Gytrash gives trainer Richards his first Group 1 in Lightning Stakes upset

Nature Strip's campaign far from over despite shock odds-on Flemington defeat

Chris Waller and James McDonald have urged punters not to give up on sprinting enigma Nature Strip (Nicconi), who was coming off a career-high spring campaign, after performing well below his best in the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) as a short-priced favourite yesterday.

The three-time Group 1-winning five-year-old was upstaged by Adelaide gelding Gytrash (Lope De Vega), who won his first race at the highest level in the $750,000 weight-for-age sprint when overhauling the evergreen Redzel (Snitzel) to score by a length in a one-two finish for the rails-side runners.

Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible) ran down Nature Strip on the grandstand side to finish a head away in third. Nature Strip, the $1.50 favourite, finished fourth in the field of seven.

Dubai beckons as Countofmontecristo storms home in Chairman's Trophy

Short-priced favourite Countofmontecristo (Echoes Of Heaven) took out the $400,000 Chairman's Trophy (Gr 2, 1600m) as expected yesterday, but what was probably less expected was the come-from-behind manner of the win in the nine-horse field.

The Michael Clements-trained smart galloper's previous eight wins - between 1200 metres and 1400 metres - were mostly recorded after settling in the first few, but it is also true that as a younger horse, his natural speed was then being fully tapped on. Continued on page 11 >>

Nature Strip also ran fourth first-up last spring in the Concorde Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Randwick but bounced back to take out the AJ Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Moonee Valley three weeks' later.

"He was on the ball, flew out and wanted to get going, albeit he wasn't miles in front, he was just coasting and doing it strongly," jockey McDonald said.

"He just got tired the last furlong (200 metres). He was leading all the way up to then.

"It's what happened last prep as well, he failed first up and then got better with a bit of racing under his belt."

Waller said: "He was a bit fresh and will improve with the run, he just jumped and charged for the first two furlongs (400 metres)."

It is perhaps unfair that the focus for most was on the beaten brigade when the consistent Gytrash - whose Flemington record now sits at three from three - provided his Morphettville trainer Gordon Richards with his first Group 1 victory.

"I am 68 and I've won my first group 1," said Richards, who has the chance to double his Group 1 tally with Bold Star (Needs Further) in Saturday's Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m).

"If ever I was going to win one, this horse was going to do it. He's just a machine. All these lunatic owners were standing here waiting for the instructions and I just said to Mark (Zahra), you'll work it out.

"Two of them go hard and you'll be coming over the top of them as long as we can keep up.

"Jason Holder rides him fast work over there and he said this horse frightens him he goes that fast, but you can't tell everybody that before the race because if he goes like a busted arse, you look like an idiot."

Redzel's co-trainer Peter Snowden and jockey Kerrin McEvoy considered lodging a protest after he and Gytrash raced tightly in the closing stages, but the pair elected not to proceed to the stewards' room.

"He just got crowded over that last furlong but it was a great run," McEvoy said.

"He's shown that he's come back in great order. He fought really hard."

Gytrash (4 g Lope De Vega - Miss Barley by Fastnet Rock) was purchased for $40,000 at the 2017 Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale by Richards from the Maluka Thoroughbreds draft. From 15 starts, he has won seven and placed a further seven times for prize-money earnings of $886,750.

The sprinter had first been offered at the 2016 Inglis Great Southern Weanling Sale where he made $70,000 to the bid of New Zealander John Corcoran.

Gytrash was bred by Packing Investments Australia and Haltrow and Glastonbury Farms, who consigned him as a weanling at Oaklands Junction.

"He was always a lovely type as a weanling, a big, strong chestnut just as he is now, and for a Lope De Vega to make $70,000 as a weanling back then, he really did stand out in that sale," Glastonbury Farms' Duncan Grimley said.

"He might have surprised the punters a bit today but he didn't surprise us. He's always been a quality sprinter and it's great to see him win a Group 1.

"That's what you breed them for, to make nice money and to see them go on and win at the top level, so it's a fantastic result for everyone."

Luke Anderson of Maluka Thoroughbreds said: "We're really proud to see Gytrash do what he did today. He was always a lovely type and this is what it's all about for us, presenting quality yearlings to sell that we believe can go on to Group 1 success."

Gytrash is one of five named foals and two winners for the unraced mare Miss Barley, who is a half-sister to the Listed winner Strawberry Storm (Thunder Gulch).

Strawberry Storm is also the dam of the stakes-placed Movie (Red Ransom), who in turn is the dam of Listed winner Goodfella (Snitzel).

Miss Barley was sold for just $4,000 to Perth trainer Justine Erkelens at the 2017 Magic Millions Perth Winter Mixed Sale and she has Gytrash's unraced three-year-old half-sister Outlaw Miss (Rubick) and two-year-old filly Pouakai (Demerit) in work.

She was covered last November by Universal Ruler (Scenic) after missing the previous year.

Gytrash is the tenth Group 1 winner for former shuttler Lope De Vega (Shamardal), who stands at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland for a fee of €100,000.

Alligator Blood prevails in a C S Hayes for the ages

Queensland's rags-to-riches gelding Alligator Blood (All Too Hard), the unwanted yearling, and New Zealand's shining light Catalyst (Darci Brahma) evoked memories of Australia's great match races with a thrilling duel in the C S Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) earlier on the Flemington card.

Yesterday's three-year-old race - narrowly won by Alligator Blood after a stirring performance to hold off a sustained challenge from Catalyst, previously unbeaten this season in his home country - can justifiably stand alongside the 1986 Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m), the 1999 Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and the 2002 Yalumba Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) among others.

Lonhro (Octagonal) duelling with Sunline (Desert Sun), both at Caulfield, are synonymous with those great races and now Alligator Blood and Catalyst's C S Hayes Stakes at Flemington can be talked about long after they are retired.

The $160,000 contest was not the feature on the Flemington card when the program was released, but it was being billed as a potential classic between two emerging stars in the lead-up, and they did not disappoint.

Ryan Maloney, an adopted Queenslander who made the Sunshine State home in 2018, immediately took Alligator Blood to the front, while James McDonald pushed forward on Catalyst to sit on his outside to ensure the favourite did not gain a significant break on his rival.

The duo paired off before the 400 metres, going head and head for the entirety of the famous Flemington home straight before it was Alligator Blood who nosed out New Zealand's rising star by a short-head.

Lightly raced three-year-old Chenier (Medaglia d'Oro), who missed the spring through injury, made an encouraging return to finish a length away in third.

Maloney said Alligator Blood "wanted it more" in the final strides and the stature of the race was not lost on Alligator Blood's trainer David Vandyke as the horses returned to scale.

"Well that's what racing is all about," Vandyke said.

"I looked up at the sectionals there and they were rolling before the corner.

"I thought 'gee whiz he's going to have to be good'.

