Elleegant Tancred win for Waller's star mare

*New Zealand-bred Verry Elleegant stamps herself as a spring
Cups contender with dominant victory at Rosehill*

LATEST NEWS FROM THE WEEKEND'S RACING

BY GEORGIE DENNIS | @ANZ_NEWS

The final Saturday of March at Rosehill seems to be a day on the calendar enjoyed by Verry Elleegant (Zed) and her connections as she returned to the same meeting of her maiden Group 1 victory 12 months ago to take out the Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) at Rosehill yesterday.

Winner of last year's Vinery Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), the Chris Waller-trained mare was on the back-up after a fighting second to Addeybb (Pivotal) in the Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) seven days earlier.

The quick turnaround proved to be no issue for the lightly-framed dual Group 1 winner as she circled the field around the home turn and hit the front with 300 metres to go, racing away to win by a dominant margin of four and a quarter lengths.

The Kris Lees-trained imported gelding Mustajeer (Medicean) was second with last year's Tancred winner Avilius (Pivotal) a nose back in third.

Early in her career, Verry Elleegant was known to overace but her new-found maturity as a four-year-old has seen her reach her full potential.

"It might look easy but it has been a big effort for the whole stable to get a horse like her to settle as well as she is doing. She is quite a highly-revved horse," Waller said.

"Full credit to James (McDonald, jockey). She is obviously a great horse. We haven't had her over this distance very often but each time we have she has just been dominant. It is a very special win.

"She is only four and racing against the older horses basically. She is just a genuine athlete at a staying trip."

Looking ahead, Waller said a tilt at the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) was well and truly on the cards for the mare and potentially even the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m). Continued on page 2>>

"The Caulfield Cup would be high on our radar and even a Melbourne Cup," he said.

"Let's hope we get weighted as well as some of the other horses from around the world and they keep giving the Australian horses a chance.

"She'll be there and she'll be one of them."

James McDonald has formed a strong partnership with Verry Elleegant and credited her adaptability for yesterday's win after his original tactics failed to come to fruition.

"She was a star today," he said.

"Obviously I thought I would probably be outside the lead but she felt better coming from off the speed to be honest.

"But that's how adaptable she is and how she has grown as a mare. Hopefully we are only going to reap the rewards now and what she has already done is just a bonus.

"What I felt today was just extraordinary."

As for whether Verry Elleegant will press on for the rest of the autumn, Waller said she could head to the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), where she would face a rematch with Addeybb, but given the uncertainty around the future of the racing industry due to the coronavirus pandemic, that looks unlikely.

"If today's race wasn't among the circumstances we were in, I probably would have gone to the Queen Elizabeth," he said.

"I think everybody here has been so responsible, as have the stable staff that are doing a fantastic job.

"We're all worried about our safety and health as well as the rest of Australia, but we are showing we can put on a responsible show and keep everyone interested at home."

Blackall, QLD

Verry Elleegant (4 m Zed - Opulence by Danroad) has won eight races from 19 starts with five placings for prize-money of $2,749,718.

She is one of three winners out of Opulence, herself a winner of two races, including her six-time winning brother Verry Flash. Verry Elleegant's second dam is Mulan Magic (King's Theatre), who is a half-sister to the stakes-placed Monards (Danehill) and Starnui (Brave Lad), the dam of Cranbourne Cup (Listed, 2025m) winner Starmon (Monolith).

Zed (Zabeel) is the sire of 12 stakes winners including last year's Awapuni Gold Cup (Gr 2, 2000m) winner Jacksstar and New Zealand's Challenge Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Survived.

Another Group 1 for Waterhouse and Bott in Vinery

Shout The Bar

SPORTPIX

Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott continued their golden autumn as Shout The Bar (Not A Single Doubt) caused an upset to take out yesterday's Vinery Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Rosehill, marking jockey Adam Hyeronimus' maiden Group 1.

The build up to this year's running of the three-year-old fillies feature was all about the fifth edition of Funstar (Adelaide) versus Probabeel (Savabeel), but Shout The Bar had other ideas as she lead the trip and held off a late charge from star New Zealand filly Probabeel to win by a neck.

Nudge (Fastnet Rock) was third with Funstar coming home a nose back in fourth.

Bott was on course to represent Tulloch Lodge and was full of praise for Hyeronimus who has partnered Shout The Bar in all four of her race starts.

"He (Hyeronimus) puts in a lot of hard yards and he's done a fantastic job on this filly all the way through, particularly today," the co-trainer said.

"He kept his cool and got the right run while everyone was sorting out their positions behind him."

The New South Wales-based jockey narrowly missed out on landing his maiden elite-level victory last week when finishing second aboard Prince Fawaz (Fastnet Rock) in the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m).

"It's very rewarding, especially to ride it for Gai," Hyeronimus said.

"Growing up as a kid I used to watch the races on Saturday and Gai used to just dominate the two-year-old races.

"That's what I grew up with and to end up being her apprentice and finish my apprenticeship there, and to continue riding on for her and get my first Group 1 winner is just a huge thrill."

Hyeronimus also admitted he was never confident the pair were going to win during the run.

"Not once at any stage did I think, 'she's going to win'. She's probably not actually a leader, she probably led by default," he said.

"Through the middle stages I was quite worried I was going too slow and that's why I picked the tempo up at the half mile.

"I didn't want it to turn into a sit and sprint. I know she's tough and I know she can run a strong 2000. I said that all along, since her second trial I said, 'Adrian this is our Oaks horse' and she hasn't let us down yet."

Shout The Bar's Vinery win was the third Group 1 in as many weeks for the Waterhouse and Bott stable after Farnan's (Not A Single Doubt) victory in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and Con Te Partiro (Scat Daddy) taking out the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m).

"It has been fantastic," Bott said. "I am so happy for everyone involved, the team behind us and the owners that have given us so much support.

Purchased by Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott Racing for $200,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale out of the Newhaven Park draft, Shout The Bar (3 f Not A Single Doubt - Drinks All Round by O'Reilly) has now had four starts for three wins and a second, earning $378,825 in prize-money.

She is the first foal to race out of three-time winner Drinks All Round who herself is a three-quarter sister to multiple stakes runner-up Master Hunter (O'Reilly). Drinks All Round is out of Tattinger (Centaine), who is a half-sister to three-time Group 2 winner Satinka (Stravinsky) as well as She Wishes (Kenfair), dam of dual Group 1 winner Rangirangdoo (Pentire).

It was a timely victory for Segenhoe Stud who will offer Shout The Bar's sister at the upcoming Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. She is catalogued as Lot 416.

