Victoria's lockdown has Inglis Premier vendors anxious about live sale

Andrews leaves state hanging with no certainty when snap ban will end

Victorian breeders are increasingly anxious about the ramifications caused by an unexpected hurdle less than a fortnight out from the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, the state's major thoroughbred trading auction of the year.

The snap five-day lockdown introduced by Victorian premier Daniel Andrews last week in response to a hotel quarantine coronavirus outbreak has vendors fearing the much-needed live sale could be hit and put undue financial pressure on breeders, less than a year after other important sales were severely restricted.

Tatura vendor, David Johnson, says his Rushton Park operation lost "tens of thousands of dollars" as a result of last year's Victorian lockdowns and dreads the prospect of his business again being hit if the Premier sale does not go ahead as scheduled from February 28.

"We're having enough sleepless nights with 20 yearlings without having all this other stuff going on as well," said Johnson, who runs Rushton Park with his wife Kayley.

"It's a hard enough time as it is without having to worry about lockdown. We've got some really nice horses to sell and, looking at how strong the market's been and talking to the trainers, there's a lot of guys who haven't bought horses or haven't been able to so far and there seems to be a real appetite for them.

"Up until Thursday, Friday last week, we were very confident of a good sale."

Johnson (pictured right) raised the plight of Premier vendors with Inglis staff yesterday, but he understood it was hard to make firm plans given the lack of certainty provided by Andrews, who yesterday gave little guarantee the lockdown would end as scheduled at 11.59pm tomorrow.

"I've had a couple of conversations with them (Inglis), but I think they are as much in the dark as we are," Johnson said yesterday, adding he would welcome on-farm inspections before the Premier sale if the travel restrictions were lifted.

"From a vendor point of view, we'd love something definitive. That 'this is going to happen if this happens,' but I think they're all up in the air as well. They would certainly be kicking around a lot of options, plan B and plan C, but it's a pretty congested calendar with Adelaide and QTIS (on the Gold Coast) if the sale gets postponed because of the lockdown.

"I think the Victorian breeders, after last year's Great Southern (being postponed and held online), it will be a real trainwreck if Premier doesn't go ahead as is. Hopefully, the next couple of days are zero and zero (Covid-19 community cases) and then the government's just got to lift the restrictions and we can get on with life."

Blue Gum Farm principal, Phil Campbell, the leading vendor and seller of three of the top five lots at last year's Premier sale, was trying to remain positive despite the roadblock put in front of the industry.

"Obviously, Victoria's been through a pretty rough patch with the whole Covid thing and it has done such an amazing job to keep it at bay," Campbell said yesterday. "Anyway, it is what it is and we have just got to hope and pray that the five-day lockdown is just that and hopefully not much more, and we can all continue on and have the sale as scheduled."

"I know that's what Inglis is working towards and that is what we and, I am sure, every other vendor is working towards. If it can't, there will be contingency plans but at this stage we're full steam ahead in the hope of being able to ship down to Oaklands Junction a week from (yesterday)."

Inglis would not speculate yesterday on any potential changes to the Premier sale date or format if the Victorian lockdown was extended beyond tomorrow's initial deadline.

Rival auction house Magic Millions has its own headaches, having pushed back its two-day Perth Yearling Sale, which was due to start yesterday, until Thursday and Friday due to bushfires wreaking havoc in regions surrounding the capital city.

The Magic Millions Tasmanian Yearling Sale, thus far, will still be held next Monday as scheduled despite the likelihood that the key market of Victoria may not be able to attend.

Victorian and Tasmanian state manager, Tim Brown, is already on the Apple Isle while on-complex inspections have started in Perth.

The Magic Millions Perth complex was used as an animal refuge from the bushfires, with that being just one obstacle the company has had to overcome in the lead-up to its Western Australian auction.

"Everything has been thrown at us, that's for sure, but the complex is all back in shape very well. We had a lot of help from everybody who was involved with things. The vendors are obviously very understanding of that," Magic Millions Western Australia manager, David Houston, said yesterday.

"The Covid thing, that has put a bit of a dent in things as well, but putting it back a few days has helped no-end because at least we have full gatherings here now without masks. The Victorian problems have impacted us a lot ... but we are going to have a few people coming across from NSW in the next couple of days.

"The fact that we have got from Sunday through to Thursday morning for inspections, there's steady inspections without being run off our feet. It's giving people the opportunity to have a really good look at the horses."

The opening session of the Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale starts at 1pm local time on Thursday.

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Typhoon Tracy return for Night Raid

Night Raid (Vancouver) is set for a return this preparation in Friday evening's Typhoon Tracy Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Moonee Valley. The Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained three-year-old has two wins from five starts, including in the Atlantic Jewel Stakes (Listed, 1200m) in September. "She looks outstanding. She won the Atlantic Jewel in the spring at the course and distance. It's a lovely kick-off for her," Kent Jnr told Racing.com. Night Raid was stepped up to a mile when running second to last in the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) on her latest start but the training partnership will stick to shorter distances with the $160,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale purchase. "We are going to keep her to sprint trips this time around," Kent Jnr continued. "We feel she has come up well. We are very happy with her at home, she does look outstanding. Her work has been very good." Meanwhile, Night Raid's stablemate and winner of the Thousand Guineas, Odeum (Written Tycoon), is scheduled to start in heat one of the Caulfield jump-outs this morning, starting at 7am.

