The three-quarter sister by Scissor Kick (Redoute's Choice) to this season's Brisbane two-year-old winner True Moonlight (Not A Single Doubt) yesterday topped the opening Book 2 session of the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, helping push the aggregate beyond $200 million in the company's history.

The $300,000 filly, catalogued as Lot 1010 and offered by Arrowfield Stud, was one of 12 lots to make $100,000 or more in the afternoon session in a market which enabled many buyers to get on the results sheet for the first time in 2021.

The filly, whose sibling True Moonlight (Not A Single Doubt) won at Doomben in October for Gold Coast trainer Gillian Heinrich, was bought by All Winners Thoroughbreds. Agent Denys Chan, who had purchased the half-sister to Hong Kong champion Golden Sixty (Medaglia d'Oro) by Capitalist (Written Tycoon) in Book 1, signed for the filly.

The yearling is the sixth live foal out of the stakes-placed Moonlight Hussey (Hussonet) who is a sister to the Group 2 winner Colorado Claire, herself the dam of Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Gunnison (Not A Single Doubt).

Arrowfield Stud's Paul Messara said: "She was a lovely filly by Scissor Kick. She's well related and is from a great family, the family of Gunnison, and Colorado Claire, who we sold one of her progeny by Snitzel earlier in the sale (for $425,000).

"She was a fantastic type and those good sorts are well found."

sale was averaging $59,548, with 83 horses sold yesterday for a total of $4,942,500, at a clearance rate of 81 per cent. The total aggregate for Books 1 and 2 was last night sitting at $202,547,500.

"I think the good ones really stand out in Book 2, which can cause a lot of buyers to come together and there is plenty of competitive tension when they are all on the one horse, that's for sure," Messara said.

All Too Hard colts find favour with buyers

Later, Brisbane trainer Chris Anderson landed his fifth purchase of the sale with the addition of a colt by All Too Hard (Casino Prince) for $170,000 after receiving a strong recommendation from agent Duncan Ramage.

Another son of Vinery Stud's All Too Hard, who is out of the dual European stakes-placed mare Poppet's Treasure (Dansili), was also sold for $200,000 inside the last hour to Queensland trainer Kacy Fogden.

Anderson, meanwhile, said Ramage was adamant the Cressfield-consigned colt, catalogued as Lot 1018, was a horse that had to end up at his Eagle Farm stables.

"Duncan identified this horse on the farm some time ago and it was one he actually said to me, 'we can't afford to go home without him' and we had a little bit more up our sleeve had we had to go harder," Anderson said.

"He loved the type of horse that he was and the stallion can throw a very, very good horse as well. I am very happy to take him home."

The colt is the sixth living foal out of multiple winner Nikkirina (Beautiful Crown) who has produced four winners from as many foals to race.

"Looking at his pedigree so far in terms of who the mare has been to, this is probably her best chance (of success) now, I would have to say, so hopefully that proves to be correct," he said.

Reflecting on what had taken place so far at this week's record sale, Anderson said:

"It has been unbelievably tough. I have taken five home now but I reckon I have been under bidder on seven, so we have had a real go. I am certainly pleased with what we've got, but it has been very, very strong."

Hedge banks on history repeating with Ellsberg's brother

Gerald Ryan, who prepares the potential stakes-class horse Ellsberg, will train the colt's younger brother by Spill The Beans (Snitzel) after agent Suman Hedge partnered with the Sydney-based horseman to buy a colt by the late sire he used to train for $160,000.

Hedge, who has been active throughout the week through his association with the Victorian Alliance colts Continued on page 5>> partnership, as well as his pinhook group selling through Silverdale Farm, revealed yesterday his close following of the Spill The Beans' colt's family, and said he was happy to team up with Ryan for the horse.

"Ellsberg is obviously a pretty talented galloper for Gerald and he's a horse that creates a lot of interest for me because I tried to buy Ellsberg as a weanling and I just couldn't get my clients onto the horse. He went for $50,000 and then he made a lot of money as a yearling, so I followed him quite closely," Hedge said.

"You can see that he is a talented and progressive horse, so that was the first part of it, and then I saw the video of the horse initially. I loved his movement and then I saw the horse here at the sale and he presented very well.

"He looks like an early type of two-year-old and he really resembled the sire."

