Peters, Pike and a pair of Williams: an Inspirational partnership

Perth's oldest Group 1 contest goes to same owner, jockey and trainers for third year in succession

Inspirational Girl

WESTERN RACEPIX

BY ANDREW HAWKINS | @ANZ_NEWS

Leading Western Australian owner-breeder Bob Peters, husband-wife training duo Grant and Alana Williams and popular rider William Pike combined yesterday to take Perth's oldest Group 1 race, the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m), for the third straight year, with Inspirational Girl (Reliable Man) joining Regal Power (Pierro) and Galaxy Star (Redoute's Choice) on the honour roll.

It was Peters' fifth Railway Stakes win as an owner overall - having also scored with Old Comrade (Old Spice) in 2001 and Elite Belle (Canny Lad) in 2014 - but it was the first time he won not with a homebred but with a yearling purchase, having paid NZ$190,000 for the Reliable Man (Dalakhani) filly at the 2017 NZB Premier Yearling Sale at Karaka.

"It feels a bit the same because she's really from one of our good families now," Peters said. "Her dam is a sister to Midnight Special, who has been very good to us and who we raced. Now we've got the family growing with stakes winners and we've put a Group 1 in amongst it too. The family is building and it feels like she's one of ours."

"This was a race that we found very hard to win early on. We won it in 2001, it took us 13 years to win it again but now we've got a bit of a handle on it."

Sent out a dominant favourite after winning her last two starts, including the Asian Beau Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at her first attempt in stakes company, Inspirational Girl (5 m Reliable Man - Be Inspired by Zabeel) was on the receiving end of a magnificent Pike masterpiece. The jockey received arguably the biggest on-course cheer at any racecourse, anywhere, since the Covid-19 pandemic brought regular life to a grinding, shuddering halt earlier this year.

The maverick rider returned to Perth for the Railway Stakes instead of riding Peters' Arcadia Queen (Pierro) in the Mackinnon Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Flemington a fortnight ago, with the owner saying it was his decision: "I made it for him. I said you've got a lot more rides to have here than you would over there."

Pike's two-week quarantine experience on a farm in Beaufort River was given the fairytale ending thanks to a deft touch that demonstrated why he has earned his nickname, "The Wizard."

Settling beyond midfield early in between runners as a solid tempo was set by the last non-Peters Railway winner, Great Shot (Magnus), Inspirational Girl tracked up steadily under Pike as the field bunched at the 600 metres.

Pike slowly sluiced his way between runners, making a pivotal move on the crest of the turn by waiting for the gaps to appear rather than forcing his way out wide. Appear they did as Inspirational Girl moved up effortlessly alongside Red Can Man (Gingerbread Man), setting sail after Warrnambool Cup (Listed, 2350m) winner Too Close The Sun (Carlton House), who had pinched a break.

It was only once the field reached the 150 metres that Pike was able to fully exploit a hands and heels drive on the mare, and once he did, she bounded up with great style. By the 100 metres, she was on terms with Too Close The Sun; by the 50 metres, she was racing clear for an emphatic win at her first attempt at the highest level.

At the line, the margin was just shy of two lengths.

In fact, the Asian Beau trifecta of Inspirational Girl, Too Close The Sun and Red Can Man finished first, second and fourth, with only longshot Uni Time (Universal Ruler) - fifth in the Asian Beau - upsetting that order with a terrific performance from last.

Peters paid tribute to his stable rider for keeping a cool head as the race developed around him.

"It's important to have him on any horse," Peters said. "I had a talk to him earlier and I said he'd be in the funnel, they will want to come from the outside and they will want to kick up on the inside. I said, provided you stay in the middle and you get a run through, you should be right."

Bred by Jamieson Park, Inspirational Girl is one of two stakes winners for Zabeel (Sir Tristram) mare Be Inspired; she also produced Listed winner Ruettiger (Duporth).

Second dam Done That (Centaine) produced Naturalism Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) winner Rainbow Styling (Zabeel) and Birthday Card Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) heroine Zingaling (Redoute's Choice), while another foal - Midnight Special (Zabeel) - was purchased by Peters as a yearling. In the breeding barn, Midnight Special has produced Neverland (Big Brown), a multiple stakes winner for Peters, as well as New Zealand Group 2 winner Demonetization (All Too Hard).

Be Inspired has one further foal after Inspirational Girl, an unraced filly named Brookspire (Hinchinbrook). Trained by Chris Waller in the colours of Brae Sokolski, the three-year-old filly finished second in a trial at Rosehill last week.

Inspirational Girl has had 11 starts for nine wins and two placings, taking her earnings to $896,625 with yesterday's triumph.

Underrated Watch Me Dance takes Guineas

It was an Ascot raceday not lacking in stories, from a one-time Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) runner in Neufbosc (6 g Mastercraftsman - Nonsuch Way by Verglas) scoring a first Australian win in the Carbine Club of WA Stakes (Listed, 1400m), to the first stakes winner for 25-year-old trainer Luke Fernie with Miss Frost (5 m Frost Giant - Mega Me by Danewin) in the Jungle Mist Classic (Listed, 1200m).

However, the continued rise of Albany filly Watch Me Dance and her young sire I'm All The Talk (Stratum) in yesterday's WA Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) provided perhaps the perfect sidekick to the Peters roadshow in the Railway Stakes.

The Steve Wolfe-trained Watch Me Dance (3 f I'm All The Talk - Coventry To Rio by Oratorio) became just the second horse since 1959 to win the WA Champion Fillies Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) and the WA Guineas double, joining subsequent three-time Group 1 winner Arcadia Queen, who won both races for Peters in 2018.

The filly is owned by 16 women in an all-female Magic Millions syndicate, many of them first-time owners. Purchased for $34,000 from Mungrup Stud's draft at last year's Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale, the filly has now earned $793,450 through 11 starts.

"This is what makes racing - it's not those of us who are here every day and who work in the game," Wolfe said. "It's these owners, these girls. She's made a lot of people very happy. It's just wonderful.

"A lot of them hated the game, now they can't get here quick enough. As long as we can keep going, we're all happy."

Whatever Watch Me Dance lacks in pizzazz, she more than makes up for in heart, determination and tenacity. So it was as she returned off a seven-day lay-off, having scored an upset against the fillies on a heavy track last weekend, proving just as strong against the colts.

Watch Me Dance

WESTERN RACEPIX

She had showed plenty of promise at two, winning the WA Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) and finishing second in the Karrakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m), but her emergence as a top-tier three-year-old over the last seven days has provided one of the great stories of 2020.

"I said it last week and I'll say it again today, you just can't put a price on these things. What a filly, she's clearly the best three-year-old in the state - and we didn't have to scratch one to get in here," Wolfe said, referring to the Peters-owned Magical Dream (Dream Ahead) making way for first emergency and another Peters runner in fourth-placed Western Empire (Ifraaj).

"I was worried when Shaun (McGruddy) worked her on Wednesday that she might be too well, so we just had to get her here in one piece."

Arcadia Queen capped her double by taking out the Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) two weeks later and it is likely that Watch Me Dance will follow the same path. The filly, who was at a triple-figure quote for the feature before her upset win last weekend, is now a $15 chance for the Kingston Town Classic with TAB.

It was a flagship day for second season sire I'm All The Talk, with the Darling View Thoroughbreds resident continuing to make a splash with his early runners. Watch Me Dance wore down roughie Em Tee Aye to give the stallion his first stakes quinella, with favourite Dom To Shoot (Shooting To Win) recording an eye-catching Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) trial, rattling home for third.

I'm All The Talk, who currently sits third on the second season sires ladder behind Kermadec (Teofilo) and Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry), stands for $7,700 (inc GST) at Darling View in 2020.

