Kukeracha steals Explosive's Thunder as New Zealand breds clean sweep Derbies

Night Of Thunder lands first Group 1 winner in quinella for trainer Chris Waller in Queensland Derby

BY ALEX WILTSHIRE | @ANZ_NEWS

Darley's 2,000 Guineas- (Gr 1, 1m) winning stallion Night Of Thunder (Dubawi) broke through for his first worldwide Group 1 winner at stud as the Chris Waller-trained Kukeracha (3 g ex Portrait Of A Lady by A.P. Indy) prevailed in an epic duel with stablemate Senor Toba (Toronado) to win the Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at Eagle Farm yesterday.

The question pre-race for the Queensland Classic, returning after its cancellation in 2020 due to the Covid-19 pandemic, was whether anything could stop Explosive Jack (Jakalberry) in his rampaging quest for a record-equalling fourth Derby this year, having won the Tasmanian (Listed, 2200m), Australian (Gr 1, 2400m) and South Australian (Gr 1, 2500m) editions of the race.

Despite a valiant effort from the Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained star three-year-old, he could only manage third, a length behind the winner, when sent off the $2.50 favourite, as the surging Kukeracha saw off the rallying grey Senor Toba on its outside, to claim victory by the barest of margins at the post.

It is yet another big-race success for the silks of Neville Morgan this season, with Kukeracha adding to Group-race victories for Shaquero (Shalaa) and triumph in the All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) for Kolding (Ocean Park).

The win had a distinct New Zealand flavour to it, as Kiwi-born trainer Waller teamed up with leading hoop James McDonald for success on the $130,000 NZB Karaka Yearling Sale graduate, who was consigned by Waikato Stud and bred by their veterinarian, Dr Chris Phillips.

The result meant that every Australian Derby this season has gone to a New Zealand-bred horse with Kukeracha's Queensland triumph and Explosive Jack's three Derbies added to by the Bob Peters-owned Western Empire (Iffraaj) in WA and Denis Pagan's Johnny Get Angry (Tavistock) in the VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m).

For Waller, it was his second victory in the race, his first coming in 2013 with the triumph for Hawkspur (Purrealist) and, on this occasion, it was domination for the champion trainer, who saddled the first two home, as well as fourth-placed Achiever (Pride Of Dubai).

"When I saw Explosive Jack kicking I thought we were going to run a nice second or third," Waller said.

"We had a great opinion of him as a two-year-old, but he lost his way a bit. He was gelded and taken through the system."

Kukeracha, now the winner of three of his 13 starts and $583,245 in prize-money, arrived at the race off the back of a second placing behind Criminal Defence (Nicconi) in the Rough Habit Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m). A winner at Geelong on debut, his second success would not come until Boxing Day last year when taken to Eagle Farm.

"He ran a good race up here in the Grand Prix in the summer," continued Waller. "I wanted to give him some experience on the track as he was not racing that well then."

"I think that was a good move because his run in the Queensland Guineas was good, his last start in the Rough Habit was good and today he was brilliant."

Meanwhile, McDonald was rewarded for heading north for the Queensland carnival rides at the risk of losing his jockey's title in Sydney to Tommy Berry, who clawed another winner back at Randwick yesterday to leave the margin at 13.

However, post-race, the leading hoop admitted that, given the choice, he would have partnered runner-up Senor Toba.

Chris Waller

"Chris (Waller) makes the decisions, and I was lucky enough to be on the right horse today. They say jockeys are the worst decision-makers, so I'm happy I did not have that choice," McDonald said.

Kukeracha is one of 58 live foals from the one and only southern hemisphere crop of Night Of Thunder, a crop which has yielded five stakes winners plus a further stakes-placegetter, with yesterday's Derby hero the first Group 1 winner worldwide for the Darley stallion.

Out of Portrait Of A Lady (A.P. Indy), Kukeracha descends from Champion 3YO filly in Ireland, the Irish Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Alydaress (Alydar), a sister to Park Appeal (Ahonoora), the dam of Cape Cross (Green Desert), as well as Flames Of Paris (Blushing Groom), the dam of BTC Cup (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Hot Snitzel (Snitzel).

Park Appeal is also the dam of Pastorale (Nureyev) and Arvola (Sadler's Wells), in turn the dams of Iffraaj (Zafonic) and Diktat (Warning).

Portrait Of A Lady was purchased by Dr Chris Phillips for $40,000 in foal to the Night Of Thunder colt that would go on to be named Kukeracha. He is one of nine named foals for the mare, who has a yearling colt by Sacred Falls (O'Reilly) and a weanling filly by Ocean Park (Thorn Park), a stallion she returned to last year.

Vega's the one in the Kingsford-Smith

The second Group 1 feature on the Eagle Farm card, the Kingsford-Smith Cup (Gr 1, 1300m), also went the way of a northern hemisphere-based former shuttle stallion that has exerted great influence Down Under.

Whereas Night Of Thunder kicked off with his first winner at the elite level, Ballylinch Stud's Lope De Vega (Shamardal) scored his fourth Australian Group 1 winner, and 13th worldwide, as Vega One (5 g ex One Funny Honey by Distorted Humor) dropped from the clouds in again leading home a quinella training performance, this time for local handler Tony Gollan.

A $75,000 graduate of the Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale from the Stockwell Thoroughbreds draft, Vega One became a notable sixth Group 1 winner from the auction since 2016.

In a fiercely contested renewal of the Kingsford-Smith Cup, race leader Jonker (Spirit Of Boom) looked to have repelled the onslaught of a wall of challengers entering the straight, including Trekking (Street Cry) on his outside and Signore Fox (Exceed And Excel) to the inner, with Vega One held up in behind under Jamie Kah. However, with turf rapidly running out, Kah steered Vega One into clear air with no more than 100 metres to the winning post, and burst through to, in the end, win by a comfortable half-length margin over Jonker, with the Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Signore Fox a short-head back in third.

Vega One

MICHAEL MCINALLY

The extraordinary ride earned Kah a sixth Group 1 success, leaving her out on her own as the winning-most Group 1 female rider in Australia, breaking Michelle Payne's record of five.

Gollan was overawed at the result on his home track, a fifth Group 1 success for the trainer, and reflected on the challenge of getting the five-year-old to the race in the first instance, with Vega One having suffered several setbacks since his fourth-placed finish in the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) a year ago, with his place in yesterday's race under a cloud even this week.

"I'm just so proud of these horses," said Gollan. "This horse had a major injury last year after the Stradbroke, and had a long time (out). They rehabbed him really well down there in Victoria. He's come back and it's been a long-range mission to get here and then into the Stradbroke with him.

"This doesn't get any better, I'm telling you, this is great.

"I didn't know where to look. I saw Jonker trying to hold on and I'd seen him (Vega One) behind a wall of horses and all of a sudden off he went. It's unreal. One-two in a Group 1 at home ... it's fantastic.

"We've had a torrid time with him this prep with a few little niggles. I was really happy with his work on Tuesday morning but we were on a knife-edge as to whether we were going to even be here this week.

"It's so rewarding today. Jamie Kah doesn't ride very often up here, but Jeez, I wish she'd come back here a little more often."

Lope De Vega covered four books of mares at Patinack Farm in Victoria between 2011 and 2014, with Vega One from the final crop of 102 live foals.

