Star Savabeel colt reigns supreme on day two at Karaka

Sales ring kingpin David Ellis lands yearling from Merchant Navy's family for NZ$875,000

Lot 454 Savabeel - Bayrock colt

NZB

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

A colt by the country's premier stallion from one of Australia's best current female families lived up to the hype to top yesterday's second session of the New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Yearling Sale after Te Akau's David Ellis went to NZ$875,000 for the son of Savabeel (Zabeel).

The blueblood colt from the family of dual hemisphere Group 1-winning stallion Merchant Navy (Fastnet Rock) headed a competitive day two market where six yearlings made NZ$500,000 or more, following on from a solid opening day's trade where two colts, by Pierro (Lonhro) and Savabeel, made NZ$900,000 and NZ$800,000 respectively.

A patriotic Ellis, whose success with the progeny of Savabeel is unrivalled, was rapt to secure the colt to ensure he remained in New Zealand.

"I was hoping I would get him for $750,000 but these really top colts have a lot of good judges on them so sometimes you have to pay a bit more for them," he said.

"If he is a really top colt, like I hope he is, then he is going to be cheap, otherwise if he is no good then he's going to be very expensive.

"We thought he was a magnificent individual and Jamie (Richards) is so excited to have him to train.

"It's been a very successful couple of days for Te Akau and we're just delighted to have secured so many nice horses.

"It's pretty exciting to have this sort of quality and I want them for both Te Akau and for New Zealand racing as I want them to stand at New Zealand studs. Continued on page 2>>

"If we are going to take this wonderful industry to the next level then we need them. The only avenue we have is to buy them at the sales as if they become top performers, they are worth 10, 20, 40 million and out of our reach."

Sydney trainer John O'Shea and prominent Australian owner Ron Finemore were underbidders after also missing out on a Lonhro (Octagonal) colt earlier in the day who made NZ$675,000.

Consigned by Windsor Park Stud as Lot 454, the colt is out of Bayrock (Fastnet Rock) who is a sister to Coolmore sire Merchant Navy and Group 2 winner Jolie Bay as well as the stakes-placed Zara Bay.

They are in turn are out of Legally Bay (Snippets) who herself is out of two-time-winning mare Decidity (Last Tycoon), making her a half-sibling to Myer Classic (registered as Empire Rose Stakes) (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Bonaria (Redoute's Choice) and Group 3 winner Time Out (Rory's Jester).

Decidity also produced four-time winner Chatoyant (Flying Spur), who is herself the dam of Group 3-winning duo Tessera (Medaglia d'Oro) and Montsegur (New Approach).

Windsor Park Stud's Rodney Schick said Bayrock had proven to be a tremendous investment after being bought in Australia in 2015.

"We bought Bayrock at the Sydney Easter Broodmare Sale with the help of Michael Wallace, who inspected her for us, for AU$140,000 and within a month Merchant Navy came out and won a Listed race, then went on with it and the rest is history," Schick said.

"The colt has a stallion's pedigree now. We sold the sister (at Magic Millions) a year ago for AU$825,000 and now this."

A Charm Spirit (Invincible Spirit) half-sister, who has since died, sold for AU$300,000 on the Gold Coast in 2018.

Schick added: "What a great sire Savabeel has been for New Zealand and for the sale again this year. It is really such a great result for us."

I Am Invincible colt leads way in amazing start for Trelawney

Another day two sales ring star by an Australian stallion was an I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) colt who is also headed to the Te Akau stable of Richards, New Zealand's leading trainer this season.

The Trelawney Stud-bred and sold colt was signed for by Te Akau principal David Ellis who won the bidding battle at NZ$625,000 for the "precocious" colt by arguably Australasia's most commercial stallion.

Ellis was confident that the colt, who is by the same sire as the stable's unbeaten three-year-old filly Festivity, could be one of Te Akau's leading prospects for an unprecedented fifth straight Karaka Million 2YO (RL, 1200m).

"He is a really precocious colt, a lot of class, a lot of strength and beautifully balanced," Ellis said.

"We just loved him the moment we saw him and he just ticks all the boxes. You can see when they come to the sale whether they are enjoying it, whether they want to be part of it, whether they are coping with leaving home for the first time.

"They are like teenagers when they go flatting for the first time, some take a while to get used to it while some people excel in it."

Ellis said the Te Akau buying team had worked hard in the lead-up to the Karaka sale, with Joe Walls, Richards and Singapore-based Mark Walker as well as Waikato Equine veterinarian Doug Black playing an integral role in the selection process.

"He is a beautiful colt and Mark Pilkington was the underbidder, who I regard as one of the best judges in the world, so it was great that such a great eye saw the same as what we did," he said.

"He was bred by one of our great nurseries of all time and some of the best horses New Zealand has ever produced have come off that farm.

"Brent and Cherry Taylor are taking it to another level. They are just unbelievable operators and really good supporters of Te Akau Racing so it was nice to be able to buy such a nice colt off them."

Catalogued as Lot 247, the colt is the second foal out of the four-time winner Sancerre (O'Reilly) whose second dam is the Trelawney Stud-bred Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Vouvray (Zabeel). Sancerre is also a half-sister to Champalou (Encosta De Lago), the dam of Calaway Gal Stakes (Listed, 1110m) winning juvenile Champ Elect (Choisir).

Trelawney's Brent Taylor said: "He is a ripping colt who has taken the pressure of the sale well.

"He is a beautiful moving horse, and I would like to think he will be up on our stallion wall in the future."