The colt, who was catalogued as Lot 987 and consigned by KBL Thoroughbreds, is the fourth living foal out of the three-time winner Love Of Liberty (General Nediym). He was purchased by Pinhook Bloodstock's Dave Mee for Platinum Racing and Breeding's Roger Sousa for $34,000 from the Aquis Farm draft at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast National Weanling Sale.

<< Continued from page 4 Ellsberg himself was also a successful pinhook for Segenhoe Stud, who bought him for $50,000 before selling him to Ryan for $280,000 at the 2019 Magic Millions Yearling Sale.

Hedge said: "As a seller, it's been phenomenal. Magic Millions has done a wonderful job. I can't praise them enough for the catalogue they put together and the way that they navigated some of the most difficult periods of our time. I don't think many people are aware of the complexities that they have dealt with," he said.

"They have created a very buoyant marketplace for nice horses and as a buyer it's been challenging because we've had to put ourselves out there to buy the ones that we wanted. It's great, vibrant, it sets the tone for the rest of the year."

The Victorian agent did admit, however, that it had proven to be a market in which it was tough to place accurate valuations on horses.

"Many times I felt like an idiot because people were asking me valuations on horses and I was trying my best to put what I thought was normal and I was so far off the mark," he said.

"I've never been further away on some horses. There was a bit of a perfect storm for colts with six or seven syndicates all trying to buy them, and valuing them has been a bit of a nightmare, but we still worked within parameters."

"Even the ones we were aggressive on, we still said, 'this is the maximum we can go to and if we get beaten, we get beaten' but it has been very, very challenging."

The final Book 2 session, which is followed by the Gold Coast Racehorse Sale, starts at 10am today.

HISTORY IS BEING WRITTEN

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Isaurian set for Australia Stakes

Damien Oliver is on standby to ride the James Cummings-trained Isaurian (Exceed And Excel) in the Australia Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Moonee Valley on Friday night, with the six-year-old gelding expected to be among the nominations for the feature race of the week. The Godolphin-raced sprinter made his first appearance for almost a year when running a close third to stablemate Roheryn (Lonhro) and The Odyssey (Better Than Ready) in the Favelon Quality Handicap (Listed, 1200m) at Eagle Farm on Boxing Day. Despite being a dual Listed winner, Isaurian is yet to perform at Group level.

Thompson aiming two at Carrington

John Thompson will have two chances in Saturday's Carrington Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Randwick, with Chat (Deep Field) and Thy Kingdom Come (Lope De Vega) set to line up in the feature race on the card. Four-year-old Chat was last seen finishing fifth in the Christmas Classic (Listed, 1200m) at Canterbury on New Year's Day, one and a half lengths behind the winner Eleven Eleven (Fastnet Rock), who boosted that form when landing the Magic Millions Cup (RL, 1400m) at the Gold Coast on Saturday. Thompson's other hope, six-year-old Thy Kingdom Come, was beaten three and a quarter lengths first-up in a Benchmark 88 over 1200 metres at Randwick on January 9. The pair will take on a field which is set to feature the Mark Newnham-trained Quackerjack (Not A Single Doubt), who has largely disappointed since landing the Villiers Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) and Liverpool City Cup (Gr 3, 1300m) last season. He was last seen finishing eighth of ten first-up in the Christmas Classic.

Journey begins

Group 1 winner Mystic Journey (Needs Further) will resume in the $50,000 Ladbrokes Stakes (1200m) at Launceston on Wednesday night. The star Tasmanian mare, who won the inaugural All-Star Mile (1600m) in 2019, has not been seen since finishing seventh in the Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on October 31. A return to the All-Star Mile will be the main target for the 2019 Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner and her trainer Adam Trindler is expecting the mare to come on for the run with 1200 metres not being her ideal trip. Melbourne jockey Luke Currie will take the ride.

Winter campaign for Alpine Eagle

Saturday's Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1400m) runner-up Alpine Edge (Better Than Ready) could be lined up for a winter campaign by co-trainers Toby and Trent Edmonds. The colt finished his race impressively under Robbie Fradd, eventually finishing a length and a quarter behind surprise winner Shaquero (Shalaa), having been a long way off the pace in running. He will head to the paddock today, giving the training partnership time to plan their next move with a Queensland winter campaign thought to be at the forefront of their minds. Alpine Edge has already struck twice at stakes level, taking out the Phelan Ready Stakes (Listed, 1000m) on debut at Eagle Farm last month before landing the B J Mclachlan Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) when returning to that track on Boxing Day.

