Sunlight stars as elite mares come to the fore at Magic Millions

Three-time Group 1 winner sets new benchmark at $4.2 million while three others also reach seven figures

Sunlight

MAGIC MILLIONS

Sunlight, a star on the track who was instrumental in launching her sire Zoustar (Northern Meteor) and been a life-changer for many of her all-female syndicate, yesterday set a new Magic Millions Gold Coast National Broodmare record with a stunning $4.2 million figure.

Sunlight, who took the record previously held by $3.4 million mare Listen Here (Elusive Quality), made the eye-watering figure after Coolmore demonstrated its sales ring strength to land the mare and then followed up with the purchase of high-class sprinter Champagne Cuddles (Not A Single Doubt). She was knocked down to the global operation for an even $2 million.

Coolmore also paid $1.3 million for Invincibella (I Am Invincible) earlier in the session while Yulong bought the fourth seven-figure mare on day one, the Group 1 winner Unforgotten (Fastnet Rock), for an incredible $2.75 million,

Wet weather forces Randwick trial changes

Trials scheduled for Randwick this morning have been switched to the Polytrack due to Sydney's wet weather over the last 48 hours. A 20-heat session will be held on the Polytrack, with three heats for Group and Listed winners to be instead run on the Kensington track on Friday. Group 1 winners Melody Belle (Commands), Probabeel (Savabeel), Con Te Partiro (Scat Daddy), Dreamforce (Fastnet Rock), Kolding (Ocean Park), Kings Will Dream (Casamento) and Fierce Impact (Deep Impact) were scheduled to trial this morning but are now set to line up on Friday.

<< Continued from page 1 The July sale, held in unique circumstances amid the coronavirus pandemic, again demonstrated the almost insatiable demand for the absolute elite mares presented to the marketplace and the day one sale figures back that up.

Not surprisingly, bidding on the unreserved Sunlight opened at $1 million with leading domestic and international players all making a move for the mare before Coolmore stepped in once the price had surpassed $3 million.

The unnamed under bidder, who also ran second on last year's top-priced $2.3 million mare Missrock (Fastnet Rock), was acting on the phone via Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch.

Coolmore's trio of Sunlight, Champagne Cuddles and Invincibella will be covered to southern hemisphere time by second season sire Justify (Scat Daddy) this year.

"We really wanted to have her. Sunlight is so good-looking and we are trying to build a really serious broodmare band at Coolmore and if you are serious about that, you have to have mares like her in it," the operation's

- TOM MAGNIER

Tom Magnier said.

"We are delighted to have got her and hopefully we will have a bit of luck along the way."

Sunlight, who was raced by an all-female syndicate and won the women's bonus in her spectacular 2018 Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) victory, had been a $300,000 buy a year earlier at the Gold Coast sale.

Widden Stud principal Antony Thompson, who consigned the mare, admitted it was a bittersweet moment to sell the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) and William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner despite the enormity of the price tag.

"What do you say? A real life-changing mare for everyone involved," said Thompson.

"She has been so special for everyone associated with her and it's great to see her go to Coolmore, which is such a magnificent farm and a great home and I'm sure they will do very, very well with a mare like that for a long time.

"We would have loved to have taken her home and I am sure everyone that has been associated with her would love to buy the foals out of her and we will follow her second career closely.

"But it is a credit to Coolmore they have made a point of buying the best mares, not just in Australia, but around the world recently, and she is a great addition to any farm. Coolmore's commitment to Justify is well known and it's been very evident in the quality of mares they have bought for him and have continued to buy for him.

"She put Zoustar on the map and kicked off his career and she is just a great advertisement for an amazing young stallion and we will always be grateful to her for that."

Connections, some who had joined forces in an attempt to buy her including Thompson and his wife Katie, were emotional after the life-changing auction result.

"We were certainly interested to try and buy her and we would have loved to have taken her back to Widden, unfortunately we didn't have the group at that level," the Widden Stud principal said.

"Not only is she an incredible race filly, but certainly as a physical, she was just a stunning, stunning type. She really just blew everyone away here on the ground with what an amazing physical she is. Everyone who looked at her could tell why she was so good and she was much admired by everyone who saw her.

"She's the sort of mare that can be mated to so many stallions. Justify this season, but she could go to Galileo or any of their other top stallions in the future. They have got a lovely blank canvas to work with and I am sure they will breed some very nice horses out of her."

Out of the Group 3-winning mare Solar Charged (Charge Forward), Sunlight's younger sibling Sisstar (Zoustar) is also a stakes winner for the McEvoy stable while another half-sister is the stakes-placed Sheikha (Sebring).

Sunlight's brother was bought for $1.1 million at this year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale by Hawkes Racing for a syndicate headed by Orbis Bloodstock and his breeders Widden Stud and Telemon Thoroughbreds' Dan and Rae Fletcher.

