$380,000 Deep Field colt destined for Hong Kong

Ricky Yiu wins sustained bidding duel as buyers demand quality on day two of the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale

Lot 398 Deep Field - Raheights colt

INGLIS

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

The progeny of Deep Field (Northern Meteor) came to the fore in a strong second day of trade at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale yesterday, with a son of the emerging Newgate Farm-based stallion becoming the highest-priced lot of the auction so far.

The future of the most expensive yearling - a $380,000 buy and one of nine youngsters by Deep Field to make $100,000 or more - will be in Hong Kong after trainer Ricky Yiu held off the competition to buy the Torryburn Stud-consigned colt in an emotional result for the vendor.

Yiu, who is leading the Hong Kong trainers' premiership this season with 37 winners, is an unabashed fan of Deep Field and was determined to add a son of the sire to his stable.

Deep Field had his three-year-old son Californiadeepshot, who is trained by Tony Cruz, score an ultra impressive first-up win in Hong Kong last month to take his unbeaten record to three after scoring back-to-back victories at Kembla Grange early this season.

"We have a few by Deep Field and so far they have done well in trials and they (look like) winning races," Yiu said.

"They are very popular in Australia and I wanted a nice yearling by Deep Field.

"He looks versatile, maybe 1200 (metres), 1400 to a mile horse, and he looks like a runner."

Co-trainers Tony and Calvin McEvoy were the under bidders on the second high-priced lot they narrowly missed out on in the space of 30 minutes.

Torryburn Stud's John Cornish, whose wife Pam died on Sunday after a long illness, bred the session-topping colt as well as high-class Hong Kong sprinter Hot King Prawn (Denman).

He is the sixth foal out of four-time winner Raheights (Rahy), who is already the dam of Group 3 winner Diddums (Snitzel) and the stakes-placed Brettan (Commands). He was catalogued as Lot 398.

Yiu said the colt coped well with the sales experience despite the atrocious weather at the weekend and that his temperament should hold him in good stead for his future in Hong Kong.

"He was locked up (on Sunday) with all the rain and I pulled him out this morning and he was fresh but I think he will be okay," he said.

Colt by Nature Strip's sire fetches $370,000

Trainers with close links to talented siblings of a $370,000 Newhaven Park-consigned Nicconi (Bianconi) colt yesterday fought out a strong bidding war, with Victoria's Andrew Noblet holding out rivals Tony and Calvin McEvoy to secure the yearling.

Noblet, who is set to relocate from Caulfield to Ballarat next month, was desperate to buy the colt by Group 1-winning sprinter Nature Strip's sire, having prepared his half-sister Indigo Las (High Chaparral) to two victories from four starts.

INGLIS

"I trained the half-sister Indigo Lass who I had a big opinion of, but unfortunately she died late last year," Noblet said.

"She was a beautiful, athletic filly and he is a great moving colt and I know the family quite well.

"Indigo Lass was very slight - she was by High Chaparral and very much in that mould - while he's got some similarities to her but he is just all quality."

The McEvoy's, who train another half-sister to the colt, debut winner Fields Of Ivy (Deep Field), were the underbidders.

Catalogued as Lot 377, the colt is the sixth foal out of the twice-winning mare Poison Ivy (Danehill Dancer) whose five foals to race are all winners, including the stakes winner Lotion (Good Journey).

Last crop Hinchinbrook colt makes $360,000

The deeds of Hong Kong International Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Beat The Clock helped another son of his late sire Hinchinbrook (Fastnet Rock) surge towards the top of the Classic sale charts after being bought by George Moore for $360,000.

Moore revealed that he had seven colts on his shortlist before narrowing that down to two contenders and it was the Hinchinbrook yearling whose presence caught the agent's attention most on sale day.

"I have only seen him three times. Obviously it's been raining all week, so I saw him twice and then once again this morning," Moore said yesterday.

"He was walking a lot better this morning. He wasn't in the rain and I could actually get a very good look at him.

"He has grown quite a lot on me, this horse. There is a Deep Field later in the sale that I quite liked also, but I compared both of them this morning and the Hinchinbrook grew on me a little bit more."

The colt is the 11th foal out of Morinda (Desert King), who is rising 21 and is the dam of seven winners including the stakes-placed Prix Du Sang (Red Ransom) and Happy Hussy (Hussonet). He was catalogued as Lot 328.

Moore had to go slightly over his budget to get the colt, but he has no regrets about doing so.

"He is out of an older mare but... he still has a lot of substance and I liked the way he moved," he said.

"Harry (Mitchell, Yarraman Park) thought he could almost have been in the Easter sale but being out of an older mare he thought this sale might be a good target for him."

