ZAAKI FULFILLS LONG-HELD BELIEF FROM AGENT BOMAN - PAGE 19

MORNING BRIEFING - PAGE 8

Zaaki blows away rivals in Doomben Cup to outline Cox Plate credentials

Son of Leroidesanimaux makes emphatic statement as veterans bid farewell in Group 1 swansong

Zaaki

MICHAEL MCINALLY

BY ALEX WILTSHIRE | @ANZ_NEWS

In what was billed as the send off for several Group 1-winning legends of the turf, yesterday's Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) farewell party was overshadowed by the emphatic statement made by the Annabel Neasham-trained Zaaki (6 g Leroidesanimaux - Kesara by Sadler's Wells), with the race instead a launching pad for announcing his credentials for the spring features.

Indeed, yesterday's ten-runner Doomben Cup field would not have looked out of place in a Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) or Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), possessing six individual Group 1 winners, boasting an incredible 25 Group 1 wins between them, as well as the $5 million All-Star Mile (1600m) winner Mugatoo (Henrythenavigator). Continued on page 2>>

Yet the old guard could not live with the vibrantly progressive Zaaki who, although himself a six-year-old, was making just his fourth start in Australia and romped away in a class of his own to a seven-length victory in the feature.

Trailing in his wake was the South Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) winner of last year, Toffee Tongue (Tavistock), who had a further two and a quarter lengths on last year's Hobartville Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) winner Brandenburg (Burgundy).

Melody Belle (Commands), the 14-time Group 1-winning Queen of New Zealand, is the high-profile protagonist for next week's Magic Millions

National Broodmare Sale, yet she could only muster a 12-length fifth, while the mercurial Nettoyer (Sebring) could not spring one last surprise, finishing just ahead of Melody Belle in fourth. Three-time Group 1 winner Humidor (Teofilo), who Chris Waller said on Friday would be retired following this final run at his 50th start, was seventh, 12 and a half lengths behind the runaway winner.

- ANNABEL NEASHAM

Avilius (Pivotal), who claimed three Group 1 successes in 2019 and last year's Cox Plate winner Sir Dragonet (Camelot), were left scrambling to salvage pride, with the former having bled from both nostrils in finishing sixth, while Sir Dragonet was ninth.

And they were scrambling before the 600-metre pole.

Despite the extensive roll of honour list in opposition, Zaaki was well found by punters, sent off the $2.25 favourite to back up his eye-catching win in the Hollindale Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) a fortnight earlier and, having tracked a strong pace set by Brandenburg in the early stages, Zaaki hit the front with 400 metres to run under James McDonald, the pair with five lengths on the rest of the field, and in a matter of strides the race was done.

The time, too, was impressive. With an eased-down Zaaki stopping the clock at 2.01.06 for the ten furlongs, the fastest time since the race was first run over this trip in 2012, and just a whisker away from the course record of 2.00.96, which he no doubt would have claimed had he been ridden out to the line.

Melbourne awaits and the middle distance crown of the Cox Plate.

"Wow, that was amazing," said winning trainer Annabel Neasham in the aftermath of the race, which saw her claim a second Group 1 win after Mo'unga's (Savabeel) Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) triumph.

"The Hollindale was easy to watch," she continued. "I was stood with Carl Holt (the owner) at the 300 (metres) and I said 'Don't get excited yet,' and then we got to the furlong and I said 'I think we're alright here.'"

Zaaki, who takes his record to six wins from 25 starts, had his only other attempt at Group 1 level when eighth in the 2019 running of the Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) behind Admire Mars (Daiwa Major).

"I was bullish going into the Doncaster. I knew he was a very good horse and he just hasn't taken a backward step. He's run the 2000 pretty easily and we can't wait for the Cox Plate."

Zaaki becomes the third individual Group 1 winner for his late sire, the Brazilian-bred Leroidesanimaux (Candy Stripes), who is also responsible for outstanding Dubai World Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) and Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) winner Animal Kingdom.

Sourced out of the Tattersalls Horses in Training in October last year, Zaaki has made an immediate impact, finishing sixth in the Doncaster (Gr 1, 1600m) and second in the JRA Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) before his back-to-back wins.

He was purchased by Neasham in conjunction with Stuart Boman of Blandford Bloodstock for 150,000gns.

Out of Kesara (Sadler's Wells), a two-time winner in France, Zaaki is a half-brother to four winners having been bred by Lanwades Stud's Kirsten Rausing, who stood Leroidesanimaux until he died in 2016.

NZ$2,000 reject finds more than words in ANZ Bloodstock News The Roses

Only Words

MICHAEL MCINALLY

The burgeoning stud career of New Zealand champion first season sire Sweynesse (Lonhro) took in another milestone yesterday when the Novara Park stallion recorded his first stakes winner in Australia after Only Words (3 f Sweynesse - Jungle Pago by Darci Brahma) posted a taking victory in the ANZ Bloodstock News-sponsored The Roses (Gr 2, 2000m) at Doomben.

Travelling five-wide round the bend, Only Words, who passed in with a reserve of NZ$2,000 as a weanling and is out of a NZ$500 mare, put her Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) credentials on display in defeating Bargain (Ocean Park) by a length and a quarter, with Charms Star (Per Incanto) running a further quarter length behind in third, as New Zealand breds claimed the first six placings home.

The dominance of the Kiwis was not merely restricted to the horseflesh, as New Zealander Chris Waller trained five of the first six finishers, and struck for his second win in the race after Youngstar (High Chaparral) in 2018.

Only Words sports the purple and white starred silks of Denise Martin's Star Thoroughbreds, who now have strong contenders in both the Queensland classics, with recent Rosehill winner Achiever (Pride Of Dubai), booking his ticket north for next week's Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m).

Sweynesse, for who Only Words is one of three stakes winners, has made an impressive start to his career at stud, scoring with Taranaki 2YO Classic (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Bonita Aurelia on his way to claiming champion first season sire honours, with the stallion sitting second behind Contributor (High Chaparral) in this year's second season sire standings, with Only Words and Brix adding further stakes wins, to indicate his progeny is only improving with time.

"Full credit to Only Words, Craig (Williams) gave her a lovely ride," said trainer Chris Waller, who will bid for a fourth Queensland Oaks in the last seven runnings of the race, with any number of chances for the Group 1 feature won by Winx (Street Cry) in 2015.

"She was there at the 300-metre mark and gave a good solid kick, and that proved to be a winning one."

"I'm quite excited about Sweynesse. He seems a horse that raced well in Australia and he's gone to New Zealand to stud, so it looks like he can throw a good horse."

