Foxwedge colt upstages stud-bound rivals in Flemington upset

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Two high-profile stud-bound three-year-olds could be set for immediate racetrack retirement after another colt, the Horsham-trained Lunar Fox (Foxwedge), caused a massive upset in the $1 million Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington yesterday.

On a day where there was Group 1 racing in Sydney, Melbourne and at Otaki in New Zealand, Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) ($7.50) and Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) ($3.50) were favoured to fight out the finish at Flemington but came up short for various reasons, leading to questions over their respective futures.

Elsewhere, Forbidden Love (All Too Hard) also scored her first victory at the highest level in the Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), continuing her consistent three-year-old season, while Verry Elleegant (Zed) demonstrated her customary toughness in a thrilling Chipping Norton Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) victory at Randwick. Continued on page 2>>

Te Akau Racing-owned five-year-old mare Advantage (Fastnet Rock) made it eight Group 1 victories in the WFA Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) at Otaki to arguably be the country's second-best horse behind stablemate Melody Belle (Commands).

But the major talking point to emerge is whether dual Group 1 winner Ole Kirk, his generation's dominant three-year-old in the spring, will have time called on his career ahead of his maiden season at Vinery Stud in September, while Tagaloa may be given the chance to improve his CV prior to his retirement.

Ole Kirk, who underwent a pre-race veterinary inspection and was passed fit to start, settled back in the field from a wide barrier after bounding in the air at the start of the Guineas. He eventually finished tenth, while Yulong's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa ran a brave third in the Group 1 after setting a solid tempo.

The Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained Tagaloa was swamped in the final stages by Lunar Fox, who started at $301 after being beaten more than 13 lengths first-up in the CS Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m), and Cherry Tortoni (Night Of Thunder).

On this occasion, CS Hayes winner Tagaloa finished three quarters of a length behind the Paul Preusker-trained Lunar Fox. Ole Kirk was five lengths behind the Foxwedge (Fastnet Rock) colt.

It was Horsham-based Preusker's first Group 1 winner but he was not on course for the milestone, leaving partner Holly McKechnie to saddle up Lunar Fox.

"It's a bit surreal at this stage," McKechnie said. "I can't believe it.

"He's always had a lot of ability, this horse. Obviously last start he ran below par and we couldn't really find any issue. We've done the old trick with the blinkers and it seems to have done the job.

"Last time was just out of character. He's always trying this horse."

Jockey Michael Dee was the nemesis of the majority of punters who had discarded Lunar Fox's winning chances prior to the race.

"I can't believe it. It hasn't sunk in. To be honest, I didn't give him much hope. No one else really did either," Dee said.

"All I could do today was do my job and do it to the best of my ability. Hopefully the horse ran well in doing so. Having the blinkers on today and just a massive improvement. They drilled it into me before the race to stay off the fence. From the gate we were able to get the perfect run three-wide and work into it.

"It's obviously a massive thrill and I can't believe it has just happened."

Lunar Fox (3 c Foxwedge - Grant's Moon by Malibu Moon), who won the VRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at two as a $26 chance, is the fifth Group 1 winner for Foxwedge and, Continued on page 4>>

Foxwedge, the foundation Newgate Farm stallion, relocated to Woodside Park Stud in 2019 after a deal was struck by Victorian owner-breeder Eddie Hirsch to buy the stallion. He covered 114 mares in 2020.

Lunar Fox, a $40,000 purchase at the Inglis Melbourne Gold Yearling Sale in 2019 by former trainers Terry and Karina O'Sullivan, is out of US Listed-winning mare Grant's Moon (Malibu Moon), who died last September.

She has a two-year-old unnamed filly by Holler (Commands) and a Frosted (Tapit) yearling filly.

Lunar Fox was bred by the Sale-based Travis and Rebecca Kelly, who are this year offering three yearlings at the Inglis Melbourne Premier sale, which starts today.

"We bought him to Premier but things didn't quite work out as planned and in the time between that sale and Gold, he really furnished again," Travis Kelly said.

"We've been breeding for eight or nine years, Rebecca trains a small team at Sale and we realised years ago that we couldn't afford to buy top level yearlings, so we thought we'd try breeding a few ourselves.

"We keep some, we sell some, that's how it goes, but to have bred a Group 1 winner now, it's unbelievable, it really is."

The Kellys' will offer fillies at Premier by Impending (Lonhro) (Lot 446) and Palentino (Teofilo) (Lot 647) and a colt by Holler (Commands) (Lot 653).

Connections to weigh up colts' future

While retirement is being considered for Tagaloo, who will be Yulong's highest-profile stallion to stand at owner Yuesheng Zhang's Nagambie property, the more likely scenario is that he heads to Sydney for the autumn before the curtain is closed on his racetrack career.

Tagaloa's jockey Luke Currie believes the 1600-metre Guineas distance was the upper limit the colt could handle.

"It was a good effort. He just had to do a bit of work to get over but he stuck to his guns well. The mile.... Just," Currie said.

Ole Kirk's jockey Kerrin McEvoy was not as expansive in his comments, describing the well-bred colt's performance as "just fair".

That assessment has Michael, Wayne and John Hawkes and Vinery Stud considering whether to call time Ole Kirk.

Vinery Stud general manager Peter Orton last night said connections would discuss Ole Kirk's future in the coming days, with the Hawkes' having the final call.

"We are going to avoid making the call on the day, but it was a disappointing run. He jumped in the air and missed the start," Orton told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"He has done all he needs to do, as everyone keeps saying, but we weren't frightened to race him on but he is a colt who has raced pretty hard for the past couple of years.

"He had a hard run last week (in the Futurity Stakes) and then he was stepping up to the mile.

"It was a tough call to make (to run) today but we had a plan in place and he kept going forward. He just wasn't up to it today and he certainly wasn't himself."

She also won the Gosford Guineas (Listed, 1200m) in December as a pipe-opener for the Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m), where she finished ninth, before being freshened up for a tilt at the Surround Stakes.

Forbidden Love ($10), who was ridden by Nash Rawiller, burst clear to score by three lengths over Vangelic (Vancouver) ($31) with a short-neck back to Elizabeel (Power) ($26) in third.

"I was a little bit despondent after her run in the Magic Millions, I thought she'd run better and she just didn't cope with the trip at all," Michael Freedman said.

"But she had a couple of weeks off at Julian Blaxland's (Newington) farm up in Queensland and he rang me and said she's doing that well you should bring her home and get her ready for something. It's just a big thrill."

Freedman is now weighing up whether to continue the filly's campaign by taking on the mares in the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) on Saturday week.

"It was less than twelve months ago she was going around in midweeks at Canterbury I think," Freedman said.

"She's just kept improving and maturing which is a bit typical of the breed. Not that I was confident coming into today, but Wajid, full credit to him he does a lot of work with her and he knows her very well and he galloped her Tuesday and said 'Boss, if she's going to win a Group 1 it'll be this Saturday'."

Rawiller, who had Forbidden Love midfield on the fence, said: "I wasn't under any pressure to be anywhere. I thought we were two lengths closer in the run. It was more about getting her to travel comfortably and not complicating the race following Tommy Berry's mount (Dame Giselle).

"I had the feeling turning for home that I just needed to keep her out of dead ends."

A $150,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale purchase by Richard Freedman from the Bhima Thoroughbreds draft, Forbidden Love is the best of two winners to race out of the Listed-placed mare Juliet's Princess (More Than Ready).

Forbidden Love has an unraced two-year-old half-brother, Royal Fox (Foxwedge), in training with Matthew Williams at Warnambool. Juliet's Princess also has an Epaulette (Commands) colt at foot and she is back in foal to All Too Hard.

"It was good to see the Freedmans get up with a Group 1 pretty early into their partnership and it's great for All Too Hard as well," Vinery Stud general manager Peter Orton said.

SHE'S JUST KEPT IMPROVING AND MATURING WHICH IS A BIT TYPICAL OF THE BREED

- MICHAEL FREEDMAN

"When she first came out and won, she looked like a filly who was well above average and, from our perspective, she's out of a More Than Ready mare as well, which is a bit special."

Forbidden Love joins Behemoth and Alligator Blood

as Group 1 winners for All Too Hard who covered 191 mares last year, the most in his eight years at Vinery Stud.

"(The All Too Hards) were good all-round horses but they are really hitting their straps," Orton said.

"They have been trained the right way and now we're seeing the results."

Verry Elleegant back in winning form

One race earlier at Randwick, tough, high-class mare Verry Elleegant staged an enthralling battle with Colette (Hallowed Crown), herself a Group 1 winner who is arguably still underrated, to win the Chipping Norton Stakes which saw three quarters of a length between the first five across the line.

After being challenged, the Chris Waller-trained Verry Elleegant, under riding from James McDonald, prevailed by a half-neck over Colette, with Avilius (Pivotal) a head away in third. Funstar (Adelaide) ran fourth with another stablemate of the winner, Kolding (Ocean Park), in fifth.

Running third behind Colette and Kolding first-up in the Apollo Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) a fortnight earlier, yesterday's win was the five-year-old mare's seventh Group 1 success.

"She looked amazing in the parade ring today and I don't think I've ever said that before," Waller said post-race.

"She's just an unassuming girl that just fights like a tiger and I think it was fitting to be fought out that way because that really is the quality of Verry Elleegant."

Waller highlighted the fact that the New Zealand-bred Verry Elleegant was in rare territory, having won Group 1s from 1400 metres to 2400 metres.