The Harrovian to target All-Star Mile

Connections of Queensland star The Harrovian (Fastnet Rock), a winner of his last 11 starts, will change tack and turn their attentions to the $5 million All-Star Mile (1600m), resulting in the seven-year-old swerving Saturday's Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and instead waiting for the Shaftesbury Avenue Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m) a week later. "We just thought instead of taking on Arcadia Queen and all those horses first-up, (running at Flemington) is going to be a bit easier than running into those types on Saturday," Toby Edmonds, who trains in partnership with his son Trent, told Racing.com. Edmonds is also mindful of the impacts of the prevailing lockdown in Victoria. "We are just going to tread water until the end of this lockdown and see what the picture looks like going forward," he continued. "(Running at Flemington instead of Caulfield) gives us a bit more time and hopefully getting towards the All-Star Mile everything will be well contained and back to normal."

Tralee Rose nominated for Lord Reims Stakes

Progressive mare Tralee Rose (Tavistock), who claimed her first stakes success with a seven-length win in the Bagot Handicap (Listed, 2800m) on New Year's Day, will return in Saturday's Lord Reim Stakes (Gr 3, 2600m) at Morphettville. Since finishing fourth in the SA Fillies Classic (Gr 3, 2500m) Tralee Rose has won four of her five starts. The four-year-old could take on some strong contenders on Saturday, with Lindsay Park's Yulong Captain (Galileo) nominated for the race, while the Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained St Leger (2600m) winner Big Blue (Galileo) also holds a nomination after returning from a jumps' campaign in Europe.

Samizdat ready to peak

Michael Gangemi is confident Samizdat (Not A Single Doubt) can continue his preparation in a blaze of glory ahead of an interstate campaign. Samizdat will look to add Sunday's Pinjarra Classic (Listed, 1300m) and next month's Bunbury Stakes (Listed, 1400m) to his last-start victory in the Scenic Blast Stakes (Listed, 1200m). With three runs under his belt this preparation, Gangemi, who trains in partnership with his brother Chris, could not be happier with Samizdat's condition and expects the five-year-old to run well in the Pinjarra Classic. "I wish this race was tomorrow (Tuesday) because he is going so well," Gangemi told The Races WA. "This is the second of three races we have targeted and he is ready to explode. The step up in distances from 1200 metres to 1300 metres and 1400 metres will suit him."

Queensland Guineas focus for Gotta Kiss

The Queensland Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) will be the winter carnival goal for Proven Thoroughbreds' Gotta Kiss (Not A Single Doubt) after the filly returned to the stables of Steve O'Dea and Matt Hoysted yesterday. "She's had a bit of time off after the Magic Millions and has just finished some pre-training out at Kolora Lodge," Hoysted said. Gotta Kiss will be given a steady build up before she is aimed at the winter carnival, having completed her summer carnival campaign with an unlucky fifth behind Aim (Star Witness) in the Magic Millions Guineas (RL, 1400m) at the Gold Coast on January 16.

PROVEN THOROUGHBREDS

Newmarket back on table for Swats That

Troy Corstens has suggested a Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) start for star mare Swats That (Shamus Award) could still be on the cards, after seeming to rule it out after she finished third behind Nature Strip (Nicconi) in Saturday's Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m). "It's still up in the air," Corstens, who trains in partnership with his father Leon, told SENTrack. "We're not going to lock anything in for probably a week or so. We'll let the dust settle and it will be interesting to see what goes to the Newmarket with Nature Strip not going now. It would be remiss of us to just dismiss it. It's such a prestigious race and worth so much money, we've got to think about it." Corstens did however concede that the four-year-old may be better suited away from the Flemington straight. "I reckon she's better around the corner," he added. "I think 1200 metres around the Moonee Valley corner is really her go."

Melbourne trip on hold for in-form Platoon

Neville Parnham has not given up on an interstate campaign for two of his top stable gallopers. Platoon (Playing God) and Indian Pacific (Zoustar) were unable to secure a place on a flight departing Perth for Melbourne last night, but all is not lost according to Parnham. "Bob (Peters) rang me to say only Arcadia Queen and Regal Power were going on the plane from his team tonight," Parnham told The Races WA. "I was hoping to get one of the remaining other berths, but Chris Calthorpe from the air transport company had committed it to Greg Bond. Bondy is taking across Minstrel and needs to be in Sydney quickly. But if the Victorian government ease the Covid-19 restrictions all is not lost. It all depends on what they do, but we can still get across by plane next week. If that's the case then Platoon and Indian Pacific will go to Melbourne." Interstate plans were confirmed for Platoon after his sizzling last-to-first win in Saturday's Cyril Flower Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Ascot. Racing first-up since the Perth Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) in January, the gelding came with a withering finish and scored by half a length. Indian Pacific has not raced since finishing fifth in last month's Miss Andretti Stakes (Listed, 1100m).

Siblings to Sunlight and Loving Gaby step out at trials

A brother to Sunlight (Zoustar) and half-sister to Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible) contested yesterday morning's two-year-old trials at Hawkesbury for Team Hawkes, with both running second in their respective heats. Dio (Zoustar), a $1.1 million purchase out of last year's Inglis Easter Yearling Sale, made late headway in the colours of Orbis Bloodstock to finish three-quarters of a length behind Substitution (Smart Missile) in Heat 8. Two heats later and Gstaad (Sebring), a half-sister to dual Group 1 winner Loving Gaby, was given a similar hit out, again finishing three-quarters of a length adrift when second to unraced filly Mascherata (Tivaci), who won her second trial for trainer John O'Shea. Elsewhere, the Go Bloodstock-owned Flying Artie (Artie Schiller) colt, Mea Culpa, won Heat 3, finishing one and a half lengths ahead of Auspicious Cloud (American Pharoah).