Only Words is the first and best of four named foals for her dam, Jungle Pago (Darci Brahma), with nine-time winner Torre Del Greco (Mettre En Jeu) the only other to salute the judge.

Jungle Pago, most recently a NZ$500 buy for Malcolm Boa from the Gavelhouse platform, is herself a winner over 1400 metres, and from an extensive Western Australian family, being the daughter of Karrakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Climb The Vine (Chanteclair).

Boa placed her in foal to Jon Snow (Iffraaj) last year.

Nine for Sooboog

Sooboog

KITCHWIN HILLS

Kitchwin Hills Sooboog (Snitzel) continued his excellent start to life at stud as he landed a ninth individual winner, his second in three days, at Newcastle yesterday. Victory looked unlikely for Bitcoin Baby (2 f ex Hard To Find by Elusive Quality), as she spotted the leader In Spades (Dissident) four lengths ahead entering the straight, but she flashed home to win in the final stride. Sent off the $3.40 favourite, in the same silks as Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Zaaki (Leroidesanimaux), Bitcoin Baby was making her debut for the Gerald Ryan and Sterling Alexiou stable. An $8,500 purchase out of the Inglis Digital December sale in 2019, she was resold as a yearling two months later, selling for $65,000 at the Inglis Classic Sale.

Third for Leroidesanimaux

A sensational display of dominance from the Annabel Neasham-trained Zaaki (6 g ex Kesara by Sadler's Wells) saw the British import run riot in yesterday's Doomben Cup. The Hollindale Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) winner of a fortnight earlier, Zaaki was making just his fourth start in Australia having posted two wins at Group 3 level in his native UK, and defeated Toffee Tongue (Tavistock) by seven lengths, with Brandenburg (Burgundy) in third, a further two and a quarter lengths in arrears. Zaaki is the third individual Group 1 winner for Brazilian-bred stallion Leroidesanimaux (Candy Stripes), who now has as many Group 1 winners as he does at Group 2 and 3 level. The sire of emphatic Dubai World Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Animal Kingdom, Leroidesanimaux is also the sire of Argentine 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Una Cabeza. Leroidesanimaux died in 2016.

20 for Star Witness

174 for Fastnet Rock

Champion sire Fastnet Rock's (Danehill) 174th individual stakes winner - and 23rd of this season - arrived after the Chris Waller-trained Nudge (4 m ex Julinsky Princess by Stravinsky) flew over the top of the field in a fast-run Pam O'Neill Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) to claim her first success at stakes level. Nudge, a $380,000 purchase for her trainer and Guy Mulcaster Bloodstock at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in 2018, had hit the frame twice at stakes level, notably when third in the Vinery Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) in 2018, but secured her first stakes success when notching a third career win at Doomben yesterday, defeating Yamazaki (Real Saga) by a length and a half, with Paradee (Epaulette) in third, a further three-quarters of a length adrift. Out of Julinsky Princess (Stravinsky), a three-time stakes winner and placegetter in the New Zealand One Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), Nudge is a half-sister to dual Group 1 winner in New Zealand Julinsky Prince (Darci Brahma). Fastnet Rock stands at Coolmore Stud, where he commands a $165,000 fee in 2021.

91 for Lonhro

Varda (4 m ex Wild Queen by Loup Sauvage) came from last to first in an extraordinary finishing burst to take out the Chiefs De Beers (Listed, 1110m) at Doomben yesterday, and in the process become the 91st individual stakes winner for her sire Lonhro (Octagonal). The Godolphin-raced mare Varda was a debut winner as a two-year-old, and won four consecutive races last winter, including a half-length defeat of subsequent William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Masked Crusader (Toronado). Winless in three efforts at Listed level since, she bounced emphatically back to form, defeating long-time leader Kylease (Choisir) by three-quarters of a length, with Mishani Hustler (Exceedingly Good) in third. Lonhro, the sire of 12 elite-level winners, stands at Darley's Kelvinside property for $66,000 in 2021.

Emerald Kingdom a first Group winner for Bryannbo's Gift

The Rob Heathcote-trained Emerald Kingdom (Bryannbo's Gift) hit the front and never looked back when claiming the BRC Sprint (Gr 3, 1350m) at Doomben yesterday, in turn providing his sire Bryannbo's Gift (Zabeel) a first winner at Group level. The six-year-old is one of two stakes winners for Bryannbo's Gift, the other being his brother, Steel Frost. The stallion died in 2019 having left 76 foals on the ground. Emerald Kingdom, the winner of the Sunshine Coast Cup (Listed, 1400m) two starts back, held on to defeat All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Tofane (Ocean Park) by one and a quarter lengths, who put in an encouraging display after a seventh-place finish in the Sapphire Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) last month. Third went to Axe (Written Tycoon), who was a further head behind.

Veteran Romancer causes shock in Straight Six

A pair of veterans with 98 starts between them fought out the finish of the Straight Six (Listed, 1200m) at Flemington yesterday, and it was $101 chance Romancer (Redwood) that prevailed to land a first stakes win since 2016. The OTI Racing-owned seven-year-old arrived first up this preparation, having not won since July last year over 1600 metres, yet Romancer defied his judges to deny I'm Telling Ya (Reward For Effort), a veteran of 54 starts, by a length. Irish Songs (Shamus Award) finished third, a length and three-quarters behind the winner. However, the win came as no surprise to trainer Grahame Begg, who was encouraged by a jump-out at Caulfield during the week. "He worked very, very well with Sartorial Splendor," Begg said. "He was up alongside him in the finish, but I just thought it was going to be too sharp the 1200 (metres) for him today. He's better at 1400 and 1600 metres, but he's a grand old horse because he goes to the races and puts in every time. He's great to do anything with and to get a Listed win is great for the owners who have been very supportive."

Queensland Derby back up for Horrifying

Horrifying (Shocking) will be Brisbane bound for next weekend's Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) should he emerge from victory in yesterday's three-year-old Open Handicap (2000m) at Flemington unscathed and trainer Mark Kavanagh can secure a flight. It is the same path taken by Kavanagh's Queensland Derby winner Magicool (Fastnet Rock) in 2015. "He's been very, very frustrating," Kavanagh said. "He's got a lot of ability, but he's just taken a long time to mature." Queensland Health recently imposed 14-day quarantine restrictions on travellers to the state, resulting in a flight scheduled for last Tuesday to be cancelled, and negotiations are ongoing to get a flight off the ground for this Tuesday coming.