Drinks All Round also has a two-year-old unraced sister to Shout The Bar named She's A Survivor, who is to be trained by Craig Widdison in Wodonga. She was again covered by Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) last spring.

Shout The Bar becomes the 70th individual stakes winner and 13th individual Group 1 winner for Arrowfield Stud's recently pensioned sire Not A Single Doubt.

Quick Thinker set for Derby back up after Tulloch win

Quick Thinker

SPORTPIX

He might be on lockdown in New Zealand but that hasn't stopped Kiwi trainer Murray Baker, who now trains in partnership with Andrew Forsman, from his continued raid on Sydney's autumn three-year-old features.

Quick Thinker's (So You Think) victory in the Tulloch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Rosehill yesterday was the fifth time Baker has claimed the race and the colt looks set to back up in Saturday's Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m).

Star rider James McDonald had the son of So You Think (High Chaparral) settled fourth in the run and moved up to challenge the front runners around the turn.

The pair hit the front with 300 metres to go before eventually scoring by a length and a quarter ahead of the Team Hawkes-trained Zebrowski (Savabeel) with Diasonic (Reset) a further three-quarters of a length away in third.

Quick Thinker had only contested 2000 metres once before in his career, finishing fifth in last year's Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), and Baker admitted he had questioned whether the colt would handle the trip.

"He is out of an Al Maher mare so I thought the distance might get him, but that was a good tough effort," Baker said.

"I was worried about the distance, not so much the (soft) track.

"He was pretty strong there, which is encouraging. It is onto the Derby now.

"It is always nice to win and that is my fifth win in the race.

"I won it with Our Palliser (1987), The Bill (1993), Harris Tweed (2009) and Jon Snow (2017), so it has been a good race to me."

McDonald has already committed to the ride on Castelvechio (Dundeel) in next week's Derby but believes Quick Thinker has a strong chance in the race.

"He is a proven wet tracker. He is fit and he'll be a force to be reckoned with come the Derby," he said.

Now a three-time winner from ten starts with prize-money earnings of $292,413, Quick Thinker (3 c So You Think - Acouplamas by Al Maher) was purchased for $100,000 at the Australian Inglis Easter Yearling Sale by De Burgh Equine from the draft of Coolmore Stud. Continued on page 5>>

He is one of four winners out of Acouplamas, making him a half-brother to HDF McNeil Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) runner-up The August (I Am Invincible). His second dam, Mahira (Canny Lad), is a half-sister to Kensington Gardens (Grosvenor) who produced Group 1 winner and leading Western Australian sire Blackfriars (Danehill).

Acouplamas was covered by new Widden Stud resident Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) last spring.

Quick Thinker is one of eight stakes winners this season, and 24 overall, for Coolmore Stud's So You Think, who stood for a fee of $38,500 (inc GST) in 2019.

Holyfield lands Maher and Eustace another juvenile stakes win

Holyfield

SPORTPIX

Ciaran Maher and David Eustace continued their incredible season among the juvenile ranks at Rosehill yesterday when Holyfield (I Am Invincible) took out the Schweppervescence (Gr 3, 1400m).

Ridden by visiting English jockey Tom Marquand, the Aquis Farm and Phoenix Thoroughbreds-owned colt took a forward position in the run and kicked clear leading into the straight before being challenged by Untamed (Pierro) in the final stages of the race.

However, Marquand was too strong aboard Holyfield and the pair took out the race by three-quarters of a length ahead of Untamed, with Time Is Precious (Snitzel) a further three and a quarter lengths back in third.

"He put him in the race and left it out there and the horse was good and tough," Maher said. "He was there to be beaten but he was just too strong."

Marquand, who has enjoyed a stellar amount of success during his time in Sydney, said things worked out perfectly for Holyfield.

"As soon as the other horse joined him in the last 250 to 300 metres he battled the whole way to the line," Marquand said.

"There was never a moment's doubt."

The two-year-old colt will now be set towards the Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m), a race in which the stable finished second in last year with star filly Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible).

"He travelled back up to Sydney where he's spent most of his career and together with a good ride from Tom Marquand he is building a nice record," Maher said.

"If he can knock off a big one he is a very valuable colt."

Holyfield's win was the 20th juvenile scorer for Maher and Eustace so far this season.

An $800,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale purchase from the Segenhoe draft for Phoenix Thoroughbreds and Aquis, Holyfield (2 c I Am Invincible - Hurtle Myrtle by Dane Shadow) has had four starts for three wins, earning a total of $133,865 in prize-money.

So far, he is the best performed of three winners out of VRC Myer Classic (now Empire Rose Stakes) (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Hurtle Myrtle (Dane Shadow) and comes from the family of Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Star Watch (Bletchingley).

Hurtle Myrtle was bought by Segenhoe for $1 million at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale in 2012. She has a weanling filly by Not a Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) and was covered last spring by Deep Field (Northern Meteor).

Holyfield is the 55th individual stakes winner, and 11th this season, for Yarraman Park resident I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), who stood for a fee of $247,500 (inc GST) in 2019.

Third for Press Statement

Press Statement

VINERY STUD

Vinery Stud's first season sire Press Statement (Hinchinbrook) landed his third winner yesterday courtesy of Major Murphy's (2 c ex Night War by General Nediym) debut win at Wyong in the 2YO Maiden Plate (1200m). Trained by Ciaron Maher and David Eustace, the two-year-old colt defeated Princess Betty (Smart Missile) by three-quarters of a length with O'Tartan Lass (Press Statement) a further half a length back in third. Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Press Statement stood at Vinery Stud for a fee of $16,500 (inc GST) in 2019.

13 for Not A Single Doubt

One week on from siring Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) hero Farnan, former Arrowfield Stud stallion Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) produced his 13th individual Group 1 winner yesterday when Shout The Bar (3 f ex Drinks All Round by O'Reilly) landed the Vinery Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Rosehill. Six of Not A Single Doubt's elite-level winning progeny have been fillies or mares, including last season's Group 1 winners Kenedna and Qafila, while he produced the 2016 Vinery Stud Stakes winner Single Gaze. Not A Single Doubt was retired from stud duties on veterinary advice in January and he is set to be represented by 18 lots at the upcoming Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale.