"She's competitive in whatever you run in and obviously every race is important. The next stage is the Ranvet in three weeks' time and she'll probably back up the week later in the Tancred like she did last (autumn)," he said.

"That's what we'd be thinking based on what she did last year or maybe we have a bit more confidence and go three weeks into the Queen Elizabeth. But she's the right horse to make decisions when you need to."

Despite appearing to have been beaten, McDonald did not give up on the mare when Colette headed her.

"I've been in those scenarios before with her," the winning jockey said.

"She seems to come out on top more times than not. I knew once she was on, that last 100 metres the tough would get going.

"I have a soft spot for her. I just hope, well I know as the distances get further, she will get better."

Rachel King rode Colette, who said the four-year-old mare's run was "massive", while Nash Rawiller was delighted with Avilius' performance after giving him a quiet ride.

Glen Boss was also happy with Funstar.

"She has raced great second up in the past, but I feel there is a bit more condition on her this preparation," Boss said.

"She feels stronger so there might be a length, half-length improvement in her. Looks like she is going to have a great prep."

With prize-money earnings now north of $7.4 million, Verry Elleegant is one of three winners for Opulence (Danroad), who has a two-year-old colt by Zed (Zabeel) who was bought by leviathan Western Australian owner Bob Peters at the 2020 New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Yearling Sale. Named Affluential, he is being trained by Grant and Alana Williams but is currently spelling. She also has a yearling colt by Zed.

Avantage makes it eight with tough Group 1 win at Otaki

In New Zealand, the Australian-bred five-year-old mare Avantage made it four Group 1 wins in succession to start the calendar year and her eighth overall when taking out the El Cheapo Cars WFA Classic (1600m) at Otaki.

Winning trainer Jamie Richards has plans for Avantage to return to Australia during the autumn, but not before the mare tackles the Bonecrusher Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Ellerslie on March 13.

Yesterday, Avantage held off a gallant Callsign Mav (Atlante) by three quarters of a length, with Travelling Light (El Roca) another two and a half lengths away in third.

Avantage, who was ridden by Opie Bosson, had already won the BCD Group Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m), the Telegraph (Gr 1, 1200m) and Railway (Gr 1, 1200m) at her previous three starts.

"The plan was to go forward and ride her positively early," Bosson said.

"We got into a little bit of trouble when Deerfield came across us, but she came back off him, relaxed nicely and did everything right.

"I could see him (Callsign Mav) out of the corner of my eye, but once I gave her a few backhanders she put her head out and had a crack.

"That just shows you how good a racehorse she is, she just loves it."

The 41st Group 1 training triumph for Richards, he watched the race from Matamata where Te Akau also won the Waikato Stud Slipper (Gr 3, 1200m) with Sword Of State (Snitzel).

"It was a brilliant win to overcome some pretty competitive riding in the early part of the race," said Richards of Avantage's victory.

"She had to use a bit of petrol to get outside Deerfield, but to her credit she found a good kick on the corner and when Callsign Mav came at her she kept finding more. It was a really good race and the second horse is obviously racing very well.

"I'm proud to have won eight Group 1s with her and it was another polished ride from Opie. She really is a champion mare and we couldn't ask for much more."

Avantage, who is a half-sister to New Zealand Listed-placed Asathought (So You Think), was a NZ$210,000 purchase at the 2017 NZB Karaka Yearling Sale.

The winner of 15 races, Avantage's dam is the New Zealand Listed winner Asavant (Zabeel) while her second dam Pins 'N' Needles (Pins) was also a stakes winner.

Asavant, who is owned by Go Bloodstock, has an unraced two-year-old sister to Avantage in training with Chris Waller wearing Sir Owen Glenn's colours, while she has a colt sibling at foot and returned to the champion Coolmore stallion Fastnet Rock (Danehill) last October.

"She's an amazing mare and I'm thrilled for her owners who are enjoying a hell of a summer," Te Akau principal David Ellis said.

"We sent her south as a two-year-old to our base at Riccarton, where she won on debut and during the campaign she won the Karaka Million and Sires' Produce Stakes to be named champion two-year-old, and she hasn't stopped performing at the elite level ever since.

"She really defines the type of horse I'm trying to buy. A horse that doesn't take an indefinite period to get the owners to the races, but they must have the scope to train on and hopefully keep improving as three, four, and five-year-olds."

Five for Foxwedge

In a shock victory, Lunar Fox (3 c ex Grant's Moon by Malibu Moon) became a fifth Group 1 winner for Foxwedge (Fastnet Rock) in the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington yesterday. Lunar Fox was a $40,000 purchase by TKO Racing from the Inglis Melbourne Gold Yearling Sale in 2019. His dam, Grant's Moon (Malibu Moon), died in September last year, and has a yearling filly by Frosted (Tapit). Foxwedge stood the 2020 breeding season at Woodside Park Stud for a fee of $11,000.

Second for Capitalist

Capitalist (Written Tycoon) became the first freshman sire to reach two stakes winners for the season after Tycoon Humma (2 f ex Humma Mumma by Bel Esprit) came with a powerful finish to claim the Very Special Kids Plate (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington yesterday. Trained by John McArdle, Tycoon Humma was a $240,000 purchase for Redgum Racing from the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale in 2020. She is a half-sister to Group 3 winner and yesterday's Bob Hoystead Handicap (Listed, 1000m) third Humma Humma (Denman) and has a yearling half-sister by Zoustar (Northern Meteor), who will go through the ring as Lot 87 during today's opening session of the Premier auction. Tycoon Humma defeated the Godolphin-raced Kallos (Medaglia D'Oro) by a head, with Wanaroo (Wandjina) a further length and a half back in third. Capitalist, who stood last season at Newgate Farm for $44,000, tops the first season sire charts from Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) and barnmate Flying Artie (Artie Schiller). He is also the sire of Inglis Millennium (RL, 1100m) winner and Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) favourite Profiteer.

Tycoon Humma set for a spell

Tycoon Humma will not go in search of autumn riches despite keeping her unbeaten record intact when making it two wins from as many starts yesterday. "She's a nice filly but I think she's looking for the paddock now," McArdle said post-race before praising the winning rider, Jamie Mott. "She over-raced a bit today and Jamie did a great job. He knows her, he switched her off," McArdle said. "She was untidy out of the gates but he got her to settle as well as he could. She probably wasn't as electric as what she was first-up but it was a really solid win."

Star Of The Seas secures All-Star Mile berth

Next month's All-Star Mile (1600m) at Moonee Valley is on the agenda for Star Of The Seas (6 g Ocean Park - Stella Livia by Titus Livius) after he secured a lucrative win-and-you're-in berth for the $5 million contest by taking out the Blamey Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Flemington yesterday. Chris Waller's classy six-year-old, whose peak form includes a short-head second behind stable companion Verry Elleegant (Zed) in last year's Winx Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), came home a neck to the good of the Lindsay Park-trained Fifty Stars (Sea The Stars), who was trying to become the first horse to land the Blamey for three consecutive years. Buffalo River (Noble Mission), who returned the $2.70 favourite and led for much of the journey under Jamie Kah, finished a further length and three-quarters back in third. "We managed to get a ticket in the All-Star Mile so that was a big tick today," Waller's stable representative Jo Taylor said. "We'll take him to The Valley to have a nice look around there and get accustomed to the circuit as we know it can be tricky sometimes, but we're in it"

Shaftesbury Avenue has ASM bearing

Yesterday's Shaftesbury Avenue Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington is also set to have a bearing on the All-Star Mile, with the winner - the Peter Jolly-trained Morvada (7 g Mossman - Carnegie Minstrel by Carnegie) - stamping his credentials for a wildcard slot. Meanwhile, cult hero The Harrovian (Fastnet Rock) - whose run of 11 consecutive victories was broken when he finished fifth of nine having suffered trouble in the run - remains on course for the Moonee Valley contest as one of the top ten vote-getters. Having run second in the Shaftesbury Avenue last year, Morvada went one better in the hands of Damien Lane, keeping up a strong gallop to defeat Holbien (Pierro) by a length, with Platoon (Playing God) another three-quarters of a length back in third. "Twelve months ago he ran second in this race and we were going to run him in the Futurity but I desperately want to get him in the All-Star Mile, so I thought if he can win today then he's got a chance of getting in on a wildcard," Jolly told Racing.com. "The horse is doing the talking. I couldn't get enough votes, but I always had confidence in this horse and he's delivered today right on song." Of The Harrovian, co-trainer Toby Edmonds said: "He couldn't get clear until late but worked nicely to the line so while it wasn't ideal, it wasn't a bad run and we move onto the All-Star Mile from here."

Fabergino scores back-to-back wins in Bob Hoysted

Fabergino (6 m Maschino - Miss Razyana by Danzero) continued her love affair with the Flemington straight and made it consecutive wins in the Bob Hoysted Handicap when she led home a Western Australia quinella in the $140,000 contest yesterday. Trained by Tiarnna Robertson, Fabergino took her record to four wins from five outings over track and distance when flashing her customary early speed before holding on from the Neville Parnham-trained Indian Pacific (Zoustar) by a neck. Humma Humma was another three-quarters of a length adrift in third. Having carried 57 kilograms to success in the race last year, her first start in Melbourne, Fabergino shouldered 59.5 kilograms yesterday, and stable representative Dylan Wilson told Racing.com: "That was absolutely super. She was as well coming into today as she was into the Group 1 (Lightning Stakes). She showed how well she was feeling with the performance. She's got that real bulldog mentality and she always seems to have that little bit more, should she need it. Indian Pacific was super today but if it got a bit closer to her I'm sure she would have pulled away if needed."