Solar Charged is due to foal to Zoustar next month, while Solar Girl (Lonhro), a half-sister to Sunlight, will be offered by Arrowfield Stud today as Lot 434. She is in foal to the first season sire The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice).

On Coolmore's unwavering and astronomical financial investment in US Triple Crown winner Justify, Magnier said: "We are committed to Justify - he is the horse of a generation as well. He won the Triple Crown in America and retired unbeaten.

"We have spent the last year, year and half trying to find the best mares to go to Justify and we will support him in the breeding barn, in the sales ring and on the racetrack.

"His foals in America have been outstanding and hopefully next week we will have the first Justify foals on the ground in Australia. If we can follow through with more exciting progeny next year, it will be very exciting for Justify."

Justify to add "leg" to $2 million mare Champagne Cuddles

Hammer goes down on Champagne Cuddles

MAGIC MILLIONS

Sold in absentia, unbeaten two-year-old Champagne Cuddles became an immediate target for Coolmore and the realisation her make-up suited Justify cemented the decision to buy her.

"She is a real sprinting two-year-old type of mare by Not A Single Doubt. She is from a great family and she needs a stallion with a bit of leg on him and we identified her as a perfect mare to send to Justify," agent James Bester said.

"What this mare has is strength in abundance, a really powerful forearm and hindquarter. She is a very good mover. She was a very fast mare and as game as a pebble. She danced in all the dances and was Group 1-placed in some of the best races in Australia.

"Whilst she didn't win a Group 1, she beat a lot of Group 1 winners. There was strong online competition for her and competition on the complex, but when you want these horses you have to be prepared to pay that sort of money."

- STUART RAMSEY

The rising six-year-old mare, who was trained by Bjorn Baker, split Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) and Menari (Snitzel) in the Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and she was placed a further three times at the highest level.

Consigned by breeder Stuart Ramsey's Turangga Farm as Lot 131, Champagne Cuddles is a daughter of the former Peter Moody-trained Sky Cuddle (Snippets) who won the Emirates Stakes (registered as Cantala Stakes) (Gr 1, 1600m) in 2004.

Champagne Cuddles is a half-sister to Shantha's Girl (Redoute's Choice), herself the dam of Group 3 winner Violate (Sebring), while Sky Cuddle is a half-sister to Group 2 winner Highly Recommended (Fastnet Rock), and fellow stakes winners Sky Love (Octagonal), Hint (Reset) and Undeniably (Fastnet Rock).

A teary Ramsey, justifiably, could not hide the emotion after parting with his prized mare.

"It's very satisfying and it's good to see the Magnier family buy her because we've had a good association for a long time," he said.

"We've got a lot of kids and grandkids and she's worth so much to us and more to other people. The girls and my wife aren't very happy, but you've got to make these decisions and they're not easy. It's very emotional to lose her."

Ramsay was not going to "give" Champagne Cuddles away and placed a $1.5 million reserve on her.

"The big players were on her and the thing was, although she hadn't won a Group 1, she ran Sunlight into third by an inch; She went past Merchant Navy, who's gone to stud, in the Golden Rose as though he was stuck to the wall. She's had a little bit of bad luck in big races, but she's honest. She's been good."

Invincibella proves a money-making machine for Star and Martin

The first million dollar mare through the ring was the Star Thoroughbreds-raced Tattersall's Tiara (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Invincibella (I Am Invincible) whose connections are the beneficiary of Coolmore's long-term commitment to its young stallion Justify (Scat Daddy).

Team Coolmore, with principal Tom Magnier and trusted advisers Colm Santry and James Bester by his side, won the early session bidding battle at $1.3 million.

Agent Neil Jenkinson, acting for a new entrant to the industry in IT entrepreneur Simon Delzoppo, was underbidder after veteran auctioneer David Chester accepted a $500,000 opener.

"She won $3 million on the track, so her race record speaks for itself as a Group 1 winner, but beyond that she is such a great individual. She has a great head, so typical of the I Am Invincibles with a great hindquarter on her, a wonderful shoulder and girth and she is truly a queen," Bester told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"With that awesome outlook, she always stops and looks out into the distance and she had that real look about her. More importantly, she's also out of a Galileo mare and a good Galileo mare at that who produced a Listed winner by Sizzling.

"As far as we're concerned she's the perfect mix of pedigree, physique and race performance. What more could you want?"

Given the understandable uncertainty surrounding the market, Bester believes Invincibella could have fetched a higher price had she gone through the ring 12 months earlier.

He said: "Last year, I sold a mare to Coolmore for Justify in Global Glamour who made $1.5 million and, in a stronger market with more international participation, we figured she might have made up to (that).

