Rawiller roars as Elite Street upsets Trekking

Godolphin sprinter fourth again in Winterbottom but Darley tastes success with son of Street Boss victorious

Elite Street

BY ANDREW HAWKINS | @ANZ_NEWS

A decision by Brad Rawiller to test the waters in Perth ahead of a full-time move to Western Australia has paid dividends at just his second weekend in the state, taking out the Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) on Elite Street (4 g Street Boss - Elite Ateates by Exceed And Excel) at Ascot yesterday.

Sent out at 30-1 in a race dominated by $1.75 hotpot Trekking (Street Cry), the Dan Morton-prepared Elite Street had few admirers as he stepped up to stakes company for the first time at just his eighth start.

It was just a year ago, on the Winterbottom Stakes undercard, that the chestnut made his first racecourse appearance, finishing fourth to We've Got Dreams (Universal Ruler) in the Tourism WA Trophy (1000m) for three-year-olds. It was later discovered that he had chipped both knees in running. Continued on page 2>>

MORNING BRIEFING

Six for Street Boss

Darley's Street Boss (Street Cry) brought up his sixth individual Group or Grade 1 winner yesterday, and just his second in Australia, when Elite Street (4 g ex Elite Ateates by Exceed And Excel) ran out a surprise winner of the Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Ascot. Morning Briefing page 6>>

Returning for start two in late May at Pinjarra as an odds-on favourite, he again finished fourth, but that was the last time he wasn't first past the post. Since June, between Belmont and Ascot, Elite Street has put together a string of six wins, although he was subsequently disqualified from a Belmont 1200-metre win in July having tested positive for Heptaminol.

And so it was that he entered with a picket fence, marred by a D in the form guide but still clearly a horse with plenty of upside.

Jumping from a wide gate, Elite Street was quickly away but was restrained by Rawiller to sit midfield, three-deep but with cover. Meanwhile, to his inside, Trekking was enduring a torrid run, with William Pike struggling to bring the dual Group 1 winner back underneath him.

Sitting quiet as a church mouse, Rawiller kept Elite Street out of trouble as the race developed inside him, waiting until the field had straightened and he was widest of all before asking for more from his charge.

With momentum on his side, Elite Street bounded up with purpose alongside 11-year-old marvel Rock Magic (Redoute's Choice), with the pair coming away at the 100 metres. On this occasion, youth trumped experience as Elite Street put a margin on Rock Magic shortly after.

However, one last challenge was still to come. Celebrity Queen (Redoute's Choice), the Colonel Reeves Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) winner, had sluiced through between runners from well back before switching over Elite Street's heels to make one final bid.

The line, though, loomed too soon, with Elite Street taking the bulk of the $1 million prize pool. The margin to Celebrity Queen at the wire was a neck, with a length back to Rock Magic, who filled third in the Winterbottom for the third time at his fifth run in the race.

Just like last year, Trekking finished fourth, running on solidly from well back but also clearly outsprinted by Celebrity Queen. It was the culmination of a difficult interstate campaign in which he started in the Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) in Melbourne, travelled north to Sydney for the Everest (1200m), returned to Melbourne for the Manikato Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) six days later and then shipped west. Continued on page 3>>

While success in the Winterbottom continues to elude Godolphin, their breeding operation had plenty to celebrate after Victorian-based Street Boss (Street Cry) notched his sixth Group or Grade 1 winner globally, as well as his 42nd individual stakes winner.

Elite Street provided Street Boss with his second Australian Group 1 winner, following Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) hero The Quarterback, and continued a strong 2020 for the stallion. He had Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) runner-up Hanseatic earlier this year, while his current two-year-olds - headed by Merson Cooper Stakes (Listed, 1000m) victor Anamoe - look to be his strongest crop yet.

Street Boss stood for $27,500 (inc GST) at Darley's Northwood Park in 2020.

Bred and raced by Robert and Ann Anderson's Anita Vale Stud in partnership with Morton's parents, Len and Annette, Elite Street was retained to race after he was withdrawn from the 2018 Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale with knee issues.

He is the only winner from two foals to race out of Elite Ateates (Exceed And Excel), a five-time winner across Queensland, New South Wales and South Australia. She has a yearling by Dundee (High Chaparral), a foal by Written By (Written Tycoon) and she is in foal to Spendthrift Farm's American shuttler Omaha Beach (War Front).

As her name suggests, she is out of the terrific sprinting mare Ateates (Zeditave), a four-time Group 2 winner and a Group 1 placegetter. Ateates is a sister to Newmarket Handicap winner Ruffles, while the family also includes stakes winners Notonyourlife (Sebring), Boss Lane (Dubawi) and True Glo (Brief Truce).

Elite Street's tenacious victory in the Winterbottom gave Rawiller his 25th Group 1 winner and while the Perth feature may not hold the same prestige as some of the other races he has won, like the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) or the Newmarket Handicap, it is unlikely there will be one as meaningful.

In case there were any doubts, a Frankie Dettori-style star jump from the gelding proved just how much it meant to the 42-year-old, whose most famous interaction with Morton before yesterday was in relegating his stable star Scenic Blast (Scenic) to second aboard Weekend Hussler (Hussonet) in the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m).

"It's come as a bit of a shock to me," Rawiller said. "I was riding for Lindsey Smith at Bendigo one Wednesday and I hadn't ridden for him in Victoria since Black Heart Bart. The next day, he said, 'Look, Brad, I think there's an opportunity for you if you can come over to Perth and give it a trial for a couple of months.'

"I've always come over to Perth and been successful and I've always had a great time and great fun when I've been here. When I told my wife, she was all over it, and the kids will finish school this year and can come over and start school here next year.

"Since I've been here, I've ridden work almost every morning for Dan. He's not only given me fitness through trackwork and allowing me to help him to educate his horses, but he's also been helping me outside the square, introducing me to people. I've known Dan for years but I've never really ridden for him.

"The Winterbottom is one of the great sprint races in Australia so to get the opportunity is huge and when you can deliver, even better."

Morton is best known for his pair of three-time Group 1 winners, King's Stand Stakes (Gr 1, 5f) hero Scenic Blast and dual Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2020m) victor Scenic Shot (Scenic), with Elite Street giving the trainer his first success at the highest level since 2011.

"I'm trying not to bawl, it's very special," an emotional Morton said, joining his father Len as a Winterbottom Stakes-winning trainer. "It's unreal to win it for Mr and Mrs Anderson, who have been huge supporters for us all along the way, and mum and dad obviously.

"We knew where we were at. In any other year, we probably don't gain a start in the race so we were lucky to take our place, but he was a horse that I thought had the ammo to do it."

Len Morton, who won the Winterbottom as a trainer in 1998 with Bradson (Serheed), added: "You always like to think you've left something behind, don't you? I'm so proud of Dan, he's done a great job since he's taken over my licence - it's all there for people to see. To come out and win a race for the family like that, it's great."

Elite Street took his earnings to $719,080 with yesterday's win, with five victories from eight starts.

The question now: will he attempt to emulate Scenic Blast's four-year-old autumn by tackling Melbourne's big three sprints - the Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m), the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) and the Newmarket Handicap - before heading to Royal Ascot?

Scandinavia's legacy lives on

The almighty Scandinavia (Snippets) may have died in May, but her legacy was on full show as her son Typhon (God's Own) and her grandson All Too Hard (Casino Prince) both produced stakes winners yesterday.

Typhon, who was purchased unraced by Glenrae Stud principals John and Colin Young in 2012, brought up his milestone first stakes winner when One More Jack (5 g Typhon - Husson Spirit by Hussonet) took out the City Of Marion Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Morphettville.

Even for a stallion with a pedigree like his, it is a remarkable achievement given he stands for $1,650 (inc GST) and he has only had 49 named foals.

One More Jack, bred and raced by Bevan Crowell and trained by Shane Oxlade, is a typical rags to riches story that encapsulates the beauty of the Australian turf.

His pedigree boasts little to write about, with fourth dam - Irish 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) heroine Royal Danseuse (Prince Chevalier) - the most notable aspect. And according to Oxlade, One More Jack looked the furthest thing from a potential stakes contender when he first arrived at his Woodchester stables.

In fact, the handler told Racing.com earlier this year that the gelding appeared so limited early in his career that he didn't think he'd win a race, an opinion backed up by his first two outings when he was beaten a combined margin of almost 23 lengths.

"He showed me absolutely nothing in the early days, he couldn't even canter," Oxlade told Racing.com's Adam McGrath. "His only future to me looked like it would be over the hurdles.

