DEEP IMPACT COLT SELLS FOR $6.1 MILLION - PAGE 17

'Extraordinary' Magic Millions National Weanling Sale closes on a high

Record two days of trade, but is the changing market dynamic here to stay?

Lot 339: I Am Invincible ex Ellicazoom colt

MAGIC MILLIONS

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

In the immediate aftermath of an extraordinary Magic Millions National Weanling Sale stakeholders remain divided about whether the frenzied competition for young stock would permanently change the dynamic of the Australian foal market.

Vendors, buyers and the auction house itself had differing views about whether this week's record sale, in which a million-dollar colt was sold for just the second time in the southern hemisphere and the average was more than $100,000 for the first time, would spur more investors on both sides of the fence to have a bigger presence in the weanling market.

Nine of the top ten foals sold on the Gold Coast this week were purchased with the intention of retaining them to race rather than attempting to on-sell them at next year's yearling sales.

The most expensive foal sold at the recent Inglis Australian Weanling Sale, a $400,000 colt by Capitalist (Written Tycoon), was also expected to be held back as a racing prospect.

"The market is in a great place at the moment and we were delighted with the horses we had to offer. But even as confident as we were, this has far exceeded our expectations. To average well over $100,000, have a clearance rate of 88 per cent, which is really good for this market and to gross over $31.5 million is extraordinary," Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch said last night.

"It's a new dimension to the sale, and I think going forward you will see a lot more of it, I think, with end users now at the sale and here supporting the high and middle end.

"It will give vendors the impetus to keep bringing the better horses to the sale and they can come here with confidence that the result they can achieve here can be extraordinary."

- BARRY BOWDITCH

This year's National Weanling Sale, in comparison to 2019 - last year's disrupted sale was held in late July due to Covid-19 - the auction gross of $31,724,500 was up 14 per cent, the average of $105,048 was up 66 per cent and the median of $52,250 was up from $36,000 two years ago.

Excluding the 20-lot Shadwell dispersal, which saw the unreserved draft of weanlings sell for $5.435 million at an average $271,750 on Thursday, this year's sale still averaged $93,944.

Bowditch cited the graduate success of the Magic Millions' weanling sale, specifically pointing to Group 1-winning colts Stay Inside (Extreme Choice), Pierro (Lonhro) and Zoustar (Northern Meteor) as evidence, had become too compelling for the end-user buyers to ignore.

"We want to continue to grow our weanling market. We think it's always been a strong market for Magic Millions, but this year it has gone to a whole new level," he said.

"We could have sold plenty more horses than we had catalogued here and there was a lot of demand.

"There are a lot of frustrated pinhookers out there that weren't getting in and buying the horses they need to.

When you have frustrated buyers, it means that you have delighted vendors and with that, you would expect they would continue to support this sale with gusto going forward."

I Am Invincible colt makes $625,000 on day two

Shane McGrath and Sally Williams

MAGIC MILLIONS

The most expensive lot sold on the second day was a $625,000 I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) colt who, like the majority of top lots sold at the weanling sale, will be retained to race.

He was the highest-priced of three colts bought at the sale by Tony Fung Investments after they also paid $550,000 for an Exceed And Excel (Daneshill) colt and $210,000 for a son of Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) on day one.

Warwick Farm-based Annabel Neasham is expected to train the trio.

"He's a lovely colt, he is obviously by a serious sire in I Am Invincible. Being a first foal, we really liked him, he had plenty of size and scope," Fung's bloodstock representative Shane McGrath said.

"She was a very good racemare herself. She probably could have won the William Reid and been a Group 1 winner.

"He's got size, substance and comes off a great farm. We have had a lot of luck buying horses off Kitchwin.

"They do a great job and he was well presented. He made his money, but he was a proper colt."

The sale of the day's top lot, the first foal out of Group 3 winner and Group 1-placed mare Ellicazoom (Testa Rossa), continues the success Kitchwin Hills' have enjoyed with the former Perth-trained mare, who joined the Hunter Valley nursery's team midway through her racing career.

Kitchwin Hills' Mick Malone went to $420,000 to buy Ellicazoom at the 2018 Magic Millions Perth Winter Mixed Sale. She was sent to Victoria to be trained by Lindsay Park, under whose guidance she won the Cockram Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) and was placed in the William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) under new ownership before Kitchwin resold her for $800,000 at the 2019 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale.

Malone negotiated a deal to retain 50 per cent ownership of the mare and the partnership mated her with I Am Invincible.

"You come to these weanling sales and he was a horse that was probably going to end up at a racing stable, not so much a pinhook," Malone said.

"He was such a lovely, lovely colt. She's a beautiful mare and has done such a terrific job. We had a video of the colt as a young foal galloping through the paddock. It was unbelievable.

"He had this amazing presence from the day he was born. He really just stood out on the farm."

Ellicazoom is in foal to Exceed And Excel (Danehill).

Kitchwin Hills sold 12 weanlings at the sale for a total of $1.683 million.

"It's such an amazing place to be, Australia at the moment, isn't it? A lot of parts of the world are crippled by Covid and here we are buying horses like we would by houses," Malone said.

"We brought a couple of Capitalists here and they have sold really well and we brought the I Am Invincible colt as well.

"I felt the market was going to be a bit like this off the back of the yearling sales, they often want to tip into these weanling sales.

"He was always such a proper weanling and forward enough to be here. Sometimes you do those things and they come back and bite you, but you have to be prepared to cop that. When people get good results, they will come back and buy another one off you."

Arguably spurred, in part, by the Shadwell Stud Australasia dispersal sale on Thursday and Gilgai Farm presenting a sought-after draft of foals, led by the sale-topping $1 million I Am Invincible colt, some vendors are considering bringing more of their stock to the weanling market.

But Malone stopped short of adopting that approach on a permanent basis.

"One thing I have learned about this industry is try not to learn things from what happened the year before," he said.

"If the market is running one way I tend to look the other way. I think you just tackle each year as it comes.

"We have still got a lot of babies at home, so it's not like we are tipping in any more than we would."

Not A Single Doubt attraction to $560,000 Zoustar colt for Maher

Trainer Ciaron Maher has been one of the key players behind the market shift at this week's sale, paying $1 million for the sale-topping I Am Invincible colt on Thursday and adding a son of Zoustar (Northern Meteor) for $560,000 yesterday.

