Rommel colt sets new Book 2 Perth benchmark

Parnham steps up to snag Mogumber Park's $180,000 yearling at Magic Millions Yearling Sale

Lot 228: Rommel ex Snow Pixie colt

MAGIC MILLIONS

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

One of Western Australia's most respected trainers Neville Parnham has provided a firm vote of confidence in young local stallion Rommel (Commands) after paying a Book 2 record of $180,000 for one of his second crop sons at the Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale yesterday.

The second session, once again dominated by the Western Australian buyers, was also a glowing endorsement of the local racing and breeding industry in which a clearance rate of 95 per cent was achieved at the close of the day, continuing the bull market conditions evident so far this year.

Mogumber Park stand Rommel and were also responsible for selling the top-priced colt, whose price surpassed the previous Book 2 benchmark of $140,000 set last year for a yearling by Playing God (Blackfriars), to Parnham.

“To have a horse by a relatively young stallion fronting up in that environment and walking out with the sale-topper for day two was just brilliant,” Brown said.

“What I do know is Neville (Parnham) has a big rap on the Rommels. He said to me the other day - and part of it might be tongue-in-cheek - in terms of he would have every one if he could.

“He really likes them and he did something similar with Playing God who he really liked, so he supported his progeny and he has done the same with Rommel.

“I haven’t found out who the under bidder was, but I know there were a lot of good stables and judges on him.”

From the second crop of Rommel, who is already the sire of the Parnham-trained two-year-old winner Ultimate Command this season, he is a brother to the David Harrison-trained Pixie Chix who is favourite to win race three at Ascot today.

His dam Snow Pixie (Snitzel) was unraced but she is from the family of Singapore stakes winner Hughsey (Henny Hughes) and European stakes winner Shemima (Dalakhani), the champion older female stayer in Great Britain in 2009. He was catalogued as Lot 228.

“Dragon, is what we called him because our kids name them every year from different themes,” Brown said of his standout Rommel colt.

“If any horse deserves it, it’s him because he’s been the absolute nicest horse to do anything with from day one.

“If there was ever a challenging situation we’d test it out with him. He was the first to go on the yearling walk and all those sorts of things, so it is nice for him as well.”

The Book 2 banner horse was one of eight yearlings to make $100,000 or more yesterday, which saw the average climb 28 per cent year-on-year to $40,922 while the median of $35,000 was up from $28,000 in 2020.

The figures, which came after a strong Book 1 sale, which was on par with last year despite the lack of interstate buyers on the complex this year, left Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch with a great sense of satisfaction.

“Not only is it the investment that Magic Millions has made, it’s the work RWWA (Racing Wagering Western Australia) have put into this industry through prize-money, Westspeed and stimulating ownership and as a result the buyers have turned out,” Bowditch said last night.

“THERE IS NO OTHER WAY OF PUTTING IT OTHER THAN IT EXCEEDED ALL OUR EXPECTATIONS. IT WAS AN EXTREMELY STRONG MARKET AND IT’S REFLECTING WHAT’S HAPPENING IN THE EAST - BARRY BOWDITCH

“The local market has turned out today, which all validates the investment we are making and obviously gives the breeders confidence to continue to strive for better each year. It’s a fantastic day with a clearance rate of some 95 per cent and I think today’s trade is up $1 million on last year, which is hugely significant.”

MAGIC MILLIONS TASMANIAN YEARLING SALE | CARRICK

Monday 22 February commencing 12 noon AEDT - 11am AEST - 11.30am ACDT - 9am AWST

www.magicmillions.com.au

<< Continued from page 2 He added: "There is no other way of putting it other than it exceeded all our expectations. It was an extremely strong market and it's reflecting what's happening in the East.

"There's a great craving for people to be involved in this industry and invest in it and seemingly that happened again here today."

Scenic and Snippetson come to the fore in Book 2

Meanwhile, Scenic Lodge's Snippetson (Snippet) was the leading Book 2 sire, with nine progeny selling for a combined $636,000 yesterday at an average of $70,667, while Demerit (Lonhro) had the most go through, with 13 yearlings selling.

The vendor of a $200,000 Snippetson filly on Thursday, a record for Scenic Lodge and the stallion, general manager Jeremy Smith believes the Book 2 session was a big tick for the WA industry after his operation completed a 100 per cent clearance with 13 lots finding new homes at an average of $53,423.

"The locals have been fantastic, which we were hoping for leading into it, because they haven't been able to get some of the other sales," Smith said.

"Although we had a lack of eastern states representation, the local buyers were absolutely through the roof and it is probably the Westspeed scheme and those sort of things (have stimulated interest).

