Heathcote's Roth fires to Champagne Classic success at Eagle Farm

'Thrilla from Chinchilla' defies rejection from sales to add a Group win to his burgeoning record

LATEST NEWS FROM THE WEEKEND'S RACING

Rothfire

BY ANDREW HAWKINS | @ANZ_NEWS

A bomb threat, an 'Isotope' and a 'Wild Ruler' all together have the makings of a disastrous combination, but they were not enough to derail top Queensland juvenile Rothfire, who yesterday continued his rags-to-riches rise with his pillar-to-post win in the Champagne Classic (Gr 2, 1200m) at Eagle Farm.

On an eventful day at Brisbane's premier racetrack, the Robert Heathcote-trained Rothfire (2 g Rothesay - Huss On Fire by Hussonet) took his record to five wins from six starts with an easy win against five rivals in the Champagne Classic. The horse dubbed the 'Thrilla from Chinchilla' by his owners was returning to the races for the first time since suffering a shock defeat in the QTIS 2YO Jewel (1200m) at the Gold Coast in March, finishing second to Kisukano (Bel Esprit). Cont. page 2>>

Victorem into Stradbroke after Victory

Port Macquarie trainer Jenny Graham was unable to be trackside at Eagle Farm yesterday due to coronavirus restrictions, but she was celebrating from afar as she scored her first Group win with Victorem (5 g I Am Invincible - Playful Miss by Foreplay) in the Victory Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). Racing News page 4 >>

Breaking very quickly from gate two yesterday, Rothfire was straight into the lead under Jim Byrne, only facing moderate pressure from an overracing Wild Ruler (Snitzel). Throughout, he appeared to be in control, kicking clear upon straightening and reaching the line a length and a quarter clear of the Tony Gollan-trained Isotope (Deep Field). Wild Ruler was a nose away in third.

Rothfire was immediately wound into $5 favourite with the TAB for the J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m), to be run over the shortened trip this year. Although his only defeat came at 1200 metres before yesterday's victory at that trip, Heathcote believes that he will get a mile in time.

"It's just good to have him back," Heathcote said. "I think he beat a couple of good horses so he is right up there. I really do have a lot of time for this horse. He has done everything we have asked of him.

"I had a few self-doubts, which in hindsight I shouldn't have had. When Jimmy got to the 300, I thought 'he's had a breather' and he found that kick. We go to the 1400 metres of the Atkins now and we will see what he can do.

"I think we will find Jimmy saying he is such a laid back, cool dude, he just relaxes."

Byrne added: "Rothfire is pretty foolproof and he really jumped well again today. Bring on the Atkins."

The Champagne Classic holds special significance to Heathcote. It was the first Group race he won in 2000, taking the race with Chenar (Just Awesome)

"Chenar's daughter Funtantes won the Champagne in 2009 and now we have won it again," Heathcote said. "It is my favourite race."

Rothfire will once again tackle Isotope and Wild Ruler in the J J Atkins, as well as Ken Russell Memorial Classic (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Wisdom Of Water (Headwater). Last time Wisdom Of Water met Rothfire, the latter was nine lengths superior, although he has gone ahead in leaps and bounds since.

Rothfire

MICHAEL MCINALLY

The Champagne Classic was the first of the features to be run at Eagle Farm yesterday after a bomb threat temporarily brought the meeting to a halt.

Horses were parading for the third race when police were called to the racecourse. A thorough inspection of the track and the racetrack facilities, which were mostly deserted due to Covid-19 protocols, revealed no abnormalities and the third took place an hour later than scheduled.

Chief steward Peter Chadwick said: "We can confirm police were called to the track and undertook an operation. We can't make any further comment on the details of the incident as police were in charge."

Rothfire became the sixth stakes winner for Lyndhurst Stud's Rothesay (Fastnet Rock) and his first at Group 2 level. It comes as the rising 14-year-old enjoys something of a resurgence; after two seasons of serving 28 mares, he covered a book of 98 mares last year. He will stand at an unchanged fee of $4,950 (inc GST) for the upcoming breeding season.

