Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale set to close with a bang

Strong day two trade as Quilista heads to Cressfield with $1 million price tag

Lot 978: Quilista

MAGIC MILLIONS

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Barry Bowditch is predicting a big finish to the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale after a relative calm came over the Gold Coast auction ring yesterday in a strong but steady session in which one mare hit seven figures, the 19th of the sale.

The race fillies and mares session on Tuesday, bolstered by the unreserved dispersal of the Shadwell Stud Australia draft, helped create an unprecedented day of trade but there was more even competition between buyer and vendor on day two.

After 18 million-dollar lots on day one, Quilista (Scandal Keeper) was the sole mare to hit the mark yesterday and there promises to be more with the likes of Group 1 winner Volpe Veloce (Foxwedge), who is in foal to I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), Tsaritsa (Dane Shadow), Hell Or Highwater (Not A Single Doubt), Serenade (Star Witness), Taste Of Heaven (Encosta De Lago) and Oregon's Day (Domesday) also set to be sold today.

 TUE 25TH - THU 27TH MAY 2021 MAGIC MILLIONS NATIONAL BROODMARE SALE

SALE LIVE CLICK HERE

<< Continued from page 1 As expected, the average dropped from a record of $328,038 to $250,190, which is still up 78 per cent on last year, after the second day, while the $100 million barrier will be broken early today after 394 mares have so far changed hands for $98.575 million.

The median of $120,000 was almost double last year's figure of $65,000, a massive rise even accounting for the impact of Covid-19.

After day two of the 2019 sale the average was $158,646 and the median was $70,000.

"We set a huge benchmark (on Tuesday), but today it was just good, solid trade with good momentum throughout the day which flowed right to the last lot," said Bowditch, Magic Millions' managing director.

"To hold a $250,000 average and a clearance rate of an exceptional 88 per cent and a gross ticking towards $100 million is sensational. I couldn't be happier."

The spread of buyers, in numbers and locations, has been a key feature of this year's breeding stock market with most participants reinvesting their profits from the 2021 yearling sales or other players stepping up their involvement.

"As I said last night, I thought everyone will get a turn from here on in and that was evident today," Bowditch said.

"There was value to be found if people kept their lists long and did their work. Most vendors would walk away happy with how their horses sold today and we're delighted with how the sale's travelling with one really strong day to go tomorrow."

Bowditch added: "There's some real stars (today) from really early in the day through to the supplementaries, so I am sure there will be people going home tonight and growing their lists."

Neill adds high-class Quilista to Cressfield's quality broodmare band

Yesterday, Bruce Neill's quest for quality over quantity was again on show yesterday with the Cressfield Stud principal buying his second seven-figure sprinting mare of the sales series at the Gold Coast.

With New Zealand agent Bruce Perry bidding on Neill's behalf from a table to the right of the auctioneers' box, the prominent breeder went to $1 million for Group 2-winning sprinter Quilista (Scandal Keeper) who was sold in foal to Pierata (Pierro).

Sold by Segenhoe Stud on behalf of Aquis Farm as Lot 978, Quilista was the only mare in foal to hit the seven-figure mark yesterday. She was a $950,000 purchase by Tony Fung at the 2019 National Sale and sent to I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit). That weanling, a filly, sold for $340,000 last week on the Gold Coast.

"She was the pick of the ones I wanted at the sale," Neill said.

"I was interested in her weanling, and she was a good type, but she had some x-ray issues, and that's why she probably only made $340,000.

"She was a very fast mare and my strategy is to buy fast mares, clear of Danehill, and she fits the bill perfectly."

Neill employed the same strategy at the Inglis Chairman's Sale where he bought dual Group 1-winning sprinter Pippie (Written Tycoon) for $1.8 million.

Pippie will visit Exceed And Excel (Danehill) this year while Quilista is likely to be mated to Arrowfield's champion stallion Snitzel (Redoute's Choice).

Neill said: "I only have to top up my broodmare band, I've got nearly 25 mares and probably 20 of them are Easter or Magic Millions quality, so I just need to top them up and keep it fresh."

The overall level of investment across the board at the Australian bloodstock sales so far this year has been remarkable with Victoria's

Barry Bowditch with the Triple Crown owners of Moss Trip

MAGIC MILLIONS

Lot 926: Moss Trip

breeders coming to the fore in a market normally dominated by the big Hunter Valley players.

Largely driven by the Written Tycoon Syndicate, which has bought 36 mares for $15.215 million, and the dramatic upscaling of investment by Rosemont Stud, which has spent $10.655 million, Victorian buyers have bought 136 mares sold so far, accounting for almost $45 million of the total aggregate.

This year's spend is not a complete shock as Victorian-owned mares accounted for 23 per cent of Australia's broodmares in 2016, 24 per cent in 2017 and 2018 and 27 per cent in the past two breeding seasons.

Given Yulong's and Rosemont Stud's propensity to increase their numbers, along with the emergence of Leneva Park and others, that percentage could rise again in 2021 and was one of the reasons for the increased competition on the buying bench in the past few weeks.

Tasmanian Neill said of the market: "There is a lot of new investment and a lot of it is coming from Victoria, which is quite amazing, but it's good to see them punching above their weight.

"There's a lot of reinvestment going on around the world with asset classes. Obviously, we are in that category with the horse industry and it's very encouraging."

Separately, Bowditch welcomed buyers from outside the power states of NSW and Victoria choosing to reinvest in the industry.

"We obviously hold significant sales in Queensland, South Australia, Western Australia and Tasmania and there's great representation from all of those states," Bowditch said.

"They're getting in off the back of strong yearling sales in those regions this year and reinvesting their money that they've reaped reward from at the recent yearling sales."

VALLEY OF CHAMPIONS

Kia Ora get behind Slipper winner Farnan

Kia Ora Stud yesterday also demonstrated its commitment to first season sire Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) by adding two high-priced mares in quick succession to its broodmare band to be covered by the Golden Slipper Stakes- (Gr 1, 1200m) winning stallion later this year.

The Hunter Valley nursery paid $750,000 for Listed winner Moqueen (Uncle Mo), who is in foal to Exceed And Excel (Danehill), before increasing the budget to $900,000 for Group 3 winner Moss Trip (Mossman), who is in foal to Trapeze Artist (Snitzel).

Earlier in the session, Kia Ora paid $400,000 for Lucky Can Be (Canny Lad), a half-sister to Group 3 winner Ofcourseican (Mossman) and South African Grade 1 winner Gimmethegreenlight (More Than Ready). The mare, sold by Woodside Park Stud as Lot 860, is in foal to Written Tycoon (Iglesia).

On day one, Kia Ora paid $1.7 million for Ektifaa (More Than Ready), a Grade 2 winner with a deep stakes-winning family, who is in foal to I Am Invincible.

The sale of Moss Trip, who was consigned by Yarraman Park Stud as Lot 926, brought to an end a great ride experienced by her Triple Crown Syndications owners.

"It's a fairytale result, really," Triple Crown's Chris Ward said.

"Moss Trip was a filly we bought for $32,000 from memory and she went on to win $500,000 in prize-money and now, to cap it all off, with all the owners here at Magic Millions enjoying the other side of the industry ... is outstanding."

Many syndicators choose to sell their mares directly off the track but Triple Crown have successfully held some mares back with the aim of enhancing their value.

"We take it case by case with each horse we retire off the track and discuss all the options with the owners and we thought Trapeze Artist - he was an outstanding racehorse and we think he's got all the credentials to be a great stallion - physically was a great match for her as well," Ward said.

"I think Kia Ora will end up with a great foal who hopefully sells well for them in the future."

