Regally bred filly Parlophone (I Am Invincible) landed her first stakes success at Morphettville yesterday, showcasing a blistering turn of foot to take out the Lightning Stakes (Listed, 1050m).

Trained by Mick Price and Michael Kent Jr, Parlophone raced midfield under Jessica Eaton and was widest on the turn before flying home to win by three lengths ahead of Streetcar Stranger (Stratum), with Just Zerene (Zoustar) a neck away in third.

It was the first stakes win for Eaton, who began her career under the guidance of Price and recently relocated to Adelaide in search of more opportunities.

"The main objective today was getting her out of the gates smoothly and fortunately that happened and then she got a great run in transit," said Eaton. Continued on page 2 >>

Enable rules in historic King George romp

The Queen may have missed her regular visit to Ascot last month, but the queen of the turf lit up the royal racecourse yesterday when Enable (Nathaniel) registered a history-making win in the King George and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f). International News page 13 >>

"She was just too good. She still does things wrong, so there is a lot to improve on. She's going to be a classy mare for sure.

"I started my apprenticeship for Mick Price and I never rode a winner for him so to get the opportunity today and ride a Listed winner for him is massive for me."

Bred and raced by Geoff Walsh, in conjunction with long-term partners Lindsay Maxsted and Simon Tuxen, Parlophone (2 f I Am Invincible - Roulettes by Flying Spur) has had four starts, for two wins and a placing, amassing $111,550 in prize-money.

She is the fourth named foal out of St Albans Stakes (Listed, 1000m) winner Roulettes, making her a sister to Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) runner-up Spin and a half-sister to Telemon Stud's first-season sire Sun City (Zoustar).

Roulettes herself is a half-sister to two-time Group 3 scorer and All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) placegetter Royal Discretion (Royal Academy) and a full-sister to the dam of Vealay (Shamardal), who was purchased by Widden Stud and David Redvers Bloodstock for $1 million at last year's Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale.

The daughter of Flying Spur (Danehill) has a Deep Field (Northern Meteor) yearling colt who was purchased by Alan Bell for $800,000 at this year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, while she is currently in foal to Dundee (High Chaparral).

Parlophone becomes the 56th individual stakes winner for Yarraman Park Stud's leading sire I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), while she is his 29th two-year-old stakes winner, joining the likes of Loving Gaby, Invincible Star and Catch Me.

With less than a week left of the 2019/20 season, I Am Invincible sits at the top of the leading sires by winners list while he is second behind Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) on the leading sires by earnings table.

The son of Invincible Spirit (Green Desert) stands at Yarraman Park Stud for a fee of $209,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

Viridine brings up a million in Bletchingly

Viridine

RACING PHOTOS

Godolphin gelding Viridine (Poet's Voice) made up for his last start defeat in the Sir John Monash Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) with a win in the yesterday's Bletchingly Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield, and in the process, hit the million dollar mark in prize-money.

Given a brilliant ride from Damien Oliver, Viridine settled midfield on the rails and the champion jockey bided his time in the straight before sneaking through on the inside of Great Again (Viscount) to win by three-quarters of a length.

Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Streets Of Avalon (Magnus) ran on well to finish second with Great Again holding on to finish a neck away in third.

"He wasn't brilliant away so I wanted to work on getting him relaxed and let the rest of the race unfold," Oliver said.

"He quickened better today when he spat the bit out. I was kind of surveying my options when we came to the turn. I could see them opening up a little bit. One of them was going to the fence and got a bit neat. The horse was going well enough to push through.

"I think he's well placed around this mark just below the better ones. The short distances are the key, too. James (Cummings) has got him going really well and is placing him well."

A multiple stakes winner and a Group 1 placegetter, Viridine (5 g Poet's Voice - Patina by Anabaa) has taken his overall record to eight wins from 29 starts while his career earnings now sit at $1,021,210.

He is the fifth foal out of winning mare Patina (Anabaa), making him a half-brother to Listed placegetter St Edward's Crown (Epaulette) and two other winners.

Patina herself is a half-sister to Jerezana (Lonhro), who is the dam of multiple Group 1 placegetter Osborne Bulls (Street Cry) and the stakes-placed Badajoz (Commands).

Viridine is one of 19 stakes winners for former Darley shuttler Poet's Voice (Dubawi), who stood in Australia for five seasons and covered 504 mares, resulting in 335 foals.

The son of Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) died at Darley's Dalham Hall Stud in 2018 aged 11 after suffering a heart attack.

Mugatoo back with impressive Winter Challenge win

Mugatoo (white cap)

SPORTPIX

If his win in the Winter Challenge (Listed, 1500m) at Rosehill yesterday is anything to go by, European import Mugatoo (Henrythenavigator) could be in for a fruitful spring.

First-up since finishing sixth in the Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) in March, the Kris Lees-trained Mugatoo settled at the rear of the field under champion jockey Hugh Bowman.

The five-year-old veered out around the bend and rocketed past his rivals to score by three quarters of a length. Sambro (Fastnet Rock) was second with Taikomochi (Snitzel) a further length and a quarter away in third.

Lees had been unsure if Mugatoo would be sharp enough to win the Winter Challenge and said a genuine pace helped his cause.

"We probably got a better tempo than what it looked on paper but he picked up some nice horses there and he was pretty strong through the line, which is what we wanted to see," Lees said.

Next month's Premier's Cup (Gr 3, 1900m) at Rosehill is likely to be Mugatoo's next stop but beyond that, Lees is keeping an open mind.

"He will be entered for everything. He's the type who could go to an Epsom or a Metropolitan," Lees said.