Capriccio lands Dash as Lane secures treble

Following the earlier victories of Star Of The Seas and Morvada, Damian Lane secured a treble on the Flemington card when he guided Capriccio (I Am Invincible) to victory in the Inglis Dash (1100m). The result was another upset for punters, with the filly returning at $41, and winning trainer Daniel Bowman admitted he was pleasantly surprised by the victory of the last-start Thoroughbred Club Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) seventh, who defeated Bella Nipotina (Pride Of Dubai) by three-quarters of a length with Lord Olympus (Olympic Glory) another half-neck away in third. "He committed to the ride when I asked him and he was happy to jump on and ignore the form and ride the horse for what it was," Bowman said of Lane's exploits in the saddle. Capriccio was a $300,000 purchase from the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale, being knocked down to Bowman and Darren Dance's Australian Thoroughbred Bloodstock having been offered by Dance's Esker Lodge. Her dam, Lonhspresso (Lonhro), boasted a Group 2 win among four victories from 15 outings, and she was bought by Dance and the Gereaux family's Bungan Street Thoroughbreds for $80,000 at Inglis' Australian Weanling Sale in 2010.

Second for Moshe

Former Sun Stud resident Moshe (Bel Esprit) sired his second stakes winner as Mosh Music (6 m ex Dirt Music by Jeune) stamped her credentials for the Adelaide Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) on Monday week by taking out the Roy Higgins Quality (Listed, 2600m) at Flemington. Trained by Archie Alexander, Mosh Music bounced back from a disappointing last-start seventh in the Moonee Valley Night Cup (Listed, 2500m) - in which she pulled a shoe - to beat Sin To Win (Sir Percy) by a length and a quarter, with another three-quarters of a length to Stars Of Carrum (Fiorente) in third place. "We saw the nominations for this race and they didn't look overly strong, but even though it wasn't in our plan - we were supposed to go (direct) to the Adelaide Cup - we took a little diversion and we'll be going to the Adelaide Cup now," Alexander said. Winning jockey Mark Zahra, who will retain the ride at Morphettville, added: "I reckon she'll stay. In the run today I barely touched the bridle the whole way. She was so relaxed and when I needed her to quicken, she did." Moshe, a brother to Black Caviar, was exported to Indonesia in 2019.

Chaillot completes red-letter day for Alexander

Archie Alexander enjoyed an afternoon to remember at Flemington when Chaillot (4 m Testa Rossa - Mary of Modena by Encosta De Lago) made it a stakes double for the Ballarat trainer by taking out the Frances Tressady Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m). Under the guidance of Declan Bates, Chaillot - the $3.80 favourite - scored by a long-neck from Need New Friends (Shamus Award), with Shout The Bar (Not A Single Doubt) another length away third. A promising juvenile, Chaillot won the Anzac Day Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at two, while she ran fourth in the Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on October 31. Yesterday's win was her first start since finishing eighth in the Matriarch

Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) in November. Chaillot has now won four of her seven starts and $298,450 in prize-money

Three for All Too Hard

Vinery Stud's All Too Hard (Casino Prince) brought up his third individual Group 1 winner as Forbidden Love (3 f ex Juliet's Princess by More Than Ready) burst through late to claim the Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick yesterday. A $150,000 purchase for Richard Freedman at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in 2020, Forbidden Love is out of the stakes-placed Juliet's Princess (More Than Ready), who has a colt by Epaulette (Commands) at foot and was served by All Too Hard in 2020. All Too Hard stood for $27,500 in 2020.

170 for Fastnet Rock

Chris Waller has unearthed another talented juvenile in his armoury thanks to O'President (2 c ex O'Marilyn by O'Reilly), who built on the promise of his four-length win at Canterbury last month when taking out the Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick yesterday. The victory provided Coolmore stalwart Fastnet Rock (Danehill) with his 170th individual stakes winner, while the stallion enjoyed a quinella as the Team Hawkes-trained Hilal finished a length a quarter adrift in second. Capitvant (Capitalist) was the same margin away in third. A $520,000 purchase from the Inglis Australian Easter Sale for James Bester Bloodstock from the Kia Ora Stud draft, O'President is the second winner from Group 1-winning juvenile O'Marilyn (O'Reilly). O'Marilyn is herself a half-sister to top-tier winners Headturner (Anabaa) and Anacheeva (Anabaa) as well as Group 2 winner Kroner (Viking Ruler), being from the blue hen Monroe Magic (Zabeel).

O'President Slipper-bound following Skyline success

O'President will now press onto next month's Golden Slipper where he will be joined by stablemate Shaquero (Shalaa), winner of the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) prior to finishing sixth in the Skyline. The latter will take in the Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Rosehill on March 13 prior to his Group 1 assignment. "He will go (to the Slipper) for sure. The team behind the horse will back me up on that, he's a nice horse," Waller said of O'President. "I don't think he's a natural leader by any means but he's got a bright future. They left him alone out there. Tim (Clark) is obviously a great jockey and there are probably very few better in front at rating tempo. They let him get away with a tempo that O'President was comfortable with so he showed a good turn of foot at the top of the rise and was very good to the line."

107 for Snitzel

Arrowfield Stud flagbearer Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) sired his 107th individual stakes winner yesterday when Four Moves Ahead (2 f ex Doulmera by Mr Greeley) maintained her unbeaten record with victory in the Sweet Embrace Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick. Originally scheduled to run in the Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) before an eleventh-hour knock to the knee put paid to that plan, Four Moves Ahead showed no ill-effects of that setback when she downed She's All Class (I Am Invincible) by a neck. The front two pulled two lengths clear of Mallory (Not A Single Doubt) in third. Four Moves Ahead is out of a half-sister to Prix de l'Opera (Gr 1, 2000m) heroine Dalkala (Giant's Causeway) being from the same family of outstanding European performer Daylami (Doyoun). Consigned by Bhima Stud, she was passed in with a $300,000 reserve at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale and was retained to race by Jonathan Munz's Pinecliff Racing.

Another Slipper contender revealed in Four Moves Ahead

Four Moves Ahead is set to be the first Golden Slipper runner for her trainer John Sargent when she lines-up in the $3.5 million Group 1 Rosehill on March 20. "We've got three weeks now if she comes through it to the Slipper and we can crank up her work and she'll be a fitter horse then," he said. Reflecting on the setback that ruled his charge out of the Silver Slipper, Sargent added: "We've had a hard last ten days. We could only get the saddle on her on Tuesday for a gallop and apart from that she has just swum and been led off the pony, so it was great to get the result today and we can move on." The first two home in the Sweet Embrace are $13 chances with TAB for the Slipper. Crystal Lily (Stratum) was the last horse to complete the Sweet Embrace-Slipper double when she triumphed in 2010.

Krone posts surprise Guy Walter win

Last-start Magic Millions Fillies & Mares Plate (1300m) winner Krone (5 m Eurozone - Soft Landing by Al Maher) sprung a surprise when taking out the Guy Walter Proven Thoroughbred Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) as a $16 shot at Randwick yesterday. Trained out of Eagle Farm by Tony Gollan, Krone had previously tasted success in Sydney when landing the Darby Munro Stakes (Listed, 1200m) in 2019, with the vanquished including Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) on that occasion. The five-year-old once again overcame some highly-touted opposition to secure a first Group 2 win, quickening a length and three-quarters clear of runner-up Tricky Gal (Magic Albert). Icebath (Sacred Falls) was a further length back in third.

Think It Over too strong in Liverpool City Cup

On an afternoon of surprise results, Randwick's Liverpool City Cup (Gr 3, 1300m) went the way of Think It Over (5 g So You Think - Personal Service by Zabeel). The winner of the Craven Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) at the same track in October, the Kerry Parker-trained five-year-old resumed at odds of $51, but he defied that mammoth price when getting the better of favourite Criaderas (Lonhro) by a neck. There was a further long-head back to All Saints' Eve (Sacred Falls) in third. A homebred for Bylong Park, Think It Over has now won five of his 21 starts, while he was third in $1 million The Gong (1600m) when last seen in competitive action in November. He could now be set for a tilt at the Doncaster Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) later in the autumn carnival. Meanwhile his sire, Coolmore's So You Think (High Chaparral), has now produced six stakes winners this season, with his progeny amassing over $8 million since August 1. Think It Over is out of the unraced Personal Service (Zabeel), who is a half-sister to Group 1 winners Universal Prince (Scenic) and Universal Queen (Scenic).

Scorched Earth triumphs in MM SA 2YO Classic

Exciting Melbourne filly Scorched Earth (Nicconi) lived up to her name with a brilliant five and a quarter-length win in the Magic Millions SA 2YO Classic (1200m) at Murray Bridge yesterday. Trained by John Moloney, the promising juvenile ran second to Arcaded (Street Boss) in the Blue Diamond Prelude (Fillies) (Gr 2, 1100m) at Caulfield on February 6 and she put that stakes form to good use when making all in a dominant performance under apprentice rider Jessica Eaton. A $90,000 purchase at the Gold Coast Yearling Sale from Lyndhurst Stud Farm, Scorched Earth put daylight between herself and runner-up Lady of Honour (No Nay Never), while Princess Raffles (Sir Prancealot) closed late to finish third. "She was a delight to ride," Eaton said after securing the biggest win of her career. "The plan wasn't necessarily to lead as we thought there might be some speed in the race, but as it turned out she was very comfortable in front and then when I asked her to accelerate she really sprinted well. I couldn't have asked for a better ride and I must thank Mr Moloney and all of the connections for giving me the ride today. It's a great thrill." Scorched Earth is from the unraced Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare Scorched, who is herself a sister to Group 3 winner Furnaces, while this is also the family of Melito (Redoute's Choice) and Pariah (Redoute's Choice).