The dual Group 1-winning stallion has sired VRC Lightning Stakes (Gr 1 1000m) winner Gytrash, as well as Vega Magic and five-time Group 1 winner Santa Ana Lane at the elite-level in Australia.

While Lope De Vega's leading son Belardo has shuttled to Haunui Farm in New Zealand since 2017, his two-year-old Group 1-winning son and recent English 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) third placegetter, the Yulong-owned Lucky Vega, will commence stud duties at the Victorian farm from this season, and the stallion himself remains available for coverings to southern hemisphere time in Ireland.

Vega One, now the winner of six races from 25 starts and almost $1.5 million in prize-money, is the second stakes winner out of One Funny Honey (Distorted Humor), who was bought by Emirates Park when in foal to Lope De Vega for $40,000 from the Patinack Farm Dispersal Sale in 2014.

Her first named foal, One More Honey (Onemorenomore), won the 2017 Sweet Embrace Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), while her 2018-born foal by Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) fetched $800,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

She has a weanling colt by Fastnet Rock (Danehill) and is currently in foal to Capitalist (Written Tycoon).

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

First for Night Of Thunder

Kukeracha (3 g ex Portrait Of A Lady by A.P. Indy) denied Explosive Jack (Jakkalberry) a record-equalling fourth Derby success as he won the Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at Eagle Farm yesterday. The Chris Waller-trained Kukeracha came out on top in a close battle with stablemate Senor Toba (Toronado), with Explosive Jack finishing in third, a length behind the leading duo, to deliver Night Of Thunder (Dubawi) a first Group 1 winner. The result completed a clean sweep for New Zealand-breds in Australian Derbies this season. Kukeracha, who races in the Neville Morgan colours worn by Kolding (Ocean Park) and Shaquero (Shalaa), was a $130,000 purchase from the NZB Karaka Yearling Sale. Out of Portrait Of A Lady (A.P. Indy), Kukeracha descends from Champion 3YO filly in Ireland, the Irish Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Alydaress (Alydar), a sister to Park Appeal (Ahonoora), the dam of Cape Cross (Green Desert), as well as Flames Of Paris (Blushing Groom), the dam of BTC Cup (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Hot Snitzel (Snitzel).

13 for Lope De Vega

Vega One (5 g ex One Funny Honey by Distorted Humor) overcame several injury problems this last year to become a Group 1 winner at his 25th start, coming from nowhere with a late run to defeat stablemate Jonker (Spirit Of Boom) and Signore Fox (Exceed And Excel). In doing so he became the 13th Group 1 winner for former shuttle stallion Lope De Vega (Shamardal), when winning the Kingsford-Smith Cup (Gr 1, 1300m) at Eagle Farm yesterday. The Tony Gollan-trained five-year-old is a half-brother to One More Honey (Onemorenomore), winner of the Sweet Embrace Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) in 2017. Lope De Vega stands at Ballylinch Stud for a fee of €125,000 (approx. AUD$197,600).

Record-breaking sixth Group 1 for Jamie Kah

Melbourne's champion jockey elect Jamie Kah's decision to make a rare out-of-state visit was rewarded when she became Australia's most successful Group 1 female jockey after landing the Kingsford-Smith Cup at Eagle Farm aboard local Vega One (Lope De Vega). "This year has been unbelievable," Kah told Channel 7. "I have obviously been trying to stay in Melbourne as much as possible but when opportunities like this come you have to take them and I have been very, very lucky with the horses I've got on." Kah, who was riding just her fifth winner in Brisbane, praised fellow rider Glen Boss after riding her fourth elite-level winner of the season. "I was in a lot of trouble on him. I've got to thank Bossy because he told me everything about this horse. I wanted to get held up on him because if you expose him he thinks about it and over-thinks things, so thanks to Bossy."

Three for Extreme Choice

Tiger Of Malay (2 c ex Sambar by More Than Ready) became the third individual stakes winner for Newgate stallion Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) after winning the BRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) yesterday. In what has been an extraordinary season for the first season sire, from limited foal numbers he has sired Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Stay Inside and recent stakes winner Xtremetime. Tiger Of Malay defeated Converge

NEWGATE FARM

(Frankel) by a neck, with Port Louis (Maurice) a half-length further back in third. Tiger Of Malay was bred by Bridie O'Bree and bought for $255,000 from the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale last year. Extreme Choice will be standing for a private fee at Newgate Farm this breeding season.

Magic Millions broodmares killed in truck crash

A truck accident in Jerrys Plains has resulted in the death of what is believed to be five race fillies and broodmares that were purchased from the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale at the Gold Coast this week. The horses had made their way to the Hunter from Queensland and were being transported by float when the vehicle crashed at about 6.25am. Local police confirmed that five horses had been killed in the incident and two men, aged 62 and 59, were being treated for injuries that were not life threatening. The events dampen somewhat the extraordinary trade witnessed at the record-breaking three-day Magic Millions sale, in which over $142 million was traded. The identities of the racehorses is yet to be confirmed.

Spirit Ridge lands Premier's Cup

European import Spirit Ridge (6 g Nathaniel - Bates Creek by Rahy) posted his third win of a busy season as he outstayed his rivals to claim victory in yesterday's Premier's Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Eagle Farm. Having had his first-up run all the way back in November, the Mark Newnham-trained gelding got back to winning ways after a narrow defeat in the Wagga Cup (Listed, 2000m) last start as he edged out Carif (So You Think) and Paths Of Glory (Mastercraftsman) in a tight finish. "We got there just in time and I am so happy to win on him," said winning jockey Josh Parr. "He's a lovely horse, he tries so hard. I'm really thrilled. Down the back I'd thought I had made a little bit of a blue. I'd just eased one pair too many, I let Carif go in front of me. I was glad when the speed came into the race down the back, it was just a matter of being patient then and he took me the rest of the way."

Apache Chase wins Fred Best

Apache Chase (3 g Better Than Ready - Silken Whisper - Diesis) claimed the scalp of boom Victorian Ayrton (Iffraaj) as he booked his spot in the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) on June 12 with a game victory in the Fred Best Classic (Gr 3, 1400m) at Eagle Farm yesterday. His delighted trainer Desleigh Forster said she went into the race full of confidence, despite the presence of the previously unbeaten Ayrton, who was sent off an odds-on favourite. "This horse is a good horse. He makes his own luck, gets out and does the hard yards," Forster said. "I didn't come here hoping, I was very confident coming here today." Apache Chase won the Daybreak Lover (Listed, 1400m) two starts ago and Forster said the soft track was against him last start when runner-up to Private Eye (Al Maher) in the Queensland Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m). "He got beat here the other day at a mile and if it had of been a dry track, I still think he would have won. We just thought the wet track softened him up a bit," Forster said. "As long as he pulls up good, we will go to the big dance in two weeks." Apache Chase won by a neck over the Mick Price and Michael Kent jr-trained favourite, with Amish Boy (Star Witness) third.

No Stradbroke berth for Ayrton after defeat

Early favourite Ayrton is out of next month's Stradbroke after his shock defeat yesterday. Ayrton was sent out a $1.50 favourite to win the Fred Best Classic and therefore qualify for a Stradbroke run, but he will now fail to make the field for the June 12 race for which he was a $3.50 chance. Sportsbet now go $8 the field with co-favourites The Harrovian (Fastnet Rock), Wild Planet (Animal Kingdom) and Tofane (Ocean Park). Co-trainer Mick Price indicated Ayrton could now take his chance in the Gunsynd Classic (Gr 3, 1600m) on the Stradbroke card.

