Ole Kirk takes Golden Rose in Hawkes quinella

Closely related to champion mare Black Caviar, the blueblood held off stablemate North Pacific to take the $1 million feature

BY ANDREW HAWKINS | @ANZ_NEWS

The Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) rather than The Everest (1200m) looks the likely next stop for Ole Kirk (3 c Written Tycoon - Naturale by Bel Esprit) after the colt secured his future at stud with a tremendous victory in the Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Rosehill yesterday, leading home a quinella for the Michael, Wayne and John Hawkes training partnership.

By Written Tycoon (Iglesia) out of Naturale (Bel Esprit), a sister to legendary mare Black Caviar, Ole Kirk already had one of the most desirable pedigree pages in the Australian Stud Book and had put together a handy resume in just six starts. That included a win in the Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) and placings in the VRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m), the Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and the Run To The Rose (Gr 2, 1200m).

Ticking the Group 1 box, though, elevates Ole Kirk to one of the hottest stallion prospects in the country, a profile that is only set to grow in the coming weeks as he heads towards the Caulfield Guineas.

Sent out the $7 second elect behind $1.55 hotpot Rothfire (Rothsay), the Tommy Berry-ridden Ole Kirk settled beyond midfield on the rail. Meanwhile, Rothfire - the shortest-priced favourite since the Peter Pan Stakes became the Golden Rose in 2003 - was forced to battle the elements and his rivals in a bid to add a second Group 1 to his record.

WE'VE ALWAYS HAD TWO REALLY GOOD COLTS AND WE'VE TRIED TO SEPARATE THEM, BUT OBVIOUSLY THIS IS THE GRAND FINAL, THE GROUP 1S, AND YOU PUT THEM AGAINST EACH OTHER. TO RUN ONETWO, IT'S FANTASTIC

- MICHAEL HAWKES

Rob Heathcote's Rothfire was fast to begin with Jim Byrne aboard but could not cross to the rail as Nash Rawiller on Mamaragan (Wandjina) kicked up underneath him. That forced Byrne to work hard to get down to the rail, with the gelding recording a 10.66 sectional from the 1200 metres to the 1000 metres into a blustery headwind.

While Byrne did his best to give Rothfire a breather down the side - with the rider himself saying that the Queenslander got "soft sectionals" in front - the over-racing Yardstick (Criterion) applied pressure as well, ensuring that it would take something special for the horse dubbed the 'Thrilla from Chinchilla' to prevail.

Rothfire had the temerity to kick clear upon straightening and for a few strides it appeared that he may be able to overcome all of the hurdles that had been placed in his way. Passing the 200 metres, though, it became clear that it was too big a mountain to climb as Rothfire and his stablemate North Pacific (Brazen Beau) dashed on by from well back in the field.

North Pacific was pulled to the outside by James McDonald and had time to build momentum while Berry was forced to await a gap, momentarily held up passing the 300 metres before he was able to switch over the heels of Peltzer (So You Think) into clear running.

"This year the Torryburn 2020 Easter draft was prepared using the Cashel Light Masks and the results were fantastic. I believe this has been our best ever presented draft to be offered for sale. The horses' coats gleamed like a mirror, but we also noticed increased muscle development and an absence of viral infections. Generally, the overall condition and health of the yearlings was above our usual standard. I highly recommend the use of blue light technology for later sales to have horses in prime condition."

The pair came with their runs at the same time, with North Pacific looking to have the upper hand early in their titanic struggle. However, Ole Kirk kicked back under Berry and held North Pacific to the line, edging clear to record a head success.

Two-time Group 1 winner King's Legacy (Redoute's Choice) recorded an eye-catching Guineas trial, flashing home into third, two lengths from the winner, with Rothfire fading into fourth, a further length and a quarter away.

"I could see North Pacific coming down the outside," Michael Hawkes said. "To his credit he was very gallant in defeat, to put in the effort from where he was to get back. Tommy just got held up and he had to wait for the right run. That probably proved the difference - just by being held up, he was able to sprint that little bit better.

- TOMMY BERRY

"They've streeted the rest. We've always had two really good colts and we've tried to separate them, but obviously this is the Grand Final, the Group 1s, and you put them against each other. To run one-two, it's fantastic.

"I said to Neil Werrett before the first-up run, that the horse was going very good, as good as he's ever gone. He's from the All Too Hard, Black Caviar family - it just doesn't get any better. He is going to excel further. Look out Caulfield Guineas."

Berry, who brought up Group 1 win number 30 yesterday, added: "I didn't know it was James outside me on North Pacific but I thought I was beaten 80 metres out. But Ole just pinned his ears back, he didn't want to lie down.

"He's had a great attitude all preparation, he's definitely a lot more mature than he was last season. The writing was on the wall last time, everyone forgot about him to a certain extent but we definitely didn't at home in the stable."

Rothfire was unsaddled and walked back to the enclosure riderless, with the vets reporting him to be lame in his off fore leg, graded three out of five. There was also concern about a shoulder and it appeared last night that he was in serious doubt to contest the $15 million The Everest, where he holds the miRunners slot.

"My main concern is for the health and the well-being of the horse," Heathcote told 7News. "We've got to find out what's wrong; fingers crossed that everything works out."

Racing in the green and yellow colours of Neil Werrett, who was also managing part-owner of Black Caviar, Ole Kirk was bred by Rick Jamieson's Gilgai Farm, just like his close relation. And Werrett last night said he was awaiting calls from eager stud farms wanting the breeding rights for the Golden Rose winner.

"The breeding and the whole thing that has gone into this race. I can't believe we have won it," Werrett said. "As soon as I saw the page and I remembered Rick had told me about this sister to Black Caviar way back, and how unfortunate it was that she couldn't race; when it was coming up in Melbourne, I asked the Hawkeses if they had looked at it and they said it was on their list to buy. I said I want to buy it."

"I got Mark Player to buy for me because I didn't want people to think the Hawkeses were buying for me. I have put my sister, Colin Madden and Brett (Bradley) into her and Rick stayed in. That makes it more special."

"This family is very special and if someone wants to give us $50 million, they can stand him."

Purchased by Player's International Thoroughbred Solutions on Werrett's behalf for $675,000 at last year's Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, the Gilgai Farm-consigned Ole Kirk has now earned $835,600 from just seven starts.

"He was so immature but that family keeps getting better and better," recalled Gilgai Farm manager Kelly Skillecorn. "He was an immature colt at the sales and I'm just so grateful he ended up with the Hawkes' who are so patient with these colts and there's none better in turning a yearling colt into a stallion and they've done it again."

"Just take a look at his page, there's none better in the studbook. Black Caviar, All Too Hard, Scandinavia, Magnus, now you can add Ole Kirk to that. Wow. The mare is back in foal to Written Tycoon too, which is a huge result now especially."

For Michael Hawkes, though, the Ole Kirk purchase in March last year - as well as North Pacific's acquisition from the same sale - is a reminder of the team effort that goes into his training partnership with father John and brother Wayne.

"Dad and Wayne saw the colts at the sale, I wasn't there," he said. "It's a team effort, I was home here with the horses and they did that particular sale, they were the top two lots and they've finished one-two here."

"For us it's about trying to buy these athletes from day one - it's not about the price tag. I know price tag comes with it nine times out of 10 but we make colts, it's what we love doing, and we've just made another two. It's a great thrill. There's no fluke. They were always going to improve."

While the Caulfield Guineas does appear the most logical target with Ole Kirk, Werrett occupies an Everest slot along with Max Whitby. They are yet to choose their runner; if not Ole Kirk, then perhaps North Pacific will fill their slot for the world's richest race on turf, providing a fitting conclusion to a grand Golden Rose.

Crosshaven

While Ole Kirk was the star of the show in Sydney, the Melbourne colts and geldings attempted to put their name forward in the Caulfield Guineas Prelude (Gr 3, 1400m), with the prize a clash with the Golden Rose winner in two weeks.

Step forward Crosshaven (3 g Smart Missile - Irish Colleen by Shinko King), with the Tom Dabernig and Ben Hayes-trained gelding taking his record to four wins from five starts with his victory in the Prelude.

Settling handy under Daniel Stackhouse, Crosshaven put a length and three-quarters on his nearest chasers, Amish Boy (Star Witness) and National Choice (Snitzel).

"It was a really good effort because it looked to me that they really ran along there and he was able to do it at both ends," Hayes said. "He's a pretty nice horse, isn't he?"

"He really accelerated well and won well so it's really exciting looking ahead. He's four from five now. He's got a fantastic record and every race he's won impressively. He's now a serious contender heading towards the Caulfield Guineas."

In perhaps a sign of where analysts see the Prelude as opposed to other three-year-old formlines, Crosshaven sits at $11 in the TAB's Caulfield Guineas market, with Ole Kirk the $6 second favourite behind $5 elect Mo'unga (Savabeel), the unbeaten Dulcify Quality (Listed, 1500m) winner.

Crosshaven puts hand up to tackle Ole Kirk

Crosshaven also sits behind Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloo (Lord Kanaloo) and Bill Stutt Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) victor Glenfiddich (Fastnet Rock) in terms of Victorian-based horses, with both Tagaloo and Glenfiddich Group 1-placed in Sydney during the autumn.

Bred by Daniel Nakhle, who raced his Group 2-winning dam Irish Colleen (Shinko King), Crosshaven was purchased by Lindsay Park Racing for NZ$80,000 at last year's NZB Premier Yearling Sale at Karaka. However, Nakhle has retained a share with Crosshaven racing in his teal colours.