"The Swan Valley complex is a great place to sell horses, it's a lovely set-up and it's great for us as we're just down the road, so that's an added bonus."

Claire Williamson, who was formerly involved with Mungrup Stud until its dispersal last year, traded under the Willaview Park this week and sold a filly by Playing God for $130,000 yesterday to Bridge Patrol Lodge.

"It was probably a little bit above expectations, but she was a beautiful filly and a lot of people liked her, so I am not surprised by the price she made," Williamson said.

"I feel like she probably should have been in on the first day, to be honest, that is the kind of calibre of filly she is.

"Overall, I think the average is very good and everybody I have seen is pretty happy and I am definitely walking away happy."

Another vendor looking to the future after a strong Perth sale is Rangeview Stud's Robert Gray who sold the brother to Karrakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Hobart Jones (So Secret) for $110,000 to Commercial Bloodstock Services.

Offered by Rangeview Stud as Lot 245, the colt is the 11th foal out of good producer Tribulot (Tribu), herself a five-time winner, who has four winners to her credit led by Hobart Jones.

Barry Bowditch

"I am very proud of the horse and the mare has been a great broodmare for us. She just keeps delivering," Gray said.

"When we left home I would have said (he) probably wouldn't make that, but as the sale evolved I got the feeling that he could make a substantial amount. Interestingly, this one is very similar to Hobart Jones, the Karrakatta Plate winner, through the dam sire Tribu. There is more Tribu in this horse than a couple of the others. Hobart Jones was plucked from the similar area of the gene pool, let's say."

As for the overall sale, Gray said: "I think every breeder in Western Australia should thank Magic Millions for the job that they do and the venue they have provided.

"If we can present our horses well, the opportunity is there for us. As long as we keep up our end of the bargain, we should do well. Magic Millions have been fantastic for us."

For the Magic Millions staff and a number of buyers, their attention quickly moves on to Monday's Tasmanian Yearling Sale. "We are now on the quick back-up and very much looking forward to the Tasmanian Yearling Sale on Monday at Quercus Park on the outskirts of Launceston," Bowditch said.

"The Tasmanian Yearling Sale has a remarkable record of producing star racehorses and we look forward to the race night on Sunday and sales on Monday."

Inspections for the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale also start next week.

RESULTS ANALYSIS: OUR TEAM OF EXPERTS DISSECT THE WEEKEND'S ACTION

Lot 257

Breeding: Dissident - Across The Moon (Stratum) filly

Price: $120,000

Buyer: Roy Rogers Racing

Vendor: Western Breeders Alliance (Darling View Thoroughbreds)

One of the eye-catchers of the second session was the Dissident (Sebring) filly who received a significant pedigree update in recent weeks when Rocketing By (So You Think) upstaged more fancied rivals to take out the $1 million Inglis 3YO Sprint (1200m) at Randwick. In-form trainer Roy Rogers, a prolific buyer at the Perth sale with ten acquisitions, bought the filly. Darling View Thoroughbreds' Brent Atwell, part of leading vendor Western Breeders Alliance, revealed that the filly was another horse born on the east coast before returning to the west. "I have always loved the filly and, ultimately, timing is everything with Rocketing By winning the (Inglis) Sprint," Atwell said. "I stirred the Magic Millions boys up all the time because I thought she was a day one horse, but it shows that good horses will sell on either day."

Lot 224

Breeding: Snippetson - Secret Nova (So Secret) filly

Price: $100,000

Buyer: Bridge Patrol Lodge

Vendor: Scenic Lodge

David Harrison, the trainer of top money-spinning filly Gemma's Son (Snippetson), the winner of the Magic Millions WA 2YO (RL, 1200m) and 3YO (RL, 1200m) double in the past two seasons, has given himself a chance of striking lightning twice after buying another daughter of Snippetson on day two of the Perth sale. "I just want running sort of horses, balanced sort of horses and she was a beautifully balanced filly," Harrison said. "The market has been pretty strong and I made sure I saw her three times as I always go back and double check."

MAGIC MILLIONS

Lot 209

Breeding: Safeguard - Puteri Jewel (Demerit) filly

Price: $80,000

Buyer: Pearce Racing

Vendor: Willow Dale Farm

The Safeguard (Exceed And Excel) filly was signed for under the Pearce Racing banner of trainers Ben and Daniel Pearce but the syndicate behind the yearling is in fact the brothers' respective wives, Chloe and Danelle, who are hoping to win the WA Magic Millions women's bonus next year. "One of the main reasons we were so keen on the filly was that she was by Safeguard, the sire of Policiere, who has done so well for the boys (Pearce brothers)," Danelle Pearce said.