Moore said the colt was "an easy sell" given the success of the John Size-trained Beat The Clock.

"He was bought for a Hong Kong client, but he might race him here first to qualify him for a Hong Kong private purchase permit," he said.

"I was thinking he was a $250,000 to $300,000 colt but he had quite a lot of hits on x-ray. He had 13 hits and once you're getting anywhere over ten, you have got quite a lot of people on the same horse."

Hinchinbrook died in July 2018 and has 81 last-crop yearlings.

Starcraft colt a bonanza for KBL

Meanwhile, Moore and his Hong Kong trainer-father John also landed a colt by Starcraft (Soviet Star) for $340,000, almost double the price the agent initially thought he might have to pay for the yearling.

The young agent admitted he generally does not buy "big horses" but just had to take the KBL Thoroughbreds-offered colt home because he could see him as almost a replica of star Hong Kong horses Able Friend (Shamardal) and current stable star Aethero (Sebring).

Moore was emphatic that the colt would be his, outlasting fellow Hong Kong-based Upper Bloodstock before admitting he would have been prepared to go to $500,000 if necessary to secure him.

"That horse was probably the nicest horse I have seen in a long time at the Classic sale and obviously I don't buy a lot of big horses," Moore said.

"There are only two other chestnut horses he reminds me of. He had the same exact walk, the same exact temperament and the same good drive behind as Able Friend. Aethero is the other one.

"I said to dad, 'we've just got to buy him.' Walking around he was very imposing like Aethero and Able Friend, who are competitive horses and that is the sort of horse that we like."

By Rosemont Stud-based stallion Starcraft, the colt is the fourth foal out of Sky Rubi (Testa Rossa), a two-time winner who has produced two foals to race, including the stakes-performed California Honey (Starspangledbanner). He was catalogued as Lot 471.

KBL Thoroughbreds' Kandice Pritchard was left "speechless" after the sale result.

"This is the first KBL baby to go through the ring," Pritchard revealed.

"Brad (Lowe) bought the mare in foal, so he is the first one bred that we've sold that we own. He was busy all week with 17 x-ray hits, but this was our first draft at the Classic sale so I wasn't sure what to expect. It's just unbelievable.

"He was a bit gangly as a youngster and I was wondering what we were going to do with the horse. He was very up and down - you've got to juggle them and treat them as individuals.

"That price was amazing. I just don't really know what to say. I'm speechless."

Harron backing Capitalist venture

James Harron's colts syndicate continued his sales ring support of the group's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Capitalist's (Written Tycoon) first crop yearlings, purchasing a $340,000 son of the horse who helped put the prominent agent on the map.

"He is a lovely colt out of a good racemare, who was very precocious herself," Harron said.

"I just loved the attitude of his horse. He handled the sale beautifully and he has a lot of quality about him, lovely middle and I was watching him in the back ring and he just handled everything so well like his dad used to, so I was very pleased to get him."

Harron also bought two colts by his former star two-year-old at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale last month for $750,000 and $600,000 respectively.

His latest Capitalist acquisition was offered by Newgate Farm as Lot 369. He is the first foal out of the twice-winning, Inglis Banner (RL, 1000m)-placed mare Pearl Congenial (Gio Ponti), who in turn is a granddaughter of Group 2 winner Toast Of The Coast (Rory's Jester). The colt is also from the same family as this season's Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, Continued on page 6>>

Lot 445

Breeding: Extreme Choice - Set To Skelter (Reset) colt

Price: $280,000

Buyer: Dream Thoroughbreds/Blue Sky Bloodstock/Bluegrass Bloodstock/Anthony Freedman Racing

Vendor: Bell River Thoroughbreds

Dream Thoroughbreds' David Azzopardi hopes he has found an able replacement for the soon-to-be retired dual stakes-winning sprinter I Am Immortal (I Am Invincible), who will stand at Swettenham Stud later this year. "There are a couple in the family coming through that we are aware of, so it is an active family. There's a lot of black-type on the page and he is a lovely athletic colt - not too big - and Anthony Freedman loved him," Azzopardi said. "We have had success with I Am Immortal and sending him to stud and we now need to replace him with another colt. Those owners have enjoyed a good ride and a lot of those owners will probably buy back into this colt."

Harron also bought a colt by Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) on day one for $160,000.

"The market has been very strong and the good horses have been selling really well," he said.

"I felt very sorry for Inglis (on Sunday) because the conditions were against them, but they did a brilliant job of keeping it all together and I think we've seen a very healthy market continue."

Smith snaps up 'value' Vinnie filly

Matthew Smith came away from last month's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale empty handed, but the Warwick Farm trainer regrouped and resolved to make a concerted push at the Classic sale on his "home turf".