Reloaded goes back-to-back to land Lord Mayor's Cup

Having taken over two years to take his winning tally from one to two, Reloaded (4 g Snitzel - Hollow Bullet by Tayasu Tsuyoshi) took just two weeks to go from two to three courtesy of his victory in yesterday's Lord Mayor's Cup (Gr 3, 1800m) at Eagle Farm. The Chris Waller-trained gelding received the perfect run from barrier four, going on to defeat stablemate So You Win (So You Think) by a length with Homesman (War Front) in third. "The team up here in Queensland have done a fantastic job with him and we never lost faith in him," Waller told Sky Racing. "He has got his confidence back and they had their chance to run him down but he was very strong at the end. He has always shown he has had ability, he has run in Group 1 races, but confidence is just an amazing thing. Getting confidence back into horses is often a lot harder than what you think, but now he has found it we will keep pushing on with him and he might get over a bit further, too."

Exhilarates thrills with Coughlan success

Second-up specialist Exhilarates (4 m Snitzel - Samaready by More Than Ready) notched a fifth success at stakes level when taking out the Helen Coughlan Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Eagle Farm yesterday. The James Cummings-trained mare was the outsider of the three Godolphin runners in the race, but she proved the betting wrong when winning by three-quarters of a length as a $17 chance. Sweet Deal (Casino Prince) filled second spot with Threeood (Star Witness) back in third.

Riot And Rose remains unbeaten with Caulfield win

Riot And Rose (Pins) extended his undefeated sequence to three with a comfortable victory in yesterday's Neds Toolbox Handicap (1600m) at Caulfield. Sent out the $2.60 favourite under Damien Oliver, Riot And Rose defeated Rathlin (Fastnet Rock) by two and a quarter lengths with Zoutellus (Zoustar) a short-half-head off in third place. "He's a progressive horse," winning trainer Peter Moody said. "On that race he's still very new to it. He's got no idea what he's doing yet and is still able to win, so that is very encouraging. Maybe we'll look at one more but we're not going to go deep. That's his first racing preparation so we'll take a look at how he pulls up and have a chat to Wylie (Dalziel) and the team. Shout out to Wylie Dalziel, he sourced him as a tried horse in New Zealand and it's great to have the win for him and the team."

Yonkers strikes again at Caulfield

Caulfield decision pays dividends for Magic Max

The decision to bypass a midweek race at Sandown and concentrate on a richer contest at Caulfield paid off for Adelaide trainer Gordon Richards, when Magic Max (Magnus) took out yesterday's Happy 50th Leanne Napper Handicap (1200m), bagging an extra $41,000 in the process. "I intended to run him at Sandown but when I saw the field come together for this race, I thought it was very winnable," Richards said following the two-year-old's long-head victory. "He still doesn't know what he's doing but he's a good horse in the making."

Plaquette wins in Melbourne for Godolphin

The Godolphin stable and James Cummings made the right decision to run Plaquette (Exceed And Excel) at Caulfield when the mare, who was also an acceptor at Randwick, scored an overdue win as she took the Michael Andrew AO Handicap (1200m) under Damien Oliver. Sean Keogh, representing Cummings at Caulfield, said: "That was a terrific win and a real credit to the team having been diligent and pinpointing the race. She was scratched a fortnight ago at Flemington and she was dual-accepted this week. The team just felt that she had a slight edge here at Caulfield. Even just leading into today there was that slight bit of change of tactics, so it worked out really well."

Park Avenue shows promise to go two from two

Park Avenue (Fastnet Rock) kept the winning start to his career going when claiming yesterday's Ironmark Handicap (1100m) for two-year-olds at Randwick. Trained by Richard and Michael Freedman, the gelding was sent out the $6 second-favourite to follow up his debut win at Wyong earlier in the month. Winning jockey Jean Van Overmeire said Park Avenue has class, but still has plenty of learning to do. "Michael has always had a high opinion of this guy, at trackwork he always gallops well at home and I'm just very happy that he's come to the races both times and performed," he said. "I think he's got a lot of upside to him. I think he'll get out over a bit further in distance as well. I think maturity is still to come with him, I don't think the penny has dropped completely just yet, so once that happens, he'll be a very smart horse."

Adelong earns black-type shot

Adelong (Medaglia D'Oro) earned herself another shot at black-type company after breaking through for an overdue win at Randwick yesterday as she proved too strong for a smart field in the Fujitsu General Handicap (1100m). The victory was her first in 12 months and winning trainer Brad Widdup was relieved to see her get the job done. "I've been happy with her all preparation but a lot of things haven't gone right with her," Widdup said. "I wouldn't mind a few more like her. She's had tie back (surgery) and that's probably held her back a bit but it's her fourth run back now and it was a terrific effort. We're chasing a bit of black type and there's the Bob Charley Stakes in a couple of weeks and that's probably what I'll look at."

Jones in memorable first ride for Godolphin

A day after celebrating his 25th birthday, apprentice Reece Jones had an afternoon to remember at Randwick with his first win at his first ride for Godolphin. Jones, who is indentured to Rodney Northam at Scone, scored in style, steering Gravina (Sebring) to a five-length victory in the Wilson Asset Management Handicap (1200m) and earning praise from Godolphin assistant trainer and former top jockey Darren Beadman in the process. "He's a young, up-and-coming young man and Rodney (Northam) has done a terrific job with him up north, but he will certainly get a lot of confidence out of that and so will the horse," Beadman said. Jones was thankful to be given an opportunity by Godolphin and said with the top jockeys in Brisbane for the winter carnival, it was a good time of year to grab some chances in town. "It's definitely rewarding, especially with the bigger jocks away. It opens up some doors that I normally wouldn't get at this level but I'm just really grateful even to don the Royal Blue colours. It's a huge honour."

Hawkes Flemington stable locked down

The Flemington stable of Hawkes Racing has been placed in lockdown by Racing Victoria

after it emerged a member of staff was deemed to have come into close contact with a Covid-19 case. Confirming the staff member is healthy and well as he awaits a test result, @HawkesRacing tweeted: "No horse can leave the stable until we receive a negative result. All horses are fine and well. Our Sydney and Gold Coast stable is business as usual. Unfortunately this is the world we live in."

Boss to appeal ban

Glen Boss is set to appeal against the eight-day careless riding ban he received for causing interference on his mount Love Struck (Love Conquers All) in the second race at Eagle Farm yesterday. The ban, which is due to start after Queensland Oaks day next Saturday, would prevent him from taking the ride on The Harrovian in the Stradbroke.

NEW ZEALAND

51 for Street Boss

The brilliant season being put together by Street Boss (Street Cry) juveniles in Australia received a New Zealand addition thanks to the victory of Atullibigeal (2 g ex Kellys Ocean Jewel by Dansili) in yesterday's Auckland Futurity Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Ellerslie. The Carl Henderson-trained juvenile gained revenge on his last start conqueror Lady Maroal (Power) as he strode three lengths clear to provide Darley's Street Boss with his 51st individual stakes winner. "We gave him ten days off after his last run and he thrived," Henderson said. "We have always thought he will be best as a three-year-old, so what he is doing now is really just a bonus. He will most likely go back to the paddock for another short break and then we will get him up and running and look at possibly taking him to Melbourne. Our main goal is the New Zealand Derby but he is also Super Vobis qualified so he could head over to Melbourne and run around for some really good money in his own class." Atullibigeal is one of six to race from the Dansili (Daneshill) mare Kelly's Ocean Jewel, all of whom are winners, and descends from the family of Irish Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Wemyss Bight (Dancing Brave). Street Boss will stand the coming southern hemisphere season at Kelvinside, NSW, at a fee of $55,000, including GST.