He added: "We had Peggy Jean, she sold for a million in foal (to I Am Invincible), and we had Secret Trail a couple of years ago (in foal to Russian Revolution) and she sold through the ring here at Magic Millions for $700,000.

"So, it's been a recipe that's working really well for the team and, as I was saying earlier, it's a great way to wrap things up for all the owners."

Kia Ora Stud's Shane Wright confirmed Moss Trip would be a high-profile member of Farnan's first book of mares.

"I love the mare, she's absolutely beautiful, and she'll go straight to Farnan this year. I think they will really suit each other this year," Wright said.

"There was good competition for her, but it always gives you great confidence when good people are bidding on these horses because you know you are on the right ones."

Kia Ora Stud, in its return to the stallion ranks, will have Prague (Redoute's Choice) joining Farnan on the roster and out-cross mares were part of the criteria of the farm's short-list.

Lot 1072: Sweet Sister

MAGIC MILLIONS

"There's many aspects to it, and who they are in foal with is one of them. We obviously sell our yearlings, so there is a commercial aspect to it," Wright said.

"Then also the stallions they suit and the pedigrees we like, so there's a lot of boxes to tick. These mares are very multi-dimensional.

"Our two new boys both have that Danehill line in there, so with the outcross, it's good to pick them up and they are harder to get. You do tend to pay a premium for them."

Late in the day, Kia Ora made its presence felt again but this time for a well-bred Snitzel mare, who is a sibling to Group 1 winner Sweet Idea and Group 2 winner Showtime, and $650,000 on Group 3 winner Think Bleu (So You Think), who is in foal to Deep Field (Northern Meteor).

Sweet Sister, who made $750,000, is already the dam of Listed-winning two-year-old Supreme Idea (I Am Invincible) while she has a yearling brother to that horse and a Zoustar (Northern Meteor) weanling colt, who was withdrawn from last week's National Sale.

She is in foal to Arrowfield Stud sire Dundee (High Chaparral).

"She is a lovely young mare with a super pedigree who has already thrown a stakes winner. We haven't decided on a stallion yet but young mares like her don't come around very often," Wright said.

"The bloodlines aren't easy to get into."

Offered by Milburn Creek as Lot 1072 on behalf of Nick Wakim's Hilldene Farm, Sweet Sister was bought for $550,000 at the 2017 Magic Millions National Sale.

Wakim also sold another Snitzel mare, the stakes-winning Meuse, for $1.2 million at the Inglis Chairman's Sale. She, too, is in foal to Dundee.

On selling Sweet Sister yesterday, Wakim said: "She was a little bit close to my heart, but we are just restructuring our band and taking a position in terms of how we want our broodmare band to look going forward.

"It's bittersweet to move mares like that, but it is what it is and I wish them all the best with her moving forward."

The selling of Sweet Sister took some time, but the Kia Ora team then stuck their hand up to buy the mare.

"I thought it was excellent buying. It was right on our reserve and I thought they bought her very well," Wakim said.

"She has bred a stakes winner by I Am invincible, there is a full by I Am Invincible, there's a Zoustar colt on the ground, which is fantastic, and the mare has only got upside going forward."

Wakim, who races a number of his homebreds, revealed the Hilledene Farm model would be focused on moving away from the dominant Danehill (Danzig) sire line.

"We were heavily into Danehill-line originally, so we are just trying to re-apportion our position," he said.

"We have sold two well-bred Snitzel mares recently. We have mares by Azamour, we have mares by Frankel, we own mares like that. We want to diversify our broodmare band away from the pure Danehill-line mares."

Despite offloading two prized mares, Wakim has been casting his eye over the Magic Millions catalogue searching for potential replacements, while also looking forward to racing the offspring of the mares he still has in his possession.

"We have been looking at some mares here but we have got some very nice fillies we are racing now," he said.

"We own some very well-bred yearling fillies that are just being broken-in now. We have an Exceed And Excel-Dream In Colour, who is a Frankel mare, and we have a Written Tycoon filly out of three-quarter sister to Invader. We have four or five weanling fillies at home as well.

"We have a Snitzel weanling filly out of Aloisia, which we will retain and race. Hence that is why we are moving on these two Snitzel mares."

Kia Ora Stud has spent $4.5 million on its five-mare haul.

Bangaloe Stud's Ritchie invests in new blood

Julia Ritchie has used the Magic Millions sale to rejuvenate her Bangaloe Stud broodmare band with the acquisition of two race fillies on day one and Fastnet Rock's (Danehill) stakes-winning mare Lady Sharapova for $750,000 yesterday.

The rising ten-year-old, who was offered by Yarraman Park Stud as Lot 849, is in foal to I Am Invincible with her fifth foal.

"I am in the throes of upgrading my breeding stock, so she totally fits the bill for what I was looking for, being in foal to I Am Invincible. She will be going back there because I have a breeding right. That actually makes her a very affordable mare.

"You can't go wrong with her. Everything she breeds is successful and they say the (colt) foal on the ground by I Am Invincible is amazing, so when I go up there I will have a look at him."

"THERE WERE A COUPLE I WAS HOPING TO GET BUT THEY JUST KEPT SAILING PAST MY PRICE RANGE, BUT THIS ONE YOU COULD SEE THERE WAS MERIT IN THE VALUE OF LADY SHARAPOVA AND SHE'S IN THE RIGHT AGE GROUP"

- JULIA RITCHIE

On day one, Ritchie bought Vegas Jewel (Shocking), who is out of a half-sister to Vegas Showgirl (Al Akbar), herself the dam of champion mare Winx (Street Cry), for $350,000 and Itz Lily (Snitzel) for $100,000.

Five-year-old Itz Lily, who ran fifth in the Pam O'Neill Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Doomben on Saturday, is in training on the Gold Coast with Kris Lees and she will keep racing during the winter carnival before going to stud later this year.

Lot 849: Lady Sharapova

MAGIC MILLIONS

"I was under bidder on two or three and one of them I am having words about because they didn't take the bid when I was bidding, but I figure ... 'it's like a bus, another one arrives in a minute' and this is the sale for it," said Ritchie, who owns horse property Wild Oaks at Camden near Sydney.

"There were a couple I was hoping to get but they just kept sailing past my price range, but this one you could see there was merit in the value of Lady Sharapova and she's in the right age group."

Ritchie, vice-chair of the Australian Turf Club, has a band of 12 mares going to stud this year, while she is also a partner in the Coolmore-owned Invincibella (I Am Invincible) and Champagne Cuddles (Not A Single Doubt), and she is as passionate as ever about the industry.

"I've been involved since I was five, so it would take a major catastrophe for me to be ever put off (the industry)," she said.

"My family has been breeding horses since the '60s and '70s and, for me, I'd let my broodmare band get a little bit too non-commercial and, in this market, you have to be clear about being commercial and that's where I am going with it now."

Mating plans have not yet been mapped out for the majority of her broodmare band.

The third and final day of the National Broodmare Sale starts at 10am.

MOËT & CHANDON DERBY DAY

SATURDAY 29 MAY
EAGLE FARM RACECOURSE

DERBY Day is a name synonymous major race days not only at Randwick and Flemington, but also around the world including the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs and the English Derby at Epsom.

Now, Brisbane also has its very own 'Derby Day', with the Moët & Chandon Queensland Derby brought forward a fortnight to showcase a Group 1 double header at Eagle Farm this Saturday.

It's a race with a proud honour roll including multiple Derby winners Tulloch, Kingston Town and Strawberry Road and in 2021 there may well be another famous chapter added, with Explosive Jack shooting for an historic fourth Derby success.

The Derby support card is outstanding, with crack sprinter Gytrash heading betting for the Group 1 TAB Kingsford-Smith Cup, emerging local star Prince Of Boom atop James Squire Sires' Produce Stakes charts and Stradbroke favourite Ayrton a red hot favourite for his Queensland debut in the Mullins Lawyers Fred Best Classic.