Lot 447

Breeding: Deep Field - She Chose Me (Foxwedge) colt

Price: $260,000

Buyer: McEvoy Mitchell Racing/Belmont Bloodstock Agency

Vendor: Newhaven Park

"I bought him for Tony McEvoy and the stable loves Deep Field. They have had a lot of success with them and he has got a lot more to come that are unraced, so he has got a really good feel about the stallion," Belmont Bloodstock's Damon Gabbedy said. "Newhaven are great breeders and he stood out on pedigree and on type. We have looked at him about five or six times. He's relaxed, has a great temperament, a good walk, so he was a 'must-have'."

The Group 1-winning trainer, whose current stable star Fierce Impact (Deep Impact) was runner-up in Saturday's C F Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield, has bought 11 yearlings in the first two days of the Sydney sale, including an I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) filly for $210,000.

Smith thought the filly, who he bought in conjunction with agent John Foote, compared more than favourably to the top-priced lot on day one, the $350,000 daughter of I Am Invincible who was knocked down to Star Thoroughbreds and Randwick Bloodstock Agency.

"We thought she was one of the best fillies on the complex and we have been very lucky to buy many of the fillies we have liked at this sale," Smith said.

"I Am Invincible fillies are probably averaging more than what we paid for her, I'm sure, but she was just a cracking filly."

Consigned by Kitchwin Hills as Lot 311, the filly is the third foal of the winning mare Miss Beauty World (God's Own) whose first foal to race is McCullum (Deep Field), who was placed twice last season as a juvenile at Sandown.

Smith was satisfied with the stock he had so far been able to secure at Riverside Stables.

"This is our home turf and we didn't buy at Magics," he said.

"We tried to, but we just couldn't quite get what we wanted because it was a very strong market up there, but it means we could be strong at this sale.

"I thought I was going to have to go to $300,000 for her. I really thought she'd be making that money every day of the week. The filly that sold on Sunday made $350,000 and I thought this was an even better filly.

"I know everyone has their own opinion, but I didn't see much between them so I think she was good value in the end." Continued on page 7>>

Bell River back with a bang

Bell River Thoroughbreds' re-entry into the yearling sale market was given the tick of approval by the buying bench, with the the Ferguson family's quality day two offering reaching a high of $300,000 for a Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) colt.

The six-figure yearling, who is out of an unraced half-sister to Group 1 winner Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt), was bought by Ciaron Maher Racing, who also train Group 2 winner Dubious by the sire.

The Ferguson family's Bell River Thoroughbreds have also sold three other yearlings for more than $200,000 at the Classic sale in their return to selling for the first time since 2016.

They included a $280,000 Extreme Choice half-brother to their stakes-winning mare Prophet's Thumb (I Am Invincible).

"To have people like Anthony Freedman, Godolphin and Mick Price as underbidders is very pleasing and it was just a great result," Andrew Ferguson said.

"The ones we expected to sell well have gone well. The boys wanted to come back with a bang and we've certainly done that.

"We've had a couple of disappointments - the bottom end has been difficult - but that's the industry at the minute. When they want a quality horse, they are prepared to pay for it and that's as breeders what we've got to produce."

Offered as lot 451, the Not A Single Doubt colt is She's Our Choice's (Duporth) first foal, who is also a half-sister to the stakes-placed Raise No Doubt (Not A Single Doubt) and, of course, elite two-year-old Extreme Choice.

Maher, who trains in partnership with David Eustace, admitted he was "pretty taken with this horse".

"He has obviously got a stallion's pedigree and I love the Not A Single Doubts," the trainer said.

"He is very much like the old man and he is from a good farm in Bell River. I have bought a lot from them in the past and I was glad to be able to get a quality colt like that from them again."

Le Metayer and Maher team up for Extreme Choice colt

Earlier in the session, this season's leading two-year-old trainer Maher and Astute Bloodstock's Louis Le Metayer both endorsed dual Group 1-winning first season sire Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) after buying a colt by the Newgate Farm-based stallion for $210,000.

Sold by Bell River Thoroughbreds, the colt is the sixth foal out of the placed Viscount (Quest For Fame) mare Magic Zefta, making the yearling a half-brother to the Group 1-placed mare Denmagic (Denman). Magic Zefta is also the half-sister to Group 2 winner Go The Knuckle (Elvstroem) and the stakes-placed Hieroglyphics (Conatus). He was catalogued as Lot 276.

"We think the mare has got a lot of ability as a broodmare and he was just a lovely, strong physical who we both liked," Le Metayer said.

"The stallion was so fast and he is well-bred. Unfortunately he is not very fertile, but he was a horse with electrifying speed and that's what seems to make a stallion this side of the world."

