Tofane justifies connections' call to hold on to her with Stradbroke win

Ocean Park mare adds second Group 1 to CV, now Cox Plate a possibility for the Mike Moroney-trained five-year-old

Tofane

MICHAEL MCINALLY

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Jockey Craig Williams' determination to gain the ride on Group 1-winning mare Tofane (Ocean Park) was rewarded when the valuable mare won the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m), her second victory at the highest level and potentially staved off racetrack retirement by 12 months.

Melbourne trainer Mike Moroney elected to not overtax the rising six-year-old Tofane, last year's All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner, due to an injury setback after her spring preparation which saw her resume in the Sapphire Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) in April before venturing to Queensland for the carnival.

She was runner-up to Emerald Kingdom (Bryannbo's Gift) in the BRC Sprint (Gr 3, 1350m) at Doomben on May 22 before being given three weeks between runs and landing a $900,000 payday yesterday at Eagle Farm in the state's richest race. Continued on page 2 >>

Strong N Smart heading towards 3YO Sprint

Three weeks after getting off the mark with a nose-win in a novice race over the same trip, the vastly-improved Strong N Smart (Per Incanto) went back-to-back with a commanding win in yesterday's Class 4 race over 1200 metres and in the process put himself in the reckoning for the Singapore Three-Year-Old Sprint (Listed, 1200m). page 13 >>

"When (Phillip Stokes decided Instant Celebrity wasn't going to come up here, after Tofane's last run I said, 'get me on that horse, please. I really think she can win the race for us'," Williams said.

"I loved the way Mike had spaced her runs. She's now a dual Group 1-winning mare.

"I had to try to restrain her throughout the race and she got a bit inconvenienced throughout but she was really strong late."

Williams settled Tofane ($12) in behind the tempo and was able to overhaul Kingsford-Smith Cup (Gr 1, 1300m) winner Vega One (Lope De Vega) in the final strides to win by half a length. Signore Fox (Exceed And Excel) was a short neck away in third.

Connections of Tofane had made the last-minute decision to withdraw the mare from the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale where she was expected to make at least $2 million to instead race her on for at least the Queensland winter carnival.

Part-owner Rupert Legh suggested last week that Tofane could still be sold prior to the start of the breeding season but that could now be off the cards for another season.

"We were at the sales only three weeks ago to make a decision whether we sold her or not," Legh said yesterday.

"Fortunately, I was outvoted by the other owners and here she is today winning another Group 1.

"Mike has been trying to get this horse to a mile plus. If you look at the pedigree, it suggests she can get to 2000 metres so who knows, we might be running in the Cox Plate in October this year."

Tofane was purchased privately in New Zealand by Moroney and Legh from Curraghmore's Gordon Cunningham after she showed above average ability in a three-year-old maiden barrier trial at Te Teko in September 2018.

Having finished runner-up on her first start under the new ownership she would go on to win a Ballarat maiden before gaining important black type in the Euclase Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) during a four-start first racing preparation.

Tofane is one of three winners for Baggy Green (Galileo), a three-quarter sister to Group 1 winner Funstar (Adelaide), and a half-sister to another Group 1 winner in Youngstar (High Chaparral) and the stakes-placed Eleven Seconds (Encosta De Lago).

Baggy Green has an unraced two-year-old colt by Reliable Man (Dalakhani) named Benaud, who is in training with John O'Shea and wears Carl Holt's royal blue and red vee colours also adorned by stablemate Lost And Running (Per Incanto) and the Annabel Neasham-trained import Zaaki (Leroidesanimaux), winner of yesterday's Q22 (Gr 2, 2200m).

Now owned by Kevin and Jo Hickman's Valachi Downs, she has a weanling sister to Tofane and returned to Waikato Stud's Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) winner Ocean Park (Thorn Park) last year.

Frankel's Converge toys with rivals in J J Atkins

Converge

MICHAEL MCINALLY

Adrian Bott is daring to dream after pint-sized European-bred juvenile Converge (Frankel) asserted his racetrack authority in the last two-year-old Group 1 race of the season, the J J Atkins Plate (Gr 1, 1400m), a race which has a history of unearthing elite three-year-olds.

The Hong Kong-owned Converge, a horse purchased in utero with hopes of becoming a stallion prospect, landed the $1 million J J Atkins, which has been won in the past by the likes of The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice), Press Statement (Hinchinbrook), Sizzling (Snitzel) and Darci Brahma (Danehill).

"He's such a genuine horse. He's not the biggest horse in the stable by any means, but he's got the biggest heart," said Bott who trains in partnership with Gai Waterhouse.

"He's the most honest horse we've got and now he's got an explosive turn of foot to go with it, so it's dangerous.

"We can really go home and dream tonight what could be possible for his three-year-old career.

"If he continues to develop physically, and improving every time he steps out like today, well then we've certainly got a lot ahead."

Converge ($2.90 favourite), who came from back in the field to unleash an impressive finishing burst, had three and a quarter lengths to spare on runner-up Giannis (Flying Artie) ($26) while Tiger Of Malay (Extreme Choice) ($9.50) was just behind in third.

Tim Clark was arguably unlucky on Converge when he made up a lot of ground to run second to Tiger Of Malay in the BRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) and the jockey believes it may have helped connections establish the best way to ride the gelding.

"We learned a bit with him the other day that he's versatile," Clark said.

"If we need to go to plan B, which we did the other day, then he's still able to adapt.

"He's done an amazing job, he's been through the Sydney carnival and Gai and Adrian gave him that little freshen up before coming up here.

"Obviously we saw what he did the other day and it's definitely redemption today after just getting beat last time.

"We got it right in the big one and it's very satisfying and it's obviously great to win another big race for Gai and Adrian."

Bott joined Waterhouse in a training partnership in 2016 as part of a succession plan for Tulloch Lodge. Waterhouse sold the stables and training business to Adrian's father Tony Bott's Hong Kong client, Mr P K Sui, but the Hall Of Fame inductee has remained as the senior partner since.

The pair has trained 11 Group 1 winners since joining forces, including last year's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) with Farnan (Not A Single Doubt).

Converge is the first foal out of the placed European mare Conversely (Shamardal) who was purchased by Evergreen Park Stud on behalf of Sui from Coolmore Stud in Ireland when in foal to Frankel (Galileo) carrying the J J Atkins Plate winner.

Conversely, who has a rising two-year-old colt by Churchill (Galileo) and a weanling colt by Invader (Snitzel), is one of seven named foals out of US Grade 3 winner Melhor Ainda (Pulpit).

She is currently in foal to Divine Prophet (Choir) but Tony Bott told ANZ Bloodstock News last week that they will look to "mate her up" this year on the back of Converge's success.

Three straight for Zaaki in inaugural Q22

Zaaki (Leroidesanimaux) reinforced his weight for age qualities and the belief that he is a genuine Cox Plate contender after backing up his emphatic Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) success with another dominant display in the inaugural Q22 (Gr 2, 2200m) yesterday.

