The success of training juggernaut Chris Waller continued unabated in Sydney's George Main Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) as Waikato Stud stallion Ocean Park (Thorn Park) recorded his first Group 1 quinella while, in Melbourne, the remarkable record of jockey Craig Williams and his family grew in the Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m). That was the tale of yesterday's Group 1 racing in Australia.

Waller won the George Main for the seventh time (in the past nine years) with Kolding (Ocean Park) while Williams' success on the David Jolly-trained Behemoth (All Too Hard) was his sixth in the Caulfield Group 1 - a record he now shares with contemporary Damien Oliver - and an eighth for the family as his father Allan won the race in 1979, as a jockey, and also in 1993 as a trainer.

Both Kolding and Behemoth, along with yesterday's The Shorts (Gr 2, 1100m) winner Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt), contested 2019's inaugural $7.5 million Golden Eagle (1500m) for four-year-olds, finishing first, fourth and tenth respectively.

The day's action centred on those wins along with the fact that Waller's four runners filled the first four placings in the Randwick feature; South Australian trainers trifecta'd the Clarke with Tony and Calvin McEvoy-prepared siblings Dollar For Dollar (High Chaparral) and Pretty Brazen (Brazen Beau) second and third respectively, while Danny O'Brien claimed a Caulfield treble including the Naturalism Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) with Orderofthegarter (Galileo) who is now ballot-exempt from the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m).

The New Zealand-bred Kolding (5 g Ocean Park - Magic Star by Danzero) provided Waller with his 113th Group 1 win, a staggering tally in just 13 years since his permanent move to Sydney.

Kolding led home a 1-2-3-4 for the trainer. This was the second time Waller has trained the first four placegetters in a Randwick 1600-metre

The five-year-old won by a long neck from the unfortunate Star Of The Seas (Ocean Park), who was shuffled back in the straight before charging home for second. A further head behind the runner-up was Imaging (Oasis Dream), with a length back to the most Probabeel (4 m Savabeel - Far Fetched by Pins) was among the most impressive winners of the afternoon as she remained unbeaten on good ground in 2020 after her excellent performance in the Bill Ritchie Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) for owners Brendan and Jo Lindsay of Cambridge Stud.

Probabeel

SPORTPIX

Between Ocean Park's quinella and the win of Probabeel, the star daughter of Waikato's banner stallion Savabeel, it was a day to remember at Randwick for the leading New Zealand property.

Throw in a victory to the Waikato-bred and owned Fabric (Ocean Park) at Caulfield, coming hot on the heels of a Waikato Stud double at Newcastle on Friday with blueblood Bargain (Ocean Park) breaking her maiden and the late Sacred Falls recording his first stakes winner with All Saints' Eve in the Tibbie Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m), and a banner 24 hours for the farm was complete.

"The last 24 hours have certainly been very exciting," Waikato Stud's Mark Chittick told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday. "There are the two fillies at Newcastle, especially picking up that Group 3 race early on in her career, and with a filly that's got a good pedigree as she does.

"Probabeel has just stamped her class. She's really getting up there as one of the best racehorses we've bred, what with what she's done and what she could do.

"And then you've got to take your hat off to Chris Waller and his team. Kolding gave us a couple of huge thrills last year and obviously in more recent times there's been a bit of reason for concern but Chris said, 'Leave it to me, I'll work him out,' and it just goes to show what a master horseman he is to get him back to form and win so strongly.

"You've got to feel a little sorry for Star Of The Seas every now and then. I'm sure he'll get one and he'll really deserve his turn when it does come."

For Ocean Park, he now has a live contender for the world's richest race on turf, the $15 million The Everest (1200m), with Tofane, while he also has the only ballot-exempt runner in this year's Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) with Andrew Ramsden Stakes (Listed, 2800m) heroine Oceanex.

As he begins his eighth season at stud, the 2012 Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2400m) winner is finally starting to receive recognition as a potent producer of tough, versatile horses.

"It was a huge thrill to get the quinella for Ocean Park, who is really starting to show his incredible versatility," Chittick said. "It really is remarkable, he's got one of the best sprinters in Australia in Tofane, with Kolding one of the best miler, middle distance horses in the country and he's got a qualifier for the Melbourne Cup.

"The start of his career at stud, to be honest, was frustrating. He had three very, very close seconds in Group 1s (with Mongolianconqueror, Another Dollar and Arrogant). In two of them they nearly had to go to a second photo to determine them. To run second in the New Zealand Derby, Queensland Oaks and Rosehill Guineas, in your first couple of crops, if that had been the other way around he would have been flying and away we go. But it did give us confidence that his numbers and age and maturity all came about, we were very confident it would fall into place.

"For a stallion who was a freakish racehorse, a real tough racehorse, in winning five Group 1 races like he did .. when we won the Cox Plate, he gave a massive amount of weight to Pierro and All Too Hard so he had to be incredibly tough. We could see he'd passed it on and now it's just all falling into place. They are tough, durable racehorses that just keep going."

Ocean Park stands for NZ$20,000 (plus GST), third on the list of Waikato Stud stallions behind newcomer Super Seth (Dundeel) at NZ$35,000 (plus GST), as well as six-time New Zealand champion sire Savabeel (Zabeel), whose fee stands at NZ$100,000 (plus GST).

The win of Probabeel in the Bill Ritchie continued a strong start to the season for Savabeel, with the Jamie Richards-trained mare now second favourite for the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) after her easy win yesterday.

