Award for Shamus after stellar year on the track

Rosemont flagbearer earns fee increase for 2020, but remains good value for Victorian breeders

BY GEORGIE DENNIS | @ANZ_NEWS

After a breakout year on the track, Rosemont Stud's flag bearing stallion Shamus Award (Snitzel) will stand for an increased fee of $19,800 (all fees inclusive of GST) in 2020.

The stallion - who won the 2013 Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) - has had a fruitful 12 months results headed by the feats of Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Mr Quickie, who also placed in the Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and Moonee Valley Gold Cup (Gr 2, 2500m).

The son of Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) has sired four individual stakes winners so far this season; Moonee Valley Vase (Gr 2, 2040m)-winning Soul Patch, who also recorded third place finishes in the Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) and Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 16000m), as well as Group 3-winning gelding True Detective and Listed-winning duo Flying Award and Shamino. Continued on page 3>>

Superstar shines on sand

Sheng Li Superstar (Harbour Watch) has elevated himself to the level of Macau's second highest rated horse with a determined win in Friday night's Class 1 & 2 (1510m) on the sand.

Prepared nowadays by Stanley Chin and ridden by Luis Corrales, Sheng Li Superstar enjoyed a nice run in third spot in the race before peeling out around the bend for home to go out after the leader Fasuba (Power).

Sheng Li Superstar burst to the front at the 200-metre mark and was chased by the hot favorite Sacred Capital (O'Reilly) and Pearl Green (Fastnet Rock), before powering away to win by almost two lengths. Macau News page 17>>

The economic toll of coronavirus has seen the fees of many stallions in Australia cut back for the upcoming breeding season, however Rosemont Stud principal Anthony Mithen believes Shamus Award has earned his 80 per cent increase.

“He’s proven to be a really versatile stallion, getting horses that can sprint with the Snitzel speed but have got the stamina of a Cox Plate

- Anthony Mithen

“He certainly deserved a fee rise on the efforts of multiple Group winners including his breakthrough Group 1 winner out of his first crop in Mr Quickie who won the Queensland Derby and placed in the Makybe Diva,” Mithen told ANZ Bloodstock News.

Mithen confirmed that Shamus Award will cover a high-class book of mares in 2020 including Special Favour (General Nediym), the dam of Mr Quickie, and Flying Dansino (Fusaichi Pegasus), who produced Flying Award.

Shamus Award will once again stand alongside Group 1-winning Royal Ascot hero Starspangledbanner (Choisir), whose fee has been slightly reduced to $19,800 in 2020, having been offered to breeders for a fee of $22,000 last year.

The four-time elite level winner also had a terrific year, siring Prime Star, who took out the $2 million Inglis Millennium (RL, 1100m), as well as the Cheveley Park Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) winner Millisle, who was the subsequently named Champion 2YO filly in Europe.

“He has the Millennium winner and he’s got a very good two-year-old that we’re lucky enough to have bred and still part own in Starosa in Brisbane who is quite high up in the JJ Atkins betting at the moment,” Mithen continued.

“He’s also got the Champion 2YO Filly in Europe which hasn’t been lost on breeders down under. It’s a shrinking world we live in and everyone knows when the good horses pop up and Millisle looks like she’s exactly that.

Starspangledbanner, who is currently the leading stallion in Victoria by stakes winners to runners at over 6.3 per cent, was found to be subfertile in the early part of his stud career, but Mithen has assured breeders his fertility is back up to normal with 62 foals on the ground last year from 98 coverings in 2018.

“It’s been another stellar year for a horse with limited numbers but those numbers are certainly set to expand now that his fertility is back to A grade,” Mithen said.

“He’s a normal stallion and breeders can have the confidence that they’ll send their mare and they’ve got as good a chance (of getting in foal) as sending a mare to any other stallion. That’s going to be the positive that we really want breeders to be aware of this season.”

Meanwhile, Rosemont’s veteran stallion Starcraft (Soviet Star) will stand for an unchanged fee of $8,800 in 2020 - a price Mithen believes is extremely good value off the back of the Group 1 producer’s sale statistics earlier this year.

Starcraft

ROSEMONT STUD

“He’s a horse I just can’t believe, if you’ve got multiple mares, why wouldn’t you be sending one to Starcraft every year and just helping yourself to making money,” Mithen said.