Irish Colleen has produced six foals, five of them named, all winners; Crosshaven is the fifth of them. Among her previous foals is Group 3 winner Killarney (O'Reilly), while Neeson (O'Reilly) is a seven-time winner.

Crosshaven's family traces back to 1976-1977 Australian Horse of the Year Maybe Mahal (Maybe Lad), with the champion mare his fifth dam.

In the fillies' equivalent, the Thousand Guineas Prelude (Gr 2, 1400m), Instant Celebrity (3 f Not A Single Doubt - Celebrity Girl by Starcraft) all but cemented favouritism for the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) with her easy victory yesterday, remaining undefeated after four starts.

Stepping out as favourite in the race in which her dam Celebrity Girl (Starcraft) tasted her first defeat in 2011, the Phillip Stokes-trained filly won more comfortably than the one-length margin would suggest. After racing beyond midfield, Instant Celebrity sprinted up powerfully to defeat Personal (Fastnet Rock) with Sydney visitor Rock My Wand (Wandjina) closing for third.

"Isn't she exciting?" Stokes said. "I've got to give full credit to the team back in Adelaide, they've done a fantastic job with this filly, taken her through the grades. She's come over here in excellent condition so it was really good to see her do that today."

IT WAS A REALLY GOOD EFFORT BECAUSE IT LOOKED TO ME THAT THEY REALLY RAN ALONG THERE AND HE WAS ABLE TO DO IT AT BOTH ENDS

"She's always done everything well back at Morphettsville, just kept on improving. She's got the confidence and she's a real class act."

While the mile represents a new challenge again for Instant Celebrity, Stokes and jockey Craig Williams were in agreement that it posed no issues for her.

"I don't think it will be a big problem. She's a lovely, big, scopey filly, I think she'll even get further in time," Stokes said, with Williams adding: "She held the bridle nicely and when the gates opened she really relaxed. I remembered when I rode Miss Finland, when you ask them to go, that these types of quality horses can take off. She was really good, soft and smooth. What I asked her to do today, the normal, average horses can't do. She's really exciting and she's still got a lot of maturing to do."

Bred by Robertson Equine Investments and raced by principals Trevor and Beth Robertson, Instant Celebrity is the fourth foal - and clearly the best performer - out of Listed winner Celebrity Girl.

Celebrity Girl has a yearling Pierro (Lonhro) colt but missed to Santos (I Am Invincible) last year.

Russian to Cox Plate after Underwood success

It was a three-year-old ineligible for the Caulfield Guineas, though, that stole the spotlight at Caulfield yesterday as Russian Camelot (4 h Camelot - Lady Babooshka by Cape Cross) brought up his second Group 1 win in the Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m).

Russian Camelot, a four-year-old for Australian purposes but actually still a northern hemisphere three-year-old, is a clear-cut favourite for the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) and is also equal favourite for the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) after he defeated the older horses yesterday. And Melbourne Cup-winning trainer Danny O'Brien did little to dampen the hype by declaring the seven-start veteran his best horse ever.

Ridden outside the leader by Damien Oliver in a departure from his regular hold-up tactics, Russian Camelot strode up towards the lead approaching the straight, coming wide which had proved the most effective ground during the day.

Arcadia Queen (Pierro) stuck to the inside and matched motors with the favourite for a short while, but soon it was a one-horse affair as Russian Camelot went two lengths clear.

At the line, the South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner had a length and three-quarters in hand over old marvel Humidor (Teofilo), who closed in nearer the rail, with a further half-length to Arcadia Queen in third.

"I think he's the best horse I've had anything to do with, particularly to do so much so early in his career," O'Brien said. "He's a magnificent colt and we're thrilled that he's got this done today and hopefully it's not the end of the spring for him."

"It's really exciting to see him produce performances like this so early in his career. There's been a lot of hype around him, people are expecting things like this so it's really exciting to see him go out there and get it done. From here, our plan is to go two weeks to the Caulfield Stakes and then two weeks to the Cox Plate."

The TAB last night wound Russian Camelot into $3.50 favourite for the centenary Cox Plate, the only entrant in single figures.

Sir Dragonet (Camelot), who will join the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace yard, is second favourite at $11, potentially giving Coolmore's Camelot (Montjeu) the top two contenders in the race widely considered Australia's weight-for-age championship. Camelot shuttled to Australia for one season in 2014.

For his part, Oliver - a two-time Cox Plate winner aboard Dane Ripper (Danahill) in 1997 and Northerly (Serheed) in 2001 - believes the race could prove suitable for Russian Camelot.

"Yeah, he could well be a Cox Plate horse," he said. "It's a nice preparation for him. I like the fact that he's running fortnightly because he can be a bit fresh. Getting the racing into him now, he's got a good foundation. Danny's done a great job preparing him so I'm looking forward to the races ahead."

Purchased for 120,000gns at the 2018 Tattersalls October Yearling Sales - Book 1 at Newmarket, Russian Camelot has now earned $911,225 from just seven starts, with the promise of more to come.

Russian Camelot is the second foal of unraced Lady Babooshka (Cape Cross), while his second dam Balalaika (Sadler's Wells) was a Listed winner over nine furlongs.

Lady Babooshka is a three-quarter sister to Group 2 winner Alkaadem (Green Desert), fourth in the Dubai Duty Free (Gr 1, 1777m) won by Australia's Elvstroem (Danahill), as well as consistent handicapper Raising Sand (Oasis Dream).

Russian Camelot has a two-year-old sister named Russian Camilla, who is in training with Sylvester Kirk in the UK. Lady Babooshka also has a filly foal by Zoffany (Dansili), while she is back in foal to Camelot.

Ten for Written Tycoon

Arrowfield Stud and Woodside Park Stud's Written Tycoon (Iglesia) brought up an interstate Group 1 double within 24 hours yesterday when blueblood Ole Kirk (3 c ex Naturelle by Bel Esprit) took out the Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), following in the footsteps of Pippie's victory in the A. J. Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) on Friday night. Ole Kirk became Written Tycoon's tenth individual Group 1 winner after his narrow victory over North Pacific (Brazen Beau), giving trainers Michael, Wayne and John Hawkes a quinella in the $1 million feature. Written Tycoon stands at Arrowfield Stud for $77,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

36 for Written Tycoon

Not only did Written Tycoon produce the Golden Rose victor, but he also brought up his 36th individual stakes winner later in the afternoon when Stageman (6 g ex Best Feature by Secret Savings) took out the Black Heart Bart Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Belmont at his first start since December. It was the first time the race, registered as the Birthday Stakes, had been named in honour of Perth star Black Heart Bart (Blackfriars), who twice won the Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) at Caulfield on this day. Ridden by Clint Johnston-Porter, the Adam Durrant-trained Stageman - who finished second in the race last year - swept up well in the straight, hanging in but holding a long head advantage over Cup Night (Maschino) at the line, with Dance Music (War Chant) another length and a half away in third. Purchased for $310,000 out of the 2016 Inglis Ready2Race Sale, the Bob Peters-owned Stageman traces back to Group 1 winner Miss Margaret (Marscay), who was also bought by Peters as a yearling.

32 for Rip Van Winkle

The late Irish-bred stallion Rip Van Winkle (Galileo) produced his 32nd individual stakes winner yesterday when Subpoenaed (4 m ex Notice Received by O'Reilly) landed the Golden Pendant (Gr 2, 1400m) at Rosehill Gardens. Subpoenaed, trained by Chris Waller, took the $392,000 race in convincing fashion, defeating Emeralds (Sebring) by one and a quarter lengths, with Sharaco Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) runner-up Jen Rules (Redoute's Choice) back in third. Subpoenaed's well-fancied stable companion Haut Brion Her (Zoustar), who won the Sharaco, finished back in seventh. Rip Van Winkle, who was standing at Windsor Park Stud in New Zealand, died in August aged 14.

Golden Eagle awaits Subpoenaed

Subpoenaed (Rip Van Winkle) will target the $7.5 million Golden Eagle (1500m) following her impressive performance in the Golden Pendant, Chris Waller has confirmed. The four-year-old, who has often been unlucky when challenging from the back of the field, was positioned well by Tommy Berry and charged home from a good draw in barrier five. Waller tried Subpoenaed over a middle-distance in the autumn but believes she's best over a shorter trip. "She gives you the impression because she comes from behind that she will get further but it is not the case with her," Waller said. "She likes to be left alone early to find her feet and find her rhythm. There was good speed on and the barrier draw helped us be a little bit closer." Waller confirmed Subpoenaed would next be seen in the Silver Eagle (1300m) at Randwick on October 10, ahead of the Golden Eagle at Rosehill on October 31.

65 for Footstepsinthesand

Irish-bred I Am Superman (5 h ex Fastnet Lady by Fastnet Rock) earned Footstepsinthesand (Giant's Causeway) his 65th individual stakes winner when landing yesterday's Shannon Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) at Rosehill. The Paul and Peter Snowden-trained I Am Superman, who had his first run for the stable earlier this year having moved from Michael O'Callaghan's yard in Ireland, defeated Riodini (Proisir) by one and a quarter lengths, with Looks Like Elvis (All American) close behind in third. Footstepsinthesand, who won the 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) in 2005, stood at Coolmore in Ireland for a $15,000 (approx AUD$24,825) fee in 2020.

