Trekking denies Gytrash of hometown Group 1 win

Of-forgotten Godolphin gelding comes from the clouds to score his second Group 1 win in Adelaide

BY GEORGIE DENNIS | @ANZ_NEWS

Just short of a year since his maiden elite-level victory in the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m), the James Cummings-trained Trekking (Street Cry) denied Adelaide local Gytrash (Lope De Vega) victory in his hometown Group 1 sprint in The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) at Morphettville yesterday.

The Gordon Richards-trained Gytrash had the run of the race, sitting outside the leader for the trip. He looked all but home with 200 metres to go until Trekking found another gear and stormed home to beat the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) winner by a nose.

Last year's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Lyre (Lonhro) produced another gallant effort, flashing home to finish a length and three-quarters away in third.

Trekking was steered to victory by Victorian jockey John Allen, who made the decision to spend two weeks in isolation in South Australia to be able to ride across the Adelaide carnival. Continued on page 2 >>

Wisdom lands milestone for Headwater

It is a decision that has proven fruitful for the Irish jockey, who won the South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) aboard Russian Camelot (Camelot) a week earlier.

"What a great little horse," Allen said. "This is my first time riding him but I was surprised when I got out to the mounting yard and just realised how small he was.

"But he was tough. We had a super run.

"The runner-up gave a really good kick. I thought when I got out we were going to catch him. He kept kicking but to my lad's credit he really fought and put his head down on the line."

Trekking was just the second horse Allen had ridden for Godolphin and the first since Cummings has taken over as head trainer.

"I think I might have had one ride for them (Godolphin) before around Kyneton in a maiden," Allen said.

"It was good to get the ride today.

"They're obviously very famous colours and James Cummings is part of a very famous family.

"It's my first ride for him as well so it was a good start to our partnership, hopefully."

Trekking (5 g Street Cry - Outdoor by Redoute's Choice) has won ten of his 28 starts, six of them at stakes level, with prize-money totalling $3,765,495.

The Darley-bred gelding is one of three winners out of the three-time scorer Outdoor (Redoute's Choice), who is a half-sister to the stakes-placed pair Minnesinger (Lonhro) and Entertains (Street Cry). Trekking's second dam is the three-time Group 1 winner Serenade Rose (Stravinsky).

Outdoor produced a second stakes winner yesterday when Winnie Star (Medaglia d'Oro) won the Macau Derby Trial (Listed, 1500m). She has a weanling filly by former Darley shuttler Ribchester (Iffraaj) and was covered by Street Boss (Street Cry) last spring.

Street Cry (Machiavellian), who died in 2014, is responsible for 23 individual Group 1 winners including champion mares Winx and Zenyatta.

Wisdom lands milestone for Headwater

Wisdom Of Water

MICHAEL MCINALLY

The Toby and Trent Edmonds-trained Wisdom Of Water provided his sire Headwater (Exceed And Excel) with a milestone win at the Gold Coast yesterday, becoming the Vinery Stud resident's first stakes winner when taking out the Ken Russell Memorial Classic (Gr 3, 1200m).

The two-year-old's runaway victory also proved momentous for Aquis Farm, who acquired a 50 per cent share in the colt earlier this week.

Wisdom Of Water justified his clear-cut favouritism for the two-year-old feature, leading the trip before scooting away in the home straight to win by two and three quarter lengths ahead of Tick Tock Boom (Spirit Of Boom) and Superare (Exceed And Excel), who dead-heated for second.

Toby Edmonds is yet to win a Group 1 as a trainer but he believes Wisdom Of Water can get the job done in the J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m) on June 6.

"He has had the two runs now and he should be cherry-ripe for the Atkins," Edmonds said.

"I suppose the question is whether he will run a strong 1400 metres around Eagle Farm in the Atkins.

"There wasn't much tempo in this race on paper and we elected to go forward. He rocketed out of the barriers and had to lead.

"I am sure if something else wants to lead he can take a sit on the pace."

Purchased by Blandford Bloodstock at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale for $70,000 out of the Eureka draft, Wisdom Of Water (2 c Headwater - Regal Tier by Royal Academy) has now had five starts for three wins, earning a total of $309,600 in prize-money.

He is one of three winners out of Regal Tier (Royal Academy) who herself is out of Tiercette (Tierce), making her a half-sister to dual stakes scorer Tierqualo (Sequalo). Tiercette also produced Zedatier (Zeditave) who is responsible for stakes winner Flamboyer (Clang).

Regal Tier last year foaled another Headwater colt and was covered by Encryption (Lonhro) in September.

Headwater has sired four individual winners and will stand at Vinery for a fee of $13,750 (inc GST) in 2020.

Another juvenile stakes win for Maher and Eustace

Macroua

SPORTPIX

Ciaran Maher and David Eustace have produced another stakes-winning two-year-old this season in the form of Macroua (Snitzel), who took out the Woodlands Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Rosehill yesterday.

Stepping up to stakes level at just her third start, Macroua looked trapped for a run in the home straight before a gap opened up at the 300-metre mark and she was able to sprint past the frontrunners to score by a length and a half under James McDonald.

The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Marboosha (Dream Ahead) was second with Panna Cotta (Fastnet Rock) coming home a further length and three quarters away in third.

No future plans have been confirmed for Macroua, however a tilt at the J J Atkins Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) on June 6 is not off the cards.

"It's a shame today wasn't 1200 (metres) and then your natural progression could have been to go to the J J Atkins," assistant trainer Annabel Neasham said.

"That's going to be a bit of a jump to go from 11 to 14 but we will see how she comes through and consider it. She does switch off so she may well get that trip.

"We will just let the dust settle. She is an out-and-out two-year-old so we would probably like to get one more win on the board before putting her out for a spring campaign."