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Super One to Newhaven Park

Super One (I Am Invincible) will stand at Newhaven Park in southern NSW this year after five years at Newgate Farm in the Hunter Valley. With his oldest progeny rising four-year-olds, Super One has sired 34 winners including the stakes-placed One Lotto and the promising three-year-old gelding Another One as well as fellow metropolitan winner Miss Divine Em, while in Hong Kong he has sired the winner Gluck Racer. Super One has 94 rising two-year-olds on the ground and 115 weanlings. He will stand for a fee of $16,500 (inc GST).

Six for Astern

Divina (2 f ex Sakitto by Domesday) got off the mark at Canterbury yesterday to provide first season sire Astern (Medaglia D'Oro) with his sixth individual winner. The Chris Waller-trained filly finished third to subsequent dual Group 1 runner-up Hilal (Fastnet Rock) on debut in February and that form proved good enough for Divina to get her head in front in the 1250-metre 2YO Fillies Maiden yesterday. Sent off a $3 chance under James McDonald, Divina defeated Smart Little Miss (Smart Missile) by a short head, with Santorini Sun (Choisir) another length away in third. A $190,000 buy for last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Divina is the second foal and second winner out of Sakitto (Domesday), who is a half-sister to the stakes-placed Hairpin (Octagonal), the dam of Group 3 winner Detours (Ad Valorem). Astern, the sire of Cinderella Stakes (Listed, 1050m) winner Seradess, will stand at Darley in NSW for $16,500 (inc. GST) in 2021, down from last year's fee of $22,000.

Two for Rebel Dane

Lloyd's Crown (2 g ex Mahogany Room by High Rolling) became first season sire Rebel Dane's (California Dane) second individual winner after taking out the Clanbrooke Racing Handicap (1000m) at Sandown yesterday. The Rebecca Waymouth-trained gelding finished a narrow runner-up on debut at Pakenham earlier this month and followed that up with a head victory over Along The River (Written Tycoon). Rambeau (Brazen Beau), who defeated Lloyd's Crown last time out, was two lengths further away in third, while the $2.20 favourite Tycoon's Girl (Written Tycoon) finished last of the seven runners. The win capped off a productive Wednesday for Dual Group 1 winner Rebel Dane, whose son Rebel Shadow finished a narrow runner-up on debut at Canterbury. The Glen Eden Stud stallion has so far had four runners and two winners, with the other being last-start Ken Russell Memorial Classic (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Subterranean, who is set to run in Saturday's BRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m). Rebel Dane, who had 28 live foals in his first crop and 26 in his second, will stand for $8,800 (inc. GST) in 2021.

Tasmanian-bound Levendi tops Inglis Digital

The Inglis Digital May (Late) Online Sale closed last night and Group 1 winner Levendi (Pierro) is set to stand in Tasmania after topping the sale at $365,000. Six-year-old Levendi, winner of the 2018 Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m), hasn't raced since finishing down the field in November's Zipping Classic (Gr 2, 2400m) and was offered as a stallion prospect by GW Racing Bloodstock, on behalf of his ownership syndicate. Levendi achieved over $1.7 million during his 18-start race career and was purchased by Brendan

McShane, on behalf of a client, who will stand him at Broadmarsh in Tasmania. "My client is extremely happy, I'm extremely happy, this will be the first stallion he has ever stood and the first that my family and I have been involved in for around a decade, so we're very excited," McShane said. GW Racing's Manny Gelagotis said: "We're excited about his stallion career and at the end of the day, it's great to see another stallion standing in Tasmania. He's the sort of horse that if he gets the right support, which I'm sure he will, I think he'll be a star because he was bred to be a star, he was a star on the track, he's a two-year-old winner, a Group 1 winner, it all adds up."

Emmalene also sells well

Three further lots achieved $100,000 or more, including Listed winner Emmalene (Jet Spur), who was sold in foal to Pariah (Redoute's Choice) for $175,000. Offered by James Harron Bloodstock, she was purchased by Marina Thoroughbreds and will be sent to Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) later this year. "She was a beautiful mare, an absolutely outstanding physical in foal to one of the most exciting young stallions in Australia in Pariah," Harron said. "She's got a very exciting runner in King Kapa in Queensland at the moment and she's already been a proven producer so the new owners will no doubt have a lot of fun with her and her progeny moving forward." Pindara (Star Witness), a half-sister to stakes winners Liesele (Exceed And Excel) and Loved Up (Nicconi), was sold in foal to Pierata (Pierro) for $150,000, while Crambo Bloodstock secured Storm Siren (Excites) – a half sister to Hong Kong champion Hot King Prawn (Denman) – for $100,000. Overall, 256 of the 353 lots catalogued were sold at a clearance rate of 73.35 per cent. The sale grossed $2,898,950 at an average of $11,324.

Wide gate no problem for Gytrash

Gordon Richards is confident stable star Gytrash (Lope De Vega) can cope with barrier 15 in Saturday's Kingsford-Smith Cup (Gr 1, 1300m) at Eagle Farm. The five-year-old finished third in The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) last start, behind the reopposing Savatoxl (Kuroshio), and Richards is confident he can add another Group 1 to his CV. "The barrier might be a bit sticky but that's why you put good jockey's like Jason (Collett) on," Richards told RSN. "There's a bit of pace out there and it might break it up so we can slot in closer to the rail. However, I don't think the draw is that disadvantageous anyway as there's only one bend to get around and I think he should be OK. I'm as confident as I can be going into a Group 1. I'm very happy with him and he shows a better turn of foot going the Queensland way."

Gollan launches three-pronged attack on Kingsford-Smith

Tony Gollan will have three runners in Saturday's Kingsford-Smith Cup, with Jonker (Spirit Of Boom), Vega One (Lope De Vega) and Outback Barbie (Spirit Of Boom) all representing the stable. "I'm really happy with Jonker and he's in great order and will be on the speed in this race," Gollan told Racing Queensland. "His Galaxy run was very good but he had a minor setback after that which made him miss the Doomben 10,000. He's stepping out of his 1200-metre comfort zone in this and I suppose Eagle Farm is a bit of a worry but he'll run well. I desperately want to win a Group 1 with him and if it's not in this it might be in the spring," he added. "I won't make a decision on the Stradbroke until after he runs on Saturday." On Vega One and Outback Barbie, he said: "Vega One's run was very good in the 10,000 and he's going terrific," he said. "Outback Barbie's run to win the Bright Shadow was another terrific effort."

Stradbroke preferred for Tofane

Connections of Tofane (Ocean Park), who was withdrawn from the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale after a promising performance in the BRC Sprint (Gr 3, 1350m) at Doomben last Saturday, are tilting towards a shot at the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) on June 12. "Mike and connections are leaning towards a Stradbroke run. She raced terrific on the weekend and hopefully she can carry that form on," Mike Moroney's assistant trainer Jack Turnbull told Racing.com. "For sure (it's exciting to keep her). A horse of that calibre doesn't come along often. To potentially get her for another season, perhaps, for us is a big coup."

Change of plans with Reckoning

Nick Ryan changed his mind last minute yesterday morning as to where he would send hat-trick seeking Reckoning (Domesday) this weekend, opting for a Benchmark 84 over 1600 metres at Randwick instead of a 1400-metre contest in the same class. "It (the distance) doesn't worry me because he's so clean-winded," Ryan told Racing.com. "I said earlier in the week it wouldn't worry me which race we ran him in, it would come down to how the race is run." Ryan took a look at the competition for both contests and decided Reckoning, who has won his last two starts in Benchmark 70 and 78 company respectively, would have an easier time of it in the mile race. "Adelaide Ace for Lindsey Smith was good the other day at Warrnambool and its second-up form is pretty good, and Biometric loomed up to Dice Roll last start," Ryan added. "Everything behind Dice Roll has come out and won and I know how good he is."

