires up for victory

The speedy Blazing Miss (Sizzling) was a drifter on course at Randwick yesterday, but she was much more switched on as she built on her second-up record in style. The Mark Newnham-trained Blazing Miss, who had form around the likes of Cosmic Force (Deep Field), Tenley (Medaglia d'Oro) and Exceedance (Exceed And Excel) as a juvenile, has now won three from four second-up and the handler will now look to step her up in grade. "It was really good to see her do that today. She has run up to her work," Newnham said. "She has always had a good second-up record. I told Robbie (Dolan) to be a bit aggressive on her today. She was a bit sleepy at Canterbury first-up and got into an awful spot but today, once she got outside the leader, I knew she'd be hard to beat. If there is a little Listed race somewhere for her to try to enhance her value then we'll do that."

So Si Bon goes back-to-back

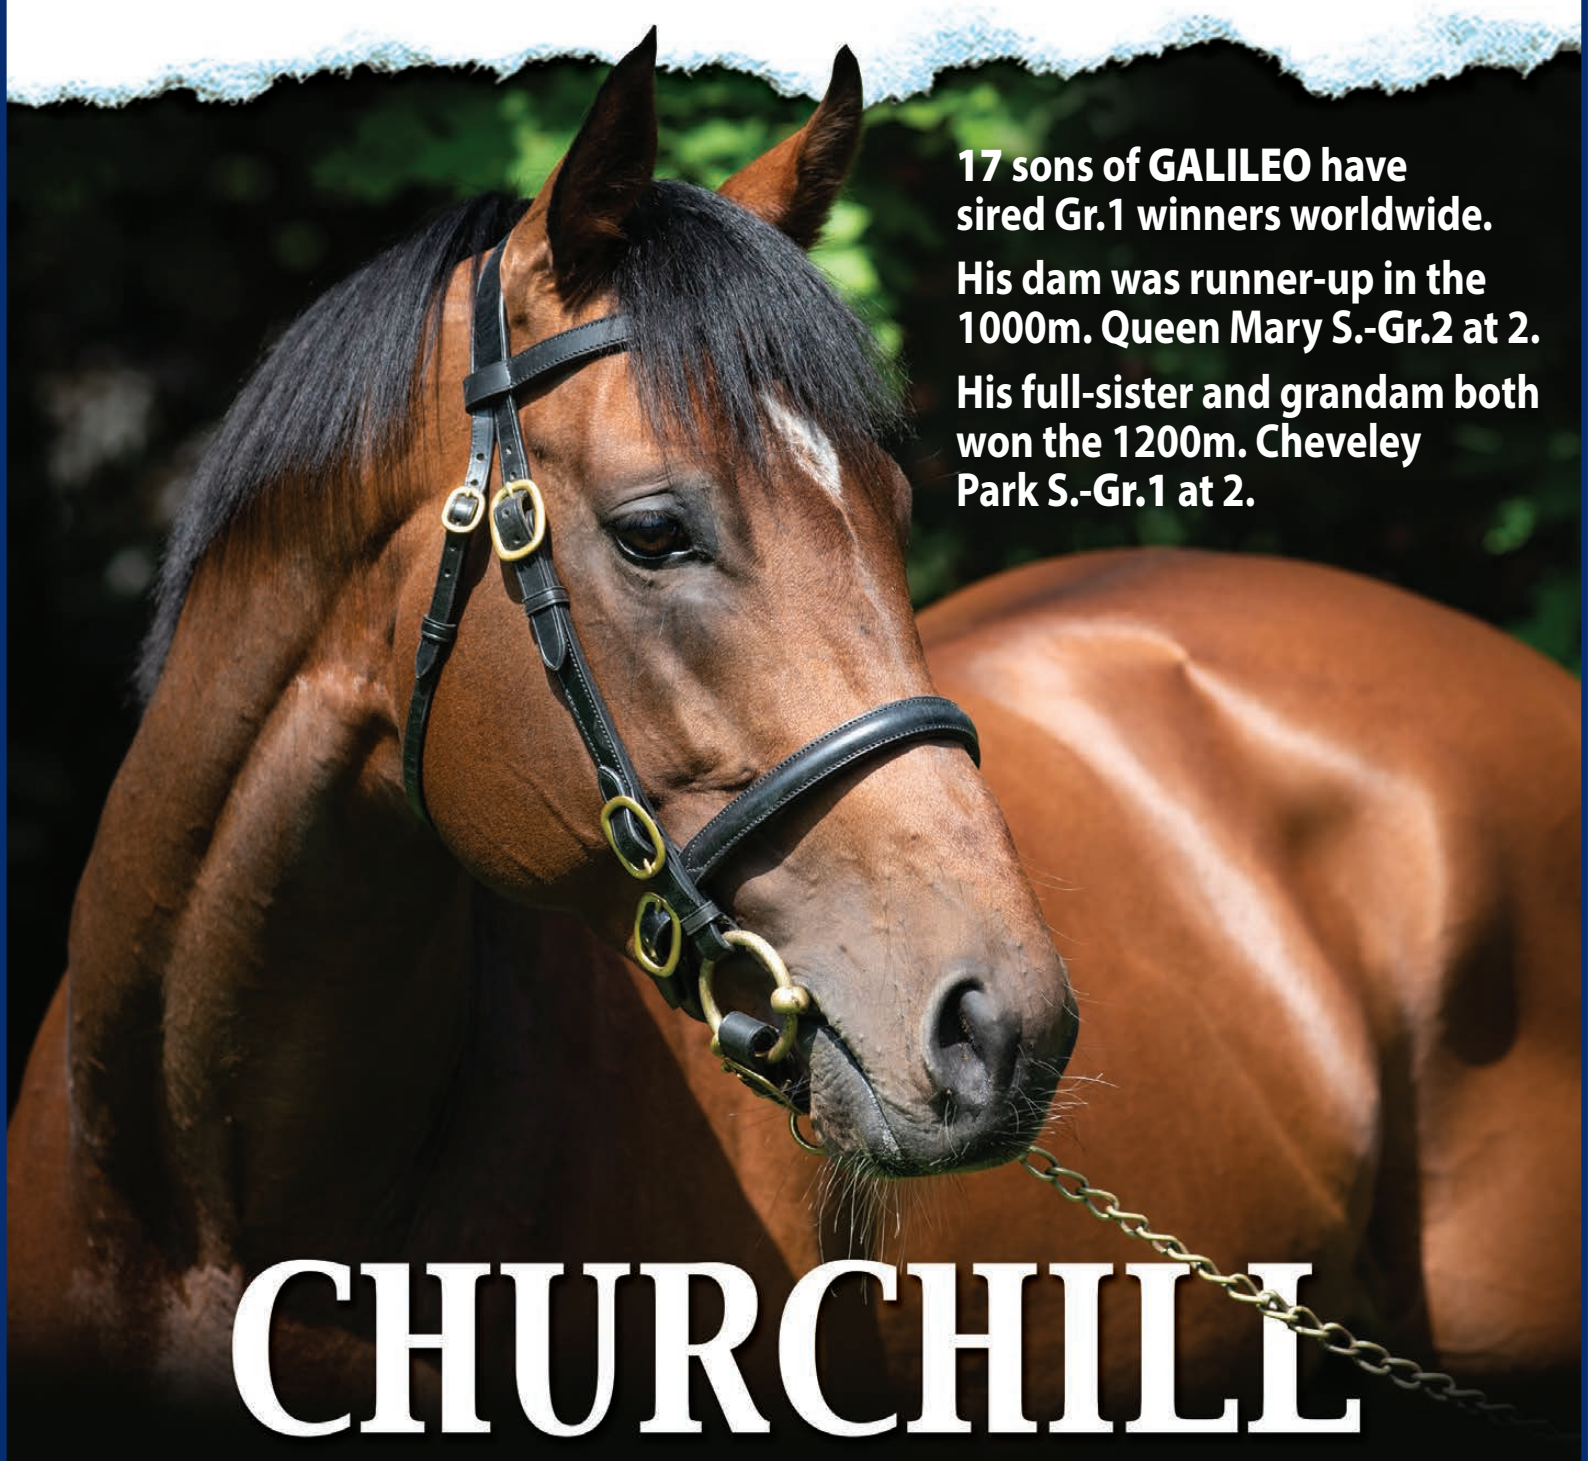

So Si Bon

SPORTPIX

Throughout his career, So Si Bon (So You Think) has proven frustrating more often than not, but after 50 starts, he looks to be finally putting it all together, scoring back-to-back wins for the first time in his career. Having become the highest earner of his sire So You Think (High Chaparral) after his win in the Vobis Gold Mile (1600m) last time out, the six-year-old stepped back to open handicap company yesterday and never looked in doubt, scoring by a widening three and a quarter lengths. "Since being gelded he's become one of our most consistent horses," co-trainer Ben Hayes said. "He's been fantastic for the owners. They've been incredibly patient with him and it's just been a matter of putting it all together. He doesn't mind the wet tracks so he'll stay in work and we'll try and go for three, four, five in a row."