Watch Me Dance is her family's first stakes winner in three generations, with third dam Torment (Vengeance) producing Up And Coming Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner West End (Zephyr Bay).

Well back in the family are the likes of Adelaide Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) winner Surprise Baby (Shocking) and five-time Group 1 victor Bounty Hawk (Balmerino), who - amongst his haul - scored a success in what was then the Western Mail Classic.

In fact, Bounty Hawk's win came 12 months on from Kingston Town's victory in the race in 1982 at what was his final start, with the race renamed for the champion in 2007.

Upset as Archedemus takes The Gong

Since Archedemus (7 g Lope De Vega - Carolyn's Star by Peintre Celebre) had put together a pair of wins in mid-2019, defeating perennial bridesmaid Tom Melbourne (Dylan Thomas), he had - somewhat unfairly - received a similar label as a non-winner.

That perception was cast aside yesterday as the Michael, Wayne and John Hawkes-trained Archedemus produced a tough on-pace performance to take out the second running of the $1 million The Gong (1600m) at Kembla Grange.

Sent out at $18 having not won in ten starts since that Hawkesbury Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) - Members' Handicap (Listed, 1600m) double, Archedemus was entering off a game front-running second in the Ladies Day Vase (Listed, 1600m) at Hawkesbury.

Throughout, Jay Ford aboard Archedemus applied pressure to Positive Peace (Stratum) and Tom Sherry, although the splits suggest that it wasn't as fast a tempo as it appeared to the eye.

Entering the long Kembla straight, Positive Peace dropped away quickly leaving Archedemus at the head of affairs. However, looming large on the outside was favourite Dawn Passage (Dawn Approach), although his response when clicked up by Tim Clark was one of toil, not of acceleration.

As much as Archedemus kept lifting, it appeared that Dawn Passage would still get there and, for a half-stride, the four-year-old may even have levelled up. However, Archedemus kept finding for Ford and managed to cling on by a short neck over the Tulloch Lodge representative, with local Think It Over (So You Think) a length and a half away in third.

For Ford, it was only his second win in a million-dollar feature since the halcyon days of his association with the phenomenal Takeover Target (Celtic Swing). He also took out the Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) on Shraaoh (Sea The Stars) last year.

"The plan was to lead but when Positive Peace cleared out we just sat off," Ford said. "I thought we went reasonably controlled and that's why I turned it up from the 700 (metres) and I thought his best chance was if we could get a break on the field.

"He maintained his gallop all the way and was brave when Dawn Passage challenged him. A much-deserved win for the horse."

Superhorse principal Ross Williams has had something of a fruitful spring since his horses joined the Hawkes yard, with Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Angel Of Truth (Animal Kingdom) returning to something near his best with another Group 1 placing in The Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m) and Archedemus taking out a million-dollar race at his former home track.

"Ross Williams gave me a call and asked if we'd take this horse on and Angel Of Truth and I said yes," co-trainer Michael Hawkes said. "It was something we decided to do and to try to get both horses back to form.

"Angel Of Truth nearly won a Metrop and this bloke, well now he's won a Gong so he is well and truly back to form.

"He is the kind of horse where you've got to go that half a length quicker than slower and just try and get his mental attitude right. Probably halfway out I was worried they were going a little bit too quick.

"It was a very tenacious and gutsy effort and all credit to Jay and the horse, they've definitely come together on the right day."

The big payday yesterday saw Archedemus join the ever-expanding list of Australian millionaire racehorses, with his earnings standing at $1,038,730, having won eight of his 21 starts.

Archedemus is one of five winners for Carolyn's Star (Peintre Celebre), who has also produced the Group 3-placed Mandylion (Nicconi).

He traces back to the great Mapperley Heights (Sir Tristram), his third dam, while his fifth dam is the blue hen Wuthering Heights (Avocat General), who includes among her descendants top-liners like Battle Heights (Battle-Waggon), Weekend Hussler (Hussonet), Ad Alta (Kenfair), Viewed (Scenic) and Vosne Romanee (Electric Zone). Irish Flame tough in Ballarat Cup win

For the second time this spring, a Zed (Zabeel) foal who began its career in New Zealand took home a Victorian feature yesterday after Irish Flame (6 g ex Fleur de l'Orient by Thunder Gulch) lifted the Ballarat Cup (Listed, 2000m) in a dramatic finish.

Hot on the heels of Verry Elleegant's Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) triumph, the Brett Scott-trained Irish Flame prevailed in a blanket finish where just a half-length separated the first six across the line: Affair To Remember (Toronado), Game Keeper (Fastnet Rock), Harlem (Champs Elysees), Odeon (Zacinto) and Double You Tee (Written Tycoon) followed the winner, each separated by a half-head apiece.

It was just the second stakes winner for former champion jumps jockey Scott, following on from the 2015 Tesio Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) victory of Coronation Shallah (Strategic).

The Mornington trainer is better known for his feats in the saddle and while injury brought his career to a halt in 2008, it was thanks to his former partner in crime, Kiwi trainer John Wheeler, that he came to train former New Zealander Irish Flame.

"John Wheeler had him in New Zealand as a yearling," Scott said. "He was a handy horse. He was in the Derby but wasn't good enough already. Since he's been in Melbourne every race has been good. He's improved with every run and he's a good, tough stayer."

Just 48 hours earlier, the prospect of Irish Flame lining up in the Cup seemed remote. The six-year-old was first emergency when the field was drawn earlier this week and only gained a start after Power Scheme (Fiorente) was rerouted to the Kilmore Cup (Listed, 1600m). Still, even after he had cleared that hurdle, he was faced with the outside gate in the 16-horse field and he endured a wide passage throughout.

"He had a wide gate and he didn't get any favours in the run," Scott said. "It was a good solid tempo but he didn't get any favours in the run. He was three-deep without cover for pretty much the whole trip.

"He came off the bridle just before the corner and I thought we might be in a bit of trouble but he hung tough."

Rider Michael Walker, also picking up his first Ballarat Cup, added: "He got to the front today and he was going to win by three (lengths) but he pulls up when he hits the front. I was lucky that they got to me a long way before the post and he kicked again.

"The horse had a hard run but I wasn't worried because they only went steady so I was happy where I was. If he found the line, he had three lengths on them but he just won't run away from them. I got there too early but he fought on."

It had been a long time between drinks for Irish Flame, at least at stakes level. While he had put together eight wins before yesterday's Ballarat Cup victory took his total to nine, including wins in restricted company during the Cox Plate Carnival and Melbourne Cup Carnival, he had not registered a stakes victory since his second outing, when he won the Taranaki 2YO Classic (Gr 3, 1200m) in February, 2017.

To this day, he remains the only son or daughter of Zed to win as a two-year-old, let alone win a Group race.

It was the culmination of a long journey for Walker and Scott, with the 25-time Group 1-winning jockey saying it was his compatriot who taught him the ropes.

"Brett Scott actually taught me how to ride," Walker said. "He was the foreman at the stable that I very first went to. The owners, all the people in Hawera, I need to thank them for the opportunity to stay on a remarkable horse."

Bred and raced by two couples, the Kemps and the Reids, Irish Flame remains the only black-type winner for two-time Australian winner Fleur de l'Orient (Thunder Gulch). Two other foals, Langridge Street (Elvstroem) and Volcanic Sky (Nadeem), have been Listed performers.

Fleur de l'Orient is a daughter of Fleur De Chine (Centaine), who also won the Taranaki 2YO Classic that her grandson Irish Flame would take out 21 years later. However, it is in the breeding barn that she has had her greatest impact.

Among her progeny is a full-sister to Fleur de l'Orient, Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) heroine Tully Thunder (Thunder Gulch), whose daughter Lipari (Redoute's Choice) is the dam of Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Levendi (Pierro) and Group 3 victors Wu Gok (Sebring) and Marcel From Madrid (Sepoy).

