Kent keen on lightly raced fillies bound for Morphettville stakes race

Trainer finds it hard to split Parlophone and Euphoric Summer in Adelaide

Michael Kent Jr and senior training partner Mick Price will launch a two-pronged attack on SAJC Lightning Stakes (Listed, 1050m) in a bid to land valuable "black-type" for a pair of juvenile fillies at the same time as the stable awaits the arrival of high-profile recruit Wisdom Of Water (Headwater).

Euphoric Summer (Not A Single Doubt) and the well-bred Parlophone (I Am Invincible) were last night on the road to Adelaide for tomorrow's two- and three-year-old race and Kent is upbeat about the chances of the duo.

Alligator Blood disqualified, Vandyke fined

Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) has been disqualified from his win in the $2 million Magic Millions Guineas (RL, 1400m) and his trainer David Vandyke handed a $20,000 fine by Racing Queensland stewards after the three-year-old was found to have returned a positive post-race swab following his January 11 triumph. Additionally, Alligator Blood's connections have forfeited their $1.1 million winners' cheque, after traces of Altrenogest, a substance banned for use on male horses, were discovered.

Deemed worth of a Magic Millions campaign early in the season, Euphoric Summer won the Clockwise Classic (1000m) at Ballarat and was third to subsequent Group 1 winner King's Legacy (Redoute's Choice) in the B J McLachlan Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) prior to an unplaced run in the 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) in January.

The Cressfield-bred filly has had two starts this campaign, her latest when fourth at Caulfield over 1100 metres on June 27, while stablemate Parlophone stamped her class with a first-up win at Sandown on June 24.

"The key to Euphoric Summer is that she is going from 61 down to 52 kilograms, a nine kilo weight swing, and she won't know herself," Kent told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday.

"She looks really good and she's already a stakes-placed filly who has drawn well and she's an uncomplicated ride which is good because we've got a relatively inexperienced rider, but I'm sure Eran (Boyd) is capable of getting the job done."

Parlophone is a promising filly whose half-brother is Telemon Thoroughbreds' first season sire Sun City (Zoustar), while her Deep Field (Northern Meteor) yearling half-brother was bought by Alan Bell for $800,000 this year.

She was retained to race by her breeder Geoff Walsh and partners who include Lindsay Maxsted and Kent said she is a filly "I really like".

"She's got form through Personal who went onto run third in the Blue Diamond. We gave her a break and she's come back as an improved horse and first-up she was a bit quirky," he said.

"She's done it twice now where she's bucked out of the barriers for five or six strides and I thought the race was over at Sandown first-up on a day where you couldn't make ground but she gobbled them up late to win which was mightily impressive.

Oceanex (4 m Ocean Park - Danex by Danasinga)

"She's improved out of sight physically. Ocean Parks typically are very late maturers and she's typical of that. She's got better again and it's the best she's ever looked. She's put on 30 kilograms during the break. It's a cliché, but she's bigger and stronger and her regular track rider thinks she's flying. She's on the Melbourne Cup path."

Gold Bracelet (3 f Pins - Miss Bling by Golan)

"She's a horse from New Zealand who's had four starts for three wins and she went and won the Wellington Guineas. She's going to go to the Cockram, Let's Elope Stakes and then run in the Empire Rose on Derby Day. Roll The Dice bought half of her with Jen Campin who raced Wyndspelle."

National Choice (2 c Snitzel - My Sabeel by Savabeel) and Immortal Love (2 g Snitzel - Loveyamaddy by Bel Esprit)

"They will both hopefully head to the Caulfield Guineas. National Choice has had two starts (winning at Geelong and placing at Caulfield in April and May) and Immortal Love is a gelding, but he's won his only two starts so far (at Echuca and Flemington) as well."

Scientific (2 f Smart Missile - Alana's Dream by Bernardini)

"Scientific is a filly who Damien Oliver really likes. She won nickel at Geelong (on June 12) and she will hopefully head towards the Thousand Guineas."

