Million-dollar I Am Invincible colt brings a close to remarkable Book 1 at Magic Millions

Stunning results leaves an emotional Bowditch to praise vendors, buyers and colleagues

Lot 934: I Am Invincible - Villa Verde colt

Magic Millions was last night toasting the setting of a new benchmark set of figures for its major auction of the year, the Gold Coast Yearling Sale, after a $1 million I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) colt brought to an end a massive five-session Book 1 offering.

The company had gambled in November by compiling a bigger catalogue this year and while conventional wisdom suggests that the average and median should go down as a result of the increased numbers, that was not the case.

As the Book 1 aggregate closes in on the $200 million mark - it was at $197,240,000 late last night - at an average of $253,000 with 761 horses sold, Magic Millions' managing director Barry Bowditch was emotional when he reflected on the events which had unfolded over the previous five days. Continued on page 2>>

"It's overwhelming. It's special what we've achieved. To work as we've done in the last six months to put this catalogue together, and then to have the restrictions and the roadblocks put in place over the last month, has put this team under immense pressure," Bowditch revealed last night.

"To pull this off to the level we have is something we didn't expect. It was very special. This has been crazy, so to do it and to almost gross $200 million, we aimed to do that for Book 1 and Book 2, and to get there in Book 1 is amazing."

"To average a quarter of a million when we have increased our numbers and to clear the same number."

Bowditch praised the vendors who had backed Magic Millions to deliver a competitive January sale when many were questioning whether the demand would be there this year given the pandemic has been causing havoc for nearly 12 months.

"The vendors have sent their very best yearlings that are ready for this sale. The buyers have recognised how we've selected the catalogue," he said.

"We've had quality horses from Lot 1 to Lot 962. These buyers have got a lot to race for, prize-money is great, the race series is a fantastic fillip. They really got behind these horses and it really boosted the prices."

"This was the injection to the industry to give the confidence that the market is in a great place. I'm proud that we have been able to provide a benchmark for the rest of the yearling sales series."

Neasham jumps over hoops to ensure she lands her Vinnie colt

Last night's post-Magic Millions race day session of 192 lots culminated in I Am Invincible's first million-dollar lot sold for the week, bringing the total number of seven-figure yearlings to 12, after rookie trainer Annabel Neasham and her racing manager Brian McGuire signed for the stunning grey son of Group 2-winning, Group 1-placed mare Villa Verde (Not A Single Doubt).

Warwick Farm-based Neasham did not expect to be able to attend the Magic Millions sale in person, so performed a significant amount of legwork in on-farm inspections, but she and a few other Sydney-based buyers were granted government exemptions to be on the Gold Coast with strict protocols in place.

"I saw him twice on the farm at Kia Ora and I loved him the first time and when I went back for my second look, I loved him even more," Neasham said.

"Look, I didn't think I was going to get up here (to the Gold Coast), so I had worked pretty hard on trying to get a couple of people together to try and secure him, so it is a bonus to get up here and when I saw him again I loved him even more."

"It has been a long week waiting for him to come through on the final night, so I am delighted to get him, especially being from a great farm in Kia Ora."

"(Kia Ora's) Ananda Krishnan has a couple of horses with me and has really supported me, so it is great to get a really exciting colt and hopefully we can come back here next year with him."

Catalogued as Lot 934 and the second seven-figure lot sold by Kia Ora Stud this week, the colt is the fourth foal for Villa Verde, a three-quarter sister to this season's Group 2-winning three-year-old Doubtland and Listed winner Pretty Fast.

"This colt was top-class, we loved him from the day he came in and he has just been perfect ever since. He's really gone down well at the sales. He's behaved himself immaculately, and the very best to Annabel and the team going forward," Kia Ora Stud's Shane Wright said.

"Annabel has started off amazingly, and it's only going to continue if she buys quality like that."

Neasham has become the primary trainer for Tony Fung and Phoenix Thoroughbreds, the leading buyer at the sale by aggregate with 19 lots for a total spend of $11,645,000.

Among the Fung-Phoenix haul was the last yearling by Redoute's Choice (Danehill) to be offered through a Magic Millions' January auction.

The Baramul Stud-consigned colt, who was catalogued as Lot 880 and made $370,000, was perhaps fittingly sold by Gerry Harvey, who has bred 12 of the late champion stallion's 177 stakes winners, headed by Group 1 winners Lotteria and Royal Descent.

Neasham said the support she had received since leaving Ciaron Maher and David Eustace to go out on her own was "pretty surreal".

"This is the first sale that I have been at as a trainer in my own right and to be given that support, I am just so grateful to the Fung family and to Phoenix as well, and I can't wait to get some of those nice big colts into the stable," said Neasham who has bought ten horses under her own name in Book 1.

Reflecting on any added pressure she may now be under having completed a host of big purchases, Neasham said: "There's a little bit, but we can try and cope with that. We've got a good team, we've started off well, so we will try to continue that."

Spread of buyers leads to strong market

Maher and Eustace, meanwhile, were also a significant part of the buying bench in Book 1, spending $11.27 million on 37 yearlings.

The vending honours went to Arrowfield Stud which sold 45 yearlings at an average of $325,889 for $14,665 million while Emirates Park sold six lots, including two lots for $1.8 million and $1.2 million, for an average of $596,667.

Brian McGuire and Shane Wright

"It's a huge list of buyers, when you look at the syndicators, you've got the individual owners, you've got a big, big group of trainers, and you've got the (colts) funds and farms getting in behind these horses," Bowditch said.

"It's a big deep list and everyone has played their part. I'm speechless."

The leading sire by aggregate was I Am Invincible (44 lots sold for an average of $544,545) over champion stallion Snitzel (Redoute's Choice), who had a colt top the auction at $1.9 million on Tuesday, while the leading sire by average (three or more lots sold) was Not A Single Doubt who had 17 yearlings change hands at an average of $597,647.

The leading first season sire by aggregate was Yarraman Park Stud's Group 1-winning sprinter Hellbent (I Am Invincible) and by average was Cambridge Stud shuttler Almanzor (Wootton Bassett) who had three yearlings sell for an average price of $506,667.

Magic Millions will conduct a two-day Book 2 sale starting at 2pm today before the final day begins at 10am tomorrow.

HISTORY IS BEING WRITTEN MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

18 for Star Witness

Aim (3 g ex Vintage Strike by Smart Strike) provided Widden Stud stallion Star Witness (Starcraft) with his 18th individual stakes winner when he took out the $2 million Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) at the Gold Coast yesterday. Aim led home the Star Witness quinella, defeating Amish Boy by one and three-quarter lengths, with Away Game (Snitzel) two and a half lengths behind the winner in third. Star Witness, who has one elite-level winner to his name courtesy of Global Glamour, stands for a service fee of $22,000 at Widden.

