Surge in bloodstock demand expected to continue at Premier

Victorian buyers are anticipated to underpin successful three-day Inglis sale beginning tomorrow

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

The Victorian marketplace is expected to underpin a vibrant Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale market when the state's major thoroughbred auction gets underway tomorrow, with Victorian owners and trainers predicted to make up for lost time and continue the recent surge in bloodstock demand.

Records have tumbled at Australia's four yearling sales held so far this year and there is no reason to suggest the momentum will not be maintained at Premier, with a significant number of Victorian participants either priced out of the Magic Millions Gold Coast auction or choosing to keep their resources for Melbourne.

Many of the state's trainers, in particular those running boutique to medium-sized stables, also elected to bypass northern sales on the Gold Coast and the Inglis Classic in Sydney due to the uncertainty and complications of travel restrictions.

Rodney Notman, who runs Northmore with his wife Tammy, took confidence out of the 2021 yearling market and believes his draft will find favour with a large cross-section of buyers.

"The sales have all been really strong, which with me pinhooking, I was a little bit hesitant in buying too many horses for this year. As a result, I have got a couple going to (the Magic Millions) June sale. I left them a bit later because we didn't know what's going to happen with Covid," Rodney Notman said.

"But from what I have seen of the sales so far, I am pretty impressed with how people have come and supported (the industry). A lot of trainers are having trouble buying horses. A lot of trainers have gone to the Gold Coast thinking they would get a horse, but it's been hard work getting one.

"I spoke to a couple this morning and they are saying horses are making over what they thought they would be worth, so it is making up for a couple of years ago when it was a bit hard for the studs (at Premier).

"What goes around, comes around. You have your good years and bad years."

A farrier, Notman has plans in place to slowly transition out of shoeing horses. He and Tammy have bought a property near Murchison, in Victoria's thoroughbred heartland, where they will relocate in the near future from Elphinstone, near Kyneton.

"We have purchased a property at Murchison, just north of Nagambie. It is a great little property. It has plenty of water, it has got irrigation on it, so it is going to be really good. It has new barns, new fences, and we will probably do a little bit of agistment as well," he said.

"I am still shoeing horses, but I want to be able to do something else in the future. Prepping horses for other clients and we want to get to know people as it's a great industry.

"I have been a farrier since I was 17 and I'm 48, so I have been doing it a long time, and I am going to have to slow down and have a second (career). Murchison is going to be a great little place. I wish we were there ten years ago."

While Northmore Thoroughbreds is only in its infancy, Sun Stud is preparing to offer its last draft of 14 yearlings at Premier under its own banner, at least for the foreseeable future.

Among Sun's draft is first crop yearlings by Group 2-winning sprinter Thronum (Snitzel).

I AM HEARING STRONG VIBES FROM THE TRAINERS AND AGENTS WHO ARE GOING AROUND THE TRAPS, WHICH IS GREAT TO HEAR ON INSPECTION DAYS, AND I DARE SAY COME SUNDAY THERE'S GOING TO BE A LOT OF BUZZ AROUND - PHIL MARSHALL

"He is from the family of Shamardal and Street Cry, so it is a beautiful female family as well, and ... we're very impressed by what he's thrown," Sun Stud sales and nominations manager Phil Marshall said yesterday.

"He seems to throw a type that is neat, short coupled and very strong. There's quite a lot of Snitzel in the colts that I have seen by him, so I have been rapt with what he's put on the ground so far.

"There aren't many. He's had some well-documented fertility issues unfortunately at stud, which has meant his numbers are a bit lower than what we would have liked, but we've seen with Extreme Choice this year that horses with low numbers can still do the job, so we're not going to accept defeat with him straight away because he is throwing really, really nice types."

SUN STUD

Marshall, whose employer Sun Stud will lease its Riddells Creek property to Widden Stud from April, expects there to be a vibrant atmosphere when selling starts at Oaklands Junction tomorrow.

"It is always hard to predict the sale market before the sale begins, if you look at the success of firstly the Gold Coast Magic Millions and then on to Classic, and even Perth and Tasmania were very, very strong," he said.

"If we can take a page out of that book, there's every likelihood that this will be a strong market as well. I am hearing strong vibes from the trainers and agents who are going around the traps, which is great to hear on inspection days, and I dare say come Sunday there's going to be a lot of buzz around."

Inglis general manager of bloodstock sales and marketing Sebastian Hutch revealed interest in the Premier auction had been building for months as graduates continued to make their mark on the racecourse.

"The opportunities were there for the majority of people to go to earlier sales and, yes, they were very competitive and very strong, but it just feels like a lot of people have become aware of the quality that is on offer at a sale like this and they have strategically targeted it as a consequence," Hutch told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday.

"It is not going to be easy to buy nice horses here and there will be good competition, but with a catalogue of 800 horses, I don't think there's any doubt that we will be reflecting in the days, weeks and months after the sale that there were horses here who were well bought."

The Melbourne sale is often a strong source for Hong Kong buyers, while South Africa has also previously been a player at Premier, and a number of agents with overseas clients have been working the complex compiling shortlists of horses who could eventually end up on a plane.

Hutch reminded buyers that good horses can emerge outside the obvious, as past results have demonstrated.

Sebastian Hutch

"There is always value to be found if you are diligent and do the work and the trainers are the ones who benefit from that," he said.

"They are quite happy to buy the progeny of a sire who isn't quite the sexy stallion or out of a mare who has had a few goes, but she has a nice yearling.

"They are happy to be a bit more forgiving and I think there will be good opportunities in that sphere."

The three-day sale starts at 10am tomorrow.

Blue Diamond winner Artorius joins Newgate's colts armory

Artorius

SPORTPIX

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Newgate Farm has made its third high-stakes stallion play in a matter of weeks, securing Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m)-winning colt Artorius (Flying Artie) to go with duelling Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) favourites Profiteer (Capitalist) and Stay Inside (Extreme Choice).