Rothesay

LYNDHURST STUD

Bred by Wally and Jill Gleeson and their sons Simon, Jacob and Tom under their Gleeson Thoroughbreds banner, Rothfire was born and raised at their Chinchilla property. While he was inspected by the major sales companies, he was deemed unsuitable as a yearling prospect and was instead sold to Heathcote for $10,000 - although it was a bill that Heathcote had to pay twice due to a phishing scam.

Now, Rothfire has made that $20,000 outlay look cheap, earning $495,400 in prize-money through his six starts.

Rothfire was the final foal out of Huss On Fire (Hussonet), an unraced mare who was retired from the breeding barn in 2018 and died last year. She produced six foals; five raced for three winners, including six-time victor Rylee's Saga (Real Saga).

While there is little black-type in his immediate family, his family traces back to fifth dam Gently (Grey Sovereign), winner of the Nell Gwyn Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) in 1965. Among her descendants are Group 1 winners Agnes World (Danzig), Tourist (Tiznow), Librettist (Danzig), Dubai Destination (Kingmambo) and Grease (Filiberto).

Rothfire will aim to become the second juvenile Group 1 winner this season with Hussonet (Mr Prospector) as a damsire, with ATC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner King's Legacy (Redoute's Choice) also out of a Hussonet mare.

Victorem into Stradbroke after Victory

Victorem

MICHAEL MCINALLY

Port Macquarie trainer Jenny Graham was unable to be trackside at Eagle Farm yesterday due to coronavirus restrictions, but she was celebrating from afar as she scored her first Group win with Victorem (5 g I Am Invincible - Playful Miss by Foreplay) in the Victory Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m).

Victorem bounced back after bucking at the start first-up in the BRC Sprint (Gr 3, 1200m) at Doomben. Forced to barrier trial last Tuesday, he was given an easy time by Mark Du Plessis to prime him for his second-up assignment yesterday.

However, he was unwanted by the market, starting at $17 with Vega One (Lope De Vega) the $4.80 favourite.

Jumping far better yesterday, he was first from the gates but was eased by Du Plessis to sit midfield one off the rail, five lengths from heavily-backed leader Winter Bride (Not A Single Doubt). Du Plessis held Victorem together until well into the straight, switching to the inside and making ground rapidly.

Dashing through to hit the lead, he held off the late charge of Niccanova (Nicconi) by a length and a quarter, with a long neck back to Deep Image (Testa Rossa) in third. He has now won eight of his 19 starts.

Graham sent Victorem to Eagle Farm trainer Barry Lockwood to aim at the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m), with the handler unable to travel north herself with the Queensland border closed.

"Of course I would love to be there but you have to do the right thing in these times," she said. "I would just like to thank Barry and his staff who have been fantastic. To be able to trust someone with your best horse says it all."

After missing a start in last year's Stradbroke Handicap, Victorem is now guaranteed a run in this year's event in a fortnight's time and is not eligible for a penalty. However, he may need a new jockey with Du Plessis already booked for yesterday's fourth placegetter Outback Barbie (Spirit Of Boom); she currently sits outside the top 20 but should get a run with a number of unlikely acceptors ahead of her.

"I am sure we will get plenty of jockeys ringing us. This horse has been so good to us and already won over a million dollars," Graham said. "It would be fantastic for him to win a Group 1 and he deserves it."

Mark Du Plessis

MICHAEL MCINALLY

Bred by Michelle Kelly and offered by Eliza Park International as a weanling at the Magic Millions National Weanling Sale Select Session in 2015, he failed to reach his reserve of $60,000, being passed in for $57,500.

Offered almost 18 months later at the 2016 Magic Millions Gold Coast 2YOs In Training Sale by Symphony Lodge, he was purchased by Graham for $65,000. He has now earned almost $1.3 million.

Victorem is the first foal out of Sydney winner Playful Miss (Victorem). She has since produced fillies by Mahisara (More Than Ready) and Denman (Lonhro), while her Territories (Invincible Spirit) filly went through the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale earlier this year, selling for $150,000. She is back in foal to Territories after missing to I Am Invincible last year.