Aidensfield gives Lindsay Park the half-century

The Lindsay Park operation of David and Ben Hayes and Tom Dabernig notched its 50th metropolitan winner for the season at Caulfield yesterday after two-year-old Aidensfield (Dissident) won on debut. Sporting the brown and white colours of the Henderson family, most famously carried at the track by Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Descarado (High Chaparral), Aidensfield scored by a length and a quarter over the appropriately-named Out Of Isolation (Squamosa). "She's always shown ability but we haven't been able to get at her," Ben Hayes said. "She's just been a bit immature in her shins, She's been in and out a couple of times but we've managed to get her to the races today. Her build up to the race was excellent. It was great to see her do it today and on soft ground but she'll be better on top of the ground."

Oasis Girl races to easy Caulfield victory

The mile and a wet track proved crucial to Oasis Girl (Redoute's Choice) scoring an emphatic win at Caulfield yesterday. The Mathew Ellerton and Simon Zahra-trained Oasis Girl raced clear for a six-length win under Jamie Kah over longshot Lord Jaysea (Playing God), vindicating a stable decision to stay in Melbourne rather than travelling to Adelaide for the Adelaide Guineas (Listed, 1600m). "The other day we just thought we chose the wrong race," Zahra said. "She indicates that she just grinds away a bit over the 1400 metres and she really relished the conditions today and she's shown in the last month that stepping her up in distance isn't an issue. In her early days she used to pull in her work and we thought she was a bit of a sprinter, but she's come of age, she relaxes and she's got a nice cruising speed and turn of foot."

Meaningful victory part of German double

Apprentice Lewis German scored a brace at Caulfield yesterday, including taking the race named for his mentor Darren Gauci aboard the Louise Bonella-trained Barbie's Fox (Foxwedge). "Darren Gauci has helped me a lot," German said. "He was a great rider, one of the best, and everything he achieved makes him so respected." Bonella hopes that Barbie's Fox may be able to return to stakes company this preparation. "We were hoping with those big races," Bonella said. "We gave them a crack, but her last run in the Thousand Guineas she had just gone over the top so we gave her a spell and she's come back terrific. In a couple of weeks there is a 1400-metre three-year-old fillies race, so we'll keep going down that line at present."

News Girl

Lewis German's second win came aboard the Geoff Duryea-prepared News Girl (Magnus), who scored by three-quarters of a length over Coruscate (Exceed And Excel). German recently transferred his indentures to Enver Jusufovic at Cranbourne and looks to be reaping the rewards as he makes connections with different stables. "It's been a very good day and I'm very grateful for the opportunities," German said. "I've just transferred to Cranbourne for three months to open up other opportunities to build relationships with other trainers." News Girl was shipped across the NSW border from Duryea's Corowa base, with the trainer admitting he considered scratching when the track was downgraded to heavy. "We avoided the Cup meeting at Wagga because it was really heavy there, but Lewis was confident that if he could get to the right lane where the track wasn't as bad then we'd have a go," Duryea said.

Gotta Kiss confirms winter potential

Highly-touted filly Gotta Kiss (Not A Single Doubt) was a muck lather pre-race at Doomben yesterday, but she justified favouritism to take victory and stamp herself as a legitimate winter carnival contender. Gotta Kiss had finished third two weeks ago to the unbeaten Isotope (Deep Field) at the Sunshine Coast and trainer Steve O'Dea was confident she would take improvement for that first-up effort. "We have always said she would be better with a sit and in her trial and two runs this time is how we have ridden her," O'Dea said, also confirming that a rematch with Isotope in the Champagne Classic (Gr 2, 1200m) in a fortnight is her next likely target.

