'I had the bit between my teeth and fillies like that are quite rare'

Roger James takes shine to $200,000 daughter of Churchill as first Book 2 session produces pleasing metrics at Karaka

'Lot 725 Churchill - Astrid filly

NZB

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Prominent trainer Roger James' admiration for champion European racehorse Churchill (Galileo) combined with South Island breeders' foresight to buy a mare from Australia in foal to the Coolmore shuttle sire has paid a big dividend, with the resulting youngster topping the first Book 2 session at the New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Yearling Sale yesterday.

Robert Wellwood, James' co-trainer, identified the filly during on-complex inspections and his senior partner gave the tick of approval to go to the session-high $200,000 for the Berkley Stud-bred-and-consigned filly.

She was one of nine lots to make $100,000 or more on a day in which the quality yearlings stood out and drew domestic and international competition, leading to an average of $43,240, up 25 per cent on the same session last year.

MORNING BRIEFING

Enthaar holds Chairman's aces

Leading Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) contender Enthaar (Written Tycoon) will face five rivals when she makes her second outing in the Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Caulfield on Saturday.

James described his latest acquisition as "a star filly".

"I haven't got an owner for her yet, but that is the next job, trying to find one," he said.

"She has got everything. She is by a great racehorse and she has got the ability to be a Karaka Million horse.

"I only saw her this morning. Robert stayed up last night and he did the shortlist.

"I didn't think I would have to pay that money for her, but I had the bit between my teeth and fillies like that are quite rare."

James, who was underbidder on $1.85 million worth of yearlings in Book 1, is well aware of the racetrack credentials of Churchill, a European champion two-year-old and dual Guineas-winning miler.

"I followed his whole career," the trainer said.

"He was a very fast horse for a Galileo. People normally associate Galileos with a bit of time, but he was a great two- and three-year-old and he held a world ranking at some stage.

"They don't get that without being pretty special."

Catalogued as Lot 725, the filly is the first foal out of five-time winner Astrid (Pins), herself a half-sister to talented Australian-raced, Listed-winning filly Astronomia (King's Best). The filly's second dam, Astralita (Kennedy's Best Pal), was also a Group 2 winner in Adelaide.

The session-topper's price tag was a big result for Berkley Stud's Edwina Morris and Alan Jones, who bought Astrid in foal to the sire from Willow Park Stud at the 2019 Inglis Great Southern Sale.

"We bought the mare, one of two we got in Melbourne. We have always liked Pins mares and she has a lot of quality, a big eye and is very tidy," Morris said.

"She was in foal to Churchill and we liked his chances too, being a fast son of Galileo. I think we got her for A$50,000.

"There was huge interest in the filly. She is going to be bigger than her mother and her x-rays and scope were excellent.

"We thought she'd make $50,000 to $60,000 and she has gone to a great stable, so we are delighted."

Lot 713 Proisir - All Can Party colt

NZB

Proisir colt makes $180,000

Meanwhile, a colt by Rich Hill Stud's Proisir (Choirs), the sire of four stakes winners including the Group 1-placed and Saturday's impressive Westbury Classic (Gr 2, 1400m) winner Levante, also came in for strong competition yesterday, with Cambridge trainer Alex Oliveira winning out at $180,000 for the Highline Thoroughbreds-offered yearling.

The highest-priced yearling ever sold by Highline Thoroughbreds' Cam and Eva Heron, the colt is the third foal out of All Can Party (All American), whose pedigree boasts Hong Kong Group 1-winning sprinter Inspiration (Flying Spur), Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m)-winning sire Wandjina (Snitzel), Lucky Unicorn (Redoute's Choice) and three-time elite-level scorer Dracula (Quest For Fame). He was offered as Lot 713.

"It's a big day for us," Cam Heron said.

"It is not an easy game to be in and we are chipping away and trying to build a reputation around our business.

"We are proud of the job that we do in preparing these yearlings, so it's justification for all the hard work that we put in. Continued on page 4>>

"Eva and I started Highline and our first horse went through the ring seven or eight years ago, but this is our sixth sale.

"We put one through and gradually built up until this year, where we have 11. Four Book 1 fillies, and seven Book 2 colts and fillies."

Oliveira linked with Tartan Meadow Bloodstock to buy the colt.

"He will probably go up to Hong Kong. We will play it by ear and see how it goes," Oliveira said.

"We work closely with the guys up there, they will be buying him with me - Paul Chow (Tartan Meadow Bloodstock) and we might have another client or two."

Oliveira has a rap on Proisir, who he believes can continue his rise through the New Zealand stallion ranks.

"I am a big fan of Proisir. I have had a few," he said.

IT'S A BIG DAY FOR US. IT IS NOT AN EASY GAME TO BE IN AND WE ARE CHIPPING AWAY AND TRYING TO BUILD A REPUTATION AROUND OUR BUSINESS

- CAM HERON

"I first saw (Lot 713) him up here a couple of days ago. He is a precocious, strong, correct colt, and has a lovely walk on him.

"He was one of my top lots of the day."

Solid day for Little Avondale's stallions

Progeny of New Zealand's current leading stallion Per Incanto (Street Cry) and his Little Avondale barnmate, freshman sire Time Test (Dubawi), were also popular yesterday, with both sires responsible for two six-figure lots apiece.

Understandably, Little Avondale has a strong hand with yearlings by Per Incanto and a filly out of the unraced Bellerama (Fusaichi Pegasus) held top billing among that quartet of six-figure offerings when she sold for $170,000 to Kiwi owner Gary Harding.

Her dam is a half-sister to the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Sarrera (Quest For Fame) and the stakes-placed Detroit Song (Carnegie). She was catalogued as Lot 735.

