Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) winner Sir Dragonet (Camelot) had been on the radar of Mathew Becker for more than 12 months before he was able to convince Coolmore to part with the well-bred and highly talented colt who provided the ultimate return to his new owners at Moonee Valley yesterday.

The five-year-old, a one-time Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) favourite who won the Chester Vase (Gr 3, 1m 4.5f) led home a European-bred first four in the 100th running of the prestigious

$5 million race and cemented Ciaran Maher and David Eustace as a likely force in Australian training ranks in the years to come.

Becker is the agent for Sir Dragonet's principal owner Ozzie Kheir and the pair orchestrated a late Friday night deal with Coolmore's Tom Magnier to buy the entire from the international racing and breeding empire.

Speaking to ANZ Bloodstock Bloodstock News after the momentous occasion, Group 1 Bloodstock's Becker was well aware of the downfalls of buying Sir Dragonet for a significant seven-figure sum. Continued on page 2>>

"It's one of those things buying these horses from overseas is good in theory, but it is fraught with pitfalls and they don't always come off, but we've got a system in place that we have had for a little while and Ozzie and I worked pretty closely hand-and-glove on it," Becker said.

"I was confident that he was the right horse, but you are never too sure until you see them have their first run in Australia to see how they are going to adapt and all that sort of stuff, so it was just so good to see him find the line the way he did. It is quite amazing really."

Sir Dragonet defeated Armory (Galileo) by one and a quarter lengths, with Russian Camelot (Camelot) another three quarters of a length away in third. Mugatoo (Henrythenavigator) was fourth while Arcadia Queen (Pierro), the first Australian-bred, ran fifth.

Jockey Glen Boss won last year's Everest (1200m) for similar connections.

"It's unbelievable. I used to wear out my VCR watching the Kingston Town and Manikato video. It's ingrained in my psyche," Boss said.

Maher was also elated at the result of his new stable addition.

"It's something else. You dream of having a runner in it, let alone winning the race," Maher said.

"Ozzie bought him for the Melbourne Cup and he'll be even better in that race,"

Becker praised the "ten out of ten" ride Sir Dragonet received from

Boss but also credited the recently retired hoop James Winks for his input in the success of the entire.

"One thing that Ozzie and John O'Neill did was engage James Winks to ride the horse and I think it was a masterstroke because, one, getting a quality rider like that with feedback directly every day was so important for us and, two, to be honest, we became confident when the horse got to Newmarket because the Maher-Eustace stable put him in work with David's brother Harry," he said.

"Harry remarked when he got the horse there that he was a really lovely horse with plenty more to give. He was thriving there with no problems and when he got to Werribee he just loved it.

"James (Winks) just said he felt so good and he had so much quality. He was also fit, which was another major thing, as we didn't have to worry about his fitness. We could just take time with him."

He added: "He had a couple of key gallops which was all he took. He had a gallop last Saturday and he went to Moonee Valley for breakfast with the stars but he's been going to the beach and he's thrived on that sort of training that Ciaran can offer them here as opposed to the style of training that he's been used to in Ireland. I think he is just brilliant with those horses and Ciaran was just so confident today. It was amazing, really."

A deal for Sir Dragonet to end up in Australia was only signed off three months ago after months of inquiries.

Caught up in the euphoria of a clutch goal by Carlton's Jack Newnes on August 15, which saw the Blues victorious over Fremantle in the Australian Football League, Kheir upped the ante in his negotiations to secure the subsequent Cox Plate winner.

"That was that night I said that he could be bought and there was a little bit of negotiation going on and Ozzie took control of that. He knows Tom Magnier. He was involved in Yes Yes Yes deal together, so he had a personal relationship," Becker recalled.

"They did the deal on the phone that night after Carlton won the footy. It was quite amazing how it all transpired and it's worked out in the end."

Sir Dragonet (5 h Camelot - Sparrow by Oasis Dream) hails from a potent European family, being a son of the stakes-placed, juvenile winner Sparrow (Oasis Dream), who is a half-sister to Italian Listed winner Victory Song (Dansili), Cheshire Oaks (Listed, 1m3.5f) winner Wonder Of Wonders (Kingmambo), while his third dam is Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Urban Sea (Miswaki).

She, of course, is the dam of European champion Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) and phenomenal Coolmore Group 1-winning stallion Galileo (Sadler's Wells). The blue hen mare is also the dam of champion Italy three-year-old Black Sam Bellamy (Sadler's Wells), Urban Ocean (Bering), Born To Sea (Invincible Spirit) and Melikah (Lammtarra), among others.

Sparrow has a stakes-performed juvenile brother to Sir Dragonet in Sir Lucan and a yearling colt by Caravaggio (Scat Daddy).

Becker reiterated Maher's view that Sir Dragonet was a legitimate Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) contender on Tuesday week and that there was unlikely to be any thought of protecting his value as a potential stallion.

"The Melbourne Cup was the primary race and it was our belief at the time (of buying him) that he can stay," he said.

"He's got a stallion's pedigree, but these guys are here to win major races, and if he's sound and well I am sure they will be running him.

"I think it will be having a conversation about (his stallion value), but these guys are in it for the sport. They have got other horses that they race. Ozzie had Tagaloa, Brae (Sokolski) and Ozzie had Yes Yes Yes, those sort of horses as stallion prospects, but these horses we buy are here to win the major races.

"I would be very surprised if they didn't want to run him (in the Cup) because he is here to do that job."

Danny O'Brien said Russian Camelot produced the best run of his career to finish third and that the entire was likely to press on to the Melbourne Cup..

"I was really proud of him. He went forward from a hot tempo and Damien Oliver gave him a superb ride," O'Brien said.

"He was left a sitting shot but kept on fighting."

Currently in lockdown, Becker chose to watch the race from his Melbourne office as he was too nervous to stay at home with the family.

"I had to get out of the house as I was driving the family crazy," he said.

"Ozzie and I were texting each other backwards and forwards still at 2am sitting in our lounge rooms looking out our windows waiting for the race.

"There wasn't much sleep last night and we felt a lot better when the rain came."

Cherry Tortoni back on track after Vase win

Cherry Tortoni

Trainer Patrick Payne was cursing himself after a trip to Sydney for leading Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) contender Cherry Tortoni (Night Of Thunder) proved fruitless, but the promising three-year-old gelding confirmed he was back to his best with victory in the Moonee Valley Vase (Gr 2, 2040m) yesterday.

It was Payne's intention to use the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) as a lead-up run for the talented son of Darley's former shuttler Night Of Thunder (Dubawi) but the Victorian trainer instead sent the gelding north for the Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m). Continued on page 4>>

He finished seventh and left Payne rueing his decision, but yesterday Cherry Tortoni firmed into $6 second favourite behind Young Werther (Tavistock) ($4.50).

"It's amazing how things can turn around, I was dirty on myself after the Sydney run but today was much better," Payne told Racing.com.

"From a trainer's point-of-view, I didn't think he had a hard run. We'll never know but I still think he had something left in the tank.

"He looked like he wanted to stargaze when he got to the front but, still, it was good to see him back winning like that."

Jockey Billy Egan was able to circle the field on Cherry Tortoni to defeat Khoekhoe (Turffontein) by a short neck with Johnny Get Angry (Tavistock) seven lengths away in third.

"Once we got down the side, I just gave him breathing room and let him build his momentum and swoop on them over the top," Egan said.

"I know he's won a couple of races, but he's got the on-and-off ability without knowing what he is doing.

"He's got a lot of learning to do. To see what he's doing now, all natural ability, is really nice."

Morning line favourite Young Werther, who was runner-up in the Super Impose Stakes (Listed, 1800m), was scratched from the Vase by trainer Danny O'Brien after the track was downgraded to a Soft 7 earlier in the day. The Derby remains on the agenda.

Keeping in mind what Payne considers as an error of judgment by sending the horse to Sydney earlier this month, Payne was circumspect about not wanting to overtax Cherry Tortoni in Saturday's Derby.