Fleur De Chine also produced Group 1-placed Fleur De'here (Dehere) and stakes winner Sufficient (Zabeel), while another daughter, Thunderchine (Thunder Gulch), produced Wakeful Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) winner and two-time Group 1 placegetter Thunder Lady (Mastercraftsman).

The family also includes American Grade 1 winner Black Mamba (Black Minnaloushe), another Australian Derby hero in Roman Emperor (Montjeu) as well as top Hong Kong miler Glorious Days (Hussonet).

Yesterday's win took Irish Flame's record to nine wins from 39 starts with earnings of $689,412.

It also took Zed to tenth on the Australian general sires table, quite remarkable given he has only had 12 runners in the country since August 1 for three winners - Verry Elleegant, Irish Flame and Zedaqua - as well as Group 3-placed Herengawe.

Zed, who was once more prolific as a stallion serving Clydesdales, stands at Grangewilliam Stud for NZ$6,000 (plus GST) in 2020.

Three for Reliable Man

Westbury Stud shuttle stallion Reliable Man (Dalakhani) sired his third individual Group 1 winner yesterday when Inspirational Girl (5 m ex Be Inspired by Zabeel) landed the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Ascot. The Grant and Alana Williams-trained five-year-old, successful in last month's Asian Beau Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m), made the successful transition to top-tier company to join VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) heroine Miami Bound and New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Miss Sentimental as Group 1 winners for her sire, who is standing for a fee of NZD$15,000 (plus GST) in 2020. Reliable Man has stood the last three northern hemisphere breeding seasons in France, but he will next year return to Gestut Rottgen in Germany for the first time since 2017, where his advertised fee is €6,500 (approx. AUD$10,500).

44 for War Chant

Chantorque (3 f ex Contortion by Redoute's Choice) took out yesterday's Placid Ark Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Ascot to continue on her upward curve and provide Yarradale Stud resident War Chant (Danzig) with his 44th individual stakes winner. Trained by Russell Stewart, Chantorque was winning for the fourth time in five outings when she came home a length and a quarter too strong for Charleton Eddie (Shooting To Win) at her first start at Listed level. Mystical View (Canford Cliffs) was another half a length adrift in third. Chantorque is one of three winners from three foals to race from the winning Redoute's Choice (Danehill) mare Contortion, who herself is out of the Group 2-placed It's Who Deanie (Fuji Kiseki).

War Chant is standing for a fee of $11,000 (inc. GST) in 2020 and his progeny include three Group 1 winners on three different continents, Silent Sedition having taken out the William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Moonee Valley, Midnight Interlude the Santa Anita Derby (Gr 1, 9f) and Kingsfort the National Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) at the Curragh.

17 for Frost Giant

Miss Frost

WESTERN RACEPIX

Miss Frost (5 m ex Mega Me by Danewin) earned Frost Giant (Giant's Causeway) his 17th individual stakes success when taking out the Jungle Mist Classic (Listed, 1200m) at Ascot yesterday. Bred by Yarradale Stud, the ultra-consistent Miss Frost, who has finished in the placings in ten of her 13 career starts, took up the lead with 200 metres to go and pulled clear nicely to score by half a length. She defeated $19 chance Why Choose Her (Choisir) into second place, with Tycoon Storm (Written Tycoon) a further length behind in third. The well-fancied Flower Of War (War Chant), who was sent off at $2.35, could only finish fourth. Frost Giant, who has previously stood at Yarradale Stud, was based at Irish Hill and Dutchess Views in the United States for a fee of US$2,500 (approx. AUD$3,425) in 2020.

Shrewd move by Sargent results in Clockwise Classic win

John Sargent was delighted when Readily Availabull (Bull Point) took out the Magic Millions Clockwise Classic (1000m) at Ballarat yesterday, a race he had been targeting for the past two years. Sargent identified Readily Availabull as a prime candidate and the two-year-old proved him right on debut, defeating Prince Amongst Men (Winning Rupert) by a neck. "I saw this race and thought that I'd like to find a horse and train it up to win it," Sargent said. "When he worked well during the week I thought that this would be a good chance to do it and I thought he'd go well." Sargent purchased the son of Fastnet Rock (Danehill) stallion Bull Point for $25,000 at the Tasmanian Magic Millions sale and he will now be targeted at the $2 million Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) at the Gold Coast in January. "He's done everything we've needed him to do so far. He'll come back now and spend a week in the paddock, or I might take him to the Wyong Magic Millions race, or head straight to Queensland," Sargent said.

Zoustar quinella in Classic

Widden Stud's Zoustar (Northern Meteor) sired the first two home in yesterday's Magic Millions three and four-year-old Classic (1100m) at Ballarat courtesy of Sisstar and The Astrologist. Sisstar, purchased by McEvoy Mitchell Racing and David Redvers for $600,000 at 2018 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, bounced back from her sixth-placed finish in the Begonia Belle Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) to defeat the Leon and Troy Corstens-trained The Astrologist by half a length, with Hawker Hurricane (Deep Field) close behind in third. Zoustar, the reigning Champion Australian sire of three-year-olds, stands at Widden for $121,000.

Cobra meek as Tradewind strikes

Tradewind (Trust In A Gust) followed in the footsteps of his sire by landing the Eureka Stockdale (1400m) at Ballarat yesterday. Trust In A Gust (Keep The Faith) took out the 2013 Eureka Stockdale before becoming a dual Group 1 winner and Tradewind's trainer Ryan Balfour will be dreaming of the three-year-old colt matching the achievements of his sire. Tradewind, sent off $31 in the seven-runner field, defeated Sirileo Miss (Pride of Dubai) by a head, with Super Yulong (Excelebration) a further length behind in third. Tradewind, an $18,000 purchase by Balfour at the Adelaide Magic Millions sale, gave Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m)-winning jockey Jye McNeil the second leg of an early double after he took out the second race on Blandford Lad (Savabeel). The $1.65 favourite Shelby Cobra (Toronado) disappointed, beating only one rival in finishing sixth, and Mike Moroney was expected more from the gelding. "I think he might have just come to the end of his preparation now and that will do him," Moroney said.

Smith to aim Wave towards Standish

Lindsey Smith will target Riding The Wave (Malibu Moon) at the Standish Handicap (Gr 3, 1200m) at Flemington on New Year's Day following his first Australian victory at Ballarat on Saturday. The former New Zealand sprinter took out the Ritchie IGA Benchmark 70 Handicap (1100m) by a short head from Mistake (Turffontein) and Smith believes he's got a top-class horse on his hands. "He is going places, he'll reach top grade no doubt," Smith told Racing.com. "I wouldn't mind seeing him in the Standish or something like that if he can win a couple more between now and then. I think that would be a good race for him." Riding The Wave finished fourth on his first appearance for Smith at Bendigo last month and the trainer took plenty of confidence from that performance. "I thought he was pretty strong the other day at Bendigo, we learned a little bit, he's got such a big stride," Smith added. "We dropped him back in grade so that we could get that momentum up and use that stride as you would have seen in the last 100 metres."

'Perfect' Jade continues terrific run

The Clarry Conners-trained Stolen Jade (So You Think) made it three wins from as many starts this preparation when she landed the F&M Benchmark 78 Handicap (1200m) at Kembla Grange yesterday, earning herself a trip to the Gold Coast for the Magic Millions carnival in January. "I have nicknamed her 'Bo' for Bo Derek. She is a perfect, lovely horse," Conners said. "I got some terrific owners in her when I bought her. Even the float driver that brought her down from Brisbane, he said, 'can I buy a share in this horse?'" The attractive four-year-old has now won four of her 11 starts and she continued a great season for the stable, which has produced ten winners from its past 36 runners. "She's come back really switched on and sharp this time around and obviously just keeping her to the 11 and 1200 (metre races), Clarry has got her flying," winning rider Jay Ford added. "She's in a really good groove at the moment so hopefully it can continue."

