Elleegant Caulfield Cup as Zed trumps Galileo

Legend bound for Hong Kong, Belle edges closer to Sunline and Addeybb a 'Champion' after thrilling spring raceday

The romance of the Australian turf has always been idealised in its role as a great leveller, with a system of predominantly handicaps - even at the highest level - acting as an equaliser that embodies Australia's egalitarian self-identity.

Even as class casts aside the weights, there is still magic to be found in testing some of the world's finest bloodlines against those which, at one time, were destined to die out.

So it proved yesterday in one of Australia's greatest races as a daughter of the once-banished Zed (Zabeel), Verry Elleegant, held off an Epsom Derby winner by the world's greatest stallion Galileo (Sadler's Wells), Anthony Van Dyck, to take out the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), the first of Melbourne's three spring features.

In fact, Very Elleegant was one of three Group 1 winners yesterday - in three different countries, no less - to come out of the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick in April. Winner Addeybb (Pivotal) scored a first British Group 1 win in the Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) at Ascot, while Melody Belle (Commands) lifted the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m) at Hastings to record Group 1 win number 12.

It was Verry Elleegant, though, who was the star of the show with her tenacious Caulfield Cup success.

In a case of class conquering the handicaps, five-time Group 1 winner and favourite Verry Elleegant (5 m Zed - Opulence by Danroad) held off top-weight Anthony Van Dyck to win by a short neck with three-quarters of a length to longshot The Chosen One (Savabeel) back in third.

Prince Of Arran (Shirocco) produced an eye-catching Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) trial, flashing home for fourth, just under two lengths from the winner.

Unfortunately, due to Covid-19, it was a Caulfield Cup run in front of empty grandstands. The usual throngs who would flock to Melbourne's east were instead at home, weary after weeks of a city-wide lockdown.

A shame, too, given this was a Caulfield Cup for the ages, despite a strangely-run race and any number of incidents of interference, hard luck stories and perplexing efforts.

Zed, a maiden winner who was once favourite for the New Zealand

Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) before injury brought his career to a premature end, boasted a handy pedigree, being out of the Group 1-winning mare Emerald Dream (Danehill).

His brother Zabene and his half-brother Knight's Command (Pins) were decent stakes winners at a trip, but it was hoped that his lineage - which traces back to blue hen Eight Carat (Pieces Of Eight) - could shine through at stud.

And according to Verry Elleegant's breeder Don Goodwin, who belongs to the Zed Partnership Syndicate that owns the stallion, he would have been a special horse if he had not broken down at the beginning of his career.

"I've got shares in Zed so it cost me nothing," Goodwin said. "He wasn't [a high profile horse] but if he hadn't broken down, he would have been. He could gallop as good as she [Verry Elleegant] can, he was something else.

"Originally, he was coming over to Australia as a two-year-old to the Freedmans, but a horse went berserk in the float with him and he got quite badly injured. We bought him back as a three-year-old, he won his first start and he was favourite for the Waikato Guineas. He broke down, but still finished sixth. We tried to get him back but we weren't very successful."

Purchased by Little Avondale Stud, he stood his first season for NZ$500. Shipped to Erewhon Station, nestled among New Zealand's Southern Alps, he was being used to breed cross-breeds, serving Clydesdales in addition to a handful of thoroughbred mares.

Eventually finding his way to Grangewilliam Stud as his slow-maturing progeny began to hit their straps, he has since sired 12 individual stakes winners from 251 runners, with Survived his only other Group 1 winner along with Verry Elleegant. His most popular horse aside from his Caulfield Cup winner has arguably been Zed Em, the now ten-year-old who has earned more than AUD$1 million through his wins in some of Australia's biggest steeplechases.

"He's never been high profile and never will be," said Goodwin. "At the last sales in January, I think we sold six of them and three of them went to Australia. The Aussies like him more as a sire than the Kiwis do.

"I used to watch her work and I told one of the members of the leasehold group when I saw her gallop, well before she had been to a trial, this filly will win an Oaks. Not dreaming that it was going to be an Australian Oaks at Randwick, but she was something else.

"Melody Belle (Commands) won the big Group 1 in New Zealand today and won it brilliantly, but I think she is as good as Melody Belle."

Goodwin was unable to travel to Caulfield to watch the star mare, but instead cheered her on at home with his wife.

"I would have been there with bells on today," said Goodwin. "It's only the two of us here but we shouted her down. I knew we'd hold on. The last 50 metres she is strong. She can gallop further than anyone else. She's won at all the top courses."

Zed stands at Grangewilliam Stud for a fee of NZ$6,000 (plus GST) in 2020.

Legend scales Everest, Hong Kong next

The Hong Kong Jockey Club will grant an exception to The Everest (1200m) winner Classique Legend (5 g Not A Single Doubt - Pinocchio by Encosta De Lago) to join the stable of Caspar Fownes, with owner Bon Ho keen to tackle the world - starting with the Hong Kong Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) - after he conquered Australia's biggest monetary prize at Randwick yesterday.

Classique Legend has long shaped as a sprinter of the highest calibre but the arrogant manner in which he took the world's richest race on turf was breathtaking. He defeated Group 1 winners Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) and Gytrash (Lope De Vega) by two and a half lengths and three lengths respectively to claim the $15 million feature.

It justified octogenarian trainer Les Bridge's pronouncement that the five-year-old is on par with, if not better than, his 1983 Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) hero Sir Dapper (Vain) and his popular mare Hot Danish (Nothin' Leica Dane).

"The horse I got the most pleasure out of in my life was Hot Danish, because at the time my wife was dying with cancer and every time that horse won it gave her a lift. So there will never be a horse to replace Hot Danish in my sentiments," Bridge said yesterday. "But this horse has got a girth on him that deep and he's just got a big V8 motor. It's unbelievable."

Classique Legend was due to head to Hong Kong after finishing midfield in last year's Everest, but the trip was aborted twice, according to Ho's racing manager Carmel Size. She purchased the Wallings Bloodstock-bred grey for $400,000 at the 2017 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale.

"I love him so much, I've been obsessed with him since I laid eyes on him. That is a great horse, we have seen something special today," she said.

Classique Legend

"I'm so proud of the horse. To think I bought him as a yearling and I've been able to look after him, it's just been the world to me. I might have to retire now.

"He was on the flight twice, it got shot down and he came back to me. He's been in the stable since March 21, a very unorthodox preparation, but gee, what a marvel Les Bridge is. He's a legend."

If he had gone, he would have tackled the Four-Year-Old Classic Series, featuring the Hong Kong Classic Mile (Listed, 1600m), the Hong Kong Classic Cup (Listed, 1800m) and the Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m); all three legs were won by Golden Sixty (Medaglia d'Oro), the new star on the Hong Kong scene.

However, if Ho's plan comes to fruition, perhaps the mantle of Hong Kong's leading horse will be up for debate over the coming months. A clash with his younger half-brother Aethero (Sebring), currently on the sidelines due to injury, is also potentially on the cards.

The Hong Kong Jockey Club closely controls its Private Purchase imports - those that arrive in the territory having raced abroad - and generally, horses must arrive before the start of their five-year-old season.

Nevertheless, the South China Morning Post reported that Ho would receive an exception to ship Classique Legend to Sha Tin, with the owner confirming to Andrew Bensley last night that his intention was to put his star into quarantine on Monday and give him 12 months to tackle the world before returning to defend his title in 2021.

"I've got a slot in The Everest for three years and Classique Legend is likely to return next year - unless I have a better sprinter at home," Ho said.

"But I think Classique Legend is one of the top two or three sprinters in the world if he is ridden the right way. I think the horse will have a better opportunity to shine globally if he is based in Hong Kong.

"We can race him in Dubai, Tokyo and even Royal Ascot but I hope he can be back in Sydney next year for The Everest again. With his ability, he should be an international horse and I think the Hong Kong Jockey Club has the better facilities for him, they will be able to cater for him and do all the paperwork for me."

"It is an unbelievable feeling to win another one," he said. "Every big win is special. I was lucky enough to team up with Redzel soon after he got racing with the Snowdens. This is a horse that Carmel and Les threw me on really early in his career and he showed instant brilliance.

"I backed him to the hilt from then on to win a good race. Last year was a tough call, I had to stick solid with Redzel and the Snowdens and this horse was a little bit unlucky.

"We've all been on the same page that the horse has come back bigger and better. It is extra special."

Classique Legend's win yesterday took his record to six wins and four placings from 12 starts with prize-money of $8,635,500. That places him inside the top 10 highest-earning Australian-trained horses of all time.

It also catapults Arrowfield Stud's now-pensioned Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) to the top of the Australian general sires table. Even with Classique Legend unlikely to provide a further boost to his overall total, he will be represented in the coming months by horses like Farnan, Anders, Doubtland and Instant Celebrity, all capable of bolstering his total earnings.

It's Me lands Kosciuszko and eyes Everest

The Everest's baby brother, the $1.3 million The Kosciuszko (1200m) for country-trained horses, may have produced a rival for Classique Legend next year with the Brett Cavanough-prepared It's Me (4 m Shamus Award - It's You by Celtic Swing) remaining unbeaten in victory yesterday.

It's Me only debuted at Scone on August 4, scoring comfortably before winning two Highway Handicaps at Randwick.

