Aristia ready for the P B Lawrence after enjoying decent spell

Such is the importance of Aristia (Lonhro) to the success and subsequent growth of First Light Racing that the Group 1-winning mare has a farm set up by the Melbourne syndicator named in her honour.

And Tim Wilson, the principal of First Light Racing who races the Mathew Ellerton and Simon Zahra-trained VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) winner, hopes that the five-year-old can deliver more highlights on the racetrack before the valuable broodmare prospect is sold.

Aristia will run first-up in Saturday's P B Lawrence Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Caulfield after being given the tick of approval after her jump-out performance at Flemington yesterday in heat three over 800 metres. Continued on page 2 >>

Lawrence return for Cape Of Good Hope

After trialling at Flemington yesterday, Lindsay Park's Caulfield Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Cape Of Good Hope (Galileo) will begin his spring campaign in the P.B. Lawrence Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Caulfield on Saturday, with the Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) his current aim Morning Briefing page 6 >>

She has not raced since finishing seventh in the Sunline Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Moonee Valley on March 20 which brought an end to her three-start summer-autumn campaign.

"She ran second-up in the All-Star Mile in the autumn and things didn't go her way that day and that was when Covid first broke out everywhere in Australia," Wilson said yesterday.

"SHE'S ALWAYS HAD THAT GOOD HORSE'S PROBLEM WHEREBY ONE CARNIVAL ENDS AND THE NEXT ONE COMES UP SO QUICKLY THAT YOU ARE ALWAYS RACING AGAINST THE CLOCK, SO FOR HER TO HAVE TEN WEEKS IN THE PADDOCK IS UNHEARD OF"

- TIM WILSON

"The team backed her up in six days and gave her a run at Moonee Valley with the fear that racing would be put on hold for a period of time. As a result, we ended up putting her in the paddock at the end of March, so she's had a ten-week spell which she's never had in her life.

"She's always had that good horse's problem whereby one carnival ends and the next one comes up so quickly that you are always racing against the clock, so for her to have ten weeks in the paddock is unheard of.

"Every sign so far is that she's in for her best campaign probably since her three-year-old spring preparation (when she won the VRC Oaks). Her trial this morning was sensational. She was never off the bit and she's gone across the line about half a length off Pretty Brazen and she had Hanseatic behind her and Jamie (Kah, jockey) was like a statue on her."

While optimistic about the prospects of Aristia breaking her losing streak dating back to her 2018 VRC Oaks win, Wilson suggested that connections may look to avoid the top-line open company horses this campaign.

The Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m), a fillies and mares race she finished runner-up to Melody Belle (Commands) in last year, looms as a probable target.

"If she ran top three on Saturday you could put her down that old, traditional race path or, if she's not quite up to it on Saturday, you can go to the Empire Rose," Wilson said.

"There's a 1400-metre race in two weeks and then we will use the Let's Elope on September 12 as a mid-range target for her.

"The beauty of her now is that the sunset clause has kicked in for her on those set weights and penalties races. Last spring it was tough as everywhere we went with her she had 59 kilograms but now ... she will be back to the minimum because she hasn't won a stakes race for 18 months."

The way Aristia, who was bred by Greg Perry under his Greenwich Stud banner, has returned after a lengthy spell has Wilson convinced that he and his fellow owners have made the right call to race on the daughter of Lonhro (Octagonal) for another season rather than selling her as a well-credentialed broodmare prospect.

"She didn't win a race last season but she still won $250,000 in prize-money, so it's a balancing act for the owners, but in my opinion selling her off the track at the end of her five-year-old season is the prime time to realise her residual value," he said.

"You have probably got to treat these next 12 months like they are her last, and a lot of good mares have raced on into their six-year-old season, but she's probably got to give us a compelling reason to do that because she might lose ten per cent of her value for racing on for another 12 months and that's a significant figure."

How Aristia performs on Saturday will also be a guide as to what difference First Light Racing's investment earlier this year in a spelling property at Koo Wee Rup, south east of Melbourne, is making to its racing team.

Named after the syndicator's Group 1 winner, Aristia Park is a purpose-built horse property with a capacity for 120 horses, sand training tracks, an equestrian area, tie-ups and round yards overseen by farm manager Marnie Holloway.

"It's brand-new for us. We took ownership of it in March and it's just such an asset. It's probably not a coincidence but the first two horses that have raced off that farm who have spelled there were Squami and Rich Hips," Wilson said.

"Squami won first-up and Rich Hips went to Sandown and won first-up and she's in for a 'career prep' as well. Aristia will be the third horse to go to the races off the property. The first two have won and they have improved out of sight."

Wilson praised Holloway for the way she has managed the horses since taking on the role, describing her as "a magician".

He said: "We've had some fantastic partners along the way but our vision has always been for First Light to do everything end-to-end and it gives us a great opportunity now to get our clients involved in breeding if they want to go down that path."

"The horses are always in our care and we see it as a huge client entertainment facility in due course. It's a beautiful property and I'd love to be doing yearling parades and having owners out there offering accommodation. They can come out and spend the night, then do the feed run in the morning and have a bit of fun."