"I did what any trainer does with an incredibly slow and lazy horse, I put the blinkers on and just hoped. I thought maybe it can make him improve a little and then we could win a 1600-metre maiden somewhere."

His first test in the blinkers produced a turnaround as drastic as can be as he strolled home in a jump-out.

One More Jack

"I stood on the hill and after 200 metres it looked like we were in front, my daughter and I couldn't believe it," Oxlade said.

"He was in front by a length as they cornered for home, (Justin) Potter then gave him two on the backside and he won the jump-out by five lengths and was pulling away at the line.

"I turned to every trainer behind me that had a horse in the jump-out and said you'd want to get rid of them because mine is no good.

"David Jolly laughed and said, 'Mate, your horse just won like Phar Lap.'"

One More Jack took that form to the races, putting together six wins before his streak was broken in May.

Another win in October and a sixth behind the well-performed Exhilarates (Snitzel) in the MSS Security Sprint (Listed, 1200m) at Flemington on Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) day had One More Jack primed for the City Of Marion Stakes.

Ridden by Paul Gatt, One More Jack made up good ground late to defeat Trip (Good Journey) by a nose with a length to Too Good Too Hard (All Too Hard) in third.

While All Too Hard may have had to make way for his uncle in Adelaide, he was on top in Sydney just ten minutes later when Outrageous (5 g All Too Hard - Fit And Ready by More Than Ready) took out the Festival Stakes (Gr 3, 1500m).

Ironically, Outrageous and One More Jack had been stabled mere metres from one another at Flemington on Melbourne Cup day, with the Michael, Wayne and John Hawkes-trained Outrageous successful in a 1400-metre Benchmark 90 on the same card.

Where One More Jack went west, Outrageous went north, back to Sydney for his 14th attempt at black type company. Before yesterday, he had only placed once at stakes level, finishing third in the ATC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) as a two-year-old.

Sent out as the second favourite with Tommy Berry aboard, he produced a gutsy effort to hold off Royal Celebration (Excelebration) by a half neck with Evalina (I Am Invincible) a length and a quarter away in third.

"He's just taken a really long time to come to hand," Michael Hawkes said. "A couple of years ago he might not have found the solid form that he has, but the older he's got the better he's got."

Outrageous, who races in the Rupert Legh navy and gold, is likely to head to the Villiers Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) for his next start, with the winner of that race exempt from ballot for the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) in April.

Offered by Vinery Stud at the 2017 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Outrageous was a $460,000 purchase for Hawkes Racing. His half-sister Very Tempting (Redoute's Choice) won the Western Australian Oaks (Gr 3, 2400m), while his dam Fit And Ready (More Than Ready) is a half-sister to Golden Slipper Stakes winner Catbird (Daneshill) and his Group 2-winning brother Danbird.

Another of Scandinavia's grandsons, Moshe (Bel Esprit), was also a winning sire yesterday as Morphetville victor Black Syrah (4 g Moshe - Super Blue by Montjeu) made it four wins from his last five starts.

Juveniles galore right across Australia

While Scandinavia's best-performed son Magnus may not have joined the party, Sun Stud still had plenty to celebrate when Gulf Of Suez (2 g Fighting Sun - Pan Jinlian by Fastnet Rock) carried the yellow and red to a commanding victory in the Adelaide Galvanising Two-Year-Old Plate (1050m) at Morphetville.

The Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Gulf Of Suez had kicked off his career three weeks ago with a professional all-the-way win on the Morphetville Parks track over 1000 metres, but with race experience under his belt, he appeared even more impressive yesterday.

Allowed to lead by Todd Pannell, the rider was swinging off Gulf Of Suez turning for home, railing like a greyhound in search of the bunny. The bay opened up by four lengths before Pannell turned to the crop and was kept up to his work through the line, scoring by almost six lengths over Bleriot (Divine Prophet).

A son of the late Fighting Sun (Northern Meteor), who died from a colic attack at Sun Stud earlier this year, Gulf Of Suez's third dam Angelic Song (Halo) is an unraced sister to champion mare Glorious Song, a four-time Grade 1 winner who produced Singpiel (In The Wings) and Rahy (Blushing Groom) in the breeding barn.

Gulf Of Suez is likely to be set on a path to the Blue Diamond Stakes, with one bookmaker inserting the gelding on the fourth line of betting.

In fact, the start of yesterday's racing saw impressive juveniles step out right across Australia, with a number of two-year-olds putting themselves forward as potential stakes contenders in a 30-minute window jam-packed with talent.

Rosehill saw John O'Shea's debutant Robodira (2 f Husson - Don't Blink by Redoute's Choice) kick off her career with a commanding victory over 1100 metres, defeating Godolphin's Max Lees Classic (900m) winner Sliders (Street Boss).

Closely related to Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) winner Husson Lightning (Hussonet), Robodira, short of room for much of the straight, eventually found the gap before taking the prize under Brenton Avdulla.

Fifteen minutes later, Godolphin was able to atone with a debutant of their own, Paulele (2 c Dawn Approach - Chatoyant by Flying Spur).

A three-quarter brother to Montsegur (New Approach) and a half-brother to Tessera (Medaglia d'Oro), the big-striding Paulele raced clear for a two-length success and looked to have plenty in hand under John Allen.

The equivalent races in Sydney and Melbourne last year saw both winners, Muntaseera (I Am Invincible) and Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa), progress to both the Blue Diamond Stakes and the Golden Slipper Stakes. Muntaseera, who scored at her second start at Rosehill, finished fifth and 11th in each race respectively, while Tagaloa won the Blue Diamond before finishing third to Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) in the Golden Slipper.

O'Shea said that the Golden Slipper would be the target for Ron

Outrageous

Finemore's homebred Robodira.

"I jumped her out I reckon in May and I rang Ron and said, 'well, you've got one'," O'Shea said. "I just popped her out of the gates and knew straight away. She had good ability as a type, she's a genuine two-year-old hope.

"She'll go to the paddock and she'll come back in the autumn and we'll give her a chance."

Godolphin's Melbourne foreman Sean Keogh said that head trainer James Cummings, who was in Victoria this week, gave the green light for Paulele to debut, with the son of Dawn Approach (New Approach) still far from the finished product.

"He came down as our second bunch of two-year-olds from Crown Lodge," Keogh told Racing.com. "He was probably the quiet achiever of the stable and the last couple of weeks he's really put it together.

"Lucky enough we had James down during the week and he enjoyed his work here at the Valley during the week and thought he could run a nice race.

"We needed James' call to run the horse because he's probably not furnished enough and where we need him at the moment - there's a lot more to come from this horse."

One from left field who also impressed in that timeframe is Townsville maiden winner Sweet Dolly (2 f Real Saga - Sweet Cherub by Canny Lad), who was purchased for $1,500 from the Raheen Stud draft at the 2019 Magic Millions National Weanling Sale.

Sent out $1.45 favourite after a comfortable Rockhampton barrier trial win, the Kevin Hansen-trained Sweet Dolly looked as professional as can be, quickening powerfully to win by almost six lengths.

Ineligible for the Magic Millions race series, the filly - the fifth winner out of Ipswich victor Sweet Cherub (Canny Lad) - shapes as a potential type for the $500,000 QTIS 2YO Jewel (1200m) in March. The same race saw subsequent Group 1 winner Rothfire (Rothsay) strike his first defeat at $1.20 this year when beaten by Kisukano (Bel Esprit).

AUSTRALIA

Six for Street Boss

Darley's Street Boss (Street Cry) brought up his sixth individual Group or Grade 1 winner yesterday, and just his second in Australia, when Elite Street (4 g ex Elite Ateates by Exceed And Excel) ran out a surprise winner of the Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Ascot. The victory also represented his 42nd individual stakes winner, with Elite Street making his first appearance against stakes company. The consistent Street Boss stood at Darley's Northwood Park property in Victoria for $27,500 (inc GST) in 2020.

19 for All Too Hard

Vinery Stud's All Too Hard (Casino Prince) brought up his 19th individual stakes winner yesterday when Outrageous (5 g ex Fit And Ready by More Than Ready) took out the Festival Stakes (Gr 3, 1500m) at Rosehill, defeating Royal Celebration (Excelebration) and Evalina (I Am Invincible). All Too Hard stands for $27,500 (inc GST) in 2020.