Tycoon could have Diamond in sights

Finance Tycoon (Written Tycoon) will return to Lindsay Park's Euroa base after finishing a luckless sixth in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic on Saturday. Ridden by Luke Nolen, the dual winner was forced widest of the 16 runners down the straight and finished an ever-closing three and three-quarter lengths behind the winner Shaquero. The colt, who won the Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) second-up at Flemington in November, could be targeted at the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Caulfield on February 20 if he comes out of Saturday's race in good shape.

Halvorsen on track for Group 1 targets

The Robbie Griffiths and Mathew De Kock-trained Halvorsen (Magnus) made an encouraging return to the track at Randwick on Saturday after spending almost a year on the sidelines through injury. The five-year-old gelding finished fifth in the Kensington Stakes (Listed, 1000m), two and a half lengths behind the winner Fabergino (Maschino), on his first appearance since suffering a sprained fetlock when finishing unplaced in last February's Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m). Griffiths was delighted with the run from the Group 3 winner and will now step up his preparations for loftier targets down the road. "All reports from the stable at home are very positive and that he's come through the run really well and they're very happy with him, so it's onward and upward," Griffiths told Racing.com from the Gold Coast. "We were bullish about him returning and anything from fifth, fourth, third was well and truly a pass mark for us. To finish fifth, only beaten two and a half lengths with a bit of a zigzagging run, Matt and I were absolutely tickled pink." Halvorsen will now be aimed at the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Flemington on February 13, followed by a possible tilt at the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) on March 6. "I think you'll see a really nice horse when he gets back to Flemington in the Lightning and then he'll be in really peak condition in the handicap scale of the Newmarket where I think you'll see the best run of the three," Griffiths added. "Obviously you want to win both of the Group 1s but, realistically, his peak run will be in the Newmarket."

Coolth on Adelaide Cup path

Tony and Calvin McEvoy have locked in the Adelaide Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) at Morphettville on March 8 as the target for promising stayer Coolth (Dundeel) after his victory in a 2000-metre Benchmark 78 event at Flemington on Saturday. The four-year-old gelding bounced back from finishing fifth in a Benchmark 70 on his previous start and Calvin McEvoy was delighted with what he saw on the weekend. "He was quite disappointing last start, I thought, even though he only got beaten three lengths, I expected more from him that day," the co-trainer told RSN927. "He really dug in for the fight yesterday which was great to see. His (Jye McNeil, jockey) feedback was that he's still got a lot to learn, but in a really positive way, he's a bit like a kid still, so I take some confidence out of that. We know he's a genuine stayer and we sort of earmarked the Adelaide Cup and worked our way back from that, hence the month between runs, but up to 2000 metres with the blinkers on, it was really good to see him bounce back like that."

Declares War makes all for Cup win

The Matt Cumani-trained Declares War (Declaration Of War) returned to winning ways when he scored an all-the-way success in Saturday's Camperdown Cup (1600m) under Patrick Moloney. The five-year-old gelding was sent off a warm $2.60 favourite and rewarded his backers with a half-length success over Reserve Street (Street Cry), with Fabian's Spirit (Bel Esprit) a further short-head behind in third. Declares War took advantage of breaking from the inside gate to dictate the pace under Moloney and held off some fast-finishers in behind to land his first win since May 2019. He will now bid for back-to-back country cup wins in next month's Colac Gold Cup (2000m).

Nifty off the mark

Former jockey Neville 'Nifty' Wilson recorded his first winner as a trainer on Saturday. The 73-year-old, who was granted his licence in August 2020, saddled Silkstream (Equiano) to win a 1000-metre maiden at Camperdown. The four-year-old mare was making her sixth start for Wilson, and her eighth on total, as she beat Catch The Drift (Kuroshio) by half a length. Since retiring from riding in 2012 aged 65, Wilson spent seven years as assistant trainer to Geoff Daffy, who died in February last year. In his 50 years as a jockey, Wilson rode 2,078 winners, including five Group 1 successes.

Tests could solve Mystery flop

Lindsey Smith is hoping to get to the bottom of his stablestar Mystery Shot's (Shooting To Win) disappointing performance at Flemington on Saturday, with the four-year-old set to undergo a blood test today. Mystery Shot, who passed relevant vet checks at the track post-race, was unbeaten in his first five appearances but finished last of eight runners in Saturday's 1200-metre Benchmark 84.

