BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Interstate trainers and agents along with participants from the Asian racing capitals of Hong Kong and Singapore are set to bolster the local buying bench at the Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale.

The 185-lot Book 1 sale will be held this afternoon and the catalogue features yearlings by Western Australian stallions Blackfriars (Danhill), Snippetson (Snippets), the regular stakes-producing War Chant (Danzig) and newcomers such as Awesome Rock (Fastnet Rock) and King's Troop (Redoute's Choice).

Eastern seaboard sires represented include Deep Field (Northern Meteor), who had a colt top last week's Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, Zoustar (Northern Meteor), Choisir (Danhill Dancer), Divine Prophet (Choisir), Dundee (High Chaparral), Headwater (Exceed And Excel) and Hinchinbrook (Fastnet Rock).

Beauty battles back to land third Queen's Silver Jubilee

A different approach brought a familiar result as Beauty Generation (Road To Rock) returned to the winner's arch with a tough victory in the Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup (Gr 1, 1400m) at Sha Tin yesterday.

Trainer John Moore's "tweaks" saw Hong Kong's champion battle to a history-making third victory in the 1400-metre feature in as many years and put behind him four successive defeats.

Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch said the company's Western Australian raceday, conducted at Pinjarra earlier this month, had created "a positive vibe going into the sale".

"There's a good number of interstate buyers and a smattering of internationals here, which is great, including from Singapore and a few from Hong Kong," Bowditch told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday.

"The four main eastern states are also well represented, but what we are going to be reliant on is the local market, as always, with the Westspeed system over here.

"With those bonuses and what they are racing for week in, week out is quite phenomenal. I think any owner or trainer over here who is not playing their part in trying to pick up these well-bred and well-conformed horses at the sale for what money they are racing for is insane."

The Perth sale has provided professional agents with strong trading opportunities in recent years, including a knockout result for Guy Mulcaster emerging from last year's WA auction.

The New Zealand agent, signing under the Oakwood Farm Molton banner, selected a Shamus Award (Snitzel) colt for $52,000 from the Mogumber Park draft. He subsequently became the highest-priced horse sold at the Australasian two-year-old sales in the spring.

The colt was knocked down for $550,000 at the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run Sale of 2YOs in November, providing a terrific return for Mulcaster's clients.

In 2017, Damon Gabbedy of Belmont Bloodstock bought a Written Tycoon (Iglesia) filly for $110,000 from Dawson Stud before capitalising on the popularity of the leading Victorian sire four months later by selling her for $300,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast National Yearling Sale.

"The trade market here always provides great opportunity and it will again this year," Bowditch said.

"Guy is back here, as are the breeze-up guys and the ones who get them up and trial them to take east or internationally and make a dollar are here looking to find a few trade horses as well."

Awesome Rock has 17 yearlings while champion local sire Blackfriars has 15 and Snippetson (Snippets), the sire of Magic Millions WA 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner Gemma's Son, has 19 lots catalogued.

Mungrup Stud's Playing God (Blackfriars), who is the sire of this season's Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) winner Kay Cee, has a dozen yearlings set to go under the hammer.

Amelia Park Racing and Breeding will offer a select seven-lot draft, all of whom are by interstate stallions including Pierro (Lonhro), Shooting To Win (Northern Meteor) and Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry).

Farm manager Sarah Brown said Amelia Park's draft had come under strong scrutiny from local and interstate buyers during a full day of inspections yesterday.

"I am really happy with our draft. They are still commercial enough that they are in a price bracket that Perth can get involved, but being by eastern state stallions, that has created interstate interest for us," Brown said yesterday.

"Today was really busy and it was a bit hectic. There were a lot of eastern state buyers here, which is really good for everyone in Perth, and then there were the locals who always show up."

Last year's Perth Book 1 sale, the first at Magic Millions then near-complete Swan Valley complex, saw 111 yearlings sold. The top price was $260,000 at an average of $64,667 with a median of $52,500.

