Preparation under way for 2021 yearling sales as Magic Millions releases Gold Coast catalogue

Written Tycoon ex Karuta Queen filly that made $1.5million in January

MAGIC MILLIONS

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Industry professionals, particularly bloodstock agents and trainers, will shift their focus to finding the elusive next racetrack star after a record-size Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale catalogue was officially released yesterday, almost two months out from the opening lot going under the hammer.

Magic Millions yesterday confirmed the make-up of its catalogue for its 2021 Gold Coast January sale, which comprises an increased 1273 lots by 117 individual stallions including progeny of 24 first season sires including Merchant Navy (Fastnet Rock), Hellbent (I Am Invincible), Russian Revolution (Snitzel) and Pariah (Redoute's Choice).

As expected, the elite stallions are well represented with Snitzel (Redoute's Choice), I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), Zoustar (Northern Meteor) and Deep Field (Northern Meteor) all having more than 50 lots catalogued while the last crop of Redoute's Choice (Danehill) and Sebring (More Than Ready) yearlings will be sold next year.

SALES NEWS

Kemp hoping innovative approach pays dividends at NZB Ready To Run sale

Prospective buyers interested in the quality two-year-old consignment being offered through the Kilgravin Lodge draft at this week's New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run sale are spoilt for choice with the information on offer via the Matamata-based operations website (<https://www.horsebreaker.co.nz/2020-ready-to-run-sale/>). Sales News page 11 >>

"On paper, all the big sires are strongly represented, which is very important, and then you look at the first and second season stallions, we've got a good balance of those," Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"They are exciting horses on top of the proven horses and when you look at the dams of some of these pedigrees, they are very well-known or they are great producers. It's a big catalogue but there are a lot of mouth-watering pieces to it."

Earlier this month, Magic Millions announced that it would bring forward the start of the sale to Tuesday, January 12, while also extending the Book 2 session to run over two days, January 17 and 18. Fewer horses are being sold each day compared to recent Hindaam years.

The sale will start at 12pm with a 180-lot session, the first of seven days of selling.

Yearling preparations are already under way and vendors have started inviting prospective buyers ahead of on-farm inspections.

"There's no sale anywhere in the world that has the incentives to buy more than this sale given the fact that we have got great prize-money in Australia on top of the race series that is worth over $12 million now," he said.

"It's a huge marketing tool for any buyer who comes to the sale."

After consistent year-on-year increases at the January sale, Bowditch was not out to make any bold predictions about the strength of the market next year, particularly in light of the economic conditions worldwide.

However, he was confident in the quality of the yearlings the company had been able to attract for the catalogue.

"It is hard to say what the market is going to be in 2021, but we've had a good year on the track in general given the fact that racing's kept going through all this," he said.

MAGIC MILLIONS

The draft of five yearlings are by Written Tycoon (Iglesia), Not A Single Doubt (Redoute’s Choice), Pierro (Lonhro), Deep Field (Northern Meteor) and Shalaa (Invincible Spirit).

“We’ve been working on it for a while now to get everything ready. Last week, the builders walked out the back of the barn and the horses walked in the front,” said Grant, who has previously sold stock through Widden, Milburn Creek and Lime Country Thoroughbreds.

“We’ve pretty much hand selected the ones to go to the Gold Coast. We’ve made sure we’ve got a really sharp draft. We’ve got 14 going to other sales but, this being our first, we want to make sure we do a good job of it.”

The Not A Single Doubt filly, who is catalogued as Lot 705, is out of Rhodamine (Success Express) and was the top-priced lot Inglis Australian Weanling Sale in July when purchased by agent Suman Hedge and Grant Bloodstock for $280,000.

A successful businessman, Grant believes the Australian bloodstock industry remains a robust long-term investment and is confident the 2021 yearling sales will still provide solid returns for breeders.

“It’s a strange situation when I look at general markets as we’ve got different investments that we’re scratching our heads with because you just wouldn’t have picked that they would improve (in value) so much,” Grant said.

“If you look at properties up in the Hunter Valley and down in the Southern Highlands, those properties have gone up substantially (in value) and that means people are spending their time at home, naturally, with the Covid situation and they’re prepared to invest in the local area.

“I wouldn’t be surprised if they kept investing in things like bloodstock and luxury items and things for entertainment.”

Grant, a former Australian Turf Club director, added: “I think it is very hard to pin down (accurate market expectations) but I do think that in five years’ time we’re going to be in another boom in Australia, just with the popularity of where we are and how well we’ve gone,” he said.

“The government has done a great job in managing us through this situation and I think it’s going to come home in spades when people start looking where they’d like to own another place in the world. I think Australia’s going to be number one or number two pick.

“With all that, bloodstock might not jump ahead of the market but it will certainly, in the long-term, keep abreast of it.”