"What about that? That will go down in history, that race will. The little Queenslander gets up off the canvas and comes back and does it.

"That was amazing. It was Australia and New Zealand. Fantastic. Now we're looking forward to the Australian Guineas.

"They are a couple of stars, those two."

He continued: "They were going stride for stride and when he just got the edge that last 50 metres and showed his class I thought 'wow, that's his best performance'."

The two protagonists are set to return to Flemington in 13 days' time for the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and Catalyst's trainer Clayton Chipperfield is confident his horse will be better suited over a mile.

"I could not be disappointed with that," Chipperfield said.

"We used this race to see if we've got the quality against these colts and geldings over here and he answered that question with ease, to be fair."

With rain falling throughout the meeting, the track was downgraded to a soft 5 by the time the C S Hayes Stakes was run, prompting the Hawkes' to scratch lightly-raced colt Spend (Snitzel), who ran fourth first-up in the Manfred Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m). It reduced the field to just six runners.

Alligator Blood (3 g All Too Hard - Lake Superior by Encosta De Lago) has won nine of his ten starts, his only defeat coming when runner-up to Super Seth (Dundeel) in the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), and has earned $2,205,084 in prize-money.

He was bought by the Ezybonds No.1 Syndicate for $55,000 from the Baramul Stud draft at the 2018 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale after initially being passed in.

Alligator Blood is one of two winners for the unraced Lake Superior, who in turn is a half-sister to Listed winner Cantonese (Redoute's Choice) and the stakes-placed Chateau Margaux (Redoute's Choice) and Monteaux (Medaglia d'Oro).

His third dam is Tracy's Element (Last Tycoon), a Grade 1 winner in South Africa who is also the dam of Australian Horse of the Year Typhoon Tracy (Red Ransom).

Lake Superior died in 2017 without producing another foal after Alligator Blood was born.

Light Fingers and blinkers the perfect fit for Flit

A key gear change demonstrated the intent the Godolphin hierarchy had for MRC Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Flit (Medaglia d'Oro) and the addition of blinkers proved decisive in the filly's first-up Light Fingers Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) victory at Randwick yesterday.

The James Cummings-trained three-year-old led home a Godolphin-owned trifecta in the $200,000 race, with the filly defeating the Anthony Freedman-trained Lyre (Lonhro) ($5.50) by one and three-quarter lengths, with the winner's stablemate Kiamichi (Sidestep) another half a length away in third.

The well-backed favourite Libertini (I Am Invincible) ($1.80) could not make up ground and finished fourth under jockey Tommy Berry, three lengths behind the winner.

Flit

SPORTPIX

Cummings said Flit, who was spelled after running fourth in the Wakeful Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) on November 2, was unlikely to run over an extended distance any time soon.

"We left them off (blinkers) and she won the Group 1 (Thousand Guineas) but then she was a little keen in the 2000 metre (fourth, Wakeful Stakes), so she is probably a little speedy for distances like that," Cummings said.

"But the way she returned and trialled against the older horses, she was getting to the line well but she couldn't afford to lose her focus for 50 metres when the pressure went on.

"With the blinkers on she was able to apply herself and show the promise we have been getting from her over the last 12 months.

"I dare say she is the filly to beat in two weeks (Surround Stakes)."

Flit ($11) was the second leg of a winning treble for Hugh Bowman.

"I think the blinkers have really helped, especially over these distances. It really switched her on," Bowman said.

"Even in the Thousand Guineas, when she went from travelling to through her gears, she just didn't do that well without the headgear.

"I didn't think she was all that comfortable on the soft ground in the trial so to just switch on and perform like that on that ground, it is so encouraging and her work through the line was just as good."

Cummings was also delighted with the third placing of Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Kiamichi but his father Anthony, the trainer of Libertini, was left scratching his head after his filly's underwhelming performance.

"It is the first time she has disappointed and we just have to get her home and have a good look at her," Anthony Cummings said.

A Godolphin homebred, Flit (3 f Medaglia d'Oro - Glissade by Redoute's Choice) has won three races, all of them at Group level, to earn $1,028,040 in prize-money so far with the promise of more to come.

Flit is one of three winners for the Blue Diamond Prelude (F) (Gr 3, 1100m)-placed Glissade, making the Light Fingers winner a half-sister to the stakes-placed stablemate Flow (Street Cry).

Her second dam is the Group 3 winner Steflara (Zabeel) who along with Glissade is also the dam of the stakes-placed Pleiades (Redoute's Choice).

Glissade has a yearling filly by Street Boss (Street Cry), who has been named Sliders, while she has a yearling filly by Frosted (Tapit) at foot. She was covered by Astern (Medaglia d'Oro) last October.

Alizee bounces back in Apollo Stakes

Godolphin's stakes success at Randwick continued later in the day when James Cummings' decision to run high-class mare Alizee (Sepoy) in the Apollo Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) paid off despite the trainer having reservations about the wet track.

Alizee was no match for three-year-old Standout (Exceed And Excel) first-up in the Expressway Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) when favourite a fortnight earlier, but Cummings and Hugh Bowman were satisfied with the five-year-old's effort.

Yesterday, Bowman was able to settle Alizee closer to the speed and that proved the difference, with the mare winning by a short-neck over the well-backed Dreamforce (Fastnet Rock).

Veteran Happy Clapper (Teofilo) was another one and a quarter lengths away in third.

"She is a lot more settled now and she showed that first up so I wasn't afraid to let her be where she was comfortable," Bowman said.

"She gave me the confidence to ride her where she was happy and from barrier one that put her in the gun spot.

"I think the two best horses at that trip fought it out."

Cummings sought feedback about the Randwick surface, which raced as a soft 7, before committing to yesterday's race for Alizee.

"We were really 50-50 on whether we wanted to run on a soft seven. We deliberated over it very carefully," Cummings said.

"I pestered (track manager) Nevesh Ramdhani all week, I even rang the jockey who did the raceday gallop this morning, Sam Clipperton, and he gave me a blow-by-blow account.

"She has come back and delivered against some very strong weight-for-age horses."

The Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and Canterbury Stakes (Gr 1, 1300m) loom as potential options for Alizee.

One horse certain to head to the Chipping Norton is the Pat Webster-trained Happy Clapper, with Tommy Berry giving the nine-year-old gelding the tick of approval after his first-up effort.

"I was rapt. It was a bit of a sit and sprint and that suited the horses with a turn of foot," Berry said.

Alizee (5 m Sepoy - Essaouira by Exceed And Excel) has recorded ten wins and six placings from 26 starts, with prize-money of $3,140,550.

One of two stakes winners and four stakes-performed horses out of juvenile winner Essaouira, Alizee is a half-sister to Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner and young Darley stallion Astern (Medaglia d'Oro) and a granddaughter of the Group 2 winner Alizes (Rory's Jester).

