Group 1-winning trainer David Vandyke did not want to miss out on an eye-catching daughter of Sebring (More Than Ready) on day one of the Magic Millions Gold Coast March Yearling Sale, purchasing the filly for $150,000 after she was initially passed in.

In a tough day for vendors, in which the buying bench was limited and the public banned from attending the Gold Coast sales complex in order to comply with government-imposed restrictions caused by the coronavirus outbreak, the Sunshine Coast-based Vandyke signed for the top-priced filly.

The trainer was on site for the QTIS sale yesterday and admitted the Covid-19 pandemic had played a significant role in day one being a "buyers' market". Continued on page 2>>

Inglis to comply with 500-person limit at Easter Sale

Inglis last night reaffirmed its plan to conduct next month's Australian Easter Yearling Sale as scheduled on an invitation-only basis in the face of heavy restrictions imposed by authorities that could dent the depth of the buying bench due to the growing coronavirus outbreak.

"The safety of our clients and staff is paramount and as such we will strictly abide by all state and federally-enforced guidelines in regards to Covid-19," Inglis managing director Mark Webster said in a statement.

"At this stage, based on government guidelines, the Easter Yearling Sale will be restricted to 500 people on site at any one time and will be an invitation-only event. Sales News page 12 >>

"It's not ideal that this has happened right on the eve of the sale, but we're all getting through it OK," Vandyke said after buying the session-topping filly.

"It's a buyers' market at the moment because of the uncertainty and risk."

Vandyke approached vendor Dale Anderson of Bahrinna after the Sebring filly failed to reach the $150,000 reserve and the trainer is confident his purchase has the credentials to provide a significant return.

"I was waiting for the filly to hit the reserve and she never got there, so I went and saw the owners (and bought her privately)," he said.

DAVID VANDYKE

"If she went through a January sale, she would have brought a lot more. She's a quality filly and you have got to love the Sebrings."

"The possibilities for the return on a Magic Millions QTIS filly is greater than almost any other sale because QTIS is an amazing scheme...especially for a filly."

"On top of that, we have got the Magic Millions races (that she is eligible for). She is a beautiful filly out of a stakes-performed mare and I think she's good buying at that price.

"I haven't syndicated her yet, so there's shares available."

Catalogued as Lot 63, the filly is the first foal out of the Tony Gollan-trained Nudgee Stakes (Listed, 1200m)-winning mare Tina Melina (Jet Spur) who was successful six times in 17 race starts.

His stable star Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) had also been passed in at the 2018 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Continued on page 4>>

"And so was Yankee Rose, my other best horse," Vandyke added.

The QTIS sale, operating under remarkable circumstances, reverted back to similar figures achieved in 2017 where the average was $28,412 and the median was $20,500 at the completion of the auction.

The 2018 sale experienced an extraordinary surge, averaging $44,832 with a median price of $25,000, which was triggered by incredible demand for the progeny of Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) after his first crop two-year-olds came out flying.

Last year's sale, after 300 lots were sold, averaged $33,187 at a median of $24,000, while yesterday's session averaged $29,034, down 12 per cent year on year, with a median price of $20,000 achieved. The clearance rate was sitting at 68 per cent last night.

"Under the circumstances and in the current climate with a lack of confidence about, for the results to hold up reasonably well, I think it was a satisfactory day at the least," Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"I think the vendors have come here to meet the market and do their best to sell their horses in most cases. At times during the day they were getting well rewarded for their sales and other times the buyers were finding plenty of value out there."

"From a Queensland trainers and owners' perspective, the quality of horse we had to sell and what these horses race for through the QTIS scheme, it's a huge opportunity to get in under the odds and have a lot of fun for the next few years racing these animals."

Magic Millions implemented procedures and strategies to ensure the company complied with a government edict not to have more than 500 people on the complex. The general public was also banned from attending.

"The day went very smoothly from our perspective. We took a lot of guidance (from governing bodies) and we put a lot of measures in place to create the right environment to hold a horse sale under the current guidelines," he said.

"The cooperation from the buyers and the vendors was obviously sought after but it was greatly appreciated."

Spirit Of Boom colts a highlight for Eureka

Eureka Stud, the home of Queensland's leading stallion Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo), sold the next two highest-priced lots yesterday, both colts by the McAlpine family's resident sire who sold for $130,000 and $120,000 respectively.

Leading Brisbane trainer Tony Gollan, who trained Group 1 winner Spirit Of Boom, bought Lot 199 late in the day for the $130,000 figure, with the colt carrying the same cross as his talented stakes-winning mare Outback Barbie.

The fourth living foal for the winning mare Eureka Moment (General Nediym), the colt is a grandson of the Group 2 winner Kapsdan (Kaaestad) who was the joint top New Zealand filly of 2003-04. Eureka Moment's two foals to race, by Smart Missile (Fastnet Rock) and Onemorenomore (Red Ransom) are both winners.

Fellow Brisbane trainer Kelly Schweida also struck yesterday, landing the Eureka Stud-offered half-brother to exciting stakes-placed three-year-old Gem Of Scotland (Rothesay) for $120,000.