Waller wins protest against himself

Yesterday's third race at Kembla Grange - the Benchmark 78 Handicap (2000m) - was won by Chris Waller. Twice. The rare scenario occurred as James McDonald, who partnered the second home Accountability (Dubawi), launched a protest against Nash Rawiller and his Waller-trained stable companion Relucant (Savabeel), who had passed the post in front. McDonald said he had established a run between the eventual fourth Significance (Frankel) and Relucant before the latter hung in and shut the gap. "I was full of running as I went for the run but the run closed soon after," McDonald told stewards. "I had to come back and switch off heels. He finished off really powerfully. I felt I was entitled to the run but the eventual winner shifted in." Rawiller mounted a strong defence, arguing McDonald never fully established himself in the gap. He said: "I think I was within my rights to shut the gate, so to speak. He hasn't established his run." Stewards disagreed and the protest was upheld with Accountability elevated to first ahead of Relucant. Karmazone (Eurozone) was third, beaten a further length.

Sprinting suits Kembla winner Hulk

Waller secured a race-to-race double 35 minutes later when Hulk (I Am Invincible) came from off the speed to win the Benchmark 78 Handicap (1000m). The four-year-old was struggling to win a race until the champion trainer altered his regime and prepared him as a short-course sprinter. He has now won two of his past four starts, with both victories coming under Tommy Berry. "I know he's had a few runs this prep but you wouldn't know it, that's probably the best he's felt for me," the winning rider said. "Chris keeps him nice and fresh and back to the shorter trips, unlike last prep when we tried to stretch him out a bit, so he just seems like a horse with a new lease of life." The disappointment of the race was $2.30 favourite Destination (Exceed And Excel), who travelled poorly and was beaten a long way out. Hugh Bowman told stewards he was unhappy with the three-year-old's action.

Rawiller draws stewards' attention at Kembla

Racing NSW stewards have adjourned an inquiry into Nash Rawiller's ride on beaten favourite Greek Hero (Champs Elysees) at Kembla Grange after giving the jockey a grilling. Rawiller's ride in the 1400-metre Benchmark 78 Handicap was put under the microscope after he got back to last and never threatened, despite making late ground for third. Stewards told Rawiller the ride lacked his usual vigour at a crucial stage of the race. "That's not Nash Rawiller at his best there inside the 300 (metres)," chief stipe Marc Van Gestel said. "You appear to have clear running. Why don't we see you at your top?" Rawiller argued Greek Hero was hanging in badly and he was trying to balance him up before going full throttle. Co-trainer Richard Freedman told stewards the stable expected the horse to settle on the back of the leaders but added races don't always go to plan. "What Nash is saying is consistent with what he told me when he got off the horse," Freedman said. Stewards have adjourned the matter to a date to be decided.

Meagher horses scratched after float mix-up

Spill Queen (Spill The Beans) and Sinead (Written Tycoon), John and Chris Meagher's intended runners at the Sunshine Coast yesterday, were late scratchings after the float company employed by the yard transported the duo to the Gold Coast by mistake.

Heat forces Swan Hill switch

Today's seven-race meeting at Swan Hill has been abandoned with expected highs of 41 degrees and will now take place on Wednesday. An RV release said: "The Bureau of Meteorology has advised that temperatures will peak between 1-4pm tomorrow

(Sunday) so the decision to move the meeting to Wednesday - when the forecast is for a high of 33 degrees - has been taken by RV in consultation with the race club in order to ensure the safety and welfare of all horses and participants competing. Nominations for each of the seven races on the card have now been reopened and will close at 12pm (AEDT) tomorrow (Sunday). Race acceptance will then be taken at 10am on Monday. The program from Sunday's abandoned meeting will remain unchanged. However, all horses will need to renominate, with those who were a first acceptor on Sunday given preference in the ballot."

NEW ZEALAND

Three for Sweynesse

Last season's New Zealand champion first season sire Sweynesse (Lonhro) produced his third individual stakes winner yesterday when Brix (2 f ex Somethymesoon by Postponed) took out the Fasttrack Insurance 2YO Stakes (registered as the Counties Challenge Stakes) (Listed, 1100m) at Pukekohe. Still a maiden after three starts, the Glen Harvey-trained Brix pulled out plenty under Sam Collett to defeat second favourite Quattro Quinta (Darci Brahma) by a short neck with three-quarters of a length to Cool Change (Showcasing) in third, just in advance of market leader Beldarra (Hinchinbrook). Purchased for $45,000 at this year's NZB Premier Yearling Sale out of the Kilgravin Lodge draft, Brix is the fourth foal to race out of the Group 3-placed Somethymesoon (Postponed), who herself is a sister to Post Thyme, a stakes winner on both sides of the Tasman. Sweynesse stands at Novara Park for NZ$6,000 (plus GST) in 2020.

Incredible week for Harvey

The victory of Brix capped a week Glen Harvey will never forget. Harvey produced one of the feel-good stories from the annual NZB Ready To Run Sale on Wednesday when he turned an NZ$5,100 outlay into NZ$230,000 through the sale of his Reliable Man (Dalakhani) colt, purchased as a weanling off New Zealand Bloodstock's online sales platform gavelhouse.com, to Hong Kong trainer Francis Lui. In his first full season of training in New Zealand following a four-year stint as an assistant trainer in Singapore, Harvey lined up two runners yesterday, with last-start winner Miss Ipenema (Sacred Falls) expected to be more prominent than stablemate Brix. Obviously, no-one told Brix, who was sporting blinkers for the first time after three previous runs had seen her finish fourth twice as well as losing her rider shortly after jumping away at her second start. "I was confident she was 100 per cent ready to go," Harvey said. "It is the first time she had drawn a proper gate and then Sam (Collett) gave her a beautiful ride. Funnily enough Sam is one of my oldest friends, but this is only the second horse she has ridden for me, so that was fantastic we could combine for my first stakes win. I'm also thrilled for her owners, including Mr Caro, who is on course today. He is 91 and finds it hard to go to race meetings but he's here today and he's now had his first winner. He's got the trophy and it's an awesome feeling to be able to do that for him." Both Brix and seventh-placed Miss Ipenema will aim at the NZ$1 million Karaka Million 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) in January.

Four for Proisir

Rich Hill Stud's Proisir (Choisir) brought up stakes winner number four yesterday when Levante (4 m ex Island Doy by Doyoun) charged home to win the Counties Bowl (Listed, 1100m) at Pukekohe. Sent out second favourite in a hot betting race, the Ken and Bev Kelso-prepared Levante – beaten only once when second to Gold Bracelet (Pins) at her last start in the Wellington Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m) – returned a winner at her first start since March. She charged home from last under Sam Collett to defeat the well-travelled Group 1 winner Summer Passage (Snitzel) by a length and a half, with Its Destinys Child (Castledale) a length and a quarter away in third, a nose in front of top-weight Julius (Swiss Ace). Levante is the sixth foal to race – and the fifth winner – out of Island Doy (Doyoun), a two-time winner at Clonmel in 1999. Island Doy is a half-sister to Brisbane Group 3 winner Cryptavia (Gold Brose), while fourth dam Barbra (Le Fabuleux) and fifth dam Biobelle (Cernobbio) are both French blue hens. Proisir stands for NZ$9,000 (plus GST) at Rich Hill Stud this season.