The high-priced Zoustar colt is the first foal out of the former Lindsay Park-trained Listed winner Fundamentalist (Not A Single Doubt) who won twice at two and would be placed at Group 1 level five times.

The Lot 362-catalogued colt was consigned by Segenhoe Stud on behalf of Aquis Farm, the majority owner of Fundamentalist alongside co-breeders Wes and Tanya Heritage.

"He is a beautiful animal. He is actually all Not A Single Doubt. He looked like a Not A Single Doubt. He isn't a big horse, but he has a big action, plenty of quality, a big hip and he looks a real racehorse," Segenhoe general manager Peter O'Brien said.

"For pinhooking, he looks like an ideal Magic Millions horse, but Ciaron's obviously bought him to race.

"Ciaron's a terrific judge, as we know, and the things he loves is a big action and nice width between his hind legs when he walks and this horse had everything.

"I think James Harron was the under bidder, which says everything."

Auctioneer Clint Donovan called a $50,000 opening bid "to let everyone in" before one player went straight to $400,000 in the hope of knocking out their competition, but it failed to deter the interested parties.

A flurry of bids flowed from there, before Maher and his bloodstock manager Will Bourne landed the knockout blow at $560,000.

"He is out of a really tough racemare in Fundamentalist. She was a sparring partner for The Autumn Sun, having nabbed her in the J J Atkins and then again in the Randwick Guineas," Maher said.

"She's a daughter of Not A Single Doubt, who is a stallion that I love, and I have had a lot of success with.

"Zoustar is also flying at the moment and I was prepared to go a little bit longer on him, so I was rapt to get him."

Maher's success with the progeny of the pensioned Arrowfield Stud stallion Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) includes Group-winning sprinters Anders and Dubious.

"I've bought a lot of horses out of Not A Single Doubt mares. Amish Boy (by Star Witness), who is racing at the moment and was third in the Newmarket Handicap, is out of a Not A Single Doubt mare. Continued on page 8>>

"I've also had colts like Anders, by Not A Single Doubt, who is now set to go to stud himself."

Maher, who also paid $200,000 for a Choisir (Danehill Dancer) colt from Gilgai Farm yesterday, reasoned that buying at the top end of the weanling market to secure racing prospects made sense, in that it gave him more time to manage the all-important education process.

"You can grow them out and don't have to worry about the yearling preparation. You can concentrate solely on being a racehorse," he said.

"You can break them in early, get them in the system ... so I'll be back here again. What anybody else may do, I can't speak for them.

"But I feel the two horses we have got, even if we have had to stump up a bit, looking at the yearling market, they are pretty good value."

O'Brien backed the trainers and owners' decisions to play at an earlier market given the strength of the yearling sales this year.

"The yearling sales are through the roof and a lot of people missed out on high-priced horses and they've come in and picked the best of the best here and in their mind got value," he said.

"The horse Ciaron bought could have easily been a seven-figure yearling. He's by a champion stallion out of a terrific racemare with looks to match, so I assume in Ciaron's eyes he's got the horse at value, which I honestly think he has as an end user."

'You get what you pay for': Frankel filly makes $530,000

Lot 387: Frankel ex liex Excelsa filly

MAGIC MILLIONS

Octogenarian Bruce Mackenzie, 83 next month, compared his latest high-priced investment in a young filly to a game of two-up on Anzac Day, but he has no qualms about his $530,000 spend on a daughter of Juddmonte's champion sire Frankel (Galileo).

The former Port Stephens mayor, who races the 'Oakfield'-named horses around NSW, bought the Coolmore-consigned filly, who is the first foal out of the European stakes-placed winning mare liex Excelsa (Excelebration), a half-sister to South African Grade 2 winner Gibraltar Blue (Rock Of Gibraltar), Group 3 winner Scream Blue Murder (Oratorio) and the stakes-placed Blue Cabochon (Holy Roman Emperor). She was catalogued as Lot 387.

Mackenzie's acquisition comes three months after he bought a Zoustar filly for $450,000 at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale.

"You get what you pay for. I didn't pay $15,000 for her like some of them do. She has residual value and all she's gotta do is win one race in Sydney and she's worth double that, especially if it's a stakes race," Mackenzie said from the back of the Gold Coast sales ring soon after signing for the filly alongside his adviser Darren Smith.

"You only have to look at her - and she has the page. She was one of the nicest fillies here, I thought.

"She's the same as that Zoustar filly I bought in Sydney. I liked that one and she's at home getting broken in as we speak and she's a magnificent animal.

"You've got a chance if you buy those types. I like to pay that for the good stuff and play two-up on Anzac Day because that's what it's like: heads or tails."

The filly was last night on her way to Mackenzie's farm where she will be allowed to grow out. Despite the filly's tag, Mackenzie will maintain his patient approach in educating her.

"She won't get broken in until this time next year. She will be handled and looked after. When I take her home tonight she will munch in the paddock, have two weeks in the stable, go on the walker and back out again," he said.

"My horses, when you see them at the barriers, they never ever not go into the barriers because I teach them to go in from the time they are foals."

Coolmore backs its popular sire So You Think

A “standout colt” with a deep international pedigree by So You Think (High Chaparral) was always going to be high on the radar of Coolmore and, so it proved, when its international sales manager Mick Flanagan signed for the $475,000 weanling by the stud’s ten-time Group 1 winner.

Bred by Erinvale Thoroughbreds’ John Kenneally, the colt is the fourth live foal out of US-bred mare Bobine (Giant’s Causeway) who is already the dam of three winning foals led by Sydney Group 2 winner Reelem In Ruby (Pierro).

By Australia’s most popular sire of 2020 when covering 261 mares, the So You Think colt is also from a strong US family, with his dam’s half-sister the champion turf filly Possibly Perfect (Northern Baby), herself the dam of Grade 3-winning sire Promontory Gold (Gone West). He was catalogued as Lot 285.

“He’s been a standout since we got here (and saw him). He’s a good moving horse, obviously by a very, very good stallion who is going to get better as the years go by,” said Flanagan, who revealed the colt could be reoffered as a yearling.

“He has good size, good strength and he has great depth and a great action. Conformationally, he is very straight forward. He’s going to be an easy horse to mind we hope.

“He came highly recommended by John Kenneally, who we get on well with, and have done a lot of business with over the years. He’s just a horse that we just had to have.”