The Spirit Of Boom colt's Rex Lipp-trained half-sister has won six of her ten starts and $415,000 in prize-money.

"I really like Spirit Of Boom as a stallion and I liked that he is a half-brother to a Listed-placed filly, who I think is a very good horse," Schweida said.

"He is just a lovely horse, very athletic and I thought that was about the right price for him."

Catalogued as Lot 39, the colt is the fifth living foal out of the unraced mare Star Of Kristle (General Nediym).

As well as Gem Of Scotland, she is also the dam of three other winners, two of whom have won at two. Further back, the colt is from the same family as champion Victorian stallion Written Tycoon (Iglesia) and Group 1 winner Microphone (Exceed And Excel) who both hail from the branch of his fourth dam Miss Entertainer (Vain).

Schweida said the atmosphere at yesterday's QTIS sale was like one he had never experienced before.

"It's been a struggle today, given the circumstances - there was no public allowed and it is the weirdest sale I have ever been to," he said.

Eureka Stud's Harry McAlpine said buyers at the complex were willing to put their hand up but remained circumspect given the general economic conditions that have seen billions of dollars wiped off the share market in recent weeks.

"There were buyers here and obviously (Magic Millions) were restricted with how many people they could have on the complex," he said.

<< Continued from page 4 “But everyone I spoke to wanted to buy because it was good buying. However, at the same time they were a bit apprehensive about the economics of selling them on to other people.”

On Eureka's two six-figure colts, McAlpine said: “I think the Gem Of Scotland factor certainly helped as she looks quite a handy horse and he was a lovely colt and there was plenty of competition for him.

“There was plenty of money for him (and the one Tony Gollan bought) but some by Spirit Of Boom from the older pedigrees were a bit tough and I think that was probably the theme of the sale.”

There were two other yearlings sold yesterday to reach the $100,000 mark, with a Rothesay (Fastnet Rock) colt from the Lyndhurst Stud draft selling to Eagle Farm trainer Desleigh Forster.

By the same sire as this season's boom Queensland two-year-old Rothfire, the colt is the second living foal out of the winner Ultimate Rush (Sequalo) who is a sister to Group 2 winner Burdekin Blues. He was catalogued as Lot 75.

Hong Kong-owned, Victoria-based A List Stud's Chris Lee purchased the other $100,000 lot, a son of the Darley stallion Epaulette (Commands) offered by Kenmore Lodge.

Catalogued as Lot 186, he is the second living foal out of the three-time winner Dolphus (Dylan Thomas) who ran fourth in the Gold Coast Bracelet (Listed, 1800m) as a three-year-old.

Tagaloa on target for Slipper

Co-trainer Trent Bussutin believes Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) has improved for his second placing in the Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick and is in top order for Saturday's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Rosehill. "He'll strip very fit for the Slipper," Bussutin, who trains in partnership with Natalie Young, said. "He had one soft gallop leading into the race after his Blue Diamond win and racing him in the Todman means we don't have to be hard on him. Otherwise it's a month between runs and you're just doing it on the track. He got a bit lost that way round so I'm certainly glad we ran him to give him the experience under race conditions, rather than just working him. It also means we don't have to do too much with him now, just keep him happy."

Thermosphere to back up at Rosehill

Magic Night Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Thermosphere (Exosphere) will line up in the Golden Slipper with James Cummings aiming to repeat the double he achieved with Kiamichi (Sidestep) last year. Cummings prepared Kiamichi to beat Microphone (Exceed And Excel) and Lyre (Lonhro) in the 2019 Golden Slipper in a trifecta for Godolphin-owned two-year-olds. "She (Thermosphere) turned up the heat in the Group 3 Magic Night on the weekend and proved she could handle the pressure," Cummings said on Godolphin's website. "The team are excited to see if she has what it takes to improve enough in the Golden Slipper, the hardest two-year-old race on the calendar." Godolphin will also be represented in the $3.5million contest by Anthony Freedman-trained Hanseatic (Street Boss).

Cellsabeel secures Slipper start

Former favourite Cellsabeel (Hinchinbrook) has gained a run in the Golden Slipper after Black Opal Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Barbaric (I am Invincible) was ruled out. Co-trainer Paul Snowden said yesterday the colt would not run at Rosehill due to the likely to heavy track. The Snowden stable will still have Dame Giselle (I Am Invincible) and King's Legacy (Redoute's Choice) in the Slipper. The Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Cellsabeel finished a close third in the Black Opal behind Barbaric and his stablemate Bartley (Written Tycoon), leaving her one spot outside the top 16 for the Slipper. Maher and Eustace are likely to have four runners with Saturday's Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Prague (Redoute's Choice), Muntaseera (I Am Invincible) and Away Game (Snitzel) set to join Cellsabeel.

Rosehill Guineas next goal for Shadow Hero

Mark Newnham is planning to run dual Group 1-winning three-year-old Shadow Hero (Pierro) in the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) despite also nominating him for the weight-for-age Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on the same card. The gelding was the $3.50 favourite yesterday for Saturday's Rosehill Guineas, which is one of five Group 1 races on the Golden Slipper program. "He'll run in the Guineas," Newnham said. "I put him in the Ranvet just in case the Guineas ended up 16 runners and he came up with barrier 16 or something and the other ended up with five or six runners, but I'm 99 per cent sure I'll be running him in the Guineas."

