Nutt and Clarke head west to score prized War Chant filly

Half-sister to Group 2 winner Quilista makes $240,000 at Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale

Lot 166 War Chant - Brocky's Ace filly

MAGIC MILLIONS

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Strong demand for the progeny of leading Western Australian stallion War Chant (Danzig) and a quality colt by first season sire Winning Rupert (Written Tycoon) has helped fuel a buoyant Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale, continuing the upward market trend of 2020.

The most expensive yearling sold yesterday, a half-sister to Group 2-winning mare Quilista (Scandal Keeper) by Yarradale Stud's War Chant, made $240,000 while a further 29 lots made $100,000 or more including a Victoria-bound $200,000 son of Newgate Farm's young stallion.

In contrast, there were 24 yearlings who made six figures last year to a top of $260,000 with three breaking $200,000 at the Magic Millions' purpose-built Swan Valley selling complex.

SALES TALK

Birthday girl Cheng celebrates with War Chant pair

Singapore owner Constance Cheng, under her Thoroughbred Owners Association and Sports Trust (TOAST) banner, bought two yearlings by Yarradale Stud's flagship stallion War Chant, a colt for $120,000 and a $180,000 filly who momentarily held the status as the highest-priced lot of the sale.

The filly, who was catalogued as Lot 133, is a half-sister to the 11-time winner Lamasery (Commands) who was successful at stakes level four times.

The Book 1 average was last night sitting at $71,302, up 9.7 per cent year on year, with a clearance rate of 73 per cent compared to 77 per cent in 2019.

Sydney-based agent Jim Clarke and Attunga Stud's Brian Nutt signed for the top-priced War Chant filly on behalf of Victorian owner Geoff Walsh who is set to race her on the eastern seaboard.

"War Chant has got a very good Group 1-winning filly in Silent Sedition in the east already who subsequently sold very well as a broodmare ($1.5 million) and he is a proven stallion," Clarke told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"The filly has got a very big pedigree and she is going to have very good residual value with Quilista ... who is in foal to I Am Invincible, so there's a lot of upside. Physically, I thought she was the most impressive type of the sale.

"Brian Nutt and I looked at every horse in Book 1, but before we got here she was one that we had earmarked on pedigree as one of the ones we were particularly interested in and she had looks to match."

Catalogued as Lot 166 from the Willow Dale Farm draft, the Ellie Giles-bred filly is eighth foal out of the stakes-placed juvenile winner Brocky's Ace (Surtee), making her a half-sister to five winners including Listed winner Red Can Man (Gingerbread Man) and ATC Sapphire Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Quilista.

Nutt's Attunga Stud sold Quilista at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast National Broodmare Sale for $950,000 to Aquis Farm's Tony Fung and the popular Hunter Valley breeder consulted the sprinter's original trainer Justin Warwick before committing to buying the filly.

"He was instrumental in my buying her. He gave me the confidence I probably didn't have five days ago. I was very happy to get her," Nutt said.

Clarke, who was attending his second Perth sale, has been buying fillies at the recent yearling sales for a separate syndicate with the view of trading them at the end of their racing career.

He thought yesterday's purchase for a client of Nutt's hit the mark price wise.

"I think, from a value point of view, it was probably pretty well spot on what she was worth," he said.

"Certainly, on pedigree she was an obvious standout in the catalogue and the fact she had the physique to back up her pedigree was the reason why we thought she was worth what we paid for her."

The first horse to hit the $200,000 barrier was the Western Breeders Alliance-consigned colt by Newgate Farm's young Group 2-winning sprinter Winning Rupert who was purchased by Victorian trainer Matt Laurie.

He was consigned by Western Breeders Alliance (Darling View Stud) as Lot 161 and is the second foal out of the winning mare Bitter Twist (California Dane), herself a sister to the stakes-placed Inspector and half-sister to Perth Listed winner Hoegaarden (Flying Spur).

"I thought he was a standout and obviously I had to bid pretty hard to get him but he is a really forward, well-muscled, well-balanced colt who is a typical early running sort of horse," Laurie said.

"He is from a tough family, speed on speed, and his physical attributes matched his page and we're thrilled to get him."

The filly, who was catalogued as Lot 133, is a half-sister to the 11-time winner Lamasery (Commands) who was successful at stakes level four times. She is the 11th foal from the unraced Verse (Quest For Fame), herself a half-sister to Group 1 winner Anthems (Palace Music) and Listed winner Vocalist (Bluebird). The filly is also from the same family as ATC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Microphone (Exceed And Excel) whose second dam is Vocalist.