Tofane to miss autumn

The Mike Moroney-trained Tofane (Ocean Park) is set to miss the Melbourne autumn carnival after suffering a kidney complaint. The Group 1-winning mare spent a week at the U-Vet Werribee Animal Hospital after falling ill and may be out of action until the Brisbane winter carnival. The five-year-old, who landed the All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick last April, was last seen finishing seventh in the VRC Sprint Classic (Gr 1, 1200m) in November. Tofane will now spend some time in a grass paddock as she recovers from the illness.

Maloney hoping for quick comeback

Ryan Maloney could return to riding later this week if an MRI scan clears him of any serious damage following his nasty fall on Isotope (Deep Field) in the Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) at the Gold Coast on Saturday. The jockey was taken to hospital immediately after the race and was cleared of any serious injuries, but will undergo a further scan to ensure he has not suffered any structural damage. "He'll have to go for an MRI just to check if there are any small fractures, which there's a possibility, but they never found anything yesterday, so he will have that done as soon as possible," Queensland Jockey's Association president, Glen Prentice told Racing.com yesterday. A steward's inquiry into the fall will be held in the coming days after being put off on Saturday while Maloney attended hospital.

Rawiller improves

Brad Rawiller is hoping to leave Bunbury Hospital early this week after his condition improved significantly over the weekend. Rawiller was found to have fractured his back, ribs and collarbone in a fall at Bunbury on Wednesday after his mount Imprudent (Oratorio) stumbled and dislodged him in a 1108-metre maiden. The 42-year-old also suffered a punctured lung.

Graham taken to hospital

Apprentice Cejay Graham spent last night undergoing treatment in hospital after complaining of back pains having been dislodged from her intended mount on the way to the barriers prior to the fifth race at Lismore yesterday. Fellow riders Brodie Loy and Chad Lever both stood themselves down at Cowars after the pair aggravated old injuries in two separate incidents.

Flemington trio banned

Apprentice Tahlia Hope was suspended for eight meetings and fined $1,200 after pleading guilty to a breach of the whip rules on board Saturday's impressive Flemington winner Japery (Sizzling). Hope, who used her whip ten times prior to the 100 metres (five more than permitted), will be out of action until January

24. Jye McNeil and Daniel Stackhouse each received eight-meeting bans for careless riding in the eighth race on the card. McNeil, who rode the winner Coolth, was banned for shifting in near the 50-metre mark without being clear of the unplaced Takumi (Mastercraftsman), while Stackhouse pleaded guilty to careless riding on runner-up Sikorsky (Pierro), who shifted out at a similar point when not clear of the unplaced Long Arm (Rock Of Gibraltar).

Waisake has Cup goal

A perfect dress rehearsal from Wellington Cup (Gr 3, 3200m) pre-post favourite Waisake (Zed) at Trentham on Saturday has trainer Allan Sharrock brimming with confidence about his chances in the main event on January 30. In the hands of stable apprentice Hazel Schofer, the five-year-old came from last to destroy his Benchmark 74 rivals over 2200 metres and Sharrock is convinced he will lap up every inch of his two-mile task in 12 days. "I thought he would win on Saturday but not by the four lengths that he put on them," Sharrock said. "The way he did it by circling them and dominating certainly augurs well for his next start. He will just eat that two miles as the extra 1000 metres is what he is looking for. I think I've got him in the right form, at the right weight and set for the right race. I really want to tick this one (Wellington Cup) off for his owners and I haven't won a Wellington Cup either, so I would like to put that on my résumé as well." Waisake, who will carry 53 kilograms in the Wellington Cup, is currently rated the $4 favourite.

Richards aiming high with Quattro Quinta

Jamie Richards has outlined his future plans for Saturday's Wellesley Stakes (Listed, 1000m) winner Quattro Quinta (Darci Brahma), with the Sistema Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) top of his agenda. The two-year-old gelding saw off Wolfgang (Puccini) by a short head on Saturday and Richards is planning to strike with him while the iron is hot. "He's a real little racehorse," the trainer said. "I think we have to make the most of him this season as I'm not sure if he has the scope to train on. It was a good strong effort, helped by the fact he found the rail, which is a big assist to the two-year-olds. He will go to the Matamata Slipper now and then on to Auckland (Sistema Stakes) and Manawatu (Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes)."