Waikato Stud sends draft to the Gold Coast

Leading New Zealand farm Waikato Stud will present about 80 yearlings to the market in Australasia next year including ten on the Gold Coast under its own banner.

Stud principal Mark Chittick makes no apologies for spreading Waikato's draft between New Zealand and Australian sales.

He cited Hindaam (Savabeel), who won Saturday's Twilight Glow Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Sandown, as a quality New Zealand-bred yearling who can find buyer competition at the Gold Coast.

The Lindsay Park-trained Savabeel (Zabeel) filly was bought by Shadwell's Angus Gold for $825,000 after being sold by Kitchwin Hills as agent for Windsor Park Stud.

"At the end of the day, it's very difficult and when we were entering these horses (there was a lot of uncertainty). It is a matter of matching these horses, given the results we have had in Australia, to buyers in Australia.

"We are fortunate that Australians come to New Zealand to buy our product, but next year that may be a lot more difficult to achieve so, therefore, we've taken our product to where the market is."

Given the uncertainty over trans-Tasman travel, Chittick has enlisted the help of Queensland's Matthew and Alison Park of Symphony Lodge to prepare the Magic Millions draft.

He said: "We've sent a few horses who will be going to the sale that qualify on every level. We've got about 70 to 80 to offer throughout Australasia and we've certainly worked on having ten horses who represent Waikato Stud extremely well to kick off the sales series.

"Hopefully they will sell well and take the pressure off the rest of the year."

The Waikato Stud draft includes a Savabeel three-quarter brother to Group 1 winners Diademe and Embellish, who is catalogued as Lot 134, and the brother to the Chris Waller-trained Savacool (Savabeel) who is being offered as Lot 155.

Chittick will also offer a Tivaci (High Chaparral) half-brother to the stakes-placed siblings Symphonic (O'Reilly) and Tralee Chorus (O'Reilly) and an Ocean Park (Thorn Park) three-quarter brother to stakes winner Seaway, who is also by the same sire as the Waller-trained multiple Group 1 winner Kolding.

New Zealand's Cambridge Stud is also offering two yearlings, a filly by its first season shuttler Almanzor (Wootton Bassett) and a colt by Sebring (More Than Ready), with Bhima Thoroughbreds selling the pair on behalf of Brendan and Jo Lindsay. Windsor Park is offering a colt by Charm Spirit (Invincible Spirit) and an Iffraaj (Zafonic) colt in the Kitchwin Hills draft.

Magic Millions owner Gerry Harvey's New Zealand arm of his enormous breeding and racing operation, Westbury Stud, has 26 lots catalogued in 2021 compared to 18 at this year's sale.

Harvey's Hunter Valley-based Baramul Stud will offer 64 yearlings.

Ballarat Cup worth One More Try

One More Try (rail)

SPORTPIX

Matt Cumani is hoping all the pieces can fall into place for One More Try (Dane Shadow) in Saturday's Ballarat Cup (Listed, 2000m), with the mare winless since 2018 after continuously letting herself down at the start. Ballarat trainer Cumani believes the six-year-old, who this season has come from last to third in the Stocks Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) and finished fourth after giving away a big start in the Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m), has the talent to dominate at this level if she can get a clean break. "If only she could break well and find a midfield position, she'd be near unbeatable at this level but unfortunately she keeps giving away her starts," Cumani told Racing.com. "But she's got a huge amount of ability. It's just being slow into stride means she's giving herself so much more work to do."

Wilde hoping he has a headline horse

Symon Wilde believes Sandown Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) winner Allibor (All Too Hard) will improve next season and is hoping to keep the gelding in his stable. Despite Allibor missing out on the opportunity to rack up prize money going through the weaker grades, Wilde is excited to have a horse of his calibre in the stable and is potentially targeting him at the South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) next year. "It's obviously not ideal for a maiden as you'd love to put him through his grades, but it's a $250,000 race and in racing, you've just got to take those wins," Wilde told Racing.com. "I apologise to absolutely no one because we've been on the receiving end of what racing can throw up at you a few times. We get a lot of winners - I think we got 90 winners last season - but we just need that headline horse that gets you to that next level. The offers will come for him - he's even got siblings in Hong Kong so he's the perfect sort of horse for it. But for where my stable is at the moment, I'd love to keep him. He's got an unbelievable temperament and he's obviously got a motor because that was a pretty smart filly (Sweet Reply) he beat and they spaced the rest. He'll need to improve in the new year but I think he will."