Neasham said Macroua shared similarities with Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m)-winning stablemate Away Game (Snitzel), who is also small in stature but has a desire to win.

"Ciaran always says she has reminded him of Away Game but she's come to fruition a bit too late to have the same accolades," Neasham said.

"But they're similar in that they're small but they're mighty and have big hearts. She doesn't know how to do anything else but win this filly."

McDonald described Macroua as a professional filly and thinks she is worthy of a shot at the Atkins.

"I would say she is more of a sprinting, very fast two-year-old who excels when the pace is strong and she can come off their back and sprint very quickly," McDonald said. "No harm in trying and this is the right time to do it."

Macroua (2 f Snitzel - Zenaida by Zabeel) is an Aquis Farm homebred and is unbeaten from three starts, earning $144,965 in prize-money.

She is the first foal out of Zenaida (Zabeel) who herself is out of the unraced mare Madison Avenue (Morcon), making her a half-sister to three-time Group 1 winner Vosne Romanee (Electronic Zone) and the stakes-placed Meursault (Ekraar).

Macroua's third dam, Madison Square (Marceau), also produced Group 1 scorer Hear That Bell (Ring The Bell), while three-time elite level winner Allegro (Red Tempo) also features further down the page.

In 2018, Zenaida produced a colt by Exceed And Excel (Danehill) who was purchased as a weanling by Ampulla Lodge for $240,000 at the 2019 Inglis Great Southern Weanling Sale. He was then offered at this year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale where he was snapped up for $380,000. In 2019 the mare produced a filly by Snitzel's (Redoute's Choice) young sire son and Aquis Farm resident Invader.

Macroua became the 102nd stakes winner for leading sire Snitzel and the fifth bred on the Snitzel / Zabeel (Sir Tristram) cross.

Snitzel, who is on the cusp of landing a fourth champion stallion title, will stand at Arrowfield Stud for a fee of $165,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

Oceanex books Cup spot

RACING PHOTOS

Talented mare Oceanex (Ocean Park) has booked her ticket to the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) in November, taking out the 'win and you're in' Andrew Ramsden Stakes (Listed, 2800m) at Flemington yesterday.

The Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained four-year-old returned to Flemington for the first time since taking out the Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) in November last year, and remains unbeaten from three starts at the course.

Ridden by Mark Zahra, Oceanex jumped from the inside barrier and settled in the perfect position just behind Warmambool Cup (Listed, 2350m) winner Too Close The Sun (Carlton House), who led the trip.

Zahra steered the mare off the rails in the straight and the pair burst through a gap with 300 metres to go, fighting off Adelaide Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) winner King Of Leogrance (Camelot) to win by three-quarters of a length.

"There'll be a bit of nerves now," Price said. "These owners, they're like mums and dads, the Bonbeach footy club boys are in it. It's going to be a sensational story."

After three unplaced runs over shorter distances in Sydney earlier in her campaign, Price took the recommendation of Tom Marquand who suggested the mare would improve over longer trips.

And that she did, winning the Port Adelaide Cup (Listed, 2500m) at her last start before yesterday.

"Tom Marquand rode her in Sydney and said, 'Do you want to try this over a mile and a half?'" Price said.

"So her first go at 2500 (metres) in Adelaide was strong and today was fantastic.

"I know she drew barrier one and got the gun ride, but she beat the right horse in the race and she won convincingly."

Despite training a plethora of Group 1 winners over the last decade, Oceanex will be the stable's first Melbourne Cup runner since 2005 and Price said he will need to think about how to campaign her leading into the staying feature.

"I'll have to think about it now, the pressure is on," Price said. "She hasn't had a grinding stayers prep or anything. She's got a beautiful clean set of lungs and she stays."

Oceanex (4 m Ocean Park - Danex by Danasinga) has only finished out of the placings in five of her 18 career starts which has seen her accrue $676,970 in prize-money.

She was purchased by Price for NZ$70,000 at the NZB Premier Yearling Sale at Karaka and is one of eight winners from the stakes-placed Danex (Danasinga), which include the BRC Rough Habit Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) winner Amexed (Pentire) and the stakes-placegetters Marcellina (Savabeel) and Digital Fortress (Savabeel) as well as the five-time winner Danahere (Dehere), who produced Listed winner Saint Patricks Day (Excelebration).

Danex has a two-year-old filly by Per Incanto (Street Cry), a weanling colt by Pierro (Lonhro) and was covered by Coolmore's undefeated Triple Crown hero Justify (Scat Daddy) last spring.

First for Headwater

Vinery Stud's first season sire Headwater (Exceed And Excel) recorded his first stakes winner yesterday when Wisdom Of Water (2 c ex Regal Tier by Royal Academy) took out the Ken Russell Memorial Classic (Gr 3, 1200m) at the Gold Coast. Headwater will stand for $13,750 (inc GST) in 2020.

Hightail snares Gold Coast feature win in Guineas

Hightail

MICHAEL MCINALLY

After two luckless runs at the Gold Coast in the past, the Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Hightail (3 g Written Tycoon - La Paris by Falvelon) made it third time lucky yesterday when he took out the Gold Coast Guineas (Gr 3, 1200m). The three-year-old gelding finished third in last year's Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) and fourth in the Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) in January. Ryan Maloney produced a well-timed ride aboard Hightail to defeat The Odyssey (Better Than Ready) by a nose with Exhilarates (Snitzel) a further length away in third. "They went very quick in front and he really found the line in the final 100 metres," Maloney said. "I got to The Odyssey at about the 200 metres but he just kept giving and my bloke had to find plenty. Hightail was probably a pair closer than I wanted but he travelled beautifully and I think there is a good race in him."