Pike predicting bright future for Dawn Parade

Dawn Parade (Dawn Approach) showed he will be a force to be reckoned with next season after he downed a handy field of three-year-olds over 1400 metres at Ellerslie yesterday. The Tony Pike-trained gelding was posting back-to-back victories as he came from well off the pace under Michael McNab to win in impressive fashion. "He has always been talented, but he was mentally immature in his first campaign," Pike said. "We put him away for a spell and then resumed at Hastings last month which was a bit of a disaster. He got caught wide, over-raced and threw his toys out of the cot, so we decided we needed to just ride him quietly and let him do things under his own steam. It was a lovely ride by Michael and the horse showed what we have always thought he had in him. There is still plenty of improvement in him and while he handles all track conditions, I think it is a good time to back off and give him a nice break. If he can keep up his development then I know his connections are keen to test him in Melbourne during the spring where he can work his way through the grades while racing for good money." Dawn Parade is owned by Nancy Wong under her Thoroughbred Trader banner, Zu Li and Waikato-based Bloodstock agent Bryce Tankard. He was purchased for $180,000 out of the Kilgravin Lodge draft during the 2019 NZB Ready To Run Sale at Karaka.

Sharrock eyeing Cup tilt with Collinstreet

Collinstreet (Bachelor Duke) went one better than his trainer expected when he powered to a narrow but convincing victory over 1400 metres at Trentham yesterday. The Allan Sharrock-trained six-year-old thrives on heavy winter footing and got conditions to suit when the surface came up a Heavy 10. "I knew he had improved off his run first up at home (New Plymouth) a fortnight ago, but realistically I thought Rosewood would be too tough for him," the winning trainer said. "I got that wrong, which I'm pleased about and I can't wait to step him up over more ground as he is at his best at 2000 metres and beyond. He is a very honest type with a fair bit of ability when he gets the tracks to suit. He is good enough to win one of those nice winter staying races, something like a Taumarunui Cup or the like, so that is what we will be aiming for over the next couple of months."

27 for Lord Kanaloa

Lord Kanaloa (King Kamehameha) sired his 27th individual stakes winner when his daughter Lei Halia (3 f ex Lightly Tune by Manhattan Cafe) came out on top in a tight finish to the Aoi Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Chukyo yesterday. Trained by Toshiaki Tajima, the filly was winning for the third time in five starts as she beat Yoka Yoka (Squirtle Squirt) by a nose. All At Once (Makfi) was another length away in third. Lord Kanaloa stands at Shadai Stallion Station for a fee of ¥15,000,000 (approx. AUD$177,075).

INTERNATIONAL

14 for Paco Boy

The Jean-Claude Serooul homebred Paco (3 c ex Momo No Sekku by Leroidesanimaux) claimed black-type success on his first attempt in the grade when landing the Derby du Midi (Listed, 1900m) at Bordeaux Le Bouscat yesterday and became the 14th individual stakes winner for former Waikato Stud shuttler Paco Boy (Desert Style). The Jerome Reynier-trained three-year-old was prominent throughout, hugged the rail around the bend, took the lead and toughed it out to the line to see off Absurde (Fastnet Rock), Singledon (New Bay) and Pouvoir Royal (Mayson) in a blanket finish, the distances a neck, nose and short neck respectively. Paco is one of two winners from as many runners out of the Listed-placed Momo No Sekku (Leroidesanimaux) and is from the family of Group 1 winners Hartnell (Authorized) and Land Of Plenty (Stratum). Paco Boy stood seven seasons at Highclere Stud until he was sold to Turkey in 2017.

32 for Motivator

Monty (6 g ex Antebellum by Anabaa) broke through at stakes level yesterday in the Grand Prix de Bordeaux (Listed, 1900m) and became the 32nd stakes winner for Motivator (Montjeu). The six-year-old completed a stakes double on the card for trainer Jerome Reynier when beating the favourite Pao Alto (Intello) by a length and three quarters. The progressive gelding was coming off the back of a fourth place finish in the Prix Ganay (Gr 1, 1900m) earlier this month and he was only beaten two and a half lengths in the Prix d'Harcourt (Gr 2, 1800m) last month. He is a half-brother to Listed-placed Victory Bond (Medicean), out of a half-sister to Group 2 winner and Group 1-placed Ziyad (Rock Of Gibraltar). Motivator stands at Haras du Quesnay where his fee this year is €7,000 (approx AUD$11,070).

Four for Cable Bay

King's Lynn (4 g ex Kinematic by Kyllachy) provided the Queen with a Royal winner at Haydock when the four-year-old took out the Achilles Stakes (Listed, 5f) and became the fourth individual stakes winner for former Woodside Park shuttler Cable Bay (Invincible Spirit). The Andrew Balding-trained four-year-old was held up behind the leaders under Oisin Murphy, was ridden to lead a furlong from home and showed his determination when headed in the final 110 yards to rally back and get up by a neck from Moss Gill (No Nay Never). The pair were two lengths clear of Count D'Orsay (Dandy Man) in third. King's Lynn is a homebred full-sister to Group 3 winner Collinsbay, out of the juvenile winner Kinematic (Kyllachy), who is a half-sister to Listed scorer Musical Comedy (Royal Applause). Cable Bay stands at Highclere Stud where his fee this year is £8,000 (approx AUD$14,725).

UK: Pinnacle win for Candy's La Lune

Nottinghamshire Oaks (Listed, 1m2f) winner La Lune (Champs Elysees) followed up her first stakes win last month with another in the Pinnacle Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 4f) at Haydock yesterday for Henry Candy. The five-year-old was ridden by David Probert and having tracked the leaders, she hit the front over two furlongs from home and was pushed out to win comfortably by a length and three quarters from Cabaletta (Mastercraftsman). The favourite Oriental Mystique (Kingman) was a further half a length away in third. The progressive La Lune has now won three of her nine starts.

UK: Career best for Kinross in John of Gaunt

Kinross RACING POST

Kinross (Kingman) returned to collect his first Group race and second stakes success in the John of Gaunt Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Haydock yesterday for Ralph Beckett. The four-year-old was tried at Group 1 level as a juvenile and twice last year, while he finished up taking the Hyde Stakes (Listed, 1m) in November. He started this year with an unsuccessful stint in Meydan, but has benefitted from a break since February and has also since been gelded. Ridden by Frankie Dettori, he hit the front with over a furlong to run and pulled clear to win by a length and a quarter from Njord (Roderic O'Connor), while there was a further length and a half back to Glorious Journey (Dubawi) in third. Kinross holds entries in the Royal Hunt Cup (1m) at Royal Ascot next month and the Sussex Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Goodwood in July.

SAF: Second Group 1 for Derby winner Linebacker

Cape Derby (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Linebacker (Captain Of All) gained a second Group 1 success and third Group race on the bounce at Greyville yesterday in the Daily News 2000 (Gr 1, 2000m), having also taken the Greyville Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) earlier in the month. The Vaughan Marshall-trained three-year-old was sent off as favourite under Grant Van Niekerk and he duly obliged by three quarters of a length from Rascallion (Vercingetorix) and Kommetdieding (Elusive Fort) who were split by a nose respectively for second and third. The top-class Linebacker has now won four of his eight starts and he has never been out of the first two placings.

