'South Australian racing well placed for aggressive growth strategy'

Breeder bonus scheme receives $600,000 boost as industry hangs on state budget

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Investment in infrastructure will be the key to South Australian racing's resurgence after the sport's regulatory body made two significant prize-money increases in as many days and waits on further good news in today's unveiling of the state budget.

Thoroughbred Racing South Australia yesterday announced it would boost the SABOIS bonus scheme, similar to the successful VOBIS, BOBS and QTIS schemes offered in other states, to $2 million among a range of modifications aimed at incentivising owners to race horses in the state, particularly locally bred ones.

The move comes after TRSA on Wednesday returned regular prize-money purses to more than the pre-Covid-19 levels after strong wagering results since the onset of the virus. Continued on page 2>>

Rosemont buys Sneaky Five's dam for $410,000

Group 1 winning-racemare Small Minds (Canny Lad), dam of unbeaten Golden Gift (1100m) winner Sneaky Five (Fastnet Rock) set a new Inglis Digital record in yesterday's November (Late) Online Auction when she realised $410,000 to Sandhurst Bloodstock on behalf of Rosemont Stud. Morning Briefing page 7 >>

TRSA chief executive Nick Redin says the changes to SABOIS was part of a long-term strategy to increase horse numbers and help grow betting turnover and returns to industry participants.

"We have worked very hard to grow our field sizes. We are up, on average, a runner per race at metropolitan level and we are up .2 a race at provincial level for the financial year to date," Redin told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday in an extensive interview.

"Our numbers were up the backend six months of last financial year, so it is really about maintaining that and growing that further and allowing us to expand the number of races we conduct on Wednesday back out to eight ultimately.

"Once we achieve that, then the aim is to expand Sunday back out to eight. We have had to reset and we've made some changes to our programming, which has had the desired result, and now it's really about growing the horse numbers in the state so we can grow back out to where we need to be."

Prize-money in South Australia had been dwarfed by leading Australian racing jurisdictions, NSW and Victoria, leading to an exodus of horses and trainers in recent years which had decimated the state's field sizes.

Redin revealed that 300 horses had left the state in the past two and a half years and TRSA was undertaking a number of initiatives in a bid to reverse the trend.

"There were trainers we lost interstate like Lloyd Kennewell, Phillip Stokes setting up in Victoria rather than expanding here and one (Mark Minervini) went to Newcastle and a couple of others left, but now it is about growing our population.

"We have some terrific family training partnerships over here now with the Jollys and Sue and Jason Jaensch just forged a team and obviously Leon Macdonald with his son-in-law Andrew Gluyas.

"Those training partnerships are coming through and Tony and Calvin McEvoy have divided Melbourne and SA between them, so we have got the next generation of trainers coming through. Continued on page 4>>

One issue which has held South Australian racing back has been the lack of stabling but Redin says that is changing.

"There are 90 boxes going to be built on-course at Morphettville, so that will see a big expansion of the on-course facilities at Morphettville," says Redin.

"At the moment, Will Clarken is the only trainer on course and he only has about 24 boxes. So the SAJC is building 90, there are more being built out at Gawler, and there are plans to build another 30 once they are full. So we are certainly adding to the capacity to take the amount of horses given the whole expansion of the SABOIS scheme is about the next generation coming through.

"By the time they are ready to race, the facilities will be there to train them."

Industry stakeholders are also hopeful that today's South Australian budget will outline more investment in racing infrastructure around the state.

Murray Bridge's new track, which was built on a greenfield site, is one of the shining lights of the local thoroughbred industry and the facility has been earmarked to house more horses and trainers, but TRSA will require government investment to help fund the project.

The investment cycle, Redin hopes, will lead to TRSA being able to sustainably increase prize-money levels longer term to at least keep, or close, the gap with other jurisdictions.

"I think every state always wants to increase the prize-money and we would certainly like to get all of our prize-money levels up across the board," he said.

"If we can keep our field sizes up and grow our wagering revenue, it will enable us to provide not only that, but continue to invest in infrastructure and facilities in the state, so the trainers have the facilities they need to train from and the prize-money is sufficient to continue to attract new owners and get existing owners to buy more horses."

Redin added: "I think we've seen in these results, it is pretty positive over here at the moment. Everybody's got through Covid.

"We've kept the whole show going over here, so to speak, and I think we're about to reap the rewards from that. Field sizes are up, our wagering revenues are holding up, so we are very well placed to embark on an aggressive growth strategy over here."

CLARKEN RACING

- TAB's November 7 system crash which caused nation-wide havoc for racing codes. He says TRSA made the right call in postponing its meeting to November 9 when it became evident that Tabcorp would be unable to rectify its server issues during Saturday's racing. "Obviously there is still a loss across the board due to not racing on the Saturday and Sunday was impacted as well, so we are continuing to work through that with Tabcorp. Obviously, Tabcorp have got every single code in every single state who were impacted by it and they have got a lot of work to do to work their way through those (obligations) and we are working through ours with the three codes at the moment (as to whether we can seek compensation)."
- Whether TRSA will receive a bigger share of the Point of Consumption tax. "We have got a four-year agreement with the government and we will sit down with them before next year's budget and work through that. Whether extra revenue comes from POC or whether it comes from somewhere else, it is probably irrelevant. It is more what the industry needs to be competitive that we will work on, rather than where it comes from."
- Earlier this year, TRSA launched a public advertising campaign in a bid to attract more trainers to the state but Redin said while the organisation still "had some irons in the fire" it was not yet ready to confirm the recruitment of any trainers. He said: "It is all right to attract trainers but we have got to have somewhere to put them."