Cummings hopes to cap off memorable season in Brisbane

Trainer Edward Cummings will have further opportunities over the next two weekends to cap what has been a memorable season for the handler, who split from a partnership with father Anthony Cummings to go out on his own in early 2019. Cummings has won 16 races since running his own stable, and this season claimed the Adrian Knox Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) with Duais (Shamus Award) in April, his first success at stakes level under just his name. This Saturday he will look to add to that with

Edward Cummings

SPORTPIX

Dark Rebel (Astern) in the BRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m), while the following week Duais will have another crack at Group 1 level in the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m). "He's a nice horse who won easily enough on debut (but) the time of the race was probably not much to get excited about," Cummings said to Racing.com of Dark Rebel, who became a fifth individual winner for his sire Astern (Medaglia D'Oro) when winning on debut at Warwick Farm on May 12. "We were always of the opinion that had he done well, we'd look at this race on Saturday, which has come up a little bit easier than I anticipated in the end for a Group 2 race worth $1 million."

Quilty plans to continue improvement

Apprentice jockey Kiran Quilty is hoping to capitalise on recent opportunities afforded to her in her home state of Victoria and in Tasmania as she looks to build her record after suffering a brain injury which saw her sidelined from June to December last year. The three-kilogram apprentice, and daughter of veteran jockey Cameron Quilty, scored a victory aboard the Lindsey Smith-trained Lido Beach (Denman) at Ballarat yesterday. "I couldn't be happier, I don't get many opportunities in Victoria, so it really means a lot," she told Racing.com. "I had seven months off with a brain injury and I've been struggling the last few months just to get back on my feet. I go to Tassie once a week and that's really helping with consistency and just trying to improve myself and make the most of the opportunities that I get. I'm really grateful for the rides I'm getting. To everyone who has continued to support me, it's made a massive difference through my recovery and return to racing."

Heathcote looking forward to $1m challenge with Prince

Prince Of Boom (Spirit Of Boom) ended up working on his own at Eagle Farm on Tuesday morning, but trainer Rob Heathcote was still happy with what he saw from the unbeaten two-year-old ahead of the $1 million BRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) on Saturday. The two-year-old gelding has been installed as favourite for the Sires' after demolishing his rivals in this month's Spirit Of Boom Classic (Gr 2, 1200m) – just six days after making his debut at Caloundra. "We're going into the race on Saturday admittedly with some trepidation," Heathcote said. "We're 4-1 favourite in a Group 2 $1 million race ... there's some new form coming into the race with Ranch Hand and (Converge) coming from Sydney. I'm looking forward to it."

Price still learning about stable newcomer

Mick Price and Michael Kent jr are still getting to know Group 2 winner Hezashocka (Shocking) as they prepare to saddle him up for the first time in the Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at Eagle Farm on Saturday. The New Zealand-bred has been in Brisbane for just under two weeks and Price has been relying on the help of former trainers Shaun and Emma Clotworthy to prepare the gelding for his first Group 1 assignment. "Emma has been with the horse which has been a nice transition and I have not attempted to change too much with him," Price said. "I would say that he's not a stop-and-start sort of horse and he races like he looks, and he looks like a long, rangy, typical New Zealand staying horse. He's by Shocking and a good clean-winded horse. It's a busy Derby with plenty of chances. I think he'll run top half-dozen," Price added. "His lack of racing experience may be against him and he's had a lot of change to come from New Zealand and then come up here to run in the Derby. But he's settled in well and is a nice horse. He's going to be a nice staying four-year-old and depending on how he goes in the Derby we'll make a decision on his future after that."

Inn Keeper To Follow Proven Formula

Symon Wilde is hoping a previously successful campaign will pay off with Inn Keeper (Host) in the Catanach's Jewellers Handicap (1100m) at Caulfield on Saturday. The seven-year-old is coming off wins at Terang and Warrnambool in the lead-up to Saturday's contest, a preparation Wilde used prior to the sprinter winning at Caulfield in 2018. After that win at Caulfield, Inn Keeper went on to claim the Gold Topaz (1200m) at Swan Hill and Wilde is hoping to repeat that feat at next month's winter carnival. "He seems to be going as well as ever, but he's creeping up in the weight scale once again, but there's been a bit of rain and we've kept him relatively fresh," Wilde said. "He's a lovely sound horse that hasn't been over-raced even though he's seven, he didn't start until he was four. And that's the key with him, keep him going through winter. It is not as strong and he loves that tiny bit of give in the track."

Kurabui remains unbeaten

The Mick Price and Michael Kent jr-trained Kurabui kept her unbeaten record intact with a comfortable win in the Blended Multi Handicap (1600m) at Sandown yesterday, her fourth win in a row. Ridden by Jamie Kah, four-year-old Kurabui, the $1.60 favourite, defeated La Chevallee (Written Tycoon) by one and a quarter lengths, with Livvy Lass (Reliable Man) five lengths behind the winner in third. "While that looked easy, four-from-four is not easy to achieve," said Kent jr. "She's very progressive. She can absorb pressure, she has a good turn of foot, she's got a good temperament. She's very bullet-proof at this stage." Kurabui is a half-sister to Group 2 winner Surprise Baby (Shocking), but Kent jr is keen to keep her in lower grade for now.

"There's a benchmark 78 mile race here at Sandown in two weeks' time, but we'll see what the boss wants to do," he said.

Phondle heavily backed for Sale today

The Mathew Ellerton and Simon Zahra-trained Phondle (Kuroshio) has been noticeably cut in price ahead of her debut at Sale today. The three-year-old filly will line up in the 1000-metre maiden, the opening race on the card, and has been firmed from $19 into the $3.60 favourite. The plunge is thought to be a result of a text message that went viral, which Zahra later labelled as "absolute crap". Phondle has had five jump-out appearances to date and led all the way on her latest one over 800 metres at Flemington on May 14.

Golwen back on track after minor hiccup

Mitch Beer reckons former Godolphin trainee Golwen (Lonhro) is back on track after suffering an injury setback. Purchased online for $45,000 with the hopes of landing a big country prize, Golwen arrived with a wound on his leg, which was later discovered to be a piece of wood stuck inside him. "We got that removed, you'd have to think that it was bothering him, he was never really lame on it, but it was sort of loose and moving around," Beer said. "I've been much happier with him this preparation and I know him a little bit better, and minus the big splinter, I'm sure he's a happier horse in work." Golwen returned to action earlier this month with a third-placed effort at Wagga and will tackle the TAB Highway (1400m) at Randwick on Saturday. "The horse worked excellently on Tuesday morning, we'll stick to the Highway and we'll head in that direction on Saturday."

Kah stressed over Brisbane trip

The latest outbreak of Covid-19 in Melbourne has seen a number of Victoria-based jockeys hightail it to Brisbane early for the Queensland Derby meeting. John Allen, Ben Allen, Jye McNeil and Craig Williams all forfeited their rides at Sandown yesterday but one that remained was Jamie Kah, who is seeking to become the first jockey to win 100 races in the

Hezashocka

RACE IMAGES

Melbourne metropolitan area. After guiding Kurabui to victory yesterday, Kah has moved to 89 wins for the season. She was booked to fly to Brisbane last night where her rides at Eagle Farm on Saturday include Horrifying (Shocking) in the Derby and the unbeaten Ayrton (Iffraaj) in the Fred Best Classic (Gr 3, 1400m). "It stressed me out this morning for sure as I really wanted to ride today," Kah said. "There's not that many meetings left, so I wanted to be here as I chase the 100. It's a bit unknown what's going to happen, but I'm going to get on a flight tonight and hopefully there's no dramas up there. Obviously, we'll be able to get back into Melbourne and I was going to ride in Melbourne next weekend anyway, so I'll be going backwards and forwards."