"We're really mindful that, I think, he'll be a nice four, five and six-year-old," Payne said.

"It was a good tune-up for the Derby but if he shows us any signs that he doesn't want to go there then we won't."

From seven starts, which includes a victory in the Gibson Carmichael Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Flemington in July, Cherry Tortoni has won four races and recouped $392,125 in prize-money.

Cherry Tortoni (3 g Night Of Thunder - Tortoni by Strategic), a homebred for Sandy Tait, is a grandson of Group 1-winning mare Whisked (Whiskey Road) who, of course, is the dam of champion Tie The Knot (Nassipour), and stakes winners Hood (Shamardal) and Dream Ballad (Singspiel).

Tortoni, Cherry Tortoni's mother, won a Wagga maiden in 2013 shortly before being retired. She has a yearling filly by Coolmore shuttler Churchill (Galileo) and was covered by Mendelssohn (Scat Daddy) last year.

Tough Dissident filly lands Fillies Classic

Yes Baby Yes

Troy Corstens has praised Yes Baby Yes' (Dissident) constitution after the three-year-old filly broke through for her first stakes victory in the Moonee Valley Fillies Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) at her ninth start in a preparation that started ten months ago.

Runner-up to Incredible Dream (Press Statement) at her previous start at Caulfield on October 17, jockey Craig Williams was able to dictate the pace of the $300,000 Group 2 three-year-old fillies race.

She had a margin of three and three-quarter lengths over Ecumenical (Zebedee), who ran fourth in the MRC Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), with another two lengths back to Miss Inbetween (Fighting Sun).

"She's as tough as nails," trainer Corstens said. "You wouldn't believe it, but she's been up since January this girl.

"Raced as a two-year-old, right into her three-year-old year. Nine runs for this prep."

Corstens acquired a farm near Benalla and he credited the property for being able to keep Yes Baby Yes in work for so long.

"She goes (to the farm) on a Monday morning and she'll go out in the paddock for three or four days - she still works while she's up there," said Corstens who trains in partnership with his father Leon.

"(It) just keeps them happy. Some like going to the beach, some like going to the paddock and she likes going to the paddock.

"I just love her. She's so tough. Things haven't always gone her way, but she puts herself out in front and she held on today."

It was a red-letter day for Hunter Valley operation Newgate Farm with resident stallions Dissident (Sebring) and Deep Field (Northern Meteor) siring winners and first season sire Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) providing two juvenile winners.

Yes Baby Yes (3 f Dissident - Exabelle by Exceed And Excel), a $120,000 purchase by Flemington Bloodstock and Malua Racing from the 2019 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale from the Sledmere Stud draft, has now earned $247,488 in prize-money after winning $180,000 yesterday.

Bought by Sheamus Mills Bloodstock for NZ$13,000 out of the 2014 NZB National Broodmare Sale, Exabeel is now the dam of three foals to race, all of whom have won, and the two-year-old half-sister No Baby No (Shooting To Win) is also in training with the Corstens at Flemington.

Exabeel also has a yearling filly by Spieth (Thorn Park) and was due to foal to Dissident this year.

Yes Baby Yes joins Pancho as a stakes winner for Dissident who stands at Newgate Farm for $11,000 (inc GST).

Melbourne Cup next for Miami Bound

The Melbourne Cup dream is alive for VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Miami Bound (Reliable Man) after relishing a strong tempo and a wet track in the Moonee Valley Gold Cup (Gr 2, 2500m).

Trainer Danny O'Brien never lost faith in the four-year-old mare despite being unplaced in her first four starts this campaign, most recently when sixth in the Herbert Power Stakes (Gr 2, 2400m), at Caulfield on October 10.

"She's a much better horse when she gets out in distance, a mile and a half at least, and she grows another leg on the Soft (tracks)," he said.

"There were a few things in our favour, but we are thrilled to see her win today.

"She gave us a great thrill last spring in the Oaks and it's still a big effort to come back here and beat the boys in the Moonee Valley Cup."

Miami Bound ($26) defeated Shared Ambition (Born To Sea) ($4.20 fav) by two and a half lengths with Oceanex (Ocean Park) ($10) a half-length away third.

"We have been very happy with her all spring but she has been running on firm tracks and probably unsuitable distances. She was OK the other day in the Herbert Power, but that was on a Good 3," O'Brien said.

"It was a Soft 7 today and she grew another leg. She was never going to get beaten."

Jamie Kah, who rode four winners on the ten-race Moonee Valley card, said of Miami Bound: "She always travelled like the winner. Danny gets his horses so fit and Daniel Moor told me how well she had been working."

Miami Bound will now head to the Melbourne Cup at Flemington on November 3 where she will carry 51 kilograms.

Miami Bound

"She will definitely be an acceptor (for the Melbourne Cup) now," O'Brien said.

"She has won that impressively and when you are that close to her it is pretty hard not to run.

"It has been difficult for those fillies who have won an Oaks to come back and win a Melbourne Cup, I don't think it has happened for 30 or 40 years, but we will be there on the first Tuesday (of November) and giving it a crack."

Miami Bound (4 m Reliable Man - Arapaho Miss by Danehill Dancer) is a half-sister to O'Brien's Listed winner De Little Engine (Encosta De Lago) and three other winners. A NZ$120,000 purchase from the New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Yearling Sale, Miami Bound has had 14 starts for five wins and the prize-money earnings of $1.228 million.

She is the daughter of VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Arapaho Miss, who is a half-sister to the Group 1-placed Heartsareforlove (Hussonet) and Cardiac (Encosta De Lago), the dam of Group 3 winner Declarationofheart (Declaration Of War).

Arapaho Miss has a two-year-old named Gabriellagrace (Swiss Ace) and a yearling brother to Miami Bound by Reliable Man.

Six for Camelot

Coolmore's Camelot (Montjeu) sired his sixth individual elite level winner when Sir Dragonet (5 h ex Sparrow by Oasis Dream) triumphed in the 100th running of the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) at Moonee Valley yesterday. Formerly trained in Ireland by Aidan O'Brien, he was last seen running second to Magical (Galileo) in the Tattersalls Gold Cup (Gr 1, 1m2f) and was winning for the third time in ten starts as he made a successful debut for the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace team. He took the honours by a length and a quarter from the O'Brien runner Armory (Galileo) whilst Russian Camelot (Camelot) was third. Sir Dragonet hails from a potent European family, being a son of the stakes-placed, juvenile winner Sparrow (Oasis Dream), who is a half-sister to Cheshire Oaks (Listed, 1m 3.5f) winner Wonder Of Wonders (Kingmambo), while his third dam is Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Urban Sea (Miswaki), who is the dam champions Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) and Galileo (Sadler's Wells). Former shuttler Camelot now resides permanently at Coolmore in Ireland where his fee in 2020 was €40,000 (approx. AUD$66,500).

Homesman Mackinnon-bound after Crystal Mile win

A step back up into Group 1 company is on the cards for Homesman (War Front) after he led throughout to land the Crystal Mile (Gr 2, 1600m) at Moonee Valley yesterday. The Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained six-year-old left the form of his Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) defeat firmly in the past as he beat Age Of Chivalry (He's Remarkable) by two lengths, with Kings Will Dream (Casamento) another length and a quarter away in third and in the process put himself into contention for next month's Mackinnon Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m). "It's great to get him into winning form and it's great to get a winner for Lloyd (Williams)," Brad Taylor, representing the Freedmans, told Racing.com. "We were excited to get this horse when they changed trainers and getting him back to winning form at his favourite track and distance. He's a bit of a lazy track worker but he was fit and had done a hell of a lot of work at Macedon. He's been with us over the last eight weeks. Ben (Melham, jockey) has done his last few gallops and was happy with him earlier in the week. It's great to see."

Six for Deep Field

Deep Field

NEWGATE

A late decision to let Portland Sky (3 c ex Sky Rumba by Shrewd Rhythm) take his chance on a wet track paid dividends as the Matt Laurie-trained colt won for the second time in four starts when landing yesterday's Red Anchor Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Moonee Valley. Winning jockey Ben Melham revealed after the three quarters of a length success over Bella Nipotina (Pride Of Dubai) that it was only an intervention on his behalf which led to the winner lining up.