The European import brought his first Australian campaign to a close in the $1.2 million race at Eagle Farm and trainer Annabel Neasham immediately put the spring on the agenda for the gelding.

"I'm just so lucky to have a horse like this. I just can't believe I got a horse like this so early on," Neasham said.

"I've loved him from day one. From day one, he's looked like he's going to be a star. You don't run them in a Doncaster first-up unless you have a big opinion of him.

"He has just held onto his condition and form. I just wish the Cox Plate was in two weeks."

After settling just behind the pace early, Zaaki's jockey James McDonald followed the lead of rival Hugh Bowman on Reloaded (Snitzel) who whipped around the field to take up the running mid-race. Not wanting to risk being shuffled back after settling in fourth, one off the fence, McDonald let Zaaki stride up to second and bided his time until the straight where he asked the gelding to extend and put victory beyond doubt with 200 metres still to run.

Zaaki ($1.26 favourite), who brought up a hat-trick of wins, scored by one and a half lengths over Homesman (War Front) ($26) and Paths Of Glory (Mastercraftsman) ($31) in an all-imported trifecta.

The New Zealand-bred Brandenburg (Burgundy) finished fourth.

Group 1-winning mare Toffee Tongue (Tavistock), who is trained by Chris Waller and owned by Jonathan Munz, was pulled out of the race by jockey Nash Rawiller at the 800-metre mark but was brought back to scale under the rider and the clerk of the course.

Zaaki

MICHAEL MCINALLY

Later, Queensland Integrity Commission stewards reported that a veterinary examination revealed the mare had displaced filler in the off-fore hoof. Waller said the mare would be spelled.

Meanwhile, Zaaki, who has now won seven of his 26 starts, was bought for 150,000gns by Blandford Bloodstock agent Stuart Boman and Neasham at last year's Tattersalls Autumn Horses in Training Sale.

He is one of six winners from eight foals to race for Kesara (Sadler's Wells), who is also the dam of Singapore stakes-placed Kirks Ryker (Selkirk).

Since being brought to Australia late last year, Zaaki has won connections $1.499 million in prize-money in a five-start campaign which started with a first-up sixth in the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) on April 10.

15 for Frankel

Frankel

JUDDMONTE

Champion racehorse Frankel (Galileo) saw his increasing global influence grow once more yesterday, as Converge (2 g ex Conversely by Shamardal) landed a 15th worldwide Group 1 winner for the stallion, and a third in Australia just this season, with victory in the J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1600m) at Eagle Farm. The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained gelding, who was bred and is raced by Bott's father, Tony, under his Evergreen Stud Farm banner, filled the runner's up spot in the BRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) a fortnight earlier, but proved far too good stepping up to the mile, a distance at which he also won the Fernhill Handicap (Listed, 1600m) at Randwick in April, before finishing third in the ATC Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) ahead of a Brisbane campaign. First season sires filled the placings, as Flying Artie's (Artie Schiller) Giannis finished three and a quarter lengths back in third, a short-head in front of Sires' Produce winner Tiger Of Malay (Extreme Choice). Converge is the first foal out of Conversely (Shamardal), a maiden in Ireland after eight starts, who was covered by Frankel prior to her export to Australia after being purchased for €6,000 at the Goffs February sale in 2017. Her Churchill (Galileo) yearling colt sold for $28,000 as a weanling to Raphe Bloodstock, while she has a weanling colt by Invader (Snitzel) and was placed in foal to Divine Prophet (Choisir) last year. Frankel stands at Juddmonte Farms in Newmarket for a fee of £175,000 (approx. AUD$320,300).

First for Cable Bay

After landing his maiden just over a week ago at the Sunshine Coast, becoming the fourth individual winner in Australia for his sire Cable Bay (Invincible Spirit), the Steven O'Dea and Matthew Hoysted-trained Uncommon James (2 c ex Pickabee by Jet Spur) became the first stakes winner for the former Woodside Park shuttler with victory in the Oxlade Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Eagle Farm yesterday. Uncommon James ran down favourite and runaway race leader Maotai (Not A Single Doubt) in the final strides, winning by a quarter of a length. King High (Not A Single Doubt) held on for third, two and a half lengths behind the winner. Uncommon James is the second living foal out of the stakes placed Pickabee (Jet Spur). She has a weanling filly by Capitalist (Written Tycoon) and was placed in foal to Yes Yes Yes (Rubick) last year. Cable Bay is the sire of five stakes winners overall, including Group 2-winning sprinter Liberty Beach. He stood the 2021 northern hemisphere season at Highclere Stud for a fee of £8,000 (approx. AUD$14,600)

Seven for Winning Rupert

Runner-up to Profiteer (Capitalist) on debut in December would appear handy form, and so it proved as Ranveer (2 c ex Bitter Twist by California Dane) showed his class at his second start yesterday to claim a comfortable victory in the 2YO Handicap (1000m) at Sandown, defeating Our Heidi (Needs Further) by three-quarters of a length. In the process, Ranveer provided his sire Winning Rupert (Written Tycoon) with a seventh individual winner. Ranveer was the second most expensive yearling at last year's Magic Millions Perth sale, selling for $200,000 to Matt Laurie Racing, and the colt capped a good week for his sire, who saw Tonneofgrit, his most expensive yearling sold at $425,000, win at Geelong on Sunday. Ranveer is the second foal and second winner out of Bitter Twist (California Dane), who was most recently purchased for Einoncliff Park for $60,000 when carrying to Winning Rupert. She has a yearling filly by Oratorio (Stravinsky) and a weanling colt by Press Statement (Hinchinbrook), while she was placed in foal to So You Think (High Chaparral) last year. Winning Rupert will stand this season for $11,000 at Newgate Farm.

More to come from talented Ranveer

Matt Laurie took Ranveer to an off-season meeting at Sandown in a bid to add prize-money to the bank, ahead of much bigger targets for the upcoming spring, and he duly delivered, despite a worry over the Heavy 9 rated track. "I felt that he probably hadn't done enough work for this surface today but was hoping his class would take him through," Laurie said. "He looked like he was running on empty a fair way from home to my eye and he'll come on a hell of a lot from that." Ranveer was pinpointed as a Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) horse for Laurie, until falling ill in November, allowing just one start in December for the juvenile, in which he finished second to subsequent Inglis Millennium (RL, 1200m) winner Profiteer (Capitalist), before heading to the paddock. However, Laurie will now target a Caulfield start on June 26 before Melbourne carnival targets. "There's an 1100-metre race at Caulfield in a fortnight, so I was thinking of something like that, then we'll back off and prepare him for the spring."

