*Woodside Park's flagship stallion celebrates rare Guineas double

Woodside Park Stud's Written Tycoon (Iglesia) yesterday became the first horse in almost half a century to produce the winners of both the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) in the same year as Ole Kirk (3 c ex Nature by Bel Esprit) and Odeum (3 f ex Movie by Red Ransom) took out the double at Caulfield yesterday.

No stallion had achieved the feat since

Sovereign Edition's (Sovereign Path) top fillies Surround and Savoir took the Caulfield Guineas and Thousand Guineas respectively in 1976; that year, they were run a week apart.

The pair of Guineas wins came just a couple of races after another son, Dirty Work (4 h ex Maidel by Ad Valorem) took out the Schillaci Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) to potentially put himself into the picture for Saturday's $15 million The Everest (1200m), as well as securing his future as a Spendthrift Australia stallion for the years to come.

"To be fair, I think I'm fairly lost for words," Woodside Park Stud chief James Price told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday. "The performance of Written Tycoon's stock today, it was breathtaking, spine-tingling. It was an incredible day, one that will forever be remembered.

"If we go back to 1976 (for the Guineas double), it's an incredible achievement and for Written Tycoon to achieve that, that's something very, very special.

"Dirty Work got us off to a great start, Odeum hit the mark and proved so dominant and then to top it off with Ole Kirk winning his second Group 1 in the space of a fortnight, it again highlights he is one of the best stallions in the country and he will remain at the top for years to come."

Yesterday's successes continued a stellar month for Written Tycoon, who is currently standing his first season at Arrowfield Stud in the Hunter Valley.

He recorded another Group 1 double across two days in late September when Pippie took the Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) the night before Ole Kirk's breakthrough feature success in the Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m).

Last weekend, his most prolific son at stud Capitalist had his first stakes runners, although father upstaged son by producing early Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) favourite Enthaar in the Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m).

The strong early performances of Written Tycoon's progeny this season has also allowed him to take an early lead in the general sires standings with his sons and daughters earning $5,331,960 since August 1, placing him ahead of I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) on $3,413,276 and Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) on $2,526,930.

However, that early title battle is set to change complexion next weekend with the running of The Everest at Randwick, with the winner's sire likely to claim the lead.

Still, Price reiterated that he firmly believes the best is yet to come with Written Tycoon.

"There is so much upside with this horse," said Price. "These horses that we're seeing are only off a $45,000 service fee, although obviously his two-year-olds like that filly who won the Gimcrack last week, they are off an $80,000 service fee. We're looking ahead to the next few years of Written Tycoon - onwards and upwards."

"A massive congratulations to all of the owners who have invested heavily in Written Tycoons, particularly the colts like Dirty Work. Congratulations to Spendthrift, hopefully there is a Group 1 for that horse in the spring, and of course to all the major partners of Ole Kirk, particularly Rick Jamieson, who I see bred both the Caulfield Guineas winner and the third horse. He's been a big supporter of Written Tycoon."

"I think Mark (Rowsthorn, Woodside Park principal) is probably lucky that crowds can't be at trackside here in Victoria just at the moment as I think my credit card could well have been over the members bar at Caulfield and it could have been a fairly big night with a fairly large bill. It would have been wonderful to be there."

Guineas double for Written Tycoon

Ole Kirk will head to stud as one of the most valuable prospects of his generation after his victory in yesterday's Caulfield Guineas.

As a son of one of the hottest stallions in the country, a close relation to Black Caviar and one of just two colts to have completed the Golden

Rose and Caulfield Guineas double, the Michael, Wayne and John Hawkes-prepared Ole Kirk ticks plenty of boxes that will entice breeders in the coming years.

Sent off as the $4.20 equal favourite, Ole Kirk was the beneficiary of a sublime William Pike ride. Positioned midfield one off the fence from gate seven, Pike was deftly able to avoid trouble when Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) began dropping back sharply through the field; even as Ole Kirk lost a length, Pike was able to switch to the inside and avoid trouble, ultimately a game-changing move.

<< Continued from page 4 Tracking up on the turn, Pike then moved outside horses, travelling strongly all the while. While Aysar (Deep Field) raced to the lead, Ole Kirk chased gamely and gallantly. The pair came away to fight it out, with the Golden Rose winner doing enough to score by a long neck.

Grandslam (Myboycharlie), the brother to Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Jameka, was third, two lengths away.

It gave Team Hawkes a double after Dirty Work took out the Schillaci Stakes, while champion Perth jockey Pike mastered the tricky Caulfield track to boot home a four-timer, including two Group 1 wins.

For shrewd breeder Rick Jamieson, who bred not only the winner but also the third-placed Grandslam under the Gilgai Farm banner, it was the culmination of years of planning, sprinkled with moments of anticipation.

"It's a breeder's dream, you put so much time and effort and energy into it and then to finally get to a race like this and win it, it's just amazing," Jamieson said. "His future is now confirmed as a stallion if it wasn't before, he's got such a brilliant family.

"This guy will be a super stallion, and I'm not just saying that. He's got the bloodlines to be a super stallion, the looks to be a super stallion and it's just another chapter in a remarkable family.

"I was nervous, I always get nervous and today was particularly nerve-racking but it's been a fantastic day."

The breeding barn beckons, but while Jamieson doesn't know what awaits Ole Kirk in the coming months, he does know where the colt will be this time next year.

"There's no doubt he'll go to stud next year," he said. "I'd say the ownership group will get together in the next few weeks when we're allowed and see where he's going to stand and that the Hawkes' will pick a path for the autumn."

Purchased for $675,000 by Mark Player's International Thoroughbred Solutions on behalf of Neil Werrett at last year's Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, Ole Kirk has now earned $2,044,100, with the promise of plenty more to come at stud.

Ole Kirk has a two-year-old half-sister in training named Gimmie Par (Not A Single Doubt). She is being prepared by Peter Moody and will race in the Gilgai Farm all-black.

The pair's dam Naturale (Bel Esprit), a sister to champion mare Black Caviar, has missed the last two years to Cable Bay (Invincible Spirit) and Exceed And Excel (Danehill).

Forty minutes before Ole Kirk's Guineas win, the Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained Odeum took out the fillies' equivalent, the Thousand Guineas.

Owned by bloodstock agent Sheamus Mills in partnership with Anthony Roberts and Heath Newton, Odeum produced a dominant performance to take the Classic, defeating Personal (Fastnet Rock) by a length and three-quarters with a long head to Instant Celebrity (Not A Single Doubt) in third.

Her time of 1:36.22 was 0.16 seconds faster than the boys recorded just a race later.

"She's a filly that has bloomed this whole preparation," Price said. "I'd have to say a big congratulations to Sheamus Mills. We sat in that 'dungy old' office 20 years ago and have been working together for years and years and years. He's been putting up with me, dragging him in here on Saturday morning to clock horses. It's great now that he's logged on a Group 1 filly. He does a lot of hard work and he's a smart man."

It was a first Group 1 win for Kent, who entered into a partnership with Price 18 months ago.

"I'm on cloud nine, it's the most amazing feeling. Even without there being a crowd here, family and friends, the emotions going through the body, it's unbelievable.

"She was home a long way out. It was a funny race because there was a big pack of them in the first four. It was very messy in there. She got a lovely run and once he got her out and gave a kick, the race was over.

"We've been saying all week how she's bloomed this week and she raced accordingly. She still won quite soft. Her ears were pricked. It was amazing."

A $420,000 purchase by Mills at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale from the Newhaven Park draft, Odeum has now earned $718,550 through just four starts.

Her dam Movie (Red Ransom), whose only previous winner from two to race was Brian Crowley Stakes (Listed, 1200m) victor Goodfella (Snitzel), has a two-year-old I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) colt named Video, while she has a yearling Zoustar (Northern Meteor) filly. She is due to foal to Zoustar again in the coming weeks.

Everest or not, futures secured for sprinters

Dirty Work and Wild Ruler (3 c Snitzel - Gypsy Robin by Daaher) put themselves forward as the most likely horses to fill the final slot for the $15 million The Everest, held by clients of trainer Chris Waller, after their respective wins in the Schillaci Stakes and the Roman Consul Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) yesterday.

However, whether they line up in the world's richest turf race or not, both secured their place on future stallion rosters with their victories yesterday.

Dirty Work, owned by Spendthrift Australia, is likely to become the headline local stallion for the Victorian operation after his last-to-first Schillaci victory, grabbing favourite Diamond Effort (Mossman) in the last stride.

Other young guns like Rubick (Encosta De Lago) and Star Turn (Star Witness) scored their biggest success in the same race and have gone on to find a home at some of the biggest studs in the country.

"That win has cemented his place on our roster for next year," Spendthrift Australia general manager Garry Cuddy told ANZ Bloodstock News. "You can't argue around his form this preparation, with a couple of unlucky runs behind some pretty high quality horses. We were just happy that he was able to get the job done at Group 2 level.

"A horse like Rubick is obviously doing a fantastic job at stud so far and Start Turn, although we've only seen his first two-year-olds, we've obviously seen some nice trial results for his progeny.

"Hopefully those two horses can continue to raise the credibility of the Schillaci honour roll"

Like Ole Kirk, Dirty Work is prepared by Team Hawkes, having been purchased by Spendthrift Australia for $800,000 out of the Sledmere Stud draft at the 2018 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. It looks a shrewd investment now, particularly with Written Tycoon emerging as the next potential sire of sires.

"He's a son of Written Tycoon and I don't think there is a stud master in the country after the last two weeks that would knock back a son of Written Tycoon at the moment. He's absolutely flying, taking home two Group 1s and a Group 2 today," Cuddy said.

"He's arguably the best stallion in the country at the moment and obviously it's exciting to have a son of his with us. You make a play on these horses when you buy them as yearlings and you hope that Written Tycoon ends up going the right way and that the horse ends up getting a result like this on the track.

"Written Tycoon is doing his job and Dirty Work has definitely done his today. It's very exciting."

Co-trainer Wayne Hawkes added: "He's a belting looking horse with a beautiful, beautiful attitude and it's a good result for Spendthrift. He's a stallion now."

The Australian arm of American breeding giant Spendthrift has developed into a major player on the local scene since acquiring Yallambee Stud in 2015. Dirty Work gave the B. Wayne Hughes operation a first Group 2 success down under.

