Sunlight (Zoustar) could prove to be the most desirable and expensive mare to head to a southern hemisphere public auction in more than a decade with the three-time Group 1 winner considered a chance to crack the $3 million mark when the long-awaited Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale starts today.

The headline act among a select group of potential seven-figure race mares who will go through the ring this afternoon, Sunlight (Lot 80) is likely to command interest from some of the world's biggest thoroughbred breeders and, if the key protagonists elect to go head-to-head, it could see her eclipse the $3.4 million achieved by Listen Here (Elusive Quality) at the same sale in 2016.

A new benchmark for Magic Millions could be reached, but whether the competition from domestic and international parties will be strong enough, during the Covid-19 pandemic, to see the former Tony and Calvin McEvoy-trained sprinter reach the $5 million price tag, the southern hemisphere record held by Milanova (Danahill), would appear to be remote.

While Sunlight's appeal is obvious, fellow high-profile race mares who are expected to hit the million-dollar mark are Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Unforgotten (Fastnet Rock) (Lot 92) and Invincibella (I Am Invincible) (Lot 12) who was successful in the 2019 Tattersall's Tiara (Gr 1, 1400m).

"Any other year you'd expect Sunlight to break a record. She's like no other mare we've ever offered before," Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch said on the eve of the company's first public auction since the onset of the pandemic.

"Physically, she's a star and she's done it all on the racetrack and she's also got a great pedigree behind her.

"We're expecting her to sell extremely well, but who knows (how much she will make) as she's going through unreserved, as is Unforgotten and Invincibella."

While the top end of the market is tipped to remain vibrant, the impact of Covid-19 is expected to see the buying bench be cautious and not take unnecessary risks in the current marketplace.

Willow Park Stud's Glenn Burrows has a draft of 38 mares at this week's sale and is hopeful that the market sentiment from recent sales continues on the Gold Coast but concedes that buyers will be selective.

"On the first day of parades the number of individual inspections that we'd had was actually slightly ahead of last year's day-to-day comparison," Burrows said.

Invincibella

"Unfortunately, that was a flash in the pan as we are now down 68 per cent on our parades in comparison to this sale last year.

"We're getting people coming here looking at one, two or three mares and, keeping in mind I've got almost 40 nice mares in the sale, this is a worry.

"Obviously buyers are being extremely specific with their wish list and, as a consequence, I can see a proportion - say the top 20 per cent of the sale - realising towards their worth but then within the larger percentage, there will be incredible buying opportunities with mares being sold at well discounted prices.

"With service fees owing on these mares, people like myself have to meet the market and sell to survive."

Bowditch is optimistic that the market at the National sale will remain resilient despite the understandable decline in foot traffic on the ground.

"You look at the trend worldwide over the past three months. Most of the sales in the north have held up quite well, the sales in Australia have held up well and, more importantly, racing continued in this country, so the wheel's kept turning," he said.

"Until Covid hit, we were on a record year for yearling sales, so the breeders have got plenty of money in their pocket from the sales earlier in the year and hopefully they seize this opportunity by keeping their lists long and bid on plenty of mares over the next three days."

The demand for high-class mares was evident at The Chairman's Sale in May which was topped by dual Group 1 winner In Her Time (Time Thief) who made $2 million while the virtual auction averaged $431,769 (56 lots sold).

Newgate Farm principal Henry Field expects that demand for elite level breeding stock to be maintained on the Gold Coast.

Unforgotten

"The quality bloodstock here and in the northern hemisphere has held up particularly well on the private market and the public market," Field said.

"I expect the market here for the better horses will be robust and I think there will be plenty of competition for the better offerings."

One of those is the dual Australian Group 1-winning mare Viddora (I Am Invincible) who was bought privately from connections in Europe last year and covered by Lope De Vega (Shamardal) to southern hemisphere time.

Field said: "We've been fortunate to consign a number of mares who have sold for north of a million dollars in the last five or six years and every mare we've brought to market at that level has been sold with plenty of competition on them.

"We're a selling farm, so we're here to sell her, but in saying that if by chance the market was very soft then she's a mare you'd have no issue taking home.

"She really reminds me of a mare like Response that Arrowfield and the Yoshida family bought off us a few years ago. She was a top race mare, a multiple Group 1 winner who was beautiful and has gone on to produce (Golden Slipper Stakes winner) Estijaab.

"Viddora's got a Lope De Vega in her belly and I'm sure she'll produce a magnificent foal."

Traditionally the largest breeding stock sale in the southern hemisphere, the Magic Millions National Sale was pushed back from its normal May-June slot in the hope of being able to conduct a live auction.

That was threatened with the second coronavirus wave in Victoria, which led to some participants from that state hitting the road at the start of the month.

An outbreak in western Sydney also forced Bowditch to further delay the National sale by a week to ensure stakeholders who were at the Inglis July sales series could attend.