"We thought $1 million was the bottom line, so we suspected she'd fall somewhere in that bracket."

AS FAR AS WE'RE CONCERNED SHE'S THE PERFECT MIX OF PEDIGREE, PHYSIQUE AND RACE PERFORMANCE. WHAT MORE COULD YOU WANT? - JAMES BESTER

Invincibella, meanwhile, was a winner of 12 of her 45 starts and $3,075,103 in prize-money, and provided connections with a significant return on their $185,000 investment at the 2015 Magic Millions Yearling Sale even before yesterday's million dollar result.

Consigned by Glenesk Thoroughbreds, Invincibella is one of two stakes winners - the other being Secret Blaze (Sizzling) - for the unraced Abscond (Galileo), herself a half-sister to the Group 1-placed Light Up Manhattan (Manhattan Rain). She was catalogued as Lot 12.

Star Thoroughbreds' Denise Martin was delighted that Invincibella had made her way to one of the world's iconic stud farms.

"When I bought her as a yearling she was bred off an $11,000 service fee and, at the time, I Am Invincible hadn't reached the stellar heights he has now, but throughout the years she just got better and stronger as she got older and, remarkably, her best racing year was when she was six," Martin said after watching the sales ring action unfold from the Magic Millions auditorium.

"She was wonderfully handled by Chris Waller and his team and she won the Magic Millions here six months ago, she won Tattersall's Tiara just over 12 months ago and a second Dane Ripper just over 12 months ago."

MAGIC MILLIONS

Unforgotten far from missed by the market

Unforgotten

MAGIC MILLIONS

With a glowing endorsement from Luke Wilkinson and the experienced Marcus Corban, it was left to Yulong's founder Yuesheng Zhang to do the bidding from the comfort of his home in China and he was determined to take Group 1 winner Unforgotten (Fastnet Rock) home at $2.75 million.

Coolmore bowed out at $2.5 million as two online combatants went head-to-head in a virtual duel before Mr Zhang proved successful and added her to his expansive broodmare band based in Victoria.

Yulong bloodstock manager Luke Wilkinson revealed a slot to I Am Invincible was quickly reserved for Unforgotten after a tense few minutes of action but a final mating plan will be confirmed in the coming days after a meeting between the hierarchy.

"Marcus Corban and I looked at all the race fillies and mares and she was right up there for us with Sunlight, perhaps just a touch below, and we loved them both," he said.

"Mr Zhang was bidding online, so we weren't aware which leg he was on, and we didn't know until the phone rang afterwards from his son-in-law, that we knew that we'd secured her."

When Sunlight made the record-breaking price, a mare Mr Zhang also made a play on "up to a level," Wilkinson knew that the initial value placed on Unforgotten by the Yulong team may not have been enough to buy her.

"She's a great mover, with great joints and you can see why she was such a good racehorse. Chris Waller has done a great job managing her and she looked good enough to put back into work," he said.

"I added another $500,000 in my head after Sunlight (went through) but I still think with that pedigree that she was fantastic buying and well done Mr Zhang."

Unforgotten was an NZ$360,000 New Zealand Bloodstock Premier Yearling Sale purchase for Chris Waller Racing in 2016 and went on to win six times, including three in succession, from 23 starts and earning $1,563,895 in prize-money.

Catalogued as Lot 92 and consigned by Blue Sky Premium Consignment, the Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner is a sister to the Listed-placed and New Zealand Group 1-performed Special Memories while her dam Memories Of You (Galileo) hails from a dominant European family.

“WE’VE HAD HER AT NEWINGTON FARM FOR THE PAST TEN WEEKS AND THEY REALLY HAVE SOMETHING ABOUT THEM, THESE STAR-QUALITY MARES, AND SHE IS THE BEST HORSE I HAVE HAD HANDS ON EXPERIENCE WITH FOR SOME TIME

- JULIAN BLAXLAND

was purchased by agent Guy Mulcaster for $250,000 at this year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale.

Julian Blaxland has attempted to establish a reputation as being a consignor of high-class mares and yesterday's results went a long way to confirming that.

“It was a wonderful result for Chris Waller and his owners, Peter Tighe and all the other owners,” Blaxland said.

“We’ve had her at Newington Farm for the past ten weeks and they really have something about them, these star-quality mares, and she is the best horse I have had hands on experience with for some time.”

As for the strong competition on Unforgotten, another mare who went through the ring unreserved, Blaxland said: “I was pleasantly surprised with the price-tag, but I have been going to broodmare sales all over the world for 20 years and she had a truly international pedigree and she had form around Winx - the best mare in the world - so in one way I was surprised and in another way I think she was well worth the money.”

Yulong also added the Waller-trained, Blue Sky Premium Consignment-offered Another Dollar (Ocean Park) for $700,000 later in the session.