Toorak, not Epsom, for Superman

Despite his strong victory in the Shannon Stakes, Paul Snowden has ruled out backing up I Am Superman in the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) on October 3. A first up winner in Melbourne, I Am Superman found himself back in Sydney after failing to get a start in last week's Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and he will now be heading back to Victoria for the Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600) at Caulfield on October 10. "We really wanted to win today to make sure we got into the Toorak," Snowden said. "The Epsom is a little bit too strong on paper for him I feel. We were devastated when we didn't get a run in the Rupert Clarke last weekend. We thought he would be very effective. They were the races we wanted to be targeting, those Group 1 handicaps."

First for Tapit

Love Tap

SPORTPIX

Three-time North American champion sire Tapit (Pulpit) brought up his 136th individual stakes winner, but his first in Australia, yesterday when Love Tap (3 g ex Smokey's Love by Forestry) took out the Gloaming Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) at Rosehill. Sent out an odds-on favourite after wins at Nowra and Goulburn to begin his career, the Richard and Michael Freedman-prepared Love Tap led all the way under a well-judged Nash Rawiller ride to defeat Street Dancer (Pride Of Dubai) by a length and three-quarters with a nose to the regally-bred Bucharest (Deep Impact) in third. Love Tap, the year-younger half-brother to American Grade 1 winner Fighting Mad (New Year's Day), was purchased by Dynamic Syndications for $110,000 at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Tapit stood at Gainesway Farm in Kentucky for $200,000 (approx. AUD$284,500) in 2020.

Love Tap cements Spring Champion favouritism

The unbeaten Love Tap confirmed his favouritism for next month's Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) when he made all to earn four wins in as many starts in the Gloaming Stakes. Richard Freedman said they had not planned to make the running on Saturday but Nash Rawiller took the race by the horns. "I said to Nash, 'don't let the leaders get too far away'. He kind of took that a bit literally," Freedman said. "I was happy to see him out there. They would have to run some good sectionals to run over him."

33 for Makfi

Former Westbury Stud shuttle stallion Makfi (Dubawi) brought up his 33rd individual stakes winner yesterday when French import Attorney (6 g ex Tia Kia by Montjeu) broke through for a first black-type win in the Colin Stephen Quality (Gr 3, 2400m) at Rosehill. The northern hemisphere-bred Attorney, trained by Matthew Smith, produced a strong staying effort to score by a length and a quarter over last year's German St Leger (Gr 3, 2800m) runner-up Djukon (Jukebox Jury), with a nose to the winner's stablemate Grey Lion (Galileo) in third. Makfi stands at Shizunai Stallion Station in Japan, where he has been based since 2017.

Attorney eyes next week's Metropolitan

Matthew Smith is tempted to give Attorney the chance to take out the Colin Stephen Quality and The Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m) double, last completed by Railings (Zabeel) in 2005, after his victory in the Group 3 yesterday. However, he will need to discuss whether to back him up next weekend with Terry Henderson, principal of OTI Racing, with the Herbert Power Stakes (Gr 2, 2400m) - a ballot-exempt race for the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) - also a possibility. "He was impressive today and I suppose with that run under his belt it might be time to take a chance," Smith said. "He's in there. Better judges than me can make that decision. We'll go back and have a think about that one, but I'd like to speak to the owners and Terry first. I was just happy to see him switched off. We wanted a reasonably genuine gallop, not a stop-start race. He got into a nice rhythm, looked comfortable. It worked out he got the nice runs in the end." Henderson will join ANZ Bloodstock News for a new weekly series, Road To The Cup, beginning on Tuesday.

176 for Exceed And Excel

The James Cummings-trained Coruscate (6 g ex Dazzler by More Than Ready) comfortably landed the Testa Rossa Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Caulfield yesterday to bring up the 176th individual stakes winner for 2012-13 champion sire Exceed And Excel's (Danahill). Ridden by Damien Oliver, the gelding comfortably saw off eight-year-old Runson (Delzao) by two and a quarter lengths under, with favourite Order Of Command (Squamosa) a nose away third. Exceed and Excel stands at Darley NSW for $132,000.

Switching states the secret to Coruscate

The winning formula for Coruscate has now been found according to James Cummings'

Melbourne stable foreman Sean Keogh. Following Coruscate's victory in the Testa Rossa Stakes yesterday, Keogh noted that Coruscate's last three wins had been when switching states. "He came down (to Melbourne) last preparation and won at Bendigo and then we took him back to Sydney and he won," Keogh said. "It is working well. They've brought him down again from Sydney and he's now won a Listed race." Coruscate was given a perfect run by Damien Oliver, sitting nicely behind Runson before taking the lead with 250 metres to go. Oliver thought he may have hit the front too soon, but Coruscate was well weighted and proved too good for his rivals.

Seven for Rothersey

The Lindsay Hatch-trained Jadentom (7 m ex Like The Wind by Deputy Governor) provided Rothersey (Fastnet Rock) with his seventh individual stakes winner when landing the Weetwood Handicap (Listed, 1200m) at Toowoomba yesterday. Ridden by Andrew Mallyon, the mare defeated Red Chase (Red Element) by three quarters of a length, with Fiery Price (Hidden Dragon) running into third at a big price. Rothersey, who also sired Group 1 winner Rothfire, stands at Lyndhurst Stud Farm for $4,950 (inc GST).

Wild Ruler to follow Cosmic Force path

Wild Ruler (Snitzel) will hope to emulate the success of Cosmic Force (Deep Field) in next month's Roman Consul Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) after Paul Snowden confirmed the three-year-old colt would be following the same path as his stablemate after resuming with a comprehensive win the Heritage Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Rosehill yesterday. Cosmic Force contested both races last year, finishing second in the Heritage and winning the Roman Consul, before finishing sixth in the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington. "He had the trip away and it is just starting to come together slowly," Snowden, who trains in partnership with his father Peter, said. "Six months ago he wouldn't have relaxed that well in and around other runners. There is the Roman Consul in a couple of weeks so that's a good guide to which races we head to down south."

Knight significant Melbourne Cup firmer

It may only have been a Benchmark-84 handicap win, but the victory of Saracen Knight (Camelot) at Caulfield yesterday saw the Lloyd Williams-owned Irish import firm from $201 into as short as $26 for the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m). Saracen Knight transferred from one O'Brien to another - from Aidan to Danny - and was having just his second start in Australia, having made ground late for seventh first-up over a mile at Moonee Valley; that was his first run in two years. While the Melbourne Cup may be a bridge too far, the manner of his win yesterday - making significant late ground to collar Irish Flame (Zed) - suggests he has a bright future down under. "He's a horse that has pleased us the whole time he's been with us," O'Brien said. "There's a lot of options between now and the end of the spring. We've got a lot of mile-and-a-half races that he can look at so we'll sit down with Lloyd and Nick next week and work it out."

Kembla postponed due to high winds

The second half of yesterday's meeting at Kembla Grange was called off due to high winds, which were gusting up to 100 kilometres an hour. Following the third race on the card, the jockeys who had taken part in that event expressed concerns to stewards about the wind and the effect it had on their mounts during that race. After interviewing a delegation of senior riders and taking advice from the Bureau of Meteorology about the forecast, stewards made the decision to postpone the meeting.

NEW ZEALAND

Four for Jimmy Choux

Supreme Heights (5 m ex Summer Heights by Stark South) brought up Jimmy Choux's (Thorn Park) fourth stakes success when winning the NZB Ready Sale Trainers Series (Gr 3, 1400m) at New Plymouth yesterday. The Mark Broznan-trained five-year-old finished one and a half lengths in front of second placed London Express (Shamexpress), with Ladies First (Dylan Thomas) a further two and a half lengths back in third. Jimmy Choux, a five-time Group 1 winner, stands at Rosalee Park, WA.

Supreme Heights leads throughout to win feature

Supreme Heights grittily led all the way to land yesterday's NZB Ready To Run Sale Trainers Series. The lightly raced five-year-old relished the testing underfoot conditions as she repelled the challenges of London Express and Ladies First to register her first stakes win. Mark Brosnan had been worried about the testing track conditions before the race but was relieved to see how well Supreme Heights handled the conditions. "From that wide draw (barrier 13) it was a very tough effort," the winning trainer said. "I wasn't that confident she was going to cope with the ground but she handled it better than I thought she would. She won on a Dead6 at Te Rapa last time and I think that's her favoured surface but she does go pretty well on the heavy stuff as well. She might have one or two more starts before we pop her out for a break. The logical target would be the Breeders' Stakes at Hawera in a fortnight but we will just have to see how she pulls up."

First two-year-old race to Te Akau

Race favourite Quattro Quinta (Darci Brahma) backed up an impressive trial performance when he proved too quick over 880 metres in the first two-year-old event of the season at Ellerslie yesterday. The first two-year-old to step out this season for leading trainer Jamie Richards, who produced subsequent Karaka Million 2YO (1200m) and Sistema Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Cool Aza Beel (Savabeel) in the same event last year, Quattro Quinta is bred and raced by Karyn Fenton-Ellis, Greg Tomlinson, David and Matthew Peacocke, and Oliver Saxton. "He's bred by some good supporters of the stable, so I'm very pleased for them, and it was great to have Troy (Harris) back out there riding winners," Richards said. "It was a nice win from a nice horse. It's good to win early season two-year-old races and get them going. He's come to hand naturally and hasn't had any pressure put on him, like we treat all our horses at two." A half-sister to Quattro Quinta, by Te Akau star Xtravagant (Pentire), was born at Newhaven Park Stud across the Tasman yesterday morning.