Harding currently races last-start Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Bonham (Per Incanto), a three-year-old filly who has won four of her five starts for trainers Johnno Benner and Hollie Wynyard.

"I thought this one was the filly of the sale and I thought I got her for a reasonable price," Harding said.

"Initially, I thought I might get her for a little less but after seeing the interest in her today I thought she might be up around the $200,000 mark.

"Sometimes having competition like we did on her is a good thing as it helps vindicate your opinion of the horse."

Harding had previously added three yearlings from Book 1, colts by Snitzel (Redoute's Choice), Pierro (Lonhro) and Lonhro (Octagonal), to his expanding racing interests.

"Johno and Hollie are doing a great job for me, so I'm very pleased with them. It is a big decision to send horses so far away from home, but I think it is the best thing I have ever done," Tirau-based Harding said.

"They are honest and straightforward, which is all I ever ask for.

"The whole team is going well at the moment and we have some young ones coming through over the next month or so that I'm very excited about."

Harding's purchase was also the first yearling sold by Little Avondale for George and Lucy Williams, who are shareholders in Per Incanto.

"She's a cracking filly from a mare I bought off Sir Patrick Hogan a few years back. She was empty at the time and I needed a couple of extra mares for Per Incanto," Little Avondale proprietor Sam Williams said.

"I paid nothing for the mare. She was a half-sister to a Group 1 winner from the same family as Beau Zam, Balmerino and Surround. George wasn't convinced until I said if you don't want her, I'll take her. It was a good decision by him."

Per Incanto sits atop the 2020-21 New Zealand stallion premiership by winners with 37 individual victories, six ahead of nearest rival and champion sire Savabeel (Zabeel) and eight in front of Tavistock (Montjeu) and Swiss Ace (Secret Savings).

He also leads the current Hong Kong sires' table with 11 individual winners from 21 runners.

Agent Robin Tai also bought a Per Incanto colt on behalf of a Singapore-based client.

"The pedigree is what attracted me to him and he also appealed to my father William, who is in Hong Kong," Tai said.

"We start by looking at pedigree and he is from a nice family. The Per Incantos go very well in Hong Kong. He is one the leading sires there and gets lots of winners.

"I didn't see him until I got here to the grounds and he is a lovely colt. He was on our shortlist quite quickly, especially after I sent a video to my father."

Catalogued as Lot 664 and offered by Highline Thoroughbreds, the colt is the third foal out of the New Zealand stakes-placed mare Special Draw (Falkirk), who is a half-sister to the Group 2 runner-up Glorious Beijing (Per Incanto).

The colt was bred by Nita Herbst after sourcing Special Draw from Highden Park carrying the colt.

"As a shareholder in Embellish I was looking for a mare to send to him and Cameron Ring of Cambridge Stud found Special Draw for me," Herbst said.

"Cameron found her at Sam and Libby Bleakley's Highden Park and said I need to get a mare that could run. It's that old adage,

"if mum can run, that's a plus, and she could run.

"She has a filly by Embellish at foot and is back in foal to him."

Highline Thoroughbreds' Cam Heron added: "We got him from Nita in November and I could tell from day one that he was going to develop into a nice individual.

"He took everything in his stride, handled the pressure well and nothing was too much of a problem."

The most expensive Time Test, a four-time Group winner in Europe when trained by Roger Charlton, sold to a top of $130,000 yesterday after realising up to $220,000 in Book 1.

The colt was knocked down to Pam Gerard of Ballymore Stables New Zealand, who was left to do the bidding on behalf of her co-trainer, Victoria-based Mike Moroney, and his agent-brother, Paul Moroney.

Offered by Wainui as Lot 710, the colt is the first foal out of the placed mare Affrettando (Iffraaj), who is a half-sister to the Listed-placed Look At Moiye (O'Reilly).

"Paul and Mike have been putting a lot of work into the sale, looking at videos and photos and getting all the information they can and this colt was one they chose," Gerard said.

"The colt was pretty laid back in his box, but once near the ring he really upped his game, so I called Paul and Mike and said he is getting better all the time.

"They were pretty keen to take one home by Time Test. They like the stallion's chances."

Vendor Richard McKenzie has been associated with the colt's family for three generations.

"He has natural strength and if we had to take him home I wouldn't have been too upset. I would have gladly raced him myself," he said.

"We bought the granddam, Facing The Music, as an older mare and Affrettando was her last foal. She missed in 2019, but is back in foal to Time Test."

Time Test's sire, Dubawi (Dubai Millennium), is also the sire of Darley's exciting stallion Night Of Thunder, who has sired

Williams believes yesterday's trade held up well.

"We had Lot 580, a Per Incanto filly, she sold for $60,000 and another Per Incanto filly (Lot 735) sold for $170,000 late in the piece," he said.

"People still need horses in their stables and a lot of people had missed out as Book 1 was really strong, with a clearance rate of 81 per cent.

"NZB have done a fantastic job with their new platform and trying to get as many people involved as possible and gather information."

As well as the increased average yesterday, the median climbed nine per cent to $30,000 compared to the $27,500 recorded in 2020.

"The momentum from Book 1 has continued through to the first day of Book 2 with a higher-priced top lot than 2020 and an increase in average," NZB bloodstock manager Danny Rolston said last night.

- PAM GERARD

"The local trainers were strong - Paul Moroney, Roger James, of course, with the top lot - Go Racing, Phill Cataldo for New Zealand clients and overseas, and the online bidding was flat out again today with a number of lots going to Hong Kong, Singapore and even Japan."

The last session at Karaka starts at 1pm local time today. A Book 3 sale will be conducted on Gavelhouse.com, starting tomorrow.