A last-start winner of the BRC Premier's Cup (Gr 3, 2200m), the rising six-year-old could race on next season rather than being sent to stud. Aquis Farm was under bidder.

“Another Dollar is a beautiful racemare and she was almost our most popular horse after Unforgotten on parades,” Blaxland said.

“She has recent racing form and I think she is finding her best form now. It is wonderful that she has gone into the Yulong system.”

Yulong also purchased Evening Slippers (Snitzel), a juvenile-winning sister to the Group 1-winning Sweet Idea and Group 2-successful Arrowfield Stud stallion Showtime, for $550,000. She will be sent to Yulong's foundation second season sire Grunt (O'Reilly) this year.

Market holds up in face of adversity

Blaxland believes vendors who possessed stakes-performed mares with looks to match were well rewarded in the sales ring despite the wider economic environment heading towards a recession.

"I think in the light of recent events and the global economy this is a fabulous result for Magic Millions and is a great example of the thirst for Australian racing and breeding stock," he said.

"If you were in any other country in the world and you received results in a sale ring that you saw here today, you would be very envious of Australian breeding and racing industry. Despite what is going on in the world, it was very strong."

The strong high-end mares underpinned the robust day one market, with 117 mares changing hands at an average of $206,714, up 30 per cent year-on-year, while the median of $75,000 was also up $5,000 on last year.

Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch was glad that buyers and vendors embraced yesterday's live auction.

"Just to begin (selling today) was a success in itself but to again prove that this is the epicentre of selling breeding stock in the southern hemisphere was pleasing," Bowditch told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"To have as many people as we did here participating in the sale and to have the online reach that the sale had was quite remarkable.

"Both markets, remote and live, played a huge importance in today's sale. Our mandate is to engage with as many people as possible and I think today proved that was the case."

The importance of Coolmore to the Australian industry, with a spend of $7.5 million on day one, cannot be understated, according to Bowditch who believes the stud's bluechip buy Sunlight is the best broodmare prospect he's seen head to public auction.

"She's the best we've ever offered and I think she's the best mare to go to market here in Australia for as long as I've been in the industry, so I think she justified her result," he said. "She's worth every penny in my mind. I'm delighted we had so much participation on her and the international market played and respected her."

Today's session of mares in foal starts at 10am.

Seven for Rich Enuff

Woodside Park resident Rich Enuff (Written Tycoon) sired his seventh first-crop winner yesterday when Spy Colonel (2 g ex Fantastic Glen by Fantastic Light) took out a 1400-metre maiden at Pakenham. The Anthony Freedman-trained two-year-old defeated Lord Wonder (Shocking) by a long neck with Sunshine Girl (Fighting Sun) coming home a further three lengths away in third. Purchased by his trainer and Blue Sky Bloodstock for $55,000 at the Magic Million Gold Coast March Yearling Sale, Spy Colonel is one of three winners from three to race out of Fantastic Glen (Fantastic Light), who herself is a half-sister to Amy's Glen (Shamardal), the dam of stakes scorer Wild Vixen (Foxwedge). Rich Enuff, who is also responsible for Tattersall's Club Stakes (Listed, 1400m) winner Plutocrat, stands at Woodside Park for a fee of $8,800 (inc. GST) in 2020.

13 for Headwater

Vinery Stud's Headwater (Exceed And Excel) equalled the record of winners by a first crop sire this season when Yulong Holiday (2 c ex Ella Zabella by Zabeel) took out a 1400-metre maiden at Echuca on Sunday and became the son of Exceed And Excel's (Danehill) 13th individual victor. The colt defeated Kiss Me If You Can (O'Lonhro) by a nose with Slipintothis (Proisir) a length away in third. Yulong Holiday is one of two winners from two to race out of Ella Zabella (Zabeel) while his second dam is multiple stakes scorer Stella Marie (Magic Ring). Further back, this is the family of Group 1 runner up Pasta Express (Rigoletto) and Geelong Classic (Listed, 2200m) winner Weather With You (Teofilo). Headwater, who is also the sire of Group 3 winner Wisdom Of Water, stands at Vinery for a fee of $13,750 (inc. GST) in 2020.

First Grunt foal born

The first foal by dual Group 1 winner Grunt (O'Reilly) was born at Yulong last Friday night. The foal, a bay colt from Peninsula Miss (Helmet), who is a winning half-sister to stakes performers Sabie (Exceed and Excel), Ankaret

Foal by Grunt ex Peninsula Miss

YULONG

(Desert Prince) and Graskop (Manton), was born slightly ahead of his due date on August 6. "We are thrilled with the arrival of Grunt's first foal, a healthy bay colt from Peninsula Miss, born on Friday evening (July 24)," said Yulong's Chief Operating Officer Sam Fairgray. "He has size, strength, bone and is nicely marked with a blaze and hind sock. We will be happy if they keep coming out looking like this foal." Grunt stands at Yulong for a fee of $13,750 (inc GST) in 2020.