Three for Defcon

Defcon (Choisir) landed a third winner from just his tenth runner when Conismo (2 g ex Amaranda by Fasliyev) scored at the Gold Coast yesterday. The Jake Capewell-trained gelding ran out a comfortable length-winner of the QTIS 2YO Maiden Plate (1300m) at his fourth start, defeating Winter Violet (Not A Single Doubt) by a length. His dam, Amaranda (Fasliyev), was raced by Coolmore in Ireland, yielding one win on the track, and is a half-sister to Mowen (Motivator), the dam of Japanese star three-year-old Titleholder (Duramente). Conismo is her fifth named foal and fourth winner. Group 3 winner Defcon stood his first four seasons at Eureka Stud, however fertility issues which saw him produce just 86 live foals in that period led to his recent sale for $17,000 to Boyne River Thoroughbreds, where he now stands.

Ripping finish for Rosemont's Hustle

Brooklyn Hustle (Starspangledbanner) flew home on the nearside rail in the Dane Ripper Stakes (Gr 2, 1300m) to get the better of Odeum (Written Tycoon) and Madam Rouge (Zoustar) in a thrilling display in Eagle Farm's finale yesterday. A daughter of the US Listed winner Joint Aspiration (Pivotal), Brooklyn Hustle is now a four-time winner of $660,120 in prize-money, and backed up her Proud Miss Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) stakes win at Morphettville on May 15. A backmarker, she has been luckless at the highest level multiple times, finishing fourth in the A J Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m), the Manikato Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m), as well as contesting the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m), William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and Robert Sangster Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) in the autumn. Brooklyn Hustle's half-sister Reign (Elusive City), a juvenile winner in Europe, is already the dam of two stakes winners in Italy, adding to the depth of her pedigree when she is retired to Rosemont Stud's ever-increasing quality broodmare band, which principal Anthony Mithen and his brother-in-law Nigel Austin have made no secret of wishing to enhance. Jockey Craig Williams returned a big-race double after his Stradbroke win on Tofane (Ocean Park) the race prior. "I had a few question marks about her getting out to a slightly extended trip, but she got around the track really well and will derive a lot of experience from today," Williams said. "She will go to the Group 1 Tatt's Tiara to end the Brisbane carnival, and I think it will be a cracking race."

80 for Iffraaj

Iffraaj

DARLEY

Ayrton (3 g ex Odessa by Falkirk) bounced back emphatically from his shock Fred Best Classic (Gr 3, 1400m) defeat a fortnight earlier to land the Gunsynd Classic (Gr 3, 1600m) at Eagle Farm yesterday by a rousing two and three-quarter lengths. Ayrton, making his fourth start, became the 80th individual stakes winner for his sire Iffraaj (Zafonic), when defeating Ellsberg (Spill The Beans) and Mob Buster (Spill The Beans), who was four and a half lengths behind the winner. The Mick Price and Michael Kent jr-trained Ayrton, who passed in as a yearling, is the penultimate foal for his dam, Odessa (Falkirk), who died in 2019. She has a two-year-old colt by Sweeney (Lonhro). Iffraaj, who shuttled to Haunui Farm from 2008 to 2019, now has 29 southern hemisphere stakes winners, including Group 1 winners Turn Me Loose, Jon Snow, Gingernuts and Wyndspelle. His place on the New Zealand stud roster has been filled by his son Ribchester, who has three winners from his first northern hemisphere two-year-olds. Iffraaj now permanently resides at Darley's Dalham Hall Stud, where he stood 2021 for a fee of £20,00 (approx. AUD$36,600).

Golden Eagle goal for Ayrton

After missing out on a Stradbroke (Gr 1, 1400m)

berth following his shock defeat a fortnight ago, The Roll The Dice Racing-owned Ayrton showed what might have been when romping to victory in the Gunsynd Classic yesterday and trainers Mick Price and Michael Kent jr will possibly target the rich Golden Eagle (1500m) in the spring for the rising four-year-old, instead of a tilt at the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m). "You know the race I would love to put a circle around for a return to the owners would be the Golden Eagle," Price said. "I think that would be the best race for him, but it is to be discussed. I was pleased that he at least looked more professional and ran away with it whereas two weeks ago (Fred Best Classic) we seemed to be waiting forever for him to put his head down and do something. But the whole purpose of bringing him up here is the experience of all those different things. It will be good for him to set him up as a four-year-old."

Ten for Verrazano

Superium (4 g ex Rosie's Halo by Al Maher), runner-up in the Up And Coming Stakes (Gr 3, 1300m) as a two-year-old and Wellington Boot (1100m) winner as a juvenile, landed a first stakes win as a four-year-old when taking out the Hinkler Handicap (Listed, 1200m) at Eagle Farm yesterday. The gelding had been absent from the winner's enclosure since December 2019, when beating subsequent stakes winners Embracer (Sebring) and Splintex (Snitzel) at Randwick, and caused a shock when finishing a length ahead of Southern Lad (Ocean Park) and Magic Millions 2YO Classic winner Away Game (Snitzel), making her first start since February. Superium became the tenth individual stakes winner for his sire Verrazano (More Than Ready), and second from his one and only southern hemisphere bred crop which produced 49 live foals, the other being Listed-winning two-year-old Mockery. Superium was bred by Superhorse and retained to race by the owner-breeder operation having passed in as a yearling. The Team Hawkes-trained gelding is the fifth named foal out of Rosie's Halo (Al Maher), whose yearling filly by Rubick (Encosta De Lago) sold for $125,00 to Star Thoroughbreds at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale this year. Verrazano has since shuttled to Haras Paso Nevado in Chile.

Back-to-back wins for Knights Order

European import Knights Order (6 g So You Think - Lamanka Miss by Woodman) backed up a last-start victory in the Winter Cup (Listed, 2400m) at Rosehill with an eye-catching four-and-three-quarter-length win in the Brisbane Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) at Eagle Farm yesterday, as So You Think (High Chaparral) sired the quinella. The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained gelding defeated Carif with Sweet Thomas (Dylan Thomas) five lengths behind the winner in third. With the blinkers removed, Tim Clark controlled proceedings from the front and found no issues stepping up to two miles for the first time. Bott revealed the gelding will now head for a spell before returning for spring targets. "He has certainly gone to a new level this campaign," Bott said. "We will give him a short freshen up and really hone-in now and see what we can come up with for the spring because I really feel he's a worthy contender and (he has) made that leap." Knights Order was a 250,000gns purchase for Waterhouse and McKeever Bloodstock at the 2018 Tattersalls Autumn Horses In Training Sale, and added his third win in Australia yesterday.

Ranier edges Wayne Wilson thriller

Ranier (5 g Lonhro - Kanzan by Commands) posted his seventh career win and fifth in stakes company when just getting the better of his James Cummings-trained stablemate Kementari (Lonhro) in a tight finish to yesterday's Wayne Wilson (Listed, 1600m) at Eagle Farm. Ridden by Hugh Bowman, the five-year-old gelding fought hard in the final 100 metres to regain the lead and cross the line a half head in front. Less than a length separated the first three home, with Kings Will Dream (Casamento) filling third spot.