Hayes welcomes SABOIS changes

SA Thoroughbred Breeders chair Sam Hayes, meanwhile, lauded TRSA's increased support of SABOIS and he believes the changes could incentivise the state's broodmare owners and stallion farms to undertake a joint venture to lure well-credentialed stallions to South Australia.

Hayes, who has shuttler Sir Prancealot (Tamayuz), Valentia (Fastnet Rock) and Ambidexter (Commands) at his Cornerstone Stud in the Barossa Valley, says standing stallions in South Australia had been "marginal now for a few years" but he hopes yesterday's SABOIS announcement can go some way to changing that.

"The SABOIS announcement coupled with the prize-money going back up to pre-Covid levels, certainly from an SA Breeders' perspective, really is fantastic," Hayes told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"As an industry, we had probably under invested in SABOIS over the last five to ten years and it needed a large hit to get it back up to being competitive again and, to TRSA's credit, the quantum in which they have increased it is meaningful.

"I think it will have a positive impact on investment in our state. It had to be large to make a difference and it is, so we are pleased with that."

<< Continued from page 4 The injection of funds into the SABOIS scheme will see the prize-money pool increased from $1.4 to $2 million and progeny of mares bred to South Australian-based stallions are automatically eligible for the scheme without the owner paying a fee.

The progeny of a mare who is bred back to a South Australian-based stallion will be eligible for SABOIS at a fee of $550, while a South Australian-based breeder can make their foal eligible for the scheme by paying a $825 fee.

In a change, weanlings who are agisted in South Australia and majority owned by South Australians will also be eligible for SABOIS if the owners pay a $2200 entry fee while, on a once-off basis, yearlings purchased between December 1 and July 31 next year will also be eligible for the scheme if a $3300 fee is paid.

“It will certainly make it more attractive for people with a good colt to (look to South Australia) ... and I think there will be more interest from breeders in South Australia to potentially get together like they do in New Zealand to invest in stallions and stand them in South Australia.” Hayes said. “The costs associated with travelling mares interstate for the breeding season becomes significant over time, so I could see a consortium of breeders considering investing in a stallion again in this state on the back of that announcement.”

Hayes also welcomed TRSA’s announcement that a SABOIS payment will be paid on all races run at the Saturday meeting prior to the Adelaide Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) and the Adelaide Cup meeting. A $5000 non-transferable voucher to be used at the 2021 Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale will also be gifted to the owners for the first SABOIS-eligible horse home in each race.

“SA Breeders were always proponents of that voucher system that they have had in other states such as NSW,” he said.

“We love that idea - anything that gets people to the sale buying yearlings, we are all for.

“Adelaide is probably the best value sale in the country in terms of results versus sale price. It is a great shopping ground in the $30,000 to $70,000 range and there is no better value sale in the country.

“This will give owners, trainers and breeders a spring in their step with the announcements over the past 48 hours.”

Rosemont buys Sneaky Five's dam for $410,000

Group 1 winning-racemare Small Minds (Canny Lad), dam of unbeaten Golden Gift (1100m) winner Sneaky Five (Fastnet Rock), set a new Inglis Digital record in yesterday's November (Late) Online Auction when she realised $410,000 to Sandhurst Bloodstock on behalf of Rosemont Stud. The 14-year-old, winner of the 2010 Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m), was offered by Goldin Farms in foal to Yulong's dual Group 1-winner Grunt (O'Reilly) and she surpassed the previous Inglis Digital record of $400,000, set by Manaya (Hinchinbrook) in July 2019. Small Minds has thus far produced four named foals, three of whom have raced and all of whom have won, including Jungle Dawn Classic (Listed, 1400m) winner Beautiful Mind (So You Think) and exciting Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained juvenile Sneaky Five, winner of the Inglis Banner (RL, 1000m) on debut at Moonee Valley prior to taking out the $1 million Golden Gift at Rosehill to mark herself as a juvenile with legitimate Group 1 aspirations in the autumn. Yesterday's acquisition was the second major broodmare purchase for Rosemont Stud from Inglis Digital, the Gnarwarre-based operation having secured dual Group 3 winner Jamaican Rain (Manhattan Rain) in the September (Late) Online Auction for $280,000. She has since been covered by Arrowfield Stud's Dundee (High Chaparral).