HISTORY IS BEING WRITTEN

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Tough Snitzel filly Macroura takes out Typhoon Tracy

Leading Melbourne jockey Jamie Kah continued her white-hot form in the saddle last night at Moonee Valley driving Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) filly Macroura to a tough victory over Rainbiel (Toronado) in the Typhoon Tracy Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m). It was Kah's 20th stakes success and 66th metropolitan winner for the season so far. "It looked like we were going to be stuck wide early," Kah said following the quarter-length win. "I didn't really want to push mine and dig her out of her comfort zone but she got a bit stirred up when that leader crossed and it got a bit messy for a few strides. She picked herself up, she was tough, she was at her top a long way out but she just kept digging in." Macroura, winner of the Woodlands Stakes (Listed, 1100m) last season, has now won four of her eight starts and co-trainer David Eustace, who was on hand last night, commended Kah on her handling of the filly. "Jamie did the right thing and just sat off the leader who was obviously going very quick," Eustace, who trains in partnership with Ciaron Maher, said. "I thought she was very patient at the top of the straight and she didn't go for her straight away and just let her go through her gears which she's good at. Fair play to the filly, she is incredibly tough. She hasn't been easy." Eustace said that a number of suitable options now beckon for Macroura in either Melbourne, Sydney or Adelaide.

Enthaar passed fit for Blue Diamond

After some nervous moments, connections of raging Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) favourite Enthaar (Written Tycoon) breathed a huge sigh of relief when she was passed fit to run by Racing Victoria Stewards after a veterinary inspection yesterday morning. Ciaron Maher said he was never in doubt that the filly was fit to run, especially after her work on Thursday after which he said: "She worked this morning, moving lovely. We trotted her up and as far as I am concerned, she is moving no different to normal." After a third veterinary inspection, the Lloyd Kennewell-trained maiden colt Marine One (Capitalist) was cleared to take his place in the field, having also showing signs of lameness. Meanwhile, Grahame Begg made the decision yesterday morning to withdraw his unbeaten filly Dosh (Rich Enuff) from Victoria's premier two-year-old race due to a bruised heel.

Enthaar

Confidence high in Godolphin trio

James Cummings is confident his trio of juveniles can feature at the business end of today's Blue Diamond Stakes, the season's first two-year-old Group 1 at Caulfield. Cummings will saddle up unbeaten filly Arcaded (Street Boss), winner of the Blue Diamond Preview (Fillies) (Gr 2, 1100m), as well as last Saturday's Talindert Stakes (Listed 1000m) winner Ingratiating (Frosted) and Merson Cooper Stakes (Listed, 1000m) winner Anamoe (Street Boss). The latter finished runner-up in the Blue Diamond Prelude (C&G)

(Gr 3, 1100m) and Cummings said Anamoe has every chance despite his wide draw (15). "His efforts to date have been excellent and his Prelude performance was outstanding. From the draw, we can visualise him getting into plenty of open space and hitting the line with gusto." On Arcaded, Cummings added: "She has graduated to the Blue Diamond in brilliant fashion. Gate one is precisely the barrier Arcaded started from when she pulverised her rivals on debut. The filly's follow-up win in the Prelude revealed she'd improved and with that experience under her belt there's every reason to believe she is capable of going ahead again." Ingratiating is the first stakes winner for his freshman sire Frosted (Tapit). "His Talindert victory last week was quite the powerful piece of work for this Blue Diamond," continued Cummings. "He's had the benefit of four race starts, giving him a slight edge in experience. He continues to please and continues to improve."

Hanseatic stronger on Oakleigh Plate return

Last season's Blue Diamond runner-up, Hanseatic (Street Boss), will take his chance in today's Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) at Caulfield after an extended spell induced by a bleed sustained when the colt finished second in the Blue Sapphire Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) in October last year. However, co-trainer Sam Freedman believes the three-year-old has taken benefit from the track absence. "The long break he had to have after he bled in the Blue Sapphire may have been the best thing that could have happened for him," Freedman, who trains in partnership with his father Anthony, said. "It was the longest time he'd ever had in the paddock and he put on a lot of muscle as a result. He's fit and ready and this is his target race for this preparation."