"I actually had to talk him into running this horse because he texted me at 9:30am and said he might scratch and I said 'don't you dare,' so thankfully he didn't," Melham told racing.com. "He's a lovely colt. He did a good job to win actually, he's got good gate speed and his runs have been good in his first preparation, I just felt he's really been looking for the 1200 metres," Melham continued. Portland Sky became the sixth individual stakes winner for Deep Field (Northern Meteor) with yesterday's victory. Deep Field stands at Newgate for a fee of $55,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

Coolmore outing still option for Red Anchor winner

Matt Laurie could choose to backup Portland Sky in next week's $1.5 million Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) he revealed after yesterday's win. "We're not nominated, obviously just see how he pulls up," Laurie said. "It's his first preparation and we want to be looking after him. It may not be the right thing, but if he was jumping out of his skin, you never know."

Second for Dissident

Yes Baby Yes (3 f ex Exabelle by Exceed And Excel) proved to be a cut above her rivals when leading throughout to bag yesterday's Fillies' Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) at Moonee Valley. Trained by Leon and Troy Corstens, Yes Baby Yes registered her second win in nine starts when beating Ecumenical (Zebedee) by three and three quarter lengths with another two lengths back to Miss Inbetween (Fighting Sun) in a spaced out field. Yes Baby Yes became the second stakes winner for Newgate resident Dissident (Sebring) who stands for a fee of $11,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

Three in a row for Sovereign Award

Sovereign Award (Shamus Award) kept his winning run going when registering a third successive victory by taking out the Tesio Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m), one of four victories on the Cox Plate card for Jamie Kah. The Danny O'Brien-trained mare beat I Am Eloquent (I Am Invincible) by three quarters of a length, that one getting the better of Paradee (Epaulette) in their tussle for second.

59 for I Am Invincible

I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) sired his 59th individual stakes winner when his daughter La Mexicana (3 f ex Cailin Miss by Domesday) took out yesterday's Crockett Stakes (Listed, 1200m) under in form Jamie Kah. The Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained three-year-old was winning for the third time in four starts when narrowly edging out Twain's Express (Helmet), while Highly Discreet (Street Boss) was two and a half lengths away in third. I Am Invincible stands for a fee of $209,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

161 for Fastnet Rock

Sneaky Five (2 f ex Small Minds by Canny Lad) has repaid Rosemont Stud for its investment in the Fastnet Rock (Danehill) filly with a debut win in yesterday's $500,000 Inglis Banner (RL, 1000m) at Moonee Valley. The Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained filly, who was purchased for $305,000 from the Goldin Farms at the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, is the 161st stakes winner for Coolmore's champion stallion Fastnet Rock who stands for a fee of $165,000 (inc GST) this year. Ridden by Jamie Kah, Sneaky Five defeated stablemate The Art Of Flying (Flying Artie) by one and a quarter lengths, with the Robbie Griffiths and Mathew de Kock-trained Tempest Charm (Trust In A Gust) a neck away in third.

Sneaky Five overcomes inexperience

Ciaran Maher gave credit for the win to the horse's owner, Rosemont Stud's Anthony Mithen, who suggested he run Sneaky Five in the 1000-metre Inglis Banner instead of giving her another jump out. "She was the most inexperienced of all of ours and to give 'Mitho' some credit, we had a conversation after she'd trialled very well the first time," Maher said. "Mitho said 'what about going to the races with her' and I said I'd take her to The Valley for a gallop and she was very impressive and progressed the right way, so we rolled the dice. What a nice second jump out for $500,000."

A sneaky five grand pays off

Rosemont Stud principal Anthony Mithen recounted the story of buying Sneaky Five at Oaklands Junction earlier this year. "We had a limit of $300,000 but got on the wrong leg and were $290,000 and Brae Sokolski and Matt Scown beat us to the $300,000 bid but I stood there with Nige (Austin) and I said to him 'if you were going to be $300,000, you could be $305,000 couldn't you? And he said 'yeah, go on, let's be brave' so we put in a little $5000 bid...we broke our rule and went $5k over and the auctioneer [Chris Russell] bought the gavel down and said 'well done Mitho, the sneaky five wins'. We had a laugh after and said, 'well, we've got her name anyway'."

Hat-trick for Ancestry

In-form sprinter Ancestry (The Brothers War) made it three wins in as many starts this preparation after convincingly taking out the Strathmore Community Bendigo Bank Handicap (955m), the opening race at Moonee Valley yesterday. Trained by Phillip Stokes, the four-year-old Wylie Dalziel Roy Higgins Racing-syndicated Ancestry crossed straight to the lead and was never in danger of being run down. Jungle Edge (Dubawi) was two and a quarter lengths away in second, with Holbien (Pierro) another two lengths away in third place. Stokes was weighing up whether to spell Ancestry with a view of targeting the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) in February at Caulfield.

Two for Extreme Choice

Only hours after Newgate Farm's Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) sired his first winner in New Zealand, Tiger Of Malay (2 c ex Sambar by More Than Ready) scored at Randwick when having his first start. Raced by the China Horse Club-Newgate Farm colts syndicate, the Richard and Michael Freedman-trained colt was a $255,000 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale purchase from Tyreel Stud who consigned the colt on behalf of Western Australia breeder Jamie O'Bree. Ridden by Jason Collett, Tiger Of Malay scored by half a length over Cerda (Snitzel) and Mura Mura (Not A Single Doubt) who was another half length away in third. Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and A J Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) winner Extreme Choice, who is also the sire of the MRC Debutant Stakes (Listed, 1000m) placegetter Extreme Warrior, also sired Palamos who won in New Zealand yesterday. Extreme Choice stands for a fee of $22,000 (inc GST) at Newgate Farm.

Golden Gift possible for Tiger Of Malay

A tilt at the $1 million Golden Gift (1100m) at Rosehill on November 7 is now on the radar for Tiger Of Malay after yesterday's winning debut. A win in that race would give him enough prize- money to be assured of a start in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and Michael Freedman confirmed that is the route connections are now looking at taking. "He is a lovely colt. We've been fortunate enough to be given a few of these by Newgate and their bloodstock partnerships," Freedman said. "He will learn a lot from today. There is improvement to come."

Positive Peace ploughs through Randwick mud

Positive Peace (Stratum) continued trainer Bjorn Baker's successful Sydney carnival by taking out yesterday's Nivison (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick. The five-year-old mare started at $16 but proved too classy for her rivals, beating Wandabaa (Wandjina) by a neck with Athiri (Lonhro) a further length and a quarter away. "Super result, she's a class mare," Baker said. "She'd won eight of 20, she's won a Group 2 on a wet track. I couldn't believe the price today, not that I worry about that. I don't know what happened last time but the team have changed a few things back from the mile and it's been a super job." Baker said he will now aim Positive Peace towards the Hot Danish Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Rosehill on November 7.

20 for Nicconi

The Bopper (3 g ex Chicago by Artie Schiller) moved his career tally to three wins from four starts as he made a successful debut in stakes company with victory in yesterday's Brian Crowley Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Randwick. The Kris Lees-trained three-year-old was following up wins at Tamworth and Scone by beating Tommy Gold (Sacred Falls) by a length and three quarters. On The Lead (I Am Invincible) was another two and three quarter lengths away in third. Winning jockey Josh Parr was glowing in his report on coming back to scale. "This is the first time I've ridden him," Parr said. "He is well and truly on the rise. He will turn into a really nice sprinter." Lees will consider targeting The Bopper at The Hunter (1300m) in Newcastle next month, or spelling him with a view to an early autumn campaign. Yesterday's success meant The Bopper became the 20th individual stakes winner for Widden Stud's Nicconi (Bianconi) who this year stands for a fee of $27,500 (inc GST).