'Absolutely thrilled': reaction to Small Minds purchase

Ryan McEvoy, Rosemont's general manager - bloodstock, said the team was 'absolutely thrilled' to introduce Small Minds to the broodmare band. "It's very hard to find a mare that has thrown two stakes winners - Sneaky Five and Beautiful Mind - from only four foals, three of which have raced. That's a unique achievement for any broodmare," McEvoy said. "We were over the moon with purchasing Sneaky Five (realised $305,000 at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale) and to see what she has done in a short time, being undefeated in an Inglis Banner and $1 million Golden Gift to now be among the favourites for the Inglis Millennium and Golden Slipper. Small Minds is obviously a daughter of Canny Lad, so an easy mare to mate and we think there will be some great opportunities with her in the next five to six years. Rosemont Stud has a lot of young stakes-performing mares on the farm so it's great to secure a more proven style of mare, plus we're hoping for a few fillies out of Small Minds to join the Rosemont broodmare band and that's the reason why we were happy to be a little stronger on her." Jeff Gordon of Goldin Farms, who offered Small Minds, was also rapt with yesterday's result. "It's unbelievable, an amazing price, amazing, Goldin Farms management couldn't be happier," he said. "I thought she would bring between $250,000 and $350,000 and even that was probably hopeful towards the top end, so to get the $410,000, wow, what a result for everybody. This mare is hot property at the moment considering what Sneaky Five has done already and the potential for further glory in 2021, so we put her in foal to Grunt and it's just thrilling to see her realise such an amount."

Evolutionary sold to HK

Earlier in the sale, unraced Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) gelding Evolutionary, who won a 1080-metre barrier trial at Randwick on Tuesday, made $330,000 when purchased by Pacific Point Bloodstock HK to head to Hong Kong. The three-year-old, who also won a 1000-metre trial at Wyong on November 11, was offered by Aquis Farm and became the third highest-priced offering to go through the Inglis Digital platform. Out of the dual Group 3-placed Quaintly (Giant's Causeway), he is from the extended family of Coolmore breed-shaper Sadler's Wells (Northern Dancer). "This is a great result," said Shane McGrath, managing director of Aquis. "The great thing about these Inglis Online sales is the transparency and that people can bid with confidence and that was certainly the case with Evolutionary and we couldn't be happier. His two recent trial wins showed he would make a lovely horse for Hong Kong and this result shows the demand for the high-level Hong Kong horses is tremendous. He's got a fantastic temperament this horse, he's shown his tremendous ability as recently as Tuesday at the trials, and he's a very nice pick up for his new owners."

Six for Wordsmith

Tasmanian owner-breeders Paul and Elizabeth Geard enjoyed another stakes winner by their resident GeeGee Stud stallion Wordsmith (Testa Rossa) when Gee Gee Secondover (5 g ex Gee Gees Firstover by Over) took out the Tasmanian Newmarket (Listed, 1200m) at Launceston yesterday. Sent off an unheralded $18 chance, the Leon, Dean and Trent Wells-trained Gee Gee Secondover secured his first stakes win, and ninth overall, at start 27 when fending off the challenge of favourite Mandela Effect (Turffontein) by a long neck. Second favourite Street Tough (Tough Speed) was a further length adrift in third. In doing so, Gee Gee Secondover became the sixth individual stakes winner for Wordsmith, a Group

3-winning son of Testa Rossa (Perugino) who is standing the 2020 breeding season at the Geads' Broadmarsh base for a fee of $4,400. Gee Gee Secondover joins fellow homebreds Geegees Goldengirl, Gee Gees Top Notch, Gee Gee Double Dee, Gee Gee Josie and Geegees Classicboy as stakes scorers for Wordsmith, who covered 26 mares at a fee of $5,500 in 2019.

Durrant keen on Stageman's chances

Adam Durrant believes Stageman (Written Tycoon) can uphold Western Australian pride and repel the threat of interstate raider Trekking (Street Cry) in the Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Ascot on Saturday. Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) and Goodwood Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Trekking is the hot favourite to land the $1 million feature for James Cummings and Godolphin, but Durrant has issued a positive bulletin on Black Heart Bart Stakes (Listed, 1200m) winner Stageman, who ran ninth in the Winterbottom 12 months ago and was last seen finishing a neck second in the Colonel Reeves Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m). "I think we have the locals covered if we do everything right," Durrant told Tabradio. "Obviously, the main stumbling block is the Godolphin horse, who is high class. They don't win five million if they are bottlers. But I wouldn't swap him (Stageman) for any other horse, including the favourite." Looking ahead to the weekend, Durrant added: "He is the type of horse that has a few tricks. That's just him and he will get back - he just needs luck at the right time. His last 400 (metres) and 200 (metres) is probably better than anything in the race when things go his way. You just have to be hopeful and we are happy with his condition. His lead up races have been good and we've been happy with the way he's been training." Stageman has drawn barrier nine in the Winterbottom. Rated a $9 chance with Tabtouch, he will be ridden by Pat Carbery. Trekking is on his outside in barrier 11. William Pike takes the ride on the $2.30 favourite.

