Sister to Pierro cracks the million dollar mark in landmark moment for Godolphin

Harron latches onto rare opportunity to access female family of exciting Coolmore sire

Lot 384 Right Chord

MAGIC MILLIONS

BY TIM ROWE ON THE GOLD COAST | @ANZ_NEWS

James Harron yesterday seized the rare opportunity to access the family of elite stallion Pierro (Lonhro), a champion racehorse who helped establish the bloodstock agent's career, by surpassing the million dollar mark in order to secure the Coolmore banner sire's sister at the Gold Coast yesterday.

The top-priced offering on day two of the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale at $1.05 million was the fifth seven-figure lot of the southern hemisphere's pre-eminent breeding stock auction with the possibility of further additions today.

Right Chord (Lonhro) added her name to an already star-studded list of million-

Harron, who helped orchestrate the deal which saw the Greg and Donna Kolivos-raced Pierro end up at Coolmore, believes the unraced Right Chord was an opportunity that could not be passed up and was willing to dig deep on behalf of his client. Continued on page 2>>

"She's a very exciting mare and she's obviously quite a rare commodity and Piero is doing an incredible job at stud," Harron said.

"I've been lucky to be quite closely associated with Piero through the Kolivos family, so I was really excited to see this mare. She's such a beautiful type and I think she's in foal to the perfect mating in Exceed And Excel."

Offered by Godolphin as Lot 384, Right Chord is not only a sister to Piero but also a half-sister to the three-time Group 1-placed Wakeful Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) winner Ambience (Street Cry) and two other winners.

She is also the most expensive horse Godolphin has sold at public auction in Australia.

SHE'S A VERY EXCITING MARE AND SHE'S OBVIOUSLY QUITE A RARE COMMODITY AND PIERRO IS DOING AN INCREDIBLE JOB AT STUD

- JAMES HARRON

"It's a premium family, as evidenced, and we do have a lot of sisters and half-sisters to Piero, but having said that, our view was to expose a branch of the family to the market," Godolphin Australia managing director Vin Cox told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"They become partners with us in the pedigree, their IP is valuable to us and they are obviously going to invest very heavily in the mare and, together, we might be able to keep building the pedigree. That was part of our thinking for selling."

Harron said a mating for the 2020 breeding season would be determined once the Magic Millions sale was completed. Continued on page 4>

"The page is outstanding and there's a lot of fillies in the Godolphin system being bred to the best stallions in the country and they are being trained by one of the best trainers in the country (James Cummings), so we can look forward to lots of updates," the respected agent said.

"With Piero, he is just kicking so many goals for a young stallion, so she was a must-have and once we saw her, we fell in love with her."

Harron said the first two days of selling had been "robust" while Cox, the former managing director of Magic Millions, believes the global nature of the thoroughbred industry had again been to the fore.

Cox said: "People can pick up a pedigree, whether they're in Kentucky or Newmarket in England or Ireland or here in Australia. You recognise the pedigrees, you know the sires, so it is an international product."

"The fact that we can all compete and participate in each other's markets is a wonderful thing."

"We're very fortunate here in Australia that we have a very strong racing industry, a very strong breeding industry and also a very young industry."

"Our participants are young, as evidenced by James Harron, one of the younger guys in our industry. He has a magnificent business and congratulations to him on his success and we wish him well with the purchase of Right Chord."

James Mitchell of Mitchell Bloodstock handled the bidding process on the new partnership's behalf, going to $600,000 to secure the rising six-year-old mare who was owned during her on-track career by Kiwi syndicator Go Racing and trained by Stephen Marsh.

"It was a partnership and the partner wanted to sell out, so the way it's fallen is that Yarraman will stay in with Gerry Harvey as the other partner," Arthur Mitchell said.

"She's a nice young mare with good form and a nice pedigree, so if she has a nice I Am Invincible or two, she'll be fine. She's a lovely mare.