Essaouira has an unraced two-year-old named Tangier (Medaglia d'Oro), a yearling by Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado) and a filly at foot by Sepoy (Elusive Quality). She was covered by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) last November.

Ten for Lope De Vega

Lope De Vega

BALLYLINCH STUD

Former shuttle stallion Lope De Vega (Shamardal) landed his tenth individual Group 1 winner yesterday when Gytrash (4 g ex Miss Barley by Fastnet Rock) took out the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Flemington. Gytrash joins a star-studded list of Group 1 winners for his sire including Santa Ana Lane, Vega Magic and Phoenix of Spain. Dual Group 1 winner Lope De Vega stands at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland for a fee of €100,000 (inc. GST).

51 for I Am Invincible

Yarraman Park's champion stallion I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) landed his 51st individual stakes winner yesterday when the Anthony Freedman-trained Supreme Idea (2 f ex Sweet Sister by Snitzel) produced an all-the-way win in the Lonhro Plate (Listed, 1000m) at Randwick. Ridden by Tim Clark, the two-year-old filly defeated Mission River (Redoute's Choice) by a length and a quarter with Dame Giselle (I Am Invincible) the same margin back in third. Standing for a fee of $247,500 (inc GST), I Am Invincible is currently the leading sire by winners and earnings in Australia. He was the leading sire by aggregate at the Magic Millions Goast Coast Yearling Sale in January, with 42 lots sold for a total of $20,245,000, and has seven lots on offer at the upcoming Inglis Premier Yearling Sale.

Slipper path for Supreme Idea

While Anthony Freedman has the undoubted favourite for next week's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) in Hanseatic (Street Boss), stable representative Brad Taylor said Supreme Idea is likely to head towards the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). "It was a pretty good effort today," Taylor said. "She will continue to go through the traditional Slipper path. I wouldn't think Anthony would do it, but you always have to consider it, is taking her home for the Blue Diamond next week but we've got a pretty warm favourite there. We might just keep them apart and keep her up here and hopefully get a few more wet tracks along the way and she'll be a chance in the Slipper."

Soft against Dame Giselle

Peter and Paul Snowden's Dame Giselle headed into the Lonhro Plate as the warm favourite but jockey Tommy Berry said she didn't appreciate the rain affected track. "She ran well," Berry told Racing NSW. "The soft surface sapped her brilliance late. I thought I'd be winning on the turn but when I let her off the bridle she felt like she struggled in the conditions." Winner of the Golden Gift (1100m) in the Spring, Dame Giselle has already sealed her spot in the Golden Slipper field and Berry believes she will be better out to 1200 metres.

Three for Demerit

Late stallion Demerit (Lonhro) sired his third individual stakes winner yesterday when the Kris Lees-trained Special Reward (4 g ex Special Kiseki by Special Bond) took out the Southern Cross Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick. Formerly trained in Western Australia, the gelding defeated Cascadian (New Approach) by a long neck with Jungle Edge (Dubawi) a further length away in third. "I gave him plenty of time after his first-up run and he got into the race well on the limit (53 kilograms)," Lees said. "He will go to the Newcastle Newmarket next (March 6)." Jockey Brenton Avdulla added: "He is a better grade than that but he just needs to put it all together." Demerit was euthanised in July last year after fracturing his tibia in a paddock accident at Rangeview Stud.

32 for Written Tycoon

On the day that celebrates the champion mare Black Caviar (Bel Esprit), it was fitting that her Team Hawkes-trained nephew Ole Kirk (2 c ex Naturale by Bel Esprit) took out the Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) on debut and in turn, landed his sire Written Tycoon (Iglesia) with his 32nd individual stakes win. Ridden by Dwayne Dunn, the two-year-old defeated Nitrous (Deep Field) by a neck with Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) winner Mildred (Hinchinbrook) the same margin back in third. Ole Kirk is out of Naturale (Bel Esprit), an unraced sister to Black Caviar and was purchased by International Thoroughbred Solutions for $675,000 at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale from the Gilgai Farm draft. Written Tycoon stood at Victoria's Woodside Park Stud for a fee of $110,000 (inc. GST) in 2019.

Blue Diamond unlikely for Talindert winner

Co-trainer Wayne Hawkes has indicated the Ole Kirk is unlikely to back-up in the Blue Diamond Stakes on Saturday, despite holding a nomination. "Next Saturday is probably a bit too soon and to be fair we just wanted to see how he ran and take stock from there," Hawkes said. "There's a stack more races than next week, but we'll take that one today." Hawkes Racing's Melbourne jockey Dunn rode Ole Kirk in the majority of his education work and got extra satisfaction out of the win. "I think being in amongst that field, it gave him something to think about, and he turned it on, the sign of a good horse," Dunn said. "I think him winning a Listed race today and being related the way he is, they'll sit back and think about where they run him now. It is a fitting result that he has won a race on Black Caviar raceday."

Vanity to Bonvicini

After the feats of Jameka (Myboycharlie), Ciaran Maher and David Eustace may have unearthed another Myboycharlie (Danetime) Oaks contender in Bonvicini (3 f ex Orvieto by Testa Rossa), who took out The Vanity (Gr 3, 1400m) first-up since the spring yesterday at Flemington. "We might have to go on a European holiday and find where Myboycharlie is and bring him back out here," Maher told Racing.com. "I'm quite fond of training them." Maher credited owner and breeder Greg Perry following the race after issuing the riding instructions for the filly. "He said make sure you ride her back and cold and let her finish on," the co-trainer said. "And I think that was the key. She enjoyed that and flowed into the race under a great ride by Kerrin (McEvoy)." Pretty Brazen (Brazen Beau) finished a length away in second with Meuse (Snitzel) a further three-quarters of a length away third. Bonvicini's stablemate Fascino (Charm Spirit) was fourth.

Snowden in no rush with Mount Tabora

After a victory in the The Glorious Goodwood Handicap (1600m) at Flemington yesterday, Peter Snowden, who trains in partnership with his son Paul, said US import Mount Tabora (Scat Daddy) will relish Sydney's wet tracks but is in no rush to step the four-year-old up in grade. "I think he'll improve out of sight next time and I really think he could be a good wet track horse," Snowden said. "Maybe we could give him a bit of a break now and bring him back for the winter and there might be some good races for him. The good races in Sydney, he's probably a preparation away from them, so we'll let him work through his grades a bit more and in another preparation he might be there comfortably." Mount Tabora defeated Exasperate (Tough Speed) by a length with Sunday Pray (Manhattan Rain) a short half-head away third.