152 for Medaglia d'Oro

Five-year-old mare Adelong (5 m ex Snowgums by Redoute's Choice) continued her late blooming, winning for the eighth time in 17 starts and a first at stakes level, after she claimed the Bob Charley AO Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Randwick yesterday for trainer Brad Widdup. The daughter of Medaglia D'Oro (El Prado) became the 152nd individual stakes winner for her sire, and 29th southern hemisphere-bred stakes winner. After defeating Wandabaa (Wandjina) at Randwick a fortnight earlier, she again beat that same rival yesterday, this time by a quarter of a length. Topweight Viridine (Poet's Voice) filled third, a length and a half behind the winner. Adelong, one of three named foals for the deceased Snowgums (Redoute's Choice), did not start racing until a four-year-old, winning six of her eight starts that season. Medaglia D'Oro, who shuttled to Darley's Kelvinside property until 2017, now permanently resides at Jonabell Farm in Kentucky for a fee of $150,000 (approx. AUD$194,600).

Verne squares ledger at Randwick

Brodie Loy made the most of a rare opportunity in town, answering a call from Annabel Neasham to land a narrow victory aboard Verne (Snitzel) in yesterday's opening race at Randwick. Loy mainly rides on the provincial and country circuit and relinquished mounts at Newcastle to snap up the opportunity on Verne. He and Neasham have enjoyed a great association since she took out her trainers' license at the start of the season. "I actually rode her first three winners as a trainer," Loy said. "Her first three runners were winners, so we've had a great partnership and I'm just so thankful for the opportunity." Neasham, who was in Brisbane to watch Zaaki (Leroidsanimaux) in the Q22 (Gr 2, 2200m), said she had always had a good opinion of Verne and planned to aim him towards the Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) in the spring. "We have the time to get him on the Golden Rose path," Neasham said. "He won't have too long out, he will probably have about three weeks. The owners have a very nice colt on their hands."

Four-timer for Jones

Reece Jones was all smiles after he booted home New Arrangement (New Approach) in yesterday's ACY Securities Handicap (1300m) to notch up his fourth winner of the day at Randwick. The Scone-based apprentice, who had only ridden six metropolitan winners before yesterday's haul, now boasts a 12.5

per cent strike rate in town. Jones said he got nervous as Brenton Avdulla loomed late in the race aboard Grand Piano (Lord Kanaloa) but was delighted to ride four winners on the day. "It was a bit of a heart in your mouth type moment," he said. "He had me nervous, but he dug deep and came away with the win, so it was a brilliant effort. I've never ridden four winners, so to do it here as well is massive for me. When you're growing up and starting out, you always dream of being here one day, and to actually do that it's just a huge thrill." Jones started his winning spree aboard Casino K d (Casino Prince) in the second race on the card and also tasted success on Gravina (Sebring) and Opacity (Ocean Park)

Bedggood and Hefel chalk up Sandown double

Gavin Bedggood and Carlene Heffel completed doubles with two heavily supported runners at Sandown yesterday. No Effort (Reward For Effort) scored in the Ladbrokes Bet Ticker Handicap (1800m) before Sir Kalahad (All Too Hard) took out the Ladbroke It! Handicap (1600m). No Effort was supported from $6.50 into $4.80 while Sir Kalahad was backed from $7 into $5 favourite before defeating Wilmot Pass (Rubick) by five and a half lengths. "To train one city winner on a Saturday is one thing, but to get two, especially with these two horses is amazing," Bedggood said. "They live together, they sleep side-by-side together, they go to the track every morning together, they do everything together." Bedggood had considered bypassing yesterday's race to run Sir Kalahad in a Benchmark 70 race at Sandown on Wednesday, but the trainer knew he had a red-hot chance with the gelding down to carry 51.5 kilograms. "There looked to be really good pressure in this race today and he's best when he finds the front and is able to get a couple of cheap sections and then skip away," he said. "I knew that wasn't going to happen with a full field, but it was a great ride by Carleen. This horse, I had to go and buy him with money I didn't have and I actually got left with half of him when I sold him. I couldn't find owners for him but that's his second win in town since we've had him and I think that's his fourth win in over 18 months."

Zippping Bay makes it six from nine

Zippping Boy (Squamosa) relished a drop in weight and the heavy ground at Sandown as he took out the Ladbrokes Punters Assist Handicap (1000m) to register his sixth win in a nine-start career and his first in open company. Making use of the 2 kilogram claim of apprentice Will Price, Zippping Boy was sent off the $3.40 favourite before holding off Express Pass (Wandjina). Winning trainer Jerome Hunter said the three-year-old was a good horse and that he elected to save him for yesterday's assignment after seeing the race on the calendar. "He was going to run last week but he was going to carry 59.5 kilos without the claim," Hunter said. "So, I dropped him back (in trip) and I thought with 52 kilos on a wet track that he'd be hard to beat. There's a couple of races coming up as he's won over 1100 metres and he's done that pretty easy too. The horse just knows how to race. Numerous times they were going to catch him today but he's a real fighter. He's handled the synthetic track, a Good 4, heavy tracks, he's just a racehorse and now he's had nine starts for six wins. He's a good horse."

All-the-way win for Sarodec

Freshened up and dropping back in distance proved to be a winning formula for Sarodec (Kermadec) who was given a masterly front-running ride by Dean Holland to claim yesterday's Ladbrokes Blended Multi Handicap (1600m) at Sandown. Holland said he went out with an open mind saying that if something wanted to lead, he would have taken the sit. "He won really well at Warrnambool then last start he didn't quite run the trip and over-raced," the winning rider said. "Getting down the hill I was very confident as I had a lapful of horse. I tried to pinch two lengths then balance him up and went again. He was really tough to the line."

Valour Road nabs Hyperion Stakes

Valour Road (Frost Giant) got up in the last stride to bag stakes win six and career win eight when landing yesterday's Hyperion Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Belmont. Second at the same track in the Belmont Sprint (Gr 3, 1200m) two weeks earlier, Valour Road just edged out Dance Music (War Chant) with the third and fourth home,

Money Matters (Canford Cliffs) and Massimo (Sessions), hot on their heels.

High-five for Opperman

Apprentice Jacob Opperman had his claim reduced from 3 kilograms to 2 kilograms in the city after riding five winners for five different trainers at Morphettville Parks yesterday. Included in his winners were four favourites, along with two for interstate trainers – Leon and Troy Corstens and for Patrick Payne. Opperman's winners were Royal Obsession (Written Tycoon), Jaguary (Niagara), Icecrusher (Frost Giant), Imperial Hilton (The Factor) and Greetings Ned (Host). "It's a big thrill," Opperman told racing.com. "I felt coming here I've had favourites before but they haven't come up to standard, so it's been really good today," he said.