The 2020 Perth sale continues this year's circuit, which started at the Gold Coast in January with a strong auction, followed by a competitive market at Karaka in New Zealand and encouraging figures recorded at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale in Sydney last week.

Bowditch laboured the point that Western Australian owners and trainers would underpin the Perth sale but believes some market confidence can be gained from what has occurred at other sales so far this year.

"Generally, you have got to look at some of those indicators and if those markets in the east are strong, it should reflect here in Perth in some way I would have thought," he said.

"Some of the interstate buyers are still on their way in and then you've got the local guys who will do their work in the morning and then are able to come out and do four or five hours of inspections before the sale begins.

"With the auditorium and the new complex here, horses are well presented and it has got a positive vibe about it. All in all, I think the state deserves to have a successful sale with the effort they put in."

The Book 1 session starts at 1pm local time today with Book 2 taking place from 11am tomorrow.

Rulership in danger of missing Diamond start

Connections of Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) second-favourite Rulership (I Am Invincible) face an anxious wait to see if the colt makes the final field for Victoria's premier two-year-old race. A winner on debut at Randwick before finishing second to Hanseatic (Street Boss) in the Blue Diamond Prelude (C&G) (Gr 3, 1100m) at Caulfield on February 8, Rulership is 20th in the ballot order for Saturday's race at Caulfield. The final field of 16, plus four emergencies, will be announced tomorrow. "We'll have an anxious few days to find out if we make the field," co-trainer Peter Snowden said. "Rulership has made improvement out of that run as it was only his second run and I know he led first-up, but that's not the way to ride him. He's definitely a better horse ridden back off the speed and you can imagine in a Blue Diamond field of 16 runners there would be good speed, there always is, and sitting back off them, I'm sure he'll make his presence felt."

Bivouac early Oakleigh Plate favourite

Trainer James Cummings is confident Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) is mentally and physically switched on for his bid to become the latest three-year-old to win a feature open-class sprint this season. The Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m)-winning colt pleased his trainer in a jump-out at Flemington on Friday in preparation for his return in Saturday's Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) at Caulfield. This century, Fastnet Rock (Danehill) (2005), Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) (2006) and Starspangledbanner (Choisir)

(2010) have all won the Oakleigh Plate as three-year-old colts. "What I like is that he is still mentally switched on but very willing," Cummings said. "He's got an excellent mind and he is focused on his training which gives me every indication he is going to do the same once we saddle him up. From that perspective we're excited to see him return."

Options open for Alabama Express

C F Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice) will be nominated for the Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) but trainer Mike Moroney is still undecided which path the colt will take. Alabama Express upstaged the older horses to win the weight-for-age C F Orr at Caulfield last Saturday week and Saturday's Futurity is run under the same conditions over the same course and distance. There is also the option to step him up to the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) against his own age group on Saturday week at Flemington, or drop him back to 1200 metres in the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m). "He's certainly bred to be able to go further but we're sort of studying the races and the horses that we'll be racing against and those two three-year-olds looked pretty smart yesterday," Moroney said. "We think a lot of our horse too, so it's just a matter of whether we go to the mile or what we do."

No firm Futurity decision for Fierce Impact

A crucial track gallop at Warwick Farm will determine immediate plans for Fierce Impact (Deep Impact) as trainer Matt Smith weighs up Group 1 options in Sydney and Melbourne. The horse resumed with a slashing second to Alabama Express in the C F Orr Stakes, signalling he was in for another lucrative campaign. Delighted with his return, Smith has brought Fierce Impact home to Sydney and is keen to see how he shapes up in a trackwork test on Monday before deciding his next move. "It will either be the Futurity or the Chipping Norton," Smith said. "It really depends how sharp he works. If he worked nice and sharp on Monday then we will go to Melbourne. If he works like he's looking for the mile, like the edge is off him a little bit, we will wait and go to the Chipping Norton."