Hey Doc wins jump-out in 'fantastic day out' at Avoca

Four-time Group 1 winner Hey Doc (Duporth) returned with a jump-out win at Avoca yesterday. Co-trainers Tony and Calvin McEvoy were pleased with the 800-metre hit out, and will target the seven-year-old at the William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) second up after contesting the Bob Hoysted Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington on February 27. "Hey Doc had a fantastic day out at Avoca this morning, he was very stimulated by going to Avoca, as was I," Calvin McEvoy told Racing.com. "He jumped, led and won as you would expect. He had a good, healthy blow after the gallop and I think he'll come on from this first jump-out. I think running in the Bob Hoysted would get us on the right leg ahead of the William Reid and when you're a top-class horse there's not a lot of races you can run in."

Glenesk expands into online sale consignment

Glenesk Thoroughbreds will be expanding their operation to offer draft consignment on online platforms in 2021. The leading consignors, owned and operated by Brett and Rachael Howard, have sold million-dollar lots Villa Verde (Not A Single Doubt) and Invincibella (I Am Invincible) in broodmare sales since 2015. "In 2021 we will be looking to better our 2020 results at these two prestigious broodmare auctions," said Brett Howard. "Now that we have the public auction space covered, we want to advance into the online auction space. We want to become the first farm in Australia's to specialise in online auction consignment." The online trade in thoroughbreds has increased exponentially in recent years, with the Inglis Digital platform achieving turnover of $53 million in 2020.

Pinhookers target Playing God in Perth

Playing God (Blackfriars) has been bolstered by two stakes winners in as many weeks, as Ex Sport Man claimed the Magic Millions WA 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) and Platoon scored a second stakes success in the Cyril Flower Stakes. Following the dispersal of Mungrup Stud's yearlings last year, where Playing God formerly resided, pinhookers are hopeful of profiting from his success at the Perth Magic Millions Yearling Sale this Thursday and Friday. Geisel Park will offer Lot 39, a sister to Platoon they purchased for $80,000. "She's a gorgeous filly and the feedback has been very positive," stud manager Conor Dunlop said yesterday. "They unloaded her from the float just as Platoon was winning at Ascot. We were doing cartwheels." There will be a further six yearlings pinhooked at the Perth Magic Millions Sale after being purchased from the Mungrup dispersal sale, including Lot 122, a colt out of Countess of Tiba (Second Empire) a $50,000 purchase for Westbury Park.

Dunn returns at Sandown

Dwayne Dunn will make his return to race riding at Sandown tomorrow with the veteran booked for two rides. Dunn will partner Silly Point (Hallowed Crown) and Lass Vegas (All American) as he makes his comeback from a barrier incident in September which resulted in him breaking bones in his vertebrae. It could prove to be an unexpected busy week for Dunn, who is in the mix for rides in three Group 1 races on Saturday. Already confirmed on board Wolves (Wolf Cry) in the Blue Diamond and Bold Star (Needs Further) in the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m), he could also pick up the ride aboard Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) in the Futurity Stakes.

Childs facing a stint on the sidelines

Jordan Childs is expected to be out of action for some time after he revealed the full extent of the injuries he suffered in a fall at Moonee Valley on Friday night. Childs was taken to hospital with what was assumed to be a dislocated shoulder after being dislodged from Zacouver (Vancouver) in the closing stages of the 3YO Benchmark 64 Handicap over 1200 metres. However, scans revealed several fractures to the ball of the shoulder, as well as damage to tendons and soft tissue in the area. The 24-year-old underwent surgery over the weekend and is expected to remain under observation at Royal Melbourne Hospital for another night or two.

Rawiller ahead of time in recovery from injury

Brad Rawiller is hoping to be back riding trackwork later this week - a month after suffering a broken collarbone and puncturing his lung in a fall at Bunbury. "I am optimistic," Rawiller told Racing.com. "When it happened they told me it would be a minimum two months out so I am tracking ahead of schedule. Once I jump on a horse I'll be able to reassess my fitness and know where I am at. I haven't given up hope of (race) riding in a fortnight's time."

Sam Payne suspended

Sam Payne has been suspended for seven meetings after pleading guilty to excessive use of the whip on Sunday's shock winner Shapurb (Toronado). The Danielle Loos-trained four-year-old defied her $101 odds to get off the mark at the fourth time of asking in the opener at Colac. However, the winning ride came at a cost to Payne, who broke the whip rule after using his whip on nine occasions prior to the 100 metres, and 15 in total. His suspension will start at midnight tonight and expire at midnight on February 21. He was also fined $500.

Racing NSW tightens Covid protocols

Racing NSW yesterday announced new measures following the Victorian government's lockdown announcement. Any person that has been in Victoria (other than those who have only been in the NSW/Victoria border community) on, or since, January 29 must not, without the permission of Racing NSW, attend a NSW racecourse or licensed premises until further notice. Individuals who have only been in Victoria in the area defined as the NSW/Victoria border community since January 29 and have not been to any other area of Victoria, may attend a NSW racecourse or licensed premises, provided that they wear a face mask at all times. Jockeys who fall into this category are to be segregated in a separate jockeys' room on raceday from the jockeys who have not been to Victoria since January 29. Racing NSW will continue to monitor the Covid-19 cases in Victoria and are expected to provide a further update today.