Railway, Australia possibilities for Levante

The Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and then an Australian campaign is the likely pathway for exciting four-year-old Levante after her breathtaking return win at Pukekohe yesterday. Levante got well out of her ground after missing the start and was spotting the leader at least a dozen lengths early on. However, once she hit top gear halfway down the straight, she swept past her rivals, defeating former star juvenile Summer Passage – having just his second run back in New Zealand after a stint in Hong Kong – by a length and a half. “Deep down I was hoping for a performance like that but you just never know when they are coming back off such a long break,” co-trainer Ken Kelso said.

“It was a Group 1-quality field, the best she had ever faced, so I kept telling myself don’t be too silly with your expectations. In the end she has done the job very very well and has had the audacity to prick her ears at the finish. She is a much stronger mare now but we will still be spacing her races. Missing the Hawkes Bay races in the spring was probably a blessing as it is hard for those three-year-olds to step out against the older horses as an early four-year-old. We will let her get over this one but the natural target is the Railway – we will probably go straight there.”

Media Sensation returns a winner

November has been a good month for Media Sensation (5 m I Am Invincible - Different To by High Chaparral) in the past, with the mare’s three previous November runs yielding wins in the 2018 New Zealand 1000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and the 2019 Legacy Lodge Sprint (Listed, 1200m) as well as a second in last year’s Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m). Yesterday, the Peter and Dawn Williams-trained Media Sensation went one better, taking the Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders Stakes at Pukekohe by a short neck over Showoroses (Showcasing) with a head to Supreme Heights (Jimmy Choux) in third. It was Media Sensation’s first run since early March and Dawn Williams believes that she can develop into a Railway contender. “She had a really good break over the winter and we didn’t rush her back,” she said. “The time she spent at the beach has really brought her on and she did look good heading to the start today. We are mindful of her feet though, as she can get a bit clunky running on the really hard tracks. The track today suited her and it was a lovely ride by Opie (Bosson). We targeted this race first-up and now she has that under her belt we will have a look towards what is next for her. I think she is best at around 1200 metres to 1400 metres so we have her nominated for the Railway. Even though she got the mile when she won her Group 1, she is better over the sprint distances. She just needs to get into a good rhythm, like she did today, and she can be a hard horse to get past.”

Back-to-back Counties Cups for Twinkling

Jamie Richards believes right-handed tracks are the key to In A Twinkling (5 g Fastnet Rock - Moment In Time by Archway) after the enigmatic stayer returned to form to win his second consecutive Counties Cup (Gr 3, 2100m) at Pukekohe yesterday. On his day, In A Twinkling has plenty of class, as seen by his second to Crown Prosecutor (Medaglia d’Oro) in the 2019 New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m), but he is also a headstrong character who can mix his form. “We had been expecting him to run well and turn his form around as his work this week had been very good,” Richards said. “He is a bit of a hard horse to get a line on as you have to take him on trust a little bit. On top of the ground and up in trip this time, he was very good. We gave him a good break as he had had a big season as a three-year-old and I think that has paid off and justified the owners’ patience with him. I think the main thing is that he likes it up here and maybe we might need to just keep him going right-handed in the future. He didn’t go at all well in the Waikato Cup last year so we might give that a miss and concentrate on Ellerslie instead.” In A Twinkling held off the late surge of stablemate Savy Yong Blonk (Savabeel) to win by a length, with three-quarters of a length to Grand Bouquet (Savabeel) in third. “Savy Yong Blonk went a super race today and she is more likely to go to the Waikato Cup next,” Richards said. “She was just the victim of a bad barrier and got held up entering the straight, so she will take a good bit of benefit out of the run.”

UK: Ghaiyyath crowned Cartier Horse of the Year

Ghaiyyath (Dubawi) was on Friday crowned Cartier Horse of the Year following his scintillating Flat season that included triumphs in the Coronation Cup (Gr 1, 1m4f), Eclipse (Gr 1, 1m2f) and Juddmonte International (Gr 1, 1m2f). The Charlie Appleby-trained five-year-old is Godolphin's third horse to take the coveted prize after his three consecutive Group 1 wins this year, starting with a brutish display at Newmarket before he lowered the colours of Enable (Nathaniel) and Magical (Galileo) at Sandown and York respectively. He suffered a narrow defeat to Magical in the Irish Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m2f) on his final start before retirement, but the son of Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) followed in the footsteps of Daylami (Doyoun) (1999) and Fantastic Light (Rahy) (2001) by scooping the award for Sheikh Mohammed's operation and was also successful in the Older Horse category. "To win with Ghaiyyath has been a fantastic achievement by everyone involved with Godolphin," Appleby said. "His Highness Sheikh Mohammed has followed this horse very closely from being a yearling through his two-year-old career and thankfully it has culminated in what he has achieved this year. I now pass the baton over to the breeding operation and I'm sure they will have a lot of fun and success with him in his career."

UK/IRE: Remaining Cartier award winners announced

Champion trainer John Gosden dominated the 30th Cartier Awards once again after three-time Royal Ascot Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2m4f) hero Stradivarius (Sea The Stars) maintained his stranglehold on the Stayers' division for the third year in succession and Palace Pier (Kingman) took the Three-Year-Old Colt crown. The Newmarket trainer was also recognised for his outstanding training achievements by being presented with the 2020 Cartier/Daily Telegraph Award of Merit. Aidan O'Brien's name was on the award sheet after Criterion International (Gr 1, 1m) winner Van Gogh (American Pharoah) was named Two-Year-

Old Colt of the year, while the trainer's son Joseph took home his first Cartier award with Fillies' Mile (Gr 1, 1m) winner Pretty Gorgeous (Lawman) (Two-Year-Old Filly).

SA: 27 for Gimmethegreenlight

Last start Starling Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) runner-up Gee For Go (3 f ex Nunavik by Fort Wood) avenged that near miss in fine style when taking out the Fillies Mile (Gr 3, 1600m) at Turffontein yesterday, becoming the 27th individual stakes winner for Varsfontein Stud resident Gimmethegreenlight (More Than Ready). Trained by Paul Matchett, the three-year-old was winning for the second time in eight outings when getting the better of Miss Elegance (Master Of My Fate) by a length. Due Diligence, who returned the 11-4 second favourite, was a further three and a quarter lengths adrift in third as 5-4 market leader Caralluma (Pomodoro) was well-held in fifth. Gimmethegreenlight is best known to an Australasian audience as the sire of Chris Waller-trained import Yulong Prince, winner of the Cantala Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m), as well as South African top-tier winners Got The Greenlight and Gunner. He is standing for a fee of R75,000 (approx. AUD$6,650) in 2020.

SA: Unbeaten Malmoos impresses in Concorde Cup

The Mike de Kock-trained Malmoos (3 c Captain Al - Justthewayyouare by Fort Wood) maintained his unbeaten record in the Concorde Cup (Gr 2, 1600m) at Kenilworth yesterday. The Varsfontein Stud-bred colt was sent off the 2-5 favourite following his impressive win in the Graham Beck Stakes

(Gr 3, 1400m) last time out and justified his market position with a comfortable half-length victory over Linebacker (Captain Of All). Rascallion (Vercingetorix), the main market rival to Malmoos, finished a further length and a quarter behind in third. Malmoos, owned by Sheikh Hamdan Al Maktoum, is by prolific stallion Captain Al (Al Mufti) and out of Justthewayyouare (Fort Wood). He is a brother to Group 3 winner Captain Splendid.

SA: Erik The Red brings up the double for Captain Al

Erik The Red (3 c Captain Al - Covenant by Western Winter) continued Captain Al's successful afternoon when taking out the Cape Merchants (Gr 2, 1200m) in the succeeding race at Kenilworth. Bringing up the double for Varsfontein Stud, Erik The Red saw off 9-4 favourite Rio Querari (Querari) by three quarters of a length, with Constable (Trippi) a further head behind in third. The Justin Snaith-trained Erik The Red was following up his Epol Umkhomazi Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) win last time out and notched his fifth stakes success, having landed a Grade 3 and two Listed contests earlier this year.