Lot 379

Breeding: Savabeel - Valley Girl (Mastercraftsman) filly

Price: NZ$500,000

Buyer: Chris Waller Racing and Guy Mulcaster

Vendor: Wentwood Grange

"This really means something to my brother Sean and I. We raced the mare and won the Herbie Dyke with her and now to sell one of her foals for NZ$500,000 is just fantastic," Wentwood Grange's Dean Hawkins said. "Our Dad always dreamed of selling a half million dollar yearling here at Karaka and now we've done it. Mum and Dad were in tears next to the ring."

Agent Guy Mulcaster bought the filly for the Kaha Syndicate who also races the promising Chris Waller-trained three-year-olds, Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) fourth Relucent (Savabeel) and the lightly-raced Nyami (Charm Spirit).

"I loved that filly as she is from Wentwood Grange out of a Group 1 winner," Mulcaster said. "We've been lucky enough to get Kolding and Kermadec from Wentwood Grange and we know their horses are always well prepared and they do a great job for us."

Studs show interest in Cool Aza Beel

Cool Aza Beel

TRISH DUNELL

While Ellis is unsure as to whether the I Am Invincible colt will be a member of his 2020 colts syndicate, Saturday's Karaka Million 2YO winner Cool Aza Beel (Savabeel) could find a home a stud in the near future.

The Te Akau principal yesterday revealed that studmasters had already signalled their interest in the son of New Zealand's champion stallion who made it three wins from four starts with his Ellerslie success.

"We've already had studs express interest in Cool Aza Beel and some pretty good studs as well," he said.

"He should be unbeaten and he has a really big future ahead of him. He will run next in the Waikato Stud Slipper at Matamata then in both of our Group 1s.

"He will then probably go to Australia and we will possibly look at the Group 1 (J J Atkins Plate) in Brisbane with him, a race we previously won with Darci Brahma."

Lot 368

Breeding: Exceed And Excel - Tricia'o (O'Reilly) colt

Price: NZ$500,000

Buyer: Gary Harding

Vendor: Cambridge Stud

Gary Harding, who experienced Group 1 success with high-class mare Bounding (Lonhro), added the Exceed And Excel (Danehill) colt who is from the family of stakes winners La Sizeranne (Stravinsky) and Za Moulin Rouge (Street Cry) to his bloodstock portfolio yesterday. "We had earmarked him. He scoped out well and vetted out well, so we're happy," Harding said. "We're very pleased with the price as we thought we'd have to pay a lot more. He's going to stop in New Zealand initially and if he comes up he will race in Australia. I'm a bit biased because I had Bounding and I've got a very good two-year-old filly (Key with Cody Cole) by Exceed And Excel." John Benner and Hollie Wynyard will train the colt.

NZ$500,000 Tivaci colt heading to Australia

Trelawney Stud enjoyed a brilliant first half hour on day two, with the Taylors also selling a colt by Waikato Stud's exciting first season stallion Tivaci (High Chaparral) to Bruce Perry for NZ$500,000.

The agent was acting for a syndicate of New Zealand investors who are racing a number of colts in Australia that include the Listed-winning three-year-old Banquo (Written Tycoon).

He admitted that "I didn't think I'd get him. I was tapped out."

"He's part of a colts' partnership we have put together with Lib Petagna, Waikato Stud, James Chapman (of Jamieson Park), Jomara Bloodstock, Greg Clarke and Dave and Mickey Wilson," Perry said.

"We bought a couple at the Gold Coast, an I Am Invincible colt and a Lonhro colt, and this one was a horse we wanted. Lib was in Tivaci and I was the under-bidder on him when he was a yearling.

"I love the Tivacis and this is just a beautiful horse. We'll get him broken in here and he'll eventually go to Australia."

Offered as Lot 241, the colt is a half-brother to Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Grunt (O'Reilly) and the stakes-placed Addison (Jimmy Choux).

Grunt is the foundation stallion for Yulong in Victoria while the dam Ruqqaya (Van Nistelrooy) is a half-sister to Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) winner Ocean Park (Thorn Park) who is an emerging stallion for Waikato Stud.

Taylor was far from surprised that buyers had put the colt on their short lists.

"We were very excited about the prospect of selling that horse," he said. "It is a family we have had a bit to do with over the years.

"We loved Sayyida (granddam) when she was racing and we are really happy that she expressed her ability through Ocean Park and Grunt.

"I thought this horse from day one was an outstanding colt. He has taken the pressure of the prep and the sale very well. I just loved him and thought he was a great opportunity for Bruce and his partners."

Trelawney Stud's stunning 30 minutes included the sale of an Ocean Park filly for NZ$450,000 two lots after selling the Tivaci colt and the farm's success was "no accident," according to Taylor.

"If you look at the pedigrees of all three lots in our hectic half hour, we have been involved with their dams and granddams, on the track first, then at the farm," he said.

Lot 449

Breeding: Savabeel - Baby Shacks (O'Reilly) filly

Price: NZ$325,000

Buyer: David Ellis

Vendor: Waikato Stud

Charlotte Chittick, daughter of Waikato Stud principal Mark Chittick, led her first yearling through the Karaka sales ring yesterday, marking a historical moment in the farm's history. "I was very nervous to start off with and there were so many people watching me from the stud, along with family and friends," she said. "As soon as I got in there I was so excited with all the bidding and the yelling, and everyone cheering me on from the side. (But) it was so awesome, I loved it. I couldn't wipe the smile off my face."

