Star mare Sunlight to be a big Magic Millions National Sale drawcard

Retirement of multiple Group 1-winning sprinter confirmed as connections laud their champion

Sunlight

SPORTPIX

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Tony McEvoy says it is immeasurable what champion mare Sunlight (Zoustar) has done for his training business while her breeder believes the three-time Group 1-winning sprinter would be worthy of becoming a foundation broodmare on any farm in the world.

The glowing endorsement of Sunlight came after the decision was made by connections to this week retire the four-year-old from racing and put the highly sought after mare up for auction at July's Magic Millions Gold Coast National Broodmare Sale, the same ring she was sold out of as a yearling.

A winner of 11 of her 24 starts and more than $6.5 million in prize-money, Sunlight bows out having won the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m), the Coolmore Stud Stakes (registered as Ascot Vale Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m), Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) and William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m).

MORNING BRIEFING

Cummings: Kementari ready to win again

Godolphin Australia head trainer James Cummings has made a strong case for Kementari (Lonhro) to gain his first win in two years at Eagle Farm tomorrow. The gelding heads the weights for the Victory Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) which will be his lead-up for the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) two weeks later. "We've forged ahead with the horse and I think he can win," Cummings said. "On paper his last run wasn't hard to forgive. He missed the start, made a long run and was giving away plenty of weight to the winner. While it may be thought that he's looking for longer, this is a good stepping stone to the Stradbroke where he's got 55.5 kilograms and he can't get a penalty for winning it." Ryan Maloney will ride Kementari and will retain the ride in the Stradbroke. Morning Briefing page 8 >>

She also ran third in the 2018 Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m), the 2019 T J Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and the A J Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) as well as finishing runner-up in the $7.5 million Golden Eagle (1500m) last November.

McEvoy, who was joined by son Calvin in training Sunlight this season, prepared the mare on behalf of an all-women's syndicate that includes his business partner Wayne Mitchell's wife Irene, Aquis Farm's Loretta Fung and Widden Stud's Katie Thompson.

The dual-state trainer yesterday said that Sunlight, who was unplaced in the Robert Sangster Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) earlier this month, was deserving of all the accolades she would receive upon her retirement.

"It's the end of a road, but it's been a very good road for us. She's been an absolute privilege to have in our stable and she gave us a magnificent ride," McEvoy said.

“She has got the package. She has got a great temperament; she has got great purpose; she has great depth and is built to be an incredible mother - Tony McEvoy

"She was an elite racehorse and those horses who get to that level, like anyone in life, if you are an elite businessperson or an elite sportsperson, you have got to have soundness, you have got to be tough and you have got to be good and she had all of those things.

"It is incredibly hard to measure what she's done for us, but she has led from the front and she's done amazing things for our business. She's going to be incredibly hard to replace."

Widden Stud's Antony Thompson, who co-bred Sunlight, said the mare was "a true queen physically" who would command the attention of all the major breeders.

"She's a stunning individual and she's got a great pedigree that will attract everyone from around the world," Thompson said.

"Her brilliant speed is something that really stands out and puts her up there on the most desirable mares to add to your broodmare band. You can't replicate that sort of speed and it's so hard to come by. She was an early two-year-old who returned as a three-year-old to be a champion filly and she was also able to beat older horses.

"That is a rare achievement for a three-year-old filly, to win a Newmarket. That's only happened a handful of times in the history of the race and that really tells you she is that sort of mare who can be a foundation mare for any farm around the world."

Sunlight, who won five of her eight starts as a juvenile, also played a pivotal role in her Widden Stud-based sire Zoustar (Northern Meteor) taking out the coveted champion first season sire title in 2017-18 and catapulted him into one of the most commercial young stallions in the three seasons since she started racing in October, 2017.

Sunlight is a daughter of dual Group 3 winner Solar Charged (Charge Forward), who was specifically purchased at the 2014 Magic Millions Gold Coast National Sale to go to Zoustar. She made $650,000 that year.

"We bought Solar Charged there to go to Zoustar in his first crop and planned that mating with David Redvers, Qatar Racing and Dan Fletcher of Telemon Thoroughbreds who has also got a share in Solar Charged," Thompson said.