Spaceboy set to shine in Starlight

Spaceboy (Deep Field) has proven a formidable sprinter in 2020 when partnered by Kathy O'Hara, winning his first four starts under the rider before running a one-length second in a Randwick handicap on his comeback earlier this month, and his trainer Gary Portelli is delighted O'Hara will once again be in the plate when the four-year-old goes in search of a first black-type in Saturday's Starlight Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Rosehill. "She really knows him and he has turned it around with Kath on," Portelli said. "Hopefully she can continue that winning streak from Saturday onwards." Reflecting on his Randwick run, Portelli continued: "He missed a bit of work and I think that brought him undone over the last 100 metres. He has since had a barrier trial to keep him up to the mark, but it's a big test for him. This is the strongest field he's met so far so we will see how he goes, but he has a lightweight to offset it in 53 kilos." Spaceboy will be joined in the Starlight by stable companion Single Bullet (Not A Single Doubt), who has drawn barrier 10 under Regan Bayliss. Of his chances, Portelli said: "I just wish he had drawn a bit softer because now we will have to ride him negative and see if he can come with the one big run, but he can do that and there looks to be good speed in the race."

Waterhouse and Bott to train Alligator Blood

Kestrel Thoroughbreds' Bruce Slade has played a key role in Group 1 winner Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) joining the stable of trainers Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott. On Sunday, it was revealed that David Vandyke had told Alligator Blood's owners to find a new trainer for the gelding and the other horses prepared by him for the Ezybonds syndicate. "I've dealt with Gai in the past, we've always had a great relationship there. Adrian Bott made contact through Bruce Slade, who I am very close with," co-owner Allan Endresz told Racing.com. "What was on the table was every box ticked. No questions, absolutely perfect. The final sealer, which made it really quick to make the decision and not sit and wait, was Gai's tenacity. She's a true blue Alligator Blood, baby." Four-year-old Alligator Blood is currently recovering from a back injury.

City double for Griffiths and De Kock

Mathew De Kock, who arrived in Australia in March and officially joined Robbie Griffiths on the training license last month, celebrated his first Melbourne winner yesterday when La Pietra (Pierro) broke her maiden at the seventh attempt. And the son of champion South African trainer Mike De Kock did not have to wait long for a second victory, with King Magnus (Magnus) landing the 1300-metre handicap later on the card. Having saddled their first runner as a training partnership on October 21, De Kock and Griffiths got off the mark in Melbourne as Dean Yendall gave La Pietra a confident ride, guiding the four-year-old to a half-length success over last-start Cranbourne third Tarantello (Dandino). "We're all over the moon, we're really excited," De Kock told Racing.com. "She's a little quirky at home but I think she's got more ability than a one-time winner. It's a big team effort with her, she's not easy, it takes a lot of staff to get her to the races and she's done a good job today. She's a scopey mare by Pierro and I think this is the bottom range of her distance." Following the victory of King Magnus, De Kock added: "I thought one winner was awesome, now I'm really excited. We were pretty confident, he's done nothing wrong, he was drawn (barrier) one and was always going to get the run of the race."

Strome targeting Wodonga Cup

Melbourne jockeys' premiership leader Jamie Kah will make her first visit to Wodonga tomorrow when she takes the mount on local competitor Strome (Smart Missile) in the $100,000 Wodonga Gold Cup (1590m). Kah, who completed a period of suspension that ended on Monday, will be taking her first ride since when she partners eight-time winner Strome, one of two mounts on the card for home-track trainer David O'Prey. Strome was bought by Reg Ryan and Pinhook Bloodstock's Dave Mee for $50,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast National Broodmare Sale in late July prior to joining her current connections. She won third-up for the yard when taking out a $125,000 Benchmark 84 Handicap (1400m) at Caulfield on October 14 with Kah aboard. "Reg Ryan, my biggest owner, is a breeder and is on the Wodonga committee and he bought her online midway through the year," O'Prey told Racing.com. "Hopefully Jamie can give Strome a good steer and I'm sure she'll be at the pointy end at some stage." Strome will be making her 13th racecourse appearance of 2020 tomorrow having run ninth in the Summoned Stakes (Gr 3, 1500m) at Sandown last time out. "She might have been a little below par last start, but hopefully back on her home track she'll bounce back," O'Prey continued. "It's the hometown Cup, you only get one chance each year and her form has been pretty good all the way through the year. She's done a great job and earned a rest, but hopefully we can get one more out of her. We'll be going to the paddock regardless of the result after Friday."

Capitalist colt wins trial

The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Repeal (Capitalist), purchased by his trainers for $150,000 from the Coomore draft at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, made a big impression when winning an 800-metre Gosford barrier trial yesterday morning. Partnered by Jason Collett, Repeal - from a winning Exceed And Excel (Danhill) sister to Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Earthquake - dashed two and a quarter lengths clear under a tight hold, running a second faster than the winner of the other juvenile heat, Having A Ball (Bull Point). Earlier in the morning, Repeal's stable companion Mount Fuji (Snitzel) - who realised $2.8 million when topping the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale to James Harron Bloodstock in 2019 - was a half-length winner over 1000 metres. The three-year-old has not raced since running ninth, beaten 13.5 lengths, on his debut at Randwick in January.

Payne and Allen cop suspensions

Michelle Payne and Ben Allan both received eight-day suspensions for careless riding in the 1212-metre maiden at Kyneton on Tuesday. Payne permitted her mount Sotirio (Lonhro) to shift out near the 200 metres when not sufficiently clear of Loudspeaker (Sepoy), who was tightened for room between Sotirio and All's Fair (Warhorse) and was subsequently checked. Allen, on Loudspeaker, allowed his mount to shift out near the 300 metres when not sufficiently clear of Breaking Waves (Redoute's Choice), resulting in that filly being tightened outwards towards All's Fair, who lost its rightful running and had to be restrained. Allen's suspension will expire at midnight on December 3, while Payne's ends at midnight, November 30.

