Wild Ruler a shot in the arm for Glenlogan Park as they await Vaccine's debut

Not A Single Doubt two-year-old filly ready for Gimcrack Stakes after Kenso trial win

Wild Ruler

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

Queensland's Glenlogan Park will be out to win its second Sydney stakes races in as many weeks when Vaccine (Not A Single Doubt), the sole filly bought by the farm this year, runs in the ATC Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Randwick.

Promising three-year-old Wild Ruler (Snitzel), a colt Glenlogan shares ownership of with the China Horse Club-Newgate syndicate, boosted his Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) credentials with a first-up Heritage Stakes (Listed, 1100m) victory last Saturday and it will be Vaccine who steps out this weekend.

The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Vaccine, a $220,000 Magic Millions graduate, won a heat at the first official two-year-old barrier trials on the Kensington track last week and Glenlogan Park stud manager Steve Morley considers her to be leading hope in the Gimcrack.

"I only bought one filly for Glenlogan last season and that was Vaccine," Morley said yesterday.

"Gai bought her on our behalf, but she was one we'd lined up beforehand and that was the only filly I selected and she looks like she's got some talent."

Vaccine was one of 14 fillies nominated for the Gimcrack, which also features the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Enthaar (Written Tycoon) who caught the eye of trial watchers when winning her heat in the fastest time of the day. Continued on page 2>>

"Vaccine has pulled up well (from her trial) and she has worked well subsequently, so as of Sunday afternoon, all was on track," he said.

"She would probably be on second and third line (of betting) behind the Written Tycoon filly.

And, gee, isn't he flying? There's Ole Kirk and Pippie and then there's this filly and she looks like a proper horse and she is the one everyone's got to beat."

Glenlogan Park also has a share in ATC Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) entrant Construct (I Am Invincible) while it also bred Gimcrack Stakes runner Miss Hoff (Flying Artie), a stablemate of Vaccine.

Reflecting on the performance of Wild Ruler, who was having his first run since a three-start autumn-winter campaign, the Heritage Stakes win was one that helped justify the high opinion Peter and Paul Snowden have for the colt.

"He was terrific, Wild Ruler. He is a proper horse, there's no two ways about it. When he won on debut, he won the $500,000 Inglis Listed race, and the reports have always been really strong on him," Morley said.

"As that prep developed, we finished behind Rothfire (in Queensland) and we were initially a little disappointed, but hindsight's a good thing because Rothfire's the top of the tree.

"He's a really good horse and he looks to have come back in really great order."

Meanwhile, Glenlogan principal Jon Haseler and Morley also share in the ownership of Star Turn (Star Witness) two-year-old colt Montana Flash, who won a barrier trial at Rosehill yesterday.

The Hawkes Racing-trained Montana Flash, a $550,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale graduate who was also bred by Morley, came from last after beginning awkwardly and being slowly away to take out heat five over 900 metres by half a length.

"There's plenty of positives to take out of the trial as he's obviously got a really good motor and he's going to have plenty of ability when he learns to put it all together," was Morley's assessment of Montana Flash's trial.

"The reports from the Hawkes' from the day that they first got him after breaking in have always been really positive.

"They have always said that they really liked the horse and that he's got a good action, temperament and a good attitude."

Morley has always taken a shine to Montana Flash from the time he was born and that was demonstrated when the Magic Millions buying bench was prepared to go past $500,000 to buy the colt by Vinery Stud's first season sire.

"He is just a beautifully proportioned horse. He's got plenty of scope and I would expect that he'll mature out at that 16.1 height," he said.

"He was a standout foal, a standout weanling and a superb yearling and it looks like he's maintained that frame.

"Some horses will go through different phases of their life when they're growing up, but at any point when you looked at that particular colt, he handled himself really well and looked the part at all times. You'll go a long way to find a better looking horse."