55 for I Am Invincible

The Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained Holyfield (2 c ex Hurtle Myrtle by Dane Shadow) took his record to three wins from four starts when delivering a knockout blow under Tom Marquand in yesterday's The Schwepperversence (Gr 3, 1400m) earlier on the Rosehill programme. In doing so, the upwardly-mobile juvenile became the 55th individual stakes winner for Yarraman Park Stud's flagbearer I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), whose stellar recent run included a second Group 1 success for Holyfield's stable companion Loving Gaby in last week's William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Moonee Valley. After current withdrawals, I Am Invincible has 45 lots catalogued for Inglis Easter.

45 for Stratum

Late Widden Stud resident Stratum (Redoute's Choice), who died aged 14 following a heart attack in 2016, sired his 45th individual stakes winner yesterday as Positive Peace (4 m ex Warpath by Reset) took out the Emancipation Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) at Rosehill. Trained by Bjorn Baker, the progressive mare was extending her winning streak to five on her first outing in Group company, pulling a length and a quarter clear of Noire (Foxwedge), with a further half-length back to Amangiri (All Too Hard) in third. Stratum served his last book in 2016, covering 22 mares at a fee of $22,000, and his roll of honour includes Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) heroine Streama and crack sprinter Takedown.

Group 1 next for Emancipation winner

A tilt at the Coolmore Legacy Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick on April 11 beckons for Positive Peace following her heroics at Rosehill yesterday. "I think we have to look at it for sure," Baker said in relation to the Group 1 assignment. "We will see how she comes through and go from there." Positive Peace was partnered by Tim Clark yesterday and she settled just off the pace-setting Amangiri before moving up ominously to lead rounding the home turn. "She's just in great form," Clark said. "Well done to Bjorn and his team, they've just got her absolutely flying. I couldn't hold her slow enough mid-race, she was absolutely jogging. I knew she was rock-hard fit, whereas the leader was first-up and Sweet Deal had had that break between runs, so from the 600 metres I wanted to make sure it was a good gallop and make them catch her if they could. She was just so strong and she's just in unbelievable form."

67 for Lope De Vega

Ballylinch Stud's Lope De Vega (Shamardal) enjoyed more success in the southern hemisphere yesterday when Vegadaze (4 g ex Rainy Daze by Commands) landed the Star Kingdom Handicap (Gr 3, 1200m) at Rosehill to become the stallion's 67th individual stakes winner worldwide. Famed as the producer of star sprinter Santa Ana Lane and last month's Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) winner Gytrash, Lope De Vega unearthed another high-quality performer when the Anthony Cummings-trained Vegadaze fended off a duo of representatives from James Cummings' operation. Manicure (Exceed And Excel) ran second, beaten a neck, with a further half-length back to Kementari (Lonhro) in third.

Vegadaze leads home family affair in Star Kingdom

Vegadaze's victory was a significant one for Tom Marquand, who rode a Group-race double on the card, as well as the Cummings family, with father Anthony leading home a trifecta from son James. "It was just nice to see a good horse doing really well and nicer to beat two nice horses in the ones that James prepared," Anthony said. "And things are what they should be." In addition, Kementari's third-place performance was his first outing since being withdrawn from stud duties due to fertility issues. "He's got great determination," James said. "We thought he's handled wet tracks before and last time the heavy track and the 1500 (metres) was just beyond him unfortunately. Back within his comfort zone in terms of distance and on a testing track, finding out the first starters was just a perfect recipe."

52 for New Approach

James Cummings gained compensation later on the Rosehill programme when Cascadian (4 g ex Falls of Lora by Street Cry) secured the Doncaster Prelude (Gr 3, 1500m) and in the process provided Darley stallion New Approach (Galileo) with his 52nd individual stakes winner. Mask Of Time (Holy Roman Emperor) ran second, beaten a neck, with Gaulois (Street Cry) another length and a quarter adrift in third. Cascadian, a French import who was beaten a neck in Group 1 company when trained by Andre Fabre, has now won five of his 15 outings having also been placed in elite company in Australia, running third in the Cantala Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) last November.

Cascadian secures Doncaster spot

Cascadian's victory completed a 296/1 four-timer for James McDonald, while the winner is likely to make a quick return in Saturday's Doncaster (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick having guaranteed himself a berth in the $3 million contest. "He has been blocked, blocked, blocked all campaign and then he does that seven days out from the Doncaster," Cummings said in respect of Cascadian's recent string of unlucky efforts. "It was exciting. We pegged him as a Doncaster horse since he ran third in the Cantala in the spring and it took until now for him to get there. There is no guarantee we will run him but he is absolutely flying. I had a really good feeling he was coming to a peak this preparation. He was ready to run a big race."

McDonald gets the best out of Night's Watch

McDonald was also seen to great effect earlier in the day when he gave Night's Watch (6 g Redwood - Glory Run by Exceed and Excel) a ground-saving ride to win the Neville Sellwood Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m), breaking a run of losses dating back to the 2018 Naturalism Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) for the six-year-old. Trained by Chris Waller, Night's Watch fended off the challenge of Aliferous (Hinchinbrook) by a neck, while Shadow Flight (Duporth) was a further nose back in third. "He has been going well enough, it's just that things have been going against him," Waller said. "He's not the best of beginners so when he gets back in the field it makes it very hard. But you just keep them interested and keep them happy and they put their heads in front occasionally."

Mentor and former apprentice in Royal win

Sam Clipperton combined with his former mentor Ron Quinton to guide favourite Royal Celebration (Excelebration) to an overdue win at Rosehill yesterday. Clipperton, who was formerly apprenticed to the Randwick trainer, partnered the four-year-old to his first win in 15 months when he took out the Ranvet Handicap (1400m) despite having a tricky position early in the contest. "I was three wide early but then I ended up getting a nice run down the side," Clipperton said. "I think it went pretty smoothly out there. He was really tractable for me, he relaxed well and was there when I asked for a superior effort. It's really nice to ride a winner for Ron today. He's my old boss and he had this horse turned out in great order and he's been knocking on the door for some loyal connections."

Four for Deep Field

Newgate Farm resident Deep Field (Northern Meteor) was handed his fourth individual stakes winner yesterday when Riddle Me That (3 g ex Justine Coup by Entrepreneur) landed the Bendigo Guineas (Listed, 1400m). Making his first outing in Listed company, the Matt Laurie-trained gelding fended off the John Sadler-trained Score (Written Tycoon) by the narrowest of margins. In what proved a thrilling finish in which a blanket could have been thrown over the first four home, Zousonic (Zoustar) was a further nose back in third, while the same margin separated her from the fourth-placed Spend (Snitzel). Deep Field covered 256 mares at a fee of $44,000 in 2019 and his other stakes winners are Cosmic Force, Dig Deep and Xilong.