Returning Byrne a winner

Five-time Brisbane champion jockey Jim Byrne got straight back into the groove at Doomben yesterday, riding a winner at his first ride back from injury. Byrne had only ridden for one week in March since suffering a broken leg in a fall at Doomben on December 18. However, he was straight back into the winners' circle aboard Tony Gollan's mare Hollaback Girl (Your Song) yesterday. "She had a big weight and a tricky barrier but Jim rode her perfectly," Gollan said. "Hollaback Girl probably hasn't lived up to her early promise but the thing now is to win more black-type races with her."

Dissolution breaks drought at Doomben

After two years in the wilderness, the Group 3-placed Dissolution (Snitzel) returned to the winners' circle at Doomben yesterday with a win in a four-way photo over 2020 metres. It was his first win since March, 2018, when he won a three-year-old Benchmark 76 over Queensland Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) winner Sambro (Fastnet Rock) at Warwick Farm. When his form dropped away, he was sent to trainer David Vandyke on the Sunshine Coast, who described the horse as a "thinker". "But today Jake (Bayliss) gave him a good ride and he responded," he said. "Dissolution has some strong breeding being by top sire Snitzel and there should be more races for him in Queensland."

Papa Jo scores all-the-way win

Papa Jo (Drumbeats) again showed his liking for barrier one with an all-the-way win at Doomben. Papa Jo has now won seven races and five have been from barrier one. He again drew the coveted inside barrier and despite dipping at the start was too slick in the TAB Handicap (1050m). Lindsay Hatch trains at Toowoomba and once racing was cut into zones he originally could only run horses in the southern metropolitan zone based around the Gold Coast and not in Brisbane. Racing Queensland modified the rules so all trainers could run their horses in Brisbane and Gold Coast metropolitan races as of this week. "He is very quick out of the barriers and he does like the number one marble," Hatch said. "Papa Jo is getting up in the ratings and we will have to look for something around the same trip."

McDonald happy with Kinane

Frank Packer Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) winner Kinane (Reliable Man) warmed up for his Queensland campaign with a pleasing trial at Rosehill on Friday. "He was really good," said jockey James McDonald, who rode him into fourth behind Pinvincible (Pins) over 1030 metres. "He has had a good blow but he is very well within himself and I was rapt with the way he pulled up." Kinane is being aimed at the Gunsynd Classic (Gr 3, 1800m) and the Rough Habit Plate (Gr 3, 2200m), according to former trainer Mick Kent's racing manager Neale Donnelley, who is also a part-owner. He also explained the origin of his name: "Mick said when he was training in Singapore the most reliable man he ever had to put in the saddle was Mick Kinane from Ireland, so given he is by Reliable Man, that's how we named him."

NEW ZEALAND

Hannam happy to be back in the saddle

Effervescent jockey Robbie Hannam is eager to get back to work, with the 53-year-old returning to riding trackwork over the past two weeks since New Zealand's month-long Covid-19 lockdown concluded. "The body has been good," the Group 1-winning rider said. "I live beside the river and there are walkways and I have kept pretty active. We've been back at trackwork just under two weeks and I have been riding a bit of work for Peter Didham, who is my brother-in-law. He's got a few in work. I know it was four or five weeks of not doing a lot, but it was just like riding a bike. It felt so good to be back on a horse." He added: "I don't get paid for riding trackwork. I ride trackwork to get raceday rides. The jump-outs and trials will bring the horses forward a lot."

Seven for Kizuna

Japanese Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Kizuna (Deep Impact) produced his seventh individual stakes winner yesterday when Deep Bond (3 c ex Zephyranthes by King Halo) took the Kyoto Shimbun Hai (Gr 2, 2200m) yesterday. Kizuna won the same race in 2013 before taking the Tokyo Yushun three weeks later. Swooping in from just fore of midfield, the Ryuji Okubo-trained Deep Bond defeated Man Of Spirit (Rulership) by a neck with a length and a half to Falconia (Deep Impact) in third; long odds-on favourite Admire Virgo (Deep Impact) finished fourth, just over two lengths from the winner. Kizuna stands at Shadai Stallion Station on the island of Hokkaido.

Eight for Orfevre

Japanese Triple Crown winner Orfevre (Stay Gold) made it eight individual stakes winners yesterday when Bitterender (3 c ex Bitter Sweet by Afleet Alex) took the Principal Stakes (Listed, 2000m) at Tokyo. Sent off as second favourite for trainer Ikuo Aizawa, Bitterender sat handy before sweeping to the lead on straightening, holding off the late surge of Potager (Deep Impact) to win by a neck. They came clear of outsider Dear Theory (Samurai Heart), who finished third, three lengths from the winner. Orfevre stands at Shadai Stallion Station.