Newgate's managing director Henry Field last night confirmed the operation had completed the deal for the Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained juvenile, a high-rating winner of last Saturday's Diamond, to continue Newgate's cornering of this season's colts market.

The trio, all by Newgate's first crop sires Flying Artie (Artie Schiller), Capitalist (Written Tycoon) and Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) respectively, are being aimed at the Golden Slipper, which would see the winner's value souring to beyond $30 million.

Many form students put Artorius at the top of the tree as the highest-rated two-year-old to race so far this season after he showed extraordinary closing speed to overrun Ingratiating (Frosted) at Caulfield.

Before that, he displayed his Blue Diamond credentials with an emphatic Sandown victory on January 23 at just his second start.

Field, the first of the stallion players to bid for the colt after he won the Diamond, is in the process of syndicating Artorius between the farm's core clients.

"Artorius dominated a very strong field of two-year-olds, breaking his maiden by four and a half lengths in a hand canter, and he backed that up with a turn of foot that had to be seen to be believed in the Blue Diamond, beating some very good colts,” Field told ANZ Bloodstock News.

“When you combine the fact he's got unbelievable scope to go on as a racehorse, with his pedigree, he is a horse we couldn't leave behind and we pursued him aggressively.”

He added: “The Freedmans are very astute operators and they are very confident the horse is only going to get better as a three-year-old. That is a big part of the appeal.

“He’s a horse who is hard to quantify how far he might get, but he is certainly a very exciting animal.”

Newgate bought into the Mick Price and Mick Kent Jr-trained Profiteer prior to his scintillating Inglis Millennium (RL, 1200m) victory at Randwick earlier this month and then launched at the Michael and Richard Freedman-trained Stay Inside after his Pierro Plate (1100m) victory at Randwick on February 13.

Field and his partners are betting that the two impressive colts can continue their rise through the ranks and, ultimately, win at Group 1 level, but the move for Artorius came after the colt had already claimed a victory at the highest level.

“Five years ago one way or another we ended up getting ownership in the three gun two-year-old colts of the crop and that was Flying Artie, Capitalist and Extreme Choice and all three of those horses are doing a phenomenal job at stud with their first runners,” he said.

Profiteer leads the Slipper betting at $4, Stay Inside is $6 second elect while Artorius is on the third line at $11. A late entry fee will need to be paid for the Melbourne-trained colt to run in the Slipper at Rosehill on March 20.

Artorius, a $120,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale graduate who was sold by Vinery Stud on behalf of breeder Greg Perry, is out of the unraced Redoute’s Choice (Danehill) mare Gracie’s Lass, a half-sister to VRC Darley Sprint Classic (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Delectation (Shamardal). His second dam, Grace And Power (More Than Ready), is a US Listed-winning, Grade 1-placed mare. He was bought by Anthony Freedman Racing with Blue Sky Bloodstock’s Julian Blaxland.

- JULIAN BLAXLAND

Last year, the market gravitated towards other first season stallions, such as Capitalist, as yearlings by Flying Artie were perceived to be going to require more time to mature before racing as two and three-year-olds, which saw the colt passed in on the Gold Coast.

“He was on our third looks, but he came off our list, and he was subsequently passed in. Anthony said, ‘he wasn’t bad, that horse’ so we went back and looked at him,” Blaxland said last night.

“Buying yearlings is often about buying off good farms and Vinery has got an exceptional record selling top-class horses.

“Artorius was bred by Greg Perry and he said he’d stay in for a bit and that made it easier.”

Renowned horse breaker Greg Bennett was the first to take a shine to Artorius early last year during his education at Fenwick Farm in Queensland.

“Artorius, along with all of Anthony’s other horses, came back to our Newington farm and they then went to Greg’s to be broken in,” he said.

“He gives me a bit of a rundown of the yearlings and he picked out Artorius as having a beautiful action and a great nature. That was probably the first indication that Anthony and I got that the horse was one to keep an eye on.

“Breaker reports are one thing, but Greg did make a point of saying this horse was a particularly nice mover and that sort of thing.”

Blaxland also credited Freedman Sr for imparting some of his wisdom on judging yearlings on the Blue Sky Bloodstock principal.

“Artorius was probably just six months away at the sale and Anthony likes to buy horses like that, so I have had to re-educate myself working with him and selecting horses that would suit him,” he said.

“Anthony is quite happy to buy a horse that is not there yet who you can buy better, as opposed to buying the one who looks readymade.

“This is a great example of where that has come off and Artorius looks like a really exciting horse.”

Freedman described Artorius as “an absolute pleasure to train.”

“He is a genuine, tough racehorse, everything you want to see in a future stallion,” Anthony Freedman said.

“His victory in the Blue Diamond was very special and he is a colt that is doing everything as a two-year-old on raw ability. I have no doubt he will only improve as a three-year-old.”

HISTORY IS BEING WRITTEN

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Two for Maurice

Maurice

SHADAI

Maurice (Screen Hero) sired his second Australian winner in style yesterday as impressive debutant Mazu (2 c ex Chatelaine by Flying Spur) led home Conrad (Maurice) in a 1100-metre Canterbury Maiden to earn the former Japanese Horse of the Year a quinella. The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Mazu showed plenty of promise in a Randwick trial last week and backed that up with a commanding front-running performance under Tommy Berry, who guided Mazu to a head win over Conrad. Jai Lei (Sebring) finished one and a quarter lengths back in third, while hot favourite Forbes (Capitalist) failed to finish in the picture. Mazu, a $180,000 Classic Yearling Sale purchase by Triple Crown Syndications, could be put on a path to the Golden Slipper, with the training partnership set to make a plan depending on how Mazu pulls up over the coming days. He is the fourth winner out of Chatelaine (Flying Spur) and is a half-brother to Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Headway (Charge Forward). Maurice, who shuttled to Arrowfield for three seasons between 2017-2019, is the sire of Japanese stakes winner Pixie Night. He stands at Shadai Stallion Station for a fee of 8,000,000 JPY (approx. AU$100,000) in 2021.