Eleven Eleven goes back-to-back at Millions

Eleven Eleven (4 g Fastnet Rock - Smokin' Alice by Smoke Glacken) scored back-to-back Magic Millions wins with a determined performance in yesterday's $1 million Magic Millions Cup (RL, 1400m) at the Gold Coast. The Greg Hickman-trained gelding benefitted from Alligator Blood's (All Too Hard) disqualification in last year's Magic Millions 3YO Guineas to take first place and he scored his second success at the January raceday when holding off the late challenge of Soxagon (Rocker) by a head. Discharged (Snitzel) finished a further head behind in third. The son of Fastnet Rock was purchased by Hickman for $230,000 at the 2018 Gold Coast Yearling Sale and was partnered by a delighted Nash Rawiller in yesterday's success. "What they've done with this carnival is amazing, with the lead-up to it last week, it gives you a taste of what is to come and everyone gets an opportunity to enjoy the week and support racing," Rawiller said. "He's a lovely horse and he's just won a million-dollar race, it's brilliant. Greg's done a great job with him, it's a shame he can't be here but he'll be rapt. He can keep coming back for the next two or three years and pinching this great money."

Jonker claims Magic Millions Snippets

Three years after being well fancied for the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m), Jonker (Spirit Of Boom) can finally claim the title of a Magic Millions winner. Ridden by Jim Byrne, Jonker led most of the way to win the Magic Millions Snippets (1200m) by a length from Exhilarates (Snitzel), with Roheryn (Lonhro) a half-length away third. Jonker finished last of 16 having been checked in the 2YO Classic and a period in the wilderness followed, before he made his way to Tony Gollan and rediscovered winning form. The five-year-old broke the 1200-metre track record at Doomben when he won the Keith Noud Quality (Listed, 1200m) in November, prompting Gollan to target the Magic Millions Snippets. "I didn't know what to expect with this horse when he came to me but when he broke the track record at Doomben I knew we had a really serious horse on our hands," Gollan said. "I was so disappointed when he got beaten at his second run for us (the George Moore Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m)) but this was a real target race. There's a real sense of fulfilment winning this race today and he's a proper sprinter. He can go on and win a good race this year."

Krone lands Fillies and Mares

Gollan made it a winning double 35 minutes after Jonker's success when Krone (Eurozone) stormed home to win the $1 million Magic Millions Fillies and Mares (1300m). Ridden superbly by Ryan Maloney, $31 chance Krone weaved between runners in the straight and made a late lunge to win by a half-head from the $2.80 favourite Athiri (Lonhro), who was being hailed the winner when she hit the lead inside the final 150 metres. "I just knew this mare's been going super all prep and I'm just so proud of her," Gollan said. "Here today was where we were always going to try to peak her and it's worked out perfectly." Krone will be spelled and aimed at the Tattersall's Tiara (Gr 1, 1400m) during the winter carnival. "She's a winter carnival mare and that will be her swansong," Gollan added.

Black On Gold takes out Subzero

The Chris Waller-trained Black On Gold (Sebring) landed a Magic Millions blow at his fourth attempt with a tenacious victory in yesterday's $1 million Magic Millions Subzero (2400m) at the Gold Coast. The seven-year-old – who was runner-up in the same race last year, third in 2019 and sixth in 2018 – was aided by a patient ride from Brenton Avdulla, who latched onto $3.70 favourite Ballistic Boy (Smart Missile) in the run. Once entering the straight, the gelding showed a sharp turn of foot to defeat Parry Sound (Pierro) by a neck, with Elaborate (Excelebration) a further length behind in third. "He's such a pleasure to ride and he responds well to me," Avdulla said. "Chris Waller has such a knack with these horses, a lot of credit has to go to him and also to the owners, BK Racing, who do a great job and are big supporters of mine." Black On Gold, who was purchased for $200,000 by BK Racing and Breeding at the 2015 Gold Coast Yearling Sale, has now won more than $1.5 million in prize-money and bonuses.

Newsreader delivers for connections

Newsreader (Press Statement) landed connections a handsome payday with a dominant victory in Australia's richest maiden, the $250,000 Magic Millions Maiden Plate (1200m), at the Gold Coast yesterday. Newsreader, who was a $170,000 purchase by Champion Thoroughbreds at the 2019 Magic Millions Yearling Sale, responded impressively when Brenton Avdulla asked the three-year-old to quicken inside the final stages and she put two and a quarter lengths between herself and runner-up Lady Of Luxury (Criterion), with Hey Big Splenda (Rich Enuff) a further short-head behind in third. "Brenton got into a beautiful position just following one of the other chances, I think the biggest problem in these races is that you can sometimes get cluttered up and he was never going to be from there," trainer John O'Shea said. "She's a very fit filly and once she got clear she pinned her ears back and raced away, so it was good. We were happy with her but it's all about doing things right on raceday and once she was well behaved behind the gates and down in the stalls it gave us a bit of confidence."

First Magic Millions success for O'Brien

Paradee (Epaulette) provided Melbourne Cup-winning trainer Danny O'Brien with his first ever win on Magic Millions raceday with an impressive victory in yesterday's $250,000 Magic Millions Quality (1800m). In a repeat performance of last Saturday's TAB Wave (1800m) at the Gold Coast, Paradee comfortably defeated the Bjorn Baker-trained Frosty Rocks, who ran into fourth. So Dapper (So You Think) was two and three-quarters lengths behind Paradee in second, with Wapiti (Love Conquers All) a further three-quarters of a length back in third. O'Brien said Paradee, who was purchased by owner Robert Anderson for $240,000 at the 2018 Magic Millions Yearling Sale, had thrived since travelling to Queensland. "She won the big Wave race here last week and she came out of it super so we were happy enough to run her again," O'Brien said. "The weights and measures were against her today but she's actually won by further so she's a mare that's in great form and she's really thrived with the trip up here. We didn't give her a hard spring, she ran four times and then she's been down to Thirteenth Beach since then and just ticking over."

The Odyssey takes thrilling finale

Stephanie Thornton scored the biggest win of her burgeoning career when she steered The Odyssey (Better Than Ready) to victory in yesterday's $1 million Magic Millions QTIS Handicap (1300m), the final race at the Gold Coast. The 21-year-old delivered a textbook ride, trailing the leading pair before peeling out and dashing clear in the straight. The Kelly Schweida-trained filly defeated the fast-finishing Stuttering (Love Conquers All) by a nose, with Boomtown Lass (Spirit Of Boom) a further neck behind in second. An emotional Thornton said the horse, aboard whom she has now won several feature races, had quickly become one of her favourites. "He's been so brilliant to me, I think I've won seven races on him," Thornton said. "To be honest, I was gutted on the line because I thought I'd got beat but he's tough and he's got a will to win. 1300 metres sees him out so that was our biggest query today but he just wanted it too bad."