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Enthaar holds Chairman's aces

Leading Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) contender Enthaar (Written Tycoon) will face five rivals when she makes her second outing in the Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Caulfield on Saturday. The Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained filly, who made a deep impression when skipping three lengths clear in the Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) on debut at Randwick in October, appears to have frightened off plenty of the opposition. But not so Daniel Bowman, who will unleash his $80,000 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale purchase Fortunate Kiss (Divine Prophet) in the $160,000 Group 3. "We are under no illusions, we are up against it," Bowman told Racing.com. "The theory behind it was we could go to Werribee on Friday in a field of ten or 12 and still run into something that goes good, or we could have a crack at Caulfield and hope for a small field - and I was right it is - and if she runs a place she's got black-type. Also, there's rain forecast and that will take the edge off the good ones." Commenting on his juvenile, Bowman added: "She's had a couple of trials. She had a real quiet one at Stawell against the older horses and then had a more serious hit-out at Camperdown after that, and she's now ready to go to the races."

Oliver in Ingratiating's Diamond corner

Also set to line-up against Enthaar is Godolphin-owned colt Ingratiating (Frosted), who beat Tuesday's Blue Diamond Preview (Colts and Geldings) (Listed, 1000m) winner General Beau (Brazen Beau) in the Maribyrnong Trial

Stakes (Listed, 1000m) on debut in October. Ingratiating subsequently ran second in the Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m), finishing a neck behind Finance Tycoon (Written Tycoon), who resumed on the Gold Coast earlier this month with victory over subsequent Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner Shaquero (Shalaa), a race in which Finance Tycoon ran sixth. "I'm looking forward to riding him. He's come back well and he takes on the boom horse, if you like, in Enthaar, who is the favourite for the Diamond, so it's a good chance to see where he's at," Damien Oliver, who has ridden the James Cummings-trained Ingratiating in both of his starts and will be back aboard at the weekend, told Racing.com. "He's only had two starts and he won his first start here and was a close second to Finance Tycoon, who proved the form pretty strong through the Magic Millions, so there's already some strong lines there." Enthaar's remaining three rivals are her stablemate Son Of Mercury (Street Boss), Peter and Paul Snowden's newcomer Frostin' (Frosted) and fellow debutant Twilight (Teofilo), who is trained by Luke Oliver.

Emeralds starts out on G1 path in Expressway

John Sargent does not expect Emeralds (Sebring) to upstage her higher-profile Expressway Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) rivals at Rosehill on Saturday, but he is anticipating a profitable autumn from the emerging mare. The four-year-old, who claimed the scalp of subsequent Villiers Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) winner Greysful Glamour (Stratum) when landing the Angst Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) in October, is being set for the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) on March 13. "I think she will have a real boom autumn, especially if there is a bit of rain around," Sargent said. "It will be too short for her, but we will kick her off there on Saturday and then she will go to the Guy Walter then the Coolmore Classic." Emeralds will face seven rivals in the Expressway, with the field reduced by one following the early scratching of Southern Lad (Ocean Park), who will instead line-up in a 1200-metre Benchmark 88 later on the card. The eight to stand their ground also includes Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon), who has drawn the inside, and classy Godolphin mare Savatiano (Street Cry), who has gate two. That duo were equal-$3.60 favourites with TAB fixed odds yesterday. Emeralds has drawn gate six and Jason Collett has been booked to ride both at the weekend and throughout her autumn campaign.

Big Parade to play the stalker

Also at Rosehill, the Mark Newnham-trained Big Parade (Deep Field) is set to be ridden patiently when he takes on Southern Lad and eight other rivals in the ATC Members Recognition Handicap (1200m). The four-year-old proved dynamic when scoring a three and a quarter-length win over 1200 metres at Randwick on December 19, where he sat off the leader Oakfield Twilight (Zoffany) before dashing right away. But things didn't pan out over the same course and distance three weeks later as he was peppered by Oakfield Twilight to his outside before succumbing late, beaten just under a length by King Of Hastings (Ilovethiscity) and Bandersnatch (Casino Prince), with the latter having since landed the Carrington Stakes (Listed, 1400m). Big Parade has drawn an outside alley in gate ten on Saturday, with on-pace runners Lillemor and Masked Crusader berthed closer in. "I'd love to see him be ridden just off one similar to when he won," Newnham told Racing NSW. "He's better off drawn out a little bit instead of having to be forced to hold a spot."

Six rivals for Behemoth

Behemoth (All Too Hard) is the red-hot favourite to land the Durbridge Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Morphettville on Saturday with the dual Group 1 winner set to face just six rivals. TAB yesterday installed the All-Star Mile (1600m) hopeful as a $1.35 chance for his comeback assignment, which will be his first run since finishing tenth behind Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) in the $15 million Everest (1200m) at Randwick in October. He will jump from barrier five under Todd Pannell. Behemoth will clash with Richard and Chantelle Jolly's two All-Star Mile nominees, Kemalpas (Magnus) and Regalo Di Gaetano (Supreme Class). Superhard (All Too Hard), who was formerly with Lindsay Smith and is now trained at Broken Hill by Michael Wayman, will also line-up, alongside the Phillip Stokes-trained Symphonette (Helmet) and Amberdi (Ambidexter) for Sue and Jason Jaensch.

Star sprinters dazzle in trial

Star sprinters Nature Strip (Nicconi) and Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) are set to clash in next month's Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) after the duo finished first and second respectively in a Rosehill trial yesterday morning. The James Cummings-trained Bivouac, who was on Tuesday confirmed the joint-highest rated sprinter in the world with a rating of 125, was not extended when running second to the 124-rated Nature Strip. Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner September Run (Exceed And Excel) finished fifth. Nature Strip's time of 54.94 seconds for the 900-metre trip was almost a second quicker than the figure posted by Winx Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Samadoubt (Not A Single Doubt) (55.85s) in the following trial.