14 for Rulership

Rulership (King Kamehameha) scored a 14th individual stakes winner when Uranus Charm (5 m ex Amethyst Ring by Fuji Kiseki) took the Metropolitan Stakes (Listed, 2400m) at Tokyo yesterday. The Makoto Saito-trained Uranus Charm led at soft sectionals under Norihiro Yokoyama, particularly through the middle stages, and that proved crucial at the end when she held off Valerio (Stay Gold) and Taisei Trail (Heart's Cry) to win by a half-length. Rulership, the Hong Kong QEII Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner, stands at Shadai Stallion Station.

Japan's best three-year-old milers to clash

Today's feature from Japan is the NHK Mile Cup (Gr 1, 1600m) for the three-year-olds. The NHK Mile Cup often plays second fiddle to the Satsuki Sho (Gr 1, 2000m), the Japanese 2,000 Guineas, but it still has a notable honour roll in its own right, with winners including El Condor Pasa (Kingmambo), Kurofune (French Deputy), King Kamehameha (Kingmambo), Mikki Isle (Deep Impact) and Admire Mars (Daiwa Major). Likely favourite is the Grade 1-placed Taisei Vision (Turtle Bowl), who broke the Tokyo track record over 1400 metres as a two-year-old and returned a big winner in the Arlington Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) at Hanshin last start, but top filly Resistencia (Daiwa Major), winner of the Hanshin Juvenile Fillies (Gr 1, 1600m), is sure to have her admirers too.

Niigata Daishoten to unveil next Caulfield Cup winner?

The Niigata Daishoten (Gr 3, 2000m) may not be a race that immediately springs to mind as a Caulfield Cup lead-up, but it was the race last year that gave Mer De Glace (Rulership) his first stakes win and set him on a path to Melbourne. Ridden by Damian Lane, Mer De Glace won by three-quarters of a length, defeating Mikki Swallow (Tosen Homareboshi), who was placed in the Tenno Sho (Spring) (Gr 1, 3200m) last weekend. Today's field features a number of promising horses, including Listed winner Red Galant (Lord Kanaloa), Grade 1-placed Gibeon (Deep Impact) and Bravas (King Kamehameha), whose dam Verxina (Deep Impact) was a two-time winner of the Victoria Mile (Gr 1, 1600m).

Frosted has first American runners

Darley's Frosted (Tapit) was represented by his first starter on Friday when the Todd Pletcher-trained Restored Order ran third in a maiden special weight over four and a half furlongs on the Gulfstream Park dirt. Restored Order loomed up but raced greenly over the concluding stages and he shapes as a horse to follow going forward. Scratched from that Gulfstream maiden was the Wesley Ward-trained Breakthrough (Nyquist), who was set to be the first runner for his Kentucky Derby-winning sire; he is slated to run this morning, Australian time. Three-time Grade 1 winner Frosted will have his first Australian two-year-olds next season and will stand at Darley's Northwood Park once more in 2020 at a fee of $22,000 (inc GST).

French racing gets green light after political manoeuvres

French racing will resume as planned tomorrow at three tracks, including Longchamp, but only after a tense 24 hours of negotiation to avert a potentially heartbreaking change of tack from the government. France Galop president Edouard de Rothschild announced in the early hours of Saturday morning that the green light had been given by President Emmanuel Macron for a resumption which, for most of Friday, had looked to be slipping out of reach. Some French media reports suggest that certain key figures connected with professional football – which like all team sports is banned until September under the administration's gradual scheme to reinstate parts of the French economy and society – may have lobbied Macron and his government to have a second look at racing, which is under different oversight to the vast majority of sport. However, while Macron reportedly vetoed the resumption of racing on Thursday, Rothschild emerged the winner on Friday's negotiations. Longchamp features a Group 2 and three Group 3 races upon its return tomorrow.

Oppenheimers step in to save South African racing

Phumelela Gaming, which operates the majority of tracks in South Africa, has been handed a lifeline after securing a deal with Mary Slack, daughter of late mining magnate Harry Oppenheimer and a prominent owner-breeder in her own right. The group warned on Monday it was facing bankruptcy as it emerged the sport's shutdown in South Africa could extend for a further four weeks. Phumelela Gaming released interim results this week that referenced a "dire situation" for racing in the country. It filed for business rescue on Friday afternoon but agreed a post-commencement finance deal with a company run by Slack and her daughters, who have injected vital funds. South Africa went into the fourth stage of lockdown last week – at which point it was believed racing would be permitted to continue – but the National Horseracing Association (NHA) expects the government's green light will only come in the next stage of the country's coronavirus response and has had to once again reschedule major races, including the South African Derby.