Chipperfield down but far from out

Clayton Chipperfield, the trainer of boom New Zealander Catalyst (Darci Brahma), drew encouragement from jockey James McDonald after the star three-year-old was narrowly beaten by Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) in the C S Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) on Saturday. "What a race it was and although the defeat has a sting in it, we left the course on Saturday night with a big smile on our faces," Chipperfield said. "James came back in and was glowing in his praise for the horse. The first thing he said was that he was looking for the 1600 metres and would be an even better horse when he gets over that distance. He also felt he would be better with a sit where he could hook out and use his sprint to best effect." McDonald, who has commitments in Sydney on Saturday week and will not be able to ride the gelding, also felt Catalyst would be better suited in a bigger field in the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). "James gave me all that feedback after the race and even took the time to ring me again later that night which I really appreciated," the trainer said.

Freedman delighted with Chenier's return

While Alligator Blood and Catalyst staged a thrilling duel in the C S Hayes Stakes, the comeback performance of Chenier to finish just behind them has his connections upbeat. The Anthony Freedman-trained, Godolphin-owned Chenier (Medaglia d'Oro) missed the spring carnival because of a pelvic fracture and raced for the first time in ten months in Saturday's C S Hayes. The colt was having his third start and first in stakes grade and briefly looked to have a chance in the home straight. "I couldn't be happier," Freedman said. "He was first-up for nearly a year. There's obviously going to be really good improvement there and he was very strong late. He was closing in the last 100 metres. He'll stay here and run again in two weeks. We might get a firmer track and a bigger field and he could run very well."

Royal Ascot for Gytrash?

The Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) on March 7 is next on the agenda for Saturday's surprise Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) winner Gytrash (Lope De Vega), but trainer Gordon Richards is contemplating a trip to Royal Ascot further down the line. "To be totally honest, it's not something I had previously considered but there are a lot of positives," Richards told Racing.com. "He is such a relaxed customer and travels around without turning a hair. He is also obviously very effective up the straight. You saw his owners yesterday at Flemington, they're a crazy bunch. I reckon Royal Ascot wouldn't be hard to sell to them."

Kewney next for Rubisaki

Rubisaki (Rubick), who took out last week's rescheduled Inglis Millennium (RL, 1100m) at Warwick Farm, will have her next outing in the Kewney Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Flemington on March 7 before a possible return to Sydney for the PJ Bell Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick on April 4. Connections had initially considered a tilt at the Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) for their improving three-year-old, but Joe O'Neill, founder and managing director of owner Prime Thoroughbreds, confirmed on Twitter the two-race plan.

43 for War Chant

War Chant

YARRADALE STUD

The Simon Miller-trained Flower Of War (4 m ex Indian Flower by Husson) made it eight wins from 12 starts and almost $400,000 in prize-money with a maiden stakes victory in the Cyril Flower Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Ascot on Saturday, delivering her WA-based sire War Chant (Danzig) with his 43rd stakes winner. Flower Of War defeated stablemate Valour Road (Frost Giant) and Floyd (Not A Single Doubt). The Yarradale Stud-based War Chant, who stood for $11,000 (inc GST) in 2019, covered 46 mares last year.

57 for Sebring

Exciting Perth three-year-old Superstorm (3 g Stormy Nova by Metal Storm) is likely to be given his shot in the Australian Guineas by Bob Peters after a brilliant return in the Challenge Stakes (Listed, 1500m) at Ascot on Saturday. The Grant and Alana Williams-trained Superstorm was the 57th individual stakes winner for the late Widden Stud sire Sebring (More Than Ready). Superstorm has now won twice from six starts.

More Doomben twilight meets likely Racing Queensland will program more Thursday twilight meetings next season after the initial test period was frustrated by rain and mishaps. RQ programmed five twilight meetings at Doomben with the Wednesday meetings being shared by northern clubs, Kilcoy and the Gold Coast. Two of the Doomben meetings were washed out while another two were disrupted. One of the meetings was delayed by a problem with an axle on the barrier stalls and another was put back an hour after a fall. RQ's chief executive Brendan Parnell said it was unfortunate the trial had been dogged by bad luck. "However, the initial figures indicate it was well worthwhile with the combined Wednesday and Thursday figures up," Parnell said. "Figures presented for the first four weeks (until the end of January) given recent abandonments are encouraging. For the January 20 period Thursday metro turnover/race was up 11 per cent year on year when compared to the corresponding Wednesday metros."