“He gets a great sales horse as evident by his sales statistics this year. I smile when I say this and I’ve got to say it with a bit more of a serious tone at times, but the greatest yearling sale ever held in the southern hemisphere was Magic Millions this year in January, and the stallion that provided the greatest return on investment in that whole sale was Starcraft for three or more sold.

“He averaged $150,000 off a service fee of $8,000, so on multiples it was the best return. Then he went to the Classic sale and sold one to George Moore for $340,000.

“There’s a well-known Asian market that snaps anything up that shows any modicum of ability at the trials or in a maiden. We’re happy to support him because we know there’s a paycheck at the other end.

“There’s been consistency over the last few years with him now trading into Asia, getting a good horse in Hong Kong every season and getting good sales results.

“I expect him to be a busy boy even though he’s nearer retirement than the start of his career. He’s still in a picture of health and working well.”

The Rosemont roster for 2020 is completed by the Medaglia d’Oro (El Prado) half-brother to dual Group 1 winner Star Witness (Starcraft) in Nostradamus, whose fee has been reduced to $5,500 in 2020.

“He’s only had a small number of runners so far so the jury is still out on him,” Mithen said. “He’s a value option and an extremely well-bred son of Medaglia d’Oro.

“It’s the right recipe that could work and he could easily be the budget stallion that blossoms and grows into money when his late crop steps out and his two-year-olds turn three.”

The relocation of Victoria’s most popular sire Written Tycoon (Iglesia) to the Hunter Valley this year, leaves a gap in the market for a local stallion and Mithen can’t see any reason why it couldn’t be filled by one of his sires.

Nostradamus

ROSEMONT STUD

“It was a blow Written Tycoon leaving Victoria but maybe out of the shadows step a few horses like Starspangledbanner, Shamus Award or Starcraft.

“It’s a real chance, I mean Starspangledbanner is the leading Victorian sire with stakes winners to runners and Shamus Award sits third. Two of the top three stakes-producers in Victoria shows that we’re going places with our stallion ranks at Rosemont.”

First for Pure Champion

Manhattan Spector's (3 g ex Red Opal by Red Clubs) maiden win on Sunday provided his sire with his first winner. Pure Champion (Footstepsinthesand) began his career in Ireland for Aidan O'Brien when named Steinbeck before continuing his career in Hong Kong where he won multiple stakes races for Tony Cruz. Then transferred to Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott in New Zealand, Pure Champion gained a Group 1 success in the Windsor Park Plate (1600m). Manhattan Spector was a NZ$7,000 yearling at the South Island Sale before being presented at the 2018 New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run Sale by Bill Thurlow's Stanley Park, realising NZ$70,000 to John Sadler and Suman Hedge.

Grandview Stud reduce Whittington fee

Queensland's Grandview Stud have reduced the service fee for their stallion Whittington (Tale Of The Cat) to $5,500 (inc GST) from $6,600 (inc GST) as the state's breeders carefully review the ongoing impact of the global pandemic. Whittington is currently second on the state's second season sires premiership and third on the three-year-old list, with only two crops to race. He has 16 individual winners at a strike rate of 34 per cent this season. Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Under The Louvre (Excellent Art), whose first crop are yearlings, will stand for $4,400 (inc GST). "There has been a tremendous run of winners by Whittington this year reinforcing his second position in the Queensland second season sire table and third position in the Queensland three-year-old sire table," Grandview's owner Michael Grieve said. "For $5,500, he is exceptional value especially for Queensland breeders to chase the lucrative QTIS bonus prize-money in races."

Goodwood for Wangoom winner

Danny O'Brien confirmed yesterday that Order Of Command (Squamosa) will be given a chance at Group 1 level in Saturday's $400,000 The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) at Morphettville. Order Of Command has won both starts this campaign, taking out a 1200-metre open handicap at Caulfield on April 11 prior to scoring in the Wangoom Handicap (Listed, 1200m) at Warrnambool last Wednesday. It provided his eighth victory from 21 starts and a second win at stakes level. Gytrash (Lope De Vega) is the current $3.40 favourite for The Goodwood ahead of Santa Ana Lane (Lope De Vega) and The Inevitable (Dundeel), each at $5.50. Order Of Command is currently a $13 chance.