Mark was delighted with the result. "It was one of her favourite fillies and the first time through like that we made sure it was the right horse for her," he said. "The reserve was NZ$100,000 and I just hoped for her sake that it sold, and she sold very well. It's a great result and no doubt we will have to take a share."

"We have bought some quality mares, like Vouvray, and now we are breeding from their daughters. Ruqqaya and Ruud Van Slaats are both by Van Nistelrooy who is proving to be a top broodmare sire.

"The terrific run we have had recently on the track is carrying over to the sale ring. I call it an overnight success that has only taken 23 years."

Trelawney Stud is a shareholder in Tivaci while they also target proven stallions in Australia for their broodmare band.

"We have great associations with studs and trainers, but it is nice to see our long-term goals, which included going out on our own, focusing on quality performers and bloodlines and then concentrating on the best stallions we can afford, is paying off," he said.

Meanwhile, Perry said the Danny O'Brien-trained Banquo would have his next start in the MRC Autumn Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) on February 8 after resuming with a third-placed effort behind Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice) at Flemington on January 18.

"He ran a good race first-up, but everything went wrong and went sideways halfway down the straight and after that he proceeded to hang out," a matter-of-fact Perry said.

"We'll go around a corner next time and hopefully go a lot better. He'll go to the Autumn Stakes and then hopefully onto the Australian Guineas."

The colts syndicate also has horses in training with Kris Lees and John O'Shea.

Coolmore take shine to Lonhro colt

Lot 342 Lonhro - Thames Court colt

NZB

A concerted effort by Coolmore to target colts that they deem to have the qualities to be stallions if they can deliver on the racecourse stepped up another level at Karaka yesterday with the addition of a NZ$675,000 son of Lonhro (Octagonal).

"This is a beautiful colt by Lonhro and one of the best Lonhros you could see," Coolmore consultant James Bester said.

"His mother still holds the track record for a mile at Moonee Valley. We think he is a quality animal and a late season two-year-old, possibly the Golden Rose or Guineas type.

"He is a Kementari type of Lonhro - he is a special horse and I haven't seen a Lonhro for a while with this much quality.

"He has an awesome head, is an awesome mover - just a beautiful animal with what seemed to be a beautiful temperament throughout as well.

"We are thrilled to have got him."

Coolmore held off O'Shea to land the colt, while Godolphin also showed interest in the son of its resident stallion.

Catalogued as Lot 342 and consigned by Cambridge Stud, the colt is the first foal out of the former David Briedoake-trained MVRC Alexandra Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) winner Thames Court (Commands) who in turn is a daughter of Western Australia Listed winner Pantenny (Canny Lad).

The high-priced score for Coolmore comes after they bought into an American Pharoah (Pioneer of The Nile) colt on Sunday that made NZ$575,000 to the bid of Guy Mulcaster.

Coolmore also bought nine yearlings at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale for a combined AU$5.93 million.

Bester said there was no question Coolmore's decision to step up its market activity was a strategic move.

Lot 292

Breeding: Savabeel - Sofia Rosa (Makfi) filly

Price: NZ$400,000

Buyer: Olsen Partnership

Vendor: Blandford Lodge

Breeder Lib Petagna was pleased with the price he received for the first foal of Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Sofia Rosa (Makfi). "The filly was quite small as a foal but she kept growing and growing and for a first foal, and with good work by the team at the stud, she is a decent size," Petagna said.

"She has handled the sales environment really well. Her temperament is very even, better than her mother who could be a bit of a handful. I hope she turns out to be a top investment for the buyer."

Petagna, one of New Zealand's biggest owners, said he could not keep them all to race. "We have been getting a few around us so we needed to sell," he said. "I hope we get another filly, maybe this year. She is in foal to Savabeel and has a colt foal by him at foot."

"Colts are the holy grail. If you hit the right colt and get the stallion prospect you've done well," he said.

"You will notice this year there has been an emphasis on finding the best colts we can. We thought the American Pharoah yesterday from Pencarrow and this Lonhro were the best colts on the complex.

"We also tried on the (NZ$900,000) Pierro yesterday, but were blown out of the water. We are targeting that kind of animal."

Cambridge Stud chief executive Henry Plumptre said the NZ$675,000 price tag was "way beyond our expectations".

"He was quite a small, backward foal, but he has done very well in prep," Plumptre said.

"He's kept improving all the time and I think that what probably grabbed James Bester, who was the one that picked him out, was that he loves athletic horses and he's a beautifully athletic colt.

"He never took a backward step this week."

Briedoake sold Thames Court to Lindsay with the pair previously experiencing success at the highest level on the track and at auction.

"They also had another mare (Group 1 winner Griante) who had a Redoute's Choice that made NZ$800,000 here last year, so the relationship between David and Brendan is very strong," Plumptre said.

"He hasn't sold us a dud yet."

The industry impact that Coolmore has on Australasia cannot be underestimated, according to Plumptre.

Catwalk Trust charity filly fetches NZ$200,000

A Brazen Beau (I Am Invincible) filly, born out of the generosity of some of the biggest investors in Australasian racing, was yesterday bought by Cambridge Stud’s Brendan and Jo Lindsay for NZ$200,000.

The proceeds of the sale will be donated to the spinal cord injury research charity, the Catwalk Trust, after the filly was donated by Valachi Downs’ Kevin and Jo Hickman.

The Hickmans paid NZ$100,000 at a Catwalk Trust charity event for the Brazen Beau service fee, which was donated by Darley, that led to Lot 313 being bred.