Queensland courting TV networks

The three free-to-air television networks have shown interest in televising Queensland racing. The Queensland media rights, which are currently held by Sky Channel, are up for renewal with a decision likely to be made by April. Sky is again a bidder while Racing.com, which has rights in Victoria and South Australia, is also an interested party. Queensland officials have three major options to award exclusive rights to either Sky or Racing.com or give joint rights to both or to have a mixture of free-to-air and a subscription network. It is understood the Seven Network, which already has a free to air channel with Racing.com, is keen to expand its coverage of racing Australia wide. Network Ten, which has rights to the Melbourne Cup carnival, is looking at expanded coverage while the Nine Network is also understood to be keen. "I can confirm there has been interest from the three free-to-air networks," Racing Queensland chief executive Brendan Parnell said.

Tractor malfunction at Bordertown

A tractor malfunction almost led to a middle-distance race being marred by a serious incident at Bordertown yesterday. The sixth event on the seven-race card, a benchmark 62 handicap over 2000 metres, was abandoned as the field approached the home bend with the starting stalls unable to be moved from the course proper. Jockeys in the front half of the field heeded warning signals passing the 500-metre mark, slamming on the brakes, with riders in the second half of the field scrambling wider on the track to avoid clipping heels in front. The barriers were eventually cleared. Several confused jockeys then recommenced riding, urging their horses to the finish, but Thoroughbred Racing SA stewards quickly determined the race to be void.

NEW ZEALAND

Jason Waddell to ride Dragon Leap

Jason Waddell has been confirmed as the rider for Dragon Leap (Pierro) in the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at Ellerslie on February 29. While delighted with the opportunity presented to him by Dragon Leap's co-trainer Lance O'Sullivan, Waddell admits he was left with a slightly hollow feeling after making his decision as it meant he had to forego the ride on the Stephen Marsh-trained Scorpz (Charm Spirit), who is also a leading contender for the race. "It was a very difficult decision to make as I didn't want to let anybody down," Waddell said. "On one hand you get the chance to ride the clear favourite for the race who could be a truly freakish talent and on the other was a horse I have a lot of belief in and is from a stable that has shown a lot of faith in me in the past. Added to that was the fact that there is no guarantee I could stick with Dragon Leap when he goes to Australia whereas I had that assurance with Scorpz."

Vladivostok confirms Derby start

In other New Zealand Derby news, Vladivostok (Charm Spirit) is set to line-up in the contest having got the better of his older rivals in a 2100-metre handicap at Ellerslie on Saturday. Vladivostok is likely to be the third representative for trainer Andrew Campbell and the colt's ownership group, headed by breeder Tommy Heptinstall, in the Derby, joining stable companions Tibetan (Shocking) and Peloton (Charm Spirit). "He's bred to get a trip but you never quite know until they have a go at it so to see him run it out that strongly was just great and I think he will now take his place in the Derby," Campbell said. "I will have a chat with Tommy just to confirm it but, in all likelihood, we will have three in the race with Tibetan and Peloton confirmed as well."

49 for Pentire

Rich Hill Stud's late foundation sire Pentire (Be My Guest) sired his 49th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Polzeath (7 g ex Arniston by Volksraad) took out the Joe McDonald Avondale Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) at Ellerslie. Trained by Moira and Kieran Murdoch, Polzeath got the better of Platinum Invador (Redwood) by the narrowest of margins in a photo finish, while Etah James (Raise The Flag) was a further one length back in third. Pentire died in 2017 aged 25 and he is the sire of 16 Group 1 winners, including Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) hero Prince Of Penzance.