First for Typhon

One More Jack (5 g ex Husson Spirit by Hussonet) gave Glenrae Stud's Typhon (God's Own) a first stakes winner when victorious in the City Of Marion Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Morphettville yesterday. Typhon stands for $1,650 (inc GST) in 2020.

179 for Exceed And Excel

Darley's Exceed And Excel (Danahill) brought up his 179th individual stakes winner when the pregnant Invictus Salute (5 m ex Acquired by O'Reilly) flashed home to take out yesterday's Starlight Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Rosehill. The Mark Newnham-trained Invictus Salute, ridden by Rachel King, produced a grinding effort after getting off the back of long-time leader Spaceboy (Deep Field) to grab the Gary Portelli trainee by a short neck. Third, three-quarters of a length away, was Viridine (Poet's Voice), a pimple in front of Inanup (Bon Hoffa). Raced by Sledmere Stud, Invictus Salute - who was passed in with an $850,000 reserve at this year's Inglis Chairman's Sale - is a half-brother to Group 2 winner Splintex (Snitzel), while dam Acquired (O'Reilly) was a multiple stakes placegetter. Exceed And Excel stood at Darley Kelvinside for $132,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

Invictus 'Salutes' one last time

The breeding barn has already beckoned for Invictus Salute, who took out what was likely to be her final start in yesterday's Starlight Stakes. Invictus Salute was covered by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) days after finishing midfield in the Sheraco Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) in September and has tested in-foal, with pregnancy seemingly agreeing with the mare. She has added two wins in November, including her first black-type victory yesterday, one that makes her foal that much more valuable. "That'll probably be her last start now," her trainer Mark Newnham said. "She's in foal to I Am Invincible so we've added value to her and her offspring. She's carrying some valuable cargo there, a really good performance from horse and rider, everything worked out for her." It was Newnham's second stakes winner for the day after Greysful Glamour (Stratum) earlier took out the ATC Cup (Listed, 2000m), while it was one of four victories for rider Rachel King.

22 for Statue Of Liberty

The pensioned Statue Of Liberty (Storm Cat) produced his 22nd individual stakes winner when Grandview Avenue (5 g ex Magic By Gosh by Magic Albert) took out yesterday's Carlyon Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Moonee Valley. Sent out as a $7.50 chance in a wide-open market, the Simon Ryan-trained Grandview Avenue looked the winner a long way from home, eventually crossing the line a length and three-quarters in front of Prophet's Thumb (I Am Invincible), with the returning Prezado (Denman) a length and a half away in third. Bred by Ryan's father-in-law Peter McLaren, Grandview Avenue is a brother to Magic Millions 2YO Clockwise Classic (1000m) winner Claro El Banco. Statue Of Liberty was retired in 2018, having stood 12 seasons in Australia at Eliza Park and its successor Sun Stud.

Rescheduled Carlyon a blessing for Ryan, Nugent

The thought of Grandview Avenue as a Carlyon Stakes winner in mid-August would have seemed baffling. As he made his return from a winter spell, Grandview Avenue was bound for a Warrnambool Benchmark 64 instead of the Carlyon Stakes two days later. However, the Carlyon Stakes was one of two races which were pushed back from August 22 to yesterday after that day's card was washed out mid-meeting. The rescheduled fixture proved a perfect spot for Grandview Avenue, who has come into his own at his last two starts, giving trainer Simon Ryan and rider Teo Nugent a first stakes win each. "I've won a Saturday race at Caulfield, won at Flemington and I have won a couple of races here, and just got beaten in a Mornington Cup," Ryan, who oversees a five-horse stable, told Racing.com. "To be honest it has caught me completely off guard, we thought he'd run well but couldn't have foreseen that, it'll sink in on the way home. I'm really proud of the horse, he's come a long way." Nugent added: "I used to ride this horse a lot early days when he broke his maiden and I won on him at Dunkeld. To see him progress through the grades, he put the writing on the wall at Flemington when he finished a creditable fifth (on Stakes Day). He gave them weight last start in the 955-metre race and he ran some time. I was really confident coming into today."

11 for Ocean Park

Ocean Beyond (3 g ex Frankly by Pins) continued the unbeaten start to his career when taking out the McKenzie Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Moonee Valley yesterday, earning Waikato Stud's Ocean Park (Thorn Park) his 11th individual stakes winner in the process. Ocean Beyond, purchased by Daniel Bowman for $60,000 at New Zealand Bloodstock's Ready-To-Run Sale last November, impressed on debut at Moonee Valley, comfortably landing his maiden (1212m) by one and a quarter lengths, and made relatively light work of this Listed contest with a half-length defeat of Deep Speed (Deep Field). The front two pulled three lengths clear of third-placed Free To Move (Unencumbered), while $2.50 favourite Nicolini Vito (Nicconi) finished sixth of the seven runners. Ocean Park, the sire of Group 1 winners Kolding and Tofane, stands at Waikato Stud for NZ$20,000 (plus GST).

Coffey back in the city

Jockey Harry Coffey made a triumphant return to riding in the city when he partnered Ocean Beyond to McKenzie Stakes victory yesterday. Coffey, who suffers from cystic fibrosis, was having his first ride in the city since February, as the Covid 19-pandemic meant the 25-year-old had to be extra cautious due to his disease. He decided to step away from the saddle in March and did not return until mid-June. "I've ridden constantly since I was 15 in a hectic industry. To have three months at home with the family, and now fiance, it was pretty good," Coffey said. "I'm back bigger and better than ever and I'm a happy man." Winning trainer Daniel Bowman added: "It's great to see Harry get this opportunity. He is up to it when the chance comes. I met Harry the same day I met my wife when he rode his first winner at Wycheproof a few years ago so it's good to ride a Listed winner for us."

74 for Not A Single Doubt

Niedorp (4 m ex Black Tulip by Lonhro) earned Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) his 74th individual stakes winner when taking out the Spirit Of Boom Classic (Listed, 1200m) at Doomben yesterday. Niedorp defeated Blazing Miss (Sizzling) into second, with Jadentom (Rothsay) in third. Arrowfield's Not A Single Doubt, the sire of 14 individual Group 1 winners, was retired from stud service in January 2020, following a diagnosis of pulmonary disease.

Niedorp too speedy in Spirit Of Boom

Niedorp had failed on her three previous attempts in Listed company but proved too good for her rivals in the Spirit Of Boom. The Tony Gollan-trained mare took the lead early on and trounced her rivals from the front under a smart ride from apprentice Georgina Cartwright, who arrived in Queensland in early September on a three-month loan to Gollan. Cartwright knew how much speed she had underneath her and drove Niedorp out for a comfortable half-length victory over Blazing Miss, with $2.90 favourite Jadentom finishing just under a length behind the winner in third.

164 for Fastnet Rock

Fastnet Rock (Danehill) registered a pair of new stakes winners on both sides of the Tasman with a well-travelled duo providing the Coolmore sire with his 163rd and 164th winners respectively. Gino Severini (7 g ex Green Castle by Indian Ridge), a half-brother to champion Irish filly Millisle (Starspangledbanner), broke through at stakes level in the Eagle Technology Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Ellerslie, with the one-time Ireland and Hong Kong trainee making it 163 for Fastnet Rock. Gino Severini swept home from near last to grab The Mitigator (Master Of Design) in the shadows of the post, with a length and a half back to Sultan Of Swing (Bachelor Duke) in third. Hours later, The Harrovian (7 g ex Harrow by Dehere) - who began his career with Jim Conlan in Victoria before beginning a new career in northern Queensland - scored a first stakes win with his tenth victory in succession, taking out the Recognition Stakes (Listed, 1350m) at Doomben. Despite carrying top weight of 59 kilograms and conceding at least two kilograms to each of his rivals, The Harrovian proved too strong, defeating Red Chase (Red Element) by a length and a quarter with a short neck to Profit (Dundeel) in third. Fastnet Rock stands for $165,000 (inc GST) at Coolmore this season.

North Queensland cult horse makes it ten straight

Tom Hedley has made a habit of identifying talents, racing them through the grades in northern Queensland and then seeing them step up against seemingly stronger company in Brisbane. The owner achieved the feat with this year's Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Tyzone (Written Tycoon) and he might have another potential Group 1 contender following a similar path after The Harrovian took out the Recognition Stakes. The Harrovian, who was purchased for $20,000 after winning three of his first 14 starts in Victoria, has won 13 of his 15 starts since heading north, first for Cairns trainer Stephen Massingham before joining the Toby and Trent Edmonds yard earlier this month. Among his wins is the Townsville Cup (2000m), the Cairns Cup (2100m) and the Cairns Amateur Cup (2100m), three of ten victories among a winning streak that shapes as one of the best stories of 2020.