"I think this season in particular is shaping up to be one of Savabeel's best ever," said Chittick. "The three-year-olds that are showing up already are quite remarkable. Just last week we saw Mo'unga as well as the filly of our own, ANZ Maiden of the Week Cornflower Blue, she won by six and a half lengths and heads towards the New Zealand 1000 Guineas. Then there's Tanaawol for the Hayes stable too. Certainly his three-year-olds are shaping up as a freakish crop of horses for Savabeel.

"Probabeel, she's really starting to join the best horses that we've ever bred. I think she's in for a massive spring and autumn too."

While Kolding's return to form and Verry Elleegant's 'failure' may have surprised some, Waller was happy to defend both horses - especially the winner, who has amassed more than $5 million in earnings in 12 months since winning the Ritchie on this day last year and followed up with victories in the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) and the inaugural Golden Eagle.

"He certainly has proved he's back today although in my mind he never left," Waller said of Kolding. "You don't win these races unless you are right, we stick to plans and try to make things unfold and it's worked out.

Waller, who has quinellaed the George Main five times, qualified the horse's aversion to left-handed racing when he said it may have been more Caulfield than simply clockwise racing.

"I wouldn't rule out running him at Flemington or Moonee Valley as we follow a weight-for-age path as he may have too much weight in the Epsom," he said.

"All four ran well, including Verry Elleegant," Waller added. "She got buried in on the fence and then got into a tricky spot which made it hard when they're running 1:33. She hasn't been there (inside horses) for a long time and stepping up to 2000 meters now, she'll be fine."

Waller's success has grown apace since 2010-11 when he became champion trainer for the first time in Sydney. Soon after, in 2012-13, he broke the legendary T J Smith's 37-year-old record of 156 winners in town.

In 2017-18, he trained 189 city winners, 95 ahead of runner-up James Cummings. He's trained a double figure tally of Group 1 winners in four of the past six seasons, including a remarkable 18 in the 2018/19 season, and his momentum hardly slowed last season, even after the retirement of champion mare Winx (Street Cry), as his horses earned more than $44 million during the 2019-20 season and he won nine Group 1s plus the $15 million The Everest and the Golden Eagle.

Behemoth, Orderofthegarter shine at Caulfield

At Caulfield, Williams was naturally delighted to win the Sir Rupert Clarke on Behemoth (5 g All Too Hard - Penny Banger by Zedrich) who defied top weight of 60 kilograms with a stunning late burst of acceleration. Williams' previous winners were Barely A Moment (Gilded Time), Rewaaya (Singspiel), Response (Charge Forward), Toorak Toff (Show A Heart) and Stratum Star (Stratum).

"Full credit to David Jolly and his team and Sam Lyons' Grand Syndicates," Williams said. "He's a big fellow so he's well-named and an awesome horse who made my job easier, his performance was excellent and he really did launch late."

"I'm just lucky that it's been a really good race for me and my family as my father won it as a jockey and a trainer. It's been challenging times lately, especially in Victoria, and we're fortunate we can showcase these great thoroughbred athletes. He was the best horse in the race and his mental aptitude is really coming through now."

Jolly, confined to South Australia given Covid-19 travel restrictions, described the horse as "a dream come true".

"To see what he's doing at the moment it's amazing," he said. "I just wish I was there, but it was great watching it on the couch with the family, too. It's an amazing feeling winning these races with him now. He's a fantastic horse."

Notwithstanding the elevated minimum of 54 kilograms, it is worth noting that Behemoth successfully carried the highest weight since Tauto (Good Brandy) lumped 9 stone 10 ounces, approximately 62 kilograms, in 1971.

Orderofthegarter

Grand Syndicates paid just $6,000 for Behemoth at the 2017 Magic Millions National Yearling Sale - less than a year after he sold for $120,000 from the Tyreel Stud draft at the 2016 Inglis Great Southern Weanling Sale Platinum Session.

Oliver, on the 30th anniversary of his first Group 1 success aboard Submariner (Sea Anchor) in the Rupert Clarke, did win the Naturalism Stakes for the fourth time to join Frank Reys as the most successful jockey in that race. Orderofthegarter joined Red Lord (Redoute's Choice), Rose Archway (Archway) and Golden Serpent (Cobra) as an Oliver-ridden winner of the race.

Oliver told Racing.com: "I knew I was going well - he can just travel a little bit keen. We wanted to use the barrier today and the first 400 there were probably a few of us vying, it just made him a little bit keen."

"I didn't want to be handing up too much, so I had to maintain a prominent position. You've got to remember that it was only his third run in three years, so he's still got improvement to come."

"He's snuck into a great race with a really good weight."

Oliver will not be able to make Orderofthegarter's light weight in the Caulfield Cup, with O'Brien suggesting that Daniel Moor could be a logical booking on the Lloyd Williams-owned import.

"I'll speak to Lloyd and Nick Williams and we'll see," O'Brien said. "I know Daniel Moor has been riding him in all of his gallops and he declared him in this race about 10 days ago after he worked with King Of Leogrance on the course proper."

"He'd certainly put his hand up to get down to 50 kilos."

"Orderofthegarter is coming off a two-year layoff. Each run he's just found a little bit and I think there's still more to come towards the Caulfield Cup next time."

"He came to us very well. He'd obviously had a decent break, but he came to us sound and fit and we've built him up from scratch. He's a lovely horse, a good-looking son of Galileo - very genuine. He tries really hard every time you send him out there."

"We're very lucky to be getting these Williams horses. World-class horses, beautifully bred and it's all clicking at the moment."