"This is Spendthrift's highest level Group win in Australia and he's the best we've had so far, so it's very exciting," Cuddy said. "It means the world. Mr Hughes has entrusted us to do a job down here and at the moment we've got, as two of our five horses on our roster, horses we purchased as yearlings, and we are now able to add another yearling purchase to the roster in Dirty Work.

"It's a great achievement for the farm and an achievement that I'm quite proud of on a personal level as well. He was the best walking horse at the sale in our opinion, and we only bought two horses at that sale. He was an obvious standout for us at that sale.

"He's just continued to develop and strengthen up. I think in his three runs this prep he's been the pick of the yard in each of them, and it shows that he's a good-looking horse and that creates a bit of a presence for him."

As for The Everest, Cuddy hadn't received a call from the Chris Waller stable as of last night, but with races like the Manikato Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and the Darley Sprint Classic (Gr 1, 1200m) on offer in Melbourne in the coming weeks, there are options aplenty for Dirty Work.

"It would be great to go and take out The Everest, but we came to Melbourne because we're about building the profile of these horses with the black type status," Cuddy said. "There's only one better than a Group 2 and that's a Group 1, so we'll aim to win a Group 1 somewhere along the way and tick that last box."

Dirty Work's dam Maidel (Ad Valorem) produced a sister to the sprinter in 2018; the unnamed two-year-old was purchased by Steve Daniels through the Inglis Digital December Sale last year. She also gave foal to a brother to Dirty Work in 2019, but he was euthanised a month after he was born.

Maidel is currently in foal to Written Tycoon's son Capitalist.

Roman Consul Stakes winner Wild Ruler is another who looks to have secured his future at stud, given he is owned by a consortium headed by Newgate Bloodstock.

Newgate Farm principal Henry Field said that The Everest was one of two options on the table for the three-year-old, who won by two lengths over On The Lead (I Am Invincible) yesterday.

"He will either go to the Coolmore or The Everest," Field said. "He is an exciting horse."

Earlier in the week, Field admitted The Everest had become more attractive after last year's winner Yes Yes Yes (Rubick) was named Champion Three-Year-Old Colt or Gelding during the Australian Racehorse of the Year Awards, despite the race not holding Group 1 status.

"Everything has changed with this race after Yes Yes Yes was named champion three-year-old for last season and he only won The Everest," Field said.

"It doesn't matter that it is not a Group 1, it is the race that is above all other sprint races in the country and the world. We wouldn't worry about Melbourne if Wild Ruler got into The Everest because the prize is just so big if you win it."

Field told ANZ Bloodstock News this week that he would be guided by Wild Ruler's trainers Peter and Paul Snowden, and Paul Snowden was reluctant to reveal his hand post-race yesterday, although he did indicate that discussions would take place about the vacant slot.

"My guys will speak to their guys I suppose and we'll sort it out from there," he said. "This is what it was about today. Obviously a Group 2 is nothing to sneeze at on his resume. We can then look at our options."

Wild Ruler's dam Gypsy Robin (Daaher) has an American Pharoah (Pioneer of The Nile) yearling filly, while she is back in foal to American Pharoah again.

The Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) picture was turned upside down yesterday, not just by the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) - with Cox Plate entries Amish Boy (Star Witness), King's Legacy (Redoute's Choice) and Tagaloa finishing sixth, ninth and last respectively - but also by two of the day's other Group 1 races, the Caulfield Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) and the Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m).

The Caulfield Stakes was expected to confirm two-time Group 1 winner Russian Camelot (Camelot) as favourite for Australia's weight-for-age championship, but the Danny O'Brien-trained four-year-old was defeated by a resurgent Arcadia Queen (5 m Pierro - Arcadia by Redoute's Choice), who returned to her best in a powerhouse display.

The Grant and Alana Williams-trained Arcadia Queen, who races in the cerise and white colours of her breeder Bob Peters, emerged as a superstar three-year-old filly in 2018, defeating the boys in the WATC Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) before overcoming her elders in the Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m).

A winner of one of her three starts at four in the Theo Marks Stakes (Gr 2, 1300m), it has taken her time to find her best this spring, although her last two runs when second in the Let's Elope Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) and third in the Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) suggested she was approaching something near her best.

Given a cold ride by Pike, Arcadia Queen loomed up ominously upon straightening and quickly had Russian Camelot - who had overrated for much of the event - in her sights. Racing up boldly, she quickly put a length and a quarter on her rival, with veteran Humidor (Teofilo) again producing his usual honest performance in third, two and a half lengths behind Russian Camelot.

"It's a great team effort," Grant Williams said. "A lot of months in the making and all the team at home, with Alana and the team, they got her home. They did a lot of recovery work and got her back. I would still like her feet to be better. I wanted to put the plates on for the day and the bars will go back on Monday to be cautious."

"It's great to see her back and we can look forward to the Cox Plate now."

The TAB reacted by winding in Arcadia Queen to $6 second favourite from $21 yesterday morning, with Russian Camelot easing from $2.80 to $3.20.

Their main rivals are expected to emerge from Werribee, with Aidan O'Brien's Armory (Galileo), his former stablemate Sir Dragonet (Camelot) and the Roger Charlton-trained Aspetar (Al Kazeem) next in betting.

The Spring Champion Stakes in Sydney was considered a potential stepping stone for three-year-olds aspiring to tackle the Cox Plate, but it appears unlikely any candidates will head to Moonee Valley after trainer David Payne ruled the race out as a possibility for winner Montefilia.

The Payne-trained Montefilia (3 f Kermadec - Bana Wu by Shirocco) added the Spring Champion Stakes to her record, giving her two Group 1 wins in the space of a week after she claimed a maiden top-level triumph in the Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) last weekend.

Like last weekend, Montefilia came with a tenacious burst to chase after the leader, reeling in the John O'Shea-trained Lion's Roar (Contributer) to score by three-quarters of a length. The pair came well clear of the rest, with blueblood Bucharest (Deep Impact) a further three and three-quarter lengths away in third.

However, while Payne is once again giving thought to a Melbourne campaign - having initially ruled it out last month - he says that the Cox Plate is not on her agenda.

"I will have a look at the race in Melbourne, the Oaks," he said. "You have to look at it. She has only had seven runs now but we'll see how she is in a couple of days as we will be taking on the fillies again. I feel she will be better over 2500 metres.

"She is good and will be even better next year. If you look at her she is quite a lean filly. It's exciting. She got a little bit held up there but it all worked out well there. If you see her getting off the float you'd think she was flat as a pancake. She just stood there with her head down. She is a trainer's dream."

Second favourite Love Tap (Tapit) was considered the best chance of taking on the Cox Plate after the Spring Champion, but after he faded into fourth, jockey Nash Rawiller suggested he had come to the end of his campaign.

"He is a lovely horse and he gave me a beautiful ride," Rawiller said. "He hadn't given any indication that he had come to the end of his preparation until the 300 metres and then he didn't give me the kick. We'll have a nice horse in the autumn."

Montefilia last week became the first Group 1 winner for Darley's Kermadec (Teofilo) and is the best performer from four raced foals out of UK stakes performer Bana Wu (Shirocco). Bana Wu has a two-year-old filly by Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) in training with Ciaran Maher, while she also has a yearling colt by Ribchester (Ifraaj); she missed to the same sire last year.

Purchased by Payne for $130,000 from the 2019 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Montefilia has now taken her earnings over the million-dollar mark with prize-money of $1,010,925.

Caulfield, is also unlikely to have a bearing on the Cox Plate after Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Mr Quickie (5 g Shamus Award - Special Favour by General Nediym) defeated all-comers as top-weight in the historic contest.

The Phillip Stokes-trained Mr Quickie had not won since defeating subsequent Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) victor Vow And Declare (Declaration Of War) in the Queensland Derby, but the handler believes he may finally have figured out the secret to his charge after the five-year-old scored by two lengths over Buffalo River (Noble Mission) yesterday.

"Definitely so, this is his trip," Stokes said. "We'll keep him fresh now. We'll go to the Cantala Stakes at Flemington. It's good to see him back. He's found form. We'll keep him happy."

"It's a big thrill to win a Group 1 for the team here in Melbourne, full credit to Wylie Dalziel and the owners. We bounced a lot of ideas off each other including Peter Moody and we thought this was the best way to go."

Mr Quickie's victory provided Jamie Kah with her third Group 1 win and comes as the rider prepares for one of the biggest opportunities of her career: the mount on Prince Of Arran (Shirocco) in next weekend's Caulfield Cup, as well as in the Melbourne Cup.

"It's amazing. I've been hanging out to ride a Group 1 for an Adelaide supporter of mine and I finally did it," she said.

"I'm just so happy how things are going at the moment. I'm just rapt with the support I've been getting. Hopefully we can keep ticking over. I'm really excited to have a ride in the Melbourne Cup this year and just a few things like that. That was my goal and to win at least one of the features, things are looking pretty good."

Mr Quickie is the first foal out of Special Favour (General Nediym), while he traces from New Zealand royalty; his second dam is multiple Group 2 winner My Tusker (Volksraad), while his fourth dam is champion Kiwi filly Horlicks (Three Legs).

Back in Australia after a period in New Zealand, where she produced a Sacred Falls (O'Reilly) filly, Special Favour is back in foal to Shamus Award (Snitzel).

A $115,000 purchase by Wylie Dalziel at the 2017 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Mr Quickie has now earned $1,686,050, having won ten of his 23 starts.

11 for Written Tycoon

On a standout day for Woodside Park Stud's Written Tycoon (Iglesia), Odeum (3 f ex Movie by Red Ransom) gave the stallion his 11th individual Group 1 winner with her victory in yesterday's Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). Written Tycoon is standing his first season at Arrowfield Stud in 2020 at a fee of $77,000 (inc GST).

27 for So You Think

Coolmore Stud's So You Think (High Chaparral) brought up individual stakes winner number 27 yesterday when Peltzer (3 c ex Miss Otto by Elusive Quality) added his name to the high-class honour roll that belongs to the Stan Fox Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m). Stepping back in grade after finishing fifth to Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) in the Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m), Peltzer led all the way under Tim Clark to defeat Prime Star (Starspangledbanner) by a half-length with a nose back to Jet Propulsion (Rubick) in third. Purchased by Gerald Ryan and David Raphael for $260,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale last year, Peltzer is the fourth foal to race out of Miss Otto (Elusive Quality) and remains her only winner to date. She produced a Street Boss (Street Cry) colt in 2018, a sister to Peltzer in 2019 and she is back in foal to So You Think once again. So You Think stands for $38,500 (inc GST) in 2020.