JJ Atkins in sight for Blushing Tycoon

After getting off the mark at the fourth attempt yesterday, South Australian Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) runner up Blushing Tycoon (Written Tycoon) will head north to Brisbane to target the JJ Atkins Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on June 12 at Eagle Farm. An $80,000 yearling buy for First Light Racing, Blushing Tycoon is trained by Natalie Young and Trent Busuttin. "All the First Light (syndicate) crew are here and they are jumping up and down and a few of them are first timers, so it's great to have the experience of winning at Flemington," Young told Racing.com. Winning jockey Daniel Moor believes Blushing Tycoon will have no problems getting the mile. "We thought we'd roll forward and we had the fitness on our side, had tactical speed, and these two-year-old races can be tricky to settle and sort out but I ended up in a beautiful controlling spot," he said. "We hit a bit of a flat spot but rallied good late. I think he's the fittest horse in the race and ran the trip right out. He's probably looking for further." Blushing Tycoon, who is out of a half-sister to two stakes winners, was sold by Cornerstone Stud at the 2020 Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale.

Overmann to also target juvenile Group 1

The Hawkes Racing-trained Overmann (Hinchinbrook) will also be set for the JJ Atkins, after an impressive three-quarter-length victory at Rosehill yesterday. The two-year-old son of Hinchinbrook (Fastnet Rock) shed his maiden tag at the fourth time of asking, after encouraging displays in defeat behind Astrologer (Star Turn), Cork Harbour (Snitzel) and a fourth-place effort in the Inglis Nursery (RL, 1000m) behind Acrobat (Fastnet Rock). "He's booked his ticket, he'll head up there (to the JJ Atkins)," co-trainer Michael Hawkes said. "He should've won last start. But if he'd won, he might've already been in Queensland. He's still raw, he's still learning, but he's a really nice horse going forward." Overmann was a $180,000 purchase for Hawkes Racing out of the Shadow Hill Thoroughbreds draft at the Inglis Melbourne Premier Sale.

Heart Of Puissance marches on

Heart Of Puissance (Puissance De Lune) scored a fourth success and backed up a second-placed finish in the Warrnambool Cup (Listed, 2350m) last start to win the BenchMark 84 contest over 2500 metres at Flemington yesterday. Sent off the $2.10 favourite, the son of Puissance De Lune (Shamardal) is building a promising record and will now be set for some winter staying features in Melbourne. with this horse," co-trainer David Eustance told Racing.com. "He's taken an awful lot of work behind the scenes just to get him here. He has taken a lot of work and he's starting to repay it. We're just going to tick him through the grades. That was an 84 (Benchmark) today and he's going to go to high 80s. There's a really nice program for staying horses through winter here at Flemington so we'll do that. There's another race back here on June 5 so hopefully he pulls up okay as he takes a bit of managing."

Mongolian Marshal holds on

Trainer Stuart Gower almost paid the price for leaving out a key piece of information in pre-race instructions to jockey Brett Prebble ahead of Mongolian Marshal's (High Chaparral) run in the 1600-metre Open Handicap at Flemington yesterday, namely 'don't hit the front too soon'. "I thought we got beat," Gower said. "The only thing I forgot to tell Brett - and he rode him a treat - was 'don't hit the front too soon because he pulls up and waits for them'. Thank God he got the photo." Mongolian Marshal, who was claiming his second win in Australia after transferring from his native New Zealand, defeated Ocean Miss (Ocean Park) on the bob of the heads, and Gower will now consider his next target. "We were going to run in the RA Lee (Stakes) last week but on the Tuesday morning he had a bout of colic, so I had to treat him," Gower said. "And once you treat them, seven days with the drugs in the system, we had to wait. The plan was going to be run today and then back up next week over 2000 metres. But we might be better off taking him home and keeping him a little bit fresh and head to the (Winter Championship) Final."

Polly Grey delivers winning send off

The Chris Waller-trained New Zealand import Polly Grey (Azamour) delivered a winning send off for connections when claiming the Lord Mayors Cup (Listed, 2000m) at Rosehill, ahead of being sold at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale next week. Polly Grey, a three-time stakes winner, including in the Epona Stakes (Gr 3, 1900m) in March, was saluting the judge for the third time in four starts having been winless in eight races last preparation. "She has just continued to thrive within her routine," said Waller's stable representative, Charlie Duckworth. "I guess they just take a bit of time to adapt to how we race over here and the training. Generally, their first prep isn't as good as their second. It's a completely different pressure, especially with horses that can be a little bit field shy and she wears the ear muffs. In Australia, you generally race a lot tighter than you do in New Zealand and throughout Europe and I think that's why they take so much time to get used to it." Polly Grey defeated Parry Sound (Pierro) by a neck, with The Lord Mayor (Rock 'N' Pop) two lengths behind the winner in third. Polly Grey is consigned as lot 548 from the Oxford Thoroughbreds draft.

I Am Power off the mark in Australia

Irish jockey Tom Sherry delivered a horse he used to ride as a youngster in his homeland to victory in the Benchmark 78 contest over 1200 metres at Rosehill yesterday. I Am Power, a winner in Ireland and Hong Kong, scored his first victory in Australia on just his second start in the country. Sherry is now apprenticed to Mark Newnham, but some words of wisdom from former trainer Michael O'Callaghan got him over the line and the six-year-old will now be taken through the grades. "I know a bit about him, I used to ride this horse as a baby and strapped him through his two-year-old career back in Ireland," Sherry said. "I was speaking to his old trainer, Michael O'Callaghan, this morning. It's a bit of a crazy thing that we can ride them on the other side of the world. It means a little bit more."

Day teams with Maher again for win with Charleise

Apprentice jockey Louise Day reunited with trainer Ciaran Maher, who she rode trackwork for when first arriving in Australia from Ireland, to win the Benchmark 72 three- and four-year-old (1500m) contest at Rosehill yesterday on Charleise (Foxwedge). "I wasn't apprenticed (to Maher) but when I first landed in Australia, I worked for him for about a year-and-a-half," Day said. "I couldn't be apprenticed to him because I wasn't a resident, but he sent me on my way up to NSW. I would have loved to have gone with him if he'd opened his stables sooner but it's great to ride some winners for him now. He really opened some doors for me and he has really supported me the whole way through my apprenticeship."

Hefel lands Flemington double

Apprentice rider Carleen Hefel had a day to remember at Flemington yesterday. Without a winner at headquarters heading into the meet, Hefel came out with a double, as the 31-year-old landed wins on Standoff (Smart Missile) and Don't Doubt Dory (Fiorente). "That win there means a lot more," Hefel told Racing.com of Don't Doubt Dory. "You do all the work on the horse and especially for Julien (Welsh, the trainer). It makes the win a lot more special." Welsh also picked up his first win at Flemington. "Terrific ride, too, from Carleen," he said. "Carleen's ridden this horse all the time. She's my apprentice and I couldn't be happier with her. She's ridden a double today at Flemington and made me really proud. As well as the horse winning, with her winning that is fantastic."