"He was a little bit fresh today but I shouldn't judge him on that because he was first-up.

"I'm in no rush to get him to weight-for-age but this could be the season to try him at that level because he has the acceleration."

Riding for the first time in over a month following a winter break,

Bowman brought up a treble on Mugatoo following earlier wins aboard Smart Image (Smart Missile) and Dancing Gidget (Al Maher).

He tracked Sam Clipperton on equal favourite Order Again into the race and said Mugatoo's victory augured well for his future.

"He's certainly a class horse and showed that in the final stages," Bowman said. "I think he is still very 'wintry' in the coat and has improvement in him.

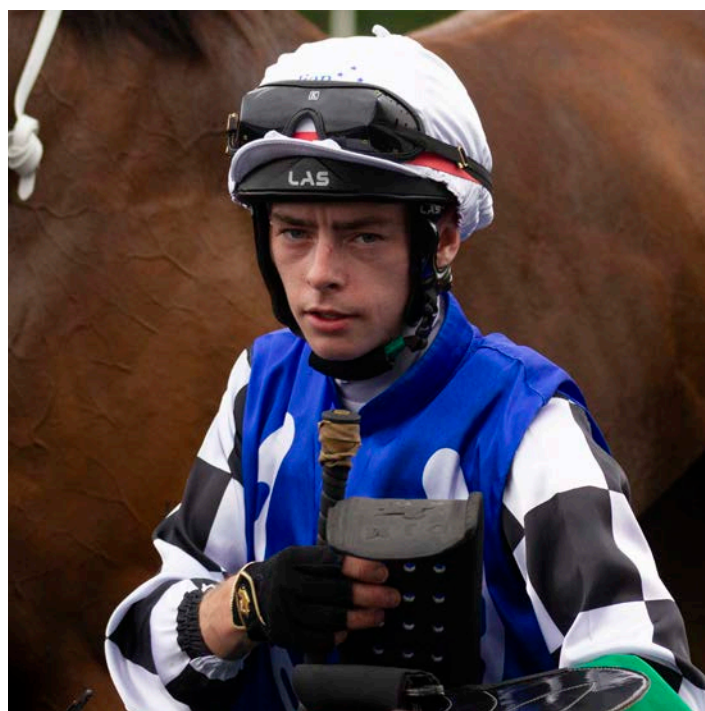

"He put the writing on the wall last preparation and I think he has an exciting future."

Raced by Australian Bloodstock, Mugatoo (5 g Henrythenavigator - Elopa by Tiger Hill) has had 12 starts for six wins and 2 placings, earning $365,545 in prize-money.

He is the sixth foal out of multiple stakes winner and Pretty Polly Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) third Elopa (Tiger Hill), making him a half-brother to the Group 1 performed Wedding March (Dalakhani) and Ribblesdale Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 4f) placegetter Elik (Dalakhani).

Elopa is a half-sister to Group 1 winner Epalo (Lando) and Evening Breeze (Surumu), who is the dam of stakes scorers Eagle Rise (Danehill), Eye Of The Tiger (Tiger Hill), Evensong (Waky Nao) and Echoes Rock (Tiger Hill).

Six for Outreach

Outreach

WIDDEN STUD

Widden Stud resident Outreach (Exceed And Excel) sired his sixth first-crop winner Castlecomer (2 g ex Barcelona Girl by Noverre) took out yesterday's Kentan Machinery 2YO Maiden Plate at Gosford. The Chris Waller-trained gelding scored by a narrow margin of a nose ahead of Sky Lab (Real Impact) in second, with a neck back to Solar Apex (Deep Impact) in third. Purchased by his trainer and Guy Mulcaster for $150,000 at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, Castlecomer is the sixth foal out of Barcelona Girl (Noverre), making him a half-brother to Group 1 winner Under The Louvre (Excellent Art). Further back, this is also the family of Coolmore first season sire Yes Yes Yes (Rubick) and star sprinter In Her Time (Time Thief). Outreach, the brother to Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m)-winner filly Overreach, stands at Widden Stud for a fee of $5,500 (inc GST) in 2020.

56 for I Am Invincible

Yarraman Park Stud resident I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) sired his 56th individual stakes winner yesterday when Parlophone (2 f ex Roulettes by Flying Spur) took out the Lightning

Stakes (Listed, 1050m) at Morphettville. The son of Invincible Spirit (Green Desert) stands at Yarraman for a fee of $209,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

Five in a row for Mystery Shot

Mystery Shot (Shooting To Win) made it a perfect five from five with his victory at Caulfield yesterday, but only after giving his trainer Lindsey Smith some worrying moments. The gelding took out the Neds Bet Back Handicap (1400m) to follow successive Caulfield victories after country wins to open his career at Warrnambool and Ballarat, although he was forced to battle a little harder this time round. "I was doing a bit of twitching on the turn and thought this is not going to be as easy as last time," Smith said after Mystery Shot beat Wicklow Town (Canford Cliffs) by a neck, with Savvy Lad (Savabeel) another three quarters of a length away in third. "It's good to win five in a row and I'll speak to the team, but I'm thinking he'll go and see a bit of green grass."

Skyman impressive on Australian debut

English import Skyman (Mukhadram) made an encouraging start to his Australian racing career with a convincing win in the Neds Handicap (1600m) at Caulfield yesterday. The Chris Waller-trained four-year-old sat back in the field in the Benchmark 78 race under Damien Thornton before sprinting past his rivals on the outside in the straight to score by two and a quarter lengths. "He's been with us since December and we've taken our time with him," Waller said. "We had confidence that he'd run well but you can never tell how they'll adapt. Some of these European horses take their time to adapt to our racing and others get straight into it. He's got straight into it." Waller said they would place Skyman to keep progressing through the grades. "He's the right type of horse to come through the back door to better races."