Bivouac to run in Everest

Godolphin has locked in Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) to represent its slot in the $15 million Everest (1200m) and they remain optimistic Trekking (Street Cry) will also gain a start. Vin Cox, Australian managing director for Godolphin, said Bivouac made strong appeal as a dual Group 1 winner. "Bivouac is a proven Group One sprinter with a magnificent profile that we are keen to build on," Cox said. "He's a very exciting racehorse who we expect will be an outstanding addition to our stallion roster next year. Glen Boss rode him in his Newmarket victory earlier this year in what was Bivouac's highest-rating win and we're delighted to have him back on in the Everest." Cox said more than one rival slot holder was interested in securing Trekking and while a deal was yet to be finalised, he expected last year's Everest third placegetter to secure one of the five remaining vacancies in the race.

Nature Strip passes trial test

Nature Strip (Nicconi) has come through his latest barrier trial without incident and will now take on Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) in the Premiere Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick. The multiple Group 1 winner, who was runner-up in the Concorde Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m), last visit to the trials ended in high drama when he dislodged James McDonald as the gates opened and competed riderless. Fortunately, he came through it unscathed, although stewards ordered him to trial again before he could race. Nature Strip was given a quiet hitout in the opening 900-metre heat at Rosehill yesterday. "It's far from ideal but what is ideal? You've got to work them somewhere," trainer Chris Waller said. "If he wasn't trialling he would have been having a pretty solid gallop because he's done well between his first run and this."

Gytrash wins his heat

Nature Strip's Concorde Stakes conqueror Gytrash (Lope De Vega) also had a barrier trial at Rosehill yesterday, winning heat three over 1030 metres under race day jockey Jason Collett. Gytrash, who will run in the Everest slot held by Inglis, ran 1:01.40 seconds (last 600 metres in 34.23 seconds), defeating Rammstein (Snitzel) by one and three-quarter lengths. Intuition (Street Cry) was another length and a quarter back in third place. "As you'd have seen his ears were pricked and he was very casual out in front," Collett told Racing NSW. "I had to push him out to make sure he was doing enough. I probably would have liked it if he did a bit more but he's come along nicely. We have time up our sleeve, that's the main thing, we're not chasing our tail trying to get the finishing touches right." Gytrash will start in the Everest without another run.

Exhibition gallop for Farnan

Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Farnan (Not A Single Doubt), who is set to represent Aquis in The Everest, will have an exhibition gallop with stablemate Dawn Passage (Dawn Approach) on the Kensington track tomorrow. Farnan set up a big lead in the Run To The Rose (Gr 2, 1200m) first-up before trying late to finish unplaced. The performance prompted trainers Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott to abort Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) plans and Aquis, in partnership with Phoenix Thoroughbreds and Kia Ora Stud, elected to press on to the Everest on October 17. Tim Clark will partner Farnan in the 1000-metre gallop while Rachel King will ride Dawn Passage.

Rawiller picks up Everest mount

Fellow Everest runner Behemoth (All Too Hard) will be ridden by Nash Rawiller. The gelding's owner Grand Syndicates confirmed the booking of Rawiller for the David Jolly-trained five-year-old gelding who has won the Memsie Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at his past two starts.

Superstorm likely for Turnbull

Superstorm (Sebring) is set to line up in Saturday's pulsating Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) with owner/breeder Bob Peters confident the conditions of the race will allow him to sneak in on the minimum weight of 53.5 kilograms. Superstorm, who was second to Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) in the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) in February, was one of 23 nominations on Monday and is set to try 2000 metres for the first time after finishing 12th in the Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) ten days ago. "I think he's going to sneak into it because of the conditions of the race," Peters told Racing.com. "He gets in on the minimum and that's what is appealing for me. I looked at the conditions of the race and he'll come in right on the bottom. It's so tempting because of that. While it's not an ideal program going straight to 2000 metres, his last run he didn't have a chance to do much at all. I'd prefer it (Turnbull Stakes) to be 1600 metres but it's a track that I think will suit him."