"This was the mare and the mating that we thought would give Zoustar an early runner, so we went out and bought Solar Charged for a lot of money at the Magic Millions mares' sale.

"We took that filly back to Magics with the intention of trying to get her to win the Magic Millions and for her to do that was an incredible feat and one of our proudest moments.

"To see her go on from there, run so well in the Golden Slipper and give us so many other great thrills including in Zoustar's trifecta of the Coolmore and when she beat the older horses in a Newmarket - that's one for the ages.

"She's been a life-changer for everyone involved and she is very, very special."

purchase Sunlight for $300,000 at the Magic Millions Yearling Sale in 2017 before paying double that in conjunction with David Redvers a year later for her younger sibling, the subsequent Group 3-winning filly Sisstar (Zoustar).

McEvoy was, of course, also a big believer in Sunlight's credentials as a broodmare prospect.

"She has got the package. She has got a great temperament; she has got great purpose; she has great depth and is built to be an incredible mother," he said.

I'm sure."

Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch was delighted that the company would be able to play its part in Sunlight, "a great ambassador" for the auction house, completing a full circle by returning to the Gold Coast for the scheduled July 20 to 24 sale.

"We've had conversations with the ownership group in recent times and obviously they are great clients of ours, from Tony McEvoy's team through to the owners and the breeders Antony Thompson and Dan Fletcher as well, so I am pleased that we will be able to sell her one more time," Bowditch said.

"This sale has proven that all the big international players take notice and we'll be engaging with buyers from all over the world as well as domestically about a mare of Sunlight's quality."

The addition of Sunlight to the Magic Millions National Sale, which was initially slated to start with a weanling session this week before the onset of Covid-19 shut down the economy and forced the three-week event to be pushed back, follows on from the recent confirmation that fellow Group 1-winning mare Viddora (I Am Invincible) would be offered at the Gold Coast in foal to Lope De Vega (Shamardal).

Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Unforgotten (Fastnet Rock), who will be offered under the Blue Sky Premium Consignment on behalf of her owners, is also catalogued.

"She will throw champions to come,

In the past, Magic Millions has sold Group 1 winner Bounding (Lonhro) at the National Sale for $1.9 million to US interests while her mother Believe'n'succeed (Exceed And Excel) was bought by Coolmore's Tom Magnier for $1.1 million in 2014.

Believe'n'succeed is now the dam of Anthony Van Dyck (Galileo), who won the Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) last year, while Bounding's first foal - now named Aussie Pride (Curlin) - made US$4.1 million (AUD$6.25 million) at the 2019 Keeneland September Yearling Sale when bought by Godolphin.

Bowditch is confident that the leading international investors would again be paying close attention to this year's Magic Millions catalogue given the impact Australasian mares had been having on world bloodlines in recent times.

"You only have to look at the buying bench that turns up each year, but having the results with Bounding and Believe'n'succeed, Bounding's mother, producing the Epsom Derby winner certainly helps," he said.

"They were both were sold here and you also have the likes of (the UK's) John and Jake Warren buying Missrock here last year (for $2.3 million) and Katsumi Yoshida and buyers of his ilk being active in this very sales ring,

"It's a proven source of these elite mares who can go all over the world and succeed these days."

Cummings: Kementari ready to win again

Kementari

SPORTPIX

Godolphin Australia head trainer James Cummings has made a strong case for Kementari (Lonhro) to gain his first win in two years at Eagle Farm tomorrow. The gelding heads the weights for the Victory Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) which will be his lead-up for the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) two weeks later. "We've forged ahead with the horse and I think he can win," Cummings said. "On paper his last run wasn't hard to forgive. He missed the start, made a long run and was giving away plenty of weight to the winner. While it may be thought that he's looking for longer, this is a good stepping stone to the Stradbroke where he's got 55.5 kilograms and he can't get a penalty for winning it." Ryan Maloney will ride Kementari and will retain the ride in the Stradbroke.