27 for Tavistock

Hot favourite Solaia (Toronado) could only muster second in yesterday's Ascot 1,000 Guineas (Listed, 1800m) as Brave Angel (3 f ex Svita by Success Express) claimed top honours to provide late Cambridge Stud stallion Tavistock (Montjeu) with his 27th individual stakes winner. Solaia was sent off the $1.60 market leader having won the Challenge Stakes (Listed, 1500m) on February 13, but it was $21 chance Brave Angel who posted a career best for trainer Simon Miller and jockey Peter Knuckey, turning around a four-length deficit with Solaia having run sixth in the Challenge herself. She had earlier finished third in the Champion Fillies Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) on November 14. Pure Devotion (So You Think) finished a further length adrift in third yesterday, leading home a 3-4-5 for Grant and Alana Williams. Tavistock died in December 2019 having suffered complications from an injury he had earlier sustained in a field and he is best known as the sire of Group 1 winners Volkstok'n'barrell and Werther.

74 for Iffraaj

Western Empire (3 g Western Jewel by Jeune) was rewarded for a string of consistent efforts when he scooted away from his six rivals in yesterday's Lex Piper Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Ascot, providing former Darley shuttler Iffraaj (Zafonic) with his 74th individual stakes winner. The Grant and Alana Williams-trained three-year-old ran fourth in the Western Australian Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) in November, while he had previously been Listed-placed on three further occasions, but he secured his day in the sun with a resounding five and a half-length win over Flash Ducati (Blackfriars). Castillio Del Lago (Alfred Nobel) was a further neck back in third. Iffraaj, who shuttled to Haunui Farm for 12 seasons, is the sire of Ribchester, who took over the mantle of his sire by assuming shuttling duties as of last year, and Coolmore shuttler Wootton Bassett.

16 for Manhattan Rain

Manhattan Rain (Encosta De Lago) sired his 16th individual stakes winner yesterday when Hail Manhattan (4 g Beggin by Benicio)

Manhattan Rain

took out the Tattersall's Member's Cup (Listed, 1600m) at the Sunshine Coast. The Peter and Will Hulbert-trained winner finished three-quarters of a length to the good of David Vandyke's Dissolution (Snitzel), with Sir Barnabus (Rothsay) a further neck back in third. Hail Manhattan was winning for the sixth time in 18 starts, albeit for the first time in black-type company, and he has now won all three outings in February.

Armidale postponed today

Today's scheduled meeting for Armidale has been postponed due to wet weather. The stewards considered the track to be unfit for racing following 100 millimetres of rainfall.

NEW ZEALAND

108 for Snitzel

Arrowfield Stud stallion Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) recorded a new stakes double across the Tasman yesterday, with Sword Of State (2 c ex In the Vanguard by Encosta De Lago) becoming his 108th individual stakes winner when producing a commanding performance to take out the Waikato Stud Slipper (Gr 3, 1200m). The result followed the win of Four Moves Ahead in the Sweet Embrace Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick, who was the 107th individual stakes winner for the stallion. Third in the Eclipse Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) second time out on New Year's Day, the Jamie Richards-trained Sword Of State produced a clear career best when downing stablemate and Karaka 2YO Million (RL, 1200m) winner On The Bubbles (Brazen Beau) by six and a half lengths yesterday. Dragon Biscuit (Choisir) was a further half a length away in third.

Richards quinella Sistema-bound

The winner and the runner-up from the Waikato Stud Slipper are set for a rematch in the Sistema Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Ellerslie on March 13. "He won well and like the good horse he is," Richards said of Sword Of State. "He jumped nicely, travelled really well and railed beautifully. The rail is definitely the place to be today and when he got terms to suit, he was always going to be hard to beat. I thought On The Bubbles was very good as well as that was his first start since the Karaka Million and he will take plenty of benefit from the race." Richards continued: "They are both heading to the Sistema Stakes on Auckland Cup day. I think On The Bubbles is a touch better suited going that way around and with the improvement he will take out of today, he will be very competitive. Sword Of State does hold a nomination for the Golden Slipper in Sydney but we're not really thinking about that too much as he doesn't have the prize-money in the bin as yet to get a start in the race."

Six for Super Easy

Super Easy (Darci Brahma) sired his sixth individual stakes winner yesterday when Bonny Lass maintained her unbeaten record to take out the Matamata Breeders' Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). A comfortable debut victory at the same track back in January saw the Graham Richardson and Rogan Norvall-trained youngster installed a warm $2.10 favourite for the race and she didn't disappoint under a heady ride by Craig Grylls, who brought up a winning treble on the day with the success. The fast-finishing Fonsalette (Belardo) grabbed second, beaten three-quarters of a length, with Beldarra (Hinchinbrook) a further neck back in third. "She is just so professional and she is tough," Richardson said. "She actually lost her back legs at the start, so to pick herself up and get into the position she did was quite remarkable. When she was in front, I was looking for Lance O'Sullivan's filly (Novashow) as I thought she was the horse to beat. I was just hoping we had enough to hold them all out and thankfully we did."

43 for Azamour

Richardson and Norvall secured a quickfire stakes double when Paisley Park (6 g Musical Magic by Mozart) took out the following contest at Matamata, the Kaimai Stakes (Listed, 2000m), to provide the late Azamour (Night Shift) with his 43rd individual stakes winner. Fourth in the Taranaki Cup (Gr 3, 1800m) at his last start, Paisley Park shot to the front rounding the home turn before holding out all challenges to win by half a length from Central Districts visitor Pep Torque (Nadeem). Yatima (Savabeel) was the same margin adrift in third. "He is a true mile and a quarter horse, so it suited him perfectly today," Richardson said. "Wiremu (Pinn, jockey) followed instructions to the letter as we wanted him to give him a dig out of the gates and race handy. He had to go early and thankfully he did that, as it was the winning of the race. I haven't got any plans for him and will just let this all sink in as we celebrate tonight." He continued: "The two wins today have given me one of the biggest thrills I've ever had in life. I've won races like the Matamata Cup here on my home track but there is just something special about taking out the feature event the club has and winning another big one, all on the same day."

Venue doubt for next week's Derby

Saturday's New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) will not be run at Ellerslie with Auckland having entered a Covid-enforced lockdown for seven days from 6am (local time) this morning. The Auckland Racing Club are on the lookout for a suitable replacement venue.

First for Captain Of All

Group 1-winning sprinter Captain Of All (Captain Al) became a Group 1-winning stallion after his son Linebacker (3 g ex Thin Red Line by Redoute's Choice) took out yesterday's Cape Derby (Gr 1, 2000m) at Kenilworth. Trained by Vaughan Marshall, the gelding was winning for the second time in six starts as he beat favourite Rascallion (Vercingetorix) by a length and a half. The Gatekeeper (Dynasty) was another half a length away in third. Linebacker is out of the Group 3-placed Thin Red Line (Redoute's Choice). Captain Of All stands at Klawervlei Stud for a fee of R10,000 (approx. AUD$850).

75 for Iffraaj

Forest Of Dean (5 g ex Forest Crown by Royal Applause) reversed the form with his old rival Felix (Lope De Vega) to take out the Winter Derby (Gr 3, 1m 2f) at Lingfield yesterday, handing Iffraaj (Zafonic) his 75th individual stakes winner. The John Gosden-trained Forest Of Dean had finished behind Felix in his two outings since returning from a long absence this winter, including when running third in the Winter Derby Trial (Listed, 1m 2f) over the same course and distance three weeks ago. However, he stepped forward from that run again under a canny tactical ride by Rab Havlin, who stole a march on his four rivals entering the straight and was never in danger thereafter. Felix ran second, beaten three-quarters of a length, while the progressive Father Of Jazz (Kingman), who returned the 6-4 favourite, was another length back in third. Now the winner of five of his 13 starts, Forest Of Dean is the fourth foal out of the winning mare Forest Crown (Royal Applause), who herself is a half-sister to Racing Post Trophy (Gr 1, 1m) winner Crowded House (Rainbow Quest). Iffraaj had earlier sired his 74th individual stakes winner when Western Empire secured the Lex Piper Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Ascot.

12 for Zebedee

Progressive sprinter Lord Riddiford (6 g ex Beacon Of Hope by Baratheas) took his form to new heights with a gutsy success in the Hever Sprint Stakes (Listed, 5f) at Lingfield yesterday, becoming the 12th individual stakes winner for late Tally Ho Stud resident Zebedee (Invincible Spirit). In a strongly-run affair, Lord Riddiford stalked the pace-setting Ornate (Bahamian Bounty) before pouncing in the straight. He fended off the sustained late challenge of the favourite Moss Gill (No Nay Never) by a neck. Blue De Vega (Lope De Vega) was a further three-quarters of a length adrift in third. Lord Riddiford has now won nine of his 34 starts for prize-money of £134,742 (approx. AUD$243,500).

FRA: Nurlan Bizakov adds historic Haras du Mezeray to his breeding portfolio

Nurlan Bizakov has bought the historic Haras du Mezeray in Normandy, which from tomorrow will form part of his Sumbe group. The Kazakhstan-born businessman merged his initial farm, Hesmonds Stud in Sussex, along with the more recent purchase Haras de Montfort et Preaux under the Sumbe banner last November. Tony Fry, the long-term manager of Hesmonds, will now be based at Haras du Mezeray while Mathieu Alex will remain as manager of Montfort et Preaux. Bizakov said: "I am very happy because Mezeray is a very big name in French breeding. It has a long history, having been founded by Paul de Moussac in 1962, so it will celebrate its 60th anniversary next year. We will consider Mezeray and Montfort et Preaux as one farm. I hope clients from both farms will benefit from this merger because it will give us more room, more facilities and more infrastructure."