Victorem is I Am Invincible's 12th Australian stakes winner this season, his eighth at Group level.

Costa, Chau celebrate Group success with Giant

Supergiant

MICHAEL MCINALLY

Trainer Michael Costa and jockey Allan Chau both recorded their first Group win yesterday when they combined to take the Gunsynd Classic (Gr 3, 1800m) with Supergiant (3 g Red Giant - My Marguerite ex Spectacular Love) yesterday.

Ridden with aplomb on the speed by Chau, Supergiant held on by the narrowest of margins over the fast-finishing Ballistic Boy (Smart Missile) for trainer Chris Anderson with favourite Kinane (Reliable Man) producing a decent but non-threatening effort for third.

It took Supergiant's record to three wins from five starts, with the Queensland Derby replacement, the Rough Habit Plate (Gr 3, 2200m), his next target.

Costa made the move to Queensland in 2016, leaving behind a Sydney operation that included subsequent Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner She Will Reign (Manhattan Rain). While it may have proved a difficult pill to swallow then, Costa has long shaped as a potential top trainer and his first Group win has the potential to bring further success to his stable.

Chau himself made the move to south-east Queensland this season, having ridden around the NSW Northern Rivers region for a number of years.

Supergiant had finished second to Vanna Girl (Husson) in the Doomben Guineas (Listed, 1615m) at his last start with Ballistic Boy in third. And while a number of high-profile jockeys had chased the ride for the Gunsynd Classic, Costa said he had never contemplated replacing Chau on the gelding.

Allan Chau

"Allan does a lot of the hard work and he deserves his chance. It is his first Group winner and mine too so it is all the sweeter," Costa said. "Now he can go to the Rough Habit Plate in a fortnight. He will be even better for the effort today. He is a horse which seems to get fit with racing and that was only his fifth run."

Kinane passed a veterinary exam before being allowed to take his place in the field, having been involved in a float incident on his way to the track.

Taken back from the outside gate by Ryan Maloney, he made up decent ground late but never looked a threat to the top two.

Supergiant hails from a Scandinavian family with third dam Forn Vell (Air Trooper) a prominent stakes winner in Denmark and Sweden. Also from the family is Kibbutz (Golan), winner of the 2007 Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m).

His dam My Marguerite (Spectacular Love), a maiden from 23 starts, has only produced five foals in her time at stud. Supergiant is one of three to race, along with two-time winner Zavamar (Savabeel) and five-time placegetter Five Princes (Red Giant).

Supergiant

MICHAEL MCINALLY

In addition, she has a Puccini yearling too, but has not been served the last two seasons.

Originally trained by Jim Collett at Matamata in New Zealand, Costa picked up Supergiant after he was shown a barrier trial effort from Cambridge last year by bloodstock agent Phill Cataldo.

"Chris Waller's Queensland manager recommended Phill so I owe him a favour," Costa said.

"Supergiant was actually the first horse that Phill put forth to me. I received an email and you never really want to jump into the first one, but I liked his trial and he was priced affordably at $70,000.

"It was always going to be a little bit of a punt for owners given he is by a sire in Red Giant that is not that well known in Australia, but on the back of his trial and reasonable price, we probably could have sold him five times over."

Red Giant served six seasons at Westbury Stud in New Zealand between 2010 and 2016 before he was sold to Ozcolak Stud in Turkey in 2017, where he stands under the Turkey Jockey Club banner. He stood for 10,000 lira (AUD$2,250) in 2018, with his fee now private.

Second for Contributor

Jeronimos (2 c ex Viana by Volksraad) provided Mapperley Stud's Contributor (High Chaparral) with a second individual winner when taking out a 1200-metre maiden handicap at Newcastle on Saturday. Having his second start, the Godolphin galloper defeated Brutality (Shamus Award) by a half-length with regally-bred debutant Sammy (Medaglia d'Oro) a further length and three-quarters away in third. Jeronimos made NZ$250,000 at the 2019 Karaka Yearling Sales when sold to Godolphin from the draft of Mapperley Stud; out of Listed winner Viana (Volksraad), he is a half-brother to three-time winner Camelle (Camelot). Contributor stands for NZ$10,000 (plus GST) in 2020.