Wilson, in conjunction with agent Paul Willetts, meanwhile, came away with six new season two-year-olds at last week's Magic Millions National Yearling Sale on the Gold Coast headed by a $100,000 Dundee (High Chaparral) colt out of Group 1-winning mare Alverta (Flying Spur) and a $52,000 All Too Hard (Casino Prince) filly out of Group 3-winning, Group 1-placed Galapagos Girl (Dehere). The All Too Hard filly is a half-sister to last season's Gerald Ryan-trained stakes winner Villami (Foxwedge).

"We had so many new owners come in this year with one, two and three degrees of separation from existing First Light owners or even just new people. We've still been able to have a good year despite Covid," he said.

"We haven't overbought and we were fortunate with ... the Magic Millions sale being pushed all the way out to August, that really worked for us."

"That sale is normally in May/June and in May we are usually carrying a lot of stock but by the time we got to August our numbers were quite low and we were looking at September and October and thinking that we won't have any stock to offer."

"We bought six up there and we could have easily grabbed a couple more."

IT'S A BALANCING ACT FOR THE OWNERS, BUT IN MY OPINION SELLING HER OFF THE TRACK AT THE END OF HER FIVE-YEAR-OLD SEASON IS THE PRIME TIME TO REALISE HER RESIDUAL VALUE

Lawrence return for Cape Of Good Hope

After trialling at Flemington yesterday, Lindsay Park's Caulfield Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Cape Of Good Hope (Galileo) will begin his spring campaign in the P.B. Lawrence Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Caulfield on Saturday, with the Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) his current aim. "He's had a good break and has come back in nice and sound," co-trainer Tom Dabernig said. "He arrived in Australia in good form winning the Caulfield Stakes but last campaign his feet were the issue and he was taking on reasonable company. His feet have improved. Remember Redkirk Warrior had trouble initially with his feet when he came from Hong Kong and we managed to get him right and I think this is a similar situation. We've addressed the issue and he'll have his chance to show his best form."

Lane to ride Arcadia Queen

Damian Lane has secured the ride on star Perth mare Arcadia Queen (Pierro) this spring as she returns from an injury sustained in last year's Golden Eagle (1500m). The five-year-old and her All Star Mile (1600m)-winning stablemate Regal Power (Pierro) are set to kick off their campaigns in Saturday's P.B. Lawrence Stakes. "She's sound now," owner Bob Peters told Racing.com. "She got knocked down in The Golden Eagle and the adrenalin kicked in so she got up again, obviously over-exerted herself to still finish off well to run fifth. Unfortunately, that caused a lot of tearing of muscles and things like that in her back and she had a long time in rehabilitation to get her back. Race pressure will tell the story. So far it's been good but it took from November until May to get her over it all."

Larimer Street to kick off in Vain

The Trent Bussitin and Natalie Young-trained Larimer Street (Brazen Beau), who finished third in the $2 million Inglis Millennium (RL, 1100m), will kick off his spring campaign in Saturday's Vain Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Caulfield, and the stable will determine his future targets based off how he runs this weekend. "He'll get the chance to paint the picture for the rest of the spring with what he does first-up," Bussitin told Racing.com. "He was good in the autumn. He should have won the $2 million race in Sydney, although it was only a restricted race. He then won that Listed (St Albans Stakes) race at Moonee Valley really well then we kept the blinkers on for the Group 1 Sires' (Randwick) so we just put a line through that as he just over-raced terribly. The Caulfield Guineas or the Coolmore (Stud Stakes) are at the top of the tree for him this spring but we are a long way from being a Listed winner to getting to one of those races. But he'll get his chance to tell us he is."

Ryan focused on Sydney with three-year-olds

The Covid-19 pandemic is likely to keep many of Sydney's best horses at home in the short-term but that prospect holds no concerns for Rosehill trainer Gerald Ryan. "Early on it has changed things, but there is too much good racing, prestige racing here in Sydney to worry about going to Melbourne," Ryan said. "Sure, there are good races (in Melbourne) later on. You've got the Blue Sapphire, the Caulfield Guineas, the Coolmore Stud Stakes. But there are enough races here to worry about Sydney first, then what gets to Melbourne, you can worry about later on." Ryan's Peltzer won his three starts at the end of the autumn, including back-to-back victories at Randwick. The colt is due to barrier trial later this month before he resumes in the San Domenico Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill on August 29 before tackling the Run To The Rose (Gr 2, 1200m) two weeks later, ahead of the $1 million Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) on September 26. All three races are at his home track of Rosehill, a course Ryan hopes he likes as much as he does Randwick. "The majority of my three-year-olds this year, their races are going to be at Rosehill on their home track," the trainer said. "I just hope Peltzer goes as well at Rosehill as he does at Randwick because he is unbeaten at Randwick."

Elleegant ready for Cups campaign

Chris Waller has trodden a patient path with Verry Elleegant (Zed) and he believes it has readied her for the rigours of a Cups campaign. The stable managed her carefully as a spring four-year-old last year and did not extend her beyond the distance of the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m). But a solid, five-start autumn campaign, highlighted by a Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) victory, has given Waller confidence the mare is seasoned enough for a Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) and Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) preparation. "We held her back last year to try and help her develop, which she has done physically as well as mentally," Waller said. "Whilst she would have got into the Cups last year with a much better weight, I am now sure she is capable of not only coping with the preparation required, but also the race itself."