Fabergino flies again at Flemington

Star Perth mare Fabergino (6 m Maschino - Miss Raziana by Danzero) again showed her predilection for the Flemington 1000 metres as she took out the Kensington Stakes (Listed, 1000m) to gain an entry in the Black Caviar Lightning (Gr 1, 1000m) next month. The grey made it three from three over track and distance with a comfortable one and a quarter length defeat of Sword Of Mercy (Sebring). The aptly named $3.00 favourite Pandemic (Sepoy) was a further long neck behind in third. "She loves the 1000 metres, she loves the straight and she loves Flemington," said Tiarnna Robertson. "Hopefully if the weather permits we can tick four boxes on the day and hopefully it'll be to suit her. She was cruising, she was doing it easily. Jordan (Childs) rides her perfectly." Fabergino is a unique mare with her own racing style, according to Childs, who said: "It is pretty much that she finds a nice rhythm and goes fast at a high cruising speed and she's able to sustain that as well."

Estijaab's brother wins impressively on debut

Two-year-old Remarque (Snitzel) stamped himself as a bona fide Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) contender with an impressive performance on debut over 1100 metres at Rosehill. Following two encouraging trial wins, the Team Hawkes-trained colt was sent off the $1.40 favourite under Tommy Berry and comfortably defeated Zethus (Exceed And Excel) by two lengths, despite being very green in the straight. Sing A Love Song (Your Song) was another one and three-quarter lengths back in third. The brother to 2018 Golden Slipper winner Estijaab (Snitzel) is on the same path as his sister with co-trainer Michael Hawkes pleased to see him get his first goal out of the way. "Trials are one thing, but you've got to come out and do it on race day," Hawkes said. "You can take a lot away from that run, he had the bad barrier and had a lot go against him. The part I loved the most was when Tommy brought him back and travelled well underneath him. They're signs of good horses." Hawkes was not scared to compare the siblings and added: "She had natural gate speed, he has natural gate speed. He's heading towards the Slipper, we are not going to deny that. Two-year-olds don't usually do that, good two-year-olds do and he's a good two-year-old."

Alderson stayer makes it two from two

Cindy Alderson's decision to push Liqueuro (Fiorente) out to 2000 metres at his second start paid off as he posted an impressive effort to land the Benchmark 70 contest at Flemington. Alderson said Liqueuro always indicated he was going to be a stayer and toyed with the idea of kicking his career off over 2000 metres. However, she took the three-year-old gelding to Mornington where he won on debut over 1500 metres. "I thought he really did need 2000 metres, which he needed every inch today to win," Alderson said. "He's been one of those horses that doesn't do a lot in trackwork but he does keep on, he keeps on finding." Liqueuro finished strongly to defeat Alloway (Wandjina) by a head, with Solar Apex (Deep Impact) a length behind the winner in third.

In-from Harpo Marx continues purple patch

The Bjorn Baker-trained Harpo Marx (Galileo) continued his rich vein of form this preparation with a fast-finishing victory in the 2000-metre Benchmark 78 at Rosehill yesterday. The five-year-old, who has won three times and placed twice in his last six starts, produced a late burst to run down tearaway leader Vadiyann (Footstepsinthesand) by a head, with First Courier two lengths behind the winner in third. Stable representative Stephen McLean explained he had spoken with Baker after the race, who watched closely while at the Gold Coast and was not confident during the run. "I just had a quick chat with Bjorn and he said he wouldn't have taken 1000-1 at the 500m," McLean said. "But full credit to the horse, he dug deep and fought hard all the way to the line. It was a slight concern dropping back to the 2000 metres today, but he is rock hard fit." The Baker camp now have some planning to do as to where Harpo Marx will head next. "The Australia Day Cup may come a bit too soon for him there at Warwick Farm, but I think we've definitely got to look at it as an option," McLean said.

McNeil ends losing streak

Melbourne Cup-winning jockey Jye McNeil ended a difficult run of 51 Melbourne rides without a winner when partnering Coolth (Dundeel) to victory in yesterday's Drumborg Trophy (2000m) at Flemington. McNeil's previous win came at Flemington on December 12 and he has subsequently slipped down to seventh on the jockeys' premiership with 19 wins. Coolth, trained by Tony and Calvin McEvoy, is being lined up for a shot at the Adelaide Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) in March.

Blamey the target for Over Exposure

Over Exposure (Rothesay) will be targeted at the Blamey Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Flemington next month after a convincing win over the course and distance yesterday. The winner of the Blamey will gain a ballot-free entry into the $5 million All-Star Mile (1600m) at Moonee Valley in March, which is the ultimate goal for the Tony and Calvin McEvoy-trained gelding. "We're going to try and target him at the Blamey. If that means a run in the Carlyon Stakes first, he's up to that level," Calvin McEvoy told Racing.com. "He's come through all his niggling injuries and those things that have happened to him earlier in his career. He's a lovely sound horse now and I think we're going to be rewarded."

NEW ZEALAND

Four for Per Incanto

Little Avondale resident Per Incanto (Street Cry) sired his fourth individual elite level winner when his daughter Bonham (3 f ex Fortune's Choice by Redoute's Choice) took out yesterday's Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) at Trentham. Trained in partnership by Johnno Benner and Hollie Wynyard, Bonham beat Brando (Savabeel) by a neck, with Wild Moose (Nadeem) two and a half lengths behind the winner in third. In doing so she became the 17th individual stakes winner for her sire as she stretched her record to four wins in five starts. Bred by Little Avondale, Bonham was purchased for $160,000 by her owner Gary Harding out of the 2019 Karaka Book 1 Yearling sale. She is the first winner out of the Redoute's Choice (Danehill) mare Fortune's Choice, who was winless during her race career. Per Incanto stood for a fee of $15,000 (plus GST) in 2020.

13 for Ocean Park

Ocean Park (Thorn Park) sired his 13th individual stakes winner when the improving Our Hail Mary (5 m ex Repenting by Ekraar) continued her winning run with victory in yesterday's Trentham Stakes (Gr 3, 2100m). The Allan Sharrock-trained five-year-old followed up her two recent handicap wins by defeating Fiscal Fantasy (Skilled) and Dr Velocious (Haradasun) in a tight finish. Our Hail Mary's is out of a half-sister to Sharrock's former stable star Shez Sinsational (Ekraar), who collected four Group 1 wins during her career. Ocean Park stood for a fee of $20,000 (plus GST) in 2020.