Defining day for Hickmott's Europeans

Robert Hickmott's stable stars Schabau (Pastorius) and Django Freeman (Campanologist) will head to Flemington on Saturday with the aim of catapulting their way into their target races for the spring. Schabau will run in The Bart Cummings (Gr 3, 2500m) and needs a victory to get into the Melbourne Cup, as he is number 72 in the qualifying order. Django Freeman lines up in the Turnbull Stakes and needs to win to force his way into the Caulfield Cup, where he is also number 72 in the qualifying order. "They'll have their last gallop at Bendigo early this week but they're both ready to go," Hickmott said. "Django Freeman will strip a lot fitter. He's lost ten kilos since his last run and he's got good muscle definition. There's a lot of positives but the query is whether he is up to this class. Schabau was vulnerable late but he battled away quite well. He had a good blow after the race. Maybe he was a bit fresh and lacked a bit of fitness which was a bit of trainer and jockey error."

Dolan gets Edmonds' tick of approval

Toby Edmonds has given Robbie Dolan a vote of confidence as he prepares to partner talented mare Vanna Girl (Husson) in the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick. Dolan was booked for Vanna Girl after Glen Boss elected to ride Funstar (Adelaide) for Chris Waller. "Robbie rides 50 kilograms quite easily and he bobs up in these big races from time to time because he can ride so light," Edmonds said. "I've been watching him ride for some time and he's very aggressive on them which is par for the course for most of those international riders, especially the Irish and English riders, so it'll suit her." Edmonds was pleased with Vanna Girl's final public hitout before the Epsom when she finished sixth in a 1200-metre Warwick Farm barrier trial last Tuesday. "She didn't get much room in the straight but probably got just enough out of it to keep her ticking over," he said.

Oliver to ride Mo'unga

Damien Oliver has secured the plum ride on Mo'unga (Savabeel) in Saturday week's Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). The $5 favourite ahead of Golden Rose winner Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) ($6), Stutt Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) scorer Glenfiddich (Fastnet Rock) ($7) and King's Legacy (Redoute's Choice) ($8), Mo'unga has won his three starts including a highly impressive victory in the Dulcify Quality (Listed, 1500m) at Rosehill on September 12. Trainer Chris Waller and part-owner Aquis Farm resisted the temptation to run him in the Golden Rose and diverted their attention to the Guineas.

Toorak tilt for Quickie

Mr Quickie (Shamus Award) will aim for the Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) on October 10 following his seventh-placed finish in the Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) at Caulfield on Saturday. Phillip Stokes and Mr Quickie's ownership group anticipate a step back in distance will benefit last year's Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner. The five-year-old was impressive in defeat in the Memsie Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) first-up in August, finishing second behind subsequent Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes winner Behemoth.

Blue Sapphire for Ranting

Ranting's road to the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) on October 31 will likely continue with a jump out at Flemington on Friday before heading to the Blue Sapphire (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield on October 14. The three-year-old colt was last seen finishing a close third behind Doubtland (Not A Single Doubt) and Amish Boy (Star Witness) in the Danehill Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and has been impressive in defeat on another two occasions this campaign. "Ranting is really well. He is just ticking over at the moment," Troy Corstens said. "We will probably give him a trial, maybe next Friday, and then head to the Blue Sapphire with him and then onto the Coolmore, hopefully. Ben Melham has said he is keen to stick with him, so Ben will ride him at his next (start)."

Boss to head to Melbourne

Glen Boss has confirmed he will quarantine in Melbourne in order to compete for his fourth Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) win on October 24. Boss, who has won Cox Plate on Makybe Diva (Desert King) (2005), So You Think (High Chaparral) (2009) and Ocean Park (Thorn Park) (2012), will ride in Sydney until October 17, where he will partner Bivouac (Exceed and Excel) in The Everest (Gr 1, 1200m), before quarantining for the required five days in Melbourne. He will then remain in Victoria for the Melbourne Cup Carnival. "It fills me with great pride that I will be able to participate at the 100th running of the W.S Cox Plate where I hope I will be able to honour riding in such a momentous occasion," Boss announced on Monday. He will Skyward (Camelot) in the Melbourne Cup on November 3.

she misses a run in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) next month. The five-year-old mare will line up in the Turnbull Stakes on Saturday and will then head to the Geelong or Moonee Valley Cup if she misses the Caulfield Cup due to being well down the order of entry. "She runs in the Turnbull now, not sure who rides her there, and then we are hoping to go to the Caulfield Cup," Kent Jnr told Racing.com. "She is number 56 in order and there will be a natural attrition rate obviously. Hopefully we get a run. If not, the Geelong or Moonee Valley Cup and then into the big one."