Pike hopes for Melbourne spring base

William Pike created a new Australian riding record at Belmont on Saturday, booting home his 235th winner for the season, but the champion Perth rider is instead looking ahead to the spring. Pike is hoping to base himself in Melbourne to partner some of Western Australia's leading horses, including Regal Power (Pierro), Arcadia Queen (Pierro) and Superstorm (Sebring), but he's not sure how that will work out. "The plan is to head over and try and win one of those big races, but the way things are and the way it (coronavirus) keeps flaring up and the rules are changing every other day, how it's going to happen I'm a bit unsure at this stage," Pike said. "Hopefully Windstorm and a couple of others that have gone over with pretty big raps can handle the travel and take the next step."

Stokes plots paths to Guineas

Phillip Stokes is eyeing off both the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Caulfield on October 10. His leading Thousand Guineas hope is last-start Oaklands Plate (Listed, 1400m) winner Instant Celebrity (Not A Single Doubt), who is unbeaten in two starts and has created a strong impression on both occasions. "She's just having a little freshen up at the moment and then she'll do a couple of weeks in Adelaide before she comes (to Melbourne)," Stokes told Racing.com. "She'll run at Flemington in the Cap d'Antibes on September 12, then she'll head towards the Prelude and the Thousand Guineas hopefully." His leading Caulfield Guineas hope is maiden Savannah Cloud (Savabeel), who will also return on September 12.

Rascal to return at Moonee Valley

Young Rascal

SPORTPIX

N E Manion Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) winner Young Rascal (Intello) is set to have his first run for new trainer Archie Alexander in a 2040-metre open handicap at Moonee Valley on August 22. Young Rascal, who stayed in Australia after his two-run autumn campaign for original handler William Haggas, may find himself in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) should he find his best form. "He's showing us that he's a true stayer," Alexander told Racing.com. "We'll skip starting him off over a mile and building him up because he wouldn't even be sharp enough for the mile. When he won the Manion Cup in Sydney it was his first run in about four months and he had no problems at 2400m first-up so he can do that. Long term, he could be a Bart Cummings or even a Caulfield Cup sort of horse."

Internationals to miss Caulfield Guineas day

The Caulfield Guineas meeting on October 10 will be free of internationals this year with only one shipment to Melbourne scheduled instead of the usual two. The Herbert Power Stakes (Gr 2, 2400m) and the Caulfield Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) have been popular starting points for international raiders heading towards Melbourne's spring features in recent years. However, with only one flight from Europe, it will be scheduled to allow for horses to run at the St Leger meeting at Doncaster or on Irish Champions Weekend on September 12 and 13, meaning they won't get out of quarantine until after Caulfield Guineas day.

NEW ZEALAND

Shailer joins Autridge in partnership

Valachi Downs trainer Stephen Autridge will be joined in a training partnership by his assistant Kris Shailer from the start of the new season this weekend. Shailer was an apprentice jockey indentured to Autridge in the late 1990s and early 2000s and also recorded black-type success as a trainer before joining Autridge as an assistant. "It's a fantastic opportunity and I'm really grateful to Kevin, Joanna, Stephen and the entire Valachi team," Shailer said. "I've worked with Steve for a long time now, I really enjoy working alongside him, and I'm looking forward to continuing to do so in this new role. There's a very nice team of Valachi horses in work and some lovely yearlings coming through as well. I can't wait to get started."

Stellar year for Waikato Stud

Ocean Park (Thorn Park) has joined his Waikato Stud barnmate Savabeel (Zabeel) at the top of the New Zealand stallion ranks by taking one of New Zealand's three sire awards for the first time. Since the 2015-16 season, Savabeel has firmly established himself as champion New Zealand sire, taking out the Grosvenor Award (progeny earnings within New Zealand), the Dewar Award (progeny earnings in New Zealand and Australia) and the Centaine Award (total progeny earnings worldwide) each year. However, Ocean Park's season - headlined by Australian stakes winners Kolding, Tofane, Oceanex and Star Of The Seas - has seen him take the Dewar Award for the first time. "We're just extremely proud to have two stallions clean up all of the awards again this season," Waikato Stud's Mark Chittick said. "Obviously Savabeel has been doing that by himself over the last few years, and he's had another great year in 2019-20 and earned another champion sire title in New Zealand. But it's really nice to be able to share those awards between multiple stallions on our roster this year."