Lafferty cleared of fractures

Laura Lafferty was yesterday released from hospital having been cleared of any fractures when she took a heavy fall in the final race at Swan Hill on Friday after her mount Ronniejay (All Too Hard) broke down and ran through the running rail. Lafferty was scanned for breaks to her shoulder and hip but the Victorian Jockey's Association confirmed by text that she had been cleared. The VJA message read: "The latest information from Swan Hill hospital is that Laura Lafferty is clear of any fractures. Concussed and soft tissue damage."

Funding boost for Qld racing

The state government yesterday announced that $41.3 million would be returned to the Queensland racing industry over the next two years via the Point of Consumption Tax, a levy placed on punters via bookmakers fielding on the racing industry. The new funding is in addition to the extension of the Country Racing Program which provides $35.2 million over the next two years in prize-money and infrastructure repairs and maintenance for non-TAB racing clubs. "We're investing in infrastructure to rebuild our economy and create jobs, including in racing. That's what this is all about," premier Anastacia Palaszczuk said. "Supporting our racing industry to recover from the impact of the pandemic is an important part of our economic recovery plan. This industry supports thousands of jobs across the state. By investing a significant percentage of revenue back into the industry, we'll create jobs and inject funds back into Queensland businesses."

NEW ZEALAND

First for Vanbrugh

Vanbrugh

WINDSOR PARK

Windsor Park Stud-based first crop stallion Vanbrugh (Encosta De Lago), a Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner, got off the mark yesterday when Mustang Valley (2 f ex Cream Of The Crop by New Approach) scored a strong victory at Te Rapa. Trained by Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman, Mustang Valley had raced twice prior to landing the Skycity Hamilton 2YO 1200m) by one and three-quarter lengths over Riverplate (Flying Artie). Treasure State (Trust In A Gust) was three and three-quarter lengths back in third. Vanbrugh stands at Windsor Park Stud this year for a fee of $5,000 (plus GST).

Spring goals for Mustang Valley

Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman have spring ambitions for promising two-year-old Mustang Valley who justified some heavy market support with her breakthrough victory. Carrying the colours of her breeder and part-owner, Windsor Park Stud, Mustang Valley was ridden by Vinnie Colgan. "She has always looked a promising filly but not really a natural two-year-old," Forsman said. "If you watch the replay Vinnie had to drive her out early to get a position so I would expect that a spell now will do her the world of good. She can go to the paddock for a short break and then I would think we will start getting her ready for some of those better three-year-old races in the spring. She has a big, strong action and is quite physically mature for her age, but when she does strengthen up fully, she will be a very handy horse."

Two from two for Bishara

Nick Bishara took two horses to Te Rapa yesterday and returned home a happy man after securing a double. Bishara started his winning run when maiden three-year-old Rubysheoff (Showcasing) secured her first victory when defeating her age-group rivals over 1400 metres, while two races later progressive mare Cherry Lane (Redwood) backed up a last-start victory at Ellerslie with another top performance when taking out an open 1600-metre contest. "That's a real thrill today but I've got to give credit to a whole bunch of really good people who work for me," Bishara said. "I've got a great team and some lovely horses to work with, but to get a double like this is quite special. Cherry Lane just seems to have grown another leg this season. She is absolutely flying and that win sets her up nicely for the stakes race coming up at Tauranga." Earlier in the day, Rubysheoff ignored the credentials of some better performed rivals to cruise to a comfortable victory. "That was a good field she beat as most of them had won a race," Bishara said. "She has always shown me she has that ability but has just taken time to strengthen up. She comes from a family we have had a lot of success with and now she has got that win on the board, I think she will go on with it."

Spring Tide back in winning form

Spring Tide (Darci Brahma) returned to the form he showed this time last year when he lumped 61.5 kilograms to victory over 1000 metres at Trentham yesterday. The four-year-old was having his second start in a new campaign after opening up with a creditable run for fourth at the venue last time. Chrissy Bambry resisted the temptation to put a claiming apprentice aboard her charge to reduce his hefty impost, sticking with rider Sarah Macnab, who had been aboard at his first-up run. "I was happy to keep Sarah on him today and not claim as he can be a bit quirky heading to the start," she said. "She had ridden him at the jump-outs and at his first run this time and handled him really well today. He is a horse that excels on a loose track but seems to handle most surfaces. His conformation suggests he is best in the wet, but we know he can really spring off a better track as well. We just need to manage him as he has a fair bit of ability and still has some maturing to do. I think he is a potential Winter Cup (Gr3, 1600m) candidate if he keeps progressing like he has."

INTERNATIONAL

Six for Cable Bay

Atalis Bay

RACING POST

Having sired his first stakes winner in the southern hemisphere when Uncommon James took out the Oxlade Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Eagle Farm earlier in the day, he sired his sixth overall when the Marco Botti-trained Atalis Bay (3 c ex Atalis by Holy Roman Emperor) landed the Scurry Stakes (Listed, 5f) at Sandown. Ridden by Andrea Atzeni, the three-year-old was winning for the fifth time in just nine starts as he beat Warrior Brave (Twilight Son) by three-quarters of a length. Steel Bull (Clodovil) was a further two and a half lengths away in third. Cable Bay stood the 2021 northern hemisphere season at Highclere Stud for a fee of £8,000 (approx. AUD$14,600)

337 for Galileo

Coolmore's super sire Galileo (Sadler's Wells) sired his 337th individual stakes winner when Roberto Escobarr (4 c ex Bewitched by Dansili) obliged as favourite in the Sky Bet Race To The Ebor Grand Cup Stakes (Listed, 1m 6f) at York yesterday. Ridden by Tom Marquand for William Haggas, the four-year-old beat Red Verdon (Lemon Drop Kid) by a length and a half. Makawee (Farhh) was another length and a quarter away in third. Roberto Escobarr has now won three times in five starts. A €145,000 buy from Goffs in 2018, he was bred by Bob Scarborough and is the fifth foal out of the Dansili (Danehill) mare Bewitched. His year older brother Pablo Escobarr is a Group 3 winner, as was the dam herself. Galileo once again stands for an undisclosed fee at Coolmore Ireland.

RSA: Rainbow Bridge adds to Grade 1 haul

Rainbow Bridge (6 c Ideal World - Halfway To Heaven by Jet Master) won his fifth elite-level race and his 11th in total when taking out the Gold Challenge (Gr 1, 1600m) at Greyville yesterday. Trained by Eric Sands and ridden by Hong Kong-bound Luke Ferrarris, the six-year-old beat Catch Twentytwo (Elusive Fort) by a neck. Chimichuri Run (Trippi) was two lengths away in third.