Group 1 tilt for Too Close The Sun

Ascot Gold Cup (Listed, 1800m) winner Too Close The Sun (Carlton House) has earned a shot at the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Ascot on Saturday, with trainer Lindsey Smith pleased with how he has pulled up. Too Close The Sun was initially being primed for a shot at the Perth Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) on January 2, but the stable may have to abandon that plan if he excels in the $1 million Railway Stakes. "He looked pretty good here yesterday and he's pulled up well so we'll go again next week in the Railway," Smith told Racing.com. "It (victory) might interfere with the Perth Cup but that'll be all right. Next Saturday looks a pretty good race for him with that weight (53 kilograms) and the fact he camps on speed and makes his own luck. Plus, with the restrictions this year and not many eastern state horses here, it might just be the right year to go for a race like that."

Surround Stakes aim for La Mexicana

Twilight Glow Stakes (Listed, 1400m) runner-up La Mexicana (I Am Invincible) will be targeted at the Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick next year after another promising performance. The three-year-old filly, who took out the William Crockett Stakes (Listed, 1200m) on her previous start, finished half a length behind Hindaam (Savabeel) at Sandown on Saturday as she stepped up to 1400 metres for the first time. She maintained a strong gallop throughout and boosted her record to three wins and two places from five starts. Her three triumphs have all come on ground that was rated a Soft 7 or worse and Anthony and Sam Freedman are eyeing up a potentially wet-ground Surround Stakes as an ideal opportunity to notch a Group 1.

Derby winner Levendi retired

2018 Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Levendi (Pierro) will be retired following his seventh-placed finish in the Zipping Classic (Gr 2, 2400m) at Sandown on Saturday. Six-year-old Levendi earned over $1.7 million in his 18-race career and his ownership group are looking to do a stud deal before next season, with interest already being shown from Western Australia and New Zealand. However, co-trainer Manny Gelagotis is keen to stand him in Victoria after he recommended retirement for Levendi.

Country cup success for Vungers

Seven-year-old Vungers (Reset) justified favouritism for the Donald Cup (1620m) on Sunday with an emphatic win for trainer Brendon Heaps, who landed his second victory in the race. Vungers, who was sent off at $2.60, made all from the front under an impressive ride from Zac Spain to defeat Pres De Toi (Helmet) by three and a quarter lengths, with Maritana (Kuroshio) half a length further behind in third. "I thought it would be a good show, he's drawn a nice alley, was down in the weights. He rode it good the kid," Heaps told Racing.com. "He'd done a tendon about two years ago and to everybody's credit they've worked hard on him for a year and we didn't think we were going to get him back, but they've done a marvelous job on him. To the trackrider as well, there's only one bloke who can sit on his back because he throws them all every morning, he's a shocker."

WA's Gangemi brothers take shine to Per Incanto's stock

Perth training partners Chris and Michael Gangemi are waxing lyrical about Per Incanto (Street Cry) after the sire provided them with a double at Bunbury on Friday courtesy of Mercanto and Block Of Land. Per Incanto, who stands at Little Avondale Stud, had seven winners from 10 starters across Australia from Thursday through to Saturday and has also been racking up winners in Hong Kong, with HK$6 million (approx. AUD$1,064,300) buy Forte making an impressive winning debut on Saturday. Per Incanto has a wide showing at this week's NZB Ready to Run Sale, with Lot 48, a colt from an Exceed and Excel mare, who breezed up on his own in 10.31, and Lot 218, a full brother to the promising Hong Kong sprinter Classic Unicorn, headlining his progeny.

NEW ZEALAND

Treble for revitalised Colgan

Six months after undergoing surgery on his neck, jockey Vinnie Colgan is back and firing on all cylinders. Colgan recorded an impressive treble at Tauranga on Saturday, taking out the Gartshore Tauranga Stakes (Gr2, 1600m) aboard Concert Hall (Savabeel), while also collecting wins on Festivity (I Am Invincible) and Red Hussar (Husson).

Established as one of New Zealand's leading riders in a career that spans three decades, Colgan was close to giving the game away at the start of the year as he battled with the debilitating effects of the neck problem. "I broke my neck just over ten years ago and I've had issues with it ever since," Colgan said. "The pain I was in made riding very tough as when you were on a horse it was difficult to lift your head up to see what was unfolding in front of you without getting a searing jolt each time. It got to the stage where I wanted to give the game away as it was just getting too hard to battle through it." However, once the issue was discovered Colgan went under the knife in May and the surgery was a success, giving him a new lease of life on the track. "I didn't miss that much racing but now I'm back, I'm into it full on," Colgan said. "It was great to win three on Saturday and even more satisfying to do it on horses for David Ellis (Festivity), who I rode a lot for when I was an apprentice, and Roger James.