Johnson looking forward after reaching century

Quattro Quinta's Wellesley Stakes success provided runaway premiership leader Danille Johnson with her 100th win of the season and she is hungry for more in the coming months. Not content with bagging just the one stakes success on the day, the 29-year-old also added a Group-race double, partnering Our Hail Mary (Ocean Park) to victory in the Trentham Stakes (Gr 3, 2100m) and Advantage in The Telegraph (Gr 1, 1200m), before rounding out her day by winning the last race on Tabata (Savabeel). "It was such a cool day and so good to get to the 100-win mark," she said. "It was also my first Group 1 of the season, which was also good as I was getting quite frustrated about that as I'd only managed to rack up some placings so far this year. I've always said I would love to win a jockeys' premiership, but I don't want to do that without winning Group 1s along the way. If you want to be one of the best you can't do that without winning the elite races. Now I've got the 100 wins I want 110, then 120 and as many more as I can get before the end of the season."

Hannam return delayed

Robbie Hannam has suffered a setback in his return from a broken femur that will see him off the scene for at least another seven months. Hannam suffered his injury when riding trackwork in July and had been making steady progress in preparation for a return to race riding. The jockey had been hoping to get a clearance from his surgeon that would see him back in action next month, but after an assessment last week he has been advised not to resume riding until a rod is removed from his leg. That operation will hopefully be scheduled for early August. Over his extended break, Hannam has been keeping fit and while disappointed about the delay, is remaining positive and looking forward to his eventual return to the saddle.

12 for Orfevre

Orfevre (Stay Gold) sired his 12th individual stakes winner when his son Shoryu Ikuzo (5 h ex Shoryu Moon by King Kamehameha) posted a surprise victory in yesterday's Nikkei Shinshun Hai (Gr 2, 2200m) at Chukyo. The Shozo Sasaki-trained five-year-old was winning for the fourth time in 16 starts when he beat Miss Mamma Mia (Tanino Gimlet) by three-quarters of a length. Courageux Guerrier (King Kamehameha) was another length and a quarter away in third. Orfevre stood at Shadai Stallion Station for a fee of ¥3,000,000 (approx. AUD$37,500) in 2020.

50 for Heart's Cry

Heart's Cry (Sunday Silence) reached his half century of stakes winners when Gratias (3 c ex Malacostumbrada by Lizard Island) stretched his unbeaten record to two with a win in yesterday's Keisei Hai (Gr 3, 2000m) at Nakayama. Trained by Yukihiro Kato, the three-year-old obliged as favourite to beat Time To Heaven (Lord Kanaloa) by two and a half lengths, with Ten Bagger (Maurice) another length and a quarter away in third. Heart's Cry stood at Shadai Stallion Station for a fee of ¥10,000,000 (approx. AUD$125,000) in 2020.

INTERNATIONAL

207 for More Than Ready

Grade 1 performer Title Ready (6 h ex Title Seeker by Monarchos) finally made the breakthrough in stakes company when an ease in grade resulted in the six-year-old striking in the Louisiana Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Fair Grounds on Saturday. Trained by Dallas Stewart, Title

Ready provided More Than Ready (Southern Halo) with his 207th individual stakes winner as he beat Blackberry Wine (Oxbow) by a length and a quarter. Favourite Wells Bayou (Lookin At Lucy) was another two lengths away in third. Charles Fipke's homebred, who had finished seventh in the Breeders' Cup Classic (Gr 1, 10f) two starts previously, was winning for the fifth time in 25 starts. Former shuttler More Than Ready stands at WinStar's Kentucky farm for a fee of US$65,000 (approx. AUD$84,382) in 2021.

82 for Tiznow

Midnight Bourbon (3 c ex Catch the Moon by Malibu Moon) made a successful seasonal return as he made all under Joseph Talamo to take out the Lecomte Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Fair Grounds on Saturday and in the process provide his sire Tiznow (Cee's Tizzy) with his 82nd individual stakes winner. The Steve Asmussen-trained three-year-old beat Proxy (Tapit) by a length, with favourite Mandaloun (Into Mischief) just a head further behind in third. Midnight Bourbon has now won two of his five starts and also boasts an elite-level placing courtesy of his third in the Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Belmont in October. Bred by Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings, the colt is out of the unraced mare Catch the Moon (Malibu Moon), the dam of Grade 1 winner Girvin (Tale Of Ekati) and Grade 3 scorers Cocked And Loaded (Colonel John) and Pirate's Punch (Shanghai Bobby). Winchell Thoroughbreds paid $525,000 for the colt when he was consigned by Warrendale Sales to the 2019 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. Tiznow was retired from stallion duties last year at the age of 23.

