Hinchinbrook's fast son Unite And Conquer to stand at Kingstar

Conor Phelan also set to return to Hunter Valley in role at Sandblom-owned farm

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Brilliant early season two-year-old Unite And Conquer (Hinchinbrook), a dual stakes-winning colt whose racetrack career was cut short by injury, will stand at Kingstar Farm in the Hunter Valley this year.

The former Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained sprinter, who comprehensively won the Maribyrnong Trial (Listed, 1000m) in October 2018 and the Wyong Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1100m) soon after, has been secured by Matthew Sandblom to join his stallion roster at Kingstar Farm.

Flame gives Moreira a treble to draw level with Purton

Joao Moreira outscored jockeys' championship rival Zac Purton three to one at Sha Tin on Sunday, a haul that left the three-time Hong Kong champions locked on 117 wins apiece heading into the season's final 16 meetings.

The Brazilian ace arrived at the track two wins adrift of his Australian counterpart but evened the score when completing his treble in the afternoon's final contest aboard the four-year-old rising star Inner Flame (Zoustar).

Phelan, who spent almost a decade at Vinery Stud before a two-year stint with software company ThoroughWorks, is excited by the new role and the prospects of Unite And Conquer whose first season fee has been set at $6,600 (inc GST).

"Matthew is a heavy hitter and Kingstar is becoming more of a major player, so the time's right to join them as they expand and we're going to take on a new stallion this year in Unite And Conquer," Phelan told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday.

"I think there's a lot of upside to sons of Hinchinbrook and if you go back through Unite And Conquer's pedigree, there is a lot of two-year-old speed influence there in Danzero, Flying Spur and Snippets - it almost reads like a who's who of Australian two-year-old sires

"The attraction is there to stand a good value son of Hinchinbrook who does have two-year-old speed in his pedigree and proven two-year-old speed on the track"

Unite And Conquer is out of Melbourne city-winning mare Maglissa (Magnus), herself a daughter of Group 1 winner Danglissa (Danzero) whose offspring have also produced stakes winners Euryale (Lonhro) and Sweet Redemption (Snitzel).

"Even though he only really had two starts - the third was when he hurt himself - he beat some very good horses and he did it in very good times," he said.

"He showed that he was a very good, early two-year-old, which I think is important for Australian breeders being able to get a horse into the yearling sales because we have a fair idea that they are going to be forward and strong.

"They are going to be able to present well and the guys buying them are going to have hopefully a quick return on their purchase because they know it is going to be by a sire in Unite And Conquer who was an early two-year-old himself."

Unite And Conquer is already on Kingstar Farm and available for inspections.

"He will be heavily supported by Kingstar, but at the same time we don't want to get in the way of a lot of the breeders who, through word of mouth, have already come and seen him and will probably send a few mares," he said.

"I think you will find that he will cover a book of mares that are of a better quality than you would normally see for a $6,000 stallion. Most stallions in that bracket might end up taking whatever mare you can get but that won't be the case with Unite And Conquer who will be getting mares who would otherwise have been going to some more high-profile stallions.

"We have a lot of faith with him."

Meanwhile, Phelan will move from Melbourne to Kingstar Farm in the coming weeks and cannot wait to be back being "hands on" with the horses and working alongside Adam Cook and the entrepreneurial enterprise of Sandblom.

He has worked at studs in Victoria, NSW and Europe before experiencing a different side of the industry at ThoroughWorks, a horse sales management software company.

"Kingstar is no longer a new farm - they've been around for a few years and had really good sales results," he said.

"Matthew Sandblom is obviously a big investor in the industry with his own farm Kingstar and interests in other stallions at farms like Newgate and Kingstar's grown dramatically in the past two years.

"From one property, they have since bought another property on the other side of the road, so it's growing into a very, very large operation and the time has come, after a couple of years of discussion with Adam Cook, that once they got big enough for a role to develop in bloodstock, nominations and office management that I'd take it on and they're at that stage now."

Phelan believes his recent experience has been important in his development.

"With ThoroughWorks I had more of an insight into all of the sales around Australia and New Zealand and internationally: South Africa, America and Europe," he said.