Holland heading for Canada

Globetrotting rider Darryll Holland is set to write the next chapter of his truly international career when travelling to Canada in the coming weeks to begin a season-long stint at Woodbine. The versatile rider was among Britain's top jockeys for over a decade, riding more than a century of winners in six out of eight seasons around the turn of the century. Having plied his trade most recently in South Korea, Mauritius, Japan and the United States, the rider, whose top subject in school was geography, is now planning to add Canada to the list of countries in which he has visited the winner's enclosure. The first European jockey to ride in Korea boasts an impressive CV, which includes around 30 Group 1 winners. He is best known in Australia for finishing third on Jardines Lookout (Fourstars Allstar) in the 2003 Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) behind Makybe Diva (Desert King).

Chau has a dream start with a Sha Tin double

BY DAVID MORGAN | HKJC_RACING

Former South Australian rider Jerry Chau made a dream home debut at Sha Tin yesterday, driving first past the post not once but twice just five days after teaming up with his new boss Douglas Whyte, the first-season handler best known as Hong Kong's iconic 13-time champion jockey.

The ten-pound claimer was three rides into his new assignment when his breakthrough win arrived atop Relentless Me (Statue Of Liberty), a 2/1 shot in the Class 3 Crystal Handicap (1200m). He rounded his four-ride step-out with a mature victory on the John Moore-trained Buddies (So You Think) in the Class 1 Amber Handicap (1400m).

"I didn't think I could have a double on my first day but I'm really lucky and very thankful, especially to Mr. John Moore and my boss," Chau said.

"The first win was very exciting, especially as I won for my mentor. He has already taught me a lot, in particular those things that I need to pay attention to when riding in Hong Kong. He knows everything about Hong Kong racing and he has encouraged me to keep on asking questions. He said to me: 'If you don't ask, you will never know,' so that's what I will do."

Whyte was pleased with his protégé's first-time performance in the unforgiving cauldron of Hong Kong racing.

"He's ridden phenomenally well for his first day and with a little bit of luck on Smiling City it could have been three winners. It's about building momentum now and building a bit of confidence," the trainer noted.

"He's riding with his head and that's what you need to do in Hong Kong. We need to make sure it doesn't go to his head and that's what I've got to be there for. Today is a great day and tomorrow's another day – don't worry, he'll be working tomorrow morning!"

Chau displayed intelligence aboard Buddies, settling third on a horse more accustomed to making the running, following advice from Whyte and instruction from Moore.

"Yesterday when we walked the track and I gave him a bit of advice, he's obviously absorbed it and he's riding the 'C' Course according to how it should be ridden – very 'heady,'" Whyte said.

"With Buddies, we went through the racing pattern and I said to him to not be afraid to talk to Mr. Moore and if something goes crazy let them go; I told him 'this horse has never taken a sit before and you could make the difference' – well, he did it. If he'd taken on the horse in front something would have been coming from the back"

Chau took the counsel and applied it to winning effect.

"After the jump I saw the leader come across and he was travelling really well; my horse was comfortable sitting with cover and when I moved out in the straight he kicked really well," he said.

Chau, 20, was called home after just one year of his overseas placement in South Australia, where he was indentured to the Leon Macdonald and Andrew Gluyas stable – he notched 77 wins there at a solid 14 per cent strike rate. His first Hong Kong success came one year and one day after his initial career victory at Balaklava aboard Serious Spender (Bernardini).

"It's all come about quite fast for me," Chau said. "It was surprising news when our (Hong Kong Jockey Club Apprentice Jockeys' School) Headmistress (Amy Chan) rang me and told me that I could be back in Hong Kong the next week. I was very happy about it!" he revealed.

The youngster settled his first winner, Relentless Me, on the rail, two lengths off the leader's back, and opted to shift out for a clear run into the straight. Chau picked up his stick and began to urge at the 300m mark and his mount responded with grinding progress.

That momentum continued when the apprentice's stick flew turf-ward – Chau kept his cool for a tidy hands and heels push through the line.