McDonald to appeal careless riding ban

James McDonald is set to appeal a three-meeting careless riding ban handed to him at Canterbury on Wednesday, which would rule him out of Saturday week's Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m). McDonald rode four winners yesterday but was outed by stewards for his ride on Vigorous Flow (Headwater) in the 1900-metre Benchmark 64, where he was deemed to shift out at the 400-metre mark and hamper Azaryah (Al Maher). His ban will begin next Thursday (June 3) and expire seven days later.

O'Brien horse tests positive

The Danny O'Brien-trained Coin Collector (All Too Hard) has tested positive to a prohibited substance. Racing Victoria Stewards announced the findings from a pre-race blood sample collected prior to the four-year-old's run at Moonee Valley on March 13. The blood sample contained the non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drug Phenylbutazone (and its metabolite, Oxyphenbutazone), a prohibited raceday substance. RV Stewards initially informed O'Brien of the irregularity on April 27 and the findings were confirmed yesterday by the Racing Analytical Services Limited. RV Stewards are continuing their investigation.

Race crowds permitted on course in Victoria

Race meetings in Victoria will continue to have crowds present despite the increase of Covid-19 cases in Victoria. New protocols were put in place by Racing Victoria on Tuesday, including the wearing of face masks in metropolitan stables, and Melbourne Racing Club are expecting to host racegoers at Caulfield on Saturday. "Our plan is to operate with masks being the only difference to how we have been operating previously," MRC executive director of racing and operations, Jake Norton, told Racing.com. "Unless that changes, we are going to have patrons. Owners won't be permitted into the mounting yard for the next little while. But other than that, we are waiting for further instruction." At the time of writing, ten cases in Victoria have been acquired locally in the past 24 hours. There are a total of 23 active cases.

NEW ZEALAND

First NZ winner for Wrote

Highview Stud stallion Wrote (High Chaparral) recorded his first New Zealand win as a sire when And We Danced landed the Yara Fertiliser Maiden (1100m) on debut at Hastings yesterday. The Bill Thurlow-trained two-year-old got up by a short head over Express Desire (Shamexpress). "It was fantastic. I didn't think she was going to get up, but it was a big effort," said Highview Stud principal Brent Gillovic. "They are not really two-year-olds. Bill (Thurlow) said this filly really wasn't a two-year-old and she will only get better. She showed a real will to get up and win, and had a great turn of foot in the end." Wrote, who previously stood at Northwest Farm in Florida, has been well supported by New Zealand breeders and will once again stand at Highview Stud this coming season for a fee of $5,000.

Tyler delighted with season

While there are still a couple of months to go this season, Kelvin Tyler has already comfortably retained his crown as Southland's top trainer. The Riverton horseman, who trains in partnership with his daughter Aimee, has amassed 46 wins to date this season, surpassing his previous best of 39 in the 2018-19 term. The Tylers are just four wins shy of leading South Island trainers Michael and Matthew Pitman, and while racing in the deep south is taking a winter hiatus, they are intent on chasing down their northern rivals. "I couldn't be happier with the way the season has gone," Kelvin Tyler said. "Racing has pretty much stopped in Southland, so our closest race meeting is now three hours away. We now have to do a bit of travelling, but that is the way it is."

INTERNATIONAL

FR: Ebaiyra lands Prix Corrida

Ebaiyra (4 f Distorted Humor - Ebiyza by Rock Of Gibraltar) continued the strong start to her four-year-old season when taking out the Prix Corrida (Gr 2, 2100m) at Saint-Cloud yesterday. The Alain de Royer-Dupré-trained Ebaiyra placed in the Qatar Prix de Royallieu (Gr 1, 2800m) on her final last season and has returned with two consecutive wins after taking out the Prix Allez France Longines (Gr 3, 2000m) last start. Ridden by Christophe Soumillon, Ebaiyra again saw off evens favourite Raabihah (Sea The Stars) by one and a half lengths, with No Limit Credit (Night Of Thunder) another half-length back in third. Ebaiyra is the second foal out of Group 2 winner Ebiyza (Rock Of Gibraltar), who is also the dam of the Listed winner and Group 2-placed Edisa (Kitten's Joy).

UK: Royal Ascot to be allowed crowds of 12,000

Royal Ascot will be part of a government pilot scheme allowing larger crowds into venues, which will enable up to 12,000 people to attend the meeting each day. Under current rules, racecourses can only admit up to 4,000 people, unless part of a pilot scheme, however the five-day meeting from June 15-19 will see an increased capacity. Guy Henderson, Ascot's chief executive, said: "We're delighted that Royal Ascot has been accepted to play its part in the next phase of the government's Events Research Programme. We very much look forward to welcoming 12,000 racegoers each day. Our thanks go to our industry bodies, the British Horseracing Authority and the Racecourse Association, which led the preparation of the submission to government."

Wayne Bedggood - the Australian breeding industry's quiet achiever

Wayne Bedggood

CRESSFIELD

BY JO MCKINNON | @ANZ_NEWS

Cressfield Stud's long-time general manager, Wayne Bedggood, is your classic, good old fashioned horseman. He shuns the limelight, preferring to go about his business quietly and let his horses do the talking.

Earlier this month he had no choice but to take centre stage, even if it was only for a few minutes, and accept the trophy for the 2021 Hunter Thoroughbred Breeders Association President's Award for Lifetime Achievement.

"It was a bit of a surprise, it's one of the better recognitions of the industry. There is no finer accolade than receiving that from your peers," said Bedggood.

After winning the award, Bedggood, who usually avoids media interviews, kindly agreed to share his story with ANZ Bloodstock News.

Of Portuguese descent, Bedggood has spent a lifetime with horses. He grew up in Queensland shadowing his late father Keith who was a horse trainer.

"Dad was my earliest mentor and so was my mum who worked on the farm. He was an extremely good horseman and I learned a lot of horsemanship and life lessons from him having come through that old school period and a lot of that rubbed off," recalled Bedggood.

He has fond memories of those childhood days growing up on Wattle Brae Stud at Pilton.

"I am fortunate in a lot of ways. I was born and bred on a horse stud so had a footing in the industry right from the get-go.

"I was riding racehorses from a young age and remember getting up early in the morning and being led around on a horse at the age of about seven, because dad was too heavy to ride."

During his teens, Bedggood's family moved south to Victoria and that's where he eventually got a start working in the racing and breeding game.

Upon leaving school he broke in horses and specialised in pre-training.

"I rode trackwork for six years and schooled jumpers. That was an interesting period of my life falling off ten times a day and riding 17HH pullers. It was all a good experience," he laughed.

The hard work paid off and, by the age of 23, he was managing one of the state's most famous properties of the era, Sir Donald Trescowthick's Cornwall Park.

After two seasons at Cornwall Park the prime opportunity came up to work in the breeding heartlands of the Hunter Valley.

"It was always in the back of my mind that if I was going to move interstate, the Scone district was the place to be as far as thoroughbreds go."

And so the journey began, where he would help shape the future success of some of Australia's most iconic thoroughbred nurseries.

In March 1986 he began his first role at Middlebrook Park Stud, which was then owned by John Messara, and he was very quickly recognised as a talented horseman.

Following the purchase of the breeding interests of Robert Sangster and Jim Fleming, Messara purchased the Strowan property and neighbouring Arrowfield Wines vineyard at Jerrys Plains, and, aided by a small team, Bedggood was assigned to develop what was to become Arrowfield Stud and is, today, Coolmore Stud.