Plans fluid for Polzeath

Co-trainer Moira Murdoch has yet to make a decision on where Polzeath will head next following his weekend heroics. "We haven't decided what to do with him next, and we'll have to think about it over the next few days," Murdoch said. "We haven't nominated him for the Auckland Cup, and I've never really thought he was a two-mile horse. We'll have a bit of a think about it. There'll be plenty of other options that we could look at instead." Reflecting on Polzeath's success, Murdoch added: "It was very exciting and a great performance by the horse. We thought he was nicely placed in the race. He had a good form line, and he's been racing really well all season. He got into the race with a lovely light weight, and Jasmine (Fawcett) gave him a lovely ride and he delivered."

INTERNATIONAL

Ascot chasing Aussie juveniles

Nick Smith, Ascot's director of racing and communications, hopes to lure an Australian two-year-old to this year's royal meeting with a view to competing in their flagship three-year-old sprint, the Commonwealth Cup (Gr 1, 6f). "One of the things I've been talking to Godolphin about, because they have the ammunition and the weight of runners, is the idea of running two-year-olds at the end of their season in our Commonwealth Cup, which is the equivalent of your Coolmore (Stud Stakes)," Smith told Racing.com. "I don't foresee a (Golden) Slipper winner jumping on the plane but a horse that was a late developer, maybe finished fourth or fifth in the Slipper and wanted one more crack at a proper Group 1 race then that option is available." Colts and geldings carry 58.5 kilograms and fillies 57 kilograms in the Commonwealth Cup, while southern hemisphere entrants are afforded a further 4.5 kilograms weight allowance.

Volfango retains Saonois crown

The Fabrice Vermeulen-trained Volfango (6 h Dutch Art - Celebre Vadala by Peintre Celebre) won the Prix Saonois (Listed, 1600m) for the second year in succession when he landed the spoils by three-quarters of a length at Cagnes-sur-Mer on Saturday. In getting the better of Bowerman, Volfango completed a quinella for Cheveley Park sire Dutch Art (Medicean), while Rocquemont (Anodin) was a further length away in third. The winner is now qualified for the final of the All-Weather Championships Mile (1600m) at Lingfield on Good Friday, although after winning the Saonois last year, he subsequently ran fifth behind Ghaïyyath (Dubawi) in the Prix d'Harcourt (Gr 2, 2000m).

149 for Deep Impact

Late Shadai Stallion Station resident Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) sired his 149th stakes winner on Saturday when Miyamazakura (3 f ex Miss Pascali by Mr Greeley) won The Daily Hai Queen Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) at Tokyo. Magic Castle completed a quinella for Deep Impact when running second by a neck, while there was a further three-quarters of a length back to Seiun Venus (Curren Black Hill) in third. Trained by Hideaki Fujiwara, Miyamazakura was Grade 3-placed on her last outing at Kyoto in November, while Deep Impact is also the sire of 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) winner and current Coolmore shuttler Saxon Warrior.

Genesis lands Kyoto Kinen

Last year's The Daily Hai Queen Cup winner Chrono Genesis (4 m Bago - Chronologist by Kurofune) secured her fifth win from nine career starts when she took out the Kyoto Kinen (Gr 2, 2200m) at Kyoto yesterday. Having landed the Shuko Sho (Gr 1, 2200m) in October prior to running fifth in a blanket finish to the Queen Elizabeth II Cup (Gr 1, 2200m) over yesterday's track and distance, Chrono Genesis quickened two and a half lengths clear of Curren Bouquetd'or (Deep Impact) in second, with a further length and three quarters back to Stay Foolish (Stay Gold) in third.

51 for New Approach

New Approach

DARLEY

Godolphin-raced colt Darlington Hall (3 c New Approach - Miss Kenton by Pivotal) took out the Kyodo News Service Hai (Tokinominoru Kinen) (Gr 2, 1800m) at Tokyo yesterday to become the 51st individual stakes winner for Darley sire New Approach (Galileo). Purchased by Darley Japan for 70,000 gns at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale in 2017, Darlington Hall prevailed in a thrilling finish when fending off the challenge of Bitterender (Orfevre) by a nose. The front two pulled four lengths clear of Figlio Allegro (Deep Impact) in third.