Another metro win for Snitzel entire

A positive ride from Craig Williams on board Morrissy (Snitzel) reaped dividends as the rising five-year-old ran out a comfortable winner of the $100,000 Neds Boost Handicap (1400m) at Caulfield yesterday. After taking up the running early on, Morrissy never saw another rival, hitting the line two and a half lengths in front of Ruban Bleu (Artie Schiller), who just edged out Great Duchess (Canford Cliffs) for second spot. "He runs his heart out every time and he's well managed," Williams told Racing.com of the son of Snitzel who has now won over $500,000. "Nothing wanted to take up the lead. I knew that if I got into the straight and built him up into the bend he'd give a really good kick. He's really raised the bar every time."

High Emoceen gets the best of stablemate at Caulfield

Progressive staying filly High Emoceen (Ocean Park) continued her winter rise through the ranks and in the process ended the winning sequence of her stablemate Persan (Pierro) when landing yesterday's Mark Needham Handicap (2394m) at Caulfield. Two lengths split the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained pair at the line, with Lord Bouzeron (Burgundy) another two and a quarter lengths away in third. It was High Emoceen's third win in a row after victories at Echuca and Sandown and Eustace said: "She doesn't put herself into a race, which is fine but she relies on a bit of tempo which there was today. Teo (Nugent, jockey) kept her in a nice rhythm and she enjoys finishing over the top of them. So there's more to come."

ROTHWELL PARK THOROUGHBREDS

Stackhouse steers She's A Thief to victory

Daniel Stackhouse moved back to within two wins of Jye McNeil at the top of the Victorian statewide premiership courtesy of a victory on She's A Thief (Showcasing) in yesterday's Neds Same Race Multi Handicap (1100m) at Caulfield. The mare led all the way under Stackhouse to score by two and a quarter lengths over Sword Of Mercy (Sebring), while Causeway Girl (Shamus Award) was another three-quarters of a length away third. "I'm trying my best, I can tell you that much," Stackhouse said after riding his 135th winner of the season in Victoria. "It's a bit of fun and I'm very happy the way things are going."

Mahamedeis outstays rivals at Caulfield

A tilt at October's Bendigo Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) is on the agenda for Mahamedeis (Magnus) after the Nick Ryan-trained galloper took out yesterday's Laurelle Owens VOBIS Gold Stayers (2394m) at Caulfield in impressive fashion. Under the guidance of Rhys McLeod, Mahamedeis scored by two and a quarter lengths from Sasko (Teofilo), with Double You Tee (Written Tycoon) a further three quarters of a length away in third. "He's really flown the flag for me," Ryan said of the rising six-year-old. "I think he was in the first crop of horses that I bought and he's still racing so good. It's so great."

Eduardo back in the winner's stall

Eduardo

SPORTPIX

Almost two years since his last victory, Eduardo (Host) returned to the winner's stall when taking out the July Sprint (1100m) at Rosehill yesterday. At his first start since switching to the Joe Pride Stable, the six-year-old scored by a neck. "There was a bit of a moment of truth for him at about the furlong but I was happy to see him really respond under Nash's (Rawiller, jockey) riding and give that good kick," Pride said. "There's a good chance we will come here in a couple of weeks for the Missile but I'm just happy to have him back."

Sales topper eyeing Melbourne assault

Sales topper Octane (I Am Invincible) made it five wins in six starts since joining Phillip Stokes with a comfortable success at Morphettville yesterday. After a slow start to his career, the $1.4million purchase at the Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale has now won half of his 12 races and picked up $174,730 in prize-money. The rising five-year-old, who was previously in the care of Ciaran Maher and David Eustace, beat Rainmoth (Barbados) by a length and a quarter in the 1110-metre contest, with Soul Fire (Churchill Downs) another half a length away in third.

Red Can Man back with Bolton win

The Steve Wolfe-trained Red Can Man (Gingerbread Man) returned from a break with a comfortable win in the HG Bolton Sprint Handicap (Listed, 1200m) at Belmont yesterday. The gelding defeated Lockroy (More Than Ready) by a length and three-quarters with Multiverse (Universal Ruler) a half-length back in third.

Pike breaks record at Belmont

A Belmont double helped Willie Pike break his own Australian record for winners in a season as he moved on to the 235 mark after a victory on board Inspirational Girl (Reliable Man) in the penultimate race. Pike, who had earlier scored on Truly Great (Dundeel), will look to increase his tally when he takes rides at two of the three meetings left in Western Australia this season.

Fleet Dove lands first city victory

Kelly Schweida cemented his new association with top breeder Basil Nolan when Fleet Dove (Not A Single Doubt) won at Doomben. In a tight finish Fleet Dove beat Hancora Field (Deep Field) by a head with a half-head to Kisukano (Bel Esprit) in the QTIS Fillies 2Y0 Handicap (1200m).

She has now won two of her three starts but yesterday's victory was her first in city company. "She is by top sire Not A Single Doubt out of a very well-bred mare (Fleet Riane) so she has that going for her," Schweida said. "Drawing barrier one was handy today so she could race up on the pace. She is my first horse for Basil Nolan so it is a bit of a kick along."