Maher partnered with Le Metayer to buy the colt, furthering the pair's growing relationship.

"He is a ripping type like his old man and, as Louis says, he's a great type and just the type we've been buying over the past few years and thankfully we are seeing the fruits of that on the racetrack this year," Maher said.

"Extreme Choice was a very neat horse and very fast and a really, really good mover and you look for that in his sons."

Extreme Choice has 48 first crop yearlings while he has 38 foals at foot this season. He covered 65 mares in 2019 at a fee of $22,000 (inc GST).

Weather causes later start to day two

The second session of the Classic sale was delayed by 30 minutes, with Inglis electing to push back the start of the auction due to flooding that caused road closures in Sydney, including the nearby Hume Highway.

According to the Bureau of Meteorology, 159.6 millimetres of rain fell in the preceding 24 hours to 9am yesterday. A relentless downpour lasted for the duration of Sunday's session, but yesterday was fine.

Inglis managing director Mark Webster said after two days of Classic - the company's "third cut" sale - that it was clear buyers honed in on horses deemed to be of a higher quality.

The average was sitting at $89,339 last night with a median of $75,000, figures that compared favourably to the 2018 Classic sale.

<< Continued from page 7 $100,000, for example, there has been 137 make $100,000 or more after selling 540 lots, compared to 107 last year," Webster said.

"That's just showing that it's easier to sell those better types even if they are more expensive at the moment.

"We sold two lots for $300,000 or more on Sunday and there were six today, so there was a bit more depth at the top.

"We have mopped up a lot of those passed in horses from yesterday and overall we're clearing 82 per cent and it was at 78 per cent yesterday."

The third and final day, which incorporates the Highway Session, starts at 10am today.

Meanwhile, the $2 million Inglis Millennium (RL, 1100m) and Inglis 3YO Sprint (1200m), which were postponed on Saturday, have been rescheduled for tomorrow's Warwick Farm meeting as races two and three.

"I met with Nevesh (Ramdhani) and Mark Jones (ATC track managers) this morning and they were quite bullish about being able to race on Wednesday," Webster said.

"If you look at the schedule, the first race is at 11.25am and the Millennium is the second race at 12pm and then at 12.40pm. There is rain forecast later in the day, so they are trying to get the meeting done and dusted before the wet weather hits."

Gytrash set for Lightning test

Track specialist Gytrash (Lope de Vega), who is unbeaten in two starts up the Flemington straight, is one of 13 nominations for Saturday's Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m). Triple Group 1-winner Nature Strip (Nicconi) is the TAB's red-hot $1.60 favourite, while star fillies Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible) and Libertini (I Am Invincible), who also holds a nomination in the Light Fingers Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick, are next in at $6.50 with Gytrash a $10 chance. Richards has issued an upbeat bulletin on his charge, who will be having his first outing since running second in the Heath Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) on August 31. "He had a gallop between races at Morphettville on February 1 with Bold Star. They only went up a half-mile and it was on a heavy track, but they ran a good time," Richards said. "It was ideal for him and he pulled-up really well after it, so we'll be there on Saturday and he's fighting fit."

Gaby gallops at Moonee Valley

Manikato Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Loving Gaby completed her preparations for the Lightning Stakes with a solid workout at Moonee Valley yesterday morning. Loving Gaby worked in partnership with her Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m)-bound stablemate Bons Away (Bon Hoffa), clocking their final 800 metres in 49.48 seconds. Under Rhys Mcleod, the daughter of I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) also clocked her final 400 metres in 22.96 seconds – easily the quickest split of the nine gallops held yesterday.

Libertini favourite for Light Fingers

Libertini was installed as the TAB's $2.50 favourite for the Light Fingers Stakes, but trainer Anthony Cummings is keeping his options open in light of the current wet forecast. "We're aiming at winning a Group 1 and it could be as early as this Saturday as our options are open of staying here in Sydney or coming down to Melbourne," Cummings told Racing.com. "I am not sure what is going to happen here with the rain about. The preference might be to race here (Light Fingers Stakes) but if the rain stays around, she'll go down and Damien Oliver will ride her in the Lightning. We'll accept for both places on Wednesday and look at the circumstances and if she is going to travel, she'll probably travel down Thursday night."

Catalyst ready to showcase talent

Leading New Zealand three-year-old Catalyst (Darci Brahma) arrived safely in Australia on Sunday and trainer Clayton Chipperfield has issued a glowing report on his colt ahead of Saturday's CS Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington. "I have got Damian Lane coming over in the middle of the week to give him a bit of a blow-out, but we don't need to do a lot with him," Chipperfield said. "We couldn't have him any better going into Saturday. There will be no excuses." James McDonald will ride Catalyst on Saturday, replacing the suspended Lane, who will be aboard in his next two races, the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and the All-Star Mile (1600m).