Redeel (2 f Dundee - Replacement Miss by Stryker) and Pinkham (2 f Written Tycoon - Fontiton by Turffontein)

"Redeel is a Dundee filly who won on debut very impressively (at Pakenham) and in the sprinting fillies division we will also have Pinkham who is a Written Tycoon-Fontiton filly. She got close to the (track) record at Seymour on debut and she's extremely good I think."

"She's really come on and she looks outstanding."

Euphoric Summer (barrier 6) and Parlophone (barrier 5) will not only clash on tomorrow, they also went head-to-head in a Caulfield track gallop earlier this week.

"They've both had a little jump out in between runs to tick them over. They went super and they galloped again on the course proper Tuesday morning and there was hardly anything between them," he said.

"They've both drawn good barriers, so we're really happy with both of them and I wouldn't be surprised if either of them won and hopefully both of them get some black type."

Providing both fillies pull up well from their Adelaide trip, they will press on to the Quezette Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Caulfield on August 15.

Kent also revealed yesterday that a three-run spring campaign had already been mapped out for rising three-year-old colt Wisdom Of Water, who took out the Ken Russell Memorial (Gr 3, 1200m) at the Gold Coast in May when trained by Toby and Trent Edmonds.

Aquis Farm bought into the son of Vinery Stud's first season sire Headwater (Exceed And Excel) prior to the colt's fifth placing in the J J Atkins Plate (Gr 1, 1400m) in June.

"The plan is to go to Danehill, Blue Sapphire and the Coolmore with three runs in the spring. He's on his way down now and is literally in transit at the moment," he said.

"We'll get to know him over the next couple of months, but it's exciting to have a horse of that calibre in the stable. You can always try to teach them new habits, but you can't replace ability."

12 for Vancouver

Coolmore resident Vancouver (Medaglia d'Oro) sired his 12th first-crop winner, and tenth in Australia, when Royal Exit (2 g ex Kamarla Rose by Nadeem) took out an 1100-metre two-year-old maiden on debut at Warrnambool yesterday. Trained locally by Matthew Williams, the gelding defeated stablemate Champagne Witness (Star Witness) by three-quarters of a length with Sweet Sixteen (Sebring) coming home a further two and a quarter lengths away in third. Purchased by his trainer and Sheamus Mills Bloodstock for $70,000 at Book 1 of the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, Royal Exit is one of two winners out of Kamarla Rose (Nadeem), who herself is a sister to dual Group scorer Sharnee Rose. Former reverse shuttler Vancouver is also responsible for South African Grade 2 winner Mount Pleasant and Percy Sykes Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) runner-up Vangelic. He stands at Coolmore's Jerrys Plains for a fee of $30,250 (inc GST) this season.

Alligator Blood disqualified, Vandyke fined

Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) has been disqualified from his win in the $2 million Magic Millions Guineas (RL, 1400m) and his trainer David Vandyke handed a $20,000 fine by Racing Queensland stewards after the three-year-old was found to have returned a positive post-race swab following his January 11 triumph. Additionally, Alligator Blood's connections have forfeited their $1.1 million winners' cheque, after traces of Altrenogest, a substance banned for use on male horses, were discovered. Initial runner-up Eleven Eleven (Fastnet Rock) has been promoted to first, while Exhilarates (Snitzel) improves to second and Hightail (Written Tycoon) joins the minor placings. More commonly known as Regumate, Altrenogest is a hormone given to keep female horses from being in season, or if they are already pregnant, to keep them from losing the foal. Vandyke avoided suspension after being found guilty of breaching rule AR240(2). He was charged with presenting a horse to race with a prohibited substance, not the more serious administrating charge.

Connections to challenge Alligator decision

Alligator Blood

SPORTPIX

Alligator Blood's owner Allan Endresz yesterday confirmed he will head to the Supreme Court to challenge the decision of the Racing Queensland stewards. "From the trainer's perspective, collectively we are very happy," Endresz told Racing.com. "But what did come out of it was they have stuck the mandatory rule 240 that the horse is automatically disqualified. That's consistent with what I've been saying, that there was no wriggle room. That will be the undoing when I start to hit my straps. I have been talking about it (heading to the Supreme Court) for a long time. We will debrief our legal views to QRIC so we are up front about that."