US: Records across the board as OBS June Sale draws to conclusion

Fuelled by a competitive marketplace at the top-end of the market and steady trade throughout, this year's OBS June Sale established new records across all key economic indicators. For the entire sale, 560 juveniles changed hands for a sale record $24,492,950 (approx. AUD$30.77m), surpassing the previous record of $23,608,500 set in 2015. The average price was a record $43,737 (approx. AUD$56,744), eclipsing the previous mark of $39,612 recorded in 2015. The median price of $20,000 (approx. AUD$25,948) also equalled a sale record. The overall buy-back percentage was 18 per cent; it was 20.2 per cent last year. In Friday's final session, a total of 162 horses sold for gross receipts of $8,344,950 (approx. AUD$10.82m), a 29 per cent increase over last year's third session that saw 183 horses sell for $6,468,700.

UK: Commonwealth Cup fancies stand their ground

A total of 24 three-year-old sprinters remain in contention for Friday's Commonwealth Cup (Gr 1, 6f), with leading overseas fancies Campanelle (Kodiac) and Suesa (Night Of Thunder) among the confirmations. Clive Cox, who landed Royal Ascot's newest Group 1 last year with Golden Horde (Lethal Force), has four potential runners, with Diligent Harry (Due Diligence) and Supremacy (Mehmas) prominent in the betting. Irish 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) heroine Empress Josephine (Galileo) has been given a late entry by Aidan O'Brien for the Coronation Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) where she could take on stablemate and English 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) winner Mother Earth (Zoffany).

Strong N Smart heading towards 3YO Sprint

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

Three weeks after getting off the mark with a nose-win in a novice race over the same trip, the vastly-improved Strong N Smart (Per Incanto) went back-to-back with a commanding win in yesterday's Class 4 race over 1200 metres and in the process put himself in the reckoning for the Singapore Three-Year-Old Sprint (Listed, 1200m).

Benefitting from an economical run on the fence in midfield, Strong N Smart powered clear for an easy two and a quarter length win.

Valorous (So You Think) held on gallantly for second place, with a half a length to spare from First Choice (Love Conquers All), while the rest of the field never had a look-in in the 1200-metre race that was run in 1min 10.08secs on the Short Course.

Leslie Khoo has now prepared Strong N Smart to two wins from only three starts since taking over from Kuah Cheng Tee. The veteran handler took such a shine to the horse he even decided to buy him from his previous owner.

"I've always liked Per Incanto, he's also a popular sire in Hong Kong. I've got Grand Fighter by him, he won on debut for me and ran a nice race at his last start," said Khoo.

"But I also bought him because I thought he had some ability. Today, he was fitter and had more confidence after his first win, and he won very well."

Khoo has locked in the Singapore Three-Year-Old Sprint in two weeks' time as Strong N Smart's next target, but doubts whether winning partner Danny Beasley will stay on.

"I will ask Danny, even if I know he's on Dan Meagher's three-year-old (Lim's Kosciuszko). Or else, I will have to find another jockey," said the former top jockey.

Three on the bounce for Baertschiger

When the barriers came out on Wednesday,

Strong N Smart

SINGAPORE TURF CLUB

Shane Baertschiger looked away in dismay,. From ten runners across seven of the 11 races, only From The Navy (Hinchinbrook) and Atlas (Atlante) had drawn decent gates, the rest were all in double figures.

If Baertschiger had been told he would saddle at least one winner, he might have believed it, but a treble right off the bat in the first three races would definitely have been stretching it.

"On Wednesday, I saw my ten runners' draw, only two were drawn better than seven. I told myself I was done for," said Baertschiger. "And here I am winning the first three in a row!"

Baertschiger got off the mark with the well supported From The Navy in the opener, the first division of the Class 5 race over 1200 metres before King Albert Park (Ocean Park) landed the restricted maiden over 1100 metres.

He completed the rout from the least fancied winner of the three, when Kiss Your Song (Your Song), posted the hardest-fought win prevailed by half a length from Man Of Mystery (All Too Hard).

"Kiss Your Song is a hard horse to call. Two weeks ago, I thought he had a chance, I put the blinkers on, and he pulled his head off," said Baertschiger.

"Today, I took the blinkers off and he still pulled his head off, he's a hard-going horse, but Matty (Kellady) knows him well. He does 90 per cent of all his gallops, it's good for him he won on him today and got a double, too. On From The Navy, he rode the rails and got the job done."

Chavez runs riot with four-timer

Oscar Chavez had a day out to remember when he brought a four-timer from a full book across the 11 races on the card.

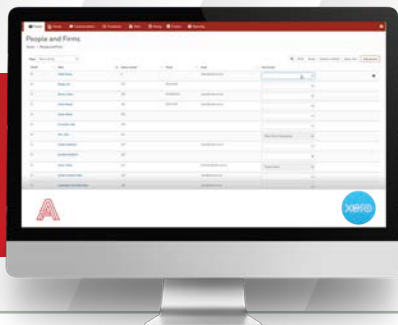

Fort Mustang (Unencumbered), Arion Passion (El Roca), Tangible (Trippi) and Matsuribayashi (Matsurida Gogh) were the winning quartet who vaulted the 46-year-old Panamania from ninth to sixth place on 12 winners following his four-star performance.

"I was really expecting a good day when I saw my rides for today. I was actually hoping for at least four winners," he said.

"I only missed out on Star Empire in the first race, I really thought he could win, but he ran second.

"Everything went well. Things just fell into place and went how I wanted, I couldn't be happier."

Then followed: Berdini's Girl (AUS), Conexy (AUS), Warrior Hero (AUS), Socialist (AUS), Lime Soda (AUS), Carribean King (NZ), last.

Analysis: Uncommon James rolled past the favourite over the last 50m for a good win here, his second and maiden stakes at start three. He dwelt at the start then rushed up to second before dropping into third inside the 1000m. He held his position past the 600m, then moved out a lane rounding into the straight, ready to challenge. Third at the 400m, he took over second approaching the 200m, but still had to catch the leader. At the 100m the margin was a length, but to the line he found more and rolled past the leader for a nice short neck win. Favourite Maotai led them past the 800m, went further in front at the 600m, and starting the run home was clear. At the 300m he slipped away and looked the winner but was collared before the 50m to finish second. King High sat second-last (rails) at the 600m, took a while to wind up in the straight and then ran on late to nab third. Berdini's Girl was fifth turning in, also took a while to wind up, and ran on fairly for fourth. [LJ]