Love continues progression

Grade 1 winner Hard Not To Love (4 m Hard Spun - Loving Vindication by Vindication) bolstered her enviable career record with a three and a half-length success in the Santa Monica Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) at Santa Anita on Saturday. Trained by John A Shirreffs, Hard Not To Love was last seen winning the La Brea Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) over track and distance in December and she made it five wins from six starts when beating Mother Mother (Pioneer of the Nile). Zusha (Congrats) ran third, beaten a further length and a half.

54 for Uncle Mo

Modernist (3 c ex Symbolic Gesture by Bernardini) took out the second division of the Risen Star Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) at Fair Grounds on Saturday to become the 54th stakes winner for Ashford Stud stallion Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie). Racing on the dirt, the Bill Mott-trained three-year-old finished a length too strong for Major Fed (Ghostzapper) with a further neck back to Ny Traffic (Cross Traffic) in third. Modernist has now won two of his four starts having landed a Maiden Special Weight at Aqueduct in January, while Uncle Mo - who is also the sire of Nyquist - is standing for a fee of US$125,000 this year.

Three for Palace Malice

The first division of the Risen Star Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) went the way of Mr Monomoy (3 c ex Drumette by Henny Hughes), who became the third individual stakes winner for Palace Malice (Curlin). Having been beaten a neck into third in Grade 3 company on his last outing in January, Mr Monomoy continued his progress on the dirt when beating Enforceable (Tapit) by half a length. Silver State (Hard Spun) was a further length and a half back in third. A resident of Three Chimneys Farm, Palace Malice is standing for a fee of US$25,000 in 2020, while he is best known as the sire of last year's Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf (Gr 1, 8f) winner Structor.

Rachel Alexandra to Finite

Finite (3 f Munnings - Remit by Tapit) made it five wins in succession when she claimed the Rachel Alexandra Stakes (Gr 2, 8.5f) in emphatic style at Fair Grounds on Saturday. Beginning her winning streak at Kentucky Downs in September, Grade 2 winner Finite - who was last seen landing the Silverbulletday Stakes (Listed, 8f) on January 18 - proved much too strong for British Idiom (Flashback), with a further length and three quarters back to Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) in third.

Factor This back to winning ways

Later on the Fair Grounds card, Factor This (5 h The Factor - Capricious Miss by Singspiel) regained the winning thread with a one-length success in the Fair Grounds Stakes (Gr 3, 9f). Synchrony (Tapit) ran second, while Botswana (Graydar) was a further four and a half lengths adrift in third. The winner of eight of his 27 stars, the consistent Factor This was last successful when taking out the Kentucky Downs Preview Turf Cup (Listed, 10f) in August.

Silver Dust doubles up

Silver Dust (6 h Tapit - Filare l'Oro by Hard Spun) supplemented last month's success in the Louisiana Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) with a follow-up victory over the same track and distance at Fair Grounds on Saturday, securing the Mineshaft Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) by three-quarters of a length. Gun It (Tapit) ran second while Pirate's Punch (Shanghai Bobby) was third, beaten a further neck.

Cookie sweet in Delta

After being narrowly denied in the Rampart Stakes (Gr 3, 8f) in December, Cookie Dough (4 m Brethren - Brooke's Valentine by Fusaichi Pegasus) went one better to secure the Royal Delta Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Gulfstream Park on Saturday. Golden Award (Medaglia d'Oro) ran second, beaten three-quarters of a length, while Queen Nekia (Harlington) was just a nose further back in third. A likeable performer, Cookie Dough has now won three of her 13 starts, placing another seven times. She was beaten a head in a Gulfstream Park Grade 2 last March.

Firenze completes the hat-trick

The Jason Servis-trained Firenze Fire (5 h Poseidon's Warrior - My Every Wish by Langfuhr) brought up a hat-trick of wins in fine style when he stormed to a four-length success in the General George Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Laurel Park on Saturday. Ridden by Irad Ortiz, Firenze Fire finished four lengths clear of Threes Over Deuces (Flat Out) in second, while Still Having Fun (Old Fashioned) was another length and a quarter away in third. In winning his third straight race, Firenze Fire was supplementing earlier victories at Penn and Aqueduct.