She entered the race as favourite and as the X-factor horse, even despite presenting with mucus earlier in the week. Sent off at even money, her backers would have been nervous upon straightening as Jason Collett endeavoured to maneuver her to the outside.

Once clear, she was flying, but the Mitch Beer-trained Redouble (Redoute's Choice) had snuck up the inside. The two came away to fight it out, with It's Me scoring by a long head over Redouble; Man Of Peace (Zariz) was a further length away in third.

It's Me's stablemate Fender (Toronado), the second favourite, finished seventh.

"Are you allowed to cry?" Cavanough asked in jest. "Obviously she's a very good mare. They're both pretty special horses, Fender and It's Me, there's not much difference between them two at home but race day she just finds six or eight lengths, she's just amazing.

"You see what she did today, she was in trouble, knocked them down, got down, balanced up and got the job done.

"I thought one of those old horses would come to the fore today. It was Mitchell Beer's horse. He was a tough old horse first up, good form and she still got the job done to beat him."

Bred by John Carter, It's Me was passed in as a foal out of the Kitchwin Hills draft at the 2017 Magic Millions National Weanling Sale. Appearing at the 2018 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, the filly was purchased for $65,000 by Grand Syndicates.

It's Me

SPORTPIX

After yesterday's fourth win from as many starts, her prize-money has reached $816,700, with Collett believing that the next target of a Group 1 win is within reach.

"She's only had four starts, she just beat some open grade sprinters. She's very smart," he said. "I can't quite tell you how high she'll get to but the way she's going I would like to say Group 1."

Empire Rose no path to Sunline for Belle

Melody Belle (6 m Commands - Meleka Belle by Iffraaj) is highly unlikely to chase a record-equalling 13th Group 1 win in defence of her Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) title at Flemington on October 31, despite a tremendous repeat victory in the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m) yesterday.

Forced to race back and wide after jumping slightly slowly, an occasional habit of hers, the Jamie Richards-prepared Melody Belle unleashed a withering turn of foot down the centre of the Hastings track under Troy Harris to win her second Livamol Classic, defeating stablemate Advantage (Fastnet Rock) by two and three quarter lengths in a repeat of the Windsor Park Plate (Gr 1, 1600m) quinella.

French import Vadavar (Redoute's Choice) was a head away in third.

Sunline (Desert Sun) is the most decorated New Zealand thoroughbred since the introduction of the pattern system, winning 13 Group 1 races throughout her career, and it has been well-established that Melody Belle's owners would love the opportunity to equal and potentially best the two-time Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) winner.

And while it would be fitting if the recently-named New Zealand Horse of the Year equalled the mark in a race named after another champion Kiwi mare in Empire Rose (Sir Tristram), Richards said that the amended program made it a tall ask. Instead, her attempt at equalling Sunline's record is likely to come in a race like the Captain Cook Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) or the Zabeel Classic (Gr 1, 2000m). Continued on page 6>>

<< Continued from page 5 “It’s just too quick a turnaround this year with all the changes due to Covid,” said Richards, referencing the fact that the Livamol Classic was run two weeks later than its usual first Saturday in October position. “We’ll get her home and have a look at her Monday morning, have a team talk and then make some plans. She’s done a wonderful job, she’s a champion mare.

“I’m over the moon. I think she was aided by a little bit of easing in the ground today, she just loves to get her toe into it, up in trip, 2000 metres is ideal for her now. She’s going very well, it’s a credit to the whole team. We’ve been under the pump at home with staff in Christchurch and in Sydney and it’s a credit to the staff who have been putting in long hours, as all stables do.”

Managing owner John Galvin of Fortuna Thoroughbreds said that part of the decision to bring Melody Belle home from Australia earlier in the spring was so that her large group of owners could enjoy the experience, given Covid-19 restricted travel.

“The crowds love Melody Belle so much and you know the story of why we bought her back from Australia, so we could have moments like this, on these occasions, so it is a little bit emotional, really,” he said.

“Back in the running, but just too good, just too good, what a mare, imperious, as I said, and words fail me. It was a fantastic moment and I’m so happy for Troy as well. He’s had 13 rides on Fortuna horses, won 10 of them and four of them have been Group 1s – amazing.

Melody Belle

“And Jamie is an amazing trainer. It’s all been said before, but at such a young age he’s stepped up to the plate. He’s had really good mentors, has a great team of horses, of course, but he was buzzing during the week. Like me, he plays his cards close to his chest, but I could tell from his attitude and demeanour that it would be hard to beat her today.”

Runner-up Avantage has performed admirably all spring, but has finished in the placings in all three legs of the Hawke’s Bay Triple Crown. She is likely to go for a break before returning early next year.

First for Capitalist

Captivant

SPORTPIX

Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Capitalist (Written Tycoon) brought up his first winner yesterday when Captivant (2 c ex Speedboat by Commands) took out the Victory Vein Plate (1000m) at Randwick in impressive fashion. Sent out as an $8 chance, the Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Captivant raced midfield, sluicing between runners before racing clear for a length and three quarter success. It was a first season sire quinella as Akihiro (Maurice) finished second, with She's All Class (I Am Invincible) - sporting the colours of last year's Everest (1200m) winner Yes Yes Yes (Rubick) - a further long head away in third. Bred by Senga Bissett of Ashleigh Thoroughbreds, Captivant sold to a consortium featuring China Horse Club, Newgate Bloodstock and Starlight Racing for $550,000 at this year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Captivant is the third foal, the second to race, out of Speedboat (Commands), closely related to Group 2 winner First Command (Commands), from the family of Group 1 winners River Dove (Hurricane Sky), Headwater (Exceed And Excel) and Crown Prosecutor (Medaglia d'Oro). Capitalist stands for $44,000 (inc GST) at Newgate Farm in 2020.

Golden Gift on the radar for Captivant

Not much had gone right for Captivant in his short career to date, but patience proved a virtue for Peter and Paul Snowden as the two-year-old scored on debut yesterday and put himself forward as a contender for the $1 million Golden Gift (1100m). Captivant started his preparation in Sydney and was then sent to Melbourne to contest the Maribyrnong Trial Stakes (Listed, 1000m). However, after he seemingly failed to handle the straight course in a Flemington jump-out, it was decided to wait for the Debutant Stakes (Listed, 1000m) - where he drew the outside gate. He was then sent to Sydney on Monday to trial on Tuesday in order to qualify for yesterday's race. "To do that with a two-year-old, you wouldn't do it. Only with the ones you think can handle it and obviously he can," Paul Snowden said. "That's why it gives me so much confidence knowing that he has so much more to give. He is nowhere near where he needs to be. He's that raw he's still frozen." The Snowdens prepared Capitalist to win the 2015 Golden Slipper and are impressed with his progeny so far. "They're lovely types to deal with and this bloke is only going to train on," Snowden said. "You only have to look at this bloke to see he's a mean, lean machine. He's got so much physique about him and the attitude that Capitalist stamps all his stock with, they're exciting."

103 for Savabeel

Waikato Stud's Savabeel (Zabeel) brought up his 103rd individual stakes winner yesterday when the Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-prepared Albarado (3 c ex O'Fille by O'Reilly) took out the Caulfield Classic (Gr 3, 2000m) yesterday. Sent out as second favourite, Albarado produced a strong effort to hold off Let's Karaka Deel (Dundeel) by a long head with a further short head to Hit The Shot (Dundeel) in third. Five-time Champion Sire Savabeel stands for $100,000 this year.

142 for Medaglia d'Oro

Endanger (3 g ex Hazard by Flying Spur) earned former shuttler Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado) his 142nd individual stakes winner when taking out the Gothic Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Caulfield yesterday. The Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained gelding was making just his third start, having won his maiden on debut, and was sent off the $3.60 favourite under Jye McNeil. Endanger appeared to do the minimum required to defeat the Chris Waller-trained Osamu (Exceed And Excel) by half a length, with So Let's Toast (So You Think) a further length behind in third. Medaglia d'Oro stood at Darley America for a fee of US$200,000 (approx. AUD$282,650) in 2020.

21 for Hinchinbrook

Anthony and Sam Freedman saw further success on the card when Chica Fuerte (3 f ex Guapa by Rock Hard Ten) impressively landed the Ethereal Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m), bringing up a double for the yard and a 21st individual stakes winner for the late Hinchinbrook (Fastnet Rock). Chica Fuerte won courtesy of a smart front-running ride from Ben Melham, who dictated the pace and had enough underneath him to hold off $19 chance Salto Angel (Sacred Falls) by one and three-quarter lengths, with fellow outsider Star Of Eden (Wandjina) finishing two lengths off the winner. Hinchinbrook stood at Yarraman Park Stud before dying at the age of ten following an accident on a walking machine in 2018.

28 for So You Think

Think It Over

SPORTPIX

Coolmore's So You Think (High Chaparral) brought up his 28th individual stakes winner yesterday when Think It Over (5 g ex Personal Service by Zabeel) took at the Craven Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) at Randwick. The Kerry Parker-trained galloper has been consistent this campaign with two seconds and one third at Randwick and fully deserved his victory under a dominant ride from Glen Boss. The $15 chance pounced to the lead close home and was too strong for his rivals, with Nettoyer (Sebring) a length and a quarter behind in second and Vanna Girl (Husson) close behind in third. The well-fancied Chris Waller-trained favourite Star Of The Seas (Ocean Park) failed to see out the trip and finished ninth of ten. So You Think stands at Coolmore for a fee of $38,500 in 2020.