AUSTRALIA

Two for Unencumbered

Former Three Bridges Thoroughbreds stallion Unencumbered (Testa Rossa) brought up his second individual stakes winner yesterday when Felicia (4 m ex Los Feliz by Shamardal) took out the How Now Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield. Sent out as second favourite, the Dean Binaisse-trained Felicia raced clear to score by two lengths over Broadwayandfourth (Smart Missile) with a further long head to Fiesta (I Am Invincible) in third. It was a first Group winner for an excited Binaisse: "It's been a super ride. I've just got to thank the owners for sticking and giving me the opportunity. This is my first Group or Listed winner. I keep running seconds or thirds in them. It drives me nuts. It's good to get the monkey off the back. It's probably a gorilla that just went past." Felicia is the first stakes winner for the unraced mare Los Feliz (Shamardal). Unencumbered died in March, 2018, having served four books of mares.

35 for Written Tycoon

Woodside Park Stud and Arrowfield Stud's Written Tycoon (Iglesia) registered stakes winner number 35 yesterday when Odeum (3 f ex Movie by Red Ransom) took out the Jim Moloney Stakes (Listed, 1400m). Owned by a collective led by top bloodstock agent Sheamus Mills, the Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained Odeum sprinted powerfully to defeat favourite Aidensfield (Dissident) by a length and a half with a further length to Mozzie Monster (Sebring) in third. "That's fantastic," Price said. "We thought she could run a place today but to win like that by a big margin, ears pricked, that was awfully impressive."

She ran today like the mile would suit her. Obviously the Thousand Guineas is now on the agenda. It's fantastic, a nice problem to have." Purchased for $420,000 by Mills at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Odeum is the second stakes winner for Listed placegetter Movie (Red Ransom), after Listed victor Goodfella (Snitzel). Written Tycoon stands for $77,000 (inc GST) at Arrowfield Stud in 2020.

Bridge: Legend better than Sir Dapper, Kensei

Trainer Les Bridge has had some top horses throughout his career: Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) hero Sir Dapper (Vain), Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) victor Kensei (Blarney Kiss) and champion mare Hot Danish (Nothin' Leica Dane) among them. However, he yesterday made the bold call that Classique Legend (5 g Not A Single Doubt - Pinocchio by Encosta De Lago) was the best of them all after his breathtaking return to racing in The Shorts (Gr 2, 1100m), adding a second Group 2 to his record. "He's the best horse I've ever trained. Couldn't do much better than that, could he?" said Bridge yesterday after Classique Legend stamped himself as a legitimate The Everest (1200m) contender. "Some have got four cylinder motors, he's got a V8. I honestly thought he was a bit underdone today. It doesn't surprise me. I don't know how you blokes were tipping Dirty Work - I've been in the wrong game for 60 years!"

Milestone for McEvoy after double

The win of Classique Legend made it 2,000 career victories for globetrotting rider Kerrin

McEvoy, having earlier taken the Bill Ritchie Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m) on Probabeel (Savabeel). In addition to 76 Group 1 winners - including three Melbourne Cups and an English Classic - McEvoy won the $15 million The Everest (1200m) the first two years with Redzel (Snitzel) and looks to have a good chance of making it three from four with Classique Legend. "I'm so excited to do it on this horse," McEvoy said. "I just had to bide my time and full credit to the horse, once I got clear air he powered that last furlong. I've been lucky enough to ride Redzel and some other great sprinters in my career and you'd have to say he's right up there with those."

Dame Giselle three-quarters towards Princess sweep

Dame Giselle (3f I Am Invincible - Ballet Society by Stravinsky) will aim to join Samantha Miss (Redoute's Choice) and Angst (Kala Dancer) as the only fillies to sweep all four legs of Sydney's Princess Series after she took the third leg, the Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m), yesterday. Dame Giselle added the Tea Rose to her wins in the Silver Shadow Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and the Furious Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), defeating Hungry Heart (Frankel) by a half-length with a length and a quarter to Vangelic (Vancouver) in third. "When you have a good filly this is what you aim at," co-trainer Paul Snowden said. "We have been lucky enough to win the first three legs of it, it's been great. The biggest thing for her was striking those wet tracks at the end of her preparation after the Slipper as she is not effective on those 6s and 7s - she's much better on top of the ground. Praying for a little bit more dry weather in Sydney." The fourth leg, the Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m), is on October 3.

Metrop beckons for Taikomochi

Taikomochi (7 g Snitzel - Geisha by Fusaichi Pegasus) will be given his first crack at Group 1 company after he ran out a strong winner of the Kingston Town Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Randwick yesterday. The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Taikomochi is a noted front runner, but with Wu Gok (Sebring) pushing on to lead at a fast clip, Tim Clark was happy to take a trail in second. The tough gelding then stuck on willingly to score by a length over the fast-finishing Shared Ambition (Born To Sea) with Brimham Rocks (Fastnet Rock) - winner of the Naturalism Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Caulfield on this day last year - a further head away in third. Taikomochi will now progress to The Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m), where he is likely to meet many of the same rivals. "It is so satisfying to see," Bott said. "Obviously, I have so much respect for this horse and what he has achieved in his career. Still to be racing at this level at his age and the manner in which he does, he's such a tough horse"

It's Me takes favouritism for Kosciuszko

The Kosciuszko (1200m), the $1.3 million feature for country-trained horses on Everest day, has a new favourite in unbeaten mare It's Me (Shamus Award), who scored with one of the wins of the day at Randwick yesterday. The Brett Cavanough-trained four-year-old, who won a 1000-metre maiden at Scone on August 4 before adding a Class 2 Highway Handicap over 1100 metres at Randwick on August 22, made it three wins from as many starts with her best win yet, a three-length win swooping in from near the rear in a Class 3 Highway Handicap over 1000 metres yesterday. "I love her temperament. I was watching her walk around the yard before the start in the birdcage and she was the most relaxed runner, I thought," rider Jason Collett said. "She feels so easy doing it against these types of horses but she does give you the feel of a classy filly. She has only had three starts and the Kosciuszko is the level she should be heading for."