Asano's name up in lights

Apprentice rider Kozzi Asano has proven to be the breakout star of the New Zealand racing season, finishing second in the race for the country's jockeys' premiership. With 78 wins, he has almost ridden twice as many winners as his nearest challenger in the apprentice ranks, Sam Weatherley (41). "It has been an amazing ride this season," Asano said. "I couldn't have done it without my boss' (Andrew Carston) help and the support from all the owners and trainers. Andrew and Lisa Latta supported me a lot this season, as well as Kelvin and Aimee Tyler from Riverton. They have been putting me on a lot of horses and I have had a great run with them. The highlight of my season was winning the Wanganui Cup for Lisa Latta on Sentimental Miss."

Innes enjoying racing's return

Jockey Leith Innes wasn't supposed to be in New Zealand throughout the winter months, instead preparing for his usual stint in Queensland or even perhaps Victoria, but Covid-19 cruelled those plans and he returned to the winners' circle at Avondale on Saturday aboard Group 2 winner Demonetization (All Too Hard). Innes was offered a position with Lindsey Smith and was set to relocate for the winter until the coronavirus pandemic shut down borders. "I'd been in touch with Lindsey Smith and he agreed I could start up there in Perth with him and if it all went well then I could go down to Melbourne," Innes said. "That was before the borders shut and Covid set in so those plans were scrapped. I'd rather be riding over in Aussie in winter, but at least we're back racing. And it was good to get the win on Saturday."

ASIA

Purton prepares for post-Moore life

Fresh off a fourth Hong Kong jockeys' title, jockey Zac Purton is already looking ahead to next season, which begins in early September. However, Purton will be searching for a new ally with John Moore - responsible for 17 of his 147 winners last term, as well as champion gelding Beauty Generation (Road To Rock) - retiring after a 35-year career in the city. "It has always been competitive, but it will be very hard next season. With John Moore retiring, I'm going to need to hope I can fill that void and it might mean spreading my wings a little bit more," Purton said. "To be able to fight for the title you need good support and it will all depend where I get that support. I will be going out there and making sure I work hard for it. There is no doubt that Joao will come out hard next season. Both Karis Teetan and Vincent Ho have had good seasons as well. They seem to have plenty of support, so they could be challengers as well."

INTERNATIONAL

36 for Siyouni

Wally (Siyouni) became his sire's 36th individual stakes winner when taking out the Listed Prix Pelleas at Compiègne (France) yesterday, snatching victory from Lackeen (Shamardal) in the final strides under Cristian Demuro. Undefeated as a three year old, the grey gelding is the first foal of Full Of Beauty (Motivator), who was herself second in the Italian Oaks (Gr 2, 1m3f). Wally was bought for €130,000 at the 2017 Arqana August sales in Deauville by his current trainer, Jean-Claude Rouget. Siyouni (Pivotal) stands at Haras de Bonneval in France for a fee of €100,000 (approx. AUD$165,000).

Dashing Willoughby changes hands

British stayer Dashing Willoughby (Nathaniel) has been acquired by a leading New Zealand owner and businessman ahead of a potential tilt at the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m). Racing.com listed the new owner as "a prominent New Zealand racehorse owner who has experienced success across the globe and raced a Melbourne Cup placegetter." The Andrew Balding-trained Dashing Willoughby, winner of the Queen's Vase (Gr 2, 1m 6f) at Royal Ascot last year before adding the Buckhounds Stakes (Listed, 1m 4f) and the Henry II Stakes (Gr 3, 2m) this season following a gelding operation, is set to have his next run in the Lonsdale Cup (Gr 2, 2m) at York.

Henrique in hot form

BY HARRY TROY | @RACINGMACAU

Brazilian jockey Fausto Henrique is enjoying his best season in Macau and moved closer to securing second spot in the Jockeys' Championship with a treble on Friday nights sand card.

Henrique was in hot form and kicked the night off with a win on the Wayne Smith trained Pursuing Eagle (Holy Roman Emperor) in the opener, the maiden over 1050 metres.

Pursuing Eagle was lining up for his fifth race start and quickly took command of the race out of the gates to lead and score well.

Race favorite Eclair Mirage (Ocean Park) from the K H Leong yard was the second of Henrique's winners when he overcame a bad getaway to come from the tail of the field in a fine piece of riding by the Brazilian, to score by a nose from Pearl Lucky (Red Giant), with Bring Me Power (Denman) back in third.

Henrique capped off his night with a win on the problem plagued Smart Win (Hard Spun) who bolted away with the Class 1 & 2 over 1350 metres.

Smart Win is an Australian import prepared by Ricky Choi who made it win number three in Macau, all at the 1350 metre trip on the sand. The former West Australian galloper, who raced there as Nightwatchman, has been in Macau for over two years, however has been sparingly raced due to tendon issues and breathing problems. Ricky Choi has done a fine job with the six year old to patch him up and get him back to the winners circle.