Picnic meets set to proceed

Picnic racing is expected to resume this weekend, even if Victoria's state-wide lockdown is extended beyond tomorrow evening. Representatives from both Woolamai & District Racing Club and Yea & St Pats Racing Club confirmed yesterday that both club's are prepared to run behind closed doors if required this weekend. Woolamai is set to race on Saturday with Yea due to race on Sunday. The Buchan & Gelantipy Race Club made the decision last Friday to postpone Saturday's meeting with discussions underway to find a new date for the event.

NEW ZEALAND

Aimee's Jewel joins Victorian stable

Group 3-winning mare Aimee's Jewel (Proisir) has joined the stable of Kyneton trainer Charles Cassar as she looks to add Australian black type to her CV. The four-year-old won three of her seven starts for Trudy Keegan, with victory in the Canterbury Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Riccarton in November preceding an eighth and fifth-placed finish in the Captain Cook Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and Manawatu Challenge Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m). Keegan, who remains in the ownership of Aimee's Jewel, said it had been very clear from the outset that principal owner Troy Pannell would transfer the mare across the Tasman should she show enough ability. "Charles Cassar is his main trainer," Keegan said. "Right from the get go with all of Troy's horses, and he has got five with us, we had always been under the guideline that we would get them going here in New Zealand and if they showed enough and were good enough, they would ultimately try and get black type in New Zealand before heading over to Charles. We have always known that Aimee's Jewel would head over there at some stage and it was really a matter of when."

Australia remains on cards for Concert Hall

Group 1 winner Concert Hall (Savabeel) is still being aimed towards an Australian campaign, but her connections are just figuring out which path to take. The six-year-old has gone from strength-to-strength this campaign, winning three of her five starts and finishing runner-up in her two other assignments, culminating in victory in the Zabeel Classic (Gr 1, 2000m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day. But a barrier incident at New Plymouth last week where the mare parted company with Danielle Johnson before scaling a fence and was ultimately caught in a kids playground, cast a shadow on her Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) aspirations. Trainers Roger James and Robert Wellwood are keen to test her at the highest level in Australia, but a decision on that will be made later this week. "We are still contemplating Australia, it's just a matter of which way we get there," James said. "It will be worked out this week and I intend to approach Auckland to see if we can have an exhibition gallop there and work from there."

Cheaperthandivorce still an Oaks hope

A tilt at the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) still remains on the cards for Cheaperthandivorce (Savabeel) after her sixth-placing in the Waikato Guineas (Gr 2, 2000m) at Te Rapa on Saturday. Co-trainer Roger James was slightly disappointed with the result but said there were some underlying issues. "It was a little below my expectations, but she was troubled a bit by a seasonal complaint at the time, so maybe that had something to do with it," he said.

Northern features for Capitalist's Mozzarella

Nick Wigley and Kayla Milnes had an exciting spring with stakes-winning three-year-old Matchmaker (Makfi) and now Mozzarella (Capitalist) is giving the pair something to look forward to in the autumn. The promising two-year-old posted a comfortable four-length victory at Riccarton on Saturday, her second successive win, fulfilling the promise seen in her by her trainers. "We were sort of expecting it because we used the first run just as a trial," Wigley said. "She was always going to improve from that. I think she will improve further, we haven't done much with her. She potted around in the surf for a fortnight and that run will improve her even further. She seems to have pulled up pretty well, she ate up on Saturday night, which is a good sign."

Riddell delighted with Group 1 win

Jonathan Riddell didn't have a great start at Te Rapa on Saturday, failing to make the weight for two of his six booked rides but, by the end of the day, he'd recorded a surprise Group 1 victory aboard Royal Performer (Medicean), finished second in another, and guided the exciting Gold Watch (Swiss Ace) to his fourth successive win. "I had success at the weekend, but I haven't got ahead of myself. I enjoyed it, but man, it's a tough game," Riddell said. "It's challenging. There are times I could have walked away. But this is my life, and the weekend was awesome." Riddell was not expecting Royal Performer to beat Melody Belle (Commands) in the Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), but he went in hoping for a strong effort after watching videos of the well-travelled gelding's six prior New Zealand starts, three of which he had won. "Every race he's had in this country I thought was good. I came in with a lot of confidence after doing the form," he said. "Once he drew gate one, it was a case of just putting him there, and he ran a great race. He's a serious horse."

Waikato courses on standby

Officials at Eilerslie remain hopeful that Saturday's meeting, which features the Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m) and the Avondale Cup (Gr 2, 2400m), will be able to take place even if the Covid restrictions put in place on Sunday night are extended. However, if the meeting is unable to be staged as planned it is believed that it will be transferred to either Te Rapa or Te Aroha.

ASIA

SGP: Beasley back in the saddle

Singapore racing fans will be delighted to see an old familiar face back in the riding ranks this week - Danny Beasley. After bringing the curtain down on a successful 25-year riding career to join Daniel Meagher as his assistant trainer in 2017, Beasley has come full circle, with the Singapore Turf Club granting him a jockey's licence effective from yesterday until December 31. Beasley, who retired from race riding at Kranji in 2017, had in excess of 2,000 winners to his name when he hung up his boots, including 528 recorded in Singapore. In Australia, he won 14 Group 1 races in 15 years, headed by Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Polar Success (Success Express), as well as wins in the Doncaster Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on Grand Armee (Hennessy), and the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) with Miss Pennymoney (Brocco).