Cheng, who races horses in Singapore, Australia and Hong Kong, believes she was "the top filly of the sale".

"I really liked her as a type - with a deep girth and beautiful hips," said Cheng who was also celebrating her birthday yesterday.

"It was great to be able to buy her off Yarradale Stud as I have had a lot of success with stock from the farm."

Her $120,000 colt, who was catalogued as Lot 50, is closely related to talented Group 2-winning three-year-old Dalasan (Dalakhani) being out of La Rochelle (Honour And Glory) and a half-brother to the stakes-placed Khandallah (Kitten's Joy).

She in turn is the mother of the Leon Macdonald and Andrew Gluyas-trained Danehill Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Dalasan.

Parnham delivers $170,000 knockout blow

This season's Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800)-winning trainer Neville Parnham was the first to make a statement at the Perth sale, securing a colt by War Chant with a single $170,000 bid just ten minutes into the auction.

Parnham was aware of the presale hype about the colt but the similarities between his new acquisition and the trainer's 2019 WA Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) winner War Saint were unmissable.

"I thought he was the best of the War Chants and we have had a bit of luck with the War Chants over the years and then we won the Guineas with War Saint last November," Parnham told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"I thought this bloke had a lot of likeness to him in looks and shape, so I was pretty keen to get hold of him.

"I thought $150,000 would probably stop him but $170,000 was the only bid I had. I waited until the end and I got them in the finish."

Parnham, one of WA's leading trainers for nearly four decades, already has 75 per cent of the colt sold with breeder Ron Sayers of Yarradale Stud also set to retain a share.

Lot 5 War Chant - Diamonds'n'dreams filly

Catalogued as Lot 5, he is the fourth foal out of the Viscount (Quest For Fame) mare Diamonds'N'Dreams, making him a half-brother to three-time winners Together We Dream (Discorsi) and Deadly Shot (Musket).

Parnham said the quality horses stood out and vendors who did present better-credentialled lots were well rewarded.

The declining clearance rate, therefore, was not a complete surprise to the trainer.

"I think it has been a pretty handy sale," he said.

"There has been a few passed in lots but some of those were disappointing horses. The lots that are nice have made their money."

Fellow prominent Perth trainer Simon Miller also struck yesterday, going to $170,000 for a colt by WA's late champion sire Blackfriars (Danehill) from the family of dual Group 1 winner Scenic Shot (Scenic).

The colt, who was sold as Lot 104 by Dawson Stud as agent, is the second living foal out of the placed mare Sky Rumba (Shrewd Rhythm) who is a half-sister to WA Listed winner London Line (Blackfriars).

His third dam is the stakes-placed Sweepshot (Dr Grace) who is the dam of the former Dan Morton-trained Scenic Shot as well as the stakes-placed Flight Path (Bletchley Park).

McEvoy's strike for colts by Hunter Valley stallions

Another yearling to feature in the top lots sold yesterday was the Western Breeders Alliance-offered $170,000 So You Think (High Chaparral) filly who was bought by McEvoy Mitchell Racing and Belmont Bloodstock.

By the Coolmore-based So You Think, the sire of 24 stakes winners including five at Group 1 level, the filly is a half-sister to the Magic Millions WA Trophy (RL, 1400m) winner Enchanted Dream (Patronize) and the Group 2-placed Mystic Maid (Patronize). The filly was catalogued as Lot 56.

"She oozes class. She had great honesty about her, a great willingness and her purpose was incredible," Tony McEvoy said.

Earlier in the session, agent Suman Hedge combined with Tony and Calvin McEvoy and Belmont Bloodstock's Damon Gabbedy to secure a colt by Nicconi (Bianconi) for $160,000 who will be joining the So You Think filly at the stables of the dual-state trainers.

Hedge, who bought a Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) colt for $285,000 at the Gold Coast in partnership with the McEvoy's and Redwall Bloodstock, was happy to be able to link with the leading stable to buy the colt who was offered by Dawson Stud.

"First and foremost he was a lovely, athletic horse who is really strong. He moves well with good angles and he had a bit of quality about him and, physically, he was a horse that we rated highly in the sale," Hedge said.

McEvoy, who was under bidder on a $370,000 Nicconi colt at last week's Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, is a fan of Nicconi having helped train the Group 1-winning sprinter when an assistant to David Hayes at Lindsay Park and Hedge was happy to receive the trainer's endorsement to buy the colt.