"When I went to pull the whip through, maybe I was a bit nervous but I dropped my whip. I had to push the horse hands and heels and I screamed at the horse, but the horse was so honest for me and I'm very happy that I was able to win the race in the end," he said.

Chau had four rides on the day and he opened with fourth-place for trainer Ricky Yiu, who played a guiding role in the rider's education before he ventured to Australia. And with the Whyte-trained Smiling City (So You Think) placing a half-length third in race six, his stats showed a 50% win strike rate and every mount picked up a cheque.

Moreira closes in with a treble

Joao Moreira outpointed Zac Purton three wins to zero with a skillful treble to move to within one of his championship rival, having been winless against the Australian's five-timer at Happy Valley midweek.

The scores at the end of the day stood at 113-114, with 18 race meetings left in the current Hong Kong season.

The Brazilian wrapped up the trio atop the John Size-trained Hong Kong Win (Mossman) in the Class 2 Amethyst Handicap (1000m).

"He had a smooth run today, so circumstances just played his way. He's a good horse and he's still in the making," he said.

Moreira rode a sweet stalking race on Perfect To Play (Born To Sea), settling behind the lead and waiting for the gap to open midway down the straight. He asked his mount to quicken when daylight was sighted and, reacting to strong insistence, the Caspar Fownes-trained galloper battled on to take the Class 4 Sapphire Handicap (1800m) by a neck.

One race later, the 'Magic Man' overcame gate 12 to score aboard the Francis Lui-trained This One's For You (Lethal Force) in the Class 4 Ruby Handicap (1650m, dirt). Moreira had to bide his time as he plotted a path through traffic, eventually pulling wide in the straight for a clear run to nick it by a head from Party Everyday (Snitzel).

The win took Moreira's total wins this term for the yard to six from only 17 rides – an impressive strike rate of 35 per cent.

Perfect To Play

HKJC

"Sometimes you find luck and I had a bit of it with those two earlier rides. Hopefully we can keep on kicking in winners!" he said.

Borges in the zone

Vagner Borges is eight weeks into his current Hong Kong contract and took his tally to seven wins with a first double in the city, having drawn a blank from 31 rides during his debut stint last July.

The Brazilian struck first in race two, the Class 3 Jasper Handicap (1650m, dirt), aboard Touch Of Luck (Hard Spun) for the in-form Moore stable. The success took the rider's record for the trainer – at that juncture – to three wins at a 30 per cent win strike rate.

"John Moore has helped me a lot, he treats me well and gives me some nice rides," Borges said through an interpreter.

Borges followed up in the next, section one of the Class 4 Peridot Handicap (1200m), when galvanizing the Michael Chang-trained Gallant Legacy (Redoute's Choice) to a length and three-quarter score. The International Sale graduate's maiden win at start nine took the handler to 13 wins for the term.

"I have to thank the trainers and owners for the opportunities they have given me," Borges said. "This support allows me to show that I can do a good job – I'm happy with how things are going right now."

Karis Teetan and Benno Yung teamed successfully for the third time this term to bag a second win on the bounce for the lightly-raced Humble Steed (Kodiak), another graduate of the Hong Kong International Sale. The Class 5 Topaz Handicap (1600m) was only the 10th race for the six-year-old across three seasons, due to a catalogue of leg injuries.

Antoine Hamelin claimed the finale, the Class 3 Emerald Handicap (1400m), with yet another thunderous wide-and-late charge, this time on the Jimmy Ting-trained Assimilate (Sebring).

The first race of the day, section two of the Class 4 Peridot Handicap (1200m), saw Alfred Chan secure an early lead on Hinyuen Swiftness (Duke Of Marmalade) and the seven-year-old rolled on gamely to give trainer Dennis Yip his 19th win of the season.

