Regal heads Western Australia quinella in second All-Star Mile

Stablemate Superstorm flashes home to seal big payday in $5 million feature for Williams' and Peters

It was an all-West Australian affair in the second running of the All-Star Mile (1600m) at Caulfield yesterday as Grant and Alana Williams landed the quinella with the Bob Peters-owned pair Regal Power (Pierro) coming home first, ahead of Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) runner-up Superstorm (Sebring).

Stable jockey William Pike had the choice of rides between the two talented Perth horses in the $5 million race, but he opted to stick with the son of Pierro (Lonhro) whom he partnered to finish second in the Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) a week earlier.

And his decision was a correct one as the reigning Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner settled in a perfect position in fourth during the run before shooting to the front with 200 metres to go, defeating his fast-finishing stablemate by three-quarters of a length.

Simply Brilliant as Leung seals a Sha Tin treble

Derek Leung capped a steely treble at Sha Tin yesterday when Simply Brilliant (Frankel) earned just reward in the afternoon's feature, the Class 1 Lung Cheung Handicap (1600m). Leung left little to chance on the Frankie Lor-trained chestnut, a lesson learned from a luckless defeat the time before at Happy Valley. On that occasion, the rider found himself trapped fence-side and then pocketed behind a wall of horses; this time, he settled his mount in a stalking spot, with naught but air to his outer, perfect for a centre-track rattle to the winning post.

Champion New Zealand mare Melody Belle (Commands) put in a gallant performance to finish a further half-length away in third.

"The Williams' camp, right now, I think no one is training better than them," Pike told Racing.com. "Honestly, their record in big races is just amazing. Mr Peters, the way he is able to find good horses year after year keeps us all in form and keeps us all looking good.

"This horse, he's been so good for me. I wasn't at my best on him last start, so this goes some way towards atoning for that."

The leading Perth rider said he was surprised that the intense tempo of the race, which was set by Godolphin's sole runner Flit (Medaglia d'Oro), didn't ease throughout the race.

"I was waiting for that mid-race steady that pretty much I've found in nearly every race I've ridden in over here, but it didn't come," Pike continued. "There was always going to be good pressure early, I thought. I was worried about a mid-race steady and the Blood (Alligator Blood) would steal it with a mid-race steady but that didn't happen today."

"I was at least one or two spots closer than what I thought I'd be. It probably told on me a little late, but he was good enough. He just kept hanging in there."

Grant Williams, who trains in partnership with his wife Alana, said he was grateful to Peters for giving him the opportunity to travel the horses over to Melbourne in his own name, rather than transferring them to a local stable.

"At the end of the day, I think Bob was getting a bit pissed off with the horses coming back (to Perth) like they were too so I rang him after the Cox (Plate) and said, 'Listen Bob, these are our horses too. We're a team and how about we do it together?' And that's what we've done," he told Racing.com.

"He's (Peters) been super to us. We couldn't be where we are without him so it's great he's given us this opportunity."

Currently training at a strike rate of 28%, the Williams team believe that their All-Star Mile runner-up, three-year-old Superstorm, will develop into one of Perth's best horses.

"He came over as a travelling companion," Williams explained. "He had to win the Challenge (Stakes) to qualify for the (Australian) Guineas then he ran second to Alligator Blood and now run second and beat all these horses in the All-Star Mile.

"He'll be a serious horse in the next 12 months."

Regal Power is nominated for the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick next month, but the co-trainer doubts he or Superstorm will be continuing their campaigns in Sydney.

"I reckon Bob, knowing his horses, will say bring them home and put them away and then we can bring them back later," Williams said.

One horse bound for Sydney is Melody Belle who is on track for the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) during The Championships. Jamie Richards described her performance in the All-Star Mile as honest, although she lacked vital galloping room.

"Opie (Bosson, jockey) thought he did the right thing getting on the back of Alligator Blood, but he didn't take him into the race as he would have liked," Richards said. "It was an Australian Guineas winner Alligator Blood (All Too Hard), who went into the race as the $2.80 favourite, faded out of the race to finish tenth, a poor performance that left David Vandyke longing for an explanation.

"We know he goes better than that," Vandyke said. "When Ryan (Maloney, jockey) asked him, he found very little. He's had a good blow, that shows he has put in, but I can't answer why."

Racing Victoria stewards reported its veterinary team found no abnormalities with the three-year-old cult favourite.

Regal Power (4 g Pierro - Broadway Belle by Redoute's Choice) has won seven of his 20 starts and in the process has earned $3,781,470 in career prize money.

The four-year-old gelding is the third winner out of Listed-winning Redoute's Choice (Danehill) mare Broadway Belle, making him a brother to fellow Western Australian Derby (Gr 2, 2400m) winner Action.

The gelding's second dam is Antique (Metal Storm), who produced Listed winner Antique Belle (Redoute's Choice) and blue-hen mare Arcadia (Redoute's Choice).

This family is a good example of the potency of the cross between Pierro (Lonhro) and Arrowfield Stud's late breed-shaping stallion Redoute's Choice, with Arcadia's mating to the Coolmore Stud-based sire producing 2018 Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) winner Arcadia Queen and Group 3 winner Arcadia Prince.

Regal Power is one of six Group 1 winners for Pierro and the third out of a Redoute's Choice mare, joining Arcadia Queen and Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Levendi.

Broadway Belle has a yearling filly by Pierro's barnmate American Pharoah (Pioneerof The Nile) and a weanling sister to Regal Power.

Pierro is standing at Coolmore Stud in the Hunter Valley for a fee of $88,000 (inc GST) and has swept to the lead on the Australian General Sires List with progeny earnings topping $12 million.

Comeback pays off for globetrotter Con Te Partiro

The career of globe-trotting mare Con Te Partiro (Scat Daddy) looked to be done and dusted six months ago as she headed to the breeding barn to be served by Zoustar (Northern Meteor).

But a decision to return her to the stables of Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott after she failed to get in foal paid off when she took out the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) at Rosehill yesterday.

Waterhouse and Bott convinced Newgate Farm principal Henry Field to put the American-bred six-year-old back in work, adamant she had much more to offer.

"I worked for Gai as a lad and she is my absolute hero," Field said. "They tag-teamed me and said, 'please put her back in training' - and I'm glad I did."

Tim Clark had Con Te Partiro in the perfect position one out one back during the run and peeled out around the final bend to stride clear at the top of the straight, holding on to defeat the regally bred Miss Fabulass (Frankel) by a length and a quarter with the Chris Waller-trained Noire (Foxwedge) a further neck away in third.

Con Te Partiro

Co-trainer Bott, who was trackside on a wet and dreary day at Rosehill, said he was not surprised by the mare's victory.

"I said it wouldn't surprise us to see her come out and do something like this today because we've made genuine excuses for her all the way through," he said. "She just needs all the right conditions and I thought we'd found another excuse with the rain but she got through it well."

"She is a stakes winner in America, a stakes winner at Royal Ascot and a Group 1 winner here. She has been around the world. She is a well-travelled mare and well credentialed."

Con Te Partiro will now head to the Coolmore Legacy Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick next month and Bott has not ruled out a possible tilt at the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m).

Kris Lees, trainer of $41 shot Miss Fabulass, was delighted with her runner-up performance, saying the daughter of top-class mare Samantha Miss (Redoute's Choice) had run out of her skin.

"She was huge, I'm really proud of her," Lees said. "I'm never happy with second but if you're going to run second it may as well be in a Group 1."

Con Te Partiro (6 m Scat Daddy - Temple Street by Street Cry) began her career in America and took out the Bolton Landing Stakes (Listed, 5.5f) at Saratoga at her third start before winning the Sandringham Stakes (Listed, 1m) at Royal Ascot and finishing fourth in the Del Mar Oaks (Gr 1, 9f) the following year.

Purchased by Newgate Farm and SF Bloodstock for US$575,000 at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton November Sale, the daughter of Scat Daddy's (Johannesburg) record now sits at five wins and three placings from 22 starts with prize-money earnings of $816,475.

She is out of the Grade 1-placed mare Temple Street (Street Cry), making her a half-sister to stakes winner Donworth (Tiznow), and she is also from the family of Grade 1 winners A Phenomenon (Tentam) and Seattle Meteor (Seattle Slew).

The ill-fated Scat Daddy had four sons covering mares at Coolmore Stud in 2019, led by the Triple Crown champion Justify, Mendelssohn, No Nay Never, and Sioux Nation.

Prague set for Slipper back up, decision pending on Thermosphere

The final qualification races for next week's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) took place at Rosehill yesterday as the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Prague (Redoute's Choice) got back to winning ways in the the Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) with Godolphin's Thermosphere (Exosphere) landing the Magic Night Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m).