GER: Gestut Roettgen announce fees for 2021

Reliable Man (Dalakhani), sire of yesterday's Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Inspirational Girl, will return to Gestut Rottgen in 2021 where he will stand for a fee of €6,500 (approx. AUD$10,500). Reliable Man has stood the last three northern hemisphere breeding seasons in France, but the Prix du Jockey Club (Gr 1, 2100m) and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner, who also shuttles to Westbury Stud in New Zealand, will return to the Cologne-based operation for next year. He will be joined on their three-strong roster by Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) hero Protectionist (Monsun), who has produced stakes performers Amazing Grace and Milka from his first crop of two-year-olds. He will also stand for €6,500 (approx. AUD$10,500), unchanged from 2020. Completing the line-up is Millowitsch (Sehrezad), a multiple stakes winner for Markus Klug, who will stand for a fee of €1,111 (approx. AUD$1,800), payable on November 11.

Kok secures first Group 1 as gutsy Big Hearted lands Gold Cup

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

Simon Kok Wei Hoong became only the second apprentice jockey to add his name to the Singapore Gold Cup (Listed, 2000m) roll of honour after he steered Big Hearted (Hallowed Crown) to a stirring win in the handicap showpiece on Saturday.

Two-time Singapore champion apprentice jockey Shafiq Rizuan was the first to pull off the feat when he won the third and most prestigious leg of the Singapore Triple Crown series aboard Cooptado (Equal Stripes) in 2015, then sponsored by Longines.

Shafiq went on to win his second title that year and Kok, likewise, is all but home in his bid to make it back-to-back after being crowned Singapore champion apprentice jockey last year.

The Ipoh-born, equestrian-trained 25-year-old rider was struggling to contain his excitement as the realisation of having come up trumps in the SD$1 million (local) Group 1 race over 2000 metres was taking a while to dawn on him.

"As soon as I passed the winning post, I knew I had won my first Gold Cup, my first Group 1 race. So many emotions ran through my body, it's unbelievable," Kok said.

"It hasn't quite sunk in yet. But one big thing about winning such a race is to do it when I'm down to only one-kilo claim.

"I'd like to thank my boss Steven Burridge first of all, for letting me take this ride, Michael Clements (Big Hearted's trainer) for giving me the ride, Chopsy (assistant trainer Michael White) who rang me for the ride and the owners (Falcon Racing No 7 Stable), of course.

"They trusted me and I'm glad I was able to get the job done. I won on him in a Class 4 race over 1200 metres (January 4) and I knew already he would have a big future here."

Armed with that inside knowledge, Kok walked into the parade ring with a certain level of confidence on the $42 chance, and while the first third of the race was a little tentative, he soon gained a strong hunch that Class 4 win was about to be minted into gold.

Big Hearted

From barrier 14, Kok originally snagged the four-year-old back to the fence, plotting the same path as Kranji Mile (Listed, 1600m) winner Aramaayo (Poet's Voice), who had drawn widest in barrier 16.

But not 100 per cent happy with the ground traction on the inner part of a track that had been soaked all day by rain, Kok decided to switch to the less chopped up part on the outside, getting on the back of his better-fancied stablemate and top-weight (57 kilograms) Top Knight (Zoustar), but still in a rearward berth.

When Top Knight took off from the 800 metres, in line with the blueprint of his Queen Elizabeth II Cup (Listed, 1800m) (second leg) win three weeks earlier, Kok latched on, and suddenly the two light blue (Big Hearted in the second colours with the red cap to differentiate) silks of the champion Thai owner were on the prowl – almost in tandem with Top Knight in the driving seat and towing his stable companion right behind.

Pacesetter Yulong Edition (Makfi) swung for home as the lamplighter but was clearly running on fumes. Elite Incredible (Valid Stripes), who enjoyed an economical rails-hugging run in his slipstream from the start, drew first blood upon straightening, but it was another runner close to the speed, Minister (Street Sense), who was laying down the law the best at the 300-metre mark.

At that point, Minister had the vote for back-to-back Singapore Gold Cups for his trainer Lee Freedman after Mr Clint (Power) (who never put in a blow this year) last year, but Clements' formidable duo were gobbling him up with every stride.

With only 50 kilograms on his back, Big Hearted just had that edge on Top Knight. He was the first to overpower Minister, and even if the Falcon pair did have a slight bumping duel close home, the 'second stringer' continued on his merry way to score by half a length.

Probably anchored down by his weight in the concluding stages, Top Knight just lacked that killer instinct this time, weakening to concede second place to Minister by a length and three quarters. The winning time was 2.03.90 for the 2000 metres on the Short Course on a track rated as yielding.

"From the wide barrier, I had to make a decision wherever he lands. Eventually, we settled at the back," said Kok.

"Around the first bend, we were on the inside of Top Knight, but my horse was not travelling that well. So I peeled him out to cruise up behind Top Knight and he was then travelling good underneath me.

"I know he has a good finish, and when we passed Minister in the last 200 metres, I was confident I would win. He wanted to lay in, but I still had plenty underneath me.

"In that type of going, he just kept strongly to the line."

Clements admitted he thought Top Knight was still his leading hope (he also saddled longshot Vittoria Perfetta (Zoustar) who was ridden by Saifudin Ismail) in spite of the sterner handicap conditions, but Big Hearted's featherweight did sway him more than once.

"I've been leaning towards Top Knight all along, even if I knew he was always going to be vulnerable. He won weight-for-age races against horses like Mr Clint and Aramaayo at level weights, but it was his first time in a handicap race against the same horses," said the Zimbabwean-born conditioner.

"Once the rain came, I was even more confident, even if Big Hearted also won on rain-affected tracks. In the end, they both ran well, but the pull in weights favoured Big Hearted.

"Top Knight lost no marks, but what is even more gratifying with Big Hearted is that I bought him as a yearling for the owner at the Inglis Melbourne sale.

"He cost AUD$120,000 and to see come all the way and win a Gold Cup is an immense source of satisfaction. It's been a great progress taking him from 1400 metres to the mile, then 1800 metres and now 2000 metres.

"From the outside draw, I told Simon to try and get cover and not to be too far back. I was a bit concerned he was so far back but once he made ground around the bend, I knew he would be in the finish.

"Coming on the outside was the right move. On that rain-affected track, the outside is that much smoother, not as churned up.

"Half a furlong into the straight, I had a good feeling my two horses would run close to one-two and halfway up the straight, I was even more confident.

"The leading horse (Minister) was quite far in front, but my two horses were making a lot of ground. Simon did come across a little but that didn't affect the result as Top Knight was not pulling any ground off Big Hearted then.

"As for Vittoria Perfetta, he finished midfield (10th) but he stumbled out of the barriers and lost ground. The race was over for him there and then as he's a horse who needs to be on the pace."

Clements praised Kok for his heady ride, and let on that he wanted no other rider shortly after Big Hearted won at his last start in a Class 3 race over 1800 metres with Maia up three weeks ago.

"We asked Simon to take the ride straight after his last win, and it was confirmed right away," he said.

"Simon had a great season last year, this year, with the disruptions, he's done okay and has picked up since, but that Gold Cup win will definitely be a big lift for him."

Having now stretched his lead to 13 winners on Hakim Kamaruddin (32 winners versus 19 winners), Kok is all but home for a second consecutive gong in the apprentice jockey title fight, but the humble young man was still not counting his chickens.

"I've said it before, but I don't think about the premiership. My focus is to win as many races as possible and just keep learning," he said.

With that sixth win as well as three placings from 12 starts, Big Hearted has racked up more than SD$790,000 in prize-money for the Falcon Racing No 7 Stable.