Te Akau celebrate super Saturday

The Te Akau Racing team roared into life on the last day of New Zealand Cup Week, winning five races including two of the feature events at Riccarton. Remington (Darci Brahma) and Summer Monsoon (Stratum) landed races four and five before exciting colt Avonallo (Belardo) picked up his first stakes victory with an authoritative performance in the Frantic Bloodstock Welcome Stakes (Listed, 1000m). Two races later, Darci Brahma (Danehill) filly Kahma Lass captured the Barneswood Farm New Zealand 1000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) before Markus Aurelius (Ghibellines) closed out a red letter day with a win in the last race on the card. Progressive four-year-old Festivity capped a fantastic day when flashing home late to score for Vinnie Colgan and Jamie Richards. "That was the day you want to win races, New Zealand Cup day," Te Akau's David Ellis said. "It's one of the biggest, if not the biggest day on the calendar in terms of crowd numbers and the like. We have a very proud record in the Guineas races at Riccarton, with the win by Kahma Lass our eleventh Guineas success, six in the 2000 Guineas and now five in the 1000 Guineas. It was our eleventh black-type win this season, with nine in New Zealand and two in Australia. It makes me incredibly proud of how Jamie and the team are going."

Lazet making most of opportunities

Apprentice jockey Faye Lazet was delighted to ride her first winner at Awapuni on Friday when linking with the Lisa Latta-trained Akela Belle (Mastercraftsman). Lazet produced a perfectly-timed ride to get the six-year-old mare home, ending a long wait for a winner after 51 starts and eight placings. Originally from the Netherlands, Lazet has been steadfast in her desire to become a jockey and was duly rewarded after looking to the other side of the world to pursue her career. "It was the most amazing feeling in the world," Lazet said. "It is something I had been waiting for, for a while now. I didn't really expect it to happen on Friday because with the bend being quite tight at Awapuni, the racing pattern was favouring horses on the speed and Akela Belle tends to get back in her races. I wasn't sure that she would be able to make up the ground, but she did. She ran on amazingly."

ASIA

Back-to-back QEII's for Lucky Lilac

Favourite Lucky Lilac (Orfevre) defied being drawn 18 of 18 and clung on in dramatic fashion under Christophe Lemaire to deny the late charges of Salacia (Deep Impact) and Loves Only You (Deep Impact) in the Queen Elizabeth II Cup (Gr 1, 2200m) at Hanshin yesterday. Market leader Lucky Lilac saw off the Manabu Ikezoe-trained Salacia by a neck, with Loves Only You a further neck back in third. The Mikio Matsunaga-trained five-year-old became the fourth back-to-back winner of the Queen Elizabeth II Cup, a feat completed most recently by Snow Fairy (Intikhab) and Ryan Moore in 2011. It was Lucky Lilac's third career Grade 1 at Hanshin - which hosted the race because Kyoto is closed for redevelopment - and a fourth in total. Lemaire said: "She is really strong. She has raced at the top level since her two-year-old season and I had plenty of confidence in her ability to win. It was very hard for us from the outside draw but she ran a good race, she was calm and showed a good turn of foot. We hit the front early but she was strong to keep the lead all the way to the line, she is tough."

Ten for Orfevre

Bio Spark (5 h ex Nanayo Tiara by Meiner Love) narrowly took out the Fukushima Kinen (Gr 3, 2000m) at Fukushima under Kenichi Ikezoe to bring up Orfevre's (Stay Gold) tenth individual stakes winner. The Tamio Hamada-trained five-year-old saw off favourite Vin Quet Domingo (Rulership) by a neck, with Godolphin's Territorial (Teofilo) a further length behind in third. Japanese triple crown winner Orfevre, who has two Group 1 winners to his name in Epoca D'Oro and Lucky Lilac, stands at Shadai Stallion Station for a 2020 fee of JPY3,000,000 (approx. AUD$39,500).

INTERNATIONAL

16 for Adlerflug

Mythico (2 c ex Madhyana by Monsun) proved best of the two-year-olds in the Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen (Gr 3, 1700m) at Krefeld yesterday, bringing Adlerflug (In The Wings) his 16th individual stakes winner. The Jean-Pierre Carvalho-trained colt was winless ahead of the Group 3 contest yesterday, but had placed in the Preis des Winterfavoriten (Gr 3, 1600m) on his last appearance and made no mistake when lining up in the same class again. He got the better of the Henk Grewe-trained Dolcetto (Gleneagles) by half a length, with favourite Virginia Storm (Soldier Hollow) two lengths behind the winner in third. Adlerflug stood at Gestut Schlenderhan in Germany for a fee of €10,000 (approx. AUD$16,300) in 2020.

35 for Shanghai Bobby

Black Horus (5 h ex Julia's Star by El Prado) took out the Premio Chiusura (Listed, 1400m) at Milan yesterday to earn Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday) his 35th individual stakes winner. The Luciano Bietolini-trained five-year-old just got up ahead of Cirfandli (Overdose) in a three-way finish, with Visayas (Cable Bay) close-behind third. Shanghai Bobby, a dual

Kemp hoping innovative approach pays dividends at NZB Ready To Run sale

BY NZ RACING DESK

Prospective buyers interested in the quality two-year-old consignment being offered through the Kilgravin Lodge draft at this week's New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run sale are spoilt for choice with the information on offer via the Matamata-based operations website (<https://www.horsebreaker.co.nz/2020-ready-to-run-sale>).