"I'd speak to a lot of these sales companies and stud owners, particularly through America, Europe and South Africa, which is the other southern hemisphere hub. That was great just to get an idea about how Tattersalls, Goffs, Keeneland and Fasig-Tipton work compared to the Australian market, which I obviously know quite well.

"I did miss getting my hands on a horse and through an opportunity with a rapidly growing and expanding farm like Kingstar, I get the best of both worlds."

Eight for Pride Of Dubai

Proud Mia (2 f ex Miatoko by Danzero), the eighth individual first season winner for Coolmore's sire Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry), backed up her impressive barrier trial victory and strong market support to score brilliantly at Queanbeyan yesterday. The Nick Olive-trained Proud Mia ($1.45 favourite), who was having her first start, was sent straight to the front and was never headed in taking out the Queanbeyan Leagues Club 2YO Maiden Plate (900m) by three and three-quarter lengths. A $60,000 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale purchase by Olive from the Aquis Farm draft, Proud Mia defeated Delacour (Magic Albert), while Ronny Rock Art (Wandjina) was a long neck back in third. Pride Of Dubai, who will stand for an unchanged fee of $38,500 (inc GST) this year, is also the sire of Listed winner Tanker and the stakes-placed Bella Niotina and Dubai Star.

Select Qld squad for Waterhouse and Bott

The Waterhouse-Bott partnership enjoyed a hugely successful Sydney carnival, the highlight being Farnan's (Not A Single Doubt) Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) success, but there will only be a select team heading to Queensland from Tulloch Lodge this year thanks to the Covid-19 restrictions, as Adrian Bott explained. "We will be selective with what we take up. It's a bit tricky with the logistics and the program has changed, some of the big races you normally chase are not there and some of the lead ups are not there. We will take the right horses up there for the right races if it all falls into place." The team is likely to be led by dual Guineas winner Dawn Passage (Dawn Approach), who heads for the Stradbroke (Gr 1, 1400m), for which he's now contesting favouritism alongside Goodwood (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Trekking (Street Cry) and the Tony Gollan-trained Vega One (Lope de Vega).

Thunder Mania on track for J J Atkins

Thunder Mania (Snitzel) may have dispatched a decent field at the Sunshine Coast on Friday, but co-trainers John Symons and Sheila Laxton are not yet certain the talented colt will make the cut for the J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m). His most recent victory took his earnings to over $70,000, which should be enough to secure his spot, but if he needs to run again to cement his place, then that would be the plan. Symonds is rueing the amendment in distance for this year, made due to the heavily revised winter carnival schedule: "As I have regularly said our only regret is the JJ Atkins isn't 1600m and has dropped back to 1400m. If ever there was a horse looking for 1600m it is him," Symons said.

Hansen eyeing Stradbroke with Pennino

Trainer Darryl Hansen has his sights fixed on the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) for recent impressive winner Pennino (Easy Rocking). The mare was well backed before a bloodless victory in the Chef De Beers Handicap (Listed, 1000m) and Hansen is now plotting a route to the Eagle Farm showpiece. "We have her in the Stradbroke and we'll look for another race for her to make certain she can get in," Hansen said. "She handles all tracks and rain on Stradbroke day would be no set back."

Wisdom Of Water 'pretty serious'

Wisdom of Water (Headwater) has impressed experienced jockey Robbie Fradd and he believes that the colt - now favourite for the J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m) - has all the makings of a top class performer. "We might need to teach him to settle a little bit better as the J J Atkins will be a high-pressure race and you won't get it too easy in front," Fradd said. "But he has come from behind before. He will be third-up which means he should be ready to settle." Aquis Farm recently acquired a half share in the first-crop son of Headwater (Exceed And Excel), and a top level victory would be a significant boost to his prospective stallion career. "I think he's a pretty serious horse," Fradd continued. "He is a colt and still learning his trade but he is getting there."

Sprint targets for Hanseatic

Anthony Freedman has high hopes for talented colt Hanseatic (Street Boss) when he returns to racing in the spring as a three-year-old. A three-time winner as a 2YO, including the Blue Diamond Prelude Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m), the Godolphin-owned sprinter just missed out on a Group 1 victory when narrowly beaten in the Blue Diamond (Gr 1, 1200m), and assistant trainer Sam Freedman is looking forward to seeing what the colt can do when he comes back from a spell. "We gave him a really good break," Freedman said. "He doesn't take a lot of work to get ready so he'll probably come in in the next couple of weeks and we'll look to probably set him for the sprint trips in the spring. We're yet to map a path with him but there's going to be plenty of options for him."