RACING POST
 ANZ BLOODSTOCK

Analysis: A great finish between the two Godolphin runners here with Ranier edging to the line for his seventh career win and fifth stakes. He went straight to the front to lead narrowly but a leisurely pace saw him out by a length at the 800m. Inside the 600m the lead was a little less but he was under no pressure and led them into the straight. He was challenged from the 300m, lost the lead soon after, but inside the 100m fought back well to edge into a half head lead again just shy of the post. Kementari went up three wide from the 1200m to sit second, dropped in just back and behind the winner approaching the 800m, and held second to the top of the straight. From the 400m he chased the winner hard, caught him and led briefly inside the 200m, but was edged out late for a fighting second. Kings Will Dream sat sixth at the 800m, moved out rounding into the straight, and kept up a solid run the length of the straight but couldn't catch the first two. So You Win was fifth (rails) rounding into the straight, hugged the fence to the 300m, then ran on when clear for fourth. Analysis: After his unlucky effort when a late-closing second in the Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at this track on May 29, Converge was compensated with a brilliant victory in this Group 1 feature. He was ridden patiently by Tim Clark and settled in eighth place before improving (deep) rounding the turn. He then showed a great turn of foot, hit the front at the 200m, before racing away to win impressively. Giannis settled midfield, improved (wide out) from the 600m, and ran on well for second in a very promising performance from a maiden having his fifth start. Tiger Of Malay went back from a wide barrier and settled towards the tail of the field. He improved between runners nearing the turn, took a gap at the 300m, and fought well for third. The lone filly in the field, Invisible Tears remained near the rear of the field, before going widest of all at the 300m. She then caught the eye in finishing well for (3.5 lengths) fourth and is clearly a very promising maiden. Subterranean battled on well for (5.7 lengths) fifth. The well-supported Port Louis settled well back, improved on straightening, but disappointed over the latter stages in finishing (7.7 lengths) sixth. [KB]

Analysis: Tofane, winner of the 2020 All-Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick, recorded her second Group 1 victory in good style here. Having her third run this preparation, she settled well in sixth place, one off the rails, tracking a solid tempo (first 800m 46.37). She moved up on straightening, hit the front at the 100m, and went on to score well. The favourite Vega One had a good trip in fifth place on the rails, went to the front at the 200m, and then fought very well for (half-length) second. Signore Fox settled near the tail of the 18-runner field, looked for gaps on turning for home, before finding clear running closer to the rails at the 200m. He then fought very well for a close-up third. Mr Quickie settled in seventh place on the rails from his inside barrier and gained clear running, near the inner, from the 300m. He kept fighting well under his top weight (56.5kg) for (0.9 lengths) fourth. Subpoenaed went back from her outside barrier (18) and raced towards the rear of the field before going deep on turning for home. She then kept finishing well, out wide, to finish (1.3 lengths) fifth. The Harrovian settled in about sixth place, between runners, but was blocked on straightening. He then ran on well when clear late to finish (1.5 lengths) sixth. Imaging battling on very well for (1.8 lengths) seventh with Emerald Kingdom (1.9 lengths) eighth in a packed finish. [KB]

Analysis: Too easy for the favourite Ayrton who had this well under control once he took over the lead, taking his record to four wins and his maiden stakes win at start five. He broke well to be third (rails) early, holding there to the 1200m, then eased into fourth from the 1000m. James McDonald moved him out a lane at the 800m and they had a lovely one-one sit until the 600m. McDonald went another lane wider rounding into the straight and was perfectly poised to challenge. He formed a line of three at the 400m, took over inside the 300m and was never in any danger from that point, clearing out by two and three-quarters at the post. Ellsberg took over at the 1000m, still led past the 600m, but caught at the top of the straight. He co-led at the 400m and tried hard to keep up with the winner, holding on gallantly for second. Mob Buster tracked the winner from the 800m to the top of the straight but took a while to wind up before running on best of the rest for a distant third. Glitter Strip ran on fairly from second-last, doing her best work late for fourth. Analysis: Irish-bred import Knights Order recorded his third Australian stakes victory here after joining the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott stable 12 months ago. A recent winner of the Winter Cup (Listed, 2400m) at Rosehill, he was taken to the front by Tim Clark and travelled comfortably at a moderate tempo before grabbing a break on straightening. He then drew away to score comfortably in a solid performance over the 3200m trip. Carif tracked the winner most of the way and kept battling well in the straight, holding on under his 59kg for second from Sweet Thomas who raced in last place in the seven-runner field until the home turn and kept plugging on gamely under his limit weight (53kg) for third. Rondinella was sixth and second-last at the bend and made ground, without threatening for fourth. Then followed: Brandenburg (NZ), Nettoyer (AUS), Warning (AUS), Spirit Ridge (GB), Mirage Dancer (GB), Reloaded (AUS), Le Don de Vie (GB), Hang Man (IRE), Cellarmaid (AUS), The Candy Man (AUS), last.

Analysis: British import Zaaki maintained his brilliant form since joining the Annabel Neasham stable, now winning his last three starts, all in Group class. He again went forward early on, settled in fourth, before going to second when a mid-race move saw a new leader (Reloaded) at the 1000m. He moved up well at the home turn, hit the front at the 200m, and then went on to score comfortably, without any pressure from James McDonald.

Homesman travelled nicely in sixth place, improved (deep) from the 600m to be in a challenging position at the 200m and kept fighting well for second in a really good performance at his third run back. Paths Of Glory raced towards the tail of the field, tracked up (wide with cover) from the 600m and came with a solid run to claim third in the closing stages in smart effort here.

Brandenberg was a handy fifth on the rails, improved to be just behind the leaders at the 300m and went to third at 200m before just missing the minor placing in a photo for (1.8 lengths) fourth. Nettoya battled on quite well, back in fifth place, beaten 7.5 lengths. [KB]

Analysis: Brooklyn Hustle followed her win in the Proud Miss Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Morphettville with another late-closing victory in Group class here. She was ridden patiently by Craig Williams from her wide barrier (10) and remained at the rear of the 15-runner field before commencing her move, closer to the outside rail, on passing the 200m. She then stormed home in impressive fashion to claim a narrow victory at the post. Odeum began well from her difficult barrier (13) and settled in seventh place (wide) before moving up well on straightening. She took a narrow lead at the 100m, and then fought well for (long-neck) second after a difficult trip. Madam Rouge settled beyond midfield, with the cover. She switched deeper at the 300m, challenged at the 100m, and then fought well for a close-up third. Jen Rules raced in sixth place, between runners, took a gap at the 200m and battled gamely for (1.2 lengths) fourth. Dame Giselle went to the front, got a break on turning for home, and kept fighting back well when challenged to finish (1.4 lengths) fifth after running a bold race. Then followed: Massimo (AUS), The Velvet King (AUS), Leading Girl (NZ), Dig Deep (AUS), Uni Time (AUS), Kay Cee (AUS), Taxagano (AUS), She's Alight (NZ), Arctic Stream (AUS), Come Play With Me (AUS), last.

Analysis: Second here in the Group 3 Belmont Sprint (1200m) two weeks earlier, Valour Road got up in the last stride to bag stakes win six and career win eight. He led out but soon eased and settled third (rails), where he remained past the 800m and on to the top of the straight. Tracking the pacemaker he was trapped and didn't get out until the 100m, ranged up to the leader inside the 50m and then dived at the line to just get up by a head. Dance Music led from the 1000m and on to the top of the straight. She tried to slip them and looked the winner at the 100m, before her stablemate nabbed her at the post. Money Matters sat just back of the pacemaker to the 600m, challenged at the top of the straight, tried hard but couldn't bridge the gap, holding on for third. Massimo was fourth turning in and fought gamely all the way to the line for fourth. Then followed: Hilo (AUS), Garibaldi (AUS), King of Hastings (AUS), Gee Tee Tee (AUS), In Good Time (AUS), Passage of Time (AUS), last.