Samadoubt makes pleasing return

Samadoubt was making his first public appearance since the 2019 Craven Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) having been sidelined by a tendon injury and trainer Bjorn Baker has indicated the seven-year-old will trial again before resuming in the Canterbury Stakes (Gr 1, 1300m) at Randwick on March 6. "I was just thrilled to see he has still got the zest for racing," Baker said. "He didn't run a great time but it was just the trial we wanted first up. We will probably look for another trial and he will head towards the Canterbury Stakes into the George Ryder, all going well, but at this stage he is very much a day-to-day proposition so we're not getting carried away." Rachel King, who partnered Bivouac earlier in the morning, was also aboard Golden Eagle (1500m) winner Colette (Hallowed Crown) as she ran seventh behind Samadoubt. Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Verry Elleegant (Zed) finished sixth in the same heat without being asked any serious questions by James McDonald.

Richards happy with Kahma Lass

Kahma Lass (Darci Brahma) ran eighth in the trial won by Nature Strip and trainer Jamie Richards was delighted with the first Sydney appearance of his New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner, who is being set on a traditional fillies' path encompassing the Light Fingers Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick on February 13 and the Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at the same venue a fortnight later. Richards won last year's Surround with Probabeel (Savabeel) and said Kahma Lass compares favourably with her stablemate. "They're not too dissimilar. They've got a pretty good record, both of them," Richards said. "Probabeel has probably got a bit more size and scope but Kahma Lass has done a good job on the track so we'll see how we get on. She's got a lovely attitude and we're really happy with her."

Richards ponders Sydney for Probabeel

Providing an update on Probabeel, Richards said a Sydney autumn campaign is still on the table for his Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) winner, although the $5 million All-Star Mile is her immediate target on March 13. There was speculation that the four-year-old would campaign exclusively in Melbourne this autumn, but Richards said that is not necessarily the case. "We haven't ruled out Sydney but we're going to get ready for the All-Star first," he said. "She will probably run in the Geoffrey Bellmaine on February 6 and then maybe in the Futurity on February 20." Probabeel will continue towards her first racecourse start since finishing seventh behind Sir Dragonet (Camelot) in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) on October 24 by taking in a 1000-metre barrier trial at Geelong today.

Saffiano tops Inglis Digital at $290,000

Two-time winner Saffiano (More Than Ready) yesterday realised $290,000 in the Inglis January (Late) Online Auction, heading a record six lots that sold for over $100,000. Joining Saffiano in the six-figure bracket were fellow racehorses Oregon (Zoustar) ($125,000), Vanderland (Vancouver) ($120,000), Campese (Tornado) ($105,000) and Colonel (Snitzel) ($105,000) along with broodmare Phoenix Park (Thorn Park) ($230,000). The Rangal Park dispersal was also a success, grossing $324,250 for owner Eric Buttler. Overall, the January (Late) auction grossed $2.66 million, with a clearance rate of 85 per cent. The Aquis Farm-offered Saffiano, who won two of his seven starts for Chris Waller and Annabel Neasham, was purchased by Hunter Valley Bloodstock. "He's lightly raced and has proven already he knows how to win races so I wish his new connections all the best with him. They'll have a lot of fun," said Aquis' managing director Shane McGrath. "He contested a Group 1 at his fourth start last year, that's the type of horse he is, but Aquis is a company that, as part of their business model, trades horses all the time and we want to continue to be known as a vendor that offers fit, reliable, sound horses to the tried-horse market and Saffiano is certainly that."

RV approves whip-limited series

The upcoming Country Mile Race Series will be used to trial the reduction of whip usage in races. The series, consisting of five heats plus a final, will be exclusive to Victorian country trainers, and jockeys will be required to use their whip no more than five times throughout the entire race, which is a reduction to the current rules that allow riders to whip their mount five times before the 100-metre mark, with no restrictions thereafter. "The trial of races with limited use of the whip throughout the upcoming Country Mile Races Series is an important exercise which will assist us with gathering data in areas such as wagering, fan engagement, participant support, conduct and safety of the race, and impacts on form lines," said RV executive general manager of racing, Greg Carpenter. "This information can only add value to the quality of the deliberations by all of the state principal racing associations that will be debating potential changes to current whip rules over coming months."

Old rivals trade blows ahead of Rapid Racing

Aussie rules legends Kevin Sheedy and Denis Pagan will meet on the racetrack for the first time at tomorrow's Rapid Racing fixture at Flemington. The duo have been facing off for the best part of six decades on the pitch and they will renew their rivalry across the seven-race card, with Group 1-winning owner Sheedy coaching the country jockey squad, while Pagan will be in charge of the metropolitan riders. "We have got the big names and I want to tell them, it's not a popularity contest, I don't want to be popular with you, I want some respect," Pagan, referencing the likes of Damien Oliver and Craig Williams who will saddle up for his team, told Racing.com with his tongue-in-cheek. "It'll be some old school rock and roll and if it's too hot in the kitchen, get to the outhouse." The jockeys' challenge is a key feature of the Rapid Racing program, which will see seven races run down the Flemington straight at 30-minute intervals. 366 horses were entered for the card that runs from 3:30pm to 6:30pm (AEDT) and all but one race filled with the maximum of 12 final acceptors.