Ancestry deserves Group 1 shot

Philip Stokes believes his four-year-old Ancestry (The Brothers War) is fully deserving of his Group 1 berth, despite appearing down in the betting for the Caulfield feature. Ancestry, the winner of his last four starts who has amassed a record of eight wins in 13 career runs, claimed the Century Stakes (Listed, 1000m) on his final appearance last spring. "He's just been well placed the whole way through, he's worked his way through the grades and he goes there in good order," Stokes told Racing.com. "I've got him more forward than last preparation going into his first-up run, which I need to do because it's a Group 1 and a high-pressure race," Stokes said. "I'm very happy with the horse but this is a Group 1, last time kicking off was a Benchmark run but he deserves his chance."

Patience to be rewarded with Brazen colt

James Cummings is hoping his patience with Brazen Beau (I Am Invincible) colt Conceited will pay off when the three-year-old lines up in today's Zeditave Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield. "We have been patient with this handsome son of Brazen Beau," said Cummings. "There is no doubting his ability from his two-year-old performances and we are hopeful our patience will reap rewards." Bought by Godolphin for $625,000 out of the 2019 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Conceited has just the three racecourse starts, most recently seen flashing home for third in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) in January last year. Cummings will also be represented by Street Boss (Street Cry) gelding Valaquenta. "His recent trial pleased us," the Godolphin trainer continued. "He's proven himself the Melbourne way of going and we did not hesitate to accept for this suitable contest. He has performed at this level previously."

3 C EXCEED AND EXCEL - BONNIE MAC BY THORN PARK

TRAINER:
 PETER MOODY

SALE:
 2019 MAGIC MILLIONS GOLD COAST YEARLING SALE
 V: NEWGATE FARM
 P: STEPHEN GRAY, $125,000

RACE:
 ZEDITAVE STAKES (GR 3, 1200M), CAULFIELD

The Peter Moody-trained Oxley Road (Exceed And Excel) burst onto the scene in emphatic fashion when taking out the Tick Homes Maiden Plate (1000m) on debut at Flemington on January 29 and the three-year-old brother to Exceedance will bid to remain unbeaten when upped in class today.

Appearing on a particularly damp Melbourne weekend, with the Flemington track rated a Heavy 9, Oxley Road showed plenty of similar traits to his Coolmore Stud Stakes- (Gr 1, 1200m) winning brother, and Moody is keen to challenge him in stakes company.

Bought by Singapore-based Kiwi trainer Stephen Gray from the 2019 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Oxley Road was acquired by Moody after Gray gave him the opportunity to train him.

"Stephen said 'Try him and if he's good, keep him there and if he's not, he can come to Singapore'," Moody told Racing.com after his debut performance, before adding: "You're not getting him Steve."

No doubt Gray, who remains one of the owners of Oxley Road, will be keeping a close eye on today's proceedings.

As will owner/breeder Steve Allam, who could be in for a windfall at this year's Inglis Easter Sale, having purchased the dam Bonnie Mac (Thorn Park) when in foal to Capitalist (Written Tycoon) for $375,000 out of the Magic Millions Broodmare Sale in May 2019, a mere fortnight after Exceedance's maiden win and six months before he claimed his crowning Group 1, with that Capitalist colt due to be sold at this year's Riverside yearling auction.

Godolphin pair in Slipper show

Godolphin pair Paulele (Dawn Approach) and Zethus (Exceed And Excel) will look to stake their claim as Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) prospects when lining up in today's Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) at Rosehill. Dawn Approach (New Approach) colt, Paulele, is unbeaten in two starts, backing up a two-length debut win at Moonee Valley with a convincing win in Sydney prior to Christmas. "His track performances, unbeaten in two starts, have stamped him as a colt with above-average ability," said Cummings. "Saturday's contest presents a new level and he will have to be on his game to be competitive in this classy contest." Meanwhile Zethus, winner of the Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) last month, will jump from barrier seven in the nine-runner contest. "He comes here with race fitness on his side and has continued to improve," said Cummings. "His last-start victory showed us he knows how to win and a repeat of that determined finish, to win the Canonbury, will see him delight his supporters." Cummings will also line up Asiago (Medaglia D'Oro) in the Millie Fox Stakes (Gr 2, 1300m) at Rosehill. "This mare has improved with every preparation. Her first-up form is excellent and it would be no surprise to see her fighting out the finish," he added.

Pretty Woman dashes in Opal Preview

The Matthew Dale-trained Pretty Woman (Written Tycoon) raised hopes of a locally-trained Black Opal Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner as the two-year-old led from start to finish in yesterday's Black Opal Preview (1000m) at Canberra. Despite an onslaught of inter-state challengers, the filly defeated the Richard and Michael Freedman-trained Glistening (Zoustar) by one and three-quarter lengths, with a further four lengths back to third-placed Bruckner (Snitzel) for Aquis Farm and trainers Ciaran Maher and David Eustace.