Blowout in first Road To The Jericho heat

Master Fin (Nom Du Jeu) caused a massive upset at New Plymouth yesterday when he outstayed his rivals to take out the NZB Airfreight Road To The Jericho (3210m), scoring at $61 on the TAB Fixed Odds market. It was the second running of the race, which serves as the first New Zealand qualifying event for the Jericho Cup (4600m) at Warrnambool in late November. Master Fin was away from the track for three and a half years after sustaining a tendon injury when winning the Summer Cup (2400m) at Trentham in September 2016. "I knew he would be fit enough but he's nine years old and hasn't won a flat race for quite a while so that was a big question mark before the race," winning trainer Mark Oulaghan said. "Looking at the field, they were mainly jumpers so I thought if he could revert to his best flat form he was a big show, but it was just whether he could actually do that."

INTERNATIONAL

28 for Pride Of Dubai

Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) sired his 28th individual winner when Dubai Honour (2 c ex Mondelice by Montjeu) kept on strongly to get off the mark at the third time of asking in a mile novice contest at Haydock yesterday. The William Haggas-trained colt beat Oman (Australia) by two and a half lengths, with Military Mission (Mastercraftsman) another length and a quarter away in third. A 110,000gns purchase at Tattersalls last year, Dubai Honour is the first foal out of the unraced Monelice (Montjeu), who herself is a half sister to the Group 3 winner Last Kingdom (Frankel). Pride Of Dubai stands for $38,500 at Coolmore Australia in 2020.

First for Mehmas

Europe's leading first season sire Mehmas (Acclamation) broke new ground yesterday when Supremacy (2 c ex Triggers Broom by Arcano) provided him with a first elite level winner courtesy of a battling performance in the Middle Park Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at Newmarket. Having his first shot at the highest level after landing the Richmond Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) at Goodwood in July, the Clive Cox-trained colt made all to see off the sustained challenge of 5-2 favourite Lucky Vega (Lope De Vega) by half a length, with another of Mehmas' progeny, Minzaal, another two and a quarter lengths away back in third. A £65,000 purchase from Goffs last summer, Supremacy is the third foal out of Triggers Broom (Arcano), who herself is a half sister to Hong Kong Group 1 winner Xtension (Xaar). Mehmas, who also won the Richmond during his eight-race career, could only finish third in the Middle Park in the final race of his career before retiring to stud in 2016. He stood at Tally Ho Stud in Ireland for a fee of €7,500 (approx. AUD$12,400) in 2020. Bookmakers were impressed with Supremacy's performance and cut him to 8-1 for next year's Commonwealth Cup (Gr 1, 6f).

Three for No Nay Never

Former shuttler No Nay Never (Scat Daddy) sired his third individual elite level winner when Alcohol Free (2 f ex Plying by Hard Spun) came out on top in a thrilling edition of the Cheveley Park Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at Newmarket yesterday. Having just her third start, the Andrew Balding-trained filly saw off the persistent challenge of Miss Amulet (Sir Prancealot) and the fast finishing Umm Kulthum (Kodiak) to win by half a length and a head. A winner at Newbury on her debut, Alcohol Free was a well backed 7-2 chance lining up off the back of a second in the Dick Poole Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at Salsbury. Bred by Churchtown House Stud, Alcohol Free was a €40,000 purchase at Goffs in November 2018. She is the fourth foal out of the Hard Spun (Danzig) mare Plying, who has also produced the Listed winner Alexander James (Camelot). Plying herself is a half sister to the Group-placed winner Kissing Lights (Machiavellian). No Nay Never, who shuttled to Australia for four seasons, stood at Coolmore's base in Ireland for a fee of €175,000 (approx. AUD$290,000) in 2020. The bookmakers introduced Alcohol Free as a 16-1 chance for next year's 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m).

328 for Galileo

The great Galileo (Sadler's Wells) sired his 328th individual stakes winner when his son High Definition (2 c ex Palace by Fastnet Rock) put in a barnstorming finish to take out yesterday's Beresford Stakes (Gr 2, 1m) at the Curragh and in the process rocket to the head of the betting for next year's Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f). The Aidan O'Brien-trained juvenile appeared to have little chance of following up his debut win over the course and distance last month when sat last of the 13 runners straightening up, but he galloped strongly to the line under Seamie Heffernan, catching Monaasib (Bobby's Kitten) late on to post the most unlikely of victories. Sent off the 9-5 favourite High Definition needed every yard of the mile trip to register his three-quarters of a length victory, with Snapraeterea (Buratino) a further three lengths away in third. O'Brian has dominated the race in recent years with Capri (Galileo), Saxon Warrior (Deep Impact) and Japan (Galileo) among his 19 previous victors in a contest which has also been won by the likes of Sadler's Wells (Northern Dancer), Alamshar (Key Of Luck) and Sea The Stars (Cape Cross), so it was no great surprise to see High Definition given quotes of as short as 7-1 for next year's Derby. The winner is the third foal out of the Fastnext Rock (Danehill) mare Palace, and follows his year older brother Innisfree in adding his name to the star-studded Beresford roll of honour. Galileo once again stood at Coolmore in Ireland for a private fee in 2020.

13 for Pastoral Pursuits

Ventura Rebel (3 c ex Finalize by Firebreak) earned Pastoral Pursuits (Bahamian Bounty) his 13th individual stakes winner when landing yesterday's Renaissance Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at the Curragh under Declan McDonogh. The Richard Fahey-trained colt, who had only run into a place once in his previous five starts this season and was winless since May 2019, produced a gritty performance to defeat Forever In Dreams (Dream Ahead) by half a length, with Stewards' Cup (6f) winner Summerghand (Lope De Vega) finishing two lengths behind the winner in third. Ventura Rebel, bred by Crossfields Bloodstock, was bought for £28,000 at Tattersalls in 2018. He won his first two starts at Thirsk and Ascot last year, but this was his first victory since, with a third place in this year's Commonwealth Cup (Gr 1, 6f) his best effort prior to yesterday. Pastoral Pursuits stood at Norton Grove Stud in Yorkshire for £2,000 (approx. AUD$3,600) in 2020.

24 for Henrythenavigator

Gerardino Jet (3 c ex Ardena by Dalakhani) earned Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo) his 24th individual stakes winner when landing the Premio D'Estate (Listed, 1600m) at Milan yesterday. The Mario Marcialis-trained colt saw off Cool And Dry (Sakhee's Secret), with Only Time (Requinto) finishing third.

UK: New Mandate bags Royal Lodge

Progressive gelding New Mandate (New Bay) notched his third successive win when showing a good turn of foot to quicken clear of his rivals and take out yesterday's Royal Lodge Stakes (Gr 2, 1m) at Newmarket. The Ralph Beckett-trained juvenile had already won at Group 3 level and he added another notable success to his CV when beating Ontario (Galileo) by three-quarters of a length as the well backed 9-4 favourite. Having made much of the running, Cobh (Kodi Bear) finished a further length and a quarter away in third.

41 for Dutch Art

Cheveley Park Stud resident Dutch Art (Medicean) sired his 41st individual stakes winner when Bowerman (6 g ex Jamboretta by Danehill) continued his fine run of form on the all-weather with a victory in the Diamond Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 2.5f) at Dundalk on Friday night. The Adrian McGuinness-trained six-year-old beat Sky Seven (Helmet) by half a length, with Gold Maze (Golden Horn) a further two and a quarter lengths away in third. Formerly trained by Roger Varian, Bowerman has now won eight of his 18 starts, with a six from nine record on artificial surfaces. Dutch Art stood for a private fee in 2020.

79 for Into Mischief

Spendthrift Farm's Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday) sired his 79th individual stakes winner when Into Chocolate (4 f ex Candy Drawer by Candy Ride) got up late on to take out the Chillingworth Stakes (Gr 3, 6.5f) at Santa Anita on Friday night. The Clifford Sise Jnr-trained four-year-old was winning for the fourth time in 11 starts when beating favourite Qahira (Cairo Prince) by three-quarters of a length, that one edging out Amuse (Medaglia d'Oro) by a neck in their battle for second. Into Chocolate is the second foal out of Candy Drawer (Candy Ride), a half sister to the Grade 1 winner Harmonious (Dynaformer). Into Mischief stood at Spendthrift Farm's Kentucky base for a fee of $175,000 (approx. AUD$249,000) in 2020.

Keeneland trade ends with aggregate of more than $248 million

BY RON MITCHELL OF BLOODHORSE

Organisers delighted that marquee event took place

Months before Keeneland's September Yearling Sale, management and staff realised they would be operating under extraordinary circumstances, if the sale was even able to take place, considering all the restrictions placed on businesses and public places as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic.

With the expectation that many buyers would be unable, or unwilling, to attend the sale due to the coronavirus, Keeneland made a commitment to incorporate online bidding into the live auction process.

That decision proved most prescient as the 12-day auction concluded on Friday.

With 4,272 head catalogued for the 12 sessions that began Sept. 12 (with one dark day), Keeneland reported 2,474 horses grossed $248,658,800 (approx. AUD$353,800,000) for an average price of $100,509 (approx. AUD$143,000) and a $39,500 median (approx. AUD$56,200). The 844 horses that went unsold represented an RNA rate of 25 per cent.