Soul Patch to resume in CS Hayes

Catalyst was one of 14 entries taken for the CS Hayes, which also include Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) quinella Super Seth (Dundeel) and Alligator Blood (All Too Hard), as well as VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) third Soul Patch (Shamus Award), and trainer Ken Keys is confident his charge can perform well first-up on Saturday. The winner of three of his six starts, including the Moonee Valley Vase (Gr 2, 2040m) last October, Soul Patch finished second in a Cranbourne barrier trial over 990 metres last week. "I couldn't have been happier with his trial and he came through it well," Keys said. "He's a big colt, but not a heavy colt, and he's done enough for 1400 metres first-up. Obviously the good ones will be there in force and we're not scared of them. He should be very competitive I believe and we'll keep going up from there."

Begg keeping Mildred's options open

The next destination for Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) winner Mildred (Hinchinbrook) remains open for discussion as trainer Grahame Begg and the filly's owner - Begg's father and Hall of Fame trainer Neville - contemplate running the talented juvenile in the Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Flemington on Saturday or waiting for the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) the following week. "Neville's sitting at home watching all the two-year-old races and keeping a pretty close eye on everything," Grahame Begg said. "We've got a few decisions to make in the next few days whether we run in the Talindert or keep her for the Blue Diamond. She's been entered for the Talindert and we'll look at what she is coming up against, but we'll probably accept and make a decision later in the week."

Clapper set for Apollo

Happy Clapper

SPORTPIX

Popular veteran Happy Clapper (Teofilo) will return in the Apollo Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Randwick on Saturday, the nine-year-old one of 14 nominations taken for the $250,000 contest yesterday. "He will run," trainer Pat Webster said. "I'm not keen on him having a hard run first-up in the wet, but he has to start in the Apollo because it fits in with his programme going ahead to the Chipping Norton. He is fit and well and his two trials have been good so I think he's ready to go." Happy Clapper will be undertaking his first autumn campaign in recent times without the presence of old foe Winx (Street Cry), but his Apollo opposition is still plentiful, with the nominations including triple Group 1-winner Alizee (Sepoy), Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) runner-up Dreamforce (Fastnet Rock), and Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Verry Elleegant (Zed).

Maher outlines Cellsabeel plan

Red-hot favourite Cellsabeel (Hinchinbrook) is set to miss tomorrow's rescheduled Inglis Millennium (RL, 1100m) at Warwick Farm and instead head to Saturday week's Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) at Rosehill as she continues on her path towards the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at the same track on March 21. "The closer it gets to the Silver Slipper, the less likely we are to run (in the Millennium) because it's just too quick a turnaround and that's the race I've got penciled in," co-trainer Ciaran Maher told Racing.com. In relation to the likelihood of Cellsabeel lining up in the Blue Diamond Stakes instead of the Silver Slipper, both of which are run on the same afternoon, Maher added: "I'd say the Silver Slipper is probably the leading option at the moment."

Wet no concern for Litt

Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) runner-up Castelvechchio (Dundeel) will continue on his path to a first-up run in the Hobartville Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Rosehill on February 22 with a trial at Warwick Farm on Thursday. The wet forecast is placing the workout in some jeopardy, but weather permitting, Castelvechchio is set to line-up in a ten-horse Group and Listed hit-out over 1000 metres, which is also scheduled to include Shadow Hero (Pierro) and Shared Ambition (Born To Sea). "He's due to trial on Thursday, weather permitting, and if he doesn't trial there's no drama there. He'll have a couple of good gallops and be ready to go in the Hobartville," trainer Richard Litt told Racing.com. Reflecting on Castelvechchio's last preparation, Litt added: "That Melbourne trip has grown him up a lot. He had a trip to Arrowfield for a few weeks there and he's come back a different horse. Physically and mentally, he's right on target."

Oakleigh Plate for Free Of Debt

Chris Bieg has withdrawn Free Of Debt (Unencumbered) from the running for next month's All-Star Mile (1600m) and will keep the progressive three-year-old to sprint trips for the foreseeable future. A Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) placegetter last year, Free Of Debt finished runner-up to Super Seth (Dundeel) on his return in the Manfred Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) and he will be set for the Oakleigh Plate on February 22. "He'll get in on the minimum with 50 kilos in the Oakleigh Plate so it looks like a good option for him," Bieg said. "He's nominated for the Newmarket Handicap, so I guess that would be the next stepping stone. At some point I think he will race beyond 1200 metres, but we'll let him tell us when that's ready to happen."