"I think she's perfect and Pins is also shaping up as a very good broodmare sire, so I think it will be a fine (mating)."

- ARTHUR MITCHELL

Catalogued as Lot 304, Mark Two is a Group 2-placed sister to the Group 3 winner Whistling Dixie and a half-sister to Victory Magic (Savabeel), who was runner-up in the Hong Kong Derby (Gr 1, 2000m).

She was purchased privately off the track in New Zealand before being sent to the Hunter Valley and covered by I Am Invincible in her maiden season at stud.

The same Yarraman-Harvey partnership combined at last year's sale to buy Set To Unleash (Reset), the dam of Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner Houtzen (I Am Invincible), for $900,000.

Set To Unleash had a sister to the former Toby Edmonds-trained Houtzen last September.

Arthur Mitchell believed the price tag realised for Mark Two yesterday was "about the money".

"I think the nicer ones are selling well and the lesser ones probably aren't but there aren't that many top-quality mares here," he said.

A List's Lee takes shine to Pecans

Gold Coast-based Chris Lee's bid to upgrade the quality of his growing broodmare band received a big boost yesterday with the acquisition of the dual Group-winning mare Pecans (Skilled) for $560,000.

Sold in foal to Pierro (Lonhro), the rising six-year-old has a date with I Am Invincible this year as Lee ups his Australian breeding interests to enable him to become a major player at the country's select sales.

Pecans, who was consigned by Yarraman Park Stud as Lot 357, was purchased for $405,000 by Australian Bloodstock and the Brave Smash partnership at last year's Inglis Chairman's Sale before being covered in her maiden season by Pierro.

<< Continued from page 6 Continuing the trading windfall that Pecans has been since being offloaded by Godolphin in 2017, the daughter of Skilled (Commands) was bought for $50,000 by Tricolours Syndications at the Inglis August Thoroughbred Sale and transferred to Sydney trainer Joe Pride.

A half-sister to the Listed-winning juvenile Seccession (Lonhro) and the Group 2-placed two-year-old Purdey (Lonhro), Pecans went on to take out the Belle Of The Turf Handicap (Gr 3, 1600m) and the Hawkesbury Crown (Gr 3, 1300m) before being resold.

"Pecans will really help and strengthen the A List broodmare band and keep increasing the mare quality, which is why I purchased this mare," Lee said.

"I also have a good association with Darley, which is why this mare appealed to me. I think the price represents value, considering she is in foal to a stallion like Pierro and I am really happy."

Yulong, meanwhile, showed no signs of slowing down on day two, purchasing the first lot through the ring for $400,000 after securing $2.75 million mare Unforgotten (Fastnet Rock) on Monday.

A noted acquirer of Zabeel (Sir Tristram) mares, Yulong principal Yuesheng Zhang bought a mare by the late champion Cambridge Stud sire, the five-time winner Glitzabeel and dam of Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) victor Princess Jenni (High Chaparral). Catalogued as Lot 223, she was sold in foal to Pierro by Bhima Thoroughbreds.

Later, Mr Zhang, bidding online, went to $575,000 for the Group 2-placed mare Storytime (Savabeel), who is in foal to I Am Invincible.

She was sold by Yarraman Park as Lot 455 inside the final half an hour of the session.

Glitzabeel and Storytime will be covered by either Grunt (O'Reilly) or Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice), the two Yulong resident stallions this year.

Lot 342 Notre Dame

Breeding: Exceed and Excel - Divine Madonna by Hurricane Sky

Covering sire: Street Boss

Price: $320,000

Buyer: Musk Creek Farm/Boomer Bloodstock

Vendor: Godolphin

Musk Creek Farm and Boomer Bloodstock went to $320,000 yesterday to secure the unraced Notre Dame (Exceed And Excel), who was the only mare offered at the sale in foal to in form Darley sire Street Boss (Street Cry). "We thought she would go for about $300,000, maybe a bit more and I'm stuck in Victoria, but from all reports she's a very good mare," Musk Creek Farm manager Scott Williamson said. "We're quite a big fan of Street Boss and obviously with the likes of Hanseatic still to come out as a three-year-old it's exciting times. He's a very good, consistent stallion so we're happy, for sure. It's still pretty fresh so we'll sit down in the coming days and hash out a mating. We've got a little bit of time as she's about four weeks away from foaling, but we'll be looking at some of the nice stallions in the Hunter Valley."