Three for Shalaa

Cheerful Legend (2 c ex Jemison by Commands) broke his maiden at the third attempt in the 1200-metre two-year-old handicap at Moonee Valley yesterday to provide Arrowfield shuttler Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) with his third Australian winner. The John Sadler-trained colt cruised to a two-length win over the James Cummings-trained Micro (Medaglia D'Oro), with Treporti (I Am Invincible) another two and a half lengths back in third. Cheerful Legend is a half-brother to dual Hong Kong Group 1 winner Contentment (Hussonet) and is the fourth winner from four runners for Commands (Danehill) mare Jemison. Shalaa, the sire of Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) and Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner Shaquero, is currently standing at Haras de Bouquetot in France for a €15,000 (approx AUD$23,300) stud fee.

Post-Guineas retirement considered for Kirk

The Team Hawkes-trained Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) could be retired following today's Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington, according to co-trainer Wayne Hawkes. The three-year-old colt took out the Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) and Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) in the spring and, if he bounces back to winning form today following a disappointing run in the Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) last week, there is every chance he will be stud-bound. "If he happened to win, there's every chance he could be retired," Hawkes told Racing.com. "I would've been happy if they retired him after Caulfield Guineas, you can't do any more than what you've done. Not many horses win one Group 1, let alone the best one in Melbourne and the best one in Sydney as a three-year-old." On the decision to back him up following last Saturday's eighth-place finish, Hawkes added: "We wouldn't have accepted if he hadn't come through the race well. It's never easy backing up from week to week, so you've got to be spot on and we've got no reason at this stage not to run him,"

Eustace predicting upset in Guineas

Jet Propulsion

SPORTPIX

David Eustace is of the opinion an outsider could land the Australian Guineas and believes his $27 charge Jet Propulsion (Rubick) is overpriced. The colt, a half-brother to Pierata (Pierro), has one win in five starts and ran a promising fourth to Poland (So You Think) in the Autumn Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Caulfield earlier this month and Eustace was delighted with that performance. "I think a lot of horses will show a lot of improvement second up and it's a more even race than what people think," said Eustace, who trains in partnership with Ciaran Maher. "It won't surprise me if there's a good-odds winner in it. I'm not a betting man but I think Jet Propulsion is overpriced. We've always had a good opinion of him but we didn't talk him up much in the spring as he was quite immature. He should finish strongly but might be looking for 2000 metres. We're looking for a good run from him in a very open race."

Speed crucial for Beltoro

Rob Hickmott is hoping there will be plenty of speed in the Australian Guineas to give outside chance Beltoro (Toronado) the best chance of success. "You just can't give away too much of a start in those Group 1 races with the better ones up front," Hickmott told Racing.com. "You only hope they overdo it up front, like the filly in the Blue Diamond - go crazy sectionals and they can't finish off." Beltoro finished fifth in the CS Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) last time out and Hickmott is hoping for a similar run. "He won't disgrace himself, the horse. He could possibly run top-six again, there's no doubt about that. The mile is going to be beneficial and fitness, obviously, he has come on. If Jack (Hill) can give him a good ride and get him into some clear air, I think he will be hitting the line as good as a lot of those horses."

Zou Dancer excites Corstens

The Leon and Troy Corstens stable are confident Zou Dancer (Zoustar) will be up to the Australian Guineas test as she steps up to a mile for the first time. The filly pulverised her opposition in the Vanity Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) a fortnight ago and Troy Corstens believes she is good enough to compete in Group 1 company. "She'll have to take it to a new level here, as it's a much tougher assignment than The Vanity but we believe she deserves a crack at it," Corstens told RSN. "She's a very exciting filly, who we're still learning about, but we think she's up to tomorrow's test. People say that it's the worst guineas, but try winning it. Ole Kirk is an absolute superstar, he's a freak of an animal who is going to bounce back tomorrow on top of the ground and that's without mentioning Aysar and Tagaloa."

Newnham: Every Rose has every chance

Mark Newnham is hoping Light Fingers Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Every Rose (Choirs) can step up to Group 1 company in the Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick today. Newnham has handed apprentice jockey Tom Sherry his first ride in at the top level and he is hopeful of a strong showing from the three-year-old filly, who is aiming for her first win at this trip. "He's earned it, he's riding really well," Newnham told Racing NSW. "Every Rose's first three starts were fantastic and then she didn't have much luck in the Magic Millions. In her two short preps after that she had maturity issues which were't anything significant bar she needed time. This time in she has come up well right from the start. We went there (Randwick) with a fair degree of confidence that she would run top three and she did that and did it well. Obviously the question mark is the 1400 metres, but she'll find herself in front, if she can conserve energy she's every chance to run it out."

Attards dreaming big with Skyline runner

Jason Attard and Lucy Keegan-Attard will be venturing into uncharted territory today when debutant Sir Rastus (Pierro) lines up in the Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick. Adopting the same strategy applied to last year's victor Mamaragan (Wandjina), the husband and wife team are hoping the unexposed Sir Rastus can make a dream debut and upstage his more fancied rivals. "It's obviously a tough race to debut in but he's a real professional and he handled his trials exceptionally well, so we are going to throw him in the deep end and have a crack," said Jason Attard, who added that the colt had progressed well since his last trial at Randwick on February 16. "His work has been nothing short of outstanding this week."

Moroney bullish about Buffalo River

Buffalo River

RACING PHOTOS

Michael Moroney is confident lightly-raced five-year-old gelding Buffalo River (Noble Mission) has progressed enough to be competitive in the Blamey Stakes (Group 2, 1600m) at Flemington today. Buffalo River has placed on four of his last five starts, including a narrow first-up defeat at this track a fortnight ago, and Moroney believes he is in perfect shape to go one better today. "He's come on really well and this the happiest I've ever been with him. He's finally matured and looks to be carrying weight in the right places," Moroney told RSN. "He's now a finished article and it's up to him to prove what he's got."