UK jockey Tom Marquand returned to Australia this week and reunited with Prague after winning the Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) on him in February. He delivered a near-perfect ride on the back of the leader throughout the run.

Marquand made his move around the final bend and the pair hit the front with 300 metres to go, drawing away Continued on page 5>>

"It was worth coming back for," Marquand said. "He's a lovely big horse and he's not done an awful lot of racing so there is no reason why he shouldn't handle backing up."

Co-trainer Maher believes Prague still has improvement to come and will be ready to peak when he returns to Rosehill for the $3.5 million juvenile feature on Saturday.

Prague

SPORTPIX

"He's a very relaxed horse and he's still learning his craft," Maher said. "You saw last start off a slow pace he just over-raced a little bit and Tom really suits him, he's a good, strong rider. Hopefully he will stick with him for next week."

Stratum (Redoute's Choice) was the last horse to win the Pago Pago Stakes and return to claim the Golden Slipper a week later but Maher said Prague has the right temperament to cope with the task.

"We thought in the run in, if we had to back up it would work because he had his runs well spaced early and then you tighten them up and hopefully peak him for next week," Maher continued. "He is still quite progressive. There's a bit more in the tank and I think the backup will be ideal."

Maher and Eustace already have Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner Away Game (Snitzel) and Group 2-placed Muntaseera (I Am Invincible) safely in the Slipper field, while Cellsabeel (Hinchinbrook) and Rathlin (Fastnet Rock) are borderline.

Owned by Aquis Farm and Phoenix Thoroughbreds, Prague (2 c Redoute's Choice ex Purely Spectacular by Pins) was purchased at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale from the Bhima Thoroughbreds draft for $1.6 million.

One of five foals to race from the well-related mare Purely Spectacular (Pins), Prague is a half-brother to dual Group 1 winner and young Widden Stud resident Stratum Star (Stratum) as well as the stakes-placed Serenade (Star Witness).

Less than an hour later, Thermosphere took out the juvenile fillies feature of the day but James Cummings is yet to decide whether she will follow the same route as Prague and back up in the Golden Slipper on Saturday.

Godolphin produced the trifecta in last year's Slipper, led by Kiamichi (Sidestep), who also took out the Magic Night Stakes in the lead up.

"I think we will enjoy the win before we get too carried away deciding that because we've still got time up our sleeve," Cummings said. "Kiamichi won on a rain-affected track seven days out last year and that proved to be vital on a day that was completely bottomless."

"That was a good day for Godolphin and hopefully it will be a good day next week. We will do the right thing by her. If she's absolutely bouncing and ready to have a crack then we will do the sporting thing by her and give her a chance."

Ridden by James McDonald, who booted home five winners on the day at Rosehill, Thermosphere settled midfield off the fence and tracked the leaders around the final bend before finding a gap with a furlong and a half to go, hitting the front in the final 50 metres.

The two-year-old filly held off Gerald Ryan's Time Is Precious (Snitzel) by a neck with the David Payne-trained rank outsider Jemss (Exosphere) a further a head away in third.

Thermosphere's (2 f Exosphere - Glows by Canny Lad) victory brought up the first stakes-winner for her Darley-based Group 1-winning first season sire Exosphere (Lonhro). She was also his first winner when she broke her maiden at Newcastle on February 27.

A Godolphin homebred, Thermosphere has won two of four starts earning nearly $130,000 in prize-money.

She is the first winner out of the stakes-winning Glows (Canny Lad), who comes from the family of Group 3 winner Falaise (Grand Lodge).

Glows has another yearling colt by Exosphere and is back in foal to him with a weanling colt by fellow son of Lonhro (Octagonal), Pierro.

Jennifer Eccles cements Filly Of The Year with NZ Oaks victory

Trainer Shaune Ritchie and jockey Jason Waddell agree on one thing: Jennifer Eccles (Rip Van Winkle) is as good as, if not better than, any filly Ritchie has trained and is right at the very top of Waddell's impressive list of big-race winners.

However, her win in yesterday's New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) at Trentham could well have come badly undone at the 500-metre mark when the filly clipped heels and dipped heavily, almost taking a tumble.

"It wasn't real pretty when I clipped heels at the 500 metres," said Waddell.

"She was just going too well for me but they were stopping in front of me too soon and I was trying to move some horses out of the way and caught a heel. But, far out, she got back underneath me."

Ritchie was amazed at the skill Waddell showed in placing the filly to such advantage after drawing the outside barrier.

"He's unbelievable, isn't he? You wouldn't believe he could get from 18 at the gate to where he was at the winning post the first time."

Ritchie continued: "Didn't she relax lovely? She's a spectacular filly for sure. She's got a great turn of foot. We were always questioning after that (last start) Hastings run (Lowland Stakes) as to whether she'd get the mile and a half but settling down the back it was just like Te Rapa (Sir Tristram Fillies Classic) again where she relaxed great."

They jointly agreed that the Rip Van Winkle (Galileo) filly is top class.

"Every Oaks win is a big win. I like training these three-year-old fillies over ground and this filly could be the best filly I've trained," stated Ritchie, with Waddell in agreement: "I've ridden some good horses and she's right at the very top. She's a super filly."

Asked about the filly's future, Ritchie might have something firm in a few days.

"She'll be in the market for the ATC Oaks for sure but we're well aware that she's had a busy year," he said.

"I'm going to enjoy this moment, have a good talk to Adrian (Clark, manager of the Challenge No. 10 syndicate ownership) and make a decision towards the end of the week.

Jennifer Eccles was having her 11th start and along with this, her maiden Group 1 success, she has also won three Group 2 races since finishing a long neck second to Loire (Redoute's Choice) in last November's New Zealand One Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Riccarton.

Remarkably consistent and honest with four wins and six placings, including three victories on the trot now, she only missed the placings once when running fourth in the Gold Trail Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m).

Jennifer Eccles

TRISH DUNELL

The win also cemented her New Zealand Bloodstock Filly of the Year title for the current season, having a healthy lead heading towards yesterday's Oaks. In fact, her total of 44.5 points makes her the highest-scoring filly in more than 20 years, with Justa Tad (Istidaad) in 2004-05 the last to accrue more than 40 points.

It was a feat that has eluded star fillies since, including the likes of Princess Coup (Encosta De Lago), Daffodil (No Excuse Needed), Katie Lee (Pins), King's Rose (Redoute's Choice) and Continued on page 6 >> Bonneval (Makfi).

Jennifer Eccles (3 f Rip Van Winkle - Platinum Elle, by Elnadim) was purchased by Challenge No. 10 syndicate manager Adrian Clark for NZ$5,000 from the Westend Partnership draft at the NZB National Weanling Sale.

She is by the same sire as current star Te Akau Shark (Rip Van Winkle), and is the fourth named foal and second winner of her dam Platinum Elle (Elnadim), a Listed-placed winner of four races, including at Ellerslie and Riccarton.

Her second dam, the Group 3-placed Lady Tee (Zabeel), was a winner at Trentham and is a half-sister to the dam of Group 2 winner Puttanesca (Bertolini).

In 2017 Platinum Elle produced a colt by Swaynesse (Lonhro) and has a filly foal at foot by What's The Story (Savabeel). This past spring, she once again visited Rip Van Winkle.

First for Exosphere

Darley's first season sire Exosphere (Lonhro) landed his maiden stakes winner yesterday when Thermosphere (2 f ex Glows by Canny Lad) took out the Magic Night Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Rosehill. The Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner, who covered 86 mares at Darley's Kelvinside property last spring for a fee of $22,000 (inc GST), has a colt out of Lonely Hour (Fastnet Rock) on offer at next month's Inglis Easter Yearling Sale. He is catalogued as Lot 36.

Seven for Ocean Park

Waikato Stud-based stallion Ocean Park (Thorn Park) sired his seventh individual stakes-winner yesterday when Star Of The Seas (5 g ex Stella Livia by Titus Livius) took out the Maurice McCarten Handicap (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill. The Chris Waller-trained gelding defeated Jason Coyle's River Bird (Epaulette) by a length with Spending To Win (Snitzel) a nose away in third. Star Of The Seas is out of the two-time winning mare Stella Livia (Titus Livius) making him a three-quarter brother to dual Group 1 runner-up and Aquis Farm stallion Speith (Thorn Park). He joins Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Kolding and Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) winner Oceanex as stakes winners for their five-time Group 1-winning stallion, who stands for a fee of NZ$15,000 (plus GST).