Not unexpectedly, those figures were well off the pre-pandemic bull market in 2019 when 2,852 yearlings were reported sold for a total of $359,919,700, an average of $126,199, and a $45,000 median.

The 2019 September sale was highlighted by a record-setting American Pharoah (Pioneerof The Nile) filly sold for $8.2 million (approx. AUD$11.67 million), one of 22 yearling transactions for seven figures during the 13-day venue. This year, 15 yearlings were sold for $1 million (approx. AUD$1.42 million) or more.

During Friday's final session, 166 yearlings sold for $1,134,500, (approx. AUD$1,614,200) an average of $6,834 (approx. AUD$9,725), and a median of $4,500 (approx. AUD$6,400). Stonehaven Steadings consigned the $45,000

(approx. AUD$64,000) high seller, a colt by Cupid (Tapit) purchased by Scott Gelner, agent.

This year's topper was a Tapit colt bought by a partnership consisting of Eclipse Thoroughbreds, Robert LaPenta, Gainesway Farm, and Winchell Thoroughbred for $2 million (approx. AUD$2.85 million) from Eaton Sales, agent for Stonestreet Bred & Raised, which retained a small interest in the colt with the new buyers.

Keeneland officials said extensive efforts by its personnel and the determination of buyers and sellers to participate ensured that the sale came off.

"First and foremost, we are delighted we have been able to have the sale," said Shannon Arvin, Keeneland's president-elect and interim head of sales. "We are proud of all of our folks and the effort they put into it and are so appreciative of the resilience of the industry that came out and supported the sale and conducted trade. Everybody understands the times we're in, and I think everybody was appreciative throughout the whole industry that we had a sale."

"Several people, myself included, by mid-July probably had a fear of God that we weren't going to have a sale," said Geoffrey Russell, Keeneland's director of sales operations.

"Full credit for this year's September sale goes to everyone - breeders, consignors, owners, buyers, agents, trainers, and countless other people - for their cooperation in following the health and safety protocols and adapting to the new forms of buying that allowed us to offer this important market in this unusual time.

"It certainly wasn't your normal September sale, and we know it wasn't easy. We sincerely thank all who participated and made the best of the challenging circumstances. We look forward to 2021 and the return of the hustle and bustle."

The sale grounds were limited to those essential to the process - Keeneland personnel, consignors and their employees, buyers, agents, breeders, media - all of whom had to meet certain criteria and were subjected to daily temperature checks. Other pandemic-related health and safety protocols included reconfiguration of part of the layout of the facility to promote social distancing and a mask requirement of participants inside and outside the pavilion.

In addition to internet bidding, Keeneland expanded its phone bidding option and added a third on-site bidding location in the rear covered show ring that proved a popular spot for many of the most active bidders, particularly since pavilion seating was limited to 40 per cent capacity.

Arvin said internet bidding lived up to expectations with 126 yearlings sold via that format for $12,165,000 (approx. AUD$17,309,000). There were 1,859 internet bids. One Japanese-based buyer, Yuji Hasegawa, acquired a Tapit (Pulpit) colt for $825,000 (approx. AUD$1.173 million) the top price for the internet, and an Arrogate (Unbridled's Song) colt bought for $750,000 (approx. AUD$1.06 million).

"Online bidding worked as smoothly and was as popular among buyers as we had hoped," Arvin said. "When you try something new, you kind of hold your breath to see how it goes. We are very pleased with our partner, Xcira (Auction Technologies), and the online auction technology system, as well as the level of participation by buyers."

The sale began on a mixed note as Book 1 had its usual share of pricey yearlings but a high buyback rate.

Absent from the buyers' list was Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum's Godolphin operation, which in 2019 was leading buyer with 10 yearlings bought for $16 million, followed by Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum's Shadwell Estate Co. that had purchased 18 for $11.07 million. Shadwell this year accounted for nine yearlings acquired for $5.42 million (approx. AUD$7.71 million).

This year's leading buyer was Donato Lanni, agent for SF/Starlight/Madaket. On behalf of the partnership, Lanni purchased 28 colts for $11.25 million (approx. AUD$16 million).

For the sixth year in a row and the 22nd time since 1988, Taylor Made Sales Agency was the September sale's leading consignor, with 252 horses sold for $29,783,400 (approx. AUD$42,378,000).

"There were certain major players that weren't playing in the market this year and obviously had a huge impact on Book 1," Russell said.

"Last year was one of the strongest

A Tapit colt topped the sale at $2million

September sales we've ever had. And even without Covid, I think it would be hard for us to replicate that. With Covid, travel restrictions for certain people, and a change of plans for some people, it had a strong effect on parts of the market."

Arvin said that with the 15 seven-figure yearlings bought by 14 different people, it indicated a broad buyer base.

"We were really encouraged by the broad numbers of buyers that were participating at multiple levels, including the top level," she said.

The RNA percentage declined as the sale progressed, and there was a more vibrant and competitive atmosphere as the sale continued.

"The second week has been a lot stronger than I anticipated," Russell said, noting that many of the horses offered early in the sale are being bought for either their residual value or future stallion potential, based on sire power and pedigree.

"In Books 3, 4, and 5, that market has held up remarkably well. Racing is doing well; purse structures are good. There is a potential to get a good return. In the books in the middle market, they're really buying the product to race and to try and get return on investment on the racetrack. At the moment, I think you can still do that on the racetrack."

"Breeders are to be commended for bringing a very good crop of yearlings to market," Keeneland director of sales development Mark Maronde said. "The value found here encouraged strong trade through the entire sale. Horse people are optimists in the best of times, and here they are, while there are no fans at many racetracks and with all the uncertainty in every facet of life, doing more than $238 million worth of commerce. That's huge."

Arvin said as of now the same Covid-19 protocols will be in place for Keeneland's next auction, the November Breeding Stock Sale that begins on November 9.

"As of today, it is looking like we will be working under similar protocols in November," she said.

Russell said the November sale will run ten days, as it has fewer weanlings and mares entered as a result of the anticipated Covid-19-affected marketplace.

"The November sale will be reduced by about a Book this year," he said. "The September sale is the crop and the November sale is the factory, and breeders are retaining their mares or their weanlings in hopes that 2021 will be a better market."

Night Of Thunder filly tops challenging edition of Sportsman's Sale at £72,000

BY JAMES THOMAS | RACING POST

A challenging edition of the relocated Goffs Sportsman's Sale concluded in Doncaster on Friday with a £72,000 (approx. AUD$130,500) Night Of Thunder (Dubawi) filly topping trade. Although market conditions proved tough for most vendors, as was to be expected given a topsy-turvy sales season is taking place during a global pandemic, plenty seemed relieved that trade was taking place at all.

Those sentiments were echoed by Goffs chief executive Henry Beeby, who said: "Moving the Sportsman's Sale to our UK sales complex was not a straightforward decision but, on balance, was deemed the right one in the circumstances. Frankly all of us are in a quandary about what is the right thing to do at the moment, especially as things can change from day to day.

"Indeed, it's worth bearing in mind that the British prime minister announced new restrictions to help in the fight against Covid-19 on Tuesday, so we are constantly having to react and adapt at short notice. In that connection we are indebted to Doncaster Council, with whom we have liaised closely in recent months, as they have provided feedback and support as we have drawn up the detailed protocols required to conduct a sale in the current climate."

Beeby continued: "We are also very thankful to our vendors who embraced the change of date and location with hardly a murmur and worked with us to stage a sale that has returned a trade of relative strength on both days. Indeed, those yearlings that appealed most drew the normal level of activity from a large group of buyers from the UK, Ireland and those European countries on the UK's current green list."

Year-on-year comparisons are not entirely straightforward given the change in currency, with last year's sale conducted in euros, but at the current rates the average was down by 13 per cent to £13,345 (approx. AUD$24,200) and the median slipped by the same amount to £10,000 (approx. AUD$18,000).

The clearance rate was 68 per cent as 185 of 273 offered yearlings changed hands. With the sale having moved from Ireland to Britain, the catalogue was hit by a significant number of withdrawals, meaning 24 per cent fewer lots were offered at this year's Sportsman's Sale and 87 fewer yearlings sold. In turn, turnover dropped by 43 per cent to £2,468,900 (approx. AUD$4,475,000).

The top lot came as Ross Doyle, standing outside by the shoot, and Alex Elliott, bidding from the office opposite the rostrum, clashed over The Castlebridge Consignment's well-related Night Of Thunder filly, with Doyle winning out at £72,000.

The filly is out of Muzhil (Manduro) a half-sister to the Middleton Stakes (Gr 2, 1m 2.5f) winner Beautiful Romance (New Approach) and the Listed-placed Executive Force (Sepoy). The dam supplied her first winner seven days before the sale when Monzoon (Bated Breath), struck at Dundalk.

"She's a really good physical and a very good mover," said Doyle after signing the ticket. "She seems to have a great temperament, like most of these Night Of Thunders have. The sire is obviously a big draw but I was particularly impressed by the physical; I think she'd have held her own in most sales."

Richard Hannon trained Night Of Thunder to win the 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m), in which he beat Kingman (Invincible Spirit) and Australia (Galileo), and the Lockinge Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) before the son of Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) retired to Darley's Kildangan Stud.

The trainer is now set to take charge of Doyle's latest acquisition. The agent said: "She's going to Richard Hannon and has been bought on spec. He's quite a fan of the sire for obvious reasons."