"They call me Tony Nicconi back east," the trainer said. "I love the Nicconi breed and had quite a bit to do with the stallion himself when he was in training.

"Gee, this colt was big and powerful and such a great mover. He's going to have a very big stride and is going to be very hard to get past. With him being a big fellow, we might have to watch his weight, but he looks like a real running type to me."

Catalogued as Lot 13, the colt is the third foal out of the five-time winning mare Elite Ateates (Exceed And Excel) with his second dam the smart Group 2-winning juvenile Ateates (Zeditave) in turn a sister to Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Ruffles (Zeditave).

Aquis Farm was also active at the Perth sale, purchasing an Amelia Park Racing and Breeding-consigned colt by Coolmore sire Pierro (Lonhro) for $160,000.

The colt's commercial appeal was aided by the recent important pedigree update after his two-year-old half-sister La Farola (Deep Field) won on debut at Pinjarra on January 11.

Catalogued as Lot 15, the colt is the fifth foal for the Melbourne-winning juvenile and stakes-placed mare Europa Point (Rock Of Gibraltar).

"He is very similar to his half-sister who won her first start for us about six weeks ago. He's an early runner, strong and being by Pierro he attracted a lot of buyers," Amelia Park's Sarah Brown said.

"It is always nice to have eastern state buyers here and nice to know that we have a draft here that those big eastern state buyers are interested in."

Amelia Park also sold a Vancouver (Medaglia d'Oro) colt from the family of Group 1-winning filly Special Harmony (Spinning World) for $150,000 to trainer Vern Brockman and a Shooting To Win (Northern Meteor) colt for $140,000 to Pearce Racing.

The son of Darley's Shooting To Win is half-brother to five winners including the recent Simon Miller-trained three-year-old filly Kentucky Love (Uncle Mo) who made it back-to-back victories this campaign when scoring at Ascot last Wednesday.

Amelia Park's Peter Walsh, who owns Kentucky Love, was also active on the other side of the fence, buying a War Chant filly for $130,000 from Yarradale Stud.

"She was a beautifully balanced filly with a lovely walk. She was eye-catching to me and we are always interested in buying fillies to race and bred with," Brown said.

"We came here looking without being serious about buying but she had some 'wow factor'.

Meanwhile, a colt by Gold Front Thoroughbreds' first season sire Awesome Rock (Fastnet Rock) will also head interstate after Shane Nichols landed the yearling who is closely related to the Mornington trainer's stakes-winning mare Tahitian Dancer (Dawn Approach). The highest-priced yearling sold by a first season Western Australian-based stallion, Nichols paid $165,000 for the colt.

Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch described the Book 1 sale as "a really solid day's trade" but admitted he would have liked to have seen more horses change hands through the ring.

"The huge average of over $71,000 is well up on last year and the gross of over $8.8 million is impressive considering we grossed $2 million less last year," Bowditch said,

"It's a disappointing clearance rate, which will improve over the next 24 hours.

"As the results indicate everyone was playing a part - from the locals to our interstate and international visitors."

Bowditch also reserved special mention for Giles, the breeder of yesterday's top-priced yearling.

"It was a great result today for one of the state's most celebrated breeders in Ellie Giles. We couldn't be more thrilled for her to top the sale," he said.

"(Today's) sale will present so many opportunities to buyers considering the healthy prizemoney and incentives around the state."

The Book 2 sale starts at 11am local time today.

Live Diamond hope for Lindsays

Letzbeclam

SPORTPIX

The Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained Blue Diamond Prelude (Gr 2, 1100m) winner Letzbeclam (Snitzel) heads into Saturday's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Caulfield with a live chance and owners Brendan and Jo Lindsay, who also own Cambridge Stud, are just thrilled to have a runner in the race. "When you buy these horses you don't think of races like this," Brendan Lindsay said. "It's proved to be a fantastic result to even have a runner in the Blue Diamond and she's got to be a good chance the way she won last start. It's also great to have Trent and Natalie training her for us. To think when I was young I used to back horses trained by Trent's father (Paddy) and now all these years later Trent is training a Group 2 winner for us. Good on them both. They've got there the hard way and I couldn't be happier for them."

Currie chasing back-to-back Diamonds

Luke Currie is chasing his second Blue Diamond Stakes in a row this weekend as he partners unbeaten Anthony Freedman-trained Hanseatic (Street Boss) in the $1.5 million race at Caulfield. The colt has won three races in a row and if he is to win on Saturday, he would become the first since Sepoy (Elusive Quality) to take out the Blue Diamond Preview (C&G) (Listed, 1000m), Blue Diamond Prelude (C&G) (Gr 3, 1100m) and then the feature race. "It would be a good effort but he's in the right barn and he probably needed the experience of having another run last time in the Prelude," said Currie. "So hopefully we can make it four in a row. He's definitely the one to beat. I wouldn't be swapping him for anything else."