Constantinople to trial at Wodonga

Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) fourth Constantinople (Galileo) heads a select team of Lindsay Park-trained horses that are set to trial at Wodonga this morning. Formerly trained by Aidan O'Brien, the Irish import was beaten four lengths into 13th in last year's Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) and he will step out in the first heat, run over 1590 metres at 9am, before his first-up assignment in the Peter Young Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) at Caulfield on February 22.

QRIC clarifies use of prescribed drugs

The Queensland Racing Integrity Commission has moved to clarify rules regarding jockeys' use of prescribed drugs. A QRIC spokesperson said there was a lengthy explanation of the rules governing prescription drugs on the Commission's website. "The medication must be essential treatment for a substantial illness, condition or ailment suffered by the rider or horse handler," the spokesperson said. "The medication must be prescribed by a medical practitioner, who is a recognised specialist in the relevant field of medicine, and the specialist must certify the nature of the illness, condition or ailment. Also, that no alternative substance that is not a banned substance would serve the same medicinal purpose." The spokesperson said it also needed to be certified that the medication would not affect a rider in a race, official trial, jump-out or track work. "The rider must before handling any horse, make an application for permission to ride or handle a horse with a specifically prescribed banned substance in the person's system," the spokesperson added.

Robinson resigns form VRC board

Elisa Robinson has announced her resignation from the board of the Victoria Racing Club. Robinson, who was returned to the board in December along with retiring chairman Amanda Elliott and Katherine Bourke, did not go into reasons for her departure. The VRC released the following statement yesterday evening: "The Victoria Racing Club (VRC) can confirm Elisa Robinson resigned as a director of the VRC on Monday, 10 February 2020. The VRC board of directors thank Ms Robinson for her contribution to the Club over almost nine years. As is normal procedure with a board vacancy, it is a matter for the VRC directors going forward." Robinson was backed in the December election by two board members — John O'Rourke and Peter Fekete — who clashed over governance issues with Elliott, who remains as a director. Robinson's resignation could pave the way for club chief executive Neil Wilson to nominate for the board position.

NEW ZEALAND

Richardson's faith in Tiptronic rewarded

Graham Richardson rates the breakthrough Group 1 success of Tiptronic (O'Reilly) in last Saturday's Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 200m) as a highlight of his training career. The six-year-old was securing his first elite-level win at his 30th start, with Richardson having purchased Tiptronic for NZ$100,000 at the NZB National Yearling Sale in 2015. "Seeing him win on Saturday was one of the biggest thrills I've had. He has always been the underdog and he thoroughly deserved it," Richardson said. "It also meant more to me because I selected and bought him at the sales, just like I did with Volpe Veloce (winner of the 2018 Railway Stakes)." Richardson reports Tiptronic to have pulled-up well from his weekend assignment and he will press on to the Bonecrusher New Zealand Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Ellerslie on March 7. "He's going to have a week on the water walker then I'll get him ready for Ellerslie," Richardson added.

Trelawney fillies set to be kept apart

Trelawney Stud-owned three-year-olds Two Illicit

(Jimmy Choux) and Loire (Redoute's Choice) are set to be kept apart in their upcoming assignments, with the former - who posted an imperious success in the Waikato Guineas (Gr 2, 2000m) on Saturday - a potential to be supplemented for the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at Ellerslie on February 29. Loire ran third in the Sir Tristram Fillies Classic (Gr 2, 2000m) on the same card and Trelawney Stud's Brent Taylor said yesterday: "It was frightening what sort of margin Two Illicit put on a very good filly (Travelling Light). The pattern of racing may have suited, but she certainly found the line a lot better than we could have dreamed. We don't hold a nomination for the Derby. It has been an ongoing plan, so we will just see how she gets through this week and we will talk with Roger (James, co-trainer)." Taylor continued: "It seems an obvious task for her given the other filly (Loire) wants to go down the Oaks route, so we will just keep them apart if we can and have a crack at two races."

INTERNATIONAL

29 for Blame

The Bob Baffert-trained Nadal (3 c ex Ascending Angel by Pulpit) made it two wins from as many starts with a three-quarters of a length success in the San Vicente Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) at Santa Anita on Sunday to provide Claiborne Farm resident Blame (Arch) with his 29th individual stakes winner. The three-year-old, who won a Maiden Special Weight on debut at the track last month, showed a good attitude in the closing stages to fend off Ginobili (Munnings), while Fast Enough (Eddington) was a further neck back in second. Nadal was bought by Kerri Radcliffe Bloodstock for US$700,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Florida Gulfstream Two-Year-Olds Sale last March, while Blame will stand for a fee of US$35,000 this year.