Forster's Chapter And Verse a pet project

Trainer Desleigh Forster will run Chapter And Verse (Rothesay) in the Victory Stakes at Eagle

Farm tomorrow as she chases one of her biggest wins. The gelding will need to win to make the field for the Stradbroke Handicap. Forster has first-hand knowledge of how Chapter And Verse is gearing up in his trackwork as she had been the horse's exercise rider, too. An accomplished long-distance rider in her youth, Forster has taken to partnering many of her horses in trackwork in recent months. It has been a major reason she is enjoying one of her best seasons with 26 wins from a team which rarely has more than a dozen horses. "I have been riding a heap of work and it is paying off. You can feel exactly how well your horses are doing and act accordingly," Forster said. "If he (Chapter And Verse) wins we are in the Stradbroke with a real chance but if not we will have to find something else."

Anderson pair to take on boom three-year-old Kinane

Chris Anderson can see positives from taking on the Chris Waller-trained Kinane (Reliable Man) at Eagle Farm tomorrow. Kinane, who has won his last two starts including the Frank Packer Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) and has been the subject of seven-figure offers from Hong Kong. Kinane will run in tomorrow's Gunsynd Classic (Gr 3, 1800m) and in the Rough Habit Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) in a fortnight's time. Anderson will have Ballistic Boy (Smart Missile) and Profit (Dundeel) running against Kinane in both races. "Chris (Waller) has an outstanding winter record and knows the right horses to bring here," Anderson said. "I have made no secret of my good opinion of my pair. We had to cancel Sydney autumn trips for both of them because of the coronavirus restrictions. So running against Kinane on Saturday will give us an idea of how they would have gone in Sydney."

Peltzer unlikely to progress to Atkins

Unbeaten colt Peltzer (So You Think) is unlikely to progress to the J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m) in Brisbane with Gerald Ryan keen to end his campaign at Randwick. The juvenile will bid to defend his perfect record in the Darley 2YO Stakes (1300m) tomorrow before he is spelled with a view to the spring. Ryan fears that pressing on to next month's Atkins would not leave enough time to get Peltzer ready for a possible Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) tilt. "At the moment I'm not a big wrap on going up there," Ryan said. "The lead-up to the Golden Rose and those spring races, they start in the first week of August. He doesn't get a chance to have a break. Not only that, he will have had two jump-outs, two barrier trials, three races. It's enough for their preparation."

Not An Option out to earn Atkins berth

The J J Atkins may be on the radar for Not An Option (Not A Single Doubt) if he runs up to expectations at Randwick tomorrow. Not An Option will have his first start for new trainers Richard and Michael Freedman in the Darley 2YO Handicap. He will carry 60 kilograms but his trainers are confident of a solid showing after his 1040-metre trial placing at Randwick last week. "It was a good trial," Michael Freedman said. "He got back and made up a nice bit of ground. It looks a nice race albeit he will be carrying a bit of weight. We will just have to see what the track comes up, but with forecast rain we are probably going to be in the heavy range, which may not be ideal carrying that weight." Not An Option will also sport blinkers for the first time with James McDonald to ride.

Plan B for St Covet's Spirit

The Scone carnival delivered a mixed bag for trainer Jason Coyle; although he missed an opportunity with St Covet's Spirit (Uncle Mo), she did get a form boost. Coyle was keen to run the two-time stakes placegetter in the Dark Jewel Classic (Gr 3, 1400m) last Saturday but she did not make the field. However, Dawn Passage (Dawn Approach) franked her form with an impressive win in the Inglis 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) on the same card to propel himself into a live Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) contender. "I would have liked to gain a start in the Dark Jewel last week. I think it was a nice race for her, two weeks between runs over 1400 (metres)," Coyle said. "This is obviously Plan B going the extra week between runs and back to the 1200. It's not always great to go back to your Plan B but she looks quite well placed in the race."

Rich Charm heads to Flemington straight

Rich Charm

SPORTPIX

Cult favourite Rich Charm (Danerich) will be aiming for his first win down the Flemington straight since he took out the TAB Stakes (registered as Linlithgow Stakes) (Gr 2, 1200m) in 2017 when he contests the Straight Six (Listed, 1200m) tomorrow. After 11 months off the scene with problems, Rich Charm returned to finish 11th in the Hareeba Stakes (Listed, 1200m) in March at his last start. "He was terribly unlucky that day, climbing all over them, but it showed me he was back," trainer Udyta Clarke said. A jump-out at Cranbourne on Monday when ridden by Patrick Moloney, who takes the ride tomorrow, showed Clarke Rich Charm was ready for another start. "Patrick said you've got to start him somewhere, so we'll go around on Saturday and see what happens," she said.