More to come from Guineas winner

Laurie is anticipating further progress from Riddle Me That, who has now won four of his 10 starts. "I think this horse can continue to improve, he has done that every preparation," the trainer told Racing.com. "He is a tough horse and he has got that galloping style where he really gets his nose out and that was enough to get the job done today." Riddle Me That was partnered to victory by Daniel Stackhouse, who said post-race: "I was always confident turning in that we were going to pick them up 'cause he does try so hard."

Street takes out Golden Mile

The Patrick Payne-trained Hellova Street (9 g Helike - Butter Street by Secret Savings) claimed his third stakes win in Victoria when he took out the Golden Mile (Listed, 1600m) at Bendigo yesterday. The admirable veteran, who was winning for the 20th time in 57 starts, proved he was as good as ever when pulling a length and three-quarters clear of runner-up Iconoclasm (Toorak Toff). Admiral's Joker (Bel Esprit) was a further length and a quarter adrift in third. "He's very tough, he's honest, he tries hard and we were able to get a nice lead today," winning rider Michael Dee told Racing.com. "I thought the horse that sat outside me (Iconoclasm) had me on the turn but he kicked into another gear and was too strong. Speaking to Patrick Payne before the races today he said just have him happy and I thought I was rolling along comfortably on a long reign and we were able to build momentum on that. So it wasn't a sit and sprint and I think he enjoyed it."

Swats That lands Gold Rush on debut

Swats That (Shamus Award) made a taking, and lucrative, debut for Leon and Troy Corstens when she landed the Bendigo VOBIS Gold Rush (1000m) first-up yesterday. In quickening a length and three-quarters clear under John Allan, the promising juvenile netted her connections a first-prize cheque of $137,500 with an additional $30,000 in Super VOBIS bonuses. "You really like to see them race the way she did today whereas she went to the front and stayed there in her trials," Corstens said. "Today she was off the pace and worked home really well. We'll go home, have a talk to Troy and the owners and we'll see where we head to next." Allen added: "Everything she's done, she's done pretty easily so you'd like to think being by Shamus Award she might get a bit further. But she was pretty good today over 1000 metres, so hopefully she can press on from here."

Derby next for Skiddaw

In the following race at Bendigo, Danny O'Brien saddled a quinella as Skiddaw (Hinchinbrook) beat Coin Collector (All Too Hard) in the $135,000 3YO Handicap (2200m) and provided he recovers in time, the winner is being set for Saturday's Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at Randwick. Coin Collector will remain in Victoria with the Galilee Series Final (Listed, 2400m) at Caulfield on April 11 and VRC St Leger (Listed, 2800m) at Flemington on April 25 both on his agenda. Skiddaw, who ran ninth in the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) last October, has now won three of his 11 starts. He was sold through the draft of Widden Stud at the 2018 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, realising $240,000 to his trainer.

Patience the key to Snogging

Snogging (I Am Invincible) made a successful return from a spell when taking out yesterday's Bendigo Gold Bracelet (1400m) and winning co-trainer Natalie Young was quick to praise the ride of Michael Walker, who navigated a path at the 200-metre marker having been badly locked away beforehand. "It was a great ride as at the 300-metre mark I thought we were going nowhere," Young, who trains in partnership with Trent Busuttin, said. Snogging was sent off a $21 chance and Young added: "She had a gleam in her coat and paraded so well so I don't know why she was such big odds. She'd trialled really well and in her jump-outs she was under a hold and she's been galloping the house down."

Tuscan proves Queen in WA Oaks

Tuscan Queen (3 f Fastnet Rock - Tavarnelle by Zabeel) landed the second Group 3 success of her nine-start career to date when she captured the WA Oaks (Gr 3, 2400m) at Ascot yesterday. Trained by Grant and Alana Williams, the three-year-old proved much too good in the $250,000 prize, pulling two lengths clear under William Pike. Naughty By Nature (Trade Fair) ran second, while Miss Dominican (Blackfriars) was a further length and a quarter adrift in third. Tuscan Queen won the Champion Fillies Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) last season and was subsequently tried in the Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m), running seventh. She is another fine advert for leviathan owner Bob Peters.

Two for Red Hot Choice

Late stallion Red Hot Choice (Redoute's Choice) sired his second stakes winner yesterday when Red Hot Tip (3 g ex Zedlink by Zedrich) took out the Melvista Stakes (Listed, 2200m) at Ascot. Midnight Blue (So You Think) finished second, beaten three-quarters of a length, while Criminal Code (Maschino) was a further length and a quarter further adrift in third. Former Mungrup Stud resident Red Hot Choice spent five seasons at stud, covering a career-high book of 23 mares - at a fee of $3,300 in - in 2015. He died in 2017, while his other stakes winner is the Listed scorer, and Group 3-placed, Sanabreanna. Red Hot Tip is now a dual winner from six starts, with yesterday being his first foray into black-type company.

Kendrick's Derby ambition for Eric

Caloundra trainer Stuart Kendrick will explore all avenues to get Eric The Eel (Olympic Glory) to the ATC Australian Derby (Gr 1 2400m) after his win in the Mount Franklin Open (2200m) at Doomben yesterday. "It has been a bit of a saga but we really want to give him his chance in a Derby and there is only one option now," Kendrick said. "I will see how he pulls up and then decide about getting him south. The way I see it we can travel him but not me. It will probably mean switching him to a Sydney-based trainer. That way he can go and we don't need to worry about restrictions on humans. I will be able to make a final decision on Sunday."

Kris Lees

SPORTPIX

Newcastle trainer Kris Lees' decision to have a Gold Coast satellite stable paid dividends when Calibration (Excelebration) posted his first win in 18 months when scoring easily in the Millers Swim School Handicap (2200m) at Doomben yesterday. "I really think he has deserved to win more races as he has had no luck. At his last two starts he has been caught deep," said Mel Eggleston, who oversees the preparations of the Lees-trained runners on the Gold Coast. "I said to Kris no horse had been working better in the stable. He will win more up here."

Minjee repays Heathcote's faith

The Robert Heathcote-trained Minjee (Not A Single Doubt) provided Brisbane jockey Michael Cahill with a first win since his comeback from a three-month injury-enforced break when taking out yesterday's QTIS Two-Year-Old Handicap (1200m) at Doomben. The filly drifted from $7 to $12 but came from last to grab the heavily-backed favourite Snappy Reply (Snitzel) on the line. "She isn't far off my top horse Rothfire and I have been telling everyone that for months," Heathcote said. "At her first start she had no luck at all after being caught very deep. I have said she is up there with my better two-year-olds and she showed that today."