Peltzer repays Ryan's faith

Gerald Ryan has long regarded Peltzer (So You Think) as an exciting colt and the three-year-old showed why with a commanding win in yesterday's Bondi Stakes (1600m) at Randwick. Many had doubted whether Peltzer could run a strong 1600 metres but he put those misgivings to bed with an arrogant victory, beating runner up Prime Star (Starspangledbanner) by two and three quarter lengths, with Real Peace (Real Impact) a further quarter of a length away in third. Ryan has a designated spot at Rosehill where he clocks his horses and only a select few have made him check his stopwatch. "I've only had four horses break 30 (seconds)," Ryan said. "The first was Snitzel, the second was Snitzerland, the next was Rubick and then this horse." Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) and Snitzerland (Snitzel) both went on to win Group 1 races, while Rubick claimed a Group 2 before he retired to stud and produced 2019 The Everest (1200m) winner Yes Yes Yes. "That's why I've always had a huge opinion of this horse," Ryan said. "Not many horses win five out of eight. Not many horses win four out of four at Randwick."

29 for So You Think

Knights Order (6 g ex Lamanka Lass by Woodman) provided So You Think (High Chaparral) with his 29th individual stakes winner with victory in yesterday's City Tattersalls Cup (Listed, 2400m) at Randwick. Trained by Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott, the six-year-old was winning for the fifth time in his 11th start when beating Rondinella (Ocean Park) by half a length. So You Think stands at Coolmore for a fee of $38,500 this year.

29 for Dream Ahead

Magical Dream (3 f ex Mystic Hour by Redoute's Choice) stretched her unbeaten run to three with victory in yesterday's Belgravia Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Ascot. Trained in partnership by Grant and Alana Williams, the filly maintained her perfect record when beating Mystical View (Canford Cliffs) and Watch Me Dance (I'm All The Talk) by just over a length and a quarter. Yesterday's victory provided former shuttler Dream Ahead (Diktat) with his 29th individual stakes winner. Dream Ahead stood at Haras de Grandcamp for a fee of €12,000 (approx. AUD$19,950) in 2020.

Doomben called off

Doomben's meeting yesterday was called off after the sixth race following a heavy downpour at the track. Officials were left with little choice but to abandon the final four races scheduled on the card after the track was hit by 26 millimetres of rain in ten minutes, resulting in surface water after the winning post and also between the 800 metre and 600 metre markers.

Vale Kevin Hayes

Former Melbourne Racing Club chairman Kevin Hayes has died at the age of 85. Hayes served the Victorian Amateur Turf Club (now MRC) for 11 years, the last three as chairman. The former managing director and chairman of Cadbury Schweppes joined the VATC committee in 1991. He became vice-chairman in 1998 and took over as chairman the following year before his retirement from the board in 2002.

Banned Prebble to miss Cup carnival

Jockey Brett Prebble will miss the upcoming

Melbourne Cup carnival after being found guilty of improper riding and suspended for 20 meetings at yesterday's Cox Plate meeting. Racing Victoria stewards charged Prebble with improper riding after he partnered Lunar Fox (Foxwedge) to finish seventh of eight in the Moonee Valley Vase (Gr 2, 2040m). The stewards said Prebble rode "unnecessarily tight with his mount's head turned in" at the 1500-metre mark which led to him receiving the 20-meeting penalty for improper riding. He was additionally suspended for careless riding when permitting his mount to shift inwards at the 1300-metre mark. His 12-meeting suspension will be served concurrently with his improper riding ban. Prebble, who has the right to appeal, will be sidelined until November 12.

Boss hit with fine for celebrations

Glen Boss was given fines totalling $2000 for his celebrations following Sir Dragonet's victory in the Cox Plate. Boss was fined $1000 by the stewards for his celebration when he rose high in the stirrups before crossing the line, and also then hit with a penalty for the same amount for breaching Covid 19 protocols by hugging stable staff after dismounting.

NEW ZEALAND

Extreme Choice off the mark in NZ

Palamos (2 c ex Unrevealed by Forest Wildcat) could be set for the Karaka Million (RL, 1200m) at Ellerslie in January after the Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) colt won his first start at Te Rapa yesterday and providing his Newgate Farm-based sire with his maiden first crop winner. Later, Tiger Of Malay won at Randwick to provide Extreme Choice's second first crop winner. Palamos, who was purchased by Te Akau's David Ellis for NZ$85,000 from Ainsley Downs Stud at this year's New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Yearling Sale, closed strongly to win the NZB RTR Trainers Series 2YO (1000m) by two lengths over Miss Ipenema (Sacred Falls). King Of Reds (Burgundy) was a nose away in third place.

14 for Reliable Man

A love affair with the Te Rapa track continued yesterday when course specialist De La Terre (3 f ex Veva Girl by Fastnet Rock) took out the Waikato Stud Soliloquy Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m). The Team Rogerson-trained three-year-old had won three of her four starts at the venue leading into the race and added a fourth victory with a gritty front-running performance and an inch perfect ride by jockey Ryan Elliot. The younger sister of Group 1-placed mare Aalaalune (Reliable Man), De La Terre has now won four of her 11 career starts and over $100,000 in prize-money. She was a NZ$55,000 purchase from the Westbury Stud draft at the 2019 Book 1 Yearling Sale at Karaka. In winning yesterday, De La Terre became the 14th individual stakes winner for Westbury Stud's Reliable Man (Dalakhani) who this year stands for a fee of NZ$15,000 (plus GST).

Need I Say More leaves rivals speechless

Need I Say More (No Nay Never) let his actions do the talking at Te Rapa yesterday when he proved too smart for his rivals in the James & Annie Sarten Memorial Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m). The Jamie Richards-trained gelding, who was purchased by David Ellis for NZ$130,000 at last year's NZB Karaka Yearling Sale, had his doubters after he was beaten into fourth in the Hawke's Bay Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m) at his last start when a well-backed favourite. However, he silenced his critics when making all to beat Hawke's Bay Guineas runner-up Bourbonaire (Darci Brahma) and Tinker McPhee (Nostradamus) by two and a half lengths and re-establish himself as the one to beat in the New Zealand 2000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Riccarton in a fortnight. "It was a good effort as he got away from the barriers cleanly today and then could dictate terms after that," Richards said. "It all worked out well and he is going well. He just seems to be happier out in front where he can roll along, skip on the corner and then maintain that speed. It really was a massive run at Hastings and we weren't disappointed as he did a power of work after getting caught wide with no cover and was still in the firing line before being run down the last bit. We'll give him a couple of days now and see how he gets through the run but I would think you would have to go to Riccarton for the 2000 Guineas."

Two for Proisir

Cambridge visitor Vitesse Bo (3 f ex Cissy Bowen by Colombia) caused a minor upset when she defeated some well credentialled classic contenders when taking out yesterday's War Decree Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Riccarton. The younger half-sister to Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Travelling Light (El Roca) was having just her third start as she registered career victory number one with a dogged performance, beating Marine (Ocean Park) and Unition (Fastnet Rock) with just three quarters of a length separating the first three home. In winning yesterday, Vitesse Bo became the second stakes winner for her sire Proisir (Choisir) who stands at Rich Hill Stud for a fee of NZ$9,000 (plus GST).

49 for Darci Brahma

William Wallace (8 g ex Huluva by Pins) made the breakthrough in stakes company on start 34 at the age of eight when landing yesterday's Christchurch Casino Spring Classic (Listed, 2000m) at Riccarton. The Adrian Bull-trained gelding beat Communique (Redwood) and Who Dares Wins (Iffraaj) to become the 49th individual stakes winner for Darci Brahma (Danehill) who stands at The Oaks Stud for a fee of NZ$15,000 (plus GST) in 2020.

ASIA

162 for Deep Impact

Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) sired his 162nd individual stakes winner when his son Vin De Garde (4 c ex Skia by Motivator) made the breakthrough in graded company by taking out the Fuji Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) on the Tokyo turf yesterday. The Hideaki Fujiwara-trained four-year-old was winning for the fifth time in 13 starts when beating Lauda Sion (Real Impact) by a length and a quarter with Keiai Nautique (Deep Impact) the same margin away in third. Deep Impact, a seven-time Grade 1 winner during his career and subsequently multiple champion Japanese sire, sadly died last year having stood at Shadai Stallion Station.