Waikato Cup a possibility for Our Hail Mary

Connections of Our Hail Mary have their sights set on some big-race targets after she took her tally to six wins in 13 starts yesterday. "Over ground, I believe she'll get to the top level," Sharrock, who is part-owner, as well as trainer of the mare, said. "But I'm not going to ask too much of her this time. I've got things like the Waikato Cup in mind for next season. There are a couple of fillies and mares' races coming up over the next few months, those could be nice options for her." Those include the Manawatu Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) on April 9 and the Travis Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) on May 1.

Four for Super Easy

A step up in grade proved to be no obstacle to Super Strike (4 g ex Southern Touch by Stark South) as he took out yesterday's Anniversary Handicap (Gr 3, 1600m) at Trentham and in the process provided his sire Super Easy (Darci Brahma) with his fourth individual stakes winner. Trained by Richard Collett, the four-year-old just edged out Sacred Elixir (Pour Moi) to notch his fifth win in nine starts. Guillada (Guillotine) filled third spot. Super Easy stood at Hallmark Stud for a fee of $7,500 in 2020.

Connections mulling options with Super Strike

Super Strike was quoted as just a $10 chance by the TAB for the Thorndon Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at the end of the month following his win yesterday, but Collett said he is yet to decide if the gelding will take his chance. "He's come a long way in this preparation, and this was his first time in open company," the trainer said. "So we'll get him home and see how he's come through this run before deciding on anything. He might not be far away from going out to the paddock. But this was a good result today."

51 for Darci Brahma

Darci Brahma (Danehill) sired his 51st individual stakes winner when the exciting Quattro Quinta (2 g ex Quintette, by Alamosa) won for the second time in four starts by taking out the Wellesley Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Trentham yesterday. Sent off the warm favourite, the Te Akau Racing juvenile just got the better of Wolfgang (Puccini), with Magneto (Showcasing) in third. Bred and raced by a group including Nearco Stud Ltd, K W Fenton-Ellis MNZM, Westonlea Bloodstock Partnership & Waihi Livestock Ltd, Quattro Quinta is the fourth foal of Quintette (Alamosa), a daughter of New Zealand Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) winner Everswindell (Align). Darci Brahma stood for a fee of $15,000 (plus GST) at The Oaks in 2020.

Johnson brings up century

Danielle Johnson notched her 100th winner for the season when she guided Quattro Quinta to victory yesterday. The runaway leader of the National jockeys' premiership is over fifty wins clear of her nearest rival

ASIA

167 for Deep Impact

The late Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) sired his 167th individual stakes winner when his daughter Magic Castle (4 f ex So Magic by Symboli Kris S) landed the Aichi Hai (Gr 3, 2000m) at Chukyo yesterday. The Sakae Kunieda-trained four-year-old, who was taking a drop in grade having finished second behind Daring Tact (Epiphaneia) in the Kyoto Shuka Sho (Gr 1, 2000m) on her most recent start, beat Rambling Alley (Deep Impact) by a neck. Uranus Charm (Rulership) was another three lengths away in third. Magic Castle was winning for the second time in nine starts having also finished in the frame on four occasions.

INTERNATIONAL

UK: 'No change' at Juddmonte following Khalid Abdullah's death

The cherished green, white and pink silks of the late Khalid Abdullah will continue to be seen on racecourses for many years to come after his family made public a commitment to continue one of the world's most successful racing and breeding operations. In an announcement that will be welcomed by fans of the sport worldwide, it was revealed yesterday that the Juddmonte bloodstock empire will remain intact, with Abdullah, who died peacefully on Tuesday aged 83, having already approved the matings for this year's covering season. Juddmonte chief executive Douglas Erskine Crum told the Racing Post: "The news is there will be no change. Juddmonte will continue. There is a commitment from the family and from all the management and staff. It's onwards and upwards. I must, however, preface everything by saying everyone at Juddmonte is obviously very saddened by what happened this week. It's extremely rare you meet, let alone work for, a person who is held in such high esteem and universally respected and admired." No decisions have yet been made regarding in what name the Abdullah horses will now run, although two of his sons, Prince Ahmad bin Khalid and Prince Saud bin Khalid, were present on occasions when Enable (Nathaniel) raced, while it has also been reported there is keen interest in racing from among Abdullah's grandchildren.

IRE: Westerberg buys into Coolmore Classic hopefuls

Westerberg, the racing operation of Georg von Opel, has bought into Coolmore's leading Classic contenders High Definition (Galileo) and Santa Barbara (Camelot) ahead of their three-year-old campaigns. According to Horse Racing Ireland's latest registrations supplement, Westerberg now owns a 12.5 per cent share in the unbeaten High Definition, who heads the Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) betting at around 7-1, with John Magnier and Michael Tabor each owning a 31.2 per cent share and the remaining 25 per cent belonging to Derrick Smith. The same four partners own an equal 25 per cent share in Santa Barbara, who heads the Epsom Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) market at a general 8-1 having created a deep impression with a successful debut at the Curragh last September. Both horses are trained by Aidan O'Brien and were bred by the master of Ballydoyle and his wife Annemarie under the couple's Whisperview Trading banner. Both High Definition and Santa Barbara had previously been registered to the Coolmore partners Magnier, Smith and Tabor along with Mrs A M O'Brien.

Shaquero Slipper-bound as Waller claims first 2YO Classic

BY TOMMY CHURCHYARD | @ANZ_NEWS

Chris Waller will plot a path to the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) with Shaquero (2 c Shalaa - Fimatino by Not A Single Doubt) after the exciting juvenile took out the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) in dominant style at the Gold Coast yesterday.

Breaking from barrier one, connections of Shaquero never had a moment's worry as the colt stalked the leaders rounding the turn before powering clear emphatically down the straight to provide Chris Waller with his first win in the 2YO Classic.

Ridden by Hugh Bowman, $13 chance Shaquero put one-and-a-quarter lengths between himself and runner-up Alpine Edge (Better Than Ready), with the winner's stablemate She's All Class (I Am Invincible) a further one-and-a-quarter lengths behind in third.

Shaquero showed an abundance of promise when bursting onto the scene in October to land the Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) on debut at Randwick.

He then disappointed when finishing seventh of eight in the B J McLachlan Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) on Boxing Day, before posting a second-placed effort behind Finance Tycoon (Written Tycoon) in the Aquis Gold Nugget (1100m) last weekend.

Paul Shailey, representing the stable at the Gold Coast with Waller prevented from travelling due to border restrictions, was rapt with the performance of Shaquero.

"It was his first time in behind horses and he really appreciated a nice hot tempo," Shailey told Sky Racing. "We got to get into a really nice rhythm."

“THIRTY YEARS WE’VE BEEN TRYING TO WIN THIS. IT’S A GREAT THRILL, I MUST SAY

- DAVID DEVINE

Shaquero

MAGIC MILLIONS

"He learned at the right time of the race and he showed a really explosive turn of foot. That was probably the Shaquero that won the Breeders."