Parr inquiry adjourned

Josh Parr

SPORTPIX

Stewards have adjourned an inquiry into Josh Parr's ride on the Bjorn Baker-trained Fun Fact (The Factor) in the Shoot Out Mile (1600m). Carrying top-weight of 61 kilograms, Fun Fact - a consistent front runner - was allowed to sit three-wide without cover, with Parr choosing not to push towards the lead as he had done at the horse's first-up run over 1400 metres. Parr argued that he didn't want to fire up his mount, especially given he judged the tempo to be fast, and so he elected to keep the horse in his comfort zone. Stewards adjourned the matter and will continue their investigations before reconvening the inquiry.

Wise Counsel bound for Victoria Derby

Co-trainer David Eustace hopes Wise Counsel (Toronado) can follow in his family's footsteps by taking out the Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) next month. Wise Counsel, who won yesterday's Caulfield opener over 1600 metres to break his maiden at the third attempt, is out of Circus Polka (Stravinsky), a half-sister to 2016 Victoria Derby winner Prized Icon (More Than Ready). "We thought the mile would be fine. It was a good race, it was a good maiden run previously at Geelong and hopefully he can go onto bigger and better things," Eustace said. Wise Counsel, a brother to exciting prospect Master Montaro, is likely to head to the Super Impose Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Flemington and the Caulfield Classic (Gr 3, 2000m) before stepping out in the blue riband on October 31.

Third stakes win for Snitzkraft

Snitzkraft (6 h Snitzel - Power O'Raylee by O'Reilly) brought up a third Listed win yesterday when leading all the way to score in the W H Wylie Handicap (Listed, 1100m) at Morphettville. Ridden by Todd Pannell, Snitzkraft led home a Phillip Stokes-trained quinella, with Shamino (Shamus Award) a long neck from the winner in second; Prophet's Thumb (I Am Invincible) finished third, two lengths from the winner. "The right horse turned up. He can run out off the track and you don't know when the right horse turns up," Stokes' son and foreman Tommy told The Advertiser. "We weren't filled with confidence going into the race and had already had his second run planned. He was going to back up in a three metro wins race, but he will now be out of his grade there. Hopefully he can gain confidence from that, he has not won for a while. Dad had him rock hard fit for this and I suppose he was the fittest horse out there today."

NEW ZEALAND

First for Atlante

Late Mapperley Stud stallion Atlante (Fastnet Rock) registered his first Group 1 winner yesterday when Callsign Mav (4 g ex Raadisi by Volksraad) took out the Tazino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m) in a major upset at Hastings. Sent out at 80-1, the John Bary-trained Callsign Mav tracked up behind a strong tempo set by Deerfield (Falkirk). Switched off the fence by Jonathan Riddell, the four-year-old chased through strongly before holding off the late surge of Supera (Savabeel) to win by three-quarters of a length. Favourite Avantage (Fastnet Rock) finished third, a further nose away. Callsign Mav is the first stakes winner out of three-time 1400-metre victor Raadisi (Volksraad), herself a half-sister to Group 1 winner The Party Stand (Thorn Park). Purchased for just NZ$3,000 as a weanling out of the Windsor Park Stud draft at the 2017 NZB National Weanling, Broodmare & Mixed Sale, yesterday's win took Callsign Mav's earnings to NZ$188,000. Atlante died in late 2016, having served two seasons at Mapperley Stud.

Tarzino Trophy to Callsign Mav

Hastings trainer John Bary has saddled plenty of big-race winners on home soil, but none with the shock factor of Callsign Mav's bolover in yesterday's Tarzino Trophy. Bary had previously won the season-opening Group 1 feature in 2013 with Survived (Zed), who also won the Hawke's Bay Gold Cup (Gr 3, 2200m), while quality mare Miss Wilson (Stratum) captured the Spring Sprint (Gr 3, 1400m) in 2017. Most notably, the glittering career of former stable star Jimmy Choux (Thorn Park) included home-track victories in the Hawke's Bay Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m), Windsor Park Plate (Gr 1, 1600m) and Spring Classic (Gr 1, 2040m), along with a second placing behind Mufhasa (Pentire) in the 2011 edition of the former Mudgway Stakes. Jockey Jonathan Riddell was a key part of that Jimmy Choux story, riding the NZ$3.6 million earner in all but two of his 26 starts, and on Saturday he teamed up with Bary again for another memorable triumph. "It was just like the old days again, with Riddell and Jimmy," said Bary, who is recuperating at home after undergoing back surgery earlier in the month. "Jonathan moved up to Cambridge four or five years ago now and has been doing a lot of riding up there since then, so the stars hadn't really aligned in recent times in terms of him riding for us. But it came together on Saturday. It's a shame I'm stuck at home and couldn't be there today, but this has definitely given me a big boost in my recovery."