73 for Street Sense

Royal Command (7 g ex Stormy Nova by Metal Storm) brought up a 73rd individual stakes winner for Street Sense (Street Cry) when comfortably taking out yesterday's Tattersall's Cup (Listed, 2100m) at Ascot. Seven-year-old Royal Command, who finished third in the Ascot Gold Cup (Listed, 1800m) a fortnight previously, took the lead inside the final 200 metres and pulled clear with ease under Willie Pike, defeating Paddy's Shadow (Dane Shadow) by one and a half lengths, with Arctic Stream (High Chaparral) close behind in third. Bred by Bob Peters, Royal Command is from the final southern hemisphere-bred crop of Darley's Street Sense, who stood five seasons in Australia. He will stand in the US for a fee of US$60,000 (approx. AUD$81,200) in 2021.

Second stakes win for Glamour

Tough mare Greysful Glamour (5 m Stratum - Ripple by Dalakhani) doesn't win out of turn, but she was at her brilliant best yesterday in taking out the ATC Cup. Allowed to freewheel on the lead, she was rated perfectly on the speed by Rachel King to score by two and a half lengths over Laure Me In (Ad Valorem) with Mantastic (Fastnet Rock) another three-quarters of a length away in third. Greysful Glamour was posting her second stakes victory after she took out the Mannerism Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) earlier this year, adding to a career that has seen her placed at Group 1 level and competitive against some of the best horses in town. "She's one of the first horses I had, and she's given us some great moments," winning trainer Mark Newnham said. "And judging by that there's still a few to go. She got conditions to suit today. Dry ground, got to the front, familiar jockey and light weight." After later adding the Starlight Stakes with Invictus Salute Newnham said. "That was really satisfying. A bit like Greysful, a couple of mares I've had pretty much since I started training. To have them both win stakes races on the same day is very, very satisfying."

One More Try atones for Ballarat Cup ballot

One More Try (Dane Shadow) ended her two-year wait for a win with victory in the Benchmark 90 event over 2040 metres at Moonee Valley yesterday, atoning for being balloted out of last weekend's Ballarat Cup (Listed, 2000m), which Matt Cumani had stated as the mare's target. Ridden by Craig Williams, One More Try defeated Barade (Havana Gold) by a head, with Hang Man (Windsor Knot) a further length behind in third. "She's been a bit frustrating, but she clearly is a good horse," Cumani told Racing.com. "She's been flying home late and the form all around her has been working out beautifully. Today, a bit of a drop in class, I was hoping that she could do it but I was a little bit worried when she got shuffled back. Luckily he (Williams) got her out in time and got her across the line in front."

Autumn beckons for All Banter

Richard and Chantelle Jolly's exciting filly All Banter (I'm All The Talk) will be brought back for an autumn campaign after impressively taking out the Benchmark 78 contest for fillies and mares over 1000 metres at Moonee Valley yesterday. The three-year-old, who has three wins from five starts, eased to a two-length victory over Kalkarni Royale (Nicconi), with Lady Brook (Hinchinbrook) a further two lengths back in third. "It was good to watch, she was always travelling terrific in the run and when Jamie let her go she really exploded," Richard Jolly told Racing.com. "I'm really happy with that win, she's on the improve. We've had a few hiccups with her, she had a chip taken out of her knee before she went to the races and that was in her first prep, so it hasn't been easy going with her. She could have had more starts had she been a bit sounder, but we've just given her time and we're reaping the rewards now because it looks like she's getting better. We bought her from Perth, we only paid $30,000 for her at Magic Millions. I think she showed today that she's good enough to have a crack at three-year-old stakes races but as we get towards Christmas there's not a lot coming up for her and the tracks are hard, so I think we'll give her a little break and come back in the autumn."

Century for Price

Will Price notched his 100th career winner at Moonee Valley yesterday, having only begun his riding career last spring. The jockey guided Ocean's Thirteen (Ocean Park) to victory in the Benchmark 64 event over 1600 metres and was delighted to be welcomed back to the winner's circle with vocal support from a handful of Ocean Thirteen's owners. "I'd only ridden in front of crowds for three or four months," the 20-year-old told Racing.com. "To ride a winner at The Valley on a Saturday and to have a few boys here is really super. I got a little cheer on the way to the gates too." Co-trainer David Eustace also paid tribute to the owners in attendance. "So pleased for the owners and for the filly," he said. "They really deserved that. They've (owners) been very patient across the state. They've been looking to get out here and on-track as soon as possible. Hopefully we can get a few more here and get some crowds here to enjoy the racing."

Waller pays tribute to Triple Honour

Chris Waller yesterday paid tribute to Triple Honour (Honours List) after the horse who provided him with his first Group 1 winner died aged 16. The trainer said on Twitter: "A sad day today saying goodbye to Triple Honour, a special horse who has given us great memories. He was respected by so many, and importantly in his life after racing he continued to capture hearts. Thanks to Clare, Annie, Jimmy, Anna and so many others for all the love and care." Triple Honour, who took out the 2008 Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) for Waller, recorded seven wins from 53 career starts, amassing total prize-money of $2,221,960 in a career in which he also bagged a pair of Group 2 victories.

Ryan to be discharged

Apprentice jockey Brock Ryan has been cleared of any head injuries after a fall at Canterbury on Friday night and will be discharged from hospital. Ryan was knocked unconscious when falling nastily from Carluca (Volitant) after running into the back of Star Karen (Camelot) in the Iron Hack Handicap (1550m). Thankfully, CT scans conducted at Royal Prince Alfred Hospital have given Ryan the all clear.

NEW ZEALAND

First for Spill The Beans

Tellall (3 g ex Devil's Angel by Danehill Dancer) provided the late Spill The Beans (Snitzel) with his first stakes winner when taking out the Trevor Eagle Memorial (Listed, 1500m) at Ellerslie yesterday. Tellall impressively defeated Helsinki (Savabeel) by one and a half lengths, with Fleetwood Maca (Rock 'n' Pop) close behind in third. Spill The Beans, who has 27 winners from 81 runners, died unexpectedly last November after standing at Aquis Stud between 2016 and 2019.

Tellall a potential Derby candidate

Trainer Tony Pike has mooted Tellall as a potential New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) contender following his impressive victory, which was his third in four starts. Micheal McNab settled Tellall on the tail of pacemaker

Sweet Hunter (Swiss Ace) before issuing a challenge at the top of the straight and Tellall quickly put a two-length gap between himself and the chasing pack. "He looks pretty progressive and very professional so it's onwards and upwards from here," Pike said. "He has good early speed and then can switch himself off so that takes a lot of luck out of the equation. He is quite deceptive in that he is a big, strong individual who gets down low in his galloping action so he can give the impression there is not that much to him. He handled the weight (58.5 kilograms) well and once he got to the front it was pretty much game over at that stage." Tellall holds nominations for both the Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) and the New Zealand Derby later in the summer. "I'll see how he pulls up before we make any more plans for him as I do want to keep his races spaced," Pike continued. "I think at this stage we will look at the Auckland Guineas at Ellerslie on New Year day and then go from there."

19 for No Excuse Needed

Hunta Pence (8 g ex Vanitas by Pins) notched his first stakes victory on his 54th start when taking out the Wanganui Cup (Listed, 2040m) yesterday, providing the late No Excuse Needed (Machiavellian) with his 19th individual stakes winner. Hunta Pence defeated Overtheriver (Mettre En Jeu) by a length, with Sir Nate (Nadeem) another four and a half lengths back in third. No Excuse Needed, who stood at Wakaito Stud, was fatally injured in a 2015 paddock accident aged 17.

Third time lucky for Hunta Pence

Veteran galloper Hunta Pence was rewarded for his perseverance when finally landing the Wanganui Cup after finishing runner-up in the race in the past two years. The Patrick Campbell-trained eight-year-old made it third-time lucky in the hands of Darryl Bradley. The jockey urged Hunta Pence to the front with 800 metres to run and established a three-length break on his rivals approaching the home turn, with Overtheriver only able to get within a length of the winner at the line.

Campbell had been hoping for an improved effort from his charge after he had been unlucky in several of his lead-up runs. "He hasn't had the best of luck this time in as he has struck some tracks that just don't suit him," the trainer said. "I thought he was ready to show some improvement as he has a great record at Wanganui and the past two years, he has been beaten by Group 1 winners in this race, which is no disgrace at all. A few things were in his favour today and added to that was a top ride by Darryl."