Four for Love Conquers All

Recent Queensland returnee Love Conquers All (Mossman) provided a timely reminder of his prowess as a stallion when siring his fourth individual stakes winner yesterday in the form of Silk Stocking (Listed, 1200m) conqueror Love You Lucy (4 m ex Whitechapel by Giant's Causeway). The Barry Squair-trained mare sprinted home alongside Chris Waller's Fiesta (I Am Invincible), defeating the Star Thoroughbreds mare by a nose, with a long head back to Jen Rules (Redoute's Choice) in third. A homebred for Leo Goggins, having acquired Whitechapel (Giant's Causeway) for $3,000 at the 2013 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale, Love You Lucy has now won $252,950. She has a two-year-old sister, the unraced Bonnie Boru (Holy Roman Emperor), while Whitechapel slipped when returning to Holy Roman Emperor (Danehill) this year. Love Conquers All will stand at Clear Mountain Fairview for $5,500 (inc GST) in 2020.

Lucy repays Squair with Silk Stocking win

All was forgiven between trainer Barry Squair and his leading lady Love You Lucy after she took out the Silk Stocking at the Gold Coast yesterday. Squair arrived in the Gold Coast winners' circle with his left hand strapped after a trackwork incident involving his mare earlier in the week. "Lucy dumped me on Tuesday and I hurt my shoulder and wrist. That is it for me as a trackwork rider, my wife has put her foot down," former leading jockey Squair said. "It is the biggest win of my career as a trainer but I haven't decided where to go next. She is a good horse and we will find something extra for her. I gave her a real chance today and she will win at further than 1200 metres."

Four for Ilovethiscity

Noor Elaine Farm resident Ilovethiscity (Magic Albert) registered his fourth individual stakes winner yesterday when Chapel City (6 g ex Chapent by Peintre Celebre) took the R A Lee Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m). Purchased by Gordon Richards for $35,000 from the Dingelydell draft at the 2015 Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale, Chapel City took his earnings to more than $440,000 with his first stakes win yesterday. Chapent (Peintre Celebre) produced another Ilovethiscity colt last year and is back in foal to Puissance De Lune (Shamardal), by whom she produced two fillies in 2015 and 2016. Ilovethiscity stood for $5,500 (inc GST) last year, serving 59 mares.

Upsets abound as Chapel City takes Lee

For the second time in his career, Chapel City proved a fly in the ointment to punters as he took the R A Lee Stakes at 150/1. The Gordon Richards-trained gelding came from last to win at 80/1 on debut in June, 2016, and he again proved the nemesis of punters yesterday as he came through to defeat market fancies Seabrook (Hinčinbrook) and Harbour Views (Le Havre). "Perhaps we've got to get him out to 100/1 all the time," Richards joked on Racing.com. Ridden by Georgina Cartwright, Chapel City scored his first stakes win at his 46th start. "Even though the horse was at big odds, the Gordon Richards stable is in hot form," Cartwright said. "He actually surprised me to be honest. He was having a step up in grade from last start, but surprised me with the turn of foot he showed."

Two for Shooting To Win

Second season sire Shooting To Win (Northern Meteor) recorded his second individual stakes winner when Extra Time (2 g ex Gwynethanne by Handsome Ransom) took the National Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Morphettville yesterday. The Leon Macdonald and Andrew Gluyas-trained gelding broke his maiden with victory in the National Stakes, defeating debutant Kazuhiko (Deep Impact) by three and a quarter lengths, with a nose back to Hard Rock Girl (All Too Hard) in third. Extra Time, who sold for $140,000 from the draft of Armidale Stud at the 2019 Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale, is the first foal out of Gwynethanne (Handsome Ransom), who herself was sold for $85,000 to Aquis Farm at last year's Inglis Chairman's Sale; she has an Alpine Eagle (High Chaparral) yearling and an Impending (Lonhro) weanling. Shooting To Win will stand at Darley's Kelvinside property in the Hunter Valley for $16,500 (inc GST) this year.

Expensive yearling beaten but not bowed at first start

One of the most expensive yearlings bought at auction in 2019 was beaten on debut yesterday, but was far from disgraced. Kazuhiko, by Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) out of Grito (Redoute's Choice), was purchased for $1.7 million at last year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale by a collective involving Spendthrift Australia, Kennewell Racing and Group 1 Bloodstock. Sent out as the $4 favourite, Kazuhiko made ground late to finish second behind Extra Time in the National Stakes.

25 for So You Think

So You Think (High Chaparral) added a 25th individual stakes winner to his record yesterday when Realm Of Flowers (3 f ex Astral Flower by Kalanisi) took out the SA Fillies Classic (Gr 3, 2500m). The Anthony Freedman-trained filly was sent out favourite, coming off a win in a Murray Bridge Benchmark 60 handicap last week. She came from well back in the field to defeat Silent Sovereign (Dalakhani) by three-quarters of a length with Bellx (Rock Hero) three and a quarter lengths away in third. Realm Of Flowers was purchased as a yearling for $180,000 by James Bester Bloodstock from the draft of Arrowfield Stud. So You Think will stand at Coolmore Stud for $38,500 (inc GST) this year.

173 for Redoute's Choice

The late Redoute's Choice (Danehill) produced his 173rd individual stakes winner yesterday when Oasis Girl (3 f ex Siwa by Green Desert) took out the Centaurea Stakes (Listed, 2030m) at Morphettville. The Mathew Ellerton and Simon Zahra-trained filly was perfectly rated on the speed by Georgina Cartwright and held off the late surge of Nerve Not Verve (Shocking) by a head with La Belle Jude (War Chant) a length and a quarter away in third. A homebred for the Molloy family, Oasis Girl is the seventh foal to race from Siwa (Green Desert). She missed when visiting Redoute's Choice again in 2018, in what turned out to be the champion stallion's last season before his death in 2019.