Flemington trip to reinvigorate Sunlight

Tony and Calvin McEvoy have resorted to travel to reinvigorate Sunlight (Zoustar) ahead of The Goodwood on Saturday. The four-year-old mare has been working at Flemington before she returns to the McEvoy's South Australian base ahead of Saturday's Group 1 race. Tony McEvoy believed his mare had become complacent in the country environment at Angaston and needed a spark ahead of the Goodwood. The co-trainer said he felt cheated by Sunlight's performance in the TAB Classic (Registered as the Robert Sangster Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m) on May 2 when she finished last. "I couldn't find anything wrong with her and I couldn't sit on my hands, so I had to make a change," McEvoy said. "She has always been stimulated by travelling and I thought she might have been getting a little complacent in the country lifestyle. So I put her on the truck and sent her back to Melbourne."

Fighting Teo heads to Sunshine Coast

Toowoomba trainer Kevin Kemp is trying something different with Fighting Teo (Teofilo). He will be dropping back in distance when running in the Wayne Wilson Memorial Mile (Listed, 1600m) at the Sunshine Coast on Friday. Kemp has been going through the new winter program to draw up a new campaign for Fighting Teo and his main target will be the Tattersalls Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Eagle Farm on June 13. Fighting Teo is one of the biggest horses in training, standing close to 18 hands. The gelding usually takes a few runs to peak and he resumed in a 1400-metre race at the Gold Coast last month, then stepped up to 1800 metres at the same track two weeks ago, finishing fourth. "He did what you would expect at his second run back from a spell. I was more than happy," Kemp said. "Going back to 1600 metres on Friday isn't ideal but there isn't a lot of suitable lead ups. He can go to the Chairman's Handicap (Gr 2, 2600m) (May 30) on his way to the Tattersalls Cup (June 13).

Kiwi import vindicating Costa's judgement

Gold Coast trainer Michael Costa has been happy with his Kiwi import Supergiant (Red Giant). The three-year-old gelding was narrowly beaten in his first start in Stakes company, finishing second in the Doomben Guineas (Listed, 1615m) on Saturday. Supergiant was initially prepared by Matamata trainer Jim Collett, with Costa sourcing him out of a Cambridge trial in September last year. The gelding will now progress to the Gunsynd Classic (Gr 3, 1800m) on May 23 at Eagle Farm before a tilt at the Rough Habit Plate (Gr 3, 2200m) at the same track. "The horse is still quite immature and learning his racing craft," Costa said. "His last two runs have been super and I think if he can get over a little bit of ground and still run home in the times he is running home in, we don't know where he is going to end up, which is good."

Hong Kong on the cards for Galenus

Hong Kong buyers are moving in to try and purchase Tasmanian galloper Galenus (Magnus), who made a bright start to racing on the mainland at Cranbourne on Friday. Trainer Scott Burton sent Galenus to race in the care of Patrick Payne as Tasmanian racing was shut down last month. Brunton told Tasracing that Galenus has been on the radar of Hong Kong buyers for some time. "Galenus is a very smart horse with a huge future but the interest is so strong from Hong Kong that he will more than likely end up there," Brunton said. "I have to do what's best for the owners so if the money is right the horse might not race here (Australia) again." Galenus is nominated for a 1400-metre handicap for three-year-olds at Saturday's Flemington meeting.

"I'm happy to be sitting third on the premierships and riding winners," Neindorf told Racing.com. "I've been getting some great opportunities and I'm grateful that I now have the opportunity to ride for a successful Melbourne stable in a Group 1." Neindorf, competing in his first ever Adelaide Carnival, believes his riding continues to improve. "I think my strength and style have really improved in recent times. I try to mirror myself on someone like Jye McNeil and I think I'm sitting lower, more balanced and developing my strength naturally and patiently."