16 for Per Incanto

Little Avondale Stud's Per Incanto (Street Cry) brought up individual stakes winner number 16 yesterday when Miss Aotearoa (3 f ex Danex by Danasinga) took out the Gold Trail Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Hastings. The Jamie Richards-trained filly endured a wide berth but swept home to win by a neck over Sweet Anna (Tavistock), racing in the famous Sir Patrick Hogan colours, with favourite Babylon Berlin (All Too Hard) a further head away in third. Bred by Tony Rider, Miss Aotearoa is the third stakes winner out of New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) fourth Danex (Danasinga), who has already produced Group 2 winner Oceanex (Ocean Park) - guaranteed a run in this year's Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) courtesy of her win in the Andrew Ramsden Stakes (Listed, 2800m) - as well as Group 3 victor Amexed (Pentire). Per Incanto stands for NZ$15,000 (plus GST) at Little Avondale Stud in 2020.

Stakes double for Grylls, Rider as Aotearoa ascends

Miss Aotearoa provided rider Craig Grylls and owner/breeder Tony Rider with a black-type double at Hastings when she out-finished her age-group rivals in the Gold Trail Stakes. Successful just two races earlier with debutant Shezzacatch (Savabeel) in the Sir Colin Meads Trophy (Listed, 1200m), the pair were at it again with the Jamie Richards-trained three-year-old who doubled their pleasure with a stylish performance. "She feels very good underneath you although we had to do it the hard way from an outside draw," Grylls said. "We covered ground all the way but to her credit, she travelled brilliantly and she was very tough. They were coming at her late and she was a little bit wayward but she got the job done. Going by her breeding she looks like she will get over ground and has a bright future ahead of her." Richards was equally as impressed with the victory by the filly who is being aimed at the New Zealand 1000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Riccarton in November, although he isn't in any rush with her. "She has a great pedigree page and it is all in front of her," he said. "We'll take her home and assess her but we don't have to rush into racing her again in a fortnight as she is a filly with a future. We might take a look at the Soliloquy Stakes and then down to Riccarton, all going well. I would like to thank Tony Rider who has been a good supporter and he now has another lovely, stakes-winning filly for his broodmare band."

102 for Savabeel

First starter Shezzacatch (3 f ex Elusive Nature by O'Reilly) caused an upset in the Sir Colin Meads Trophy (Listed, 1200m) yesterday, giving New Zealand's Champion Sire Savabeel (Zabeel) his 102nd individual stakes winner. The Guy Lowry and Grant Cullen-trained Shezzacatch jumped well but was restrained by Craig Grylls as she tossed the head around wildly. She travelled back in the field and on the rail by the time the field made the swing for home, but despite racing greenly throughout, she showed plenty of talent to sweep up and score. At the line, she had three-quarters of a length to spare over Suffused (Choisir) with Alchemia (Per Incanto) a further half-neck away in third. Bred by owner Tony Rider, Shezzacatch is the second foal - and the first stakes winner - for the unraced mare Elusive Nature (O'Reilly), a half-sister to New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) placegetter Savvy Dreams (Savabeel). Savabeel stands at Waikato Stud for NZ$100,000 (plus GST) in 2020.

Local sparkles at first start

Shezzacatch was thrown in at the deep end for her first outing in the Sir Colin Meads Trophy (Listed, 1200m) and she spectacularly rose to the occasion with a big victory. Trainers Guy Lowry and Grant Cullen considered a midweek maiden at Woodville on September 24 as her starting point, but instead - having seen a glimpse of something special from the filly - they decided to tackle a classy line-up of youngsters in yesterday's feature. Shezzacatch was overlooked at 35-1 but she burst out of obscurity with a brilliant performance. "That was a nice finish," Lowry said. "We're not surprised by that performance, although she still doesn't know much really, and she's been a real handful. The trial the other day was the best she's ever behaved, and she's continued to improve since then. She'll learn a lot more from this as well. We were looking at a maiden race at Woodville next Thursday, but we were worried about the possibility of not getting a start there. So we decided to come here today. On a good track, with a good jockey, it's all worked out. The plan was always to put her out for ten days afterwards and that is what we will do. Longer term a race like the Levin Classic could be an option or we could just send her to Australia and leave her there."

INTERNATIONAL

Nine for Vadamos

Rich Hill Stud shuttler Vadamos (Monsun) brought up winner number nine last night when Oo De Lally (2 c ex In Dubai by Giant's Causeway) caused a mammoth shock in the opener at Newbury. The Andrew Balding-trained Oo De Lally was sent out at 125/1 in the 13-runner field, having finished 13 lengths from the winner on debut in a seven-furlong maiden at Ascot earlier this month. Stepping out over the same journey, Oo De Lally scored under David Probert, defeating Aratus (Free Eagle) by three-quarters of a length with Luxy Lou (The Last Lion) three lengths behind the winner in third. Vadamos will have his first southern hemisphere two-year-olds in the coming weeks; he stands for NZ$15,000 (plus GST) at Rich Hill Stud this season.

Addeybb and Marquand strike at Ayr

Addeybb (Pivotal) and Tom Marquand, who raided Sydney's autumn carnival, collecting two Group 1 victories, combined again to claim the Doonside Cup Stakes (Listed, 1m 2f) at Ayr yesterday. The William Haggas-trained Addeybb won the Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick before backing up in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), beating Verry Elleegant (Zed) on both occasions. The victories represented a first triumph at Group 1 level for both horse and rider, while Marquand recently claimed a first Group 1 win in the UK with success on Galileo Chrome (Australia) in the St Leger Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 6.5f). Sent off the 11/10 favourite for yesterday's assignment, Addeybb defeated last year's Queen Anne stakes (Gr 1, 1m) winner Lord Glitters (Whipper) by three-quarters of a length, with San Donato (Lope De Vega) in third. The six-year-old will now have a second tilt at the Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) at Ascot next month after he finished second to Magical (Galileo) last year.