UK: Holland and Fallon to join forces in new training set-up

Former rivals Darryll Holland and Kieren Fallon are set to join forces as licence-holder and right-hand man at Harraton Court Stables in Exning near Newmarket, which has 30 boxes. Fallon, 55, rode the last of his ten seasonal centuries in 2011 and enjoyed a glittering career in the saddle with six jockeys' titles, 16 British Classics and six more in his native Ireland. Holland has ridden major winners in virtually every major racing jurisdiction across the world, with the 48-year-old having concentrated on the Far East and North America in recent years.

Beasley rides first winner back to Unique atmosphere

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

Comeback jockey Danny Beasley returned to the winner's enclosure after he booted home the well-supported Lim's Unique (Uncle Mo) in the opening event at Kranji yesterday.

After a stint as an assistant trainer to Daniel Meagher, the Golden Slipper-winning jockey came out of retirement to ride at his first meeting back last week.

He did not finish in the money with four unfancied rides on that occasion, but made no mistake on live chance Lim's Unique ($13) in the Class 5 Division 1 race over 1200 metres on Polytrack.

"It's great to get that first winner back early, there'll be less pressure on my shoulders. It was very different, though, with the empty grandstand, it felt surreal, but that is the new normal now," he said.

"Last week was all a bit rushed going into that first day back. So it was all about blowing the cobwebs out and get some fitness under the belt.

"I was looking forward to the next meeting and I made Lim's Unique my best chance. I thought he'd be very competitive in Class 5 and he didn't disappoint."

After a clean break from his wide alley, the four-year-old, who boasted only one win from his previous dozen of starts, led a fairly strung-out field before Beasley cued him off to an easy length and three-quarters win from St Alwyn (Epaulette), with Diamond Mine (Gingerbread Man) another quarter of a length away in third.

Meagher said he couldn't help feel a touch emotional as he went down to lead in his good mate's first winner back.

"It's just good to see such a good jockey getting his licence back and riding a winner so early. He's so dedicated and he's come back like he's never left," said the fellow Australian.

"He's been a very close friend for a very long time, he's been a massive part of my life. It's so good to see him back into it again, it's such a good story, isn't it?"

Lim's Unique

"I'm sure he'll get a lot more opportunities from now on and from the other bigger stables, and I have no doubt he'll keep riding winners for everybody."

Bounty hunts down leading pick for upset win

Winless for almost a year, Darc Bounty (Darci Brahma) returned to form in yesterday's Class 3 race over 1100 metres as he enjoyed a charmed run before getting the better of Celavi (Fighting Sun) and Water Rocket (Orpen) in the smart time of 1min 4.5 seconds.

Despite the seven-year-old's losing spell, his trainer Stephen Gray said he was quite bullish.

"I knew he would run well today," Gray said. "He trialled well last week and he was back to his class. At his last couple of runs, he was caught wide.

"Well done to S Noh as he did all the hard work to get down to 56 kilograms. This horse has a good machine in Class 3, he has got down to the right class.

"At the 200 metres, I wasn't sure he was good enough to beat the favourite (Celavi), but he's a good honest horse."

Hard Too Think owners can't be here: Gray

Hard Too Think's (All Too Hard) pulsating win had his trainer Stephen Gray feeling both stoked and also a little despondent about the hollowness of a victory without the owners on hand.

Since the imposition of Covid-19 restrictions when racing resumed in July, only one owner and one guest are allowed to go to the races.

With Hard Too Think raced by a new syndication of ten owners, the group opted for the 'all of us or nothing' motto.

"Hard Too Think is raced by a group of owners, mostly local, that I put together before Covid-19. Some are foreigners and some are stuck overseas," said Gray.

"They want to be here and enjoy their races, have some food and drinks, but they can't do it now."

Gray, however, remained optimistic the bunch would eventually get to give their pride and joy a well-deserved pat on the neck at the winner's stall one day.

"He's a very nice horse, but it's just that at his last start, he was poorly ridden. He should have led but he was caught four to five wide," said Gray.

“At his previous run, he missed the start, was pushed back and it was too late in the end. Luckily, the owners have been patient and left me to it.

“He is a stayer but there are limited opportunities for him on grass. It was tempting to run him over 2000 metres the other day, but I didn’t, I gave him a freshen-up and it’s paid off today.”

Gray was also full of admiration of Marc Lerner’s handling of his fourth winner of the year.

“He trialled good with Marc last week, it was a nice soft run. Marc is strong and can ride light, he suits this horse.”

Sun Ops scores impressive win on debut

Former Sydney speedster Sun Ops (I Am Invincible) blazed away to sizzling win on his Kranji debut when he proved to be too strong for his rivals in the Class 4 Division 1 race (1000m).

Sun Ops

SJC

A two-time winner over 900 metres in Newcastle when known as Covert Ops for Sun Bloodstock and Gerald Ryan, the four-year-old made use of his early gate speed to score as an $8 hotpot, beating Cousteau (Exceed And Excel) by

The winning time was a slick 58.24 seconds, about the same time he clocked in his barrier trials.

Competition can steer people in one of two ways. There are those who retract; recoiling back to safer ground in the face of a strong rival. And there are those who thrive, spurred on by an envy and resolve that drives them into unknown territory.

Ryan McEvoy and Rosemont Stud belong to the latter.

And so the latest venture was born. The Victorian Alliance, devised for and aimed at securing the finest yearling stallion prospects in the country, has made itself noticed this first year since its inception, muscling its way into a powerful sphere that was quickly becoming not Victoria's to consume.

Competition between Victoria and New South Wales, in any sporting arena, has always been rife, and none more so than in thoroughbred racing, whether it's on the racing side with the latest prize-money arms race or in the breeding of the best.

For Anthony Mithen, stud principal at Rosemont, stud director Nigel Austin, and McEvoy, the growing dominance of New South Wales in acquiring stallions has not gone unnoticed.

"As the Victorian Alliance, we're unashamedly trying to find that next high class commercial stallion prospect," said McEvoy, who took up the role of general manager at the Gnarwarre stud in March last year after 15 years as Head of sales and marketing at Hunter Valley giant Widden Stud.

"Anthony and Nigel deserve a lot of credit. They have built a great team here at Rosemont and have established an operation that is not only successful but an industry leader in a relatively short period of time.

"Both are very driven individuals with a clear vision of Rosemont's future.

Part of that is providing breeders with the best possible stallion talent on offer."

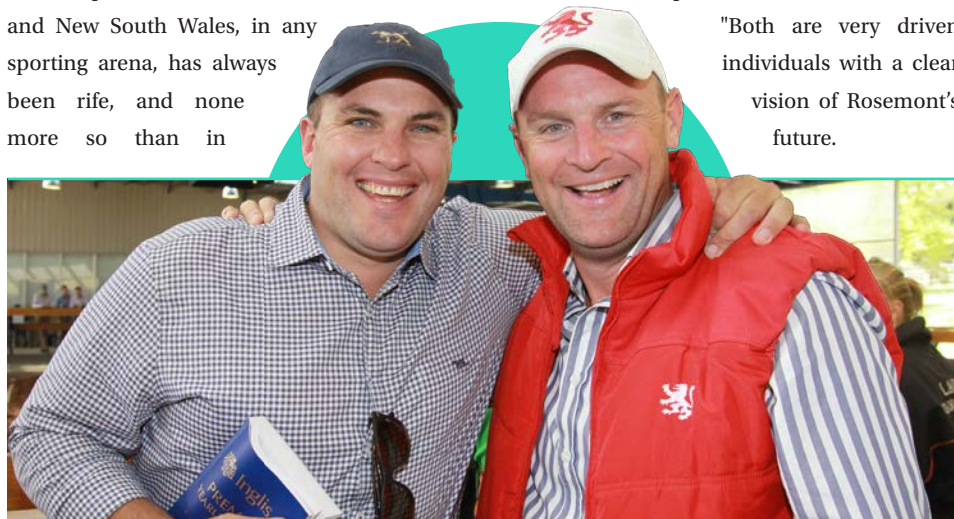

"It stemmed from just how difficult it is to buy a good colt off the track these days but we've seen a lot of quality stallions that have either started their careers in Victoria and ended up in the Hunter Valley or are simply being bought by the Hunter Valley muscle.

"We're not trying to reinvent the wheel here, there are a number of colts partnerships within the Australian market. Ultimately, a strong colts market is a very healthy thing for the broader industry. However I'd like to think ours was a unique concept.

"It's very much with a view to having a real Victorian flavour to it. Something that as Victorian breeders we can really get behind holistically and ensure that these top-class stallion prospects remain in the state, and ideally we have some fun doing it."

The partnership is made up of a group of a dozen or so breeders in Victoria, while Rosemont have enlisted the support of successful UK bloodstock agents David Redvers and Hannah Wall, who have a close association with Qatar Racing and worked together with McEvoy to secure colts-turned-stallions Zousain (Zoustar) and Sun City (Zoustar), as well as Melbourne-based bloodstock agent Suman Hedge.

"I've had a great relationship with David and Hannah throughout the last decade," said McEvoy.