16 for Zoustar

Indian Pacific (4 g ex Rosarino by Perugino) earned Zoustar (Northern Meteor) his 16th individual stakes winner when taking out the Crawford Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Ascot yesterday. On his first start of this preparation, Indian Pacific was sent off the $2.70 favourite and rewarded connections with a short-head victory over Mervyn (Henny Hughes), with Stagman (Written Tycoon) close behind in third. Indian Pacific's market rival Valour Road (Frost Giant) could only finish sixth of 11. Zoustar is standing at Widden Stud for service fee of $121,000 in 2020.

Graff bounces back

Danny O'Brien bred Graff (5 h Star Witness - Dinkum Diamond by Keep The Faith) and had always followed the enigmatic sprinter but it was only when the horse turned five that he had the chance to train him. Graff made a successful debut for the stable, taking out the Caulfield Sprint (Gr 2, 1000m) yesterday to score his first win in over two years. O'Brien explained he bred Graff with Widden Stud proprietor Antony Thompson and they sold him as a yearling to Alan Bell for $200,000 at the Magic Millions Sales. "I've known him since he was a foal, so it's good to be back involved with him and it's good to bring him back to winning form," O'Brien said. "He's a horse that's always shown talent and raced at the top level throughout and hopefully this can give him a real confidence boost and we can get him back to winning another good race." Graff defeated Fabergino (Maschino) by one and a quarter lengths with Crystal Dreamer (Stratum) a half-head away third.

Career highlight for Madam Rouge

The Chris Waller-trained Madam Rouge (5 m Zoustar - Cabernet by Al Maher) won at Group 2 level for the first time when taking out the Tristarc Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Caulfield under Ben Melham. The five-year-old landed the Group 3 The Nivison (Gr 3, 1200m) 12 months ago but climbed another tier yesterday, defeating She Shao Fly (Epaulette) by a quarter of a length, with Felicia (Unencumbered) finishing half a length behind the winner in third. The $3 favourite Perfect Jewel (Redoute's Choice) finished down the field in sixth-place.

Wild Planet on top in Moonga

Tough galloper Wild Planet (5 g Animal Kingdom - Salutations by Redoute's Choice) proved a narrow victor of the Moonga Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Caulfield yesterday and co-trainer Wayne Hawkes paid homage to the horse's tenacity after his win. "He's a pure racehorse. He's not the best horse ever but his will to win is amazing," Hawkes said. Wild Planet was ridden to perfection from Hugh Bowman, who settled him behind the leaders and managed to get him home in a photo. Wild Planet defeated Morrissey (Snitzel) by a short head with Fifty Stars (Sea The Stars) another two and a half lengths away in third.

Zimbol takes Alinghi

California Zimbol (4 m I Am Invincible - Zimaretto by Anabaa) took out the Alinghi Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Caulfield yesterday. The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained mare landed the Thoroughbred Club Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield 12 months ago but had to settle for a Listed contest this time around. Ridden by Mark Zahra, California Zimbol narrowly overturned $2.35 favourite Fituese (Deep Field) by a head, with Prophet's Thumb (I Am Invincible) a further length and a half behind in third.

Sydney Stakes to Trumbull

Trumbull

SPORTPIX

The Kim Waugh-trained Trumbull (5 g Darci Brahma - Pride And Passion by Encosta De Lago) took out the Sydney Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick yesterday on his first run of the season. The gelding had not been seen on a race day since finishing sixth in the Winter Stakes (Listed, 1400m) but looked in tip-top condition under Tommy Berry. The $14 chance held off Standout (Exceed And Excel) by a head, with fellow son of Exceed And Excel (Danehill) Signore Fox, who was sent off at $41, a further one and a half length behind in third. The $2.80 favourite Deprive (Denman) finished two lengths off the winner in fifth.

Fun Fact makes all in St Leger

Fun Fact (The Factor) took out the St Leger (2600m) at Randwick yesterday under an impressive front-running ride from Joshua Parr. The Bjorn Baker-trained gelding was sent off a $16 chance and stayed on well to defeat Brimham Rocks (Fastnet Rock) by a length, with She's Ideel (Dundeel) close behind in third.

Santiago out of Melbourne Cup

The Aidan O'Brien-trained Santiago (Authorized) has been ruled out of the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), Racing Victoria stewards announced on Saturday morning. The Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m4f) winner was one of the market leaders for the $8 million contest and it is the second blow to the O'Brien stable this week, after it was discovered on Wednesday that Wichita (No Nay Never) was also facing a long spell out with injury. Following the news, Charlie Fellowes, who trains last year's Melbourne Cup runner-up Prince Of Arran (Shirocco), said on twitter: "Wow, that blows the race wide open. For me he ticked every box and was the obvious race favourite. Now you can make a case for so many horses ... if only there was something running that had a good record in the race."

NEW ZEALAND

Guineas beckons for Bonham

Promising three-year-old Bonham (Per Incanto) made it two wins from her first two starts when she dominated her female rivals over 1300 metres at Hastings. The John Benner and Hollie Wynyard-trained filly was on trial for a trip south next month to contest the New Zealand 1000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Riccarton and performed as expected as she cruised clear in the run home to win by a length in the hands of Danielle Johnson. "I was pretty happy with the rain when it came as the race shaped up well for her today," Benner said. "It was going to be a small field and a slow tempo, which was a slight concern, but she's pretty good. I did say to Danielle that she might come off the bridle around the home corner as it is a bit tighter, but don't panic as when she switches to her outside leg, she is lethal. It is four weeks to the 1000 Guineas so we won't run again, but I'm confident we can keep her sound and mentally sound, so we will now sit down and work out how we get her down there." The NZ TAB moved Bonham into NZ$6 second favourite for the fillies' feature, behind NZ$5 elect Tinker McPhee (Nostradamus).

32 for Pivotal

Glen Shiel

MARK CRANHAM

Hollie Doyle's sensational season hit a new high on Saturday as she rode the first Group 1 winner of her career on Glen Shiel (6 g ex Gonfilia by Big Shuffle) in the British Champions Sprint Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at Ascot

Yesterday, who in turn recorded a 32nd individual elite-level winner for his sire Pivotal (Polar Falcon). No female jockey had ever ridden a winner at Qipco British Champions Day, but Doyle quickly snapped that statistic with a dominant success on Trueshan (Planteur) - who took out the Long Distance Cup (Gr 2, 2m) at the beginning of the card - before a first top-level win on Glen Shiel. Trained by Archie Watson, who was also enjoying a first Group 1, Glen Shiel flew out of the stalls to lead, and just held off the late thrust of veteran Brando (Pivotal) by a nose, with One Master (Fastnet Rock) a further half a length behind in third. Pivotal stood at Cheveley Park Stud for a private fee in 2020.

44 for Dubawi

Last year's Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) second The Revenant (5 g ex Hazel Lavery by Excellent Art) made no mistake this time as he ground down the front-running Roseman (Kingman) under Pierre-Charles Boudot to earn Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) his 44th individual elite-level winner. The Francis-Henri Graffard-trained five-year-old was always travelling best and he had the tenacity to hold off Roseman, who had dictated matters from the front, by a head. Odds-on favourite Palace Pier (Kingman) lost a shoe in finishing third and finished three and a quarter lengths behind the winner. Dubawi stood at Darley's Dalham Hall Stud for a fee of £250,000 (approx. AUD$456,000) in 2020.

31 for Declaration Of War

Former Coolmore stallion Declaration Of War (War Front) recorded his 31st individual stakes winner on Friday when Stunning Sky (3 f ex Sky Walk by Unbridled's Song) emerged from nowhere to take the Valley View Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Keeneland. Mid-stretch, it looked as though Princess Grace (Karakontie) was home and hosed, but the Mike Maker-trained Stunning Sky stormed home to score by a half-length, bringing up her first stakes win in the process. How Ironie (Tonalist) closed late into third. "She ran some great races that she was unlucky to lose at Saratoga," Maker said. "She was very deserving today, I think; such a big, classy filly. I'm glad to get a stakes win for (owners) Peter Proscia and Steve Weston." Declaration Of War now stands at JBBA Shizunai Stallion Station in Japan.

13 for Dawn Approach

Poetic Flare (2 c ex Maria Lee by Rock Of Gibraltar) comfortably took out the Killavullan

Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Leopardstown yesterday, bringing up a 13th individual stakes winner for Dawn Approach (New Approach). The Jim Bolger-trained two-year-old saw off Zaffy's Pride (Pride Of Dubai) by two and a half lengths, with Mexico City (No Nay Never) a further three and a quarter lengths behind in third. Dawn Approach stood at Kildangan Stud for a fee of €10,000 (approx. AUD$16,550) in 2020.