Five for Race Day

Charlie's Penny (2 f ex Sweet Lorraine by Warrior's Reward) proved to be a cut above her rivals as she scooted clear in the lane to bag the Silverbulletday Stakes (Listed, 8.5f) by three and a quarter lengths at Fair Grounds on Saturday. The Chris Block-trained filly beat Souper Sensational (Curlin) and Moon Swag (Malibu Moon) to become the fifth stakes winner for her sire Race Day (Tapit). Unraced Sweet Lorraine (Warrior's Reward) is also the dam of stakes winner Mom's Red Lipstick, a full sister to Charlie's Penny. Sweet Lorraine has been bred to the Munnings (Speightstown) for 2021. Race Day was sold to South Korea last year.

UAE: Dettori to take first rides of year

Frankie Dettori is to take his first rides of 2021 at Meydan on Thursday, with the jockey set for a prolonged winter stint in the UAE. Dettori, who turned 50 last month, rode work in the midst of an amber weather warning for boss John Gosden in Newmarket on Saturday morning, but will find the elements a lot less demanding in the UAE, where the Dubai International Carnival is due to begin this week. This year's series consists of eight fixtures culminating on Dubai World Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) night on March 27. Dettori plans to remain in Dubai for the carnival and hopes to link up with the Gosden-trained Dubai Warrior (Dansili), who was shipped out to Meydan last week.

FRA: €8m in 2020 prize-money cuts to be repaid

French racing bosses have pledged to repay at least €8 million (approx. AUD$12.55m) in prize-money cuts to winning and placed connections from last year. France Galop's administrative council first announced the ambition to redress some of the reductions enforced on them by the coronavirus pandemic last August. However, the level of compensation had been in doubt after a second national lockdown in France at the end of October. Provisional accounts for the year reveal that €185m (approx. AUD$247.77m) of €248m (approx. AUD$388.9m) budgeted for prize-money and premiums was paid out. Part of the 25 per cent shortfall is down to the two months during which racing was suspended last spring, after which France Galop imposed graduated prize-money cuts in order to stay within budget when the sport resumed on May 11. Work to revalue more than 3,200 races will commence after the end-of-year accounts close on January 12, and France Galop hopes to have what will be a major administrative task completed by the end of the month.

Hamelin notches career-best five-timer as Dubai's World Cup looms as possible target for Elusive State

BY LEO SCHLINK | HKJC_RACING

Frenchman Antoine Hamelin banished the frustrations of a recent barren streak to produce the first quintet of his career to steal the show at Sha Tin yesterday as Elusive State (All American) left Tony Millard contemplating a high-stakes Middle East tilt.

Hamelin erased the frustrations of a 51-ride losing streak with a stunning five-timer – Golden Link (Per Incanto), Family Folks (Snitzel), Ping Hai Bravo (Red Dazzler), Hongkong Great (Lookin At Lucy) and Tempest Express (Proisir) – to lift his seasonal tally to 13, ending a drought stretching back to mid-December at Happy Valley.

“It’s a crazy day, amazing, I’m very happy,” he said. “It’s been a little quiet, but today I’m jockey of the day.”

“To win five races, it’s amazing – last season was very good for me (17 winners), this season has been a little bit quiet.”

“But you never give up. You focus, stay strong in the head and you have to keep going. Hong Kong is a very tough place.”

Separated from his family because of Covid-19 restrictions, Hamelin said: “My life is perfect – I’m happy in Hong Kong, I love the life, the city and I have a lot of time for my favourite hobby of climbing.”

Hamelin’s previous best harvest was a quartet.

“The other time was a long time ago in France (at Fontainebleau),” he said.

“I never thought I would do this today with five winners.”

The US$20 million (approx. AUD$25.96m) Saudi Cup (1800m) in Riyadh remains Millard’s preference for Elusive State despite the winner of yesterday’s Class 1 Egret Handicap (1650m) not being among the original entries for the world’s richest race.