Peltzer heads for Bondi

The $1 million Bondi Stakes (1600m) will be Peltzer's final target of the Sydney spring with co-trainer Gerald Ryan hoping to determine whether the colt could make a Randwick

Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) horse in the autumn. "He'll come back here in a fortnight and we will try him at a mile as that sets up the autumn for him," Ryan said. "If he can't run a mile then I'll map out a program for him in the shorter races. He's a good colt, good value on him now." Peltzer had finished unplaced in his last two runs at Rosehill and Ryan theorised that it might be a case of horses for courses: "I've had horses not perform at Rosehill before and he's been here three times now for three wins. He just mightn't go at Rosehill. He'll come back to the Bondi Stakes for a million dollars in a fortnight."

Two for Bullet Train

Blueblood Bullet Train (Sadler's Wells), a three-quarter brother to Frankel (Galileo), produced his second individual stakes winner on the flat yesterday when Chapada (5 g ex Diamantina Dior by Oasis Dream) took out the Herbert Power Stakes (Gr 2, 2400m) at Caulfield. Trained by Mike Moroney, the Group 1-placed Chapada has been an infrequent winner throughout his career but was the subject of plenty of support yesterday, starting at $4.60 second favourite. The Daniel Stackhouse-ridden Chapada came with a strong run from beyond midfield, pulling out to the centre of the track on straightening and coming home solidly to score by a length and a quarter. Zebrowski (Savabeel) stayed on well for second, with Platinum Invador (Redwood) making good ground for third. Purchased for just $32,500 by Paul Moroney Bloodstock from the 2017 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, Chapada is the third of four foals to race out of his dam Diamantina Dior (Oasis Dream) and hails from a family that includes top stayers Capri (Galileo) and Bauer (Halling). Bullet Train shuttled to Australia for five seasons from 2013 to 2017, standing at Bowness Stud. He now stands as a dual-purpose sire at Woodfield Farm Stud in County Waterford, Ireland.

Caulfield Cup beckons
Chapada

Chapada will attempt to become just the second horse in the last 50 years to take out the Herbert Power Stakes and Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) double after the five-year-old secured his berth in the feature yesterday. Mike Moroney's Chapada will be out to join the Danny O'Brien-trained Master O'Reilly (O'Reilly), who completed the double in 2007, but this year's winner only gained his spot after defeating the O'Brien-prepared favourite Orderofthegarter (Galileo), who finished a disappointing last. "I think the horse does deserve that," Moroney said. "He was very unlucky in Group 1 races before as a three-year-old. We lost his four-year-old year but he seems to have come back a lot stronger now. He's a tough sort of horse. He'll come through well enough. I'd be surprised if he doesn't." Orderofthegarter's rider Damien Oliver reported that his mount did not see out 2400 metres, placing a query on his participation in next week's Caulfield Cup, for which he is ballot exempt.

62 for Sebring

The late Sebring (More Than Ready) registered his 62nd individual stakes winner yesterday when Emeralds (4 m ex Doulmera by Mr Greeley) arrived just in time to take the Angst Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Randwick. Emeralds, trained by John Sargent, was sent out as the $8 equal second favourite in a wide-open market. Sprinting through along the inside under Jason Collett, she was able to catch the gallant Greysful Glamour (Stratum) in the final bound with a length and a half to Nimalee (So You Think) in third. Passed in at the 2018 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, Emeralds hails from an Aga Khan family, with her dam Doulmera (Mr Greeley) a half-sister to Group 1 winner Dalkala (Giant's Causeway), with her second dam Daltaya (Anabaa) a three-quarter sister to Dalghar (Anabaa). She is the only one of Doulmera's foals to race, with a two-year-old half-sister to Emeralds - Four Moves Ahead (Snitzel) - also in training with Sargent. Doulmera has also produced a Pierro (Lonhro) colt, while she slipped to Dundee (High Chaparral) last year. Widden Stud's Sebring died in February last year.

Emeralds for Empire Rose

Winners of the Angst Stakes in recent years have gone on to achieve great things: last year's heroine Nettoyer (Sebring) scored an upset win in the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) this year, while two-time victress Dixie Blossoms (Street Sense) added the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) to her record before she was retired. However, the natural progression for an Angst winner - the Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) weeks later - has not proven so successful, with the last to complete the double Zanna (Pentire) in 2003. Nevertheless, Emeralds is likely to be given her chance to add the Empire Rose to her record in three weeks. "We'd been wanting to get her to the mile trip and it proved it today," trainer John Sargent said. "I think at the moment we stay there and any rain around, she grows a leg. We will see how she comes through it, but we might head down to Melbourne for one run and then give her a spell."

57 for I Am Invincible

Yarraman Park Stud's I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) brought up his 57th individual stakes winner yesterday when Fake Love (2 f ex Anatina by Fastnet Rock) took out the Debutant Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Caulfield. Backed into $5 equal favouritism, the filly bounced out to lead from the inside gate under Mark Zahra. In a professional performance, she scooted away early in the straight before holding off the late-surging Extreme Warrior (Extreme Choice) by a length and a quarter with a long head to Naples (Street Boss) in third. Bred by Segenhoe Thoroughbreds, the July-born filly was sold for $380,000 at the Magic Millions National Weanling Sale last year before she was passed in for $425,000 with a reserve of $450,000 at this year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. She is the second foal to race - and the first winner - out of dual Listed winner Anatina (Fastnet Rock), who produced a Hellbent (I Am Invincible) colt last year before missing to both So You Think (High Chaparral) and Deep Field (Northern Meteor) in 2019. I Am Invincible stands at Yarraman Park Stud for $209,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

Fake Love the next Away Game?

Ciaran Maher drew comparisons between yesterday's Debutant Stakes winner Fake Love and last season's bombproof filly Away Game (Snitzel) after the former won at her first start. Away Game won four black-type races last season for Maher and David Eustace, including the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) and the Percy Sykes Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), while she was second in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), fourth in the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and even acquitted herself well for fifth against the older fillies and mares in the Robert Sangster Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m).

"Away Game, she was very durable and this horse is probably a similar shape but probably a little bit stronger even, so hopefully she's even a little bit better," Maher told Racing.com, while rider Mark Zahra added: "Ciaran's stable, he's shown that he's great at getting two-year-olds to the races early in the season. She's a prime example: quick out, led, led and relaxed and when I gave her a kick, she gave nothing else a chance."

174 for Redoute's Choice

The late Redoute's Choice (Danehill) registered his 174th individual stakes winner yesterday when Windstorm (4 g ex Storm Alert by Metal Storm) swept home to take out the Weekend Hussler Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Caulfield. Racing in Bob Peters' cerise and white colours, the Grant and Alana Williams-trained Windstorm came from a long way off the pace to defeat Phaistos (Helmet) by three-quarters of a length with Archedemus (Lope De Vega) a length and a half away in third. Windstorm is the second stakes winner out of Group 1 placegetter Storm Alert (Metal Storm), who won the Cockram Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield in 2006; he joins 2017 Pinjarra Cup (Listed, 2300m) victor Dark Alert (Testa Rossa). Windstorm took his record to seven wins from 10 starts, with earnings of $440,690. Redoute's Choice died at Arrowfield Stud in March last year.

11 for Dundee

Arrowfield Stud's Dundee (High Chaparral) registered his 11th individual stakes winner yesterday when Ain'tnodeeldun (3 c ex Ain'tnofallenstar by Starcraft) took out the Hill Smith Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Morphettville yesterday. The Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained Ain'tnodeeldun, a runaway maiden winner at Sale at his most recent start, was sent out as the odds-on favourite and justified that support, defeating filly Victoria Quay (Dundee) by three-quarters of a length to lead home a one-two for Dundee with outsider Passing Phase (Spill The Beans) grabbing third. Ain'tnodeeldun, a $240,000 purchase at the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale Book 1 from Bhima Thoroughbreds, is the sixth foal of dual Listed winner Ain'tnofallenstar (Starcraft), who herself is a daughter of the Group 1-placed Ain't Seen Nothin' (Nothin' Leica Dane). Dundee stands for $66,000 (inc GST) at Arrowfield Stud in 2020.

Freedman: Ain'tnodeeldun 'might be a miler'

After a five-length stroll to break his maiden at Sale last month, Ain'tnodeeldun was touted as a potential Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) candidate. Trainers Anthony and Sam Freedman ruled out that option last week, but after his victory over 1800 metres yesterday, the father-son duo are contemplating the fact that he might be best at a mile. "We hold him in pretty high esteem and probably thought he might have won a little better than he did, but he got the job done and is still learning," Sam Freedman told News Corp's Warren Partland. "We will get him home and have a good look at him and see where we go. He might be a miler. He did not keep attacking the line and he was strong to the line over the mile at Sale. We will give it a bit of thought where to go. To run in the Derby he would have been going out to 2000 metres for his next run and just off what he did today he might be better at the mile."

Corstens tempts Everest slot-holders

Troy Corstens has cheekily offered up his filly Swats That (3 f Shamus Award - Is It A Mosquito by Bel Esprit) as a left-field suggestion for the final spot in the $15 million The Everest (1200m). However, she is more likely to tackle the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) after she landed a second stakes win in a row in the Thoroughbred Club Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield yesterday. Swats That came with a well-timed run under John Allen to defeat Muntaseera (I Am Invincible) by three-quarters of a length with Bella Nipotina (Pride Of Dubai) a further half-length away in third. "We'd have to think about it, it's a lot of money not to think about," said co-trainer Corstens of an Everest bid. "The way I was thinking from the start of the preparation from when we tipped her out, I was keen to keep her to the sprints this time around, and after speaking to the management group they were on-side as well. We might try and stretch her out next preparation but we'll try and get to the Coolmore first. I think it's a really strong group of fillies this time around. It's nice to see that and it's good to see them standing up."

Fiesta returns to winners' circle

It had been a long time between drinks for Fiesta (5 m I Am Invincible - Now Now by Danehill Dancer), the 2018 winner of the Widden Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) and Silver Shadow Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m); in fact, she had not won since defeating Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) heroine Estijaab (Snitzel) to take out the Inglis 3YO Sprint (1100m) in February last year. However, a well-judged Hugh Bowman ride saw the Chris Waller-trained filly return a winner yesterday, sporting the Star Thoroughbreds colours to a three-quarter length success in the Northwood Plume Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield. She defeated Felicia (Unencumbered), with a half-head to Broadwayandfourth (Smart Missile) in third. "She's a mare I've had a bit to do with," Bowman said. "It's been a while since I've ridden her in a race. She went out of form for a while. She was a really good filly as a three-year-old and I liked her run last start. We got a favourable run from an awkward draw. Her will to win hasn't diminished and she's proven it there today."