Baystone Farm's Dean Harvey, who along with agent Sheamus Mills and Rochelle Adams, is one Victorian who made the dash across the border to ensure he made it to the Gold Coast to oversee his draft of 20 mares.

"We've been out of Victoria for nearly a month now. We went up through Scone in NSW for a few weeks and managed to look at a lot of mares up there, which was good, but it's also been a long trip and I'm looking forward to getting the sale under way," said Harvey who described the coming few days as "the great unknown".

Shalwa (O'Reilly), who scored a valuable maiden stakes win in the Helen Coughlan Stakes (Listed, 1350m) at Doomben in May, will be Baystone's sole mare to go through the ring today, before offering a string of mares on the following two days.

"Our first lot through is a really nice stakes-winning O'Reilly mare called Shalwa. She's been a very good racemare and she's been popular with her pedigree, so she should sell really well," he said.

"We've got some other mares with big pedigrees in foal to the right stallions. There's a nice mare by High Chaparral (Highway) in foal to Trapeze Artist and we've got a few in foal to Written Tycoon as well (Nelum, Queen Of The Air and Romantic Era)."

The 147-lot opening session starts at 2pm before two full days of selling tomorrow and Wednesday from 10am.

The National Weanling Sale will be conducted on Thursday and Friday, continuing a hectic week for vendors, agents and buyers alike.

Nine for Super One

Newgate Farm sire Super One (I Am Invincible) added a ninth first crop winner to his tally when One Lotto (2 g ex Potluck by Excites) made a successful debut to take out a maiden 1150 metres at Devonport yesterday. The John Keys-trained gelding scored an easy length and a half win over Weldborough (Mawingo), with Freelancer (Wordsmith) another length away in third. One Lotto was bought by his trainer for $45,000 at the Magic Millions Tasmanian Yearling Sale from the Armidale Stud draft after first being sold for $20,000 at the Inglis Australian Weanling Sale from the Middlebrook Valley Lodge draft. One Lotto is the first winner for Potluck (Excites), a Sydney metropolitan winning grand-daughter of stakes-winner Snapshots (Success Express) from the family of three-time Group 1 winner Sea Siren (Fastnet Rock). Potluck has a weanling filly by Winning Rupert (Written Tycoon) and is in foal to Flying Artie (Artie Schiller). Super One will stand for a fee of $11,000 inc GST in 2020.

Big names to step out at Randwick trials

A host of feature race contenders are scheduled to continue preparations towards their new-season returns at a star-studded set of barrier trials at Randwick tomorrow. In the opening heat of the morning over 850 metres Group 1 winners Con Te Partiro (Scat Daddy), Dreamforce (Fastnet Rock) and Kolding (Ocean Park) are among the entries, along with well-performed gallopers Splintel (Snitzel), Star Of The Seas (Ocean Park), Prague (Redoute's Choice), Hightail (Written Tycoon) and Home Of The Brave (Starspangledbanner). Group 1 winners Kings Will Dream (Casamento) and Probabeel (Savabeel) are among the headline entries for the second heat, also over 850 metres on the Kensington track, while the eight horses entered for the third heat of the morning include dual Group 1 winner Fierce Impact (Deep Impact) and star New Zealand mare Melody Belle (Commands). Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) placegetter Brandenburg (Burgundy) and Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) placegetter Mamaragan (Wandjina) are also among the entries for the third heat.

Handicap return for Cup hope Nonconformist

Grahame Begg is eyeing a 1400-metre handicap at Caulfield on August 29 as the starting point for his Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) hopeful Nonconformist (Rebel Raider). The rising four-year-old was last seen when landing the Alister Clark Stakes (Gr 2, 2040m) at Moonee Valley back in March, making it three wins from his first six starts. "He'll have a jumpout at Sandown on August 5 and he'll have another jumpout on the 18th and then he'll proceed to the Memsie Stakes meeting at Caulfield," Begg told Racing.com. "I doubt I'll run him in the Memsie Stakes first up. There's a 1400-metre open handicap on the same day and I'd say that will be the race that I'll run him in. I think you've got to be at your top to win Group 1s first up and possibly a lot of horses in the Memsie will have had a run under their belt in the P.B. Lawrence. I'd rather go to the softer option because I think it's a fair transition from three-year-old grade going into your four-year-old year."

Cumani eyes early spring with Creedence

Matt Cumani is hopeful he can turn Creedence (Helmet) into a spring performer after the stable newcomer showed his credentials with a strong winter campaign. Creedence has had three starts for Cumani, winning twice at Flemington, and now the trainer is hoping the gelding can be competitive against tougher spring opposition. Creedence turns six on Saturday and connections of the gelding see this year as potentially the final chance at having a shot at the spring. "He's not a spring chicken and the owners are pretty keen to have a go at the spring," Cumani said. "And he seems to have done enough to suggest he might be up to that level. We could look at a race like the Heatherlie or if we don't want to drop him too much in distance there's an open handicap at The Valley in the penultimate weekend in August and then we'll see where he takes us, but I'd love to have him in a race like The Naturalism."