Kelly banks on progressive War Toy

Unbeaten gelding War Toy (Time For War) will make his city debut at Eagle Farm today following an impressive performance on debut at Ballina earlier this month. The Les Kelly-trained three-year-old, who was kept off the track at two, landed his 1300-metre maiden by two lengths on January 3 and steps up to a Class 1 Handicap over 1400 metres today. "He's by Time For War and most of the breed need time," Kelly told Racing Queensland. "He's improved but I think he'll be better suited over further ground. He's only had one start and he's still a bit green but he'll be competitive." War Toy is one of four runners for Kelly today, who also has Take Tea (Testa Rossa) and Jackpot Jay (Zoffany) in the 1400-metre Benchmark 78 and Merlin's Magic (Camelot) in the Class 3 Handicap (1600m).

Newhaven Park extends sponsorship of Country Championships

Newhaven Park have extended their sponsorship of the Country Championships Final (1400m) to the entire Country Championships series for 2021. The series commences on February 13 at Coffs Harbour and culminates with the $500,000 Country Championships Final at Randwick, a race that Newhaven Park have sponsored since 2017. "We are delighted to have substantially increased our commitments to the New South Wales racing industry to now include each of the regional qualifiers, truly making it the Newhaven Park Country Championships," said Newhaven principal John Kelly. "The Country Championships fairytale continues to capture the hearts and minds of all racing people. It gives grassroots racing participants an opportunity to compete on the biggest stage each year."

Gold Coast trials brought forward

Racing Queensland has confirmed the Gold Coast trials meeting originally scheduled for Tuesday, February 16 will now take place on Monday, February 15. Nominations for the meeting will close at noon on Friday, February 12.

NEW ZEALAND

Two feature rides for Elliot

Ryan Elliot will be aiming to continue his success at Saturday's Wellington Cup meeting with two feature rides. Elliot, who rode Gorbachev (Gorky Park) to victory in the Wellington Cup (Gr 3, 3200m) two years ago, will partner Love For All (Love Conquers All) in the Desert Gold Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) and Rock On Wood (Redwood) - trained by his mother, Leanne Elliot - in the Thorndon Mile (Gr 1, 1600m). Reflecting on his success in 2019, Elliot said: "It was a really good win for me and my career. It helped kick me off." Love For All finished runner-up in the Eulogy Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) last start and Elliot has high hopes for the filly. "She raced really well in the Eulogy against a bunch of nice horses and I hope she can step up against the class of these fillies on Saturday," he said. On the chances of last-start Zabeel Classic (Gr 1, 2000m) fourth Rock On Wood, who will take on 12-times Group 1 winner Melody Belle (Commands), Elliot added: "His run in the Zabeel was very good, he was just a little bit unlucky that In A Twinkling came down to the fence and cut our run up. He has been working superb. If we are ever going to get close to the bonny mare (Melody Belle), we are going to have to get her fresh-up."

Easter Handicap goal for Super Strike

Anniversary Handicap (Gr 3, 1600m) winner Super Strike (Super Easy) will return from his summer break next week, with trainer Richard Collett targeting a two-race autumn campaign that will culminate in a bid to win the Easter Handicap (Gr 2, 1600m) at Ellerslie. Collett was not tempted to make a return visit to Trentham this weekend to tackle the Thorndon Mile after the four-year-old scored impressively in the traditional lead up to the Thorndon, the Anniversary Handicap, at the venue a fortnight ago. "I haven't even had a look at the field for the Thorndon, so that probably tells you how much interest I had in starting him in it," Collett said. "He's been in the paddock since he travelled home from Trentham and he has been thriving. He will have another week there and then we will start his build-up to the Easter. He will have one run before the Easter, probably at Te Aroha, and that will be it for the time being."

UK: Hawwaam to be trained in Newmarket by William Haggas

Five-time Grade 1 winner and South African champion Hawwaam (Silvano) will join Newmarket trainer William Haggas from Mike de Kock ahead of a summer campaign in Britain. De Kock confirmed the news on the Nick Luck Daily podcast on Tuesday. "It'll be very interesting to see how the South African form will stack up with your (British) horses," said De Kock. "I've noticed some South African horses can struggle when there's cut in the ground because they're not used to it but if he can adapt to the situation there, I think he'll do very, very well." Owned by Sheikh Hamdan Al Maktoum, Hawwaam, who was last seen taking out back-to-back Grade 1s at Turffontein in June, was given a rating of 120 at the Longines World Racing Awards on Tuesday.

US: Tiznow colt takes top billing on day one at Ocala

Three-year-old Bear Brian (Tiznow) topped the opening day of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Winter Mixed Sale on Tuesday, selling to Kerri Raven for USD$150,000 (approx. AUD$195,000). Consigned by Summerfield (Francis and Barbara Vanlangendonck) and offered as Lot 368, Bear Brian was bred in Kentucky by the Tiznow Syndicate and Jerry Dixon. He is out of Super Saver (Maria's Mon) mare Lil Super Bear and won on his sole racecourse appearance earlier this month. "We were thrilled with that," Francis Vanlangendonck told Bloodhorse.com. "It was more than we thought.

We just got lucky and it worked out." Summerfield also consigned the day's highest-priced short yearling when they sold Lot 182 for USD$130,000 (approx. AUD$168,800) to Ronald Clark Shepherd. The Practical Joke (Into Mischief) colt was bred in Kentucky by Hartley/De Renzo Thoroughbreds and is out of Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) mare Mobeautiful.

US: Champion mare Zenyatta loses filly foal by Candy Ride

Champion mare Zenyatta (Street Cry) has lost the filly foal that she was carrying by Lane's End stallion Candy Ride (Ride The Rails), Zenyatta.com announced in a blog post on Tuesday. "We at Team Zenyatta and Lane's End Farm are deeply saddened to share that Zenyatta lost her 2021 foal early this year," it read. "She had been carrying a second Candy Ride filly, and we grieve the loss of this precious life. Thankfully, Zenyatta remains in excellent health and is doing very well." Now 17, Zenyatta resides at Lane's End Farm in Kentucky and she is the dam of four registered foals, none of whom have won.