Seven for Night Of Thunder

Former Darley shuttler Night Of Thunder continued his excellent record from a relatively small crop of 58 foals sired during his one-year stint at Northwood Park in 2017 when Winning Weather (2 f ex Lemon Soju by Sebring) became his seventh individual winner following victory at Murray Bridge on Saturday. She is the first foal from Lemon Soju, herself a maiden winner at Kembla Grange. Lemon Soju has a yearling filly by Unencumbered (Testa Rossa) and a weanling by Nostradamus (Medaglia d'Oro). Night Of Thunder stands at Kildangan Stud in Ireland for €25,000 (approximately AUD$42,000).

Six for Rothesay

Rothesay (Fastnet Rock) sired his sixth individual stakes winner when Rothfire (2 g ex Huss On Fire by Hussonet) ran away with the Champagne Classic (Gr 2, 1200m) at Eagle Farm on Saturday. The gelding is now at the head of the betting for the J J Atkins Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m). Rothesay stands at Lyndhurst Stud for a fee of $4,950 in 2020.

11 for Red Giant

Red Giant (Giant's Causeway) enjoyed the 11th stakes success of his breeding career as Supergiant (3 g ex My Marguerite by Spectacular Love) landed the Gunsynd Classic (Gr 3, 1800m) at Eagle Farm. Red Giant stood at Westbury Stud in New Zealand from 2010 to 2016 before being exported to Turkey to stand at Ozcolak Stud in 2017.

Great Again atones for Free At Last at Flemington

Western Australian galloper Great Again (7 g Viscount - Free At Last ex Senor Pete) has already had more success at Flemington than his dam after he took the Straight Six (Listed, 1200m) yesterday. Great Again, who scored his first stakes win earlier this season in the Belmont Newmarket (Listed, 1200m) in Perth, was having only his second start in the east. Great Again led all the way under Declan Bates, holding off the late surge of comeback galloper Rich Charm (Danerich) by a nose with top-weight Home Of The Brave (Starspangledbanner) a head away in third. Great Again is the fourth foal out of Group 2 winner Free At Last (Senor Pete), who finished second in the 2005 Craiglee Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) among three beaten starts at Flemington; she was controversially omitted from the 2004 Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) despite being inside the top 24 runners.

Cosmic Gossip bound for Atkins

Caloundra filly Cosmic Gossip (Spill The Beans) is set to take her chance in the J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m) following a convincing success at Eagle

Farm yesterday. The Stuart Kendrick-trained juvenile came from last early to beat Ready For Magic (Better Than Ready) by a short neck in the XXXX Dry 2YO (1200m). The filly was already in the field for the J J Atkins on June 6 thanks to her win in a big prize-money race at the Sunshine Coast in January, with Saturday's victory taking her to $126,000 in earnings and eighth in the ballot to make the field. "The big Eagle Farm track suits her best and that is a big plus for us in the J J Atkins," Kendrick said. "As you saw she likes to find her feet and then really hit the line hard. I know everyone is aiming at the J J Atkins but she is in the field and reaching her top now."

Peltzer to target spring features

Peltzer (So You Think) maintained his unblemished record and has some spring carnival highlights high on his agenda following a smart victory over a well-regarded field at Randwick. Gerald Ryan's two-year-old showed a smart change of gears in Saturday's Darley 2YO Handicap (1300m) under a tactically-astute Kerrin McEvoy ride, coasting through the heavy ground to score by four lengths over favourite Overlord (Sebring). A number of the unbeaten colt's rivals were on trial for a start in next month's J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m) in Queensland, but Peltzer himself is almost certain to be spelled. "If I have my way he is going out," Ryan said, who regards Peltzer as one of his best two-year-olds and sees similarities with his former Group Two winner Rubick (Encosta De Lago). "There are plenty of races in the spring you can pick with him. He is versatile so anything up to 1600 (metres) you could aim him towards, the Golden Rose, the Caulfield Guineas. That's why I don't want to bottom him out now. He reminds me more of Rubick in stature but he's like all the good ones, he's got a great nature."