102 for Snitzel

ARROWFIELD STUD

Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) is fast chasing down his prolific sire as a producer of stakes winners and he made it 102 individual stakes winners with Macroure (2 f ex Zenaida by Zabeel) taking out the Woodlands Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Rosehill yesterday. Snitzel will stand for $165,000 (inc GST) at Arrowfield Stud next season.

Five for Deep Field

Newgate Farm resident Deep Field (Northern Meteor) sired his fifth individual stakes winner yesterday when Fituese (3 f ex Cattalo by Tiger Hill) scored a classy win in the Denise's Joy Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Rosehill. Fituese justified her position as an odds-on favourite by scoring by a length and a quarter over Aquitaine (Exceed And Excel), with a half-length to Sally's Day (More Than Ready) in third. Purchased by Prime Thoroughbreds for $55,000 from the Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sales from the Western Breeders Alliance draft, Fituese has now won five of her seven starts and accumulated $216,065 in prize-money. She is the third foal out of Cattalo (Tiger Hill), with the mare having produced fillies by Mahuta (Flying Spur) the last two seasons. Deep Field will stand for $55,000 (inc GST) this year.

Denise's Joy a Fit for Prime filly

Syndicator Joe O'Neill has already unearthed one talented three-year-old filly in the form of Rubisaki (Rubick), but the promising Fituese may be able to join her in forming a strong Prime Thoroughbreds brigade in the coming months after her win in the Denise's Joy Stakes yesterday. The John Thompson-trained Fituese could now be bound for Queensland after her victory under Rachel King. "There was more pressure than we were expecting but credit to Rachel, she didn't panic," Thompson said. "She just let the horse travel, gave her plenty of room in the straight and she did the rest. I was worried today. There were some pretty good fillies in this race. I've got a healthy respect for the second horse and to win like that, she's a filly going places. We'll see how she comes through this. There's a couple of races in Queensland that she could possibly head up for."

33 for Written Tycoon

New Arrowfield Stud recruit Written Tycoon (Iglesia) registered his 33rd individual stakes winner yesterday when Dirty Work (3 c ex Maidel by Ad Valorem) took out the Ortensia Stakes (Listed, 1100m). Racing in the Spendthrift colours, Dirty Work raced away for a two and a half length win over Star Boy (Pluck), with a nose to Bon Amis (Bon Hoffa) in third. Spendthrift Australia went to $800,000 to secure Dirty Work at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale from the draft of Sledmere Stud. He has now won four of his 13 starts and looks destined for further success. He has a yearling sister who did not go through the sales ring this year, while his dam Maidel (Ad Valorem) is now in foal to Written Tycoon's best-performing son Capitalist. Written Tycoon will stand at his new base in the Hunter Valley for $77,000 in 2020.

Hat-trick for Dirty Work in Ortensia

Tommy Berry is in awe at the improvement that Dirty Work has continued to make as he has matured, predicting that he can improve if he continues on the right trajectory. "If you had told me he was going to do this at the end of his last prep, I wouldn't have believed you," Berry said. "Even from the horse I rode two starts ago to today, the difference is chalk and cheese." Dirty Work has gone from being one of Sydney's most frustrating sprinters to being one of the city's rising stars, having won his last three starts in a row.

Irithea adds Dark Jewel to record

After years of trying to win the Dark Jewel Classic (Gr 3, 1400m), Bjorn Baker finally took the spoils with honest mare Irithea (6 m Snitzel - Kirovskaya by French Deputy) at Rosehill yesterday. In a speed-dominated affair, Irithea chased down long-shot leader Ready To Prophet (Smart Missile) to take victory, with Into The Abyss (Foxwedge) splitting the pair. "When she can take a sit and roll along I think she is at her best and it really worked out well today," Baker said. "I have always wanted to win the Dark Jewel, I just didn't think it would be at Rosehill. It is obviously the race of the carnival and I'm very excited. She has been a stable stalwart, Irithea, and she always puts her best effort in." Irithea may now head to Queensland for her next start.

Ranier unlikely to follow Luskin Star path to Everest

Ranier (4 g Lonhro - Kanzan by Commands) followed in the footsteps of stablemates Osborne Bulls (Street Cry) and Trekking (Street Cry) by taking out the Luskin Star Stakes (Listed, 1300m) at Rosehill yesterday, but James Cummings doesn't expect that he will be following the same path come the spring. Both Osborne Bulls and Trekking went on to finish third in the The Everest (1200m), in the same year that they won the Luskin Star. However, Cummings is aiming lower with Ranier. "The Everest isn't on his radar right now, we're realistic," Cummings said. "But I'll tell you what is, is the Stradbroke. It's three weeks out from the Stradbroke and the horse is going to be arriving down on the limit and he's going to be in winning form so there's a lot to like about that."

Dawn Passage takes Inglis Guineas

Dawn Passage (3 c Dawn Approach - Raja Lane by Devaraja) is likely to tackle the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) after winning the Inglis 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) yesterday. The scratching of hot favourite Masked Crusader (Toronado) made it an easier task, but the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Dawn Approach never looked in doubt at any stage, winning by a length and a quarter over Rocha Clock (Pierro). "We will certainly contemplate setting him for the Stradbroke now," Waterhouse said. "Why wouldn't we? He's racing in such great form, he's improving all the time and I know Adrian has been so happy with his trackwork." Jockey Adam Hyeronimus added: "I've ridden some horses that have won good races and ran well but I don't think I've had a horse accelerate like he did that last furlong. So it was very impressive."