"He's a classy colt and he's very athletic and a really good type to go with it."

"I'm very happy for Chris, Neville (Morgan, co-owner) and Dave (Devine, co-owner) and everyone involved, all the staff back home and especially the Gold Coast team who have had a lot to do with this colt for a long time. They work tirelessly so it's a great effort by everyone."

Discussing Shaquero's performance in the B J McLachlan Stakes at Eagle Farm, Shailey said there was plenty of head scratching going on in the stable, but noted the colt responded well to the application of a tongue-tie.

"He just raced a little bit fresh and ungenerous. We had a tongue-tie after that day and he responded well to that," Shailey said.

"Last week he raced a little bit fresh again and was probably a little bit above himself, so we knew he'd improve from that run. He stripped really fit here today and obviously barrier one plays a big part. He showed a great turn of foot like a good colt does."

Shaquero was bought by Mulcaster Bloodstock for $160,000 from the Fernrigg Farm draft at last year's Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

He is the fourth foal out of Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) mare Fimatino, who won twice on the track and has provided three winners from her four runners to date.

Shaquero is raced by co-owners Neville Morgan and David Devine and the latter was delighted after finally accomplishing his quest to land the 2YO Classic.

"Thirty years we've been trying to win this. It's a great thrill, I must say," said Devine.

"It was fantastic when he hit the front, I thought 'this was it'. He's probably at his peak fitness now and has needed those past two runs, especially last week. I think it'll be a party tonight."

According to the betting markets, Shaquero was the outsider of Waller's three Classic runners, with third-placed She's All Class ($3.90) and fifth Ranch Hand (Fastnet Rock) ($9) both favoured by punters.

Shailey was notably animated when discussing Ranch Hand's performance and expects a big future from the son of Fastnet Rock (Danehill), who was featured as an ANZ Bloodstock News Maiden Of The Week following his devastating three and a quarter-length win on debut at Warwick Farm in December.

"He was super. He hit the line really strongly and he's going to go on to bigger and better things, he's a very nice horse and will win very good races," said Shalier.

Of She's All Class, he added: "She got back a little bit further than we anticipated and it got a little bit ugly from there on in. She's straightened up as the widest runner and never looked comfortable on the track."

Shaquero provided Bowman with his third win in the 2YO Classic after Bradbury's Luck (Redoute's Choice) (2005) and Mimi Le Brock (Show A Heart) (2007), equaling the record held by Mick Dittman and Chris Munce.

Snowden's Aim on point as Star Witness gelding lands Guineas

The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Aim (3g Star Witness - Vintage Strike by Smart Strike) led home a Star Witness (Starcraft) quinella in an incident-packed running of the Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) yesterday, which saw Ryan Maloney unseat from well-fancied favourite Isotope (Deep Field) at the top of the straight.

Sent off a $31 chance, Aim who was recently sold to Hong Kong only for the buyers not to transfer the money, made ground on the outside before surging clear in the final 100 metres to comfortably defeat the Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained Amish Boy (Star Witness) by one and three-quarter lengths, with Away Game (Snitzel) finishing two and a half lengths behind the winner in third.

However, the race was marred by the unfortunate unseat of Ryan Maloney on the $2.15 favourite Isotope, who appeared to trip up when stalking her rivals.

Isotope returned unharmed to the on-course stables, while Maloney, who was on his feet following the fall, was subsequently taken to hospital for precautionary concussion checks.

The incident continued a terrible run of luck for Maloney in the Magic Millions 3YO Guineas, after his mount Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) was subsequently stripped of the race last year because of a positive swab.

Aim, bought at the 2019 Gold Coast Yearling Sale for $200,000 by China Horse Club

Aim

and Newgate Bloodstock from the Newhaven Park draft, burst onto the scene in late 2019, winning his first two races, but failed to score in his nine subsequent starts prior to yesterday - including when sent off favourite for last year's Magic Millions 2YO Classic - culminating in him running sixth of eight in a Benchmark 78 contest at Randwick a fortnight ago.

Despite his winless run - in which he showed moments of promise, including a third-placed finish in the Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) last February - Paul Snowden said he was expecting a big performance from the son of Star Witness.

"We were pretty confident. He just needed to get back on firm going," he told Sky Racing.

"We had to bite our tongue and run him a fortnight ago just to get him started, we kept running into wet tracks and he ran accordingly."

"He probably lost his way a bit after that two-year-old season. He's back as a gelding this preparation and it's a good bloody win!"

Snowden also had a message for Aim's Hong Kong buyers, who would have had the gelding in their possession by now had they transferred the fee.

"He was sold and the money didn't come through, so we just played on and look what we've got today. Thank you very much for not buying the horse," Snowden said.

Aim is the second foal out of the Smart Strike (Mr. Prospector) mare Vintage Strike. His brother Venting was sold to Danny O'Brien at last year's Gold Coast Yearling Sale and is yet to be raced.

Bonham lands Levin Classic

Talented three-year-old Bonham (3f Per Incanto - Fortune's Choice by Redoute's Choice) showed she is a filly of the highest quality when taking out the Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) at Trentham yesterday.

Rated as the main danger to $1.80 favourite Brando (Savabeel), the Johno Benner and Hollie Wynyard-trained filly earned her victory the hard way as she sat three-wide for the majority of the race after breaking from barrier ten.

Taken forward by Lisa Allpress to challenge for the lead rounding the home turn, $4.60 chance Bonham kicked clear early in the straight before holding off the late charge of Brando to win by a neck, with Wild Moose (Nadeem) two and a half lengths behind the winner in third.

Benner admitted he had his concerns during the race, but trusted in the ability of both horse and rider to get the job done.

"She's good and she had to be today," he said. "Lisa tried to ride her positively with cover, but she lost that and had to go forward at 700 metres.

"She (Bonham) always seemed comfortable in herself and now you can call her a Group 1-winning filly, although that's a feeling you never get used to."

"She does things that only Group 1 horses can do, and is a great walking filly with a beautiful action."

"Gary (Harding, owner) has been great to us and this will mean a lot to him."

Allpress also noted she had her own concerns when she found herself trapped out wide and feared the reaction of Benner and Wynyard if she did not recover the situation.

"I wasn't having a lot of luck three-deep and I could hear Johno and Hollie in my head," she said.

"I thought I need to trust my horse as she was fit and ready for today and a very fast mare, so I knew they would have trouble coming from behind her."

"I think I've lost my voice from screaming at her as she doesn't need the whip, she just needs a push to get her over the line."

"Johno and Hollie are my biggest supporters, so I'm delighted to get the win for them."