Star Of The Seas relishes wet

Leading jockey James McDonald said Star Of The Seas, who finished third in last year's Epsom Handicap, relished the wet ground at Rosehill yesterday. "He has an impeccable record on this sort of ground," McDonald said. "It was short of his best but Chris (Waller) and his team had him primed to be as ready as he can. He's a good horse in these conditions. It's extremely heavy and getting worse and worse." Before yesterday, Star Of The Seas' shortest win was over 1200m. "We picked this race out to give him the chance to show his sprint," Waller said. "And we were probably spoilt when it started to rain. He's been a good horse to us and hopefully he can pick off another race over the carnival."

Funstar shines a light in Rosehill mud

Chris Waller has made the Phar Lap Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) his own in recent years, winning five of the last six, all with fillies. It was the first of those winners though, the incomparable Winx (Street Cry), with whom the trainer was drawing comparisons after Funstar (Adelaide) added her name to the honour roll. "She is like the rising star after Winx and those horses. Yes Yes Yes went amiss at the start of the autumn so horses like her are important to our stable," he said. Funstar was able to shake off the challenge of her old rival Probabeel (Savabeel) to take the Phar Lap, taking the scorecard to three-one in her favour. Waller will decide this week whether Funstar tackles the three-year-old fillies again in the Vinery Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) or takes on the older boys with a feather weight in the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m), although he indicated the Vinery was most likely.

Wine masters Sky High opposition

Master Of Wine (Maxios) may back up in next weekend's Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m)

after continuing his impressive rise through the grades with an emphatic victory in the Sky High Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at the same course and distance yesterday. The German-bred galloper has now won four on the trot, leaving Ebor Handicap (14f) winner Mustajeer (Medicean) three and a half lengths behind and giving co-trainer Michael Hawkes something of a dilemma. "We will see how we go," he said. "As always, we will let the horse decide but he is going the right way. He is pretty special and he is turning into a very serious horse. I have to give credit to Tommy Berry, too, because he gave him a really nice ride."

Imaging in Doncaster frame after Ajax win

The Chris Waller-trained Imaging (Oasis Dream) has thrown off any effects from a brutal last-start scrimmage to earn his place in the Doncaster Mile with victory in the Ajax Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) at Rosehill. The Irish import's introduction to Australian racing was a brawl with Cascadian (New Approach) in the Liverpool City Cup (Gr 3, 1300m) two weeks ago. Both lined up again yesterday and Cascadian again found himself in trouble. Imaging, however, was in front and out of trouble and went on to beat his stablemate Yulong Prince (Gimmethegreenlight) by a neck with Cascadian another two lengths third. "That's what he was supposed to do first-up, but things went wrong," winning rider James McDonald said. "It just shows when a horse does get into a bit of a tussle, how much it takes it out of them. He dropped out last time but he wasn't dropping out today. I think he'll be a huge chance in a Doncaster. He's the real deal."

Clipperton back in winners' circle

Coolmore day has always held significant meaning to jockey Sam Clipperton, with the 26-year-old scoring his first Group 1 win in the featured Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) aboard Peeping (Redoute's Choice) in 2016. It was once again significant yesterday with Clipperton scoring his first metropolitan winner since returning from an extended hiatus earlier this year, taking the Iron Jack Handicap (1900m) on Zoffany's Lad (Zoffany). He said: "It's my first Saturday winner and first metropolitan winner since I've been back so I'm rapt. I'm feeling good. I really needed a break and I've got the love back for the game." The win was also a milestone for 30-year-old trainer Joseph Ible, who celebrated his first win in a benchmark city race.

High five for McDonald at Rosehill

James McDonald arrived at Rosehill confident of at least one winner - aboard Pohutukawa (Medaglia d'Oro) in the Coolmore Classic - and while that victory didn't transpire, the Kiwi rider still had a day to remember, booting home five winners, four of them in stakes races. "It's good to ride five but I thought my best ride was Pohutukawa. The track was too wet for her and it backfired," McDonald said after winning aboard Thermosphere (Exosphere), Star Of The Seas (Ocean Park), Funstar (Adelaide), Imaging (Oasis Dream) and Positive Peace (Stratum). It is not the first time the jockey has ridden a quintet of winners in Sydney, achieving the feat on Epsom Handicap day last year. "I've ridden six in New Zealand, that is my best," McDonald said. "But I've done five a few times in Sydney."

Waller scared of coronavirus impact

Chris Waller is taking unprecedented measures as Covid-19 threatens to disrupt the Australian racing industry. Waller admits he is concerned about the impact the virus could have on his staff and the knock-on effect on his horses. "I'm very hesitant and cautious because I just can't afford for my staff to get ill," Waller said. "My staff and my management team are so crucial for our operation and for the wellbeing of the horses. We're very nervous, we're aware of how bad it is going to get." Waller sourced temperature guns and tested all his staff at his Rosehill stable yesterday morning before race meeting at the track. "I'm not going to do that every day but we did it today to get a fix on where we're at," Waller said.

Ten for Night Of Thunder

Former Darley shuttler Night Of Thunder (Dubawi) landed his tenth individual stakes winner, and second in Australia, when the Mathew Ellerton and Simon Zahra-trained River Night (2 f ex River Pearl by Helmet) took out the Redoute's Choice Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Caulfield yesterday. The filly has had four starts, all at stakes level, for two placings and one win; she defeated the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Masseur (Rubick) by a length with Chris Waller's Celestial Sol (Fighting Sun) a further length and a quarter back in third. River Night joins Blue Diamond Preview (F) (Gr 3, 1000m) winner A Beautiful Night as an Australian stakes winner for Night Of Thunder. The son of Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) was the leading first season sire in Europe in 2019 and shuttled to Australia for one season, covering 96 mares in 2016. He stands at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Ireland for a fee of €25,000 (inc GST).

More to come from River Night

Co-trainer Mathew Ellerton was pleased that River Night, who was ridden by Damian Lane, could finally get a win on the board and expects her to move on to bigger and better things going forward. "It's a well-deserved win. It's good not to run second," Ellerton said. "First-up was a blip on the radar but she might have had a few excuses. And every run to date has been great. She's done a really good job today and I'm sure she's got a bit of improvement in her, just naturally and physically. It's onwards and upwards for her." River Night is nominated for the $1 million Percy Sykes Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) for two-year-old fillies at Randwick next month. "We'll let the dust settle today and see how she gets through it," Ellerton said.

18 for Tertullian

German-based sire Tertullian (Miswaki) landed his 18th individual stakes-winner yesterday when Aaron Purcell's stable star Guizot (7 g ex Guantana by Dynaformer) took out the Anniversary Vase (Listed, 1600m) at Caulfield. The nine-time winner held off a late charge from Scarlet Dream (Sebring) to win by a nose with Tasmanian gelding Hellova Street (Helike) a length away in third. Out of the three-time winning German mare Guantana (Dynaformer), Guizot is a half-brother to the two-time Group winner and Easter Cup (Gr 3, 2000m) runner-up Guardini (Dalakhani).

Anniversary Vase consolation for Guizot

There may not have been a $2 million cheque on offer but the connections of Guizot (Tertullian) were able to take some consolation for missing out on the All-Star Mile (1600m) field with his win in the Anniversary Vase. "We had him nominated for the All-Star Mile. We didn't really think he was going to get in but if he had got in we would have run him, so today was the day we focused on," trainer Aaron Purcell said. A number of Anniversary Vase runners were also hoping for an All-Star Mile berth, including Admiral's Joker (Bel Esprit), who was second emergency for the world's richest mile race. Admiral's Joker was sent off even-money favourite but could manage only fourth.

156 for Fastnet Rock

Coolmore's champion sire Fastnet Rock (Danehill) landed his 156th individual stakes-winner yesterday when Inverloch (5 g ex Ideal by Galileo), from the in-form stable of Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young, took out the Mornington Cup Prelude (Listed, 2000m) at Caulfield. The OTI Racing-owned gelding defeated Tony and Calvin McEvoy's hot favourite Secret Blaze (Sizzling) by a length and a half with Odeon a further three-quarters of a length back in third. Inverloch is out of the winning mare Ideal (Galileo) who herself is a half-sister to Coolmore's Group 1 winning and producing sire Camelot (Montjeu). Fastnet Rock stood at Jerry's Plains for a fee of $165,000 (inc GST) in 2019 and has 23 lots catalogued at the upcoming Inglis Easter Yearling Sale. Click here to view them.