Emotional return to WA for Vega Magic

Vega Magic

SPORTPIX

It was a happy homecoming for Vega Magic (Lope De Vega) yesterday as he took the Roma Cup (Gr 3, 1200m) at his first start in Perth in more than three years. Since he'd last raced in Perth, he had won two Group 1 races and had started favourite before finishing runner-up in the inaugural The Everest (1200m) in 2017. It was no easy task for Vega Magic, who had to fight hard to overcome Durendal (Medaglia d'Oro) with The Velvet King (Universal Ruler) also flying late to add to a photo for the minors. However, it was the Sean and Jake Casey-trained Vega Magic who took the prize. "I could never, ever be so emotional after a race," Sean Casey said. "That many people have helped us, it's just amazing how many phone calls I've had this week and every one of his service providers did what they do on him." Yesterday's win took his prize-money beyond the $4 million mark.

Prezado goes back-to-back at Flemington

Straight-track specialist Prezado (Denman) made it four wins over the Flemington 1000 metres when prevailing in a blanket finish in the Furphy Dash (1000m) yesterday. The Mathew Ellerton and Simon Zahra-trained Prezado came with a flying run under Jamie Kah to defeat favourite King Of Hastings (Illovethecity) by a head with Milwaukee (Fastnet Rock) a further nose away in third. "He just tucks the head down and he's got a better finish the quicker they go up in front," Zahra said. "I was having a look at the splits and they were breaking 11 (seconds) in the last 400 (metres) and 200 (metres). Credit to the horse, he's really come of age and really appreciating the new style of training, out of the stable a little bit and back in."

Import Super Titus impresses

The British-bred Super Titus (Dansili) landed his second Australian victory at Flemington yesterday, taking out the Lexus Trophy (2000m) to provide Lindsay Park with a treble and jockey Luke Nolen a double. Super Titus proved too strong for Mahamedeis (Magnus), beating him by a short head, and connections hope he could develop into a Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2,400m) contender. Co-trainer Ben Hayes said: "He's been racing well this prep, just getting too far back and flashing home. The big with him was getting him to settle and since we've put the hood on he's really relaxed."

Hayes' high hopes for Sikorsky

Ben Hayes hopes to aim Sikorsky (Pierro) at the Kennedy Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) on Derby Day at Flemington after the four-year-old landed a benchmark 78 handicap over the same distance at the track yesterday. Hayes, who trains Sikorsky in partnership with David Hayes and Tom Dabernig, said: "Today proved to us that he's come back really well (after an injury in the 2018 Victorian Derby). I'm sure Ollie (Damien Oliver, winning jockey) will be very happy with what he felt under him today."

Straight experience pivotal in Divine win

Two-year-old Divine Caprice (Sebring) took advantage of her previous straight-track experience to score in yesterday's AAMI Next Generation Sprint (1000m) at Flemington. Divine Caprice, trained by David and Ben Hayes and Tom Dabernig, was among five of the 11 runners to have already raced, but was the only one to have raced down the Flemington straight previously. "She'd had two runs down the straight before whereas all the others hadn't," Ben Hayes said. "She travelled really well and extended well to the line for a fantastic win." Yesterday's race was the first heat of a new series for sprinting two-year-olds at Flemington with a 1200-metre final over the straight course in July. "She handles the straight really well, so I don't see a reason why we wouldn't push on towards that," Hayes said.

Weight drop helps Romakash in Coast win

Tough gelding Romakash (Roc De Cambes) is likely to target the Tattersall's Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Eagle Farm on June 13 as his first stakes outing after taking the 2200-metre open handicap at the Gold Coast yesterday. Trainer Matt Kropp has bought a number of staying prospects at the New Zealand sales in recent years, including Romakash. "The best of them was probably Trusty Lad who won the Three-Year-Old staying series here," Kropp said. "But this bloke has won nine races now so he is getting up there. There is a 2400-metre race coming up so he can have a crack at that. The weight drop helped today and Larry rode him perfectly."

Northern Territory victory on Goodwood day

Star Hills (Magnus), who won a potentially deadly battle with an Eastern Brown snake, showed he can also handle himself on the track when winning the 1050-metre handicap at Morphettville yesterday. "He should have been dead," said Northern Territory trainer Bob Richard. "He nearly got bitten by a snake but he killed the snake himself. He stomped on him and he hit him about four times." The five-year-old scored under jockey Ethan Brown and was winning for the first time since joining Richard after Allen Browell retired last year.

Allen suspended once more

John Allen was handed his second big-race suspension in as many weeks when winning The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) at Morphettville yesterday. The jockey won the race with Trekking (Street Cry) but was suspended for six meetings for causing interference. It follows a suspension issued by the SA stewards in last week's South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m), which he won aboard the Danny O'Brien-trained Russian Camelot (Camelot).

NEW ZEALAND

Wheeler welcomes government support

Trainer John Wheeler has applauded this week's announcement of an emergency support package by the New Zealand government, although he argues the errors of successive governments have brought the country's racing industry to its knees. "Since 2003 when the government basically took over the running of the TAB, we have gone slowly downhill," Wheeler said. "By my calculations, since 1951 we have given the government, through duty, in excess of a billion dollars. I felt the government owed it to us, but by the sounds of a lot of comments, you wouldn't think so." The Hall of Fame trainer has excelled with both flat horses and jumpers and is viewed by his peers as a trailblazer, particularly for the success he has had beating the Australians on their home turf with horses like (Our) Poetic Prince (Toy Pindarri), Rough Habit (Yeats) and Veandercross (Crossways).