One-eyed blinker for Hezafox

After a last start win at Sandown, Greg Eurell has opted to apply a one-eyed blinker to promising young stayer Hezafox (Foxwedge) when the gelding contests the Efficient Handicap (2000m) at Flemington tomorrow. "He's always had this bit of a habit of leaning in under pressure and it's been a bit of a tricky one," Eurell said. "It's a bit of that old rule, 'if it's not broken, don't fix it' as he's been settling so well, but late in his races he wants to get in. We just think we can get a bit more out of him if he runs straight and true. I tried a set of blinkers on him in trackwork but he didn't handle them at all, so we tried a one-eyed blinker on the left eye and I was surprised how well he took to it."

Ings hospitalised after fall

Jockey Chelsea Ings was taken to Westmead Hospital with suspected concussion and facial injuries following a race fall at Hawkesbury yesterday. Ings was dislodged from Miss Merlin (Camelot), trained by her mother Wanda, after colliding heavily with a rival runner near the 300 metres of the Australian Farriers Conference Maiden Plate (1300m). She was knocked unconscious in the fall but became responsive to the attending ambulance officers shortly after.

VRC: Melbourne Cup to be 'the race that starts the nation'

The Victoria Racing Club is set to use the 160th running of the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) this spring to acknowledge the grassroots of the great race. "I think we are going to position the Cup as the People's Cup this year," VRC executive general manager of racing Leigh Jordon told RSN927. "So, it's a chance for a restart and for people to really get in touch with what the Melbourne Cup actually means to Australians. What it means to people in the suburbs. The race that stops the nation on the first Tuesday in November, the club sees this year it could be the race that starts the nation. It's all about having a barbeque watching the races on the TV and the history of all the winners, the horse, the trainers, the owners. People getting dressed up and enjoying the day."

Waterhouse argues against spring changes

Hall of Fame trainer Gai Waterhouse has decried moves to switch the Melbourne spring carnival around, labelling the intended moves as "madness" brought about by Racing NSW chief Peter V'landys. "You could do it as a one-off but I'm totally against it. I think they have a very good race pattern that leads up to a grand final, which is what people are heading for, and that is the Melbourne Cup," Waterhouse told The Australian's Brendan Cormick. "The Caulfield Cup [has] stood the test of time and all of a sudden, on a whim, they want to change it. How do you qualify for the Melbourne Cup? They moved the Mackinnon Stakes. It used to be a qualifying race for the Melbourne Cup. Why do they want to move everything? All because Peter V'landys has put the 'Golden Seagull' (Golden Eagle) on and everyone wants to frantically move things around."

Spring uncertainty puts Begg plans on hold

Grahame Begg would like a quick resolution to the potential changes for the Victorian spring so he can map out plans for his team. Although the Victoria Racing Club is committed to not changing the date of the Melbourne Cup carnival and the Moonee Valley Racing Club is keen to run the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) at its regular time, the Melbourne Racing Club is looking into a possible switch for the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) to November. Racing Victoria needs to ratify any programming changes and says it won't be making any announcement until June, however Begg has already brought Caulfield Cup hope Nonconformist (Rebel Raider) back into work. "It's all very well that they say we should be running this race after that and whatever, but we've got to get the horses in and work out a program, outline what we want to do and how we want to approach it," Begg said.

miEverest slot registrations soar past 1,000

The Everest

MIEVEREST

Only 48 hours after it was announced that miRunners had bought GPI Racing's slot for The Everest (1200m), pre-registrations for the shares have already soared past their intended capacity. "Not knowing quite how the racing public would respond, the miEverest team are delighted to report pre-registrations for the miEverest slot are already well over the 1000-unit level," miRunners CEO Steve Brown said yesterday. "The majority of unit registrations are by teams, which aligns ideally with the spirit of miEverest. Raceday attendance or not, we suspect there will be a brand new engagement dynamic in this year's race and a new type of Everest party around the country. While pre-registrations exceed the number of units available, interested parties can still sign-up and will be given a one-hour priority window to purchase a unit before miEverest is opened up to the public. Slot units will go on sale at 12 noon on Monday May 25 on the miEverest website - www.mieverest.com.au."