SAF: Woolavington 2000 for War Of Athena

South African Fillies Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) winner War Of Athena (Act Of War) also gained a second Group 1 and sixth win on the bounce in the Woolavington 2000 (Gr 1, 2000m) at Greyville yesterday. The Paul Matchett-trained three-year-old was sent off as favourite and she returned a decisive two-length winner from Princess Calla (Flower Alley) and Scented Mistress (Master Of My Fate), who were split by a nose for the minor placings. War Of Athena has won nine of her 15 starts and apart from her debut run has never been out of the first three home each time.

DNK: Back-to-back Open Championships for Suspicious Mind

Suspicious Mind (8 g Appeal Au Maitre - Fleur En Fleur by Hernando) completed a hat-trick of wins on the bounce and secured a second Scandinavian Open Championship (Gr 2, 2400m) in succession at Klampenborg yesterday. The Nina Lindberg Lensvik-trained eight-year-old was ridden by Per-Anders Graberg and he was too good for his rivals, prevailing by a length from Giuseppe Piazzi (Galileo) who finished well to snatch second on the line. Suspicious Mind was the champion two-year-old colt in Scandinavia in 2015 and he has now won 18 of his 28 career starts.

161 for Distorted Humor

Gershwin (3 c ex Music Note by A. P. Indy), the half-brother to Dubai World Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Mystic Guide (Ghostzapper), was successful in yesterday's Penn Mile (Gr 3, 8f) at Penn National Racecourse and he became the 161st individual stakes winner for Distorted Humor (Forty Niner). Trained by Mike Stidham, like his brother, the Godolphin homebred tracked the pace on the rain affected track and bursting through three wide from the second turn, he took it up halfway up the stretch and went on to win by two lengths from The King Cheek (Laoban). Chess's Dream (Jess's Dream) was third. Gershwin has now won two of his six starts for prize-money of US$249,600. Distorted Humor stands at WinStar Farm where his fee this year was listed as private, having stood for US$50,000 (approx AUD$38,555) for the previous three years.

UK: Mystery Angel added to Oaks field

The first four home in the Musidora Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 2.5f) at York this month are on course to clash again in the Epsom Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) on Friday after Mystery Angel (Kodi Bear) was yesterday supplemented for the Classic. Trained by George Boughey, Mystery Angel won the Pretty Polly Stakes (Listed, 1m 2f) at Newmarket at the beginning of May before finishing a creditable fourth behind Snowfall (Deep Impact), Noon Star (Galileo) and Teona (Sea The Stars) at York. She was added to the list of 15 possible runners for the £375,000 (AUD$689,400) Group 1 at a cost of £17,000 (AUD$31,250) by her owners, Nick Bradley Racing, after a pleasing gallop at Epsom on Monday.

UK: Al Aasy heads Coronation possibles

Al Aasy (Sea The Stars), a winner of two Group 3 contests this season, will face a maximum of ten rivals in Friday's Coronation Cup (Gr 1, 1m 4f) at Epsom. Albaflora (Muhaarar), who impressed when running away with the Buckhounds Stakes (Listed, 1m 4f) at Ascot this month, has been supplemented for the race by owner Kirsten Rausing.

STALLION WATCH: YOUR ESSENTIAL WEEKLY STALLION BRIEFING

Tiger roars to launch young WA breeders into spotlight

BY ALEX WILTSHIRE | @ANZ_NEWS

Success in the commercial breeding, and racing game more generally, relies heavily on judgement. The judgement to purchase the right stock; the judgement to go to the right stallion; the judgement to go to the right sale.

To have bestowed the accolade of 'being a good judge' is probably the best compliment that can be paid to a breeder or buyer of bloodstock.

And the outstanding victory for Tiger Of Malay (2 c Extreme Choice - Sambar by More Than Ready) in yesterday's BRC Sires' Produce (Gr 2, 1400m) is the culmination of outstanding judgement from two young and fresh participants to the commercial breeding scene.

Under the banner of Ruby Racing and Breeding, based at Kojarena, 30 kilometres east of Geraldton in WA, Jamie O'Bree and her brother, Daniel, bred Tiger Of Malay, the high-class juvenile who emphatically broke through at stakes level at Eagle Farm yesterday, in a result which they hope will propel their fledgling operation to the forefront of the vendor list at yearling sales to come.

"We always knew he had something, but he just needed a bit of a go at it," Jamie O'Bree told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday. "The last few starts he's been quite unlucky and it's just a fantastic result today."

"Tiger himself, he was a quality horse from the very beginning. He had the strength and athleticism about him and I think that's what stood out for the buyers in the Easter Sale."

Another aspect to successful breeding is courage. And just a few years ago the siblings, now aged 24 and 27, took the plunge to inject some impetus into their parents' farm, which was purchased in 2006 and played home to hobbyist breeding in the years since. However, attention has been turned to a commercial focus, and Tiger Of Malay has sent them off to

"Ruby Racing has been a bit of a family business. Between myself and my brother, Daniel, it has been a bit of a family hobby with the racing side, but we've kind of dived into the breeding side of things and we've just recently started to get a bit of a broodmare band together and we just hope we can start producing a few quality horses like Tiger," said O'Bree, the younger of the siblings.

"(Our parents) were moving out of the country and we hadn't started really developing anything at that point and it's gone on from a family tradition and we've carried it on a little bit further and a bit deeper."

Tiger Of Malay is out of the winning More Than Ready (Southern Halo) mare Sambar who, with Tiger Of Malay her third stakes winner from five named foals since her purchase by Ruby Racing and Breeding in 2016, is the first tick in the box for the judgement category.

Shortly after her purchase, first foal Samovare (Savabeel) claimed Group 3 honours in the WA Champions Fillies Stakes (1600m) at Ascot and in 2019 Samizdat (Not A Single Doubt) won the Magic Millions WA 3YO Trophy (RL, 1200m) at Pinjarra, before winning the Asian Beau Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) ahead of Regal Power (Pierro) and the Scenic Blast (Listed, 1200m) in January this year.

"Sambar has been fantastic and it kickstarted what we wanted to do and she's led the way in that," said O'Bree.

"Sambar came to us after a bit of a dispersal by Amelia Park and we did like her pedigree. A bit of a strong mare and we definitely liked her. When we bought her Samidzat was on the ground as a weanling and she was dry at the time.

"Samovare hadn't come up yet. So we bought her and when she was getting in foal that season Samovare came out and won a Group 3 that season and it just kind of followed from there.

"We definitely paid less than what she was worth!"

Next, came the judgement to go to the right stallion. The success of the first crop of Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m)-winning stallion Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) is probably beyond what anyone could have foreseen. However, Daniel's expertise in pedigrees and the early success of the mare, paved the way for Sambar to head east for a covering by what is now, arguably, one of the Hunter's most sought-after sires.

"Daniel is behind the breeding of it, with the pedigrees, and he was certain that Extreme Choice had performed well enough as a racehorse and we thought it was a good suit," said O'Bree.

"Daniel was very happy with it and mum (Bridie O'Bree) agreed, so we went that way and he was the perfect type, in my eyes, for the mare."