Trained by Andre Fabre, the three-year-old filly defeated Dream And Do (Siyouni) by half a length with Tickle Me Green (Sea The Moon) a further head away in third. Tropbeau is the only named foal out of Dansili (Danehill) mare Frangipanni who herself was produced by July Cup (Gr 1, 6f) winner Frizzante (Efisio). By former shuttle sire Showcasing (Oasis Dream), the three-year-old filly has now won four times in six starts, three of which were at Group level. ## Prix d'harcourt to Shaman

Group 3 winner Shaman (4 c Shamardal - Only Green by Green Desert) added another stakes victory to his resume at Paris Longchamp yesterday when taking out the Prix d'harcourt (Gr 2, 2000m). The son of Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) defeated Way To Paris (Champs Elysees) by three-quarters of a length with Simona (Siyouni) coming home a further short neck away in third. Shaman is out of the dual stakes-winning mare Only Green (Green Desert), making him a half-brother to 2017 Albury Gold Cup (Listed, 2000m) winner Green Sweet (Smart Strike). Only Green is a half-sister to dual French Group 1 winner Occupandiste (Kaldoun) who in turn produced Impressionnante (Danehill), the dam of Haras du Quesnay resident Intello (Galileo). Darley's proven sire of sires Shamardal died at Kildangan Stud earlier this year.

Nine for Wootton Bassett

French sire Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj) landed his ninth individual stakes winner yesterday when The Summit (3 c ex Acola by Acatenango) took out the Prix de Fontainebleau (Gr 3, 1600m) at Paris Longchamp. The three-year-old colt produced an effortless win to defeat Ecrivain (Lope De Vega) by a length and three-quarters with the Godolphin-owned Victor Ludorum (Shamardal) a further three-quarters of a length back in third. The Summit is one of six winners produced by the unplaced mare Acola (Acatenango), who herself is a half-sister to six-time stakes winner Chineur (Fasliyev). Wootton Bassett stands at Haras d'Etreham for a fee of €40,000 (inc GST), while his son Alamanzor has Haras de Colleville resident Kendargent (Kendor) brought up his 29th stakes winner yesterday when Batwan (5 g ex Matwan by Indian Rocket) took out the Prix de Saint-Georges (Gr 3, 1000m) at Paris Longchamp. The five-year-old gelding defeated Gold Vibe (Dream Ahead) by half a length with Sestilio Jet (French Fifteen) coming home a further neck away in third. Batwan is one of seven winners out of Listed scorer Matwan, who in turn is a half-sister to dual Group 3 victor Myasun (Panis). Kendargent stands for €15,000 (inc GST) in France and is also the sire of Listed scorer Snow Bell, who produced the Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained four-time winner Star Fall (Zoustar).

Spinning win by Memories in Maurice Zilber

Spinning Memories (5 m Arcano - Hanalei Memories by Hard Spun) produced a stunning performance to take out the Prix Maurice Zilber (Listed, 1400m) by a comfortable margin of a length and three-quarters at Paris Longchamp yesterday. Wasmia (Toronado) was second with Air De Valse (Mesnil Des Aigles) a short-neck away in third. A daughter of Group 1 winner Arcano (Oasis Dream), Spinning Memories' third dam is the dual elite level winner Memories Of Silver (Silver Hawk) who also produced two-time Grade 1 scorer Winter Memories (El Prado). Arcano stands at Allevamento di Besnate in Italy for a fee of €5,000 (inc GST) and is the sire of 14 individual stakes winners.

British racing restart pushed back

British racing will not be allowed to resume this month after the government confirmed professional sport, even behind closed doors, will not be staged in England until June 1 at the earliest. The government on Monday published a 50-page guidance document clarifying its three-stage plan for the easing of lockdown measures. Step two of its strategy, which will not be allowed to take place before June 1, includes "permitting cultural and sporting events to take place behind closed doors for broadcast, while avoiding the risk of large-scale social contact". The guidance document states that reopening of venues, such as racecourses, that attract large crowds, "may only be fully possible significantly later depending on the reduction in numbers of infections".

Superstar Shines On Sand

BY HARRY TROY | @RACINGMACAU

Sheng Li Superstar (Harbour Watch) has elevated himself to the level of Macau's second highest rated horse with a determined win in Friday night's Class 1 & 2 (1510m) on the sand.

Prepared nowadays by Stanley Chin and ridden by Luis Corrales, Sheng Li Superstar enjoyed a nice run in third spot in the race before peeling out around the bend for home to win after the leader Fasuba (Power).

Sheng Li Superstar burst to the front at the 200-metre mark and was chased by the hot favorite Sacred Capital (O'Reilly) and Pearl Green (Fastnet Rock), before powering away to win by almost two lengths.

The hard finishing bolter Simply Impeccable (Street Cry) finished second with Pearl Green close up in third. Favorite Sacred Capital raced a bit one paced in the straight under Peter Ho and wound up in fourth spot beaten two and three quarters of a length.