Behemoth's connections on weather watch

The Adelaide weather will be the determining factor in where Listed winner Behemoth (All Too Hard) will make his return to racing. The David Jolly-trained five-year-old looked sharp when winning a Balaklava trial last week and is among the nominations for Saturday's Spring Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Morphettville. Grand Syndicates racing manager Sam Lyons said the plan was to stay in Adelaide, but the prospect of rain could yet see the gelding rerouted to Melbourne. "The Regal Roller (at Caulfield) is the back-up plan," Lyons told theracessa.com. Behemoth finished well to run fourth in last year's Regal Roller Stakes (Listed, 1200m) before returning to Adelaide and winning the Penny Edition Stakes (Listed, 1400m). He finished his last campaign with a fourth in the Goodwood Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m).

Russian Camelot impresses in jump-out

South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Russian Camelot (Camelot) impressed Danny O'Brien in his jump-out win at Flemington yesterday and his likely first-up run will be the Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington on September 12. "We're very happy with him," O'Brien told Racing.com. "We were hoping that there would be a bit of tempo in his heat so that he could fall back a bit. But they went particularly slowly, and he was right up on the speed the whole trial. Damien Oliver (jockey) slipped him a little bit of rein late and let him stretch his legs and he went through his gears nicely and had a nice gallop on what is a beautiful surface. Damien reported back that he was very happy with him, he said he thought he was a bit above himself and very fresh, which is to be expected, he's a colt and he's in great shape physically. He was really pleased with the feel he got from him this morning."

McEwen first-up for Hanseatic

Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) runner-up Hanseatic (Street Boss) had his first jump-out of the spring at Flemington yesterday, finishing fourth on the bridle under Jye McNeil, and his co-trainer Sam Freedman confirmed the three-year-old would resume in next month's McEwen Stakes (Gr 2, 1000m). "He was good, he was fresh and full of himself in the run," Freedman told Racing.com. "He's a busy character, especially in his trials and races, he is very full of himself but he seems to be coming up really well. Importantly he was well behaved at the gates, he walked straight in and that was an area that was frustrating in the autumn. That was a typical first jump-out from our stable, we are never ones to push them out in trials and now he'll have another jump-out and then a gallop at The Valley. He'll be ready to go first-up in the Group 2 McEwen Stakes and will then be targeted at the Group 1 Moir Stakes and the Coolmore Stud Stakes."

Hanseatic

Moroney pleased with Tofane

Also featuring at yesterday's Flemington jump-outs was the Mike Moroney-trained All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Tofane who is set to resume in the Gilgai Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) on October 3. "She was pretty fresh today and we just gave her a day out, she wasn't there to do much," Moroney told Racing.com. "She'll have another jump-out (at Flemington) and we'll put more pressure on her next time. The race she'll kick off in is the Group 2 Gilgai Stakes down the straight here, then there are a couple of other races here for her. If she's going well enough then hopefully she'll be (up in Sydney) for The Everest."

Epsom-bound Tyzone shines in trial

Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Tyzone (Written Tycoon) has limbered up for his forthcoming trip to Sydney with a solid third in a Gold Coast barrier trial. Ridden by Robbie Fradd, Tyzone settled fifth before working home stylishly to place behind the Chris Waller-trained Subpoenaed (Rip Van Winkle) in a 1000-metre heat, beaten three-quarters of a length. Toby Edmonds, who trains in partnership with his son Trent, plans to lay a solid platform for the gelding's return to racing, which is likely to be in the Theo Marks Stakes (Gr 2, 1300m) at Rosehill on September 12. His main goal in Sydney is the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick on October 3. The Epsom is also on the agenda for Tyzone's stablemate Vanna Girl (Husson) who finished seventh, beaten three lengths, in the same trial as Tyzone.

1614 nominated for Blue Diamond

A total of 1614 now two-year-olds have been nominated for next year's $1.5 million Blue Diamond Stakes at Caulfield. Local trainers Ciaran Maher and David Eustace have the most entries with 108, with Lindsay Park in second with 80. The Team Hawkes-trained Dio (Zoustar), the brother to champion mare Sunlight, is among the headlines entries along with progeny of star mares Black Caviar (Bel Esprit) (a filly by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit)), Miss Finland (Redoute's Choice) (a colt by Shalaa (Invincible Spirit), trained Tom Dabernig & Ben Hayes) and the late Miracles Of Life's (Not A Single Doubt) final daughter, a filly by American Pharoah (Pioneeroof The Nile) to be trained by Snowden Racing. Snitzel (Danahill) has the most nominations of any stallion with 93 of his progeny entered, while I Am Invincible (79) has the second most. Click here to view the full entry list.

Randwick trials moved to Polytrack

Due to the recent wet weather, the Randwick barrier trials scheduled for today will now take place on the Randwick Polytrack. As a consequence, the 1200 metre heats will now be staged over 1250 metres, the 1050 metres heats become 1080 metres and the 740 metre heats will be run over 780 metres. The first heat will be conducted at 8.40am with 10-minute gaps between trials. Heats 19 and 20 move up to become heats 12 and 13 as they were originally scheduled as Polytrack 1080m heats. The three trials for Group-performed horses on the Kensington Track will now be conducted on Friday.

Lot 50 heads Mungrup dispersal sale

A trio of yearlings by Playing God (Blackfriars) last night led the way in the bidding as the Magic Millions-hosted Mungrup Stud Dispersal Sale heads towards a close. Bidding on the 157 lots coming under the virtual hammer ends today with the filly out of Listed-placed Oratorio (Danehill) mare Latoria, catalogued as lot 50, sitting top of the pile at $90,000 at the time of going to press.