Nugent breaks leg in fall

Teo Nugent suffered a broken leg after a nasty fall at Cranbourne on Friday evening it was revealed yesterday. Nugent was dislodged from Poppa's Courage (Kuroshio) on his way to the barriers ahead of the opening race. Nugent has ridden 55 winners this season, including an elite-level success on Portland Sky (Deep Field), who dead-heated with Celebrity Queen (Redoute's Choice) in the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) at Caulfield.

Nationals set to retain Upper Hunter in by-election

In an important state by-election for the breeding heartlands of the Hunter Valley, the Upper Hunter seat looks set to be held by the Nationals with their candidate David Layzell set to defeat Labor's Jeff Drayton, claiming 56.3 per cent of the vote counted in the two-candidate run. Pitched primarily as a trade-off between agricultural and mining interests, both lead candidates were from pro-mining backgrounds, with Clarence town local Layzell set to emerge victorious.

Five for Proisir

Trying for the sixth time in stakes company, the Lucy Tanner-trained Belle Plaisir (4 m ex Eden by Zeditave) claimed valuable black type as she won yesterday's Rangitikei Gold Cup (Listed, 1600m) on her home track at Awapuni. Sent off a $23 chance, Belle Plaisir defeated Quiz Kid (Iffraaj) by a length and a quarter, with Hartley (Azamour) two and a half lengths behind the winner in third. With victory she became the fifth individual stakes winner for fledgling Rich Hill Stud stallion Proisir (Choisir), who earned a fee increase to NZ$12,500 for his seventh season at stud.

JPN: Auvergne back in the winning groove

Auvergne (Smart Falcon) made a winning return to action when he proved to be a cut above his rivals in the Heian Stakes (Gr 3, 1900m) at Chukyo yesterday. Having his first start since finishing down the field in the Tokyo February Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m), the Masayuki Nishimura-trained five-year-old beat favorite American Seed (Tapit) by six lengths with Marche Lorraine (Orfevre) another length and a half away in third. Auvergne has now won eight of his 21 starts, four of those victories coming in stakes company.

HK: Courier Wonder signals exciting future

Courier Wonder (Sacred Falls) is quickly evolving into one of Hong Kong's sharpest sprinters and today the three-year-old will look to overcome the biggest hurdle of his burgeoning career when he faces a host of seasoned rivals in the Sha Tin Vase Handicap (Gr 3, 1200m). Lining up as the least experienced runner in the race, the undefeated youngster has already been touted as the next generation of Hong Kong's sprinting ranks, a mantle 11-time champion trainer John Size is hopeful he fills. "He shows that (to becoming a top sprinter in Hong Kong), because he's shot up the ratings very quickly after four starts and it's just a matter of whether he goes on with it - I can't see any reason why he wouldn't and that's what we're hoping for," Size said.

79 for Mastercraftsman

Former shuttler Mastercraftsman (Danehill Dancer) sired his 79th individual stakes winner when his daughter Tribal Craft (5 m ex Snoqualmie Star by Galileo) built on the promise of her return at Ascot last time out with a game victory in the Bronte Cup Fillies' Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 6f) at York yesterday. The Andrew Balding-trained five-year-old was always travelling best of the seven strong field under David Probert, and she picked up well in the closing stages to go on and win by two and three-quarter lengths from Urban Artist (Cityscape). Makawee (Farhh) was another three-quarters of a length away in third. Now the winner of four of her 18 starts, Tribal Craft is out of the Galileo (Sadler's Wells) mare Snoqualmie Star a half-sister to Listed winners Snoqualmie Girl (Montjeu) and Snoqualmie Boy (Montjeu), while third dam, the stakes placed Golden Rhyme (Dom Racine) is the dam of Racing Post Trophy (Gr 1, 1m) winner Seattle Rhyme (Seattle Dancer) and La Favorita (Seattle Dancer), from who Australian Group 1 winner Eagle Way (More Than Ready) as well as stakes winners Soaressa (Twining), Impressive Eagle (Rubiton), Impressive Eagle (Danewin) and this season's Black Opal Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Kalashnikov (Capitalist) all descend. Mastercraftsman stands at Coolmore's base in Ireland for a fee of €15,000 (approx. AUD$23,630).

20 for Night Of Thunder

Former Darley shuttler Night Of Thunder (Dubawi) sired his 20th individual stakes winner when his daughter Sopran Basilea (3 f ex Kathy Best by King's Best) posted her second win in four starts by taking out the Premio Mario Incisa Della Rochetta (Listed, 2000m) at Milan yesterday. Zelandia (Olympic Glory) finished second with La Gualtiera (Arcano) filling third spot.

IRE: Mac Swiney leads home Classic one-two for Bolger

Mac Swiney (New Approach) battled best of all in tough conditions at the Curragh to bag yesterday's Irish 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m), edging out stablemate Poetic Flare (Dawn Approach) in a thrilling finish to give trainer Jim Bolger a Classic one-two. Last year's Vertem Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) winner made all before repelling the challenge of English 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) winner Poetic Flare, providing Bolger and jockey Rory Cleary with their first victories in the race. "It's hard to describe. Unbelievable really," a delighted Cleary said. "He's such a special horse and it's such a special race to ride in. He jumped and travelled so easy. I wish all my rides were as easy to ride in as he was." The well-supported Van Gogh (American Pharoah) kept on to finish third, three and a quarter lengths away, one place ahead of Yulong Investment's 7-2 favourite Lucky Vega (Lope De Vega).

UK: Liberty Beach back with a bang

Liberty Beach (4 f Cable Bay - Flirtinaskirt - Avonbridge) made a triumphant return to action as she made all the running to strike in the Temple Stakes (Gr 2, 5f) at Haydock yesterday. Last seen finishing third in the Prix de l'Abbaye (Gr 1, 1000m) at Longchamp in October, the John Quinn-trained four-year-old was scoring for the sixth time in 13 starts, four of those victories coming in stakes company. Ainsdale (Mayson) rallied late to get to within a neck of the winner, with Lady In France (Showcasing) another half-length away in third.