The Night Of Thunder filly was making her second appearance at public auction having been pinhooked for a client of Emerald Bloodstock's at 21,000gns at last year's Tattersalls December Foal Sales.

Reflecting on the day he signed for the youngster, Emerald's Peter Kelly said: "She was a beautiful filly from a big family. I thought the sire had a big chance of breaking through and that's what he did!"

Fine and Dandy for Mags

It took just five lots for day one's high mark to be matched on Friday as Norman Williamson went to £50,000 (approx. AUD$90,000) for the Dandy Man (Mozart) colt out of Little Kipling (Royal Applause) offered by Ballyhane Stud. Although Williamson is no stranger to signing for yearlings for his Oak Tree Farm breeze-up operation, he explained he had been acting on behalf of agent Mags O'Toole.

"Mags O'Toole, who has left the building as they say, asked me to bid on him for her," said Williamson. "The sire is, as always, having a good time and he has a nice pedigree. He's a grand colt who looks like he'll be an early type."

The transaction represented a good bit of business for Ballyhane's Joe Foley, as he had signed for Little Kipling at just 5,000gns at the Tattersalls July Sale in 2017 before sending her to Ballyhane's linchpin stallion Dandy Man.

The colt is the first foal out of Little Kipling, who produced a filly by Camacho (Danehill) on March 28 this year before she was among the debut book of mares to visit Ballyhane's new recruit Soldier's Call (Showcasing).

Foley said of Little Kipling: "She was a winner and a good-looking filly by Royal Applause, who is a good broodmare sire, and is out of a winning mare in Victoria Sponge."

"She was also a sister to a good horse in Royal Albert Hall. She's in foal to Soldier's Call but after today she could well be going back to Dandy Man next year."

Alex Elliott on the mark

Alex Elliott got among the buyers when going to £46,000 (approx. AUD$83,400) for a Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) filly offered by Lodge Park Stud late in the session. The February-born filly is out of The Shrew (Dansili), a Listed-placed half-sister to Mill Reef Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) winner James Garfield (Exceed And Excel).

Elliott said: "She's been bought for Michael Bell. It's a Gredley family and I just thought she was gorgeous. She's a big scopey filly and I quite like the stallion; he's had Fancy Man and Star Of Emaraaty this year, although she actually looks a bit more like a Street Cry [sire of Pride Of Dubai] than anything."

"She vetted very well and she comes from a fantastic farm too. There wasn't much not to like."

Lot 834: the Pride Of Dubai filly

Lodge Park's Damian Burns added: "She's a lovely straightforward filly. She's the biggest the mare has had, she's quite a small mare herself. We actually put her up for the Orby but because the mare had only bred two winners Henry [Beeby] advised us to come here instead, even though she was more of an Orby type physically."

Lodge Park offered three lots across the two Sportsman's Sale sessions and sold all three for receipts totalling £73,000 (approx. AUD$132,400). Reflecting on the state of trade in Doncaster, Burns said: "The nice horses are selling well but if you haven't got the individual you will struggle. It's the same story every year, it's just a bit less forgiving this year."

"We've had to make that bit of extra effort to bring the horses over but everyone is doing their bit this year. There's a market there and trade is going on."

Dods lands well-related Vadamos

The session's fourth top lot will be heading to Michael Dods' Denton Hall Stables after the Group 1-winning trainer went to £37,000 (approx. AUD$67,100) for the Vadamos (Monsun) colt out of Strike A Light (Dutch Art) offered by Tally-Ho Stud.

The colt boasted a sizeable update as his Coulsty half-sister Suicide Squad (Coulsty) had won the Premio Repubblica Marinare (Listed, 1500m) since the catalogue's publication. Tally-Ho's Roger O'Callaghan said: "Geoffrey Howson bought the mare [for 10,000gns]."

"We couldn't get a bid for Suicide Squad last year but the Italians bought her after and she looks a good filly now."

Tally-Ho sold six yearlings for an aggregate of £117,500 (approx. AUD$214,000) across the two days. O'Callaghan acknowledged the tricky market conditions but, with eight lots to sell at the Orby Sale and 13 more at Book 1, was content to look forward rather than backward.

"It's been tough going, but then every sale is tough," he said. "We have to sell next week and the week after so we've just got to keep on going. We'll just carry on as usual and do what we have to do."

Dods said of his purchase: "He looked a tough colt, an easy mover, and the half-sister has done well. He won't be an early two-year-old but the sire has done okay."

Final word

Beeby concluded his end-of-sale statement by saying: "We want to acknowledge our appreciation to all attendees over the last few days as we are very aware that the protocols in place, whilst very necessary, can be frustrating on occasions. However, they have been embraced with a level of acceptance and good humour, which is helpful as we strive to do the right thing when no one really knows what that entails!"

"Of course the stats do not compare with previous renewals of the Sportsman's Sale but the key point is liquidity and the ability to trade. In that connection the last two days have delivered, although comparing with 12 months ago is made even harder by the fluctuation of sterling in the intervening period, so we would suggest that the most revealing figure is the clearance rate."

Inferno on fire in Singapore Guineas

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

The “rising star” tag had been bandied around for a while, but after Inferno (4 g Holy Roman Emperor - Spina Rosa by Redoute's Choice) lit up yesterday's Singapore Guineas (Listed, 1600m) with a victory as emphatic as you would ever witness at Kranji, not many will now disagree that a new star is born.

Even if Mr Malek (Swiss Ace) – smart but not as charismatic – had not been sensationally scratched on Tuesday, the third and last leg of the Singapore Three-Year-Old Challenge – a Singapore Group 1 – was always going to be billed as a one-horse race, especially after Inferno jogged to an easy win in the first (technically second) leg, the Singapore Classic (Listed, 1400m) a month ago.

The early muddling-run pace could have set a costly trap, but Inferno sidestepped it with the ease and hint of swagger that is the hallmark of very good horses.

After nestling into the box-seat from barrier one (not the best for a horse who is more dominant when he plots a path on the outside), the four-year-old was seen racing with his mouth open when race-leader Senor Don (Senor Candy) stacked up the speed.

Though not overly concerned, Vlad Duric had been prepared for such an eventuality.

The champion jockey immediately eased Inferno off the rails 400 metres into the race, a move which coincided with Meryl (Rock 'n' Pop) spearing over three wide to go and inject more speed into the race.

From that point onwards, Inferno was travelling a lot more within his own steam in and amongst runners, getting a lovely tow behind Strong N Powerful (Golden Archer) while Big Hearted (Hallowed Crown) was trapped three-deep.

As Duric manoeuvred his mount to the outside upon approaching the home turn, the complexion of the race could not have made for a more predictable finish.

Inferno

SINGAPORE TURF CLUB

While all his opponents were under the pump, with jockeys hard at work, arms and whips flailing wildly, Duric was as still as a Madame Tussaud's wax figure, but the conveyance underneath still zoomed up to the front in auto-pilot mode.

A few shakes of the reins and only one smack of the whip, and Barree Stable's new star effortlessly strode to one of the easiest wins seen at Kranji, not so much for the margin as Rocket Star (Star Witness), the winner for the first minor prize, finished one and a half lengths astern, but for the consummate ease of a win that looked more like a galloping exhibition.

Besides Rocket Star, take nothing away from his rivals who showed great heart to fight for prize-money, with Strong N Powerful in third another short head away, just nudging Big Hearted out of a podium finish by a head, but it's just unfortunate that they happen to be racing in the same year as Brown's new champion.

By claiming the two legs, Inferno is crowned the undisputed new Singapore Three-Year-Old Champion, even if he has already turned four given the modified conditions to the series in the wake of the Covid-19 pandemic, and also takes home $50,000 as bonus.

Inferno, who was sent out at unbackable odds of $5.30 (for a $5 stake), returned a moderate time of 1:36.2 for the 1600 metres on the Short Course, largely due to the soft sectionals in the first 600 metres of the event.

Time is no time; Brown, just like the thousands of privileged viewers who watched from home, was simply blown away by the breathtaking spin from a horse who is slowly but surely taking a special place in his heart right next to Barree's original 'horse of a lifetime', Debt Collector (Time Thief)

“He was very impressive. Vlad didn't have to do too much on him,” said the Australian handler. “He did overrace a touch in the first 400 metres when they slowed up the pace, but Vlad did the right thing by popping him off the fence.

"We knew this could happen and we were always prepared for that. Once he went around the outside, I knew he couldn't lose."

While the three-year-old series is done and dusted, it doesn't mean that Inferno is going for a well-deserved break. Besides, he has raced only three times this prep (for three wins).

"We can possibly look at the Raffles Cup, but it's in two weeks' time," said Brown. "Vlad looked after him out there today, but we'll still see how he pulls up. No decision will be made until we speak to (Barree Stable's principal owner) Glenn (Whittenbury)."

Brown thought that his second runner Trading Post (Fighting Sun) who finished sixth more than three lengths off was not disgraced. The former Salton Sea had raced only twice prior to the Guineas, for one win.

"He might be at this kind of level in the future. He's a nice horse and he ran very good," he said.

With that seventh win (four at stakes level) from eight starts, with his only defeat a second to Siam Warrior (Exceed And Excel), Inferno has banked close to $700,000 for his lucky connections.

A relieved Duric walked out of the jockeys' room a happy man knowing he had steered Inferno to his first Singaporean Group 1 success and maintained a perfect record of three from three. Duric took over after Michael Rodd, who partnered Inferno to his first four wins, returned to Australia during the "Circuit Breaker" in June.