"We've worked together in the past and bought some nice horses so it suited both of us and it is obviously nice to have the support of a wonderfully successful organisation such as Qatar Racing and Bloodstock involved.

"To have Suman Hedge involved to assist myself and Anthony on the ground has been instrumental. Suman is an outstanding judge and very level headed with his overall view on a yearling.

"Between everyone – Mitho, Suman, David, Hannah and myself - I was rapt with how the whole team demonstrated the ability to work together."

What McEvoy and his cohorts would have witnessed over the last few years is a dominance of NSW-based colts syndicates swallowing up the leading stallion prospects.

Establishing a foothold in the lucrative stallion business has been an ambition held by many industry players over the last five years, and new, innovative ways of achieving that have emerged.

Since 2016 there has been an incremental increase in the number of stallions going to stud having been purchased, either by stud masters or stallion-making syndicates, as yearlings with the hope they develop into a stallion prospect.

James Harron and his powerful group of investors struck the jackpot as Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Capitalist (Written Tycoon) and Defcon (Choir) found stud deals

LOT 630: RICH ENUFF /JEOPARDY FILLY

She's a great style of filly with a beautiful depth of girth. Bred by some good friends of ours at Peppercorn Lodge and she's a lovely filly that will be well found. She's got that fast twitch about her, looks sharp, and is light on her feet.

in 2016 after their racing careers came to an end, while the Newgate Farm/China Horse Club partnership and Aquis Farm have followed suit, investing heavily in regally-bred colts in the hope of a few of them reaching the heights required, with the likes of Russian Revolution (Snitzel), Cosmic Force (Deep Field), Pariah (Redoute's Choice), Dubious (Not A Single Doubt) and Rosemont's own stallion, Strasbourg (I Am Invincible), having made the grade, with a plethora of graduates from various colt funds including Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) and King's Legacy (Redoute's Choice) bound for stud upon retirement.

For what's a $1 million colt when it goes on to make a $30 million stud deal?

"Ultimately the view was to purchase around a dozen colts. We're not specifically tying ourselves to a set number of purchases or budget, other than we'd be looking to purchase around 12 or 14 colts throughout the year and certainly the Magic Millions, Melbourne Premier and Inglis Easter are the major sales that we plan to source those horses from," said McEvoy.

"We're looking for colts that can give themselves the opportunity of being ready at two and will train on at three. We have an open mind as to what that horse looks like, but it's nothing too radical that we're doing here."

Although not radical it's certainly influential. At the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale the group went to seven figures to prize a Zoustar (Northern Meter) colt out of Group 3 winner Fuddle Dee Duddle (Red Ransom).

The Victorian Alliance purchased a total of six lots for a spend of $3,600,000, going toe to toe with James Harron (seven lots, $5,275,000) and the Newgate Farm/China Horse Club syndicate (six lots, $2,700,000), ending the sale as the seventh leading buyer, trailing powerhouse pair Phoenix Thoroughbred/Tony Fung Investments, who bought 19 lots for an $11,645,000 spend.

"The majority are proven stallions, for example our Magic Millions purchases include three I Am Invincible colts, a Zoustar, a Written Tycoon and a Capitalist colt. That gives you a fair idea of what we're trying to achieve," said McEvoy.

While there is very much a serious element in achieving success with the project, for McEvoy and the group of breeders involved,

LOT 361: STREET BOSS (USA) /SPIRIT OF CARBINE COLT

The stallion is on a great run and this is a really strong, forward, mature and quality kind of horse. To me he just looks like two-year-old speed all over. He's got a good brain on him and is correct. A lovely colt.

they are keen to ensure they enjoy the thrills of purchasing and racing these high-end colts, targeting some of the country's most prestigious races on the calendar.

"We loved the idea of doing it organically," said McEvoy. "It fuels a desire from our point of view of racing these horses, it's a passion of Nigel's to see these horses from the real embryonic stage of selecting them at the yearling stage and being involved from the time they're broken in and then all the way through their race track careers.

"Doing it this way obviously has its risks no doubt, however a lot of the partners that are involved are at the stage whereby they really want to enjoy just having these well bred quality colts in work.

"And you'll find that a lot of the partners we do have involved are racing purists and relish the idea of being involved in a group that races high profile colts. With the trainers that will be selected, they're going to be given opportunities at all the major races. I think that was something that appealed to the group.

"It's been fun. We emphasised from the very beginning we want this to be a collective venture as much as possible and enjoy the process the whole way through. The partners are in this to be involved in a model that's hopefully going to benefit the Victorian industry."

As for the current landscape of the Victorian stallion and breeding scene, with Sun Stud exiting the arena, McEvoy remains confident in the strength of the actors who are investing for

"I think we should have a lot of confidence in the Victorian stallion business," said McEvoy.

"You look at international stallion operations such as Darley, Spendthrift, Yulong, there's just three, that are really committed to standing stallions in the state and have been a wonderful addition to the Victorian industry.

"In addition I think the mare population in Victoria is as strong as ever. The success of Written Tycoon has been largely brought upon from the support of Victorian based mares.

"Some of the country's most successful breeders are here; Rick Jamieson, Bruce Wilson, the Liston family, David Moodie, Robert Crabtree just to name a few – they have built their thoroughbred brand from a Victorian base.

"From a Rosemont point of view we're very committed and excited for what the future holds."

That future will, McEvoy hopes, involve more than one stallion standing at the Victorian farm in the coming years and reaffirmed their longstanding commitment that this is not merely a splash and dash project for this year.

"We're certainly in this for the long term. This is a venture we see continuing through for a number of years. We'd obviously hope to see not just one but a number of colts that have come through the Victorian Alliance standing on the Rosemont roster, that's clearly the dream, without which you don't get anywhere."

Heading into the Melbourne Premier Sale, an auction that has seen the likes of Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) and North Pacific (Brazen Beau) emerge as stallion prospects, McEvoy believes the Victorian sale will deliver the stallions of tomorrow, but he is fully aware that, with the current trend of vibrant yearling sales expected to continue and demand for high-end colts at a record high, the group will have to dig deep into their pockets to secure the quality of yearling required.

"Enormous confidence (in the sale). The Premier sale has consistently produced high-class Group 1 horses," said McEvoy. "I thought the Inglis Classic sale would be a good barometer for how the Melbourne Premier sale might play out and clearly Classic was off the charts, so I couldn't be more confident that we'll see a successful premier sale.

"And a lot of that Victorian spend that may have gone to New Zealand one would think will be redirected here at Premier so I expect the sale will be hot."

Analysis: Improved by one run back and advancing to 1600m, Verry Ellegant staged an impressive performance in recording her seventh Group 1 victory, albeit by a narrow margin. She settled in sixth place before James McDonald moved her up smartly (deep) at the 600m. She challenged strongly at the 300m and after quite a battle she showed her class in claiming a narrow but very good win on the post. Colette settled nicely outside the leader (Kolding), challenged on turning for home and then battled gamely for (half-neck) second in a very smart performance. Avilius settled in second last place in the nine-runner field, improved between runners at the turn, put in a strong bid on passing the 200m and kept fighting solidly for a close third in a very good first-up run. Funstar had a nice trip behind the leader (Kolding), got along the inner to challenge at the turn and she held on particularly well for a close fourth in a good second-up run. Kolding led the field until halfway down the straight and did not shirk his task in holding on well for (0.8 lengths) fifth, while Master Of Wine caught the eye in coming from last to finish (2.3 lengths) sixth in a nice effort resuming here. Margins: 0.5 lens, 0.3 lens. Time: 1:35.86(last 600m 34.54).

Betting: $301.00, $10.00, $3.50.

Then followed: Embolism (AUS), Zou Dancer (AUS), Beltoro (AUS), Jet Propulsion (AUS), Here To Shock (NZ), Aysar (AUS), Ole Kirk (AUS), Cambourne (AUS), Grandslam (AUS), Dom To Shoot (AUS), It'sourtime (AUS) & Ironedge (AUS), last.

Analysis: In a shock result, Lunar Fox improved dramatically on his first-up (13.2 lengths) 12th behind Tagaloa in the CS Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at this track on February 13 to take out this Group 1 feature at odds of $301. He settled in seventh place, tracked up nicely nearing the turn, moved up smartly to challenge at 100m and then finished best to score in a manner to suggest that his victory was far from a fluke. Cherry Tortoni settled in last place in the 15-runner field from his outside barrier. He went widest of all from the 300m and rattled home for (half-length) second, his barrier proving costly. The favourite Tagaloa soon worked across to lead and he then set a reasonable tempo (first 1000m 61.32). He held an advantage on straightening, was challenged strongly at the 200m and then fought well for a close-up third but is still to win beyond 1400m. Embolism settled beyond midfield on the rails, improved between runners on straightening, went closer to the inner to challenge at the 200m and then battled gamely for (0.9 lengths) fourth. The lone filly in the field Zou Dancer settled in a good spot, fifth (between runners). Jamie Kah got her into clear running on turning for home and she then battled on well for (1.9 lengths) fifth after seeming to have had every chance stepping up to 1600m here. [KB]

FASTNET ROCK Multiple Champion sire | COOLMORE AUSTRALIA

Analysis: As expected, Avantage was again very professional against a small field in taking out her eighth Group 1. In an even start Avantage led briefly, went back to second then third but Opie Bosson wasn't happy being three wide so moved her forward to sit just back and outside the lead past the 1200m. She sat a length back at the 800m then crept closer inside the 600m. Rounding into the straight she almost levelled up, took over at the 300m then drove hard for home. Bosson kept her honest and although the margin was only three-quarters of a length she held off the late challenge fairly comfortably. Callsign Mav was a handy fourth, one out at the 1000m, tracked the winner into the straight but took longer to balance for the run home. He tried hard and was doing his best late but runner-up was always going to be the best he could expect. Travelling Light was sixth on straightening and finished fairly for a distant third. [LJ]