Abbott win a big boost for trainer-jockeys

Lauren Abbott is hoping One Stryke's (Stryker) Doomben win yesterday will be a catalyst for a rule change about the number of horses Queensland trainer-jockeys can prepare. Abbott, a former successful North Queensland rider, is one of only two Brisbane-based trainer-jockeys. "At the moment trainer-jockeys here are restricted to having five horses. I only renewed my jockeys' licence because I am light," Abbott said. "Jim (Orman) rides a lot of my horses but sometimes he can't ride the lightweights and I can't get anyone else. Now I can ride them myself. I am a full-time trainer and not a full-time jockey so I need more horses to make a living. Hopefully officials will ease up on the number restrictions."

Comeback wins for Jones, Downing

Jockey Caitlin Jones and trainer Ashton Downing were back among the winners yesterday when successful on the Morphetville card. Having only returned to race riding ten days ago following an absence due to a back injury, Jones combined with her bosses Richard and Chantelle Jolly to take out the opener aboard Hypercane (Toronado) and claim her first metropolitan win since July 2019. Downing's first runner since serving a 12-month disqualification which ended in October last year, Manzala (Poet's Voice), was successful in race two. "It has obviously been a difficult time and something I hope to put behind me with time," Downing, who along with her partner Nikki O'Shea, was banned on attempted race-day administration charges dating back to May, 2018, told Racing.com.

Vow And Declare shines in Bendigo gallop

Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner Vow And Declare (Declaration Of War) led home VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) winning stablemate Miami Bound (Reliable Man) in a race day gallop at Bendigo yesterday. Danny O'Brien took the pair to Bendigo for a day out ahead of proposed Group 1 assignments in Sydney. With Cup-winning jockey Craig Williams aboard, Vow And Declare beat Miami Bound, ridden by Fred Kersley, in a 1600-metre gallop. O'Brien is hoping to get both horses to Sydney for the autumn carnival. "It was a good opportunity to give them a gallop together over a mile," he told Racing.com. "They're going to race off decent enough breaks when they next go to the races so it was a good opportunity to give them a trip away and a good gallop on what is one of the better racing surfaces in Australia."

Boss to ride Loving Gaby in TJ Smith

Glen Boss has picked up the ride on star filly Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible) in Saturday's TJ Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Randwick with regular jockey Craig Williams unable to leave Victoria. Williams and other interstate jockeys are banned from travelling to New South Wales to compete until further notice as part of the coronavirus protocols. Trained by Ciaron Maher and David Eustace, Loving Gaby won the William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Moonee Valley at her most recent start. She was on the second line of betting for the $2.5 million TJ Smith yesterday at $6 along with Nature Strip (Nicconi) and defending champion Santa Ana Lane (Lope De Vega). Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) heads the betting as the $5 favourite.

Wyang called off

A new timeslot will have to be found for the Provincial Championship qualifying heat at Wyong after yesterday's race was washed out. The first seven events on the card took place as planned but heavy rain left racing officials with little option but to postpone the $150,000 feature as jockeys riding at the meeting felt it was unsafe to continue due to poor visibility. It is the second time a qualifying heat on the central coast has been affected by wet weather with a heat at Gosford scheduled for March 14 postponed to Newcastle five days later.

Port Macquarie postponed

Wet weather also led to the abandonment of yesterday's meeting scheduled to take place at Port Macquarie after an inspection by stewards found the ground to be unsafe following more than 22 millimeters of rain in 24 hours. Transferring the meeting to Taree, Kempsey or Coffs Harbour was considered by Racing NSW stewards but was ruled out with all three courses having also received significant rainfall.

VRC stands staff down

The Victoria Racing Club is to stand down most of its staff for a month and reduce the hours worked by its executives amid the coronavirus pandemic. The VRC said staff will be asked from Monday to take any outstanding annual leave and can also access long service leave. The executive team will work a three-day week with a reduction in pay as the club tries to ensure its sustainability. "We have explored every option and we believe this model will best allow our people and the club to withstand these unprecedented times and resume regular activity as soon as this situation passes," chief executive Neil Wilson said. "Our first priority right now is to look after our people, so they can take care of themselves and their families, as we work our way through this unprecedented situation."

Lindsay Park pair disqualified

Two Bendigo Guineas runners from the Lindsay Park stable were yesterday disqualified from the race and co-trainer Tom Dabernig was fined $3000 after the pair were incorrectly saddled. Racing Victoria deputy chief steward Rob Montgomery said Independent Road (Declaration Of War) and Peidra (Pierro) ran in the race and were disqualified after each had finished near the tail of the field. Regan Bayliss was to ride Independent Road but he ended up on Peidra. Jye McNeil was booked for Peidra and partnered Independent Road. The error wasn't picked up until after the running of the Golden Mile when Dabernig self-reported to stewards. "Mr Dabernig came and reported it to us after race eight after one of his staff reported it to him," Montgomery said. "It was an honest mistake but a costly one." Montgomery said the starters, Corey Mallyon and Errol Gath, would be referred to RV's human resources department.

Suspensions for Bowman and Berry

Hugh Bowman and Tommy Berry will both be sidelined for day two of The Championships after the pair picked up suspensions at Rosehill yesterday. Bowman was found guilty of dropping his hands on third-placed Avilius (Pivotal) in the Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m). His ban will begin on April 5 and he will be free to ride again on April 24. Berry was found guilty of careless riding on board the unplaced Pink Beau (Brazen Beau) in the Schweppervescence (Gr 3, 1400m) and was banned from April 5 to 14.

NEW ZEALAND

Woodsman set to return to the flat

The progressive jumper Woodsman (Mastercraftsman) ran out a ready winner of Friday's Ocean Road Realty BM120 Hurdle (3230m) at Warrnambool but a return to the flat is now on the cards for the eight-year-old - as long as racing continues. "We always thought he would be competitive in Australia and I think he has improved a little bit from last year. He has got a little bit stronger," Matamata-trainer Tony Gillies said. "The track suited him down to the ground yesterday, as he struggles to handle heavy ground and that is why we gave him only the two hurdle starts in New Zealand last year and targeted Australia this season." Woodsman will now be aimed at the Galleywood Hurdle (3200m) at Warrnambool on May 6, but a flat outing in between looks on the cards. "If they keep racing, he will have a run in the Terang Cup (2150m) as a lead-up to the Galleywood," Gillies added.