Mornington Cup next for Inverloch

Following his dominant win at Caulfield yesterday, Inverloch is more than likely to back up in Saturday's $350,000 Mornington Cup (Listed, 2400m), with the winner guaranteed a spot in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) later in the year. Assistant trainer Brendon Hawtin said the gelding needs only to please the stable during the week to take his place at Mornington. "That's been the plan all along," Hawtin said. "It was a strong win today and the horse that beat him last time, Aktau, looks a smart one." Calvin McEvoy, who trains in partnership with his father Tony, said there was a remote chance Secret Blaze could also back-up in the Mornington Cup. "We'll see how he does during the week, but if he doesn't run he will come back here for the Easter Cup," McEvoy said.

Excess Funds gets the money in Inglis Dash

Trainer Levi Kavanagh's plan to target the lucrative Inglis Dash (1100m) with Excess Funds (Rubick) has been rewarded at Caulfield with the three-year-old racing to a convincing victory in the $500,000 race. Purchased from the 2018 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale in Sydney, Excess Funds' win in yesterday's sales-restricted race took him to three wins from nine starts with a bank balance of almost $365,000. "It's not often that a plan comes off, but I targeted this race from a long way out and it worked out perfectly today," Kavanagh said. "Hugh (Bowman) rode him great. Big thanks to the team at home who have worked really hard to get here and it's a great boost to the stable. Kavanagh said the gelding operation and also the addition of blinkers had both helped Excess Funds, with the Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) at Morphettville a potential target.

Warrnambool Cup the target for Grand Promenade

European import Grand Promenade has one eye on the Warrnambool May Racing Carnival after scoring a gritty win at Caulfield yesterday. Like last week's Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Fifty Stars, Grand Promenade is part-owned by Gerry Ryan and was purchased in the UK before making his racecourse debut.

Saturday's outing in the Lamaro's Hotel Grand Handicap Classic (2400m) was the four-year-old's sixth start, and a fourth straight win. "Full credit to the team, he's been up a long time," co-trainer David Eustace said. "We've spaced his runs, he goes to the beach and comes back to gallop. The long-range plan for some time has been the Warrnambool Cup and he seems right on track. He likes Warrnambool, he's won there, he handles the cut in the ground and he'll have one more run going into it."

58 for Sebring

The late stallion Sebring (More Than Ready) sired his 58th individual stakes-winner yesterday when Talladega (3 g ex Impressive Jeune by Jeune) kept his unbeaten record intact in the JC Roberts Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Ascot. The Darren McAuliffe-trained three-year-old produced a dominant victory, defeating the Grant and Alana Williams-trained Bogart (Redoute's Choice) by two and a quarter lengths with Midnight Blue (So You Think) a further three-quarters of a length away in third. Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Sebring stood at Widden Stud before his premature death at the age of 13 after suffering a heart attack. He has 24 yearlings on offer at next month's Inglis Easter Yearling Sale.

Tuscan Queen takes out Natasha Stakes

Group 3-winning filly Tuscan Queen (3 f Fastnet Rock - Tavarnelle by Zabeel) added to her resume at Ascot yesterday, taking out the Natasha Stakes (Listed, 2200m). The Grant and Alana Williams-trained three year old defeated Pambella (Playing God) by a comfortable margin of two and a quarter lengths with Mood Goddess (Playing God) a nose away back in third.

Kisukano shines brightest in QTIS Jewel victory

The unbeaten run of star juvenile Rothfire (Rothsay) came to a disappointing end in the $500,000 QTIS The Jewel 2YO with the Robert Heathcote-trained favourite eclipsed by Toowoomba filly Kisukano (Bel Esprit) on a wet Gold Coast deck. The combination of a soft track and his inability to muster enough to cross the face of the field saw Rothfire undone, although Michael Nolan's filly deserves her share of plaudits too for what was an easy victory in the end, finishing two lengths up on the $1.20 favourite. "There was a lot of talk about Rothfire but not much about us. You don't come here expecting to win but she has done well," Nolan said. "We thought if we ran second so be it but we gave her a chance."

Schweida proves master Jewel tactician

A long-term plan came to fruition for trainer Kelly Schweida as The Odyssey (Better Than Ready) added the $300,000 The Jewel 3YO to go with his win in the two-year-old equivalent last year. Schweida plotted a similar campaign to last year in order to have The Odyssey at his peak for this race. "When he won the two-year-old Jewel last year he had run in the Magic Millions earlier in the year. We gave him a similar break and then one run which he won," Schweida said. "I decided to use similar tactics this time." The Odyssey, who was snapped up for $30,000 during Book 2 of the 2018 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, has now won seven of his 16 starts and is on the cusp of breaking the million-dollar mark, QTIS bonuses included.

66 for Lope De Vega

Lope De Vega

BALLYLINCH STUD

Ballylinch Stud's Lope De Vega (Shamardal) landed his 66th individual stakes winner yesterday when Snitch (5 g ex Quaffle by Hurricane Sky) took out the Goldmarket Handicap (Listed, 1300m) at the Gold Coast. The Tony Gollan-trained five-year-old narrowly defeated Grey Missile (Red Element) by a nose with In His Stride (Rothsay) a further length and a half away in third. Snitch joins the likes of Santa Ana Lane and Vega Magic as stakes-winners for their Group 1 winning stallion. Lope De Vega stands for a fee of €100,000 in Ireland.

Fourth Goldmarket Handicap for Gollan

Snitch's win in the Goldmarket Handicap was the fourth victory in the race for leading Queensland trainer Tony Gollan. "Tony has a bit of opinion of him and I think he will find similar black-type races for him," jockey Baylee Nothdurft said. Gollan has also won the Goldmarket Handicap with Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo), who now stands at Eureka Stud, Gundy Son (Falvelon) and Raido (Husson). Snitch has had 29 starts for nine wins and seven placings, earning a total of $354,060 in prize-money.

Magnufighter in change of luck at Coast

Consistent galloper Magnufighter (Magnus) finally had things go his way when he scored his biggest win in the $125,000 Gold Coast Stakes (1800m). Trainer Jack Duncan summed it up perfectly when he said Magnufighter never ran a bad race. "He always tries hard and he is never far away. Magnufighter had a good run but he might have got the lead a bit early when the leaders stopped," Duncan said. "That takes him to about $440,000 in prize money so he has been good for us." The win was a welcome change of luck for jockey Dale Smith who has had a winning drought in the past two months. "We got a nice run and he fought on well after getting to the lead easily," he said. Eric The Eel (Olympic Glory) did his chances of a trip to Sydney for the Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) no harm with his third but trainer Stuart Kendrick won't make up his mind until he sees how the gelding recovers.

Mountbatten gives McCormick a milestone

Gatton trainer Leanne McCormick posted her first metropolitan Saturday winner when consistent Mountbatten (Manhattan Rain) won the Mount Franklin Plate at the Gold Coast. The Plate race over 1300m was designed to attract country and provincial trainers but Mountbatten had been racing in city class. The gelding gave McCormick her first Doomben winner in a midweek race in January but it was her first metropolitan Saturday win.

McCormick has a small team and has been training for about two years, producing five winners overall. "Jim (Orman) walked all of the track before the first and said he would get away from the fence in the straight," McCormick said. "He is a top-class jockey and showed it again."

Doncaster ambitions for Waller

Trainer Chris Waller will forego a staying campaign with the exciting Shared Ambition (Born To Sea), instead looking to capitalise on a light weight in the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m). Irish import Shared Ambition has won four of his five Australian starts, including a 2800 metre Benchmark 96 event on Melbourne Cup Day. He added his first stakes victory last time out with an effortless win in the Randwick City Stakes (Listed, 2000m), but Waller will now drop him back in distance - a tactic he has used in the Doncaster with success before. "He has a nice light weight," Waller told Racing NSW. "I don't think he is a fully mature horse in terms of racing against weight for age horses and if you get a wet track running him over 2400 metres we wouldn't be doing the right thing by him. The Tancred is on every year and he has a light weight in a Doncaster, let's hope he has enough speed to be competitive at the end of a tough mile race."

Gosford provincial championship heat off

Yesterday's Gosford qualifying heat of the Provincial Championships was postponed due to poor visibility at the Central Coast track. Jockeys expressed concerns after heavy rain hit the course on Saturday. The surface was safe but the darkening sky coupled with the rain caused the riders to cite visibility as a problem. The race is likely to be added to one of the upcoming provincial programs. It was the third of five heats leading towards the 1400m final on the second day of The Championships at Randwick on April 11.

NEW ZEALAND

Third for Rip Van Winkle

Windsor Park Stud resident Rip Van Winkle (Galileo) sired his third individual Group 1 winner as Jennifer Eccles (3 f ex Platinum Elle by Elnadim) took out the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) at Trentham yesterday. The three-year-old filly joins Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Te Akau Shark and Phoenix Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) winner Dick Whittington as elite level scorers for their three-time Group 1 victorious sire. Rip Van Winkle stood for a fee of NZ$12,500 (inc GST) in 2019.