Proprietors Eion and Megan Kemp have gone out of their way to provide in depth coverage of each and every horse in their 25-strong sale offering.

Not only available are videos of the breeze up and parade of each lot for sale, but there is also a detailed rundown by the jockey who rode the horse during its breeze-up along with video of any preparatory gallops plus a comprehensive conformation parade with associated commentary.

Kemp is hoping the approach will provide them with an edge in the ultra-competitive auction environment which this year will have an extensive offshore buying bench relying heavily on online services due to travel restrictions imposed by the Covid-19 pandemic.

Lot 275 No Nay Never ex Lucky Morna colt

"We knew that this year was going to be a different kettle of fish with what has happened around the world," Kemp said.

"Megan and I sat down in June and thought about what we could do to try and offer something that might be a point of difference and maybe give us an edge over other vendors.

Team of staff at Kilgravin Lodge

KILGRAVIN LODGE

"Basically, what we wanted to do was take our horses to the buyers as we knew they couldn't come to us.

"Once we had a framework to work with it all sort of fell into place from there.

"We felt the more people that knew about our horses, the more it might help so we have used extras like the jockey comments to build up a file on each horse.

"We also felt it was important to show the horse in action at more than just the breeze up as that is really only an eleven second piece of vision that can help but also hinder a horse.

"If we could show more gallops and how the horse has developed, we felt that would be a good feature."

Kemp enlisted the services of a number of people to help put the package together and is grateful for the results that they have achieved.

"We couldn't do it all ourselves as we didn't have that expertise so we got people together who could," he said.

"One of those was Angelique Bridson and she did a fantastic job helping us pull it all together.

"I guess we won't know if it has worked or not until the end of the sale and we can measure our results from the auction.

"I do know we have had a lot more interest in our on-farm parades and from the bloodstock agents that have been on the farm.

"If what we have done makes a buyer choose our horse above two or three others then it will all have been worth it."

Lot 174 Pierro ex Crystal Fairy colt

Kemp has also been delighted with the early interest in their draft since arriving at the Karaka complex on Saturday.

"We brought half of the draft up on Saturday and the rest on Sunday," he said.

"We wanted to let them all settle in but we've been rushed off our feet all day today (Sunday).

"If that activity translates into a good sale then it is going to be good for everyone."

The two-day New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run sale kicks off at 1pm on Wednesday, November 18.

Nepean hands replacement rider Zaki big surprise win in EW Barker Trophy

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

Mohd Zaki's biggest career win aboard Nepean (Roman Emperor) in the S$250,000 EW Barker Trophy (Gr 2, 1400m) on Sunday is the perfect example of what can happen to those who never give up hoping.

For a start, Zaki only got the call-up on outsider Nepean after jockey Matthew Kellady was stood down for dehydration.

But, looking at an even bigger picture of his overall career, just four months ago, the Kelantan-born jockey was seriously contemplating the possibility of hanging up his boots.

He was among four Malaysian jockeys stranded in Johor Bahru following the closure of Malaysian borders in the wake of the Covid-19 pandemonium. It was only in August, with the easing of restrictions and after a lengthy battle to get his work permit approved, that he was able to return to the saddle in Singapore.

But even then, the 40-year-old, who has often been typecast as a shrewder jockey with leading tactics, battled to get rides, let alone quality rides.

It was eight years ago that Zaki notched his first stakes win in the Committee's Prize (Gr 3, 1600m) with Keep Away (Air Jihad) for his former boss Hideyuki Takaoka.

To say that this second feature win, in these exceptionally challenging times, was even more significant is an understatement.

"I'm just so very lucky. It's a lucky pick-up ride and now I have my second Group win," said Zaki, overwhelmed with emotion.

"When Shane Baertschiger came down the jockeys' room to ask me if I could ride his horse, I asked him 'are you sure, boss!'. I really have to thank Shane for the ride as I rarely ride for him (only one on Absolute Maverick back in 2015), but I remember I did ride one winner for his father (Don) and I think it was also a pick-up ride (Blueberry Power in 2011).

Nepean

SINGAPORE TURF CLUB

"I also say thanks to Matthew Kellady. I pity him as he never got to ride the horse, he would have been the winning jockey, but at the same time, it became my good luck.

"This year has been so tough. I thought I'd give up riding when I was stuck in JB, I felt helpless I couldn't do my job.

"But even when I got back, it's been very hard to get rides, don't even mention good rides. That's the situation we're all in now, trainers have fewer horses and it's tough for everyone, but I have to keep working hard."