Ablaze set for flat return

After being left out of acceptances for Sunday's Australian Steeplechase (3900m), Ciaran Maher and David Eustace's Grand Annual Steeplechase (5500m) winner Ablaze (Raise The Flag) looks set to return to the flat in the Stayer's Cup (3200m) at Rosehill on June 27. The former New Zealand gelding has already proven his staying credentials on the flat this season, taking out the second running of the Jericho Cup (4600m) at Warrnambool in December.

Tasmania to reschedule Tasbred features

Inaugural Tasbred features for two-year-olds and three-year-olds that were scheduled for

May 3 will be rescheduled, likely to the spring, with the races instead for three-year-olds and four-year-olds with prize-money of $50,000 each. "There is no doubt Tasbred has given the industry some new positivity over the past 18 months," said Tasbreeders vice president David Whishaw. "We see the Tasbred feature races as an important part of the new Tasbred scheme and feel it is really important to give owners and trainers the best chances to target these races."

Premiership leader Allpress ready to go

Leading jockey Lisa Allpress took a step towards doing what she loves best when riding at the Levin jump-outs on Wednesday. "It was great to be back and blow a few cobwebs out," Allpress said. "We've been really busy at home with horses and going to the track as soon as we were able to ride trackwork. It was so nice to catch up with the likes of Leah Hemi, Dylan Turner and Sarah McNab, just to name a few. It felt like going back to school after summer break." The year has been bizarre for most and it is less than two months since Allpress created history, becoming the first female to ride a winner in Saudi Arabia. "I only just got paid from Saudi Arabia today and it seems like it was a lifetime ago that it all happened," Allpress said.

Cruz looking to continue Champions & Chater run

Tony Cruz's name is woven into the very fabric of the sport in Hong Kong and in that respect he has commonality with one of the city's oldest and most cherished races, the Champions & Chater Cup (Gr 1, 2400m). The Champions & Chater Cup was first contested back in 1870 and on Sunday, Cruz will saddle last year's victor Exultant (Teofilo) and his recently-acquired Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m) winner Furore (Pierro) - first and second in the QEII Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) last month - in a bid to enhance his own impressive record in the historic contest. Cruz won the race three times as a rider, while he has won six of the last seven runnings as a trainer. "Exultant is a real turf galloper, he loves the mile and a half," Cruz says. "The first year he ran in it, he was only a four-year-old but last year you could see he was stronger, more mature, and he was easily the best horse. He's in good form again this season, he's the champion stayer, so I can see him winning it again."

26 for So You Think

Coolmore's former shuttler So You Think (High Chaparral) sired his 26th individual stakes winner yesterday when Think Of Me (4 m ex Tosia by Big Shuffle) took out the Prix Gold River (Listed, 2800m) at Deauville. The four-year-old mare defeated Endorphine (Muhtathir) by a head with Amarena (Soldier Hollow) a further length back in third. Think Of Me is one of two foals, both of which are winners, out of the placed mare Tosia (Big Shuffle), who herself is a sister to the stakes-placed Taita. Taita is responsible for Group 3 winner and Group 1 third Tai Chi (High Chaparral) who now stands at Gestut Ohlerweiherhof in Germany for a fee of €4,500. Think Of Me joins Coachwhip and Mr Marathon Man as stakes winners in the Northern Hemisphere for So You Think, who will stand at Coolmore Australia for a fee of $38,500 (inc GST) in 2020.