The Inglis Easter Sale beckoned, a sale that was favoured over the earlier Magic Millions auction in the belief that Tiger Of Malay would show dramatic improvement over the months between the two sales. And, despite the onset of Covid, O'Bree stuck to her conviction in selling the colt at Easter, and was rewarded with Newgate Farm and China Horse Club purchasing the colt for $255,000.

"Our decision for Easter was that Sambar's progeny tend to do better with time and they tend to mature over a bit more time," explained O'Bree. "We were really happy with how everything was going from January into Easter but obviously Covid happened and it was a little bit of a mess but we still got a good result with Tiger Of Malay."

"We were also expecting Samidzat to come out a little bit too to update the pedigree, so just everything matched to go to Easter, but they're definitely horses that need a bit more time."

Jamie O'Bree retained a share in her prized colt and a debut win in the Kirkham Plate (1000m) followed by a subsequent runner-up effort in the Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) saw Tiger Of Malay become a fixture throughout the autumn two-year-old calendar.

A decision to bypass the Golden Slipper by trainers Richard and Michael Freedman, resulted in a seventh placing in the ATC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), however, Tiger came of age at 'The Farm' to become Extreme Choice's third individual stakes winner, beating Converge (Frankel) and Port Louis (Maurice) in a close finish.

Tiger Of Malay

"We did believe in him from the start, he was just too much of a nice horse, and the progeny, what reports we were getting back, is that they were genuine horses in racing," O'Bree continued.

"In the few starts that Tiger had we were very happy, he tried his hardest every start but he just wasn't lucky and just today he's performed exactly what we thought he would and it's a great result."

Not resting on their laurels, the O'Brees invested at both the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale and the Inglis Australian Broodmare Sale, securing Maia Nebula (Bernardini) for $55,000 in foal to Astern (Medgalia D'Oro) this week, and Bombay (Encosta De Lago) for $30,000 in Sydney.

"We ended up with the mare we actually wanted. We bought her from Godolphin, she's a Bernardini mare in foal to Astern and the cross is running at 17 per cent stakes winners, it is a beautiful cross and we do have a bit of faith in Astern," said O'Bree.

"Initially, we had two or three mares we were breeding with and we've pushed it on and we've got seven or eight going to stud this year. There's a few older mares that will probably retire at the end of it, but we really want to push forward with a few younger mares and see how we go with it."

Since 2020 Ruby Racing and Breeding have consigned at the Perth Magic Millions Sale, selling a Playing God (Blackfriars) colt for $130,000 this year, and with judgement, courage and, of course, a little bit of luck, O'Bree hopes they can become recognised as leading vendors at their home sale.

"Our ambition is to keep producing horses like Tiger, but we'd love a reputation that we produce consistent, genuine Saturday horses, that would be an amazing achievement for us," she said.

"Getting involved in the breeding industry, let alone producing quality horses, is just something else, and we're very proud of the start that we've had."

Double brings up much-needed fillip for Burridge

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

The Steven Burridge yard got a much-needed shot in the arm with a double courtesy of two mildly-fancied runners in Wealth Elite (Midshipman) and Chalaza (Road To Rock) yesterday.

Neither are world beaters, but the Australian handler still welcomed any numbers that can boost a win tally that has struggled to take off this year.

On four winners before Saturday, Burridge has suddenly vaulted over six trainers (Leslie Khoo later passed him again with Charger taking the last) to now sit in 14th place.

With a string scaled back to only 25 horses and no top guns in the ranks, the road ahead is still long and arduous, but the likeable horseman will toast to the two wins.

"We've had a shocking run, but all we can do is just keep trying," he said.

"It was a good day. It's a change of luck for us.

"Look at Chalaza. It's good for the stable and Julie (Burridge) as this horse is getting on at eight and hasn't won for 1182 days!

"He's sound and honest, and it was good to see him win again. We thought Red Rover would be hard to beat, not to mention my horse was three wide, but he won a nice race."

The eight-year-old ($59) plotted a wide course smothered in midfield, but pinged beautifully under Wong Chin Chuen's hard riding to go and reel in a rejuvenated Qaraat (Mossman) for a one-length victory.

Favourite Red Rover (O'Reilly) somehow lost a couple of lengths midrace, but recovered in the home straight to take third place another length and a half away. The winning time was 1min 11.61secs for the Polytrack 1200m.

Jockey Jimmy Wong also rode Burridge's first leg of the Saturday two-timer, Wealth Elite ($38).

The Brazilian-bred four-year-old came from well back to score going away from Super Smart (Big Brown) two and a one-quarter lengths astern with Al Green (Exchange Rate) third another length away. The winning time was 1min 11.61secs for the 1200m on the Polytrack.

Chalaza

Wealth Elite has now taken his record to three wins, one second and one third from 14 starts for stakes earnings around the S$85,000 mark for the Loti-A Stable while Chalaza, who is twice as age, boasts a much thicker record of six wins, six seconds and eight thirds from 52 starts for prize-money that has now hit around the S$365,000 mark for Julie Burridge's J Racing Bloodstock No 3 Stable.

Hard Too Think too good at first 2000m test

Hard Too Think (All Too Hard) proved he was a future stayer in the making after a solid win in the S$50,000 Class 4 race over 2000m.

Trainer Stephen Gray was a happy man after the win, especially as he had always seen a career as such for the gelding at Kranji, with the ultimate prize, the Singapore Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) at the end of the year (November 11) already in his sights.

The Singapore Derby (Gr 1, 1800m) on July 25 looms as an earlier event the four-year-old is eligible for, but Gray would only be sidetracked into a more testing Weight-for-Age race if Hard Too Think qualifies.

"He could be my Gold Cup horse in November. He proved today he could run 2000m," said the Kiwi handler.

"As for the Derby, he needs to earn a few more points, there is this one Class 3 race over 1800m, which I suppose he could run in.

"Whether he gets in, it's the same old story with handicap and Weight-for-Age races. But there are limited options for such races, that's the problem.

"I'm not sure who will get in the Derby, but I think the competition is not overly strong. Marc (Lerner) also told me today he would like a wet track even better."

The French jockey delivered a textbook ride on Hard Too Think, taking a nice drop before upping the ante upon straightening and duly charging forward down the middle of the track, even if as the archetype stayer, he was more grinder than spectacular inside the last furlong.

Along the rails, Meryl (Rock 'N' Pop) had a crack, but had to settle for second place three parts of a length away. Gray's second runner King's Speech (Darci Brahma) took third place another two and a quarter lengths away.

Sent out at $21, Hard Too Think clocked 2min 3.96secs for the 2000m on the Short Course, and was bringing up his third win from nine starts for prize-money that has hit around the S$115,000 mark for a syndicate put together under the Stephen Gray Racing Stable.

"I bought him at the Gold Coast yearling sale and sent him to New Zealand. I syndicated him as a yearling, there weren't many people on board at first," said Gray.

"He was shinsore, but they told me not to worry too much as he goes good. He's now got a good bunch of owners, some new and they're all excited."

The return of Prodigal to show how he functions

Standby starter Prodigal (Proisir) landed a big win along with a backstory that was full of quirks, not just for himself but also for his interestingly-named group of owners.

Trainer Michael Clements had for one all along described the New Zealand-bred three-year-old as "physically well developed, but mentally behind".

That waywardness was well put in a nutshell at his debut in a Restricted Maiden race over six furlongs on May 9, when well backed, but straightaway gave his backers few reasons to cheer with an erratic run on a wide path throughout.