Low key return for Mr Quickie

Trainer Phillip Stokes is likely to kick off Mr Quickie's (Shamus Award) campaign below the top level but he will still nominate the Group 1 winner for some of the big spring features. Mr Quickie had a jump-out at Pakenham last week and Stokes is planning to likely start the gelding in a 1400-metre handicap after he has two more jump-outs in the coming weeks. "We're just going to start him off in a lower rating race just to try to get him back winning again," Stokes said. "He'll obviously be nominated for Caulfield Cups and all that, but he will only go there if his form warrants it. Last time in he started off first-up in the All-Star Mile and wasn't beaten that far, but we're going to just lower the expectations and maybe just start him off in an open handicap this time around and work it out after that. He had a very soft jump-out at Pakenham on Wednesday and he'll have two more of those and we'll have him nice and forward for a 1400-metre race at Caulfield."

Fasika nearing comeback

Joe Pride is planning to give his star sprinter Fasika (So You Think) a trial at Warwick Farm next month in preparation for a racetrack return in September. Pride is eyeing the Sheraco Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Rosehill on September 12 as the likely first target for the Group 1 placegetter. "She has 100 per cent developed and in quite dramatic fashion," Pride said. "I am super excited and if she is ever going to win Group Ones, it is going to be now." The rising five-year-old, who has four wins and four placings from her ten starts to date, finished second in the Sheraco last season behind subsequent Golden Eagle (1500m) third Mizzy (Zoustar).

Millions aim for Anderson pair

Top Brisbane gallopers Ballistic Boy (Smart Missile) and Profit (Dundeel) will bypass the southern spring carnivals to concentrate on the Gold Coast's Magic Millions in January. Both had been in the early betting markets for some of the Group 1 races in Sydney and Melbourne but trainer Chris Anderson opted to stay put after monitoring the pair as they spell at Washpool Lodge. "I suppose the spring was an option but when it boils down to it the Magic Millions is big money and we can give both horses a really good break," he said. "They both had big winters because we had to keep changing the programs for both with the races being swapped about. Ballistic Boy will tackle the Magic Millions Cup while Profit will be aimed at The Wave. Those are races which really suit."

Eaton savours Lightning win

Apprentice Jessica Eaton was delighted to record her first black-type success at Morphettville on Saturday where she impressed onboard emerging filly Parlophone (I Am Invincible) in the Lightning Stakes (Listed, 1050m) for former boss Mick Price and training partner Michael Kent Jr. "It was quite a thrill, very happy, she's pretty special," Eaton told RSN 927 yesterday. "To be able to ride her was massive and she's obviously a classy animal that's got a lot of improvement yet to come." Eaton is on a three-month loan to trainer Michael Hickmott as she embarks on the final year of her apprenticeship and the 26-year-old will have to decide if she will extend her loan beyond that or return to Victoria. "I'm pretty happy with how things are going, obviously with Covid and racing in Victoria things are pretty tough, so I see myself staying in South Australia for a while and ironing out the rest of my apprenticeship here, and doing the most I can to get as much success and experience."

Adkins undergoes surgery

Following a heavy fall in the opening race at Rosehill on Saturday, jockey Andrew Adkins has undergone surgery at Westmead Hospital where the procedures have been described as successful. Adkins fell from the ill-fated Danny Williams-trained two-year-old Hot 'N' Hazy (Snitzel) and Racing NSW's Dr Duckworth yesterday reported that the rider had a rod placed in his tibia and a plate in his clavicle. Adkins also had a drain out of his chest after his lung collapsed due to fractured ribs sustained in the fall. He will now be placed in a high dependency ward for close monitoring. Hugh Bowman, who rode the winner Smart Image (Smart Missile), was questioned by stewards after the race with the inquiry adjourned to allow Adkins to give evidence.

Bakos banned for painkiller use

Queensland apprentice Anna Bakos is the latest jockey to be suspended after taking a prescribed painkiller. A random test taken after Bakos rode trackwork at Deagon on June 15 revealed traces of morphine and codeine. Bakos told stewards she had taken Panadeine Forte after undergoing dental surgery. At least five Queensland jockeys or trackwork riders have recently tested positive after taking medication for pain relief. Bakos, who has been in good form on provincial tracks since relocating from NSW earlier this year, was banned for two weeks, a timeframe which expires tomorrow.