85 for Pins

The late Pins (Snippets) produced his 85th individual stakes winner at Trentham yesterday when Gold Bracelet (3 f ex Miss Bling by Golan), under Lisa Allpress, scored a minor upset in the Wellington Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m). Gold Bracelet had the better of Levante (Proisir) by a long neck, with three-quarters of a length back to Lightning Jack (Per Incanto) in third. Twice the Leading New Zealand Sire (by worldwide earnings), Pins died at Waikato Stud in New Zealand in April 2018 due to complications from colic. A brother to Gold Bracelet from the champion sire's final crop sold to Hong Kong's Upper Bloodstock for NZ$100,000 at this year's Karaka Yearling Sales.

Bracelet lands another Guineas for Benner and Wynyard

Gold Bracelet's victory was the third Wellington Guineas win for trainers John Benner and Hollie Wynyard, having won with Vespa (Elusive City) (2015) and Scott Base (Dalghar) (2018) previously. "When the bookies opened her up at 25/1 early in the week, I thought either we got it very wrong or they got it wrong," Benner said. "Luckily it turned out it was them who had it wrong. We've won this race a couple of times before and know what it takes to win it. We were pretty confident coming into today." Gold Bracelet, whose dam Miss Bling (Golan) is a sister to 2010 Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Beauty Flash, has now won three of her four starts for owner Jen Campin. She paid NZ$25,000 to buy her at the 2018 Ready to Run Sale at Karaka, after the filly had twice been passed in as a yearling.

17 for Nadeem

Little Avondale Stud's Nadeem (Redoute's Choice) sired his 17th individual stakes winner yesterday when Tinkalicious (6 m ex Tinkermia by Johar) took out the Cuddle Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Trentham. The six-year-old mare defeated Yearn (Savabeel) by a length and a quarter with Aridity (Mastercraftsman) a nose back in third. Nadeem will stand for a fee of NZ$5,000 in 2020.

Tinkalicious breaks through in Cuddle Stakes

It was a first black type success for honest mare Tinkalicious yesterday, producing a gritty effort to take out the Cuddle Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Trentham. The Janelle Millar-trained six-year-old had finished third behind Concert Hall (Savabeel) in the same race 12 months ago, but she was able to lead throughout under a well-timed Johnathan Parkes ride to gain a valuable win for her pedigree page. "No matter what, she always puts everything into it and definitely deserved it today," said a beaming Millar. "We've had a few problems with her feet and her last start over 1200m was just a conditioning run as she's never really been competitive over that distance." The win made it career victory number six from 28 starts for Tinkalicious. She was bred by Little Avondale Stud, from the Johar mare Tinkermia, a daughter of Group 1-winning European mare Twafeaj (Topsider).

46 for Darci Brahma

It took Sergeant Blast (7 g ex Glittering Girl by Marscay) 36 starts to win at stakes level, but his tenacious front-running display to take the New Zealand St Leger (Listed, 2600m) gave his sire Darci Brahma (Danehill) a 46th individual stakes winner at Trentham yesterday. Sergeant Blast beat the former English galloper Te Akau Caliburn (Camelot), with more than six lengths back to 2019 St Leger winner Sampson (Dubai Destination) in third. The Oaks Stud's Darci Brahma has proven to be a consistent source of winners, including those at the highest levels, and at a range of distances as well. He stood this season for NZ$15,000 (plus GST).

Sergeant Blast produces front-running gem in St Leger

Rugged stayer Sergeant Blast (Darci Brahma) was not for catching in the New Zealand St Leger, leading all the way to take out the 2600 metre feature at Trentham. Initially viewed mainly as a sprinter/miler type by his trainer and co-owner Sam Lennox, the seven-year-old has proved a revelation when stepped up over more ground in the last 12 months. "We might have had it wrong for a few years," an emotional Lennox said. "I might have to apologise to the other owners as he could have been a wasted stayer. You get attached to these animals as you virtually live with them. He's a seven-year-old now who has won nine races and he is a part of the family. To see him do this on a big day is a massive thrill and is what we get out of bed for and I'm so proud of the little horse."

Enzo's Lad back to winning form in Lightning

Trentham specialist Enzo's Lad (Testa Rossa) made it three wins from five starts at the Wellington course when taking the Lightning Handicap (Listed, 1200m) yesterday. Enzo's Lad's two previous wins over the course and distance had yielded two Group 1 wins in the Telegraph, a race in which he was beaten a short neck by Avantage (Fastnet Rock) this year. It was the seven-year-old's first win since returning from an overseas campaign in which he finished down the track in the Chairman's Sprint Prize (Gr 1, 1200m) in Hong Kong, as well as in the two feature sprints at Royal Ascot, the King's Stand Stakes (Gr 1, 5f) and the Diamond Jubilee Stakes (Gr 1, 6f). "I said to everyone that he has been behind the eight ball after we went to England," co-trainer Michael Pitman said. "He came home and he still had his winter coat when he contested the Telegraph. He then got caught three-wide after being checked early last time so he has had excuses."

ASIA

Garnet shines in Falcon Stakes

Shine Garnet (Orfevre) sparkled against the boys in the Falcon Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Chukyo yesterday. The Falcon Stakes is a traditional lead-up to the NHK Mile Cup (Gr 1, 1600m) in early May and jockey Hironobu Tanabe suggested the filly - a spitting image of her dad, as a chestnut with a white blaze - would be better suited stepping back up to the mile, where she won her first two races. Now a winner of three from four, Shine Garnet is a half-sister to Admire Marine (Kurofune), the dam of Admire Robson (Deep Impact), who is now in training with Chris Waller. She defeated favourite Lauda Sion (Real Impact) by a length and a half, with Westerwald (Novellist) a further two and a half lengths away in third.

Fairy dances her way to Nakayama Himba win

Lightly-raced mare Fairy Polka (Rulership) scored her first stakes win and her first win in almost a year in taking the Nakayama Himba Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) at Nakayama yesterday. Ridden by Ryuji Wada, Fairy Polka came from a fore-of-midfield position to grab outsider Lune Rouge (Monterosso) with Espoir (Orfevre) back in third. Fairy Polka is well-related, coming from a renowned Japanese globetrotting family that includes dual Group 1 winner and Dubai World Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) runner-up To The Victory (Sunday Silence) and Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) runner-up To The World (King Kamehameha).

Deep Impact's Pattern-winning son to stand at Gestut Lindenhof

Blueblood Geniale (6 h Deep Impact - Sarafina by Refuse To Bend) will become the first son of his late sire to stand in Germany when he takes up residence at Gestut Lindenhof. Geniale was bred by Japan's Shadai Farm, with the Prix de Diane (Gr 1, 2100m) winner Sarafina one of their star purchases. Geniale was her second foal and the first to race, winning two of his ten starts for trainer Pascal Bary and owner Masaaki Matsushima including the 2018 Prix Messidor (Gr 3, 1600m) at Maisons-Laffitte. Geniale will stand his first season for €5,500, although the exploits of his sister, early Classic favourite Savarin, this season could see increased demand by year's end.

Another Abu Dhabi Championship for Hopkins

Honest galloper GM Hopkins (9 g Dubawi - Varsity by Lomitas) took out his second Abu Dhabi Championship (Gr 3, 2200m) in the UAE overnight. The now nine-year-old sat midfield under Richard Mullen before making steady progress, racing to the lead inside the final furlong. At the line, he had a half-length to spare over Seniority (Dubawi), who is in his first campaign in the UAE, having previously been raced by the Queen and trainer William Haggas. A Listed winner earlier in his career, GM Hopkins was transferred from John Gosden to Jaber Ramadhan in early 2018; his two wins since have both been in this race.

Dubai World Cup meeting in doubt

The world's richest race meeting, Dubai World Cup night, appears the next likely victim of the Covid-19 coronavirus crisis that is wreaking havoc across the globe. The United Arab Emirates government announced late last night that it would not issue any entry visas, except to holders of diplomatic passports, from Tuesday onwards. Those that have already been issued a visa, though, would still be free to travel to Dubai. However, with horses and connections due to arrive at Meydan from all parts of the world over the next week, a decision on the race meeting looms large. It had already been announced that the March 28 meeting would be conducted without spectators.