Grey Lion turns back clock in Queensland Cup

The last time Grey Lion (9 g Galileo - Grey Lilas by Danehill) was able to break a lengthy drought, he returned with a new zest for racing. That was in July, 2018, when Grey Lion scored a first Australian win, having not scored since a Deauville victory in March, 2016. Connections will be hoping for the same result after Grey Lion returned to the winners' circle for the first time in 510 days yesterday, taking out the Queensland Cup (Listed, 2200m). Ridden by Robbie Fradd, the Matthew Smith-trained Grey Lion defeated Free Fly Too (Teofilo) by a head with a further head to Fastnet Cyclone (Fastnet Rock) in third.

Flit no certainty for Golden Eagle

Connections of $500,000 Silver Eagle (1300m) winner Flit (Medaglia D'Oro) are considering a number of targets for the mare, with a shot at the $7.5 million Golden Eagle (1500m) in three weeks not set in stone. James Cummins is also considering a trip to Melbourne for the Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on the same day. "She has been flying this preparation without winning," Cummings said. "We just couldn't see her running a bad race today and yet she was up against some pretty good opposition. She has marched herself right into contention for a couple of big targets over the next three weeks and it will be up to the boys which way they want to head with her." Ridden by Rachel King, Flit defeated $2.50 favourite Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) by a long neck.

Bowman to miss Cox Plate

Hugh Bowman will miss the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) after being handed a ten meeting suspension for careless riding at Caulfield on Saturday. The charge related to interference caused near the 1400-metre mark whilst aboard King's Legacy (Redoute's Choice) in the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), who ran home into ninth place. Bowman will now miss his ride on Sir Dragonet (Camelot), who is towards the head of the betting for the Cox Plate on October 24, as the jockey opted to start his suspension after Saturday's Caulfield Cup meeting, where he takes the ride of 2019 English Derby (Gr 1, 1m4f) winner Anthony Van Dyck (Galileo).

Family affair for Lloyds

Apprentice jockey Zoe Lloyd will face her sister Madison when making her race riding debut at Swan Hill on Sunday. The pair will take on each other in all three races, with Lloyd making her debut in Race 4 with Peddler (Bullbars), followed by Costa Maya (High Chaparral) in Race 6 and All The Wine (Torch Relay) in Race 7. "We've always competed against each other growing up in Pony Club events. To finally be there with Madison again, it's a bit of fun," Lloyd told Racing.com. "I've been pretty privileged to be put on good horses. They should go well but it all depends on how I ride them. I've worked pretty hard trying to get to this point. Because of Covid it's taken time. I was expecting to start earlier in the year because I was already doing official trials."

NEW ZEALAND

22 for Tavistock

The well-fancied Tavi Mac (5 g ex Bellaroor by Maroorf) brought up the late Tavistock's (Montjeu) 22nd individual stakes winner when taking out the Team Wealleans Matamata Cup (Listed, 1400m) in impressive fashion yesterday. The gelding, who finished runner-up behind Avantage (Fastnet Rock) in the Foxbridge Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) last month, was sent off the $2.10 favourite under Opie Bosson and left the field for dead as they entered the straight, extending the lead all the way to the line to defeat runner-up Hay Tiger (Tiger Prawn) by three and a quarter lengths, with fast-finishing second-favourite Burgundy Belle (Burgundy) coming home in third. Tavistock stood at Cambridge Stud before he died aged 14 last year.

'Equine sausage dog' takes Matamata Cup

The uniquely proportioned Tavi Mac, who is often referred to as the equine sausage dog, carried plenty of weight in yesterday's Matamata Cup but gave no indication that the impost was in any way a hindrance as he bolted clear. Trainer Allan Sharrock had been in two minds about running his charge at Matamata after he had returned a tired horse following a gritty performance in sixth behind Callsign Mav (Atlante) in the Tarzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m) last month. Sharrock put Tavi Mac out for a brief spell but, after watching him tearing around his paddock, decided to bring him back earlier than expected to tackle yesterday's feature. "I'm just thrilled with that as it isn't easy to carry topweight and do it as well as he did," Sharrock said. "He put them to bed pretty easily, the little beauty. It was a good effort for a little horse but Opie rode him beautifully. When you get those top riders on it really shows. Opie hasn't done a lot of riding for me but when he has, he hasn't been beaten too many times. Tavi Mac has only had the 13 starts for eight wins now and I think next year he could be a genuine Group 1 horse as he's still learning."

Heights rules Supreme in Taranaki Breeders Stakes

Supreme Heights (5 m Jimmy Choux - Summer

Heights by Stark South) added a second stakes victory to her burgeoning record when she took out yesterday's Taranaki Breeders Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Hawera. The Mark Brosnan-trained five-year-old had given an emphatic display of pace-making when taking out a Group 3 contest at New Plymouth at her last start and repeated the dose yesterday in similar fashion. Supreme Heights dug in bravely to defeat the fast-finishing Le Castile (Dalghar) by a neck, with Kiwi Ida (Squamosa) weakening into third after looking like the winner. "The instructions were to ride her like last time where she led and dictated but to also be prepared to take a sit if something wanted to go mad in front," McNab said. "I thought we were travelling well but when I saw Kiwi Ida's head come up to me, I asked her and she just found another gear. That's the first time I've ridden her but with the attitude she has and the will to win, I can't see why she wouldn't go on to win more races," he said.

Not An Option on top at Matamata

Well-travelled three-year-old Not An Option (Not A Single Doubt) reminded punters of his galloping ability when he defeated a small but classy field of rivals over 1400 metres at Matamata yesterday. Not An Option was having his first start since returning home from a three-race campaign in Australia during his two-year-old season that included a third-place finish in the Kindergarten Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Randwick. Trainer Tony Pike brought him home after he put in a below-par effort in the J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m) at Eagle Farm in June. Yesterday, he defeated favourite Rocket Spade (Fastnet Rock) by a long neck with the same margin back to blueblood Unition (Fastnet Rock) in third. "We're very happy with that," Pike said of the New Zealand 2000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) contender. "It's a little bit unfortunate in that he has probably copped a bad rap for his performances in Australia, but it wasn't really his fault as he suffered a bad check in the Champagne Stakes in Sydney and then nearly went over the running rail in Brisbane. It's nice to have him home and winning again. He should take a lot of confidence out of that performance."

ASIA

Stella Veloce (2 c ex Oh My Baby by Deep Impact) brought up an 11th individual stakes winner for Bago (Nashwan) when landing the Saudi Arabia Royal Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) at Tokyo yesterday. The two-year-old defeated the favourite Infinite (Maurice), who was the only filly in the field of ten, by three lengths, with Seiun Deimos (Lohengrin) a further two and a half lengths back in third. Bago, who won five Group 1s during his race career including the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) in 2004, stands in Japan and is the sire to two Group 1 winners, Big Week and Chrono Genesis.

INTERNATIONAL

Five for Siyouni

A rollercoaster week ended in delight for Aidan O'Brien after St Mark's Basilica (2 c ex Cabaret by Galileo) led home Wembley (Galileo) to earn a one-two for the trainer in the Dewhurst Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) at Newmarket yesterday, bringing up a fifth individual elite-level winner for Siyouni (Pivotal). A race that has exerted much influence on the southern hemisphere stallion ranks, with five of the last six winners having shuttled to Australia or New Zealand, including the Darley pair Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) and Belardo (Shamardal) and Coolmore trio US Navy Flag (War Front), Churchill (Galileo) and Air Force Blue (War Front), St Mark's Basilica threw his credentials into the ring with victory in the time-honoured juvenile showpiece. Ridden by Frankie Dettori, who landed his first Group 1 contest for O'Brien, and the pair defeated many of the leading contenders for next year's 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m), with St Mark's Basilica being cut from 33-1 to 12-1 for the race in May 2021. Wembley, who finished three quarters of a length behind his stablemate under Ryan Moore, was made a 20-1 shot for Newmarket's Classic. The O'Brien family completed the top three with the Joseph O'Brien-trained 11-4 favourite Thunder Moon (Zoffany) finishing a further one and three quarter lengths behind in third. Victory earned Siyouni his 39th individual stakes winner, with St Mark's Basilica recording only one maiden success prior to this. Siyouni stood at Aga Khan Studs' Haras de Bonneval base for a fee of €100,000 (approx AU$163,500) in 2020.

40 for Siyouni

It was a successful Saturday for Siyouni as Rajani (3 g ex Ramora by Monsun) landed the Prix le Fabuleux (Listed, 1800m) at Chantilly to add to St Mark's Basilica's Group 1 success in the Dewhurst earlier on Saturday and bring up the sire's 40th individual stakes winner. The Andre Fabre-trained Rajani made it three wins from four outings when defeating Ecrivain (Lope De Vega) under Pierre-Charles Boudot, with the recently-gelded Now We Know (Kendargent) back in third. Siyouni stood at Aga Khan Studs Haras de Bonneval base for a fee of €100,000 (approx AU$163,500) in 2020.

Two for Cable Bay

Jouska (3 f ex Quiet Protest by Kingmambo) provided Woodside Park shuttle stallion Cable Bay (Invincible Spirit) with his second individual stakes winner when causing an upset in the Boadicea Stakes (Listed, 6f) at Newmarket yesterday. The Henry Candy-trained filly was sent off at 18-1 following one win in her previous eight outings but cosily saw off 14-1 shot Sunday Star (Kodiac) by half a length, with Jovial (Dubawi) a further length behind in third. Leading fancies Millisle (Starspangledbanner) and Maid In India (Bated Breath) failed to make an impact in the finish. Cable Bay, who shuttles from Highclere Stud in the UK, stands this season at Woodside Park for a fee of $9,900 (inc GST).

Nine for Belardo

Hale Bopp (2 c ex Emperors Pearl by Holy Roman Emperor) brought up Belardo's (Lope De Vega) ninth individual winner when landing the Irish EBF Median Sires Series (C & G) Maiden (7f) at Dundalk on Friday night. The Ger Lyons-trained two-year-old was making his second start after finishing fourth of five in a maiden at Naas in June won by Military Style (War Front), who subsequently took out the Tyros Stakes (Gr 3, 7f). Sent off at 3-1 on Friday, Hale Bopp saw off the Joseph O'Brien-trained Charmed (Charm Spirit) by half a length, with Bears Hug (Kodi Bear) a further neck behind in third. First season sire Belardo stood at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Ireland for €10,000 (approx AUD$16,350) in 2020 and has three stakes winners to his name so far.