Positive signs for Clarke

A positive update has been issued on much-loved Cranbourne trainer Udyta Clarke, who was admitted to the Monash Hospital in the early hours of Tuesday morning with bleeding on the brain. Racing Victoria reported Clarke had opened her eyes several times and has been moved out of the emergency department of the hospital. "It's still a very serious situation but she's such a fighter and once again she's giving it everything she has," Clarke's close friend and colleague Julie Murray said. "We've been so humbled by the generous support from so many in the racing industry and can't thank everyone enough for reaching out."

VRC reveal summer calendar

Rapid Rapid will return in 2021 as the Victoria Racing Club yesterday revealed the summer calendar for Flemington. Rapid Racing, a condensed program of seven races and 30-minute intervals between contests, was introduced this year and will be back on January 29 as one of four twilight meetings held at the track during the month. Flemington will race for the first time since the spring carnival on Saturday, December 12, with a Christmas race-day the following week. Four twilight meetings will be staged on January 1, 9, 16 and 29, while February's four fixtures include the return of Group 1 racing. Black Caviar, The Great Horse Race Day, will feature the Black Caviar Lightning (Gr 1, 1000m) on Saturday, February 13 with the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) set to be run a fortnight later. New VRC chief executive Steve Rosich told Racing.com of the calendar: "The VRC's trial of twilight race meetings last season was a great success and forms the foundation for an outstanding month of twilight racing in January 2021. This move also fits well into the Victorian racing calendar and gives participants greater clarity on twilight race meetings."

All-Star Mile date confirmed as race-free week trial gets green light

Also confirmed yesterday was the date for the third running of the All-Star Mile (1600m), which will be held at Moonee Valley on Saturday, March 13. "With the second running of the All-Star Mile run behind closed doors at the commencement of the pandemic, we are hopeful that next year's running at The Valley on Saturday, 13 March will be a chance for people to gather and enjoy the world's richest mile race trackside," Greg Carpenter, RV's executive general manager racing, told Racing.com. RV yesterday confirmed that a race-free week at the conclusion of the season will be trialled for the next two years. No race meetings or official trials have been programmed in Victoria from Monday, 26 July 2021 to Friday, 30 July 2021. This will be repeated in July 2022. This follows on from no race meetings being scheduled on Christmas Eve in order to give participants a two-day break from racing. Carpenter added: "We are also looking forward to the trial of a week free from racing and official trials at the end of the season. This will give industry participants a well-deserved break and again, we're hopeful that people will be in a position to take advantage of this."

Racing NSW on weather watch

Racing NSW is monitoring the forecast temperatures ahead of Saturday's meeting at Wagga Wagga and Sunday's meeting at Grafton, with highs of 41 degrees celsius forecast for both venues. Should the forecast not change at Wagga Wagga, the race meeting will start earlier, with the final race to be held just after 3pm. Should the forecast remain unchanged at Grafton, the fixture will be transferred to Coffs Harbour, which is forecast to have a maximum temperature of 33 degrees celsius. Should the meeting be forced to switch, the following race distance changes will apply at Coffs Harbour: class 1 and maiden races reduced from 1100 metres to 1000 metres; class 1 and maiden plate reduced from 2200 metres to 2100 metres and the maiden handicap reduced from 1700 metres to 1600 metres.

TAB joins Magic Millions as wagering partner

TAB has become the official wagering partner of Magic Millions on a three-year deal, it was announced yesterday. The move means the Magic Millions Fillies & Mares (1300m) will carry TAB sponsorship when the $1 million contest is run on the Gold Coast in 2021. A pub TAB setting will also be installed in the Magic Millions sales complex, while punters will also be able to enjoy the TAB Greenhouse, featuring betting amenities and bar facilities, at Aquis Park. "This will be a wonderful partnership between TAB and Magic Millions," Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch said. "In particular it is great for the Queensland racing industry. TAB will have a strong presence across the Gold Coast sales and The Star Gold Coast Magic Millions Raceday - and it will build on the existing long-term relationship we have with Sky Racing." Luke Waldren, Tabcorp executive general manager marketing, customer, product added: "The unique combination of both The Star Gold Coast Magic Millions Raceday and Magic Millions sales has created an amazing festival of racing on the Gold Coast that punters right across the country look forward to each year. With this partnership, TAB customers will be able to enjoy the best of racing on the Gold Coast including exclusive on-course activations and offers, while also taking in the incredible experience that is the Magic Millions sales."

'Tough' Key earns shot at Group 3

Temperamental but tough filly Key (Exceed And Excel) will be out to justify favouritism when she steps into black-type company for the first time in today's Wellington Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Otaki. Trained by John Benner and Hollie Wynyard, Key - a $550,000 purchase at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale for owner Gary Harding - landed an Otaki maiden by three lengths on debut before running a gallant second behind Naval Fleet (Declaration Of War) at Awapuni on October 31. "She's very good.