“Jo and I are involved with CatWalk under the Lindsay Foundation, our charitable trust,” Brendan Lindsay said.

“It’s just such a magnificent charity that Catriona Williams has been behind. It’s such a terrible thing for people to have an accident and be confined to a wheelchair.”

The filly is the second foal out of the unraced Stepanova (Danehill Dancer), who was initially owned by the Lindsays.

"You never know what could happen, she just might get out there and win the Karaka Million, what a story that would be."

Lindsay added: "Kevin Hickman is the one who needs the congratulations by putting the horse in and donating everything back and for New Zealand Bloodstock for not charging a commission."

"Everybody is a winner, let's hope the horse is a winner."

Lance Noble will train the filly.

Gareth Downey of Valachi Downs was also thrilled with the result.

"I think it is an amazing story of generosity and a great story to come out of our industry," he said.

"The hearts of the people involved to contribute to the story are massive. It's an amazing gesture on Kevin and Jo's part to be donating the filly in the first place. They are philanthropic by nature."

"Catriona is in tears. It means so much to so many people and it's a privilege for all of us that have been involved with the journey and to play a small part in it."

"There was a lot of heart in getting her here and there is a lot of appreciation for the outcome."

Later in the session, the Lindsays went to NZ$400,000 for an Iffraaj (Zafonic) filly who is a daughter of the Listed winner Talaria (O'Reilly), herself a sister to Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) winner and Newgate Farm-bound entire Brutal.

She was consigned by Haunui Farm as Lot 337.

"We think that Iffraaj has got the best draft that he's ever had here, particularly with fillies, and she would have been our pick of them," Cambridge Stud chief executive Henry Plumptre said.

"She has a lovely page with Brutal in the family and we loved her. We think she's special, so we're very lucky to get her."

Hot competition on day two

After the second Book 1 session, the average was at NZ$150,456, an increase of 5.3 per cent year on year, and median was at NZ$120,000, the latter up NZ$20,000 at the same time in 2019.

The clearance rate was 78 per cent with one more Book 1 session to be held today.

"The Australians and Kiwis have undeniably made their presence felt - the stats speak for themselves in what has been a positive day for the New Zealand breeding industry," NZB bloodstock sales manager Danny Rolston said.

"This is the strongest middle market we have seen for some time, for the median to be as strong as this is a great endorsement of our product and a welcome reward for the support shown to us by our vendors."

Three for Pride Of Dubai

Pride Of Dubai

COOLMORE

Coolmore shuttle stallion Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) sired his third first-crop winner yesterday when the Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained Sense Of Honour (2 f ex Little Miss Smiley by Husson) won impressively on debut at Sandown. The two-year-old filly defeated Miss Inbetween (Fighting Sun) by three lengths with Queen Of Rocks (Fastnet Rock) a further quarter of a length back in third. Purchased for $340,000 at the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale by Phoenix Thoroughbreds, Sense Of Honour was the most expensive yearling from Pride

Of Dubai's first crop. Pride of Dubai has been enjoying strong results in New Zealand at the 2020 Karaka Book 1 with three yearlings sold in the first two sessions for NZ$275,000, NZ$210,000 and NZ$150,000.

First for I'm All The Talk

Western Australia-based stallion I'm All The Talk (Stratum) landed his first winner yesterday when Watch Me Dance (2 f ex Coventry to Rio by Oratorio) took out the 2YO maiden at Bunbury on debut. The Steve Wolfe-trained filly defeated Madam Torio (I'm All The Talk) by a length and a quarter with Agent Kensington (So Secret) a further half-length back in third. A Group 3 winner at two, I'm All The Talk stood at Mungrup Stud for a fee of $5,500 (inc GST) in 2019.

Australia Day Cup to Taikomochi

The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Taikomochi (6 g Snitzel ex Geisha by Fusaichi Pegasus) proved that his sire can produce more than just sprinters when he took out the Australia Day Cup (Listed, 2400m) at Warwick Farm yesterday. Ridden by come-back jockey Adam Hieronimus, the gelding defeated Naval Warfare (Born To Sea) by a length and a quarter with Mr Garcia (Paco Boy) a further quarter of a length back in third. "He is a hard horse to ride because he just drops the bridle out the front and he is so lazy," Hyeronimus said. "He needs to go a second quicker on the bridle and he would run along at nice sectionals but he doesn't. I knew he was fit so I wasn't scared to put the pressure on him at the 600 metres and get going. It was a good win."

Ellis Park "the real deal"

Mark Kavanagh believes he has an exciting prospect on his hands after three-year-old Ellis Park (Dissident) lived up to his trainer's expectations, winning the Clanbrooke Racing Plate (1300m) on debut at Sandown yesterday. "He's the real deal. We'll just see how far he takes us," Kavanagh said. "He's a ripping type of a horse. We had to take our time with him but once we knew he was fair dinkum we cuddled him up. I never rush my horses anyway but we certainly cuddled him up and gave him every bit of time. He's very raw. He's very green. But he did level them out and put them right away today. There's a tonne of improvement in him."