Tattersalls Ascot to go ahead

There are no current plans to cancel or postpone the Tattersalls Ascot March mixed sale, set for Thursday, or the Ascot Breeze-Up Sale for two-year-olds set down for April 1, the company announced yesterday. The UK government's response to the Covid-19 crisis has been different to other nations, with measures introduced elsewhere - such as bans on mass gatherings - not yet being imposed in Britain. "We're following government guidelines that it's business as usual, although we're constantly monitoring the situation as we appreciate it's changing all the time," head of Tattersalls Ascot and Cheltenham Sales, Matt Prior, said. "We have an open dialogue with Ascot racecourse about their response to the spread of coronavirus. For potential buyers from overseas we would say that their travel plans should be dictated by their own country's public health guidelines, and would remind all clients that they can get in touch with us to assist with bidding remotely should the need arise."

Gulfstream Sale cancelled, OBS March to continue

The Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream Sale yesterday became the second major American auction in two days to be cancelled due to Covid-19 concerns. Originally scheduled for April 1, the select sale of two-year-olds will not proceed as Gulfstream Park is closed to spectators and visitors. "While disappointing, canceling the Gulfstream sale is the most prudent and responsible decision we can make in light of the rapidly changing circumstances associated with Covid-19," Fasig-Tipton president Boyd Browning Jr. said. "The health and welfare of all sale participants, both human and equine, is always our highest priority." This announcement comes just one day after Keeneland shelved its April Two-Year-Olds In Training Sale. However, Ocala Bloodstock Sales (OBS) is continuing with its March sale, set down for Tuesday and Wednesday.

BY DAVID MORGAN | HKJC_RACING

Derek Leung capped a steely treble at Sha Tin yesterday when Simply Brilliant (Frankel) earned just reward in the afternoon's feature, the Class 1 Lung Cheung Handicap (1600m).

Leung left little to chance on the Frankie Lor-trained chestnut, a lesson learned from a luckless defeat the time before at Happy Valley. On that occasion, the rider found himself trapped fence-side and then pocketed behind a wall of horses; this time, he settled his mount in a stalking spot, with naught but air to his outer, perfect for a centre-track rattle to the winning post.

"Last time he ran very well, he was very honest but we got held up and he missed the kick – even at the winning post we didn't have room. That gave me confidence for today," Leung said. "We sat two-off the rail this time because I wanted to make sure he had a clear run and when I asked him to let down, he gave me what we needed."

Simply Brilliant's unchecked run was enough to edge the Blake Shinn-ridden Harmony Victory (Public Purse) by a head, with Encouraging (Redoute's Choice) and Fat Turtle (Smart Missile) the next two across the line in a blanket finish. The winning time was 1:33.67.

Lor was delighted to see his stalwart galloper, who raced in the United Kingdom as Senator pre-import, earn a first win since he took the 2019 January Cup (Gr 3, 1800m) at Happy Valley and the handler revealed that he had no hesitation in sticking with Leung.

"If he had got a clean run last time he might have won, but this time, I just put Derek (Leung) on again and he rode a very good race today," the trainer said.

Lor is now looking at the Chairman's Trophy (Gr 2, 1600m) as a possible port of call for the Frankel (Galileo) gelding, whose performances in the past year include a fine third to Beauty

Simply Brilliant (No.4)

Generation (Road To Rock) in the Champions Mile (Gr 1, 1600m).

"You can see his ability in his form," Leung said. "He's chased Beauty Generation in big races so he's always had the quality, he's just older and with this weight in this grade it was ideal for him."

The three-timer was Leung's first such haul since the glorious afternoon of October 1, 2017 when he guided Beauty Generation to a front-running win in the Celebration Cup (Gr 3, 1400m), a success that set the ball rolling on the subsequent champion's epic rise.

And on the eve of BMW Hong Kong Derby

Derek Leung

week, with those days of Beauty Generation and a Group 1 win in the LONGINES Hong Kong Mile two years and more distant, Leung delivered a timely reminder of his talents.

"I always try my best and challenge myself," Leung said. "This week, all the pressure for the Derby is on Vincent Ho with Golden Sixty and we don't have any pressure."

The rider, 31, is set to partner Lor's Reliable Team (Reliable Man) in the 'blue riband' in eight days' time, an outsider against his fellow Apprentice Jockeys' School graduate's star mount, with Ho and Golden Sixty (Medaglia d'Oro) bidding to complete a perfect three-from-three in the Four-Year-Old Classic Series.

"My horse is a front-runner, so I'll try to help him finish strongly. I'll let him move forward and see what happens against Golden Sixty," Leung said.

The two-time Tony Cruz Award winner (2017, 2018) – as the circuit's leading 'homegrown' jockey – was in a determined groove throughout the afternoon.

He ensured Joao Moreira was on the losing side of a duel in the Class 4 Tseuk Luk

Handicap (1800m, dirt) as his strength kept Gala Night (Dissident) a neck to the good over the Brazilian's mount, Foodie Princess (Sepoy). Leung was up top when Gala Night prevailed at Happy Valley 10 days ago and today's front-running success gave him a 23rd win from 326 rides for the John Moore stable, going back to November, 2008.

"He's a good stayer – he'd been giving me a good feeling in the morning. He won well last time and he is only three years old," the rider said.

"On the all-weather track, if you find the front you have an advantage, so once he got there he wasn't going to stop – I just had to ask him a bit earlier because he hasn't got the acceleration, but at the 400 (metres) he was at full steam already and he stayed on."

Leung's judgement and strength were again evident in the next, section one of the Class 3 Sheung Hei Handicap (1400m). The rider once more set the tempo, this time on the Danny Shum-trained Smoothies (Rothestay) and was powerful in the drive to hold off Ho on High Rise Soldier (Snitzel) by a short-head.

Purton's Mighty four closes gap

Champion jockey Zac Purton sealed a four-timer and in doing so closed the gap on premiership leader Joao Moreira to four wins.

"It's just a matter of turning up every meeting, trying to ride winners and if we can make a race of it, we will," Purton said.

He capped his afternoon's tally with a comfortable win on the smart four-year-old Mighty Giant (Power) in the Class 3 Sheung Hei Handicap (1400m). The Ricky Yiu-trained chestnut took his record to three wins from six runs.

"He's not a sit and sprint horse, he's very big and he's got a lovely long action, so I just got him into a rhythm and kept him happy. Last time I rode him, they went really fast and he kept galloping, so it's not about trying to outspurt them, it's about having him happy," Purton said.

"He's still quite raw, he's very big and he's still working out where to put his legs but he's honest – he's going to be unassuming, I think, he's going to improve as time goes on."

Mighty Giant

The Australian had made it three wins with a punching drive on the Tony Cruz-trained four-year-old Transcendent (Dabirsim), in the same black and grey colours as champion stayer Exultant (Teofilo).

The French import was a Listed winner pre-arrival, when known as Pizzicato, and made a belated Hong Kong debut, having been withdrawn from an intended outing back in December.

"He had some complications, he had a little accident on the float to Happy Valley; everything was going great after he recovered from that and then he had a foot problem and that was two months we'd lost," Cruz said.

"He's only a miler – he wouldn't have run the Derby distance – but you can see his form in France, he's a very consistent, honest horse. He had to win today and Zac rode a perfect race."

Purton posted back-to-back wins early on the card, thanks to a pair of three-year-old prospects: in the afternoon's second contest, the Class 4 Shung Ling Handicap (1200m), the

David Hall-trained Beluga (Tavistock) scored at his second start; one race later, Purton guided the Dennis Yip-trained Good View Clarico (I Am Invincible) to a straight dash win in the Class 4 Fung Mo Handicap (1000m).

The John Size-trained Juneau Park (Ocean Park) got the best of a frantic duel to win the Class 4 Sze Mei Handicap (1400m) and ensured Moreira took something from the day. The 1.5 favourite was second-best everywhere except where it mattered; the Brazilian ace elicited a last-gasp lunge, drove the four-year-old's long nose down, and when the camera flashed the verdict was his over the Shinn-ridden Ka Ying Excellent (Holy Roman Emperor).

Shinn had two close seconds to show for his efforts, taking his season's tally of runner-up finishes to 35, against a solid nine wins.

Chad Schofield partnered the Size-trained Raging Blitzkrieg (Shamardal) to success in the Class 3 Sam Chuk Handicap (1650m, dirt).

Apprentice Victor Wong made it three wins in as many meetings when he took the opener, the Class 5 Ng Fong Handicap (1200m), aboard the Peter Ho-trained veteran Multimax (Court Command).

No way Better than mum, but still an Excellent win

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

The first win of Excellent Moon (Excelebration) at his 17th start in a Class 5 race on Friday night would normally not get much press, but to trainer Hideyuki Takaoka, it was an extra special moment.