Friday's victory was win number eight in Macau with a further five placings for the five-year-old, who has only been out of a top three spot on four occasions in the enclave, with now close to HK$2.5 Million in earnings.

MACAU JOCKEY CLUB

Sheng Li Superstar surprised many with his head victory over Pearl Green in the Spring Trophy (Listed, 1500m) on the turf when racing returned after the Coronavirus break in March. Most attributed that to the soft lead the gelding got on the day, however with a slick speed in Friday's race coming from Fasuba and Mujaan (Fastnet Rock), Corrales simply bided his time in third spot and had plenty left for the run home.

After Friday night's victory, the handicapper gave the gelding another four points that took him to a mark of 123; just three points behind Macau's highest rated horse Sacred Capital who is on 126.

Sheng Li Superstar has been a great buy for Mr. Frank Wong, who purchased him on the advice of his former trainer Tony Fung. The gelding originally raced in Victoria as Westerly Wind where he won a maiden race at Geelong on the all weather track by six lengths when prepared by Henry Dwyer.

Formerly raced by Qatar Bloodstock in Victoria, the bay was a product of the 2016 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale where he was purchased for A$145,000 by David Redvers Bloodstock.

Tuhao Choice (Jakkalberry) picked up a well deserved victory on Friday night but not before having a great tussle with Still So Cute (Thewayyouare) to prevail by one length on the wire in the Class 3 & 4 over 1600 metres.

The son of Jakkalberry (Storming Home) had been close in two recent starts but on each occasion had been the maker of his own demise.

Two runs back the three year old ran a close second to Chromium Alloy (Testa Rossa) at 1500 (turf) however was relegated back to third spot for his runaround racing manners after an objection by the third horse Fortune Paradise (Animal Kingdom).

At his most recent start, he again spoiled his chances by racing very greenly for a close second to Fortune Paradise again over the 1500 metre trip.

On Friday the gelding was on his best behavior and the win gave Luis Corrales the first leg of a double for the night, and also trainer Sio Cheong who scored later in the evening with Kelvin's Choice (Snitzel).

Kelvin's Choice is another that recorded a well deserved win on Friday night under apprentice Eric Cheung in the Class 4 & 5 over 1050 metres.

It took 21 tries before the four year old son of Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) could salute, however the gelding had been plagued by bad draws and bad luck in many of his runs.

The gelding commenced his racing career in New South Wales under the moniker of Horn when prepared by Bjorn Baker. A Wellington maiden win over 1100 metres and a Nowra BM58 over 1400 metres were his claims to fame there before being sold onto Macau.

Victor Chan Chun Fai was another trainer that picked up a double for the night with Pride Sprint (Makfi) and Bring Me Power (Denman). Pride Sprint, a New Zealand bred four year old, was the first of Chan's winners, doing plenty of work from his gate (11) under Japanese rider Massa Tanaka to win the Class 5 & 6 over 1350 metres.

Kelvin's Choice

As a two year old, Pride Sprint looked destined for better things; the gelding won a trial at Waikato in nice fashion defeating an Exceed and Excel (Daneshill) colt who was subsequently name Aquila that has now won twice in Hong Kong in Class 4 and Class 3 and is currently rated at 70.

Things didn't go as smoothly for Pride Sprint who descended to a lowly rating of 17 before Friday's win. That said, the manner of his win suggests he might have turned a corner running faster time (1.23.3) than his stablemate Bring Me Power who won the last race, the Class 4 in 1.23.5.

Bring Me Power

MACAU JOCKEY CLUB

Bring Me Power also shrugged off a tough run from his outside gate (11) to loop the field and run away with the Class 4 under Japanese rider Shogo Nakano.

Bring Me Power bolted away to win by three lengths over Garlic And Spicy (Lonhro), with Ashkari (Dutch Art) in third.

Formerly racing in Australia as Chauvinist, the gelding was a $140,000 purchase by Champion Thoroughbreds at the 2017 NZB Select Yearling Sale. Under the care of John O'Shea, he won a 1500-metre maiden at Hawkesbury from six runs in New South Wales.

The son of Denman (Lonhro) is another high-priced galloper to end up in Macau, no doubt at a bargain price, and the four year old will pay his way here evidenced by his strong win on Friday night.