Cup penalty for Al Galayel

Al Galayel (Zoffany) has been penalised 1.5 kilograms for the Melbourne and Caulfield Cups after he impressively took out the JRA Cup (Gr 3, 2040m) at Moonee Valley on Friday night, taking him to 52.5 kilograms for both races. That victory meant Al Galayel passed the ballot for the Caulfield Cup and rises to 47th in the order of entry for the race on October 17, but is yet to pass the ballot clause for the Melbourne Cup, with first acceptances being taken at noon on Tuesday. "Al Galayel has struck a rich vein of form this season winning his past three starts and his maiden Group 3 victory at The Valley on Friday night came in dominant fashion by a comfortable margin," Racing Victoria's executive general manager of racing Greg Carpenter told Racing.com. "It was a competitive field that Al Galayel defeated with three Derby winners, a VRC Oaks winner and last year's Caulfield Cup placegetter Mirage Dancer (Frankel) among the beaten brigade which added merit to his performance."

Olmedo back in work

French 2000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Olmedo (Declaration Of War) has been put back into training instead of beginning stud duties at Aquis Farm in Queensland this year. Olmedo has raced just once since arriving in Australia earlier this year and he was subsequently retired at a service fee of $16,500 (inc GST), but in recent months the decision was made to instead place the six-year-old entire with Chris Waller who stepped up his work yesterday with a barrier trial at Rosehill. He finished fifth under a hold from jockey Hugh Bowman, just half a length from the winner Miss Invincible (I Am Invincible) in heat five.

Quick Thinker sidelined

A back complaint has ended the spring campaign of Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m)

winner Quick Thinker (So You Think). The OTI Racing-owned four-year-old, who is trained by Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman in New Zealand, has raced twice in Melbourne this spring, finishing fifth in Friday night's JRA Cup (Gr 3, 2040m) at Moonee Valley. Since then, the injury was diagnosed and forced him to be spelled.

NEW ZEALAND

Waller and Star snap up Only Words

Chris Waller and Star Thoroughbreds have purchased promising three-year-old filly Only Words (Sweynesse) from Clinton Isdale. Only Words, who landed the Wanganui Guineas (Listed, 1200m) earlier this month, will head to Waller's Sydney stable in October. Her sire Sweynesse (Lonhro), who stands at Novara Park for NZ$6,000, was a multiple Group 3 winner during his racing career and was crowned New Zealand's champion first season sire earlier this year. "Together with Star Thoroughbreds we are excited to have secured the purchase of exciting three-year-old filly Only Words who took out the Listed Wanganui Guineas recently and she will join our Sydney stable early October," Waller announced yesterday. "The Guineas victory has taken her career record to two wins and one minor placing from six career outings. With a black-type victory already on her record, we can target similar races for three-year-old fillies to further maximise her earning potential and value as a broodmare."

Helsinki to lead Williams' Riccarton charge

Helsinki (Savabeel), a NZ$525,000 purchase from Book 1 of last year's National Yearling Sales, is set to spearhead Peter and Dawn Williams' assault on the New Zealand Cup meeting, with their exciting filly nominated for the New Zealand 1000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) on November 14. Helsinki, a runner-up in two of her three starts, is set to run at Avondale next week in a bid to cement her place in the Group 1 at Riccarton. "She's a nice filly and she's coming up really well," Peter Williams said. "She'll run at Avondale and if she goes well we'll probably look at the Soliloquy Stakes (Gr. 3, 1400m) (at Te Rapa on October 24). We'll make our minds up after that whether she'll go down for the 1000 Guineas. I think she's good enough. She was unlucky not to win fresh-up. She got knocked around a bit and did well for second."