Sunlight's sibling to visit Zoustar

Coolmore took home Sunlight for the massive sum on Monday and it was left to James Bester to handle the purchase of her older half-sister Solar Girl (Lonhro), who was signed for by the South African agent on behalf of Sheikh Bin Khalifa and his advisor Tim Stakemire.

Offered in foal to first season sire The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) by Arrowfield Stud, the raced Solar Girl made $500,000 late in the session.

Bester confirmed that Solar Girl, understandably, would be covered by Widden Stud's champion first season sire Zoustar (Northern Meteor) this year.

He had inspected the mare, who was sold in absentia, in the Hunter Valley and was happy to endorse her prospects when his opinion was sought by Stakemire.

"At that kind of price we think she is very well bought. There was always the possibility that she could have cost more than that, but obviously Sunlight with all her Group 1 wins was a different kettle of fish," the experienced Bester said.

"But she is an attractive mare and we were banking on the fact that she wasn't on the complex.

"The Autumn Sun (mating) was an attractive prospect, for sure. He is likely to be a highly sought after first-season sire when this foal comes to be sold - so my word that played a part."

Solar Girl has a rising two-year-old by Scissor Kick (Redoute's Choice), who made $55,000 at the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale earlier this year.

Bester did not stop with Solar Girl, having earlier landed Santa Clara (Foxwedge), the half-sister to New Zealand juvenile Group 1 winner Anabandana (Anabaa) and AJC Gimcrack Stakes (Listed, 1000m) winner Gybe (Fastnet Rock).

- JAMES BESTER

Bester went to $190,000 to purchase the Willow Park Stud-consigned mare, who is in foal to “my favourite stallion Justify”. Santa Clara was catalogued as Lot 400.

“Again, I had inspected her on the farm and actually noticed she had a first foal by Sebring that was outstanding. That is the benefit of doing the pre-sale on farm inspections and those were the two I bought today,” Bester said.

After a strong day one race fillies and mares session, many vendors had to work harder to sell their in-foal stock yesterday outside those with horses deemed to be of high quality.

“It has been patchy and very difficult to buy top-of-the-market-type horses and I would imagine there are vendors out there who have found it hard going,” Bester said.

“So many of us buy on spec, so horses that may not appeal to us on catalogue, when you are at a sale the horses are on the complex and word gets around and you can dart over and have a look at it and that helps a lot.

“This is one of the disadvantages (of the Covid-19 pandemic) at the moment, but we need to be grateful and I think, given the circumstances, it is holding up really well.”

Bowditch content with outcome of day two

Despite the sentiment and requirement for quality, those who have met the market and been willing to trade have led to, all things considered, reasonable and perhaps surprisingly positive figures, which has also been borne out in recent Inglis and online breeding stock sales.

Last night, the average was sitting at $149,144, up 1.49 per cent on 2019, while the median was at $60,000, a decrease of $10,000 on the same session last year. The clearance rate was at 72 per cent.

“It is hard to have clear expectations in the current times, but I thought vendors on the whole did their best to meet the market,” Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch said.

“There are a lot of opportunities for buyers. A lot of these horses have got good covers and they are young mares and I expect anyone keeping their lists long at this sale will have a (good chance of achieving a) fruitful outcome in years to come.”

The number of mares sold in absentia, as alluded to by Bester and others, added to the uncertainty of the marketplace but Bowditch was still satisfied with how many lots found new homes.