Day makes most of city switch

Irish jockey Louise Day's decision to switch from the provincial to metropolitan riding zone has been vindicated with the apprentice celebrating two milestones at Randwick. Day, who serves her apprenticeship with Kris Lees at Newcastle, recently opted to quarantine for two weeks in order to ride in town. Following an instant success aboard the Lees-trained Wandabaa (Wandjina) during the week, Day backed it up with another victory for her boss on Witherspoon (Exceed And Excel) at Randwick, her first in Saturday city grade. "This is a massive thrill, thanks to Kris Lees for his support," she said. "My three-kilo claim, it is definitely a big help, especially on these wet tracks." The rider, who was previously based in Britain, continued her memorable few days by registering a double aboard the Matthew Dale-trained Man Of Peace (Zariz) in the Octagonal Handicap (1400m).

Bivouac's brother scores seventh success

Coruscate (Exceed And Excel) may still be some way off emulating the achievements of dual-Group 1 winning brother Bivouac, but he notched his seventh career victory at Randwick on Saturday when taking out the At Sea Handicap (1100m) under Kerrin McEvoy. "Darren (Beadman) said to keep him occupied because he might prick his ears late, which he did at the furlong post, but once he heard them coming he reapplied himself," McEvoy said, after Coruscate gave him a double following Peltzer's (So You Think) victory earlier in the day. Trainer Darren Beadman felt the horse had also benefited from switching states; "Since he's gone to Melbourne he has got his mojo back and it was a tidy effort today."

Clipperton back in the spotlight with Stockman

Joe Price feels he has a decent horse on his hands after Stockman (Tavistock) narrowly landed the Sporting Chance Cancer Foundation Handicap (2000m) at Randwick yesterday. "At the start of his preparation I was thinking he was a Queensland Derby horse," Price said. "After a win like that, he would be going there at single-figure odds but the race isn't on this year.

It was a really good staying performance and I can only see him getting better as he gets over further and matures a bit as well." Stockman's victory was a very welcome first metropolitan winner for Sam Clipperton since Anzac Day, although it was hard fought: "He thought his job was done at the furlong and when he had a fit horse of Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott's to run down, it could have gone either way but to his credit he really dug deep," Clipperton said.

Sasko spoils plunge for Moody's Shepard

Matt Cumani

SPORTPIX

Matt Cumani's Sasko (Teofilo) spoiled the expected celebrations that would have marked Peter Moody's first metropolitan winner since returning to training, when showing a real liking for the wet track at Flemington. Moody saddled Shepard (Sea The Moon) as a well-backed favourite, but the horse that gave him his first winner since his return disappointed and it was left to Warrnambool Cup carnival winner Sasko and apprentice Michael Poy to grind out victory with an pillar-to-post performance on the heavy surface. "He loves it soft. He just gets through it and makes it hard for the other horses, particularly with his style of running," Cumani said.

Nostalgia for Newitt, Price at Flemington

Craig Newitt and Mick Price rolled back the years when teaming up for victory with Immortal Love (Snitzel) in the Tom Melbourne Trophy (1400m) at Flemington. The win represented Newitt's first victory since relocating from his native Tasmania following the Covid-19 enforced shut down of racing in the state. Price had teamed up with Newitt for multiple Group 1 victories in the past and the trainer was quick to praise the jockey's strength. "He's an aggressive rider and gets the best out of them and it suits my horses, I guess," mused Price. "I did say don't be in front at the top of the straight, not sure if he heard that or not, but the leader did faint."