“HE MADE A BIT MORE THAN WHAT I THOUGHT (HE WOULD), BUT HE WAS EXTREMELY POPULAR ALL WEEK, HE’S THE BUSIEST HORSE I’VE EVER HAD AT A SALE - EVERYONE LOVED HIM
- JOHN KENNEALLY

Flanagan outlasted Tony Fung Racing bloodstock consultant Shane McGrath to buy the colt.

“From the time he was born he was a fantastic looking animal and I always thought we’d target this sale with him,” vendor John Kenneally of Erinvale Thoroughbreds said.

“We try to bring the best foals here and he sold accordingly. He made a bit more than what I thought (he would), but he was extremely popular all week. He’s the busiest horse I’ve ever had at a sale - everyone loved him.

Lot 285: So You Think ex Bobine colt

“All the big players were on him.”

Kenneally paid just US$20,000 for the twice raced Bobine at the 2011 Keeneland November Breeding Sale and, ten years later, received his biggest return from his overseas venture.

“I bought the mare in Kentucky in 2011 for US$20,000 and what it doesn’t say in the book is that her half-sister Possibly Perfect won seven Grade 1s,” he said.

“She was an out-and-out champion, her half-sister, and we know how good Giant’s Causeway is as a broodmare sire.

“I was lucky I was there when the market was a bit soft in Kentucky in 2010, 2011, and I bought half a dozen mares over those two years and they have been very good for us. They’ve been successful.”

Irishman Flanagan was in awe of what the Australian bloodstock market had achieved so far this year.

“There’s loads of people here and it’s holding up quite well and so it should. It bodes well for the season ahead,” he said.

“Our own nominations department up at Jerrys Plains are very, very busy, especially with the new horse King’s Legacy, people are absolutely loving him.

“Confidence is good here and people are happy to participate and continue to re-invest. It’s very positive.”

Rosemont strikes again

MAGIC MILLIONS

Rosemont Stud was also back in action on the buying front yesterday, adding a Written Tycoon (Iglesia) colt for $510,000 and an Exceed And Excel (Danehill) filly for $310,000 to the Victorian farm's growing bloodstock portfolio.

On Thursday, Rosemont Stud bought colts by Zoustar ($700,000) and Fastnet Rock (Danehill) ($600,000) with agent Justin Bahen and a Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) colt for $40,000 with Redwall Management's Hannah Wall, who undertook two weeks of hotel quarantine to attend the Gold Coast sale.

The Written Tycoon colt is the second foal out of Listed winner Hell Or Highwater (Not A Single Doubt) and was one of 18 foals Woodside Park Stud parted with for a combined $2.845 million.

Rosemont Stud principal Anthony Mithen said: "He was a very nice colt. We ranked him almost the best physical colt in the place.

"He's got such strength, he's got a hindquarter like a bus on him. He was a beautiful colt. We are pretty excited by him."

MORNING BRIEFING

Prague retired to stand at Kia Ora

Dual Group winner Prague (Redoute's Choice) will stand his first season at Kia Ora Stud in 2021 at a fee of $16,500 (inc. GST). The three-year-old retires with three wins and three placings from 12 starts and earnings of $557,900. A high-class juvenile, Prague won three of his first four starts, two of those being the Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100) and Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m), and then placed second in the Inglis Sires' Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), when under the watch of co-trainers Ciaran Maher and David Eustace. Prague was switched to the Annabel Neasham stable at three and ran fourth in both the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) and All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m). The $1.6 million buy out of the 2019 Gold Coast Yearling Sale is a half-brother to the two-time Group 1 winner Stratum Star (Stratum), being out of the maiden Purely Spectacular (Pins), a full-sister to the stakes-winning and Group 1-placed Raid. Prague will stand alongside Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) as Kia Oro Stud returns to running a stallion operation this year.

Group 1 winner Levendi offered on Inglis Digital

Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Levendi (Pierro) headlines the Inglis Digital catalogue alongside mares in foal to the likes of Flying Artie (Artie Schiller), Toronado (High Chaparral), Pierata (Pierro), Exceedance (Exceed And Excel), Headwater (Exceed And Excel) and Written By (Written Tycoon). The May (Late) catalogue features 353 entries, made up of 139 racehorses (including 64 race fillies), 121 broodmares (66 in foal), 40 yearlings, 34 weanlings, 16 shares and three stallions. Levendi, who won the Derby in 2018 and earned over $1.7m in prize-money, is being offered as a stallion prospect. Further stakes performers on offer include Group 3 winner Charge (Zoustar), this year's Blue Diamond Preview (Listed, 1000m) place-getter Gulf Of Suez (Fighting Sun) and Group 3 winner Blenheim Palace (Galileo). The auction also offers quality race fillies and mares including two-time city-winning Worldly Pleasure (Commands), Obscene (Not A Single Doubt) and last-start winner Norbu (Night Of Thunder), while stakes-winning broodmare Emmalene (Jet Spur) is offered in foal to Pariah (Redoute's Choice) and proven producer You Da One (Fastnet Rock), in foal to Exceedance. Bidding on the Inglis Digital May (Late) catalogue began yesterday, with the final countdown of bidding starting at 3pm (AEST) on Wednesday.

Mugatoo freshened for Doomben Cup

HighclassimportMugatoo(Henrythenavigator) has settled into his Gold Coast base without a drama this week, with connections believing the 35 days between runs and a soft draw are the keys to his Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winning chances today. Mugatoo last raced when sixth in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick in April. On that occasion, he was backing up just seven days after his fourth in the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m). Cameron Swan, who has travelled the horse right down the eastern seaboard of Australia for trainer Kris Lees this season, believes Mugatoo has freshened up nicely since that run. "He's not really a back-up horse. Kris likes to space his runs. He got beat less than two lengths by Addeybb and that's very good form," Swan said. Mugatoo spent a short time out of the stable just to freshen up and has had a recent trial to "get him up to the mark" since his Queen Elizabeth effort. "He hasn't missed a beat up here. I think he can go better than what he did in the Doncaster," Swan continued. Mugatoo meets Doomben Cup favourite Zaaki (Leroidesanimaux) on better terms for having beaten him home in that race. "He had a light gallop on Tuesday. We're really happy with how he's come through it," Swan added.