"All in all, when you look at the figures and what the good mares made today, I would have thought the vendors of those in absentia mares would be pleased with the outcomes.

"The average is healthy and there are plenty of buyers here that have got money to spend here on the right product and a lot of it is still in their pockets, which bodes well for (today),

Montefilia on path to Oaks

David Payne has nominated Montefilia (Kermadec) for the opening day of the season in the hope that she can bolster her rating before she heads on a campaign aimed at the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) in November. Montefilia, a maiden winner at Newcastle in March before finishing fourth behind Holyfield (I Am Invincible) in the Schweppervescence Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m), returned with a closing third in a 1400-metre handicap on Randwick's Kensington track on July 18. "If you look at the way the track was playing, I think she was one of the best runs of the day," Payne said. "She can only improve on that run. She's very smart. I've got quite a high opinion of her. Her long-term aim is the Oaks. I just want to get her qualified and then I'll give her a couple of weeks in the paddock and then program for that race, all going well."

Brandenburg trials ahead of Winx assignment

Brandenburg

SPORTPIX

While most horses assigned to Group and Listed trials at Randwick yesterday will wait for the rescheduled set on the Kensington track on Friday, the John Sargent-trained Brandenburg (Burgundy) instead took to the Polytrack for a trial yesterday, finishing fourth over 1080 metres. Sargent said that a hit-out yesterday fit better into his program, with another trial scheduled for two weeks as the trainer attempts to follow a similar path into the Winx Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) that resulted in Brandenburg's first-up win in the Hobartville Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) last preparation. "He just had a nice quiet trial like he did last time," Sargent said. "He was very fresh early in the trial and Hugh just sat on him up the straight and was happy with him. He pulled up with a big blow so he's on track for where we're going."

Adkins to return next year

Andrew Adkins is facing more than six months on the sidelines after his nasty fall at Rosehill on Saturday. Adkins is in a high dependency ward at Westmead Hospital, having had a rod put in his tibia, a plate placed in his clavicle and a tube inserted into his lung, which was set to be removed yesterday; he also suffered eight broken ribs. "He is on the road to recovery, which is really good news," Racing NSW's Dr David Duckworth told RSN927. "His spirits are reasonable considering what he has been through. He knows it's a long road back to recovery, which he will do because he's a pretty determined guy. It will be a good six months until he is back on a horse again, but he will get over (his injuries) in the long term and he will be able to ride again."

Glenn confirmed as new Dashing Willoughby owner

Prominent New Zealand owner Sir Owen Glenn has taken a majority share in English stayer Dashing Willoughby (Nathaniel) under his Go Bloodstock banner. The acquisition of Dashing Willoughby was reported earlier this week, but

Glenn - who has raced horses like Criterion (Sebring), Monaco Consul (High Chaparral) and Comin' Through (Fastnet Rock) in his yellow silks - yesterday confirmed he was the buyer. "Sir Owen is as determined as ever for Go Bloodstock to target the top races in Australia," Go Bloodstock's Steve O'Connor said. "Having placed in the Melbourne Cup previously with both Criterion and Second Coming, Sir Owen was the driving force behind selecting Dashing Willoughby as a Cup contender this year and a horse to represent Go Bloodstock at the top level for many years to come. We are very excited by Dashing Willoughby and would like to thank all agents, vets and anyone who played a role in securing the horse, with a special mention to long-time friend Paul Moroney who assisted in sourcing and securing the horse on our behalf with Armando Duarte Bloodstock."

Magnier hopes Ballydoyle raiders a spring factor

Coolmore Australia principal Tom Magnier hopes that their Irish racing arm Ballydoyle will be represented during the spring carnival, with the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) a top priority. "We'll work with whatever we're told we can do," Magnier told RSN927. "We have a very good team at Ballydoyle and Coolmore would love to bring all the staff out. Logistically we're not sure what's going on at the moment. If we can get the people, the horses and the jockeys out here we will, but it's a bit of an unknown at this stage. We've never won a Melbourne Cup and we're keen to get one of those obviously. We'll talk to Aidan and try to get the best team possible to come down here and all being well we would like to bring down a big team this year. If we get the green light to go, we'll be big supporters of the spring carnival."