2021 Magic Millions yearling sales open for entries

Entries for the 2021 Magic Millions yearling sales series opened yesterday, with nominations being accepted for six sales across four states. "Our sales series conducted across four states offers ideal options to showcase yearlings at every level – all aimed at providing breeders with the greatest sale outcome," Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch said. "Saying 2020 has been a year like no other is without doubt an understatement. As we plan ahead amidst the uncertainty created by the Covid-19 pandemic, we recognise how important it is for each and every breeder to achieve the very best possible return." Entries close on Friday, August 14 for all sales except the National Yearling Sale which closes on March 12. Nominations can be submitted here.

Viridine out to turn tables on Jungle

Runner-up to Jungle Edge (Dubawi) in the Sir John Monash Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) last start, Viridine (Poet's Voice) will be out to turn the tables on the mudlark when the pair clash again in the Bletchingly Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield tomorrow. The James Cummings-trained Viridine was hampered by the heavy conditions in the Monash and while the track was rated in the soft range yesterday, rain is not expected on race day. "We're looking forward to taking on Jungle Edge again over a bit more ground and on a track that hopefully won't be as heavy as it was two weeks ago," Cummings said. "On a heavy track Jungle Edge is a Group 1 horse. But we're not going into this race thinking we can't turn around the result from the Monash and neither have we lost sight of the fact that there are some other very capable horses lined up against us."

Bell sends Jungle warning for punters

Mick Bell, the trainer of Jungle Edge, warned punters that the track for tomorrow's Bletchingly is unlikely to be wet enough for his nine-year-old mudlark. "My advice would be to go for a place bet for this weekend," Bell told Racing.com yesterday. "He seems to be going better than ever and whether it's wet or dry I think he'll finish top three, but it's probably a safer bet than going for the win. Of course we'd rather it a bit wetter for Saturday but he's tough and always puts in a good effort so I'm confident he'll run well whatever the conditions. The wide draw isn't a concern too, it's only a field of nine and he's won from the outside before, Jade (Darose, jockey) knows him so well, so bring on Saturday. Hopefully he'll run well and push his case for a slot in The Everest, we can continue to dream."

Lord Bouzeron ready to rumble for Finnegan

Francis Finnegan is confident Kiwi import Lord Bouzeron (Burgundy) can hold his own against some of the better late-season three-year-olds when he returns to Caulfield on Saturday. The gelding will contest the Mark Needham Handicap (2394m) a fortnight after winning impressively on Australian debut for Finnegan, having transferred from his sister-in-law Chrissy Bambry's stable in New Zealand. Lord Bouzeron will again be ridden by 3 kilogram-claiming apprentice Will Price, who notched his first metropolitan win last time out. "Will rides very well and getting three kilos off a horse of that stature is very valuable," Finnegan said. "We will learn a lot more on Saturday. He is an incredibly tough little horse. When Will got off the other day he said he couldn't believe how tough he was through the line. He has obviously been well schooled in New Zealand. When you ask him to go he just puts his ears flat back and gallops."

Eduardo on track for Pride

Saturday's July Sprint (1100m) will be used as a campaign springboard for former Victorian Eduardo (Host) as he bids to rediscover his best form under new trainer Joe Pride. The Rosehill contest will be just the 13th start of the rising seven-year-old's career, a fact not lost on the handler. "He looks like he's running for fun," Pride said. "He is enjoying it, his ears are pricked, it's a bit of a game for him and generally when they trial like that they race well." Pride expects Eduardo to hold his own on the weekend and hopes the race can be a carnival starting point towards features such as next month's Missile Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). "I will be disappointed if I don't see him run well because everything is adding up to a good performance," Pride continued. "It's a way to line him up and hopefully launch him into the spring."

Waller to stick with Maloney for Gresham

Gresham

SPORTPIX

Champion trainer Chris Waller has resisted the temptation to use an apprentice and instead turned to senior rider Ryan Maloney to attempt to coax Gresham (Sebring) back to winning form. Gresham has paid the price at the weights for his consistency and has been allocated 60 kilograms for Saturday's TAB Long May We Play Open Handicap (1600m). Apprentice Nick Keal won on Gresham at the Gold Coast in May but senior riders have had the mount in his three subsequent runs. Waller's Gold Coast manager Paul Shailer said Maloney was an ideal rider for Gresham, who needed a strong hand. "Gresham is back to his most successful distance and it isn't the strongest open handicap," he said. "He hasn't had much luck in some of his races or his win rate would be better."