Reykjavik gives Smith a Flemington double

Apprentice Lewis German earned plenty of plaudits for his ice cool ride on Reykjavik (Artie Schiller) to take out the Apache Cat Handicap (1600m) at Flemington yesterday. Despite boasting a Listed and Group 3 win last winter, Reykjavik was sent off an $11 chance and German took him wide on the heavy track before cruising to a comfortable victory over favourite Shot Of Irish (Canford Cliffs) with highly-touted import Django Freeman (Campanologist) a further head away in third. "Wasn't that a good ride?" Shane Jackson, representing winning trainer Lindsay Smith, said. "Halfway down the straight I thought he might want to get going, but he knew the horse he had under him and he was really travelling. He let down beautifully and galloped to the line very impressively."

Tough times for Palmerston North trainer Gray

Octogenarian trainer Kevin Gray hasn't particularly enjoyed the last couple of months. The horseman's age group have had the most stringent measures imposed on them as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic, and he just wants things to go back to normal, including racing. "I have been all right, but it has been pretty hectic when you have got 50-odd horses around you and we are going nowhere," he said. "I had 10 staff and I had to put off five of them because I didn't have the work for them. I have had no income for nearly two and a half months. It has been very tough. I've only had one owner who has called me and has told me to sell his horses. I have got five going to Australia and another five of his on gavelhouse.com."

Kodiak gelding tops Hong Kong International Sale

Lot 11 Kodiak ex Coolnagree

HKJC

The first session of the Hong Kong International Sale, which was postponed twice due to coronavirus, was held at Sha Tin yesterday. The session only featured northern hemisphere-purchased horses, with their southern counterparts from Australia, New Zealand and South Africa set for a second session in July. The sales-topper was a grey three-year-old by Kodiak (Danehill) out of Group 3-placed Irish mare Coolnagree (Dark Angel), who was sold for HK$6.5 million (A$1.28 million) to Kerm Din, best known as the owner of Pakistan Star (Shamardal). He was originally purchased by the Hong Kong Jockey Club for 525,000gns (A$1.03 million) at the 2018 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale and comes from the family of Lucky Nine (Dubawi), who was twice Champion Sprinter in Hong Kong and won four Group 1 races. A total of 11 lots went through the ring, all unreserved, yielding HK$31.7 million (A$6.25 million).

Heian Stakes win for Omega Perfume

Omega Perfume (Swept Overboard) took his fifth stakes win yesterday, winning the Heian Stakes (Gr 3, 1900m) on the Kyoto dirt. Stepping out for the first time since winning the Tokyo Daishoten (Gr 1, 2000m) in December, Omega Perfume swept home from midfield to take the Heian Stakes by a length over Vengeance (Casino Drive). Gold Dream (Gold Allure) was a further two and a quarter lengths away in third on his first run since finishing sixth to Maximum Security (New Year's Day) in the world's richest race, the Saudi Cup in February. Omega Perfume is likely to head back to the NAR circuit for his next start, with the Teio Sho (Listed, 2000m), a domestic Grade 1, a possible target.

INTERNATIONAL

Nica snatches first Group-level victory

Nica (Kamsin) registered victory by the narrowest of margins after rallying gamely under Adrie de Vries in the Badener Meile (Gr 2, 1600m) at Baden-Baden. Aviateur (Intense Focus) looked to have made a race winning move after coming from well off the pace to hit the front with 200m to race, but Nica rallied bravely to run down the leader and put her head in front where it mattered. A second victory at stakes level, following a Listed win in May last year, Nica has been a model of consistency with multiple placings at Group level. Her dam, Narrika (Santiago), only ran four times for zero wins, but is a half-sister to German 8.5f/1m2f winner Neapel (Beat Hollow). Kamsin (Samum) has sired five stakes winners to date, of which Nica was already one, and stands at Haras de la Tuilerie in France for €6,000 (approximately AUD$10,000) in 2020.

Namos narrowly retains Silberne Pietsche crown

In a pulsating finish to the Silberne Pietsche (Gr 3, 1200m) at Baden-Baden, Namos (Medicean) just denied the ultra-game K Club (Kodiak) by a nose to make it back to back wins in the race, having defeated Group 1 winner The Right Man (Lope De Vega) in the 2019 edition. Odds-on favourite Majestic Colt (Clodovil) finished close up in third, with the front three pulling clear of the remainder of the field. Medicean (Machiavellian) was a stalwart of Cheveley Park Stud near Newmarket. He retired from stud duties in 2017 and died in 2018. He is now the sire of 48 stakes winners, of which 10 were at Group 1 level.