ASIA

155 for Deep Impact

Mikki Swallow

JBIS

The late Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) sired his 155th individual stakes winner when Satono Impresa (3 c ex Sahpresa by Sahm) extended his unbeaten run to three in the Mainishi Hai (Gr 3, 1800m) at Hanshin yesterday. The Yoshito Yahagi-trained three-year-old beat favourite Al Jannah (Deep Impact) by three-quarters of a length, with Danon Aller (Deep Impact) another two and a half lengths away in third.

Mikki Swallow takes out Nikkei Sho

The consistent Mikki Swallow (6 h Tosen Homareboshi - Madre Bonita by Jungle Pocket) registered a fifth win in 19 starts and a third in stakes company when he justified favouritism when taking out the Nikkei Sho (Gr 2, 2500m) at Nakayama yesterday. The Takanori Kikuzawa-trained six-year-old beat Mozu Bello (Deep Brillinate) by a length and a quarter, with Stiffelio (Stay Gold) a further neck away in third.

Tower Of London and Danon Smash clash again

Godolphin's Tower Of London (Raven's Pass) will attempt to complete Japan's elite-level sprint double by adding today's Takamatsunomiya Kinen (Gr 1, 1200m) to his victory in last September's Nakayama Sprinters Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). Yuichi Fukunaga gets the call as Tower Of London attempts to confirm Nakayama superiority over Danon Smash (Lord Kanaloa), who came out on top when the pair first met at Sapporo last August and again on reappearance in the Ocean Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) last month. Tower Of London's trainer, Kazuo Fujisawa, also saddles Gran Alegria (Deep Impact), an impressive winner of the 2019 Oka Sho (Gr 1, 1600m).

INTERNATIONAL

BHA set to slash costs

The BHA has announced savings totalling nearly £1 million a month, including the furloughing of the majority of its staff, as it cuts its financial burden to the embattled racing industry. British racing's governing body agreed to an emergency financial plan, which will see more than 200 of its 260 staff furloughed under the government's coronavirus job retention scheme. While most of the staff to be furloughed are raceday officials, some staff at the body's headquarters at High Holborn in London are also affected. All BHA staff, whether working or not, will take salary reductions, with board members also included. In addition to the furloughing of staff, other savings are to be introduced, reflecting the fact racing in Britain is suspended until at the least the end of April.

British racing making plans for return

Meanwhile, the British racing authorities have revealed contingency plans for the resumption of the sport behind closed doors once the go-ahead is given. A letter has been sent to the sport's stakeholders from the BHA outlining the latest thinking, with the aim to be prepared for a May 1 restart if possible. It is expected that racing will be phased back in behind closed doors and will start with flat racing only, reflecting the likelihood that any easing of the Covid-19 situation, and any associated restrictions and pressures on medical services, will also happen progressively.

Racecourse closures in Ireland feared

Horse Racing Ireland chief executive Brian Kavanagh admits he is "very worried" about the viability of some racecourses as the governing authority continues to grapple with the multi-million-euro cost and ramifications of a sustained shutdown. Officials within HRI are preparing to furnish next Wednesday's conference call board meeting with recommendations and data, as emergency strategies are being explored to shore up an entire industry with an estimated economic value of almost €2 billion. Contingency plans for HRI's own staff are also a priority. The possibility of rescheduling the major Easter festivals at Cork and Fairyhouse will be among the items for discussion, likewise the prospects for the 2020 Punchestown festival, which is due to get under way on April 28.

Santa Anita ends racing

Santa Anita was forced to cancel racing just hours before its meeting on Friday evening in response to the global coronavirus pandemic. Racing had been taking place behind closed doors since March 11 and the track was scheduled to host a three-day meeting, before being told to close by the Los Angeles County Health Department. Stating the reasons for the closure, officials said: "We are abiding by the instructions issued this morning by the Californian Horse Racing Board to operate under the sanction of the local health authorities. The health, safety, and welfare of every person and every horse in our community is our top priority." There are more than 1700 horses stabled at Santa Anita whose daily care will be provided by a mostly on-site team.

Minister

SINGAPORE TURF CLUB

Minister gets the vote at Kranji

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

A change of tack enabled Minister (Street Sense) to live up to his handy English form with an all-the-way win on Friday night.

Bought with the Singapore Four-Year-Old Challenge in mind, a spanner was thrown in the works when the annual series was moved forward by three months this year.

Trainer Lee Freedman pressed on and did his best to get the October arrival fit and ready for the first leg, the Silver Bowl (Listed, 1400m) on February 29, but as feared, the rushed prep proved inadequate. He was able to race handy early, but knocked up in the run home, beaten more than seven lengths by Bold Thruster (Turffontein).

Freedman didn't dismiss the run outright, though. He knew he had gone in underdone, and he seemed to have resented the firm turf track as well.

The 2018 Singapore champion trainer reshuffled his plans for the son of Street Sense (Street Cry), deciding to bypass the second leg, last Friday's Stewards' Cup (Listed, 1600m) won by Siam Blue Vanda (Echoes Of Heaven), and lowered his aim towards the S$70,000 Class 3 race over 1600 metres on Polytrack one week later instead.

It proved to be a masterstroke. Teamed up with Michael Rodd, the King Power-owned colt, who was known as Bye Bye Hong Kong in the UK where he won three races between 1219 metres and 1640 metres under top trainer Andrew Balding's care, never gave connections any anxious moments once he landed in the driving seat.

Travelling comfortably on the kinder surface, Minister ($12 favourite) made play and was never really threatened by any of his 10 rivals when he was given his head. The up-in-grade Yaya Papaya (Nadeem) did pose a momentary threat at the furlong pole with a stinging assault, but could only peg the margin back to one-and-a-quarter lengths.

Gold City (Sufficient) rattled home late to run third, another half-length away. The winning time was 1.38.66 for the Polytrack mile.

"It's not ideal when you run behind time. He was unfit going to the 1400 metres first-up and I buried him with work," said Freedman.

"I dropped him in grade tonight, and he showed he can win. He needed the win on his reputation.

"He's a lovely horse."

Rodd said Minister was impressive in winning but was still finding his way around Kranji.

"He was changing his legs in the straight. He's still learning his craft around here," said the Australian jockey, who was at a riding double after saluting earlier aboard Crystal Dragon (Jimmy Creed).

"He's very explosive. It was a good win considering he had an unorthodox prep, he showed his class tonight."

That first Kranji hurrah has earned the US-bred a first-prize cheque of around S$40,000 for Thai outfit King Power Stable.