Waller seeking glory with Kiwi pair

Chris Waller is upbeat about the chances of his New Zealand-bred pair Humidor (Teofilo) and Toffee Tongue (Tavistock) in today's Doomben Cup. Humidor is set to have the final start of his career and his handler believes the eight-year-old will be better for the 2000-metre trip after a solid fifth in the Hollindale Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) last time. "He didn't get a lot of luck (in the Hollindale Stakes)," Waller told Racing.com. "He finished off pretty well in questionably the worst part of the track, so it was good to see him poking up in behind them. 2000 metres and a good tough contest is exactly what he wants." Last year's Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Toffee Tongue was sixth in the Hollindale and has pleased her handler since. "She was good (in her trackwork on Tuesday), it was good honest work," he said. "She kept her rider, Luke Dittman, up to the mark all the way. Luke was very happy with her work and she has pulled up well." Toffee Tongue is an $18 chance and Humidor $26 in Sportsbet's market, which is headed by Zaaki at $2.60.

Harmony targets The Roses

Waller also looks to the New Zealand-bred Grace And Harmony (Sebring) as she heads into the ANZ Bloodstock News The Roses (Gr 2, 2000m) at Doomben today seeking a fourth win on the bounce and aiming to bolster her Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) ambitions. The three-year-old landed the Gold Bracelet (Listed 1800m) last start. "From what I could see, she is just a progressive filly that continues to improve and everything we have asked of her, she has just responded," Waller told Racing.com. "Where the ceiling is with her, we are not sure, but if she keeps improving the way she is, then she is very handy. She was posted wide most of the race (Gold Bracelet) and whether that was an advantage or not on the day I'm not sure, but she certainly toughed it out well and gave the indication that 2000 metres will not be a problem." Waller will also send out Signora Nera (Sweynesse) and Only Words (Sweynesse), second and third respectively in the Gold Bracelet. "(Signora Nera) was coming back from the Oaks in Sydney to run 1800 metres and she looked a bit dour, so I think she will be better for the run and she is certainly a good horse going towards the (Queensland) Oaks," Waller continued. "Only Words is continuing to settle better and I was really happy with her run on the Gold Coast."

Glamour girls to bow out

There will be a wistful footnote to the Doomben Cup meeting today with three wonderful mares heading to the races for possibly the final time. Star New Zealander and 14-time Group 1 winner Melody Belle (Commands), enigmatic Doncaster Mile winner Nettoyer (Sebring) and popular front-runner Greysful Glamour (Stratum) are all set to go under the hammer at next week's Gold Coast National Broodmare sale. Melody Belle and Nettoyer will bid for a glorious farewell in the Doomben Cup and Greysful Glamour in the Pam O'Neill Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m). The trio have each taken connections on an incredible journey and Mark Newnham, trainer of Greysful Glamour, said it will be hard to say goodbye to a horse that has been part of the furniture. "She has been a lot of fun and she was a big help to my career early on," Newnham said. "She was

SOCIALIST
2 C CAPITALIST EX BABY CORN
BY EXCEED AND EXCEL

TRAINER:

CIARON MAHER AND DAVID EUSTACE

RACE:

BILL CARTER STAKES (LISTED, 1200M), DOOMBEN

Today's Bill Carter Stakes takes on the familiar trend of being dominated by juveniles by first season sires. Five of the ten runners in the field are from first stallion crops, including the race favourite; the Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained Socialist.

The son of Capitalist (Written Tycoon) arrives in Brisbane having broken his maiden at Canterbury earlier this month, the exact route taken by last year's Bill Carter Stakes winner and subsequent Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) heroine September Run (Exceed And Excel).

And a win for Socialist may take on more pertinence for his dam, Baby Corn (Exceed And Excel), who is entered for the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale next week, consigned by Kitchwin Hills as Lot 1156, while he could provide an immediate pedigree update for his weanling brother, who sold for $300,000 to Silverdale Farm and Andrew Williams Bloodstock at the National Weanling Sale yesterday.

Socialist, a $130,000 purchase for Ciaron Maher out of the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale last year, is the fifth living foal for the Listed winner Baby Corn, whose first foal was the stakes placed Cornrow (Duporth).

Her seven foals to have sold as yearlings have grossed more than $1 million, including her yearling Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) colt, who sold for $60,000 to First Light Racing at this year's Inglis Classic Yearling Sale. Socialist will bid to become the fifth individual stakes winner for leading first season sire Capitalist.

one of the first runners I had in a Melbourne carnival and she only just got beaten in the Oaks. She has won a Villiers, she won a Mannerism at Caulfield, so she has won some nice races and she has competed in some nice races. She was a $90,000 yearling, she has won $900,000 and she will probably bring $900,000 to a million (at auction). I'm treating it as her last start, but it would be a bonus if it was otherwise." Greysful Glamour has raced 39 times for six wins and ten placings.

Sprint test for Olmedo

Annabel Neasham has noticed a subtle shift in former French galloper Olmedo (Declaration Of War) this campaign and it has prompted her to adopt fresh tactics. A Group 1 winner over a mile in France, the six-year-old has had five Australian starts over similar distances, including a last-start in the Tails Stakes (Listed, 1630m) at Doomben. That latest performance combined with a recent barrier trial effort has convinced Neasham to try him over a shorter trip in the BRC Sprint (Gr 3, 1350m) at Doomben today. "We decided just off visually watching that (win), it would have been easier to watch over a shorter trip, so we're coming back to the 1350," the trainer said. "I'd have to go right back through his French form but I'm pretty sure it's the shortest trip he has ever run over. He just seems to have sharpened up. He was very sharp in his trial last week and I'm looking forward to seeing what he can do coming back in trip because it will open up the door maybe to a Stradbroke." Ryan Maloney sticks with Olmedo at Doomben where he has 14 rivals, including top Victorian sprinter Tofane (Ocean Park) and Godolphin's smart galloper Ranier (Lonhro).

Sirconi on target for Stradbroke

Sirconi (Nicconi) will attempt to build on an unplaced first-up effort when he takes in the BRC Sprint for Nick Ryan today, with the handler looking ahead to the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) for the six-year-old. "He's second-up and he's certainly come on a lot from his run at Sandown but there is still a little bit more improvement in him," Ryan told Racing.com. "He's drawn a very good barrier (two) with Nash Rawiller to ride so, in a very strong race, I think he'll run well. I came back (from the Gold Coast) last night and was up there to gallop him Tuesday on the course proper at the Gold Coast and he worked terrific and the same again on Thursday when he did a little piece of work." Sirconi is an $18 chance with Sportsbet and is as high as $51 for the Stradbroke. Sirconi's Stradbroke participation depends on him racing into peak form. "In two weeks' time there is a 1500-metre Listed race at Eagle Farm and the plan is to go there and go on the seven-day back-up in the Stradbroke," Ryan continued. "We all know he's a very good back-up horse. It seemed to work for us last prep when he won the Winter Championship."