Anaheed on track for Oakleigh Plate

Peter and Paul Snowden's three-time Group 2 winner Anaheed (Fastnet Rock) will be looking to add a Group 1 to her resume in the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) and after her impressive last start win in the Rubiton Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) over the same course and distance, connections are optimistic about her chances. "When we got her in and looked at what options were available I said that this is probably a race that's definitely winnable, if her form warranted it and she came back and raced well first-up," Peter Snowden said. "Well, she raced past our expectations first-up with the time she ran so we can go into this race now with a bit of confidence that she's going to be competitive."

Puissance likely to bypass Futurity

Despite holding a nomination for the race, Ciaran Maher, who trains in partnership with David Eustace, said All-Star Mile (1600m) contender Heart Of Puissance (Puissance De Lune) is likely to bypass Saturday's Futurity

Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield in favour of a benchmark race at Sandown. "We threw a (Futurity) nomination in for him but he might kick off next Wednesday at Sandown in a benchmark 70 over 1500 metres," Maher told Racing.com. "The last ten days he's really started to come together, so next Wednesday will be used to bring him right up to speed. Hopefully he can gain a bit of confidence. He's still a work in progress and he still does a bit wrong but he's a nice horse. If he's good enough he should win that easily and use that to bring him on a bit and he should then be pretty right for a mile."

Every Rose set to bloom in Silver Slipper

Every Rose

SPORTPIX

After a luckless run in the Magic Million 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m), Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) winner Every Rose (Choisir) is set for Saturday's Silver Slipper (Gr 2, 1100m) at Rosehill as Mark Newnham sets her on a Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) path. "She had no luck when she needed it at the Gold Coast," Newnham said. "She had two solid runs leading into the Magic Millions and may need two going to the Slipper. We'll see how she gets through Saturday."

McEvoy set three for Typhoon Tracy

Tony and Calvin McEvoy are set to have a three-pronged attack on the Typhoon Tracy Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Moonee Valley on Friday night with Sisstar (Zoustar), Grand Scholar (Wandjina) and Oh Please Dianna (Deep Field). Grand Scholar is unbeaten at Moonee Valley but failed at the Gold Coast last start and Calvin McEvoy expects her to bounce back on Friday. "We took her back to Angaston, she freshened-up at the farm, travelled back to Melbourne last week and I thought her work was really good this morning," McEvoy said. "She still looks a little big, so she'll improve out of the run and tighten up nicely." On Sisstar, who was disappointing first-up in the W.J. Adams Stakes (Listed, 1000m), McEvoy said: "She's trained on nicely since that run at Caulfield and we'd expect a much better showing from her on Friday night."

Santa Ana Lane to trial

Anthony Freedman's star sprinter Santa Ana Lane (Lope De Vega) is set to make his first public appearance this campaign when he lines up in an 800-metre trial at Werribee this morning under regular rider Mark Zahra. Freedman will also have the Lloyd Williams-owned Homesman (War Front) competing in a 1100-metre heat and will be joined by Group 1 winner Mr Quickie (Shamus Award). Other notable horses in action at Werribee are Zipping Classic (Gr 2, 2400m) winner Southern France (Galileo) and Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m) runner-up Gallic Chieftain (Tamayuz).

Con Te Partiro wins high-class trial

Imported mare Con Te Partiro (Scat Daddy), who failed to get in foal in the spring, won a high-class barrier trial at Randwick yesterday in an audition to spring Group races. The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained six-year-old, who won the Dark Jewel Classic (Gr 3, 1400m) at Scone last May, defeated Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m)-bound Quackerjack (Not A Single Doubt) by a long neck, with talented three-year-old California Zimbol (I Am Invincible) another one and a quarter lengths away in third in the 1000-metre course proper heat. The trial also included New Zealand filly Probabeel (Savabeel), Group 1-winning sprinter Pierata (Pierro) and Xilong (Deep Field).