Six for Mehmas

The record-breaking Mehmas (Acclamation) sired his sixth individual stakes winner and his second in the US when Going Global (3 f ex Wrood by Invasor) took out the Sweet Life Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) on the Santa Anita turf on Sunday. Formerly trained in Ireland by Mick Halford, Going Global was making her debut for Phil D'Amato as she beat Five Pics Please (Cinco Charlie) by half a length. Nimbostratus (Wootton Bassett) was another three-quarters of a length away in third. Going Global was bred in Ireland by Nicky Hartery out of Wrood, a winning Invasor (Candy Stripes) half-sister to Group 3 winner Racer Forever (Rahy), and was originally purchased for €15,500 by Pioneer Racing out of the Goffs Sportsman's Sale. Tally Ho Stud resident Mehmas stands for €25,000 (approx. AUD$39,000).

UK: Classic winner to be covered by Dubawi

Billesdon Brook (Champs Elysees), winner of the 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) at Newmarket in 2018, is set to be covered by Darley's star stallion Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) having been retired from racing at the end of last season. "I know it's expensive, but I think she deserves it," said Jeanette McCreery who raced Billesdon Brook, winner of seven of her 26 starts, along with the Pall Mall Partners.

UK: Chester announces plans for rapid testing

Officials at Chester racecourse are pushing to host up to 5,000 spectators at the track's May festival with rapid mass Covid-19 testing set to be in place for all racegoers on each of the fixture's three days. Under the plans announced yesterday, mass testing could take place at three separate sites, which will allow for 1,800 tests to take place per hour with all attendees being given a designated entry time to avoid congestion. Racegoers will also be given a specific seating area in their assigned enclosures on raceday, with a one-way system in place, as well as staggered exit times once racing has finished. The meeting, which this year is scheduled to take place on May 5-7, features key trials for the following month's Classics with the likes of subsequent Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winners Shergar (Great Nephew) and Ruler Of The World (Galileo) among the winners of the Chester Vase (Gr 3, 1m 4f) which most recently went the way of subsequent Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) winner Sir Dragonet (Camelot).

Moodie backs long held high opinion of General Beau and pays up for Blue Diamond

BY JO MCKINNON | @ANZ_NEWS

There was nothing last minute about astute Victorian breeder David Moodie's decision to fork out the $55,000 final late entry fee for his colt General Beau (Brazen Beau) to run in this Saturday's $1.5 million Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Caulfield.

"We were never not going to pay up for him unless something went wrong between last Saturday week and today," Moodie said. "You don't get too many opportunities to have a live chance in these types of races."

The former Racing Victoria chairman is adversed to paying up at the various stages of entry required under race conditions for the dozens of young horses he breeds each season.

"I'm opposed to paying up along the way and paying for horses that are never going to make it. I wish they didn't inflict it on owners, it would be a lot simpler.

"There are plenty of $1.5 million races floating around in this day and age where you are not subjected to pay up eight or nine months earlier."

Right from when the attractive bay was a foal growing out on his property in the Macedon Ranges, Moodie, who bred and raced 1996 Blue Diamond winner Paint (Raami) and 2010 Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Crystal Lily (Stratum) had General Beau earmarked as having the potential to make the cut in Australia's major two-year-old races.

"I'M OPPOSED TO PAYING UP ALONG THE WAY AND PAYING FOR HORSES THAT ARE NEVER GOING TO MAKE IT. I WISH THEY DIDN'T INFLECT IT ON OWNERS, IT WOULD BE A LOT SIMPLER"

"He's a lovely, lovely horse. He's the perfect horse. He's not hugely tall, he's average size, but just strong. A beautiful animal all round. You couldn't breed a nicer horse full stop. He's as good a type as you could ever hope for.

This campaign, the Mat Ellerton and Simon Zahra-trained colt has won both the Blue Diamond Preview (Listed, 1000m) and Prelude (Gr 3, 1100m). The last horse to win those key lead up races for the colts and geldings and go on to take out the main event was Sepoy (Elusive Quality) in 2011.

"He's done enough to have a throw at the stumps.

"I've done this a couple of times before and pulled it off. I'm not necessarily suggesting he will do it again but we will have a go."

General Beau has been ridden on every occasion in his four-start career by last weekend's Group 1 Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) winning jockey Jamie Kah.

Currently the leading rider on the Melbourne premiership, Kah will stick with him on Saturday.

"I rate him a real genuine chance and a real good horse that hasn't got the credit he deserves to date because they are always looking for something to flash home," Moodie continued.

"I think he's a real live chance. I just hope he doesn't draw (barrier) 16 or 1."

It's not only the barrier draw that Moodie has to worry about, it's also star filly and raging race favourite Enthaar (Written Tycoon) although Moodie remains pragmatic about her.

"She either wins and wins easily, but her biggest risk is herself, she's got to do everything right and settle and run it right out."

Like General Beau, who carries Moodie's prolific Contract Racing colours, the Emirates Park-bred and raised filly Enthaar will also be flying the flag for home bred horses on Saturday.