331 for Galileo

Lone Eagle (2 c ex Modernstone by Duke Of Marmalade), who is co-owned by Aquis Farm along with Ballylinch Stud, brought up Galileo's 331st individual stakes winner when battling hard to land the Zetland Stakes (Gr 3, 1m2f) at Newmarket. Lone Eagle was purchased by Aquis Farm for 500,000gns at the Tattersalls Book 1 Yearling Sales last October and may well grace Australian turf later on in his career. He was prominent throughout under the in-form Silvestre de Sousa and had to work hard to fight off the challenge of Recovery Run (Nathaniel) who stayed on well under Oisin Murphy to finish one and three quarter lengths behind the winner. Mystery Angel (Kodi Bear) finished a further seven lengths behind in third.

122 for Oasis Dream

Godolphin juvenile Erasmo (2 c ex Sant Elena by Efisio) followed up his maiden success last time out with victory in the Prix Saraca (Listed, 1400m) at Chantilly to earn Oasis Dream (Green Desert) his 122nd individual stakes success. The Andre Fabre-trained colt stayed on strongly under Mickael Barzalona to defeat Saqr (Dutch Art) by one and a quarter lengths, with Ludo (Penny's Picnic) a further length behind in third. Oasis Dream stood at Juddmonte's Banstead Manor Stud for a fee of £25,000 (approx AUD$45,000) in 2020.

15 for Sixties Icon

25-1 shot Nastase (2 c ex Rough Courte by Clodovil) sprung a surprise by taking out the Rockingham Stakes (Listed, 6f) at York, bringing up Sixties Icon's (Galileo) 15th individual stakes winner. Nastase, trained, owned and bred by Mick Channon, fought hard to see off The Queen's horse Light Refrain (Frankel) by a neck, with the Richard Fahey-trained Internationaldream (Acclamation) two lengths off the winner in third. Sixties Icon stood at Norman Court Stud in England for a fee of £6,000 (approx AUD$10,800) in 2020.

190 for Dubawi

Godolphin's One Ruler (2 c ex Fintry by Shamardal) took out the Autumn Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) at Newmarket to earn Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) his 190th individual stakes winner. The Charlie Appleby-trained One Ruler, who finished third in the Flying Scotsman Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Doncaster last time out, saw off Aidan O'Brien's Van Gogh (American Pharoah) in relatively comfortable fashion, with one and three quarter lengths between the pair. Godolphin and Charlie Appleby also took third place with Dhahabi (Frankel) finishing a further one and half lengths back. Dubawi stood at Darley's Dalham Hall Stud for a fee of £250,000 (approx AUD$450,500) in 2020.

152 for Pivotal

Last Empire (4 f ex Final Dynasty by Komaite) brought up Pivotal's (Polar Falcon) 152nd individual stakes winner when taking out the Prix de Bonneval (Listed, 1100m) at Chantilly yesterday. The Kevin Ryan-trained filly arrived in France following two consecutive second-placed finishes in Listed contests at Beverley and Ayr but went one better in this, defeating Bavaria Baby (Dabirsim) by half a length, with Silent Wave (War Front) in third. Pivotal stood at Cheveley Park Stud for a private fee in 2020.

FR: Plainchant justifies favouritism in Chantilly

Evens favourite Plainchant (2 f Gregorian - Nadinska by Doyen) took out the Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte (Gr 2, 1200m) on heavy ground at Chantilly yesterday. The Maurizio Guarnieri-trained filly followed up her impressive Prix Eclipse (Gr 3, 1200m) win over course and distance last month with a battling success in this contest, holding off a solid challenge from Go Athletico (Goken) to defeat him by three quarters of a length. The pair pulled well clear of third placed Kalahara (Frankel), who was a further seven lengths behind.

UK: More success for Scarborough and Cabaret

St Mark's Basilica (right)

GETTY

Bob Scarborough's prolific mare Cabaret (Galileo) now has two Group 1 winners on her record as St Mark's Basilica (Siyouni) followed in the hoofprints of his half-brother Magna Grecia (Invincible Spirit) in powering up the Rowley Mile turf on Saturday. Only last year, Magna Grecia was breaking new ground for his sire Invincible Spirit (Green Desert) by landing the 2,000 Guineas, and the Classic is the most obvious port of call for St Mark's Basilica as he responded to the urgings of Frankie Dettori to lift the Dewhurst Stakes as part of a one-two-three for the O'Brien training axis. Scarborough, a well-known Australian owner and breeder who has also been a long-serving chairman of Moonee Valley racecourse, acquired Group

3-winning Galileo (Sadler's Wells) mare Cabaret from the Coolmore fold and she has provided him with some fine results in the ring. He keeps a small band of mares at Harry McCalmont's Norelands in Ireland, which consigns them. Magna Grecia was bought by a partnership including Coolmore's MV Magnier for 340,000gns as a foal, while St Mark's Basilica cost the same buyer 1,300,000gns when offered at last year's Tattersalls Book 1.

UK: Dakota lands Bengough at favoured York

Dakota Gold (6 g Equiano - Joyeaux by Mark Of Esteem) loves it at York and brought up his fifth win at the track when taking out the Bengough Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) yesterday. The Michael Dods-trained gelding was sent off the 13-8 favourite to record his first Group-level success and rewarded his supporters with a battling front-running performance under Connor Beasley. The Tin Man brought up the Equiano (Acclamation) one-two, staying on well to finish one and three quarter lengths behind the winner, with Brando (Pivotal) a further three lengths back in third.

US: Breeders' Cup for Got Stormy, but which race?

Got Stormy (Get Stormy) only led for one stride of the Franklin County Stakes (Gr 3, 5.5f) at Keeneland on Friday, but it was the stride that mattered. Closing furiously under Tyler Gaffalione, Got Stormy nailed Into Mystic (Into Mischief) at the finish of the turf sprint, leaving her on a two-race winning streak heading into the Breeders' Cup meeting at Keeneland next month. But which specific Breeders' Cup race remains to be seen, depending on the weather and course condition, said winning trainer Mark Casse. Got Stormy, last year's Breeders' Cup Mile (Gr 1, 8f) runner-up, could attempt to go one better in that event, or she could stick to the shorter trip of the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (Gr 1, 5.5f). "She didn't get away the cleanest. I didn't want to rush her - I thought I'd just let her settle," Gaffalione said. "She was much the best here, so we'll come with our run. She really finished up nice. She's got some turn of foot. Whatever we throw at her, she keeps delivering. I just feel so privileged to be able to ride her."

Aramaayo takes Raffles Cup in a thriller

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

Kranji Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Aramaayo (Poet's Voice) bounced back to his brilliant best with a stirring second Group 1 success in Saturday's S$400,000 Raffles Cup (Gr 1, 1600m).

After his Kranji Mile heroics in August, Shane Baertschiger's former Australian Group 3 Godolphin winner (Spring Stakes over 1600m at Newcastle in 2018) naturally figured among the leading hopes in the Singapore Derby (Gr 1, 1800m) on September 5, but unsuited by a slow tempo, he could only muster a watered down version of his trademark turn of foot for a battling fifth place to Top Knight (Zoustar).

This time around, Aramaayo dropped out to the tail of the field, but midrace, they crawled again. Luckily, regular partner Ruan Maia (who first got on him in the Kranji Mile) has a clock in his head and took his own initiative to improve through the field, with the result that Aramaayo did not have that big a task to reel in the leaders on the swing.

To Baertschiger, that was the tactical nous that only very good jockeys have and can make the difference between winning and losing.

"The pace was too slow in the Derby, and he overraced. Today I told Maia to drop back, he's better ridden back," said Baertschiger.

"It was a brilliant ride from Maia. When they slowed up the pace, he made the right decision to improve inside runners.

"I was happy where he was throughout. I was not worried he was still around three lengths behind in the straight as I know he can finish it off, and he was too good."

The leading pack Aramaayo had to gun down turned out to be the Lee Freedman trio of Sun Marshal (Sepoy), Minister (Street Sense) and Loyalty Man (Fastnet Rock), who led the way. Prominent throughout the first Leg of the Singapore Triple Crown series, they were locking horns for a Freedman trifecta at the 300m, but that dream result was short lived as two swoopers came descending thick and fast via two opposite paths.

Keen as usual to fill that glaring Group 1 gap on his resume, second favourite Countofmontecristo (Echoes Of Heaven) was quickening like a winner on the outside while Maia, sharp as a tack when he observed the doors closing in front of him, elected to duck back to the inside rails for his equally stinging assault on Aramaayo.

The final upshot was a cliffhanger befitting of a Group 1 feature like the Raffles Cup, very much in the same mould as last year's blanket finish captured by Makanani (Black Tide).

Sun Marshal boxed on doggedly in the middle, Countofmontecristo lunged on the outside, but it was the 'sneaker' Aramaayo who gained the judge's verdict by a head on the inside. Sun Marshal just got the bob by a nose from Countofmontecristo while Minister wilted a touch inside the last 150m to take fourth place another half-length away, a head from stablemate Loyalty Man.

Firmed at S$28, Aramaayo ran a moderate 1min 36.28secs for the mile on the Short Course, which was, given the pedestrian first-half of the race, unsurprisingly almost three seconds slower than his timing in the Kranji Mile.

Baertschiger was over the moon with his fourth Group 1 success, with the first coming with Aramco (Magic Albert) in last year's Lion City Cup (Gr 1, 1200m) followed by I'm Incredible (Lope De Vega) in last year's Queen Elizabeth II Cup (Gr 1, 1800m), incidentally the next feature in his crosshairs for Aramaayo.

The Group 1 race over 1800m on October 31 is the second Leg of the Singapore Triple Crown series with the third Leg, the Singapore Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) due on November 21.

"I was very confident after his barrier trial last week. He dropped back and cruised to the line (for third to Sun Marshal)," said Baertschiger.

"They went slow today, he ran three seconds outside his Kranji Mile time, but he was still too good. He will now run in both the QEII Cup and the Gold Cup. The 2000m of the Gold Cup is not a problem for him. He's run up to 2400m in Australia."