Spell for Gytrash

Gordon Richards, the trainer of Group 1-winning sprinter Gytrash (Lope De Vega), is hopeful Everest slot holders will start calling about his four-year-old for this October's $14 million race. Victorious in the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Flemington in February, Gytrash was runner-up in Saturday's The Goodwood (1200m) at Morphettville and will now be spelled. "Someone asked me about the Everest and I thought they were talking about my new car as I've just bought a Ford Everest this week," Richards told Racing.com. "Obviously we would be open for discussion regarding the race but we have had no contact with any slot holders to date."

Paddock beckons for Lyre

Goodwood third placegetter Lyre (Lonhro) is also heading to the paddock for a break. The Anthony Freedman-trained three-year-old, who is owned by Godolphin, was beaten one and three-quarter lengths by Trekking in the $400,000 race. Lyre, the 2019 Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner, ran five times in a three-state campaign and did not finish further back than fourth.

Touch of Magic for Vega

An emotional Sean Casey fought back the tears after Vega Magic's (Lope De Vega) victory in the Roma Cup (Gr 3, 1200m) at Ascot. "I could never, ever, be so emotional after a race," Casey, who co-trains with his son Jake, said. "The horse raced so well over here and we related to him doing a tour of duty when he went over east." That 'tour of duty' included two Group 1 victories and two tilts at The Everest (1200m), one of which resulted in an unlucky second behind multiple winner Redzel (Snitzel). Vega Magic's Ascot victory provided another landmark as it took the seven-year-old's career earnings past the $4m mark.

O'Shea picks up Rondinella

Stakes performer Rondinella (Ocean Park) has joined the Sydney-based John O'Shea for her next campaign in a move sparked by the Covid-19 pandemic. Formerly trained by Roger James and Robert Wellwood, the daughter of Ocean Park has placed at Group 1 level in both New Zealand and Australia, and part-owner Mark Chitty was full of praise for her former handlers: "Roger and Robert did a fantastic job with her. Any horse that can enter a stable unraced and come out as a Group 1 performer, then you would sign up for that every day of the week. After talking with Roger (James), she is rising six now and in the back of our minds we have the thought of possibly breeding her if she doesn't quite come up. Given everything that is going on, her potential suitors are in New South Wales so we made the decision to transfer her after having a good discussion." The mare's key target will be The Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m).

Cartwright keen on return to Victoria

Following a successful six-week stint in Adelaide, top apprentice Georgina Cartwright is looking forward to heading back to Victoria. The brief stint - in part influenced by the Covid-19 pandemic - yielded three stakes wins, including on the popular Jungle Edge (Dubawi), with whom Cartwright has formed a close association. Although she had been offered the opportunity to extend her stay, Cartwright explained that she missed the pace of life in Victoria: "I find racing three times a week just isn't enough for me." Cartwright said. "I've found myself being a little bit bored during the week as I'm used to a bit of a quicker pace, riding work and then going off to the races."

Injured Duggan feels 'very lucky'

NSW jockey Jenny Duggan has suffered multiple fractures after she was one of two riders involved in a serious race fall that marred the Scone Cup meeting. Latest scans have confirmed Duggan has wrist and shoulder fractures. The popular jockey had already been diagnosed with a small fracture to the base of her skull, a broken nose and some bleeding on her brain. Duggan was taken to Newcastle's John Hunter Hospital following her fall from Steamboat Sally (Snitzel) in the final race at the Scone meeting on Friday. She was thrown over the top of her mount as the field approached the winning post. Veteran jockey Robert Thompson also fell but the 62-year-old walked away unharmed. In a social media post from her hospital bed yesterday, Duggan described herself "as very lucky" not to have suffered more serious injuries.