Well-travelled Severini scores stakes victory

Gino Severini (7 g ex Green Castle by Indian Ridge) put in a balling performance to run down his rivals in the Eagle Technology Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Ellerslie yesterday and in turn record his first stakes success. The Bruce Wallace and Grant Cooksley-trained seven-year-old had placed in each of his three previous starts in this campaign but went one better when defeating The Mitigator (Master Of Design) by a head, with Sultan Of Swing (Bachelor Duke) a further one and a half lengths back in third. "He always tries really hard and is normally thereabouts," Cooksley said. "I think he can go on most tracks and over most distances but he does seem to like it at Ellerslie. It was a good win as the runner-up can be a very hard horse to get past."

Te Akau's juvenile domination continues

Jamie Richards and Te Akau Racing continued their dominance of spring two-year-old racing when they notched their sixth individual juvenile winner at Ellerslie yesterday, while also adding the quinella for good measure. Sneaky Shark (Capitalist), the $2.20 favourite for the 1100-metre maiden, had to settle for runner-up after being outgunned in the closing stages by stablemate Millefiori (Iffraaj), who landed the race by a head. The pair pulled well clear of Dragon's Kiss (Divine Prophet), who finished a further two and a half lengths back in third.

Richards was pleased with the display by Millefiori, who is being targeted at the $1m Karaka Million 2YO (1200m) in January. "She's been a filly that we've always liked and has had a good preparation," he said. "She'd had a trial, then we backed off her before having another trial up here to have a look around Ellerslie, before hopefully being back here at the end of January for the Karaka Million. She's a filly that Dave (Ellis) selected out of the Karaka Book 2 sale. By Iffraaj, out of a young Savabeel mare, and Winx is back in the family, so we thought she was very good value at $65,000."

ASIA

15 for Rulership

Wonderful Town (2 c ex Sea Of Love by Deep Impact) yesterday joined the likes of Victoire Pisa (Neo Universe), Epiphaneia (Symboli Kris S) and Tosen Stardom (Deep Impact) by taking out the Kyoto Nisai Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Hanshin, giving sire Rulership (King Kamehameha) his 15th individual stakes victor. Ridden by Ryuji Wada, the Yoshitada Takahashi-trained Wonderful Town - sent out third favourite - came from a long way back and wide to produce a tough staying performance, defeating Lagom (Orfevre) by three-quarters of a length with a further three-quarters back to Machaon d'Or (Gold Ship) in third. Rulership will stand his ninth season at Shadai Stallion Station in 2021.

HK: Lope Y Fernandez, Peaceful out of HKIR

Aidan O'Brien's team heading to Hong Kong for the International meeting at Sha Tin on December 13 has been reduced by two after Ireland's perennial champion trainer yesterday withdrew both Lope Y Fernandez (Lope De Vega) and Peaceful (Galileo). Despite the absence of Lope Y Fernandez, O'Brien will still be represented in the Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) by Breeders' Cup Mile (Gr 1, 1m) winner Order Of Australia (Australia), while stablemate Magical (Galileo) will now be the stable's sole runner in the Hong Kong Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) in the absence of Peaceful.

INTERNATIONAL

Double for Shalaa

Arrowfield shuttler Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) was on the mark once again yesterday when victory for Mission Accomplish (2 c ex Gaazaal by Ifraaj) in a 1200-metre nursery at Syracuse in Sicily provided him with his 22nd individual winner, following the victory of the Ken Condon-trained Let's (2 f ex Elizabeth by Westerner) at Dundalk on Friday night. Having his second career start, the Sebastiano Cannavo-trained Mission Accomplish beat Sociality (Mayson) by a length and a half, with a gap of another eight lengths back to Uncertain Distance (Buratino) in third. Let's, trained by Ken Condon, broke his maiden at the third time of asking, defeating Twilight Man (Twilight Son) by three and three-quarter lengths, with Smart Remark (Tamayuz) a further half-length behind in third. Shalaa's 2021 fee at Haras de Bouquetot has been set at €15,000 (approx. AUD$24,295).

SAF: Superstar Summer Pudding takes Summer Cup

Summer Pudding (4 f Silvano - Cherry On The Cake by Strike Smartly) scored her ninth successive triumph when taking out the Summer Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) at Turffontein with 59 kilograms on her back yesterday. Trained by Paul Peter, multiple Grade 1 winner Summer Pudding put two and a half lengths between her and runner-up Running Brave (Brave Tin Soldier), who brought up a female one-two. The pair pulled well clear of Tree Tumbo (Silvano), who was a further four and three-quarter lengths behind in third.

11 for Elusive Fort

Catch Twentytwo (3 g ex Ignition Lady by Argonaut) brought more success for Paul Peter when impressively taking out The Dingaans (Gr 2, 1600m) at Turffontein yesterday, providing Elusive Fort (Fort Wood) with his 11th individual stakes winner. Ridden by Gavin Lerena, Catch Twentytwo saw off Mk's Pride (Willow Magic) by two and a quarter lengths, with 50-1 chance Bingwa (Pathfork) a neck behind in third. Elusive Fort, who has three elite-level winners to his name courtesy of Lauderdale, Out Of Your League and Siren's Call, stands at Black Swan Stud in South Africa.

First for Act Of War

Act Of War (Dynasty) sired his first stakes winner when his daughter War Of Athena (3 f ex Qaphela by Requiem I) landed Turffontein's Ipi Tombe Challenge (Gr 2, 1400m). Sent off the 5-4 favourite, the filly was winning for the fourth time in ten starts when beating Queen Supreme (Exceed And Excel) by a length and three quarters, with Sentbydestiny (Master Of My Fate) the same margin away in third. Trained by Paul Matchett, War Of Athena had previously made the frame twice in Group 1 company. Act Of War won eight of his 12 starts, including victory in the Cape Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m).

14 for What A Winter

Winter Smoke (3 f ex Chatanooga Chuchu by Cataloochee) made it three wins in six starts when her victory in yesterday's Magnolia Handicap (Gr 3, 1160m) at Turffontein provided her sire What A Winter (Western Winter) with his 13th individual stakes winner. Trained by Ashley Fortune, Winter Smoke beat Gallic Princess (Vercingetorix) by three quarters of a length, with Double 'O' Eight (Eightfold Path) a further half a length behind in third. What A Winter is the sire of three elite level winners in his native South Africa.

59 for Oratorio

Ultra Magnus (5 g ex Field Star by Lecture), who finished runner-up in the Sun Sprint (Gr

1, 1200m) earlier this year, provided Oratorio (Danehill) with his 59th individual stakes winner when taking out The Merchants (Gr 3, 1160m) at Turffontein yesterday. The Peter Muscutt-trained gelding scooted clear impressively in the final 100 metres to score by two lengths from Eden Roc (Var), with Bold Ransom (Bold Silvano) a head behind in third. Oratorio, a multiple Group 1 winner in Europe when trained by Aidan O'Brien, stands at Avontuur Estate in South Africa for R20,000 (approx. AUD$1,775).

First for Bodemeister

Bodexpress (4 c ex Pied A Terre by City Zip) took out the Clark Handicap (Gr 1, 9f) at Churchill Downs on Friday to provide Bodemeister (Empire Maker) with his first elite-level success. The Gustavo Delgado-trained Bodexpress ran on to lead inside the final furlong and kept on well to defeat favourite Code Of Honor (Noble Mission) by a length, with Owendale (Into Mischief) a further length behind in third. WinStar stallion Bodemeister, who landed the Arkansas Derby (Gr 1, 9f) during his race career, stands for US$25,000 (approx. AUD$33,850).

139 for Tapit

Mrs. Danvers (3 f ex Gracie Square by Awesome Again) trounced her opposition when landing the Comely Stakes (Gr 3, 9f) at Aqueduct on Friday, earning Tapit (Pulpit) his 139th individual stakes winner. Ridden by Jose Lezcano, Mrs. Danvers defeated Ice Princess (Palace Malice) by six and a half lengths, with Thankful (American Pharoah) a further four lengths behind in third. Gainesway Stud-based stallion Tapit, who had his first stakes winner in Australia earlier this year with Love Tap, will stand for US$185,000 (approx. AUD$250,500) in 2021

Dubawi's day again as Godolphin secure 700,000gns headline act

BY TOM PEACOCK | RACING POST

It took a long time for the fog to lift above Park Paddocks, seemingly an appropriate meteorological metaphor to describe racing's wider uncertainties as the statistics rumbled along beneath what would usually be expected for the premier day of foal offerings.