IRE: Fitting win to Urban Beat

Dundalk's Mercury Stakes (Gr 3, 5f), this year named for the late Pat Smullen, produced an appropriate winner on Friday night when Smullen's great friend and rival Johnny Murtagh - now a trainer - took the race with Urban Beat (5 g Red Jazz - Closetocrazy by Blues Traveller). Sent out as fourth favourite in the field of 14, the Ben Coen-ridden Urban Beat just held off the late charge of two-year-old Muker (Mehmas) to win by a neck, with a further neck to favourite My Laureate (Rajj) in third. "He deserved that as he's been bang there all year in those type of races," Coen said. "He ran into a bit of traffic the last day here. I rode him a bit more positive today and he enjoyed it. He's a horse that you can't get to the front too soon with but he's actually won well at the line tonight. That's my second Group 3 winner and I have to say a big thanks to Johnny as he's given me the two of them. I'm delighted."

US: War Front service fee reduced

Leading North American sire War Front (Danzig) has had his 2021 service fee reduced to US$150,000 (approx. AUD$212,000), down from last year's fee of $250,000 (approx. AUD$353,000), as Kentucky-based Claiborne Farm announced reductions for a number of sires in 2021. War Front, who is emerging as a sire of sires, has 95 individual stakes winners to his name, with 23 of those Group 1 winners. His sire sons at stud include Declaration Of War, who sired last year's Melbourne Cup winner Vow And Declare.

Addeybb goes one better than last year for joyous Haggas and triumphant Marquand

BY RACING POST STAFF

Addeybb put in a performance befitting of the occasion to finally land his first Group 1 in Britain with a frighteningly-good performance to take the £750,000 Group 1 Qipco Champion Stakes.

Having come up three-quarters of a length short behind Magical in the same race last year, Addeybb emphatically turned the tables with a champion's performance under regular partner Tom Marquand.

Twice a winner at the highest level in Australia in the spring, the six-year-old's domestic campaign had been laid out with a testing-ground Champion Stakes as the end destination and, with the mud squelching around Swinley Bottom, Addeybb was at his imperious best to defeat French raider Skalleti by two and a quarter lengths with last year's heroine Magical a further half length away in third.

Victory brought winning trainer William Haggas to the brink of his emotions and capped a fabulous day for the Marquand household after the winning rider's partner Hollie Doyle scored two wins on the card including a breakthrough at the highest level with Glen Shiel.

"Addeybb has been absolutely fantastic," said Haggas, who has nurtured the winner to new heights this season. "Since he won the Wolferton last year and we put the cheekpieces on, he has just been so consistent.

"He was really on it today. He looked fantastic beforehand but he was grumpy and difficult to saddle, which is a good sign for him. He has got such a marvellous nature and this is tailor-made for him. We all know that he loves this ground."

There had been a timely reminder of Addeybb's significant exploits in Australia earlier in the day, when the mare he beat in both the Group 1 Queen Elizabeth Stakes and the Ranvet Stakes, Verry Elleegant, took the

Caulfield Cup from last year's Derby winner Anthony Van Dyck.

Yet as impressive as Addeybb's domination on the other side of the world has been, it was a Group 1 in Britain that Haggas really craved for the hero of the hour.

"They were smart performances in Australia but he had never won a Group 1 in England," said the trainer. "He had been second a few times, so that for us is the great joy - we've finally won a championship race with such a good horse.

"I said after six-year-old One Master won the Foret for a third time that, if you can keep them happy, sound and not abuse them when they are young, they will reward you when they are older. This is exactly what he has done."

While Addeybb has been a central figure in the success of Haggas's impressive Somerville Lodge yard in recent seasons, he is undoubtedly the horse who has lifted Marquand to stardom and the affable winning rider was full of praise for his partner.

"He's been the most special horse," said Marquand. "How can you dream of a better horse? He goes to Australia and wins two Group 1s and comes back here and shows his dominance. It's brilliant.

"He's elevated me to heights I thought I might never reach, never mind so quick in my career. So many opportunities have come because of him."

The 22-year-old said a table for two with Doyle had already been booked in advance and no doubt there will be a glass or two of champagne to celebrate, especially after he matched his partner's exploits when adding a second winner on the day when Njord triumphed for trainer Jessica Harrington in the Balmoral Handicap.

"We're in the fortunate position that things are going so well but, come on, this is ridiculous," said Marquand. "Coming to Champions Day and Hollie having two winners and then Addeybb and Njord go and win - it's genuinely a fairytale.

"I'm incredibly proud of Hollie. All she does is get up and graft everyday. I genuinely mean it, no one deserves the success more because it's all done through hard graft and a good mentality. We're both so lucky to be on this wave of success at the moment."

History maker Doyle lands first Group 1 in thrilling Champions Sprint Stakes

Hollie Doyle described her Group 1 breakthrough as “a dream come true” after Glen Shiel gamely denied Brando to win the Qipco British Champions Sprint Stakes by a nose.

Doyle had already sparked British Champions Day into life when becoming the first female jockey to win at the prestigious meeting, partnering Trueshan to annihilate the Long Distance Cup field, but her win in the Sprint, a first in Group 1 company, was a landmark moment as she joined Alex Greaves and Hayley Turner as the only women to have won a race at the highest level on the Flat in Britain.

It was also a first Group 1 for Glen Shiel's trainer Archie Watson after the six-year-old, a sprinter who raced over ten furlongs in his earlier days, went one better than his second in last month's Sprint Cup at Haydock.

A stunned Doyle said: “I’m a bit in shock at the moment. It’s a dream come true really, my aim at the start of the year was to ride a Group winner and I’ve always said I want to win a Group 1 one day – I didn’t think it would come this year.”

It was the latest watershed occasion in Doyle's meteoric rise as a jockey, with the 24-year-old breaking her own record for most winners in a calendar year by a female rider in Britain on Wednesday at Kempton.

But the quantity is now being matched by quality, with Glen Shiel Doyle's sixth Group winner of the season. It has been a campaign littered with standout days, from a first Royal Ascot winner to Group success at Newmarket's July festival and a historic 899-1 five-timer at Windsor in August.

She said: “I don’t get too carried away with it, I’m probably a bit delusional with what’s going on at the moment. It’s all been a bit of a whirlwind but it’s been a great few years.”

Doyle had a small but agonising wait for the result to be finalised, with 80-1 shot Brando thrusting late with One Master, Art Power and Oxted not far behind, but eventually the winning margin of a nose to Kevin Ryan's admirable eight-year-old was confirmed.

Trueshan

MARK CRANHAM

Doyle added: “It was too close for comfort really. I thought I hadn’t won, so to have had the result we have was incredible. Me and Oxted had a good old battle from the three-pole and I thought that I would be doing well to hold on like I did but he is such a game horse. He’s incredible.”

“He has got quicker with age. When we first got him, he was running over ten furlongs in France and didn’t show a whole lot of speed but the further we dropped him back, the quicker he got.”

Glen Shiel's extra stamina proved to be beneficial, as he made a quick start under Doyle and was there to be shot at throughout. July Cup winner Oxted and Glen Shiel's Haydock conqueror Dream Of Dreams loomed up menacingly with two furlongs to go, but their challenge faded as Glen Shiel pulled out more and then some to hold off the very late charge of Brando and One Master.

Doyle added: “Silvestre de Sousa [on Art Power] left me alone early on and I got to dictate, which doesn’t often happen in Group 1s.

“I thought the only way I could get Dream Of Dreams beat was to stay seven furlongs, to get first run on him in this ground. I kicked him in the belly at the three-pole and we had a hard old battle [with the rest].”

More Ascot glory for King as Trueshan and Doyle waltz to Long Distance Cup win

Alan King's love affair with Ascot continued as the trainer best known for his success over jumps added his latest big-race victory on the Flat at the royal racecourse thanks to Trueshan's devastating performance under Hollie Doyle in the Group 2 Qipco British Champions Long Distance Cup.

On ground better associated with winter racing over jumps, Trueshan went through the ground like a “tractor” according to Doyle, giving King another sizeable win on the Flat after a Royal Ascot treble with Scarlet Dragon, Coeur De Lion and Who Dares Wins.

King opted to stay at his Barbury Castle base in Wiltshire, where the dogs were given quite a fright as he roared home Trueshan on the television.

“It’s unbelievable,” said King. “Obviously we’d hope he would run well but we weren’t expecting something like that. You couldn’t expect that, but obviously the step up in trip suited him and we know he does handle that ground.”

“It was all over at the two pole and I think we scared the dogs in the house!”

King has made a conscious effort to expand his Flat team in recent years with the intention that the majority can one day progress to the jumps, but Trueshan has ended any possibility of a novice hurdle campaign with this emphatic seven-and-a-half-length success over dual Irish St Leger winner Search For A Song.

"Most of my Flat youngsters are bought to go over jumps, but if they're too good, they're too good and it's certainly not a problem," added the trainer.

"Win or lose it was always going to be his last run of the season. We'll put him away for the winter now and look forward to next summer and the Cup races. It's been a terrific season on the Flat and really exciting. It's great for the whole team."

Victory was the catalyst for a watershed afternoon for the winning rider, who was amazed how far clear she went on the winner.

"I have to pinch myself really, that was absolutely amazing," said Doyle, who has made more than one appearance on the BBC this week as her profile continues to go stratospheric.

"He was almost over-travelling with me, I had to stay out a bit wide for the first three furlongs and luckily I managed to slot in and get a nice position upsides Stradivarius. The further I was going, the better, and he was tanking with me – he went through the ground like a tractor, he loved it."