28 for Camelot

Former shuttler Camelot (Montjeu) landed his 28th individual stakes winner yesterday as Sunny Queen (3 f ex Suivi by Darshaan) took out the Göddert Sybrecht Erinnerungsrennen (Listed, 2000m) at Hannover in Germany. The three-year-old filly is one of five winners out of the stakes performed mare Suivi (Darshaan), who herself is a half-sister to Group 2 scorer Simoun (Monsun) as well as Listed winners Shining (Surumu) and Soudaine (Monsun). Suivi is also a half-sister to Soignee (Dashing Blade), the dam of six-time Group 1 winner and 2009 Champion 3YO Filly in France, Stacelita (Monsun). Stacelita went on to produce Soul Stirring (Frankel), who is a dual Group 1 winner in Japan and was crowned Champion 2YO and 3YO Filly in Japan in 2016 and 2017. Coolmore Ireland resident Camelot now stands for €40,000 while he shuttled to Jerrys Plains in Australia for one season in 2014, covering 104 mares at a fee of $22,000 (inc GST).

88 for Teofilo

DARLEY

Former Darley shuttler Teofilo (Galileo) sired his 88th individual stakes winner yesterday, when Satomi (4 m ex Swordhalf by Haafhd) took out the Hein Bollow-Memorial (Listed, 2200m) at Hannover in Germany. The four-year-old mare is out of Group 3 winner Swordhalf (Haafhd), making her a half-sister to Listed winner Sword Peinture (Peintre Celebre). Swordhalf herself is a half-sister to Group 3 placegetter Swordshire (Shirocco), while their dam Sword Roche (Laroche) is a four-time stakes placegetter. Teofilo shuttled to Australia for six seasons, covering 577 mares at a maximum fee of $44,000 (inc GST), which resulted in Group 1 winners such as Happy Clapper and Humidor. The son of Galileo (Sadler's Wells) now stands at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Ireland for a fee of €40,000.

Ward hopes for Royal Ascot representation

Wesley Ward will not be able to travel to the UK for Royal Ascot this year, but he still hopes to have runners at the mid-June meeting with the American contemplating his string a month out. Ward is planning to send Bound For Nowhere (The Factor) for the Diamond Jubilee Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) and speedy three-year-old filly Kimari (Munnings) for the Commonwealth Cup (Gr 1, 6f). It is his juveniles, though, for which he is best known and even though he has had a quieter year so far, he hopes Tequila Queen (American Pharoah) can stamp herself as an Ascot filly this morning (Australian time). "I'd ordinarily train on grass but we had to switch to dirt because that's the only option in south Florida," Ward told The Guardian. "So they haven't come out running like they have in years past, but I expect this week actually, starting Thursday, to have some big efforts from my two-year-olds."

Grant has Cup aspirations for Social Paranoia

American Grade 3 winner Social Paranoia (Street Boss) could be bound for the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) if owner Stuart Grant has his way. Grant, who has raced horses in Australia including stakes winner Let Me Sleep On It (Manhattan Rain), hopes that the Todd Pletcher-trained Social Paranoia could become the first American to run in the Cup. A Grade 1 placegetter in the Belmont Derby (Gr 1, 10f) at three - finishing more than six lengths in advance of Australian Group 1 winner Cape Of Good Hope (Galileo) - Social Paranoia won the Appleton Stakes (Gr 3, 8f) at Gulfstream Park at his first run as a four-year-old, sweeping from last to first. "He's shown he can go the distance," Grant told Bloodhorse. "If we add another quarter of a mile or five-sixteenths of a mile, he could still do that. Boy, wouldn't that be fun."

Moreira and Purton dish a double delight at the Valley

BY DAVID MORGAN | HKJC_RACING

Joao Moreira and Zac Purton continued their enthralling back-and-forth contest for the jockeys' championship with a double each at Happy Valley on Wednesday night.

"It's such a journey; but it's a good one!" Moreira beamed after having the final word – until next time, at least – on Shining Ace (Testa Rossa) in the finale, the Class 2 Ho Chung River Handicap (1200m).

Hong Kong's two standout riders – each a three-time Hong Kong champion – started the night all square on 117 wins and ended all even on 119.

Purton was fastest off the mark, edging one ahead when Dionysus Collin (Dream Ahead) landed race two, the Class 4 Tan Shan River Handicap (1800m). It was the defending champion's first sit on the four-year-old and his booking made a difference as the Francis Lui-trained gelding knuckled down to earn a maiden win at start 20.