INTERNATIONAL

16 for Territories

Territories

DARLEY

The Roberto Biondi-trained Sadalsuud (2 f ex Ephigenie by Groom Dancer) broke her maiden on her third start at Milan yesterday to become the 16th individual winner from the first crop of Darley shuttler Territories (Invincible Spirit). Ridden by Andrea Mezzatesta, she took out the 1600-metre contest by a length and a quarter from Devolvido (Desert Prince), while there was a further seven lengths back to Sopran Aragorn (Coulsty) in third. Territories has also produced two stakes winners, one of which was placed in the Prix Marcel Boussac (Gr 1, 1600m), and a further four stakes performers. He stands at Darley's Kelvinside for a fee of $11,000 this season.

Two for American Pharoah

US Triple Crown winner American Pharoah (Pioneer of the Nile) sired his second elite level winner when Van Gogh (2 c ex Imagine by Sadler's Wells) provided his trainer Aidan O'Brien with a fifth win in the Criterium International (Gr 1, 1600m) at Saint-Cloud yesterday. Already placed three times in Group company, the juvenile was winning for the second time in seven starts as he beat Normandy Bridge (Le Havre) by a comfortable four lengths. Favourite Jadoomi (Holy Roman Emperor) was another neck away in third. Van Gogh is the 12th foal out of Classic heroine Imagine (Sadler's Wells) and is a half-brother to nine winners including Group winners Horatio Nelson (Danehill), Viscount Nelson (Giant's Causeway) and Kitty Matcham (Rock Of Gibraltar). American Pharoah stands at Coolmore Australia for a fee of $55,000 in 2020.

19 for Teofilo

British raider Gear Up (2 c ex Gearanai by Toccet) ran out a surprise winner of yesterday's Criterium de Saint-Cloud (Gr 1, 2000m) to provide his sire Teofilo (Galileo) with a 19th individual elite level winner. The Mark Johnston-trained two-year-old defied his odds of 28-1 to register a third win in four starts when just edging out Botanik (Golden Horn) by a short head. Favourite Makaloun (Bated Breath) was another length and three quarters behind in third. A €52,000 purchase at Goffs last year, Gear Up is a full-brother to Group 3 winner Guaranteed. Teofilo stood at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Ireland for a fee of €40,000 (approx. AUD$66,500) in 2020.

Eight for New Approach

A wonderful afternoon for Jim Bolger culminated in the victory of his homebred Mac Swiney (2 c ex Halla Na Saoire by Teofilo) in yesterday's Futurity Trophy Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Doncaster. Bolger, who also bred Criterium de Saint-Cloud winner Gear Up, also trains and owns Mac Swiney. The colt outran his odds of 12-1 to defeat favourite One Ruler (Dubawi) by three quarters of a length, with Baradar (Muhaarar) another two and a quarter lengths away in third. Mac Swiney, who is from the extended family of Teofilo's (Galileo) Dewhurst Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) winner Parish Hall, who was also owned and trained by Bolger, was winning for the third time in six starts. New Approach stood at Darley Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket for a fee of £30,000 (approx. AUD$54,850) in 2020.

Two for Muhaarar

Muhaarar (Oasis Dream) sired his second stakes winner when Mujbar (2 c ex Madany by Acclamation) posted his second win in four starts with victory in yesterday's Horris Hill Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Newbury. The Charlie Hills-trained juvenile overcame a troublesome passage to beat Percy's Lad (Sir Percy) by a length with Saint Lawrence (Al Kazeem) another length and a half away in third. Mujbar is a half brother to Group 1 winner Eqtdaar (Invincible Spirit) and Group 2 winner Massaat (Teofilo). Muhaarar stood at Shadwell's Nunnery Stud for a fee of £20,000 (approx AUD$36,500) in 2020.

Seven for Pride Of Dubai

Jim Bolger enjoyed further big race success, this time closer to home, when Flying Visit (2 c ex Fionnuar by Teofilo) made a successful debut in stakes company by landing the Eyrefield Stakes (Gr 3, 1m1f) at Leopardstown yesterday. The two-year-old, who was winning for the second time in ten starts, beat Wuqood (Dubawi) by a head, with the highly-touted Carlisle Bay (Galileo) another three quarters of a length away in third. Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) stands at Coolmore Australia for a fee of $38,500,

Five for Make Believe

The in-form Believe In Love (3 f ex Topka by Kahyasi) notched her fifth win of the season and a first in stakes company when making a successful cross Channel raid to take out the Prix Belle de Nuit (Gr 3, 2800m) at Saint-Cloud yesterday. Trained in Newmarket by Roger Varian, the filly defeated Pontille (Whipper) by three quarters of a length, with Palomba (Lope De Vega) another length and three quarters away in third. Believe In Love became the fifth stakes winner for her sire Make Believe (Makfi) who stood at Ballylinch Stud for a fee of €12,000 (approx. AUD$19,950) in 2020.

68 for Uncle Mo

Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) sired his 68th individual stakes winner when Lipizzaner (2 c ex Irish Lights by Fastnet Rock) kept on well to take out yesterday's Doncaster Stakes (Listed, 6f), The Aidan O'Brien-trained juvenile, who has already raced at the highest level, was winning for the second time in seven starts when defeating Just Frank (Epaulette) by a length and three quarters. Favourite Zamaani (Night Of Thunder) was another three quarters of a length away in third. A US$650,000 purchase at Keeneland last year, Lipizzaner is the fifth foal out of 2009 Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) heroine Irish Lights (Fastnet Rock). Uncle Mo stood at Coolmore America for a fee of US$175,000 (approx. AUD$245,175) in 2020.

28 for Kingman

Kingman (Invincible Spirit) sired his 28th individual stakes winner when his daughter Love Is You (2 f ex Fallen For You by Dansili) won her second race in as many starts with a comfortable success in yesterday's Radley Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Newbury. Trained by Roger Charlton for Normandie Stud, the filly beat Gift List (Bated Breath) by three and a half lengths with a gap of another seven and a half lengths to Little Rollright (Dutch Art) in third. Kingman stood at Juddmonte's Banstead Manor Stud in Newmarket for a fee of £150,000 (approx. AUD$274,150) in 2020.

332 for Galileo

Super sire Galileo (Sadler's Wells) added another stakes winner to his tally, this time number 332, when Amma Grace (3 f ex Polished Gem by Danehill) landed the Trigo Stakes (Listed, 1m2f) at Leopardstown yesterday. The Dermot Weld-trained filly, who was winning for the second time in seven starts, beat Numerian (Holy Roman Emperor) by a neck, with Elizabethofaragon (Galileo) another four and a quarter lengths away in third. She is out of Polished Gem (Danehill), making her sister to dual Irish St Leger (Gr 1, 1m 6f) heroine Search For A Song and half-sister to Group 1 winner and sire Free Eagle (High Chaparral). Galileo stood at Coolmore in Ireland for a private fee in 2020.

More Group 3 glory for Glen

The progressive Euchen Glen (Authorized) registered his second successive stakes victory when readily seeing off his seven rivals in yesterday's St Simon Stakes (Gr 3, 1m4f) at Newmarket. The Jim Goldie-trained seven-year-old, who returned from a lengthy spell on the sidelines earlier in the year, beat Natural History (Nathaniel) by a length and three quarters with a gap of another four and a quarter lengths back to Litigator (Elzaam) in third.

Lucky six for Jin Jin

German raider Jin Jin (Canford Cliffs) stretched her unbeaten record to six when getting the better of odds-on favourite Alson (Areion) in yesterday's Prix Perth (Gr 3, 1600m) at Saint-Cloud. The Bohumil Nedorostek-trained four-year-old followed up her Listed success at Baden-Baden last time out with a length and three quarter win over the Poule d'Essai des Poulains (Gr 1, 1600m) placed Alson.