While Trueshan made light of what were clearly testing conditions on the round course, star stayer Stradivarius never travelled with his usual zest for Frankie Dettori and had nothing more to give turning for home, being heavily eased in the straight.

Champion trainer John Gosden said: "It was too deep and too heavy. He hated it and Frankie thought he pulled his shoes off. He was in good form but the ground was very deep down there and it would have probably been better running on the inner track."

'A magnificent performance' - The Revenant upsets Palace Pier to take QEII

Francis-Henri Graffard's patient approach with The Revenant was handsomely rewarded when the French raider upset odds-on shot

The Revenant

MARK CRANHAM

Palace Pier to win the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes.

Second in the race behind King Of Change last year, The Revenant only returned to action on Arc weekend when a comfortable winner of the Prix Daniel Wildenstein, but Graffard revealed before the QEII his absence was not due to anything untoward, merely a ploy to save him for the soft conditions he evidently thrives in. It certainly worked a treat.

Pierre-Charles Boudot had the five-year-old, previously trained by Hugo Palmer, prominent throughout and he picked up with Palace Pier to chase leader Roseman. Entering the final furlong Palace Pier wilted – a lost front shoe was possibly a contributing factor – and Boudot edged The Revenant over to eyeball Roseman, getting the better of the Roger Varian-trained longtime leader to win by a head.

Graffard, who was not at Ascot, said: "It was a magnificent performance, the horse was brilliant. It went exactly as we had planned with him settled in behind Circus Maximus and close to the pace. He picked up really well and ran all the way to the line while Pierre-Charles gave him a great ride as always.

"This has been the plan ever since he was second in the QEII last year and everything was geared around coming back.

"I had him ready to run in the spring but when lockdown came I decided to send him out to grass and he had a good spell.

"I had to wait until the Daniel Wildenstein for his comeback and he was only 80 per cent fit for that race. I was a little bit stressed that I had to work him quite hard in the run up but everything was building to today. It all worked out because he is a very good horse with a lot of heart."

For The Revenant's rider Boudot it was a first Champions Day success after going close with One Master in the sprint earlier on the card.

Boudot said: "Today I was very confident with his trainer and the horse did it well on the track.

"He loved the ground and the trip has been perfect behind Circus Maximus. My horse was very relaxed behind him and when I asked him, he gave me a nice and long turn of foot. He has been courageous on the last furlong."

It was a significant step forward for runner-up Roseman, who had hinted he was up to Group 1 level when fourth in the Queen Anne Stakes at the royal meeting, but things did not go to plan for Palace Pier, who arrived at the start with a small amount of blood in his mouth.

He was passed fit to run by a vet and travelled into the race alongside the eventual winner, but he could not continue through with his challenge and faded into third, although the lost front shoe likely did not help.

His rider Frankie Dettori said: "You can't go a mile with just one leg, you have to use both and I tried to get him to change. It was very unlikely him. Obviously you can't win a race with three wheels, you need all four."

Menuisier toasts first British Group 1 as Wonderful Tonight bags Fillies & Mares

Wonderful Tonight completed a rare Group 1 double, progressing from a top-level win at the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe meeting just two weeks earlier to run away with the Qipco British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes.

Trainer David Menuisier said he had not yet fully recovered from the celebrations after the Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp two Saturdays ago, but there was no sign of any hangover for Wonderful Tonight, who tanked to the front over three furlongs out and was not for passing from that point under William Buick.

Frenchman Menuisier and winning owner Chris Wright had toyed with supplementing the winner for the Arc and all roads will now lead to the big one in Paris next October.

"We know that she is very good," said Menuisier. "The only question mark was whether she had recuperated from the Arc weekend or not. I hadn't but I am glad she did!"

"She's top-class all round. She is easy to train and as tough as anything that is tough.

Wonderful Tonight

She is getting better and better, and there is still some improvement to come. She is still a tad keen early on, so once she really knows how to settle I think she can go up a notch again."

Pulborough-based Menuisier has started to establish his name among the leading trainers in Britain in recent years with the likes of Danceteria, Thundering Blue and Chief Ironside putting him on the big-race map around the globe.

"You never know, especially with fillies, whether they are going to train on or not, but we wanted to keep her as a four-year-old to target the Arc next year," he said.

"We nearly ran her in the Arc this year – I think she would have run a stormer – but she wasn't a Group 1 winner yet. Now she is, so the sky's the limit. I feel so lucky and blessed. We bought her at the sales as a yearling for next to nothing and she's winning her second Group 1 in two weeks."

Hollie Doyle was denied yet more Group 1 success on runner-up Dame Malliot, who ran a screamer for trainer Ed Vaughan in his last season training in Britain.

On this occasion it was Buick in the Group 1 spotlight and the winning rider backed up Menuisier's high opinion of the winner.

"She has a lot of class and the will to win to go with it," said Buick. "When conditions are there to suit her, I can't see why she shouldn't scale further heights."

It's Official, Logan and Hakim off the mark with double

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

Trainer Donna Logan's desire to combine with rising apprentice jockey Hakim Kamaruddin for a win was finally granted on Saturday, and in double dose for good measure.

Known for being a talent spotter back home, having groomed many top apprentices, Logan had been supporting fellow Kiwi Mark Walker's lad from Malaysia regularly in the last three months. Three seconds have come their way, including two with Good Luck Charm (The Factor), but that first success has proven elusive.

Until that very Good Luck Charm turned exactly that at their 11th pairing by going one better in the S$50,000 Class 4 Division 1 race over 1000m on Saturday.

Two races later, the floodgates were really and truly flung open when favourite Official (The Factor) also saluted in the S$30,000 Class 5 Division 2 race over 1700m.

And by a happy coincidence, both winners have The Factor as their sire and are also raced by champion owner Falcon Racing Stable.

To Logan, the real "factor" was the young man's polish in the saddle, helped no doubt by his three-kilo allowance as well.

"Hakim's a very capable rider. He listens to instructions, but obviously horses also run for him," said Logan.

"There's just something about him. When you watch his ride on Good Luck Charm, you could see how he didn't go eyeballing the favourite and leader (Resolution), and waited until the last 100m to get to work on him.

"He thinks about what he is doing, he will go a long way. Most of the time, it's the first time he gets on my horses as he doesn't ride them in work, but he rides them to instructions and it's very encouraging for him.

"You actually saw how he carries instructions out to the letter on Official even more. I told him this horse doesn't like kickback, and to get the best of him, he has to go around runners.

Official

"As he was drawn in three, you could see how he was thinking 'how am I going to get out?' but he did get the horse out and they won a nice race."

Indeed, Hakim, who was formerly indentured to Frank Maynard in Malaysia and has now taken his Kranji score to 19 winners, six behind reigning champion Simon Kok Wei Hoong, showed a tactical mind beyond his age at both victories.

On the class riser and five-year-old entire Good Luck Charm (S$16), the Kelantan-born rider had favourite Resolution (Toronado) in his sights from the start, and when they locked horns for a titanic duel in the home straight, Hakim went head to head against one of the most vigorous senior riders at Kranji, Louis-Philippe Beuzelin to eventually get his measure by half-a-length.

Al Green (Exchange Rate) ran third another three and a quarter lengths away. The winning time was 58.92secs for the Polytrack 1000m.

"Good Luck Charm worked very well and has taken no harm from his last run (scored at Class 5 level three weeks ago)," said Logan.

Hakim's win atop Official was carved out in more or less in the same register except he had to sweat for a run before he could be given full bore inside the last 150m.

Smothered inside runners for most of the way, the S$16 favourite exploded away to a two-length win on Success Street (Niagara) with Vesontio (Champions Gallery) in third another length away. The winning time was 1min 47.29secs for the 1700m on the Polytrack.

Good Luck Charm has now taken his budding career record to three wins, three seconds and three thirds for prizemoney around the S$120,000 mark for the Falcon Racing No 8 Stable, while Official is now a two-time winner from 20 starts for stakes earnings in excess of S$60,000 for the same connections.

Mandrake first of Argentina plane drama to score

Trainer James Peters was a happy man on Saturday after Mandrake (Not For Sale) emerged as the first winner from a pioneer group of Argentinian-breds raced by a new syndication group.

The Englishman was not so thrilled 10 months ago when the shipment was caught in the wrong place at the wrong time.

The plane they had boarded was grounded in Buenos Aires after it was searched and a stash of 80kg of cocaine was seized.

Unfortunately, the drug bust made headlines around the world, with Peters' five horses the unwitting fellow passengers to the unsavoury cargo.

That unfortunate and rather bizarre episode is now done and dusted, especially after the five stranded horses finally landed one month later than scheduled.

With four of them unraced youngsters, Mandrake, a five-year-old by Not For Sale (Parade Marshal), was by all accounts the one who would be the most likely to give the new group headed by South African racing manager Justin Vermaak a first toast to forget the Buenos Aires debacle.

After knocking on the door at his first three runs, including a closing third place to Heartening Flyer (Excelebration) in a seven-furlong race at his last start, Mandrake got right on target this time in the S$50,000 Class 4 race over 1600m.

Scraping paint worse than midfield, Mandrake looked to have the task ahead when he came off the fence for his challenge at the top of the straight with race-leader Ironchamp (Glass Harmonium) showing no signs of letting up, but under French jockey Marc Lerner's strong urgings, Peters' ward ground his way past Steven Burridge's last-start winner for a gutsy neck win.