Sweet Triscay for Thompson

Sweet Deal

SPORTPIX

The Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) via the Guy Walter Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) is the goal for Sweet Deal (5 m Casino Prince - Dorothy Evelyn by Royal Academy) this autumn with trainer John Thompson adamant the mare has gone to a new level after her victory in the Triscay Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick yesterday. "She's a mare that has just got better with age and has just grown in confidence and Nash (Rawiller) is riding her with confidence," Thompson said. "She is probably better on top of the ground too. Mares, if they're going well, they're going well. She is in the zone." Sweet Deal defeated Spiritual Pursuit (Snitzel) by two and a quarter lengths with Pohutukawa (Medaglia d'Oro) a further length away in third.

Stakes aims for God Of Thunder

The decision to geld God Of Thunder (More Than Ready) could reap dividends this autumn as Hawkes Racing prepare to raise the bar for the talented sprinter after his last-stride victory Radisson Blu Hotel Sydney Handicap (1000m) at Randwick yesterday. A week after missing his scheduled resumption at Warwick Farm when that meeting was washed out, Co-trainer Michael Hawkes said the delayed start had forced them to rejig his campaign. "He was supposed to run last week then second up in an Oakleigh Plate," co-trainer Michael Hawkes said. "Now we may head towards the Challenge and maybe the Galaxy." One thing Hawkes is certain of is that the decision to geld God Of Thunder has been crucial. "It's a hard thing and people don't like doing it. You've got to do it when you know the time is right, otherwise you lose horses," Hawkes said. "Gelding has definitely turned this horse around and it was a pretty tough win today."

Baker considering Ideel options

Bjorn Baker will let the dust settle before deciding his next move with She's Ideel (Dundeel) after the promising stayer extended her winning streak to three with a narrow win in the Catanach's Handicap (2400m) at Randwick. "I know it wasn't a big margin today but she was always going to be a touch vulnerable at the 2400 metres," Baker said. "I think she was good through the line, she is exciting. It's like me, I'm still improving as a trainer and she is still improving as a racehorse." Ridden by Jason Collett, She's Ideal fought off the Chris Waller-trained Dark Pearl (Born To Sea) to score by a head with Birth Of Venus (High Chaparral) over five lengths away in third.

Two for Press Statement

Incredulous Dream (2f ex Incredulously by Keep The Faith) charged late to score at Bendigo yesterday to continue the stunning juvenile season for trainers Ciaran Maher and David Eustace and also provide first season sire Press Statement (Hinchinbrook) with his second first crop winner. A $340,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale purchase by Spicer Thoroughbreds from the Aquis Farm draft, Incredulous Dream was having her first start having finished unplaced in a Cranbourne barrier trial earlier this month but showed she was likely to get further than the 1100 metres she ran over yesterday in the My Hair 2YO Fillies Maiden Plate. She overhauled Hindaam (Savabeel). Vinery Stud's Press Statement, who is also the sire of Sydney winner Spokesman, covered 161 mares in 2019 at a fee of $16,500 (inc GST).

Six for Clangalang

Master Chum's (5 g ex Flying Foxtrot by Fusaichi Pegasus) narrow victory in the Birthday Cup (Listed, 2043m) at Morphettville yesterday landed his sire Clangalang (clang) with his sixth individual stakes win. The five-year-old gelding defeated Hasta La War (Declaration Of War) by a nose with Jackthegiantslayer (Excites) a further three-quarters of a length back in third.

Rothfire returns in brilliant fashion

Brisbane two-year-old Rothfire (Rothsay) could make a belated appearance at the Sydney autumn carnival after his impressive return to racing at Eagle Farm yesterday, winning the $125,000 QTIS Two-Year-Old (1000m). Robert Heathcote said Rothfire would now head to The Jewel Prelude (1110m) at Doomben on February 29 before the $500,000 QTIS Jewel Two-Year-Old (1200m) at the Gold Coast on March 14. "I have put a line through a crack at the Golden Slipper. The Jewel is set weights and worth a lot of money so why take on the best sprinters in the south," Heathcote said. "But I have put in an entry for the ATC Sires' over 1400 metres. Rothfire is by Rothsay so I have no doubts he will get the 1400 metres in the Sires' and probably 1600 metres. We will see how he goes after The Jewel before any Sydney plans and we do have the Brisbane winter."

Exondabeach chasing Jewel riches

Also set to feature at The Jewel raceday is the Tony and Maddy Sears-trained three-year-old Exondabeach (Tycoon Ruler) who produced an impressive performance to narrowly take out the QTIS Three-Year-Old (1000m) at Eagle Farm. "I reckon she can win The Jewel even though it will only be her third start," Tony Sears said. "I am telling you she would have won by further if she had been able to get to the outside in the straight and she would have won more easily." Sears said the filly would not need to run again before the The Jewel at the Gold Coast on March 14. "She is only going to get better in the coming weeks. She has improved plenty since her only other start (a win at the Sunshine Coast)," he said.

Weight suits Raqeeq

Chris Waller's Sydney visitor Raqeeq (Champs Elysees) confirmed his rating as the best-weighted horse at Eagle Farm with a strong win in the Events @ BRC Handicap (2200m), carrying five and half kilograms less than his last start which proved to be key. Stable foreman Brett Killion said the six-year-old wasn't up to top-class but was suited in Brisbane races. "He was very well placed at the weights and he did get the run of the race," he said. "Chris likes to assess the races before deciding whether horses like Raqeeq stay here or head back to Sydney."

Nothdurft outrides claim

Cellsabeel works 'sharply' in exhibition gallop

Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) favourite Cellsabeel (Hinchinbrook) galloped at Randwick yesterday in preparation for the Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) on Saturday. Working under Tommy Berry, Cellsabeel was partnered by her Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained stable companion Etana (Shamus Award) and Berry told Racing NSW afterwards: "(Cellsabeel) was working with a partner that was very sharp and in good form. I'm riding her next week too so I'm pretty confident about her chances. I'm really happy with the filly, she's come along well, she'll benefit from the run which is a good thing because it's obviously not her grand final."

Zahra and McDonald suspended

Mark Zahra is set to miss the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) meeting after being suspended for careless riding aboard Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) winner Gytrash (Lope De Vega). Stewards charged Zahra with shifting in near the 150 metres, hampering the runner-up Redzel (Snitzel) and causing the dual Everest (1200m) winner to be tightened for room. Zahra pleaded guilty, but argued he did not think there was any interference until the final couple of strides. Stewards issued Zahra an eight-meeting ban with the jockey choosing to start the penalty after next Saturday's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) meeting. Meanwhile, James McDonald was fined $1700 and suspended for six meetings for breaches of the whip rules aboard Catalyst (Darci Brahma) in the C S Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m). McDonald will not miss a Saturday meeting, with his ban starting after next Saturday and he can return the following Friday night.