Queensland media rights negotiations ongoing

The negotiations for Queensland's media rights remain ongoing, despite a recent announcement that Brisbane Racing Club (BRC) had agreed a deal with Sky Channel. BRC controls the rights to Eagle Farm and Doomben, with Racing Queensland presiding over the remainder of courses. A deal for those remaining courses was expected to be concluded by the end of April, with multiple interested parties reported as vying for the rights - including Sky, Racing.com, Channel 7 and Channel 10. BRC's support of Sky is seen as significant, as there had been calls from some industry figures for a change to the long-running deal. A Racing Queensland spokesperson confirmed that there was no set date for a conclusion of their ongoing negotiations.

Vale Kevin O'Brien

Well-known owner and breeder Kevin O'Brien, who raced top-class dual Group 1-winning mare Gold Edition (Lion Hunter) and founded Victoria's Lauriston Thoroughbred Farm with his wife Tanith, has died. A former Melbourne Racing Club committee member, O'Brien was 80. He is survived by wife Tanith, daughters Gabi and Georgina and son James, principal of Lauriston Thoroughbred Farm and the president of Thoroughbred Breeders Victoria. In a tribute on the Lauriston Thoroughbred Farm Facebook page posted last night, the family wrote: "(On Saturday), we lost our beloved Dad, Kevin O'Brien. RV amends Covid restrictions

Racing Victoria (RV) has updated existing Covid-19 protocols, which include relaxing the rules on travelling companions and permitting Green Team jockeys to participate in Mornington jumpouts. RV CEO Giles Thompson explained: "We are satisfied that the strict policies around the segregation of jockeys on raceday can be replicated for jump-outs conducted by the MRC, VRC and Cranbourne, and accordingly we are comfortable with extending the Approved Green Team Jump-Outs to include Mornington also. Since the ban on travelling companions was imposed a month ago to help facilitate the stabling of horses from training centres together on raceday and further assist social distancing measures, there has been considerable feedback from trainers around the importance of the companions from a horse welfare viewpoint. Having reviewed the allocation and management of raceday stalls over the past month, we are now satisfied that we can allow selected travelling companions on raceday where it is essential to the welfare of horses travelling on their own to and from the racecourse." The travelling companion protocol will be amended from 20th May, allowing trainers with only one runner at a meeting to bring a companion, subject to approvals from Racing Australia and the host Club.

NEW ZEALAND

Te Akau's 2yos back in work

Jamie Richards is gearing up for a return to the racetrack in the coming months and has started with bringing his team of juveniles back into work. "We are just easing back into it without getting too far ahead of ourselves as with the calendar having some of the better races back a couple of weeks it gives us a little more time," he said. "It's good to have some horses back in the boxes and we are going to really enjoy getting our babies (rising two-year-olds) through and educating them. Getting to know them is a really interesting time of the year as they come in and have a little run up the straight or a jumpout which lets you see what you have to work with." Richards also confirmed most of his good horses are still a couple of weeks away from coming back into work, including exciting rising three-year-olds Cool Aza Beel (Savabeel), Need I Say More (No Nay Never) and Brando (Savabeel).

Patient build up for McKee

Stephen McKee will take a steady approach when returning to racing, with reduced numbers due to the retirement of the likes of Consensus (Postponed) and Hasahalo (Savabeel) as well as the uncertainty in the industry due to the pandemic. His string will consist of around 30 horses in training made up of mainly rising two and three-year-olds. "It's good to be back in the swing of things although I'm not rushing into it just yet," McKee said. "We haven't traditionally had many going around in the winter, if any, so we won't be amongst those lining up to start when racing kicks off again. I mainly have a young team around me, so we will be concentrating on getting them educated and ticking over for when the tracks start to dry out after the winter months. I bought half a dozen yearlings at the sales this year so they will be coming in for their first prep while I also have several rising three-year-olds that I'm keen to see back in action."

Bosson to remain in NZ

Opie Bosson will remain in New Zealand after being retained again as the number one rider for Te Akau Racing in the 2020/21 season. "I definitely strongly considered relocating to Australia for the new season," he said. "However I have been to Te Akau Stud and the Matamata stable and after seeing the quality of yearlings David (Ellis) has bought, and also seeing how the older horses had spelled – I wanted to be part of the future success I know is coming. I also really enjoy working with Jamie (Richards) – he's a freak of a trainer who understands a horse better than anyone I know." Te Akau Principal David Ellis said via their website. "Opie and Te Akau go back a very long way – he started working with us when he was 14. He is a truly gifted rider, with beautiful balance and the best instinct you will see. Our trainer Jamie Richards leads the NZ Trainers' Premiership (99 wins) and the combination of Jamie with Opie has proven formidable. They work so well together and the results they achieve speak for themselves."