Gytrash among William Reid noms

Gordon Richards' Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) winner Gytrash (Lope De Vega) is among a host of Group 1 winners nominated for Friday's William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Moonee Valley. Gytrash won the Lightning Stakes at Flemington last month before finishing third to Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) and Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible) in the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) at the same track. Richards believes the early pace and the way Gytrash handles the track will be crucial to his chances. "They didn't go hard early in the Newmarket and I thought it was a bit like a sit and sprint," Richards said. "He went OK and beat a lot of them home but I just thought you didn't get to see his best. I think he needs a bit of pace on up front. I'm not sure whether The Valley will be the right place for him but that's where the race is so we'll have to go there."

McEvoy joins Rosemont

Rosemont Stud yesterday announced the appointment of Widden Stud's former nominations and marketing manager Ryan McEvoy as bloodstock general manager. McEvoy will join Rosemont having spent 15 years at Widden where he has overseen the launch of leading stallions such as Sebring (More Than Ready), Northern Meteor (Encosta De Lago), Zoustar (Northern Meteor) and more recently driven the marketing and nominations behind the likes of Group 1 stars Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) and Written By (Written Tycoon). "Widden has largely been my life for the last 15 years and I consider myself incredibly fortunate to have had the opportunity to work in such an organisation," McEvoy, who will assume his new role on March 30, said.

Moody granted trainer's licence

Former champion trainer Peter Moody is set to return to Victoria's training ranks after having his licence application approved by Racing Victoria on Friday. Moody, who has not trained for the past four years after surrendering his licence following a drawn-out cobalt case which saw him suspended for six months, is able to return to training as soon as the relevant paperwork is submitted. Earlier in the year it was reported that Moody had plans to take up to 40 boxes at Pakenham.

Classique Legend to rejoin Bridge

Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) is set to return to the care of Les Bridge after plans to ship the promising sprinter to Hong Kong were shelved. The four-year-old was one of 15 horses aboard a plane destined for Hong Kong which failed to leave Australia over the weekend. It was the third time Classique Legend's departure has been delayed since entering quarantine and this latest setback has prompted owner Boniface Ho to abandon his plans to move the sprinter to Hong Kong.

Eagle Farm to host midweek meets

The Brisbane Racing Club has received permission to swap two midweek meetings from Doomben to Eagle Farm in return for two Saturdays in the coming weeks to ensure the best racing surfaces for the winter carnival. Two midweek meetings will be transferred from Doomben to Eagle Farm (March 25 and April 13) while two Saturday meetings will go from Eagle Farm to Doomben (March 28 and April 11). Eagle Farm will race this Saturday where the rail will be out nine metres. "The scuffing (at the March 7 meeting) was a result of the leaf tissue being weakened by weather-related disease - the profile and root health of the track remains in great shape," Racing Queensland track specialist Mick Goodie said.

Griffiths fears for viability if racing shuts down

Australian Trainers' Association (ATA) president Robbie Griffiths yesterday called on racing to be "vigilant and do our bit" to keep the fast-spreading coronavirus out of the industry. Griffiths also applauded the decision to race behind closed doors and added that a lockdown in the industry "could cripple a lot of people". Griffiths told Racing.com: "Any industry, if there is an outbreak, then it'll be a 14-day lockdown which could cripple a lot of people. It's not an easy task that everyone is trying to achieve. If we are all vigilant and do our bit, if we can prevent the virus from entering our industry, then we've kicked a massive goal if we can do that. If we can keep racing it's a massive plus for us. If everyone follows good hygiene policy and do whatever the government and governing bodies are going to do ... then hopefully we will dodge a big bullet."

Provincial qualifier moved to Newcastle

The postponed Gosford Polytrack Provincial Qualifier scheduled for last Saturday will now be run at Newcastle on Thursday. Original scratchings will be reinstated, with the field limit 14 plus four emergencies. Horses will remain in the same barrier as allocated at Gosford, but a new saddle cloth order will be allocated this morning when acceptances are taken.

Racing continues with restrictions

Horse racing will continue around the country with strict conditions on attendance and participation. Saturday's Golden Slipper meeting at Rosehill, which would normally attract a crowd of more than 20,000, will be restricted to 500 necessary personnel as per government guidelines on mass gatherings in response to the coronavirus pandemic. Trainers, handlers, vets and farriers will be allowed on course along with stewards and a limited media presence. The same restrictions are in place in Victoria and Queensland and also apply to trackwork and barrier trials.

RV announces new measures

Racing Victoria, which introduced restrictions for last Saturday's Caulfield meeting, has now imposed conditions on jockeys riding interstate including that they not fly on commercial airlines. Jockeys who ride interstate will need to travel to and from those meetings by private vehicle or charter flight to be able to compete when they return to Victoria. A number of Victorian riders are scheduled to ride at the Golden Slipper meeting in Sydney. "Only essential Racing NSW and Australian Turf Club staff, some licensed racing participants, and a restricted number of broadcast and media representatives will be permitted to attend," the ATC said. "Owners and Australian Turf Club members, along with general admission customers, will not be allowed entry."