Tokyo City Cup date change

Thoroughbred Racing South Australia (TRSA) announced last week that they have changed the dates of three Listed races in order to enhance the SA feature race programme. The Tokyo City Cup (Listed, 1800m), a set weights and penalties race, has been moved from its traditional mid-to-late September date to Saturday, October 31. "It's currently programmed just three days after the Balaklava Cup, which is a 1600-metre race," said TRSA handicapper Rhett Cook. "The shift to this date makes the Tokyo City Cup two weeks after the Murray Bridge Cup, which is also a mile race, and allows a proper gap and progression for South Australian horses." Meanwhile, the three-year-old Morphetville Guineas (Listed, 1600m) has been shifted from September to Monday, March 8. The move delivers a feature three-year-old race on Adelaide Cup Day. Additionally, the weight-for-age Durbridge Stakes (Listed, 1100m) has undergone two major changes; it has been moved from October to January 30 and its distance has been reduced from 1200 metres to 1100 metres. "This move will allow horses looking at targeting Melbourne autumn features an ideal start point in South Australia," Cook added.

NSW meetings lost

The two meetings scheduled in NSW yesterday were postponed without a race being run because of wet weather sweeping the coastal regions. The Coffs Harbour meeting was called off before scratching time due to surface water being on the track, while the Sapphire Coast meeting was called off before midday after rain hit the area and left the track being unsafe for racing. Today's Cessnock meeting is also in doubt, with stewards to conduct an inspection at 6am (AEST) to determine whether the track is safe for racing. It was rated a Heavy 10 yesterday.

NEW ZEALAND

Travelling Light heading to Ruakaka

Travelling Light

TRISH DUNELL

Trainer Ben Foote is delighted with Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Travelling Light (El Roca) as she works towards returning to the track in early September. The three-year-old will head to Ruakaka next week and the plan is to run at the trials meeting on August 4 to get her fit for her spring campaign, which could start with the US Navy Flag Foxbridge Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) at Te Rapa on September 5. "I'm taking her to Ruakaka on Wednesday and she will stay up there for the week," Foote said. "She can trial up there on the 4th which is part of her preparation. She is 27 kilograms heavier than when she last raced so she has matured nicely over the break we gave her. She is pretty forward and very well at present as the Cambridge Jockey Club has let the Group 1 horses do their slow work on the grass this year which has really helped. We've got four races earmarked for her in the spring, kicking off with the Foxbridge at Te Rapa, then the Group 1s on the first two days at Hastings, and hopefully the Golden Eagle in Sydney if we can get there."

Emotional win for Letz'av Bubbles' connections

When three-year-old Letz'av Bubbles (Showcasing) broke her maiden at the third start at Avondale on Saturday it was an emotional victory for her owners, the Shirl's Girls syndicate. The group was put together by Karyn Vincent, administration manager at Rich Hill Stud, and is in honour of her mother, Shirley, who passed away just over two years ago. The syndicate comprises of friends and family of Shirley, who bred the filly with her husband Murray, son Craig and friends Karen and Kevin Fursdon. "I think there are about twenty people all up in the horse, once you add in the partners of the official shareholders," Vincent said. "It's a group of family and Mum's close friends who are in the horse including several first-time owners. Seven or eight made the trip to Avondale and made their presence felt as there was plenty of noise when she looked like she was going to win. We didn't all get to celebrate together as people had their own commitments, but by the look of the pictures I've seen this morning, there were plenty of glasses of bubbles raised to toast the victory."

Ataahua Dreamtime helps Ridley to double

Promising three-year-old Ataahua Dreamtime (Tavistock) kicked off a double for local trainer Neill Ridley at Riccarton Park on Saturday when breaking her maiden over 1100 metres at her second start. "She has got a fair bit of ability," Ridley said. "She was ready to go before the Covid-19 lockdown occurred and I thought we might have picked up a fillies' race on the way through but she has got her win now. She's done enough for the time being and will go out in the paddock for a couple of months as she still has some filling out to do. The heavy tracks don't really suit her so it is a good time to have a break. I know the phones have been ringing but her owner is not keen to sell which suits me." Ridley then doubled up when Athene (Raise The Flag) took out the last race of the day. "She had gone a good race first up over 1000 metres in far stronger company so I thought she was a good chance," he added. "She keeps improving so with some more time on her side I think she can win a couple more."

Hannam suffers broken leg

Popular central districts jockey Robert Hannam faces another extended stint on the sidelines after breaking his femur during track work last week. This comes less than three years after he was out of action for eight months due to an ankle injury. "I was just on my way back off the track after riding trackwork, it was quite early on Thursday morning, and it was quite a windy morning," Hannam said. "The horse just got a bit of a fright and ended up kicking me and breaking my femur. It's been a bit of a bad run over the last few years. I had my ankle break when I was riding in India a couple of years ago, and I'd actually only just had my screws and rods taken out from that over the last few weeks. Just when I thought I was getting back to normal, this happens." The 54-year-old, who has 25 wins for the season, hopes to be back in the saddle towards the end of this year. "The doctors said I'm looking at a minimum of six to eight weeks' recovery time," he continued. "Things are still a little bit up in the air at the moment and we'll have to wait and see, but I'm picking that I'll be absolutely itching to get back into it by the end of that time."