62 for Kodiak

Umm Kulthum (2 f ex Queen's Code by Shamardal) got the better of Scarlet Bear in the Firth Of Clyde Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at Ayr in a result which saw Kodiak (Danehill) defeat his sire-son Kodi Bear for a 62nd individual stakes winner. A length split the first two home with the same margin back to Lullaby Moon (Belardo) in third. Umm Kulthum, the first foal out of Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) mare Queen's Code, finished third in the Lowther Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) at York on her previous start, but broke through at Group level to take her record to two wins from three starts. Kodiak stood the 2020 season for €65,000 (approx. AU$117,000) at Tally-Ho Stud in Ireland.

44 for Showcasing

Alkumait (2 c ex Suelita by Dutch Art) stepped up on a maiden success in July to claim the Mill Reef Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) at Newbury, becoming the 44th individual stakes winner for his sire Showcasing (Oasis Dream) and a second winner of the race for his sire after Toocoolforschool landed the prize in 2014. Alkumait defeated Fivethousandtoone (Frankel) by three-quarters of a length, with Rhythm Master (Dark Angel) in third. The colt was purchased as a foal for 150,000gns by West Park Farm before being pinhooked, selling for 220,000gns at Book

1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale to Shadwell. Showcasing resides at Whitsbury Manor Stud where he stood the 2020 season for £55,000 (approx. AU$100,000).

70 for Sea The Stars

Sea Of Faith (4 f ex Jumoooh by Monsun), a sister to Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner Shraaoh and ATC Chairman's Handicap (Gr 2, 2600m) winner Raheen House, scored a first stakes success when taking the Prix Des Tourelles (Listed, 2400m) at Saint-Cloud yesterday. Sea Of Faith held off the closing Cosmic Princess (Kingman) by a neck, with favourite Solsticia (Le Havre) in third. Trained by William Haggas, Sea Of Faith takes her record to three wins from seven starts. Her Australian Bloodstock-owned older brothers have won three times between them in Australia, with Raheen House holding entries for this year's Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) and Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m). Her sire, Sea The Stars (Cape Cross), stood for €150,000 (approx. AU$270,000) in 2020.

12 for Territories

Trusted Ally (2 c ex Quiet Queen by Sulamani) delivered winner number 12 for Darley's Territories (Invincible Spirit), after he defeated the Coolmore-owned Sir William Bruce (Galileo) and the Lloyd Williams-owned Grid (Siyouni) to win the two-year-old maiden over a mile at Gowran Park yesterday. Trusted Ally is out of Quiet Queen (Sulamani), who is a sister to Hong Kong Vase winner (Gr 1, 2400m) Mastery (Sulamani). Territories stands for $11,000 in 2020 at Darley's Kelvinside property.

ANOTHER NZ BRED WINNER

Analysis: Having his second run back this preparation, last year's Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Kolding recaptured his best form to record his second Group 1 victory here in a race where the Chris Waller stable dominated by providing the first four past the post. After working in the early stages, he settled nicely outside the leader (Dreamforce), got the upper hand at the 300m and then fought back to win well. Star Of The Seas enjoyed a good trip in third place on the rails but was blocked on straightening. He eased deeper and into clear running at the 200m and then finished well for second, looking somewhat unlucky. Imaging raced in fourth place, tracking the eventual winner. He moved up to challenge strongly at the 300m and then fought well for a close-up third. The favourite Verry Elleegant raced in sixth place on the rails, looked for a gap on turning for home, got clear at the 200m and kept finishing on, albeit without threatening, to finish (1.6 lengths) fourth and should appreciate longer trips. Colette battled on quite well for (3.7 lengths) fifth at a distance well short of her best while Avilius failed to make any ground before finishing (5.1 lengths) sixth while Dreamforce disappointed, weakening to finish (5.6 lengths) last after leading until the 300m. ## ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Inglis

Analysis: Back-to-back Group 1s for Behemoth who was in trouble at the 200m but put in some big strides when clear to claim the lead inside the 50m and go on strongly for win seven at start 17. He sat eighth, one out past the 1200m with no improvement past the 800m. Caught in a pocket rounding into the straight he had a wall of runners to pass at the 300m. Moving out two lanes, he pushed his way into the clear then went hard, bounded forward near the 100m and charged past the leader inside the 50m to win easily by a length. Dollar For Dollar went to the front from the outset and led by a length from the 600m. Increasing his lead slightly at the top of the straight he slipped away by two at the 200m. He looked a big chance at the 100m but was swamped, holding on by a nose from his half sister Pretty Brazen who sat fifth last at the 800m, made ground but was widest rounding into the straight then finished very strongly for third. Achernar Star was third into the straight and kept going gamely for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: The lowest rated runner here, fresh up track specialist and three time winner at this his home track, Callsign Mav caused a massive blowout at 80 to 1 odds but gave his opponents few excuses. He began well to be a close third early then found a lovely spot one back on the fence in third leaving the back straight. He held his position inside the 600m and into straight was presented with a nice split. He took a few strides to get going then went up alongside the leader at the 200m, hit the front at the 100m and dared them to run him down, holding on well by three quarters of a length. Supera was among the last half dozen (rails) leaving the back straight, closer but still locked up rounding into the home straight and waited for a run. At the 200m she saw space and rattled home one off the fence to grab a super second. Favourite Advantage sat back of midfield at the 800m, went three wide from the 600m and even wider when the field fanned for the run home. Two lengths back in fourth at the 200m she drove into second but couldn't overhaul the winner, losing second on the line. Jennifer Eccles was midfield (rails) at the 600m, moved out at the top of the straight then kept on well, doing her best work late for fourth, two lengths from the winner.[L]

Then followed: Montefilia (AUS), Thermosphere (AUS), Every Rose (AUS), Miravalle (AUS), Centimental (AUS), Stellar Pauline (AUS), Miss Canada (AUS) & Fall On A Star (AUS), last.