Albury Cup carnival to go ahead

This week's two-day Albury Gold Cup carnival will go ahead on the NSW-Victoria border without crowds. Racing NSW yesterday announced that the well-known carnival, which features the $200,000 Albury Gold Cup (Listed, 2000m), will take place on Thursday and Friday with just participants being allowed on course. However, the non-TAB picnic race meeting at Ardlethan in the Southern District region, scheduled for Saturday, has been abandoned.

Owners banned from Cranbourne Training Complex

Owners have been banned from attending the Cranbourne Training Complex in a bid to stop an outbreak of the coronavirus at the vital training facility in Melbourne's south east. Cranbourne Turf Club chief executive Neil Bainbridge confirmed the directive included jump outs staged at the club, with a session conducted yesterday. "In an effort to protect the health and wellbeing of our participants, we would like to advise that owners and other non-Racing Victoria licensed individuals should not attend the Cranbourne Training Complex, effective immediately, without the approval of club management," the statement read. "I strongly encourage trainers to notify their owners that until further notice they should not attend the Cranbourne Training Complex, including any on course stables at the site." The Melbourne Racing Club has also enacted similar measures.

Picnic meetings abandoned

While professional racing is continuing in Victoria and NSW with significant measures in place including public lock-outs, Racing Victoria has announced the final five meetings of the picnic race season in the state have been abandoned. They were scheduled to be held at Alexandra (March 21), Healesville (March 28), Mansfield (April 4), Balnarring (April 11) and Swifts Creek (April 12). Racing NSW also announced yesterday that picnic meetings at Ardlethan (March 21), Tullibigeal (March 28) and Cootamundra (April 4) and the non-TAB Trangie meeting (March 21) had been abandoned.

Apprentice race called off

The impacts of coronavirus have also seen the National Apprentice Race Series heat at Doomben abandoned. It was felt it would be unfair for apprentices to travel from around Australia to Queensland and risk exposure to the virus. The $45,000 Benchmark 68 will remain on tomorrow's program as scheduled and will now be conducted under standard conditions. A Racing Queensland spokesperson said a decision on all future legs of the 2020 Series was expected to be determined later this week by the participating racing authorities. Queensland leads the series after a win by Adin Thompson in Perth and a third by Dakota Graham in Hobart in the first two heats. There are two other heats besides Doomben, at Sandown and Murray Bridge, in abeyance. The series involves apprentices from all states except NSW as well as New Zealand and Singapore.

Andrew Adkins injured in barrier trial incident

Jockey Andrew Adkins suffered a wrist fracture in an incident in a barrier trial at Rosehill yesterday when his mount broke through the starting stalls. Adkins was taken to hospital where he was found to have suffered an undisplaced wrist fracture. He was due to be released from hospital yesterday and is scheduled to see Racing NSW's Dr Duckworth for a check-up today.

Vale George Daly

George Daly, a leading Ascot trainer for more than three decades, died on Saturday night. Among the notable horses he trained were Jacks Or Better (Curravilla), whose haul of 19 wins included victories in the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) in 1995, and Surtee (Memento), a multiple stakes winner a couple of years earlier. Having undergone hip surgery in 2012, George stepped back from training but enjoyed further big-race success with his brother Wally, when their gelding Vega Magic (Lope De Vega) won the Goodwood Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) and Memsie Stakes (1400m) in 2017 in the care of Lindsay Park Racing.

Bred To Win back on air

Australasia's only thoroughbred breeding television program Bred To Win will be back on air tonight. Supported by contributors including Inglis, Sky Racing, Arrowfield Stud, Cambridge Stud, Thoroughbred Breeders' Australia and Aushorse, the program will air at 9pm on Sky Thoroughbred Central with replays at 11.30pm Tuesdays, Wednesday and Thursday at 7am, Saturday 9.30pm and Sundays at 8.30am and 11pm.

NEW ZEALAND

Hasahalo sets online record

New Zealand One Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Hasahalo (Savabeel) has broken the record for a horse sold online as she was purchased by China Horse Club for NZ$670,000 from the Gavelhouse website yesterday. She was catalogued as Lot 1. Gavelhouse also held the previous online sale record when Consensus (Postponed), who was sold in foal to Iffraaj (Zafonic), made NZ$622,500 to Yulong Investments. The sale occurred at Gavelhouse's December auction.

Derby winner heading to Sydney

New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Sherwood Forest (Fastnet Rock) and third-placed Scorpz (Charm Spirit) were among a shipment of horses set to travel to Sydney from Auckland last night which was postponed for 24 hours. The two are set to contest Saturday's Rosehill Guineas as a lead-up to the Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) two weeks later. "It is going Tuesday night at this stage," Sherwood Forest's trainer Tony Pike said. "The hold-up was just over the professional grooms getting clearance to be classified as crew, so they can come in and out of Australia and New Zealand. They have had verbal clearance, but the airlines want written clearance."