Fifty connections contemplating Mile

Fifty Stars

RACING PHOTOS

Connections of fellow Blamey Stakes runner Fifty Stars (Sea The Stars) are considering running the six-year-old in three consecutive weeks, with next Saturday's Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) on the cards followed by a potential shot at the All-Star Mile (1600m) on March 13. Fifty Stars was announced earlier this week as the provisional first emergency and he would gain a wildcard entry into the race if he wins today. "We would have to talk to connections but that would mean running him three weeks straight and dropping back to 1600 metres," Ben Hayes, who trains in partnership with Tom Dabernig, told Racing.com. "He has shown nice improvement since his first-up run and the plan will be to back him up in the Australian Cup. He is a stallion so that makes it an interesting scenario as well."

Mass Destruction to prove Jewel credentials

Talented three-year-old Mass Destruction (Spirit Of Boom) is poised to join stablemate Miami Fleiss (Spirit Of Boom) in the $500,000 QTIS Jewel (1200m) next month if he wins first up at the Sunshine Coast today. Mass Destruction will test his credentials in the Jewel 3YO Prelude (1000m) after scoring a comfortable win in a 1000-metre barrier trial at Doomben last week. "If he brings his last trial to the races on Saturday he'll be right in it," Craig Cavanough, foreman for trainer Tony Gollan, said. "His goal is The Jewel at the Gold Coast and this is a nice little stepping stone for him first up over 1000 metres."

Sweet Dolly out to prove she's the real deal

The Kevin Hansen-trained Sweet Dolly (Real Saga) is another out to prove her QTIS Jewel credentials today, as she lines up in the fillies Jewel 2YO Prelude (1000m) at the Sunshine Coast. "She won a barrier trial recently but it wasn't overly strong and I'm expecting her to run a big race," Hansen told Racing Queensland. "She did well during her break and has come back a lot bigger and stronger. My biggest worry is drawing barrier ten but our main danger Glorious Ruby has nine."

Fabergino set for Hoysted

Last-start Black Caviar Lightning (Gr 1, 1000m) fourth Fabergino (Maschino) will bid to retain her Bob Hoysted Handicap (Listed, 1000m) crown at Flemington today. The six-year-old mare is searching for her fourth win down the Flemington straight, with trainer Tiarnna Robertson confident she can repeat last year's performance. "We gave consideration to taking her to Sydney next week, but she loves the Flemington 1000 metres and this was the race she won last year," Robertson told Racing.com. "Hey Doc has compressed the weights, so we get in with 59.5 kilograms and she has won similar races with more than that. She is rock-hard fit, the weather looks on our side and I really can't fault her, the last gallop I saw of her on Tuesday morning was great. I looked for a reason not to back her up in the two weeks, but it just wasn't there."

Jolly pair head for Melbourne

Opposing Fabergino will be the Richard and Chantelle Jolly-trained All Banter (I'm All The Talk), who is one of two runners the training partnership will send to Flemington today, with Alleboom (Spirit Of Boom) contesting the Inglis Dash (1100m). On All Banter's chances, Richard Jolly told Racing SA: "This is obviously a cog harder than what she's raced against previously, but she probably has more upside than a lot of these. She gets in well at the weights and the plan is to try and keep her in these races. I'm sure she'll be thereabouts." Alleboom will be hoping to bounce back from a third-placed effort at Morphettville last start. "I had a feeling going into that run he was vulnerable, I told the owners that, and he copped a bit of pressure up front," Jolly said. "The problem with him being a colt. It's hard to get the weight off him, he's a gross little bugger. It's a hard race, but I think the trip over will do him good."

Written Miss bids to remain unbeaten in Dash

The Caroline Jennings-trained Written Miss (Written Tycoon) will attempt to extend her unbeaten run in the $500,000 Inglis Dash. The three-year-old filly won three times in the spring and returns to Flemington, the scene of her last win, with Jason Benbow once again aboard. "She has had a break between runs but didn't go to the paddock," Benbow told Racing.com. "I don't think she can present any better and one way or another her future will probably be shaped on Saturday. I have been going in nearly every day to ride her as she has her little quirks and we get along well."

Pfiever keen on Rocketing By Rocketing By (So You Think) is another to contest today's Inglis Dash and he will bid for his fourth straight victory after beating a high-class field in the Inglis 3YO Sprint (1200m) at Randwick earlier this month. It is the first time the David Pfiever-trained colt has ventured outside of NSW to race, but the trainer is confident the three-year-old will produce a big performance. "Tripping a horse interstate, they always take good experience from it but I'm really happy with the way he's travelled down," he told Racing.com. "He's eaten well, he's drunk well, he's settled in well, he's worked out on the track here at Flemington and, at the moment, everything seems like we're in good shape."

McEvoy excited by Celestine

The Tony and Calvin McEvoy-trained filly Celestine will begin her preparation today in the Inglis Dash, with the daughter of Nicconi (Bianconi) on trial for some of Sydney's autumn riches. The three-year-old has amassed a record of three wins from five starts and was last seen finishing third behind Written Beauty (Written Tycoon) when charging from the rear in the Red Roses Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) down the Flemington straight. "To be running first-up in a restricted race worth half a million dollars, well, we're really excited heading into Saturday," Calvin McEvoy told Racing.com yesterday. "I'm not really sure where she'll take us this preparation, but her record is good and whether we give her a chance up in Sydney for some of those rich fillies races, I'm just not sure."