Keeneland applies for summer meet

Keeneland has submitted a request to the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission's Race Dates Committee for a five-day summer meet of spectatorless racing from July 8 to July 12, the Lexington track announced Friday. The summer dates accommodate a portion of the 16-day spring program that Keeneland was forced to cancel due to the Covid-19 outbreak. Keeneland will also share return-to-racing protocols with Kentucky governor Andy Beshear's office and local health officials for their approval. Ten graded stakes that are traditionally run during the track's spring meet highlight the summer meet schedule. Among them is the Blue Grass Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) and Ashland Stakes (Gr 1, 8.5f), preps for the Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) and Kentucky Oaks (Gr 1, 9f), respectively; the Jenny Wiley Stakes (Gr 1, 8.5f), the Maker's 46 Mile Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) and the Madison Stakes (Gr 1, 7f).

Crisfords to form Britain's first licensed training partnership

Simon Crisford and his son Ed are set to become Britain's first officially licensed training partnership. The groundbreaking move comes following confirmation the BHA will now accept joint trainers' licence applications, mirroring the initiative successfully introduced in Australia. Warmly welcoming the new venture, Simon Crisford said: "Ed and I have become joint licence holders as well as business partners, something my owners have very much welcomed and are fully supportive of." Ed Crisford previously worked as an assistant trainer to John Gosden and is relishing the chance to officially begin the partnership. "Joint licensing has been proven to work extremely well in Australia," he said. "One of my great friends David Eustace is a training partner with Ciaran Maher, and he's explained that joint responsibility and accountability has really improved their business model in so many different ways. I'm very much looking forward to the new challenge."

Glorious Goodwood, Ebor Festival to remain in regular spots

Racing in Britain will return to something far closer to normal in July, according to a fixture list for the northern summer months released by the British Horseracing Authority on Friday. Glorious Goodwood, scheduled for July 28 to August 1, and the Ebor meeting at York, which is due August 19 to 22, will both be run in their original slots. A full race program for June is scheduled to be published on Monday, after Ascot revealed its enhanced order of running for the Royal meeting on Friday.

Margins: 1.3 lens, 0.1 lens. Time: 1:10.40(last 600m 34.47).

Betting: $2.40, $2.90, $5.00.

Then followed: Beyliks (AUS), Kukeracha (NZ) & Kaboom (AUS), last.

Analysis: Rothfire enhanced his prospects for the J J Atkins Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at this track on June 6 with an impressive performance in winning here, taking his record to five wins and a second from six starts. After beginning brilliantly, he went straight to the front and then travelled nicely at a reasonable tempo (first 600m 35.93) before lifting the pace nearing the home turn. He held an advantage halfway down the straight and then went on to score comfortably, sprinting home his last 600m in a smart 34.47. Isotope began well and then eased to race in fourth place, one out and one back. She made her move at the turn, went to third at the 200m and kept finishing gamely in the sprint home for a very good second, her first defeat in three starts. Wild Ruler showed good early pace and soon settled outside the leader and eventual winner. He put in his bid on turning for home and kept battling on well in the straight, only missing second narrowly in the last few strides. Beyliks raced in last place in the six-runner field, got into clear running on straightening and kept fighting on for (5.4 lengths) fourth. Then followed: Outback Barbie (AUS), Tyzone (AUS), Winter Bride (AUS), Tambo's Mate (AUS), Kementari (AUS), Vega One (AUS), Freddie Fox Trot (AUS), Chapter And Verse (AUS), Signore Fox (AUS) & Sesar (AUS), last.