Rosina Kojonup heads bidding in GSS auction

A flurry of activity sent dual winner Rosina Kojonup (Shamus Award) to the head of the bids for the Inglis Great Southern Sale section of August (early) Online Sale, which ends tomorrow. A total of 17 bids had been made on the Listed place mare, catalogued as lot 888, with a top offer of £365,000 received. A $425,000 Inglis Easter Yearling Sale graduate, Rosina Kojonup's dam, Courgette (Charge Forward), was purchased for $2,100,000 in 2018. Her two-year-old half-brother by I Am Invincible has been retained to go into training with the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott team. She has a weanling three-quarter brother by Snitzel, while Courgette is back in foal to Snitzel. Her three-year-old three-quarter sister, Still Reigning, an $800,000 Easter Yearling purchase, is in-training with Gary Portelli.

Nisbet hospitalised after fall

Canberra jockey Kayla Nisbet was taken to hospital for observation after falling from a horse at trackwork yesterday. Nisbet momentarily lost consciousness but early reports suggested she did not appear to have sustained any injuries. On Sunday, Narromine track rider David Stubbs was dislodged and suffered concussion as a result. He was taken to Narromine Hospital for observation.

Rockhampton trainer Rowe seriously injured

Lyle Rowe, one of Queensland's longest serving trainers, is in hospital having suffered serious injuries in an accident at Rockhampton's Callaghan Park racecourse on Friday. Rowe was leading a horse from his stables to the tie-up stalls on the racecourse when the accident occurred. Although details are uncertain, it is believed Rowe was either kicked by the horse in the head or he suffered severe head injuries as the result of a fall. The 79-year-old is said to have sustained a fractured skull and bleeds on the brain. A spokesperson for Rockhampton Base Hospital described Rowe's condition as "stable" late on Sunday. Former jockey Rowe, who turns 80 next month, has trained at Rockhampton for over 30 years, and has a team of around ten horses in training.

Quirindi abandoned, Gosford in doubt

Officials will inspect the course at Gosford this morning to determine whether today's meeting can go ahead after a further 13 millimetres of rain yesterday fell on a track already described as a Heavy 10. With surface water between 1500 metres to 1400 metres, steward Damien Carr will inspect the track at 6am but the meeting looks to be in some doubt with the Gosford barrier trials scheduled for the following day. Elsewhere, the fixture scheduled to take place at Quirindi today was called off after the surface was deemed unsuitable for racing following heavy rainfall and no alternative venues could be found around the Hunter & North West region.

Postponed Port Augusta meeting to run this Sunday

Last Sunday's Port Augusta meeting, which was called off due the state of the track following the poor weather conditions in South Australia, will now take place this coming Sunday (August 15) it was announced yesterday.

Vale Majorie Charleson

Former Western Australia Turf Club promotions officer Marjorie Charleson died on Saturday, aged 88. Charleson spent 16 years at the WATC where her notable achievements included persuading connections of Kingston Town (Bletchingly) to race their star after his third consecutive win in the Cox Plate, while also getting premier jockeys, both from home and abroad, to ride at Ascot, a track where the Marjorie Charleson Classic (1200m) is now run in her honour.

NEW ZEALAND

Cool Aza Beel sidelined

This year's Karaka Million (RL, 1200m) winner Cool Aza Beel (Savabeel) has suffered a minor suspensory injury and could be out of action for the majority of the spring and summer. The three-year-old colt, who is trained by Jamie Richards, is expected to make a full recovery from the problem but has been spelled by Te Akau Racing. Cool Aza Beel has not raced since winning the Sistema Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Ellerslie on March 7.

Double for boutique Bishara

Nicholas Bishara is delighted with the way his boutique stable has started the new season after a winning double at Te Rapa on Saturday, courtesy of successes by Rising Renown (Redwood) and Ihu (Red Element), brought his current season tally to three wins, just two shy of last season's total. "It was a terrific weekend and I just can't believe how well I am going to be honest," Bishara said. "We are having a winner a week and to get a double on a Saturday feature meeting was great. It's good after lockdown to be able to get back out and get something. The whole team is firing."

Captainwinkletoes catches eye

Jo Rathbone has been riding the crest of a wave with quality jumper Tallyho Winkletoe (St Reims) and she may have unearthed another top prospect in his half-brother, Captaintwinkletoes (Sufficient). The four-year-old pleased Rathbone when finishing runner-up on debut over 2100 metres at Hawera on Saturday where he was only just beaten by stablemate Wotablast (Azamour). "I was rapt with them both," Rathbone said. "Wotablast had a bit of a gear change just to try and get him to try and switch on a bit more and that obviously helped. I thought Captaintwinkletoes would go a nice race. It's a big ask going 2100 metres first-up, but he has done a lot. He is definitely a stayer, he just needs to go over ground."

NZB breeze-up dates adjusted

Breeze Up dates for NZB's Ready to Run Sale of Two-Year-Olds have been adjusted and will now take place on Monday 12 and Tuesday 13 October at Te Rapa Racecourse, with all prospective buyers welcome to attend. With the recently released trial and racing programs announced for October, the decision was made to move the dates forward slightly to better fit with the industry's wider schedule. Timing for the Breeze Ups will remain the same, commencing at 10am both days.