Step forward the potent combination of two sons of Dubawi (Dubai Millennium), one of which became the equal second-highest priced colt ever bought at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale, with both knocked down to Anthony Stroud and Godolphin for combined receipts of 1,300,000gns (approx. AUD$2.46 million) within only a few minutes.

The 2.5 million guineas paid for Padua's Pride (Caerleon), the brother of Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Generous, back in 1997 is a mark that shredded most others in bloodstock but the 700,000gns (approx. AUD$1.32 million) for Airlie Stud's half-brother to champion juvenile Skitter Scatter (Scat Daddy), followed by 600,000gns (approx. AUD$1.14 million) for a colt consigned by Fittocks Stud and a few other hefty transactions in an early evening flurry, pulled the session average far closer to its now regular six-figure mark.

Stroud spoke after buying the top lot, out of the Street Cry (Machiavellian) mare Dane Street.

"In all these decisions, we're always trying to aim for quality and this is a horse David [Loder] and I really loved," he said. "He comes from a great nursery and is obviously by Dubawi, who we absolutely love."

Fittocks, the Newmarket operation of Luca and Sara Cumani, had consigned lot 944 on behalf of Hoppegarten racecourse owner Gerhard Schoeningh out of his High Chaparral (Sadler's Wells) mare Baisse and Sheikh Mohammed's Godolphin have been back for more since tasting victory in the Cantala Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) with her earlier foal Best Of Days (Azamour).

Lot 939: Dubawi - Dane Street colt

LAURA GREEN

"She's actually the only mare he has, she boards with us," Sara Cumani explained. "The two-year-old sister Summerland is with Charlie Appleby and the yearling [by Nathaniel] is called Beau Rivage, the owner hasn't decided where she's going into training yet. She's in foal to Frankel and going to Sea The Moon.

"We're delighted with where she's gone, and just thrilled to be here at the sale."

Frankel (Galileo) had topped last year's sale with the 600,000gns colt out of the top-class Simple Verse (Duke Of Marmalade), and the champion's breeders Juddmonte went close to eclipsing that when taking another of his sons for 550,000gns (approx. AUD$1.03 million). A half-brother to this year's Mill Reef Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) winner Alkumait (Showcasing), he was another dream result for breeders Whitsbury Manor Stud.

"I am so pleased Juddmonte have got him, it's going to be so satisfying seeing him in the pink and green," said Whitsbury's Ed Harper.

Ringfort run continues

Along with Miss Amulet (Sir Prancealot) and Ubettabelieveit (Kodiac), Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) winner Minzaal (Mehmas) has formed part of what has been a banner season for Derek Veitch's Ringfort Stud, a run of form which continued when he sold the latter's Belardo (Lope De Vega) half-brother for 280,000gns (approx. AUD$530,000) to agent Alex Elliott.

"It's been a superb racing year and that's topped it all off," said Veitch.

"It's nice to be able to have a bit of success on the track and to then bring a couple of nice foals, and everybody sort of expects to see them now. I hope I can keep up my own standards!"

Elliott explained that the purchase was the first in foal for Amo Racing, the operation of football uber-agent Kia Joorabchian which has been a notable yearling purchaser.

"If you take out the pinhookers, there are a lot fewer end-user buyers up against you," Elliott said. "If you are patient enough, you can buy value. We stretched to buy him but we took the view that if he was here as a yearling, he'd have been even more. He was pretty faultless, to be honest.

"Amo has a Belardo filly called Lullaby Moon with Ralph Beckett who won the Prix Miesque and will probably go for something like the Fred Darling and could be a Guineas filly."

Another Warrior wonder

Some words of wisdom from jockey Ryan Moore about Saxon Warrior (Deep Impact) stuck in the mind of Andy Lloyd and three years later they paid off when a filly from his first crop also sold for 280,000gns (approx. AUD$530,000).

Lloyd, the former international cricketer who manages Steven Smith's Hunscombe Stud, was on the ground to see the February 18-foaled daughter of the unraced Archangel Gabriel (Arch), jointly owned with Chris Humber, catch the eye of pinhooker Philipp Stauffenberg.

“IF YOU ARE PATIENT ENOUGH, YOU CAN BUY VALUE. WE STRETCHED TO BUY HIM BUT WE TOOK THE VIEW THAT IF HE WAS HERE AS A YEARLING, HE'D HAVE BEEN EVEN MORE. HE WAS PRETTY FAULTLESS, TO BE HONEST.

-ALEX ELLIOTT

"She's an absolute darling and I'm very sorry to see her go but it's a lot of money so you have to be commercial sometimes," he said, praising the foal's consignor Jenny Norris.

"We all kind of fancied Saxon Warrior as a racehorse, he won the Racing Post Trophy about an hour after we had a runner at Doncaster, Ryan was riding for us, it was terrible ground, but Ryan said Saxon Warrior was a very good horse, he goes on any ground and I've always followed him since then.

"He won a strong Guineas and I think he's a really good stamp of a stallion. You can see some of the results he's been getting, apart from this one, and I think he has a real chance of making it."

No decisions have been made on a cover for Archangel Gabriel, a half-sister to National Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) winner Kingsfort (War Chant), but her daughter Ville De Grace (Le Havre) has shown considerable promise in two starts for Sir Michael Stoute. "How far she'll progress, who knows," said Lloyd.

By close of play, the day-three year-on-year aggregate was down just four per cent to 16,297,000gns (approx. AUD$30.84 million) and the average of 87,618gns (approx. AUD$165,825) had dipped 12 per cent from last year's 100,012gns.

The median had fallen eight per cent to 59,000gns from 65,000gns (approx. AUD$111,650) but the clearance rate of 87 per cent was a good improvement from last year's 81.

Tiger Roar gives Munger more hay to make

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

Top fancy Tiger Roar (Wandjina) handed Ryan Munger another winner yesterday, but there are only four meetings left in the Singapore season for the South African jockey to pad up his current score of 16 winners.

Munger is the only expatriate jockey from the pool who remained at Kranji in this post-Circuit Breaker phase of the 2020 season to not have asked to be renewed next year.

All the other six namely Vlad Duric, Ruan Maia, Louis-Philippe Beuzelin, Marc Lerner, John Powell and fellow South African Juan Paul van der Merwe have been granted a one-year extension on application.

When the pandemic brought Singapore racing to a screeching halt in April, four foreign jockeys cut short their stay, Daniel Moor, Michael Rodd, Alysha Collett and Patrick Moloney, and headed to Australia.

Munger, who began his stint in January, was among those who stuck it out when racing went into hibernation for three months from April to July.

As much as he does not regret his move and wished he could stick around for another season, any longer stay would hurt his pocket even further.

"It's been one of these decisions that gave me many sleepless nights as I've really enjoyed my time here," he said after his victory.

"But it's been a bit hard when meetings were dropped from two a week to one while the cost of living has remained the same, i.e. very expensive.

"These are really uncertain times and it could become a huge problem. So, I've decided to go back to my base in Johannesburg.

"My agent has already spoken to some trainers and the good thing about South Africa is I don't have to do any quarantine, just a 72-hour Covid-19 test and if I'm negative, I'm good to go.

Tiger Roar and Ryan Munger on the outside

"In saying this, I hope when the whole Covid-19 situation has calmed down, I would like to ride overseas again, and Singapore would definitely be a place I would consider as long as it's two race meetings a week again."

The 25-year-old, who was crowned Zimbabwe champion apprentice in 2018, is leaving with the proud knowledge he has done his best, even if he did not garner the best rides.

Munger may not get the pick of the rides, let alone in feature races, but he amazingly finished second in all three Legs of the prestigious Singapore Triple Crown series. Nobody remembers second places in big races, but Munger still feels a slight twinge at the thought.

"It's a bittersweet pill but if you had told me when I just got here I would be riding in the Group 1 races here, I would tell you I had no hope at all.

"I have to thank all the trainers and owners who supported me, especially Ricardo Le Grange who helped me find my feet at the beginning.

"I've done very well here and I'm leaving with my head held high. I really like the place and met great people here."

Munger is hoping to see out the remaining month of his term, but it will all depend on his air ticket and wife Kelsey's booking.

"My booking has been changed around a few times. I'm hoping to ride till the last meeting (December 27)," he said.

"But I'm definitely riding at the Colonial Chief Stakes meeting (December 19)."