Aqua Vite scores first win in two years

Aqua Vite (Northern Meteor) capitalised on tailor made track conditions at Doomben to win his first race in more than two years when taking out yesterday's TAB Long May We Play Open Handicap (1600m). Starting as the $3.30 favourite, the rising eight-year-old headed to the front from the outset and hit the line half a length clear of High Degree (Exceedingly Good) to record his first victory in 35 starts. Prince Of Tie (Casino Prince) was another three quarters of a length away in third.

Tullio completes comeback with Doomben win

Tullio (More Than Ready) completed a marvellous comeback from a career-threatening injury with his fourth straight win at Doomben yesterday. The equal $4.40 favourite sat behind the pace and powered clear to beat his Tony Gollan-trained stablemate Howwonderfullifeis (Your Song) by three and three-quarter lengths in the Kirin Handicap (1050m). It was feared Tullio would be unable to race again after he needed knee surgery to remove a chip after finishing second at Eagle Farm in December, 2018.

Ross reveals secret to wet track success

Les Ross revealed his secret to getting horses which handle wet tracks after Mishani Fraudster (Jet Spur) won at Doomben. Ross has built up a reputation as an astute trainer of young horses and also for recording winners on wet tracks. "People often ask me why most of my horses can handle wet tracks," Ross said. "I tell them it is a secret but really it is because I work them hail, rain or shine. A lot of trainers don't like training their horses on wet tracks because they have expensive price tags. It's one benefit of having cheap horses."

Doomben abandoned after seven races

Persistent rain forced the abandonment of the Doomben race with two races remaining. The track was rated a Soft 7 when the nine-race program got underway, but by mid-afternoon it had been downgraded to a Heavy 10. Chief steward Peter Chadwick said visibility was the major concern as misty rain and clods of turf kicked up by horses made it difficult for jockeys to ride safely. After consultation with jockeys, stewards abandoned the meeting after race seven.

Adkins taken to hospital after horror fall

Andrew Adkins was taken to Westmead Hospital following a sickening fall that marred the opening race at Rosehill yesterday. Adkins was aboard the Danny Williams-trained Hot 'N' Hazy (Snitzel) who appeared to run out of room in the straight and crashed to the turf. The colt, who Williams this week rated his best horse in a decade, suffered a broken shoulder and was treated by vets on course but was unable to be saved. Adkins was attended to by paramedics before racing officials confirmed he had regained consciousness and was talking to medical staff. He was transported to Westmead Hospital with a suspected fractured leg and possible injuries to several ribs and his collarbone.

Williams and Rodd hit with bans

Craig Williams and Michael Rodd will both miss next Saturday's season opener at Moonee Valley after the pair picked up bans for winning rides at Caulfield yesterday. Williams was given a ten-meeting ban after pleading guilty to careless riding aboard Morrissy in the Neds Boost Handicap. Rodd will spend longer on the sidelines, having incurred a 14-meeting suspension for shifting inwards aboard Mystery Shot when not clear of Michael Walker aboard Savvy Lad in the $100,000 Neds Bet Back Handicap.

Alligator Blood findings released

There was no evidence anyone connected with trainer David Vandyke's stable administered the prohibited substance which saw Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) stripped of his Magic Millions Guineas (RL, 1400m) win, it has been revealed. Racing Queensland yesterday gave details of Thursday's behind closed doors hearing which resulted in Vandyke being fined $20,000 after traces of Altrenogest, more commonly known as Regu-mate, were found in the gelding's post-race urine sample. Chief steward Peter Chadwick said there was no indication about how the substance was administered to Alligator Blood. Vandyke avoided suspension after being found guilty of breaching rule AR240(2) - presenting a horse to race with a prohibited substance. Alligator Blood's owner Allan Endresz confirmed he will challenge the disqualification decision in the Supreme Court after $1.1 million in prize-money was forfeited.

NEW ZEALAND

Matchmaker makes impressive debut

Promising two-year-old Matchmaker (Makfi) got her career off to the best possible start when she raced away to an impressive victory at Riccarton yesterday. The filly took on her age-group rivals off the back of an eye-catching trial win at Rangiora last week which saw her heavily supported in the 1000-metre dash on the Heavy 10 surface. She didn't let her backers down, as she settled nicely in midfield before easing into a challenging position approaching the home bend and then bolted clear to win, easing down by three lengths. Co-trainer Nick Wigley, who prepares Matchmaker with Kayla Milnes, had been expecting a good performance from the filly who he believes has the potential to go a lot further. "She's a big strong filly who has always shown us plenty," Wigley said. "I'm just pleased to see her get through the heavy going."

Major Tom on target for Winter Cup

Major Tom (Red Giant) cemented his bid for the Winter Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) at Riccarton next month when he scored handsomely over 1400 metres at Avondale yesterday. Co-trainer Kenny Rae, who prepares the six-year-old in partnership with daughter Krystal Williams-Tuhoro said: "It was a very good win although I would have been just as happy for him to finish second or third as long as he was closing off strongly. He was on trial for a trip south for the Winter Cup and I can confirm that he is 110 per cent going now. I'm just hoping he doesn't get too much of a penalty for the win."

Major Tom (pink cap)

Tiley continues red-hot run with Avondale four-timer

Nigel Tiley continued his fine run of form when he saddled four winners at Avondale yesterday. Tiley and his apprentice Callum Jones, who have combined for six wins in the past month, kicked the day off in fine style when Now Is Now (Battle Paint) produced a powerful finishing burst to register her first victory in the opener. Three races later Macushla (Dalghar) made it back-to-back wins when she overcame a wide run to dash clear for a comfortable four-length triumph. However, it was the win by Demonetization (All Too Hard) that left Tiley with an immense sense of satisfaction as the talented but injury-plagued galloper registered his first win in over 18 months. "It was great to see him back as he is a good horse," Tiley said. "We've had so many problems with him and when we took him to Brisbane last year, he got very sick and we nearly lost him. His owner has just been fantastic and very patient, which was rewarded today." Tiley rounded out the day with a win for Rhuzick (Zed) who charged home down the outside rail to register her maiden victory at her third start.