Express Pass up to the mark

Ryan also believes Express Pass (Wandjina) has done enough in his work to enhance his eye-catching record when stepping out fresh. The four-year-old will contest the Donate to National Jockeys' Trust Handicap (1100m) at Flemington today off a five-month spell, having won two and been placed at his other two first-up outings. "He's a very talented horse," Ryan told Racing.com. "He's got a lot of ability and he generally flies fresh. I think he's been placed in all four first-up runs. A Benchmark 78 at 1100 metres down the straight looks ideal for him." Express Pass has drawn inside in barrier two for the dash down the straight course. "Barrier two, I am not too sure about, but Rhys McLeod rides and he knows the horse very well," Ryan continued. "He had a solid jump-out here last Friday on the inside grass at Flemington and since then he's really come on in the coat and trained on so I am very confident he will run well."

Halvorsen ready to fire

Halvorsen (Magnus) has shown a penchant for straight track racing and the Robbie Griffiths & Mathew De Kock stable is hoping that after almost 18 months without a win the five-year-old can break his losing run when he takes his chance in the Straight Six (Listed, 1200m) at Flemington today. The latest three of Halvorsen's seven wins have been on the straight course at Flemington, twice over 1100 metres and once over today's course and distance in the Standish Handicap (Listed, 1200m) on New Year's Day 2020. Griffiths, before being joined by de Kock, had Newmarket Handicap aspirations for Halvorsen until he injured a fetlock when seventh in the 2020 Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) at Caulfield. Halvorsen returned to racing in January and all four starts have been at Flemington, twice in Group 1 company, prior to his last start second to Sartorial Splendor (Brazen Beau) over 1000 metres on April 25. "He ran very good sectionals and he looked like the horse that we know that he is capable of being," Griffiths said. "He just can't quite match it at the top level as he's got older so we have dropped him back a cog and I think it was a very encouraging run last start. He's done well off that, had a trial in between which was pleasing and he's galloped well since. We'd like to think the way he ran behind Sartorial Splendor, he is going to be a great chance."

Ayrton arrives in Brisbane

Ayrton (Iffraaj) will take his unbeaten status into the Stradbroke Handicap at Eagle Farm next month and the exciting three-year-old has arrived in Brisbane by float to prepare for his biggest test to date. The gelding, trained by Mick Price and Michael Kent jr, has won all three career starts and will bid to cement his place in the feature via next weekend's Fred Best Classic (Gr 3, 1400m). "His temperature is good, he had a stretch of the legs this morning and Mick is pretty happy with him," said Leigh Saville from owners Roll The Dice Racing. "He'll just monitor him over the next day or two and make sure he's acclimatising alright but he didn't have to travel in the heat of summer so I don't think there will be any issues." Jamie Kah will continue her association with Ayrton next start but Rachel King will take the reins for the Stradbroke, with a featherweight 49.5 kilograms his likely impost. "There were plenty putting their hand up, but Rachel King was certainly someone that was already on our radar. She's a natural lightweight jockey with some really nice, soft hands and she rates horses well in front, so she was a good fit for us," Saville added. "We've watched her from afar. She rode Anamoe to beat Profiteer in Sydney - she's a genuine Group 1 rider and her results in Sydney are amazing."

Apache Cat clear

Apache Cat (Lion Cavern) is in the clear after a check-up last month showed that the 18-year-old's treatment for eye cancer has been successful. The eight-time Group 1 winner will continue to be monitored at his home at Living Legends. Apache Cat will be at Flemington today for the VRC's National Jockeys' Trust race day. "It's really good, really, really good," Living Legends CEO Dr Andrew Clarke told Racing.com. "I'm very happy. Basically, he's all clear at this stage. The eye looks great and (specialist) Andrew Turner had a really good look at it and couldn't be happier. Our plan is to keep a really careful eye on things at the farm. He will go back for a follow up visit in four months. We are really excited to have him back out at public events and those things."

Currie cleared in fraud cause

Ben Currie has been found not guilty of fraud at the end of a two-week trial in which he and co-accused Anthony Raymond Stephens were said by the prosecution to have dishonestly gained a benefit in 14 races involving horses trained by Currie. The pair pleaded not guilty to the charges which related to the prosecution's case that horses had been injected or stomach tubed with performance-enhancing substances on race day, contravening Queensland racing rules. Magistrate Kay Ryan said there was no evidence that any of the horses had tested positive for such substances after competing in those races, nor did she find evidence of the prosecution's claim that "shampooing" was a code for giving a horse a performance enhancer. Currie, 31, still has his training licence suspended until next month. The case followed a two-year investigation.

Pfieber stablehand disqualified

Adam Wadick, a stablehand working for disqualified trainer David Pfieber was yesterday disqualified for six months following a Racing New South Wales stewards inquiry. Wadick pleaded guilty to a charge under Rule AR227(b) relating to being party to another person committing a breach of the rules, in that Wadick "facilitated Pfieber being provided with the urine of another donor in the knowledge that such urine sample was to be used by Pfieber to substitute his sample." In handing down judgment, the stewards panel, chaired by chief steward Marc Van Gestel, considered the seriousness of the dishonest conduct, Wadick's personal circumstances, his guilty plea, good record and his co-operation with stewards at the inquiry. The disqualification was deferred to start on May 24 and will expire on November 24.

Waugh fined $4,000

Racing New South Wales stewards fined Kim Waugh $4,000 yesterday after the trainer pleaded guilty to a charge under Rule AR240(2), in that the trainer presented Vila Tinto (More Than Ready) to race at Canterbury Park on February 26 when a pre-race blood sample was found to contain the prohibited substance Salicylic Acid. The substance was detected at 18 milligrams per litre in the A sample and 15 milligrams per litre in the B sample, both being above the threshold of 6.5 milligrams per litre in plasma as set by Part 5 of Division 3 of the Prohibited List B Thresholds prescribed by the Australian Rules of Racing. Evidence was taken from Waugh and her solicitor Wayne Pasterfield, as well Australian Racing Forensic Laboratory (ARFL) science manager Dr Adam Cawley and Racing NSW chief veterinary officer Dr Toby Koenig. The inquiry, chaired by Marc Van Gestel, was unable to establish the cause of the finding of Salicylic Acid in the sample. In reaching their decision, the stewards considered Waugh's guilty plea, her personal and professional circumstances and that it was her first positive swab offence over many years of training. Vila Tinto was disqualified from his ninth-placing.