Maia paid tribute to Baertschiger for his clever tactical switch, which he said was the masterstroke to the successful result.

"Well done to Shane. He made a change of plans today, he told me that he was ridden back in Australia, and to do the same here," said the in-form Brazilian jockey.

"In the 1800m race (Derby), he jumped well but over-raced because the pace was too slow. If he had jumped too quick today, it would've been difficult to hold him.

"But he stayed quiet and I was able to drop him at the back. The plan was to be in the last three, but I was a bit afraid when they slowed down the pace.

"That's why I started to come into the race from the 800m as it's the Short Course, and I didn't want to come in too late at the finish.

"In the straight, Sun Marshal rolled off and I had no room to go through. That's why I tried the inside and he got there in time.

"I'm so happy I won my second Group 1 race in Singapore (after Kranji Mile)."

After saluting one race earlier aboard Muraahib (Reset) Maia went on to make it a hat-trick of wins in the last three races on the 11-race programme, with Yulong Fast Steed (Exceed And Excel) taking out the Lucky Last, the $50,000 Better Than Ever Stakes, a Class 4 Division 2 race over 1100m.

With three-time Singapore champion jockey Vlad Duric – unplaced aboard a disappointing Top Knight (Zoustar) in the Raffles Cup – scoring only one win aboard Fast And Fearless Iffraaj) – the gap between him and Maia, his main challenger, has been cut back to seven winners (54 versus 47).

Maia was again not fussing over the title fight, even if the two-time Macau champion jockey would definitely grab the ultimate reward with both hands if it came his way.

"Like I said before, I don't think about that. I respect Vlad a lot, he's a very good jockey and more importantly, he's a very good person," said Maia.

"I just let things happen naturally. If the champion title comes, then it'll be nice, but it's not what keeps me going every day."

With that third win from nine starts, Aramaayo has seen his prizemoney record bulge further to hit around the S$900,000 mark for the Aramco Stable.

Muraahib finds the line again

Model of consistency Muraahib (Reset) turned up for a third Kranji victory in the S$85,000 Always Certain 2011 Stakes Class 2 race over 1200m.

Muraahib (yellow)

The Lee Freedman-trained galloper has certainly done a sterling job maintaining a glowing record of never finishing worse than fourth in 13 starts, eight of them coming as placegetters for the Oscar Racing Stable.

A former four-time winner for trainers David Hayes and Tom Dabernig in Melbourne, the six-year-old has already proven to be a handy money spinner at his new hunting ground, having now chalked up prize cheques totting up to around S$225,000 for Oscar's Mr Phua Chian Kin.

With regular partner of late A'Isisuhairi Kasim suspended for careless riding, Ruan Maia stepped into the irons and showed yet another polished display.

Frontrunner Aramani (Zoustar) took up the running, but was no match when Muraahib came collaring him at the 300m. Star Of Jupiter (I Am Invincible) did give the Freedman camp a scare when he burst out of the pack, lengthening up with a dashing turn of speed, but Muraahib was not to be outdone as he kept finding to prevail by a neck.

Aramani held on gamely for third place another length and a quarter away, just staving off Beau Geste (Street Cry) who came from last to grab fourth place another neck away.

Backed down to S$12 favouritism, Muraahib clocked the smart time of 1min 9.28secs for the 1200m on the Short Course.

"He's a very honest and consistent horse, he's been a terrific horse to the stable," said Freedman.

"Maia got the chance to ride him today and he made no mistake. He was on the right horse.

"Muraahib won't run again until the EW Barker Trophy. That's the race I have in mind for him, he's already well placed for that race."

The EW Barker Trophy (Gr 2, 1400m) is a handicap feature due in a little bit over a month's time on November 15.

Singapore's premier sprint, the Lion City Cup Gr 1, 1200m) comes up in a fortnight on October 25, but Freedman is leaning more towards the EW Barker Trophy, even if Muraahib now boasts two wins over six furlongs.

"Maybe not the Lion City. I already have Mr Malek and Excelling in that race," said Freedman.

"I tend to fancy Muraahib more at the 1400m, but things may change."

Relentless in rampant form second-up

Relentless (Hallowed Crown) came up with a storming run to land the spoils in the S$75,000 Debt Collector 2018 Stakes, a Restricted Maiden race over 1200m.

Unfancied at S$99, the three-year-old incidentally picked up a S$10,000 sales credit from Magic Millions, a bonus which trainer Tim Fitzsimmons was very happy with.

"I knew about the bonus and it's great for the Arexevan-Relentless Stable. It'll come in handy when they go to the Magic Millions sales," said the second-year Australian handler, who was bringing up his third winner for the season.

"It's Peter Twomey who bought this horse for me at the Inglis Ready-To-Run last year. I then had the Arexevan boys come on board.

"It's great I trained my first winner for the Arexevan Stable, we go back a long way since their days with (trainer) Cliff (Brown). My first runner Petite Voix was for them as well.

"They have just the one horse with me for the time being. I hope more will follow soon.

"I've always had a high opinion of Relentless. He was a bit immature and has taken a bit of time.

"He was mentally not quite there at his debut (August 8 when seventh to Be You). I gave him a break and he has come on from that run.

"He was also too close to the pace at his first race. He is better off ridden away and quiet, and he can finish it off like he did today.

"The race panned out very well for him. They went really quick in front and it suited him nicely."

Indeed, unsighted for most of the way, Relentless in the conspicuous Arexevan orange silks was the fastest closer when angled to the outside. Pinning his ears back, he gobbled up the ground in brilliant style to finish over the top of his rivals.

Fitzsimmons also had the well-backed Ace Sovereign (Darci Brahma) in the race, but contrary to his stablemate who dropped off to a nice relaxed run at the rear, the gelding plotted a wider course throughout to eventually run fourth two and a quarter lengths off the winner.

"I thought he would run very well, but he had a hard race three to four wide. He still ran on well," said his handler.

Newcomer The Archer (Wandjina), who had been neglected in the betting compared to the other Falcon Stable debutant Beyond Compared (I Am Invincible), was being hailed the winner – and looking all poised to give trainer Alwin Tan his 500th career winner milestone - when he took the shortcuts home upon straightening to hit the lead, but was swamped late to settle for second, one and a quarter lengths away.

Donna Logan's Beyond Compared's less fancied stable companion and fellow debutant Golden Sprint (Contributer) grabbed third place another nose away. The winning time was 1min 11.81secs for the 1200m on Polytrack.

Fitzsimmons helms only a small-scale operation with 20 horses, but Brown's former assistant-trainer could not complain with the way things have evolved since his quiet debut (winless) in April 2019.

"I have mostly new horses. When I get a spot for them, they are up against higher-rated horses," he said.

"They need more racing experience. Things would have been different if we still raced twice a week.

"For example, Relentless should have raced on September 26, but he got pushed back to today.

"I'm still happy with the way my horses have been running as I've had many placings. I hope things can only improve from now on."

Big outsider Kiwi Kid lands first win for Uruguay in Singapore

A small chapter of Singapore's rich racing history was written on the card when Kiwi Kid (British Medium) became the first Uruguayan-bred horse to win in Singapore.

While the name can be misleading, Kiwi Kid was born and bred in the South American country, which most people would tend to associate with football maybe, but not horse racing. After all, Uruguay are both the first hosts and winners of the first football World Cup ever held (1930).

It turned out that Uruguay has quite a thriving horse racing industry, and lo and behold, it does have a tiny Singapore presence in its midst!

The Nova Racing Stable, better remembered for its Polytrack speedster Nova Swiss (Swiss Ace), races some horses there, hence the arrival of Kiwi Kid to our shores last year.

Trainer Jason Ong himself had never heard of their racing, but when the local outfit, who already had Limited Edition (Perfectly Ready) with the second-year Singaporean handler, told him about training Kiwi Kid, the chance to have such an exotic horse under his charge was too hot to resist.

"Nova Racing is already established with a few horses in Uruguay. They have a bloodstock agent there as well," said Ong.

"One day, they told me they had a one-time Uruguay winner they thought would be good for Singapore and asked me if I'd like to train him.

"The answer was yes right away! All I know is he is a sprinter and won one race over 1000m, I think, on the all-weather there, but I thought it'd be interesting to train a horse from that country.

"The Nova Racing people have supported me from Day 1, and I'm glad I've got a win out of this horse for them.

"I really wanted this horse to win a race for them. He didn't show much at his first four starts, and after his last run in the last week of July, I spoke to the connections and decided to give him a short spell.

"After his long trip from Uruguay, he was a real hothead and took some time to settle down. He was lacking in race experience.

"He's come on after the spell. I put blinkers on at his trial and he went really well with them.

"Still, today, with I Am Sacred in the race, it was very hard to be confident in his chances, but he came out really well, and Joseph See rode a very patient race on him."

Indeed, Kiwi Kid, following his bland runs, was ignored in the market to start at mammoth odds of $578, but his Singaporean jockey rode him like he was the best horse in the race.

Positive from barrier rise, the "Uniquely Uruguayan" kept on from his middle barrier to go and sit on the girth of race-leader Winning Spirit (Itsmyluckyday).

When favourite I Am Sacred (I Am Invincible) loomed on the outside at the top of the straight, most thought the race was a foregone conclusion, especially as the horse thought to be his main danger, Sea Dragon (Street Boss) was vanishing out of sight.

But Kiwi Kid, who had in the meantime hit the front in the home straight, surprisingly did not throw in the towel, dug in his heels to score by half-a-length from Winning Legend (Spirit Of Boom) with Lim's Knight (Kaphero) third another short head away. The winning time was 1min 4.83secs for the 1100m on the Polytrack.

I Am Sacred, a previous two-time winner from three starts, had every chance, but did not fire a shot when the chips were down to run seventh, around two lengths off Kiwi Kid.

Now that Uruguay has opened the scoring (and it's not with a ball) in Singapore with its first racing pioneer, a new market could be shimmering in the horizon. Given it lies just between Argentina and Brazil, two Latin American countries that have supplied many horses to Singapore over the years, especially the former, the shipping logistics should not be much different.

"I'm not sure how Kiwi Kid was shipped over as Nova took care of everything," said Ong.

"I think he had to transit in quarantine more than twice, but it was certainly worth the experiment."