Kamaruddin lands first winner

Te Akau apprentice Joe Kamaruddin rode the first winner of his career when the seven-year-old gelding Al Haram (Sea The Stars) struck at Avondale yesterday. However, the Malaysian-born apprentice had to survive a protest lodged by connections of the runner-up Windy Height (Electronic Zone) and was suspended for three days for shifting in when Insufficiently clear of Magnanimous Man (Nom Du Jeu).

13 for Wootton Bassett

Group 1 winner Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj) sired his 13th individual stakes winner when Chindit (2 c Always A Dream by Oasis Dream) followed up his eye-catching Doncaster debut win with an equalling promising performance to land the Pat Eddery Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Ascot yesterday. The Richard Hannon-trained juvenile quickened nicely under Pat Dobbs to score by a length and three-quarters and earn quotes of 25-1 for next year's 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m). Cobh (Kodi Bear) kept on for second spot, a length and a half in front of favourite Naval Crown (Dubawi). Chindit is the first foal out of the winning Oasis Dream (Green Desert) mare Always A Dream, who herself is out of Always Remembered (Galileo), a half-sister to Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Motivator (Montjeu). Wootton Bassett stood at Haras d'Etreham in France alongside his Group 1-winning son Almanzor for a fee of €40,000 in 2020.

16 for Dynasty

The late Dynasty (Fort Wood) sired another winner of the Durban July (Gr 1, 2200m) and victory by the favourite Belgarion (4 g ex Riva by Acatenango) in yesterday's Greyville feature provided him with his 16th individual victor at the highest level. Trained by Justin Snaith, Belgarion was winning for the seventh time in ten starts and registering his fourth stakes success, when beating Got The Greenlight (Gimmethethegreenlight) and Do It Again (Twice Over). Multiple Group 1 winner Dynasty died last year at Ridgemont Highlands, where he had stood since 2005, at the age of 19. A four-time Group 1 winner himself, Dynasty was named Equus outstanding sire in 2010, 2014, 2015 and 2017.

Kastasa picks up the winning thread

Kastasa (Rock Of Gibraltar) started this season the way she ended last by winning a stakes race, as she posted her fifth successive victory when staying on to take out the Vintage Tipple Stakes (Listed, 1m 6f) at Gowran Park yesterday. The Dermot Weld-trained four-year-old beat Nan Yehi (Camelot) by three-quarters of a length, with Traisha (Invincible Spirit) another length away in third.

Aspetar comes out on top in York shock

Aspetar (Al Kazeem) lowered the colours of his much more fancied rivals in convincing fashion when coming out on top in a running of yesterday's York Stakes (Gr 2, 1m2½f) in which all the big guns blew out. The Roger Charlton-trained five-year-old built on the promise of his recent return at Sandown with a length and a half win at odds of 11-1. Fox Chairman (Kingman) finished second at 8-1, with 16-1 chance Lord Glitters (Whipper) another half a length away in third. Favourite Elarqam (Frankel) dropped away tamely to finish sixth of the seven runners. The winner's effort impressed the bookmakers who gave him quotes of 8-1 for next month's Juddmonte International Stakes (Gr 1, 1m2½f). This was a fourth stakes win for Aspetar, whose finest hour came when bagging a Group 1 contest in Germany last year.

Reliable Man's Akribie claims third stakes success

Akribie (Reliable Man) added a third stakes success to her CV yesterday at Hannover when taking out the Grosser Preis Von Rossmann (Listed, 2200m) for Markus Klug and owner breeder Gestut Rottgen. The four-year-old got the better of Arktis (Jukebox Jury) by half a length while Candy Crush (Lord Of England) returned third of the eight runners, a further length and three-quarters away. Runner-up on her last two starts in Listed company, Akribie has now won four of her 13 starts, including last year's Diana Trial (Gr 3, 2000m). She is one of 13 stakes winners for Reliable Man (Dalakhani) who stands at Westbury Stud where his 2020 fee will be NZ$15,000 (+ GST).

Six for Duke Of Marmalade

Temple Grafin (4 m ex Inner Temple by Greys Inn) sprung a surprise and became the sixth Group 1 winner for her sire Duke Of Marmalade (Daneshill) when taking out the Garden Province Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Greyville yesterday. Sent off at 40-1, the mare got the better of last year's winner and favourite Celtic Sea (Captain Al) by three-quarters of a length while Pretty Young Thing (Jackson) was only a head away in third. A dual Group 3 winner, Temple Grafin also ran third in the Majorca Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) in February and fourth in this race last year, while she has now won four times from 17 starts. Former Coolmore stallion Duke Of Marmalade stands at Drakenstein Stud in South Africa for a fee of R25,000.