Centenary Diamond (Kitten's Joy) must have had his supporters cheering when he zoomed up on the outside, but he could not quite match Mandrake's superior turn of foot, having to settle for third place another length and a quarter away. The winning time was 1min 34.56secs for the mile on the Short Course.

"I'm very happy for the group, especially for Justin Vermaak and all of the boys who've got shares in this new syndication," said Peters.

"This horse has improved since he's landed here. He was a bit nervous, quite keen.

"The boys at the stable have done a great job to switch him off. He's learned to be more relaxed.

"From the barrier, we thought we might go forward, but he was a bit slow at the gates, and Marc gave him a 10-out-of-10 ride.

"When he came off the fence, I really liked the way he did his best work inside the last 100m. He will get over more ground, 1600m to 1800m, and even further in time."

Mandrake

STC

Now that Mandrake has opened the account, Kranji is waiting with great anticipation for the remaining four to show what they can do.

Tesoro Pirata (Orpen) is the only one to have made his Singapore debut when he beat one home in a Restricted Maiden race over 1200m on October 3, but Peters half-expected that, confident their ability will eventually come through, just like for Pini Pons, Under Oath and Whiz Fizz.

"They are coming along nicely. Obviously, they have taken a bit of time," said Peters.

"It's only their first prep. In New Zealand and Australia, they are trialled and then put in a paddock, but they don't do that in Argentina.

"Some had to be gelded, a few small things like that happened, others got shinsore, but they are nice types and have reached a nice level of fitness."

Not at all an Unsung Hero first-up

Unsung Hero (Spirit Of Boom) surprised many when he drew clear to a resounding win first-up in the S$20,000 Open Maiden race over 1000m on Saturday, writes Sharon Zhang.

Unsung Hero was unsighted for close to 17 months since his last-start third to Surpass Natural (Elvstroem) in a Restricted Maiden race on May 31 last year when trained by New Zealand trainer Donna Logan, the five-year-old son of Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) never looked in doubt from barrier rise this time.

At his first start for his new handler Jerome Tan, the S$32 shot sat in third out wide behind S$10 favourite Mr Showman (Showcasing) and Super Pins (Pins), and was full of running when launched by apprentice jockey Iskandar Rosman turning into the straight.

The B Two Stable-owned gelding bounded past Mr Showman and Super Pins with consummate ease. He crossed the line first, three lengths clear of Lim's Bestbreaker (Battle Paint), who tried as he might, was left chasing shadows after racing at the rear.

Mr Showman hung on for third place another length away. The winning time was 59.09 secs for the 1000m on the Polytrack.

Having picked up a third and a fourth in two races last year, Unsung Hero was not without ability. He had two seconds in two trials for Tan prior to the race, but ring rustiness was still a concern to the Singaporean trainer.

"It came as quite a bit of a surprise, given that he's unraced for 17 months already," said Tan of his 14th winner this season.

"He's had a lot of issues and problems, but we slowly nursed him back to health.

"He has been working well. We knew there was a lot of pace in the race, so I discussed with Iskandar and the plan was for him to sit behind the leader.

"The owners are a bunch of good, young locals who are very supportive. They have two other horses, The Brotherhood and Sierra Conqueror (running in the last race later) with me.

"We'll see how he pulls up after this race, but for now, sprinting races are for him."

Unsung Hero's first win in three starts has taken his earnings past the $21,000 mark for the B Two Stable.

Zhongli take off with quality Inglis Ready 2 Race Sale draft

Zhongli Thoroughbreds. It's a name we, in Australia and New Zealand racing circles, are to become more and more familiar with - and earlier than what might have been anticipated.

The bloodstock operation, that began with a team of thoroughbreds trained by New Zealander Quinton Cassidy, are making their mark on Australia and building foundations to become a major player in the racing and bloodstock worlds.

"Both," beamed Cassidy, when asked if Zhongli Thoroughbreds were aiming to race Group 1 winners or sell million-dollar lots.

Their progression is set to take a further step on Tuesday, when Zhongli put through the sales ring their first Lots in Australia at Inglis's Ready 2 Race Sale.

"It's going to be interesting to see how it all proceeds so we're really looking forward to it," said Cassidy, with an evident excitement in his tone.

"Zhongli Thoroughbreds always had the plan of doing something in Australia at some point in the near future, but just under the circumstances we brought that plan forward and progressed quite rapidly."

Prepared by leading breeze up consignors Blake Ryan Racing, Glenvale Park, Mel O'Gorman Racing and Prima Park, within the 12-strong team to have burned 200 metres of track in recent weeks are quality horses by first season sires Capitalist, Shalaa, Frosted, Tivaci and the only horse in the sale by Bobby's Kitten, while a colt by leading Hong Kong sire Deep Field out of Reggae, put in a slick 10.33s breeze on the Warwick Farm synthetic.

"We're really happy with the quality of horses that we've selected and equally so with the consignors that have prepared them for us," said Cassidy.

"These have been the leading consignors from the last couple of years so they have had good success in the past.

"We're looking to offer good quality offerings at the breeze ups and that starts with purchasing the right stock. I think we've done very well there and the proof of that will be at the sale."

While Cassidy is confident in the offerings of Zhongli Thoroughbreds, he admits it's been a process full of learning curves for the fledgling operation.

"It's been a good experience for the operation. We're certainly learning a lot as we go. It's exciting, but very daunting."

But so far, so good. The first-season sires represented by the colts selected by Cassidy and Zhongli have made impressive starts, with Frosted scoring a stakes win and placing with his first two Australian runners in the Maribyrnong Trial, a Shalaa filly winning the Gimcrack, and Capitalist having his first Metropolitan winner yesterday.

Zhongli's Capitalist colt out of Behamage scorched through his breeze up at Warwick Farm on Thursday, recording the fastest time of the session at 10.20 seconds, one of three Capitalists stopping the clock within the top eight fastest breeze up times.

"I think there's something there for everyone," said Cassidy. "It's been very encouraging to see the starts of some of the first season sires. Sires that we have selected the progeny of and have been vindicated in our judgement."

"I didn't know an awful lot about Frosted but the colt we have is a lovely horse. Really well natured. The Shalaas have been really impressive while I strongly believe that there are going to be a flood of Capitalists to hit the ground running. Just from what we've seen in the trials. I think he has a very bright future as a stallion and his sire, Written Tycoon, has been flying in recent weeks."

Just like these first-season stallions, Zhongli will be looking to get off to a flier, and proof of their early success will be in Tuesday's results. But for Cassidy, he hopes it represents just the beginning for the operation, who can add further, timely celebration next week.

"I think we've done really well with these horses, quality wise, but if we can get some nice results, learn a bit in the process then we can put some foundations down to build on in the Australian market."

Lot 50 Frosted ex Meghapushpa colt (Glenvale Park)

He's probably one of the colts we're most excited about. Looking at this horse - he's a developer. He's got lovely scope to him and will make a really nice three-year-old. He has the best nature on him. And of course it helps with Frosted making an amazing start, with his winner in Melbourne, and that gives you confidence around a horse like this. He's a lovely purchase and we're very, very happy with him.

Lot 74 Pride Of Dubai ex Paris Motion colt (Mel O'Gorman Racing)

This is a beautiful colt out of Mel O'Gorman's draft. He's an eye-catcher - a real two-year-old sprinting type. Pride Of Dubai, the champion first-season sire from last year, he's another doing a great job as a young stallion.

Lot 92 Deep Field ex Reggae colt (Glenvale Park)

He was a yearling that we simply had to buy. He was quite a small, compact horse, but since he's been at Glenvale he's continuously developed. He's a very sharp horse and is a real standout. I get nervous talking about these horses as we get closer to D-Day just hoping that the sale goes well.

Lot 171 Tivaci ex Adriatico gelding & Lot 190 Tivaci ex Bewitching colt (Prima Park)

We have a couple of really nice Tivaci colts in the Prima Park draft. Two very different types of horses, but both lovely colts. The colt out of Adriatico is big, strong and very athletic. And the Tivaci ex Bewitching is a great moving colt, one with a lovely low-to-the-ground action in his hit out. A real staying type of horse. Tivaci is another first-season sire who looks quite exciting. Prima Park do a great job as well and we're really happy to have them on board in preparing our horses.

Lot 177 Shalaa ex Angasi colt

ZHONGLI THOROUGHBREDS

Lot 177 Shalaa ex Angasi colt (Glenvale Park)

This colt has quality written all over him. He's by a first season sire in Shalaa who has really hit the ground running with his first two-year-olds. We buy on type and this guy presented really well. He had quality written all over him and the fact he can run too - even better! He was a good pick and it's brilliant to see him develop into the horse he has. He has a lovely page to him too. From the family of Kermadec, Triple Elegance and Moss Trip and hopefully that stands him in good stead.

Lot 181 Bobby's Kitten ex Aqualuna colt
(Blake Ryan Racing)

He's a very nice colt, this one. I love the way he moves, he has a lovely hip action. He's a good size and always had good strength about him and he's developed into a lovely horse. He's the only Bobby's Kitten in the catalogue and I've heard a lot of good things about his sire, Kitten's Joy, and his northern hemisphere progeny have been going very well. Blake has delivered some great reports on this fella, and I'm really looking forward to him at the sale.