Childs celebrates family win

Jordan Childs was relieved when Wham (Fiorente) came from near last to post a going-away length and three-quarter win in the MRC Membership Handicap (1400m) at Sandown yesterday. Among the four-year-old's owners is the jockey's father, champion hoop Greg Childs, who issued the rider with very specific instructions. "He actually called me on the way to the races this morning and he said 'don't get too far back' and I was quite a way back but I think the blinkers really made a real difference to the horse," the jockey told Racing.com

First city winner for Hickey

Trainer Penny Hickey saddled her first city winner when Nina Rules (Dane Shadow) posted a surprise victory at Sandown yesterday. The seven-year-old is the only horse Hickey, who hails from Berry's Creek near Leongatha, has in training. The $31 chance was ridden to a half-length success by Clayton Douglas, whose uncle Raymond rode Hickey's first ever winner back in 1978. Nina Rules, who cost Hickey $5000 at the sales, took her earnings above $170,000 with her sixth win in 57 starts.

Guineas winner gallops at Sandown

Sandown Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) winner Pretty Brazen (Brazen Beau) was back at the scene of her most notable success yesterday for a gallop between races where the filly did everything asked of her by jockey Luke Currie. She sat off her Tony and Calvin McEvoy-trained stablemate Marndarra (Foxwedge) before moving up around the home turn and drawing level at the 300 metres. The well-performed filly edged clear to be almost a length in front of Marndarra at the winning post and Currie reported she did it comfortably. "It was pretty cruisy work for her," he said. "She did that pretty easily. She had the other horse pretty well covered so I gave her a little squeeze the last 50 yards just so that she ran through the line. She has matured a little bit and she seems in good order." Pretty Brazen is set to resume in The Vanity (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington on February 15 before a tilt at the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m).

Alizee entered for Expressway

Alizee

SPORTPIX

Star mare Alizee (Sepoy) is one of only eight horses nominated for Saturday's Expressway Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Rosehill as she bids to win the race for the second successive year with James Cummings keen to get the three-time Group 1 winner up and running early. "The racing gets pretty serious in February," Cummings said. "Quite a few of our good horses will be up and running in February and we're doing our best to ensure they are ready to go fresh-up." Alizee beat a host of class runners when winning the race last year, with Le Romain (Hard Spun) second and 2018 winner Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) fourth. Three-year-old Standout (Exceed and Excel) is expected to be the one trying to foil her bid on Saturday with the Gerald Ryan-trained colt catching the eye in his barrier trials.

Mildred back for Chairman's Stakes

Grahame Begg believes Mildred (Hinchinbrook) can make her presence felt in the Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Caulfield after deciding to bypass last Saturday's Blue Diamond Preview (F) (Gr 3, 1000m) with the dual winner. "I'd be expecting her to run well on Saturday and will be disappointed if she doesn't," Begg said. "It's 1000 metres first-up which should be perfect. We've waited for the Chairman's because I just thought she needed an extra week from when she trialled at Pakenham (January 14). She's had two course-proper gallops in the last 10 days which has cleaned her up nicely."

Cosmic Gossip adds interest to The Jewel

Cosmic Gossip (Spill The Beans) is set to head to the Gold Coast and contest the $500,000 QTIS 2YO The Jewel (1200m) on March 14 following her impressive win in the Sunshine Coast Classic (1200m). Saturday's win was the first success in four starts for the filly and trainer Stuart Kendrick is sure she is up to top class. "We were probably a little bit disappointed with her down at the Gold Coast. We wanted to sneak into the Magic Millions but she never really travelled in that race," he said. "Her other form is good and her first-up run was huge. With this win it opens up options and the first one is probably The Jewel."

Nakao to have first runner as trainer

Mikiko Nakao is set to have her first runner as a trainer this week having recently been granted a dual licence. Nakao, who has several horses in work at the Deagon training complex, has entered Secret Agent Man (Eavesdropper) at Doomben on Thursday. Nakao, who emigrated from Japan a decade ago, was apprenticed to trainer Pat Duff at Deagon and rode 51 winners. Before that she had stints with Trevor Sutherland, Bernie Howlett and Gratz Vella in NSW and the ACT. Nakao's most recent win was aboard Gambit (Strategic Maneuver) at Nanango in September.

Three suspended at Sandown

Senior riders Dwayne Dunn and Damien Thornton and apprentice Teo Nugent all found themselves in trouble with the stewards at Sandown Lakeside yesterday with the trio picking up bans for careless riding. Dunn will miss eight meetings for causing interference in race two aboard runner-up Holster (Tavistock), while Thornton was given the same sentence for his ride on Confusion (So You Think) in the fifth race. In-form apprentice Nugent also fell foul of the stewards when he shifted ground on Mai Shiny Choice (Choirir) in race seven, causing Michael Poy on The Card Players (Excellent Art) to be tightened. He was suspended for 10 meetings.

NEW ZEALAND

Lane to ride Catalyst

It has been confirmed that leading Melbourne jockey Damian Lane will ride Catalyst (Darci Brahma) in his upcoming Australian campaign. Catalyst is raced by Dick Karreman's Oaks Stud whose general manager Rick Williams confirmed Lane would replace Troy Harris in the C S Hayes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington on February 15. "Damian Lane's manager emailed and said Damian wouldn't take another ride until he knew what the riding engagements were going to be," Williams said. "We had a discussion last night and decided to go with the local jockey. It's tough on Troy but he took it extremely well and he will always be riding Catalyst when he is racing in New Zealand, which could include the Triple Crown at Hastings next spring, depending on what our targets are. It's just the local knowledge of the jockeys and the tracks that swayed us to Damian and it wasn't Troy's rides in any shape or form."