Nine for American Pharoah

Coolmore shuttler American Pharoah (Pioneerof The Nile) sired his ninth stakes winner on Friday when Turned Aside (3 c ex Sustained by War Front) took out the Quick Call Stakes (Gr 3, 5.5f) at Saratoga. The Linda Rice-trained colt defeated Old Chestnut (Speightstown) by a length and three-quarters with a neck back to Fore Left (Twirling Candy) in third. Turned Aside is the only named foal out of Grade 3 placed mare Sustained (War Front), while he is also related to multiple stakes winner Good And Tough (Carson City). US Triple Crown winner American Pharoah stands at Jerrys Plains for a fee of $55,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

Regally bred Frankel colt off to perfect start

Dhahabi (Frankel), Godolphin's 3,100,000gns purchase from the 2019 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, showed early promise with a debut victory over seven furlongs at Newmarket yesterday. The colt, who is by Frankel (Galileo) and a half-brother to Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Golden Horn (Cape Cross), was the second most expensive yearling to pass through a sales ring in Britain in 2019. Despite missing the start, the Charlie Appleby-trained juvenile moved up on the outside and was always doing enough to hold on for victory by a neck to Dinoo (Starspangledbanner). Frankel saw a second juvenile claim a debut victory yesterday, as Zabeel Queen won impressively in the two-year-old fillies event at Ascot, defeating fellow Frankel juvenile Snow Lantern by one and a quarter lengths. Frankel is available to cover mares on southern hemisphere time at Juddmonte's Banstead Manor Stud in Newmarket and his Australian-bred offspring include Group 2 winner Miss Fabulass.

Enable rules in historic King George romp

Enable

RACING POST (EDWARD WHITAKER)

BY PAUL EACOTT | @ANZ_NEWS

The Queen may have missed her regular visit to Ascot last month, but the queen of the turf lit up the royal racecourse yesterday when Enable (Nathaniel) registered a history-making win in the King George and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f).

In beating Sovereign (Galileo) by a cosy five and a half lengths, Enable became the first horse in the 69-year history of the race to win it three times, took her own personal tally to 11 successes at the highest level and saw her prize-money close in on the £11 million mark.

"She's unbelievable," said Frankie Dettori, who was winning the race for a seventh time, taking him level with the legendary Lester Piggott as the King George's winning-most rider. "I love her so much. My favourite girl!"

As expected Sovereign took up the role of hare under William Buick, with Dettori aboard

4-9 favourite Enable, and Ryan Moore on Japan (Galileo), happy to bide their time half a dozen lengths or so away.

Turning for home Buick was soon hard at work on board last year's Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner, with Dettori, in the rain sodden silks of Juddmonte Farms, still to play his hand.

Cruising to the front, the three-time champion jockey looked around for the expected challenge of Japan, only to find Moore's mount toiling. At that point it was all over as a contest and the John Gosden-trained six-year-old strolled clear to win with goodness knows how much in hand.

"John has done an unbelievable job to keep her going," Dettori added in the post-race celebrations. "Three King George's has never been done before, and now we'll try the impossible and go for three Arcs."

A third victory in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) may have proved beyond Enable when she finished second behind Waldgeist (Galileo) in the Longchamp showpiece last season, but the bookmakers expect her to right that wrong this time round, cutting her to 5-2 favourite for Paris in October.

While the ease of Enable's success may have shocked onlookers, Gosden, who was winning the race for the fifth time, was not among that number.

"She's really trained beautifully for this race and is back in top order, there's no doubt about that," he said. "We've been thrilled with her at home. I was expecting to see that but life can be full of disappointment."

"I remember great horses like Swain and Dahlia, those who won it twice, so to come back from injury and win it three times and do it as a three, five and six-year-old, she's some race mare."

Enable's sire Nathaniel (Galileo), himself a King George winner for Gosden when triumphant in the race back in 2011 as a three-year-old, stood at Newsells Park for a fee of £25,000 in 2020.

Kitten's Joy filly helps breeze-up season to end on a high

Lot 74 Kitten's Joy - Desertstormelite filly

TATTERSALLS (LAURA GREEN)

BY TOM PEACOCK OF THE RACING POST

Disruption to this breeze-up sales season from all directions has failed to alter the appetite for ready-to-run prospects and the trend continued as the swing drew to a close in Newmarket.

The Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Sale tends to be more bread-and-butter than five-star fare and, after deciding to shift an already postponed event across from its usual home at Fairyhouse only a fortnight ago to circumnavigate potential travel disruption for clients, the executive might have harboured hopes for a respectable clearance rate as much as anything.

A top lot of £220,000 for a daughter of Kitten's Joy (El Prado) comfortably exceeded last year's highest figure and competition for three other six-figure purchases were further evidence of a market which has cocked a snook at what were admittedly low expectations.

Lot 74 represented a fabulous turnaround for Brendan Holland of Grove Stud, who had selected her for just US$27,000 at Keeneland last September. Her dam, the Chester House (Mr Prospector) mare Desertstormelite, was quite useful in the US and has shown some flair from the paddocks.

It was Jamie Spencer, only just back in the competitive action after a broken hip, who saw off agent Alex Elliott to see the deal, although the jockey confessed he was jobbing on behalf of trainer David Simcock and an existing client.

The combination had earlier secured Knockgraffon Stables' impressive-breezing Free Eagle (High Chaparral) colt (Lot 17) for £82,000.

Holland said of the Kitten's Joy: "I bought her off my pals at Hunter Valley. I saw her when I went over last year, thankfully they sold her to me. She has done really well, she's a lovely, lovely filly, she has loads of quality. I'm delighted, it's a great result."

The consignor was happy to draw stumps on the show for 2020, although he will soon be back at the crease.

"Personally we have done fine," he said. "Most consignors are relieved it is all over and everyone is still in the game, I'd say. I look forward to relaxing and watching Goodwood next week, but we've got yearlings in and are starting to prep them."

Simcock is set to receive another big pinhooking success story as Richard Brown of Blandford Bloodstock was stood alongside the Newmarket handler when snapping up a £140,000 Dialed In (Mineshaft) colt (Lot 244).