Clements must have thought they would have to go back to the drawing board when an equally hot-headed Prodigal did not give any suggestion he had mended his ways while parading as a promoted starter (with the scratching of Classic Thirtysix) to Saturday's $S75,000 Restricted Maiden race over 1400m.

Punters had, however, not totally deserted him as his $S51 odds would suggest, but they were about to doubt the wisdom of that unflinching support.

The race got underway without any hiccup with Shafrizal Saleh able to slot the chestnut gelding into the box-seat behind race-leader Ibex (Dream Ahead), but the Malaysian rider was soon in for a torrid time restraining his overracing mount, who was seen clambering on heels as the leaders stacked up the speed.

Turning for home, things got even hairier as he got trapped behind the weakening Ibex, but Shafrizal, knowing he had a coil spring ready to release all his pent-up energy underneath him, went for desperate measures.

Going for a sharp turn towards daylight on the outside, they bumped into stablemate Starfortune (Pierro) in the process, but once the gangly gelding was in the clear, he went through his gears like the good horse his connections were always confident he was.

Prodigal

Golden Sprint (Contributor) looked home and hosed as he stormed in on the outside, but Prodigal sprouted wings to dash past him for a half-length win. Favourite Ace Sovereign (Darci Brahma) was in the mix inside the last two furlongs but had to settle for third another length and a quarter away. Prodigal ran the 1400m on the Short Course in 1min 23.75secs.

"We've always rated him. He started as favourite first-up, but he was mentally not there yet, even if he's got ability," said Clements.

"He's physically well developed but he's mentally behind. Today, he was still not good in the parade ring and on the way out, but he was more settled around horses in the running. He also met with some traffic jam in the straight. He's an awkward horse to ride and his saddle slipped, too, but Shafrizal knows him very well.

"Under strong riding, he got up in the concluding stages. He's definitely a horse with a future."

That would be music to the ears of his new owners, who go by the offbeat name of The Functioning Degenerates, a bunch of Australians headed by Jake and Robbie Smith from Melbourne.

"They're a group of guys in Australia. They are old friends with my B trainer Michael White," said Clements.

"They've supported the stable with this one, whom I bought at the breeze-ups in New Zealand. They've got a few more young ones coming through, a couple in pre-training in Australia and one in Argentina.

"I guess they picked a name that does reflect what they think of themselves. In any case, it doesn't matter what name you choose in horse racing!"

Three-year-olds Sahabat (Foxwedge) and Al Meqdam (Exceed And Excel) brought up a training treble for Clements.

Contrary to Prodigal, both Sahabat ($13) and Al Meqdam ($18) enjoyed much cleaner air in their all-the-way wins in the $S30,000 Class 5 Division 1 race over 1100m and $S20,000 Open Maiden race over 1400m respectively. Both Clements gallopers were ridden by four-time Singapore champion jockey Vlad Duric, who went on to claim a hat-trick of his own aboard pick-up ride Gold Kingdom (Animal Kingdom) for trainer Tan Kah Soon in the $S30,000 Class 5 race over 1600m.

With the big haul, Clements reclaims the lead and some breathing space (three winners) from Mark Walker with whom the Singapore champion trainer was tied on 32 winners before the start of Saturday proceedings.

One winner who gave the Zimbabwean-born conditioner a similar kick to Prodigal's - minus the innuendos about mental conditions, tongue-in-cheek or otherwise - had to be Sahabat.

"Similar to Prodigal, we rated Sahabat. He was well-backed first-up but mentally, he was not ready yet," he said.

"He won his trials, he looked good in the paddock but he was showing nothing in his races. He was doing it back to front, he was doing too much too early, he compounded and showed no finish. We've taught him to settle down in his trials and we felt he was going to go much better today."

Analysis: The Chris Waller-trained Kukeracha followed his promising second, when stepping up in distance in the Rough Habit Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) recently at Doomben, with a narrow but very good win here. He enjoyed a nice trip under James McDonald back in seventh place on the rails, before improving between runners nearing the turn. He took a split halfway down the straight, challenged strongly shortly afterwards, and fought best to claim victory in a photo. His stablemate Senor Toba raced back in tenth place, tracked up (wide with cover) nearing the turn, continued a solid run to challenge at the 100m and battled gamely for (half-head) second. The favourite Dynamite Jack settled well for John Allen back in ninth place on the rails, improved between runners coming to the turn, took a split to challenge at the 200m, and then fought well for third. Achiever raced in third spot, took the lead on straightening, then held on gamely for (1.6 lengths) fourth. Horrifying steadily made ground from the tail of the field for (4.1 lengths) fifth in a sound effort, advancing in distance and class here. Analysis: Vega One, who showed he was approaching his best form with a close-up fourth in the recent Doomben 10,000 (1200m) when having his third run back from injury, returned to the winners' list in decisive manner by taking out this Group 1 feature. He was ridden quietly by Jamie Kah from his difficult barrier (13) and was still near last coming to the turn. He searched for runs on straightening, forced a narrow gap at the 100m, and then came with a brilliant burst to score a very good win. His Tony Gollan-trained stablemate Jonker showed his customary pace and led the field, fought off challengers in the straight, only to be claimed in the dying stages for (half-length) second. Signore Fox settled towards the rear of the field on the rails, improved nearer the inner on turning for home, took a split to challenge at the 200m, and fought gamely for a close-up third. Trekking raced just beyond midfield (wide with cover) before improving (deep) coming to the turn. He then put in a strong bid, looking dangerous at the 200m, and then fought well for (0.8 lengths) fourth with Victorem also fighting on well for fifth, beaten a length, after being ninth at the home turn. The favourite Savatino raced in sixth place (wide with cover), loomed nearing the 200m, before battling on over the latter stages to finish (1.8 lengths) ninth. [KB]

ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Inglis
 Est 1867

Analysis: Tiger Of Malay, who had raced quite well without winning in four runs in Group class this preparation, broke through with an impressive victory here. He settled well in sixth place, wide with cover, under Craig Williams before switching out to make his move at the turn. He then dashed to the front at the 200m and drew away to score decisively. Converge settled near last from his difficult barrier (15) and was still well back at the turn before coming with an eye-catching run when clear too late for an unlucky second. Port Louis settled beyond midfield on the rails from his wide barrier (15), looked for runs between runners on straightening, got through to challenge nearing the 100m, and then fought well for third. Overpass was handily placed on the rails, just behind the leaders. He got along the inner at the 200m and then fought quite well for (3.1 lengths) fourth. Giannis kept battling on solidly in the straight for (3.3 lengths) fifth, while Prince Of Boom was caught three deep outside the leaders and weakened to finish 12th, his first defeat in three starts. Then followed: Palladas (AUS), Midland (AUS), Glitter Strip (AUS), Aim (AUS), Count De Rupee (AUS), Simply Fly (AUS), Holyfield (AUS), Not An Option (AUS) & Exoboom (AUS), last.