Age no barrier for Chop

Three-time Group 1 winner Gailo Chop (Deportivo) is set to return once more this spring, with trainer Matthew Williams confident that he can still perform as a ten-year-old. Gailo Chop ran second in the Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) in Perth but struggled in Sydney during the autumn, with Williams putting it down to struggling on heavy tracks as he's become more battle-weary. "Down at the beach he's like riding a three-year-old. You certainly have to keep your guard up, he's still very active and (if) someone comes running down a set of stairs or something he will be the first one on to it," Williams told Racing.com. "He will head to the Makybe (Diva) Stakes, kick off there, and that will be a conditioning run for him. It will be too short at the mile and then he can head to the Underwood and the Caulfield Stakes, he ran terrific in both races last year."

Whiteley suspended for two months

Leading north Queensland rider Chris Whiteley has been suspended for two months after his beaten ride aboard a favourite at Cairns last month. Silent Explorer (Lope De Vega) was sent out as the $1.30 favourite in a seven-runner open handicap on June 25, but after jumping first from the gates, he was restrained to near the rear by Whiteley. He flew home but finished second, a half-length behind leader Tambo's Heart (Show A Heart). Whiteley was found guilty of failing to take all reasonable and permissible measures to ensure Silent Explorer was given every opportunity to win or to obtain the best possible place in the field and was suspended from August 4 to October 4.

Albury trainer banned for Covid breach

Trainer Laura McCullum has been disqualified for four months after providing misleading information about a potential Covid-19 breach. McCullum was interviewed by Southern District chief steward Jason Shultz on June 22 about whether the Albury trainer had crossed into Victoria to attend trackwork at Wodonga racecourse. It was determined that she had provided evidence she knew to be false. McCullum pled guilty and, with her personal circumstances taken into account, she was suspended from July 24 until November 24.

Booker injured in training incident

Trainer John Booker was in a stable condition but in intensive care yesterday after sustaining a kick to the head while working horses at his property in Kempsey. Booker, who trains a small string, was taken to Newcastle's John Hunter Hospital yesterday morning.

NEW ZEALAND

Spring Carnival up in the air for New Zealand trainers

Multiple Group 1 winner The Bostonian (Jimmy Choux) is set to head to Sydney next month, but whether he will race under trainer Tony Pike's name is still up in the air. The Cambridge trainer, who also heads the New Zealand Trainers' Association, has been in discussions with an Australian immigration expert, however, there is still no clarity as to whether any of his staff members can gain an exemption to enter Australia. "At this stage there are no problems in getting the horses across, but with what has been happening in Victoria of late the Government has probably got a little bit edgy and things aren't moving quite as quick as we were hoping," Pike told RSN927. "We are getting closer to the spring carnival and if or when we can get over is the million dollar question at this point in time."

History made at Goodwood

Stradivarius (6h Sea The Stars - Private Life by Bering) became the first horse to win the Goodwood Cup (Gr 1, 2m) four times on Tuesday when overcoming trouble in running and seeing off Nayef Road (Galileo) into second and Santiago (Authorized) in third. The six-year-old entire is bred and raced by Bjorn Nielsen, who nominated the Prix Foy (Gr 2, 1m4f) and then the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 1m4f) as likely targets for his star stayer this season. Stradivarius is one of 13 elite winners by Giltown Stud stallion Sea The Stars (Cape Cross), who commanded a career-high fee of €150,000 this year.