Northland, not Gold Coast, for Rae

Trainer Kenny Rae was meant to be lapping up the sun in Queensland this winter, but instead he is back at his sunny Northland property contemplating the future of his home course at Ruakaka. "Eamonn Green and myself were supposed to be going to the Gold Coast with three or four horses all through May and all June," Rae said. "He has got an apartment there. We stayed there two years ago. It is usually the horses that don't front up, but the people couldn't this time." Rae is best known in Australia for the feats of (Our) Egyptian Raine (Desert Sun), who was a Group 1 winner in New Zealand and a Group 2 winner across the Tasman for him before transferring to Grahame Begg.

ASIA

139 for Medaglia d'Oro

On a day in which Trekking (Street Cry) scored another Group 1 success in The Goodwood, his younger half-brother Winnie Star (Medaglia d'Oro) scored a first stakes victory in the Macau Derby Trial (Listed, 1500m) at Taipa yesterday. It brought up Medaglia d'Oro's 139th individual stakes winner and gives the American stallion the chance to complete the Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m)-Macau Derby (Listed, 1800m) double after Golden Sixty won the Hong Kong Derby in March. The Macau Derby comes up on July 19.

Hong Kong International Sale horses breeze at Sha Tin

The 15 lots who will go through the sales ring on Saturday as part of the belated first session of the 2020 Hong Kong International Sale breezed-up on the Sha Tin turf yesterday morning. The first session features horses purchased by the Hong Kong Jockey Club from sales in the UK, Ireland, France, South Africa and Argentina, with the Australian and New Zealand lots set to go under the hammer in July. Among the catalogued lots is an Exchange Rate (Danzig) half-brother to six-time Group 1 winner Invador (Candy Stripes). The sale will begin at 10.30am (HKT, 12.30pm AEST) next Saturday in the Sha Tin parade ring and will be broadcast live through the HKJC website.

All-the-way for Danon Smash in Keio Hai Spring Cup

Danon Smash (5 h Lord Kanaloa - Spinning Wildcat by Hard Spun) scored a fifth stakes win yesterday, but a first above Group 3 level, when he took out the Keio Hai Spring Cup (Gr 2, 1400m) at Tokyo. Danon Smash was tackling some of Japan's best sprinter-miler males, with many set to tackle the Yasuda Kinen (Gr 1, 1600m) next month. Sent off as second favourite, Danon Smash was rated to a tee by Damian Lane on the speed, slowly increasing the tempo throughout before holding a length and a quarter margin at the line over Stelvio (Lord Kanaloa), with Groove It (Lord Kanaloa) making it a trifecta for the sire.

INTERNATIONAL

Overseas runners allowed for Guineas, Coronation Cup

Foreign-trained runners will be allowed to run in the first two Classics of the disrupted British Flat season, the British Horseracing Authority (BHA) has confirmed. The news could be music to the ears of Aidan O'Brien, Ireland's champion trainer who has won four of the last five runnings of the 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m), and three of the last four of the 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m). However, no overseas runners will be allowed to run in Listed, Group 2 and Group 3 races until June 15 and no internationally-trained horses will be permitted to take part in any races of Class 2 level and below until further notice due to concerns about elimination levels. The plan is for racing in Britain to resume on June 1, with the first Group 1 of the season, the Coronation Cup (Gr 1, 1m 4f), due to take place at Newmarket on June 5.

Betting: $10.00, $3.00, $16.00.

Then followed: Behemoth (AUS), Order Of Command (AUS), Santa Ana Lane (AUS), Xilong (AUS), Bold Star (AUS), Amberdi (AUS), Zoutori (AUS), Sunlight (AUS), The Inevitable (AUS), Li'l Kontra (AUS) & Jungle Edge (AUS), last.

Analysis: With a well timed run Trekking got the upper hand in the last stride to add a second Group 1 victory to his career tally of 10 wins (six stakes) at start 28. He jumped fairly but settled midfield, one out, finding the rail from the 800m. Giving the leader (Xilong) four lengths approaching the 600m he looked pocketed and rounding into the straight the situation looked no better. At the 300m he got a lovely split, balanced and charged after the leaders. Taking some time to really wind up he was a length from the leader at the 100m but gradually wore him down to get the last stride in at the post, the margin a short half head. Gytrash sat just back and outside the pace all the way to the top of the straight, eventually levelled up at the 200m and went for home. He looked the winner near the 100m but was worn down and caught in the last stride for a gallant second.

Lyre was a hopeless second last at the top of the straight and somehow threaded her way between runners the length of the straight and flew into third just short of the line. Behemoth was last at the 400m, went widest and finished very strongly for fourth. [LJ]

Then followed: Diala (AUS), Riched (AUS), Zoushine (AUS), Miss Guggenheim (AUS), Yes Baby Yes (AUS) & Yule My Hero (AUS), last.

Analysis: The addition of blinkers corrected a last start green performance from Extra Time and he had this under control a long way from home, cruising away for his maiden win and stakes win at start four. He was a step slow to begin but soon rushed forward one out to lead from the 1000m. Past the 600m he was two lengths clear and rounding into the straight hugged the rail and slipped them. Full of running he was never in danger and was able to ease near the line yet still three and a half lengths in front. Kazuhiko settled fifth (rails), made ground from the 600m and was fourth at the 300m. Still fourth at the 100m he found more late to grab second just short of the line. Hard Rock Girl moved up to second inside the 400m, did most of the futile chasing to the 100m then faded to third while Diala, from third at the 300m, battled on for fourth. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Analysis: Appreciating the step up in distance, Realm Of Flowers outstayed her opponents quite comfortably here for her fourth victory (maiden stakes) at start seven. Midfield early, one out, she drifted a few places down the back and was fourth last inside the 1000m. She began to improve from the 800m and with 500m remaining gained quickly, rounding into the straight five wide. A length off the lead at the 300m she levelled up then went clear at the 150m. To the line she was not going to be caught, up by three quarters at the post. Silent Sovereign was last at the 800m, tracked the winner from the 600m but had to move further out in the straight to challenge. She tried hard and took ground off the winner but had to settle for second, the first two clear of the rest. Bellx was handy enough in third at the 600m, moved up to co-lead at the 200m but could not match the first two, battling on for third from Tralee Rose who got going late to nab fourth. Then followed: Always On Show (NZ), Kavak (AUS), Minjee (AUS), Saffiano (AUS), Spokesman (AUS), Neutron (AUS), Bangers And Mayo (AUS), Fox Terrier (AUS) & Daring Man (AUS), last.