Grand Glory back to winning ways

The highly-trying Grand Glory (Olympic Glory) registered her first win since taking out a Listed contest at Longchamp back in May when narrowly getting the better of Solsticia (Le Havre) in the Prix de Flore (Gr 3, 2100m) at Saint-Cloud yesterday. The Gianluca Bietolini-trained filly, who was winning for the fourth time in ten starts has been competing against the best recently, lining up in yesterday's race off the back of a midfield finish in the Prix de l'Opera (Gr 1, 2000m).

25 for Flower Alley

Princess Calla (3 f ex Princess Royal by Captain Al) won her second race in three starts when landing the Western Cape Fillies' Championship (Gr 2, 1400m) at Kenilworth yesterday. The Group 1-placed filly, who is trained by Anton Marcus, beat Trickster (What A Winter) by two lengths with Zarina (Master of My Fate) another three quarters of a length away in third. Princess Calla became the 25th individual stakes winner for her sire Flower Alley (Distorted Humor).

FRA: Dark Angel colt goes to Antoine Griezmann

Lot 685

ARQANA

Trade proved consistent on the fifth day of Arqana's October Yearling Sale as the action in Deauville ended on a positive note. The Friday session, which catalogued a number of lots from the Osarus sale, saw Haras de la Louvière's Dark Angel (Acclamation) colt, Lot 685, out of a half-sister to Listed winner Monroe Bay (Makfi), take top lot honours when realising €70,000 (approx, AUD$116,330). He was knocked down to Broadhurst Agency and trainer Philippe Decouze on behalf of Barcelona's French international footballer Antoine Griezmann. The striker owned Group performer Tornibush (Dream Ahead) with the same stable.

US: Daredevil returns to Lane's End

Leading American second-season sire Daredevil (More Than Ready) will relocate to Lane's End Farm for 2021 after producing a sensational double in Preakness Stakes (Gr 1, 9.5f) and Kentucky Oaks (Gr 1, 9f) winners Swiss Skydiver and Shedaresthedevil this season. Daredevil, a US$260,000 purchase from Keeneland's September Yearling Sale in 2013 and the winner of the 2014 Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 8f), was sold to the Jockey Club of Turkey last November following his first two-year-old runners, but will recommence his career in Kentucky next year. Daredevil will arrive at Lane's End at the end of November following quarantine and will stand for a fee of US$25,000 (approx, AUD$35,000) in 2021.

Giant win signals December intent, Courier Wonder dazzles on debut

BY DECLAN SCHUSTER | HKJC_RACING

Mighty Giant (Power) sealed a fifth consecutive win with an impressive performance in the Class 2 Argyle Handicap (1400m) at Sha Tin yesterday, which had trainer Ricky Yiu eyeing Group 1 targets.

"There's every possible chance he'll run on International Day because there could be no overseas runners," Yiu said, referring to December's HK$95 million LONGINES Hong Kong International Races.

The smart chestnut broke evenly from gate ten under Zac Purton, who mustered his mount forward to settle close to the speed. Mighty Giant hit the front at the 200m mark and kept smart rivals at bay for a neck winning margin.

"He's an honest horse, he gets up there and makes his own luck and he's a fighter - he's a winner," Purton said of the five-year-old.

The win sealed a treble for Purton, who earlier in the afternoon had ended a 33-ride winless streak stretching back to October 11.

The win was Mighty Giant's classiest to date as he defeated a field featuring leading Four-Year-Old Classic Series prospects, Sky Field (Deep Field) and Lucky Express (Toronado). That duo ran with credit to finish third and fourth respectively.

"The pace early on absolutely suited my horse according to Zac Purton, and he travelled as a lovely horse," Yiu said. "He was so relaxed and he was always waiting for the signal and once he asked him to kick he really accelerated - a lovely horse."

The Power (Oasis Dream) gelding takes his record to six wins from nine starts and Yiu is eyeing a pair of Class 1 contests as his next start before a potential tilt toward the HK$25 million Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m).

"I spoke to Zac right after the race, there's a few feature races we have to think about but I'm not sure which one we'll go for: there's the Panasonic Cup over 1400m and the Chevalier

Mighty Giant

HKJC

Cup over the mile next month, there's a lot of time to make a decision," Yiu said.

Purton kicked off his treble with victory aboard Hong Kong International Sale graduate Beauty Angel (Dark Angel) in the Class 4 Waterloo Handicap (1800m).

Immediately before Mighty Giant's success in the finale, Purton drove the Danny Shum-trained Lockheed (Exceed And Excel) to his long overdue first Hong Kong win at his 24th Hong Kong start, in the Class 3 Dundas Handicap (1200m).

"He's always had problems, so I'm very thankful to the owner who has been patient and has given me a lot time," Shum said.

The grey was a Group 1 placegetter pre-import, having finished third in the National Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) at the Curragh as a two-year-old when under the care of trainer William Haggas.

The win secured a double for Shum, who claimed the race prior with Baltic Success (Exceed And Excel) in the Class 3 Bedford Handicap (1000m) under Jerry Chau, who also took two winners on the card. The apprentice earlier claimed the Class 4 Pitt Handicap (1400m) aboard the Francis Lui-trained Sunny Star (Flatter).

Courier Wonder dazzles towards a bright future

Courier Wonder (Sacred Falls) was the talk of Sha Tin with a dazzling debut success that had trainer John Size brimming with anticipation for what his talented youngster has in store.

"I'm very excited to have a horse like that, I haven't had one for a while and I was wondering at the beginning of this season where the good horse was going to come from and I think we've found one already," Size said.

The 11-time champion trainer is no stranger to unveiling a good one on debut, with the likes of recent Group 1 winners Beat The Clock (Hinchinbrook), Mr Stunning (Exceed And Excel) and Ivictory (Mossman) all winning at their first try, but this one managed to mug his rivals by five and a quarter lengths. The gelding turned heads as he drew clear ahead of another of the season's well-regarded young guns, the 1.4 race-favourite Everyone's Delight (El Roca).

"In Hong Kong, if a three-year-old first starter wins by a margin, then normally they're going to go all-the-way," Size said.

Jockey Joao Moreira mustered the New Zealand-bred to the front from barrier three and from there he was never headed.

"When we were about to cross the line I just could not believe he was winning that easily – he's one of a kind," Moreira said.

The Sacred Falls (O'Reilly) youngster crossed the line first in a recent trial at Conghua and was a NZ$150,000 (approx. HK$775,516) purchase out of the 2019 Karaka National Yearling Sale in New Zealand.

"I was very impressed with his trial at Conghua a couple of weeks ago, so when John (Size) said he was going to run soon I was quite excited about it," Moreira said.

"I couldn't have foreseen him winning as he did. Of course, the handicapper is going to stop him eventually but it's going to take him a while to get there because he won so impressively. It looks like as a young horse, he is immature but he has everything within himself to improve even more. I'm very impressed."

The win was the first of a double for the Brazilian ace who also claimed the Class 3 Fife Handicap (1600m) aboard the Me Tsui-trained Great Treasure (Husson).

Money for Hayes

Money

HKJC

David Hayes snapped a two-month run of outs thanks to Money's (Reward For Effort) sweeping victory in section two of the Class 5 Wylie Handicap (1400m) under Keith Yeung.

"It was a little bit frustrating but it's nice to get the monkey off the back. Every time I got a bit flat I would walk through my stables and look at all my new horses – I have 50 of them," Hayes said.

"I have to be patient as I know I have some very nice young horses coming."

Hayes' third win of the campaign came with Money, who gave the handler his first success since he bagged a double at the season-opening fixture.

"I think going to Conghua provided a little change of environment that helped him. I think the addition of the winkers certainly helped him because he wobbled last start and Keith Yeung gave him a 12 out of ten ride.

"Keith (Yeung) does a lot of work for me, so it's great to see Keith win on him," Hayes said.