Four horses scratched after Toowoomba raid

Stewards scratched four horses trained by Toowoomba's Robert Smith from races at two tracks after he was allegedly found with needles and syringes. Tocokoe (Epaulette) and Madam Mahal (Starcraft) were scratched from the Gold Coast and Purple Gem (Instinctions) and Boomtown Babe (Spirit Of Boom) were scratched from Nanango. An Integrity Investigations Team inspected Smith's stables where they allegedly found him in possession of needles and syringes. In a media statement, Queensland Racing Integrity Commission boss Ross Barnett said a QRIC veterinarian attended to take swabs from all four horses and also the needles and syringes that were seized. The samples would be sent for analysis. Barnett said Smith has denied any breaches of the rules of racing but the stewards acted swiftly to ensure the integrity of today's races while investigations continued.

Flemington pays tribute to Black Caviar

Black Caviar (Bel Esprit) dragged the Flemington crowd from the grandstands at her first racetrack appearance since her retirement yesterday, after an unbeaten 25-start career. Now age 13 and the mother of six foals, the mare was on parade at the Black Caviar The Great Horse themed raceday at Flemington. Before the running of the Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) named in her honour, Black Caviar was paraded in the mounting where her owner and their families along with trainer Peter Moody, jockey Luke Nolen, strapper Donna Fisher and track rider Patrick Bell all gathered to have another look at the mare. The mounting yard was lined with fans of the mare with children displaying Black Caviar placards while Victoria Racing Clubs members took vantage points in the stands.

NEW ZEALAND

Dragon Leap dominant in Guineas

Dragon Leap (3 g Pierro - Pontiana by Redoute's Choice) took his record to three wins from four starts when supplementing his Auckland Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) success with victory in the Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m) yesterday. Racing in the Hermitage Thoroughbreds colours of last season's star three-year-old The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice), the Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained Dragon Leap finished a length and a half too strong for Scorpz (Charm Spirit), while Sherwood Forest (Fastnet Rock) was a further neck back in third. Having won on debut at Te Rapa in October, Dragon Leap tasted his only defeat when a neck second to leading New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) contender Two Illicit (Jimmy Choux) in the Trevor Eagle Memorial Stakes (Listed, 1500m) in November.

Derby next for Dragon Leap

Dragon Leap is set to reoppose Two Illicit with the New Zealand Derby his next port of call. "It was a great ride from Opie (Bosson) and quite a soft win so it's a great result," co-trainer Lance O'Sullivan said. "There was a little bit of a question mark but Andrew and I looked at him before the race and he really lined up looking fit and healthy. It was just good to see him put it all together. One of his main attributes is his temperament and the way he behaves, as big occasions just aren't going to worry him." Looking ahead to the 2400-metre trip of the Derby, for which Dragon Leap is the $2.20 favourite, O'Sullivan added: "Genetics suggest he will get it but you never know until you try however, I'm pretty confident that he will."

Three in a row for Lightning Jack

Lightning Jack (3 g Per Incanto - La Petite by Savabeel) brought up a hat-trick of wins when he took out the Southland Guineas (Listed, 1600m) at Invercargill yesterday. Poniard (Reliable Man) ran second, beaten a neck, while Asathought (So You Think) finished a further length and a quarter away in third. Trained by Kelvin and Aimee Tyler, Lightning Jack won the Gore Guineas (Listed, 1335m) on January 18 and he has now won three of his eight starts. "I've said all along he is a good horse and without being over-confident we had expected him to do that again today," Kelvin Tyler said. "He just keeps improving and he liked the step up in distance so hopefully there is plenty more in store for him yet."

Six first-season sires at Perth Magic Millions Sale

WWW.TBWA.NET.AU

The Swan Valley has been full-on with inspections for the Perth Magic Millions Yearling Sale that commences on Monday at 1pm (WST).

"We got here on Wednesday and it's been an encouraging mix of WA and interstate buyers on the sale-grounds," TBWA President Brent Atwell said. "They were still arriving on Friday even though the temperature topped 40 degrees.

"Apart from our local owners and trainers, we've had Guy Mulcaster, Andy Williams and Upper Bloodstock's Ross Lao doing the early rounds."

Atwell has catalogued the first yearlings by Lucky Street as a part of the consignment from Western Breeders' Alliance. The G2 Karrakatta Plate winning son of Oratorio stands at the Atwell family's Darling View Thoroughbreds in Mundijong.

He's one of six stallions with their first yearlings alongside Awesome Rock (Gold Front), Mahuta (Lynward Park), Rommel (Mogumber Park), Vert De Grece (Geisel Park) and King's Troop (Oakland Park).

"The Lucky Streets have been well received and the feedback has been positive," Atwell commented. "The filly from Foo Foo The Snoo (Lot 21) will hopefully give us a good start. The half-sister to Cryptic Wonder (Lot 144) has also been popular."

Awesome Rock (Fastnet Rock) completes a full circle for Gold Front Thoroughbreds owners Alan and Sue Olive at the 2020 Perth Magic Millions. The Breera-based couple bred and sold him for $575,000 at the 2013 Gold Coast Magic Millions but retained a share in a syndicate with Team Corstens.

He won the Group 1 Mackinnon Stakes on Victoria Derby Day at Flemington and the Olives brought him home to stand in Western Australia. "We always wanted to get him back here," Alan Olive said. "He will be good for WA and there's 17 of them at the Magic Millions."

Special Reward provided a last-minute update to his half-brother by King's Troop at Randwick on Saturday. The former Perth sprinter won the G3 Southern Cross Stakes and trainer Kris Lees will now set him for the G3 Newcastle Newmarket on March 6.

The King's Troop – Special Kiseki filly (Lot 109) is also a half-sister to Showy Chloe (G3 WATC Sires' Produce St) and El Rijes (LR Perth St). She is being offered by Taunton Vale who sold Special Reward for $145,000 at the 2017 Perth Magic Millions.

King's Troop (Redoute's Choice) is a three-quarter brother to Snitzel and was a class sprinter in his own right. He routed a Warwick Farm field by three lengths and then ran out of his skin in the G3 San Domenico Stakes. He shook off G1 Golden Slipper winner Vancouver back at Rosehill only to be collared for a second time by Japonisme. They were two serious colts but ongoing injuries prevented King's Troop from locking horns the following season.

Mahuta (Commands) was also the victim of a career-ending setback after a meteoric rise through the grades in Melbourne. He reeled off five stakes wins that peaked at Caulfield in the G2 Autumn Stakes (1400m).

Resuming as spring 4yo, he was Group 1 placed in the Memsie Stakes behind Black Heart Bart before a pelvic injury limited his career to 16 starts. "Mahuta was talented and tough and his yearlings have that same size and stamina," Lynward Park's Troy van Heemst said. "And his race record speaks for itself."

Taunton Vale's Nina Johnston with Lot 109

The first Mahuta to parade is the filly from High Aims (Lot 41). The dam was a Sandown Lakeside specialist for trainer David Brideoake before being sold as a broodmare prospect to WA.