Tyler duo could also head to Australia

Riverton trainers Kelvin and Aimee Tyler remain hopeful that two of their runners will still be able to take up Australian targets after solid performances at Trentham on Saturday. Dual stakes winner Lightning Jack (Per Incanto) placed in the Wellington Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m), while Feel The Rush (Proisir) finished third in the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m). "The long-term plan at the moment is to take them to South Australia for the Oaks and Derby, but with everything happening around the world at the moment I guess things are up in the air," Kelvin Tyler said. "We will just have to see how things pan out or whether we just send the horses. When you have got horses at home you can't be sitting in isolation for a couple of weeks. It is certainly going to make things difficult moving forward."

Group test awaits Lord Bouzeron

Manawatu trainer Chrissy Bambry will step Lord Bouzeron (Burgundy) up in class for a tilt at the Manawatu Classic (Gr 3, 2000m) at Awapuni on Saturday week following his win at Woodville on Sunday. "He keeps raising the bar," she said. "The more we throw at him, the more he steps up. He is bred to get over a trip and I think the Derby distances and further won't be a problem for him."

ASIA

Australian trip off for Mozu Ascot

The Japanese challenge for the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) was abandoned yesterday after connections of Mozu Ascot (Frankel) and My Style (Heart's Cry) decided against making the trip due to quarantine issues. The pair had already entered quarantine in Tokyo but a change in conditions surrounding travel and coronavirus mean they will now no longer be aimed at Randwick.

INTERNATIONAL

British racing to go behind closed doors

Cheltenham

RACING POST

All race meetings in Britain from today until the end of March will take place behind closed doors, the British Horseracing Authority has announced. A statement by the racing industry steering group said the intention was for scheduled race meetings to take place wherever possible, warning that some may have to be cancelled. It said every effort will be made to notify customers and the betting industry at the earliest opportunity. With race meetings due to happen every day — and in the light of possible staff absences, including in critical roles, and in order to protect industry staff and support the wider effort to free up critical public services — the steering group said the aim was to agree a schedule that was sustainable. The plan was agreed yesterday by the sport's tripartite leadership, including the Racecourse Association, The Horsemen's Group and the BHA.

BHA hit by suspected coronavirus cases

The BHA was yesterday forced to shut down its head office in London after a small number of suspected cases of coronavirus among staff. The building, which also houses Great British Racing (GBR), the Jockey Club and Racecourse Owners Association (ROA), has been closed until further notice and will now undergo a deep clean. A BHA spokesperson said: "The office at 75 High Holborn will be closed to all staff and visitors from Monday, March 16 until further notice. This is due to a small number of office-based BHA employees self-isolating with mild symptoms that could potentially be consistent with coronavirus, but which are not confirmed. All office-based staff are being asked to work remotely as a precaution."

Racing suspended in France

France yesterday became the first major racing nation to suspend the sport after a meeting between France Galop and Le Trot. All meetings have been cancelled from today until April 15, a period that covers a key section of Classic trials on the Flat. The two governing bodies convened a special session of their two administrative councils on Monday, just 72 hours after moving all racing behind closed doors. The suspension comes against a background of emergency meetings between the government of President Emmanuel Macron with health and defence chiefs, with further measures to limit the movement of people under discussion.

Inglis to comply with 500-person limit at Easter Sale

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Inglis last night reaffirmed its plan to conduct next month's Australian Easter Yearling Sale as scheduled on an invitation-only basis in the face of heavy restrictions imposed by authorities that could dent the depth of the buying bench due to the growing coronavirus outbreak.

"The safety of our clients and staff is paramount and as such we will strictly abide by all state and federally-enforced guidelines in regards to Covid-19," Inglis managing director Mark Webster said in a statement.

"At this stage, based on government guidelines, the Easter Yearling Sale will be restricted to 500 people on site at any one time and will be an invitation-only event.

"To remain under 500 persons in attendance each day, restrictions will obviously be required

"We will continue to work with government officials, health experts and our clients to determine the most practical way to conduct the sale and achieve optimum results for our vendors and buyers."

The Easter sale catalogue of 514 yearlings, collectively the best-bred and credentialled group of horses to be offered to market in Australasia this year, are set to go under the hammer at Inglis' Sydney complex at Riverside Stables of April 7 and 8.

Online bidding will be key in ensuring a competitive buying bench was assembled for the Easter sale, Webster said.

"Technology will play a critical role in maintaining our global marketplace for this sale, and will assist international buyers to participate from afar," he said.

"Our online bidding services have now been in use for ten years and are very robust and easy to use and I have no doubt they will be of great benefit to everyone involved in this sale.

"On-farm yearling inspections in the

Inglis sales ring

INGLIS

Hunter Valley and around Australia are taking place as normal and we encourage all prospective buyers and agents to see as many of the yearlings as possible prior to the official start of Riverside inspections on Wednesday, April 1.

"This will not only assist in buyers' preparations but also help ease any strain on capacities at Riverside in the lead-up to the sale.

"This is an ever-evolving situation and we will provide further updates in coming days."