Volpe Veloce in final campaign

Volpe Veloce (Foxwedge) gave trainer Graham Richardson one of his biggest moments in racing when she won the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) two years ago and he is hoping to finish her career on a similar high. The six-year-old mare is likely to have two more tilts at Group 1 glory this season before retiring to stud and her brave runner-up performance in the Westbury Classic (Gr 2, 1400m) at Ellerslie on Saturday proved she is capable of the task. "It was a massive run, she was four-wide the whole way," Richardson said. "It wasn't Jason's (Waddell, jockey) fault, he couldn't do a thing about it, he did a massive job all things considered." Volpe Veloce will now be given the opportunity to finish her racing career on a high, beginning with the BCD Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m) at Te Rapa on February 8 followed by a run in the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Te Aroha.

Derby on radar for Sherwood Forest

Friday's hard-fought win over older horses on his first attempt at 2200 metres has convinced Tony Pike that Sherwood Forest (Fastnet Rock) is ready to take his chance in next month's New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at Ellerslie. The gelding carried 59 kilograms to victory at Te Aroha when he got the better of Joe's Legacy (Guillotine) in a tight finish and Pike said: "It's very hard for the three-year-olds to win against the older horses, especially carrying that sort of weight in a quality line-up. The field had plenty of depth and he carried half a kilo over so it was a pretty encouraging effort." Looking to the future Pike continued: "He's obviously going to stay all day so I don't think the 2400 metres of the Derby is going to be a problem. He is going to put himself in the race and it's going to take a pretty good horse to get past him. We used the Te Aroha race as a link run to his Derby prep and he will have his lead up in the Avondale Guineas next."

INTERNATIONAL

Omaha Beach retired to Spendthrift

Three-time Grade 1 winner Omaha Beach (War Front) was yesterday on his way to Spendthrift Farm in Kentucky to start his new career as a stallion after being retired from racing. Trained by Richard Mandella, he was the early favourite for the Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) only to miss the race with a trapped epiglottis before returning in the autumn to beat older horses in the Santa Anita Sprint Championship (Gr 1, 6f). Omaha Beach went on to land the Malibu Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) and was due to contest last weekend's Pegasus World Cup (Gr 1, 9f) but was scratched when it was discovered he had an issue with an ankle. He will stand his first season in 2020 for a fee of $45,000 S&N.

Exultant takes Centenary Vase again as Cruz eyes Dubai

Chinese New Year Cup

HKJC

BY DAVID MORGAN | HKJC_RACING

Exultant (Teofilo) imposed his authority on his local rivals and moved a step closer to a night in Dubai with a solid success in the Centenary Vase Handicap (Gr 3, 1800m) at Sha Tin yesterday.

Hong Kong's champion stayer carried top-weight of 133lb (60 kg) to secure his second win in the contest and now takes aim at a follow-up in the Hong Kong Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) in three weeks' time. After that, trainer Tony Cruz has designs on the Dubai Sheema Classic (Gr 1, 2410m) at Meydan.

"Next race will be the Hong Kong Gold Cup and then we'll decide whether we go to Dubai or not," Cruz confirmed post-race. "I'm expecting to go because he's not getting any younger and I think we'd better make a move and go to Dubai with him."

"I believe he can do something in Dubai, I believe he can prove himself and win that race. His form is good – it shows that he's right up there with the best."

Cruz was full of praise for Hong Kong's champion stayer after what jockey Zac Purton described as a "dour" performance over a distance short of his optimum.

"He outclassed his field today," the handler said. "I don't think there was any outstanding opposition and I was expecting him to win."

"He's turned into a very professional racehorse; he waits on the jockey to make the move. Zac knows this horse so well and he knows how to use his ability and that's half the battle won really."

Cruz believes the experienced galloper will have no issues coping with the travel to Dubai at the end of March should connections pursue that option.

"He's a kids' ride, an easy horse to handle and he has no sign of temperament at all; he's laidback and does everything slowly and quietly. He's sound, he never raises a sweat or gets excited – he's an easy horse to train," he said.

Purton positioned the three-time Group 1 winner a handy third, one spot off the rail, as Dark Dream (All American) set the tempo from Macau raider Sacred Capital (O'Reilly). The champ slipped to fourth as the tempo increased on the turn but responded to Purton's urgings and ground his way to the lead with 300 metres remaining – from there on in, it was Exultant's race.

The six-year-old boxed on to win by a length and a half from the late-closing Glorious Dragon (Teofilo), to whom he conceded 20lb (9kg).

"It was a very good performance," Purton said. "Once again he felt very dour in the run today after the season he's had so far. When I wanted to let him bring me into the race he wasn't able to do it, I had to really get up him to get his momentum going carrying the big weight – you can't let him get out-sprinted. It was just a good tough effort and it sets him up nicely for the Hong Kong Gold Cup."

The Tony Millard-trained Glorious Dragon ran the race of his life to take fill the runner-up berth under Alexis Badel. The improving grey was 18lb (8kg) out of the handicap, off a rating of 91, but kept on despite a less-than-clear passage in the home run.

"He ran on nicely, he stays on well and he ran a very good race," Badel said. "The horses from behind came on the turn and I had to wait a little bit because my horse wasn't well-balanced but he overcame it and came home very strong."

Cruz ended the day with a treble thanks to further wins from Sunshine Warrior (Pierro) in the Class 4 Red Packet Handicap (1400m) and God Of Dragon (Red Dazzler) in the Class 3 Kung Hei Handicap (2000m), both under Joao Moreira.

"It's a big day, it's always been a big day's racing in the calendar here; Chinese New Year, it means a lot to win races on this day," Cruz said.