Regional roadshows scheduled

NZ Thoroughbred Racing will be conducting regional roadshows around the country as the industry adapts to the changes brought about by the Racing Industry Act 2020. The first of the roadshows will be held in the South Island this week, commencing at the Ascot Park Hotel in Invercargill at 10am on Thursday, 13 August. Later that evening, between 4pm and 6pm it will be the turn of Otago industry participants and stakeholders to engage with NZTR board chairman Dr Alan Jackson, chief executive Bernard Saundry and general manager racing and infrastructure Tim Aldridge, at Wingatui racecourse. The South Island leg will conclude on Friday, 14 August at 12noon at the Tea House at Riccarton Park racecourse. The regional roadshows will continue during the last week of August where the North Island will host meetings at Awapuni (Wednesday, 26 August, 10am-12noon), Te Rapa (Thursday 27 August, 11.30am-1.30pm), and Ellerslie (Friday 28 August, 10am-12noon).

INTERNATIONAL

42 for Showcasing

Former Haunui Farm shuttler Showcasing (Oasis Dream) sired his 42nd individual stakes winner on Saturday when Bodhicitta (4 m ex Solfilia by Teofilo) took out the Yellow Ribbon Handicap (Gr 2, 8.5f) at Del Mar. Trained by Richard Baltas, the four-year-old mare showcased an electric turn of foot to defeat Tonahutu (Sir Prancealot) by a nose with Harmless (Creative Cause) coming home a length and a quarter away in third. Purchased for 60,000gns at last year's Tattersalls Guineas Horses In Training Sale, Bodhicitta is one of two winners from four to race out of Solfilia (Teofilo) and hails from the family of multiple stakes winner Fracas (In The Wings) and dual Group 1 scorer La Collina (Strategic Prince). Showcasing, who is also responsible for multiple Group 1 winner Advertise, last shuttled to Haunui in 2017 but now permanently resides at Whitsbury Manor Stud in England where he stood for a fee of £55,000 (approx AUD$100,000). in 2020.

Options open for Messara and Skyward

John Messara is contemplating delaying Skyward's (Camelot) Melbourne Cup bid for a year so that the northern hemisphere four-year-old can remain in the care of Fabrice Chappet. Skyward registered his first stakes win when taking out the Prix de Reux (Gr 3, 2500m) at Deauville on Sunday and while his majority owner has long held Cup ambitions for the colt, Covid-enforced restrictions on movement of staff could put the prospect of travelling from France on hold for 12 months. It looks likely that overseas-based horses will need to be transferred into the care of local trainers to compete in this year's Caulfield and Melbourne Cups, a move Messara is reluctant to consider. "I'd like to leave him with the trainer (Fabrice Chappet) if he were to come out for a big race like the Melbourne Cup," Messara told Racing.com. "He could always then stay here after running in the Melbourne Cup and then that's another story. But I wouldn't like to take him off the trainer that's done all the legwork and knows him. There's a bit of thinking to be done."

Enable to miss York in favour of Kempton contest

Europe's star mare Enable (Nathaniel) is set to swerve York's Ebor meeting and a clash with fellow Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Love (Galileo) in next week's Yorkshire Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) as connections plot a different route to the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m). The two-time Arc winner, who was also short in the betting for the Juddmonte International Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) at York next week, will instead prepare for Longchamp by tackling Kempton's September Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 4f) on the Polytrack next month, connections have revealed. The six-year-old racked up a record third win in the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f) at Ascot last month after which a return to the Knavesmire, where she could have made more history by becoming the first three-time winner of the Yorkshire Oaks, was earmarked. Enable's sole start between her two Arc wins came when she took out the 2018 running of the September Stakes.

BHA: any investigation into Phoenix Thoroughbreds is up to legal authorities

BY DAVID BAXTER, RACING POST

The British Horseracing Authority has said that any formal investigation into Phoenix Thoroughbreds founder Amer Abdulaziz Salman would need to be made by the appropriate law enforcement bodies, adding it would be happy to assist should it be required.

Last November, British racing's governing body said it would be "making inquiries as a priority" into the troubled organisation and, while confirming that queries had subsequently been made, no further action has been taken.

A BHA spokesperson said: "The BHA has carried out inquiries over the past few months. Allegations of criminality are properly investigated by law enforcement organisations, which the BHA would always support where it can. Our focus is on making the best use of our regulatory role to protect participants and the reputation of the sport."

The Racing Post understands a similar stance is held by French racing's regulatory authority, France Galop, although there are currently no Phoenix-owned horses in training in that jurisdiction.

The global nature of Phoenix's investment in racing since its formation in 2017 was evident over the weekend, with the organisation having a winner at Flemington plus a winner at Monmouth in the USA, as well as placed runners at Saratoga, in upstate New York.

The organisation has a significant presence in Australia, headlined earlier this year by William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner

Amer Abdulaziz

RACING POST

Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible), who is also nominated for the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m), as well as being listed as breeders and co-owners of Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Farnan (Not A Single Doubt).

Several yards in Britain and Ireland train runners owned by Phoenix Thoroughbreds or the affiliated Phoenix Ladies Syndicate. Both sets of colours were in action at the Curragh on Sunday when Forever In Dreams (Dream Ahead) finished third and Back To Brussels (Starspangledbanner) fifth in the same Group 3 sprint.