"The horse (Inferno) was in such good condition. Going to the start, he was fresh and bouncy," said Duric. "He gave me so much confidence that I wasn't so worried about a bit of bad luck from barrier one."

"They did go very slow in the first 200 to 300 metres, but when Meryl went forward, that really made the race for me. He dropped his head and relaxed for me. He was in the right spot for me and he showed his class in the end."

"He's such a beautiful horse and I'm just lucky to be on him. I'm so rapt for Cliff, Glenn and Chris Bock."

"All's good, I'm just so relieved we got the job done. It was a great team effort."

Grand Koonta set for Lion City Cup

Smart sprinter Grand Koonta (Dark Angel) showed absolutely no signs of ring-rustiness at his comeback race yesterday when he unleashed a powerful burst inside the last 200 metres to get up in a thriller.

James Peters' Irish-bred five-year-old had not been sighted since January 26 when he ran a close second to Bold Thruster (Turffontein) in the Fortune Bowl (Listed, 1400m).

The barrier trials leading up to his return had been sound, but if a race remains the acid test, the grey certainly passed it with flying colours.

Following such an impressive performance where, after frustratingly running into dead ends for A'Isisuhairi Kasim at the 400 metres, he still flew home once he found space to go and post a short-head win from longshot Karisto (Written Tycoon), the Lion City Cup (Listed, 1200m) - a Singapore Group 1 on October 25 - looks right on target.

The Cliff Brown-trained Zac Kasa (Reset), the other grey, gave a glimpse of his old dash when he came with a threatening run at the 300 metres, but had to eventually settle for third place another half-length away.

EW Barker Trophy (Listed, 1400m) winner Fame Star (Twirling Candy) may have finished outside of the placings, but did restore some gloss to his credentials following his disappointing run at his comeback race on July 11.

Using a bit of petrol to come across from his wide barrier, the US-bred frontrunner was able to make play, did give some sight when he kicked clear at the top of the straight, but was swamped late, doing a good job to hold on for fifth place around a length off Grand Koonta.

The winning time was 1:09.15 for the Revolte 2009 Stakes over 1200 metres on the Short Course.

Peters admitted to having his heart in his mouth as he watched Grand Koonta getting hamstrung in traffic at a crucial stage of the race.

"There were a few anxious moments between the 400-metre and the 200-metre mark. He was pocketed in but Harry was able to get him out," said the English trainer. "He's got such a good turn of foot, he can really sprint. Once he saw daylight, he really flew home."

Grand Koonta

Boasting a cracking record of five wins and four seconds in nine starts, Grand Koonta has now amassed around $330,000 in prize-money for the China Horse Club.

Peters confirmed that the Lion City Cup has been locked in for Grand Koonta as well as the other China Horse Club stalwart Skywalk (Battle Paint), who ran seventh, but only around two lengths behind his stablemate.

More of a Polytrack specialist, the Battle Paint seven-year-old box-seated behind Fame Star for Vlad Duric, and did throw down the gauntlet in the straight, only to fade late.

"The Lion City Cup will be Grand Koonta's next race. He was up 16 kilograms and today's race has tightened him up," said Peters. "He will take improvement from the race as well. A big thank you to the China Horse Club, who have been very patient as we have not had many opportunities."

"I will also run Skywalk in the Lion City Cup. I was very happy with his run today, he tried his guts out, and was beaten only around two and a half lengths."

Peters was busy in the very next race as he was saddling his bonny mare Meryl in the highlight of the day, the Singapore Guineas (Listed, 1600m), but unfortunately, the race didn't pan out as he wanted.

"It didn't work out for her. She couldn't slot in, and Jimmy (Wong Chin Chuen) didn't want to be caught three wide, and decided to push on," he said. "A midrace move is not ideal in such a race. She was outclassed in the end. We will go back to handicap races with her."

He then sprinted well, hit the front at the 100m and then fought back to score by a head from his stablemate North Pacific, who came from second-last at the home turn for second after a duel over the final 100 metres. The ATC Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner King's Legacy raced in last place to the turn, improved along the inner from the 300m and continued to make ground for third in a good effort at his second run back. The favourite Rothfire worked in the early stages to find the lead and was then pressured in front (by Mamaragan). He briefly looked the winner when he grabbed a break at the 300m but his early efforts then told and he faded to finish (3.3 lengths) fourth. Peltzer held on for fifth after being in a similar position on the rails, while Mamaragan weakened after racing a bit keenly on the pace to finish (6.4 lengths) sixth. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Inglis
Est 1867

Analysis: In a great result for the Team Hawkes stable, their two runners went to the post a head apart with victory going to Ole Kirk. After being ridden quietly, he settled in seventh place on the rails, tracking a quick pace, but he was blocked on straightening before being eased deeper Margins: 1.8 lens, 0.5 lens. Time: 1:50.85.

Betting: $1.50, $17.00, $5.50.

Then followed: Gailo Chop (FR), Trap For Fools (AUS), Harbour Views (FR), Mr Quickie (AUS), The Chosen One (NZ) & So Si Bon (AUS), last.

Analysis: The hype surrounding Russian Camelot appears well justified with a decisive victory here, his second Group 1 and fourth win in just seven starts. He wasn't the quickest away but soon ran up four deep to sit just back of the lead approaching the 1600m. Into a clear second near the 1200m he was now one lane out and getting a nice trail, a spot he held past the 800m. Inside the 600m he inched closer, formed a line of three at the 400m and shared the lead starting the run home. A good fight was on at the 200m but Damien Oliver gave him a shake and he drove into the lead, coming away by a length and three-quarters at the post. A super run from Humidor who sat second-last (rails) past the 1200m. From the 600m he improved quickly, hugged the fence rounding into the straight then finished doggedly for second. Arcadia Queen was a handy third (rails) at the 800m, cut the corner rounding in and was one of three across the track at the 400m. She shared the lead with the winner at the 300m and gave him a good fight to the 150m, then hung on for third. Ten-year-old Gailo Chop was fourth turning in and gave everything he had to the line for a close fourth. [LJ]

Then followed: Scarlet Dream (AUS), Niccanova (AUS), Nudge (AUS), Miss Siska (AUS), Quackerjack (AUS), So You Win (AUS), Yamazaki (AUS), Tyzone (AUS) & Crack On Crack On (GB), last.

Analysis: The Irish-bred import I Am Superman followed his good first-up win in an open handicap (1400m) at Caulfield on August 29 with a very smart win here, his fifth win and his first at stakes level in 16 starts. He settled nicely in second place, tracking the leader (Quackerjack) at a good tempo before going to the front at the 200m. He then went on to score comfortably by just over a length from Riodini who was handily placed on the rails but was clear too late and looked somewhat unlucky. Looks Like Elvis began well and settled in third place, one off the rails. He moved up rounding the turn, challenged at the 200m and kept fighting on well for third, with Scarlet Dream taking the eye with her late-closing (2 lengths) fourth after being near the tail of the field until well into the straight at her first run this preparation. Analysis: An impressive performance by Instant Celebrity who maintained her unbeaten record in four starts (two them stakes) with a big win here. She jumped okay then dwelt to be last early, improving slightly to settle third-last, one off the fence at the 1200m. She started her run from the 800m, edging closer but four wide from the 600m and was widest turning in. In the straight she breezed up alongside the leaders at the 200m, had a brief tussle to the 100m and then ran clear to win with something in reserve by a flattering length. Personal sat fourth (rails) from the 1000m, held her position past the 400m and got a lovely run through when they straightened. She was right there at the 200m but was no match for the winner despite a late lunge. Rock My Wand sat third-last at the 600m, went wide into the straight and finished strongly to grab third at the line from pacemaker Night Raid who was collared at the 150m but hung on well for fourth. Analysis: After showing potential at stakes level, the Chris Waller-trained mare Subpoenaed broke through for a black type victory in good style here, her fourth win (with four placings) in 15 starts. After a good beginning, she settled nicely for Tommy Berry in seventh place (one off the rails) before improving rounding the turn. She challenged at the 200m, took the lead at the 100m and then drew clear to win well. Emeralds settled back in tenth place and caught the eye in running on strongly to take second in a really promising effort. Jen Rules battled on to take the minor placing in a keenly contested bid for third after coming from 11th at the turn, with Positive Peace just behind her in fourth after being seventh at the turn. The favourite Haut Brion Her, a stablemate of the winner, worked hard from her outside barrier (13) to find the lead before weakening over the latter stages for (2.5 lengths) seventh after a testing trip. Analysis: French-bred stayer Attorney staged a promising performance in recording his fourth win and his first stakes victory in 13 starts in winning here. Ridden patiently by Jason Collett, he remained in second-last place until improving along the inner at the turn. He took a split at the 200m and then finished solidly for a good win, running the 2400m out well. Djukon had a nice trip back fourth to the turn, improved to second at the 200m and kept fighting on to narrowly hold that position at the post from Grey Lion who looked dangerous at the 200m before battling well for third. Zacada ran a bold race in the lead, only weakening over the closing stages for (1.6 lengths) fourth, while the favourite Exemplar disappointed, fading to finish last after chasing the leader (Zacada) to the turn. Analysis: After three easy wins on country tracks, Love Tap advanced in distance and class to win impressively here and remain unbeaten. He soon went to the front and Nash Rawiller then let him run along at a good tempo before being challenged nearing the turn. But he responded well, again claiming an advantage at the 200m before going on to win comfortably, running the step up to 1800m well. Street Dancer raced back in third spot, improved to put some pressure on the leader and eventual winning approaching the turn and then kept fighting back well to gain second in a photo from Bucharest who ran on well from fifth at the turn for third with the maiden Favreau indicating his potential for longer trips by finishing solidly for fourth after being under riding near the tail of the field at the turn. Analysis: Off a Flemington Listed win two weeks back, Crosshaven continues to race in great form, adding win four at start five after grabbing the lead at the 100m and running clear for an impressive victory. He tracked up four wide from the jump to sit just back and outside the leader, holding second but allowing the leader to get two lengths in front inside the 1000m. There was no change at the 600m but at the 400m he gained, balanced at the 300m and went after the pacemaker. He levelled up approaching the 100m then took over and was too good at the line, away by a length and three-quarters. Amish Boy had a lovely one-back, one-out run from the 800m, tracked the winner into the straight then kept going gamely to run into second short of the post. National Choice led them in, was caught at the 150m and hung on well for third, while Cambourne finished well from the back of the field, threading his way into fourth late. Analysis: Adept in the prevailing heavy conditions, Supreme Heights had control the length of the straight for win six at start 15 and her maiden stakes success. She shared the lead from her wide barrier and past the 1000m found the rail, then gave up the lead to trail on the fence past the 800m. From the 600m she went up to share the lead and rounding into the straight took over then kicked clear. To the line she kept going best to score by a length and half. London Express tracked the winner all the way to the top of the straight, got a lovely split, tried to get on terms but the winner was too strong. Ladies First was a long second- last before the first turn, tacked onto the bunch at the 600m and kept improving along the fence to be in behind the leaders into the home straight from where she finished on quite well for third. Sweet Clementine was shuffled back to midfield near the straight, then plugged away best of the rest down along the inner for a distant fourth.