On Tiger Roar's nose win in the $50,000 Class 4 race over 1800 metres, Munger said the colt again showed a tendency of stopping when he should be putting the race to bed.

"I didn't want to smack him, I thought I could ride him all hands, but like he did at his last races, he was looking for company," said Munger.

"I gave him a few smacks and that's when he ran past the other horse."

While Tiger Roar only got one nose past, winning trainer Michael Clements didn't think it was a laborious win per se.

"It looked like he made hard work of it, but I'm still very happy with the win. He's only a three-year-old, and he did well at the middle of the handicap," said Clements.

"The Long Course suited him as well as he had more time to wind up. Ryan gets on well with him as he's won on him before, and he rode him well again."

Chocante (Fastnet Rock) bounced back to winning ways in the $50,000 Class 4 Division 1 race over 1100 metres under a determined Duric ride.

"He won five starts ago with Vlad in a 1200-metre race. I thought 1100 metres would be too short, but he was wearing blinkers for the first time since his first start," winning trainer Shane Baertschiger said.

"I just told Vlad to ride him where he was happy and he rode him a treat, but to me, the horse is more of a 1200-metre horse."

"We had a good run throughout and he is back to his best form," Duric summed up. "Everything went right for him and we got there right in time."

Chocante was the second of three winners on the card for Duric who had taken the opener aboard Tigarous (Dragon Pulse) before going on to land win number 63 for the season on favourite Marikh (Smart Missile).

It was a sad day today saying goodbye to Triple Honour, a special horse who has given us some great memories. He was respected by so many, and importantly in his life after racing he continued to capture hearts. Thanks to Clare, Annie, Jimmy, Anna and so many others for all the love and care you gave him.

Then followed: Demonetization (AUS), Vadavar (FR), Aligns With Me (NZ), Beauden (NZ), Charles Road (AUS), Tiptronic (NZ) & Redcayenne (NZ), last.

Analysis: Progressive four-year-old gelding Elite Street took his record to five wins from eight starts in taking out his first stakes victory at the elite level here to remain unbeaten in three runs this preparation. He settled nicely in eighth place, one off the rails, tracking a quick tempo before moving up (deep) nearing the turn. He then sprinted quickly, hit the front at the 100m and then went on to score convincingly. Celebrity Queen settled near the tail of the field on the rails, improved between runners at the turn, eased deeper and into clear running at the 100m and then ran on really well for second in a smart performance. Rock Magic had a good run in sixth place, improved nicely at the turn, challenged at the 200m and then fought well for third. The favourite Trekking settled just beyond midfield, between runners, eased wider and into clear running at the 200m and then ran on quite well, without threatening, for (1.7 lengths) fourth. Flirtini was second-last until approaching the turn and then caught the eye in running on for (2.5 lengths) fifth. [KB]

Betting: $4.80, $21.00, $17.00.

Then followed: Mr Marathon Man (GB), Phaistos (AUS), Sambro (AUS), Through The Cracks (AUS), Gaulois (AUS), Irithea (AUS), Military Zone (AUS), Mushaireb (GB), Ranier (AUS), Primitivo (AUS), Noble Boy (AUS), Miss Siska (AUS) & A Shin Rook (JPN), last.

Analysis: Outrageous is now unbeaten in two runs this preparation, following his smart first-up win in a Benchmark 90 (1400m) at Flemington on November 3, with another good win here, his fifth in 29 starts and his first stakes victory. He settled nicely outside the leader (Irithea) at quite a good tempo, easily took the lead at the 300m and then fought back to win well. Royal Celebration raced in fifth place (wide without cover) after starting from a difficult barrier (13). He moved up well at the turn, challenged at the 200m and then battled strongly for (half-neck) second in a good performance at this third run back. Evalina settled midfield on the rails, took a split at the 200m and then battled on well to gain third in a photo from Mr Marathon Man, who finished fourth after making ground from eighth and wide at the 600m, with Phaistos (1.7 lengths) fifth. The favourite Through The Cracks settled in second-last place from his wide barrier (14), switched deep on straightening and then made ground, without threatening for (2.7 lengths) seventh. [KB]

V: Bucklee Farm P: K Keys

Margins: 0.5 lens, 3 lens. Time: 1:10.59(last 600m 34.75).

Betting: $13.00, $4.00, $10.00.

Then followed: Ilovethesame (AUS), Pioneer River (AUS), Nicolini Vito (AUS) & Red Peroni (AUS), last.

Analysis: Ocean Beyond advanced quickly from winning a Geelong maiden (1212m) on November 7 when racing on debut to take out this Listed race in good style and remain unbeaten in two starts. He began well and soon crossed to settle nicely outside the leader (Deep Speed) at a reasonable tempo. He put pressure on that runner nearing the turn, got the upper hand in the latter stages and then went on to win well. Deep Speed was smartly away, soon took the lead and kept fighting back well in the straight for (half-length) second. Free To Move raced in sixth place, one off the rails, improved (under riding) at the turn and kept battling on in the straight for third. Ilovethesame had a nice trip in fourth place, one out and one back, and held on for (4.2 lengths) fourth after seeming to have had every chance. The $2.50 favourite Nicolini Vito was ridden patiently and remained in last place before improving (deep) approaching the turn. He failed to make ground in the sprint home to finish (4.7 lengths) sixth and second-last in the seven-runner field, without raising the hopes of his supporters at any stage in the straight. [KB]

Margins: 1.5 lens, 0.2 lens. Time: 1:29.49(last 600m 34.95).

Betting: $2.50, $4.50, $16.00.

Then followed: Edge Of Wonder (NZ), Iffie Shows (NZ), Il Affare (NZ), Tango Love (NZ), Grip (AUS), Sweet Hunter (NZ), Bonita Aurelia (NZ), Montre Moi (NZ), Ember Attack (NZ), Bari (NZ) & Zendora (NZ), last.

Analysis: A convincing win here for the favourite Tellall, his third in succession as well as his maiden stakes victory. He began well to sit second soon after the start and sat a length and half back and outside the pace to the 800m. He closed the gap from the 600m and at the top of the straight co-led then took over. He was always in command to the line, away by a flattering length and half. Helsinki sat third (rails) past the 800m, fourth turning in and then moved out into the straight. When she found space at the 250m she finished well for second but was never going to catch the winner. Fleetwood Maca was fourth, one out at the 600m, third, three wide at the top of the straight and kept going strongly all the way to the line for third. From midfield, Edge Of Wonder threaded between runners to grab fourth late. [LJ]

Then followed: Wolfe (JPN), Black On Gold (AUS), Savacool (NZ), Morton's Fork (AUS), Bonvicini (AUS), Rocha Clock (AUS) & Costello (AUS), last.

Analysis: After disappointing when unplaced at two recent starts in Victoria, Greysful Glamour returned to form in staging a good performance in taking out her second stakes victory and her fifth win in 32 starts in scoring here. She soon crossed to the front, as anticipated and then travelled nicely for Rachel King at a reasonable tempo. She lifted the pace nearing the 600m, held a clear advantage at the 200m and then safely held off her rivals to win comfortably. The favourite Laure Me In settled at the tail of the ten-runner field, took a split rounding the turn, went to a distant third nearing the 200m and steadily made ground for second, without threatening the winner. Mantastic raced back in seventh place, improved (deep) at the 600m, moved up at the 300m and kept fighting on from that point to finish third, just in advance of Wolfe, who held on for (3.7 lengths) fourth after having a nice trip behind the leader to the home turn. Then followed: Savatoxl (AUS), Jentico (AUS), Lakhani Rose (AUS), Tequila Time (AUS), Debt Collector (AUS), Kenyan Wonder (AUS), Beautiful Flyer (AUS), Exalted Maxine (AUS) & I Remember You (AUS), last.

Analysis: Track specialist One More Jack lunged late to nab win eight (maiden stakes) at start 13. He was slow away but quickly improved along the inner to sit fourth past the 800m. Still fourth at the 600m, he then moved into third rounding into the straight where he moved out two lanes to challenge. He was not making any impression on the leader at the 200m but inside the 100m gained quickly and then lunged at the line to get up by a head. Trip sat two lengths second, one out all the way to the top of the straight, eventually caught the leader inside the 100m but had no answer to the winner's late lunge. Favourite Too Good Too Hard was wide and back of midfield to the straight, widest turning in then finished well but too late for third. Pacemaker Savatoxl slipped clear at the top of the straight but was caught near the 50m then swamped for fourth. [LJ]

Then followed: Nymph Monte (NZ), Hi I'm Nikkita (NZ), Obsessive (NZ), Vichy (NZ), Lubaya (NZ), Watch This Space (NZ), Duplicity (NZ) & Cherry Lane (NZ), last.