UK: Rohaan continues his march to the top

Rohaan (3 g Mayson - Vive Les Rouges by Acclamation) proved his Group 3 win at Ascot last time out was no fluke when he again struck at a big price, this time taking out the Sandy Lane Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) at Haydock. Having his seventh start of the year, the David Evans-trained three-year-old cruised into contention before just doing enough to see off the late challenge of the previously unbeaten Dragon Symbol (Cable Bay) by a nose at 33-1. Umm Kulthum (Kodiac) was another length away in third. A 20,000gns buy at the Tattersalls Horses In Training Sale, Rohaan has now won six of his 13 starts.

IRE: Progressive Castle Star strikes again

Castle Star (2 c Starspangledbanner - Awohaam by Iffraaj) continued his progression through the ranks when the juvenile came from last to first to take out yesterday's Marble Hill Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at the Curragh. A winner of a Listed race over the minimum trip at the same track on his most recent start, the Fozzy Stack-trained colt relished the step up in distance on the rain-softened ground as he beat favourite Masseto (Territories) by two lengths. Strapped (Dawn Approach) was another three-quarters of a length away in third.

IRE: Group 2 glory for Gustavus Weston

Gustavus Weston (5 g Equiano - Chrissy-cross by Cape Cross) snapped a losing run stretching back to August 2019 as he kept on well to notch a surprise win in the Greenlands Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) at the Curragh. Having failed to make the frame in each of his three starts this season and now stepping up in grade, the Joseph Murphy-trained five-year-old was sent off a 14-1 chance to register his third win in 15 starts and second stakes success. Make A Challenge (Invincible Spirit) finished three-quarters of a length behind the winner in second, with a further length and three-quarters away to Sonaiyla (Dark Angel) in third.

IRE: Epona Plays much the best

Epona Plays (4 f Australia - New Plays by Oratorio) again showed her liking for testing conditions as she made it two wins in as many starts this season with a convincing victory in the Lanwades Stud Stakes (Gr 2, 1m) at the Curragh. The Willie McCreery-trained four-year-old pulled four lengths clear off Soul Search (Zoffany) as she took her career tally to four wins in 12 starts. Too Soon To Panic (Gleneagles) was another length and a half away in third with the favourite Champers Elysees (Elzaam) finished a disappointing fourth.

Logan clinches first local Group win as Minister lays down the law in Kranji Mile

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

A multiple-Group 1 winning trainer in her native New Zealand and Australia, Donna Logan enjoyed her biggest success at her new Singapore base when Minister (Street Sense) came with a well-timed run under A'Isisuhairi 'Harry' Kasim to land yesterday's Kranji Mile (Listed, 1600m) by a head.

"With Minister, I had a hunger to prove something. I wanted this win more than anything," said Logan.

"I've heard people saying I couldn't train because I was a woman and all that, but the truth of the matter is a good trainer needs to have good animals to train. If they don't have the stock, they won't set the world on fire."

While her trophy cabinet is already replete with marquee wins, Logan said the Kranji Mile will always hold a special place in her heart.

"Like I said, I was very hungry for that win, but this win also ranks high with the other big wins because it's been a long time coming," she said.

Logan, however, would not take all the credit for that new milestone. She was effusive of the contribution brought by A'Isisuhairi.

"He got the horse concentrating in his work. The horse was a transformed horse and we saw that in the birdcage today.

"I discussed with Harry and I told him I didn't want him to be in a speed duel, get cover at the back instead and hopefully, he'll show a turn of foot.

"I didn't expect him to be as far back to be honest, but Harry was super patient and rode him an absolute treat. He was very emotional after the win and he told me he was going to cry!"

Kharisma franks luckless Lion City Cup run with another win

Promising sprinter Kharisma (Mossman) bounced back from his luckless defeat in the Lion City Cup (Listed, 1200m) with a resounding win in the Better Life 2012 Stakes, (Kranji Stakes A, 1200m).

Well handled by Wong Chin Chuen, the four-year-old was never in doubt once he came off his handy spot on the outside of Makkem Lad (Kuroshio) before going on to score with half-a-length to spare.

Winning trainer Stephen Gray said it was not the plan to run his brilliant sprinter in the race, but thought it would suit him down to the ground.

"I thought he ran very well in the Lion City Cup considering he lost his front shoe and was caught wide throughout," said the Kiwi handler.

"With a better draw, he could have done better, but his run was still very good at weight-for-age.

"I looked around for a race for him. I didn't want to run him in that race at first, but there weren't many options.

"He's such an improved horse and from the way he did it in the Lion City Cup, he was going the right way. I gave him a freshen and a few gallops, I was very happy with him.

Gray went on to bring up a race-to-race double with $52 chance Our Pinnacle (Pins) in the Better Than Ever 2010 & 2011 Stakes (1400m).

"That was a real feelgood win. It made his new owners feel good for sure," said Gray.

"After he had a bleeding attack, his owner gave up on him, but I was not going to get rid of him. I took over him with a group of new people and I myself have a one-third share in him.

"They must be excited though they can't be here at the races. Most of them are here, but there are some who are overseas.

"He was about to be deleted, but I thought he was too nice a horse. We got into a horse for nothing and today he's given us the biggest thrill."

Tough ascent for Lim's Kosciuszko at third win in a row

It was probably more tradesmanlike than anticipated, but hot favourite Lim's Kosciuszko (Kermadec) still kept his unbeaten record intact with a third consecutive win in as many starts.

Graduating to open company after two wins in restricted maiden and novice company, the three-year-old was widely expected to score again nonetheless, as reflected by his ultrashort odds of $6, but Hotshots Slam (Swiss Ace) certainly gave his backers and trainer Daniel Meagher a few jittery moments inside the last furlong.

Meagher conceded the half-length win might not have been as dominant as envisaged, but the handler said it was still full of merit considering Lim's Kosciuszko was still in the early stages of his craft as a racehorse.

"I know he beat an average field today, but he still ran good time," he said.

"He beat seasoned good older horses for the first time, which is never easy to do for a three-year-old.

"It's only after he takes a break after the 3YO races that he will get a chance to grow and develop further. He will next run in that Singapore Three-Year-Old Sprint (1200m) on June 27.

"I still think he's got further improvement in him. Today's win might not have looked pretty, but it was still a good effort.

"Don't forget he had an economical run at his first two runs and he then got going. Today he sat off the leader to improve past him in the straight, but Danny told me he was having a good look, and when he asked him to quicken, he had another look.

"He had a good blow, he's still learning."

More than one way to skin a Cat

Champion trainer Michael Clements pulled off the feat of turning stable transfer Tom Cat (Wandjna) out for a win at his very first run under his helm.