Probabeel

SPORTPIX

Jamie Richards believes last-start Karaka 3YO Classic (RL, 1600m) winner Probabeel (Savabeel) has travelled to Sydney in good order ahead of her Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) goal on Saturday week. She finished fifth, two and a half lengths behind the winner of heat one at the Randwick trials yesterday morning. "I thought she trialled well," Richards said. "She got back, which is normal for her, and she got to the outside and finished well under not too much pressure. It was probably on a track that she was not too comfortable on and she does like the better footing. Glen Boss was happy with the way she trialled. He said she was a professional that he never touched the bridle and she gave him a lovely ride. She had a decent blow and she has a bit of improvement in her yet." ## Te Akau Shark settles in well

Te Akau Shark (Rip Van Winkle) has also settled into Sydney in good order, according to Jamie Richards, with the impressive first-up winner set to tackle the Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on Saturday week. "He's moving well and he always takes a little while to settle in, he's not an overly big eater," Richard said. "We wanted to get him over there a bit earlier and get him settled because he's got a few big weeks in front of him." The trainer's father Paul is overseeing the finishing touches on Melody Belle (Commands), with the ten-time Group 1 winner back in familiar surroundings at Flemington ahead of her resuming run in the Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield on Saturday. "Dad is happy with her, she did a bit of work on the grass at Flemington on Saturday morning and looked good," Richards said. "She's going to go over to Caulfield (today) to have a decent hit-out over there and a bit of a look around the course, which I think is important because Caulfield can be a little bit tricky sometimes."

Kolding to work at Caulfield

Kolding

SPORTPIX

Also set for a look around the Caulfield track this morning is Golden Eagle (1500m) winner Kolding (Ocean Park) who will make his Melbourne debut and take on Melody Belle in the Futurity Stakes. Regular rider Glen Boss has been confirmed for Saturday's mount after gaining a reduction of a careless riding suspension on appeal.

'C S Hayes was Group 1 performance'

Last Saturday's C S Hayes Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) saw one of the all time great race finishes between two star three-year-olds in Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) and Catalyst (Darci Brahma) and winning jockey Ryan Maloney, who was aboard the son of All Too Hard (Casino Prince), believes it was a Group 1 performance. "It's probably the highlight of my career to be honest," Maloney said. "James (McDonald, Catalyst's jockey) put it to me before the corner and to be honest at the 200 (metres), I thought Catalyst had me but that's the great thing about him (Alligator Blood). He loves being a racehorse and he just wants to win. The last 20 metres, I felt he was actually pulling away from Catalyst. It was a Group 3 race but I don't think anyone would argue with me that it was a Group 1 performance."

No blinkers for Catalyst

Catalyst and Alligator Blood will meet again in the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) on Saturday week but trainer Clayton Chipperfield will not re-apply blinkers to his son of Darci Brahma (Danheill) and will instead rely on natural improvement and weight relief to turn the tables on the Magic Millions Guineas (RL, 1400m) winner. "It's probably better we don't put them on because if it ends up another dogfight like that, we'd like for Catalyst to be able to see what's right beside him," Chipperfield told RSN 927's Racing Pulse. "To be beaten a half head by an absolute superstar gives us more confidence going into the mile."

Dame Giselle heads Slipper ballot

Despite her disappointing run in last Saturday's Lonhro Plate (Listed, 1000m), the Peter and Paul Snowden's $1 million Golden Gift (1100m) winner Dame Giselle (I Am Invincible) heads the order of entry for next month's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). Unbeaten colt and Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) favorite Hanseatic (Street Boss) is second in the ballot with Golden Gift runner-up See You Soon (Siyouni) third. Current favourite for the $3.5 million juvenile feature Cellsabeel (Hinchinbrook) is 16th in the order of entry.

Marquand to extend autumn stay

In-form UK jockey Tom Marquand, who returns to Australia next month in time for the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) meeting at Rosehill on March 14, will spend an extended period in Sydney for the autumn. Marquand, 21, who rode Inglis Millennium (RL, 1200m) winner Prime Star (Starspangledbanner) last Wednesday, has enjoyed a stellar summer stint in NSW. His victory in the $2 million Inglis race followed on from his successful ride on high-priced colt Prague (Redoute's Choice) in the Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) and Away Game (Snitzel) in the Widden Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Randwick on February 1. Marquand had five rides at Randwick on Saturday before heading back to the UK.

Busuttin-Young to expand

Expatriate New Zealand training partners Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young will increase their presence at the Cranbourne Training Centre with an additional 40 boxes. The Cranbourne Turf Club yesterday announced that the pair, who are currently fourth on the Victorian trainers' premiership, will now have 115 boxes at the centre. Cranbourne is set to become the main training centre in the state with a number of Caulfield-based stables expected to relocate to the facility when the metropolitan course is closed to training by November 2023.