"You look at the domination of Darley/Godolphin and those winning all these races. A high percentage are homebred," Moodie added.

New first season sire winners

American Pharoah - Coolmore shuttler American Pharoah (Pioneerof The Nile) sired his first Australian winner when Head Of State (2 c ex Derelique by Danehill Dancer) made a big impression with a two-length success at Warwick Farm on Wednesday. Purchased by Coolmore from the Lime Country draft at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Head Of State was the most expensive horse sold from American Pharoah's first Australian crop when he realised $850,000. Sent into training with Chris Waller, the blue-blooded juvenile shaped with plenty of promise to run fifth in the $1m Golden Gift (1100m) on debut at Rosehill in November and he built on that form, downing Wilsons Prom (Xtravagant) over 1300 metres. Collier Bay (Capitalist) was a further head back in third. Coolmore owns Head Of State in partnership with the likes of Waller, Sir Peter Vela, Debbie Kepitis' Woppitt Thoroughbreds, Peachester Lodge and Robert McClure and he is a half-brother to Hobartville Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) and Eskimo Prince Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Man From Uncle (Uncle Mo). Head Of State was bred by Brad Crismale and his unraced dam, Derelique (Danehill Dancer), was bought by Colm Santry Bloodstock for the Crismale family for $80,000 from the 2009 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. Her offspring have since sold for almost $2 million. American Pharoah is standing in Kentucky for a fee of $100,000 (approx. AUD$128,500) in 2021.

Capitalist - Newgate's freshman sire Capitalist (Written Tycoon) became the sire of five individual winners to date after he notched a double on Saturday. The John McArdle-trained Tycoon Humma (2 f ex Humma Mumma by Bel Esprit) ran out an impressive winner of a maiden (1000m) on debut at Bendigo. The filly beat Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) fourth Frostin' (Frosted) by two and a quarter lengths, while Midwest (Zoustar), who started out unplaced in the Blue Diamond Preview (Listed, 1000m) was third. Tycoon Humma was a $240,000 purchase by Redgum Racing at the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale Book 1 from Flinders Park Stud. She is a half-sister to Group scorer Humma Humma (Denman) out of Humma Mumma (Bel Esprit) who is a full-sister to stakes winner Vignette (Spectrum). Meanwhile in New Zealand, Mozzarella (2 f ex Parmalove by Snitzel) claimed her second win on the bounce at Riccarton Park. Capitalist stood for a fee of $44,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

Sooboog - Kitchwin Hills first season sire Sooboog (Snitzel) was responsible for his fourth individual winner when Moonlit Rose (2 f ex Lune Rouge by Malibu Moon) struck on debut at Rockhampton (1100m) for John Wigginton on Saturday. The winner of a 900-metre trial at the same track 12 days earlier, Moonlit Rose got the measure of Calpurnia (Holy Roman Emperor), who had the benefit of experience, by a length and a quarter, while there was a further length back to Lasco (Flying Artie) in third. Moonlit Rose was a $26,000 Magic Million Gold Coast March Yearling purchase by the trainer from Lyndhurst Stud Farm. She is the fifth winner from six runners out of the American Listed winner Lune Rouge (Malibu Moon). Sooboog stood for a fee of $13,200 in 2020.

Under The Louvre - Grandview Stud's Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Under The Louvre (Excellent Art) sired his first winner on Friday courtesy of the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Cadboll (2 c ex Eschaton by Domesday). Racing in the same colours as his sire, Cadboll followed up his unplaced effort on debut at Moonee Valley with a narrow victory in the 1100-metre maiden at Sale. The homebred defeated $2.40 favourite Tramontana (Toronado) by a short head, with Metzarro (Pierro) almost a length behind the winner in third. Cadboll is the first winner out of Domesday (Red Ransom) mare Eschaton, who produced foals by Woodside Park's Tosen Stardom (Deep Impact) in 2019 and 2020. She once again visited Under The Louvre last spring, with the sire serving 108 mares - his biggest book yet - at a fee of $4,400. Under The Louvre has had three runners from 20 named foals to date, including the twice-placed The Love Of Mary.

Wolf Cry - Larneuk Stud's Wolf Cry (Street Cry) produced his first Australian winner when General Wolffe (2 c ex Hypernova by High Chaparral) ran out a clear winner of a two-year-old maiden over 1200 metres at Doomben on Thursday. Trained by Ronald Cameron, General Wolffe was having his fifth race start as he came home five and a half lengths clear of the chasing pack. Wolf Cry himself was a speedy youngster whose four starts at two yielded three stakes placings: the Breeders' Plate (Listed, 1000m), Lonhro Plate (Listed, 1100m) and the Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) where he finished third behind subsequent Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Exosphere (Lonhro). Wolf Cry is one of two stakes horses from the multiple stakes-placed daughter of Redoute's Choice (Danehill) Starfish which hails from the family of blue-hen mare Eau D'Etoile's (Sir Tristram) family. Wolf Cry stood for a fee of $3,300 (inc. GST) in 2020.

New Group/Grade 1 winners

Medicean - Former Cheveley Park Stud resident Medicean (Machiavellian) sired his ninth individual elite level winner when the much travelled Royal Performer (8 g ex Quadri by Polish Precedent) ran out a shock winner of the Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Te Rapa on Saturday. Trained by Bob and Jenny Vance, the gelding who boasts wins in the UK and Hong Kong among his career tally of nine victories from 29 starts, beat The Chosen One (Savabeel) by two and a quarter lengths with On The Rocks (Alamosa) just behind in third. Related to some minor winners, Royal Performer was actually offered as a yearling at an Ascot sale in November 2014 but was bought back for just £600 and began his racing career under the name of Turn Tide for trainer David Brown and owner John Fretwell. Medicean stood at Cheveley Park for 16 seasons before his death, aged 21, in 2018.