Mogumber Park sire Rommel is another Group winning son of Commands and he has 17 yearlings entered for the Perth Magic Millions. Mogumber Park has 10 of them starting with the colt from Girl In A Storm (Lot 26) who will be one of the highlights from his home base at Bullsbrook.

Vert De Grece (Ire) has yearlings from a half-dozen vendors at the Perth Magic Millions and among the highlights will be the three-quarter brother to Singapore star Captain Obvious (Lot 172) from Alwyn Park.

Vert De Grece (Verglas) was sold for seven-figures to Hong Kong after finishing second to champion 2yo colt Gleneagles in the G2 Futurity Stakes at the Curragh. He repaid that with a dominant four-length victory in the G1 Criterion 2yo International at Saint-Cloud.

Dubai beckons as Countofmontecristo storms home in Chairman's Trophy

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

The short-priced race favourite Countofmontecristo (Echoes Of Heaven) took out the $400,000 Chairman's Trophy (Gr 2, 1600m) as expected yesterday, but what was probably less expected was the come-from-behind manner of the win in the nine-horse field.

The Michael Clements-trained smart galloper's previous eight wins – between 1200 metres and 1400 metres – were mostly recorded after settling in the first few, but it is also true that as a younger horse, his natural speed was then being fully tapped on.

With age and maturity, a shift to a drop-back pattern became more noticeable. At the six-year-old's last win in the Merlion Trophy (Gr 2, 1200m) – which incidentally broke a drought of 14 losses since landing the Jumbo Jet Trophy (Gr 3, 1200m) in September 2017 – he came from midfield.

Of late as he was geared towards staying races, there was an even more pronounced proclivity for waiting tactics, his eye-catching third in the Singapore Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) definitely earning him a swooper badge.

But given the relatively small field of this yesterday's contest, and the fact he had drawn an alley, most pre-race speedmap calculations had him in and around the leaders.

At the half-mile mark, those who took on his $9 odds, were running out of fingernails to chew on.

He was ahead of only Mr Clint (Power) and What's New (Casino Prince), cooped up on the rails, and caught in a backwash of regressing horses.

The question whether first-time partner Louis-Philippe Beuzelin had erred in his tactics or had overestimated his mount's ability must have flashed in a few persons' heads.

It turned out that the French jockey had simply allowed himself to blend into a race that was surprisingly packed with pace in the first two furlongs, and then just trusted his horse to do the rest.

Countofmontecristo

When the start was effected, they just flopped out of the gates, quickly finding themselves drifting at the rear as Loyalty Man (Fastnet Rock) clapped along upfront with Sun Marshal (Sepoy) in close attendance.

Beuzelin later admitted he did fret a little when the Kranji grandstand came into their line of sight, with Countofmontecristo, who was raring to go, still cluttered up on the rails when he should be set alight.

However, they were racing on the Long Course, and as they peeled off heels, slightly nudging Gold Strike (Iffraaj) out of the way in the process, daylight finally broke through – a wide enough gap between Gold Strike and King Louis (Medaglia d'Oro). Sun Marshal and veteran campaigner War Affair (O'Reilly) had the first whiff of the top prize as they locked horns, but the complexion of the race was just about to be turned on its head.

Once rather tradesmanlike in the way he finished off, Countofmontecristo was a lot more expeditious in dispatching his rivals. Like an unstoppable purple flash, he flew in to go and relegate Sun Marshal into second place by one length with Gold Strike staying on nicely for third another three-quarter length away. The winning time was 1min 34.57secs for the 1600 metres on the Long Course.

I actually had to create the opening. Once he saw daylight, he showed he was a cut above the rest and went all the way

PHILIPPE BEUZELIN, JOCKEY

While Joe Singh's champion was posting a fifth Group win (three Group 2's and two Group 3's) from nine wins, the Chairman's Trophy was Beuzelin's first silverware in Singapore. It came at his first association with a horse who has built a reputation of becoming a revolving door for jockeys – he was the 15th partner.

"I had done my homework and saw all his races. My main goal was to get him as relaxed as possible in the running," said Beuzelin, who came to Kranji in August, with a globetrotting resume boasting around 300 winners.

"I was only scared there wouldn't be any speed and that's why we thought we'd race handier at first. But they went really quick and I decided to drop back.

"However, I was a bit concerned there was no gap coming up at the 600 metres, and I was around horses who were stopping.

"I actually had to create the opening. Once he saw daylight, he showed he was a cut above the rest and went all the way.

"I knew he had the engine to do it, it was just a matter of getting the right run. Horses like him make our job easier."

A first accolade at the highest level at his new stomping ground was exactly what the Barbadian-raised and British-trained jockey needed to exorcise the frustrating times on the sidelines through careless riding suspensions (13 meetings out in the last three months).

"I've won a Group 1 in India, the Cesarewitch Handicap in UK (2010 aboard Aaim To Prosper), but this is my first Group win in Singapore. It's an unbelievable feeling," said Beuzelin.

"I can't afford to be suspended anymore. I still have the ride on Bold Thruster in the Group 3 Silver Bowl (1400m) in two weeks' time (February 29)."

The flashy black four-year-old is also prepared by Clements, who compared to Beuzelin, is a lot more accustomed to such limelight at Kranji, but the Zimbabwean-born handler was himself quite blown away by that 16th Group winner.

"The plan was to get back in midfield as we thought there wouldn't be a lot of pace on paper," said Clements.

"But there was a fast pace, and even though he got back further than we expected, it still worked out good.

SINGAPORE TURF CLUB

"He's a true genuine horse who always puts his best foot forward, but I think with maturity, he gets the mile whereas previously, it was a bit of a task.

"He settles better now, gets back and sprints home. I told Louis if he got further back today, don't panic as he has been running on in his races.

"He rode him very well. Let's hope he gets to stay on Countofmontecristo after that!"

Beuzelin has certainly done his chances of staying on no harm after such a ride, even if it was not for the faint-hearted, but though it's a long shot, he might even have to pack his bags for the next gig. With Countofmontecristo nominated for the US$6 million Dubai Turf (Gr 1, 1800m) and US$1.5 million Godolphin Mile (Gr 2, 1600m) on dirt at Meydan on March 28, it will be interesting to see what will be the fallout in that regard in ensuing days.

While an invitation will hinge on the selection committee, Clements would rather not harbour any hope at this juncture even if the Chairman's Trophy win was not a harmful addition to his resume when it lands on the Dubai Racing Club's handicappers' desk.

Singh for one was a lot more upbeat his horse would not be out of his depth against the best horse in the world in March.

"He had to win today to be considered. I hope we get an invite after today's win," said the movie-making businessman.

"I actually nominated three other horses – Gingerella, Eye Guy and Yabadabadoo – but Countofmontecristo is the only one with a chance on ratings. It'll be either the Dubai Turf or the Godolphin Mile."