Cranbourne trainer Sues facing nine charges

Cranbourne trainer Mark Sues has been charged with failing to provide proper and sufficient nutrition and appropriate veterinary treatment to four horses. Racing Victoria stewards issued nine charges relating to welfare against Sues yesterday, four in the alternative. Stewards allege that up to July 1 last year, Sues failed to provide the horses Remodel (Reset), Speech Therapy (Stratum) and a filly by Excelebration (Exceed And Excel) with proper and sufficient nutrition. He has also been charged in the alternative with failing to provide veterinary treatment for those horses with the Excelebration filly suffering from exudative dermatitis. Stewards also allege up to and including November 26 he failed to give All In Sync (All Too Hard) proper and sufficient nutrition. The charges will be heard by the Victorian Racing Tribunal at a date yet to be determined.

Jockey outed for four years for cannabis

North Queensland jockey Mark Elliott has been disqualified for four years after his sixth positive random test to cannabis in a decade. Stewards opened an inquiry after a urine sample was taken from Elliott at a Townsville race meeting on January 25. Elliott pleaded guilty to providing a urine sample which upon analysis was found to contain the substance 11-nor-delta-9-tetrahydrocannabinol-9-carboxylic acid, a metabolite of cannabis. He was disqualified for four years to begin on February 15 and expire on February 26, 2024.

Stocking tongue ties banned

Racing Australia has quietly introduced a rule banning the use of "nylon stocking and adhesive bandage" for tongue ties. RA's Veterinary and Analysts Committee and the Chairman of Stewards Committee combined to propose the rule change. The RSPCA has voiced its opposition to the use of tongue ties, arguing they cause horses pain, anxiety and distress with difficulty swallowing as well as possible damage to the tongue by restricting blood flow. The new rules, which come into force on April 1, will require trainers to fit a leather strap or rubber band of at least 15mm in width or a Lycra or neoprene tongue tie at least 50mm wide. Warrnambool trainer Daniel Bowman noted there had been no consultation with trainers and jockeys before RA changed the tongue tie rules.

'Queensland racing in healthy state'

Racing Queensland has unveiled its first half results for the 2019/20 financial year with solid progress being realised across the industry. RQ's chairman Steve Wilson said highlights included a healthy revenue growth (up 25.6 per cent to $139.4 million), a large increase in returns to participants (up 20.8 per cent to $104.1m) and an improvement in attendances and participation (up 2.1 per cent to 332,496). "The Queensland racing industry continues to make great strides thanks to the support and investment of the state government through their Country Racing Support Package and additional industry reform funding," Wilson said. "As a result, there has been strong economic growth in the size of our contribution. During the first half of this financial year wagering turnover on Queensland product has reached a new half year record of $2.23 billion which represents a $64.8 million increase."

Coffs Harbour abandoned

The Northern Rivers Racing Association Country Championship heat will be run at Grafton on Tuesday after today's Coffs Harbour meeting was abandoned due to the state of the track. Racing NSW officials had already postponed the Coffs Harbour meeting from last Friday to today, but the wet weather has not let up to allow the track to dry out sufficiently to race on. The field size for the Country Championships heat will be reduced to 14 for the 1400-metre race due to the change of venue. The field and barrier draws will remain the same.

Stud workers raising money for Fire Service

Stud workers Ed Goff and Harrison Badger are currently undertaking a 270 kilometre Scone to Sydney charity trek to raise funds for the NSW Rural Fire Service in order to support their efforts in battling the devastating bushfires. Badger, whose family have Bridge House Stud in Ireland, has spent the last two years working at Kitchwin Hills Stud and Yarraman Park Stud, while Goff, a son of UK-based agent Tom Goff of Blandford Bloodstock, has spent the last three months working at Yarraman Park. They are over halfway through the challenge and hope to reach Sydney on Friday. They have so far raised nearly $11,000 of their $20,000 target via a gofundme page with generous donations and sponsorships from studs, agents, trainers and friends in Australia, Ireland and the UK.

ATC donate hay to fire-affected south coast

More than 1700 bales of hay are ready to be distributed to properties on the NSW South Coast from funds raised at the Australian Turf Club's recent bushfire appeal race day. As well as the roll-out of hay to the Cobargo and Moruya districts on Tuesday, the ATC Foundation will provide money to BlazeAid to source local materials to rebuild fencing in the area. The appeal in conjunction with Racing NSW has so far raised $150,000 for bushfire relief with ATC Foundation's public officer Steve McMahon to be joined by the local member for Bega, Andrew Constance at the Moruya Jockey Club on Tuesday morning. The distribution of funds from the Racing for the Bushfire Appeal comes in addition to the $500,000 being distributed by Racing NSW to thoroughbred racing participants and employees directly impacted by bushfires.