Eccles on trial for Melbourne trip

Shaune Ritchie and Colm Murray are pleased with the preparation of New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Jennifer Eccles (Rip Van Winkle) ahead of Saturday's Windsor Park Plate (Gr 1, 1600m) at Hastings, but acknowledged that she will need to win well to justify pursuit of the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m). The four-year-old mare finished fourth first-up in the Tarzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m) ten days ago and will again be partnered by jockey Matt Cameron at the weekend. "She is doing very well," Ritchie told Racing.com. "She will go into this next one a little bit of an improved horse with that run under her belt. Matt Cameron was impressed with the run. She was very willing and travelled keenly. When he asked her to go 250 metres out she took 100 metres to get going but we aren't racing against three-year-old fillies anymore, we're in the big time." Jennifer Eccles is one of 66 second acceptors for the Cox Plate on October 24, but Ritchie is yet to be sure of her future plans: "She would want to win and win well this weekend to justify that particular pursuit (Cox Plate), but it is not out of the question, otherwise we wouldn't have stayed in it."

Ireland: McEvoy on board Tiger Moth

Kerrin McEvoy will ride the Aidan O'Brien-trained Tiger Moth (Galileo) in the Melbourne Cup. McEvoy landed the Melbourne Cup aboard Charlie Appleby's raider Cross Counter (Teofilo) in 2018, having previously won the race with Brew (Sir Tristram) in 2000 and Almandin (Monsun) in 2016. A fourth success on Tiger Moth – last seen winning a Group 3 on Irish Champions Weekend – would be a record-equalling one and British and Irish bookmakers make him a general 10-1 to provide O'Brien with his first victory in the Flemington showpiece on November 3.

Court (Mastercraftsman) by three quarters of a length. Galileo also achieved his 328th individual stakes winner when his son High Definition (2 c ex Palace by Fastnet Rock) put in a barnstorming finish to take out Saturday's Beresford Stakes (Gr 2, 1m) at the Curragh and in the process rocket to the head of the betting for next year's Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f). The Aidan O'Brien-trained juvenile appeared to have little chance of following up his debut win over the course and distance last month when sat last of the 13 runners straightening up, but he galloped strongly to the line under Seamie Heffernan, catching Monaasib (Bobby's Kitten) late on to post the most unlikely of victories. Sent off the 9-5 favourite High Definition needed every yard of the mile trip to register his three-quarters of a length victory, with Snapraeterea (Buratino) a further three lengths away in third. "That was fantastic, she's an amazing little filly, she's very brave," Eustace said post-race. "It was the plan to come here and win a stakes race with her being a mare. Siyouni stood for a fee of €100,000 (approx. AUD$165,750) in 2020.

Tapit - Three-time North American champion sire Tapit (Pulpit) brought up his 136th individual stakes winner, but his first in Australia on Saturday when Love Tap (3 g ex Smokey's Love by Forestry) took out the Gloaming Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) at Rosehill. Sent out an odds-on favourite after wins at Nowra and Goulburn to begin his career, the Richard and Michael Freedman-prepared Love Tap led all the way under a well-judged Nash Rawiller ride to defeat Street Dancer (Pride Of Dubai) by a length and three-quarters with a nose to the regally-bred Bucharest (Deep Impact) in third. Love Tap, the year-younger half-brother to American Grade 1 winner Fighting Mad (New Year's Day), was purchased by Dynamic Syndications for $110,000 at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Tapit stood at Gainesway Farm in Kentucky for $200,000 (approx. AUD$284,500) in 2020.