Scorched Earth bids for Millions glory

Two-year-old filly Scorched Earth (Nicconi) is still chasing her first career win, but impressed in her first two career starts to date at Ballarat for the Magic Millions 2YO Clockwise Classic (1200m) and when finishing second in the Blue Diamond Prelude (Fillies) (Gr 2, 1100m) last time out. Today, she contests another lucrative prize in the Magic Millions SA 2YO Classic at Murray Bridge. "She ran good in both the clockwise race at Ballarat and then the Prelude," trainer John Moloney said. "That was three weeks ago. She's had no problems since and worked well at home, and by rights she should be better for the run." The filly will be looking to provide jockey Jess Eaton with her biggest win to date. "I knew Jess here in Melbourne and she's ridden for me before, but she's gone ahead in leaps in bounds since going to Adelaide," Moloney said. "She's been in fine form."

Huxtable's Ecumenical returns

Trainer Mick Huxtable was pleased with star filly Ecumenical (Zebedee) as she returned to the trials for the first time since her second behind Yes Baby Yes (Dissident) in the Fillies Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) at Moonee Valley in October with a win at Oakbank. "That was almost the last you saw of her," Huxtable told Racing.com. "We got her home from Melbourne and the very next day I'm not sure what she did, but we found her in her yard with a badly gashed near hind leg joint. Subsequently we are marginally behind the eight ball with her but the plan is to run her first-up at Morphettville in a three-year-old race on Adelaide Cup Day. Ultimately her goal is the Group 1 Australasian Oaks at Morphettville on Saturday May 1."

Flemington to welcome 15,000

Flemington will admit 15,000 people for today's Australian Guineas meeting and next weekend's Super Saturday, featuring the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) and Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m). There will be two zones in place, each catering for 7,500 people. Although the wearing of masks is not required, patrons will need to carry one at all times in the event that social distancing is not possible. Two owners for each runner will be permitted into the mounting yard. Clubs hosting Tier 3 events (mostly country clubs and Sandown mid-week) who were cut back to a maximum of 300 people will return to 1,000 at midnight on Friday.

Mikayla Weir declared Rising Star Series winner

Mikayla Weir has been named Rising Star Series Champion for the 2020/21 racing season. Weir has taken the accolade after accumulating 36 points across the 11-race series, defeating a late charge by Dylan Gibbons, who finished seven points adrift of Weir after winning the latest heat at Scone on February 16. Tyler Schiller finished third on 21 points.

Godolphin trio win two-year-old trials

Sliders

SPORTPIX

Impressive filly Sliders (Street Boss) led a trio of juvenile winners for Godolphin at yesterday's trials at Hawkesbury. The daughter of Street Boss (Street Cry) defeated Hot Dancing (Sizzling) by four and a quarter lengths over the 800-metre trip in heat 14. The filly won the Max Lees Classic (900m) at Newcastle on debut, while she was last seen finishing runner-up on her second start at Rosehill in November. In the following heat the stakes-placed Testimonial (Medaglia D'Oro) defeated $500,000 yearling purchase Turgenev (I Am Invincible) by a length and a half. Heat 16 was won by Exosphere (Lonhro) colt Dark Energy, finishing a quarter of a length ahead of Loubard (Shalaa).

Spriggs injured in barrier trial fall

Jockey Blake Spriggs suffered a likely dislocation to his left shoulder after being dislodged from his mount Pacific Force (Starspangledbanner) prior to Heat 13 of the trials at Hawkesbury yesterday. The rider will return to a specialist on Wednesday for further prognosis.

RV issues further statement on withdrawal of Laming's charge

Racing Victoria has offered an explanation as to why charges against trainer Richard Laming were dropped on Thursday. The charges relate to the alleged race-day drenching of mare Jamaican Rain (Manhattan Rain) before she was due to race at Flemington in November. RV sought to assure the industry that the reason the charges were withdrawn did not 'involve falsified or misleading evidence'. A statement released yesterday said: "The decision to withdraw the charges followed the identification by Racing Victoria of an issue that, in the stewards' view, made continuing the case untenable. Having identified the issues, Racing Victoria immediately commenced a review of the matter and advised the independent Victorian Racing Integrity Board, who will be kept apprised and review its findings." Laming is currently training on a stay of proceedings after earlier this month being suspended for three months by the VRT on a cobalt presentation charge.

NEW ZEALAND

Noble bids for back-to-back Breeders' Stakes

Trainer Lance Noble is hoping his filly Beldarra (Hinchinbrook) can provide him back-to-back wins in today's Matamata Breeders' Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). Noble took the race with Vernazza (More Than Ready) a year ago, but says this filly is better equipped for the sprinting challenge and, despite remaining a maiden after three starts, has Group 1 aspirations for her. "She is completely different to Vernazza, who was a big leggy two-year-old and was always going to get better with maturity. This filly is an out and out sprinting type," Noble said.

"We are happy with her and she has drawn really well (barrier 3) in what looks like a pretty even line up. There are no stars at this stage running. She is going to have her opportunity tomorrow. She has the ability, it is just whether she can rate herself a little bit and not over-race. We will get through tomorrow, which is the main aim, and if we are happy we will look at the Sistema."

Stakes test first-up for Mana Nui

No Nay Never (Scat Daddy) colt Mana Nui is being thrown straight into Group company by trainer Chad Ormsby when he debuts in the Waikato Stud Slipper (Gr 3, 1200m) at Matamata today. Although against more experienced rivals, Ormsby believes his colt is capable of challenging on what's a belated first start, with the trainer seeking softer ground. "It's a bit of the unknown with him, but he has impressed us all the way along with his work," Ormsby said. "I don't think we can have any great expectations against that sort of field, but if he managed to run in the first three we will be really rapt," Ormsby said. "It wouldn't surprise me because I know the horse can gallop and he has got a good draw (1) and a good jockey (Danielle Johnson). The tracks have been a bit firm," he added. "We have had this race in-mind for a little while, but we would have liked to have a run under his belt before, but it is what it is."