NEW ZEALAND

Colgan happy to be on Two Illicit

Vinnie Colgan is not conceding the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) to Dragon Leap (Pierro) despite the gelding's impressive victory at the weekend and is happy to be on displaced favourite Two Illicit (Jimmy Choux) in Saturday week's race. Colgan will continue his association with Two Illicit, but he got a further line on Dragon Leap and fellow Derby contender Scorz (Charm Spirit) when he was a late replacement for Jason Waddell aboard the latter in Saturday's Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m) at Ellerslie. He guided the Stephen Marsh-trained Scorz into second, a length and a half behind Dragon Leap, who reconfirmed his place at the top of the market for the $1 million three-year-old classic. "I'm glad I don't have to make the call between Dragon Leap and Two Illicit," Colgan said. "He (Dragon Leap) has got Derby written all over him. He was off the bridle, trucking all the way, and Opie (Bosson) didn't have to do much on him. I'm sure there were a couple more lengths there if he had squeezed him."

New winners

Press Statement - Incredulous Dream (2 f ex Incredulous by Keep The Faith) charged late to score at Bendigo on Saturday to continue the stunning juvenile season for trainers Ciaran Maher and David Eustace and also provide first season sire Press Statement (Hinchinbrook) with his second first crop winner. A $340,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale purchase by Spicer Thoroughbreds from the Aquis Farm draft, Incredulous Dream was having her first start having finished unplaced in a Cranbourne barrier trial earlier this month but showed she was likely to get further than the 1100 metres she ran over in the My Hair 2YO Fillies Maiden Plate. Vinery Stud's Press Statement, who is also the sire of Sydney winner Spokesman, covered 161 mares in 2019 at a fee of $16,500 (inc GST).

New Group / Grade 1 winners

Lope De Vega - Former shuttle stallion Lope De Vega (Shamardal) landed his tenth individual Group 1 winner on Saturday when Gytrash (4 g ex Miss Barley by Fastnet Rock) took out the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Flemington. Gytrash joins a star-studded list of Group 1 winners for his sire including Santa Ana Lane, Vega Magic and Phoenix of Spain. Dual Group 1 winner Lope De Vega stands at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland for a fee of €100,000 (inc. GST).

News stakes winners

Akeed Mofeed - Swettenham Stud-based stallion Akeed Mofeed (Dubawi) landed his

Press Statement

second individual stakes winner on Wednesday when the Tony and Calvin McEvoy-trained Jyoti (2 f ex She Can Skate by Bradbury's Luck) took out the Gold Sovereign (Listed, 1220m) at Launceston. Bred by Goldin Farms, Jyoti is the second foal and second winner out of AR Creswick Stakes (Listed, 1200m) winner She Can Skate (Bradbury's Luck), who was purchased by Goldin Farms for $210,000 at the 2015 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale. Akeed Mofeed stands for a fee of $15,000 (plus GST) and has seven lots on offer at next month's Inglis Premier Yearling Sale.

Clangalang - Master Chum's (5 g ex Flying Foxtrot by Fusaichi Pegasus) narrow victory in the Birthday Cup (Listed, 2043m) at Morphettville on Saturday landed his sire Clangalang (clang) with his sixth individual stakes win.

Deep Impact - Late Shadai Stallion Station resident Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) sired his 149th stakes winner on Saturday when Miyamazakura (3 f ex Miss Pascali by Mr Greeley) won The Daily Hai Queen Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) at Tokyo. Trained by Hideaki Fujiwara, Miyamazakura was Grade 3-placed on her last outing at Kyoto in November, while Deep Impact is also the sire of 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) winner and current Coolmore shuttler Saxon Warrior.

Demerit - Late stallion Demerit (Lonhro) sired his third individual stakes winner on Saturday when the Kris Lees-trained Special Reward (4 g ex Special Kiseki by Special Bond) took out the Southern Cross Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick. Demerit was euthanised in July last year after fracturing his tibia in a paddock accident at Rangeview Stud.