President's Cup to Taamol

Taamol (6 h Helmet - Supreme Seductress by Montjeu) secured his second Listed success at Abu Dhabi when the six-year-old landed the President Cup (Listed, 1400m) under Jim Crowley on Sunday. Completing a trifecta for owner Sheikh Hamdan Al Maktoum, Taamol got the better of his Ali Rashid Al Rayhi-trained stable companion Yaalail (Intello) by a length and a quarter, with the same margin back to Zainhom (Street Cry) in third. Formerly trained in Britain by Sir Michael Stoute, for whom he was a Listed winner at three, Taamol has now won five of his 27 starts.

New winners

Headwater - Vinery Stud stallion Headwater (Exceed And Excel) sired his third individual winner on Sunday when Aquagirl (2 f ex Galapagos Girl by Dehere) landed the Firstly Sprint 2YO (1000m) at Flemington's Rapid Racing meeting. The Phillip Stokes-trained juvenile quickened up nicely under Dean Holland to post a half-length success and in doing so ensured Headwater lies second behind Spill The Beans (Snitzel) (four winners) in the race for the leading first season sire title by the metric of individual winners. Aquagirl was purchased by Dalziel Racing, Peter Moody and Stokes for $50,000 out of the Cressfield consignment at the 2019 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale and she is out of the dual Group 3 winner and Group 1-placed Galapagos Girl (Dehere).

New Group / Grade 1 winners

O'Reilly - The Graham Richardson-trained Tiptronic (6 g ex Tiptoes by Pins), who finished second in last year's renewal of the Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), went one better on Saturday when prevailing by the minimum of margins in a photo finish. Triptonic became the 15th individual Group 1 winner and 95th individual stakes winner for the late Waikato Stud sire O'Reilly (Last Tycoon). The four-time champion sire died in 2015.

Redoute's Choice - Late Arrowfield Stud flagbearer Redoute's Choice (Danehill) sired his 37th individual Group 1 winner on Saturday when classy three-year-old Alabama Express (3 c ex Lago Ovation by Encosta De Lago) got the better of his elders in the C F Orr Stakes (Gr

1, 1400m) at Caulfield. Redoute's Choice was euthanized at the age of 22 last March having covered 45 mares, at a fee of $137,500, during his final breeding season in 2018. He left a legacy that includes last year's outstanding three-year-old and current Arrowfield resident The Autumn Sun, while he is set to be represented by one youngster at next month's Inglis Premier Yearling Sale. She is catalogued as Lot 438.

Rip Van Winkle - Windsor Park Stud resident Rip Van Winkle (Galileo) sired his second Group 1 winner on Saturday when Doncaster Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) and Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) placegetter Te Akau Shark (5 g Bak da Chief by Chief Bearhart) gained a deserved top-flight success in the BCD Group Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m). Former Coolmore resident Rip Van Winkle stands at Windsor Park Stud for NZ$12,500 (plus GST) and Te Akau Shark joins Phoenix Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) winner

Dick Whittington as the sire's other elite-level scorer.

New Stakes winners

Arcano - A shock win for Rusumaat (6 g ex Queen Wasp by Shamardal) in Thursday's Dubai Sprint Trophy (Listed, 1200m) at Meydan provided his sire Arcano (Oasis Dream) with his 14th individual stakes winner.

Blame - The Bob Baffert-trained Nadal (3 c ex Ascending Angel by Pulpit) made it two wins from as many starts with a three-quarters of a length success in the San Vicente Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) at Santa Anita on Sunday to provide Claiborne Farm resident Blame (Arch) with his 29th individual stakes winner. Nadal was bought by Kerri Radcliffe Bloodstock for US$700,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Florida Gulfstream Two-Year-Olds Sale last March, while Blame will stand for a fee of US$35,000 this year.

Darci Brahma - The Oaks Stud resident Darci Brahma (Danehill) sired his 44th stakes winner on Thursday when Sinarahma (5 m ex Shez Sinsational by Ekraar) took out the Thoroughbred Breeders Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Tauherenikau. Trained by Allan Sharrock, Sinarahma was securing her fifth success in 13 outings having run ninth in last year's Manawatu Breeders (Gr 3, 2000m) - her only other start in stakes company. Darci Brahma stood for a fee of NZ$15,000 last year and he is the sire of ten individual Group 1 winners, including star New Zealand three-year-old Catalyst.

Footstepsinthesand - Mariafoot (3 f ex Maria Gabriella by Rock of Gibraltar) became the 61st individual stakes winner for Castle Hyde Stud resident Footstepsinthesand (Giant's Causeway) when she claimed the Prix de la Californie (Listed, 1600m) at Cagnes-Sur-Mer on Sunday. Footstepsinthesand will stand for a fee of €15,000 in 2020 and his progeny includes last year's high-class European juvenile Mum's Tiptle.