Named Onesmoothoperator, he was bought by Ger and Yvonne Kennedy of Sherbourne Lodge for just US$5,000 at Fasig-Tipton and left as the day's third top lot.

Walsh on the podium

The Kitten's Joy filly was knocking a Night Of Thunder (Dubawi) colt (Lot 26) from Katie Walsh's Greenhills Farm draft off the top of the table.

Mark McStay of Avenue Bloodstock had been successful with an offer of £160,000 for the first progeny of the unraced Fastnet Rock (Danehill) mare Kymera.

He is rich in heritage further down his page as his third dam, Saganeca (Sagace), produced the likes of Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) hero Sagamix (Linamix) and Newsells Park's blue hen Shastye (Danehill), but it was the en-vogue Night Of Thunder which was the pull.

"The sire speaks for himself, he's doing fantastic things," said McStay.

"This horse did an exceptional breeze, he vetted particularly well and was well presented by Katie. I'm delighted to get a Night Of Thunder, they're only going to get more expensive as the year goes on.

"He's for an existing client, goes to Ireland and probably to John Oxx."

Walsh explained that the colt was representing a familiar face.

"Micheal Ryan of Al Eile Stud bred him," she said. "They didn't go to a yearling sale and decided they would go to the breeze-ups. My father (Ted) trains for Michael Ryan, Micheal's father, so there's that association.

"When they asked if I would take this horse to breeze, I said 'absolutely, no problem'. The sire is on fire and he breezed really well."

Walsh had received the colt in the middle of January and the delay of this event since late May had not been a concern.

"He's an April 6 foal and the breeders wanted to give him every chance - he is tall, scopey and rangy and so this Goresbridge sale was always the plan.

"Personally, I was delighted to see the sale moved to here, you need the British clientele and the British-based clients, this is where they are. It is apparent when you go into the sale ring."

Walsh's day was not even done, as she also prepared a Lope De Vega (Shamardal) colt (Lot 172) from the family of classy French performers Corre Caminos (Montjeu) and Racer (Spectrum) for £100,000.

Katie Walsh

TATTERSALLS (LAURA GREEN)

He was bought by Peter Nolan on behalf of a new client and is heading to Ireland along with several others from the sale.

"It's not been an ideal year for everyone, but trade has been really good and everyone's getting them sold, that's the main thing," said Walsh. "We can all go back shopping in a couple of weeks now, and that's what it's all about, it's been a short turnaround for everyone."

Prices hold up

Final figures were a little like comparing apples with oranges, or pounds and euros, to be precise, at least before conversion.

A total of 125 from 147 lots were sold at a clearance rate of 84 per cent, a little down on the 91 per cent of 14 months earlier, and for an aggregate of €3,800,006.

An average of €30,894 was up 10 per cent from €27,992, while the median of €21,978 was an impressive improvement of 22 per cent.

At the conclusion of the sale, Tattersalls Ireland director Simon Kerins commented: "Firstly, I would like to thank the vendors who have risen to the challenge of today's sale being relocated to Park Paddocks at the 11th hour!

"Like many in the bloodstock industry, the breeze-up consignors have had to deal with difficult circumstances in the run up to the season, notably with today's sale original dated in May, and they have met the change in date and venue with tremendous positivity and it was pleasing to see several vendors have excellent results.

"The bloodstock industry is truly resilient, and this was evident today by the strong demand for the choice lots. It was immensely satisfying to sell the second highest price ever for a two-year-old at the Goresbridge Breeze-Up Sale with Grove Stud's Kitten's Joy filly selling for £220,000 to David Simcock."

He added: "There were considerable increases in the average of £27,284 and median of £20,000 considering that the numbers offered were down significantly on 2019, while the high clearance rate of 85 per cent also needs to be acknowledged.

"We can now look forward to the Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Breeze-Up Sale returning to Fairyhouse Racecourse and Tattersalls Ireland respectively in 2021.

"The Tattersalls Ireland team look with positivity to hosting our Derby Sale and May Store Sale on the 18 to 20 August, followed by the August NH Sale on 27 to 28 August in Ireland."

Analysis: Consistent Godolphin-raced sprinter Viridine took his record to eight wins from 29 starts in registering his fifth stakes victory here, aided by a very good Damien Oliver ride. After settling in sixth place on the rails, he improved along the inner to be just behind the leaders at the turn. Oliver then steered him along the rails to hit the front at the 100m and he then fought back to win well. Streets Of Avalon had a nice trip in third place, just behind the leaders. He moved up well on turning for home, challenged strongly nearing the 100m and then fought really well for second in a smart first-up run. Great Again shared the lead, racing on the rails, but was pressured on his outer (by Jungle Edge). He got a break on straightening and then battled back gamely after his early efforts for third. Sansom raced in fifth place, one off the rails, moved up at 200m and kept fighting on well for fourth with She Shao Fly making good ground, after being second last into the straight, to finish (2.6 lengths) fifth. Then followed: Cup Night (AUS), Mankind (AUS), Pym's Royale (AUS), Abdicator (AUS), Samizdat (AUS), Majinika (AUS), Profit Street (AUS) & Electric Light (AUS), last.