"I often say they were the halcyon days to start working with a horse like Rancher and it all escalated. John (Messara) did the deal with the Sangster stock and the relationship with New Zealand and the Hayes horses and from there, there were all these farms we were helping.

"John is such a visionary and was lucky to have a fabulous team around him like Peter Orton, who is a fine mentor.

"John is an extraordinary man. The things I have learned from him are too long to list and probably more life lessons than horses. I have never seen someone with so much vision to look into the future and have a grasp of what could happen and make it happen.

"Sure, he's had a few failures, but the successes have been phenomenal. There's nobody more influential nationally, or even internationally, he's been a game-changer."

As stud manager at Arrowfield he was instrumental in the farm's development as a world class thoroughbred breeding facility and oversaw the first and subsequent seasons of champion sire Danehill (Danzig).

Bedggood vividly recalls when the Danehill deal famously soured during the mid-90s and Coolmore bought back the rights to him for $24 million.

"It was awful to watch what he went through in the dust up with Coolmore over Danehill. It was almost a bare knuckles dust up as to who got that horse. It was heartbreaking for both sides. We all loved that horse," Bedggood recollected.

"For John to go through that and have to rebrand and build and move on, and he did, there were some really hard-fought struggles. But he never gave up or looked back. He kept looking forward and developing."

When Arrowfield relocated to its current location in the Segenhoe Valley, Bedggood once again played a big part in not only developing that property's state of the art facilities but also managing one of the largest and best-credentialed broodmare bands in the country, as well as overseeing the launch of the phenomenal stud career of Redoute's Choice (Danehill).

"To get that experience from just being there is a real gift," he said.

With a fierce reputation for setting up successful farms, it's no surprise that when Bruce Neill was on the hunt for someone to turn a sheep property he purchased on the outskirts of Scone into a boutique broodmare farm, he called on Bedggood, who had been recommended to him by Evergreen Stud principal Tony Bott.

Looking for a change at the time, he gladly accepted the challenge.

"There were only a few roads and half a kilometre of fencing so I had a blank canvas to work with. I had some trepidation but knowledge that I had been through the process with Arrowfield so many times."

Last week, Bedggood celebrated 20 years at the helm of Cressfield Stud, a farm he's deeply proud of.

"It's a beautiful place and what we did differently here is we didn't build it overnight. Others set up in 18 months to two years but we did things slowly. Horse infrastructure came first and other things later.

"Bruce and I don't like the limelight and to show off or be flashy. It's done well and not second rate but we haven't splashed the money about either."

Set on 3,500 acres, Cressfield Stud is one of the most revered properties of its kind in Australia.

"We have everything from rugged, hilly terrain to some of the best agricultural land in the Hunter Valley. We have worked away at it slowly and never had a large broodmare band, with limited numbers each year. We have just had our best two years and it's taken a while to get it all right."

Cressfield's owner, Bruce Neill, who added another prized mare to his band yesterday by spending $1 million to secure Quilista (Scandal Keeper) at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale, has always given Bedggood plenty of autonomy to manage the farm's development.

"Bruce is just phenomenal. What an extraordinary fellow, he's one in a million," said Bedggood. "Anybody that meets him loves him to death and, as an employer, he basically leaves you alone and he loves the property. He's given me a free hand and as long as I can justify the money he's happy with that. He has very little influence on the workings of the property."

"It's been a fabulous working relationship where you could not get a better employer. I'm lucky."

Neill is equally thankful for their 20-year working partnership in thoroughbred breeding and what it has borne.

"He's been good to work with and we have always got on well. Because I live in Hobart I need a hands-on manager to take my place at the barricades. I'm very fortunate to have got Wayne," said Neill.

"Our sales averages have been very good and the performance of horses we have produced has been good. Our average is incredible and we have had twice the median average at the Inglis Easter sale for the last 13 years. In 2013 we averaged $1.36 million there. He makes sure we take the right product to the sales and present them well."

Led by Bedggood, those remarkable results have also been influenced by the high quality team he has built around him, including its operations manager Liesl Baumann, who was also recognised at the recent HTBA Awards and named the Employee of the Year (Inaugural) Leadership Award winner.

Baumann started at entry level with the farm and has worked alongside Bedggood for the past 15 years.

"Being an intensely private man he has not been easy to get to know, but over the years we have formed a very solid, trusting relationship, peppered with honest banter and sometimes impassioned opinions," Baumann said.

"He has been a great mentor throughout this period, providing guidance, in particular with the nuances of managing people, and championed my progression within the company. He has allowed me to try new approaches to husbandry, asking only that I be able to justify my actions."

"Wayne's understanding of the science of equine reproduction has been of enormous value to me. Breeding mares is my favourite part of the production cycle and the ability to have scientific based discourse is something that I have benefited greatly from over the years."

"He has allowed me the space to make mistakes, consider better approaches and knock on his door when I needed back up. He is a tremendous advocate for women in the industry, in particular our value in upper management," continued Baumann.

Bedggood is big on encouraging young people, particularly women, to progress and realise their full potential in what can often be a cut-throat and male-dominated industry.

"There's certainly luck involved but you make your own luck as well. You have to be ready to capitalize when the opportunity presents itself and don't be scared to have a go or do something that terrifies you, have a go you might be good at it. Don't stop trying and work hard," said Bedggood.

"With an attention to detail that will always get you points and be prepared to put the time in and this can take years and decades to happen. Be consistent and keep doing your best and learn from those around you," he advised.

During his tenure at the helm of the highly-regarded Cressfield operation, Bedggood has not only positively guided the careers of those around him, both equine and human, he's also contributed enormously to his local community.

He's a passionate and long-serving director of the Muswellbrook Race Club and previously held the position of president of the HTBA and spent a number of years volunteering his time as a councillor and mayor of the Upper Hunter Shire Council.

He and his wife Michelle, a passionate horsewoman who he met 40 years ago when they rode trackwork together, are also proactive about helping to raise funds for the Westpac Rescue Helicopter Service.

So, you won't see him anytime soon basking in the glory of Cressfield's success on the racetrack or in the sales ring.

Instead, you are more likely to find him turning a sausage on the BBQ at a fundraising event somewhere or selling a few raffle tickets on a street corner.

Gary Fennessy collects Thoroughbred Excellence award on night of celebration for industry participants

BY ALEX WILTSHIRE | @ANZ_NEWS

The prestigious Godolphin Stud and Stable Staff Awards ceremony was held yesterday evening on the Gold Coast, in a celebration of the outstanding talent and dedication of the participants that turn the cogs of the thoroughbred industry in Australia.

And the tale of the night's feature award winner, Lindsay Park's Gary Fennessy, no more epitomises the essence of the commitment and hard work that was recognised in yesterday's event.

Fennessy, a servant of more than 50 years to the Hayes' family operation at Lindsay Park, collected the Thoroughbred Excellence Award as well as claiming the Dedication To Racing category, winning the most votes for the accolade. He receives the $10,000 prize for the latter and a further $5,000 for the former.

'Bim', as Fennessy is affectionately known, has witnessed many highlights during a long and distinguished career at Euroa, where he now holds the role of assistant trainer, and was part of the team that travelled to Japan and achieved the extraordinary feat of winning the Japan Cup (Listed, 2400m) with Better Loosen Up (Loosen Up) in 1990.

Cup (is my favourite moment), it hasn't been done since," said Fennessy to ANZ Bloodstock News after he was announced the winner at yesterday's awards ceremony.

"It's not an easy job and we had the right horse at the right time."