Analysis: An unexpected win from eight-year-old Hunta Pence who broke through for his maiden stakes success at start 54, this his ninth career victory. He was second with a lap to run and a distant second starting the back straight in a strung out field. He took over inside the 600m and turning for home slipped clear. Out by three lengths at the 200m, the margin was always too large to close and although tiring he hung on by a length. Overtheriver sat midfield starting the back straight, improved to fourth at the 600m, third, three out turning in and chased hard the length of the straight for second. Sir Nate stretched them out down the back straight, was headed inside the 600m, second turning in, he then plugged home for third from Nymph Monte, who finished late for fourth. [LJ]

Analysis: The favourite Royal Command was given an ideal trip by William Pike racing in fourth place, tracking a good tempo before moving up on turning for home. He raced to the front at the 200m and then drew away to score easily, running the 2100m out strongly to record win seven of 21 starts and his first at stakes level. Paddy's Shadow raced back in eighth place before switching deep on straightening. She then ran on really well for second, albeit without troubling the winner. Arctic Steam settled nicely in fifth place on the rails, eased into clear running on turning for home and then battled on well for third. Saucy Jack had a nice trip in third place and then held on for fourth after appearing to have had every chance. [KB]

Then followed: Soxagon (AUS), Emerald Kingdom (AUS), Snitch (AUS), Macewen (AUS), Wapiti (AUS), Boomsara (AUS), Stampe (AUS), Testashadow (AUS), Agassi (AUS) & Prioritise (AUS), last.

Analysis: Ten wins on the trot and 13 of his last 15 starts for maiden stakes winner The Harrovian. He had two behind him when they left the barrier but improved nicely along the rails to be midfield past the 800m. The field compacting, he kept gaining on the leaders from the 600m and approaching the last bend moved out to be in behind the leading group. Into the straight he found room four out, balanced and went after the pacemaker. From the 200m he bounded to the front, went clear and was in no danger at the post, away by a length and a quarter. Red Chase was a handy fifth from the 800m, fourth rounding into the straight, went three wide to challenge and then led inside the 300m. When caught he kept on solidly for his second. From fourth-last at the 800m, Profit went very wide into the straight and finished strongly for third. Soxagon charged up wide into the straight, into third at the 200m but was shut out at the post for fourth. [LJ]

Then followed: Seemingly Discreet (AUS), Human Nature (AUS), Coruscate (AUS), Royal Witness (AUS), Sartorial Splendor (AUS), Condo's Express (AUS) & Runson (AUS), last.

Analysis: Consistent sprinter Grandview Avenue scored his ninth win from 35 starts in recording his first stakes victory in impressive fashion here. After a smart beginning, he travelled nicely outside the leader (Sartorial Splendour) at a good tempo, dashed to the front on turning for home and was not seriously threatened from that point to score comfortably. Prophet's Thumb settled in seventh place on the rails and was blocked nearing the turn before switching between runners shortly after straightening. She then finished well for second, looking somewhat unlucky. Prezado had a good trip in fourth place on the rails, went to third at the turn and then kept battling on quite well to hold third at the post. Seemingly Discreet raced in fourth place, between runners, went to third nearing the turn and then held on quite well for (4.2 lengths) fourth. [KB]

Then followed: Inanup (AUS), Passage Of Time (AUS), Varda (AUS), Easy Eddie (AUS), Snitz (AUS) & Glenall (AUS), last.

Analysis: Invictus Salute followed her good win in a Benchmark 100 (1100m) at Randwick on November 3 with a smart win here, her sixth win from 23 starts and her first at stakes level. She was quickly away from her inside barrier (1) and then had a good trip in third place on the rails before finding a split nearing the 200m. She then ran on well to claim victory nearing the post and give Rachel King her fourth win on the day. Spaceboy showed his customary pace to lead, held a clear advantage at the 200m and was only overhauled nearing for post to finish second after running a bold race. Viridine settled near last in the nine-runner field, moved up (wide) at the 600m, put in his bid coming to the 200m and finished well to take third in a good effort under his top weight (61kg). Inanup raced back in sixth place, improved (deep) on straightening and kept fighting well for fourth, narrowly missing third at the post, while the favourite Snitz disappointed, fading to finish (4.1 lengths) eighth.[KB]

Analysis: Previously three times stakes placed, honest Niedorp was simply too quick here and broke through for her maiden stakes success at start 17, including career win five at her favourite track. From the outside barrier she streaked to the front at the 1000m, was challenged from the 800m to the last bend but never gave up the lead. Into the straight she slipped a length clear, extended her lead inside the 200m and was never going to be caught, although only a half length in front at the post. Blazing Miss tracked the winner in third to the top of the straight, in a pocket to the 150m she then finished well for second. Jadentom was wide and midfield rounding into the straight and then finished strongly for third. From midfield Gypsy Toff also finished well out of the pack for fourth. [LJ]

VERDICT Despite the toughest draw AMAZING ROCKY should be suited by the return to this trip and he is taken to break his duck at the third attempt. Multimore could benefit from some headgear and may push the selection close this time, while similar comments apply to Valiant Elegance, who is feared.

VERDICT The presence of Zac Purton should ensure support for Destin, who along with Red Brick Fighter, looks set to go well. Soccer Master should not be dismissed after a below par latest run, while Adonis can have a case made. However, VICTORIOUS LEADER has also been performing with credit at a higher level and can take advantage of this drop in grade.

VERDICT There aren't many obvious candidates for the win and perhaps JADE PHOENIX, who arrives in good form, can convert this latest opportunity into success. Victory In Hand looks likely to give a good account but Super Alliances will need improvement to back up his last-time-out win. Newcomer Lucky Diamond looks worth monitoring in the market.

VERDICT The return to this grade should enable Utopia Life to produce a much more competitive effort. He makes the shortlist but preference is for CZARSON, who deserves reward for his recent consistency. All For South should be thereabouts.

VERDICT There was plenty to like about the debut of MASTER HERO. He looks likely to be very effective over this trip and is taken to score. Glorious Lover appeared to appreciate the drop to this grade last time. He should not be far away, while both Seaweed Fortune and All For St Paul's are much respected.

VERDICT Several of these warrant consideration in a competitive race for the grade. Mercurial, Telecom Rocket and Kasi Farasi were all involved in a tight finish to a C&D contest four weeks ago but the answer might be WINNING STEED, who bounced back from his disappointing debut with an encouraging 6f run last month and has the services of Joao Moreira for this crack at 7f. Zac Purton's mount Robot Warrior is also unexposed after only two starts and is feared most.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Beluga, 11-4 Lockheed, 4 Juneau Park, 7 Big Fortune, 16 Like That, Royal Campbell, 20 Armando, 25 Team Spirit, 33 War Of Courage, 50 Sea Of Life, Starz Hero, 100 Blazing Beat.

VERDICT Lockheed won a shade cosily over C&D five weeks ago and is respected but lightly raced 4yo BELUGA is 2-4 after last month's very convincing 7f course success and, with today's shorter trip also suitable, he is taken to overcome this rise in grade. Juneau Park looked progressive over 7f before last season's campaign ended abruptly with a duff effort in May but he arguably has more to prove than the selection over 6f.

BETTING FORECAST: 2 Chevalier Prince, 6 Sunny Star, 7 Awe, Perfect To Great, Uncle Steve, 8 Romantic Combo, 12 Tempest Express, 16 Great Treasure, Precise Express, 20 Hang's Decision, 25 Mr Aldan, 66 Beauty Day, Legion Of Merit, 100 Ruby Stars.

VERDICT There is probably more to come from Joao Moreira's mount Chevalier Prince, who ran well over 7f on his seasonal debut and is unexposed over 1m. However, an interesting alternative is ROMANTIC COMBO, who is yet to make his Hong Kong breakthrough but won over 1m in Britain last year and returns to this trip after finishing strongly over 7f on consecutive outings last month. Uncle Steve and Perfect To Great are also considered.

VERDICT Some smart imports make their Hong Kong debuts in this finale and riding arrangements make Shadow Hero and Enrich Delight of particular interest among that group. However, HEALTHY HAPPY was a shade cosily over 6f here on his Hong Kong seven weeks ago and his Australian form offers hope he might be seen to even better effect now back over 7f.