Even though she got beaten the other day, she did an amazing job from the wide draw and it still took a good one to beat her," Benner said. "She's a grumpy filly and she's had her quirks with the barriers but we think we've got that under control now. She's just tough, both physically and mentally. She's a really strong filly and that's coming across in the way she races." Looking ahead to today's assignment, in which Key will face ten rivals under Danielle Johnson, Benner added: "We've had a fair bit of rain down here so we might be racing on a slow track but that shouldn't worry her. She won trials on heavy tracks and she goes on anything. She's just tough."

Deerfield chasing maiden stakes success

Earlier on the Otaki card, the Chrissy Bambry-trained Deerfield (Falkirk) will also go in search of a maiden black-type win in the Levin Stakes (Listed, 1200m), although the veteran sprinter is at a different stage of his career compared to Key. Indeed, the seven-year-old will be making his 21st outing in the $50,000 contest and Bambry is thankful that the rain has fallen at Otaki. "I think he is a good chance and the rain will be an assist. The wetter the better for him," she said. "He just trains on the water treadmill and only goes on the track to gallop, which he does very little of. That is the way we have been able to keep his legs quite fresh and his mind fresh. He lives in the paddock as he hates being in a box." Bambry said Deerfield is due a short break after today's outing before being set for the Telegraph (Gr 1, 1200m). "If he went for a break, it would be a bit of a freshen-up, more than a lengthy break as he gets a bit keen in his paddock after a while and runs around," she added. "The way he has been working, he doesn't look like a tired horse and he was pretty naughty for the physio today, so he is probably feeling pretty well."

Australia likely for Explosively

Talented three-year-old Explosively (Sweynesse) is set to continue his career in Australia having been bought off the back of a three-length debut success at Te Rapa yesterday. Trained by Stephen Ralph, the son of Novara Park Stud stallion Sweynesse (Lonhro) exploded out of the gates for apprentice Tegan Newman and was never headed in the Website Angels 1200. "He did something we thought he would do, but it doesn't always work that way," Ralph said. "Drawing barrier five was ideal and he showed today that he can jump, run, lead, and kick. We would have been very disappointed if he didn't win today." Explosively set tongues wagging when winning a Taupo trial by four lengths on November 25 and Ralph added: "After the Taupo win the phone was going off enquiring about him and they (owner, Luigi Muollo) got a contract from Hong Kong straight away, but he didn't pass the stringent Hong Kong vetting, hence why we raced him today. Straight after today Australian interests have bought a half-share in him, so at this stage if the sale goes through he will be off to Australia. Luigi will retain a half share and in our book he will go a long way over there. He is a horse that can cop a fair bit of pressure, like he did today, and keep going. We would have liked to have had a few starts with him. They are hard to find these ones that can jump and run. It is a bittersweet moment."

Staying future for Samina Bibi

Shaune Ritchie and Colm Murray look to have a staying filly of the future on their hands after Samina Bibi (Reliable Man) ran out an impressive debut winner at Te Rapa yesterday. Ridden by apprentice Wiremu Pinn, Samina Bibi sat three-deep throughout but bounded away from her rivals in the BCD Group 3YO (1400m) to win by two-and-a-quarter lengths. "It was a big win," Ritchie said. "To sit three-wide without cover and win like that was impressive. She is a beautiful staying type and clearly looks an Oaks type." Ritchie knows what it takes to win an Oaks, having saddled the winner of the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) on three occasions with Keep The Peace (Keeper) in 2010, Artistic (Darci Brahma) in 2012 and Jennifer Eccles (Rip Van Winkle) this year. The Cambridge trainer selected the filly on behalf of loyal owners Gary and Lyne Witters for $170,000 at last year's New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run Sale.

Riding fee increase announced

Jockeys will receive a long-awaited pay increase from February 1 with Flat riding fees going up to $160 from the current $145.23 (GST excl). In making the decision New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing considered the fact that riding fees had not been increased since August 2018 and also took into account prior consultation with the NZ Trainers' Association, NZ Thoroughbred Racehorse Owners' Federation, and the NZ Thoroughbred Breeders' Association.

HK: Magical heads star-studded entries

Magical (Galileo) is among a stellar line-up of 45 horses selected for the HK$95 million (approx AUD$16.68m) Hong Kong International Races at Sha Tin on December 13. Aidan O'Brien's superstar mare is one of 17 individual Group 1 winners set to compete on the card where she could be joined by stablemate Order Of Australia (Australia), who has been added to the field for the Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) following his shock win in the Breeders' Cup Mile (Gr 1, 1m). The fields for the four Group 1 features include big-name Japanese contenders: the six-strong squad from Japan includes last year's Hong Kong Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Win Bright (Stay Gold), while Admire Mars (Daiwa Major) is on course to defend his Hong Kong Mile crown. A strong home team is headed by Golden Sixty (Medaglia d'Oro), whose Jockey Club Mile (Gr 2, 1600m) success on Sunday made him only the fourth horse in Hong Kong racing history to win ten consecutive races. Hong Kong's reigning Horse of the Year Exultant (Teofilo) and dual previous Horse of the Year Beauty Generation (Road To Rock) bolster local hopes as they bid for their second and third respective wins in the Vase (Gr 1, 2400m) and the Mile respectively.