Since the allegations surrounding Abdulaziz emerged, there have been a string of departures from the operation.

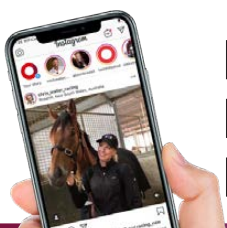

On Saturday the Racing Post revealed vice-president and respected racing professional Tom Ludt had cut ties, joining the likes of bloodstock adviser Dermot Farrington and trainers Bob Baffert and Martyn Meade.

Abdulaziz was the subject of sensational allegations in a New York court last year, as it was claimed he was linked to the fraudulent cryptocurrency OneCoin.

The fake cryptocurrency was revealed to be a global Ponzi scheme, and it is alleged money from the scheme may have been invested in the self-styled "world's first regulated thoroughbred fund".

Court testimony alleged Abdulaziz and his Phoenix Fund Investments, the Dubai-registered parent company of Phoenix Thoroughbreds, were a key component of the network washing money for those behind the fraudulent scheme, which has been described as one of the biggest financial scams ever perpetrated.

Phoenix and Abdulaziz have categorically denied the allegations, and he and Phoenix representatives have declined to respond to any specific questions submitted by the Racing Post since November.

Godolphin to send mares to I Am Invincible

Godolphin will make the most of its champion stallions Lonhro (Octagonal) and Exceed And Excel (Danehill) by supporting the pair with as many of its high-class broodmares as possible while the aging sires are still capable of covering.

Lonhro and Exceed And Excel, aged 22 and 20 respectively, continue to produce high-class racehorses and are also noted sire of sires.

The latter, in particular, has had a stellar past two seasons with his progeny on the track including the likes of valuable Group 1-winning colts Exceedance, Bivouac and Microphone.

Godolphin sent mares to Arrowfield Stud's champion sire Snitzel (Redoute's Choice), including Astern (Medaglia d'Oro) and Alizee's (Sepoy) half-sister Leopard (Animal Kingdom) in 2019, and also used other outside stallions.

Among them was Yarraman Park Stud's I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), with Godolphin sending Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Earthquake (Exceed And Excel), the dam of Alizee and Astern in Essaouira (Exceed And Excel) and four-time Group 1 winner Guelph (Exceed And Excel).

The global operation also sent mares to Coolmore's Pierro (Lonhro) and Fastnet Rock (Danehill) in 2019.

"We have only made bookings to I Am Invincible at this point and we're unlikely to change that. We're in a good position with two very good proven horses who are in the twilight of their careers and while we've got them we want to use them as much as we can." Godolphin Australia managing director Vin Cox told ANZ Bloodstock News at the Magic Millions National Sale.

"We've also got a lot of other young stallions who we have a lot of faith in. We've got three first season horses (Too Darn Hot, Blue Point and Microphone) that I would arguably say are the envy of other stallion farms right around the country and we want to utilise them as well."

Big weekend for Wayne Smith

BY HARRY TROY | @RACINGMACAU

First season trainer Wayne Smith enjoyed his best weekend to date leading in four winners over the two days of racing, three of those in big wins on Sunday.

The speedy Chapman Way (Strategic Maneuver) was the first of Smith's winners on Friday night when he led throughout to win the Class 5 & 6 over 1200 metres under apprentice Eric Cheung.

Fired out of the gates by Cheung, the son of Strategic Maneuver (Royal Academy) led clearly on the bridle. Set alight at the top of the straight, Chapman Way had a big lead inside the 200-metre mark, and although tiring late, the gelding held on to win by a half length over the fast finishing Joyful Commander (Swiss Ace), with Californiatreasure (Onemorenomore) in third.

On Sunday's mixed turf and sand card, Smith struck early in race two with Knows It All (Bachelor Duke), who bolted away for a six lengths win in the Class 3 & 4 over 1510 metres under Japanese rider Massa Tanaka.

Knows It All is a former highly promising galloper that at one stage was being touted as a potential Derby (Listed, 1800m) prospect after winning four races from his first six starts in Macau, from 1050 metres (sand) to 1800 metres turf.

Formerly with Victor Chan, the gelding's form tapered off after April this year and he was transferred to Wayne Smith. Sunday was his fifth run under Smith and the son of Bachelor Duke (Miswaki) looks to be right back at the top of his game.

Star Of Yiu Cheung (Casino Prince) was the next of Smith's winners on Sunday when he made amends for his short head Derby defeat by romping home in the Class 2 & 3 over 1500 metres.

Ridden by Peter Ho, Star Of Yiu Cheung never looked in doubt in the run racing away for a four and a half lengths victory over Association Seven (Manhattan Rain).

Star of Yiu Cheung was Smith's first winner as trainer back in October and is no doubt the stable star. The impressive looking son of Casino Prince (Flying Spur) has put together a superb record of nine starts for four wins and five second placings; his biggest beaten margin has been one and a quarter lengths over 1050 metres on the sand.

The gelding was runner up in the Derby Trial (Listed, 1500m) by a short head to Winnie Star (Medaglia d'Oro), the Macau Guineas (Listed, 1500m) by a half length to Hostwin

Knows It All

MJC

Saturn (Stratum), and the Macau Derby by a short head to Sacred Magnate (Foxwedge). In both the Derby Trial and the Guineas he spoiled his chances by overracing badly.