Eric Cheung and Wayne Smith

MJC

Pursuing Eagle

MJC

Henrique is now on 36 winners for the season and whilst the Jockeys' Premiership is a done deal with Luis Corrales racing away with his fifth title currently with a 15 win lead on 52 winners, Henrique is only one win behind Roger Yu who is in second spot.

First season trainer Wayne Smith picked up a winning double over the weekend with both Pursuing Eagle and his very promising four-year-old Chi Chai Sin Sang (Per Incanto) who both scored impressive wins.

Chi Chai Sin Sang made it two wins on the trot when he raced away with the Class 3 & 4 over 1500 metres under five pound claimer Eric Cheung, to give the apprentice a double for the weekend.

Chi Chai Sin Sang is a son of Per Incanto (Street Cry) and is an ex Aquis Farm galloper that placed second in trials at the Gold Coast and Newcastle prior to being sold onto Macau.

The gelding took a while to come to hand but has now won three races from his past six starts and handled the rise in class and distance on Sunday admirably.

The wins by both Chi Chai Sin Sang and Pursuing Eagle were some consolation for the short head defeat in last Sunday's Macay Derby (Listed, 1800m) by the stables best horse Star Of Yiu Cheung (Casino), who was caught in the last stride by Sacred Magnate (Foxwedge).

With only 122 runners for the season, Smith has now prepared ten winners in his first year, not bad when you consider he has made the quinella spot on 13 occasions and some of those efforts very close calls and often without luck. Currently Smith has 16 horses in his barn and like all Macau trainers he is anxiously waiting for the Covid-19 travel bans to be lifted to top up his stable.

Patrick Lee combined with jockey Peter Ho to land a winning double on Sunday's race card with Partners Fortune and Ronson.

Partners' Fortune (Better Than Ready) made it three wins straight when he powered home over his rivals in the first of the day the 2 & 3 Year Old Handicap over 1200 metres.

A son of Better Than Ready (More Than Ready), Partners Fortune has looked very impressive in all three wins unleashing a brilliant last two hundred metre finish and is destined for better things.

His time for the 1200 metres on Sunday was a slick 1.08.7 much faster than the Class 2 & 3 taken out by Gem Glory (I Am Invincible) in 1.09.4

Lee and Ho combined later in the day with Ronson (Eurozone) who came from last on the corner to snatch victory away from Heat Of The Battle (Fighting Sun) in the Class 4 & 5 over 1200 metres.

Ronson is a son of Eurozone (Northern Meteor) and had been disappointing in his first seven runs in Macau before turning the corner at his latest run over 1500 metres, where he ran on well for fifth, only beaten one length. Sunday's win suggests there is more to come for the three year old now that he has found form.

THE LATEST NEWS FROM THE STALLION WORLD INCLUDING NEW STAKES WINNERS AND LEADING SIRE TABLES

New winners

Criterion - Former Newgate resident Criterion (Sebring) sired his second first-crop winner on Wednesday as the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Yardstick (2 c ex Exceleine by Exceed and Excel) took out the Sky Racing Active Maiden 2YO Plate (1100m) on debut at Canterbury. Further down the page is pensioned stallion Domesday (Red Ransom). Criterion spent three seasons at stud but was retired at the end of 2018 due to fertility issues.

Double for Headwater - Vinery resident Headwater (Exceed And Excel) landed his 12th first-crop winner when Hydro Star (2 c ex Final Star by Delago Brom) took out the Ladbrokes Back Yourself 2YO Handicap (1000m) at Sandown on Wednesday. He then added his 13th victor when Yulong Holiday (2 c ex Ella Zabella by Zabeel) won at Echuca on Sunday. Headwater, who is also responsible for Ken Russell Memorial Classic (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Wisdom Of Water, stands at Vinery for a fee of $13,750 (inc. GST) in 2020.

Kermadec - Darley stallion Kermadec (Teofilo) produced his third individual winner on Tuesday when Dewhurst (2 c ex Majestic Faith by Denman) scored on debut in a 1200-metre maiden on Pakenham's synthetic track. Kermadec will stand for $13,750 (inc GST) at Darley's Kelvinside property in 2020.

Double for Vancouver - Coolmore resident Vancouver (Medaglia d'Oro) landed his 11th first-crop winner, and ninth in Australia, when Requited (2 g ex Secret Silence by Fusaichi Pegasus) took out a 1400-metre open maiden at Goulburn on Monday. He then sired his 12th first-crop winner, and tenth in Australia, when Royal Exit (2 g ex Kamarla Rose by Nadeem) took out an 1100-metre two-year-old maiden on debut at Warrnambool on Thursday. Former reverse shuttler Vancouver is also responsible for South African Grade 2 winner Mount Pleasant and Percy Sykes Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) runner-up Vangelic. He stands at Coolmore's Jerrys Plains for a fee of $30,250 (inc GST) this season.