While Dubai dreams can wait, Singh could not be prouder of what his stable star has achieved at home – nine wins, including five at Group level, and more than $1.9 million gained in prizemoney.

Analysis: In a shock result in this Group 1 feature, South Australian-trained gelding Gytrash scored a first-up win, his seventh success in 15 starts, but his first success beyond Listed level. He tracked the leader (Redzel) on the far side, went to the front nearing the 100m and then fought back to win well. Redzel went to the front on the near side and ran along at a good tempo. He was headed at the 100m and then fought on well for second, beaten a length, at his first run since October. Loving Gaby settled last of the four runners on the near side, improved at the 400m and kept running on particularly well for a very good third at her first run since November. The favourite Nature Strip was taken to the near side by James McDonald and ran along in front of that group of runners, travelling at a good tempo. But he was surprisingly overtaken at the 100m and then battled on for (3.2 lengths) fourth in a disappointing effort, resuming here after his brilliant victory in the VRC Sprint Classic (Gr 1, 1200m) at this track in November. I Am Excited battled on nicely for (3.5 lengths) fifth in a sound first-up run. Analysis: A professional effort from the favourite Dragon Leap heading to the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) and a clash with last week's impressive Waikato Guineas (Gr 2, 2000m) winner Two Illicit (Jimmy Choux). Fifth (rails) soon after the start, he moved away from the fence with just under a circuit to run to sit a handy sixth until passing the 1400m. Opie Bosson crept him forward at the 600m and rounding into the home straight was perfectly poised to challenge. At the top of the straight he went five wide, cruised alongside the leaders at the 300m, and went clear to win by a length and a half for win three from four starts with plenty in reserve. Scorpz was a handy fourth (one out) down the back straight, third at the 600m, bumped just short of the straight but recovered. He shared the lead at the top of the straight and looked a chance but was not able to accelerate with the winner yet kept going quite well to the line for second. Sherwood Forest was third (rails) at the 800m, moved out upon straightening and co-led briefly then kept on gamely for third from Tibetan, who from midfield finished fairly for fourth. [LJ]

Analysis: Lightweight Polzeath, enjoying some consistent recent form, caused a surprise here, holding on doggedly for his fifth win and maiden stakes success. He was a handy third (rails) with a lap to run then fourth down the back and in a pocket from the 600m. Turning for home he needed a run, found room one off the fence at the 300m and went after the leader. He co-led at the 200m, led short of the line then just held on from a flying late challenge. Platinum Invador was sixth last (fence) at the 1000m, hugged the rail rounding into the straight, accelerated on the inner to be handy enough at the 200m then found more over the last 100m, flying to almost catch the winner. Etah James sat a close up sixth (rails) at the 800m, got off the fence at the 600m, went very wide, balanced and kept up a strong run to grab third at the post. Masetto held a narrow lead at the 800m, led them in and tried to slip clear but was caught then fought well to the line for fourth. Then followed: Libertini (AUS), Emeralds (AUS), Electric Girl (AUS), Akari (AUS), Sangria (AUS), Darling Point (AUS), Missile Mantra (AUS) & Regimental Band (AUS), last.

Analysis: In a great result for Godolphin, their three Group 1-winning fillies filled the placings, all resuming in this Group 2 event. The winner was Flit, who was racing in blinkers for the first time, and she travelled strongly in third place on the rails from her good barrier (1). She got through to challenge at the 300m, went to the front at the 100m and then drew away to score impressively by almost two lengths. Lyre settled in sixth place on the rails, got along the inner on turning for home and kept running on nicely for second. The Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Kiamichi began brilliantly and went straight to the front. She then travelled well and fought gamely when challenged in the straight, just fading in the latter stages for third in a smart first-up effort. Favourite Libertini was smartly away from her outside barrier (11) and after being deep early on settled in sixth place, one off the rails. She improved from the 300m and steadily made ground for (3.1 lengths) fourth, racing a bit below her best resuming here on a soft 7 track. Emeralds settled back in seventh place (and deep). She improved nearing the 600m and then kept running on well for a very good (3.3 lengths) fifth in a promising first-up run. [KB]

Then followed: Verry Elleegant (NZ), Danzdanzdance (AUS), Life Less Ordinary (IRE), Hush Writer (JPN), Angel Of Truth (AUS), Come Play With Me (AUS) & Glenall (AUS), last.

Analysis: Alizee went one better after a slightly disappointing fresh-up effort here two weeks back. From the inside barrier she soon found fourth (rails) to sit just off the pace. From the 600m she edged closer to the lead and into the straight was beautifully positioned to challenge. Hugh Bowman waited until the 300m, sent her along the fence then accelerated from 250m. She got the upper hand soon after and ran home well for a nice win by a short-neck, her career tenth in 26 starts. Favourite Dreamforce camped outside the pace all the way to the straight, went up to lead briefly, was tackled by the winner at the 200m then fought hard to the line for a solid second. Happy Clapper was fifth, one out from the 600m, in traffic when they straightened, got out at the 250m then ran home strongly but too late, and finished third. Verry Elleegant tracked the winner into the straight, tried to quicken but didn't get warm until the last 100m, finishing quite well for fourth. ALL TOO HARD
Another winner by the Champion 3yo

Analysis: The keenly-anticipated clash between top three-year-olds Alligator Blood and Catalyst proved to be a stunning contest. Alligator Blood went to the front as expected with his classy New Zealand rival surprisingly at his girth after a smart beginning. Catalyst moved up to challenge after turning for home and the pair then staged a head-and-head duel down the Flemington straight with victory going to Alligator Blood, who refused to accept defeat, scoring by a short-head with Catalyst the game of seconds at his Australian debut. Chenier, who raced in third spot on the rails, fought on very well for third, beaten just over a length, with Soul Patch fighting on really well for (3.3 lengths) fourth. Dalasan finished (3.8 lengths) fifth after travelling in that position before making a short-lived bid at the home turn, while Yourdeel weakened to finish last in the field of six. Analysis: Former West Australian-trained gelding Special Reward took his record to seven wins from 13 starts in scoring here, his first success at stakes level. He began well from his good barrier (1) and settled in third place before moving up on turning for home. He got to the front at the 100m and then dug deep when challenged to score a narrow but good win. Cascadian settled in last place in the seven-runner field, moved up (deep) at the 300m, challenged strongly on passing the 100m and then battled on quite well for (long neck) second. Jungle Edge went to the front as expected, set a good tempo and fought well under his top weight (59kg) for third with another Victorian-trained runner Ashlor holding on for (1.5 lengths) fourth after being prominent most of the way. Then followed: Fascino (NZ), Katalin (AUS), Parmie (AUS), Lunar Light (AUS), Swing And Boom (AUS), Feign (AUS) & Lady D'oro (AUS), last.