"It was his first run on turf and 1200 metres. All his previous starts had been over 1000 metres to 1100 metres on Polytrack," said Clements.

"This horse has done well since he's come to us. His track gallops were very pleasing, but it remained to be seen how he would go on turf over 1200 metres.

"With that win, it's clear he can race on either surface and I think I will keep him running up to 1200 metres max."

Zaaki fulfils long-held belief from agent Boman

BY ALEX WILTSHIRE | @ANZ_NEWS

Bloodstock agent Stuart Boman had pinpointed the talent of yesterday's Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Zaaki (Leroidesanimaux) a long time before his electric breakthrough success at the elite level.

Longer, even, than when he was purchased by Blandford Bloodstock's Boman, in conjunction with trainer Annabel Neasham, from the Tattersalls October Horses In Training Sale last year.

Indeed, it was as a three-year-old in a season which yielded just his maiden victory that Boman saw his future lying in Australia.

"I've been following this horse for a long period of time, since he was a three-year-old I've been trying to make enquiries to try and buy him and he was never for sale," Boman told ANZ Bloodstock News after the seven-length demolition of the decorated Doomben Cup field by Zaaki.

"He was the horse I wanted to buy when the book (for the Tattersalls October Horses in Training Sale) came out."

Now a northern hemisphere six-year-old, Zaaki struck for his sixth victory yesterday in 25 starts, in a career that has catapulted from Listed-race toiler in September 2020 to Group 1 winner at just his fourth start in Australia and, although Boman always had belief in the ability of the horse, even he has been taken aback by the rapid progression the gelding has shown since his arrival Down Under.

"You couldn't have dreamt that this outcome with a Group 1 winner, that quickly, would happen with him," said Boman.

"What I saw in him, at the time (of the sale), was he was consistently running at a rating of around 110 from a three-year-old to a five-year-old.

"I think people look at these older horses as being a punt. I don't. I've had a lot of success in the past buying older horses and there's relatively good value.

Annabel Neasham and James McDonald

MICHAEL MCINALLY

"He's a two-time Group 3 winner and a 110/112-rated horse. This is a good horse. He loves firm ground, high cruising speed, good turn of foot. He was always crying out for a fast pace to run at."

In her post-race interview, Neasham was quick to lay credit at the feet of Boman for sourcing the horse they purchased for 150,000gns from the Sir Michael Stoute stable, while Boman himself was keen to highlight the training performance of the young handler, who scored a second Group 1 victory in what's just her first season with a license.

"I've got to give a big shout out to Stuart Boman, who found this horse at the Newmarket Tattersalls Horses In Training Sale," said an emotional Neasham post-race.

"We didn't pay a whole lot for him, he was a little bit older but we took a chance. We had to fit the budget.

"And big credit to him, he looks a proper Group 1 horse."

The relationship between trainer and agent is one that developed during Neasham's time learning her trade under Ciaran Maher and David Eustace, where she fronted their Sydney stable and worked with Boman to source horses to bring down from Europe.

"People shouldn't underestimate the job she (Annabel Neasham) has done with him," said Boman. "She's made it look easy. This horse landed there in late December, early January, hasn't missed a beat since and ran first time out in a Doncaster.

"Annabel got a group together to buy a horse," he recalled. "We'd worked together when she was at Ciaran Mahers and had developed a working relationship from there, with a good level of success having bought some nice horses together.

"She called me when she took her training license out and said she wanted to buy some Europeans.

"We went through our usual process and list I'd put together and she ultimately said 'what's your number one pick' and I said 'Zaaki is my number one pick', to which she said 'right, we'll get it vetted, how much is it going to cost?'"

It's a trust and partnership between agent and trainer that has yielded its highest achievement so far.

Zaaki scorched the 2000 metres of Doomben in time just one tenth of a second outside the course record in a blistering display of early dash and relentless cruising speed, allowing jockey James McDonald to stand up in his irons and salute the gobsmacked crowd a long way from home. The record was at his mercy if he wanted it.

And it is these traits, along with an imposing physical demeanour, that Boman says highlighted his suitability for the rigours of Australian racing.

“Ultimately you need speed and that’s what this horse has,” continued Boman. “He could’ve broken the track record today.

“I remember when I went and saw him at the horses in training sale. He’s a gelding, but physically he’s got the appearance of a stallion. He’s a very muscular horse.

“You’d stand into him and there’s a lot of him; A big girth, a great shoulder and hindquarter and good bone. You knew you’d seen him. He was a physical presence and an Aussie type of horse.”

In the aftermath of Zaaki’s eye-catching display, he was cut to 3-1 favouritism to land spring’s premier weight-for-age feature, the Cox

Zaaki

MICHAEL MCINALLY

Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) and, although foreseeing his ability, in Boman’s eyes it wasn’t necessarily over the mile and a quarter trip the horse now finds himself recipient of ‘the best in the land’ tag.

“Did I think he would turn into a Cox Plate horse? I always thought he was a better miler,” said Boman. “But if I’m going to buy a Caulfield Cup or Melbourne Cup horse, I buy a ten furlong horse, if I’m going to buy a ten furlong horse I buy a miler.”

Margins: 7 lens, 2.3 lens. Time: 2:01.06 (last 600m 35.64) Betting: $2.30, $17.00, $31.00

Then followed: Nettoyer (AUS), Melody Belle (NZ), Avilius (GB), Humidor (NZ), Shared Ambition (IRE), Sir Dragonet (IRE), Mugatoo (IRE), last.

Analysis: British-bred import Zaaki was simply brilliant in winning here, scoring effortlessly by some seven lengths and in fast time. After taking out the Hollindale Cup (Gr 2, 1800m) at the Gold Coast in hollow fashion at his third start since joining the Annabel Neasham stable, he was taken forward by James McDonald and settled second, tracking the free-running leader (Brandenberg) before moving up strongly at the 600m. He went to the front shortly afterwards and then drew away to score a stunning victory. Toffee Tongue raced back in fifth place to the 600m and ran on well to fill second place, with Brandenberg holding on well for (9.2 lengths) third after setting a solid pace. Nettoya came from a distant eighth at the turn to finish (9.6 lengths) fourth, with the 14-time Group 1-winning mare Melody Belle making ground from the tail of the field to finish (11-lengths) fifth. She was followed home by other Group 1 winners Avilius - who bled from both nostrils - (12 lengths) sixth, Humidor (12 lengths seventh), while last year's Cox Plate winner Sir Dragonet weakened to finish a distant ninth. ## ANOTHER NZ BRED WINNER