HK: Soumillon granted licence to ride

Christophe Soumillon looks set for an extended stay in Hong Kong after the Hong Kong Jockey Club yesterday announced the Belgian had been granted a two-month licence. Soumillon, who is currently in the UAE, is scheduled to arrive in Hong Kong on November 26 and will undertake the mandatory 14 days quarantine due to Covid-19 regulations before being able to ride at meetings between December 13 and February 21 next year.

HK: Badel and Callan complete IJC line-up

Alexis Badel and Neil Callan join Zac Purton, Joao Moreira, Karis Teetan and Vincent Ho as Hong Kong's representatives for the 2020 International Jockeys' Championship at Happy Valley on December 9. Badel and Callan join the line-up as the fifth and sixth-placed eligible riders with the most wins on the Hong Kong jockeys' championship table at the conclusion of last night's Happy Valley meeting, with 17 and 11 wins respectively.

INTERNATIONAL

14 for Stormy River

A breakthrough Listed win for Sky Power (3 g ex Feltzer by Indian Rocket) in the Prix Lyphard (Listed, 1900m) on the Deauville all-weather track yesterday provided Haras de Saint Arnoult resident Stormy River (Verglas) with his 14th individual stakes winner. The gelding, who was winning for the fourth time in 14 starts, came out on top in a blanket finish, edging out Winter Reprise (Intello) and Bugle Major (Mizzen Mast) by a head and the same. Group 1 winner Stormy Rover stood for a fee of €2,200 (approx. AUD$3,565) in 2020.

FRA: Breeding right in Mehmas lures €195,000 bid

Mehmas (Acclamation) continues to be hot property and €195,000 (approx. AUD$315,450) was enough for Haras du Mont-dit-Mont to secure a breeding right in Europe's champion first-season sire at Arqana's online sale on Tuesday evening. The son of Acclamation (Royal Applause) has been the dominant force with his first crop, breaking the European record for individual winners as well as supplying Middle Park Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) scorer Supremacy. Shares or breeding rights in five high-class stallions were offered at the auction, which was live throughout the afternoon. A breeding right to Darley's Golden Horn (Cape Cross) reached €42,000 (approx. AUD$67,950) when selling to Select Bloodstock. The English Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner has stood at Dalham Hall since his retirement from racing in 2015 and is responsible for Group 3 winner West End Girl plus Listed scorers Festive Star and Gold Wand. Breeding rights in Whitsbury Manor Stud's Havana Grey (Havana Gold) and Due Diligence (War Front) went for €19,000 (approx. AUD$30,735) and €6,000 (approx. AUD$9,700) to Blandford Bloodstock and Haras du Mont-dit-Mont respectively. A 1/50th share in European champion Almanzor (Wootton Bassett) reached €240,000 (approx. AUD$388,250) but ultimately did not sell.

UK: Tattersalls releases 2021 dates for breeze-up sales as signs of normality grow

Tattersalls have confirmed 2021 dates for the Craven Breeze-Up, Guineas Breeze-Up and HIT, and the Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Breeze-Up Sales. The Craven Breeze-Up and Guineas Breeze-Up and HIT sales will take place on April 12-14 and April 29-30 respectively, while the Goresbridge auction will be held on May 20-21. However, the company also revealed the Tattersalls Ascot Breeze-Up Sale will not take place next year. Tattersalls chairman Edmond Mahony said: "It will be a huge relief for all concerned to have the Tattersalls breeze-up sales return to their traditional dates after this year's Covid-related disruption. Between the three Tattersalls and Tattersalls Ireland Breeze-Up Sales we will be aiming to accommodate very similar numbers to the total catalogued in 2020, but without staging the Ascot fixture which this year took place alongside the Craven Breeze-Up owing to the calendar changes."

TREVOR MARSHALLSEA'S IN-DEPTH PEDIGREE ANALYSIS

TREVOR MARSHALLSEA | @ANZ_NEWS

Inspirational Girl landed a windfall for favourite backers who crunched her from $3.50 to $2.60 in taking the Railway Stakes at Ascot last Saturday, becoming the first Group 1 winner bred by New Zealand's Jamieson Park stud.

The West Australian mare – yet another from breeder Bob Peters' cerise and white production line – had won eight of her ten previous starts, starting at $2.25 or less each time.

Yet there's a fair dash of the upset in the pedigree behind the bay five-year-old.

Her grey British-bred sire Reliable Man – by Arc de Triomphe winner Dalakhani – emulated his dad in taking the French Derby, in 2011, at odds of 16-1 under Melbourne Cup-winner Gerald Mosse.

Reliable Man later had two runs in Australia. He followed up a debut sixth in the George Ryder Stakes by adding a second Group 1 title with a two-and-a-half length win in Randwick's 2013 Queen Elizabeth Stakes for trainer Chris Waller in a horror show for favourite supporters, the 12-1 pop beating raging $1.28 chance It's A Dundee. In so doing, Reliable Man became the first northern-bred horse to claim Group 1s in both hemispheres in more than 20 years.