Karaka Day 5: ANZ Bloodstock News' top lots

BY LLOYD JACKSON | @ANZ_NEWS

The second day of New Zealand Bloodstock's Book 2 offering features a varied cross-section of first season, up-and-coming young sires as well as the more established stallions. Today is also the last chance to get involved if you have so far missed out.

Mongolian Khan (Holy Roman Emperor) - winner of the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m), Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) and Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) in 2015 - is quietly getting some winners now his first crop has turned three. Chaparella (High Chaparral), a dual Listed winner of eight races and dam of Highview Stud's filly, Lot 757, could not do much better as a producer with two stakes horses from three foals to race, including Listed winner Riva Capri (Atlante).

Lot 757 NZB

Lot 766 is a Vadamos (Monsun) colt from a winning Commands (Danehill) mare. She is a half-sister to versatile Listed winner Johnny Reb (Naturalism), the winner of 14 races including the National Sprint (Listed, 1400m) at Canberra, and to Power Of Pegasus (Palace Music), the Listed winner of ten races.

Haunui Farm's Charm Spirit (Invincible Spirit) filly, Lot 770, has a lovely line-up of sires on her dam's side of the pedigree. Apart from being a half-sister to Group 3 winner Shees Flawless (Fully Fledged), her dam is by Fastnet Rock (Danehill) and her granddam is by Conquistador Cielo (Mr Prospector).

Lot 770 NZB

Charm Spirit is also the sire of Woburn Farm's Lot 772, the half-brother to Listed winner Mohaka (Nadeem). His granddam won six races, including three in Adelaide, and is a half-sister to the dam of twice Hong Kong Horse of the Year, dual Group 1 winner Ambitious Dragon (Pins).

Lot 772 NZB

Iffraaj (Zafonic) is the sire of Kiltannon Stables' colt, Lot 773. He is out of an Exceed And Excel (Danehill) half-sister to Gobi Ranger (Tale Of The Cat), winner of the Eclipse Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Ellerslie and third in the New Zealand 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). He is closely related to champion Desert War (Desert King).

Highview Stud will offer their Wrote (High Chaparral) filly, Lot 781. Her dam won five and was Listed-placed. Her granddam, Besty Coup (Justice Prevails), was South Island Filly of the Year and won seven times, including the Canterbury Belle Stakes (Listed, 1200m) and the Wairarapa Breeders' Stakes (Listed, 1600m).

Lot 781 NZB

Lot 794, a colt by Tivaci (High Chaparral), is the only lot in Book 2 being offered by Waikato Stud and he is out of a Savabeel (Zabeel) sister to recent Group placegetter Grand Bouquet (Savabeel) and half-sister to the Listed-placed Snowdrop (Pins). The colt's granddam is Daffodil (No Excuse Needed), a triple Group 1 winner including the Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m).

Lot 794 NZB

The Per Incanto (Street Cry) three-quarter brother to stakes winner Lanciato (Per Incanto) is Lot 821 from Wainui Ltd. Lanciato won seven times in New Zealand and Australia, including the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m) at Newcastle as well as the Carrington Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Randwick.

Little Avondale Stud's first season sire Time Test (Dubawi) is the sire of Lot 830, a filly from the stakes-placed, six-time winner Ima Lady (Howbaddouwantit). The filly's granddam is a half-sister to Railway Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Silver Liner (Sovereign Edition). The next dam, Ajasco (Pakistan II), also won the Railway.

Lot 830

NZB

Woburn Farm will offer Lot 838, a colt by first season sire War Decree (War Front). His dam, Irish Encore (Darci Brahma), won six races, including two at Te Rapa. His granddam is a half-sister to Group 3 winners Madison Point (Palace Music) and Dollars'n Gold (Palace Music) and is closely related to Group 1-winning two-year-old Iflooxcouldkill (Daggers Drawn).

Lot 838

NZB

Mapperley Stud's Lot 840, a filly by their resident sire Contributor (High Chaparral), is from an Ellerslie-winning Volksraad (Green Desert) half-sister to South African Group 3 winner The Centenary (Mastercraftsman). Her third dam is a three-quarter sister to Octagonal (Zabeel). This is, of course, the famous Eight Carat family.

Lot 841 is Highden Park's Satono Aladdin (Deep Impact) colt. His dam won five races, including three at Awapuni, and is herself a half-sister to Wazawatsyn (Tuscany Flyer), winner of ten races, including two runnings of the Eclipse Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Wingatui and the Timaru Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Riccarton.

Lot 841

NZB

Cambria Park will offer Lot 842, a filly by Proisir (Choisir). The filly's dam, Katy Keen (Zorro's Lad), won ten times, including seven in succession. Four of her wins were in stakes company, the Travis Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Te Rapa, the Rotorua Cup (Gr 3, 2170m) and two Listed races.

Lot 842

NZB

Lot 854 is Kiltannon Stables' Burgundy (Redoute's Choice) filly from La Etoile (Thorn Park), whose five wins included the Rich Hill Mile (Gr 2, 1600m) at Ellerslie. She was also four times stakes-placed, including third in the Queensland Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m), and her granddam, Domino (Grosvenor), won both the Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) and the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m).

Wrote is the sire of Lot 871, a filly from the draft of Highview Stud. Her dam is a winning sister to Za Magic (Magic Albert), winner of the Doomben Classic (Gr 3, 1615m) and the Sunshine Coast Guineas (Listed, 1600m). The filly is a direct descendant of champion Surround (Sovereign Edition).