Lot 186 Capitalist ex Belhamage colt
(Blake Ryan Racing)

We liked this colt from the moment we laid our eyes on him. He was strong and an early running two-year-old type and it's been great to see him develop into that kind of horse. I was very impressed with his breeze this morning. It's mind blowing what these horses can do at this point. This colt was definitely a good pick for us and we're very happy with this horse.

Analysis: Class was on display here with Melody Belle overpowering her opponents in the run home to record her 12th Group 1. With a lap to run she had three behind her but rounding into the back straight Troy Harris got her away from the rails and going kindly, yet fifth last down the back. Leaving the back straight she went three wide, was handier but wide inside the 600m and was widest rounding into the home straight. From the 300m she accelerated quickly and gobbled up the field to lead at the 200m from where she was in no danger whatsoever, breezing to the line by two and three quarter lengths. Advantage had a lovely trail in third (rails) starting the back straight, back to fifth inside the 1000m but improved to second from the 400m and was ready to pounce at the top of the straight. She led narrowly near the 200m but had no answer to her stablemate to the post, holding on quite well for second. A big run from outsider Vadavar who was locked away (midfield) on the fence at the 600m, threaded his way between runners in the straight and flew into third late. There were noses between the next three with Dolcetto finishing fast to nab fourth from Two Illicit and Prise De Fer who both kept on gamely.[LJ]

Analysis: Verry Elleegant capped an amazing career in recording her sixth Group 1 victory in this established feature. She settled in 10th place, between runners, tracked up (wide with cover) from the 700m, hit the front at the 100m and then dug deep when challenged to score by a short-neck in a strong staying effort. The 2019 Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Anthony Van Dyck was eased from his wide barrier (17) after being wide early on to settle in 16th place in the 18-runner field before improving (deep) from the 700m. He then put in a strong bid in the centre of the track at the 200m, failing by only a short-head under his top weight (58.5kg) to finish a very good second at his Australian debut, his difficult barrier proving costly. The Chosen One raced in sixth place, one off the rails, improved nicely behind runners nearing the turn, got a split on straightening, briefly hit the front at the 200m and then fought gamely for a very good third. Prince Of Arran settled in 15th place from his wide barrier (15), tracked up (wide with cover) coming to the turn and finished solidly for (1.9 lengths) in a smart second-up performance. Finche settled in ninth place but caught three wide, without cover. He improved (still deep) from the 700m, challenged at the turn and then did well in fighting on for (2.4 lengths) fifth after a difficult trip. Avilius settled near the tail of the field, improved between runners from the 600m but was blocked halfway down the straight before battling on nicely for (2.6 lengths) sixth when clear. Analysis: Graff resumed for new trainer Danny O'Brien to record his first success since taking out the San Domenico Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill in August 2018. Ridden quietly by Damien Oliver he settled back in second last place, behind a quick tempo before switching deep nearing the 200m. He then came with a well-timed run to hit the front at the 50m before going on to win well. Fabergino settled in third place, but trapped three wide outside leading trio, at a quick pace. He challenged gamely in the straight and fought well for second after a testing trip. Crystal Dreamer raced in sixth place (wide with cover), moved up on turning for home and then kept fighting well for third. The favourite Alfa Oro went to the front but was pressured in front (by Jungle Edge and Fabergino). He grabbed a break at the 200m, only to fade after a hard run in the closing stages for (1.6 lengths) fourth, his first defeat in six starts. Shamino ran on nicely from last in the eight-runner field to finish (2.4 lengths) fifth with Garner (2.5 lengths) holding on for sixth. Then followed: The Closer (AUS), Pretty Brazen (AUS), Perfect Jewel (AUS), Into The Abyss (AUS) & Rich Hips (AUS), last.

Analysis: Madam Rouge took out her third Group race and her sixth win in 25 starts in winning here. Having her fourth run back after finishing second in the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) at Eagle Farm in June, she settled in fifth place on the rails from her good barrier (3) but was held up behind runners at the turn. Ben Melham steered her through a gap at the 200m, she then finished well to claim a good win. She Shao Fly raced in fourth place (one out and one back), challenged at the 200m and kept fighting well for second, beaten a neck. Felicia went to the front, set quite a reasonable tempo on the Soft 6 track and then held on well for a close-up third. The Closer raced outside the leader and held on well for (1.7 lengths) fourth with Pretty Brazen making ground without threatening for (2.1 lengths) fifth while the favourite Perfect Jewel just battled on after being handy all the way for (2.2 lengths) sixth.

Then followed: Redwood Shadow (NZ), Tour Of Duty (AUS), Cetshwayo (AUS), Celestial Sol (AUS), Mr Roger (NZ), Trodaire (AUS), The Pres (AUS) & El Santo (AUS), last.

Analysis: The New Zealand-bred colt Albarado staged a solid staying performance in scoring here, his second win in six starts and his first at stakes level. He settled just beyond midfield (wide with cover) before improving (widest of all) from the 600m. He challenged at the 200m and in a keenly contested finish he proved a bit too strong to claim victory, appreciating the advance to 2000m here. Another New Zealand-bred colt Let's Karaka Deel went forward early on and then settled nicely outside the leader (Mr Roger) at a steady pace. He was under riding at the turn and kept responding in a solid effort to take second. Hit The Shot settled near the tail of the field, improved (deep) on straightening and finished on well for a close-up third. Redwood Shadow was near last coming to the 600m, tracked up (wide with cover) rounding the turn, challenged at the 200m and kept fighting well for fourth just in advance of Tour Of Duty, who battled strongly for (0.9 lengths) fifth after being handy most of the way. Analysis: Consistent filly Chica Fuerte, who is yet to miss a placing in six starts, followed her promising third in the Edward Manifold Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) with a really good win, stepping up to 2000m on this occasion. She went to the front, travelled along nicely at a reasonable tempo before safely holding off her rivals in the straight to win comfortably. Salto Angel settled well in fifth place on the rails, was under riding on turning for home and rallied with a late run to take second in a promising effort from a filly that is still a maiden after four starts. Star Of Eden raced in fourth place (one out and one back), moved up at the turn and kept fighting well for third in another nice run from a maiden filly who was having her third start. The Godolphin-raced filly Pensato tracked the leader and eventual winner and held on well for (2.7 lengths) fourth with her stablemate and favourite Silhouette battling on quite well for (3.4 lengths) fifth. Then followed: Prime Candidate (AUS), Deprive (AUS), Tactical Advantage (AUS), Adelong (AUS), Military Zone (AUS), Irithea (AUS) & Special Reward (AUS), last.

Analysis: Stakes win two and career win seven at start 20 for Trumbull who withstood a late challenge in a tough victory here. He settled back of midfield and wide but went forward from the 600m to sit fifth in the clear. Rounding into the straight four wide he waited to challenge, accelerated quickly from the 250m and took over at the 100m then clung on by a half neck. Standout was shuffled back to eighth inside the 600m, weaved between runners in the straight then went hard when clear but too late. Ignore Fox was third last and wide rounding into the straight and kept on solidly to the line to nab third from Prime Candidate who led to the 100m but was swamped to land fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: Out of form practically all this year, fresh up Taxagano caused a major upset here, getting in the last run to add win 10 and his third stakes in a 47 starts race career. He began with them but soon drifted to settle midfield, one out, past the 1000m. He edged a little closer from the 600m but rounding into the home straight went six wide. Under a hard ride he gained steadily, got within a length at the 100m then stretched his neck out near the line in a blowout. Platoon sat midfield (rails) to the top of the straight, got out and kept up a strong run between runners for a solid and close second. Massimo improved from fifth at the 300m to lead briefly at the 100m but was outgunned while Cup Night also finished well from well back for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: Recent winner of the Theo Marks Quality (Gr 2, 1300m) at Rosehill, Wild Planet recorded another Group success here, albeit narrowly. He settled in sixth place on the rails, eased deeper and into clear running rounding the turn, challenged at the 100m and then finished best to claim victory by a short head. Morrissy began well from his good barrier (2), settled in fourth place on the rails, took a split on straightening to challenge at the 200m and then fought gamely for (short-head) second. Fifty Stars settled in seventh place, one off the rails, moved up (deep) at the turn and kept running on really well under his top weight (60kg) for third in a good second-up effort at a distance still short of his best. Morvada went to the front and fought back quite well when challenged in the straight for (2.7 lengths) fourth while the favourite Windstorm made ground, without threatening, from ninth at the turn to finish (3.1 lengths) fifth. Analysis: Saving ground all the way, Think It Over got a lovely rails run in the straight and once in the lead was able to hold on quite comfortably for his maiden stakes win and fourth overall. He shared second (rails) to the 1000m, sat fourth to the straight entrance and got a lovely run down along the fence at the 300m. Once in front at the 200m he was in no danger, away by a length and a quarter at the line. Nettoyer made a sharp forward move from the 800m, sat sixth but three wide at the top of the straight then finished well for second. Vanna Girl also put in a sustained run from well back at the 400m to land third from Scarlet Dream who was shuffled back to fourth last (rails) at the 400m but kept on well along the inner for fourth. Then followed: Motivation (NZ), London Express (NZ), Go Nicholas (NZ), Spring Tide (NZ), Magnum (NZ), Sheezallmine (NZ), Our Alley Cat (NZ), Donna Anne Billy (NZ) & True Enough (NZ), last.