Wellwood hot on Western Springs

Co-trainer Robert Wellwood believes his exciting two-year-old Western Springs (Lonhro) can play a prominent role in juvenile features such as the Manawatu Sires' Produce (Gr 1, 1400m) and Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) this autumn. A winner on debut, the son of Lonhro (Octagonal) finished sixth in the Karaka Million (RL, 1200m) on his most recent outing and lines up in today's Waikato Stud Slipper (Gr 3, 1200m) at Matamata. "His Karaka Million run was extremely good," said Wellwood, who trains in partnership with Roger James. "He ran the fastest last 200 metres of the race and he was only going into that at his second start and we hadn't pushed him going in. It was a really good run against the best two-year-olds in the country. He might not be quite sharp enough to be winning this weekend over 1200 metres but as long as he's hitting the line like he did in the Karaka Million, we'll be happy."

ASIA

HK: Charity Fun to test Derby credentials

Regular rider Karis Teetan believes Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m) hopeful Charity Fun (War Command) can further improve his credentials for next month's Classic, with victory in the Class 3 Tai Po Kau Handicap (1800m) at Sha Tin tomorrow. Charity Fun burst onto the scene with a devastating four-length victory over 2200 metres at Happy Valley on February 17. "Last time, the only instruction from the owner (Charity Racing Syndicate) was that 'You have to win by as much as you can,'" said Teetan. "They are trying to get his rating up to go to the Derby and I think if he does get the rating, I think he deserves his chance." Charity Fun will drop back to 1800 metres on Sunday, a move that leaves Teetan unfazed. "(The drop back in trip) should be no problem," he said. "The Sha Tin track should suit him even better because it's a bigger track where he can be more comfortable. It's going to be different because both his runs have been at Happy Valley and he's got an awkward draw to deal with, but I think he's good enough for the race."

INTERNATIONAL

197 for Dubawi

Naval Crown (3 c ex Come Alive by Dansili) looks destined for better things after running out a commanding winner of the Meydan Classic (Listed, 1600m) on Thursday night, providing Darley's super sire Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) with his 197th individual stakes winner in the process. Sent into an immediate lead by Mikael Barzalona, the Charlie Appleby-trained colt never saw another rival as he cruised home under a hands a heels ride, crossing the line a length and three quarters in front of his better fancied stablemate Master Of The Seas (Dubawi). Yurman (Asiatic Boy) was another eight lengths away in third. The winner caught the eye of the northern hemisphere bookmakers who made him a 25-1 chance for Newmarket's 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m). Naval Crown is the first foal out of the Listed winning Dansili (Danehill) mare Come Alive and is from the further family of last year's Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Colette (Hallowed Crown). Dubawi once again stands at Dalham Hall Stud for a fee of £250,000 (approx. AUD$444,300) this year.

Double for Street Cry

The front running Volcanic Sky (6 g ex Short Skirt by Diktat) did just enough under Frankie Dettori to land the Nad Al Sheba Trophy (Gr 3, 2800m) at Meydan and become the 132nd individual stakes winner for the late Street Cry (Machiavellian). Now the winner of four of his 19 starts, Volcanic Sky clung on from the fast finishing Global Heat (Toronado) to score by a short head. Brilliant Light (Sea The Stars) made it a 1-2-3 for Saeed bin Suroor, finishing a length and a quarter behind the winner in third. Volcanic Sky is one of five winners

PREMIER POWER

The Australasian yearling sales series has, thus far, defied the pessimism of the wider global outlook, producing some phenomenal results in each jurisdiction, from Queensland to Western Australia, New Zealand to New South Wales.

And it's the resilience of the respective domestic markets that have fuelled such vibrant trade.

The Inglis Premier Yearling Sale has provided a platform for Victorian breeders to showcase their exceptional stock and, with a competitive nature and in the context of success elsewhere, a show will no doubt be displayed emphasising the strength of Victorian breeding and bloodstock.

Best of luck to both buyers and vendors, in what's set to be an enthralling three days' trade at Oaklands.

out of Epsom Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) third Short Skirt (Diktat), who herself was successful in Group 3 company twice. Street Cry soon moved his tally to 133 when Zainhom (7 g ex Kaseema by Storm Cat) overcame a seemingly disadvantageous draw in stall 14 to strike in the Meydan Challenge (Listed, 1400m). The Shadwell homebred was winning for just the third time in 32 starts.

74 for Sea The Stars

Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) registered his 74th individual stakes winner courtesy of a victory by his son Star Safari (5 g ex Intimhir by Muhtathir) in Meydan's Dubai Millennium Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m). The Charlie Appleby-trained gelding was winning for the fourth time in seven starts as he beat Bedouin's Story (Farhh) by a length and a quarter. Halimi (Teofilo) was a further length back in third. Star Safari is the first foal out of French winner Intimhir (Muhtathir), who herself is out of a winning sister to German Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winners Schiaparelli (Monsun) and Samum (Monsun). Sea The Stars stands at Gilltown Stud in Ireland for a fee of €150,000 (approx. AUD$230,770).

UK: Full fixture list published as prize-money is shored up for May and June

Prize-money values in Britain will return to their pre-coronavirus levels after the Levy Board committed to providing a near 50 per cent higher contribution while racecourse finances continue to be hit by the Covid-19 pandemic. The financial commitment to shore up prize-money levels in May and June, underpinned by increased racecourse contributions, has allowed the BHA to publish a finalised fixture list for 2021 with minimum values restored for all tiers of races. A total of 1,486 fixtures are scheduled for 2021. However, the volume of Flat races in July and August is to be reduced by around 70 to ensure competitive racing, with forecasts of a reduction in the number of two-year-olds in training as a result of the pandemic. BHA chief operating officer Richard Wayman said: "Publishing the full fixture list now will provide greater certainty for the sport and its customers."

VERY SPECIAL KIDS PLATE
(LISTED, 1000M), FLEMINGTON

Impressive last-start debutant Tycoon Humma (Capitalist) will bid to remain unbeaten in the opening race at Flemington today.

The half-sister to Group 3 winner Humma Humma (Denman) made an eye-catching debut at Bendigo a fortnight ago, winning the 1000-metre maiden by a comfortable two and a quarter lengths, and is stepped up in class today by connections who are very familiar with her family.