Dennis Yip bagged a race-to-race double as Goko (O'Reilly) landed the Class 4 Hamilton Handicap (1000m) under Antoine Hamelin before Matthew Poon drove stable stalwart The Full Bloom (Zebedee) to victory in section one of the Class 5 Wylie Handicap (1400m).

Hong Kong racing continues on Wednesday (28 October) at Happy Valley.

Then followed: Mugatoo (IRE), Arcadia Queen (AUS), Fierce Impact (JPN), Probabeel (NZ), Master Of Wine (GER), Nettoyer (AUS), Buckhurst (IRE), Aspetar (FR), Humidor (NZ), Kolding (NZ) & Grandslam (AUS), last.

Analysis: The Irish-bred import Sir Dragonet scored an impressive win at his Australian debut for new trainers Ciaran Maher and David Eustace, in addition supplied jockey Glen Boss his fourth Cox Plate victory. Ridden patiently, he settled in eighth place on the rails, behind a good tempo before improving (between runners) nearing the 600m. He took a split at the turn, got to the front at the 100m and then drew clear to win well. The Aidan O'Brien-trained Armory settled in seventh place, one off the rails, tracked up nicely (behind Russian Camelot) from the 600m, briefly looked the winner when he took the lead rounding the home turn and then fought well for second in a solid performance at his first start in Australia. The favourite Russian Camelot went forward from his difficult barrier (14) and settled in fourth place, one off the rails. He moved up (three wide) from the 600m, challenged at the turn and then kept fighting on well for third. Mugatoo settled beyond midfield and deep. He moved up (wide) from the 800m, challenged (widest of all) at the turn and then battled strongly for (3.5 lengths) fourth, staging a very good effort. Arcadia Queen settled near the tail of the field, tracked up (wide with cover) from the 700m and then fought really well for (3.8 lengths) fifth in a sound effort especially considering the affected track where she has had no prior success. Fierce Impact settled near last, improved between runners coming to the turn and then strongly for (4.3 lengths) sixth, while Probabeel was handily placed, challenged at the home turn before holding on quite well to finish (4.5 lengths) seventh. Then followed: La Marsa (AUS), Miss Madec (AUS), Mussenphere (AUS), Queen Of Rocks (AUS), Thermosphere (AUS) & Incredulous Dream (AUS), last.

Analysis: After looking tested at her first attempt at 1600 metre when sixth in the Edward Manifold Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Flemington on October 3, Yes Baby Yes dispelled those thoughts with an all-the-way victory here, her first win at stakes level and her second win in nine starts. Craig Williams soon crossed her to the front and was able to set a moderate tempo. She dashed clear nearing the turn and then drew away to score easily. The favourite Ecumenical raced in fourth place, moved up (three wide) approaching the turn but was under riding as the pace picked up. She then kept battling on quite well for second without threatening the winner. Miss Inbetween raced outside of the leader (Yes Baby Yes) until nearing the turn and held on to take third with La Marsa battling on quite well for (6.5 lengths) fourth after making ground (deep) from the 800 metres point while the second favourite Thermosphere raced well below expectations on the Soft 7 track to finish (13 lengths) eighth. Then followed: Captain Corelli (NZ), Tanker (AUS), Sarodec (AUS), Lunar Fox (AUS) & Reliable Lovin' (NZ), last.

Analysis: Cherry Tortoni recaptured his best form, returning to Victoria after his disappointing seventh in the Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick on October 10 to record a very good win here, enhancing his prospects for next month's Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) in the process. He settled at the tail of the eight-runner field, improved (wide) from the 1000m before putting in his bid (widest of all) at the 600m. He took the lead on straightening and then fought back gamely for a very good win. Khoekhoe settled in second last place, tracked up (wide) behind runners from the 600m, went to second at the turn, challenged strongly at the 100m and then fought really well for (short-neck) second. The maiden Johnny Get Angry settled toward the tail of the field and was last and under riding approaching the turn. He then kept plugging on gamely to take third, albeit seven lengths behind the runner-up. Captain Corelli went to the front, set a moderate tempo, was challenged coming to the turn and then battled on in the straight for (8.4 lengths) fourth. Then followed: Riddle Me That (AUS) & Dr Drill (GB), last.

Homesman scored a very good first-up win, his sixth win and his fifth at stakes level in 20 career starts. Having his first run since failing in the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick in April, he went to the front and then travelled comfortably for Ben Melham at a good tempo (first 1000m 59.74). He grabbed a break at the turn and was not seriously threatened from that point to score comfortably. Age Of Chivalry raced outside the leader and eventual winner, put some pressure on that runner coming to the turn and then kept fighting on to take second. Kings Will Dream raced in fourth place, one out and one back, in the small five-runner field before improving (deep) approaching the turn. He then kept battling on quite well to take the minor placing with Riddle Me That holding on for (5.2 lengths) fourth while Dr Drill finished (9.4 lengths) last. [KB]

 AUSTRALIA

Analysis: Unbeaten prior to a close fourth last start in the Hawkes Bay Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m), Need I Say More bounced back in dominating fashion here for win four (third stakes) at start five and now deserves to be favourite for the NZ Two Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) next month. He began best to be a half length in front early, stretching that to a length leaving the back straight. From the 600m he edged further in front and starting the run home slipped away, first by two lengths then by four lengths inside the 200m. Far too good, he was able to cruise to the line yet still two and half lengths clear at the post. Bourbonaire sat just back and outside the winner all the way to the 600m, lost touch but kept on in a futile chase for second. Tinker Mcphee was last to the 600m, went widest into the straight and kept up a solid run for a distant third from Rocket Spade who kept on fairly while the winner strung them out.[LJ]

Analysis: Having her fifth run this preparation, Miami Bound came into Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) calculations with a solid staying effort in winning here, her first victory since taking out the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) last November. Ridden patiently by Jamie Kah, she remained near the tail of the field and was last before she commenced her move nearing the 600m, tracking up (wide) behind runners. She then moved up strongly in the straight, hit the front at the 100m and drew away to score decisively. Shared Ambition settled back in the field, improved (deep) approaching the home turn, took the lead on straightening and then fought well for second. Oceanex was a handy fourth, moved up to take the lead rounding the turn and she then held on well for third. Etah James was midfield, improved from the 600m, moved up deep at the turn and she then battled on for (4 lengths) fourth with Gallic Chieftain holding on for (4.2 lengths) fifth under his top weight (57kg) after putting in a wide bid coming to the turn. Analysis: Progressive colt Portland Sky has now advanced from winning a maiden (1000m) at Ballarat Synthetic on debut on August 25 to taking out this Group 3 race three runs later. He went to the front, travelled nicely, was pressured nearing the turn but he kept fighting back gamely in the straight to score really well. The favourite Bella Nipotina was fourth early on before improving (three wide without cover). She moved up (still deep) coming to the turn, challenged in the straight and kept fighting well for second. Valaquentia raced in sixth place, between runners, went to fourth coming to the turn and finished on to claim third, narrowly in advance of Mildred who held on for fourth after racing outside of the leader and eventual winner to the home turn. Then followed: Bonvicini (AUS), Benitoite (AUS), Danzandzandance (AUS), Red Heeler (NZ) & Greysful Glamour (AUS), last.