I Am Invincible - Yarraman Park's champion stallion I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) landed his 51st individual stakes winner on Saturday when the Anthony Freedman-trained Supreme Idea (2 f ex Sweet Sister by Snitzel) produced an all-the-way win in the Lonhro Plate (Listed, 1000m) at Randwick. Standing for a fee of $247,500 (inc GST), I Am Invincible is currently the leading sire by winners and earnings in Australia. He was the leading sire by aggregate at the Magic Millions Goast Coast Yearling Sale in January, with 42 lots sold for a total of $20,245,000, and has seven lots on offer at the upcoming Inglis Premier Yearling Sale.

New Approach - Godolphin-raced colt Darlington Hall (3 c ex Miss Kenton by Pivotal) took out the Kyodo News Service Hai (Tokinominoru Kinen) (Gr 2, 1800m) at Tokyo on Sunday to become the 51st individual stakes winner for Darley sire New Approach (Galileo). Purchased by Darley Japan for 70,000 gns at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale in 2017, Darlington Hall prevailed in a thrilling finish when fending off the challenge of Bitterender (Orfevre) by a nose.

Palace Malice - The first division of the Risen Star Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) on Saturday went the way of Mr Monomoy (3 c ex Drumette by Henny Hughes), who became the third individual stakes winner for Palace Malice (Curlin). A resident of Three Chimneys Farm, Palace Malice is standing for a fee of US$25,000 in 2020, while he is best known as the sire of last year's Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf (Gr 1, 8f) winner Structor.

Pentire - Rich Hill Stud's late foundation sire Pentire (Be My Guest) sired his 49th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Polzeath (7 g ex Arniston by Volksraad) took out the Joe McDonald Avondale Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) at Ellerslie. Pentire died in 2017 aged 25 and he is the sire of 16 Group 1 winners, including Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) hero Prince Of Penzance.

Redoute's Choice - Late Arrowfield Stud flagbearer Redoute's Choice (Danehill) sired his 172nd individual stakes winner on Friday when Dabiyr (5 g ex Dabista by Highest Honor) took out the Torney Night Cup (Listed, 2500m) at Moonee Valley. Fourth in a Rosehill Group 3 last September, Dabiyr is now a five-time winner from 13 starts, while Redoute's Choice is set to be represented by nine lots at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale in April.

Sebring - Exciting Perth three-year-old Superstorm (3 g Stormy Nova by Metal Storm) is likely to be given his shot in the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) by Bob Peters after a brilliant return in the Challenge Stakes (Listed, 1500m) at Ascot on Saturday. The Grant and Alana Williams-trained Superstorm was the 57th individual stakes winner for the late Widden Stud sire Sebring (More Than Ready).

Starspangledbanner

ROSEMONT STUD

Starspangledbanner - Rosemont Stud resident Starspangledbanner (Choisir) landed his twelfth individual stakes winner on Wednesday when Prime Star (2 g ex Barinka by Shinko King) took out the Inglis Millenium (RL, 1100m) at Warwick Farm. Starspangledbanner covered 83 mares at a fee of $22,000 (inc. GST) last year and is resurgent as a sire having suffered from fertility issues early in his career. The four-time Group 1 winner, who is also the sire of late Swettenham Stud shuttler The Wow Signal, has five lots catalogued at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale next month.

Uncle Mo - Modernist (3 c ex Symbolic Gesture by Bernardini) took out the second division of the Risen Star Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) at Fair Grounds on Saturday to become the 54th stakes winner for Ashford Stud stallion Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie). Modernist has now won two of his four starts having landed a Maiden Special Weight at Aqueduct in January, while Uncle Mo - who is also the sire of Nyquist - is standing for a fee of US$125,000 this year.

War Chant - The Simon Miller-trained Flower Of War (4 m ex Indian Flower by Husson) made it eight wins from 12 starts and almost $400,000 in prize-money with a maiden stakes victory in the Cyril Flower Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Ascot on Saturday, delivering her WA-based sire War Chant (Danzig) with his 43rd stakes winner. The Yarradale Stud-based War Chant, who stood for $11,000 (inc GST) in 2019, covered 46 mares last year.

Written Tycoon - On the day that celebrates the champion mare Black Caviar (Bel Esprit), it was fitting that her Team Hawkes-trained nephew Ole Kirk (2 c ex Naturale by Bel Esprit) took out the Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) on debut and in turn, landed his sire Written Tycoon (Iglesia) with his 32nd individual stakes win. Ole Kirk is out of Naturale (Bel Esprit), an unraced sister to Black Caviar and was purchased by International Thoroughbred Solutions for $675,000 at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale from the Gilgai Farm draft. Written Tycoon stood at Victoria's Woodside Park Stud for a fee of $110,000 (inc. GST) in 2019.