Ocean Warrior (Ocean Park) was the last of Smith's winners on Sunday when Fausto Henrique caught his rival jockeys sleeping and pinched the 45-0 maiden over 1500 metres.

Henrique was allowed to stride away with a six length lead over his opponents in the back and it was obvious at the six hundred that the race was in his keeping. The diminutive son of the 2012 Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) winner Ocean Park (Zabeel) ran out a six length winner over Goal Achiever (Star Witness), with Master Of Mars (Master of Design) in third.

"I'm obviously thrilled that Star Of Yiu Cheung won so well today after what's been an unlucky season for him," Smith said.

"Ocean Warrior looks a very exciting prospect for next season; a small horse with a big heart and still a lot of improvement in him.

"Knows It All was a bit of a challenge when I got him and it was great to see him winning so well; I think we can improve him more next season."

Smith was full of praise for his owners and his stable staff after Sunday's victories.

Star Of Yiu Cheung

MJC

"It's a red letter day for the yard. I'm totally grateful to my owners for their patience and their support in allowing me to take my time and not rush the horses. Also a big shout out to my staff who are the hardest working lads in the Club, they totally deserve the success."

A former Champion jockey in Dubai where he was based for 19 years, Smith only commenced training in September last year and after Sunday has now a total of 14 winners for the season, and a further 21 placings with 14 of those making the quinella spot, from a total of 122 runners.

Japanese rider Massa Tanaka also enjoyed a fine weekend booting home a treble over the two days to take him to 12 winners for the season, a great effort considering he only arrived in January this year just before the Covid -19 interruption to racing.

Tanaka was successful in the last of the night of Friday on the Stephen Chow-trained Honey Biscuit (Showcasing). The model of consistency arrived in the nick of time to win the Class 5 & 6 over 1510 metres.

Ocean Warrior

Treasure Honey (Real Impact) was his second winner for the weekend when he showed plenty of fight to take out the Class 5 & 6 on Sunday, before coming out in the next the Class 3 & 4 over 1510 metres with a big win on Wayne Smith's Knows It All (Bachelor Duke).

Hard working Tanaka has firmly entrenched himself in Macau racing after successful years in New Zealand and Korea.

Treble for Maurice - It was a breakout weekend for former Arrowfield shuttler Maurice (Screen Hero), who sired three new first-crop winners in Japan. On Saturday, Stutti (2 f ex Lilavati by Zenno Rob Roy) was the first of winners as she broke her maiden over 1600 metres on debut at Niigata, followed by T O Mary (2 f ex Reagle Mary by Afternoon Deelites) scoring over 1200 metres at Sapporo. Then on Sunday, Infinite (2 f ex Morganite by Agnes Digital) ran out a comfortable winner over 1600 metres at Niigata. Maurice shuttled to Arrowfield for three seasons beginning in 2017 and covered a total of 278 mares. Given current travel restrictions, the multiple Group 1 winner has not returned to Australia this year but his first two-year-olds are set to hit the track down under this season. Stutti, T O Mary and Infinite join Kaiser Nova as first-crop winners for Maurice, bringing his tally to four.

Double for Shalaa - Arrowfield shuttler Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) brought up his fourth and fifth first-crop winners last week with Cream Of The Crop (2 f ex I'm So Glad by Clodovil) scoring at Catterick over five furlongs on Tuesday, followed by King Shalaa (2 c ex Baki by Turtle Bowl) making a winning debut in a maiden over a mile at La Teste de Buch in France on Wednesday. Shalaa stands at Arrowfield for a fee of $33,000 (inc. GST) in 2020. His other winners include Shalaalaa, who ran fourth in the Marble Hill Stakes (Gr 3, 6f).

Territories - Darley shuttler Territories (Invincible Spirit) sired his eighth individual first-crop winner when Rhoscolyn (2 c ex Zeyran by Galileo) built on his earlier promise to make all for a comfortable two and three-quarter length win in a novice contest of seven furlongs at Haydock on Monday. Group 1 winner Territories stands at Darley's Kelvinside property in the Hunter Valley for a fee of $11,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

Vadamos - Rich Hill Stud shuttler Vadamos (Monsun) sired his third first-crop winner on Saturday when Tarhun (2 c ex Miss Purity Pinker by One Cool Cat) broke his maiden over 1500 metres at Naples in Italy. Group 1 winner Vadamos stands at Rich Hill in New Zealand for a fee of NZ $15,000 (plus GST) in 2020.

New Group / Grade 1 winners

Dubawi - A devastating turn of foot from Space Blues (4 c ex Miss Lucifer by Noverre) saw the Godolphin colt burst through off the inside rail and claim a maiden Group 1 success in the Prix Maurice de Gheest (Gr 1, 1300m) at Deauville on Sunday. The victory provided his sire Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) with a 43rd top level winner. Dubawi stood at Darley's Dalham Hall Stud for a fee of £250,000 (approx AUD$456,000) in 2020.

Lope De Vega - The Jessica Harrington-trained Lucky Vega (2 c ex Queen Of Carthage by Cape Cross) stepped forward on his third start to land the Phoenix Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at the Curragh on Sunday, and in the process became the 11th Group 1 winner for his sire Lope De Vega (Shamardal), who stands at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland where his 2020 fee was €100,000 (approx AUD$164,500).