Analysis: A promising fresh up third in open company here two weeks ago, Hypnos just lasted for his fourth win and maiden stakes at start 21. He sat wide and back down the back and from the 600m was three wide and midfield. Gaining quickly rounding into the straight his momentum got him the lead at the 200m and to the line was all out to hold on by a short head. Rock On Wood was fourth last (rails) inside the 600m, moved out starting the run home and got clear at the 200m before rattling home to just miss. Vigor Winner caught the pacemaker at the 200m then fought well to hold third from Motivation who tracked the winner into the straight but took longer to wind up, running on into fourth.[LJ]

Then followed: Saltpeter (AUS), Fender Bender (AUS), Torbreck (AUS), Just A Tribute (AUS), Loca (AUS), Itzhot (AUS), Out To Win (AUS) & Miraitowa (AUS), last.

Analysis: The Godolphin-raced colt Endanger, a winner of a maiden (1200m) at Cranbourne in July when racing on debut, resumed at his second run back to record a good victory at stakes level here. He settled nicely in fifth place on the rails from a strong barrier draw (2), improved to third approaching the turn, moved up at the 200m and then finished strongly over the closing stages for a good win, running the 1400m out well. Osamu went to the front as anticipated, travelled well at a reasonable tempo, grabbed a break nearing the 200m and briefly looked the winner before fading slightly over the latter stages for second at his first attempt beyond 1200m. So Let's Toast was back in last place approaching the turn, improved between runners at the 300m and then made late ground to take third, finishing just in front of Saltpeter who held on for fourth after being a handy third on the rails at the turn. Then followed: Newsreader (AUS), Nicci's Fling (AUS), Obvious Step (AUS), Bargain (NZ), Only Mine (AUS), Darling Diamond (AUS), Zero To Hundred (AUS) & Time Is Precious (AUS), last.

Analysis: With a Group 2 and a Listed placing leading into this Forbidden Love deservedly broke through for her maiden stakes win here. One of the leaders early she was headed until the 1000m then took over, bowling along comfortably to the top of the straight where she was almost caught. From the 300m she accelerated, went two lengths clear at the 200m and to the line had enough in reserve to hold them at bay by a neck for win three at start seven. Joviality had two behind her at the 1000m, went three wide around the curve to be a handy sixth near the last corner then kept up a solid run in the straight but could not peg back the winner. Elizabeel was well back starting the run home, was trapped to the 200m, pulled out then finished well for third from the only maiden in the race, Newsreader, who tracked the winner into the straight then kept going well to hold fourth. Analysis: The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained filly California Zimbol recorded her fifth win in 11 starts and her third at stakes level in scoring a good win here. Having her second run this preparation, she settled nicely outside the leader (From Within), got to the front at the 200m and then fought back gamely for a narrow but good win. The favourite Fituese raced in third place, tracking the eventual winner before moving up to challenge her approaching the 200m. She then battled well all the way to the post for second, beaten a half-neck. Prophet's Thumb raced back in sixth place, improved behind runners on straightening, got a split at the 200m and then ran on well for third finishing just in front of Humma Humma who was a handy fourth on the rails most of the way before battling on to retain that position, beaten 1.9 lengths with the leader From Within holding on for (2.3 lengths) fifth. Analysis: Making his first attempt at stakes class a winning one, Indian

Pacific also maintained his first class record with now six wins and two third placings in eight career starts. He sat a length back and outside the pace when they settled and maintained his position rounding into the straight. Approaching the 200m, second was looking likely but the leader weakened and he ranged alongside inside the 50m then edged into the lead just short of the line. Mervyn held a length lead to the top of the straight, went a further length clear soon after but weakened over the last 50m to fall into second. Stageman sat fifth (rails) at the 300m, got out and ran home strongly for third from Laverrod who was third turning in then battled away to hold fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: A rousing finish from the favourite It's Me whose chances looked grim at the 300m but somehow she got out and flew to the line in a terrific winning effort to maintain her unbeaten record in four starts. She was slow away to settle fourth last (one out) and starting the 600m moved out but ran straight into a pocket. To the 300m she had nowhere to go, Jason Collett pulled the left rein and she wobbled, balanced then went hard after the leaders. Still with three lengths to make up at the 200m she then devoured her opponents, levelled up and drove into the lead just short of the post. Redouble sat midfield (rails) to the top of the straight, got a split along the fence and raced up to lead at the 100m but did not see the winner (wider out) flash past late. Man Of Peace led them in, still led at the 200m but was caught at the 100m then fought to hold third from Handle The Truth who was third at the 400m then battled hard for fourth.[LJ]

Then followed: Trekking (AUS), Haut Brion Her (AUS), Santa Ana Lane (AUS), Nature Strip (AUS), Libertini (AUS), Tofane (NZ), Behemoth (AUS), Eduardo (AUS) & Dollar For Dollar (AUS), last.

Analysis: A perhaps unlucky sixth in this race last year, Classique Legend bounded into the lead near the 100m and raced away for an impressive victory over the best sprinters in the land, taking out his sixth win in 12 lifetime starts. He began well but sat wide before being restrained to be one off the fence back of midfield. A fast pace had the field strung out and he was giving up 15 lengths past the 600m but had a clear view at the top of the straight. Once balanced he made rapid progress, got within two lengths at the 200m then bounded into the lead only to race away for a big win. Bivouac sat third last past the 600m, found space at the 300m then put in some big strides but much too late to grab a good second inside the last 50m. From midfield at the 400m Gytrash also ran on well, doing his best work at the line for third. Trekking flashed into fourth late from Haut Brion Her who from third at the 100m was swamped late in finishing fifth with Santa Ana Lane sixth and Nature Strip fading to finish (3.8 lengths) seventh after chasing the leader Eduardo to the home turn.[LJ]

VERDICT This can go to SKY GEM, who was strong in the closing stages when third to Strapping Bauhinia over 1m1f at Happy Valley last month and ought to be seen to better effect over today's longer trip. Home Win has posted two good efforts since dropped to this grade and is second choice, ahead of You Have My Word.

VERDICT Cases can be made for a few of these but COPARTNER ERA must have entered a few notebooks when fifth over C&D three weeks ago, having persistently been denied a clear run in the home straight. He remains unexposed over 7f and it's no surprise to see that Joao Moreira has moved in to take the ride. Nordic Warrior ran well here last month but it looks significant that Zac Purton has ditched him in favour of class-dropper Merrygowin. Neil Callan's mount More Than Enough also gets a mention.

VERDICT High-class sprinter Hot King Prawn won this race in 2018 and ought to be a tough nut to crack but up-and-coming 4yo COMPUTER PATCH collected a 5f Group 3 handicap pretty easily this month and is selected to maintain his progress. Voyage Warrior also has a significant role to play.

VERDICT The most appealing option is unexposed 5yo FAST PACE, who made an encouraging seasonal debut when upped to 1m here last month and, with Joao Moreira now enlisted, probably has a bigger run in him. Ezra and Bulletproof both made back up in trip after running well over 7f on their seasonal debuts and are others to consider, along with class-dropper Decisive Action.

VERDICT Frankie Lor's 6yo TRIPLE TRIPLE found himself trapped in a pocket from 2f out until inside the final furlong when fifth over C&D three weeks ago and could be hard to beat in this lower-grade event if he gets a clear run this time. Sparky Star bettered his low-key debut when third over 7f here in June and can progress again if today's drop in trip suits. Above All made a promising debut here last month and is also afforded significant respect.

VERDICT The two top weights are smart yardsticks at this level, but there are better-weighted improvers lurking below. Dollar Reward, Sunny And Gold, Hero Star and Resolute head that list. It is only the draw which earns HERO STAR the vote ahead of Sunny And Gold, who caught could be caught out wide with no cover. The selection's work on this surface suggests he could be better for making the switch to dirt.

VERDICT Hong Kong racing wants to herald a new champion with the current top-of-the-tree stars aging or injured. So Hong Kong Derby winner Golden Sixty will be hugely popular if he can win and take another step to stardom. As usual he won't be any price, so for betting purposes and each-way play on SOUTHERN LEGEND, no spring chicken himself, might be the way to go. Ran nicely behind Golden Sixty on his return and will be more effective with this extra furlong.

VERDICT A fascinating contest where the suggestion is to side with top weight Circuit Six, whose Australian form should bear the closest scrutiny starting in Hong Kong at this level. The unbeaten Winning Dreamer impressed last time, and could be a big danger, while Chicken Dance and Glorified Fire are other potential contenders. [Jonathan Doidge]

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Armor Star, Circuit Hassler, 9-2 Heza Beauty, President's Choice, 15-2 The Hulk, 12 Marvel Dragon, 14 Smart Patch, 20 Gift Of Lifeline, Top Score, 25 Charizard, Romantic Combo, 33 Taking Aim, Telecom Elite, 50 A A Agility.

VERDICT The good form of Circuit Hassler and the collateral provider by his running with both Heza Beauty and Armor Star suggests that all three should again be very competitive. However, preference is for PRESIDENT'S CHOICE, for whom this step up in trip should help him find sufficient improvement to win again. The Hulk is not ruled out. [Jonathan Doidge]