Bred by Little Avondale Stud, Bonham was purchased for $160,000 by Harding out of the 2019 Karaka Book 1 Yearling Sale.

She is the first winner out of the Redoute's Choice (Danehill) mare Fortune's Choice, who was winless during her eight-race career.

Avantage retains Telegraph crown

Versatile mare Avantage (5 m Fastnet Rock - Asavant by Zabeel) was at her very best when taking out the Telegraph (Gr 1, 1200m) for the second consecutive year at Trentham yesterday.

The Jamie Richards-trained five-year-old scored first-up in the Sistema Railway (Gr 1, 1200m) at Ellerslie on New Year's Day to take her Group 1-winning tally to five and she added a sixth with a devastating two-length defeat of Spring Heat (More Than Ready).

Danielle Johnson was smarting after a narrow defeat on Brando, who finished a neck behind Bonham in the Levin Classic earlier in the day, and she was determined to redeem herself on the Fastnet Rock mare.

After a good break from barrier ten, Avantage placed handily with cover in midfield before being angled into the centre of the track by Johnson to make her final claim.

Unleashed at the 200 metres, she powered past Mascarpone (Shooting To Win) and Tavi Mac (Tavistock) to take control of the contest, running out a comfortable winner from last year's third placegetter Spring Heat and Burgundy Belle (Burgundy), who finished four lengths off her stablemate in third.

Johnson, who would go on to finish with four winners on the card, has partnered Avantage to three of her Group 1 victories.

"She's just a pleasure to ride and words can't really describe how exciting it is to get on her and win Group 1s," Johnson said.

"Everything seemed to work out well as we were three-wide but with cover."

"I knew what I had underneath me, but I wanted her to keep running to the line, so dinner was a bit easier after getting beaten on Brando."

"1200 metres, 1400 metres, a mile or 2000 metres doesn't matter to her as she just keeps winning and it's a pleasure to be associated with her."

Richards echoed those sentiments when questioned after the race.

"She's a great mare and has done us all proud as that was pretty special," he said. "It was a ten out of ten ride as well."

"She will go to Te Rapa in a month now (for the BCD Group Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m)) but she has got time for a quiet week after this."

"She's done a fantastic job for us and I would like to give her a chance to put a Group 1 in Australia on the board."

"I think she deserves the opportunity, so we'll have to sit down and make a plan on how we get there."

"She can be a bit difficult behind the scenes and on raceday, but when we first saw her at the sales, we thought she might just be a two-year-old."

"She's now justified everybody's faith in her and has done a wonderful job. The best thing about her is her constitution and her willingness to be a racehorse."

Purchased by David Ellis CNZM for $210,000 from The Oaks Stud draft during the premier session at Karaka in 2017, Avantage has now won thirteen of her 23 starts, with ten of those at stakes level including her six Group 1s.

Bred by Willie and Karen Calder from Bluff, Avantage already boasts an Australian Group 3 victory in the 2019 running of the Birthday Card Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m), as well as a Group 2 placing from a brief campaign at three.

One of 40 individual Group 1 winners for prolific sire Fastnet Rock, Avantage has so far won more Group 1s than any other son or daughter of the great stallion.

The Archer ends Tan's impossibly long wait for 500th win

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

When trainer Alwin Tan brought up his 498th career winner with Helushka (Toronado) on February 28 last year, most thought picking up another couple of winners to hit that all-important milestone wouldn't take too long.

Nobody could have guessed it would actually take just under one year.

True, the Covid-19 pandemic that plagued the world and the local racing industry was an unbelievable catastrophe, but with racing going back to business on July 11 following the three-month lockdown, Tan could still conceivably have made that 500-figure by the end of 2020.

He had to, however, endure a long drought until the aptly-named Victory Joy (Haradasun) saluted on September 12 at long odds, but sitting just the one winner shy of the landmark has turned out to be an even more agonisingly long wait.

Still, credit to Tan who got the new 2021 campaign underway with a positive mindset, convinced a brand new chapter can only bring better fortunes, and sure enough, The Archer (Wandjina) finally brought that much-needed fillip in yesterday's open maiden race over 1200 metres on Polytrack.

Ridden by Wong Chin Chuen, the $42 shot came with a barnstorming finish on the grandstand side to finish locked together with debutant and favourite Malibu Beach (Malibu Moon).

"We've waited many months for that winner," said Tan. "Horses were coming in and out of the stables with so many transfers. We were already going through hard times but the pandemic made it even harder for us."

"By October, I was feeling very lost as we still had no winners after Victory Joy won back in September. But thanks to the owners who have never stopped supporting me, I kept believing in myself and my staff."

Starlight

"To get the winner today is a big relief and a big motivation for myself and my staff, who have worked so hard. Hopefully, we can look forward to more winners from now on, and more support."

The Archer defeated Malibu Beach by a short head with Happy Friday (Shooting To Win) third another half-length away. The winning time was 1min 12.03secs.

Starlight just won't be put out

Even-money favourite Starlight (Headwater) duly delivered but not without rattling the nerves of his backers and connections.

Following his smashing debut win at last season's final meeting, Starlight was considered by many as a shoo-in in the novice race over 1200 metres.

But at the 300-metre pole when Be You (Showcasing), who had been a thorn in his side from the start, levelled up and even poked his head in front, those who had already called him home before the race must have been eating their words.

Under jockey Louis-Philippe Beuzelin's renewed vigour, Starlight resolutely picked himself off the canvas to rein Be You back in before pressing on to a valiant half-length win. The winning time was 1min 10.22secs for the 1200 metres on the Long Course.

Clements' assistant-trainer Michael White was clearly a relieved man at the winner's circle as he waited on the PSM Racing Stable-owned galloper to return to scales, but still stood by his spontaneous assessment Starlight was one of the best he has dealt with at Kranji.

The Australian also reiterated his fears about the flip side of the exciting prospect - his jittery mannerisms.

"I'm still very nervous when he heads out there. He's still nowhere near the finished article, we haven't done much with him and he still doesn't know what he's doing," said White.

"But he's beaten a handy horse in Be You today. The day his brain is linked to his engine, he'll be a much better horse."

After fetching AUD$210,000 as a two-year-old at the Inglis Ready-2-Run in 2019, Starlight is close to recouping half of that price tag from his two-from-two record.

Sacred Croix regains old brilliance

Hakim Kamaruddin's patience in the saddle went a long way in sparking Sacred Croix (Savabeel) back up for a long-awaited return to the winner's enclosure.

The six-year-old has not greeted the judge in nearly two years having last scored in Class 3 company for a four-in-a-row in April 2019, a feat which pretty much stamped his ticket to the Singapore Four-Year-Old Challenge.