Tasmania opens border to Victoria

The Tasmania border was last night reopened to Victorians after it was shut following a snap five-day lockdown in Victoria due to a Covid-19 outbreak emanating from hotel quarantine. The Tasmanian government's decision to downgrade Victoria to "low risk" and re-open the border will allow Victorian buyers to attend Monday's Magic Millions Tasmanian Yearling Sale.

Mare with Written Tycoon colt at foot goes online

Divine Power (Power) will be one of the more sought-after lots on offer in the Inglis Digital February (Late) Sale, which began yesterday. The mare, who won three times in her career, including as a two-year-old, was Group 3-placed in her native New Zealand. To add to her appeal, she has a Written Tycoon (Iglesia) colt at foot and is offered in foal to Street Boss. The sale features 156 horses in training, 70 broodmares, 19 yearlings and one stallion - Spiritjim (Galileo), a Group 2 winner in France - consigned by Sun Stud. The final countdown of bidding commences at 3pm on Wednesday, February 24. Click here to view the catalogue.

All-Star Mile top ten released

West Australian champion Arcadia Queen (Pierro) lived up to her name as she topped the public vote to find the first ten horses who will take their place in the field for next month's $5 million All-Star Mile (1600m). Six individual Group 1 winners made the top ten with Arcadia Queen's 15,105 votes leaving her clear of Behemoth (All Too Hard) (14,699) and Probabeel (Savabeel) (14,503). Russian Camelot (Camelot), Sir Dragonet (Camelot) and Mr Quickie (Shamus Award) were the other Group 1 winners to make the final field. The Kris Lees-trained Mugatoo (Henrythenavigator) was the unlucky contender to finish in 11th after attracting 2,313 fewer votes than tenth placed Mr Quickie. Team Hawkes' multiple Group 1 winner Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) (3,841 votes) and Lindsay Park's Crosshaven (Smart Missile) (3,087) were the next best finishers, but both will get a second chance to earn their place in the All-Star Mile when they line up in today's Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield. This year's All-Star Mile attracted a record 147,830 votes, an increase on the 135,097 votes cast in 2020.

Jump-out for Russian Camelot

All-Star Mile-bound Russian Camelot took his next step towards the valuable contest when taking part in an 800-metre jump-out at Flemington yesterday. Having finished sixth on the All-Star Mile voting leaderboard after collecting a total of 8,460 votes, connections decided against running in the Futurity Stakes and will instead go into the March 13 race first-up. "I think we've done enough with him, he could've easily run this weekend if we really wanted to but opted to trial him this morning instead on the course proper," the dual Group 1 winner's trainer Danny O'Brien told Racing.com. "We have got another a few weeks to give him a couple more gallops but there will be no excuses fitness wise by the time we get there." Russian Camelot is set to be O'Brien's first runner in the All-Star Mile and the trainer continued: "It's nice to know he is going to be in the field and obviously it is a plan we have had in mind for a good while since the spring and getting into the field is a big part of it. It seems to have really given the autumn another focus point to get excitement building and hopefully we can play a big part in it this year."

Vow And Declare set for Easter return

Russian Camelot was not the only Danny O'Brien-trained star on show at Flemington yesterday, with 2019 Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner Vow And Declare (Declaration Of War) also lining up in the same 800-metre jump-out as he edges closer to his return to action in the Easter Cup (Gr 3, 2000m) at Caulfield on April 3. "He's had a quiet summer down at Thirteenth Beach and only came down to Flemington yesterday and seemed bright," O'Brien said. "Vow (and Declare) was just there to have an easy trial. He is about a month behind where Russian is at fitness wise, he jumped well and was fresh and up on the speed but he got left a bit late in the trial but really pleased he was keen and wanted to be back. He was just plain in the spring for a horse who has been so consistent for the rest of his career so we have given him a long break to hopefully reset any niggles which might have been holding him back."

League identity chasing Brisbane win

Rugby League personality Phil Gould will be hoping his filly League (Star Witness) can record her first in the win column in the opening race at Eagle Farm today. Trained by Bryan Guy and his son Daniel, the filly was a $30,000 purchase out of Adelaide's Magic Millions Yearling Sale, and has so far not troubled the judge in two starts, finishing sixth on each occasion. However, connections believe the two-year-old, out of a half-sister to Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Eagle Way (More Than Ready), can feature over the Brisbane carnival. "Her mother Sweet Eagle is a half-sister to Eagle Way, who I trained to win a Queensland Derby before he went to Hong Kong," Bryan Guy said. "I've known Gus (Gould) a long time, ever since he was playing for Canterbury Bankstown in Sydney, and I've trained a couple of horses for him over the years with the odd winner. From the alley she'll go a lot better and I'm expecting her to be very competitive. She's bred to go a lot further and, if she races well, I'll look at some of the bigger winter races with her."