INTERNATIONAL

More Group 1 glory for Barney Roy

Barney Roy (Excelebration) registered his third Group 1 victory and his second since returning from an unsuccessful stint at stud when scoring as favourite in the Grosser Dallmayr-Preis - Bayerisches Zuchtrennen (Gr 1, 2000m) in Munich yesterday. The Charlie Appleby-trained six-year-old did just enough to hold off the challenge of Quest The Moon (Sea The Moon) by a neck, with Patrick Sarsfield (Australia) a further length and a quarter away in third. Formerly trained by Richard Hannon, Barney Roy now has seven wins from 14 starts, including six successes in stakes company.

First for Coulsty

Coulsty

RATHASKER STUD

Rathasker Stud's first season sire Coulsty (Kodiac) recorded his first stakes winner yesterday when Santosha (2 f ex Princess Zoffany by Zoffany) kept on well to bag the Princess Margaret Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at Ascot. The David Loughnane-trained juvenile won on debut last month at Lingfield before running third last time in the Duchess Of Cambridge Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) at Newmarket on soft ground. Returning to a better surface, she got the better of Hala Hala Hala (Exceed And Excel) by three-quarters of a length, while Caroline Dale (Lethal Force) was the same distance back in third. The favourite More Beautiful (War Front) returned sixth of the seven runners. Santosha is one of four winners from eight runners for the Group-winning sprinter Coulsty, who stands at Rathasker Stud in Ireland where his fee for 2020 was €4,000.

Three for Gregorian

Plainchant (2 f ex Nadinska by Doyen) became third stakes winner for fellow Rathasker Stud resident Gregorian (Clodovil) when taking out the Criterium du Bequet (Listed, 1200m) at Le Teste de Buch yesterday. A winner over course and distance on her second start last month, Plainchant got the better of the favourite Stardevote (Starspangledbanner) by a length and a quarter yesterday while the pair were three lengths clear of Tea Dance (Adaay). Gregorian started his career at the National Stud in England however relocated back to his breeders' Rathasker Stud in 2019 and his fee for this year was €6,000.

20 for Nathaniel

A surprise victory for Lady Bowthorpe (4 f ex Maglietta Fina by Verglas) in yesterday's Valiant Fillies' Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) capped a memorable weekend for Nathaniel (Galileo) at Ascot. A day after Enable's historic third win in the King George and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f), the four-year-old registered a milestone success, with the four and three-quarter length win providing the Newsells Park Stud resident with his 20th individual stakes winner. The William Jarvis-trained mare belied her starting price of 12-1 as she came home readily clear of 25-1 chance Farheen (Farhh). Look Around (Kingman) was another head away in third at 11-1. A half-sister to recent Group 2 winner Speak In Colours (Excelebration), Lady Bowthorpe is the second foal out of the winning Verglas (Highest Honor) mare Maglietta Fina, who herself is a half-sister to the dual Group 2 winner Tullius (Le Vie Dei Colori). Nathaniel stood for a fee of £25,000 in 2020.

Franconia triumphs again

The regally-bred Franconia (Frankel) completed back-to-back wins since stepping up to stakes company with a comfortable success in the Lyric Fillies' Stakes (Listed, 1m2¼f) at York yesterday. Representing the King George-winning combination of Juddmonte Farms, John Gosden and Frankie Dettori, the three-year-old filly had no problems obliging as 1-3 favourite, beating Gold Wand (Golden Horn) by three-quarters of a length, with Bighearted (Farhh) another four and a quarter lengths away in third. Franconia (3 f ex Winter Sunrise by Pivotal) is a half-sister to Group 1 winner Winsili (Dansili).

Three for Violence

Medaglia d'Oro's (El Prado) son Violence sired his third individual elite level winner when Volatile (4 c ex Melody Lady by Unbridled's Song) made all the running to take out the Alfred G Vanderbilt Handicap (Gr 1, 6f) at Saratoga on Saturday night. Now the winner of five races from six starts and with a 100 per cent record this year, the Steve Asmussen-trained four-year-old beat Whitmore (Pleasantly Perfect) by a length and a quarter, with Mind Control (Stay Perfect) another half a length away in third. Volatile, a US$850,000 purchase by Kerri Radcliffe Bloodstock and Three Chimneys Farm from the Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency consignment at the 2017 Keeneland September Yearling Sale, is the second stakes winner from the stakes-winning Unbridled's Song (Unbridled) mare Melody Lady. Her first, Buy Sell Hold, a full sister to Volatile, won the Kentucky Juvenile Stakes (Listed, 5f) at Churchill Downs for Asmussen in May 2017. Violence stands at Hill 'n' Dale Farms for US$25,000.