There has been pressure from some quarters to push back the date of the sale, but Webster in yesterday's ANZ Bloodstock News said he did not believe it was "a realistic option to delay the sale and hold it in the middle of winter when perhaps the pandemic may worsen".

Prominent breeder Matthew Sandblom, a shareholder in Newgate Farm and the proprietor of Kingstar Farm, weighed in on the Easter sale debate yesterday.

He called for on-farm inspections to be held in the lead up to the Easter sale before online bidding is used on the scheduled dates to auction the 514-lot catalogue of yearlings.

To enable the on-farm inspections, interstate vendors would transport their drafts to Hunter Valley so buyers can view the yearlings, he said.

"About six to seven days out from the sale date all farms open for inspection. In the morning they would have, at pre-set times, parades of their full drafts," Sandblom wrote.

"In the afternoons people could have selected parades of the horses they are most interested in.

"Farms would also add as much info as possible about each yearling online including photos, videos, selling points, x-rays (and) scopes."

If such measures were not implemented, Sandblom warned: "This crisis is going to go on for months, so if something like the above is not done there will be no sale at all this year."

Sheng Li Stars in Spring Trophy

BY HARRY TROY | @RACINGMACAU

Sheng Li Superstar (Harbour Watch) lived right up to his name with a brave front running effort to win his first Group race in Macau in taking out Sunday's Spring Trophy (Listed, 1500m).

Sheng Li Superstar was fired out of the gates by Luis Corrales who quickly showed his rival jockeys he was intent on leading; with Lover Paradise (Canford Cliffs) surrendering the front Corrales was then able to steady the speed in the back and take control of the race.

Race favorite Pearl Green (Fastnet Rock) was always handy in second spot under Fausto Henrique and came to win the race soon after straightening, however Sheng Li Superstar showed great tenacity to fight back after being headed to prevail on the line by a head from Pearl Green, with Bring Me Speed (Sebring) three quarters of a length away in third.

Prepared nowadays by Stanley Chin, Sheng Li Superstar made it win number seven in Macau with five minor placings from his 15 runs, and lifted his prize money to over HK$2 million.

A son of the unbeaten Harbour Watch (Acclamation), Sheng Li Superstar was formerly trained in Victoria by Henry Dwyer where he won a Geelong Maiden on the all weather track by six lengths from four runs in Australia.

The now five-year-old has been a real bargain for his owner Mr. Frank Wong with four brilliant wins on the sand, and now three on the turf in distances from 1050 metres to Sunday's 1500-metre event.

The win gave Panamanian born Luis Corrales a treble for the afternoon in taking out the first three races.

Corrales won the first of the day the Class 5 & 6 over 1500 metres on Peter Leyshan's promising three year old King Of Champions (Foxwedge), who donkey licked his opponents to win by three and three-quarter lengths.

Rivalry (Pierro) from the Victor Chan stable

Sheng Li Superstar

was the second winner for Corrales, when he did a good job from barrier nine to worry pace-maker Thar (Exceed And Excel) out of victory in the Class 2 & 3 over 1200 metres.

After Sunday's treble, Corrales, a former four time Champion jockey in Macau, is in equal first spot with Roger Yu on 23 wins. Brazilian Fausto Henrique is in third spot on 20, with Frenchman J B Hamel in fourth on 19 victories.

No jockey has been riding better in recent weeks than Frenchman J B Hamel who booted home another winning double on Sunday's racecard.

Hamel pulled off a surprise win on the $181.00 longshot Gorgeous Bomb (All Too Hard) who scored an easy victory in the Class 2 & 3 over 1200 metres.

Prepared by Danny Wong, Gorgeous Bomb beat Electroplate Alloy (Golden Archer); with Draft Camp (Dream Ahead), who was shooting for four straight victories, close up in third.

Gorgeous Bomb is a former New Zealand galloper that raced there as Copper Mine when trained at Cambridge by Catherine Cameron. Copper Mine won two of his ten runs in New Zealand at Ruakaka and Te Rapa, both at 1200 metres, and placed second on two more occasions.

Sundays win and his run time suggest the son of All Too Hard (Casino Prince) will more than pay his way in Macau.

Association One (Red Jazz) from the Stanley Chin yard gave Hamel his second win for the day when he produced a perfect ride to win the Class 3 & 4 over 1800 metres.

Irish bred Association One was having his seventh run in Macau but was for Sunday's race stepping up to a suitable distance for the first time. The gelding had raced in the UK under the name of New Orleans where he had 13 runs for a win at Wolverhampton and placed on five other occasions.

Hamel enjoyed his biggest day in Macau with a four timer on February 22 and followed that up with another four winners over the 6th and 7th weekend race meetings.

Mission Dragon (Reliable Man) was another good winner on Sunday when he raced away for a big win in the Class 5 & 6 over 1200 metres under Fausto Henrique.

Trained by Patrick Lee, Mission Dragon ended up in the box seat in transit before powering away from his rivals over the last two hundred to win handsomely.

Mission Dragon was a NZ$60,000 purchase at the 2018 Karaka Ready To Run Sale and judging by his easy victory Sunday, will certainly pay his way in Macau.