Analysis: After placings in all four starts since resuming, Superium broke through for his first win since December 2019 in scoring here. He was ridden quietly from his outside barrier (11) by Craig Williams and remained in last place until into the home straight. He switched deep at the 300m and then came with a fast late finish to win quite impressively. Southern Lad settled in sixth place, moved up well on straightening, challenged strongly at the 200m, and then fought well for second with the leader Away Game holding on gamely for third. Hilo came from well back at the home turn for (1.4 lengths) fourth. The favourite Garibaldi was handily placed on the rails, took a narrow gap on the inner at the 200m and then held on to finish (1.6 lengths) fifth after seeming to have had his chance over the final stages. Then followed: Countofmontecristo (NZ), Fituese (AUS), Ballistic Lover (AUS), Embracer (AUS), Surreal Step (AUS), Noble Boy (AUS), last.

Analysis: Adelong got her first stakes win after two Listed placings last month and in the process took her record to eight wins in 17 starts. Second early on and sat a length back of the leader past the 800m, she went to be just back and outside the leader. Rounding into the home straight she challenged and levelled up at the 400m. The leader fought her off but she came back at the 200m and claimed the lead at the 100m which was enough for her to see out the win by a neck. Wandabaa sat fifth (rails) past the 800m, moved out from the 600m, and had room to go four wide into the straight. Once balanced she kept up a strong run to the line, taking ground off the winner but too late. A good run from Viridine who was last rounding into the straight and finished well down the middle for third. From well back, Countofmontecristo emerged from between runners late for a fair fourth. [LJ]

BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Cordyceps Six, 3 Determined, 4 Smart Idea, 11-2 California Spangle, 10 Miracle Victory, 16 Red Brick Glory, 33 Big Big Win, 66 Hang's Choice.

VERDICT There didn't seem to be any fluke about his big-odds C&D success six weeks ago, so CORDYCEPS SIX is taken to prevail again. Smart Idea looked a very likely future winner when placed over C&D on his first two starts but his latest run was a backward step and it looks significant that Joao Moreira has switched to the newcomer Determined today.

VERDICT A weak race where the suggestion is to side with DOLLAR REWARD, who has been running respectably in a grade above and should appreciate the return to this level. His chief threat could come from Focus, who may benefit from the application of a visor and whose form mid-season gives him a chance from this mark. Ever Strong is another who could be involved.

VERDICT Demons Rock should appreciate the return to this level and be contender. Regency Gem arrives in good form and can go close if overcoming an outpitting wide draw. However, a chance is taken on ONE HAPPY STAR, who is well drawn and whose form here from January entitles him to consideration from this mark.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Fire Ball, 3 Blaze Warrior, 5 Vukan, 6 This Is Guts, 7 Chiu Chow Brother, 10 Harmony Win Win, 14 Diamond Diesel, 20 Good Runner, 33 Wonderful Fantasy, 50 bar.

VERDICT Mainly very inexperienced types in this low-grade affair and FIRE BALL is much the safest option as he always runs his race and is much more battle-hardened than the other. Blaze Warrior has shown speed in barrier trials and looks the pick of the newcomers but the biggest danger to the selection is set to be Vukan who could appreciate this drop back to 6f.

BETTING FORECAST: 4 The Best Hero, 9-2 Glorious Lover, 5 Lucky Ruby, 6 Holyshowcasing, 7 Forever City, 12 Eight Trigrams, 14 Divine Regulus, 16 Just Not Listening, Steel Win, 20 Dashing Fit, Laputa, 25 Everyone's Victory.

VERDICT Preference is for THE BEST HERO, who improved for the application of blinkers when posting a career best over C&D last month and looks a serious threat off his current mark. The consistent Glorious Lover should play a part along with Lucky Ruby, who returns to his favoured surface.

VERDICT Joao Moreira is just the man to bring out the best in Super Mission who boasts some useful placed form over this track. Holds a serious chance, as do Decisive Action and Plikclone but on this occasion the 5lb claim of talented Jerry Chau can give CITY LEGEND every chance of recording a third course-and-distance victory.

BETTING FORECAST: 11-4 Gracylove, 5 Loyal Baby, 13-2 Love Me More, Master Hero, 9 Inno Legend, Party Genius, 11 Sunny Baby, 16 August Moon, Charizard, 25 Bulb Pals, Gallant Cavalier, 33 Raging Blaze, 50 Formula Excel, Lucky Puzzle.

VERDICT After battling to success over several of today's rivals last time out Gracylove has to be afforded plenty of respect but a 6lb hike in the weights might be enough to stop him. His old rival Master Hero is another that should run his race, though a wide draw is off-putting, so instead preference is for LOVE ME MORE. He was poorly drawn when behind the aforementioned pair last time out, and had previously looked a horse to keep on the right side when winning cosily over C&D in early May. He can get his career back on track from a better draw this time. Loyal Baby is also worthy of a mention, as he drops into Class 4 company for the first time and Zac Purton takes over in the saddle.

VERDICT The veteran MEGA HEART comes here after a very underwhelming 1m turf run at Happy Valley but he's much better suited by this C&D and is taken to exploit a tempting mark. Seven Heavens ended a lengthy losing run with a very convincing 5f turf win here a week ago and is second choice, ahead of Harmony Spirit and Star Of Yuen Long.

BETTING FORECAST: 3 Kurpany, 5 Harmony And Rich, 6 Czarsen, 8 Handsome Bo Bo, Sunny Boy, 10 Gold Chest, 12 Highly Proactive, 14 We The South, 16 California Deepshot, Red Desert, Victoriam, 20 Will Power.

VERDICT It's easy to make a strong case for Kurpany, who has made very good progress on turf this season and was a very close third over C&D on his dirt debut in April. However, an interesting alternative is CZARSON, who ran surprising well over 5f on turf here last month and has slipped to a workable mark. Ricky Yiu's 4yo is sure to be suited by the return to this C&D and has a good draw to boot. Harmony And Rich looked in excellent nick when dominating from the front at Happy Valley on Wednesday but needs to prove he's effective on this surface.

BETTING FORECAST: 11-4 Ultra Express, 9-2 Beauty Fit, 5 All For St Paul's, 6 California Ten, Chancheng Prince, Serious Liaison, 20 Champion Supreme, Helena Baby, 25 Beauty Day, 33 Bundle Of Delight, Casimiro, 66 bar.

VERDICT Ultra Express scored in pretty good style over C&D last month and has plenty of scope for further progress but he's up in grade today and slight preference is for BEAUTY FIT, who came good in Hong Kong with a C&D win two starts ago and didn't enjoy the run of the race when ridden very patiently at Happy Valley recently. Serious Liaison is next on the list.