Williams' Hot talent a work in progress

Danny Williams regards Hot 'N' Hazy (Snitzel) as the most talented horse to come through his stable in ten years, but warns the colt is still learning his craft ahead of Saturday's Sky Racing Active Handicap (1200m) at Rosehill. The winner of his only start at Wagga in February, it is the colt's recent 14-length trial romp that has prompted him to be marked as an early favourite for Saturday and also earned him a position as a $15 chance for October's $1.3 million Kosciuszko (1200m), a race Williams confirms is on their radar. "He is potentially the best horse I have had in the last decade," the trainer said. "But he frightens me a bit because he's not there mentally. What you saw in the trial is not always replicated race day."

Brando ready for starring role at Doomben

Tony Haydon is hoping Brando (Desert King) can repay the patience shown by his owner and breeder Neville Bell when he attempts to complete back-to-back wins by taking out the BRC Membership Handicap (2000m) at Doomben on Saturday. The rising six-year-old was sent to Victoria where he won a Mornington maiden over 2000 metres, but a series of setbacks saw him return to Queensland and the care of Caloundra-based Haydon. The gelding's last-start win at Eagle Farm showcased Brando's toughness as he sat four deep at stages before prevailing over 1800 metres. "Neville and (wife) Mary have been patient with Brando but he overcame difficulties to win last start and he is racing well," Haydon said.

Ross out to clinch QTIS title

Les Ross will have three runners on Saturday's Doomben card as he goes in pursuit of this season's leading QTIS two-year-old trainer title. Ross currently leads the way with his youngsters earning just under $250,000 in bonus payments and he is set to be represented by Mishani Fraudster (Jet Spur) in the Welcome Back To BRC QTIS 2YO Colts & Geldings Handicap (1200m) plus Hancora Field (Deep Field) and Patty's Fortune (Rich Enuff) in the Quincy QTIS 2YO Fillies Handicap. A win in either race should ensure Ross finishes first with second-placed Tony and Maddy Sears not having a runner. Mishani Fraudster drew barrier one while Hanora Field and Patty's Fortune drew 11 and nine respectively. "There are a couple of promising fillies in that division and mine both drew off the track," Ross said. "But Hanora Field has won four races and Jackson Murphy will claim two kilograms. Patty's Fortune also drew wide but she is a Doomben winner."

Thompson hands on with Criminal Defence

Apprentice Adin Thompson will be out to reap the benefits of his work in breaking in Criminal Defence (Nicconi) when he rides the gelding in the Welcome Back To BRC 2YO Handicap (1200m) at Doomben on Saturday. "It isn't well known but Adin is a very good horse breaker," co-trainer Peter Hulbert said. "He broke in Criminal Defence, rides him in all of his work and looks after him around the stables so he knows him well." Hulbert, who believes Criminal Defence will probably be better as a three-year-old over longer trips, continued: "He is showing something as a late two-year-old and he isn't far off our good two-year-old filly Mistress of Doom. The 1200 metres on Saturday should suit him a lot better."

Atlantic Jewel son set for debut

Empireofthedragon (Galileo), the unraced first foal out of champion mare Atlantic Jewel (Fastnet Rock) who is five years old and has changed hands multiple times, is finally set to debut at Swan Hill today. Now trained by Robert Hickmott, the gelding will contest the TAC Maiden Plate (1600m) and Hickmott is looking forward to learning more about him off the back of his first trip to the races. "I've only had him for three weeks and he's done nothing but please me since he's come into the stable," Hickmott told Racing.com. "He's a beautiful horse to deal with and he's a fully-set Galileo, so hopefully there's some upside there. The mile first-up will be no worries for him. I'd love him to win for the owner, because he has been a bit of a project horse."