ASIA

Almond Eye dominant in Victoria Mile

Japanese ace Almond Eye bounced back to her best with an emphatic and dominant success in the Victoria Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at Tokyo on Sunday. Making her first start since her ninth-place effort behind Lys Gracieux in the Arima Kinen (Gr 1, 2500m), Almond Eye travelled with ease in midfield and Christophe Lemaire was motionless as she breezed into the lead still on the bridle. She stayed on to beat Sound Chiara by four lengths and was just 0.1s off a track record. Sunday's win was her seventh at the top-level and Lemaire said: "I think she's matured well, as she was relaxed from the paddock to the start of the race. I was able to position her in good position behind Sound Chiara and race her in her own rhythm without getting any pressure from the outside. She felt good during the race and displayed her powerful strides at the end. She's a legend horse and will surely win more Group 1 races going forward."

INTERNATIONAL

Preakness Stakes set for October 3

The Preakness Stakes (Gr 1, 1900m), the second leg of the US Triple Crown, has been rearranged for October 3 at Pimlico. The racing calendar has been amended in the US following the coronavirus crisis, meaning the Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 2000m) will be staged on September 5 thus giving a month long gap before the Preakness. A date for the Belmont Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) has not yet been confirmed. Racing returned to Churchill Downs on Sunday evening.

Strict protocols for Irish racing

Horse Racing Ireland (HRI) have released the 77-page document submitted to government which resulted in the date for a resumption of racing in Ireland being brought forward to June 8th. "The new system of health screening will include the registration of every attendee at every race meeting, from jockeys, trainers, IHRB staff, to racecourse staff, cleaning staff and so on," HRI chief executive Brian Kavanagh said. "We have further strengthened the screening process with the installation of a thermal camera system to check attendees' temperatures. Nobody with an elevated reading will be allowed entry." All overseas jockeys will be required to complete a 14 day isolation prior to riding at any meeting, and similar restrictions will apply to stable staff and trainers travelling with horses from outside Ireland.

Revised programme for Irish racing announced

Naas will host Irish racing's return fixture on June 8, with the Irish 2,000 (Gr 1, 1m) and 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) rescheduled for June 12 and June 13 in Horse Racing Ireland's schedule revealed on Sunday. There will be tiered prize-money reductions across all grades, with the Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m4f) and the Irish Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m2f) both cut to €750,000 (from €1.5 million and €1.25m respectively). The Irish Derby retains its traditional date on June 27, as does the Irish Oaks (Gr 1, 1m4f) on July 18. Irish Champions Weekend will take place on September 12 and 13. According to HRI, international participation will be restricted to Group 1 and Group 2 races only for June, all of which must be in strict compliance with government policy on the movement of people in and out of the country. It is envisaged that all black-type races will be open to international competition from the start of July.

New York tracks to reopen

Horseracing in New York on Saturday took a major step towards resumption when New York governor Andrew Cuomo announced racetracks may begin to conduct behind-closed-doors racing from June 1. In response to Cuomo's directive, which covers thoroughbred and standard-bred tracks, the New York Racing Association did not immediately release an opening date for Belmont Park. Instead, the NYRA said it will announce in the "very near future" items such as a start-up date, stakes schedule and condition book. That announcement is expected to come early next week after the NYRA receives the necessary approvals from the New York State Gaming Commission. Information is also anticipated on the Belmont Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) which is scheduled for June 6 but could be run on a revised date and over a shorter distance. In a statement issued on Saturday, NYRA president and CEO Dave O'Rourke said: "NYRA and the New York racing community are thankful for Governor Cuomo's steady leadership throughout this public health crisis and we applaud his decision to authorise the resumption of horseracing, without fans, beginning on June 1. This is a reasoned and responsible decision by Governor Cuomo that will enable horseracing to resume in a way that prioritises health and safety while recognising that NYRA is the cornerstone of an industry responsible for 19,000 jobs and $3 billion in annual economic impact."