Margins: 1.8 lens, 0.2 lens. Time: 1:33.79(last 600m 35.16).

Betting: $2.60, $6.00, $101.00.

Then followed: Red Can Man (AUS), Material Man (AUS), Cup Night (AUS), Truly Great (AUS), Kementari (AUS), Platoon (AUS), Taxagano (AUS), Kay Cee (AUS), Great Shot (AUS), Dance Music (AUS), Missile Launch (AUS), Spiritual Warrior (AUS) & Gailo Chop (FR), last.

Analysis: Highly-talented mare Inspirational Girl followed her late-closing victory in the Asian Beau Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at this track on October 31 with an impressive victory in this Group 1 feature, her ninth win in eleven starts. She raced just beyond midfield, between runners, looked for clear running when still well back nearing the turn, found a gap at the 200m and then finished strongly to win comfortably under an inspired ride by William Pike. Too Close The Sun had a nice trip in fourth place, moved up well rounding the turn, got to the front coming to the 200m and then fought well for second, having no answer to the late-closing winner. An outsider in betting, Uni Time raced in last place in the 16-runner field, fanned wide on straightening then ran on well to take third. Red Can Man raced in fourth place on the rails, eased across heels at the turn, went second at the 200m and then held on well for fourth. [KB]

Margins: 0.2 lens, 0.2 lens. Time: 1:23.13(last 600m 34.19).

Betting: $6.00, $31.00, $8.00.

Then followed: Pierina (NZ), Jennifer Eccles (NZ), Supera (NZ), Je Suis Tiger (NZ), Le Castile (NZ) & Yearn (NZ), last.

Analysis: Second in this race last year, 2018 NZ 1000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Media Sensation led all the way and bravely held on for her seventh win at start 17. Away best, she went straight to the front and was clear by a length at the 1000m. From the 600m the lead shrunk, but Opie Bosson had her cruising and into the straight was waiting for the challengers. Bosson gave her a shake near the 200m and she accelerated, grabbed three quarters of the length on them and over the last 100m had enough in reserve to hold on well by a short-neck. Showoroses sat a handy fifth (one out) at the 800m, got a lovely split at the top of the straight, kept on solidly all the way to the line then made a late lunge to nab second. Supreme Heights sat just back off the winner into the long straight and although she tried very hard could not get past, losing second late. From midfield, Pierina finished late for fourth. [LJ]

Margins: 0.3 lens, 0.5 lens. Time: 1:35.80(last 600m 35.22).

Betting: $8.50, $31.00, $5.00.

Then followed: Western Empire (NZ), Bragwell (AUS), Gemma's Son (AUS), Smashing (AUS), Reign Of Fire (AUS), Brave Angel (NZ), Solaia (AUS), First Law (NZ), Panzdown (AUS), Eliminate (AUS), Phanta (AUS), All Day Session (AUS) & Kallaroo (AUS), last.

Analysis: Backing up seven days after narrowly taking out the Champion Fillies' Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) in vastly different conditions, Watch Me Dance had this under control at the 50m to add win five at start 11. She began best but was steadied to sit third (rails) past the 1400m. On to the 600m she had a lovely trail and only needed a split which she got at the top of the straight when the runners on her outside fanned. She had two lengths to make up at the 200m, almost levelled up at the 100m then drove into the lead for a nice win by a neck. Em Tee Aye took over at the 1400m, led them to the 400m and slipped clear at the top of the straight. He was caught inside the 100m before clinging on for second. Dom To Shoot was wide and back of midfield from the 600m then flew down the centre of the track for a great third from the fast-finishing, but much too late, Western Empire. Betting: $6.50, $4.80, $21.00.

Then followed: Justamaiz (NZ), Polzeath (NZ), Livin' On A Prayer (NZ), Ocean Billy (NZ), My Gift (IRE), Paisley Park (NZ), Blue Breeze (NZ), Voler Pour Moi (NZ), On The Rocks (NZ), Pinmedown (NZ) & Inscription (NZ), last.

Analysis: Given the run of the race by Opie Bosson, last year's winner In A Twinkling, having his fourth run back after a spell, took over at the 200m and was able to hold off the late challenge of his stablemate to add win four at start 22. Bosson shot him to the front rounding into the back straight, which set them up to take a nice trail down the back and on to the 600m. The leader broke clear at the top of the straight, but Bosson didn't panic and gradually gained then took over at the 200m. He went two lengths clear and the post came up too soon for the chasers, with In A Twinkling still a length in front. Savy Yong Blonk sat third last at the 800m, was well back and blocked at the 400m, got out and ran home very strongly but too late for second. Grand Bouquet was third last (rails) at the top of the straight then threaded her way through the field to finish very well for third. Pacemaker from the 1600m, Justamaiz slipped clear at the 400m but fought well when caught in running fourth. [LJ]

Then followed: Beldarra (AUS), Lady Pristina (NZ), King Of Reds (NZ), Miss Ipenema (NZ), Magneto (NZ), Cherokee Warrior (NZ), Dulce Nina
(NZ) & Songgong Success (NZ), last.

Analysis: At start four (after two fourths and a lost rider), Brix put in some telling strides over the final 50m and caused an upset here. She was away quickly, was passed then accelerated along the rail to sit third behind the pacemaker inside the 800m. From the 600m she was still third but starting the long run home was looking for room, moved out one lane then two and balanced up for the finish. Third at the 200m, she went hard after the leaders and over the final 50m levelled up and grabbed the lead, a short-neck in front at the post. Quattro Quinta went forward quickly from the 600m to be fourth, three wide at the top of the straight, took over the lead inside the 400m, was caught at the 150m then held on very well to the line for second. Cool Change sat last (rails) at the top of the straight then finished very strongly along the inner for third from late-money favourite Beldarra who led, was passed, then led again but was caught inside the 100m for fourth. Then followed: Queen Brown (AUS), Time Scale (AUS), Giancana (AUS), Just A Pinch (AUS) & Acromantula (AUS), last.

Analysis: Win four and her maiden stakes success in just five starts for Chantorque. She was third away and took up the trail in third (rails) past the 1000m, gaining on the first two at the 600m before moving away from the fence rounding into the home straight. Upon straightening she got out of a tight spot, found room three out then balanced and went after the leaders. From the 200m she wound up, caught the leader inside the 100m and was travelling too well to be caught, away by a length and a quarter at the line. Charleton Eddie moved up to lead at the 1000m, maintained his lead past the 600m and into the straight. He tried to slip clear but was caught inside the 100m then did well to keep second. Mystical View was second last rounding into the home straight, switched to the inner and finished well along the inside rail for third. From third last Queen Brown also ran on well, one off the fence for fourth. [LJ]

Then followed: Flower Of War (AUS), Lonsdale Lady (AUS), Ration Aly (AUS), Cryptic Love (AUS), Solid Azza (AUS), Skinnen Tins (AUS), Rosebush (AUS), Karijini Aurora (AUS) & Flower Of Scotland (AUS), last.

Analysis: Consistent mare Miss Frost took her record to four wins and six placings in taking out her first stakes victory here. She enjoyed a good trip in fourth place (one out and one back) before improving on straightening. She hit the front nearing the 100m and then went on to win well. Why Choose Her travelled nicely for Lucy Warwick back in eighth place (wide with cover) before moving up well (deep) at the turn. She put in her bid on passing the 200m and then kept fighting well for (half-length) second. Tycoon Storm raced behind the leader, took a late split at the 100m and then fought on well for third, finishing just in advance of the favourite Flower Of War, who led the field until halfway down the straight before finishing fourth. (AUS), Al Galayel (IRE), Kings Will Dream (IRE), Furrion (GB), Inverloch (IRE) & Our Big Mike (NZ), last.