The Australian-bred four-year-old is out of a mare who took Takaoka to great heights at Kranji in a not too distant past, Better Life (Smarty Jones).

The mare won three Singaporean Group 1 races: the 2012 Kranji Mile (Listed, 1600m), the 2012 Singapore Gold Cup (Listed, 2200m) and the 2013 Singapore Derby (Listed, 2000m) which remarkably was her swansong, capping a glittering career on a stellar record of eight wins (between 1200m and 2200m) and three placings for stakes earnings just over the S$2 million mark for the Suzuka Racing Stable.

While Better Life's career as a mum has been nowhere near as flash, Excellent Moon, who is raced by Suzuka as well, is her only foal in Singapore, and has now produced a new milestone of sorts by becoming her first foal to win a race.

"We all know Excellent Moon is nothing like his mother, but it's a nice feeling to see him win a race tonight," said Takaoka. "I believe he's the first foal to win for her. I'm sure the owners will be happy with that, too."

"He's actually been improving. At his last run (February 14), I told Krisna Thangamani not to go forward, and he ran on for third. I told (Mohd) Zaki the same thing tonight and he finished very strongly on the outside."

Zaki, who used to be Takaoka's apprentice jockey,

Excellent Moon

SGP TURF CLUB

does remember Better Life. While the Malaysian jockey rode the chestnut mare in trackwork, and not in races, at least now he has the bragging rights of having ridden her first winning foal.

"I only got to ride Better Life in trackwork, but she was a machine, she's all class," said Zaki. "I've ridden this horse (Excellent Moon) only once before (unplaced), but it's not the same standard. My old boss just told me to settle him at the back and let him come on the outside in the last 400m."

"I'd like to dedicate that win to my mother, my sister, my wife, my sister-in-law, and last but not least, Mr Takaoka. I haven't ridden a winner for him for a while and I thank him for still putting me on his horses."

The last winning combination between the Japanese handler and his former apprentice jockey came with Bounceback Ability (Pour Moi) on November 17, 2018.

Known for being more of a frontrunning type of jockey, Zaki turned in the perfect sit-and-sprint ride on Excellent Moon in the S$30,000 Class 5 Division 2 race over 1100m on Polytrack.

A trio made up of Thoth Warrior (Conatus), Lucky Red (Lonhro) and Golden Spark (Munnings) were fighting out the finish at the 300m, but turned out loose by Zaki upon cornering, Excellent Moon finished over the top of them to defeat Lucky Red and Ruan Maia by half-a-length with Golden Spark and Joseph See third another head away. The winning time was 1:07 flat for the 1100m on the Polytrack.

Excellent Moon's record now just looks a touch more respectable with that first hurrah - 16:1-0-1 for stakes earnings leaping fourfold to more than S$20,000 for the Suzuka Racing Stable.

Analysis: The USA-bred mare Con Te Partiro, improved by one run from a spell, staged a smart effort in recording her first Group 1 victory here, her fifth win in 22 starts. She showed her usual early pace before Tim Clark settled her nicely in fourth place (one out and one back) tracking a reasonable tempo on the heavy 9 track. She moved nicely nearing the turn, dashed to the front (in the centre of the track) at the 300m and then held on to win well. Miss Fabulass settled in last place in the 15-runner field, commenced a move between runners from the 300m, went to second at the 100m and fought well to hold that position, staging a good performance. Noire was near last, improved deep from the 600m, got to third at the 200m and kept fighting well to take the minor placing, a short neck behind the runner-up. Benitoite held on well for (6.9 lengths) fourth after being handily placed on the rails while the more favoured runners Pohutukawa (8th) and Sylvia's Mother (last) raced below their best, the latter in particular resenting the conditions. Analysis: Clipping heels and dipping badly at the 500m was not enough to deny Jennifer Eccles who, once balanced, stormed home for an easy win here, her fourth win (her maiden Group 1 and three Group 2s) plus six placings from 11 career starts. She is, without doubt, the best filly in the country. From the widest barrier (18) Jason Waddell somehow settled her midfield, one off the fence leaving the straight with a little less than a circuit to run. Starting the back straight she found the rail, holding midfield until the 800m where she improved to be in behind the pack. Pocketed at the 500m she moved out but just when she was accelerating clipped heels and dipped badly. Waddell steadied her and starting the run home she pulled four deep and with clear air went after the leader. Waddell pumped and she caught the leader, gave her one slap at the 250m and she bounded clear at the 200m. One more slap at the 150m and it was all over and she cruised to the line well in command by a length and a half. Vancooga sat second last at the 1200m, improved quickly but widest from the 600m and turned in widest. In the straight she took some time to balance but inside the last 200m flew home, taking many lengths off the winner but was never going to bridge that gap yet a strong second. Feel The Rush improved quickly from the 800m and turning in she challenged for lead. She took over but was soon gobbled up by the winner yet she stuck on quite well to hold third from Karalino who from midfield at the top of the straight finished fairly for fourth. The first four were clear of the rest. [LJ]

Then followed: Aspect Ratio (AUS), Kubrick (AUS) & Trust The Process (AUS), last.

Analysis: Arch-rivals Funstar and Probabeel again provided an exciting contest with the former proving too good today. Funstar went to the front, set a reasonable tempo on the heavy 9 track with James McDonald keeping her away from the inside rail. She was hotly challenged on passing the 200m but rallied gamely and then drew clear for another victory in affected conditions. Probabeel settled last place in the small six-runner field, responded to Kerrin McEvoy's urgings rounding the home turn and moved through on the inner. She put in a strong bid at the 200m and then battled on gamely for second. Quick Thinker settled in fourth place on the rails, eased deeper at the turn, moved up well to be in a challenging position at the 300m and then kept fighting particularly well for third in a promising effort at his third run back with the outsider Aspect Ratio holding on for a distant fourth after being handy all the way. Then followed: Quackerjack (AUS), Night's Watch (NZ), Vegadaze (AUS), I Am Superman (IRE), Olmedo (FR), Ringerdingding (AUS) & Nobu (NZ), last.

Analysis: The British-bred import Imaging scored a very good win here when having his second Australian start for new trainer Chris Waller. He travelled well in fourth place, one out and one back, before moving up (deep) nearing the turn. He went to the front at the 200m and then fought back gamely to win well, seemingly appreciating the heavy 9 conditions. Yulong Prince raced in sixth spot a bit deep before tracking the winner from the 600m. He challenged him strongly on passing the 200m and then fought well for second in a promising effort at his second run this preparation. Cascadian raced in seventh place, between runners, again had trouble in forcing a run at the 200m (in a repeat of his prior start) and he then battled on well for third. The favourite Quackerjack worked outside the leader (Vegadaze), went to the front on turning for home and then did well in holding on for (3.7 lengths) fourth with Night's Watch making ground for (4.7 lengths) fifth while the leader Vegadaze tired for (6.3 lengths) sixth. Then followed: Star Of Bombay (NZ), Callsign Mav (NZ), Woodcote Lass (NZ), Bella Mente (NZ), Lilikoi (NZ), Tavira (NZ), Our Alley Cat (NZ) & Exaltation (NZ), last.

Analysis: A good field here and Gold Bracelet, having just her fourth start was too strong to record her third successive win and maiden stakes. She was away well to be third early then dropped into fifth (rails) past the 1000m. Holding fifth from the 600m she moved off the fence rounding into the home straight and was presented with a nice split at the 400m but went wider near the 200m. Now in the clear she accelerated quickly, grabbed the lead at the 100m then staved off a late challenge to score by a long neck. Levante completely blew the start and caught the tail of the field passing the 800m. Still last rounding into the home straight she zig-zagged between runners to the 100m and charged hard after the winner late but the post arrived too soon. Lightning Jack sat sixth at the 600m, pulled wide at the 400m but took a while to wind up then rattled home for third. Star Of Bombay was a handy third turning in and kept on solidly to the line for fourth.[LJ]

Margins: 1.5 lens, 0.5 lens. Time: 1:13.01(last 600m 35.97).
 Betting: $7.50, $4.80, $11.00.

Then followed: Aim (AUS), Postcode (AUS), Ilovemyself (AUS), Osamu (AUS) & Argenteus (AUS), last.