Millard is keen to contest the US$12 million (approx. AUD$15.58m) Dubai World Cup (Gr

HKJC

1, 2000m) on dirt at Meydan on March 27 but would clearly prefer the Saudi Cup on February 20, where a late entry fee of US$200,000 (approx. AUD$259,640) is required to compete.

“One would have liked to have gone to Saudi Arabia – the Saudi Cup would have been his race over 1800 metres and that would be the actual race for him,” Millard said before referencing significant obstacles surrounding travel from Hong Kong to Riyadh.

The Saudi Cup (dirt, 1800m) has attracted more than 100 entries headed by a string of Group 1 winners, including Preakness Stakes (Gr 1, 9.5f) winner Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil), Charlatan (Speightstown), Knicks Go (Paynter), Addeybb (Pivotal) and Mishriff (Make Believe), as well as Japan’s Omega Perfume (Swept Overboard) and Danon Pharaoh (American Pharaoh).

Millard is confident Elusive State would contend regardless of where the gelding heads next after Joao Moreira unfurled a supreme tactical ride on the dirt specialist.

“Quite clearly, he gave them a galloping lesson here today because it (the race pattern) wasn’t what we wanted,” Millard said.

“On the back of this, we’ll definitely be going for the World Cup instead of the Group 2 Godolphin Mile because Joao feels that with him losing his early speed, he reckons that will be the right race for him.

“I don’t think he could have had a better run in than this – I’m quite excited. I think he’s going to be a big runner.”

“It’s taken a bit of time to get him back into form. Last year, we had hardly raced him and then with Dubai coming and going (traveling to Dubai before the carnival was abandoned because of Covid-19), it really upset the apple cart.

“It took me time just to get him back into it. Of course, when you run him on grass, you see nothing. Any good dirt horse, they’re not in that Group 1 league.

“I always knew he was that good and when Joao took it up there to go in front, that’s why he’s a champion – he saw where he was, in a hopeless position. That’s the class of the horse, although we changed the tactics, he still kicked on.

“He can run 21 (seconds) for the last 400 metres any day of the week, so I was very happy with the run.”

“It’s just lovely to have a horse like this and also to have a dream – that’s what it’s all about.”

The most impressive aspect about Elusive State’s eighth Hong Kong victory was his effort to quicken twice – once to surge mid-race from the tail of the field to eyeball favourite Kings

Shield (Scat Daddy), before accelerating again in the final straight to down Encore Boy (Smart Missile) and Red Desert (Oasis Dream). Kings Shield faded to finish fifth.

Hamelin's impressive reign started with Ricky Yiu's Golden Link in the Class 4 Snipe Handicap (1400m), the victory was the jockey's first in eight meetings – and it would only get better.

He struck again with Michael Chang's Family Folks in the second section of the Class 4 Sea Eagle Handicap (1200m), a triumph of clear significance to the trainer, who had previously prepared only one other winner for the season.

"Of course, it feels good. I think this is a nice horse," Chang said.

Chang's runners had repeatedly gone close to winning this season, with 11 runners-up finishes and ten third placings.

But he lamented the overall quality of his yard – with the obvious exception of Family Folks.

"The horses are not good enough, too many old horses - I'm waiting for some new horses," he said.

Elusive State

John Size's Ping Hai Bravo gave Hamelin his first treble in Hong Kong after the accomplished European nervelessly piloted the gelding to victory in the Class 3 Heron Handicap (1000m).

Moreira emerged with a double after Beauty Applause (Stratum) claimed the Class 2 Flamingo Handicap (1000m) to eclipse hot favourite Wellington (All Too Hard), who finished a close second.

Hamelin then reimposed his dominance aboard Tempest Express in the Class 3 Kestrel Handicap (1400m) in the last race of the day, securing a treble for trainer John Size who on the day, had six runners across the ten-race fixture.

A KIND OF MAGIC

ANZ Bloodstock News' sales supplements to accompany the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. As always, ANZ Bloodstock News will be on the ground at the sale, covering all of the stories that break over the next few days.

This year, the sale will be held under conditions that can only be described as the new normal: no handshakes or hugs, minimal celebrations, restricted yelling and shouting. Still, plenty will be flocking to the Gold Coast's sun-drenched climes for what will be the most "normal" sale to be held in the southern hemisphere in almost 12 months.

Enjoy the week; the team at ANZ Bloodstock News is excited to provide you with unrivalled sales coverage from the first inspections to the final fall of the hammer.

RACING POST ANZ BLOODSTOCK