Tycoon Humma was purchased by Redgum Racing's John McArdle for $240,000 at the 2020 Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, becoming the fourth consecutive foal out of Humma Mumma (Bel Esprit) to be purchased by Redgum from the Flinders Park draft.

Humma Humma, winner of last year's Proud Miss Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m), is the best of the crop so far, but has failed to feature on two starts up the Flemington straight. She will hope to put that right when lining up in the Bob Hoysted Handicap (Listed, 1000m) later on the card.

Humma Mumma has a Zoustar (Northern Meteor) filly set to go through the ring at the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale tomorrow (Lot 87) and she was covered by sprint sensation Blue Point (Shamardal) in November last year.

Tycoon Humma will bid to join Profiteer as stakes winners for exciting first season sire Capitalist (Written Tycoon), who could become the first freshman sire to chalk up two individual stakes winners this season, with Shalaa (Invincible Spirit), Flying Artie (Artie Schiller) and Frosted (Tapit) all currently level with him on one.

Yulong to stand Lucky Vega in Australia

BY ALEX WILTSHIRE | @ANZ_NEWS

Yulong Investments will look to stand their Irish Group 1-winning two-year-old Lucky Vega (Lope De Vega) on the roster at their Nagambie farm in Victoria this year.

Trained by Jessica Harrington in Ireland, Lucky Vega was an impressive winner of the stallion-making Phoenix Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at the Curragh in 2020, winning by a three-and-a-half-length margin from Group 2 winner Aloha Star (Starspangledbanner) and Royal Ascot-winning two-year-old, The Lir Jet (Prince Of Lir).

The son of Lope De Vega (Shamardal) ended his two-year-old campaign by running second in the Middle Park Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at Newmarket, while he also finished an unlucky fifth when penned on the fence in the Vincent O'Brien National Stakes (Gr 1, 7f).

He will join current stallions Grunt (O'Reilly) and Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice) at Yulong, while Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) and Cantala Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Yulong Prince (Gimmethelight) will also be added to their roster this year.

Speaking to ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday Sam Fairgray, chief operating officer for Yulong, said it was an exciting time for the operation, with Lucky Vega being the first son of Lope De Vega to stand in Australia since the Ballylinch Stud stallion ceased shuttle duties after the 2014 season.

"It's not definite as yet, but it's likely that he'll come for this coming breeding season," said Fairgray. "He'll have a couple of runs and then it will depend on how he's going as to whether he comes this season or not, but I'd say it's highly likely that he'll come this season."

"We have Tagaloa racing in the Australian Guineas tomorrow and he'll most likely retire this year and we have another horse, Yulong Prince, who won his Group 1 on Derby day over a mile here, he's a South African-bred horse and will also retire to Yulong this year."

Lucky Vega

RACING POST

“BEING A SON OF LOPE DE VEGA, HE'S HAD A COUPLE OF VERY, VERY GOOD SPRINTERS HERE THE LAST COUPLE OF YEARS IN SANTA ANA LANE AND GYTRASH SO, WITH ALL THE DANEHILL SIRE-LINE MARES HERE IN AUSTRALIA, HE'LL BE VERY POPULAR - SAM FAIRGRAY”

Fairgray said it was unlikely Lucky Vega, a €175,000 (approx. AU$275,000) yearling purchase out of the Goffs Orby Sale, would race in Australia, despite Yulong holding one of the 12 Everest (1200m) slots to be filled for the spring spectacle, worth a staggering $15 million, while adding the operation has been in conversations with several farms on the prospect of Lucky Vega shuttling to the northern hemisphere following his on-track retirement.

"I would say he'd be a reverse shuttler and do dual hemispheres," said Fairgray. "We haven't locked into any farms. There's been interest from a couple of farms to stand him.

"We'll just sort of wait and see what happens in his couple of runs (this year) and then when he retires.

"It's not on the agenda at this stage (to bring him to Australia). Mr Zhang has an Everest slot, but that goes on into the middle of the breeding season. So, timing wise, if he did race on for another year then, yes, it's a possibility. But he's a Group 1-winning two-year-old and the Australian industry loves that sort of horse."

Lucky Vega's sire, Lope De Vega, covered four books of mares, the first two years at $27,500 before having his fee reduced to $22,000, when shuttling to Patinack Farm in Australia between 2011 and 2014, resulting in a plethora of high-class performers on track, including five-time Group 1 winner Santa Ana Lane, dual Group 1 winner Vega Magic and Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) winner Gytrash.

"To not have (Lope De Vega) back, with the success of those horses, it's been disappointing that he hasn't come back. But it's great that we're able to bring one of his better sons down here," said Fairgray.

Lucky Vega

"There's Belardo in New Zealand with his first two-year-olds, and they're going well, but definitely, there's an opportunity here for us to fill the gap of Lope De Vega in Australia. It's exciting.

"I think Australian breeders will definitely recognise his racetrack performance but, also, being a son of Lope De Vega, he's had a couple of very, very good sprinters here the last couple of years in Santa Ana Lane and Gytrash so, with all the Danehill sire-line mares here in Australia, he'll be very popular.

"He's a good looking horse as well which will go down well with the breeders."

Yulong have been long-term supporters of Lope De Vega and, in addition to sending a group of mares to the stallion to be covered on southern hemisphere time last year, purchased Group 1 winner Viddora (I Am Invincible) in foal to the stallion for $2.25 million at last year's Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale.

"We've got three weanlings here by him, and we've also just brought a couple of mares back to Australia who are in foal to him, so we saw the opportunity - the proven, successful stallion that he is - to offer some of his offspring in the market place and it's a good model for us to try.

Sam Fairgray

"Viddora was a very good sprinting mare in Australia and it's great that we were able to purchase her and add her to our broodmare band."

It's a band Yulong have expanded over the last few years, and that is reflected in their offering for the upcoming Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, which features 22 lots to be sold at Oaklands from Sunday.