Analysis: Nutter late at his previous start but a Listed winner the start before that, Apache Chase held off the boom horse, Victorian raider Ayrton, in good style here claiming his fifth career win (all at Eagle Farm) and third stakes. He went straight to the front and led by a half length at the 1200m and by a little less at the 1000m. Inside the 800m he had a length to spare, and two lengths rounding into the straight. From the top of the straight he was clear, seemed to be in for an easy win, but over the last 100m the challenges were thick and fast, yet he held on in game fashion by a head. Ayrton sat third in the clear past the 800m, lost ground but not his position from the 600m, and accelerated quickly to be handy starting the run home. He was not making much impression until the 150m, where he looked a danger, but the winner dug deep late to hold him out. A huge run from Amish Boy who was last turning in and kept a strong run one off the fence, then along the fence, all the way to the post for a close third. Palladas also finished well from midfield when clear for a solid and close up fourth. Analysis: Enjoying his winter in Brisbane, Reloaded made it back-to-back stakes and career win three at start 18 after a great ride by James McDonald, who had him second away but settled fourth (rails) past the 1600m. There was no change past the 1200m, or the 800m, but McDonald pushed him forward from the 600m, and at the top of the straight he moved out three wide to challenge. He went up to share the lead at the 300m, took over soon after, led by a length inside the 200m and they couldn't catch him, still clear by a length at the line. So You Win was fourth-last past the 1000m, improved to be midfield rounding into the straight, then weaved between runners the length of the straight for a good second when clear. Homesman was second at the 800m, levelled up to the leader rounding into the straight and led them in. He was caught at the 300m, but fought really well to the line for third. From well back Vanna Girl accelerated hard from the 600m, was widest at the 400m, and kept going gamely for fourth. [LJ]

Analysis: British-bred Spirit Ridge staged a solid staying performance in winning here, his sixth win and his third stakes victory since coming to Australia. He travelled nicely back in sixth place, tracking a solid mid-race tempo before improving on straightening. He then kept running on gamely to claim victory in the final stages. Carif had a nice trip in fourth place and momentarily looked the winner when he raced clear on passing the 200m, only to be overhauled nearing the post for (half-head) second after running a bold race. Paths Of Glory raced near the tail of the 12-runner field to the 600m. He went deep at the turn and kept finishing solidly for third. Rondinella was near last to the turn, eased deeper at the 300m, and finished quite well to take (1.6 lengths) fourth with Lord Belvedere also making last ground for (3.1 lengths) fifth. The favourite Le Don De Vie led but was pressured from the 800m (by Romakash) and faded in the straight to finish (3.7 lengths) seventh. [KB]

Analysis: Track specialist The Velvet King was too strong fresh up here, taking his record to eight wins (four stakes) at start 23. He was handy but wide early but was able to drop in closer to the rail, past the 800m in fourth, one out. Approaching the 600m he moved out again and rounding into the straight was poised to challenge three wide. He took until the 200m to get near the leader but caught her at the 100m, then went on for a fairly comfortable win by a length and three quarters. Valour Road sat midfield, one out from the 800m, went four wide rounding into the straight and tried to get on the winner's back. He kept going well but was never going to pass the winner. Dance Music led them past the 600m and starting the run home slipped clear. Still a length up at the 200m, she was collared by the winner at the 100m and then battled away for third. Dig Deep was well back at the top of the straight and finished very well to grab fourth in the last few strides. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE

Analysis: Although very green, Atullibigeal stormed clear over the last 150m for the easiest of wins, his second (maiden stakes) at start five. He was smartly away but drawn wide was forced to drop back and settled fourth-last past the 1200m and third-last at the 800m. From the 600m he went forward and rounding into the straight was midfield but widest. Into the straight he balanced then wobbled, bumped a runner on his inner, but settled down to chase the leaders. Still running around, he took over the lead inside the 200m, led by more than a length at the 100m, and then strolled clear for an impressive win by three lengths. Lady Maroal sat midfield, three out past the 800m, moved up four wide to be fourth rounding in, then formed a line of five across the track at the 300m. She and the winner had a brief tussle, but she had no answer when the winner shot clear. There You Go sat sixth rounding in, was blocked at the 300m, but came on fairly for a distant third when clear. From well back, Mustang Valley plugged home for fourth. [LJ]

Analysis: The Godolphin-raced mare Exhilarates staged a good effort in overcoming her difficult barrier (13) to record her sixth win and her third stakes success in 22 starts in scoring here. Kerrin McEvoy rode her patiently and she settled back in 12th place before tracking up (behind runners) coming to the home turn. She then sprinted well, coming with a well-timed late bid to win. The favourite Sweet Deal also went back from a wide barrier (11) and settled near the tail of the 17-runner field until the turn. She then tracked the eventual winner on turning for home, and kept making late ground to take (0.8 lengths) second. Threeood was back in tenth place at the turn before finishing well for third. Lyre was seventh at the home turn, moved up well at the 200m, and then fought on for (1.1 lengths) fourth. VERDICT A wide open handicap in which several can be given chances. The Joy Of Giving must surely go well if replicating his form from four weeks ago, while his old rival Amazing Agility appeals as one of the most likely to give his running. However, the drop into Class 5 company might be enough to allow LUCKY MISSILE to get his head back in front. Although better known for his exploits at Happy Valley, he has run a couple of decent races here in recent times and Zac Purton taking over in the saddle is another boost to his claims.

●SAM'S LOVE includes 2lb possible overweight

BETTING FORECAST: 12-2 Peach Blossoms, 9-2 Sam's Love, 11-2 Pure Legend, 15-2 Plikclone, 12 Light Of Wanshi, My Ecstatic, Smart Folks, Speed Fay Fay, 14 Sprint Forward, 16 Immense Hedge, Seize The Spirit, 33 Prime Star, Wisdom Patch, 50 Pichu.

VERDICT An improved showing saw Peach Blossoms defeat several of these rivals in a similar contest last time out and he is entitled to plenty of respect again despite a 5lb rise in the weights. Sam's Love is also worthy of consideration, though preference is for PURE LEGEND, who is ridden by Joao Moreira for the first time today. He looked a winner-in-waiting when placed in a Class 3 contest over C&D in February, yet has dropped considerably in the weights just a few starts later. He can capitalise on his easing mark and gain a first success in Hong Kong.

VERDICT There could still be more improvement to come from Hong Kong Derby winner SKY DARCI, who might well benefit from today's drop back in trip. He gets the nod ahead of More Than This, who went very close in the Group 1 Champions Mile over C&D last month. Last year's winner Ka Ying Star also has a significant role to play.

VERDICT A very useful sort in Ireland, the recent efforts of CALIFORNIA TEN have suggested he has started to acclimatise to Hong Kong life. He beat four of these last time and this extra furlong should allow him to confirm that superiority. Dynamic Eagle remains in sparkling form and may chase him home while Perfect To Great could thrive at this new trip so makes each-way appeal.

VERDICT Progressive 4yo LUCKY FUN shaped very much as though today's step up in trip will suit when finishing well to dead-head with Sunset Watch over 6f on dirt in March and gets the nod. Star Performance has been knocking on the door lately and is feared most, ahead of Meridian Genius.

VERDICT Mighty Valor ran a big race from the front before losing out by just a head over C&D three weeks ago and can probably cope with today's 3lb higher mark but preference is for DUBLIN STAR, who didn't have much luck when fifth here on his last two outings and has become well handicapped now. War Weapon has apparently been snubbed by Joao Moreira today but his Hong Kong debut in February was very encouraging.

VERDICT Another chance is given to SIGHT SUCCESS, who suffered setback when only sixth here on his latest start but looked a very good prospect when winning his first three races and remains lightly raced. Lucky Patch chased home last weekend's Group 3 winner Courier Wonder over C&D last month and has a much better draw today, while a good case can also be made for Trillion Win.