Analysis: The 2018 Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) winner Arcadia Queen recorded her second Group 1 success here. Having her third run back this preparation and significantly racing without bar plates, she settled nicely in last place in the six-runner field behind a moderate pace before improving between runners at the turn. She eased deeper at the 200m and then finished far too well to score a very good win. The recent Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) winner Russian Camelot enjoyed a good trip in third place, moved up coming to the turn, briefly looked the winner when he loomed at the 200m but the $1.40 favourite had no answer to the winner's bid and he then fought on for second, beaten a length and a quarter. Humidor travelled nicely in fourth place on the rails and kept fighting on quite well in the straight for third. Harbour Views raced outside the leader (Gailo Chop), challenged at the turn and then held on for (4.5 lengths) fourth with the leader Gailo Chop weakening in the straight to finish (5.2 lengths) fifth. Analysis: Odeum followed her win in the Jim Maloney Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at this track on September 19 with a career-defining moment in taking out this Group 1 feature at only her fourth start. She began well from her good barrier (3) and then enjoyed a nice trip in third place on the rails before taking a split at the turn. She hit the front at the 200m and then went on to score comfortably, running the 1600m out well. Personal settled in ninth place, between runners, switched deeper at the turn and then ran on well for second. The second favourite Instant Celebrity again settled well back in the field and was last approaching the home turn. She went widest of all on straightening and then ran on well for third. Ecumenical settled midfield, improved (deep) from the 600m and then battled on well for (2.7 lengths) fourth while Agreeable made ground from 11th at the turn for (3.4 lengths) fifth. The favourite Hungry Heart was a bit slowly away, settled in eighth place but raced well below her best at her first start at Caulfield and never threatened before finishing (5.3 lengths) seventh. Then followed: Love Tap (AUS), Favreau (NZ), Miravalle (AUS), Cherry Tortoni (AUS), Achiever (AUS), Socrates (NZ), Wertheimer (NZ), Street Dancer (AUS) & Gorshin (AUS), last.

Analysis: Backing up from her Group 1 Flight Stakes victory here a week ago, Montefilia, once clear, prevailed again, her fourth win at start seven but this time against the boys to stamp herself one the best 3YO fillies around. After a good start she drifted to be worse than midfield at the 1600m. From the 1200 she improved steadily and at the 800m sat sixth (rails) continuing to gain on the leaders but pocketed behind them at the top of the straight. Near the 300m she found space five deep, went up to second but the new leader was going well. She chased hard but was neck back at the 100m then took over at the 50m and was doing best by three quarters of a length at the line. Lion's Roar was fifth down the back, moved into fourth approaching the home corner and went forward four wide inside the 400m to share the lead. He co-led at the 300m then took over to lead alone to the 100m. He gave the filly a good tussle but she was too tough. They were well clear of Bucharest who sat fourth at the 400m and kept on fairly for a distant third from Love Tap who co-led at the 300m then battled on for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: Ole Kirk, winner of the Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Rosehill a fortnight ago, became a dual Group 1 winner with another solid performance at the elite level here. He settled nicely for William Pike in eighth place, switched deeper and into clear running at the turn, moved up well nearing the 100m before going on to score well. Aysar began well from his wide barrier (13), settled in sixth place (wide with cover) before improving at the turn. He took the lead at the 100m and then fought well for a very good second at only his fifth race start. Grandslam went to the front, travelled along at a quite a good tempo, got a break on straightening and then held on well for third after stepping up significantly in class here. Crosshaven crossed from his wide barrier (14) to settle in third place, one off the rails. He put in a bid at the turn and then held on quite well for (2.8 lengths) fourth with the outsider Lunar Fox making ground from ninth at the turn to finish fifth while the more favoured Mo'unga (4.7 lengths) seventh, King's Legacy (5.7 lengths) ninth and Tagaloa (18 lengths) last, all raced well below expectations. Analysis: The 2019 Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Mr Quickie recorded his second Group 1 success here, his tenth win in 23 starts. Having his third run this preparation, he settled nicely in seventh place on the rails from his good barrier (2), took a split at the turn, got to the front at the 100m and then went on to score a dominant win under his 59kg top weight. The second favourite Buffalo River went to the front, grabbed a break on turning for home and then held on well for (2 lengths) second after running a bold race. Superstorm settled well back from his difficult barrier (13) and was near last in the 15-runner field coming to the turn. He then saved ground along the inner to take third. Age Of Chivalry was seventh at the turn and then battled on well for (3 lengths) fourth with Achernar Star (3.3 lengths) fifth after being handy most of the way while the favourite Junipal disappointed. He settled in eighth place, was under pressure at the turn before battling on for (4.6 lengths) ninth. [KB]

Analysis: An easy win for Wild Ruler, his third (all stakes) at start six. He settled in second soon after the jump, the small field of five running in single file, maintaining his position to the 400m. He cruised up to the leader at the 300m, took over without a fight and was in no danger to the line, holding them at bay by a flattering two lengths. A nice run from On The Lead who from equal last at the 600m moved out into the straight and finished well for second. Third to the top of the straight, Doubtland looked a chance, grabbed second at the 200m but couldn't find any more for third.[L]

Analysis: Having his third run back after taking out the Ortensia Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Rosehill in May, Dirty Work recorded his first Group victory here, his fifth win in 16 starts. Ridden patiently by William Pike, he remained in last place in the seven-runner field, tracking a solid tempo, before improving (wide out) on turning for home. He then came with a well-timed bid to grab a narrow but good win. Diamond Effort raced in third place (three wide), moved up to challenge at the 200m, hit the front at the 100m and then battled gamely for a very good second after a wide trip. Octane raced in sixth place (three wide, with cover), moved up coming to the 200m and then kept battling on well for a close-up third. Hey Doc raced outside the leader (Splintex), challenged strongly at the 200m and then held on for (0.8 lengths) fourth in a sound first-up effort with Splintex holding on for (1 length) fifth after leading the field until halfway down the straight. Analysis: Undefeated in three starts at two, Peltzer regained his winning form for his maiden stakes win and fourth career win at start seven, holding on gamely. He wasted no time in leading and was under no pressure past the 600m as well as turning for home. He shot clear at the 200m and looked in for an easy time but the challenges came late yet he dug in to hold on by a half length. Prime Star sat last of the six runners past the 800m, went widest into the straight and went hard at the winner from the 100m for a solid second from Jet Propulsion who was second, just back of the winner from the 600m, was under heavy pressure at the top of the straight but kept on doggedly the length of the straight for third. Then followed: Gallic Chieftain (FR), In Good Health (AUS), Miami Bound (NZ), The Chosen One (NZ), Mahamedeis (AUS) & Orderofthegarter (IRE), last.

Analysis: The well supported Chapada followed his first-up second in the Naturalism Stakes (Gr 3, 200m) here on September 19 with a solid staying effort in winning here, his first stakes win after six placings previously. He had a nice trip in fifth place on the rails before taking a split at the turn. He then moved up well, took the lead at the 100m and then went on to score comfortably. Zebrowski raced in fourth place, was under riding on straightening and kept fighting on for second, beaten just over a length. Platinum Invador settled in eighth place, improved (between runners) on turning for home and then fought on to take third with Gaelic Chieftain catching the eye in running on from last in the nine-runner field for (1.5 lengths) fourth while the leader In Good Health held on well for (1.6 lengths) fifth. The favourite Orderofthegarter raced in second place but faded in the straight to finish (5.6 lengths) last, performing well below his previously good consistent form. [KB]

Then followed: Letzbeclam (AUS), Highly Discreet (AUS), Tarcoola Diva (AUS), Capriccio (AUS) & Cave Hill (AUS), last.

Analysis: Swats That followed her recent win in the Scarborough Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Moonee Valley with another impressive Group 3 success here, her third win from five starts. She settled in third place, behind a good tempo, moved up halfway down the straight and then went on to score decisively. Muntaseera had a nice trip in fifth place, one off the rails (tracking the eventual winner). She moved up well at the 200m and then fought gamely for second. Bella Nipotina went to the front at anticipated but was pressured in the lead (by Capriccio) and she did well in holding on for third after a taxing trip. Letzbeclam raced in fourth place on the inner and battled on quite well to hold that position narrowly from Highly Discreet who made ground from the tail of the field for fifth. [KB]

Analysis: After resuming with a good third in the How Now Stakes (Gr 3) at this track on September 19, Star Thoroughbreds-raced mare Fiesta recorded her third Group win with a solid second-up performance here. She settled midfield and wide with cover before Hugh Bowman commenced his move rounding the turn. She challenged at the 100m and then finished best to score a good win. Felicia raced outside the leader (Xilong), got to the front at the 200m and then battled strongly for second after running a bold race. Broadwayandfourth settled in second last place, improved between runners at the turn, moved up at the 200m and kept finishing well for a close-up third. Lyre raced in seventh place (between runners), took a split halfway down the straight and kept fighting well for (1.1 lengths) fourth with the leader Xilong holding on for (3.9 lengths) fifth. [KB]

Analysis: The best finish of the day here which saw Emeralds get up in the last stride, extricating herself from an awkward spot starting the run home to bag her maiden stakes win (third overall) at start 13. She settled worse than midfield, one out past the 1200m and had three behind her at the 800m. Rounding into the straight her prospects looked dim but found a path down along the inner. Inside the 300m she began the chase, had three lengths to make up at the 200m but with great determination went hard and nailed the pacemaker in the last stride in a thriller. Greysful Glamour led from the start, bowled along comfortably to the straight then kicked clear at the 300m. She looked the winner everywhere but the post but not disgraced in running second. Nimalee sat fifth, three deep approaching the straight then kept up a solid run for third from House Of Cartier who tracked the winner along the inner then battled away for fourth.[L]