THE LATEST NEWS FROM THE STALLION WORLD INCLUDING NEW STAKES WINNERS AND LEADING SIRE TABLES

New winners

Double for Outreach - Widden Stud's first season sire Outreach (Exceed And Excel) sired two new winners on Sunday. Outreach Belle (2 f ex Navarino Gold by Lion Heart) broke her maiden at Grafton over 1000 metres, while Rose Sauvage (2 f ex Turbo Rose by Strategic) was victorious at Coonamble over 1100 metres. Placed at her last three starts, Outreach Belle was purchased for $1,500 at the Inglis Scone Yearling Sale and has amassed over $30,000 in prize-money. Rose Sauvage was a $90,000 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale buy for her trainer Tracey Bartley and is a half-sister to stakes-winner In Good Time (Time Thief). The fillies are the third and fourth winners for Outreach, who covered 110 mares last spring at a fee of $7,700 (inc GST).

New Group / Grade 1 winners

Elusive Quality - The late Elusive Quality (Gone West) added a 17th Group / Grade 1 winner to his record on Saturday when Ce Ce (4 m ex Miss Houdini by Belong To Me) won the Beholder Mile (Gr 1, 8f) by more than three lengths on the Santa Anita dirt. Bred in Kentucky by Bo Hirsch, whose last Grade 1 win was with Ce Ce's dam Miss Houdini (Belong To Me) in the 2002 Del Mar Debutante (Gr 1, 7f), Ce Ce is a half-sister to Papa Clem (Smart Strike), winner of the 2009 Arkansas Derby (Gr 2, 9f). Elusive Quality died at 25 at Darley's Jonabell Farm in March, 2018.

Rip Van Winkle

- Windsor Park Stud resident Rip Van Winkle (Galileo) sired his third individual Group 1 winner as Jennifer Eccles (3 f ex Platinum

Rip Van Winkle

WINDSOR PARK STUD

Elle by Elnadim) took out the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) at Trentham on Saturday. The three-year-old filly joins Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Te Akau Shark and Phoenix Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) winner Dick Whittington as elite level scorers for their three-time Group 1 victorious sire. Rip Van Winkle stood for a fee of NZ$12,500 (inc GST) in 2019.

New stakes winners

Darci Brahma - It took Sergeant Blast (7 g ex Glittering Girl by Marsday) 36 starts to win at stakes level, but his tenacious front-running display to take the New Zealand St Leger (Listed, 2600m) gave his sire Darci Brahma (Danehill) a 46th individual stakes winner at Trentham on Saturday. The Oaks Stud's Darci Brahma has proven to be a consistent source of winners, including those at the highest levels, and at a range of distances as well. He stood this season for NZ$15,000 (plus GST).

Exosphere - Darley's first season sire Exosphere (Lonhro) landed his maiden stakes winner on Saturday when Thermosphere (2 f ex Glows by Canny Lad) took out the Magic Night Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Rosehill. The Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner, who covered 86 mares at Darley's Kelvinside property last spring for a fee of $22,000 (inc GST), has a colt out of Lonely Hour (Fastnet Rock) on offer at next month's Inglis Easter Yearling Sale. He is catalogued as Lot 36.

Fastnet Rock - Coolmore's champion sire Fastnet Rock (Danehill) landed his 156th individual stakes-winner on Saturday when Inverloch (5 g ex Ideal by Galileo), from the in-form stable of Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young, took out the Mornington Cup Prelude (Listed, 2000m) at Caulfield. Inverloch is out of the winning mare Ideal (Galileo) who herself is a half-sister to Coolmore's Group 1 winning and producing sire Camelot (Montjeu). Fastnet Rock stood at Jerry's Plains for a fee of $165,000 (inc GST) in 2019 and has 23 lots catalogued at the upcoming Inglis Easter Yearling Sale. Click here to view them.

Galiway - Wanaway (3 f ex Matwan by Indian Rocket) took out the Prix Ronde de Nuit (Listed, 1100m) on the Polytrack at Chantilly on Friday for Pascal Bary to become the second stakes winner from the first crop of Galiway (Galileo). Wanaway broke her maiden on her third start at Maisons-Laffitte in October and this was her second win from seven starts to date, having run fourth in both Listed and Group 3 company since. Galiway, who is also responsible for Group 3 winner Kenway, stands at Haras de Colleville in France where his fee this year is €10,000.

Just A Way - Shadai Stallion Station's Just A Way (Heart's Cry), named world's best racehorse in 2014, sired his fourth individual stakes winner on Sunday when Epos (3 f ex Strike Root by Smart Strike) swept to victory at Hanshin in the Hoshi Hai Fillies' Revue (Gr 2, 1400m), otherwise known as the Japanese 1000 Guineas Trial. Epos is the first Group 2 winner for her sire, having produced three stakes winners previously.

Lope De Vega - Ballylinch Stud's Lope De Vega (Shamardal) landed his 66th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Snitch (5 g ex Quaffle by Hurricane Sky) took out the Goldmarket Handicap (Listed, 1300m) at the Gold Coast. Snitch joins the likes of Santa Ana Lane and Vega Magic as stakes-winners for their Group 1 winning stallion. Lope De Vega stands for a fee of €100,000 in Ireland.