Golden Sixty leads Lui one-two in Hong Kong Classic Mile

Golden Sixty (Medaglia D'Oro) burst into clear ground at the head of Hong Kong's four-year-old pack with an impressive win in the Hong Kong Classic Mile (1600m), a result that bolstered trainer Francis Lui's hand for the BMW Hong Kong Derby (2000m).

Lui saddled two of Hong Kong's brightest young stars in the Sha Tin feature and both came good: while Golden Sixty dazzled, More Than This (Dutch Art) showed Derby sparkle in second to ease the handler's nerves.

"It's a kind of relief – I was a little nervous and the closer we got to the race, the more nervous I felt," Lui admitted after securing his first victory in the storied contest, the first leg in Hong Kong's three-race Four-Year-Old Classic Series.

"Golden Sixty has done what has been asked of him every time," Lui continued. "Last race he went 1400 metres, this race was a mile and next time will be 1800 metres in the Hong Kong Classic Cup, so we will take it step by step. If he runs well in the Classic Cup we will go to the Derby."

The winner took his career tally to eight wins from nine starts and made it a perfect five this season, all under Vincent Ho who was also bagging a first Classic Mile success.

"He was a bit keen today and he took some time to settle but he still showed a good turn of foot," the rider said. "He lay in a little bit, which made things a little bit harder, but he still won very easily."

"It's just a matter of time for him, to pick him up, and I just have to be patient on him and then he will give me everything he has."

Golden Sixty positioned third-last on the fence in the nine-runner contest, switched wide entering the straight and quickened decisively from 350 metres out to clock a closing 400 metre split of 22.24s, for a final time of 1m 33.61s.

More Than This, slowly away and settled at the tail, chased his stable mate under Ryan Moore, closing with intent from deep through a concluding split of 22.15s to finish a length and a quarter back.

"He's a nice horse and he stayed on very well. I'm delighted with his run today," said Moore, who had jetted in from a runner-up finish on Magic Wand (Galileo) in Saturday's Pegasus World Cup Turf (Gr 1, 9.5f).

Lui, 61, had not tasted success in a four-year-old only major since Hello Pretty (Distorted Humour) took the 2006 Hong Kong Derby Tria (Listed, 1800m), now the Hong Kong Classic Cup. Golden Sixty and More Than This will step up to 1800m for the first time when they rematch in that second leg of the series on 23 February.

And while connections have long considered More Than This to be a dead-set stayer for the Derby, the speedier Golden Sixty has been pegged as a miler despite his sire being Medaglia D'Oro, a Grade 1 winner at 10 furlongs.

"From today, I think Golden Sixty can stay 1800 metres; he just needs to settle and give one strong kick and he can still produce that good turn of foot," Ho said

Lui would not be drawn, at least not fully, on which of his two exciting gallopers might have the upper hand come the Derby on 22 March.

"I don't know," he said. "At this stage, I think it's difficult to say but Ryan did say More Than This will improve over further; he was a bit lazy and he needs a faster pace to help him but it was a very good ride from Ryan."

"I think More Than This can handle the Derby distance, and Golden Sixty, the next race is the Classic Cup, so I'll take it step by step but the main target for both is the Derby."

Champion's Way (Hinchinbrook), the highest-rated of his generation at the start of the season, took third under Karis Teetan for trainer John Size; stablemate Beauty Legacy (Fiorente), the mount of Joao Moreira, ran on for fourth after throwing his head around during the early part of the race.

"As I indicated before the race, he's still doing lots of things wrong," Moreira said. "He's still immature and I don't think that was a bad result at the end of the day, I think he ran a good race and he should learn a lot from this."

The fixture's traditional showcase, the Class 1 Chinese New Year Cup Handicap (1400m), went to the Danny Shum-trained four-year-old Perfect Match (Not A Single Doubt), the middle leg of a treble for jockey Alexis Badel.

"He's very honest over 1400 metres and he's a smart horse, he can do whatever you want, he can sit, he can lead so I scratched from the Hong Kong Classic Mile. It was too strong a field and the 1600 (metres) might be a little too long for him at this stage," Shum said.

STALLION WATCH

New winners

Night Of Thunder - Darley's one season shuttler Night Of Thunder (Dubawi) sired his second winner in Australia from just five runners when Riverina Storm (2 f ex Morwell by Royal Academy) made an impressive debut at Geelong on Sunday, taking out a maiden over 1100 metres. A $31,000 weanling purchase by Allhill Pty Ltd out of Merrivale Farm draft at the 2018 Inglis Great Southern Sale, Riverina Storm is the seventh named foal and sixth winner out of Morwell. Night Of Thunder, the leading first-season sire in Europe by prize-money earnings, shuttled to Darley Kelvinside in 2016.

Super One - Newgate Farm-based stallion Super One (I Am Invincible) sired his first winner on Friday as Superbellaa (2 f ex Imananabaa by Anabaa) landed the two-year-old handicap (1000m) at Canberra. A $25,000 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale purchase, Superbellaa was bred by SF Bloodstock and is the fifth winner from Group 1 winning mare Imananabaa (Anabaa). Super One, who stood for a fee of $11,000 (inc GST) in 2019, has 19 yearlings catalogued at the upcoming Inglis Classic Sale.