Analysis: The Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained filly Bonvicini scored a smart first-up win, her third win from six starts and her second at stakes level. She was ridden patiently by Kerrin McEvoy and settled in second last place in the ten-runner field before tracking up nearing the home turn. She went deeper at the 400m and came with a solid finish to win quite comfortably at the post. Pretty Brazen settled in sixth place, improved nicely on turning for home, briefly looked the winner when she hit the front at the 100m but could not hold off the late-closing winner to finish a sound second, resuming here. Meuse raced in fourth place (one out and one back), moved up at the 300m and then kept fighting on to take third. Fascino settled in eighth place, was held up between runners at the home turn, got clear at the 200m and then ran on for (1.9 lengths) fourth. Favourite Katalin missed the start and was a clear last early on. She looked for a run closer to the rails on straightening before easing widest of all at the 300m. She then came with a strong late effort for (2 lengths) fifth, looking unlucky. [KB]

CASINO PRINCE

 VINERY

Sire of 100+ winners in last 3 seasons.

Analysis: Sweet Deal never gave her opponents any chance over the closing stages for a big all-the-way win here, her career eighth and back-to-back Group 3s. She went to the front from the outset but had to race one out and didn't find the rail until the 600m. Into the straight she kicked clear, led by three at the 300m, 200m and 100m and was still away by two and a quarter lengths at the line to win comfortably. Spiritual Pursuit held the fence in second to the 600m, dropped in behind the lead turning in and was left to do all the chasing to the line, running on well for second. This was a nice effort from Pohutukawa, who was third last at the 600m, took a long time to warm up then finished well between runners to claim a fast-finishing third from Dawn Dawn, who also ran home strongly from midfield between runners late for fourth. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE Inglis
Est 1867

Analysis: Team Hawkes-trained colt Ole Kirk, whose dam is a sister to Black Caviar (Bel Esprit), stamped his potential in taking out this Listed race on debut. He settled nicely on the far side, just behind the leading group, tracking a good tempo. Dwayne Dunn steered him through a gap at the 300m to challenge at the 100m and he then finished a bit too well to score a very good win. Nitrous raced just behind the leaders in about fourth place before moving up to challenge the leader (Mildred) at the 300m. He then battled strongly for a good second. Consistent filly Mildred shared the lead, got to the front at the 200m and then fought gamely under her top weight (58kg) for third in another very honest performance. Amish Boy was in about sixth place, close to the leading group on the far side. He challenged at the 200m and then battled on well for (1.6 lengths) fourth with his stablemate Toscanini catching the eye in making very good late ground for (1.7 lengths) fifth. $1.1m yearling Pioneer River battled on quite well on debut for (2.5 lengths) sixth. Another Winner For YARRAMAN PARK

I AM INVINCIBLE

Analysis: Progressive Anthony Freedman-trained filly Supreme Idea, who showed promise in winning a Maiden (1112m) at Geelong on debut in December, advanced to take this Listed race out in good style at her third race start. She began well and soon drove through from her inside barrier (1) to take the lead. She then travelled well, got a break at the 200m and then went on to score a very good win. Gerald Ryan-trained colt Mission River settled outside the leader and eventual winner and kept fighting well to hold second, his second such placing in two starts to date. Favourite Dame Giselle began well from her outside barrier (10) and settled in fourth place but deep. She moved up on straightening, went to third at the 200m and kept fighting on to hold that position, beaten two and half-lengths in a sound first-up run. Ticket To Ride was fifth at the home turn and then battled on nicely for (4.5 lengths) fourth at her third race start and her second run this preparation. Then followed: The Celt (AUS), Flow (AUS), Don't Fuss (AUS) & Baraki Beats (AUS), last.

Analysis: From 12 starts, Flower Of War now has eight wins, a maiden stakes win and three seconds, and is building a nice race career. She was a shade slow but soon took up the pace, was passed approaching the 800m dropping into the trail then went back to third at the 600m. Caught in a pocket starting the run home she got a split at the 200m, drove through, switched to the inner at the 100m then caught the leader short of the line to wear him down by a long-head. Valour Road sat fourth, one out from the 600m, went forward three wide rounding into the straight and took over at the 250m. He looked the winner at the 150m but was not able to hold out Flower Of War's challenge. Floyd was last (rails) at the 600m, pulled widest at the top of the straight and finished really well, but too late, for third. Then followed: Tuscan Queen (AUS), Pambella (AUS), Montelena (AUS), Sweet Strawberry (AUS), Divide The Sea (AUS) & Tiff Has Spoken (AUS), last.

Analysis: An easy win here for the favourite Superstorm, having his sixth start, who scored his second win and maiden stakes success. He was fourth last (one out) when they settled and held his position past the 800m then edged closer to the pace inside the 600m. Moving out four wide starting the run home he went after the leader who had shot clear, cruised up to be almost alongside at the 200m then breezed past and had the race well under control by two lengths at the line. Naughty By Nature was fifth, one out from the 1000m, improved to fourth from the 600m and was handy enough when they straightened. He co-lead briefly at the 150m but had no answer to the winner. Wine Night was fifth (rails) turning in, hugged the fence from the top of the straight and ran on without chance for third from Tuscan Queen, who from last finished very well but much too late for fourth. Analysis: Back-to-back Guineas and three wins on the trot for Lightning Jack who again finished too well here. He was slowly away and settled second last, one out and dropped back to last at the 1200m. From the 800m he swept wide, continued a strong run and turning in was fourth but wide. Out in the middle of the track he ranged alongside the leaders, took over and was travelling well at the line by a half-neck but in control. Poniard sat fifth (rails) at the 800m, moved out one track nearing the turn in but needed a run. With space opening three deep he ran up to challenge then co-led. He gave the winner a fight but relented late for a solid second. Asathought was back on the fence at the 600m, moved forward to be handier then hugged the rail the length of the straight, finishing well but late for third. Sanctify made a promising run in the straight but was caught at the line to run fourth. Then followed: Dr Dependable (AUS), Meli Melo (AUS), Wetakemanhattan (AUS), Rockarral (AUS), Lostarc (AUS) & Light The Waves (AUS), last.

Analysis: Consistent Master Chum scored his maiden stakes success and a hat-trick of wins in the process with a top effort here. He was slow into stride to settle third last (rails) at the 1600m, maintained his position past the 1000m but was shuffled back to last at the 600m. Rounding into the home straight he waited, found room one out then ran into traffic, squeezed through at the 200m, ranged up to co-lead at the 100m and, travelling well, held on by a nose. Favourite Hasta La War was last at the 1000m, made his run from the 600m and was widest but one turning for home. He took some time to wind up but kept on strongly to the line. Jackthegiantslayer sat fifth (rails) from the 600m but was shuffled back rounding into the straight. He had nowhere to go until the 100m before flashing into third near the line from Dr Dependable, who took over at the 300m, was caught at the 100m and then held on for fourth. [LJ]