112 for Speightstown

Speightstown

WINSTAR FARM

Speightstown (Gone West) sired his 112th individual stakes winner when Shirl's Speight (3 c ex Perfect Shirl by Perfect Soul) took his unbeaten record to two with victory in the Marine Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Woodbine on Saturday. The Roger Attfield-trained three-year-old beat Lucky Curlin (Curlin) by two and three-quarter lengths with Dotted Line (Signature Red) another length and a half away in third. Bred in Kentucky, Shirl's Speight is out of Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf (Gr 1, 11f) heroine Perfect Shirl. His four-year-old brother, Perfect Speighty, is a winner, and he has a two-year-old unraced sister named Speightstown Shirl. Multiple Grade 1-winning sire Speightstown stands at WinStar Farm for US$70,000.

Maximum Security makes winning debut for Baffert

Maximum Security (New Year's Day) made his first start for Bob Baffert a winning one when running out a gritty winner of the San Diego Handicap (Gr 2, 8.5f) at Del Mar on Saturday. Having switched from trainer Jason Servis, who is facing charges for doping, the four-year-old collared the front-running Midcourt (Midnight Lute) at the line to win by a nose, with a gap of six and a quarter lengths back to Higher Power (Medaglia d'Oro) in third. Maximum Security was landing his ninth success from 11 starts, although his victory in the Saudi Cup (1m 1f) in February is under investigation following Servis' indictment.

Starship keeps winning run going

Canada's Horse of the Year Starship Jubilee (Indy Wood) made it four wins from as many starts in 2020 when just getting the better of Call Me Love (Sea The Stars) in the Ballston Spa Stakes (Gr 2, 8.5f) at Saratoga on Saturday night. The Keven Atard-trained seven-year-old scored by a neck, with favourite Sistercharlie (Myboycharlie) another length and a quarter away in third. Starship Jubilee has now won 18 of her 36 starts, with 11 of those successes coming in stakes company.

Stradivarius faces six in Goodwood Cup

Europe's star stayer Stradivarius (Sea The Stars) will face six rivals when he attempts to become the first ever four-time winner of tomorrow's Goodwood Cup (Gr 1, 2m). A ten-length winner of the Ascot Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2m 4f) last time out, Stradivarius looks to face his toughest test for some time with the John Gosden-trained six-year-old having to concede 15lb to Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Santiago (Authorized).

Justify faces possible Santa Anita Derby disqualification

US Triple Crown winner Justify (Scat Daddy) faces potential disqualification from the 2018 Santa Anita Derby (Gr 1, 9f) after a settlement agreement was broadly reached between the California Horse Racing Board and Mick Ruis, who saddled Bolt D'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) to finish second. Ruis filed a lawsuit against the CHRB earlier this year after Justify was revealed to have tested positive for the banned substance scopolamine. The test result was uncovered by the New York Times last year, with officials at the CHRB taking no action against Justify despite California having a rule at the time which stated horses testing positive for such a substance must be disqualified. The CHRB contended that it conducted an investigation into the positive test and determined that the horse accidentally ingested scopolamine, which can be found in the plant jimson weed, as part of its feed and dismissed the case. However, on Friday, Ruis's attorney Darrell Vienna said in a press release that the CHRB approved the outlines of the settlement agreement at a recent closed session and a disqualification hearing would take place.

Vale Jon Kelly

Jon Kelly

SPORTPIX

Jon S. Kelly, the successful US businessman who maintained thoroughbred interests around the world, died on Saturday at the age of 84. An owner since the 1960s, Kelly raced horses in his native USA as well as in England and Ireland, in addition to a number of horses in the care of Gai Waterhouse. A prolific buyer at the top end of the market at Magic Millions, Kelly, in association with Reg Inglis and Paul Frampton, signed for a $2 million son of I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) at the 2018 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Cayenne Pepper (Australia) who carries the colours of Kelly's wife Sarah, finished second behind Even So (Camelot) in last week's Irish Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f). Kelly is survived by his wife and six children.

COOLMORE

It's super six for Magical as she breezes to victory in the Tattersalls Gold Cup

BY RICHARD FORRISTAL - RACING POST

A Group 1 that should have been run two months earlier, a mare who was supposed to be in the breeding shed, an absent trainer and a jockey making the most of another Covid-19-inspired opportunity.

The 2020 Tattersalls Gold Cup (Gr 1, 1m 2f) was unconventional in many respects, although not in its outcome. Magical (Galileo) was sent off a red-hot 2-9 favourite to secure back-to-back wins in the mile-and-a-quarter Curragh contest, and she did not disappoint.

She might not have been as flamboyant as she had been on her Pretty Polly Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) reappearance, or when running out a seven-length winner of this race in 2019, but she was utterly professional.

With the coronavirus quarantine restrictions keeping Ryan Moore at Ascot and Seamie Heffernan suspended, who did the steering over course and distance 28 days earlier, it fell to Wayne Lordan to ensure the brilliant five-year-old's latest assignment went to plan.