Moreira fired an immediate reply in the next with a sublime make-all ride on the Caspar Fownes-trained Lightning Steed (California Dane) in the Class 4 Tai Shing Stream Handicap (1650m).

"I rode him the time before but Caspar said this time it would be a bit different. The circumstances today just allowed me to ride the horse how he likes to be ridden and he quickened down the straight in a way that he was never going to get beaten," Moreira said.

The big two were kept quiet through the middle part of the card but Purton was back in front when the Danny Shum-trained Golden Dash (Snitzel) took the Class 3 Lam Tsuen River Handicap (1200m) under a sweetly-judged steer.

"We had a good draw so obviously that helped but Danny's done a good job to bring him back from injury, he's given him plenty of time and a couple of runs to get him ready for this," Purton said.

Shining Ace

HKJC

"He drew the right gate (one) and enjoyed a little bit of give in the ground – he won't be out of place in Class 2."

Purton went into the last with a leg-up on the 3.3 favourite Amazing Star (Darci Brahma) but Moreira was not to be outdone. The 'Magic Man' ensured Shining Ace held the rail in a prominent spot, applied pressure to Purton's mount around the turn, and, when that rival began to fade, gave the John Size-trained four-year-old a dig and enjoyed a rolling run to the line through the rain.

"He just loves the wet; when he won with me before it was raining and the ground was soft," Moreira said.

"I was surprised that he was able to bounce out so quickly and challenge those fast horses up there, but as well as he was going, he was never going to stop. It's a great training achievement. All the praise should go to John – he's improved this horse so much.

"Hopefully the winners will keep on coming," he added.

Unicorn is back

Classic Unicorn (Per Incanto) appeared to have put his career back on the rails with a blazing success in the Class 3 Kam Tim River Handicap (1000m).

The Chris So-trained four-year-old set a fast tempo under Derek Leung and just kept on going to slam his rivals by four lengths in a sharp time of 56.38 seconds.

Classic Unicorn was flagged as a horse of exciting potential when he opened his career late last season with two impressive wins down the Sha Tin straight. But the chestnut flopped well below those expectations in two sub-par efforts during the first part of the current campaign, so much so that his handler moth-balled him for a spell.

"It's been a long time! Early this season he was quite disappointing and at the end of last season everyone expected him to be like a superstar," So said.

"Mentally, he's not been 100 per cent; his first two races this season, when the horses squeezed him, he wasn't comfortable, he got his head up and he didn't know what was going on, so I told the owner to give him a small break and give him time to learn more."

Classic Unicorn returned in late April from a four-month spell to finish fourth at the course

Classic Unicorn

and distance and that effort sharpened him for this evening's exercise.

"Last time at Happy Valley he ran okay but this time he has improved a lot and he had the good draw (gate three). It seems that his head has been the problem – he's a big horse with a long stride and he still has potential, he just needed time to mature."

Cruz edges towards a championship challenge

Tony Cruz moved to within nine wins of trainers' premiership leader Ricky Yiu when Bullish Brother (Reward For Effort) took section one of the Class 4 Shan Pui River Handicap (1200m) under Vincent Ho. Cruz has 15 more meetings to reel in the long-time leader, who drew a blank for the fourth meeting in a row.

"This horse was drawn one and that was a big help on this track tonight, he got a really good position and then I knew he was a big chance," Cruz said. "He's had some issues with his knee so I'm very happy we could get this win."

Peter Ho, on the other hand, is at the foot of the table and top-weight Magnificent's (Zebedee) much-needed victory under Dylan Mo in the Class 3 Nam Chung River Handicap (1650m) was only the stable's 13th this season for prize money of HK$18.5 million. The handler requires 16 wins, or 14 wins plus HK$21 million in prize money, to avoid a strike on his record in a three and you're out system.

Alfred Chan partnered his second winner for the Dennis Yip stable, 11 days after his first, with a make all ride on top-weight Flying Bonus (Snitzel) in section two of the Class 4 Shan Pui River Handicap (1200m).

David Ferraris and Karis Teetan combined to take the opener, section three of the Class 4 Shan Pui River Handicap (1200m), with Here Comes Ted (Per Incanto). The three-year-old earned his first career win at the 10th attempt.