Queensland carnival gets prize-money boost

The new-look Queensland Winter Racing Carnival, staged over ten Saturdays, is set to feature record breaking prize-money, it was announced yesterday. A total of $20.5 million will be on offer with eight Group 1 contests among the 53 black-type races. The $5 million Stradbroke Handicap race day at Eagle Farm will scale new heights as the headline act for the Winter Carnival and will feature three $1 million races: the $1.5 million Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m), the inaugural $1.2 million Q22 (Gr 2, 2200m) and the $1 million JJ Atkins (Gr 1, 1600m). "Queensland's flagship racing carnival will transform in 2021 with record-breaking prize money, exciting new races and even more reasons to come to the Sunshine State," Racing Queensland chairman Steve Wilson said. Elsewhere in the carnival, the Doomben 10,000 (Gr 1, 1200m) and the BRC Sires' Produce (Gr 2, 1400m) will enjoy prize-money increases to $1 million apiece, while the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) and Tattersall's Tiara (Gr 1, 1400m) will also receive a prize-money boost to $600,000.

Laming fined and handed three-month ban

Richard Laming will continue training under a stay of proceedings after appealing the three-month suspension he received after taking Iam Ekstraordinary (Ekraar) to the races with an elevated level of cobalt in its system. Laming, who had been previously found not guilty of the more serious administration charge, had pleaded guilty to a charge regarding presentation and for not having an updated treatment book. The elevated cobalt reading from Iam Ekstraordinary came before he finished fifth of seven runners in a maiden at Ballarat in May 2018. Handing down the suspension penalty, Victorian Racing tribunal judge John Bowman described Laming's stable practices as "shambolic". "There was a real lack of checks and balances in your system," Bowman said. "This is not a situation of one slip made in an otherwise well-run and carefully operated stables." In addition to his suspension, Laming was fined $1,000 for failing to keep proper records.

Taree moved to Scone

Tomorrow's Taree meeting, featuring the Mid North Coast Racing Association Country Championship heat (1400m), has been transferred inland to Scone in the Hunter Valley. Racing NSW officials yesterday announced the transfer of the important meeting due to the Taree surface being deemed unsuitable for racing. Stewards inspected neighbouring coastal tracks but also found them unsafe for racing, prompting the decision to transfer to Scone.

NEW ZEALAND

Aquair steps up Sunline campaign

Regally-bred filly Aquair (Ocean Park) will head to Ellerslie today in preparation for a tilt at the Sunline Vase (Gr 3, 2100m) next month. The Cody Cole-trained three-year-old is a half-sister to Group 1 winners Loire (Redoute's Choice) and A Touch Of Ruby (Pins), and her connections are keen for the daughter of Ocean Park (Thorn Park) to add further black type to her pedigree page. She placed in her two initial starts before recording her maiden win at Matamata last month over a mile. She drops back in distance to 1500 metres in the Ecochill 1500 today after Cole had to rejig his plans with her after she tied-up last month. "It is a big step-up tomorrow (Saturday)," Cole said. "The 1500 metres is probably not really ideal for her, she just had a wee setback and that kind of changed our plans a bit. She just tied up a couple of times. She had never done it before and I am not quite sure what that was about. It was just a little niggler, it was nothing major, she has not done it since. But we missed a gallop. We were supposed to go to Matamata, which didn't happen anyway, so nothing was really lost there."

All in order for Platinum Invador at Ellerslie

Central Districts stayer Platinum Invador (Redwood) has a number of factors in his favour when he contests the Wallen Concreting Avondale Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) at Ellerslie today. The Lisa Latta-trained five-year-old is a $7 second favourite for the staying handicap, which will be used as a springboard to the Auckland Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) on March 13. Platinum Invador has had six starts at Ellerslie for a win and four placings and will present in good order as he attempts to go one better than last year, when he was narrowly beaten by Polzeath (Pentire) in the Avondale Cup, on the way to placing in the Auckland Cup. "I am really happy with him," Latta said. "He is exactly where I want him to be. He finished about the same amount of lengths from the winner in the Taranaki Cup (five lengths) than what he did the year before. The distance was way too short for him and the track was a bit off, which really doesn't suit him either."