11 for Night Of Thunder

Andreas Suborics-trained No Limit Credit (3 f by Night Of Thunder ex Nasrine by Baratheia) asserted in the closing stages to land the Schwarzgold-Rennen (Gr 3, 1600m) at Cologne yesterday, seeing off Democracy (Areion) by half a length with Vive En Liberte (Soldier Hollow) returning third of the seven runners. No Limit Credit, a Gestut Karlshof homebred, broke her maiden on her third start in the BBAG sales race at Dortmund in October and followed up with a valuable wide margin victory in the Ferdinand Leisten-Memorial (1400m) at Baden-Baden two weeks later, before running down the field on her last start in the Preis von Bamberg (Gr 3, 1700m). Claiming her first stakes win here on her return, she becomes the 11th stakes winner for Darley's former shuttler Night Of Thunder (Dubawi). Night Of Thunder stood at Darley's Northwood Park base in Victoria and his best performed offspring - from a single crop of 58 foals born in 2017 - in Australia include Group 3 winner A Beautiful Night and Redoute's Choice Stakes (Listed, 1000m) victrix River Night. Night Of Thunder stands at Kildangan Stud in Ireland for €25,000 (approximately AUD$42,000).

Inner Flame gives Moreira a treble to draw level with Purton

BY DAVID MORGAN | HKJC_RACING

Joao Moreira outscored jockeys' championship rival Zac Purton three to one at Sha Tin on Sunday, a haul that left the three-time Hong Kong champions locked on 117 wins apiece heading into the season's final 16 meetings.

The Brazilian ace arrived at the track two wins adrift of his Australian counterpart but evened the score when completing his treble in the afternoon's final contest aboard the four-year-old rising star Inner Flame (Zoustar).

"Zac can't say he's going to be the winner and neither can I because we don't know what's going to happen in the next couple of weeks and months," Moreira said of his season-long wrestle with the reigning champ.

Inner Flame won his first three races before suffering a reversal last time out but came back from a two-month break with a mature, determined victory in the Class 3 Pak Sha O Handicap (1200m).

"He did that the hard way, which he had to do from that gate (11); he was attacked early and he had to hold on and fight, with horses coming at him at the end – only good horses can do what he's done," Moreira said.

"I'm very pleased to be sitting on such a nice horse for the Douglas Whyte stable. Douglas' patience has paid off, he was going to run him another day but decided to wait and I really think that patience was the key to this horse being able to come back and win again. He's a nice horse with a bright future."

Whyte was delighted to see the chestnut bounce back tenaciously at the first attempt and expects to see his charge continue on an upward trajectory.

"It bodes well," Whyte said. "The most important and interesting view as a trainer is that I don't think I've got to the bottom yet or near the bottom yet; he's still doing it on raw ability and I'm just training his mind to keep intact – I haven't even attacked him yet.

"I think there will be a big improvement; he was supposed to run and I said to Joao, 'I'm going to give him another trial, he's just getting a bit too naughty and I don't want to work him hard but he needs a trial to knock the wind out of his sails' – that was probably the winning move."

Moreira kicked off the card with a straightforward success on the Caspar Fownes-trained Sky Gem (Niagara) in the Yung Shue O Handicap (2200m). The Brazilian has enjoyed impressive strike rates in Class 5 in past seasons, running well above 20% in four of the last six campaigns, but he has not been as prolific this time – the gelding took the rider's current season strike rate in the class to 12%.

That pulled him to within one of Purton but the Australian regained his two-win advantage in race four, section two of the Class 4 Wong Ma Tei Handicap (1400m). Purton and Moreira went head-to-head in the run to the line as the David Hall-trained Classic Posh (Testa Rossa) held Heza Beauty (Darci Brahma) by a short-head.

Moreira nabbed his second win aboard the John Size-trained Picken (Duporth), who earned a fifth success at his 28th outing when a half-length better than the rest in the Class 3 Sham Chung Handicap (1400m).