Analysis: New Zealand-bred gelding Irish Flame capped his consistent form since joining the Brett Scott stable in August to record his third win succession by advancing to take out this Listed race in a keenly-contested finish. He settled nicely in fifth place, but trapped three deep. He moved up well at the turn, challenged at the 200m and fought gamely despite his wide trip to score a narrow but good win. Favourite Affair To Remember raced beyond midfield on the rails and was under riding from the 600m. She gradually responded to Mark Zahra's urgings once into the straight, took a late split at the 100m and then battled well for (half-head) second. Game Keeper was about tenth on the rails at the 600m, took a gap at the 200m to be in a challenging position shortly afterwards and then fought well for a close-up third. Harlem settled well back in the field and was still eight lengths from the leader at the 600m. He finally found a late gap nearing the 100m and then finished well for (0.4 lengths) fourth, looking somewhat unlucky. Odeon was a handy sixth (wide with cover) approaching the 600m, improved at the turn and then fought well for (0.5 lengths) fifth. Double You Tee was a late-closing (0.6 lengths) sixth after being near last coming to the home turn. Analysis: A hugely impressive maiden stakes win for Levante who, fresh up, stormed down the outer from last to overwhelm a good field of sprinters here and take her record to five wins in six starts. She was last to leave the gates and shared last at the 800m as well as at the 600m. Into Pukekohe's 520m straight she was last, moved out from the 400m and at the 200m was widest. In a dozen huge strides she gathered them in and inside the 100m was in front, bolting away by a length and a half at the post. Summer Passage sat third last (three out) at the 600m, went wider into the straight and accelerated quickly to share the lead at the 200m. He led briefly but then had no answer when the winner flashed past. Its Destinys Child improved quickly from the 600m to be handy enough at the 400m, was squeezed at the 200m then kept on well for third. Top weight Julius co-led at the 400m, was right there to the 100m and never gave in, nabbed for third in the last stride under 60.5kg. [LJ]

Analysis: French-bred import Neufbosc broke through for his first win since taking out the Prix De Lys (Gr 3, 2400m) at Longchamp in May 2018 in scoring here. After racing in Victoria without winning in 12 starts there, he was racing here for a third time in West Australia for new trainer Neville Parnham. He settled about eighth (wide with cover) behind a quick tempo, improved (deep) at the turn, hit the front at the 50m and then held on to win well. Serenity Bay raced towards the tail of the 14-runner field, improved (wide) rounding the turn and she then finished well for (short-neck) second. Laverrod had a good trip in third place on the rails, set out after the leader (Luke's Gold) at the turn, took the lead at the 100m and then held on for third with Pym's Royale making late ground for fourth. Analysis: Readily Availabull, a $25,000 purchase at the 2020 Magic Millions Tasmanian Yearling Sale, staged a really promising effort in winning here on debut. He was a bit slow to move and then raced in second last place in the ten-runner field, tracking a hot tempo, before improving between runners at the turn. He switched deeper and into clear running at the 200m and then came with a strong late bid to claim victory nearing the post. Prince Amongst Men contested the early lead before settling in third spot. He moved up well at the turn, challenged strongly at the 200m and then fought well for (neck) second. Rambeau showed good early pace and then raced outside the leader (Butter Blonde) at a quick pace. He got to the front on straightening and then battled strongly for a close-up third in a good effort on debut. Scorched Earth settled in last place, went deep on turning for home and she then made good late ground for (2.2 lengths) fourth in a nice run on debut, while the favourite Butter Blonde worked at a quick tempo to find the lead before fading in the straight to finish (9.3 lengths) ninth. Analysis: Archedemus followed his good second in the Ladies' Day Cup (Listed, 1600m) at Hawkesbury on November 11 when having his third start for new trainers Team Hawkes with a gutsy performance in taking out this rich event. He began well and worked a bit from his wide barrier (13) before settling outside the leader (Positive Peace). He got the upper hand rounding the turn and then lifted gamely when challenged in the straight to hold on and score in a solid performance. Favourite Dawn Passage was smartly away, led briefly early on before settling back in fourth place. He improved nearing the turn, challenged on straightening and continued to fight well for (short-neck) second in a good effort after conceding the winner 4kg. Think It Over was back in sixth place (and deep) at the 800m. He improved on straightening, challenged at the 200m and then fought well for third. Reloaded was eighth between runners approaching the turn, eased into clear running at the 200m and then made ground for (2.7 lengths) fourth. Cascadian was back in ninth place at the turn and also ran on, albeit without threatening, for (2.8 lengths) fifth, while Brandenburg came from second last in the 16-runner field at the 600m for (3 lengths) sixth, staging a nice effort. VERDICT Not an easy race to call with so few in obviously good form, but the suggestion is FULL POWER, who may be able to live up to his name now tried again over a trip that ought to suit. Above drops in grade and could show more, while neither Dynamic Eagle nor Sky Gem is ruled out.

VERDICT The presence of some potentially useful newcomers makes this an intriguing contest and one of those, HARMONY N BLESSED, is suggested after some good work in his trials. Another, Pichu could also get involved, while Everyone's Delight is a more obvious contender and Classic Posh should be thereabouts.

BETTING FORECAST: 6-4 Golden Sixty, 11-4 Ka Ying Star, 9-2 Southern Legend, 8 Mighty Giant, 10 Simply Brilliant, 16 Champion's Way, Harmony Victory.

VERDICT Ka Ying Star looks sure to have his supporters believing he can reverse placings with GOLDEN SIXTY on these revised terms, but the latter just keeps on winning and looks worth following until that comes to an end. Southern Legend should be competitive, while Mighty Giant may progress again but could have to wait for other days at this level.

VERDICT An open-looking heat where the suggestion is SUPER TEN, who is taken to build on some encouraging efforts with success on his handicap debut. Triple Triple heads up the list of dangers, with both Hall Of Champ and Big Luck Champ others of interest.

VERDICT Hot King Prawn is a standing dish in these races and should again give a good account, but BIG TIME BABY may be able to bridge the gap in ratings and score. Wishful Thinker and Computer Patch are others who should be thereabouts.

VERDICT There could still be more to come from WINNING DELIGHT, who returns from a 245-day absence but was placed here when last in action and has the services of Joao Moreira. Packing Waltham, a Listed AW winner when trained in France, made an encouraging Hong Kong debut last month and is second choice, ahead of Lakeshore Eagle and Tianchi Monster.

VERDICT Although he had his colours lowered last time, EXULTANT is the clear form selection here and is a confident choice. Time Warp could be his main danger if getting back on track, while Furore could also make the frame.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Winning For All, 9-2 Ka Ying Master, 6 Racing Fighter, 13-2 Mighty Valor, 7 Roman Turbo, 9 Biz Power, 10 Super Football, 12 Savaquin, 16 Dublin Star, Transcendent, 25 Tornado Twist, 33 Smart Folks, 40 Aurora Pegasus, 50 Universal Hero.

VERDICT The unexposed WINNING FOR ALL is weighted to reverse placings with the hat-trick seeking Ka Ying Master this time and is taken to do so. Roman Turbo looks a likely contender, while neither Racing Fighter nor Mighty Valor is ruled out.

VERDICT Beauty Smile can show up well under a claimer now back at this level, while Circuit Six and Lucky Patch are others to consider. However, THE HULK has been showing more of late and is taken to come good, while Taking Aim should be thereabouts.

VERDICT Unbeaten 4yo WINNING DREAMER continues to climb up the ratings but he has the plum inside draw today and it's hard to tell when his progess will level off. He is selected to collect a fifth win. Second choice is Duke Wai, who was denied a clear run on his seasonal debut and also seems to be heading in the right direction. Beauty Applause probably won't be far away.