Yaya Papaya's trainer Leslie Khoo was proud of his charge's second, given he was rising in class in his bid for a third win in a row, even if his rueful expression told of his frustration.

"He ran very well, but it's the barrier (12) that killed him. If he had drawn better, he could have won," said the Singaporean trainer.

"He ran against some very good horses tonight, and it was very encouraging. He has really improved a lot."

Analysis: Verry Ellegant staged a most impressive performance in recording her third Group 1 victory here after a patient ride by James McDonald. She settled back in seventh place and remained there after a mid-race move (by Danceteria) lifted the pace at the 1000m. McDonald asked her to improve from the 600m, she hit the front at the 200m and then drew away to score very easily. Mustajeer raced back in fifth place on the rails, improved along the inner coming to the turn and then kept fighting on well to gain second in a photo. Avilius settled in last place in the nine-runner field, tracked the eventual winner rounding the home turn, and went to second at the 200m, only to be caught on the post to take the minor placing. Mirage Dancer raced back in fourth place and kept fighting on in the straight to hold that position, beaten 6.8 lengths. Analysis: The lightly-raced Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained filly Shout The Bar staged a very smart performance in taking out the Group 1 feature when having only her fourth race start. She soon went to the front, set a reasonable tempo in the conditions, was challenged on a number of occasions from the home turn and kept responding gamely to score a really good win, running the 2000m out particularly well. Probabeel had a good trip in sixth place, was under riding nearing the home turn, rallied to be in a challenging position at the 100m and then battled well for second. Nudge had a nice trip in fourth place on the rails from her inside barrier (1), got through on the inner to challenge at the 200m and then fought well for a close-up third. The favourite Funstar travelled quite comfortably, albeit three wide, in third place before moving up to challenge coming to the turn. She then kept battling on over the closing stages for (1.4 lengths) fourth, looking tested by her first attempt at 2000m. [KB]

Analysis: Quick Thinker was too good here, coming off a third placing to star fillies Funstar and Probabeel last start, adding his third victory (all stakes) in a ten-race career. He settled fourth, one out, and from the 1600m to the 800m was beautifully positioned by James McDonald. The field compacted from the 600m and he went forward, four deep, began the straight forming a line of three and then took over inside the 400m. At the 300m he increased the lead, was away by a length and half at the 100m, and was in no danger thereafter. Zabrowski was sixth at the 1000m, tracked the winner into the straight, looked flat at the 300m but dug deep to find a little more near the line for second. Diasonic sat second to the 500m, led briefly turning in and then shared the lead at the 400m. To the line he was the main chaser but was nabbed late to finish third. From second-last at the 600m Relucent turned for home widest and battled away for fourth. [LJ]

Analysis: The progressive Bjorn Baker-trained mare Positive Peace has now advanced from winning a Benchmark 70, fillies and mares (1400m) at Warwick Farm on January 27 to take out this Group 2 feature in good style, her fifth successive win and her first at stakes level. She travelled well outside the leader (Amangiri), went to the front on turning for home and then repelled challengers to win well. Noire settled in fifth place on the rails from her inside barrier (1), got along the inner on straightening, and kept fighting well for second, without troubling the winner. Amangiri was smartly away and soon went to the front. She then set quite a reasonable tempo and kept battling on well for third in a sound first-up run. Miss Fabulass settled just beyond midfield, improved coming to the turn, went to fifth at the 200m and kept battling on quite well for (2.3 lengths) fourth. The favourite Sweet Deal had an ideal trip in third place on the rails from her good barrier (2), looked dangerous at the 200m but just battled from that point for (2.5 lengths) fifth after appearing to have had every chance. Analysis: Son of Flemington Group 1 winner Hurtle Myrtle, Holyfield stuck to his task well in taking his record to three from four with this his maiden stakes success. He was quickest into stride, was headed soon after yet never gave up the rails advantage to settle a close up third past the 1000m. From the 600m he took over and rounding into the straight slipped clear. Inside the 300m he was still clear and at the 100m there was just one challenger. Tiring, he had enough left to hold on by three quarters of a length. Untamed tracked the winner from the 800m, cut the corner into the straight and gamely chased the winner all the way to the line, taking ground off him but too late. The first two were well clear of Time Is Precious who from midfield at the 600m was given every chance in the straight but was not able to match those in front in a battling third. Montefilia came on late between runners when the race was over for fourth. Then followed: House Of Cartier (AUS), Saunter Boy (FR), Life Less Ordinary (IRE), Gemmahra (AUS), Maid Of Ore (AUS) & Mount Tabora (USA), last.

Analysis: Night's Watch broke through for his first win since taking out the Naturalism Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Caulfield in September 2018 in taking out this Group 3 race. Having his fourth run this preparation, he was ridden patiently by James McDonald and after racing in second-last place in the nine-runner field, he improved along the inner nearing the home turn. McDonald steered him through a gap at the 200m and he then fought back solidly to score a narrow but good win. Aliferous settled back in sixth place, improved between runners on straightening, took a narrow lead at the 150m and she then battled well for second, with Shadow Flight a close-up third after having a nice trip in fifth place on the rails. House Of Cartier, worked in the early stages before racing outside the leader (Gemmahra), and she did very well in fighting on well for (2.3 lengths) fourth, despite a taxing trip. Then followed: Tactical Advantage (AUS), God Of Thunder (AUS), Villami (AUS), River Bird (AUS), Handle The Truth (AUS), Brave Song (AUS), Fell Swoop (AUS), Spanish Dream (AUS) & Diplomatico (AUS), last.

Analysis: After going well at stakes grade on a number of occasions, Vegadaze registered his first win at stakes level with a game performance in winning here, his fifth win in 11 starts. He showed his customary pace and soon went to the front but he was then pressured in the lead (by Villamai). He held a narrow advantage at the 200m and then dug deep under Tom Marquand's riding to score a good win. The Godolphin-raced mare Manicure settled in fourth spot on the rails from her good barrier (3), got through to challenge at the 200m and then kept fighting well for second with her stablemate Kemenari a close up third at his return to the track after a failed stud career. He raced in seventh place on the rails, looked dangerous at the 200m, and then held on well to take the minor placing. Tactical Advantage raced in eighth place, improved between runners at the turn and then kept battling on well for (3.9 lengths) fourth, with God Of Thunder making ground from the tail of the field for (5.2 lengths) fifth. The favourite Villamai tired late for (5.4 lengths) sixth after a hard run outside the leader until well into the straight. [KB]