Majestic at the double

Also at Laurel, Majestic Reason (5 m Majestic Warrior - Love's Reason by Not for Love) is now a three-time stakes winner having come home two and a quarter lengths to the good in the Runhappy Barbara Fritchie Stakes (Gr 3, 7f). Graham Motion's five-year-old got the better of Victim Of Love (Speightstown) while Anna's Bandit (Great Notion) ran third, beaten a further half a length. Majestic Reason was last seen winning in Listed company at the track in December and she has finished outside of the top three just once in her 13-start career.

Beauty Generation battles back to lift a third Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup

BY DAVID MORGAN | HKJC_RACING

A different approach brought a familiar result as Beauty Generation (Road To Rock) returned to the winner's arch with a tough victory in the Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup (Gr 1, 1400m) at Sha Tin yesterday.

Trainer John Moore's "tweaks" saw Hong Kong's champion battle to a history-making third victory in the 1400-metre feature in as many years and put behind him four successive defeats.

"The defeats have been disappointing but they hadn't been by any great margin," Moore said after collecting the trophy for the fourth time in a row and eleventh time in his career.

"I said to the staff that we just had to try a few things a little bit different, just to tweak his mind and get him thinking that he can win races. We managed to do that by taking off the blinkers, putting on the side winkers and the bit-lifter.

"I jumped him out of the gate on Thursday morning. I did a lot of things with him trying to not stick to the same pattern as we'd had in the lead-up to the big races in the past. It was quite a different prep."

Beauty Generation's astute partner Zac Purton had hoped to lead the seven-runner affair but that plan was scotched when Hot King Prawn (Denman) outpaced him and claimed the vanguard under Karis Teetan.

Purton opted instead to settle the seven-year-old in fourth, biding his time until the champ rolled up strongly at the turn into the straight. The Australian shook the reins and Beauty Generation drew level with the leader at the 300-metre point, and from there he ground out the win.

Hot King Prawn faded to third as Beauty Generation held off Ka Ying Star (Cityscape) by half a length in a time of 1.21.64.

"It probably didn't go to script really - we thought we might be able to lead this race but Hot King Prawn, as we know, can lead 1000-metre races and had too much speed for us early. I couldn't take the position so I had to ride him where I was and had belief in the horse," Purton said.

Beauty Generation (right)

"The stable said they thought they had him back to where we need him to be and as always John was right."

But while Beauty Generation proved that he still has what it takes to be a force at the highest level, the manner of victory - albeit into a headwind - lacked the imperious power of the peak performances that saw the Patrick Kwok-owned bay stand out as the world's best miler.

"I don't think we're going to see him as good as he was last season but he's very close to that and that's good enough to win some races," Purton said.

"He got to the front and I thought he was going to cruise away and win easily, but being a little bit older and knowing what the game is about these days he just floated a little bit when he was in front.

"He's lost that real aggression, just to put them away and kill them - he's happy to win now, but he doesn't need to win as far as he was before, in his mind."

Moore is looking to Meydan now and the Dubai Turf (Gr 1, 1800m) at the end of March, but that possible assignment is still at the discussion stage.

"I've just got to put it to Patrick and I hope he'll give me the green light because I think he'll be very competitive; I think he could do a great job in Dubai over 1800 metres," Moore said.

The win was a welcome one for Purton, being his first Group 1 success this season after plenty of close attempts.

"I've run second and third in every other Group 1 this season, so I haven't been far away. The horses are a little bit older than they were last season and that doesn't make it easy because you've got the young horses coming through," he said.

The Tony Cruz-trained Ka Ying Star posted an improved effort to fill the runner-up spot under Jamie Spencer.

"He had a good run round; they went soft fractions and if I had my time again I'd hoof him in the belly a bit earlier," Spencer said.

The disappointment of the race was champion sprinter Beat The Clock (Hinchenbrook). John Size's charge placed runner-up in the past two editions of this race but lost his record of having never finished out of the first three in his career with a below-par fifth, beaten three and three quarter lengths.