Humidor owners backing Waller

Humidor

SPORTPIX

Connections are hoping a switch to champion trainer Chris Waller will see dual Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) placegetter Humidor (Teofilo) get back to winning ways. The three-time Group 1 winner has failed to get his head in front since landing the Memsie Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) nearly two years ago and joins Waller following three unplaced runs for Lindsey Smith, off the back of a winless spell in the care of Ciaran Maher and David Eustace. "I've never met anyone more competitive than Chris and to him this is a real challenge," part-owner Brae Sokolski told Racing.com. "We haven't been able to get the horse back to anywhere near his best since his suspensory injury and even though he is completely sound, the question remains, has he still got that will and if he does, Chris will tap into it. He'll run first-up in the Chelmsford (Stakes) on the 5th of September and we'll try to find the right race for him at 2000 metres at maybe a level below to get the horse's confidence up. But we'll know early in his prep whether we persevere or whether it is time for him to go off into retirement."

Calthorpe questions strangles procedure

Geelong trainer Chris Calthorpe has questioned Racing Victoria's handling of a local outbreak of strangles after his stable was forced into lockdown. Calthorpe temporarily moved one of his two-year-olds into a box at the stable of Sonny Coombes while some renovation work was carried out. Coombes shares a stable with Danielle Loos, whose Naval Envoy (Smug), has tested positive for strangles, something Calthorpe says he was not made aware of at the time. "No one informed me that there could be potential strangles at the race club," Calthorpe told Racing.com. "So I'm in lockdown because I moved a two-year-old who has been in work two weeks for four or five hours so they can do some work. Officially I was informed at 3pm on Wednesday that her horse was positive for strangles. The way it's been handled is an absolute disgrace. That stable should have been locked down straight away. I'm an innocent victim in all of this. If the proper procedures were taken on Sunday night, we wouldn't be in this situation now."

ATC promotes James Ross

Australian Turf Club has appointed senior racing executive James Ross to the position of executive general manager racing services. Ross has been ATC's general manager racing, wagering and international since May 2016 and has more than 18 years experience in Australian and international racing jurisdictions. He has previously served in roles with the Victoria Racing Club, Hong Kong Jockey Club and Racing Australia. Ross takes over his new role following the retirement of James Heddo. The appointment is effective from August 1. "James has among many achievements been responsible for elevating our racing program in addition to securing a number of successful international stables and runners to participate in Sydney carnivals," ATC chief executive Jamie Barkley said. "He will continue to enhance the reputation of Sydney racing as among the strongest and most competitive racing jurisdictions anywhere in the world."

RV announces whip breach penalty guideline

Jamie Stier

RACING POST

To avoid confusion over national whip rule breaches, Racing Victoria has announced new penalty guidelines for flat races. Developed in consultation with the Victorian Jockeys' Association, the guidelines come into effect at the start of the new racing season on August 1 and set out the penalties that can be imposed by stewards. While minimums have been implemented, the final penalties will remain at the discretion of stewards. Higher fines and possibly lengthier suspensions may be imposed in Group or feature races, while penalties may also increase if a rider has a poor record. Jamie Stier, RV's head of integrity services, said breaches of the whip rule had garnered much debate in recent times. "It is important to note these guidelines reflect the minimum starting point for considerations on penalties to be imposed and the stewards will ultimately deliver penalties they feel are appropriate in all the circumstances to encourage compliance to the rules," Stier said.

Leadership change on cards for Tabcorp

The major funder of the Australian racing industry, the publicly listed Tabcorp, will have a change of leadership with a new chairman of the company announced and its long-time managing director set to retire in what shapes as a crucial period for the wagering and gaming group. Long-serving chief executive David Attenborough has signalled his intent to stand down in 2021 while incumbent chair Paula Dwyer will be replaced by Steven Gregg when she retires on December 31. "With the integration of Tatts nearing completion, the time is now right for a new chairman to lead the Tabcorp board into the future," Dwyer said. "The appointment of Steven Gregg will provide continuity of leadership and an orderly transition as the company identifies and transitions to a new managing director and CEO." Attenborough, who has been in his current role since June 2011, will retire in the first half of next year. A global search will be undertaken to recruit a suitable replacement.