Analysis: Talented three-year-old Red Can Man took his imposing record to seven wins and four placings from 12 starts with a smart first-up effort in winning here. After leading early on from his inside barrier (1), he eased to track the new leader (Majinika) before going to the front at the 300m. He then safely held off his opposition to win impressively. Lockroy settled in fourth place on the rails, got through to be in a challenging position at the 200m and then fought well for second. Multiverse settled midfield but trapped wide. He moved up (deep) coming to the turn and did well in fighting on to take third in a photo from Cup Night who was beyond midfield on the rails before getting a split in the straight and then fighting on nicely for fourth. Another Winner For YARRAMAN PARK
I AM INVINCIBLE

Analysis: Parlophone followed her very smart first-up performance at Sandown-Hillside on June 24 when she stormed home to win in a Two-Year-Old Fillies' Handicap (1000m) with another impressive victory, advancing to stakes class here. She again settled back in the field and was eighth (between runners) in a packed field before improving (wide out) rounding the turn. She then sprinted well, hit the front at the 100m and then drew clear to score by three lengths. Three-year-old gelding Streetcar Stranger went back from his wide barrier (11), settled in last place, improved along the inner coming to the turn, got through to challenge at the 200m and kept battling well on to take second in a photo. Three-year-old filly Just Zerene, who had enjoyed a good trip in fifth place on the rails from her inside barrier (1), continued through on the rails to take the lead on straightening. She then kept fighting on quite well for third after appearing to have had every chance. Flostar raced in fifth place, between runners, got into clear running on turning for home and then fought on for (3.6 lengths) fourth. Knowles made ground from last at the 600m after gaining a split at the turn for (4.2 lengths) fifth while the winner's stablemate Euphoric Summer had a wide trip back in tenth place and ran on well, when clear late, for (4.7 lengths) sixth. Analysis: Irish-bred import Mugatoo, who was unbeaten in his first three Australian runs last preparation, which included a victory in the Canberra Cup (Listed, 2000m) in March, staged a smart first-up performance in winning here. He was ridden patiently by Hugh Bowman and after settling at the tail of the field, improved nicely (wide with cover) nearing the turn. He then finished solidly, wide out in the straight, proving too strong over the latter stages to win well, and at a distance short of his best. Sambro raced in fifth place on the rails, improved between runners at the turn, challenged at the 200m and then fought well for second. Taikomochi went to the front as expected, set quite a reasonable tempo and held on well under his top weight (59kg) to take the minor placing in a photo in a sound first-up effort. Order Again settled towards the rear, improved (wide) from the 600m, moved up at the 200m and then kept battling on well for (2.2 lengths) fourth. BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Billedson Brook, 7-2 Miss O Connor, 9-2 Agincourt, 8 Shimmering, 10 Look Around, Stylistique, 12 Farzeen, Love And Thunder, 14 Iconic Choice, Lady Bowthorpe, 20 Viva Gloria.

VERDICT A race that's been upgrade to Group 3 status this year. The two suggestions against the field are the John Gosden-trained 3yos SHIMMERING and Love And Thunder in that order of preference. They are similar types who remain open to further improvement. Billedson Brook appears to have a good chance at the weights but her three best performances have come at Newmarket. The weather is a big factor for Agincourt, who needs it to stay dry, and Miss O Connor, who ideally needs a downpour. [Steve Boow]

BETTING FORECAST: 6-4 More Beautiful, 4 Caroline Dale, Santosha, 8 Hala Hala Hala, Isabella Giles, 14 On My Way, 25 Chocoya.

VERDICT Dave Loughnane has two live chances in his bid for a first Group success, assuming that Caroline Dale and Santosha can back up their Queen Mary and Duchess Of Cambridge efforts. Queen Mary flop More Beautiful remains capable of better but ISABELLA GILES is a tempting bet at bigger odds. The Clive Cox-trained filly is two from two and has Group 3 potential if taking after her dam. [Steve Boow]

VERDICT There were still 22 left in this at the five-day forfeit stage so it is disappointing to see so few show up. Perhaps MAGICAL scared them off and last year's winner ought to take this renewal with just as much authority as 12 months ago given how slick she looked on her reappearance in the Pretty Polly. Figuring out who will chase her home is much trickier and a chance is taken on Search For A Song, in the hope that last year's Irish St Leger heroine can get her mojo back. [David Jennings]

BETTING FORECAST: Evens Barney Roy, 3 Patrick Sarsfield, 7 Durance, 15-2 Quest The Moon, 9 Spotify, 25 Naida, 33 Wai Key Star.

VERDICT While unlikely to represent anything in the way of value, BARNEY ROY would seem the most probable winner of a top-flight event. He has posted plenty of good performances since being gelded and easily won a 1m1f Group 1 at Meydan in March, when stable companion Spotify came home third. His third in the Prince Of Wales's Stakes when last seen reads well compared to a lot of form on offer here, so has leading claims in this company.

Patrick Sarsfield has taken a significant step forward since a gelding operation, having won a 1m1f handicap at the end of June off an official mark of 86. He beat a solid Listed-class performer when making a successful step up to Group 3 company just over two weeks ago, so he is at least very much at the top of his form. The slight niggles with him, apart from the hike in grade, is that his recent hat-trick was achieved in a fairly short space of time, meaning a fresher type could take his measure here. Adrie De Vries rides for the time.

The home defence is led by Durance and Quest The Moon, who have met each other on their last two starts, taking it in turns to finish in front of each other in Group 2s. The horse that finished between them at San Siro is a talented sort, but has since been beaten, albeit not far, in a Listed event a few days ago at Vichy, suggesting that form may not be strong. Both are consistent, and the filly gets a 3lb allowance, but both would probably need a career-best to beat the selection if he ran anywhere near his peak.

It won't be a huge shock if the aforementioned Spotify can get into contention for a place for all that he's pretty exposed. [David Toft]