Analysis: Previously three times stakes placed Coruscate got the better of his five opponents over the last 200m to break through at stakes level and add win seven at start 21. He trailed (rails) early and held his position to the 600m before moving away from the fence. Rounding into the straight he was a length back but once balanced soon caught the leader, raced by and was in no danger to the line, clear by two and quarter lengths. Runson set the pace and rounding into the straight tried to steal it but was caught near the 200m. To the line fourth looked likely but he fought back hard to nab second at the post. Top weight (by 3kg), Order Of Command sat just back of the winner rounding into the straight, went three wide to challenge and kept up a solid run just losing second at the post, while Bravo Tango tried hard from the 300m and was just a nose back of second and third. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Est 1867

Analysis: Winner of the Inglis Nursery (RL, 1000m) on debut at Randwick in December, Wild Ruler resumed after recent starts at Eagle Farm to record a really smart first-up win here. He worked in the early stages to lead and after further pressure, eased to travel in second place. He moved up again at the 300m, hit the front at the 100m and fought back under his top weight (58kg) to score well. Destination had a nice trip in seventh place on the rails from his inside barrier (1), improved on the inner on straightening, went to third at the 200m and then finished well for second. The filly Forbidden Love was smartly away but eased in a contested lead to settle in third place. She got into clear running at the 200m and then fought on nicely to gain third in a photo from Osamu who endured a hard early run to lead, only fading in the latter stages for fourth after running a bold race, with Sixgun finishing on over the closing stages for fifth after being towards the rear nearing the turn. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Inglis
Est 1867

Analysis: Not seen on race day since last December, although a recent trial winner, Stageman edged into the lead at the 100m for his maiden stakes break win and eighth career success at start 22. He settled midfield (rails) and in a compact field gave the leader three lengths past the 600m. From the 400m he moved out but into the straight was pocketed behind the leading group. Weaving through, he found space at the 200m and drove up alongside the leaders, grabbed a narrow lead at the 100m and then kept going to score by a half neck. Cup Night tracked the winner to the top of the straight but instead kept to the fence, challenged for the lead at the 200m and led narrowly short of the 100m but was outgunned to the line. Dance Music sat outside the winner at the 600m, went for wide starting the straight and then kept fighting resolutely for third. Red Can Man was second into the straight, led briefly then battled away well to hold fourth. Analysis: The consistent locally-trained gelding Jadentom scored here at the good odds of $21, his 11th win from 27 starts and his first at stakes level. The noted first-up performer settled midfield and deep from his difficult barrier (13) before moving up well (wide) nearing the turn. He then ran on strongly, hit the front at the 50m and then went on to win decisively. Red Chase settled towards the tail of the field, improved along the inner at the turn and continued to finish nicely on the rails to take second in a good first-up run. The $71 outsider Fiery Heights was a handy third, working on the pace, and did well in holding on to take the minor placing. The top weight Bandipur ran on when clear late for (1.7 lengths) fourth, looking somewhat unlucky. [KB]

2019 (4 ran) Kastasa (3) D K Weld 3 8-10 11/8 Andrew Slattery RPR110

BETTING FORECAST: 15-8 Dawn Patrol, 9-4 Kastasa, 13-2 Mighty Blue, 7 Traisha, 10 Barrington Court, 14 Springbank, 16 Elizabethofaragon, 25 Prose, 40 Cypress Creek, Raa Atoll.

VERDICT This could turn into a duel between Dawn Patrol and KASTASA with the vote going to last year's winner. She was brilliant in this event last year when scoring by 71 and the application of a visor might be exactly what she needs to stop her hitting those all too frequent flat spots. Of the others, Mighty Blue has done well since arriving from France and could outrun her odds. [David Jennings]

VERDICT Roman Odyssey might bounce back to form in first-time blinkers and is earmarked as a possible danger but the suggestion is BELLA BABY, who is still a maiden after 15 starts but ran well from an 8lb higher mark over C&D when dropped to this grade in April and might have been stretched by 7f on his last two outings. U W Brother has also become well handicapped and is next on the list.

VERDICT The most interesting runner is SUPER WINNER, who was placed several times in Class 4 last season. Zac Purton's mount has been safely held in two sprints this month but is arguably better suited by 7f now, and benefits from a drop in grade today. Second choice is BLAZING PARTNERS, who was repeatedly denied a clear run when midfield over C&D on his seasonal debut and remains well handicapped. Bravery And Power can also feature.

VERDICT This looks a good opportunity for DIAMOND RHYME, who is evidently not as good as he once was but ran well over 6f at Happy Valley on his seasonal debut and will be suited by today's return to 7f. King Dragon ended last season with a good effort and may provide the main threat. Class-dropper Chairman Lo ought to be much more competitive this time and is another to consider.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Nordic Warrior, 5 Charge On, 11-2 Destine Jewellery, 6 Eligere, 7 Champ Patrol, 8 Sparkling Star, 10 Noble Consort, 14 Solar Power, 16 Colonel, Wonder Express, 33 Bulb Elite, 66 Super Hong Kong.

VERDICT There should be more to come from CHARGE ON, who won over C&D in March and remains lightly raced, but NORDIC WARRIOR is much better than he showed on his recent seasonal debut and, with the assistance of Zac Purton, he can capitalise upon some help from the handicapper. Eligere moves back up in trip after a good 6f run and is next on the list.

VERDICT This looks competitive for the grade. Unexposed 4yo All Joyful was denied a clear run when going well on his seasonal debut three weeks ago and remains open to improvement but it looks significant that Zac Purton has discarded him in favour of newcomer HOT CHILI PEPPER, who impressed in a recent trial and is well drawn. Golden Link was second over C&D on two of his first four starts and also has a significant part to play.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Blotting Paper, 4 Fortune Happiness, Handsome Rebel, 6 Pearl Champion, 10 Dollar Reward, War Lord, 14 Noble Birth, Star Superior, Viva Council, 25 Demons Rock, Starlight, 50 Great Son.

VERDICT Good cases can be made for each of the top four on the racecard but BLOTTING PAPER ran very well behind Handsome Rebel over C&D a fortnight ago and Jerry Chau's useful 10lb claim might enable him to gain a breakthrough Hong Kong win today. Fortune Happiness was a triple C&D winner last season, while Pearl Champion went very close over C&D off today's mark in May.

VERDICT Grateful Heart created a good impression in a recent C&D trial and is not opposed with any confidence on today's official dirt debut but the one to beat is unexposed 4yo SKY SHOW, who won on turf in April and ended last season with a close third over C&D. Eight Trigrams looked in rude health when completing a double here a fortnight ago, while Czarson made a pleasing dirt debut on the same day and adds further depth to an interesting race.

BETTING FORECAST: 13-8 Golden Sixty, 9-4 Beauty Generation, 5 Ka Ying Star, 7 Southern Legend, 16 Champion's Way, Fast Most Furious, 20 Rattan, 33 Dances With Dragon, Preciousship, 66 Buddies, Elusive State.

VERDICT The first Group race of the season in Hong Kong promises to be quite a spectacle. The great Beauty Generation bids for a fourth consecutive victory in the race but he might have to play at least second fiddle to his younger rival GOLDEN SIXTY. Far from a two-horse race, the improving Ka Ying Star is entitled to respect and will take some pegging back, though the selection's trademark late surge can prove decisive in the closing stages.

VERDICT This looks like a good opportunity for the talented BIZ POWER to finally break his duck in Hong Kong. His mark remains unchanged from his good placed efforts in May/June and he breaks from a handy stall this time. President's Choice and Bright Kid can give him most to think about.