"It's our biggest draft at Premier. As our broodmare numbers have grown year-on-year, so has our yearling offerings," said Fairgray. "We have about 230 mares on the farm now.

"Taking a group of yearlings into a sale like this - we've got a Fastnet Rock, Written Tycoon, Zoustar of the proven mould and then there's some from the young guns coming through like Shalaa and Capitalist - it's really nice bunch of horses that have all been really well received."

Fairgray was at pains to mention a son of Siyouni (Pivotal) from the family of Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) runner-up Carlton House (Street Cry), which features among the high-quality consignment of yearlings for the Premier sale, an auction Fairgray says Yulong have targeted with some of their better yearling offerings.

"He's a really big, strong sort of colt," Fairgray said of the Siyouni colt out of the stakes-placed Bouquet de Flores (Street Cry), catalogued as Lot 524. "He's been very popular and is really interesting to take into the sales.

"Siyouni has done really well with his couple of runners in Australia, he's had a couple of runners in the Golden Slipper, so he's a colt that I'm sure will attract plenty of attention.

"Because it's our home base we want to support it with some really nice horses. It was definitely the idea that we're taking nice horses to the Melbourne sale and the feedback that we've got on our draft has been really positive.

"You get the flow-on effects from bringing these nice horses into the Victorian sale."

Tagaloa bids to make history

BY JO MCKINNON | @ANZ_NEWS

"Tags is back," chanted co-trainer Natalie Young shortly after Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) crossed the line first in the CS Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington a fortnight ago.

The glint in her eye and huge smile beaming from under her emerald green hat, worn to match Tagaloa's new Yulong racing colours, reflected the love she has for this colt, who she hand-picked at the 2019 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale for $300,000.

“HE’S A PRETTY SPECIAL HORSE, I LOVE HIM TO BITS. HE PROBABLY GETS MORE ATTENTION THAN TRENT HALF THE TIME - NATALIE YOUNG

"I have always had that feeling he would be my Group 1 horse from the first time he walked into our stable or, actually, the first time he walked out of the Arrowfield barn to be honest," said Young.

"He's a pretty special horse, I love him to bits. He probably gets more attention than Trent (my husband) half the time."

Tagaloa is a Samoan word meaning 'supreme ruler', a name Young thought would be perfect for the colt.

"Even though he's Japanese bred, it's a very cool name. I thought he's destined for a Group 1 with a name like that," she said.

Tagaloa lived up to expectations when delivering Trent Bussutin and Natalie Young an elusive Group 1 win in last year's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and today he will aim to become the first horse to win the Blue Diamond-Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) double.

His impressive win in the CS Hayes Stakes will stand him in good stead to write racing history at headquarters and Young is pleased with his condition.

"It's nice to get that pressure off our back and try and get that Group 1 as a three-year-old," said Young. "He's going into it really well."

A big key to Tagaloa's successful return as an autumn three-year-old has been his adoring co-trainer and Young is relishing the added pressure of him being a valuable future prospect for the Yulong stallion roster in Victoria.

"If you are not feeling the pressure you are not doing your job properly, so you need to feel that as a trainer and that's what drives you to try and be the best you can," said Young.

"With him it's all about trying to keep that stud value. It was pretty important he got that good win as a three-year-old and the CS Hayes is a good race for a stallion."

Young has even dusted off the helmet and boots to ride the colt's trackwork this campaign.

"I somehow came out of retirement. I'm not sure how that happened," she said.

"He's amazing to ride. He's very laid back. I was quite surprised because when I first jumped on him, I expected him to be up on the bit and strong, but he comes up under you and gallops and he travels and he doesn't leave it on the track."

Being able to ride him daily and understand him better has enabled Young to make a few crucial gear tweaks that have helped make a difference to his racing performance.

"He lays in a bit so I tweaked the bit and put a cross-over noseband on him," said Young.

"They are minor gear changes but have had a major impact on him. He's got it there but you really have to get it out of him."

“IF YOU ARE NOT FEELING THE PRESSURE YOU ARE NOT DOING YOUR JOB PROPERLY, SO YOU NEED TO FEEL THAT AS A TRAINER AND THAT'S WHAT DRIVES YOU TO TRY AND BE THE BEST YOU CAN - NATALIE YOUNG

As well as juggling her riding and training commitments with the Australian Guineas favourite, Young has been busy inspecting Inglis Melbourne Premier Sale yearlings at Oaklands Junction this week.

She plans on buying up to 50 young horses at this year's round of auctions and is always on the hunt for the next Tagaloa.

"You can't train fresh air so you have to have those horses coming through and that nice stock so you put your hand up, put yourself in debt and worry about it later," said Young.

"We always have a real good look at Lord Kanaloa's crop, but they are out of our price range now. We got him (Tagaloa) for a bargain at Magic Millions. I'd like to get a couple more of them though that's for sure."

It is with great sadness that the VRC acknowledges the passing of Australian Racing Hall of Fame jockey Jim Johnson at the age of 92. A three-time Melbourne Cup winner, Jim was a much-loved figure in Australian racing, firstly as a jockey and later as an ardent ambassador for his beloved sport. Pictured Below >>

BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Father Of Jazz, 11-4 Felix, 7-2 Forest Of Dean, 5 Johnny Drama, 10 Power Of States.

VERDICT With a smaller field than usual this race is likely to prove tactical and that might not suit Johnny Drama or Power Of States. The unknown quantity is Father Of Jazz who steps up in grade having won his first three starts on the AW. We still don't know the limit of his abilities so he has to be respected, though he has shown a tendency to take a hold in the past. Forest Of Dean bids to give John Gosden a third consecutive win in the race and he may only now be back at full fitness, but he needs to find a bit more if he is to reverse form with FELIX from their last two meetings. The latter has proved a revelation since moving to Marco Botti and his narrow defeat of Bangkok at Wolverhampton and his close second behind that rival in the Trial here last time show that he can produce his top form in small fields at this sort of level.