With Nepean friendless at S$276, it was probably that old familiar tune of "just getting a ride is better than nothing" for Zaki, but trainer Shane Baertschiger had homed in on the frontrunning jockey even if he hardly uses his services – and he had a silent hope that the impromptu combination could hatch a surprise.

"I went through the list and I thought Zaki would be just nice as he's good with frontrunners," said the Australian trainer.

"I went down to ask him if he could make the weight (50 kilograms), and he was good to go. He ended riding him one kilo over.

"This horse had surgery to both fetlocks (chips removed) one year ago, and after his last run, he pulled up very lame.

"We had him re-X-rayed and we found out he had arthritis to his off fore fetlock. He had two weeks off, just walking and we then nursed him all the way to get into the EW Barker Trophy.

"I didn't target him for that race, it's just that after his time off, that was the only race left.

"When the rain came, I was a bit more confident as he had three starts on a rain-affected track for two wins, but I was still worried about his soundness.

"He's actually not a bad horse. He once ran second to Top Knight in a Class 2 race beaten two lengths while giving him four kilos.

"When he straightened up, I could see Zaki still had plenty of horse. I knew he'd be hard to beat then."

While it was not a win he could have predicted with great confidence, Baertschiger was delighted he had secured a fourth Group win for the MA Racing Stable, but the highest thus far with the first three all Group 3s.

However, it was highly unlikely Nepean would be the one to extend that record for the green and chequered flag silks in the future.

"With his lameness problems, I had actually booked Nepean to go to Malaysia. At his last start, he came back lame but today, he seems to be okay so far, we'll have to wait.

"If he's lame again, I'll retire him, or else I may keep him but in any case, he's run his last race for this season. He's going for a break."

Seven-year-old Nepean has more than earned his oats with five wins and five placings in 19 starts for prizemoney around the S$490,000 for the MA Racing Stable.

Recent Lion City Cup placegetter Nowyousee (O'Reilly) finished second, a length behind Nepean, with Rocket Star (Star Witness) a further three-quarters of a length back in third.

Senor Don earns late Gold ticket

A daring gamble to gain a late entry for Argentinian stayer Senor Don (Senor Candy) into next Saturday's S$1 million Singapore Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) has all but paid off on Sunday following his maiden Singapore win in yesterday's S$70,000 Trudeau 2013 Stakes Class 3 race over the Polytrack mile.

On 73 points, Senor Don was 22nd in the order of entry in the third and final Leg of the Singapore Triple Crown series, but trainer Ricardo Le Grange is confident it should be enough to make into the last 16.

The South African trainer, however, stressed that the one proviso to a start would be for the four-year-old to show no ill-effects from Sunday's run in which he had to slog through the rain-soaked Polytrack to stave Time Lord (Guillotine) off by half a length. Axel (Darci Brahma) finished third, another three-quarter lengths away.

"He's got to get in now, but first he must pull up in good order," said Le Grange.

"There was a lot of rain, so I told Krisna (Thangamani) to be up on the pace. He was fit for that race and he had to go forward.

"That was his racing pattern in Argentina, racing on the speed. He also enjoyed the Polytrack, he won on sand back home.

"I think the gelding operation straight after his last run also helped him."

Meagher's bargain buy Straight from able Sydney horseman

A bit of those good old six degrees of separation went some way in landing trainer Daniel Meagher a nice debut winner at long odds on.

The horse in question is Lim's Straight (Strategic Maneuver) who came off a cushy run on the fence for jockey Tengku Rehaizat to go and dominate mostly unraced rivals in the S$75,000 Mister Yeoh 2018 Stakes Restricted Maiden race over 1200m.

The first time Meagher set eyes on the colt at the Inglis Ready To Race sale in Sydney last year, he almost walked on by to the next barn. There was not much of him at 400 kilograms, and while he trained another progeny of Strategic Maneuver (Royal Academy) in Absolute Miracle, it was not the most fashionable stallion going around.

But a casual chat with the owner-breeder would eventually lead Meagher to dip into his pocket - and he did not have to go too deep either.

"This six-foot-six bloke from the bush brought this horse out and as I was inspecting it, he asked me: 'Hey mate, Danny Beasley is your assistant-trainer isn't he?'" recalled the Australian handler.

"I said 'yes, that's right'. He then said 'I know Danny really well, he helped me a lot as a youngster when I was with Gai Waterhouse, please say hello to him for me.'"

After ringing the former top Sydney jockey up to mention that stockman-style breeder who introduced himself as Ryan Pendergast, Meagher knew he had to get the horse.

"Danny told me he knew that tall bloke and he was with Gai Waterhouse, and he was a really good horseman. He bred one of two and that one was one of them," said Meagher.

"So, I went back to look at the horse. He was not big, but he was a neat put-together horse and had a really good action, and was so well educated.