Analysis: New Zealand-bred filly Only Words, winner of last year's Wanganui Guineas (Listed, 1200m) prior to joining the Chris Waller stable, recorded her second stakes success here, her fourth win in 13 starts. She had a nice trip under Craig Williams in fifth place, tracking a good tempo, before improving nearing the turn. She took the lead at straightening and fought off challengers to win well. Bargain raced in about eighth place, improved (deep) rounding the turn and kept finishing on for (1.2 lengths) second in a nice effort at her first run since third in the ATC Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) on April 17. New Zealand-bred filly Charm's Star had a good trip in about sixth place until approaching the turn, was in a challenging position at the 200m, and then held on well for third in a sound effort resuming at her first start in Australia for the Chris Waller stable. Easifar was a handy third coming to the turn and held on quite well for (1.7 lengths) fourth, while stablemates Signora Nera came from midfield on the rails for (3.5 lengths) fifth and Grace And Harmony, who started favourite, was well back to the 600m after starting from a wide barrier, made a sweeping move nearing the turn and battled on well for (3.7 lengths) sixth. Then followed: Gem of Scotland (AUS), Itz Lily (AUS), Greysful
 Glamour (AUS), Le Gai Soleil (NZ), Seentoomany (AUS), Akage (AUS), Sofie's Gold Class (AUS), last.

Analysis: After racing consistently, not finishing further back than fourth in four runs this preparation, Nudge returned to the winners' list for the first time since November 2019 in scoring here, her first stakes victory in 19 starts after being placed twice previously in Group class. She raced towards the tail of the ten-runner field and was conceding the leader about six lengths on straightening. She then came with a strong final burst to claim a very good win. Yamazaki raced in second-last spot before Hugh Bowman made a bold move, due to the moderate tempo, and took the mare to a clear lead 800m. She still held a clear advantage in the straight, only being overhauled in the closing stages for (1.5 lengths) second. The favourite Paradee went forward from her wide barrier and settled outside the early leader (Greysful Glamour), was eased to third at the 800m, and then ran on quite well in the straight to take the minor placing after seeming to have had every chance. Gem Of Scotland raced in fifth spot to the turn and ran on late to claim fourth placing, just in front of Itz Lily (3.3 lengths) fifth and Greysful Glamour battling on quite well for (3.4 lengths) sixth. Then followed: Garibaldi (AUS), Fender (AUS), Red Chase (AUS), Stampe (AUS), Olmedo (FR), Ranier (AUS), Special Reward (AUS), Skins (AUS), Master Jamie (AUS), Groundswell (AUS), Sirconi (AUS), Crockett (AUS), last.

Analysis: Second up from a Sunshine Coast Listed win in January, Emerald Kingdom got a winning break mid-race and was able to hold on comfortably for his tenth win at start 24. He was handy early before taking over near the 1000m and was clear by a length and a half at the 600m. Still clear turning into the straight, he added to his lead approaching the 200m and from the 100m was in no danger, the late challenges leaving him a length up at the line. A super run from Tofane who sat fourth-last at the 600m, went widest around the last corner yet still fourth-last at the top of the straight. She kept up a strong run all the way to the line for second but the winner's break was too great. Axe sat fifth-last and three wide at the 600m, went wide into the straight, drove up to second at the 200m and then kept going for third. From sixth at the top of the straight Garibaldi got a split to be third but couldn't find any more the last 100m for fourth. [LJ]

Analysis: A tough win by last start Group-placed Rhapsody Rose who was game to the line to pick up her maiden stakes win and second career win at start six. Three wide early she found the trail, just back of the leader inside the 1000m. She almost co-led at the 400m, then took a narrow lead at the top of the straight. Away by a length at the 200m she was challenged on her outer, the lead shrinking with every stride, but held on gamely by a short half head at the post. Hoover Lucy was back and wide at the 1000m, charged up four deep from the 600m and sat third at the 400m. Second turning in, she let the winner get clear but chased hard all the way to line for a good second. Morioka was third at the top of the straight and tried hard to the line and not far away in third. Me Me Lagarde was last, trapped on the rail at the 300m, but got out and flashed home between runners for fourth. Analysis: Belle Plaisir indicated a return to her better form with a win in a Benchmark 74 (1550m) at this track on Anzac Day and followed that with her first stakes success here. She settled in fifth place on the rails from her inside barrier (1), took a split at the turn and went to third on straightening before finishing too well in scoring a smart win. The Rotorua-trained Quiz Kid soon went to the front, grabbed a clear break on turning for home, and fought back well for (1.2 lengths) second after running a bold race. Hartley settled in second place and fought well to take the minor placing with Mont Ventoux running on well after near the rear until nearing the turn for (3.6 lengths) fourth, while William Wallace also made late ground to finish (3.8 lengths) fifth. Then followed: Zaniah (AUS), The Astrologist (AUS), The Odyssey (AUS), Just Orm (AUS), Tycoon Ace (AUS), Niedorp (AUS), Sugar Boom (AUS), King of Hastings (AUS), Spurcraft (AUS), California Zimbol (AUS), last.

Analysis: Improved by one run back, the Godolphin-raced mare Varda staged a really smart effort in winning here, her sixth win in 14 starts and her first at stakes level. She was ridden quietly by Kerrin McEvoy and raced in last place, tracking a good tempo, before switching deep on straightening. She then sprinted quickly and stormed home late to claim a decisive win on the post. Kylease showed her usual pace, went to the front, fought off challengers on turning for home, only to be caught nearing the post for (0.8 lengths) second. Mishani Hustler was wide early before going to fourth (three deep) at the 700m. He then did well in holding on for third after his early efforts. Zaniah was back in third-last place approaching the turn, went deep on straightening and ran on well for (1.2 lengths) fourth, with The Astrologist also making late ground for (1.9 lengths) fifth. ANOTHER NZ BRED WINNER (NZ) THOROUGHBRED MARKETING

Analysis: Polly Grey is in her career best form, taking out her third stakes in her last four runs with a fighting win here. She was handy yet wide early but inside the 1600m dropped over to the fence to settle fifth. The field strung out past the 1200m which had her a distant fifth, a spot she held to the 600m. Rounding into the straight she caught the first four and started her challenge four wide at the top of the straight. She was three adrift at the 300m, closer at the 200m, then levelled up at the 100m. She got to the lead then edged a half length in front near the post. Parry Sound was midfield at the 1000m, got going from the 600m and tracked the winner into the straight. He challenged, was fourth at the 200m and tried hard to the line for a good second. The Lord Mayor sat third past the 800m, second at the top of the straight, and took over narrowly at the 200m but was collared at the 100m then held on for third. Stockman was well back at the top of the straight and finished well between runners to nab fourth late. ## ANOTHER NZ BRED WINNER