Nugent injured in track accident

Teo Nugent was taken to hospital with a suspected leg injury following an incident on the way to the start of the first race at Cranbourne yesterday. The rider's mount, the Libby Haworth-trained Poppa's Courage (Kuroshio), was scratched from the Core Protective Group Maiden for two-year-olds.

VRC and NJT in three-year deal

A new three-year partnership with the National Jockeys Trust will see the Victoria Racing Club offering fundraising and event support. The VRC will host a sold-out luncheon at the NJT race day at Flemington today where the event's naming rights sponsor will present a $40,000 cheque to the NJT to continue its vital work supporting injured or ill jockeys and their families. The NJT, which has helped more than 360 jockeys and their families to overcome financial hardship, has distributed over $4.6 million in financial assistance towards specific costs such as funerals, motor vehicles, medical equipment, mortgages, rent, electricity and rates. In the last financial year, the trust assisted 50 jockeys and their families, including 16 in Victoria. "The skill and talent of our jockeys is something we do not take for granted, whether they are accomplished jockeys like Jamie Kah, Damien Oliver or Craig Williams or apprentices like Will Price, Madison Lloyd or Laura Lafferty," said VRC chief executive Steve Rosich. "In situations where an accident occurs, it is great to know that the National Jockeys Trust is there to offer financial assistance to injured jockeys and their families. The VRC is proud to support their incredible work."

NEW ZEALAND

Herengawe to make long-awaited return

Herengawe (Zed) will make his return to New Zealand racing in the Rangitikei Gold Cup (Listed, 1600m) at Awapuni today. The Isaac Lupton-bred and owned gelding last raced in New Zealand 18 months ago when victorious in the Metric Mile (Gr 3, 1600m) at Awapuni. He has since been racing in Sydney under the care of Chris Waller, where his best result was a placing in the Premier's Cup (Gr 3, 1900m) at Rosehill last August. He failed to fire in his subsequent starts and has returned to Lupton's Waverley dairy farm where he is trained by partner Joanne Moss. "He went one good run, but overall he was a bit disappointing, particularly his second preparation where he did nothing at all," Lupton said. The former jump jockey is being pragmatic about the six-year-old's chances. "He hasn't had a trial or anything, so we are hoping he still has some residual fitness from his racing the week before he left Sydney in February," he said. "I couldn't imagine him featuring in the finish. He is on trial, he might be given away as a hunter yet," Lupton added. If all goes well, Herengawe could head to Wanganui in two weeks' time for the AGC Training Stakes (Listed, 1600m).

Thurlow playing waiting game

Bill Thurlow is playing the waiting game with two horses entered for Hawera tomorrow. With Day Light (Sacred Falls) drawing the outside gate in the Wanganui-Taranaki Owners Association "Pakaraka star" Maiden (2000m) and Darlington County (So You Think) being first emergency for the Transag "Our Paddy Boy" Maiden (1400m), he may wait until next Wednesday at Hastings with the pair. Either way, Thurlow was delighted with Day Light's second placing at Wanganui last week. "She went really well last start. The conditions weren't easy at Wanganui and I thought she went great," the trainer said. "The wide draw is a concern (today). I have put a nomination in for Hawke's Bay for next Wednesday, so I might see if we can switch over to there, but I am not 100 per cent sure yet." Thurlow hopes a scratching will allow Darlington County to debut tomorrow. "She has had a trial and a few jump-outs and has gone well," he continued "She needs a scratching (on Sunday) and it doesn't look that promising at the moment, they have all got riders. She is another one we have nominated for Hawke's Bay, just in case. It is hard to get a start sometimes, but hopefully we get a scratching. We would rather run her at Hawera than Hawke's Bay because she likes a bit of dig in the ground."

ASIA

JPN: Deep Impact colt sells for $6.1 million

A colt from the penultimate crop of the late Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) has sold for ¥517,110,000 (approx. AUD$6,132,925) at the Chiba Thoroughbred Sale in Japan. The two-year-old is out of Irish-bred mare Premier Steps (Footstepsinthesand), who was placed at Group/Grade 3 level in France and America. Sold by Shadai Farm, the colt was purchased by Susumu Fujita. All but two of the 59 lots were sold, for gross revenues of ¥1,513,270,000 (approx. AUD$17.95m).

HK: Columbus has Moreira's backing

Joao Moreira will bid to roll off a midweek five-timer at Happy Valley and bag the final Group 1 of the Hong Kong season when he partners the Caspar Fownes-trained Columbus County (Redwood) in the Champions & Chater Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) at Sha Tin tomorrow. "He's a good horse, I've been on him a few times and have got a win out of him so I know he's got it," the Brazilian said. "The distance is going to test who is the best stayer in town and he could be the one." Moreira suggested Columbus County's eighth placing in the Queen Mother Memorial Cup Handicap (Gr 3, 2400m) last time was a better performance than it looked. "He was a bit unlucky as the pace didn't suit him, he got kind of held up turning for home so that took a little bit of his chances," he continued. "In normal circumstances, he would be right there. Don't forget he was carrying the top weight (133lbs). That gives me confidence that he might be as good as, or even better than, the horses that finished in front of him in the Queen Mother. Exultant is actually the best stayer in town. His record proves that and even if his form is not the best at the moment, he still deserves big respect." Exultant (Teofilo) is seeking a hat-trick of Champions & Chater Cup wins under Zac Purton.

JPN: Sodashi bids for Oaks glory

Naosuke Sugai has no fears about Sodashi's (Kurofune) ability to last the distance in the Yushun Himba, the Japanese Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) at Tokyo tomorrow, when his white filly will attempt to follow the likes of Almond Eye (Lord Kanaloa), Gentildonna (Deep Impact) and Daring Tact (Epiphaneia) and keep alive the Triple Tiara dream. "People ask about the distance, but I've had my sights set on the Oaks from her debut and though she was great in the Oka Sho, I know she can handle more ground," the trainer said. "I'm hoping she'll listen well to jockey Hayato Yoshida and not get in any fights with him. She has a lot of power, so I think a track that has a bit of cushion to it would be best." Sodashi won the first fillies' Classic, the Oka Sho (Gr 1, 1600m), to confirm her status after topping the juvenile filly ratings last year. The early 1.9 favourite faces 18 rivals this time, including Oka Sho third Fine Rouge (Kizuna) and fourth Akaitorino Musume (Deep Impact), as well as Flora Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) winner Cool Cat (Screen Hero).