Analysis: Back-to-back Group 3s for Supreme Heights who continued on her winning ways with career victory seven at start 16. After a smart beginning she took up the pace from the 1200m to lead by a half length to the 800m and by a neck at the 600m. Rounding into the home straight she extended her lead to a length and tried to slip them but was caught approaching the 100m. Finding more she edged into the lead again, holding on well by a half length. Le Castile was back of midfield (rails) leaving the back straight, moved out at the 400m and went wider still into the straight from where she ran on very well to snatch second in the last few strides. Favourite Kiwi Ida went four wide from the 600m, was second turning in and went up to challenge the winner at the 200m but came to the end of her run, losing second late. Mohaka was doing her best work late to run fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: In a tradesman-like performance on debut the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained filly Fake Love was never seriously threatened at any stage in winning here. After a smart beginning from her inside barrier (1), she went to the front, grabbed a break on straightening and then went on to score easily. Extreme Warrior settled in fifth place (on the rails), improved under riding rounding the turn and then battled on well along the rails for a sound second on debut. The Godolphin-raced filly Naples settled in third last place from her wide barrier (11), commenced her move on turning for home and then finished in promising fashion for third. Phillip Stokes-trained filly Bird Of Dubai was eased from her outside barrier (12), settled in last place, went widest of all at the turn and then finished well for (2.2 lengths) fourth in a good effort on debut. Godolphin-raced colt Anamoe was a bit slowly away, settled in about eighth place but was held up at a vital stage in the straight before making late ground for (2.9 lengths) fifth in a nice performance on debut. Analysis: Highly consistent four-year-old gelding Windstorm has now raced ten times for seven wins after recording his first stakes victory in good style here. He was ridden patiently by William Pike and settled in second last place before commencing his move on turning for home. He then finished strongly, hit the front at the 50m and then went on to score well. The Godolphin-raced Phaistos settled in back in fourth place, moved up on straightening, challenged nearing the 100m and then fought well for second in a good first-up effort. Archedemus raced outside the leader (Runson), got the upper hand halfway down the straight and then battled on nicely for third with Beehunter making last ground from the tail of the field for (2.5 lengths) fourth. 3. Fastnet Cyclone (IRE) 7 b g, 54 kg

Fastnet Rock (AUS) - Chenchikova (IRE), by Sadler's Wells (USA)

B: Chenchikova Syndicate T: S W Kendrick J: Luke Tarrant

Margins: 0.2 lens, 0.2 lens. Time: 2:14.13(last 600m 35.74).

Betting: $9.00, $5.00, $10.00.

Then followed: Fun Fact (AUS), Ready For Danger (AUS), Sir Barnabus (AUS), Stardome (NZ) & Alward (IRE), last.

Analysis: Out of the winner's circle since May of last year, Grey Lion added stakes win three and his eighth career victory in a fighting finish here. He was fifth, one out, with a circuit remaining and held that spot into the back straight as well as inside the 800m. He got busy from the 600m and rounding into the straight was right in behind the leaders, three wide and ready to challenge. He took over at the 200m but had a fight on his hands, rallied well when challenged himself then thrust his neck out for a tough win. Free Fly Too also made his run from the 600m, was second turning in and led to the 200m. Even though caught he never gave in to finish a game second. Fastnet Cyclone was second last at the 600m and in the home straight kept up a solid run for third from pacemaker Fun Fact who fought well when headed at the 300m, the first four clear of the rest. B: Mrs S M & T R Roper, Waikato, T: J W Richards J: D S Johnson

Margins: 3.3 lens, 0.2 lens. Time: 1:22.22(last 600m 34.97).

Betting: $2.10, $31.00, $3.50.

Then followed: Tweedledee (NZ), Crafty Jess (NZ), Lavaglo (NZ), Ronchi (NZ), New York Jazz (NZ), Sunburst (NZ), Cutting Up Rough (NZ), Our Alley Cat (NZ), Daytona Red (NZ) & Pop Star Princess (NZ), last.

Analysis: Tavi Mac broke through for his maiden stakes in fine style here, booting clear by three and a quarter lengths over the last 300m to record his eighth career win at start 13. He settled fifth past the 1200m and Opie Bosson had him beautifully positioned one out and three back leaving the back straight. From the 400m he rushed forward and at the top of the straight sat three wide and poised to challenge. He took over at the 300m and bounded clear, away by two at the 200m and was full of running and well clear at the post. Hay Tiger was third last at the 800m, made his run wide approaching the home straight and once balanced kept up a strong gallop to nab second short of the post. Burgundy Belle was a handy fourth (rails) at the 600m, shuffled back short of the straight but ran home well when clear, losing second late. Tweedledee battled on quite well to hold fourth.[LJ]

Then followed: Deepstrike (NZ), So You Can (AUS), Crown Mint (AUS), The Brumby (AUS), Casino Seventeen (AUS), Dalgarno (NZ), Zeppa (AUS), Talamo (NZ) & The Olympian (AUS), last.

Analysis: A nice staying effort from Ain'tnodeeldun who finished strongly from well back to claim his second win (maiden stakes) at start six. He settled midfield but at the 1200m sat fifth last with no improvement at the 800m. From the 600m he moved out and accelerated quickly to be fourth, four wide rounding into the straight. They all had to catch the tearaway but travelling sweetly he collared the leader at the 200m, strode into the lead and was in control despite a late challenge. Victoria Quay sat last at the 600m, threaded between them rounding in as well in the straight then finished strongly for a very good second. Passing Phase sat outside the winner at the 600m, went widest into the straight and ran on well for third from Deepstrike who, also from well back, finished well for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: Flit, winner of the Caulfield Thousand Guineas (Gr.1, 1600m) exactly a year ago, upset the favourite here for her fourth win at start 15. Although she began with them she soon drifted and sat third last at the 1000m. From the 600m she got onto the favourite's back and into the straight shared third. Accelerating quickly at the 200m she formed a line of four approaching the 100m then drove into the lead and had enough to hold them by a long neck. Favourite Alligator Blood sat third, one out at the 600m, gave the leaders two lengths at the 400m and was one of four across the track approaching the 100m but had no answer to the winner, fighting on for second. Dawn Passage was last at the 600m, tracked the winner into the straight and kept up a solid run to the line to nab third late. Chat led them in, co-led at the 300m then fought on quite well to hold fourth.[LJ]

VERDICT It was a messy race in which Aunty Bridy hit the crossbar on her recent course visit and she gives the impression she can better her present mark by a few pounds yet. That said, preference is for LIPIZZANER. A half-brother to numerous speedy individuals, he has bags of speed and whilst he could be a little better over the minimum trip, he gets this 6f test well and is already a battle-hardened operator. He will appreciate the drop in class today. New Treasure and Preamble should also be bang there. [Seamus Howard]

BETTING FORECAST: 11-4 Sonnyboyliston, 7-2 Order Of Australia, 11-2 Up Helly Aa, 13-2 Fiscal Rules, 8 Etneya, 10 Helvic Dream, 12 Monument Valley, Sky Seven, 14 Raise You, 50 Too Soon To Panic.

VERDICT A competitive renewal which could revolve around the three-year-olds. SONNYBOYLSTON has gone from strength to strength in handicaps and if handling this softer ground can take this step up in grade. The more highly-tried Order Of Australia rates a big danger, though he is also unproven on soft. The lightly raced and still progressive four-year-old Up Helly AA does handle soft and could still have more to offer at this level. [Alan Hewison]

BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 Monkey Jewellery, 3 Dublin Star, 7-2 Big Luck Champ, 4 Noble Desire, 8 Helaku Knight, 25 Scenic Sweetie, 33 Sure Win Win, 66 Alloy King, Planet Flyer.

VERDICT Monkey Jewellery and Dublin Star found themselves poorly positioned on the outside of the field when seventh over C&D on their latest outings and both can fare better from favourable draws today but the answer might be NOBLE DESIRE, who overcame a troubled passage to make the frame over C&D on his seasonal debut and remains well handicapped. Big Luck Champ made a promising debut in June and also gets a mention.

BETTING FORECAST: 10-11 Beluga, 11-4 Solar Power, 7 Stunning Impact, 10 Speed Fay Fay, 16 Sam's Love, 25 Goldie Flanker, Shanghai Grace, 50 Euro LAGO, Fortune Hero.

VERDICT Solar Power ran well in defeat over C&D on his seasonal debut and is still quite lightly raced but it's hard to get away from BELUGA, who was a convincing of course winner here in March on just his second career start and was denied a clear run when placed from a wide stall over that trip last month. He moves up to 7f today and has the inside draw this time.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Mighty Valor, 4 Inno Legend, 5 Valiant Elegance, 6 Smart Charade, 7 California Levee, Fortune Master, 8 Winning Strikes, 66 Prawn Yeah Yeah, 100 Winning Genghis.

VERDICT Cases can be made for a few of these but today's drop in grade might enable Irish maiden winner CALIFORNIA LEEVEE to gain his breakthrough Hong Kong win. Mighty Valor ended last season in very good form and will be dangerous if a three-month break hasn't checked his momentum. Inno Legend and Valiant Elegance are also very much of interest.

BETTING FORECAST: 2 Maldives, 3 Golden Four, 5 Lucky Quality, 8 Casimiro, The Drive, 14 Chairman Lo, 16 Best For You, 20 Roman Impero, 25 Apex Top.

VERDICT Unexposed 4yo Maldives began his career with two very promising 6f runs towards the end of last season and is not opposed with any confidence but GOLDEN FOUR went close over C&D two weeks ago and Jerry Chau's very useful 10lb claim might enable him to go one better today. Lucky Quality is better known as a sprinter but will be on the premises if his stamina holds out.

VERDICT Crown Avenue should have a role to play after two solid efforts this season and still being 11lb lower than his last winning mark but the vote goes to NATURAL STORM who was putting in all his best work late over 1m on seasonal return and will relish this step back up in trip. Exaltation is of interest now Zac Purton rides for the first time and his turn could be soon after an encouraging return over the extended mile.

VERDICT Both Smart Leader and Inner Flame need to bounce back from disappointing seasonal returns but both are capable of showing more and should be in the mix, but this looks a good opportunity for SUNSET WATCH who showed enough on his return to action, when losing out Winning Dreamer over C&D last month and he gets the vote with Zac Purton taking the mount.

VERDICT Plenty of respect for Private Rocket who scored over 7f comfortably in his final start of last season, and should have the pace dropping to 6f, but a chance is taken with PING HAI BRAVO who has shown up well in all his starts and should have a say off this mark after a pleasing return to action last month. Super Dobbin should still have improvement to come after just three starts and he has shown enough to suggest he should be in the mix.

VERDICT No doubt Star of Yuen Long will be gunned out from stall 11 and try to make all like he did on seasonal return but one with a kinder draw is KA YING EXCELLENT and he is taken to make a winning seasonal return after showing up well in his last campaign. Win Win showed plenty on seasonal return last month and should be competitive if building on that.

VERDICT A tough Class 2 to finish the card, and it may be worth taking a chance on LUCKY EXPRESS who should still have improvement to come after just three local starts. He has a good draw to work from, which should allow him to sit and stalk the pace. Shining Ace, Winning Method and Good Luck Friend are all likely improvers and have the ability to win this race.