"Today he wasn't able to bring his best," jockey Joao Moreira said. "This is the very first time I've had to talk about his non-performance.

"He didn't break as well as usual, he was in a position where I wouldn't like to see him and when I pulled him out in the straight he just didn't quicken as he would have done in the past.

"It was disappointing but I still love this horse, he has a place in my heart and let's look for the next one – 1400 metres is stretching him to his limit."

Time Warp turns time to floor Exultant in Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup

Time Warp (Archipenko) delivered a blast from the past to level hot favourite Exultant (Teofilo) in a rip-roaring Hong Kong Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) earlier on the Sha Tin card.

Two years ago, in the same race, the Tony Cruz-trained chestnut became the first horse to dip below two minutes for the course and distance. He was the exciting new star on the scene as that Gold Cup win rolled off a similar front-running demolition of international rivals in the Hong Kong Cup (Gr 1, 2000m).

Circumstances were much different yesterday: a veteran of 32 Hong Kong starts, the seven-year-old lined up as an unconsidered 25/1 shot against his short-priced stablemate, having posted just one win in 16 runs since his 2018 Gold Cup success – and that had come in November of that same year.

"That was a big surprise! I was expecting Exultant to win the race," Cruz said.

That sentiment was shared by all. Exultant, Hong Kong's standout champion at distances from 1800 to 2400 metres, was supposed to step up and claim a second successive Hong Kong Gold Cup, a win that would hopefully set up a tilt at the Dubai Sheema Classic (Gr 1, 2400m) at Meydan next month.

But when Joao Moreira was handed an easy lead on the strong-galloping Time Warp, Exultant's task became a more difficult one, his rider Zac Purton having been forced to settle back from gate nine.

"That barrier was not a good barrier for him and that was his undoing," Purton said.

Time Warp

It was a case of "Thank you very much, now I can go!" for Moreira though, who was back aboard the British import for the first time since November 2017 and was delighted to bag a fifth Group 1 win this term.

"He jumped extremely well and put himself up there," Moreira said. "I didn't have to work too much in the first half of the race, I was just trying to make sure he was comfortable.

"Passing the 700 metres, he had a nice rhythm and I started building up, I couldn't see anyone else challenging him and I thought maybe this is his day."

A stiff tailwind had aided Time Warp's cause down the backside but that turned to a crosswind hitting his face upon entering the home run. The gelding was unfazed, kicking on relentlessly as Purton, urging Exultant vigorously from before the final turn, began to get desperate.

"With 200 metres to go I could see Exultant coming on my outside," Moreira said. "Zac was screaming and shouting, making sure his horse was attacking the line, and he was coming, but fortunately my bloke just didn't give up. He's proven to be a very good horse, he's won some of the best races in town and he's proved that he's still got it!"

Moreira drove his mount to win by three-quarters of a length from the closing Exultant, to clock a race-winning time of 2.02.00.

The three-time champion jockey's whip fell only three times, each down Time Warp's shoulder – and each time the chestnut's tail flashed disapprovingly.

"I said to Joao 'make sure you don't touch his hind quarter' because he will put the brakes on," Cruz revealed.

"Joao knows this horse and it's very simple – he goes to the front and he likes to dictate the race and have everything his own way. If he's still in front going into the straight he's very difficult to run down."

Time Warp's victory gave Cruz a third Gold Cup on the bounce and Moreira a third all told following Military Attack (Oratorio) and Designs On Rome (Holy Roman Emperor).

The winner will stick to what he enjoys best, leading them along at Sha Tin, but the trainer is still hoping for a Dubai tilt with the defeated Exultant.

"I'll have to discuss with the owner before we make a decision on Exultant," Cruz said about plans for Hong Kong's champion stayer.

The Ricky Yiu-trained Citron Spirit (Invincible Spirit) earned a career best third place under Neil Callan at odds of 57/1.

Hong Kong racing continues at Sha Tin on Wednesday, February 19.