Lot 871

NZB

Lot 905 is a filly by Vadamos being offered by CH Bloodstock. She is a half-sister to Group 2-placed Jimmy Lincoln (Jimmy Choux) and Listed-placed Amor Fati (Showcasing). Her granddam, Laurel Avenue (Avenue of Flags), was a Listed winner in the United States and is also the granddam of Group 2 winner El Daana (Redoute's Choice).

IT'S IN THE BLOOD

TREVOR MARSHALLSEA'S IN-DEPTH PEDIGREE ANALYSIS

TREVOR MARSHALLSEA | @ANZ_NEWS

There was a dash of irony in the powerfully-built Dosh winning the fillies' Blue Diamond Preview at Caulfield on Tuesday. In leading throughout for a superb fighting victory, the hulking filly brought more success to a stud that's prospered since deciding bigger is not always better.

A bold decision by Queensland breeding byword Glenlogan Park three years ago to ship out its stallions and slash its broodmare band by two-thirds paid off handsomely - almost spectacularly - on one of Australia's most tantalising days for two-year-olds.

Not only did Dosh take the fillies' event, 35 minutes earlier Extreme Warrior had come within half a length of providing Glenlogan with the Blue Diamond Previews double, racing wide but running on for a very meritorious second to General Beau in the colts' division.

Dosh and Extreme Warrior are part of the initial crop of Glenlogan products bred since the south-east Queensland farm - famed for breeding Savabeel among a list of Group 1 winners - undertook a major change of tack in 2018, inspired in part by the difficulties of gaining traction from up north in the Hunter Valley-dominated national stallion scene.

"We made the decision to stop standing stallions and come down to a boutique number of high-end broodmares, and really concentrate on trying to breed these top-end yearlings and racehorses," Glenlogan's general manager Steve Morley told It's In The Blood.

"The current crop of two-year-olds is the first that's a result of that decision, and so to have a couple of horses off the farm now being high in the discussions for a Blue Diamond is very encouraging, and something we're very proud of."

One early move around the time of the transition was to put the Danehill-line mare Raise Up to the relatively new and unproven Rich Enuff. The stakes-winning, Caulfield Guineas-placed stallion had mixed his time between co-owners Glenlogan and Woodside Park Stud, but would now stand solely at the Victorian farm, alongside his sire, Written Tycoon.

Raise Up, a speedy and sizeable multiple city winner in Brisbane, had thrown two colts who would reach no great heights - the latter, Sunlander, by Glenlogan's Real Saga, claimed a Brisbane city maiden. But when the filly by Rich Enuff appeared - an early drop, foaled on August 9, 2018 - this mating was quickly shown to be a resounding choice.

Dosh was a large yearling, well-proportioned, and a smooth mover. Trainer Grahame Begg went to $155,000 to secure her, and now has one of the favourites for the Blue Diamond. Her Preview success followed another Group 3 victory on debut in the Ottawa Stakes up the Flemington straight on Oaks Day.

"Raise Up was a very talented racemare herself, but there's no question this filly Dosh was her stand-out foal," Morley said.

"Right from the time she was born she was very athletic. She's very big but has a lot of athleticism. She was on everybody's radar at the sales because of the way she looked and the way she handled herself, and I'm really thrilled for Grahame Begg, who was determined to take her home when he first saw her at the sale last year.

"We've always supported Rich Enuff strongly. We knew he had a great affiliation with Danehill-line mares, and with Raise Up being by Shovhog it was a natural choice. It was a nice mating genetically and physically. Raise Up is also a big mare, but very athletic, and she leaves that muscle and bone structure and frame in her offspring."

For all that, however, Raise Up has a patchy record of conception. She threw Dosh, then missed, then threw a sister to Dosh before missing again last spring.

"We have found it a bit hard to get her in foal when she's got a foal at foot, but if she keeps throwing them with the talent of Dosh, I don't mind getting them every second year," Morley said. "We've got the full sister at foot at the moment, and she's almost a mirror image of Dosh, so there's a bit of cause for excitement there."

While Dosh made it two Group 3 wins from two starts on Tuesday, Extreme Warrior completed two Listed second placings at his second start, both at Caulfield.

The colt was bought for $160,000 by Mick Price and Dermot Farrington at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, after Morley had two years earlier swooped to buy the dam, Heart Of Thrills, in foal to Price's 2016 Blue Diamond winner Extreme Choice for $200,000 at the Inglis Australian Broodmare Sale.

Morley's purchase in April, 2018 was timely indeed. A week earlier, Heart Of Thrills' first named foal Thrillster, who'd been stakes-placed on debut, won Bendigo's VOBIS Gold Rush. A few days later the filly won the VOBIS Sires at Caulfield. That spring, she took the Atlantic Jewel Stakes at Moonee Valley before a close fifth in Amphitrite's Thousand Guineas.

While Morley may not have designed Extreme Warrior's conception, aside from refining his broodmare band there was perhaps extra incentive to buying Heart Of Thrills, who herself boasted only a Wagga maiden win from four starts, as she is by one of Glenlogan's favourite sons in Show A Heart.

Now 23, four-time Group 1 winner Show A Heart enjoys the quiet life on the farm these days alongside another Queensland favourite, Falvelon, 24, who was also retired from stud duties in Glenlogan's 2018 recalibration.

At the same time, Show A Heart continues to perform as a broodmare sire. He sits 29th on the Australian table for this season with a more than healthy 55 winners from 149 runners, headed by Sovereign Award - a dual Group 3 winner in Melbourne last spring - and with more promise held by Extreme Warrior.

Dosh

He also has something which, while once everywhere, is now increasingly rare - a Star Kingdom sireline (through Brave Warrior-Cossack Warrior-Bletchingly-Biscay) - that Morley believes mixes well with Danehill-descended sires like Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt-Redoute's Choice).