Vale 'Spike' Jones

Legendary Western Districts jockey Ray 'Spike' Jones, the winner of 39 Cup races including the 1969 Orange Cup (1m 2f) on Tom's Gift (Duvidal), has died at the age of 77, Racing NSW has reported. Jones won on each of his first two rides in an incredible start to his career as an apprentice, which saw him ride eight winners from his first 13 mounts during a two-day meeting at Bathurst's Towac Park. He went on to win 14 premierships, rode four winners on the same day on 14 different occasions and accumulated a total of 1448 winners.

Avondale win for Make Time

The Stephen McKee-trained Make Time (Makfi) broke maiden ranks on Wednesday with a comfortable victory at Avondale in testing conditions. The three-year-old gelding, who races in the Go Racing silks for the Penrhyn Syndicate, had been building up to the win, running third in each of his three previous starts, before racing was put on hold due to the Covid-19 pandemic. "We had to ease off him because of lockdown," McKee said. "He did have that fitness edge and I was pretty sure he would go alright. I just wasn't sure about the race conditions with the heavy track." Ridden by Sam Spratt, Make Time settled in midfield and enjoyed a patient ride, with Spratt starting to weave through runners with 600 metres to go. Once clear coming out of the turn, Make Time accelerated to win by two and a quarter lengths.

Notabad day for Kiwi owners

An association that was struck almost 40 years ago between trans-Tasman trainers was once again to the fore on Wednesday. Randwick trainers Jim and Greg Lee and former New Zealand trainer Chris Faulkner have enjoyed plenty of success over the years and the partnership struck again when Notabadidea (Highly Recommended) and Notabadharada (Haradasun) finished first and third in a Benchmark-70 handicap over 1550 metres at Canterbury. Notabadidea pleased his connections with the win and they believe he has a bright future in the staying ranks. "He is very versatile and he is coming good. He is a dead-set stayer," Greg Lee said. "He had his first attempt over 2600 metres (last start) and I think he was a bit unlucky not to have run in the first three. I think he is going to make a stayer of the future."

INTERNATIONAL

Seven for Territories

Darley shuttler Territories (Invincible Spirit) sired his seventh individual first-crop winner when Regional (2 c ex Favulusa by Dansili) quickened clear for a promising debut win in a maiden over five furlongs at Pontefract yesterday. The Richard Fahey-trained colt beat Politics (Muhaarar) by a length and three quarters with favourite Zaman Jameel (Shamardal) another neck away in third. A 120,000 gns purchase as a yearling, Regional is out of the Dansili (Danehill) mare Favulusa, a Listed winner in Italy, and half-sister to Italian Oaks (Gr 2, 1m 3f) winner Folega (Oasis Dream). Group 1 winner Territories stands at Darley's Kelvinside property in the Hunter Valley for a fee of $11,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

67 for Sea The Stars

Gilltown Stud resident Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) sired his 67th individual stakes winner when Valia (3 f ex Veda by Dansili) got the better of her more experienced rivals to take out yesterday's Prix de Thiberville at Longchamp (Listed, 2400m). Having just her second start, the Alain de Royer-Dupre-trained three-year-old beat British raider Wonderful Tonight (Le Havre) by two and a half lengths, with Padovana (Sea The Moon) another neck back in third. Royer-Dupre has high hopes for the filly, who is the first foal out of French 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) runner-up Veda (Dansili), with a tilt at the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) now on her horizon. Sea The Stars stood for a fee of €150,000 in 2020.

Vision edges it to double stakes tally

Four-year-old Dark Vision (Dream Ahead), winner of the Hunt Cup (1m) at this year's Royal Ascot, registered his first stakes success since his juvenile days when edging out Beringer (Sea The Stars) in a tight finish to the Pomfret Stakes (Listed, 1m) at Pontefract yesterday. Trained by Mark Johnston, the Godolphin-raced colt scored by a neck, with Foxtrot Lady (Foxwedge) another length and three-quarters away in third. The winner of the Vintage Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) at Glorious Goodwood in 2018, Dark Vision has now won five of his 19 starts.