ALL TOO HARD

Sire of 10 SW'ers in 2019/20

Analysis: Forbidden Love, winner of the Reginald Allen Quality (Listed, 1400m) at this track in October, resumed from a let-up after racing below her best in the Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) at the Gold Coast in January to record Group 1 victory here. She travelled nicely for Nash Rawiller in eighth place on the rails behind a quick tempo (first 800m 46.30). She improved on the inner on straightening, took a split at the 200m and then went on to score decisively. Vangelic settled about sixth (wide with cover), improved (deep) nearing the turn, hit the front at the 200m and then fought well for (3 lengths) second. Elizabeel settled midfield, tracked up well (wide) at the turn and then ran on solidly for third. Never Talk settled towards the tail of the 16-runner field and ran on well in the centre of the track for (4.2 lengths) fourth. Every Rose worked hard from her difficult barrier to lead and did very well in holding on for (5 lengths) fifth, while Montefilia made good late ground after being near the tail to finish (5.1 lengths) sixth in a promising first-up run. Then followed: Sing A Love Song (AUS), Tristate (AUS), Shaquero (AUS), Sir Rastus (AUS) & Seething Seb (AUS), last.

Analysis: O'President followed his first-up win on a Heavy 8 track in a two-year-old maiden (1250m) at Canterbury on January 29 with a very smart performance in taking this Group 2 feature, again showing his liking for affected going. He showed good early pace to cross to the lead and then travelled along strongly. He held a good break on straightening and fought back for a really good win. Hilal settled back in fifth place, moved up (deep) at the turn and gradually ate into the winner's lead, getting to within a length and a quarter for second in a solid effort. Captivant raced in third place, one off the rails. He was under pressure nearing the turn but kept battling on quite well in the straight to take the minor placing. Sing A Love Song was near last to the turn before coming with a late run to finish fourth. Tristate chased the leader, only fading over the latter stages for fifth in a nice effort at his second start. Shaquero raced in fourth place on the rails but ran below his best on the Soft 6 track, tiring for sixth at his first run since winning the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) on January 16. [KB]

Analysis: Four Moves Ahead remains unbeaten in two starts after advancing to Group class to record a very good win here. She raced in second place, tracking a quick tempo (first 600m 34.48), moved up nicely to take the lead at the 300m and then held on to score a very good win. She's All Class went back from her wide barrier (12) and raced in last place in the 12-runner field before going deep on turning for home. She then made up many lengths for a late-closing second in a smart effort at her first run since finishing third in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) on January 16. Mallory also settled back in the field from a wide barrier (11), was deep at the turn and then ran on well for third. Robodira raced in seventh place, commenced her run at the 300m and kept finishing well for (2.5 lengths) fourth. [KB]

Analysis: The Tony Gollan-trained mare Krone followed her good Queensland form with a solid performance in taking out this Group 2, her fourth stakes victory in 25 starts. She was ridden patiently and settled in second last place in the eight-runner field before switching deeper and into clear running at the 300m. She then sprinted well, hit the front at the 100m and then drew away to score quite impressively. Tricky Gal raced back sixth place, tracked up nicely nearing the turn, got to the front at the 200m and then fought well for second. Icebath was caught widest in a trio of leaders and kept battling gamely for third. Reelem In Ruby ran on nicely to claim fourth, just in front of Sweet Deal, who had a contested lead before finishing fifth, while Emeralds made late ground from last for sixth in a sound effort at her second run back. Analysis: Star Of The Seas followed his promising first-up fourth in the Expressway Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Rosehill on January 30 with a good win advancing in distance here. He was rated well by Damian Lane, racing back in sixth place behind a strong pace (first 1000m 59.06) before improving gradually on straightening. He was still about five lengths off the leader (Buffalo River) at the 200m before finishing best to score well. Fifty Stars raced back in tenth place and kept finishing solidly under this top weight for (short-neck) second in a very good second-up run. The favourite Buffalo River went to the front as anticipated and set up a clear lead at a strong pace, only tiring over the latter stages for third after running a bold race. Best Of Days was sixth early on before improving to third. He set out after the leader at the 300m and kept fighting well for (2.1 lengths) fourth. Mystic Journey raced back in eighth place and made some ground without threatening for (2.5 lengths) fifth. [KB]

ANOTHER NZ BRED WINNER

THOROUGHBRED

Analysis: A winner here on debut a month ago, Bonny Lass is now two from two and a stakes winner. She was a shade slow to begin but Craig Grylls cleverly waited until the dust settled to move her forward to sit third, one out leaving the back straight. She shared third at the 600m then Grylls sent her forward again to be second turning in. She went up to the leader inside the 200m, took over soon after and was too strong to the line by three-quarters of a length. Fonsalette shared second last at the 800m, second last alone inside the 600m but gained quickly three wide rounding into the straight. Once balanced she kept up a strong run to the line for a solid second. Beldarra led at the 800m and the 600m but was challenged as the field rounded into the straight. She tried to slip clear, was caught inside the 200m and fought gamely for her third. Novashow was fourth at the 300m and held on well for fourth. [LJ]

Then followed: I Am Superman (IRE), The Harrovian (AUS), Sansom (NZ), Sierra Sue (NZ), Never Again (AUS) & Rich Itch (AUS), last.

Analysis: No further back than fourth in his last six races, Morvada returned to winning form to score his third stakes and eighth career win by leading almost all the way here. He was second away but at the 1200m went to a clear lead which he held by a length at the 1000m but less than that at the 800m. Rounding into the straight he regained the length margin and at the 400m stretched it again. To the line he kept on strongly and the field couldn't make any impression, clear by a length when it counted. Holbien sat third (rails) at the 1000m, held third at the 600m and starting the run home had room on the inner if he wanted it. He never gave in to the line but had to settle for second. Perth visitor Platoon sat second last at the 600m, found room between runners at the 300m then finished well for third. I Am Superman challenged three wide at the top of the straight and tried hard to the line only to lose third late. [LJ]

Analysis: Sword Of State gave his stablemate On The Bubbles, winner of the Karaka Million (RL, 1200m), a galloping lesson here, careering away by six and half lengths. He shared the early lead then took over inside the 800m and was three-quarters of a length in front at the 600m. Rounding into the straight he went clear and for the length of the straight, the closer he got to the line the further he increased the lead, scooting away in the good time of 1:08.78. Favourite On The Bubbles sat fifth at the 800m, went up four wide from the 400m, set out after the winner, shared second at the 200m then came on for a distant second. Dragon Biscuit went up to challenge the winner at the 400m, shared second at the 200m then battled away for third. Notabadbuy was fourth turning in and held his position to the line. [LJ]

SO YOU THINK | COOLMORE
Gr.1 sire by High Chaparral AUSTRALIA

Analysis: Winner of the Craven Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) at this track in October, Think It Over was a surprise first-up winner. Racing at a distance short of his best, he settled nicely in third place on the rails from his inside barrier (1). He got through on the inner to challenge on straightening and then fought off a number of challenges to hold on and score under a good Glen Boss ride. The favourite Criaderas settled in last place in the nine-runner field, commenced his move on turning for home and came with a late run to finish second in a sound first-up run. All Saints' Eve settled in seventh place on the rails, got between runners on straightening, went to the rails at the 200m and then fought well for a close-up third at her first run back. Looks Like Elvis raced in eighth place to the run and finished quite well in the straight for a close fourth, with the top weight Greyworm holding on well for (0.9 lengths) fifth. [KB]

Analysis: The well-supported mare ChailLOT added to her impressive first-up record with a good performance in recording her fourth win in seven starts and her second at stakes level. She settled back from her wide barrier (13) in 12th place, made a wide move on turning for home, sprinted well to challenge at the 100m and then battled best to score by a long-neck in a smart performance. Need New Friends raced in eighth place, wide with cover, moved up well on straightening to challenge at the 100m and she then battled strongly for second, advancing in class here. Shout The Bar settled in sixth place, wide without cover. She moved up nicely once into the home straight and then held on well under top weight (59kg) in a good first-up run. Yamazaki was back in 12th place at the home turn and finished well when clear for (1.5 lengths) fourth. [KB]

Analysis: In taking out her maiden stakes win, Tycoon Humma remained unbeaten in two starts with a last-stride victory here. She drifted to the rear soon after the start but was handy enough with cover and was still last past the junction. She got a nice split at the 300m, was a half length back at the 200m, had to catch the leader but ran him down to get up in the last stride. Kallos sat third (rails) at the junction, drove through at the 300m and led inside the 200m. He looked strong to the line but was nabbed very late. Wanaroo was a handy fifth at the 400m, got going at the 200m and held on quite well for third from Zanzibar Gem, who threaded her way between runners in the final 100m to grab fourth. [LJ]

Analysis: Losing a plate last start, Mosh Music bounced back in a sound staying effort to score her maiden stakes success and ninth career win at start 17. She was fifth (one out) of the eight runners with a circuit remaining and second last past the 1600m. She shared last at the 800m but began to gain ground from the 600m and was widest but one starting the run home. Approaching the 300m she was into second, took over narrowly inside the 200m and was in no danger at the line to win by a length and a quarter. Sin To Win was equal last at the 800m, pulled widest into the straight and kept on solidly but was never going to catch the winner. Stars Of Carrum sat third, one out at the 800m, challenged into the straight, took over briefly but could only battle to the line to hold third. [LJ]

Then followed: Em Tee Aye (AUS), Off Wego (AUS), Brave Battle (AUS) & Red Hot Hope (AUS), last.