Analysis: Talented Port Macquarie-trained gelding Victorem, improved by one run back, staged a really good effort in winning here, his eighth win and his third at stakes level in 19 starts. After a smart beginning from his good barrier (3), he settled in sixth place (between runners) tracking a reasonable tempo (first 600m 36.35). He improved nicely in the centre on turning for home, took a split at the 200m, hit the front shortly afterward and then went on to win comfortably. Niccanova settled just beyond midfield, improved (deep) at the turn and did well in running on for second. Deep Image began quickly from his wide barrier (10) and then enjoyed a good trip in second place. He challenged at the 200m and then kept fighting well for third. Outback Barbie had a nice run in fourth place (one out and one back). She put in her bid at the 200m and then kept battling on quite well for (1.9 lengths) fourth. Tyzone settled near last from his outside barrier (13) and did well in running on well (wide out) for (2.2 lengths) fifth. Winter Bride was smartly away and went to the front and held the lead until nearing the 200m before holding on for (2.4 lengths) sixth. Tambo's Mate was a handy third on the rails and held on for (2.6 lengths) seventh. Kementari was slowly away, settled in second last place (on the rails) and was still well back at the turn before making good late ground under his 58kg in the sprint home for (3 lengths) eighth, staging a sound effort under the circumstances. Analysis: Progressive three-year-old Supergiant went from winning a Class 1 (1350m) at Ipswich on April 26 to finishing runner-up in the Daybreak Lover Stakes (Listed, 1615m) at Doomben on May 9 to now scoring here in Group 3 class, albeit by the barest of margins. He again went to the front and then set a solid pace (first 1200m 1:12.48). He grabbed a break on straightening and then fought gamely when challenged to score a narrow but very good win. Ballistic Boy settled in seventh place, between runners, but was shuffled to be well back nearing the 600m. He took a split at the turn, went through to a distant third approaching the 200m and kept making good ground, failing by a nose at the post for second after staging a good performance. The favourite Kinane went back from his outside barrier (14) and settled near the tail of the field. He was still conceding the leaders a big start at the 600m as he commenced a wide move. He then put in a strong run in the centre of the track and ran on really well for third, his wide barrier proving costly. Sky Horse also went back from a wide barrier (13) and he raced in last place until nearing the turn. He improved between runners at the 300m and did well in running on for (3.6 lengths) fourth at his first start in five runs outside of Victoria. [KB]

Analysis: A consistent winner in Western Australia but having just his second run in Victoria, Great Again proved too speedy in scoring his second Listed stakes success and tenth career win in 22 starts. He was first out and co-led to the crossing, grabbed a narrow lead at the 400m and edged a neck clear at the 200m. Hotly challenged on both his inner and outer he never relented and fought hard for a good win by a short head. A fine effort from Rich Charm who sat second last at the crossing, moved out at the 300m, got a nice split then chased hard to the line. Home Of The Brave camped just off the pace from the 400m, challenged strongly from the 200m but could not get past while Malibu Style, who was handy enough at the 300m, was doing his best work late for fourth. Analysis: Immortal Love had his eight opponents in trouble soon after straightening to bolt in by three and a half lengths and remain unbeaten in two starts. He settled a length second but approaching the 600m went up to co-lead. Starting the run home he went clear by two at the 400m, by three at the 200m and was able to coast the last 100m for an easy win. Khoekhoe sat fifth, one out from the 800m, fourth turning in and kept going to take over second at the 200m but was never going to threaten the winner. From second last Indictment pulled widest into the straight and kept up a fair run to the line for third from Rock The Ring who moved into third at the 300m but could only battle to the line for a distant fourth. Analysis: Maintaining his unbeaten record at start three, Peltzer came right away over the last 200m for the easiest of wins over the small six runner field. He was quickly away to lead early but did not find the rail until the 1000m from where he dictated terms. Rounding into the straight he hugged the fence, strolled two lengths clear at the 300m and kept increasing the lead to the 100m but was allowed to ease near the line, clear by four lengths. Overlord missed the start but improved to sit fourth, one out past the 800m. He went four wide starting the run home but took time to wind up, took over second at the 150m but had no chance of catching the winner. Achiever followed the winner into the straight, moved out at the 200m and nudged into third just short of the post.