Bolleville strikes on debut for O'Brien

French import Bolleville (Camelot) made a successful debut for Joseph O'Brien to make it four wins in seven starts when nabbing the Silver Stakes (Listed, 1m 2f) at Leopardstown yesterday. Already a Listed winner when in the care of Pascal Bary, the four-year-old got her Irish career off to the best possible start with a length win over Simsir (Zoffany), with Keats (Galileo) a further length and three-quarters away in third.

Starspangled Ballyogan win for Millisle

Starspangledbanner (Choisir) filly Millisle (3 f ex Green Castle by Indian Ridge) returned to the winner's stall for the first time since taking out the Cheveley Park Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) last year, in the Ballyogan Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at Naas on Wednesday. Trained by Jessica Harrington, the filly scooted home by four lengths ahead of Pronouncement (Declaration Of War) in second, with Lady Penelope (Night Of Thunder) a further two and a half lengths away in third. Millisle is one of 14 stakes winners for Rosemont Stud shuttler Starspangledbanner, who will stand at the Victorian farm for a fee of $19,800 (inc GST) in 2020.

Enable faces O'Brien three in King George

Enable

RACING POST

Enable (Nathaniel) will face three rivals in her bid to make history as the first horse ever to win tomorrow's King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f) three times at Ascot. Frankie Dettori will once again be aboard Enable, with the jockey set to partner the six-year-old for the 15th consecutive time. Standing between Enable and history is a three-pronged team from Aidan O'Brien, headlined by last year's Juddmonte International Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) winner Japan (Galileo). Ryan Moore will once again partner Japan, having ridden him on his last six racecourse appearances. O'Brien's other two runners are 2019 Classic winners Anthony Van Dyck (Galileo) and Sovereign (Galileo).

Guineas winners set for Sussex Stakes clash

Kameko (Kitten's Joy) and Siskin (First Defence), winners of the English and Irish 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) respectively, are in line to take on Queen Anne Stakes winner (Gr 1, 1m) Circus Maximus (Galileo) at Goodwood next week. The trio feature among nine entries made for the Sussex Stakes (Gr 1, 1m), the feature race of Glorious Goodwood on Wednesday.

James Cummings secured his first classic starter for the spring last Saturday when Alcyone (Teofilo) broke his maiden in the Byerley Handicap (1800m) at Flemington and earned himself a ticket straight into the VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m).

The two-year-old son of Teofilo (Galileo), who finished second in the Taj Rossi Series Final (Listed, 1600m) at his previous start, settled well in fourth place, one out and one back, before John Allen asked him to improve nearing the turn.

The colt took the lead at approaching the 200-metre mark and he held off challengers to score by three-quarters of a length ahead of Johnny Get Angry (Tavistock), with Shadow Prey (Crackerjack King) a further half-length away in third.

"He travelled well," Allen said after the race. "I had the front two covered and I didn't want to get to the front too soon because he's a bit lairy and he just had a look around when he got there.

"I felt he waited for them a bit and even though he didn't win by a big margin, I felt like I had a bit left, to be honest."

Bred by Godolphin Australia, Alcyone is the fourth foal to race out of Storm Queen Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) and Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Purple (Commands), who is also responsible for Fernhill Stakes (Listed, 1600m) runner-up Toga Picta (Lonhro).

Purple's dam, city-winning mare Lady Viola (Zabeel), is a three-quarter sister to Sinjani (Sir Tristram), the dam of Chairman's Handicap (Gr 2, 2600m) scorer Fooram (Maroof), and a half-sister to Canterbury Cup (Gr 3, 1900m) and Lord Mayor's Cup (Listed, 2400m) victor Estimable (Balmerino). Further back, this is also the family of multiple Singapore black-type placegetter Powerful Ruler (Viking Ruler).

Darley stallion Teofilo shuttled to Australia for six years between 2009 and 2013 and 2016 and 2017 and covered 577 mares, resulting in 342 foals. He is now represented at stud down under by his sons Palentino, who stands at Sun Stud for $14,300 (inc GST) in 2020, and Kermadac, who resides at Darley Kelvinside with his fee set at $13,750 (inc GST) this season.

Teofilo now permanently resides at Darley's Kildangan Stud, where he stood for a fee of €40,000 in 2020.