Unfortunately he did not win any of the three legs, albeit far from disgraced with two seconds in the Silver Bowl (Listed, 1400m) and the Stewards' Cup (Listed, 1600m), and a creditable fifth to Sun Marshal (Sepoy) in the Singapore Derby (Listed, 1800m).

Trainer Mark Walker gave Sacred Croix a well-earned break after the Derby, but the performances had slowly slipped downhill since.

A closing fourth place in a Class 2 event over the mile with Kamaruddin up was probably one of his rare flashes of brilliance since, and it's precisely that run that was etched in the young rider's mind when he cantered Sacred Croix down to the pens in the Class 3 race over 1200 metres.

"I rode this horse before, in a 1600-metre race, but this time he was running in a 1200-metre race on the Long Course," said Hakim.

"I cannot go too early on the Long Course, boss also told me to hold as long as I could. The horse was very relaxed and I wasn't worried the leaders were still far in front."

"He has not raced for a long time and was also a bit fresh. That's why I didn't want to go too early also. But once he came out into the clear, he quickened very well. I work the horse in the morning and I felt he had improved, I was confident he would run well."

Kamaruddin went on to complete a double when French import Sincerely (Evasive) capitalised on his postage-stamp lead to upset a handy field in the Class 2 race over 1400 metres. The Toulouse Listed winner carried the luxury weight of 48.5 kilograms under the in-form apprentice.

Sacred Croix

A KIND OF MAGIC

ANZ Bloodstock News' sales supplements to accompany the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. As always, ANZ Bloodstock News will be on the ground at the sale, covering all of the stories that break over the next few days.

This year, the sale will be held under conditions that can only be described as the new normal: no handshakes or hugs, minimal celebrations, restricted yelling and shouting. Still, plenty will be flocking to the Gold Coast's sun-drenched climes for what will be the most "normal" sale to be held in the southern hemisphere in almost 12 months.

Enjoy the week; the team at ANZ Bloodstock News is excited to provide you with unrivalled sales coverage from the first inspections to the final fall of the hammer.

2019 c. by Almanzor.

Analysis: Backing up from a nice fresh up win seven days ago, Bonham got to a clear lead near the 100m and had enough in reserve to hold out the favourite for her fourth win (maiden stakes) at start five. She was midfield but three wide early, and approaching the 1000m Lisa Allpress pushed her forward, sensing a slackening pace. From the 800m she sat fifth, still three wide, then up to third at the 600m. Rounding into the straight she eyeballed the leader then grabbed a narrow lead starting the run home. She was a length clear at the 200m and two lengths clear at the 100m. The damage appeared done but she was challenged late, yet still had a neck to spare at the post. Favourite Brando was back of midfield (one out) leaving the back straight, closer when the field compacted at the 600m and sixth, but six wide, starting the run home. He took a while to wind up, into third at the 200m, he then chased hard after the winner but the post arrived too soon. Wild Moose was second at the 800m, third at the 400m and did well to the line, coming on for third. Tokorangi was second-last at the 400m and finished doggedly for fourth. [LJ]

Analysis: In the slashing time of 1:06.97, favourite Avantage was too fast and far too good, taking out back-to-back Group 1s to bring up her career sixth. She began well but Danielle Johnson eased her to drop over towards the rail and take up a handy sixth, three wide, in behind the leading group. Still three wide approaching the crossing but in the clear, she started the run home four wide and poised to challenge. Johnson waited until the 250m to let her go and she quickly gathered in the leaders, surging to a length lead at the 100m, and was too strong to the line, away by two lengths in a dominant performance. Spring Heat sat back of midfield, one out, approaching the crossing, was deep in traffic at the 400m, got a split near the 200m, dived through at the 100m and finished well but was no match for the winner. Burgundy Belle had three behind her at the crossing, tracked the winner to the 300m but was not able to accelerate as quickly. She was doing her best work over the final 100m for a nice third. Mascarpone was third, three wide at the top of the straight. He was one of four leaders across the track near the 200m. After being caught he fought on well for fourth. Tavi Mac was fourth at the 400m, one of four leaders near the 200m, fought, but weakened slightly to finish fifth. [LJ]

Analysis: Super Strike does not know how to run a bad race, holding on tenaciously here for win five (maiden stakes) at start nine. He was second-last (rails) when they settled, picking up a couple of spots starting the big bend at the 1000m. He was giving the leader eight lengths inside the 800m as the field was compacted turning into the home straight. Andrew Calder pushed him wide at the top of the straight, balanced, then charged after the leading group. Into third at the 200m, he levelled up with the leader inside the 100m, then braved it out to the line to get the decision by a nose. Sacred Elixir sat fifth in the clear at the 1000m, still fifth but much closer at the 600m, he rounded into the straight four wide to challenge. He went up to second near the 200m and then took over until the 100m where he was caught. To the line he never gave in, losing by a nose. Guillada sat second from the 800m, went up and took over starting the run home, was caught at the 200m, then fought well for third. From sixth at the 400m, Times Ticking threaded between runners and kept on solidly for fourth. [LJ]

2019 c. by Tivaci.

Analysis: The favourite Our Hail Mary gathered in the tearaway leader at the 100m and stayed on best here for her fifth win (maiden stakes) at start nine. She was among the last three with a lap to run, improving slightly starting the back straight, while Camino Rocoso streaked away to a big lead. At the 1000m she was a distant sixth, and still fifth rounding into the home straight. She ground her way into third at the 200m, took over narrowly at the 100m, then stayed on best by a long neck. Fiscal Fantasy was last at the 800m, second-last (rails) at the 600m and no closer at the 400m. She went wide for a run when still second-last at the 200m then rattled home for a great second. Dr Velocious was third turning in then kept up a solid effort to the line to fill that spot. One Of The Best was second at the 400m, darted through to challenge, but was swamped late for fourth. 2020 f. by Xtravagant.

Analysis: After being headed, favourite Quattro Quinta staged a gritty fight back in recording his second win (maiden stakes) at start four. He was one of the first into stride and led narrowly approaching the crossing, as well as starting the run home, but was headed at the 300m. From the 100m he gradually fought back and got his head in front two strides from the post. Wolfgang shared second (wide) at the crossing then accelerated quickly to take over at the 300m. He still led at the 100m, fought hard, but was edged just short of the line. Magneto was a handy third at the top of the straight, outsped by the first two but held on quite well for third from Titled who, from second-last, improved to fourth at the 200m and held on for fourth. 2020 c. by Maschino

Analysis: West Australian-trained sprinter Fabergino took her consistent record to 11 wins from 17 starts and remains unbeaten in three runs over this track and distance after winning here, her sixth stakes success. She showed her customary pace to lead and after travelling at a steady early tempo (first 400m 24.70), she lifted the pace from the 600m and after sprinting that final section in 33.79, she held on to win well. Sword Of Mercy settled a handy fifth, between runners, took a split to challenge at the 200m and then battled on well for second. The favourite Pandemic settled back in seventh place, switched deeper and into clear running at the 300m and kept making ground in the sprint home to finish third. Bons Away was a handy fourth, put in his bid at the 300m and then held on quite well for (2.4 lengths) fourth in a sound first-up effort. [KB]

Then followed: Samizdat (AUS), Indian Pacific (AUS), Why Choose Her (AUS), Mervyn (AUS), Saracino (NZ), Hoboken (AUS), Misty Metal (AUS) & Vital Silver (AUS), last.