"I rang (racing manager) Mick (Dittman) and Mr Lim and said I had found a nice little horse for them and he won't cost much. They laughed when I told them I paid A$20,000 for him, but Mr Lim said that was a great buy, Daniel."

They are laughing all the way to the bank now after that debut win more than recouped their outlay with a first paycheck of around S$40,000, with the promise of more to come judging from the ease of the three-year-old's win.

Once the gaps came up upon cornering, Lim's Straight went hard up against the rails, shooting right past the leaders towards a most authoritative Length and a quarter win from Golden Way (Swiss Ace) with the fast-finishing Boundless Glory (Darci Brahma) third another three-parts of a length away.

The Lim's Stable later brought up a double with Lim's Bestbreaker (Battle Paint) for trainer Steven Burridge, aptly in one of their champion horses, the S$75,000 Lim's Cruiser 2016 Stakes Restricted Maiden race over the Polytrack 1200m.

PEDIGREE PROFILE

A PATTERN THAT CAN'T BE DENIED - BY LLOYD JACKSON

If you were given the choice between a mare bred on the Bletchingly (Biscay)-Vain (Wilkes) cross or one bred on the Metal Storm (Kenmare)-What A Guest (Be My Guest) cross, it would likely be a no-brainer. Everyone would plump for the former.

Not so fast. Bear with me because our subject has both, with the latter cross taking place more recently. It makes an interesting study to discover just how things seem to work out, given time and allowing for life's ups and downs.

Fellow historical bloodstock bloodlines enthusiast, researcher and story-teller Trevor Marshallsea - whose weekly ANZ Bloodstock News column, 'It's In The Blood', is a must-read - has the perfect description for Bob Peters: 'breeding maven'.

Peters' Arcadia Queen (Pierro), triumphant in the recent Mackinnon Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), is the result of well-founded beliefs. However, Peters has been involved with this particular family only since 2001 when he purchased Arcadia Queen's granddam Antique (Metal Storm) for the not inconsiderable sum of $130,000 at the annual Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sales.

Successful Western Australian bloodstock agent John Chalmers regularly consults with Peters but not in this case.

"Bob bought Antique himself from Lex Piper who owned a number of shares in Mungrup Stud's stallion Metal Storm. Bob raced Antique and the rest is history," Chalmers said.

The rest is indeed history. The family, which had good roots, was not weak at the time Peters bought in. However, it has gone on to be one of powerhouse proportions, aided greatly by another very successful cross, this time the

Arcadia Queen

CREDIT

Pierro (Lonhro)-Redoute's Choice (Danehill) cross, perfected by the maven.

Peters obviously saw something in Antique to warrant the $130,000 outlay.

What A Guest, sire of Antique's dam Bonny Guest, began life in Ireland. After a brief race career in France of just seven starts, all as a three-year-old - winning three stakes including a Group 2 at Saint-Cloud and a Group 3 at Longchamp - he returned to stud in Ireland.

Among his first crop was Claire Marine who, when exported to the United States, made quite a name for herself in taking out two of their best fillies and mares events when prepared by the great Charlie Whittingham in California. As a four-year-old she scored the Matriarch Stakes (Gr 1, 9f) at Hollywood Park and the Beverly Hills Stakes (Gr 1, 9f) at Del Mar. Both wins were achieved in 1989, by which time What A Guest had found a new home and was covering his third book of mares at Pelubra Park Stud in Victoria.

From What A Guest's second Australian crop emerged All Our Mob, a wonderfully durable and versatile runner who took his sprinting prowess from 1200 metres right through to 2000 metres. In successive years he bagged Eagle Farm's Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m), the Flemington straight-six Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m), the same track's Mackinnon Stakes and finally, as a seven-year-old, the Randwick All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) - all among 11 career wins.

These two were the standouts for the stallion who sired just six more stakes winners (only a further three in Australia) but none in the class of either Claire Marine or All Our Mob.

Was What A Guest the reason for Peters' interest? In all likelihood, no. Neither was Bonny Guest's racing ability as she managed just a maiden win.

Her deeper family was the linchpin and this is where things get interesting and where Peters may have spotted a successful combination of bloodlines sufficient for him to make such an investment.

Enter Metal Storm.

Bonny Guest had a total of 12 foals; her fourth, fifth, sixth and eighth were to Metal Storm, in which breeder Lex Piper owned shares.

Bred in France and winner of the Prix de la Jonchere (Gr 3, 1600m) at Chantilly plus victorious in a Listed race at Maisons-Laffitte, those comprising two of his four total wins, Metal Storm started his new life in 1995 at Mungrup Stud, Narrikup, 35 kilometres north of Albany in southern Western Australia.