Through his half-century of dedication, Fennessy began with patriarch Colin Hayes at Lindsay Park, winning the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) with Beldale Ball (Nashua) (1980) and At Talaq (Roberto) (1986) and has served under his son David. From next season, Ben Hayes will partner with his brother, JD Hayes as the third generation to take the helm at Lindsay Park, and Fennessy continues to look forward to the challenge.

"The boys are taking over now and Ben will be the head trainer and JD will be involved," said Fennessy. "I think it's quite exciting with all the fresh ideas and the different ways we tackle things. I think it'll be great."

Elsewhere on the night, another long-term servant to a single family was recognised for his achievements, as Yarradale Park's David Hanratty took out the Leadership Award. A culmination of a five-month trip to Australia for the Irishman that saw him never go back.

"WA means a lot to me. I came here ten years ago with one suitcase and I was supposed to only be here for five months. I came over when War Chance had his first season," recalled Hanratty.

"I then met my beautiful wife Susan, and she made me fall in love with her and now I've been here ten years with the two kids."

Hanratty joined the Ron Sayers-owned operation in 2011 as stallion manager and doubles up as yearling manager during the busy yearling sales period.

"Everyday on the farm when we're teaching young people, you do need to remember that they're young people and a lot of them don't have a lot of experience, so you're constantly making sure of their safety, along with the safety of the valuable horses," said Hanratty.

"I work for two great people in Ron Sayers and his wife. They're not just my bosses, they're my best mates, and I wouldn't have it any other way."

While the evening paid tribute to long-term dedication, it also took note of fresh faces to the industry and the impact they have made in their short careers to date. And it was Jack Cripps, who swapped 'footy' for racing when he took charge of sales and syndicates for the McEvoy-

Mitchell Racing team in June last year, who won the Newcomers Award, earning an educational trip to Dubai and a $5,000 winners' prize.

"Winding back the clock, and to be able to work with horses in the first place would have been a privilege and something I thought would be a bit of a dream, but to actually sell horses, and combine my passion with what my strengths are is an absolute pleasure," said Western Australian Cripps, who graduated from the Thoroughbred Industry Careers' Explorer Program.

"When I started the course I didn't want to have the blinkers on and I wanted to take a broad view of what I could do in the industry, and I'm still a little bit like that," added Cripps. "But I definitely think the passion of trying to buy horses for people and watching their success is something that I'm more inclined to.

"The salesman comes out in me in getting those people who are looking for a horse and then getting the success for them and seeing the smile on their faces is definitely the highlight."

A total of seven awards were handed out on the night, including the Horsemanship Award, which went to Mandy Radecker, a former star apprentice in Queensland who had her riding career curtailed through injury, while the Dedication to Breeding category went to former Twin Hills stud manager Steve Brien.

The Thoroughbred Care and Welfare award was claimed by Victoria's Jade Willis and Cassandra Simmonds of Magic Millions was awarded recognition in the Administration and Ancillary Services category.

ZAAKI

TREVOR MARSHALLSEA | @ANZ_NEWS

For most of our lifetimes, Australians' knowledge about racing in Brazil was limited to probably three things:

1. The country produced Joao Moreira (and for the nightowls here, British-based gun Silvestre de Souza)

2. Horses from Brazil share a birthday with those from Australia (well they must, if you think about it)

3. And when you go to the huge Christ the Redeemer statue in Rio, one of the best bits is that it offers a great view downwards over the city's main track, the Hipodromo da Gavea.

But all this may be about to change dramatically, and pretty soon Leroidesanimaux could be a name on Australian racings fans' lips. Or better still, since that's as exotic a mouthful as a cup of guava juice, the name of his son Zaaki might be.

"All I know is," says jockey James McDonald when asked by this column about Zaaki's breeding, "he's by a stallion I can't pronounce."

Zaaki set the Australian racing scene alight, and earned Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) favouritism, with his imperious seven-length victory in the Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) last Saturday, sitting virtually in the death seat for a long way but powering home to give McDonald, burgeoning trainer Annabel Neasham, and all those aboard at the short odds a comfortable couple of minutes indeed.

Before that he'd slayed the field in the Hollindale Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) at the Gold Coast, come a narrow second in the JRA Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) at Randwick, and powered home for sixth at his Australian debut in the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m).

Zaaki

MICHAEL MCINALLY

Bought for England-born Neasham at last year's Autumn Horses in Training sale after winning twice and placing thrice at Group 3 level along with two Group 2 placings, the six-year-old gelding is unusual for a couple of reasons.

He was born and raised in England but is at his best on dry ground, hinted at by his seven-length win on the good at Doomben and his two-length Hollindale win on the soft. He's also built more like an Australian galloper than a European. It may be tempting to attribute both elements to his southern hemisphere sire, but in truth Zaaki's pedigree is mostly a classic mix of lines from the USA, GB, France and Canada (guess who?).

"He's a good type with a lot of bone, and a bit of size and substance to him," Neasham tells us. "In fact, he looks a lot more like an Australian horse than a typical European horse, which is probably what's helped him adapt so well out here.

"He's also a good track horse, a little unusually for Britain. He certainly relished the track on Saturday."

Neasham, Ciaran Maher's former foreperson who gained her own licence last year and now has 50 horses in work at Warwick Farm, admits to not spending a great amount of time on her sudden stable star's pedigree. Why would you, when they arrived as a proven commodity and win like they did on Saturday?

"I don't know much about his sire, though I've read a little about him now. He's out of a Sadler's Wells mare, and they need no introduction, but that's about it for me on the pedigree front," Neasham says.

In terms of how he's learned to race, however, Zaaki is all European, according to the man who's been on his back for his past three starts and may just be welded on there from here on in.

"He's similar to the Europeans I've ridden in the past, in terms of them being nice strong travellers, good high cruising speed, quite durable; they just keep galloping," says

McDonald. "They're just nice building horses, especially the good ones who come out here."

McDonald believes last Saturday's 2000 metres, or a touch less, would be Zaaki's ideal distance. Thus, he'll probably not be a spring Cups horse, but looks destined to thrill Australian fans in other ways, whilst building the legacy of his sire, who unfortunately died in 2016.

Leroidesanimaux was an outstanding galloper, freakishly good, if you consider the "BRZ" after his name. He won three G1s after moving to the US, took nine of his 13 starts, and was America's champion male turf horse in 2005.

He had been siring horses since 2006 out of Kentucky's Stonewall Farm and, from 2013, Lanwades Stud in Newmarket. Until last spring though, he'd not had a runner in Australia. Suddenly, he's had two good ones, with Le Don De Vie joining Anthony and Sam Freedman's stable from England and placing second in the Geelong Cup first-up, before winning the Listed Warrnambool Cup earlier this month.

Leroidesanimaux – a mush of four French words meaning "The king of the animals" – was bred by Haras Bage Do Sul at Acegua in Rio Grande Do Sul, thankfully for horses Brazil's southern-most state and far away from its tropics.

The breeding scene is, as expected, relatively small in Brazil. While South America produced 15 per cent of the global thoroughbred crop last year with 13,000 foals, Brazil accounted for just 1,735 of those. The odds on Leroidesanimaux being as good as he was then, were quite small.

Leroidesanimaux was by the American son of Blushing Groom (FR), Candy Stripes, who raced in France, stood in Argentina, then shuttled between there and the US. Leroidesanimaux would in fact become Candy Stripes' third-highest stakes-earner, though well behind the highest one – 2006 Breeders Cup Classic (Gr 1, 10f) winner, 2007 US Horse of the Year (and 2005 Uruguayan Triple Crown hero) Invador.

Leroidesanimaux was, however, the finest progeny of his British dam Dissemble (Ahonoora, GB). He had three starts at two (with Jesus watching) at the aforementioned Gavea, for a win and a place. He was then sent to North America, where after a debut fourth he won eight in a row, including three G1s in four starts at Hollywood Park, Santa Anita and Woodbine – the last of which by a Zaaki-like 7.5 lengths.