Vespa - Wellfield Lodge resident Vespa (Elusive City) sired his second winner on Saturday when the Mel and Warwick Coles-trained Chokito (2 f ex Pretty Woman by Pins) took out the NZB Insurance Pearl Series 2YO (800m) at Riccarton. A Group 1 winner and champion two-year-old on the track, Vespa stood for a fee of NZ$5,000 (plus GST) in 2019. Chokito joins Piaggio as the sire's other winner.

Night Of Thunder

DARLEY

New Group / Grade 1 winners

Mucho Macho Man - Adena Springs Kentucky-based sire Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno) landed his first elite level winner on Saturday when Mucho Gusto (4 c ex Itsagiantcauseway by Giant's Causeway) took out the US$3 million Pegasus World Cup (Gr 1, 9f).

Street Cry - The late Darley stallion Street Cry (Machiavellian) landed his 23rd individual Group / Grade 1 winner when Zulu Alpha (7 g ex Zori by A.P. Indy) took out the Pegasus World Cup Turf (Gr 1, 9.5f) at Gulfstream Park on Saturday. Zulu Alpha is related to multiple Grade 1 winner Ajina (Strawberry Road) as well as leading sire Quality Road (Elusive Quality). Street Cry, who was responsible for champion fillies Zenyatta and Winx, died in 2014 at the age of 16.

New stakes winners

Alamosa - Alamosa (O'Reilly) sired his 17th stakes winner when Windsor (5 g ex Shanro by Lonhro) took out the Timaru Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Riccarton on Saturday. Alamosa stood for a fee of NZ$5,000 (plus GST) in 2019.

Double for Night Of Thunder - Former Darley shuttler Night Of Thunder (Dubawi) sired his eighth individual stakes winner when Dubai Love (3 f ex Devotion by Dylan Thomas) ran out an impressive winner of the UAE 1000 Guineas (Listed, 1600m) at Meydan on Thursday. Dubai Love was having her first start in stakes company and posted a second win in four career runs, having won a Nottingham maiden on her debut in October. Meanwhile, A Beautiful Night (2 f ex Lindyhop by Gonski) secured the Blue Diamond Preview (F) (Gr 3, 1000m) at Caulfield on Saturday, bringing up Night Of Thunder's ninth individual stakes win. Night Of Thunder shuttled to Australia for one season, covering 96 mares in 2016, and he made an explosive impact with his first crop of European juveniles in 2019, including Italian Group 2 winner Night Colours.

Savabeel - Perennial champion sire Savabeel (Zabeel) was handed another boost to his already lofty reputation when Cool Aza Beel (2 c ex Cool 'N' Sassy by Testa Rossa) landed the Karaka Million 2YO (RL, 1200m) at Ellerslie on Saturday, becoming his 97th stakes winner.

Scat Daddy - The late Ashford Stud-based sire Scat Daddy (Johannesburg) landed his 127th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Mean Mary (4 m ex Karlovy Vary by Dynaformer) ran out a five-length winner of the La Prevoyante Stakes (Gr 3, 12f) at Gulfstream Park.

Snitzel - Arrowfield Stud resident Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) sired his 96th stakes winner on Saturday when Scallopini (5 g ex Rose Of Mulan by More Than Ready) got up by a neck to land the Sunshine Coast Cup (Listed, 1400m). Snitzel stood for a fee of $220,000 (inc GST) in 2019.

Uncle Mo - Carressa (4 f ex Iplaytricks by Desert Gold) made it three wins in six starts when a successful turf debut in the Megahertz Stakes (Gr 3, 8f) at Santa Anita on Monday provided Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) with a 53rd individual stakes winner. Carressa is the first foal out of Iplaytricks (Desert Gold), who also has a three-year-old American Pharoah (Pioneer of the Nile) filly and a two-year-old California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) colt. She was purchased by West Point Thoroughbreds and Vosburgh for US$125,000 from Taylor Made Sales Agency at the 2017 Keeneland September Yearling Sale.

West Quest - Cradle Mountain (6 g ex From Japan by Jungle Pocket) landed Saturday's Carrington Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Randwick to provide West Quest (Gone West) with his 12th stakes winner.

Wordsmith - Tasmanian-based stallion Wordsmith (Testa Rossa) sired his fifth individual stakes winner on Wednesday as Gee Gee Josie (2 f ex Josies Double by West Quest) took out the Elwick Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Launceston. Gee Gee Josie was bred by Paul and Elizabeth Gerard, who also stand Wordsmith at Gee Gee Stud, and she is a sister to 2016 Elwick Stakes winner Gee Gee Double Dee and the stakes-placed Geegees Doublejay. Group 3 winner Wordsmith stood for a fee of $5,500 (inc GST) in 2019.

ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Inglis
Est 1867

Analysis: The consistent gelding Taikomochi, who had not finished further back than fourth at his last three starts, all at stakes level, put up very good staying effort when winning beyond 2000 metres for the first time. After a smart beginning, he took the lead and then slowed the tempo which prompted a mid-race move by Azuro, who then moved to the front. Taikomochi moved up to the outside the new leader nearing the 800m, got to the front approaching the home turn and then fought off further challengers in the straight to win fifth race in 22 starts. Naval Warfare was handily placed about third, before moving up to challenge on turning for home. He kept fighting well for second, just finding the winner a bit too strong. Mr Garcia raced back in second last place in the nine-runner field, saved ground along the inside approaching the home turn, went to third at the 200m and kept battling on to hold the minor placing from Our Fun who had been handy all the way who held on for (3.3 lengths) fourth while the favourite Azuro dropped to seventh under his top weight (59kg) (6.3 lengths) after making an early run from well back in the field to lead in the middle stages.