Written Tycoon - Not only did Written Tycoon produce Saturday's Golden Rose victor, but he also brought up his 36th individual stakes winner later in the afternoon when Stageman (6 g ex Best Feature by Secret Savings) took out the Black Heart Bart Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Belmont at his first start since December. It was the first time the race, registered as the Birthday Stakes, had been named in honour of Perth star Black Heart Bart (Blackfriars), who twice won the Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) at Caulfield on this day. Ridden by Clint Johnston-Porter, the Adam Durrant-trained Stageman - who finished second in the race last year - swept up well in the straight, hanging in but holding a long head advantage over Cup Night (Maschino) at the line, with Dance Music (War Chant) another length and a half away in third. Purchased for $310,000 out of the 2016 Inglis Ready2Race Sale, the Bob Peters-owned Stageman traces back to Group 1 winner Miss Margaret (Marsday), who was also bought by Peters as a yearling.

Zoffany - Zoffany (Dansili) registered his 37th individual stakes winner when import Al Galayel (7 g ex Glympse by Spectrum) continued his good run of form by adding Friday's JRA Cup (Gr 3, 2040m) to his record. Sent out as favourite off the back of his defeat of Naturalism Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) winner Orderofthegarter (Galileo), the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Al Galayel looped the field and raced away to score by two and a quarter lengths; Plein Ciel (Mamool) filled second, with the same margin back to 2018 ATC Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) hero Levendi (Pierro) in third. Zoffany, who shuttled to Australia for four seasons from 2012 to 2015, stood at Coolmore's Irish base for €22,500 (approx. AUD$37,150) this year.

Roger Yu off to a Flying Start

BY HARRY TROY | @RACINGMACAU

Roger Yu was the jockey to follow on Friday night's all weather card with brilliant treble to give him an early lead in the riders' standings.

Sand-specialist Oriental Joyful (Redwood) opened Yu's account for the night when he made it three straight wins in the Class 2 over 1350 metres. Sent straight to the front by Yu, Oriental Joyful was always in control of the race, despite a valiant attempt by Desi Style (Captain Sonador) to run him down over the concluding stages, the son of Redwood ran out a convincing winner.

Oriental Joyful has been a real bargain buy for owner Mr. Paul Chiang Chon Kai. The now four year old was picked up for just NZD $26,000 at the 2018 New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run 2YO Sales. His record now stands at six wins, two seconds and two thirds from his 12 starts under trainer Danny Wong. Saturday night's win also took him to well over the HKD$1 million mark in prize money.

Yu did not waste much time in posting his next winner, the Sio Cheong trained Garlic And Spicy (Lonhro), in the Class 3 & 4 over 1050 metres. Garlic And Spicy had to dig deep to stave off the challenge of Invincible (War Chant), under Tshwaro Appie, to win by a length and a half, then had to continue the battle in the Stewards' Room as Appie threw in an objection against the winner, alleging interference over the final 200 metres.

After hearing all the evidence the MJC Stewards Panel, chaired by Australian Zane Turner, found that whilst Garlic And Spicy shifted out and made contact with Invincible before being straightened by his rider, Invincible also shifted in under pressure near the 50 metres and raced close to the heels of Garlic And Spicy. Therefore the panel could not be satisfied that Invincible would have finished in front of Garlic And Spicy and the objection was dismissed.

Bring Me Glory (Street Cry) from the Victor Chan stable rounded out Yu's night with a tough win in the last, the Class 4 over 1510 metres. Bring Me Glory had to pull out all stops to beat Autumn Cloud (New Approach) ridden by Frankie Choi who looked the most likely victor after heading him one hundred metres out, with Association Eight (Charm Spirit) under Shogo Nakano close up in third.

Yu was runner up to Luis Corrales in last season's Jockeys' Championships with 40 winners after setting up a big lead in the early part of the season before being reeled in over the last three months.

Pursuing Eagle (Holy Roman Emperor), ridden by Massa Tanaka, made it two wins from his last three runs with a narrow win over Powerful Right (More Than Ready) and Charlie Chan in the 3 & 4YO Handicap over 1050 metres, to put Irish trainer Wayne Smith on the scoreboard for the new season.

The attractive son of Holy Roman Emperor was a A$60,000 purchase at the 2019 Gold Coast 2YO's in Training Sale.

Whilst its early days yet he does look a nice young horse in the making; a good second behind Cherry Road (Niagara) over 1200 metres on the turf back in July shows his talents are not just limited to the sand, and on breeding should have no trouble running out a strong 1500 metres.