Analysis: An easy second win and maiden stakes for Western Empire, who also has three stakes placings from just seven starts. He settled a distant fourth but inside the 1200 improved to be handier, holding there past the 800m. On to the 400m he went three wide to challenge and rounding into the straight sat a half length back of the leader. In the straight he levelled up, went clear at the 200m and kept increasing his lead, bolting away by five and a half lengths. Flash Ducati sat fifth, one out at the 800m, tracked the winner rounding into the straight but was flat-footed at the top of the straight yet ran best of the rest for a distant second. Castillo Del Lago led them to the top of the straight, was caught soon after then battled away, gamely holding on for third. [LJ]

Then followed: Muntaseera (AUS), All Banter (AUS), Usmanov (AUS), Fine Dane (AUS), Bons Away (AUS), Prezado (AUS), Lashes (AUS), Hey Doc (AUS) & Propelle (AUS), last.

Analysis: The Western Australian-trained mare Fabergino has become a specialist over this track and distance, winning four of her five runs here. She showed her usual pace and settled close to the front, racing on the near side. She took a clear advantage at the 400m and fought back gamely in the sprint home for a narrow but good win. Another Western Australian Indian Pacific settled close to his main rival (Fabergino), challenged her at the 300m and battled strongly for (long-head) second at his first start outside his home state. Humma Humma raced in eighth place, commenced her move on the near side at the 400m and then finished well in the sprint home for third. Talented filly Muntaseera tracked the eventual winner and kept battling on well for (1.7 lengths) fourth at her first run back. [KB]

Then followed: Spritely Star (AUS), Fashion Queen (AUS), Indigo Blue (AUS), Chiclett (AUS), Real Passion (NZ), Lunar Impact (AUS) & Testing Love (NZ), last.

Analysis: Brave Angel cut down the favourite inside the last 50m to claim her second win and maiden stakes success at start seven. She settled three wide and back of midfield but improved a couple of spots and one lane closer past the 1200m. She took up fifth past the 600m but rounding into the straight went four wide to challenge. She took a few strides to balance but inside the 200m lengthened stride, almost levelled up at the 50m then drove into the lead short of the post for a nice win. Favourite Solaia led to the 800m, was headed but then went up to take the lead again starting the run home. She shot clear and looked a big chance but was cut down inside the 50m. Pure Devotion sat sixth (rails) at the 600m, hugged the fence rounding in, moved out then back to the inner and flashed through to nab third late. [LJ]

Analysis: Previously Listed placed, Paisley Park was finally rewarded with his maiden stakes win and career sixth at start 29. He was third (one out) with a lap to run, the same starting the back straight as well as at the 1000m. He improved from the 600m to be closer then continued three wide to challenge at the top of the straight. He grabbed the lead at the 200m but had a fight on his hands, was headed at the 100m but fought back to lead again, edging away by half a length at the post. Pep Torque was fourth (rails) past the 800m, third against the fence turning in then shared the lead at the top of the straight. He eyed the winner, led briefly approaching the 100m, headed but kept fighting for a good second. Yatima was fifth on straightening and came on late between runners for third from Grand Bouquet, who finished well along the fence for fourth. [LJ]

Then followed: Ligulate (AUS), Wapiti (AUS), Victory Eight (NZ), Alward (IRE), Willo Titto (AUS), Star Of Michelin (AUS), Matowi (NZ) & Plitvice (AUS), last.

Analysis: With many chances at the 250m, Hail Manhattan finished best and collected his maiden stakes win while scoring three wins on the trot, taking his record to six wins in 18 starts. He was third (rails) early and fourth past the 1200m. Saving ground he took over third again at the 800m and tracked the leader into the straight. He got a beautiful run through, went up to form a line of four across the track at the 250m, put his head in front near the 150m and they weren't able to catch him, clear by three-quarters of a length at the post. Dissolution sat fourth, one out at the 800m, went three wide rounding into the straight and was one of the four across the track at the 250m. He tried hard but couldn't peg back the winner. Sir Barnabus was second last at the 600m, went six wide into the straight then finished strongly for third from Ligulate, who was last at the top of the straight and also finished well for a close-up fourth. BETTING FORECAST: 11-4 Moneymore, 11-2 Iron King, 6 Anonyma, 15-2 Regency Poet, 8 Alloy Star, The Abraxas, 12 One Step Ahead, 16 Spicy Grill, 18 The Full Bloom, 25 Alloy King, Super Eighteen, 33 Charitydream, Who's Horse, 66 Tiger Glare.

VERDICT A competitive puzzle and plenty of potential pace on. Moneymore has won twice this season and confirmed his wellbeing with a good effort last time out, whilst Regency Poet would surely go close if transferring his Happy Valley form to this venue. However, preference is for ALLOY STAR, who impressed with his finishing effort last time out. He was dropped in from a wide draw that on occasion and would have gone very close with a clear run in the straight. Although drawn wider than ideal once again it is hoped that a slightly smoother passage can allow him to get his head in front.

VERDICT In making a winning debut earlier this month Pleasant Endeavor certainly hinted that there ought to be more to come, though this is inevitably a tougher assignment from a 7lb higher mark. Noble Desire and Amazing Rocky both make some appeal, however, the vote instead goes to BELLA BABY. He had been in excellent form prior to getting no luck in running behind the aforementioned Pleasant Endeavor last time out, and has been competitive from higher marks than this in the past.

BETTING FORECAST: Evens Beauty Smile, 7-2 The Crown, 13-2 Winning Method, 9 California Deepshot, 10 Beauty Rush, 12 Beauty Legacy, 18 Team Spirit, 22 Highly Proactive, 50 Perpetuum.

VERDICT A Listed winning 2yo in Ireland in his youth, BEAUTY SMILE took some time to get his act together in Hong Kong but is now making great strides. He was an authoritative winner of the Chinese New Year Cup two weeks ago and the second and third have both run with credit since. He is taken to defy this latest rise in the weights, with the highly promising ex-New Zealand trained The Crown considered the key danger.

VERDICT Several can be given chances here. Fortune Master has good claims with Moreira back on board but his unfavourably wide draw is cause for concern. Both My Ecstatic and Stunning Impact are worthy of consideration but a chance is taken on the lightly-raced ZONE D. He made a fine debut when second over 6f here in January and did not enjoy the clearest of passages upped to 7f a few weeks later. He is nicely drawn this time.

VERDICT Fire Ball bumped into an exciting newcomer when second over C&D last month and has now been placed here on his last three appearances but the most interesting runner is arguably handcap debutant ENCHANTING START, who was placed in two novice races towards the end of last season and has the services of Zac Purton today. The Anomaly and Free Foal both made very pleasing debuts and also make the shortlist.

VERDICT Good cases can be made for several of these but Zac Purton's mount BRIGHT KID stayed on strongly for fourth over 6f when returned to this grade at the start of this month and remains unexposed over 1m. He might be the answer. Ultra Express could also have untapped potential over this trip and is second choice, while it's reasonable to assume that Ever Laugh and Green Envy will both be on the premises too.

BETTING FORECAST: 2 Charity Fun, 7-2 Above, 7 World Famous, 8 California Ten, 12 Awe, Vincy, 14 Arrogant, London Hall, Looking Great, 16 Flying Mighty, 50 Champion Supreme.

VERDICT Charity Fun was an emphatic 1m3f winner at Happy Valley 11 days ago and remains very unexposed in Hong Kong but an interesting alternative is CALIFORNIA TEN, who was a Listed winner in Ireland last year. Tony Cruz's 4yo was denied a clear run when only 12th on his Hong Kong debut in December and wasn't given too hard a time when tenth (not beaten that far) here last time. With Zac Purton enlisted today, and much more prominent showing seems likely. Above is next on the list.

BETTING FORECAST: 4-5 Fantastic Way, 5 Keep You Warm, 7 Mighty Valor, 8 Dublin Star, 10 Big Fortune, 16 Green Reign, 20 War Of Courage, 25 Kai Xin Dragon, 50 Passing Fashion, 66 Let's Do It, Loyal Baby, Royal Agility, Wine And Wine, 100 Exceed The Stars.

VERDICT Fantastic Way justified cramped odds with a pretty comfortable C&D win on his debut four weeks ago and looks a very good prospect but today's combination of a rise in grade and a much wider draw presents a tough challenge for one so inexperienced. He might well be up to it but preference is for KEEP YOU WARM, who is on a workable mark and has the plum inside draw. Mighty Valor and Dublin Star can also feature.

VERDICT In what looks a hot race for the grade the selection is WINNER METHOD, who impressed when making all over C&D on last month's debut. Super Axiom fluffed his lines when pulling too hard on his second start but he looked good on his debut and now has a hood fitted. Good cases can also be made for Trillion Win, Valiant Dream and Joyful Fortune.

VERDICT It might pay to give another chance to SILVER EXPRESS, who threw away likely victory by veering and hanging left in the closing stages over C&D three weeks ago but remains unexposed in Hong Kong and is equipped with blinkers today. Low-mileage 4yo New Future moves up in grade but he went close over C&D on his latest outing and is open to further improvement. Xiang Yin ran well on his belated seasonal debut three weeks ago and is another to consider.