Analysis: The Simon Miller-trained mare Flirtini appreciated a fast pace and returned to the winner's list with a smart performance in recording her third stakes success here, her sixth victory in 23 starts. She settled towards the tail of the field after being wide early on. William Pike switched her across heels at the 200m and she then stormed home, hit the front at the 50m and went on to score by just over a length. Carocapo raced in third place on the rails, challenged on turning for home and then fought well to claim second in a photo. Essential Spice raced in sixth place, one off the rails, improved at the turn, moved up strongly at the 200m and then held on very well for third, with Samizdat making late ground for fourth. [KB]

Analysis: Improved by two runs back after winning the Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) at Randwick on debut in early October, Shaquero returned to peak form with a smart performance in winning here. Ridden patiently by Hugh Bowman, the colt settled nicely just behind a group of leaders in about sixth place on the rails from his inside barrier (1), tracking a solid tempo. He was switched deeper and into clear running rounding the turn, took the lead at the 200m and then held on to win well. Alpine Edge settled just behind midfield, improved between runners (under riding) on straightening and kept finishing solidly for second, his first defeat in three starts. She's All Class went back from her wide draw (14), settled near last, switched deep on turning for home and then ran on well to take third. Queen Of Wizardry was ridden quietly from barrier 12, was near last early on before improving to be midfield on the rails. She continued along the inner on straightening, was briefly held up at the 200m and then battled on well for (3.2 lengths) fourth. Ranch Hand settled just behind the leaders, moved up at the turn and then held on well for (3.4 lengths) fifth. Finance Tycoon was trapped deep from his outside barrier (16) and was last approaching the turn. He went widest of all on straightening and continued to make ground for (3.6 lengths) sixth, his barrier proving quite a disadvantage. The favourite Swift Witness raced midfield but disappointed, just battling on in the straight to finish (7.3 lengths) tenth. [KB]

Analysis: In a surprise result, Aim scored at odds of $31, his first victory since winning a two-year-old handicap (1200m) at Randwick in December 2019. Having his second run this preparation, he went back from his difficult barrier (15), settled near last behind a quick pace before improving (wide out) nearing the turn. He then finished solidly, hit the front at the 100m and went on to win well. Amish Boy settled in last place, went wide rounding the run and finished well for second in a good effort at his second run this preparation. Away Game had a nice trip in fifth place on the rails, was in a challenging position at the 200m and then held on to take third after appearing to have had every chance. Apache Chase went to the front, but was pressured in the mid-stages

(first 800m 46.83). He grabbed a break shortly after straightening and then held on well for (3.7 lengths) fourth with Gotta Kiss making late ground to finish (4.5 lengths) fifth. The favourite Isotope was seventh on the rails but was checked, losing her rider Ryan Maloney at the turn. [KB]

Analysis: Eleven Eleven, winner of the Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) here last year, recorded a second major Gold Coast success 12 months later in winning this. He travelled nicely under Nash Rawiller in seventh place on the rails, got along the inner on straightening, took the lead at the 200m and then held on gamely to win well. Soxagon raced just beyond midfield, improved on the rails from the 300m, challenged strongly at the 100m and then fought well for (head) second. Discharged went to the front, was challenged on straightening and kept fighting back well for a close-up third. The favourite Yao Dash had a nice trip in fourth place, just behind the leaders, got into clear running on turning for home and kept battling well for (0.6 lengths) fourth, albeit after seeming to have had every chance. VERDICT The authority with which he won last time suggests that DAILY CHARM should be capable of backing up in what is a weak contest. Speed Force has the worst of the draw but if overcoming that he could be a contender, while Smart Thinker is another who could be a big player.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-4 Kings Shield, 9-4 Glorious Artist, 5 Elusive State, 10 Red Desert, 14 Encore Boy, 20 Green Luck, 25 Circuit Glory.

VERDICT Although he steps up a level here, this looks a good opportunity for the in-form Glories Artist to complete a hat-trick. Chief threat will surely be the classy Kings Shield, who may be many people's idea of the winner, while Elusive State is not ruled out.

VERDICT

An open contest. Red Elysees should appreciate the drop in weight and could go close and, if you can forgive his latest run so could Skye Supreme. Double Take is feared but it won't be easy defying a 6lb rise, while So Awesome is respected. However, Crown Avenue has posted a series of consistent efforts and won't have to raise the bar by much to win again.

VERDICT There are two interesting newcomers that look well worth a market check here in Steel Win and Touch Faith, while the fact that Zac Purton retains the ride on Little Player, who showed promise last time, suggests that he could be a big player. However, preference is for CLASSIC POSH, who is well up to winning at this level if he can return to his form of earlier in the season.

VERDICT Another chance can be given to EVERYONE'S DELIGHT, who didn't score well in 71 when a warm favourite on his latest outing but looked progressive over 6f beforehand and remains lightly raced. Inno Legend ended last year with three good efforts and is feared most, although the booking of Joao Moreira heightens interest in Hot Chili Pepper.

VERDICT There are two interesting newcomers that look well worth a market check here in Steel Win and Touch Faith, while the fact that Zac Purton retains the ride on Little Player, who showed promise last time, suggests that he could be a big player. VERDICT Carroll Street swooped inside the final furlong and was far too strong for Forte when making a winning debut over C&D last month. He can't be opposed with any confidence but Forte remains unexposed himself and, now 9lb better off, is taken to gain his revenge. Ping Hai Bravo and Valiant Dream are both in very good form and should also feature.

VERDICT Foodie Princess was in excellent form over C&D in the early part of 2020 and will be hard to beat if returning from his layoff in similar nick but it looks significant that Joao Moreira favours Ping Hai Treasure, who is very effective over this C&D and has slipped to a handy mark. Party Everyday is heading in the right direction and also warrants serious consideration.

	VERDICT Joao Moreira's mount Beauty Applause has been in good form over 6f in recent months and is well drawn for this first attempt at 5f but it's hard to be swayed from WELLINGTON , who was an emphatic C&D winner on last month's seasonal debut and is now 4-5.