Lordan, riding Magical for just the second time, was not going to be a hostage to fortune. He promptly went about setting the fractions to suit himself, with Buckhurst (Australia) and Leo De Fury (Australia) tracking him.

As they swung into the straight with less than half a mile to run, Lordan gradually began to wind up his mount. While Magical did not conjure anything particularly spectacular, the chasing duo could not live with her when Lordan gave her a couple of flicks a furlong out.

Aidan O'Brien's daughter of Galileo (Sadler's Wells) scored by two and a quarter lengths as Sir Dragonet (Camelot) and Search For A Song (Galileo), who sat together in the rear early on, came through to pick up the pieces in second and third, with Armory (Galileo) keeping on for fourth.

In a season being lit up by Magical, her

Magical

RACING POST (PATRICK MCCANN)

nemesis Enable (Nathaniel) and stable-mate Love (Galileo), the Curragh's decision to have Cyndi Lauper's Girls Just Want to Have Fun as the soundtrack for her walk back in was apt. As another of racing's marquee events took place without a paying customer in sight, that at least made for a fleeting, if contrived, relief from the sterility of sporting life as we now know it.

"She is a great mare," said O'Brien on the phone subsequently, missing out here due to a two-week suspension following his Covid-19 breach on the night of the Irish 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m).

"The only reason she is here now is because of the progress she made over the winter and she had progressed again from the Pretty Polly, so we are delighted the lads kept her in training."

This was O'Brien's ninth win in the race and Magical's sixth at the highest level. With Love being aimed at a Knavesmire showdown with Enable in the Yorkshire Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) the Juddmonte International Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) could be next for yesterday's dominant heroine, although she could wait for the Irish Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f), which she also won in 2019.

"She might get a little bit of an easy time of it now, but the options would be the Juddmonte International and the Irish Champion Stakes. She could wait for the Irish Champion, but we'll see."

O'Brien suggested the same ten-furlong Group 1s will be considered for Sir Dragonet, who turned the tables on his Alleged Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 2f) conqueror Buckhurst in finishing second for a fourth time in succession.

Lordan previously rode Magical in the 2018 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1 1m 4f), in which she could yet cross swords with Enable once more. Paddy Power were among the bookmakers to leave her unchanged at 14-1 for the autumn Longchamp feature, although Unibet opted to trim her to 12-1 from 16.

"It's a treat to get a ride on a filly like her," Lordan beamed.

Of the less emphatic style of victory compared to her Pretty Polly rout, he added: "She zinged along in front last time. Today she was a little bit more relaxed, and I'd say that was the only difference. I felt if anyone was going to get to me, it was going to help me. From the minute you sit on her until you get off her, she feels like she has a presence. She is a high-quality filly."

ROTHWELL PARK THOROUGHBREDS

Derby beckons after big-hearted victory from Churchill

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

Churchill (Smart Missile) gave his Singapore Derby (Listed, 1800m) aspirations no harm with a display of outstanding resilience in yesterday's $70,000 Class 3 Division 1 race over 1200 metres.

That second Kranji win was highly reminiscent of his maiden win in a Class 4 event over 1400 metres second-up on February 28. That night, from a wide alley as well, he had to press on for most of the back straight under jockey Vlad Duric before finding the lead and going on to score.

If that win was all guts and glory, multiply that factor by at least five for yesterday's win. With replacement jockey Ryan Munger up, the strapping galloper was caught five to six deep for almost two thirds of the speed dash.

With well-fancied rivals like Surge (Exceed And Excel), Hugo (Smart Missile) and Filibuster (Ilovethiscity) on his inside, most thought Churchill would show the white flag upon straightening, but that was underestimating Ricardo Le Grange's bulldog.

It soon became evident that Churchill had actually only been humming along despite his scenic route on the outskirts. Once Munger popped the question, the game galloper went through his gears, actually skipping clear by two lengths when he was entitled to get the staggers.

Those who had run along on his inside were the ones who were running on fumes instead, while the swoopers could not pull much ground off him either. In the end it was the fast-finishing Beau Geste (Street Cry) who won the fight for the minors one and a half-length away, a head clear of Chocante (Fastnet Rock).

The run of the race has to be Absolvido (Rip Van Winkle) who after tailing off badly, stormed home to just miss fourth place by a nose to Ironside (Jimmy Choux). The winning time was 1min 11.97secs for the 1200 metres on the Polytrack.

Churchill

SINGAPORE TURF CLUB

With that second success, Churchill, a former Sydney one-time winner when known as Front Sight and prepared by Newcastle trainer Kris Lees, has bulged his win account past the $75,000 mark for The Racing Club headed by iRace boss Steve Levar.

After such an odds-defying run, connections would have every reason to harbour loftier dreams for the Smart Missile four-year-old, namely the Singapore Derby on September 6. It was a feature race he had been aimed at anyway before Covid-19, and now that it is open to five-year-olds and will be staged on September 6, he is still eligible.