Nadeem - Little Avondale Stud's Nadeem (Redoute's Choice) sired his 17th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Tinkalicious (6 m ex Tinkermia by Johar) took out the Cuddle Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Trentham. Nadeem will stand for a fee of NZ$5,000 in 2020.

Night Of Thunder - Former Darley shuttler Night Of Thunder (Dubawi) landed his tenth individual stakes winner, and second in Australia, when the Mathew Ellerton and Simon Zahra-trained River Night (2 f ex River Pearl by Helmet) took out the Redoute's Choice Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Caulfield on Saturday. River Night joins Blue Diamond Preview (F) (Gr 3, 1000m) winner A Beautiful Night as an Australian stakes winner for Night Of Thunder. The son of Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) was the leading first season sire in Europe in 2019 and shuttled to Australia for one season, covering 96 mares in 2016. He stands at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Ireland for a fee of €25,000 (inc GST).

Ocean Park - Waikato Stud-based stallion Ocean Park (Thorn Park) sired his seventh individual stakes-winner on Saturday when Star Of The Seas (5 g ex Stella Livia by Titus Livius) took out the Maurice McCarten Handicap (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill. Star Of The Seas is out of the two-time winning mare Stella Livia (Titus Livius) making him a three-quarter brother to dual Group 1 runner-up and Aquis Farm stallion Speith (Thorn Park). He joins Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Kolding and Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) winner Oceanex as stakes winners for their five-time Group 1-winning stallion, who stands for a fee of NZ$15,000 (plus GST).

Pins - The late Pins (Snippets) produced his 85th individual stakes winner at Trentham on Saturday when Gold Bracelet (3 f ex Miss Bling by Golan), under Lisa Allpress, scored a minor upset in the Wellington Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m). Twice the Leading New Zealand Sire (by worldwide earnings), Pins died at Waikato Stud in New Zealand in April 2018 due to complications from colic. A brother to Gold Bracelet from the champion sire's final crop sold to Hong Kong's Upper Bloodstock for NZ$100,000 at this year's Karaka Yearling Sales.

Raven's Pass - Darley stallion Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) sired his 34th stakes winner on Sunday when Pisanella (3 c ex Painting by Peintre Celebre) took out the Prix Omnium II Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Saint-Cloud. Pisanella is one of three winners out of Painting (Peintre Celebre) and is related to Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner The United States (Galileo) as well as dual Group 1 winner Hermosa (Galileo). Raven's Pass stands at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Ireland for a fee of €10,000 (inc GST).

Reliable Man - German-bred Quiet Times (3 f ex Quenching by Street Cry) followed up her maiden win in December at Deauville with victory in the Prix Montenica (Listed, 1300m) on the Polytrack at Chantilly on Friday to become the tenth stakes winner for Reliable Man (Dalakhani). Reliable Man, the sire of Group 1 winners Sentimental Miss and Miami Bound, stands at Westbury Stud in New Zealand and is currently on shuttling duties to Haras d'Annebault where his fee this season is €7,000.

Sebring

WIDDEN

Sebring - The late stallion Sebring (More Than Ready) sired his 58th individual stakes-winner on Saturday when Talladega (3 g ex Impressive Jeune by Jeune) kept his unbeaten record intact in the JC Roberts Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Ascot. Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Sebring stood at Widden Stud before his premature death at the age of 13 after suffering a heart attack. He has 24 yearlings on offer at next month's Inglis Easter Yearling Sale.

Siyouni - France's champion sire Siyouni (Pivotal) was rewarded with his 35th individual stakes winner on Sunday as Simona (4 f ex Monava by El Prado) scored a first black-type win in the Prix Exbury (Gr 3, 2000m) at Saint-Cloud, the first Group race of the French flat season. Siyouni stands for €100,000 (inc GST) at Haras de Bonneval and will be represented in Saturday's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) by the Jean Dubois-trained See You Soon.

Soldier Hollow - German-based sire Soldier Hollow (In The Wings) landed his 38th stakes winner on Sunday when Emoji (3 f ex Exotic Rose by Manduro) took out the Prix La Camargo Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Saint-Cloud. Emoji is the first foal to race out of the placed mare Exotic (Manduro) who herself is a half-sister to Group 3 winner Enzo (Next Desert). Group 1 winner Soldier Hollow stands at Gestut Auenquelle for a fee of €30,000 (inc GST) and is also the sire of 2017 Ranvet Stakes winner and 2015 Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) third Our Ivanhowe.

Tertullian - German-based sire Tertullian (Miswaki) landed his 18th individual stakes-winner on Saturday when Aaron Purcell's stable star Guizot (7 g ex Guantana by Dynaformer) took out the Anniversary Vase (Listed, 1600m) at Caulfield. Out of the three-time winning German mare Guantana (Dynaformer), Guizot is a half-brother to the two-time Group winner and Easter Cup (Gr 3, 2000m) runner-up Guardini (Dalakhani).