JPN: Master Fencer shoots for Graded win

Master Fencer (Just A Way), sixth in the Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) and fifth in the Belmont Stakes (Gr 1, 12f) two years ago, will bid for a first Graded race success in the Heian Stakes (Gr 3, 1900m) at Chukyo today. The Koichi Tsunoda-trained five-year-old landed a hat-trick of Listed wins on his favoured dirt surface last season and put in a solid first-up run this term when fourth to last year's Japan Dirt Derby (Listed, 2000m) winner Danon Pharoah (American Pharoah) in the Diolite Kinen (Listed, 2400m) on March 17. The 16-runner field also features American Seed (Tapit) who bagged three wins in a row before disappointing last time in the March Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m), while Auvergne (Smart Falcon) rounded out a hat-trick of wins in the Tokai Tv Hai Tokai Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) before finishing down the field last time behind Cafe Pharoah (American Pharoah) in the February Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m).

SGP: Grand Kranji pick-up for Van der Merwe

Jean Paul van der Merwe has unexpectedly found himself in the best of both worlds after trainer James Peters booked him to ride top-rated Grand Koonta (Dark Angel) in today's Kranji Mile (Listed, 1600m). The rider had been set for Churchill (Smart Missile) in the 16-runner feature, but with that horse having shifted to the Kranji Stakes (1200m) his disappointment quickly gave way to delight when Peters called. "I don't know what to expect as I know it's his first time going up to the mile," the rider said. "I know he's a horse who proved himself against the best horses. It seems he's also a horse who doesn't enjoy wet tracks, so I hope the rain stays away. He got a good-ish draw (eight), I'm happy with that. If he gets a good position or he box-seats, gets a sit behind the leader, and comes out at the six, he must quicken, and if he quickens like he normally does, then he will run a good race." Meanwhile, the rider has been aboard Churchill at his last four starts and is seeking a first success in tandem. "A Kranji Stakes A race is a bit weaker than the Kranji Mile, but he still needs a bit of luck because the race is still very competitive," he added

Four for Golden Horn

Darley stallion Golden Horn (Cape Cross) sired his fourth individual stakes winner when Ad Infinitum (3 f ex Madame Hoi by Hawk Wing) overcame greenness to win the Height Of Fashion Stakes (Listed, 1m 2f) at Goodwood yesterday. The David Simcock-trained three-year-old crept from back in the field under Jamie Spencer to take up the running in the home straight and kept her rivals at bay through the final furlong to win by a length from Lady Hayes (Kodiac) with Aura Blue (Iffraaj) a further neck behind in third. The 25-1 chance scored at her second start, having finished fourth at 50-1 in a Kempton maiden over a mile and three furlongs in December. Ad Infinitum is a half-sister to US Grade 2 winner Nancy From Nairobi (Sixties Icon). Her dam, Madame Hoi (Hawk Wing), was stakes-placed and is a half-sister to Phoenix Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) runner-up Amadeus Mozart (Mozart), from the family of top level winners Fascinating Rock (Fastnet Rock) and Cesario (Special Week), as well as the Group1-placed multiple Group 2 winner Gothenberg (Polish Patriot). Golden Horn stands at Darley's Dalham Hall at a fee of £20,000 (approx. AUD$36,600).

Two for Twilight Son

Twilight Son (Kyllachy) sired his second individual stakes winner when Twilight Spinner (3 f ex Spinatrix by Diktat) posted a wide-margin success on soft going in the Cecil Frail Stakes (Listed, 6f) at Haydock yesterday. The David O'Meara-trained filly had shown promise when following a debut third at Pontefract with a comfortable win at Ripon two weeks ago. This time, the lightly-weighted Twilight Spinner raced at the tail under Shane Gray before switching out and looming upside the lead with a furlong to race. When asked to quicken, she burst clear for a six-and-a-half-length victory over Ventura Diamond (Dandy Man) with another length back to Mamba Wamba (Mehmas) in third. Twilight Spinner is out of the stakes-placed ten-time winner Spinatrix (Diktat) from the family of the Redcar 2YO Trophy (Listed, 6f) victor Dubai Dynamo (Kyllachy), the winner of 18 races in all, and his Woodcote Stakes (Listed, 6f)-winning full-brother Sadeek. Twilight Spinner is from the first crop of dual Group 1 winner Twilight Son who stands at Cheveley Park Stud for a fee of £5,000 (approx. AUD$9,150).

Four for Kodi Bear

Rathbarry Stud resident Kodi Bear (Kodiac) sired his fourth individual stakes winner when Diablotine (2 f ex Fridoline by Septieme Ciel) took her unbeaten record to two with victory in the Prix des Reves d'Or - Jacques Bouchara Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Vichy yesterday. Trained by Hubert De Nicolay, the filly followed up her five length debut win at Chantilly last month with a two and a half victory. Ma Noire (American Devil) filled second spot, with Glenall (Coulsty) another length and a half away in third. Group 2 winner Kodi Bear stands for a fee of €6,000 (approx. AUD$9,440).

69 for Frankel

Frankel (Galileo) added another stakes winner to his tally, his 69th, when Mostahdaf (3 c ex Handassa by Dubawi) emerged as a serious contender for Royal Ascot honours by taking out the Heron Stakes (Listed, 1m) at Sandown on Thursday evening. Carrying the blue and white Shadwell silks, the John and Thady Gosden-trained colt made it three wins in as many starts as he made a successful turf debut with a smooth half-length victory over favourite Highland Avenue (Dubawi). Bullace (Toronado) was the same margin away in third. The homebred Mostahdaf, who is a half-brother to last season's dual Group 1 winner Nazeef (Invincible Spirit), was given quotes of 5-1 for next month's St James's Palace Stakes by the northern hemisphere bookmakers following his latest success. Frankel stands at Juddmonte's Banstead Manor Stud near Newmarket for a fee of £175,000 (approx. AUD$320,000).