Munnings - Venetian Harbor (3 f ex Sounds of the City by Street Cry) marked herself out as a possible Kentucky Oaks (Gr 1, 9f) contender when she romped to a nine and a quarter-length victory in the Las Virgenes Stakes (Gr 2, 8f) on the main track at Santa Anita on Saturday. A $110,000 purchase at the 2018 Keeneland September Yearling Sale from the Ashview Farm consignment, Venetian Harbor has now won two of her three starts. Saturday's wide-margin win over Gingham (Quality Road), who in turn was two and a half lengths clear of the third, Stellar Sound (Tapit), meant Venetian Harbor became the 37th individual stakes winner for Munnings (Speightstown).

My Admiration - Cryptic Wonder (3 g ex Abitcryptic by Bletchley Park) atoned for a short-head defeat on his last outing at Perth when making a successful transition to black-type company in the Magic Millions WA 3YO Trophy (RL, 1200m) to become the first stakes winner for Westbury Park Stud resident My Admiration (Encosta de Lago) on Saturday. The Grant and Alana Williams-trained Cryptic Wonder has now won two of his three starts. My Admiration covered just 11 mares at a fee of $4,950 last year.

Shamardal - Former shuttler and Darley heavyweight Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) sired his 145th stakes winner on Sunday when Zargos (4 m ex Sister Rocks by Rock Hard Ten) landed the Bow Mistress Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Hobart. Tried in the Schweppes Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) as a three-year-old, Zargos has now won four of her 13 starts. Meanwhile, Kildangan Stud resident Shamardal will stand for a private fee in the northern hemisphere this year, and his progeny includes the Charlie Appleby-trained Pinatubo, who was crowned Europe's champion two-year-old of 2019 with a lofty official rating of 128.

Snippetson - Scenic Lodge resident Snippetson (Snippets) sired his 14th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Gemma's Son (2 c ex Princess Gemma by Dr Fong) took out the Magic Millions WA 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) at Pinjaara. Gemma's Son won his first two outings over 1000 metres at Perth and improved for the step up to 1200 metres on Saturday, joining the likes of Fast Clip and My Poppette as stakes winners for Snippetson, who covered 65 mares at a fee of $6,600 last year.

Snitzel - Snitzel, Arrowfield's champion sire and a son of Redoute's Choice (Danehill), enjoyed a red-letter day at Caulfield on Saturday, siring a stakes double. Letzbeclam (2 f ex Miss Charming by Forestry) initiated proceedings when she took out the Blue Diamond Prelude (F) (Gr 2, 1100m) to make it two victories from as many starts. Later on the card, Sylvia's Mother (4 m ex Found the One by Bel Esprit) made the breakthrough in Group company with a triumphant return in the Bellmaine Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m).

So You Think - Miss Siska (6 f So You Think ex Sing Hallelujah by Is It True) returned to action with an important first win in stakes company when she posted a hard-fought success in Saturday's Carlyon Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) at Caulfield. Miss Siska's win, her seventh in 25 starts, provided her sire So You Think (High Chaparral) with his 24th individual stakes winner. So You Think stands at Coolmore for a fee of $38,500.

Symboli Kris S - Cortesia (3c ex Ciel Et Mer by Jungle Pocket) provided his sire Symboli Kris S (Kris S) with a 31st individual stakes winner when posting a surprise victory in the Kisaragi Sho (Gr 3, 1800m) on the Kyoto turf on Sunday. The Takashi Suzuki-trained three-year-old has now won two of his six starts.

The Wow Signal - Late Swettenham Stud shuttler The Wow Signal (Starspangledbanner) sired his first stakes winner on Saturday when How Womantic (3 f ex Banderilla by Delzao) maintained her unbeaten record in the Kevin Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield. Owned by Al Shaqab and a resident of Haras de Bouquetot in France, The Wow Signal shuttled to Swettenham for one southern hemisphere breeding season, covering 43 mares in 2015. The sire of just ten runners worldwide, five of whom have won, The Wow Signal was plagued with fertility problems throughout his truncated time at stud. He died from complications as a result of laminitis in 2018.

Toorak Toff - The Michael Trinder-trained Toorak Affair (6 m ex Smooth Return by Redoute's Choice) took out Sunday's Hobart Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) to provide Tasmania-based sire Toorak Toff (Show A Heart) with his second stakes winner. Toorak Affair was registering her 12th win in 35th starts, albeit an overdue success at stakes level, and she joins Iconoclast as stakes winners for her Kingsley Park-based sire. Toorak Toff covered nine mares at a fee of $3,850 last year, while an Alpine Eagle (High Chaparral) half-brother to the winner is set to be offered at the Magic Millions Tasmanian Yearling Sale. He is catalogued as Lot 82.