Battleground flies home in Vintage

Battleground (2c War Front - Found by Galileo), the first foal out of Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 1m4f) heroine Found, marked himself out as one of the best juveniles this season when landing the Vintage Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) at Goodwood on Tuesday, leading home Devious Company (Fast Company) in second and Youth Spirit (Camelot) in third. The Coolmore homebred was following up on his win the Chesham Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Royal Ascot last month. He is the second son of War Front (Danzig) to win the Vintage Stakes after War Decree in 2016, with the latter now standing at Inglewood Stud in New Zealand at a NZ$4,500 fee (plus GST).

Space Blues leaves rivals behind in Lennox

Space Blues (4c Dubawi - Miss Lucifer by Noverre) recorded his fourth stakes win and sixth overall in the Lennox Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) at Goodwood on Tuesday, with Duke Of Hazzard (Lope De Vega) in second and Escobar (Famous Name) in third. The four-year-old Godolphin homebred shares his great-granddam, High Spirited (Shirley Height), with the 2012 Lennox Stakes winner Chachamaidee (Footstepsinthesand), and is out of the Challenge Stakes scorer Miss Lucifer, also the dam of Group 2-winning miler Shuruq (Elusive Quality). Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) - the sire of 42 elite winners worldwide - has commanded a £250,000 fee at Darley's Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket for the past four seasons.

Karaka sales dates set to be confirmed

BY GEORGIE DENNIS

New Zealand Bloodstock managing director Andrew Seabrook yesterday confirmed that the date for the 2021 National Yearling Sales at Karaka will be announced on August 31.

In a statement released yesterday, the auction house said that if there are no updates as to whether Australian borders will reopen in time for the regular January timeslot, then the sale would be rescheduled for April.

"On behalf of New Zealand Bloodstock, I would like to give you a further update on the 2021 National Yearling Sales at Karaka," Seabrook said in the statement sent out by the NZ Thoroughbred Breeders Association (NZTBA). "We believe that a trans-Tasman bubble is very important to the success of the Sale, and given the current outbreaks of COVID-19 in Victoria, a January Sale is looking more and more unlikely.

"After consulting a number of major breeders over the past few weeks and to give everyone some clarity going forward, we will be deciding the date of the Sale on August 31.

"If by August 31, there is no likelihood of our borders opening with Australia in January, we will move the National Yearling Sales to the week beginning Monday, April 19. Our NZB representatives continue to canvas trainers, owners and agents across Australia, all of whom have been enthusiastic about attending our Sale should it be in April."

Seabrook called for the support of the industry and added that if the sale is rescheduled to April, NZB will hold an online yearling sale at the end of January.

"If we move our sales to April, I can assure you that we will be doing our absolute best to achieve great results," he said. "But we need your support. We need as strong a catalogue as we possibly can to get the best buying bench to Karaka, physically and virtually.

"Our ability to assemble a strong buying bench will be affected if we lose top end yearlings to overseas sales companies. This in turn will have a negative impact on your other horses being sold at Karaka.

"So when deciding on where to sell your yearlings, think about the aggregate of your draft, not the average."

New Zealand Bloodstock will also waive all offering fees at the 2021 yearling sales in order to support breeders and vendors.

"These are uncertain times for everyone I know, so as a gesture of goodwill to all our clients, New Zealand Bloodstock is going to waive all offering fees at the 2021 Yearling Sales," Seabrook said.

"We are confident that we will make a well-considered decision around the date of our National Yearling Sale, that along with our improvements in technology and online bidding services will achieve the best possible results for you and your yearlings."

BETTING FORECAST: 2 Siskin, 11-4 Mohaather, 4 Kameko, 13-2 Circus Maximus, Wichita, 14 Vatican City, 25 San Donato.

VERDICT This year's Sussex Stakes is a crackerjack that has attracted two Classic-winning 3yos and at least two very talented 4yos. MOHAATHER, who was mightily impressive in the Summer Mile and has plenty more left in the tank, is taken to burst Siskin's bubble and also fend off 2,000 Guineas winner Kameko. Whatever the result, it should be a tremendous race to watch. [Steve Boow]