"Show A Heart is doing a really good job as a broodmare sire for the opportunities afforded to him," Morley said. "Being a Star Kingdom-line stallion, and probably the last of the commercial Star Kingdom-line stallions, he's had a real affiliation with this Northern Dancer-line of stallions right across the board. Physically he also suits because he's got plenty of length and a great hip and tail, and that can often suit these Danehill line horses."

Heart Of Thrills' broodmare credentials are also supported by her other named foal, the stakes-placed four-year-old mare Free Thrills (Unencumbered). And there's still more excitement at Glenlogan over what Morley describes as a "beautiful" yearling filly, who'll be offered at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, by no less a heavyweight than I Am Invincible.

"Heart Of Thrills has had three foals to the track for three black-type horses, so she's really performing," Morley said of his 11-year-old, who is now in foal to Written Tycoon.

With two live Blue Diamond chances, and with eight lots also to be put up at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale two weeks before that race, it's fair to say the upswing from Glenlogan's downsizing is looking very promising indeed.

MAIDEN OF THE WEEK: SHINING A LIGHT ON RACING'S FUTURE STARS

Delightful Laos emerges as a Hong Kong Derby contender as Tony Cruz posts a treble

BY LEO SCHLINK | HKJC_RACING

Tony Cruz will aim to add further lustre to his extraordinary Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m) record after Delightful Laos (Baltic King) emerged as a potential Classic contender with victory in the Class 2 Chater Handicap (1650m) at Happy Valley yesterday.

Crowning a dominant night for Cruz, the Irish import will now be set for the Hong Kong Classic Cup (Listed, 1800m) - the second leg of the Four-Year-Old Classic Series - at Sha Tin on February 21.

With four Derby triumphs as a jockey with Co-Tack (Top Role) (1983), Tea For Two II (Northfields) (1987), Clear City (Bolak) (1987) and Makarpura Star (Native Kingdom) (1995) and two more as a trainer with Lucky Owners (Danehill) (2004) and Helene Mascot (Peintre Celebre) (2008), Cruz knows what it takes to win Hong Kong's premier staying test for four-year-olds.

"We'll try for the Classic Cup with Delightful Laos and we'll see from there," Cruz said. "Then we'll enter him for the Derby as well."

"Hopefully now he has won, he showed a lot of promise (tonight), I'm sure the handicapper will consider him to be in the race."

"I believe this horse really wants 2000 metres. He likes the fast ground, he's a big horse but if he can get into the race, I would love to run him there."

Cruz boosted his 2020/21 stable tally to 31 with a treble after California Legend (Camelot) (Christophe Soumillon) and Dream Warriors (Smart Missile) (Karis Teetan) preceded Derek Leung and Delightful Laos into the winners' circle.

A son of Baltic King (Danetime), Delightful Laos has recorded three wins in Hong Kong with each of them materialising over 1650 metres at the city circuit.

Christophe Soumillon made an inspiring recovery from the shattering disappointment of suffering injury aboard Enrich Delight (Medaglia D'Oro) in the Hong Kong Classic Mile (Listed, 1600m) on Sunday to register a double.

The Belgian partnered California Legend to victory in the Class 5 Queensway Handicap (1650m) for Cruz before guiding We The South (Your Song) to a comprehensive success in the Class 3 Connaught Handicap (1000m) for Frankie Lor.

Soumillon was stood down by doctors at Sha Tin after suffering a back strain in the incident with Enrich Delight but was determined to rebound strongly at Happy Valley.

"The back is not great but it's still ok to ride," Soumillon said.

Joao Moreira (77) maintained a 23-win buffer over Zac Purton (54) after the pair both produced doubles.

The Anomaly (Real Impact) became trainer Jimmy Ting's first debut winner as a PPG (privately purchased griffin) with an upset success in the second section of the Class 4 Ice House Handicap (1200m).

Sent out as a 63-1 chance, the gelding might have defied the market, but confirmed Ting's opinion of the three-year-old.

"I was a little bit surprised but I thought he would run very close because this race was not very strong," Ting said after watching Keith Yeung thread a narrow gap late to win impressively.

"We got a good draw (barrier two) and I thought he would run very close. Before the race, I thought he would finish third, fourth or fifth - very close."

"To win is a little bit of a surprise but he is a good horse, a very good horse. I think his best distance is a mile."

Yeung's effort ended a run of outs for the rider since early November.

Delightful Laos

HKJC

"He's a good jockey and he is always riding trackwork for me and telling me what's going on with the horses and so I give him some support," Ting said.

Paul O'Sullivan and Zac Purton combined with another big-priced winner when 33-1 shot Moment Of Power (Exceed And Excel) again proved his sprinting prowess with his eighth victory over the 1000-metre course.

"He's a little marvel, he's a one-trick pony around the Valley," O'Sullivan said after the veteran gelding led throughout to land the Class 4 Glenealy Handicap (1000m).

"He's in the right place at the right time. He's a very good speed horse."

The eight-year-old had not won for almost two years but a gradual drop through the classes to last night's contest was the key to the belated breakthrough.

Purton also succeeded on Ever Force (Toronado) for Danny Shum, while Moreira bookended the meeting by scoring with Tigerlad (Tiger Prawn) in the opener for Tony Millard and the John Size-trained Savaquin (Savabeel) in the last.

The victory was the 35th for Size this season, lifting the 11-time champion trainer to within four of Caspar Fownes (39).

Hong Kong racing continues at Sha Tin on Sunday.

Karaka 2021 - Alan & Eddie Berkley Stud
A fantastic result for Christchurch-based consignors @berkleystud, when Lot 725
(Churchill x Astrid filly) went through the ring and sold for $200,000 to the bid of @Roger_ JamesNZ & @RobertWellwood. #Karaka2021