Inspirational Girl has continued a strong run for her dual hemisphere sire – now standing in Germany – whose best progeny so far have been in the antipodes.

Reliable Man is also the sire of VRC Oaks and Moonee Valley Cup winner Miami Bound, New Zealand stakes-winners Hypnos and Belle Du Nord, plus Australian black type winner Main Stage, and VRC Derby-placed Sully.

While Reliable Man's siring efforts in the south have so far outstripped his record in the north, the 12-year-old has left stakes winners in Germany, the Czech Republic, Sweden and Denmark.

Inspirational Girl, who reaped the Waikato's Jamieson Park Stud $190,000 at the 2017 New Zealand Bloodstock Premier Yearling Sale, is shaping as the finest product of her dam Be Inspired. The Zabeel mare showed only limited ability on the track, boasting just two third placings from five starts for Sydney trainer John O'Shea in the 2006-07 season, but has performed better as a broodmare.

Her second named foal was the Duporth gelding Ruettiger, who scored a Listed win at Flemington in the All Victorian Sprint Series final (1200m) in 2016, beating no less a galloper than the exceptional Group 1-winning Voodoo Lad into second place.

Little wonder a Hinchinbrook – Be Inspired filly fetched a robust $300,000 at last year's Magic Millions Yearling Sale on the Gold Coast, while another daughter Allez Bien (by O'Reilly) sold for $280,000 at last year's Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale.

Deeper into Inspirational Girl's pedigree, Be Inspired is closely related to two stakes winners also out of the Centaine mare Done That.

Team Hawkes-trained full brother Rainbow Styling won two black type 2000-metre races in 2010 – Randwick's Listed Tatts Cup and Caulfield's Group 3 Naturalism Stakes – the latter bringing another relative upset at 14-1 (two races after the great So You Think had landed the Underwood Stakes).

And half-sister Zingaling (Redoute's Choice) notched two stakes wins for Kris Lees, including the 2011 Group 3 Birthday Card Stakes at Rosehill (when drifting from $9 to $11).

Done That is out of the Mill Reef mare Giladah, daughter of the Luskin Star mare Nouvelle Star. Giladah threw another pair of stakes winners including Star Of Nouvelle, who sprung another upset in taking the Group 2 STC Reisling Slipper Trial at hefty odds in 1993.

All in all, Inspirational Girl is portending big things for Jamieson Park, which snapped up Be Inspired as one of its first broodmare purchases, at the 2012 NZB Broodmare Sale for around the $100,000 mark. She'd already had two foals for her Australian owners, and one of them was the Duporth colt offered as a weanling at the same sale, who turned out to be Ruettiger.

"We liked the fact she was a Zabeel mare," says Jamieson Park's Sam Munro, who manages the stud along with owner James Chapman. "But the Duporth weanling was a very nice type and that sparked our interest as well.

"Plus, Be Inspired was just a beautiful looking mare, and she had a pedigree with a lot of depth and no weak links. Centaine is a good broodmare producer, plus there's Mill Reef there as well through Giladah."

As for the choice of sire in the making of Inspirational Girl, not only was Reliable Man shuttling just down the road from Jamieson Park at Westbury Park, he also had the great Mill Reef in his bloodline, four generations back (Shirley Heights - Darshaan - Dalakhani - Reliable Man).

"Reliable Man was a high class racehorse, and the match-up with Be Inspired tabulated very nicely," Munro says. "You don't see much of having Mill Reef on both sides like that down here. It's obviously worked very well with the record Inspirational Girl has been building up."

Jamieson Park is now hoping history can repeat, with Be Inspired again in foal to Reliable Man. She also has what Munro describes as "a very nice filly" at foot from the first crop of Coolmore's US Navy Flag, via his shuttle to NZ's Valachi Downs.

"She's one of the best foals we've got, so we're hoping for big things there," says Munro, who manages some 35 broodmares at Jamieson.

"Be Inspired is getting on a bit at 18, but she just throws very nice looking foals who present very nicely at the sales.

"We're pretty wrapped to have bred a Group 1 winner. They're pretty hard things to breed! Hopefully there'll be more to come.

2016 Gee Gees Punter (AUS C.g. by Wordsmith). Winner at 1150m in 2019-20 in Aust.

2018 Gee Gees Fifthtest (AUS C.g. by Wordsmith). Raced once.

Analysis: Gee Gee Secondover overcame his difficult outside barrier (11) to record his ninth win in 27 starts - and his first at stakes level - in scoring here. He was ridden patiently in the early stages and settled at the tail of the field before improving on the inner from the 600m. He then got through on the inner, took a gap at the 200m, hit the front shortly afterwards and went on to win well. Favourite Mandela Effect settled midfield between runners and was travelling well before being blocked at the turn. He found a gap at the 200m and came with a late run for second in a good effort under his top weight (59.5kg). Street Tough missed the start and was last early on before settling in sixth place on the rails. He was briefly blocked at the turn, got into clear running at the 200m and then battled on well for third, with O'Lonh Star holding on for fourth after leading the field until into the home straight.