Analysis: Dame Giselle maintained her unbeaten record in three Group races this preparation with another fine performance here. Advancing to 1400m for the first time, she settled in fourth place after being second early on, sprinted quickly for Tommy Berry on passing the 200m, hit the front at the 50m and appeared to score with something in hand indicating she may be well capable of stepping up to the 1600m here in the Flight Stakes (Gr 1) on October 3. Hungry Heart began well, was fourth in the early stages before settling in sixth place, between runners. She was held up for clear running on straightening, got into the clear at the 200m and then ran on well to take second, looking somewhat unlucky as she now heads for a re-match with Dame Giselle in the Flight Stakes. Vangelic showed good pace to lead, travelled nicely at a reasonable tempo, got a break halfway down the straight and then held on well for third. Montefilia settled nicely in seventh place on the rails, got along the inner on turning for home, got to fourth at the 200m and kept battling on well for (2.3 lengths) fourth, looking suited to longer distances. Thermosphere was caught wide all the way and did well in finishing (4.3 lengths) fifth while Every Rose held on for (5.1 lengths) sixth with Miravalle taking the eye with her late run in coming from last to finish (5.2 lengths) seventh. ## ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Est 1867

Analysis: Classique Legend staked his claims for the $15m The Everest (1200m) at Randwick on October 17 by scoring a most impressive first-up victory here. After being wide early on from his difficult barrier (10), he settled in ninth place in the 12-runner field and was held up behind horses nearing the turn. Kerrin McEvoy eased him across heels at the 200m and he sprinted quickly to overwhelm his opposition in the closing stages for a very good win. Eduardo settled in third place, working on the pace and trapped three wide after starting from barrier nine. He moved up gamely at the 200m, hit the front shortly afterwards, only to be caught nearing the post to finish second in a really good effort. Bivouac was quickly away from his outside barrier (12) but eased after being caught deep to settle in ninth place. He improved (wide) nearing the turn, challenged at the 200m and then held on very well for third after a testing trip, resuming here. Dirty Work settled in sixth place, one off the rails, improved at the turn, took a split on passing the 200m and then battled on quite well for (1.4 lengths) fourth. Standout was a bit slow to move, settled in tenth place, eased deeper and into clear running on straightening, improved to be in a challenging position at the 100m and then fought well for (1.9 lengths) fifth in a sound first-up effort. Splintex raced outside the leader (Ball Of Muscle) at a quick tempo, took a narrow lead at the 200m and then held on well for (2.1 lengths) sixth. Analysis: Probabeel assured herself a start in the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) at this track on October 3 with an impressive victory here. Having her second run this preparation, she was smartly away and settled a bit closer than anticipated in fourth place after being second early on. She moved up well rounding the turn, challenged at the 200m, hit the front at the 100m and then went on to win well. Cuba began quickly, went straight to the front, steadied the early tempo and then fought back surprisingly well for a very good second in a good effort, resuming here. Brandenburg enjoyed a good trip in third place on the rails, got into clear running at the 200m and then held on to claim the minor placing by the barest of margins from the $81 outsider Dadooziert, who finished on well from sixth to take fourth at a distance well short of his best. Reloaded settled in seventh place on the rails, took a split at the 200m and then battled on for (4.1 lengths) fifth. Analysis: In his third start after two very long spells, Orderofthegarter proved the best stayer here gaining his third victory at start 12 as well as a start in next month's Caulfield Cup (Gr.1, 2400m). He was away well but approaching the 1400m eased to sit fifth (rails). At the 1000m he moved up to fourth, one out where he remained past the 600m then ran up three deep to challenge upon straightening. Into second he soon levelled up then took over at the 100m and stayed best to score by three quarters of a length. Chapada was fifth last past the 800m, still back at the top of the straight then stormed home to grab second on the line. Steel Prince was sixth rounding into the straight, moved out four deep to challenge and kept on quite well for third from In Good Health who led them in and tried to slip clear but was caught at the 100m then held on for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: In a tight finish Miss Aotearoa fought best in this her maiden stakes win at start three including back-to-back wins this preparation. She was back and wide early but made a forward move, three deep from the 600m. Approaching the home straight she continued to gain but was four wide and handy when they straightened. At the 200m she sat third but kept chasing hard, was almost level at the 100m, got her head in front at the 50m then kept on determinedly to be neck ahead at the post. Sweet Anna shared the lead, one out at the 600m, second upon straightening then kept going doggedly to the line for second. Babylon Berlin shared the lead (rails) to the 400m, slipped a length clear at the 200m then fought pretty well over the last 50m for third. A top effort from Tokorangi who was equal last turning in (rails) then finished very strongly along the fence for a close fourth.[LJ]

ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Inglis
Est 1867

Analysis: In a solid staying performance, Taikomochi recorded his second Group 3 victory and his seventh win in 29 starts in scoring here. After being in front early on, he tracked the new leader (Wu Gok) at a quick tempo before getting the upper hand approaching the 200m. He then held off his rivals to win well in a game effort. The favourite Shared Ambition raced back in eighth place, one off the rails, improved nearing the turn, loomed on passing the 200m, but was held by the winner and the battled on to take second with his stablemate Brimham Rocks a head away in third after being handily placed most of the way. Zebrowski had a nice trip in fourth place and battled on to take that position, beaten just under two lengths with Rondinella (2.1 lengths) fifth after gradually making some ground from tenth at the turn. Analysis: Felicia sped across from her 12 barrier to sit outside the pace soon after the start but found herself a length back past the 800m. Still second at the 400m she was now more than two lengths back but into the straight she went hard after the leader, levelled up at the 200m then booted clear for an easy two lengths victory, her fourth in nine starts and maiden stakes success. Broadwayandfourth was midfield (rails) at the 600m, hugged the fence but needed a run at the 300m before finishing strongly when in the clear for a solid second. Fiesta was third last at the 400m, went widest but still sat third last at the 300m. Winding up strongly she flew down the straight for a super third. In Good Time was third into the straight (rails) and kept on gamely to the line for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: At start three and off a fair fifth in Listed company at Moonee Valley two weeks back, Odeum took the lead at the 100m and was too strong for her second win and maiden stakes success in an upset here. She began quickly to be second then eased slightly to settle fourth (rails) past the 1000m. She held her position inside the 600m and approaching the straight hooked out three wide to challenge. A length back at the 200m she levelled up then took over at the 100m. To the line she was too good by a length and half. Aidensfield sat seventh at the 1000m, drifted a shade from the 600m then went five deep rounding into the straight where she finished well in the center of the track. Mozzie Monster sat third last past the 600m and was still third last at the 300m then finished strongly to grab third on the line from Yes Bay Yes who led them in but was collared near the 100m before holding on for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: Locked up, three back on the fence rounding into the straight, debutante Shezzacatch looked a hopeless chance but unleashed a powerful run when clear to win really well. She sat a close fourth early but starting the curve was shuffled back through the field to be fourth last rounding into the home straight. Hugging the fence she accelerated quickly to be in behind the leading three but had to move out to challenge. Once out she flew, gathered in the first two at the 50m and was travelling best by three quarters of a length at the line. Suffused took over the pace starting the first bend, led by a length at the top of the home straight, was almost caught at the 100m, fought hard but had to watch the winner breeze past. Alchemia tracked the pacemaker into the straight, went up to challenge and then kept going solidly for third, the first three clear. Kobe Rocks was second turning in then battled on for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: After racing reasonably well in Victoria, Snitzkraft resumed from a let-up to break through for his first win since taking out the David Bourke Memorial Handicap (1200m) at Pakenham on December 7 in scoring here. He went straight to the front and then set a fast pace, soon having his opposition under pressure to keep in touch. He held a good break at the turn and just had enough in hand to win well. Shamino was last in the six-runner field to the turn and made up many lengths for second with Prophet's Thumb coming from second last after gaining an inside run in the straight to finish third while the favourite Garner was trapped three wide, without cover, chasing the hectic pace and battled on to finish fourth after a difficult trip. BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Sky Gem, 3 Good Runners Way, 5 Art Of Raw, 7 Hay Run, 10 Green Generation, Keep Winning, 14 Proud Sky, 16 Young Glory, 25 Charitydream, 33 Fortune Buddy, 50 Willful.

VERDICT Sky Gem will be a tough nut to crack if able to transfer his 1m37 turf form to this C&D but the pick is GOOD RUNNERS WAY. We haven't seen Danny Shum's 5yo since a below-par turf run in March but he was a Class 4 C&D winner off a 7lb higher mark last season and the booking of Zac Purton suggests he'll be primed to go well today.

BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 Skye Supreme, 4 Party Everyday, 5 Double Take, Unite Spirit, 10 Big Bang Bongs, 12 Crown Avenue, Dragon Commander, Lucky Win Win, 50 Joyful Cheers.

VERDICT Party Everyday ended last season in excellent form but SKYEY SUPREME did very well to finish second to him when upped to 1m in July, having been trapped on the wide outside of the field around the first two turns. Francis Lui's 5yo has a much better draw this time and is now 8lb better off with his old rival. Class-dropper Unite Spirit is also considered.

VERDICT This can go to FABULOUS EIGHT, who has finished second here on all three starts since his breakthrough win in May. On two of those occasions he chased home exciting newcomers and in between he bumped into a rival that had improved out of all recognition. United We Stand has been placed off his new mark since bolting up over C&D in June and is feared most.

VERDICT Mr Aldan ended last season with a good performance over C&D and is respected but THE HULK caught the eye when strong in the closing stages over 7f here a fortnight ago and, now back up in trip and with Joao Moreira enlisted, can gain his breakthrough Hong Kong win.

VERDICT His wide draw makes things awkward today but the one to beat is BELUGA, who was nicely in command in the closing stages over C&D on his latest outing in March and is unopposed after only two starts. Monkey Jewellery was unlucky to lose out in two photo-finishes in July but a bigger threat to the selection may come from Fortune Master, who did well to make the frame over C&D on just his second career start. Meanwhile, Winning Steed has shown significant promise in trials and now makes his official debut.

VERDICT Having finally got his act together Chicken Dance should be competitive once again despite the 7lb rise but he may have to play second fiddle to PING HAI BRAVO, who was a dual C&D winner last season and continued to run well despite the increasing mark. Temple Of Heaven put in a pleasing debut in June and he can take another step forward in this.

VERDICT The in-form Lakeshore Eagle knows how to win races and shouldn't be ignored even with the latest 8lb rise but a chance is taken with the top weight SUPER OASIS who has a fitness edge on most of these having made a pleasing return to action this month and should benefit for the step up to 1m. Amazing One Plus should be competitive after pleasing in his Hong Kong debut.