Righteous win moves Chang close to benchmark

Righteous Doctrine

HKJC

Righteous Doctrine (Siyouni) gave Michael Chang his biggest win in almost a year and took the Group 1-winning handler to within touching distance of Hong Kong's 'trainer performance benchmark'.

Chang famously oversaw the career of Rich Tapestry, the only Hong Kong-trained horse to have won a Group 1 – or any race, for that matter – in North America, as well as notable scores in Dubai. But the past few seasons have been lean.

Righteous Doctrine's rattling late run to snatch the Class 2 Hoi Ha Handicap (1800m) added just a hint of a sheen to a season that has been all about boxing tough with low grade gallopers.

"He really made my day today – he was strong!" Chang declared after Karis Teetan urged the five-year-old to a neck verdict over race favourite Super Oasis (Rock 'n' Pop), despite an interrupted run that had given the trainer a "nervous" moment.

"I told the jockey to relax him and make him finish – and he finished really strongly. I could see that he was coming home strongly from 200 metres out but then suddenly he got chopped up by the other horse."

The French-bred has now won three races this term, all within his last four starts, and Chang believes there is more to come.

"I think he's improving still," the handler said. "He always runs well on the turf, even though his two previous wins were on the dirt. He finished third last time and I don't think he got a good run so today I wanted to put a stronger jockey on."

Righteous Doctrine's win gave Chang his 15th win; the run of President's Choice (Redoute's Choice) into second place in the finale raised the stable's purse money to HK$20.115 million.

The Hong Kong Jockey Club requires trainers on a single site licence – without access to Conghua – to achieve 16 wins or, failing that, 14 wins plus at least HK$21 million in prize money. Failure to hit the mark incurs a 'strike' – three of those and a trainer could be on their way.

Chang achieved 40 wins for the term in the 2012/13 season but has notched less than 20 wins in each season since. Even so, he has never received a dreaded 'strike' despite one or two close calls.

"Honestly, I never feel pressure – I know our team will always do a good job so I have no complaints," he said.

"We're getting a few more newcomers

Good View Clarico

soon but they've all been stuck because of the coronavirus."

Righteous Doctrine's victory gave Teetan a double, the Mauritian having prevailed on the Tony Cruz-trained Casa De Forca (Siyouni). The gelding had knocked on the door a few times this term and finally hammered his way through for a first win at start 19 in section one of the Class 4 Wong Ma Tei Handicap (1400m).

So's Good View

Ben So does not have long left before he bids a final farewell to the jockeys' room, with retirement and "a new development" awaiting him once this season concludes.

The rider, 33, doubled his tally for this campaign when the smart three-year-old Good View Clarico (I Am Invincible) completed a hat-trick of wins in the Class 3 Lai Chi Chong Handicap (1000m). The Dennis Yip-trained gelding quickened to head the 1.9 race favourite War Of Courage (Declaration Of War) by a neck in a swift 55.24s.

Purton had partnered Good View Clarico to his two previous wins but was unable to make the light weight for the bay's first start in Class 3.

"It was my first time riding him and he did everything I wanted," So said. "He jumped well from the gate, relaxed when I got to the front and then in the last 400 metres he gave me as much as he could."

"He's mature for a three-year-old but I think he'll keep improving."

So was champion apprentice in the 2011/12 season but has struggled for opportunities in recent times – six wins last term and only one the season prior. His upcoming retirement will open a new chapter as a work rider with a view to navigating his way up the Hong Kong Jockey Club ranks stable-side, hoping to follow in the footsteps of the likes of Tony Cruz, Frankie Lor, Ricky Yiu and Yip, among many others.

"I'm going to retire because I have another good development, so that's my plan," he said.

Hamelin has forged a reputation as a strong rider with a powerful shove, but Neil Callan is still the unbowed 'Iron Man' of the Hong Kong jockey's room and he showed it one race later. The Irishman urged the Paul O'Sullivan-trained Judy's Star (Sebring) through a no-nonsense drive to seal the Class 4 Wong Chuk Wan Handicap (1200m).

Chad Schofield guided the Tony Millard-trained Gift Of Lifeline (Pierro) to win the Class 3 Shui Long Wo Handicap (1600m).

Hong Kong racing continues at Happy Valley on Wednesday, May 20.