Analysis: Sovereign Award followed her win in the Ladies' Day Vase (Gr 3, 1600m) at Caulfield on October 14 with a bold front-running victory here, her eighth win in 16 starts. After working in the early stages to retain the front (from Greysful Glamour), Jamie Kah let her stride along at a good tempo, soon establishing a clear advantage. She had her rivals struggling coming to the turn and had enough in hand to hold on over the closing stages to record a very good win. I Am Eloquent raced back in fourth place, improved to be a distant second at the turn and then kept gradually making ground, getting to within three-quarter lengths for second at the post. Paradee was back in sixth place, improved to a distant fourth at the turn and steadily made ground, finishing well for third, a short-half-head further back with Bonvicini (1.8 lengths) fourth after steadily making ground from second last in the eight-runner field at the 600 metres. Analysis: The most experienced runner with three wins and ten starts, De La Terre, just lasted to add win four but with the bonus of her maiden stakes success. She was very smartly away and led by a length early, a margin she maintained past the 1000m but which shrunk to a half length at the 600m. Making the last corner tight against the fence she slipped them starting the run home to be two lengths clear inside the 200m but at the 50m she was challenged strongly and was all out to hold on gamely by a nose. Kahma Lass sat midfield (rails) leaving the back straight, held there to the 400m then got out of a pocket to chase the leader. Once balanced she put in some big strides, especially over the final 50m but came up a nose short. Tokorangi had three behind her at the 600m, pulled out starting the run home then wound up with a big finish to grab third right at the line. Kelly Renee was second at the 400m but was nabbed late to hold fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: Positive Peace bounced back to the form that saw her win five on end earlier this year including a Group 2 in March. She began well to lead narrowly but gave it up approaching the 800 to sit second, one lane out, remaining there to the top of the straight. She went up to the leader inside the 400m and these two were neck and neck to the 150m but she edged into the lead and was able to hold off a late challenge by a neck for career win nine at start 22. Wandabaa sat fourth last at the 600m, got caught in a pocket until the 300m then pulled wide into the middle of the track and ran on strongly but too late for second. Athiri was fifth at the top of the straight, challenged and looked a chance at the 150m before holding on for third from pacemaker Sweet Deal who was brave to the 150m then faded to fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: Vitesse Bo had the last say, finishing well over the final 50m to beat the colts and claim a Group 3 as her maiden victory at start three. She sat three wide just back of the lead early but soon after found a nice spot, out and one back, where she remained to the 600m. She ran about a little but starting the run home was four wide and with 300m to go looked flat. Inside the 200m she got into her work and gradually caught the first two to run them down inside the 50m to score nicely by a half neck. Marine sat third (rails) to the 600m, got off the fence rounding into the straight and went up alongside the pacemaker (Unition) starting the run home. These two had a good battle but were claimed late with Marine holding on the better for second. Unition led them in, was game to 100m but had to settle for third. Elizabeth Rose was fourth turning in and could only battle for fourth with the first three well clear.[LJ]

Analysis: The Bopper made it three from four as well as his maiden stakes success with an all-the-way win here. He was second into stride but took over narrowly at the 1000m, holding a half-length lead to the 600m but edging a shade further in front rounding to the straight. Away by two lengths approaching the 300m he was in no danger to the line, in full control for a good win. Tommy Gold sat fourth (rails) tracking the winner from the 600m, stayed along the inner from the 400m then moved out to challenge but he was never going to catch the winner. On The Lead was last of the seven runners at the 600m, went widest from the top of the straight and mounted a strong run but came to the end of it at the 100m, holding on for third.[LJ]

Analysis: Having his second race in Australia and first attempt at stakes class, the lightly-raced import Knights Order, who was a winner at Sandown Park two starts ago albeit two years back, led all the way here, allowing no excuses for his opponents. He took up the pace with a lap to run and bowled along in front by a length starting the back straight. Inside the 600m the lead was reduced but into the straight he shot away, clear by three lengths at the 300m, by two at the 100m and held on well by a half length. Rondinella sat fifth, one out down the back, fourth rounding into the home straight and went widest to challenge, keeping up a strong run the last 400m but could not bridge the gap. Djukon tracked Rondinella into the straight and kept going gamely for third. Scarlet Dream ran on quite well from second last to nab fourth late.[LJ]

Then followed: Gemma's Son (AUS), Snickerdoodledandy (AUS), Queen Brown (AUS), Reign Of Fire (AUS), Real Grace (AUS), Empire Reign (AUS) & Dark Assault (AUS), last.

Analysis: The powerful Bob Peters stable provided the quinella here with Magical Dream powering over the top to remain unbeaten in three starts, adding her maiden stakes to boot. She dropped back to last approaching the 800m and was still a clear two lengths last at the 600m. She moved out two lanes rounding into the home straight and was widest at the 300m. Near the 200m she descended upon the pack and was travelling so quickly she gathered them in from the 100m and flew by, winning by a widening length and a quarter. Noses separated the next three. Mystical View sat three wide midfield at the 600m, went four wide into the straight then ran on strongly only to watch Magical Dream fly past. Watch Me Dance led them to the 200m but was collared inside the 100m yet fought hard to hold third from Gemma's Son who looked beaten at the 200m but courageously fought back for fourth.[LJ]

Analysis: Having his 34th start, William Wallace, an 8YO, finally bagged his maiden stakes win and seventh overall with a big run here. He was slow away and settled two lengths last at the 1600m. He tacked onto the back of the field at the 1200m but was giving the leaders eight lengths at the 800m. From the 600m he went four wide and accelerated quickly so that at the top of the straight he was almost level with the leaders. Keeping up this strong run he claimed the lead inside the 400m and would not be denied even though challenged late to hold on by a half neck. Warm favourite Communique sat midfield to the 600m, went wider starting the run home but took a long time to wind up, running hard at the winner over the last 100m but had to settle for second. Who Dares Wins was a handy fifth at the 600m, fourth turning in and was game to the line under his top weight of 60kg. Camino Rocosco led them in then battled well to hold fourth.[LJ]

Then followed: Stellar Pauline (AUS), Maha (AUS), Raison D'etre (AUS), Pretty Rossa (AUS), Melba Storm (AUS), Wegobam (AUS), Joey's Gift (AUS) & Quiller's Delight (AUS), last.

Analysis: Jockey Jamie Kah capped a great day when she steered home her fourth winner for the day when the $2.60 favourite La Mexicana claimed victory by the barest of margins. The progressive filly, settled outside the leader (Maha), got to the front on turning for home and then dug deep when challenged in the straight to win in a photo, her third win in four starts and her first at stakes level. Twain's Express settled towards the tail of the field and deep from her difficult barrier (10). She improved (wide) approaching the turn, challenged on straightening and then after quite a battle, failed narrowly to finish second, staging a very good effort at only her third race start. Highly Discreet settled in third place on the rails, got into clear running on turning for home and then battled on quite well for third. Stellar Pauline came from second last in the 11-runner field to finish (4.6 lengths) fourth with the leader Maha holding on for (5.3 lengths) fifth. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Inglis
Est 1867

Analysis: The Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained filly Sneaky Five staged a very promising effort in winning here on debut. She began well from her good barrier (3) and then travelled particularly well in third place before improving (three deep) approaching the turn. She easily took the lead on straightening and then went on to score comfortably. She looks to be a filly with a bright future. Her stablemate The Art Of Flying settled in fifth place on the rails before improving to be just behind the leaders at the turn. He moved up to challenge at the 200m and then fought well for second in a nice debut. Tempest Charm was slowly away and was near last early until nearing the turn. She switched deep on straightening and caught the eye with her late-closing third in a smart debut performance. Mortal Witness settled midfield improved at the turn and then kept battling well for (1.8 lengths) fourth in a sound debut. Analysis: Last start Group 2 winner Peltzer added win five at start eight, again leading virtually all the way here. He was second out but soon took over, away by a length at the 1200m but having a breather past the 800m. Tim Clark cuddled him up rounding into the straight then shot him clear at the 300m. To the line he was in no danger whatsoever, still clear by three and an easy win. Prime Star sat one out and one back from the 800m, went up four wide into the straight and kept up a solid run the length of the straight without looking to catch the winner. Real Peace was fifth (rails) at the 600m, kept to the inner from the top of the straight and dug in well to the line for a solid third.[LJ]

VERDICT A few of these like to get on with it, although 2018 winner Cadran heroine Princess Zoe. The Tony Mullins stable star has been a revelation this season, but the Cadran was a brutal race and now she has to go again just three weeks later. It's worth taking on her, with 3yo filly VALIA the selection in receipt of weight all round. She looked good over just shy of this trip at Longchamp and is taken to pounce late once more under Soumillon. Subjectivist is a talented 3yo also and could easily bounce back from a well-beaten run in the St Leger with his stable in better form now.