New stakes winners

Curlin - Blue blood Clairiere (3 f ex Cavorting by Bernardini) became the 75th individual stakes winner for her sire Curlin (Smart Strike) when taking Saturday's Rachel Alexandra Stakes (Gr 2, 8.5f) at Fair Grounds on her third start. The talented three-year-old Stonestreet Stables homebred is the first foal out of multiple Group 1 winner Cavorting (Bernardini). Running down the favourite, Travel Column (Frosted) in the stretch, the Steven Asmussen-trained inmate scored by a neck, while Moon Swag (Malibu Moon) was six and a half lengths adrift in third. The winner of her maiden on debut at Churchill Downs in October, Clairiere was returning after her length defeat by Travel Column in the Golden Rod Stakes (Gr 2, 8.5f) at the same track in November. Curlin stands at Hill 'N Dale Farms, Kentucky for a fee of $175,000 (approx. AUD$225,650).

Dansili - British import Starcaster (6 g ex Shirocco Star by Shirocco) landed the Torney Night Cup (Listed, 2500m) at Moonee Valley on Friday to become Dansili's (Danehill) 147th individual stakes winner. The Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained Starcaster, who had his first run in Australia last spring, followed up his Benchmark 70 course-and-distance success on his previous start with a commanding two and a half-length win. Ridden by Jamie Kah, the six-year-old defeated Stars Of Carrum (Fiorente) into second, with Vadiyann (Footstepsinthesand) a further head back in third. Starcaster's victory meant that Shirocco (Monsun) mare Shirocco Star has now produced three stakes winners from as many runners, with Telecaster (New Approach), winner of the Dante Stakes (Gr 2, 1m 2.5f) and Grand Prix de Deauville (Gr 2, 2500m), and Sir Henry Cecil Stakes (Listed, 1m) winner Al Suhail (Dubawi) her other raced foals. Juddmonte's Dansili retired from stud duties in 2018 due to declining fertility.

Deep Impact - Akaitorino Musume (3 f ex Apapane by King Kamehameha) took out Saturday's The Daily Hai Queen Cup (Gr 3, 1800m) at Tokyo to become the 169th individual stakes winner for her late sire Deep Impact (Sunday Silence). The Sakae Kunieda-trained three-year-old broke her maiden on debut over course and distance in November and got the better of newcomer Art De Vivre (King Kamehameha) by a neck while Artemis Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) runner-up Kukuna (King Kamehameha) was the same distance back in third. A Kaneko Makoto Holdings homebred, Akaitorino Musume is out of multiple Group 1 winner and Champion Two and Three-Year-Old Apapane (King Kamehameha), making her a full-sister to Group-placed Jinambo and Rhinebeck.

Epiphaneia - Efforia (3 c ex Katies Heart by Heart's Cry) stretched his unbeaten record to three when he ran out an impressive two and a half length winner of Sunday's Kyodo News Hai (Tokinominoru Kinen) (Gr 3, 1800m) at Tokyo to become the fourth individual stakes winner for his sire Epiphaneia (Symboli Kris S). The Yuichi Shikato-trained three-year-old beat Victipharus (Heart's Cry) and Shahryar (Deep Impact), who were split by a head, and the colt will now head for the Satsuki Sho (Gr 1, 2000m), Japanese 2000 Guineas, in April. Epiphaneia, who sired last year's Triple Tiara winner Daring Tact in his first crop, stands at Shadai Stallion Station for a fee of ¥10,000,000 (approx. AUD$122,850).

Deep Impact

Into Mischief - Juddmonte homebred Mandaloun (3 c ex Brooch by Empire Maker) stepped up in first time blinkers and showed a good turn off foot to claim the Risen Star Stakes presented by Lamarque Ford (Gr 2, 9f) at Fair Grounds on Saturday and became the 86th individual stakes winner for Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday). The exciting three-year-old turned around the form with Proxy (Tapit) and Midnight Bourbon (Tiznow), who were ahead of him last month in the Lecomte Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f), to win by a length and a quarter. Into Mischief stands at Spendthrift Farm, Kentucky where his 2021 fee is $225,000 (approx. AUD$290,100).

Mehmas - The record-breaking Mehmas (Acclamation) sired his sixth individual stakes winner and his second in the US when Going Global (3 f ex Wrood by Invasor) took out the Sweet Life Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) on the Santa Anita turf on Sunday. Formerly trained in Ireland by Mick Halford, Going Global was making her debut for Phil D'Amato as she beat Five Pics Please (Cinco Charlie) by half a length. Nimbostratus (Wootton Bassett) was another three-quarters of a length away in third. Going Global was bred in Ireland by Nicky Hartery out of Wrood, a winning Invasor (Candy Stripes) half-sister to Group 3 winner Racer Forever (Rahy), and was originally purchased for €15,500 by Pioneer Racing out of the Goffs Sportsman's Sale. Tally Ho Stud resident Mehmas stands for €25,000 (approx. AUD$39,000).