"It was a big, big win. He's a big horse who was drawn out and Ryan used his stride to go forward," said Le Grange who was capping a great day with a treble after Sweet Angeline (Rubick) and Gold Prize (Orpen) scored earlier.

"Unfortunately, the horses kicked up on his inside and Ryan didn't want to break his momentum. That horse has both class and courage.

"I'll have a chat with Steve but the Derby would definitely be a race to look at for him."

Le Grange dedicated that hat-trick of wins to his father Jack who is currently recovering from surgery.

"I'd like to spare a special thought to my Dad, who had surgery in the US yesterday. This one is for you Dad, and here's to wishing you a speedy recovery."

Promising filly Sweet Angeline's (Rubick) fighting spirit again came to the fore as she posted a second win.

At her Kranji debut on April 3, in what was to become the last race of the pre-Circuit Breaker three-month suspension, the three-year-old beat all comers by doing it the hard way, pressing on from a wide course before digging down deep in the home straight for a tenacious win.

She again had no luck at the barriers when resuming in yesterday's $50,000 Class 4 Division 2 race over 1200 metres, having drawn 10 from 11, not to mention she had to contend with the steadier of 58 kilograms this time.

But, with champion jockey Vlad Duric staying on her back, she used her natural speed to again take up a forward position, albeit unable to cross with main rival Knight Love (Shanghai Bobby) kicking up on the rails from a better gate.

Legend Rocks (Mahisara) in the end rolled forward to show the way for the two main protagonists, but Duric was again on the front foot when he was the first to heel his mount along at the top of the straight.

Sweet Angeline immediately shot to the front. The favourite Knight Love was caught a little on the backfoot on the inside running rails but clawing his way back, while Delaware (Shooting To Win) was making inroads on the outside with a stinging challenge, shaping up as the one who could upstage the two top picks.

But absorbing the pressure from either side with aplomb, Sweet Angeline ($13) fought back tooth and nail to go and hold a one-length margin on Knight Love. Michael Clements' US-bred debut winner lost no admirers with his gallant effort, just nosing Delaware out for second place. The winning time was just a tick under 1min 12secs.

Sweet Angeline, who raced as Chia for a record of one win in six starts in New South Wales, has now established a two-from-two record in Singapore for around $55,000 in stakes earnings for the TRC Stable.

"It was a tough courageous win from Sweet Angeline. It's great training horses like her," said Le Grange.

"It's so good to see her win the way she did. The biggest thing about her is she wants to win.

"She's now won two tough races. They never left her alone, she gave them so much weight, but she kicked again."

Le Grange went on to saddle a second winner when Gold Prize made all in the $20,000 maiden race over 1200 metres.

The Argentinian-bred four-year-old was opening his account at his fifth start after overcoming some adversity early in his career at Kranji.

"It's great this horse won. A massive thanks to the Gold & Chelsea Stable, the Yong's," said Le Grange.

"He had a tendon injury after the first start and the owners have been very patient.

"Today the plan was to ride him positive and Ryan ended up in front and it worked out well in the end."

Flying start for Heartening Flyer

Heartening Flyer

SINGAPORE TURF CLUB

Heartening Flyer (Excelebration) lived up to his name when he got off to a flier with trainer Michael Clements predicting bigger and better things for the colt post-race.

After two barrier trial wins put the writing on the wall, the three-year-old certainly franked that impression from the way he was coasting in a handy spot in the $75,000 restricted maiden Division 1 race over 1200 metres.

Once he swept past the weakening leader Lady Fast (Ferlax), he looked a moral, but Brutus (Rubick) would not give him peace inside the concluding stages.

The $8 hotpot looked on the ropes as his lead was whittled down, but under Louis-Philippe Beuzelin's deft handling, he raised another gear to hold Brutus at bay by a neck. The Shadow (Dissident) took third place another four and a half lengths away.

Heartening Flyer ran the 1200 metres on Polytrack in 1min 11.84secs and was bringing up around $40,000 in prize-money for the Tivic Stable, better known for their top sprinter Bold Thruster (Turffontein) who also races with Clements.

Pleased with what he saw, Clements has already locked away Heartening Flyer's next outing.

"It was nice game win, 1200 metres first-up is never easy for a young horse," said the Zimbabwean-born conditioner.

"I was really pleased with how he travelled, and up the straight, he kicked nicely. He was probably lacking in experience when he looked a bit lost once he hit the front, but when the other horse came up, he quickened up again. I have found a novice race over 1200 metres on turf for him on August 16.

"He's a long-striding horse and in my opinion, such horses are more comfortable on grass."

Interestingly, that win saw Beuzelin leapfrog over Ruan Maia to take second place in the Singapore jockeys' premiership. The pair were tied on 17 winners before the race.

Maia had a chance to hold his spot when Brutus came with a rush at the 150 metres, but despite his efforts, the Brazilian could not overhaul his French counterpart.