UK: Goffs London Sale to take place online

The Goffs London Sale will take place as an interactive virtual auction on the eve of Royal Ascot and will be broadcast live to bidders around the world. The auction, on Monday, June 14, will offer 12 lots that will be sold via Goffs Online, both in the lead up to the auction and during a broadcast that will combine a live sale with interviews of the connections. A number of the lots have traditionally held Royal Ascot entries and been considered international racing prospects. Entries will open on Monday, May 24 and close on Monday, June 7.

UK: Tattersalls Online sale boosted by wildcards

Five additional entries have been added to the Tattersalls Online sale on May 25, to complete a total of 40 lots catalogued for the sale. Details of the available lots, including photos, videos and veterinary information, can be found here and prospective purchasers are required to register or log on and join the sale ahead of the commencement of bidding, subject to approval by the Tattersalls accounts team. Bidding on the sale will open at 12 noon (BST) on Monday, May 24, and will close from 12 noon (BST) the following day.

IRE: Guineas card in doubt after heavy rain

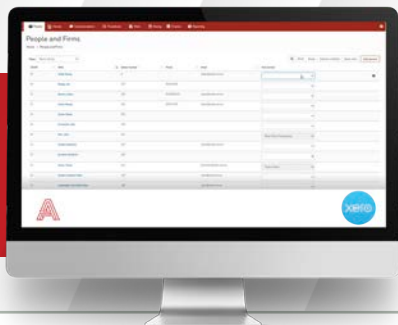

Today's Irish 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) card is in doubt after the track at the Curragh was hit by 34 millimetres of rain in 24 hours - forcing officials to call raceday inspection. Parts of the track were left waterlogged yesterday following the deluge, with more rain forecast to fall. A field of 12 has been declared for Ireland's first Classic of the season, including English 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) winner Poetic Flare (Dawn Approach), who was sixth in the French equivalent last week.

IRE: Melbourne Cup second Tiger Moth set for return

Tiger Moth (Galileo), second behind compatriot Twilight Payment (Teofilo) in last year's Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), is due to make his return to action in the Tattersalls Gold Cup (Gr 1, 1m 2.5f) at the Curragh tomorrow. The four-year-old is one of a trio of runners declared by Aidan O'Brien in the race in which dual Queen Elizabeth Stakes winner (Gr 3, 2600m) True Self (Oscar) is also slated to run. Also on the Curragh card, a field of 16 fillies have been declared for the Irish 1,000 Guineas for which the Aidan O'Brien-trained Joan Of Arc (Galileo) heads the betting.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Cadamosto, 7-2 Castle Star, 9-2 The Entertainer, 5 Strapped, 11-2 Masseto, 12 Celtic Times, 16 Sangria, Twilight Jet, 25 It'll Do My Day.

VERDICT Soft ground put paid to Cadamosto's participation at Naas last weekend so there must be some doubt over him turning up here unless the ground conditions improve. Ballydoyle's other runner The Entertainer showed a tidy turn of foot at Navan and he could prove a major player here, while the progressive Castle Star has to be respected, along with Cork winner Strapped. However, a chance is taken on MASSETO, who created a good impression when winning on debut under quite a considerable ride at Navan, the form of which is working out well. [Alan Hewison]

BETTING FORECAST: 2 Believe In Love, 100-30 Mighty Blue, 9-2 Makawee, 6 Urban Artist, 7 Flor De La Luna, 11 Inchicore, 16 Tribal Craft.

VERDICT A good-quality renewal of this Group 3 for fillies and mares, with several convincing candidates. Believe In Love carried all before her in a stellar 3yo campaign and is much respected despite a 3lb penalty, while Urban Artist has a similarly progressive profile and should also be well suited by the soft conditions. However, with a fine record at York and a solid bank of useful form, MAKAWEE gets the verdict after shaping encouragingly when narrowly beaten first time out. Mighty Blue, who posted a career best last time, could be her biggest danger. VERDICT On the basis that we'll be dealing with at least soft ground on Saturday, VAN GOGH looks the value play, having proven himself on a heavy surface at the highest level in France last year and appearing just the sort to improve for his opening run of the campaign. Lucky Vega would have a massive chance of reversing Newmarket form with Poetic Flare on better ground, but the rain may tilt the scales in the Classic winner's favour. His stablemate Mac Swiney is no back number if none the worse for his Leopardstown blip, while La Barrosa probably has the talent to trouble any of these if handling the ground. BETTING FORECAST: 3 Dragon Symbol, 15-2 Isabella Giles, Method, Saint Lawrence, 8 The Lir Jet, 9 Mujbar, Rohaan, 10 Laws Of Indices, Light Refrain, Umm Kulthum, 20 Apollo One.

VERDICT The unbeaten Dragon Symbol is hugely exciting but he's untested on slow ground. Preference is for METHOD, a two-time 6f winner who stayed on well for second in the Group 3 Cornwallis Stakes over 5f on soft ground at Newmarket last October. Mujbar and Saint Lawrence will also be at home in the conditions, and the consistent Saint Lawrence is second choice. Cases can also be made for others, including the filly Isabella Giles whose surplus stamina may be a positive if the ground is testing. [Ben Hutton]

BETTING FORECAST: 11-8 Changers Elysees, 4 Epona Plays, Valeria Messalina, 11-2 Too Soon To Panic, 9 Roca Roma, 10 Soul Search, 33 Iva Feeling.

VERDICT This looks a good opportunity for Changers Elysees to get back on winning tracks but she didn't set the world alight on her return and EPONA PLAYS could be the one to find any chinks in her armour, able to handle testing ground and seemingly having gone the right way from three to four on the evidence of her Naas win. Valeria Messalina will remain of interest for contests later in the season on better ground but could get bogged down in conditions here. BETTING FORECAST: 15-8 Liberty Beach, 3 Keep Busy, 4 Que Amoro, 6 Lady In France, 8 Jabbarockie, 16 Ainsdale, 20 Declaring Love.

VERDICT Keep Busy, Lady In France and Liberty Beach are closely matched judged on their good performances in the Group 1 Prix de l'Abbaye last October, while Que Amoro holds leading claims judged on her second to Battaash in the Nunthorpe last August. However, three of those fillies are making their reappearances today and the other, Lady In France, was beaten a long way out on last week's comeback at York. Therefore it may be worth taking a chance on the thriving 8yo JABBAROCKIE, who has made all in handicaps the last twice and is a two-time C&D winner (including on soft). Ainsdale also has something to find with the fillies on peak form but is at his best on soft or heavy ground and could be the main danger if conditions are in his favour. [Ben Hutton]