Redwood - Westbury Stud's Redwood (High Chaparral) notched his eighth stakes winner yesterday when his three-year-old daughter Tokorangi (3 f ex Agent Ziva by Savabeel) was successful in Saturday's Waikato Guineas (Gr 2, 2000m) at Te Rapa. Asked for an effort 150 metres out, she bounded to the front before clearing away from pacemaker Zee Falls (Sacred Falls) who held on gamely for second from the fast-finishing Perfect Scenario (Ifraaj). Trained by Mike Moroney and Pam Gerard, it was Tokorangi's second win from eight starts and she has nominations for both the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at Ellerslie on March 6 and the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) at Trentham on March 20. Tokorangi was purchased by Ballymore Stables at the 2019 Karaka Premier Yearling Sale (Book 2) for $30,000. Redwood stood for $8,000 in 2020.

Savabeel - Perennial champion sire Savabeel (Zabeel) produced his 112th individual stakes winner on Monday when Tabata (4 m ex Splitsecond by Pins) prevailed in a desperate finish to the Wairarapa Thoroughbred Breeders Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Tauherenikau. Owned by former Black Caps captain and cricketing legend Brendon McCullum, the progressive four-year-old made it three wins from ten outings when she came home with a sustained late thrust under Danielle Johnson to collar Cruz Ramirez (Myboycharlie) by a half-head. Serena (Swiss Ace) was a further long-neck back in third. Tabata was purchased by McCullum under his Vermair Bloodstock banner alongside Hughes Bloodstock for $100,000 from the Waikato Stud draft at Book 1 of the NZB Karaka Yearling Sale in 2018. She is from the extended family of Group 1 winners Xtravagant (Pentire), Legs (Pins) and Sixty Seconds (Centaine). Waikato Stud flagbearer Savabeel stood for a fee of $100,000 (plus GST) last year.

Shalaa - King Shalaa (3 c ex Baki by Turtle Bowl) remained unbeaten on his third start, stepping into stakes company, when taking out the Prix de la Californie (Listed, 1600m) at Cagnes-Sur-Mer on Sunday to become the second individual stakes winner for Arrowfield Stud stallion Shalaa (Invincible Spirit). Trained by Francois Rohaut, the three-year-old was guided by Pierre-Charles Boudot to a half-length victory over Fort Payne (Rio De La Plata) and the favourite Summitter (Bated Breath). Bred by the trainer, he was sold for €110,000 at Arqana as a yearling and races in the colours of Sheikh Abdullah bin Khalifa Al Thani. King Shalaa is a half-brother to stakes winner Waltham (Wootton Bassett) out of the winning Turtle Bowl (Dyhim Diamond) mare Baki, while he is from the further family of Group 1 winner and sire Anabaa (Danzig). Shalaa stands at Haras de Bouquetot in France for a fee of €15,000 (approx. AUD$23,450).

Shooting To Win - The James Cummings-trained four-year-old Tailleur (4 m ex Clothing ex Commands) stepped up to stakes company for the first time on Saturday and took out the Triscay

Shooting To Win

DARLEY

Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick to become the fifth stakes winner for Darley sire Shooting To Win (Northern Meteor). Sent off as favourite, she got the better of Tricky Gal (Magic Albert) by a long neck and the pair were a length and a quarter clear of Icebath (Sacred Falls) in third. The consistent Tailleur has now won six of her eight starts and amassed more than $400,000 prize-money. Shooting To Win stood at Kelvinside for a fee of $16,500 in 2020.

Toronado - Swettenham stallion Toronado (High Chaparral) recorded a stakes race double on Saturday with Masked Crusader and Solaria both notching their first stakes victories, taking the sire's individual tally to ten. Masked Crusader (4 g ex She's Got Gears ex Invincible Spirit), who was making his first start in the grade, landed the Southern Cross Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick for Team Hawkes, while Solaria (3 f ex Isola Blu by Blackfriars), who has been knocking on the door for a win in this company, took out the Challenge Stakes (Listed, 1500m) at Ascot for Darren McAuliffe. Toronado stands at Haras de Bouquetot in France where his fee for this season is €8,000 (approx. AUD$12,500).

Twirling Candy - Rombauer (3 c ex Cashmere by Cowboy Cal) came from last to first in the El Camino Real Derby (Listed, 9f) at Golden Gate Fields on Saturday to become the 26th individual stakes winner for Twirling Candy (Candy Ride). The Michael McCarthy-trained three-year-old won on debut and was Group 1 placed as a juvenile last year in the American Pharoah Stakes (Gr 1, 8.5f) and returned in style to beat Godolphin runner Javanica (Medaglia D'Oro) by a neck, while the pair were four lengths clear of Governor's Party (Governor Charlie). Twirling Candy stands at Lane's End Farm in Kentucky where his fee for 2021 is $40,000 (approx. AUD$51,575).

Zoustar - Zou Dancer's (3 f ex Investigates by Strategic) victory in the Vanity Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington on Saturday provided her Widden Stud-based sire Zoustar (Northern Meteor) with his 17th individual stakes winner. Having won her maiden on her second start last November, the three-year-old was stepping up to stakes company for the first time on her fifth outing and she looks to have a bright future with the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) on the agenda for the Leon and Troy Corstens-trained filly. Zoustar is about to start his third northern hemisphere covering season at Tweenhills Stud in England where his 2021 fee is £25,000 (approx. AUD$44,615).