At stud, he's had 25 stakes winners from a relatively small 446 runners across 37 countries -- from Norway to Kazakhstan, to Venezuela, the Philippines and his home country Brazil, and of course the US, Britain et al. His highlight – by the length of the Gavea straight – has been Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) and Dubai World Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Animal Kingdom, who tops his earners' list with £5,210,584. Now second on that table, with £661,608, is Zaaki.

Leroidesanimaux

LANWADES STUD

Zaaki's female side is relatively unsung, with no one of note until his fourth dam Riverqueen (FR), who won three classic G1 equivalents in her homeland in the French Thousand Guineas (1600m), Grand Prix de Saint Cloud (2500m) and Prix Saint-Alary (2000m).

Riverqueen threw Zaaki's third dam Minya (USA) through her mating with Blushing Groom, meaning that French stallion – sire of 44 stakes-winners including Let's Elope's dad Nassipour -- doubles up in a 3x5 cross in the pedigree.

Northern Dancer (the Canadian of the piece) is in a 5x3 cross, thanks in the bottom half to Sadler's Wells siring Zaaki's dam Kesara (GB), who had a limited five-start career in France.

It's been a roundabout route to get here, but Zaaki has arrived with a very loud bang.

AXEL BACH MEIER

Tsar rules Valley with record-breaking victory for Tsui, Chadwick

BY LEO SCHLINK | HKJC_RACING

Undaunted by the frustrations of Tsar's (Kingman) challenging maiden Hong Kong season, Me Tsui's persistence was doubly rewarded when the British import smashed the Happy Valley 1650-metre track record and collected a HK$1 million High Achievement Bonus last night.

Formerly trained by John Gosden in Britain, where he was a three-time winner with three-year-old handicap success at Ascot in July 2020, Tsar endured a wretched initial campaign in Hong Kong until his blistering victory in the Class 2 Fort Handicap (1650m) yesterday.

The gelding's Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m) hopes were scuttled when he was scratched at the barriers after getting a hind leg caught over the back of the gates before the start of the Hong Kong Classic Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) on January 24 and he subsequently struggled reproduce the form he had shown in England.

Tsui's patience was rewarded at the city circuit last night when Matthew Chadwick used Tsar's light weight (119lb) to advantage to sit outside the speed before lowering the course record with a searing 1m 37.97s gallop – eclipsing Telecom Fighters' (The Brothers War) time of 1m 38.55s, set earlier on the program in race three.

Tsui also prepares Telecom Fighters, who was part of Joao Moreira's brace.

"The track is running very fast and he's got natural gate speed and got himself into a lovely position and had a light weight," Chadwick said after sealing a double. "He's still learning. He probably is a bit better with cover so he can settle early in the race, but he did it well enough and I hope there's more to come.

"He gets himself a bit hot and bothered and so he's not very robust underneath you. He gets a bit worked up, so that doesn't help him so when he does learn to relax, he's going to hit the line better.

Tsar

HKJC

"When he hit the front today, he kicked clear and he was a bit wayward still, so there's something there to work with."

Tsar's effort to fend off Green Luck (Street Cry) and Savaquin (Savabeel) in clock-busting style saw the lightly-raced galloper join the High Achievement Bonus honour roll as the 16th horse this season to collect a bonus for winning a Class 2 contest before turning five.

Nine other horses have collected bonuses and top-ups for winning in Class 1 or above.

Plagued by injury through much of his career, Dancing Fighter (Zoustar) vindicated Caspar Fownes' faith with a record-breaking display to win the Class 3 Java Handicap (1000m) at Happy Valley, underlining the value of perseverance.

Restricted to just ten starts over three seasons, the gelding lowered Stronger's (Not A Single Doubt) mark of 56.11s with a blistering display of speed to set a new record of 56.09s with a mid-race sectional of 20.84s between the 800 metres and 400 metres.

Having only his third outing for the season, the Australian import – who is owned by popular Hong Kong artist Aaron Kwok – delighted Fownes, who has nursed the five-year-old back to health from chronic leg issues.

"He's done it very nicely, so I'm very happy. He's been back and forth from Conghua to Sha Tin, he's had some proximal ligament issues and it's taken a while to get him over that," Fownes said.

"The horse did really early days and then had injuries. It's like anything, it's hard to get them back. It's just nice to get that result – he was comfortable and let down and he looks to be back to where he was.

"It's a job well done, big credit to the team over in Conghua. He's got a lot of talent and he's still relatively lightly-raced. So, I'm just happy to bring him back and hopefully he can come through this race alright and hopefully he can get to another race in a couple of weeks."

Vincent Ho added more lustre to a phenomenal season, crowned by five Group 1 triumphs, by posting his 50th victory of the term aboard Jimmy Ting's A La King (Denman) in the second section of the Class 4 Tong Shui Handicap (1200m).

Ting credited the gelding's success to the application of blinkers.

"Last two starts, he disappointed, but if look you at the replay, he was a bit shy of the other horses," Ting said. "This time, we gave him the blinkers and he is much more comfortable."

"It made a difference. This time, when he passed the horse, he was much more focused."

Telecom Fighters made it two wins from three starts with success in the Class 3 Merlin Handicap (1650) under Joao Moreira, clocking a new course record of 1m 38.55s – which stood for barely two and a half hours.

Zac Purton retained flickering hopes of landing a fifth jockeys' championship by partnering Benno Yung's Jolly Good Heart (Danerich) to victory in the first section of the Class 4 Tong Shui Handicap (1200m).

Manfred Man attributes Great Harvest's (Harbour Watch) form surge to a gradual adjustment to Hong Kong's racing environment after the gelding posted his second straight victory with success in the first section of the Class 5 Whitfield Handicap (1200m) under Alexis Badel.

Aaron Kwok celebrates with Caspar Fownes

HKJC

Unplaced in 11 starts in his first two seasons in Hong Kong, Great Harvest has posted three wins and three placings from ten outings this term, with Wednesday night's victory in a class record of 1m 09.62s.

"When he first came to Hong Kong, he was very nervous," Man said. "I had to work him blinkers to try and keep him calm and he also raced in blinkers."

"As he settled down, I decided to take the blinkers off and he's been running well."

Man celebrated a double after Chadwick steered Manna From Heaven (Dragon Pulse) to victory in the Class 4 Westlands Handicap (1650m), following the trainer's instructions to the letter.

The win was the gelding's second from three starts over the city circuit's 1650-metre trip.

Peter Ho and Dylan Mo combined with Viva Mama (Dream Ahead) to snare the first section of the Class 5 Whitfield Handicap (1200m) ahead of For Fun's Sake (Manhattan Rain) and After Me (Equiano).

"Truly he was knocking at the door. He's only four and from time to time, he's been improving," Ho said.

Antoine Hamelin and Tony Millard closed the programme in style with Sparkling Dragon (O'Reilly), winner of the Class 3 Marble Handicap (1200m).

Hong Kong racing continues at Sha Tin on Sunday and features the Lion Rock Trophy Handicap (Gr 3, 1600m).

BETTING FORECAST: 11-10 Sangarius, 5-2 Extra Elusive, 4 Fox Tal, 10 Oriental Mystique, 16 Euchen Glen.

VERDICT It's hard to get away from SANGARIUS, who has a good chance on the figures and whose trainer has a superb record in this race. The selection was only fourth in this contest last year when it was held at Haydock but he seemed to need that reappearance run and it was a better renewal to boot (Lord North won, Elarqam finished second). This time round he has the benefit of recent match practice and faces slightly easier opposition. Extra Elusive and Fox Tal are the main dangers, in that order. [Steve Boow]