Analysis: Prague returned to his best form after a below par sixth in the Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick on February 29 to take out this Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) lead-up in good style. He settled outside the leader (Postcode), got to a narrow lead at the 200m and then responded to Tom Marquand's riding to draw clear for a good win, his third in four starts and his second at Group level. Kumasi settled behind the leader, got through on the inner to challenge strongly at the 200m and he then held on well for second. I Am Swerving settled back in sixth place on the rails, eased into clear running nearing the 200m and then battled on well to take third, just in front of Aim who had been a handy fourth most of the way with the early leader Postcode holding on for (2.5 lengths) fifth. The favourite Ilovemyself was never a factor after a slow beginning and was well back most of the way on the soft 6 track before finishing (5.9 lengths) sixth. [KB]

Analysis: The Godolphin-raced filly Thermosphere stepped up quickly in class after winning a 2yo maiden (1300m) at Newcastle-Beaumont on February 27 when having her third start, to record a good win here. She settled just beyond midfield, improved behind runners nearing the turn, got into clear running at the 200m and then came with a strong late run to win well. Time Is Precious settled in fourth place on the rails from her good barrier (two), got along the inner at the 300m, hit the front at the 200m and then fought well for second. The David Payne-trained filly Jemss settled second last, went widest of all on straightening and then ran on really well for third. Philizzy was midfield between runners at the turn and made ground when finally clear to finish fourth while the favourite Stella Pauline was about eighth, between runners in a bunched field coming to the turn, remained in traffic in the straight until reaching the 100m before finishing an unlucky fifth. Analysis: The noted wet-tracker Star Of The Seas relished the heavy conditions in scoring a very good first-up win here. Having his first start since November, he settled well back in sixth place, tracking a quick tempo before improving at the turn where he was still conceding the leader about eight lengths. He then stormed home in the closing stages to win well. River Bird, another that really favours wet tracks settled near the tail of the field until into the straight and then made up many lengths to take second. Spending To Win was a distant third on the rails, chasing a hot pace and did well in battling on to hold the minor placing. Greyworm also worked in attempting to stay in touch with the free-running leader, back in fourth place and fought on quite well to hold that position, beaten just over a length at the post. The favourite Zoustyle was pressured in the early stages and then set a fast pace in front and still held a clear advantage halfway down to straight before tiring quickly on passing the 100m to finish seventh. It was subsequently reported he had bled. [KB]

Analysis: Tinkalicious did all the work out in front and was rewarded with her maiden stakes win and career sixth with a bold effort here. From her outside barrier (11) she was third early then sped to the front at the 1200, holding a length lead past the 1000m. The lead shrunk rounding into the home straight but Johnathan Parkes booted her a length and half clear from the 400m. Edging further in front past the 200m she kept going boldly and held them off by a length and a quarter. Little separated the next three home. Yearn had a lovely trail in third (rails) from the 1000m, tracked the winner into the straight and tried hard to the line for second. Aridity moved up three wide from the 600m, pulled widest and kept up a sild run for third while Vee Cece was a handy sixth turning in, went five wide and ran on quite well for a close up fourth.[L]

Then followed: Life Less Ordinary (IRE), Angel Of Truth (AUS), Danceteria (FR), Attention Run (GER), Djukon (GB) & Come Play With Me (AUS), last.

Analysis: Master Of Wine is now the winner of his last four races in succession and he continued his progression through the classes in taking out this Group 3 in impressive fashion at his second run this preparation. He enjoyed an ideal trip under Tommy Berry in third place on the rails, improved nicely at the turn, took the lead at the 200m and then drew away to win easily, handling the downgraded heavy 10 track well. Mustajeer settled in last place in the nine-runner field, improved nicely behind runners from the 600m, took a split rounding the bend, went to third at the 200m and kept fighting on well for second, narrowly beating Carif who battled on nicely for third. Life Less Ordinary finished fourth after being in a challenging position halfway down the straight while Angel Of Truth held on quite well for fifth after leading the field into the straight. Analysis: At start four River Night broke her maiden with a stakes win here and was too good for this small field. She was away well and took over a narrow lead at the 800m then gradually increased the lead to be a length in front at the 400m. Into the straight she was in command, clear at the 200m, her opponents were not gaining and at the post still a length in front. Masseur sat three wide in third at the 400m, took over second at the 200m but could not haul in the winner. Celestial Sol was stuck on the fence in fourth at the 400m and ran on well next to the fence to nab third.[LJ]

Analysis: Favourite and backing up from a strong win here a week ago, Sergeant Blast, rated well in front by Lisa Allpress, claimed his maiden stakes success and ninth career win, holding on best over the 2600m. He led with a lap to run as well as down the back straight and past the 800m where the field compacted. Turning for home Allpress tried to slip them yet had only a length to spare at the 100m but held on gamely by a neck. From one out and one back at the 800m Te Akau Caliburn improved to third rounding into the straight then was only runner to chase the winner, trying hard the length of the straight but came up a neck short. There was more than six lengths back to Sampson who went up to second at the 500m but could only battle in the straight. Glory Days mounted a challenge from the top of the straight but found little in the run home for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: Second here three weeks ago, after leading to short of the line, Inverloch had plenty in reserve this time, using the same tactics. He led soon after the start and led fairly comfortably down the side as well as entering the straight. At the 300m he kicked, led by a length at the 200m then drove further in front over the final 100m for an easy length and a half victory, his maiden stakes and career sixth. Secret Blaze started his run from the 600m, turned in four deep and went after the winner but ended his run at the 100m and had to settle for second. Odeon tracked the winner in fourth (rails) rounding into the straight, kept to the fence and kept going for third.[LJ]

Analysis: Twice stakes placed in his last four starts, Guizot broke through for his maiden stakes success and ninth career win by holding on after taking the lead at the 100m. He settled fifth (rails) but down the side was passed and found himself second last at the approaching the 600m. He took off soon after, went widest rounding into the straight and his momentum carried him up to third at the 200m and into the lead at the 100m and he was able to hold at the line by a short head. Scarlet Dream was a clear last at the 600m, still last at the 300m then stormed through along the inner to almost catch the winner. Hellova Street led them in and held on gamely for third from Admiral's Joker who was second at the 200m but was swamped to end up a close up fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: The Tony Gollan-trained gelding Snitch staged a good effort in taking out this Listed race, his ninth win but his first at stakes level. He settled near the tail of the field from his wide barrier, tracked up (wide with cover) from the 800m and was still conceding the leader about six lengths on straightening. He then came with a strong late bid to grab victory by the barest of margins. Grey Missile went to the front, held an advantage at the 200m, only to be caught on the post for a close second after running a bold race. In His Stride ran on well from last to take third with Chapter And Verse holding on for fourth after being handily placed. Analysis: Excess Funds joined in at the 150m then booted clear for win three at start nine in this rich event for 3YO Inglis sale graduates. After beginning well he dropped into fifth, three out near the 800m and was wider at the 400m but gaining on the leader. A length away at the 200m he drove alongside and took over at the 100m then drew away to be a length and a quarter clear at the line. Wayupinthesky was a handy third (rails) from the 600m, turned in third but was pocketed, got the split at the 100m however the winner was forging clear so she had to settle for second. Excused finished well from midfield at the top of the straight to grab third as did Exeter who flashed into fourth late.[LJ]

Analysis: Western Australian raiders Regal Power and Superstorm formed the quinella here, making a strong statement about the quality of the Bob Peters/Grant & Alana Williams stable. Backing up from a storming second last week in the Australian Cup (Gr 1 2000m), Regal

Power had this under control at the 100m to hold off his stablemate and a first class field. He began fairly in sixth early then near the 1200m improved to fourth, one out while Flit raced away in the lead. Still fourth down the side he was beautifully positioned and turning in had a great view. The tearaway came back and he drove forward to co-lead (with Alligator Blood) at the 250m but surged on to lead alone. He had them by a length at the 100m and was going too well at the line, scoring by three quarters of a length. A super run from Superstorm - he was second last at the 1000m, started his run wide from the 600m yet was fourth last entering the straight. He flew down the outer in a great run to lock up second inside the 50m. Melody Belle sat fifth (rails) down the side, was caught in a pocket rounding into the straight and didn't get a split until the 200m then fought hard to the line for third. Fierce Impact made his run from the 500m, was close enough at the 300m, fought his way up to second then held on gamely for fourth from Dalasan who finished well from well back for fifth while Alligator Blood faded to finish (4 lengths) tenth, missing a place for the first time in his 12-start career. Analysis: The Toowoomba-trained filly Kisukano recorded her third win in four starts in taking out this rich juvenile feature. She began well and settled in third place, one off the rails before moving up well nearing the home turn. She challenged strongly at the 200m, got the upper hand at the 100m and drew away on the soft 7 track for a good win. The $1.20 favourite Rothfire went to the front, travelled nicely in the lead and fought back well when challenged for second, her first defeat in five starts. The Chris Munce-trained filly Boomnova held on well, back in third place after being handy all the way in a nice effort on debut. [KB]