Te Akau unveils Guineas colt

The Jamie Richards-trained Noverre (Savabeel), an NZ$800,000 NZB Karaka Yearling Sale purchase by David Ellis, has justified strong backing by taking out the Palamounai Scientific Nutrition Maiden 2YO (1200m) at Whanganui in impressive style yesterday. It was the second start for the high-priced yearling, who finished runner-up at Matamata when on debut over 1200 metres last month. "He drew a nice barrier (1), showed gate speed, but when they came to pressure him Opie (Bosson) did the right thing and took a hold," Richards said. "It was a good education and I think he'll improve a lot for the trip away and a win. I liked the way he got back, got the outside and finished it off. He wanted to be there and wanted to attack the line. I think that's a really good attribute for young colts like this to possess. I'm not sure where he sits at the moment amongst the two-year-olds, but next season he's a really nice 2000 Guineas sort of colt."

Exhibition gallop for Coventina Bay

Group 3-winning mare Coventina Bay (Shamexpress) had a gallop between races at Whanganui yesterday after barrier trials were called off at Te Rapa earlier in the week. The Robbie Patterson-trained five-year-old was placed in the Rich Hill Mile (Gr 2, 1600m) behind Showoroses at her most recent start on New Year's Day, having defeated Prise De Fer (Savabeel) in the J Swap Sprint (Gr 3, 1400m) at Te Rapa in mid-December. "We missed a trial on Monday at Te Rapa," Patterson said. "She will go to a fillies and mares set weights and penalties race on Saturday week at Matamata. The plan is to then go to the Cuddle Stakes and then on to the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes all going well."

ASIA

HK: Panfield out to put Derby credentials on the line

Championship leading jockey Joao Moreira believes the Tony Millard-trained Panfield (Lookin At Lucky) can stake his claim for a tilt at the Hong Kong Derby (Gr 1, 2000m) with a big run in tomorrow's Class 2 Ambitious Dragon

Handicap (2000m) at Sha Tin. The three-time Chilean Group 1 winner has raced three times in Hong Kong, his latest effort an improving fourth over 1800 metres, but he will now step back up to the Derby distance for the second time ahead of just his fourth start in the city. "His last run was pretty good, he was exposed three and four wide without cover and faced the breeze but he finished very close to the winner. To me, that means he's got it, he's got enough ability and it's definitely not going to be a surprise to me if he comes out and wins," Moreira said. "I know him a little bit more now because I've been on him a few times and also at the races, so I should be able to get more out of him and no doubt if he does win he has to be considered for the Hong Kong Derby."

INTERNATIONAL

UK: Godolphin's first Classic winner Balanchine dies

Balanchine (Storm Bird), who will always hold a special place in the history of Godolphin as their first Classic winner and springboard to superpower status, has died aged 30. The filly was also Frankie Dettori's first British Classic winner when she took out the 1994 Epsom Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f). She also won the same year's Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f). The daughter of European champion two-year-old Storm Bird (Northern Dancer) was bred by Robert Sangster's Swettenham Stud and won her two starts as a juvenile in impressive fashion in the famous Sangster silks, before being purchased privately by Maktoum Al Maktoum. Balanchine went on to produce four winners at stud, including the Group 2-placed Gulf News (Woodman), and Balsamine (Street Cry), who is herself the dam of the promising Charlie Appleby-trained three-year-old Western Symphony (Shamardal). Out of Morning Devotion (Affirmed), Balanchine was a half-sister to Sun Chariot Stakes (Gr 2, 1m 2f) victress Red Slippers (Nureyev) - the dam of Prix de Diane (Gr 1, 2100m) heroine West Wind (Machiavellian) - and Group 2 winner and Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) third Romanov (Nureyev). After being pensioned from broodmare duties, Balanchine spent a lengthy retirement at Gainsborough Farm in Kentucky.

UAE: Romance blossoms in Meydan win

The fitting of a hood brought about a reversal in fortunes for Summer Romance (4 f Kingman - Serena's Storm by Statue Of Liberty) as the Godolphin-raced four-year-old made all the running to take out the Balanchine (Gr 2, 1800m) at Meydan on Thursday night. Having been disappointing since scoring at Epsom last July, Summer Romance added to her tally of three previous wins as she beat Stylistique (Dansili) by two and a quarter lengths with favourite Althiqa (Dark Angel) another three quarters of a length away in third. Summer Romance has now struck three times in stakes company.