New stakes winners

Camelot - The Adrian McGuinness-trained Current Option (4 g ex Coppertop by Exceed And Excel) backed up his Galway Handicap success with a maiden stakes victory in the Platinum Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Cork on Saturday and in the process, became the 34th individual stakes winner for Camelot (Montjeu). Former Coolmore shuttler Camelot stands at Coolmore in Ireland where his 2020 fee was €40,000 (approx AUD$66,000).

Camelot

COOLMORE

Dabirsim - Dabirsim (Hat Trick) sired his sixth individual stakes winner when Velma Valento (5 m ex Bunny Lebowsky by Echo Of Light) just edged out favourite Glycon (Le Havre) in a tight finish to the Prix du Pays d'Auge (Listed, 1800m) at Clairefontaine on Friday. Dabirsim stood at Haras de Grandcamp for a fee of €12,000 in 2020 (approx AUD$19,700).

Galileo - The majestically bred Shale (2 f ex Homecoming Queen by Holy Roman Emperor) provided Galileo (Sadler's Wells) with his 333rd individual stakes winner when she became the latest in a long line of smart Coolmore-owned fillies to land Leopardstown's Silver Flash

Stakes (Gr 3, 7f). Europe's multiple champion sire Galileo once again stood at Coolmore in Ireland for an undisclosed fee in 2020.

Gleneagles - Third in the Prix du Lys (Gr 3, 2400m) last time, Measure Of Time (3 c ex Inch Perfect by Theatrical) claimed his first stakes success on Sunday at Deauville when landing the Prix Michel Houyvet (Listed, 2800m) for Andre Fabre. The Coolmore runner was making it three wins from five starts, having won on his only start last year and following up at Clairefontaine on his return in May, and became the sixth stakes winner for his sire Gleneagles (Galileo). Dual 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) winner Gleneagles stands at Coolmore in Fethard and his 2020 fee was €35,000 (approx AUD$57,500).

Le Havre - Port Guillaume (3 c ex Keira by Turtle Bowl) took his record to four wins from five starts and announced himself as a potential Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) contender after a dominant success in the Prix Hocquart (Gr 2, 2500m) at Deauville on Saturday. He becomes the 37th Stakes winner for Le Havre (Noverre), who stands at Montfort et Preaux for €50,000 in 2020 (approx AUD$82,200).

Mastercraftsman - The Roger Charlton-trained five-year-old Extra Elusive (5 g ex Nessina by Hennessy) followed up his second in the Steventon Stakes (Listed, 1m 2f) last month with his first stakes victory in the Rose of Lancaster Stakes (Listed, 1m2f) at Haydock on Saturday. Placed four times in stakes company, including third in the Gordon Richards Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 2f) last year, this was his first stakes win and he became the 71st individual stakes winner for former Coolmore shuttler Mastercraftsman (Danehill Dancer), who stood in Ireland for a fee of €25,000 (approx AUD$41,000) in 2020.

Mayson - A surprise victory for 20-1 shot Maystar (3 g ex Oakley Star by Multiplex) in the Prix Moonlight Cloud (Listed, 1200m) on Sunday saw Mayson (Invincible Spirit) claim a seventh career stakes winner. Mayson stood at Cheveley Park Stud for £5,000 (approx AUD$9,100) in 2020.

Not A Single Doubt - Saturday's Rosebud (Listed, 1100m) at Rosehill was another reminder of the loss Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) is to the Australian breeding industry after his son Anders (3 c ex Madame Andree by War Emblem) dominated the $140,000 event. The 73rd individual stakes winner for Arrowfield Stud sire Not A Single Doubt, who was pensioned earlier this year, Anders joins fellow Aquis Farm-owned colt, the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Farnan, and the likes of Miracles Of Life, Extreme Choice and Kenedna as stakes winners for the stallion. He covered 94 mares in 2019, his 15th and final season at stud.

Pride Of Dubai - Star Of Emaraaty (2 f ex La Grande Elisa by Ad Valorem) sprung a surprise in the Sweet Solera Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Newmarket on Saturday scoring at 66-1 and becoming the first European stakes winner and second overall for Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry). Pride Of Dubai is represented in Australia with Listed scorer Tanker and stands at Coolmore for a fee of $38,500 (inc GST) in 2020.

Sir Prancealot - Cornerstone Stud shuttler Sir Prancealot (Tamayuz) sired his eighth individual stakes winner when Miss Amulet (2 f ex Sheena's Dream by Oasis Dream) ran on to land the Marwell Stakes (Listed, 5f) at Naas on Monday. Grade 1 winning sire Sir Prancealot will stand at Cornerstone in South Australia for a reduced fee of $9,900 (inc GST) in 2020.

War Front - O'Brien senior may have been out of luck when his two runners finished out of the frame in the Silver Flash, but he was soon back in familiar territory when Military Style (2 c ex Together Forever by Galileo) led home stablemate Van Gogh (American Pharoah) to take out the Tyros Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) and become War Front's (Danzig) 93rd individual stakes winner. War Front stood at Claiborne Farm in Kentucky for a fee of US$250,000 (approx AUD$347,000) in 2020, while his sire-son Omaha Beach will this year shuttle to Spendthrift Australia where he will stand for $22,000 (inc GST).