Analysis: Once she assumed the lead at the 200m, Tuscan Queen, in a class of her own, strolled clear to score win five (third stakes) from just nine career starts. She had three behind her with a lap to run and remained in the last four, one out to the 800m, where she improved to be handier. Three wide at the 600m, she drove forward and rounding into the straight was poised to challenge. Willy Pike shook the reins, she bounded alongside the leader and then kicked clear, away by an easy two lengths at the post. Naughty By Nature tracked the winner from the 800m, moved out from the top of the straight and finished well but was no match. Miss Dominican was midfield at the 600m, needed room turning in and once clear, ran on for third. From the back of the field, Samantha's Twitch also finished quite well for fourth. [LJ]

Analysis: The Godolphin-raced gelding Cascadian obtained a late entry into the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) with a last-stride victory here, aided by a clever James McDonald ride. He settled towards the tail of the 13-runner field, moved through (between runners) on straightening before McDonald steered him through a gap at the 200m and he then came with a late bid to grab victory on the post. Mask Of Time had a nice trip in third place on the rails, went along the inner on turning for home, got to the front at the 150m, only to be caught on the post for a close second. Gaulois was midfield to the turn, took a split at the 300m, went to third at the 200m and kept battling on well to hold that position at the post. Rainbow Thief raced in fifth place, between runners, got clear running at the 300m and then kept battling on for (2.1 lengths) fourth, with Desert Lord holding on well for (2.5 lengths) fifth after running a bold race, leading the field until halfway down the straight. Analysis: Red Hot Tip had his six opponents in trouble turning for home and staved off a late challenge for his second win (maiden stakes) at start six. He narrowly led with a lap to run and lobbed along in front past the 1200m and down the River side. He was challenged briefly but inside the 600m pulled further into the lead, stretching it to three lengths at the top of the straight and five lengths at the 200m. Although shortening stride, he had done the damage and at the post still had three-quarters of a length up his sleeve. Midnight Blue sat second-last (rails) down the side, moved out rounding into the straight, got the split at the 250m and ran home well in the centre of the track but much too late. Criminal Code was third at the 600m, moved up three wide into the straight and was the main chaser, yet was passed at the 150m before sticking on for third. Analysis: Off two wide runs for a win and a second this preparation, Riddle Me That received a much kinder run this time, fighting strongly for win four (maiden stakes) at start 10. Three wide early he slotted in to be one out and one back at the 1000m. Past the 600m he was still handy and rounding into the straight moved out to challenge. Into the straight he ran up, made a line of four at the 200m, edged in front and to the line refused to be headed, holding on by a short head. Score was handy (rails) from the 800m, third rounding into the straight, second at the 300m and one of four across the track at the 200m. She stuck it out really well and was taking ground off the winner the last few strides but had to settle for very close second. A super effort from Zousonic who from last at the 800m weaved her way through the field from the top of the straight and flashed into third, travelling best of all at the finish. Spend was second turning in, one of four in line at the 200m but was outgunned, losing third at the post.[LJ]

Analysis: Tasmanian nine-year-old Hellova Street has been in sparkling form and was too strong, leading throughout for his 20th win, 11 of which have now come in stakes races. His lead was narrow before finally finding the rail at the 1200m. Spreading out the field past the 800m he led by more than a length and maintained that lead into the straight where he looked to kick clear. At the 200m he was challenged but he dug in and pulled away again, winning by a convincing length and three quarters. Iconoclasm sat second all the way to the straight entrance, challenged at the 200m and looked a possibility, only to watch the winner pull away again over the last 100m. Admiral's Joker improved from midfield rounding into the straight and switched to fence to run on quite well for third, while So Si Bon was doing his best work at the line, running on well for fourth. VERDICT Joao Moreira's mount Hurricane Hunter ran well in defeat over C&D four weeks ago and remains on a workable mark but slight preference is for KWAI CHUNG ELITE. Richard Gibson's 4yo blew his chance at the start on his latest outing but has been given a good chance by the handicapper if judged on his earlier 6f form, and is at least as effective over today's longer trip. Big Bully has been dealt a duff hand draw-wise but also enters calculations.

VERDICT It's reasonable to assume Above will be very much in the thick of things, while hat-trick-seeker Gala Night can't be opposed with any confidence in his current mood. However, the suggestion is DEFINING MOMENT, who needs to better his recent efforts but has slipped to a dangerous mark and has the assistance of Zac Purton.

BETTING FORECAST: 11-10 Fantasy, 3 Handsome Bo Bo, 8 Monster Kaka, 10 Good Beauty, 14 Urban Dancer, 16 Biz Power, 20 Fearless Fire, Le Terroir, Team Spirit, 50 Brave King, 66 Bright Vision, 100 Nuremberg.

VERDICT FANTASY, who has made steady progress since his winning debut over C&D in November and can now double his tally. Handsome Bo Bo has been absent since finishing third on dirt in December but is well handicapped for this return to turf and the booking of Zac Purton drops a strong hint he'll be fully revved up.

VERDICT The most obvious answer is unexposed 4yo INCANTO PREPARED, who lost out only by a short head over C&D three weeks ago and could easily have more to offer. Regency Master has no form claims but is unexposed after only two starts and interest in him is piqued by the booking of Zac Purton. Care Free Prince and Iron King both warrant consideration too.

VERDICT Frankie Lor's 3yo JADE PHOENIX has been placed over C&D on all three starts and seems unlikely to remain a maiden for much longer. He gets the vote ahead of class-dropper Grade One, who may be stymied by his wide draw. Victory Mastery will pose a significant threat if able to match the level of form he showed here two starts ago.

VERDICT This can go to John Size's promising 4yo JUNEAU PARK, who was well-supported when opening his Hong Kong account two weeks ago and looks more than capable of overcoming his revised mark. Recent Class 5 winner Regency Gem can make his presence felt in this grade with Sam's Love another likely challenger.

VERDICT This looks sure to be run at a hellier-skeller pace, with Grateful Heart, Frustrated and Corinthes vying for the lead with a number of rivals sitting on their tails. One of those is WAR OF COURAGE, a lightly-raced and improving handicapper who promises to relish the speed without setting it. Grateful Heart, Larson and Mig Energy are among the dangers.

VERDICT A competitive affair in which the key form line appears to involve Beauty Icon and PICKEN, who renew rivalry having finished virtually upstides here just over a fortnight ago. Narrow preference is for the latter, as he is breaking from a less compromising draw this time, has a significantly better win strike-rate than his rival, and boasts a very good record in the hands of Joao Moreira. Toycoon looks the most interesting each way alternative.