Hong Kong racing continues at Sha Tin on Sunday when the day's feature will be the Champions & Chater Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), the final Group 1 of the season.

MAIDEN OF THE WEEK

Tommy Gold (NZ)

2 c Sacred Falls - Gold Rocks by Oratorio

OWNER:

MR M J CHITTICK, MR G J CHITTICK

TRAINER:

JOHN O'SHEA

BREEDER:

WAIKATO STUD

WON:

ALL TOO HARD @ VINERY HANDICAP,
1100M, MAY 20, RANDWICK-KENSINGTON

Tommy Gold (Sacred Falls) shaped as a horse of the future and also provided a timely pedigree update when he scored an easy maiden win on the Kensington track on Wednesday.

A Waikato Stud homebred, Tommy Gold broke through for his first win at his fourth start in the 1100-metre maiden handicap.

Settling near the rear under Glen Boss, he made a looping run around the field to hit the front soon after straightening. Powering down the outside, he defeated Dance (Not A Single Doubt) by a length and a half, with blueblood Narvaez (Vancouver), who is by a Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner and out of a Golden Slipper runner-up in Headway (Charge Forward), coming home a further nose away in third.

The John O'Shea-trained colt had shown promise in three starts throughout his two-year-old career, finishing fourth on debut to Time Is Precious (Snitzel) in the Victory Vein Plate (1000m) back in October, followed by a fast-finishing second in a maiden in February and then making late ground for a midfield finish in the Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) behind Mamaragan (Wandjina).

O'Shea yesterday confirmed on Twitter that the colt would be spelled immediately with spring targets in mind, with Glen Boss giving the youngster a tick of approval heading towards bigger and better races.

"I know we're getting towards the winter, but I think it was a pretty good two-year-old race. I think there were some that trialled really well and, in the enclosure, you could see that there were some really cracking types," Boss said. "It doesn't matter what time of the year it is in Sydney, there are good horses being produced all the time, especially young ones, there's so many of them."

"He's a horse you can follow because he was pretty impressive and, like the other horses in the race, he's going to improve again. He was huge in condition. The real good turn of speed, I was quite impressed. He put it away very quickly."

"He got to the front and he idled up the straight and I had nothing taking me on. This is a bit of a rolling track, you have to get your momentum going and when you are getting towards the 200, 250, 300, you want to be going towards your top, it's one of those tracks."

"I was mindful of that, but when he got to the front, he had absolutely no idea what to do with himself. He was still doing speed but he was idling off. I'm sure if he had something a couple of lengths in front of him, he would have chased it down."

"He's been unlucky in his races but a lot of it has been greenness. He's got himself in the wrong spot. Now he's won, I think he might be able to go on."

Tommy Gold is from the second crop of the late Waikato Stud stallion Sacred Falls (O'Reilly) and represented the two-time Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) winner's first two-year-old success this season on either side of the Tasman.

Tommy Gold is out of former Western

Sacred Falls

WAIKATO STUD

Australian filly Gold Rocks (Oratorio), a winner of the Karrakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) as a two-year-old. She has produced five foals to race for four winners, including consecutive winners of the Matamata Breeders' Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), Gold Rush (So You Think) and Gold Fever (Savabeel), as well as Gimcrack Stakes (Listed, 1000m) winner Calaverite (Lonhro).

The colonial family dates back over a century. In particular, Tommy Gold's fourth dam, 1983 Wagga Gold Cup (Listed, 2000m) winner Madame Monet (Koryo) who has produced a number of prolific winners through her descendants.

Tommy Gold's win couldn't have come at a better time for Rosemont Stud, who will offer Gold Rush as part of their unreserved online sale through the Magic Millions digital platform next Monday and Tuesday.

Gold Rush, who is currently located at Mapperley Stud in New Zealand, remains So You Think's (High Chaparral) only Group-winning two-year-old, among his 17 Group winners.

Her first foal is a yearling colt by Savabeel (Zabeel) who has been retained to race by Rosemont Stud. She will be offered in foal to Savabeel once more, while she has also produced an I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) filly that will be offered at Karaka next year.

Gold Rush will be offered as Lot 40.