Analysis: Wisdom Of Water, a good fourth in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) at the Gold Coast in January, is now unbeaten in two runs this preparation. He began quickly and went straight to the front. He then travelled along at a good tempo before drawing away from the 200m to score impressively. Tick Tock Boom, a maiden after four starts, settled in last place, improved between runners at the turn and then came with a strong late finish to dead-head for second in a promising performance. Superare raced in seventh place, got through to fourth at the 200m and kept fighting well to dead-heat for second with Always On Show holding on for fourth after having a nice trip in third place on the rails. Analysis: Chapel City caused a major upset here at triple figure odds, getting up in the last stride to record his maiden stakes victory and seventh career win. He began well but soon drifted through the field to be midfield. At the 600m, locked way on the fence, he needed luck. Still locked away rounding into the straight he took the shortcut, drove up to fifth at the 300m, moved out at the 200m then went after the leader. Within a length at the 50m he tried hard and nabbed the win in the last stride by a head. Seabrook had a lovely rails run in third from the 800m, moved up to second at the 300m then took over approaching the 200m. He went more than a length clear at the 100m, looked the winner but was nabbed in the last stride. Harbour Views improved quickly but wide rounding into the straight then kept up a strong run for third from All Too Huiying who was third at the 200m then clung on for fourth. [LJ]

Analysis: Hightail, winner of the Gosford Guineas (Listed, 1200m) in December did well in recording his second stakes success here, albeit narrowly. After his first-up win at Randwick-Kensington in a benchmark 88, he settled in seventh place (between runners), eased deeper at the turn and then finished well to grab victory on the post. The favourite The Odyssey raced outside the leader (Bellevue Hill), went to the front on turning for home, only to be caught on the post for (half-head) second in a very solid performance. Exhilarates raced back in 12th place (on the rails), improved between runners at the turn and she then finished on well (out wide) over the latter stages for a good third in a smart first-up effort with Scathing battling on well for (1.9 lengths) fourth, advancing in class here. Analysis: After running many good races without winning, Irithea broke through for her first success since taking out the Hawkesbury Crown (Gr 3, 1300m) in April last year for a deserved victory here. She showed her customary pace and soon crossed from a difficult barrier (16) to race in third place, one off the rails. She moved up at the 200m, went to the front at the 100m before going on to score a good win.
Into The Abyss settled in seventh place on the rails from her inside barrier (1), improved on the inner at the turn and continued to fight on well on the rails for a good second. Ready To Prophet went to the front and set a good tempo. She was only overtaken at the 100m and then held on for third after running a bold race. Sweet Scandal was back in eighth place (between runners) at the turn and she made good late ground for (1.3 lengths) fourth. BELARDO – Champion 2YO & Dual G1 winner

LOPE DE VEGA'S only son at stud in Australasia

Analysis: Fresh up after a 37 week break, grand campaigner and former dual Group 1 winner Vega Magic held on valiantly for his 14th win in 27 starts, taking his earnings beyond $4 million. He was third away but went forward to take over, one out from the 800m. He was headed at the top of the straight, fought back to lead narrowly at the 200m but to the line was hotly challenged from both sides yet never relented, keeping his neck in front to the line. The Velvet King drove up to second past the 600m, third turning in then got going again at the 100m but could not overhaul the winner for close second. Durendal was second at the top of the straight, took over narrowly approaching the 200m but kept trying hard for a close third from Flirtini who came out of the pack from the 300m and finished strongly for a close up fourth. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Analysis: Never on the track here last start, Humma Humma found this class much easier and was much too good to score her third stakes win and sixth overall. She was tad slow to begin but soon rushed forward to sit sixth, finding the fence past the 600m. She was in deep traffic at the top of the straight but found a split one off the fence at the 200m. At the 100m she switched back to fence, drove along the rail then raced away for a nice win by a length and a quarter. Kabini sat fourth (rails) at the 600m, went up to third at the top of the straight, co-led at the 100m but could not accelerate with the winner. A super run from Street Icon who was well back turning for home, pulled out wide and finished strongly for third from Be My Star who caught the pacemaker at the 250 then fought on well to hold fourth. Analysis: Talented filly Macroura was quite impressive in winning again to remain unbeaten in three starts. She began well from her inside barrier (1) and then settled nicely for James McDonald in seventh place on the rails. However, she was held up for clear running on straightening before McDonald steered her through a gap at the 200m. She then took the lead shortly afterwards and went on to score with something in hand. Marboosha, a winner at her first two starts, was wide early on before settling in third spot, one off the rails. She moved up to challenge at the 300m, briefly hit the front and then fought well for a very good second. Panna Cotta raced in fourth place on the rails, got along the inner on turning for home and fought well to gain third in a photo from Bellevue Star who worked in the early stages from her wide barrier (10) to find the lead and then held on well for (3.4 lengths) fourth after leading the field until halfway down the straight. ANOTHER NZ BRED WINNER