UAE: Progressive Al Tariq strikes again

Al Tariq (5 g Oasis Dream - El Cuepro E L'Alma by Harkab's Holiday) has been a revelation since joining Doug Watson and he followed up his Listed win at Jebel Ali on his previous start with another surprise victory, this time in the Al Shindagha Sprint (Gr 3, 1200m) on the Meydan dirt. Now the winner of three of his 14 starts, the late-maturing five-year-old beat Important Mission (More Than Ready) by half a length with red-hot favourite Gladiator King (Curlin) a further three and a quarter lengths adrift in third.

UK: Brittas House dispersal heads online sale

The final instalment of the dispersal of the late Peter Magnier's Brittas House Stud will be offered at the Tattersalls Online Sale on March 23. The sale will be the third conducted on the company's online platform, on which Sweet Solera Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) winner West End Girl (Golden Horn) was sold to Badgers Bloodstock for £420,000, a record price at an online sale in Britain or Ireland. Heading the dispersal is the Listed winner We Are Ninety (The way you are), who is set to be covered by last year's Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Sottsass (Siyouni). The eight-year-old will be offered with a filly foal by Calyx (Kingman) at foot.

International raiders aiming for another big pay day in Saudi Arabia

Bob Baffert joked that US$20 million (approx. AUD$24.45m) was enough to "get him off the couch" before last season's Saudi Cup (1800m) and the US Hall Of Fame trainer holds a strong hand in this year's running of the world's richest race, which takes place at Riyadh today.

Some of the finest dirt horses in the world were sent to Riyadh for the inaugural running 12 months ago and the race befitted its costly status, with Maximum Security (New Year's Day) narrowly denying Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute).

The headline act for today's Saudi Cup is the Baffert-trained favourite Charlatan (Speightstown), winner of the Malibu Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) at Santa Anita and first past the post in the Arkansas Derby (Gr 1, 9f) before being disqualified, who is set for a fascinating clash with Pegasus World Cup (Gr 1, 9f) winner Knicks Go (Paynter).

Prix du Jockey Club (Gr 1, 2100m) hero Mishriff (Make Believe) - second in the Saudi Derby (1600m) on this card last year for John Gosden - leads the European challenge, while the Juddmonte-owned Tacitus (Tapit) would be a notable winner after the death of major owner and Saudi prince Khalid Abdullah last month.

The race has attracted runners from all over the world, including Chuwa Wizard (King Kamehameha), trained in Japan, Military Law (Dubawi), who makes the short journey from the UAE, and Bahrain International Trophy (2000m) winner Simsir (Zoffany).

The Saudi Cup headlines an eight-race card, with a mixture of races on the turf and dirt, and organisers have bucked the global trend by boosting the total prize-money on offer from US$29.2m (approx. AUD$37.1m) to US$30.5m (approx. AUD$38.8m).

Bob Baffert

EDWARD WHITAKER

One name very familiar to fans of Australian racing who will make an appearance on the valuable undercard is Prince Of Arran (Shirocco).

The perennial Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) placegetter returns for a second tilt at the Red Sea Turf Handicap (3000m) having finished third in the corresponding race last year.

Frankie Dettori will be on board the Charlie Fellowes-trained eight-year-old for the first time and connections are hopeful he can add to his tally of six wins after being handed a seemingly favourable barrier at Wednesday's draw ceremony.

"I'm delighted with Prince Of Arran's draw in stall four," Fellowes said after learning where his runner would jump from. "He has travelled over perfectly and had a nice blow this morning on the track. Fingers crossed for a smooth few days."

Last year's winner Call The Wind (Frankel) will once again be among Prince Of Arran's opposition, along with Red Verdon (Lemon Drop Kid), who is racing outside Europe for just the second time since finishing down the field in the 2018 running of the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m).

Then followed: Smokin' Val (AUS), Highly Discreet (AUS), Miss Inbetween (AUS), Night Raid (AUS), Diamondesque (AUS), Entrapped (AUS), No Restriction (AUS), Parlophone (AUS) & Orphan's Trust (AUS), last.

Analysis: Macroura, winner of the Woodlands Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Rosehill in May last year, scored a very smart first-up win, her second stakes success from four wins in eight starts. She began well from her good barrier (4) and then enjoyed a nice trip in second place. She moved up to the leader (Rainbiel) nearing the turn and after quite a battle, she did best to claim victory in the closing stages in a really good performance.

The progressive filly Rainbiel showed great early speed from her difficult barrier (12) to lead and then fought gamely for second in a very good effort. Supreme Idea settled in fifth place on the rails, got into clear running on turning for home and then ran on well for a very good third in a smart second-up run. Smokin' Val settled midfield on the rails from her inside barrier (1). She improved along the inner at the turn and kept battling on well for fourth, with Highly Discreet and Miss Inbetween making late ground for fifth and sixth, respectively. [KB]