Bonny Guest's dam was Bonny Dancer, a Sydney winner and a daughter of Bletchingly. Bonny Dancer herself produced three winners, one stakes-placed. Not exactly earth-shattering stuff but better was yet to come. Blood will out, as the saying goes. She ranked as a sister or half-sister to three stakes winners including the top-class sprinter, Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) victor Kenvain, a son of Kenmare (Kalamoun).

Metal Storm is also a son of Kenmare.

By the time Peters purchased Antique, Metal Storm's first crop were four-year-olds and his second crop included Antique's two-years-older sister Kalatiara. Four successive wins in Perth to wrap up her two-year-old season, Kalatiara also added three more, making seven on the trot, in the spring/summer of her second season, culminating with the Western Australian Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) against the boys.

Kalatiara would also dramatically add to her record. When exported to the United States, she took out the Royal Heroine Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) at Hollywood Park, had some bad luck at stud there but later returned home to Australia where she produced Perth Listed winner Kalahaar to Choisir (Danehill Dancer).

Metal Storm's second crop of six stakes winners also included Old Fashion, who had three Listed wins on the board prior to the 2001 Perth Yearling Sale. The best rated of Metal Storm's 23 stakes winners, he would not become a Group 1 winner - taking the Railway Stakes (Gr1, 1600m) - until the following season.

Antique had a second older sister, one-year-older Kentiara who managed a haul of 11 wins including two Listed stakes in Perth but she didn't begin racing (winning on debut) until a month after Antique was knocked down to Peters. She has since thrown Kencella (Exceed And Excel), a Sydney Group 3 winner.

Antique may still have been considered an expensive purchase but must have shown Peters plenty. Her win in Perth as a two-year-old was such that she was given her chance in Melbourne in the spring of 2002. So, east she went, took out a nice race at Caulfield, placed in Listed company at Moonee Valley and then ran third in the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) behind Bulla Borghese (Belong To Me), her final race at start ten.

A fourth Metal Storm filly (foaled after Antique) from Bonny Guest, Laciennne, would later produce Perth Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) victor Guest Wing (Right Wing).

There is an old American saying that is often used to describe someone who experiences bad luck. That term is "snake bit". In the case of Metal Storm, that term became a reality when the stallion, in the prime of his success, was indeed bitten by a snake part-way through his seventh season, and he succumbed.

Mungrup Stud recently wound up their operation and owners Gray and Jan Williamson will probably see Metal Storm's sad ending as the low point in their otherwise very successful stud's history.

Peters' introduction of Redoute's Choice to the mix, when Antique was retired to stud, realised sisters Broadway Belle and Antique Belle, each Listed winners in Perth.

To Pierro, Broadway Belle has produced Regal Power to gain the Railway Stakes as well as the rich All-Star Mile (1600m) and the Western Australian Derby (Gr 2, 2400m), and his brother Action, who claimed the Derby the previous year.

A further mating between Redoute's Choice and Antique brought about Arcadia, who like her mum, was sent to Melbourne, succeeding once there after two wins at home.

At stud Arcadia has been the most successful of all the above with four stakes winners (two by Pierro) including, of course, star mare Arcadia Queen.

With her glorious Mackinnon Stakes triumph, her third Group 1, Arcadia Queen matches close relative Mr Murphy (Danehill), whose treble included back-to-back victories in the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) during the 2001-02 season.

Mr Murphy's granddam Verdi (Showdown) is a half-sister to Dancelot (Vain), the third dam of Antique.

Our maven's masterstroke is the topping up with Pierro, a cross that has proved enormously successful with Antique's daughters, not to mention Redoute's Choice mares at large.

Of Pierro's 24 stakes winners, nine are out of Redoute's Choice mares. Four - Arcadia Queen, Regal Power, Action and Arcadia Prince - are brothers or sisters in blood; all bred and raced by Peters.

The remaining five are Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Levendi, dual Group 2 winner Dragon Leap, Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m) winner Furore and Listed winners Kentucky Breeze and Sacramento.

Of the 15 that are not out of Redoute's Choice mares, six have been bred from mares by other sons of Danehill (Danzig). Two, dual Group 1 winner Pierata and Satin Slipper, are from mares by Flying Spur. Another two, Rock and Untamed, are from Fastnet Rock mares, dual Group 3 winner Tulip is from a Rock of Gibraltar mare while Group 3 winner Bellevue Hill is from an Exceed And Excel mare.

That makes 15 of 24 bred on an identical pattern to which can also be added VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) Pinot, whose granddam is by Danehill, as are South African Group 3 winner Roy Had Enough and Ethereal Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) winner Gamay.

In case there is any doubt, Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) and Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) hero Shadow Hero's dam Sookie is by Flying Spur's son Casino Prince.

Want to breed a stakes winner by Pierro? It might be a good idea to ensure that there is some Danehill blood very close up in your mare's pedigree.

Otherwise, just ask Bob Peters.