New Group / Grade 1 winners

Duke Of Marmalade - Temple Graf (4 m ex Inner Temple by Greys Inn) sprung a surprise and became the sixth Group 1 winner for her sire Duke Of Marmalade (Danehill) when taking out the Garden Province Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Greyville on Saturday. Former Coolmore stallion Duke Of Marmalade stands at Drakenstein Stud in South Africa for a fee of R25,000.

Dynasty - The late Dynasty (Fort Wood) sired another winner of the Durban July (Gr 1, 2200m) and victory by the favourite Belgarian (4 g ex Riva by Acatenango) in Saturday's Greyville feature provided him with his 16th individual victor at the highest level. Multiple Group 1 winner Dynasty died last year at Ridgmont Highlands, where he had stood Gregorian started his career at the National Stud in England however relocated back to his breeders' Rathasker Stud in 2019 and his fee for this year was €6,000.

Gutaifan - Yeomanstown Stud resident Gutaifan (Dark Angel) sired his second stakes when Fev Rover (2 f ex Laureleta by High Chaparral) took out the Star Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Sandown on Tuesday. Gutaifan, who finished second to Arrowfield shuttler Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) in the Prix Morny (Gr 1, 1200m), stood at Yeomanstown Stud for a fee of €6,000 in 2020.

I Am Invincible - Yarraman Park Stud resident I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) sired his 56th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Parlophone (2 f ex Roulettes by Flying Spur) took out the Lightning Stakes (Listed, 1050m) at Morphettville. The son of Invincible Spirit (Green Desert) stands at Yarraman for a fee of $209,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

Muhaarar - Shadwell Stud's Muhaarar (Oasis Dream) sired his first ever stakes winner when Paix (3 f ex Pacifique by Montjeu) proved too strong for her rivals in the Prix Frederic de Lagrange (Listed, 2400m) at Vichy on Friday. Four-time Group 1 winning sprinter Muhaarar, whose first crop included the Group-placed pair Unforgettable and Albaflora, stood at Shadwell's Nunnery Stud for a fee of £20,000 in 2020.

Nathaniel - A surprise victory for Lady Bowthorpe (4 f ex Maglietta Fina by Verglas) in on Sunday Valiant Fillies' Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) capped a memorable weekend for Nathaniel (Galileo) at Ascot. A day after Enable's historic third win in the King George and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f), the four-year-old registered a milestone success, with the four and three-quarter length win providing the Newsells Park Stud resident with his 20th individual stakes winner. Nathaniel stood for a fee of £25,000 in 2020.

Sea The Moon - Lanwades Stud resident Sea The Moon (Sea The Stars) sired his tenth individual stakes winner when Tickle Me Green (3 f ex Tickle Me Pink by Groom Dancer) flew over the top to claim victory in a blanket finish to the Prix Madame Jean Couturie (Listed, 2000m) at Vichy in France on Monday. Sea The Moon stood at Lanwades Stud in Newmarket for a fee of £15,000 in 2020.

I Am Invincible

YARRAMAN PARK STUD

Sea The Stars - Gilltown Stud resident Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) sired his 67th individual stakes winner when Valia (3 f ex Veda by Dansili) got the better of her more experienced rivals to take out on Thursday Prix de Thiberville at Longchamp (Listed, 2400m). Sea The Stars stood for a fee of €150,000 in 2020.

Shakespearean - Graffard and jockey Pierre-Charles Boudot went on to complete a Listed race double on the Vichy card when success for Les Vertus (4 f ex Loshad by Lomitas) in the Prix Jacques de Bremond (Listed, 1600m) provided Shakespearean (Shamardal) with his first stakes winner. Hungerford Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) winner Shakespearean formerly stood at Haras de la Barbottiere in France.

Speightstown - Speightstown (Gone West) sired his 112th individual stakes winner when Shirl's Speight (3 c ex Perfect Shirl by Perfect Soul) took his unbeaten record to two with victory in the Marine Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Woodbine on Saturday. Multiple Grade 1-winning sire Speightstown stands at WinStar Farm for US$70,000.

Speightstown

Wootton Bassett - Group 1 winner Wootton Bassett (Ifraaj) sired his 13th individual stakes winner when Chindit (2 c Always A Dream by Oasis Dream) followed up his eye-catching Doncaster debut win with an equalling promising performance to land the Pat Eddery Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Ascot on Saturday. Wootton Bassett stood at Haras d'Etreham in France alongside his Group 1-winning son Almanzor for a fee of €40,000 in 2020.

VERDICT An exciting clash between the top stayer and a rising star who gets a hefty 3yo allowance. STRADIVARIUS is taken to win this race for the fourth year in a row but Classic-winning Santiago, who has plenty more improvement in him, is massively feared. Nayef Road may prove best of the rest.