Wayne Smith did a fine job in his maiden season as a trainer posting 14 winners and 23 placings, 16 of those in the Q spot from his 132 runners for the year. He is steadily building up his yard with now 17 horses in the stable.

Peter Lao got on the scoreboard for the season thanks to a nice rails-hugging ride on the Stanley Chin trained City Gold (Outstrip) in the Class 4 & 5 over 1350 metres.

Lao made full use of City Gold's inside gate and on a night when some jockeys were happy to skirt a little deep for the supposedly fast part of the track, Lao read the play well and saved valuable ground to dart through on the inside after straightening, going home too strong for Treasure Honey (Real Impact), with Heat Of The Battle (Fighting Sun) running on for third.

Lao made a comeback to race riding last December after a three year absence and after initially struggling to get a decent ride; he broke the ice in April this year with a win on Infinite Treasure (Captain Rio) at cricket score odds. In fact five of Lao's six winners for the season were all massive prices with the biggest payout Military Star (Dragon Pulse) back in July who paid out a whopping $1294.00 for the win for a ten dollar investment.

The perseverance has paid off for Lao with a number of trainers now beginning to utilize his services. City Gold was well supported late by connections for Friday's jump at odds of 7/1.

ROAD TO THE MELBOURNE CUP

READ THE THOUGHTS OF OTI RACING'S TERRY HENDERSON, EVERY TUESDAY, ONLY IN ANZ BLOODSTOCK NEWS

What a very different kind of year it's been! However, it's fantastic to be back in the spring and we have some very exciting prospects within the OTI team with live chances in the Cups and beyond.

We've been able to bring all the horses over from Europe that we wanted, which is an achievement in itself, and testament to the efforts made from the authorities in order to make this possible. It's been a difficult year and there are many decisions being made on the run, as it were, but really, between Racing Victoria and IRT, I think it's been handled very well.

We have five horses in quarantine in Newmarket as I speak. Three of them will then be staying in Australia, with True Self for Willie Mullins and San Huberto heading back to Europe after their campaigns in Australia. The other three we have coming over to stay are Mr Satchmo, Sound Of Cannons and Selino, our most recent acquisition from Qatar Racing.

True Self is probably the most conventional of the five coming from Europe, however even that has its challenges with Willie's travelling head foreman, Dave Casey, not currently with the horse in Newmarket as he had to quarantine in Sydney for two weeks prior to the horse arriving. He'll come out of quarantine two days before True Self arrives and will then have to drive from Sydney to Melbourne with the horse.

True Self

GETTY IMAGES

With San Huberto, there's a three stage process to get him here. He left Fabrice (Chappet, trainer) to get to Newmarket and in Newmarket he's being looked after by Ed Peate, they look after a number of our horses. He then comes over to Australia and Matt Cumani takes over. That's been a consequence of Covid with us unable to take a representative of Fabrice's over to Australia, and therefore we had to leave him in the hands of a trainer in Australia.

A notable difference, however, is the increase in cost to bring the horses over this year. It's probably on average $10,000-$20,000 more expensive to take a horse out there this year.

With True Self, for example, we've had to pay for two lots of staff and for one of them to quarantine in a hotel while they're in Sydney. We've had to pay higher air fares to guarantee a place for them on the flights to Australia.

However, if you're travelling one way, and the horse is staying over here to race, because of Covid-19 Racing Victoria said that it couldn't subsidise the fee of the horses quarantining and therefore there's an extra $10,000 for the quarantine facilities.

The reality is that Racing Victoria highly encourages and incentivises the international trainers to come over here - and that's been the case for years.

EXCELLENCE IN THOROUGHBRED THROUGH PROFESSIONAL ACQUISITION PROCESSES

The racing this year, I think it's going to be just as competitive, despite the troubles. A fair amount would depend on who Aidan (O'Brien) puts on the plane. He has some serious horses who are in quarantine; Santiago, Anthony Van Dyck, Magical, Tiger Moth - and they will be competitive.