Analysis: Last start winner of the Port Adelaide Cup (Listed, 2500m), Oceanex earned a ticket to the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) with a nice staying effort here. She settled fourth (rails) with a lap to run, picking up one spot past the 1800m. Still third at the 1200m she was passed by several from the 800m but handy enough without covering extra ground. Starting the run home she moved out but was pocketed, then drove through a split at the 300m to co-lead at the 200m. She lowered her head and took over by a half length at the 100m then edged further ahead for a nice win by three quarters of a length, her third stakes and sixth win overall in 18 starts. King Of Leogrance made his run from the 1000m, went up three deep and was third at the top of the straight. He led narrowly at the 300m and when collared by the winner fought hard to the line for his second. Super Girl was shuffled back at the 600m, improved quickly to fourth at the 300m and kept on well for third. Skelm, from last, kept up a solid run in the straight for fourth. Analysis: Backing up from a Caulfield win seven days ago, Oasis Girl did practically all the work in front and was rewarded with her maiden stakes success and fifth win in 10 starts. She was away well to be fourth early then drove up to take over at the approaching the 1600m, holding the lead comfortably to the 800m. Inside the 600m she quickened and rounding into the straight slipped away by two lengths. At the 200m she still had them by two, a length clear at the 100m then hung on gamely when challenged to prevail by a long head. Nerve Not Verve sat sixth (rails) at the 600m, improved to fourth at the straight entrance then went after the winner, tried hard to the line but came up short. La Belle Jude chased the winner into the straight and kept on well under pressure for third from Bertwhistle who turned in third and battled hard along the inside for fourth. Then followed: Trumbull (NZ), Graff (AUS), Lanciato (NZ), Special Missile (AUS), Sir Bacchus (AUS), My Nordic Hero (GB) & Tato Key (ARG), last.

Analysis: Ranier, winner of the Festival Stakes (Gr 3, 1500m) at Rosehill in the spring is now unbeaten in two starts since resuming. After a smart beginning, he settled in fourth place, one off the rails, behind a reasonable tempo before moving up nicely rounding the home turn. He then sprinted well, got to the front at the 100m and went on to score a good win. Brave Song settled back in eighth place, improved (out deep) on straightening. He then continued to run on well to finish second, beaten just over a length. Eleven Eleven settled closer than expected, racing in third place on the rails. He challenged strongly and took a narrow lead at the 200m and then battled on quite well for third after seeming to have had every chance. Trumbull settled near the tail of the field, commenced a wide bid on turning for home and continued to make ground to finish a good (1.7 lengths) fourth. The favourite Graff had a nice run in fifth place on the rails, eased into clear running at the turn but just battled in the straight under his top weight (59kg) for (3.2 lengths). [KB]

Analysis: The John Thompson-trained filly Fituese is building an imposing record, now winning five of seven starts and she staged a smart performance in taking out her first stakes race in scoring here. She settled nicely for Kerrin McEvoy in sixth place (with a trail) before improving on straightening. She then finished strongly, hit the front at the 100m and went on to score comfortably. Aquitaine staged a good first-up effort. She raced outside the leader (Monetizing), went to the front at the 300m and then held on gamely for second after running a bold race. Sally's Day settled back in eighth place, improved between runners at the 300m and kept running on well for third in an encouraging performance, advancing in class here with Satin Socks holding on for (3.1 lengths) fourth after being prominent most of the way. Analysis: The Toowoomba-trained mare Love You Lucy, improved by three runs back, scored her seventh win in 17 starts and her first stakes success in winning here. She travelled well in sixth place, but wide, before moving up (three wide) nearing the turn. She was under pressure halfway down the straight but lifted well to grab a narrow but very good win. Fiesta settled back in ninth place, on the rails, angled deeper and into clear running at the 200m and came with a late run to just miss for (short head) second, looking unlucky. Jen Rules raced in eighth place, wide with cover. Improved (deep) at the turn and kept finishing on well for a close-up third. The favourite Niedorp worked from her wide barrier (13) before settling outside the leader (Bold Arial). She got to the front at the 200m and showed gameness in fighting for fourth, beaten a half-length in a keenly contested finish. [KB]

ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Inglis

Analysis: Dirty Work made it three on end to celebrate his maiden stakes victory at start 13 with an easy win here. He was first out but was headed soon after to settle fourth (rails) past the 800m. Continuing to save ground he camped in behind the lead to the top of the straight where the leader drifted away from the fence allowing him a beautiful run through. He co-led with three others at the 300m but at the 200m drove clear and was untroubled to the line by two and half lengths. Star Boy sat just back and outside the leader (Villami) to the 400m, took a narrow lead but was caught at the 300m and although no match for the winner, kept on gamely for his second. Bon Amis sat fifth, one out at the 600m, pushed out and ran up to co-lead briefly at the 300m then battled away for third from Handle The Truth who from midfield finished fairly for fourth. Then followed: True Detective (AUS) & Bandersnatch (AUS), last.

Analysis: Dawn Passage followed his victory in the Hawkesbury Guineas (Gr 3, 1400m) at Rosehill on April 25 with another smart performance in winning here. He settled nicely outside the leader (Bandersnatch) travelling at a moderate tempo before challenging at the turn. He got to the front at the 200m and then fought back strongly for a very good win. The filly Rocha Clock raced in fourth place (tracking the eventual winner). She looked a threat at the 200m and then battled gamely for a second in a very honest performance. Lightly raced filly Air To Air, a winner of a maiden (1600m) at Kembla on April 28 at her third start did really well in finishing on from the tail of the five-runner field to take third, advancing significantly in class here. True Detective battled on for (4 lengths) fourth after having an ideal trip in third spot on the rails while Bandersnatch tried for (4.4 lengths) last after leading to the 200m. [KB]