Analysis: With the run of the race, former New Zealand raced Romancer caused a boil over here to gain his second stakes and ninth career win at start 44. From the inside he was a handy fifth early and fourth at the crossing. Poking through along the inner he formed a line of four across the track at the 300m, then took over by a half length at the 200m. Going too strongly he increased the lead to a length and a half at the 100m and the damage was done and he still had a length to spare at the line. A big run from I'm Telling Ya who sat last approaching the crossing, still last at the 300, but from the 200m charged hard and flew down the outer to be a length away in second. Irish Songs led at the crossing, was one of four across the track at the 300m, second at the 100m, and kept going for third. Aramayo shared second at the crossing, was one of the four across the track at the 300m, then fought on to hold fourth. BETTING FORECAST: 11-10 Smart Idea, 5-2 Turbo Power, 8 Hk Dragon, 10 Super Kingdom, 16 Compulsory, Great King, Toronado Phantom, 33 Chiu Chow Warrior, 100 Hang's Choice.

VERDICT 5f winner Turbo Power finished ahead of SMART IDEA on both his starts and ought to be a tough nut to crack. However, Joao Moreira's mount was denied a clear run at various stages and looked a shade unlucky not to win when third here on the latter occasion, and can prevail this time. Super Kingdom is considered each-way.

VERDICT Both Destin and Victorious Leader look primed to run well under Purton and Moreira respectively, but neither are frequent visitors to the winner's enclosure so it could pay to look elsewhere. Jiangxi Stamina continues to progress so is near the top of the list, despite a poor draw, but the vote goes to SURE WIN WIN. Although still a maiden, he has been competitive for some time now and continues to fall in the weights. He is handily drawn here and any improvement for the switch from blinkers to a first-time visor should see him go close.

VERDICT Significant market support for the newcomers Drops Of God and Regent Glory would be of interest, while the very good recent form of Bella Baby also commands plenty of respect. However, they are all taken on with the unexposed VICTORY SCHOLARS, who can gain a first win at the third time of asking. He has a little bit of ground to make up on Bella Baby based on latest running but has the scope for significant further improvement and can exact his revenge here.

BETTING FORECAST: 6-4 Courier Wonder, 7-2 Computer Patch, 6 Sky Field, 8 Rattan, 10 Stronger, 12 Voyage Warrior, Wishful Thinker, 33 Duke Wai, Fat Turtle.
VERDICT Courier Wonder has made a very impressive start to his career and looks sure to make his mark in Group company at some stage but slight preference is for COMPUTER PATCH , who made the running and ran an excellent race in defeat in last month's Group 1 Chairman's Sprint Prize. Sky Field was also placed in that race and is next on the list.

BETTING FORECAST: 4 Shanghai Dragon, 5 Dong Je Suis, 6 Joyful Heart, 7 Bullish Glory, 8 Ever Laugh, 9 Clement Legend, 10 McMunigal, 12 Play Wise, 14 Daily Charm, Nuremberg, 20 Victorious Seeker, 25 Ezra, 33 Zhan Jiang Rocks, 50 Cheeky Prawn.

VERDICT Five weeks on from Shanghai Dragon and DAILY CHARM fighting out the finish here the same thing could happen again over this extra furlong. The front-running Shanghai Dragon hinted that day that a longer trip could be within his compass but Daily Charm surely gave him too much rope and, having raced too freely last time, may reverse the placings on 4lb better terms. Dong Je Suis and Bullish Glory are other leading candidates.

VERDICT With the bulk of the field open to improvement a chance is taken on EL JEFE, who has made the frame on a number of occasions this season and looks capable of going one better than his second place effort over C&D on his penultimate start. Dandy Years and Robot Warrior are likely contenders.

VERDICT Everything points to a big run from UNCLE STEVE, who has been a model of consistency this season and, under the guidance of Zac Purton, can gain his first success of the season. Craig's Star looks the most likely challenger along with Golden Link, who will be looking to bounce back from a below par-effort last month.

VERDICT Love Me More was too strong for Dragon Fortune over C&D last month but he has a much tougher draw this time. Conversely, Dragon Fortune has a much better draw today and, now 7lb better off, is taken to turn the tables. Big Two made a promising debut here four weeks ago and is next on the list, ahead of Zone D.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-4 Killer Bee, 6 Metro Warrior, 7 Mig Energy, Namjong Sings, 10 Chicken Dance, Tornado Twist, 16 Winston's Lad, 20 Classic Posh, 25 Super Win Dragon, 33 Beauty Amigo, Hercules, Power Koepp, 100 Harmony Win Win.

VERDICT Low-mileage 3yo KILLER BEE went up another 7lb for his narrow C&D success a fortnight ago but, having been denied a clear run in the home straight, he displayed a good turn of foot to reel in the leaders inside the final furlong. He can win again, possibly at the main expense of Metro Warrior.

VERDICT It's probably worth siding with a heavy ground performer and ERZINDJAN fits the bill. He was only narrowly denied a Group 3 win last time out and he has a more progressive profile than some of these. The conditions may help make this a stamina test for Hector De Maris who ran with credit on his return and another Derby entry, Taipan looks like a nice prospect who may be suited by conditions. VERDICT Unbeaten in five starts over this trip, effective on soft ground and the stable-selected here, BROOME can gain Group 1 honours. Dual Irish St Leger winner coped with soft when second to Trueshan at Ascot last October and has race-fitness on her side here after a good Navan run. Shock Derby winner Serpentine and Melbourne Cup second Tiger Moth should be watched with interest on reappearance. [Alan Sweetman]

BETTING FORECAST: 15-8 Pretty Gorgeous, 5-2 Joan Of Arc, 5 Fev Rover, 6 Miss Amulet, 8 No Speak Alexander, 16 Zaffy's Pride, 20 Empress Josephine, 25 Fantasy Lady, Sense Of Style, Thinking Of You, 100 Belle Image, Friendly, Sweet Gardenia, 200 Sziget.

VERDICT A creditable third behind Mother Earth in the Newmarket equivalent, FEV ROVER won on very soft ground on the first of two French raids last year and suffered interference when she returned for the Prix Marcel Boussac. Her race-fitness may give her a slight edge over the much-respected Pretty Gorgeous who handled soft well when landing the Fillies' Mile. The beautifully-bred Joan Of Arc really seemed to be getting the hang of things at Leopardstown. Miss Amulet boasts excellent juvenile form but may not be at home on this ground.