And then there's horses like Stratum who's in good form for Willie and then the local contingent, who will be eager to exploit any weaknesses there may be in the international horses.

But of our own string, I think we have some horses who are real contenders for the Cups.

Each horse has a plan formed individually. To a minor extent we plan our races according to who needs to qualify and achieve what. But you don't ever like to put your horse in a race that you feel is not the right race for them.

Let's take Young Rascal, he's a horse that's already qualified and his next run is a toss up between the Metropolitan in Sydney and the Bart Cummings in Melbourne. If everything else is equal we'd probably go for the Metropolitan because that will give Haky a good chance to get in.

As for Haky, once he showed the form he did in the autumn, we decided the Bart Cummings was going to be his route into the Melbourne Cup.

The decision is marginal at the end of the day, but if we thought we didn't want to go to Sydney and subject the horse to the travel, then we certainly would have left Young Rascal in Melbourne.

With San Huberto, once he won the Group 2 (the Prix Vicomtesse Vigier in June), we knew we were likely to get in to the Melbourne Cup. So then we plan the right preparation for him. We gave him a run on a shocking track, we didn't want to give him a gut buster, knowing that he'd be better on the firmer tracks here for the Melbourne Cup.

The interesting feature for us, with our five horses in quarantine this year, is that we've actually got lots European owners in each of them, and that includes the three that are staying over here.

In the old days we used to buy the European owners out, but there definitely seems to be more willingness from European owners to remain in the horses, and for very good reason too.

So the team this year will very much have a global feel about it. And that's what OTI is all about. It's great to see that we've got more European owners staying in the horses.

The way we operate, we know that our owners enjoy the experience of being part of OTI; it's far more inclusive than other partnership arrangements.

If you ask me what my ideal spring would be, well, the race we all want to win this year is the Cox Plate. It's the 100th edition and so that's a really special race. We'd love a horse like Harbour Views to try and take that.

Outside of that, if you'd said we'd have three or four horses in the Melbourne Cup, that's quite possible, and as for which one you'd rate the highest at the moment, I'd probably say San Huberto.

In the Caulfield Cup, and again we'd like to have two or three, the one that might be most suited to the rough and tumble of that race is True Self. But if all of the horses perform and run their races I'd be delighted.

OTI's Spring Horses

Quick Thinker - He disappointed in the JRA Cup at Moonee Valley on Saturday, and we have therefore taken the decision to stop with his preparation and bring him back. It's disappointing for us and his owners, however it's with his best interests in mind

Young Rascal - He heads to the Metropolitan at Randwick and hopefully we can see some improvement from him, with the Melbourne Cup very much on his agenda

True Self - Is in quarantine and will be suited to a Caulfield Cup with the Melbourne Cup also a target

San Huberto - In quarantine and will join Matt Cumani. A leading contender for the Melbourne Cup

Haky - Showed good form in the autumn and will seek to gain entry to the Melbourne Cup via the Bart Cummings on Saturday

Harbour Views - Will head to the Caulfield Stakes with the hope he shows up as a leading Cox Plate contender

Sound Of Cannons - In quarantine and will now join John O'Shea. Will not target Cups but could be a Bendigo Cup or Moonee Valley Cup contender. I'd love to see him win a Queen Elizabeth, or a race like that Selino - In quarantine. He won't be qualified for the Cups this year, but he could target a Moonee Valley Cup or the Lexus

Mr Satchmo - In quarantine. Not a Cups contender, but one who can come through the grades and look to strike at Group 3 level

Attorney - Won Colin Stephen on Saturday. He'll head to the St Leger next and then could target the Lexus if he remains in good form

Gallie Chieftain - He's running very well - we could go to the Herbert Power this year. Now that might be one of those races that will be a little bit weaker this year, with the lack of an international presence, and of course that's a ticket into the Caulfield Cup

Inverloch - This horse is flying at the moment, he'll go to the Cranbourne Cup and he's one that could win his way into the Caulfield Cup