Analysis: Stepping up after a seven lengths win at Pakenham a month ago, Russian Camelot could not have been more impressive, scoring a first class win here at just his fifth career start. He settled fourth last, one out with a lap to run but was pushed three deep past the 1600m. Inside the 1200m he was last but still three deep where he remained to the 600m. From the 400m he improved quickly, was widest starting the run home then booted up to be third at the 200m. Laying in he caught the leader but inside the 100m lengthened stride for a dominant length and three quarters lengths win. Dalasan sat seventh in the clear past the 1000m, moved out at the 600m and cruised up three wide to be handy at the top of the straight. He grabbed the lead at the 200m, drifted toward the rail but was nabbed by the winner at the 100m and was no match to the line. Warning was sixth (rails) from the 800m, got a run along the fence at the 400m and had a great view. Under pressure he drove into third but was never going to endanger the first two. A solid staying effort from the filly Zayydani who was third last at the 600m, took some time to wind up in the straight then finished well for fourth. Pacemaker Moonlight Maid tried to slip them into the straight, was collared at the 200m but fought hard for her fifth.[LJ]

Analysis: The addition of blinkers following a wayward fourth on debut made a huge difference for Ringbolt who, in an upset, had this under control soon after turning for home. He was first into stride then dropped into second, one off the fence past the 1000m. He went up to eyeball the leader at the 600m, took over narrowly at the top of the straight, was given a fight to the 100m but came away by a length at the post. Violinist took up the pace from the 1000m, was caught rounding into the straight and gave the winner a tussle to the 100m but had to settle for second. Crown Mint went up four wide at the 600m to sit just back and outside the lead, third turning in then battled gamely to hold third from The Late Charge who also battled well in the straight for fourth. Warm favourite Ecumenical had every chance, making a late dab for fifth. [LJ]

Analysis: Tambo's Mate took his record to eight wins and four placings from 16 starts in scoring his first Group victory here, albeit by the barest of margins. He settled nicely outside the leader (Mishani Hustler) travelling at a reasonable tempo (first 600m 35.88). He took a narrow advantage at the 200m and then fought back gamely to score by a short-half-head. Deep Image raced in third place (one out and one back) before improving nearing the turn. He challenged strongly at the 200m and then battled very well for a very close second. The well-supported Outback Barbie had a nice trip in fourth place on the rails. She got a split at the 200m and kept fighting on in the sprint home for third in a sound first-up effort. Vega One settled in second last place, made a wide move at the turn and did well in making ground in the sprint home for fourth, beaten a length. Kementari was wide early on before settling in seventh place, one off the rails. He improved (deep) from the 600m and made ground under his 61kg for (1.1 lengths) fifth at his third run back. [KB]

Analysis: Game Keeper recorded a slashing win from well back and wide, joining in at the 150m then bolting clear for the easiest of wins, his fourth, three on the trot and maiden stakes at start nine. He dropped out to second last soon after the jump then ran up three deep from the 1000m to tag onto the pack yet still second last. He crept closer inside the 600m but turning for home had plenty to do. Widest at the top of the straight he bounded forward, levelled up near the 150m then burst clear for a big win, away by three lengths. A super run from Hypercane who was last at the 800m, tracked the winner (still last) into the straight and finished strongly for second. Quantum Mechanic sat just back and outside the pace from the 600m, co-led at the 300m and had a narrow lead at the 200m but had no answer over the final 150m. From fourth turning in Done By Me had every chance and battled away for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: The highly consistent Toby and Trent Edmonds-trained filly Vanna Girl scored a good first-up win, taking her record to five wins and two seconds from eight starts in recording her first stakes success here. After leading early on, she eased to race in third place on the rails before going through to challenge on straightening. She got the upper hand in the closing stages and then drew clear to win well. Supergiant went to the front and set a reasonably sound tempo before grabbing a break on straightening. He then fought back well for second after running a bold race, advancing in class here. Ballistic Boy had a nice trip in fourth place (one out and one back). He moved up at the turn and kept fighting on quite well for third with his stablemate Profit making ground from seventh at the turn, without threatening, for (3.8 lengths) fourth. [KB] nicely for Glen Boss with sixth place, tracking a solid tempo. She moved up at the turn, challenged at the 200m and finished too well to score a good win. Analysis: Progressive sprinter Snitz staged a smart effort in winning here, his first stakes victory and his fourth win in succession. Having his second run this preparation, after showing his usual early pace he tracked the free-running leader (Murillo) at a fast pace before going to the front at the 300m. He then fought back gamely for a very good win. The favourite Greyworm settled back in third place, some eight lengths from the leader, before commencing his move from the 300m. He then continued to make ground for (half-length) second in yet another very honest performance. Redouble raced well back in fifth place and wide and then did well in running on for third in a promising first-up effort. His Bjorn Baker-trained stablemate Crack Me Up raced in second last place and did really well in running on for (1.1 lengths) fourth, resuming here for his new stable. [KB]
